▶ not definitely tentatively The animal was tentatively identified as a brown rat on the basis of size, but it could have been a different type of rat.
▶ formally or officially formally The body has been formally identified as that of James Smith.

2 to recognize something that needs dealing with

● V+n problem or fault deficiencies, failings, problem, shortcomings, shortfall, weakness Both studies have identified the same weakness with the method of measuring pollution.
▶ danger danger, hazard, risk The report identifies the business risks and shows how they can be minimised.
▶ cause cause, factor, source This chapter explains how to identify factors that may interfere with normal wound healing.
▶ something that needs to be done needs, priorities, requirement There are a number of areas where the company has identified the need for further improvements.

- and/or address, assess, evaluate Its recommendations had strongly urged farmers to identify and address hazards on their farms.

identity N

1 who someone is, their name, address etc

- adj+N incorrect mistaken Police believe the shooting was a case of mistaken identity.
- ▶ true true Though he is pressed to reveal his true identity, he tells only the king.
- ▶ not true assumed, false, stolen He had registered under an assumed identity.
- v+N prove your identity authenticate, confirm, prove, verify He was released, after the police verified his identity.
- ▶ check that someone is who they say they are check You should always check the identity of any caller.
- ▶ show your identity disclose, divulge, reveal The graffiti artist 'Banksy' has been pressed to reveal his identity.
- ▶ take someone else's identity for criminal purposes assume, steal Any personal documents you throw away can be used to steal your identity.
- ▶ discover someone's identity ascertain, discover Police are trying to discover the identity of a woman whose body was found in woodland last night.
- N+n something that proves your identity badge, card, document, tag If a caller asks to come in, request to see their identity card.
- ▶ crimes related to identity fraud, scam, theft I am moving house and I am worried about the next occupants using my mail for identity theft.
- ▶ check check We carry out identity checks on all new staff.

2 the qualities that make someone what they are and make them different from others

- adj+N of a nation, place, or people cultural, ethnic, national, racial, regional, tribal The community is well-integrated but has also retained its distinctive cultural identity within Birmingham.
- ▶ of an organization corporate In today's business world it is important to develop an effective corporate identity.
- ▶ shared by a large group collective, common, communal, shared The women had forged a collective identity as young feminists.
- ▶ personal individual, own, personal He had a strong sense of personal identity.
- ▶ clearly different from others distinct, distinctive, separate, strong, unique Scotland has a distinct identity.
- v+N create or develop an identity construct, create, define, develop, establish, forge, shape The company has firmly established its identity on the British high street.
- ▶ keep your identity and not change it maintain, preserve, retain Many people moving to Britain feel it is important to retain their own cultural identity.
- ▶ lose your identity lose She felt she had lost some of her identity since getting married.
- ▶ make your identity clear to other people affirm, assert They have tried to assert their own regional identity.

ideology N

a system of ideas and principles

- adj+N current and main dominant, hegemonic, prevailing, ruling The dominant ideology in the US and Europe is capitalism.
- ▶ with extreme or unacceptable ideas extremist, fascist, fundamentalist, perverted, racist, totalitarian This is a far right white supremacist party with a fascist ideology.
- ▶ relating to business or economics capitalist, consumerist, free-market, market, neo-liberal The recent economic downturn has weakened the dominance of neo-liberal economic ideologies.
- ▶ religious/not religious religious, secular The predominantly secular ideology of western Europe is being challenged.
- ▶ political bourgeois, communist, conservative, liberal, Marxist, socialist What is the place of the individual in conservative ideology?
- v+N have an ideology adopt, embrace, espouse, share How can the state be racist and espouse an ideology of multiculturalism?
- ▶ disagree with an ideology challenge, oppose, reject Marxism and feminism both challenge this ideology.
- ▶ try to make more people agree with an ideology peddle, promote, propagate, spread You're promoting an egalitarian ideology and you have to convince people.

idle ADJ

1 not being used

- v+ADJ be left, lie, remain, sit, stand There's even a built-in screensaver if the screen sits idle for too long.

2 without real purpose or effect

- ADJ+n talk banter, chatter, chit-chat, gossip, talk There was no time for idle chatter.
- ▶ wondering if something is true curiosity, speculation They had come to look out of idle curiosity.
- ▶ statement boast, threat She talked about taking legal action, and this was no idle threat.

ignite V

to cause conflict, strong feelings etc

- V+n debate or criticism controversy, debate, outrage, protest The announcement has ignited an intense public debate.
- ▶ war revolution, war He blamed foreign terrorists for trying to ignite civil war.
- ▶ thoughts and feelings enthusiasm, imagination, passion, spark This trip ignited in me a passion for travel. ● It was my English teacher who first ignited a spark of interest in languages.

ignorance N

a lack of knowledge or information

- adj+N great or complete complete, profound, sheer, total, utter Inaccurate information is more dangerous than total ignorance.

- ▸ shocking abysmal, astonishing, gross, inexcusable, lamentable, staggering, woeful The author displays a staggering ignorance of the subject.
- ▸ deliberate wilful These people refuse, through wilful ignorance, to take the trouble to understand science.
- ▸ on the part of many people general, widespread There is widespread ignorance about the causes of the disease.

Blissful ignorance is a state in which you do not know about something unpleasant, so it does not make you unhappy: It is better to know the unpleasant truth than to live in blissful ignorance.

- • v+N show ignorance betray, demonstrate, display, reveal, show Their attitudes reveal a profound ignorance of the countryside and agriculture.
- ▸ claim or admit ignorance admit, claim, confess, plead, profess Don't be afraid to admit your ignorance by asking questions.

You say Excuse my ignorance or Forgive my ignorance when you are asking a question that someone might expect you to know the answer to: Excuse my ignorance, but what does 'PCD' stand for?

- ▸ when someone pretends not to know something affect, feign, pretend He feigned ignorance when she asked him about the letter.
- ▸ try to stop ignorance combat, eradicate, fight, overcome They understand the importance of education in combating ignorance.
- ▸ be caused by ignorance be based on Negative stereotypes are most often based on ignorance.
- • N+of fact or existence existence, fact, reality, truth For six months, we remained in complete ignorance of the fact.
- ▸ subject affair, issue, matter, subject He freely admits his ignorance of such subjects as the arts.
- ▸ law or rules law, procedure, regulation, rules Ignorance of the law is no excuse.
- • v+in+N act, be kept, leave sb, live, remain The country has been kept in ignorance for too long. ◉ I allowed her to remain in ignorance of his intentions.
- • n+of+N admission, amount, degree, display, level, sign The statement shows a profound level of ignorance about the role of the Welsh language in our society.

ignorant ADJ

not knowing something you should know, or not knowing the right way to behave

- • adv+ADJ very or completely entirely, profoundly, totally, utterly, wholly So many people are totally ignorant of the real situation.
- ▸ in a way that shocks abysmally, appallingly, deplorably, grossly, woefully Most of these politicians are woefully ignorant of the countryside and its wild animals and birds.
- ▸ deliberately wilfully Many are wilfully ignorant; others know the truth and do not care.
- ▸ to a great extent largely The public is still largely ignorant of this controversy.

If you say that someone is blissfully ignorant, you mean that they do not know an unpleasant fact, and so they do not worry: Juliet's father was blissfully ignorant of his daughter's condition.

- • ADJ+n ordinary people masses, people, public The ignorant masses blame the scientists for inventing these weapons.
- ▸ stupid person fool, idiot We country people are not all ignorant fools, you know.
- • v+ADJ appear, be, be kept, feel, remain, seem Why are ordinary people kept ignorant of what is happening in the world? ◉ The general public remains largely ignorant about environmental awareness.

ignore V

not consider or pay attention to someone or something

- • adv+V completely altogether, completely, entirely, totally Parents' views were completely ignored.
- ▸ almost almost, virtually The press virtually ignored the story as not being newsworthy.
- ▸ deliberately or in a way that shows you do not care blatantly, blithely, deliberately, flagrantly, pointedly, studiously, wilfully The facts have been blithely ignored by politicians and the media.
- ▸ just just, simply They ask a lot of questions, and then simply ignore the answers.
- ▸ by most people or in most cases generally, largely, mostly, universally, widely Notices about not leaving litter are largely ignored.
- ▸ often, and in a systematic way persistently, systematically The research literature has systematically ignored these findings.
- ▸ in a way that suits someone well conveniently, quietly His article conveniently ignores the fact that many of those interviewed expressed no preference.
- • V+n fact or existence evidence, existence, fact, possibility, reality It is quite unwise to ignore these facts.
- ▸ advice advice, warning It is clear that many people ignored the safety warnings.
- ▸ request, order, or rule demand, instruction, order, plea, question, regulation, request My father was obviously in distress, but his pleas were ignored.
- ▸ remark comment, insult, remark Ignoring these remarks, I got into the car and drove away.
- ▸ protest protest 'Be quiet,' he said, ignoring her protests.
- ▸ threat threat Just ignore any threats and don't respond to emails from strangers.
- ▸ problem or danger danger, issue, problem, risk Their transport policies blithely ignore the risk of environmental disaster.

ill ADJ

not healthy; having a medical condition

- • adv+ADJ very critically, dangerously, desperately, extremely, gravely, really, seriously, severely, very He phoned, saying that his wife had been taken seriously ill.
- ▸ rather pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather By that stage I was feeling quite ill.

- ▶ in a way that cannot be cured fatally, incurably, mortally, terminally The centre offers care for terminally ill children.
- ▶ in the mind mentally Many mentally ill patients are cared for in the community.
- ▶ when someone becomes ill very quickly and seriously acutely Elderly people were blocking beds that were needed for acutely ill patients.
- ▶ when someone is ill for a long time chronically The work involved in caring for a chronically ill relative may lead to family conflicts.

- • v+ADJ become, be taken, fall, feel, get, make sb My father fell seriously ill last month. ◦ All the stress at work had made her ill.

illegal ADJ
not allowed by the law

- • adv+ADJ completely completely, highly, totally In the United Kingdom, all handguns are completely illegal.
- ▶ according to a strict understanding of the rules strictly, technically The sale of this type of meat is technically illegal.
- ▶ in an obvious way blatantly, clearly, patently We need to fight this type of blatantly illegal behaviour.
- ▶ possibly possibly, potentially, probably These activities are potentially illegal – and certainly dangerous.

- • v+ADJ be, become, consider sth, declare sth, deem sth, make sth, remain, rule sth In 2002, it became illegal for schools to discriminate against students with disabilities in any way. ◦ The demonstrations were declared illegal on election day.

illicit ADJ
not approved of, or not allowed by the law or rules

- • ADJ+n activity or use activity, use The organization's funds come from illicit activity.
- ▶ particular activity copying, distillation, import, manufacture, trade, traffic, trafficking The music industry is experiencing serious harm from illicit copying of online music.
- ▶ item arms, drug, heroin, imports, substance, weapons, whisky He moved to Scotland, where he began to produce illicit whisky.
- ▶ relationship affair, liaison, sex He had allegedly conducted an illicit affair with a married woman.

illiteracy N
inability to read or write

- • v+N combat, eliminate, eradicate, reduce, tackle In 2008 the charity received a UNESCO award for its work in combatting illiteracy across the world.

- • and/or disease, ignorance, poverty, unemployment They launched a huge education program to tackle widespread illiteracy and ignorance.

illness N
the state of being ill or a period of being ill

- • adj+N serious critical, debilitating, life-threatening, serious, severe Have you had a serious illness in the past six months?
- ▶ not serious mild, minor Many minor illnesses, such as colds and flu, are caused by a virus.
- ▶ becoming serious very quickly acute There was a special area where accidents and cases of acute illness could be treated.
- ▶ lasting a long time chronic, lingering, long, long-standing, long-term Nocturnal enuresis (bed-wetting) is the most common chronic childhood illness.
- ▶ that cannot be cured fatal, life-limiting, terminal Hospices are institutions that care for people with terminal illnesses.
- ▶ getting worse over time degenerative, progressive Alcoholism is a progressive illness, which only gets worse.
- ▶ affecting your mind depressive, mental, psychiatric, psychotic, stress-related Most people are likely to suffer mental illness at some point in their lives.
- ▶ affecting children childhood The leaflet gives information on how to deal with minor childhood illnesses.

- • v+N have an illness experience, have, suffer, suffer from Over half a million people in the UK suffer from stress-related illness.
- ▶ start to have an illness catch, contract, develop, get He died shortly after the war from an illness he had contracted in the prisoner-of-war camp.
- ▶ bear an illness bear, endure She died after a long illness which she bore with great patience and dignity.
- ▶ recognize and treat an illness cure, diagnose, manage, treat Managing chronic illness in elderly patients is one of the main tasks of the general practitioner. ◦ The pharmacist can give you advice on treating minor illnesses.
- ▶ fight or recover from an illness cope with, deal with, fight, get over, overcome, recover from I am taking vitamin and zinc tablets to get over this illness.
- ▶ pretend to have an illness fake, feign She took time off work, feigning illness and not answering the phone.
- ▶ die as a result of an illness die from Pearson died from a long-term illness in 1998.

- • N+v happen arise, occur, strike Accidents and illnesses often occur when people are stressed.
- ▶ affect someone affect sb, afflict sb Asthma is the most common chronic illness affecting children worldwide.
- ▶ cause someone to be unable to live normally handicap sb, incapacitate sb, weaken sb How will you manage financially if you are incapacitated by illness?
- ▶ have a particular effect cause sth, mean sth, result in sth Serious mental illness often results in social isolation.
- ▶ happen as a result of something be caused by sth, result from sth He died after a short illness resulting from an accident.
- ▶ become worse progress, worsen The pain usually gets worse as the illness progresses.
- ▶ cause a lot of problems for someone beset sb, blight sth, plague sb Since March last year, he has been plagued by two serious illnesses.

- • n+of+N bout, case, episode, onset, outbreak, period, recurrence He has suffered from several episodes of mental illness over the past two years. • Children will be infectious for quite some time after the onset of the illness.

illusion N

a false belief or idea, or an effect that is different from what is real

- adj+N relating to the senses auditory, optical, perceptual, sensory, visual You will be amazed by optical illusions such as the 'floating finger' and the impossible triangle.
- ▸ presented to an audience magical, spectacular, theatrical Messel was a master of theatrical illusion.
- ▸ when something is only an illusion mere, pure, simple Is the concept of choice a mere illusion?
- ▸ false false Don't be under any false illusions. This is going to be hard work!
- ▸ relating to a belief that things are better than they really are comforting, grand, romantic, vain Fortunately, when they chose life on the farm, they had no romantic illusions.
- v+N create an illusion create, give 'Perspective' is the way that artists create an illusion of a three dimensional image on a two-dimensional surface.
- ▸ have an illusion be under, cherish, entertain, foster, harbour, have, labour under I harbour no illusions about the time and effort needed to solve this problem. • Please don't labour under the illusion that you can always join the union 'when something goes wrong'.
- ▸ destroy an illusion destroy, dispel, shatter, spoil The attack destroyed any illusion that we are safe in the world.
- ▸ make sure that people continue to have an illusion maintain, perpetuate, preserve, reinforce, sustain They want to sustain the illusion that they are in control.

illustrate V

1 show what something is like or that something is true

- adv+V above, amply, below, clearly, dramatically, effectively, neatly, nicely, perfectly, starkly, vividly, well The information is illustrated in the table below. • This novel illustrates perfectly how money does not create happiness. • The study starkly illustrates the problems facing younger workers today.
- V+n idea, fact, or opinion argument, aspect, concept, fact, point, principle Two examples from my own experience will illustrate my point.
- ▸ how important something is importance These results illustrate the importance of the Web in Higher Education.
- ▸ how difficult something is complexity, difficulty I mention this fact only to illustrate the complexity of the situation.
- ▸ problem danger, dilemma, problem The results of the study illustrate the dilemmas faced by primary school teachers.
- ▸ way of doing something approach, method In each section, the author has given practical examples to illustrate the methods he describes.
- v+to+V attempt, seek, serve, try The following images attempt to illustrate this point. • An example will serve to illustrate how this process can be of help.

2 provide the pictures for a book

- adv+V in an attractive way attractively, beautifully, colourfully, sumptuously, superbly She edited a series of books on ceramics, all superbly illustrated.
- ▸ with a large number of illustrations copiously, fully, generously, lavishly, liberally, profusely, richly The volume is lavishly illustrated with 175 photos, most in colour.

Usage Illustrate is almost always passive in the adv+V combinations shown above.

illustration N

an example that shows that something is true or that makes something easier to understand

- adj+N clear, excellent, good, graphic, perfect, practical, striking, useful, vivid The huge interest in the creature was a vivid illustration of the British love of animals.
- v+N give an illustration give, offer, present, provide The author gives us helpful illustrations of the problems involved and ways to solve them. • The project provides a good illustration of how people can learn to work together effectively.
- ▸ use something as an illustration give sth as, offer sth as, take sth as, use sth as I will take a recent incident as an illustration of my point.
- ▸ be an illustration be, serve as This is not an exhaustive list but it can serve as an illustration of the way in which sport can promote community spirit.

image N

1 other people's opinion of something, or the opinion that you try to create in other people's minds

- adj+N good positive, the right We produce books which give positive images of disabled people.
- ▸ bad negative, poor, tarnished, the wrong All these news stories have given the industry a tarnished image.
- ▸ relating to work or a company brand, corporate, professional Your website should closely reflect your corporate image.
- v+N present an image convey, have, maintain, present, project It is important that we project the right image.
- ▸ encourage an image promote The aim of the club is to promote a positive image of motorcycling.
- ▸ get rid of an image rid yourself of, shake, shed Cornell is trying to shed his rock star image.
- N+n problem The nuclear industry has always had an image problem.

2 a picture or idea in your mind [usually singular]

- adj+N in your mind mental Having learnt the word 'dog', we now have a mental image of a dog every time we hear the word.
- ▸ clear powerful, vivid I still have a vivid image of my grandfather reading me a story.
- ▸ lasting for a long time enduring, indelible One of the most enduring images of London is of a city wrapped in a blanket of fog.

▸ held by many people popular, stereotypical For many people, the word 'granny' brings to mind the sterotypical image of an old lady who stays at home baking cookies and knitting.
▸ making you remember something evocative The book is packed with evocative images of the past.
▸ ideal ideal Every culture has a different ideal image of beauty.

• v+N have an image in your mind have I still have the image of her sweet little face in my mind.
▸ make an image appear in your mind bring to mind, call to mind, conjure, conjure up, evoke, summon up The guitar music conjures up images of a warm summer night in Spain.

3 a picture

• adj+N impressive dramatic, enduring, evocative, iconic, memorable, powerful, striking, stunning, vivid The judges are looking for striking images: pictures that tell a story.
▸ disturbing or unpleasant disturbing, shocking, violent Parents will want to discuss any disturbing images on the news with their children.

imagery N

pictures, objects or the use of words that represent an idea

• adj+N strong evocative, powerful, startling, striking, stunning, vivid We're using striking imagery to create maximum impact.
▸ religious biblical, religious Some of the larger paintings use religious imagery as a source.
▸ relating to how people see things in their minds mental, symbolic, visual The process of translating words on a screen into mental imagery has the same effect as the magic that happens in a theatre.
▸ expressing ideas with imagination lyrical, poetic He doesn't use poetic imagery and metaphor for its own sake – only when it enhances the narrative.
▸ produced using electronic equipment computer-generated, digital, photographic, satellite, video High-quality photographic imagery will be used in the hunt for weapons.

• v+N use imagery draw on, employ, use, utilize Old family photographs and more recent imagery are utilized as source material.

• N+v conjure up, evoke The stunning visual imagery evokes visions that can be interpreted by the spectator.

imagination N

the ability to think of clever and original ideas, or form pictures in your mind

• adj+N strong active, creative, fertile, lively, rich, vivid Children have vivid imaginations.
▸ too strong fevered, overactive, wild They are the product of overactive imaginations.
▸ relating to poetry and art artistic, poetic, romantic The workshops focus on creative linguistic play and poetic imagination.
▸ relating to what you see in your mind visual Closing your eyes for this exercise will help the visual imagination.
▸ relating to people in general collective, human, popular, public Star Wars continues to capture our collective imagination. ◉ What she had witnessed was a hell beyond human imagination.

• v+N have/not have a good imagination have, lack Good science fiction writers often have rich and active imaginations. ◉ Her work is pedestrian and lacks imagination.
▸ use your imagination use The classes encourage pupils to use their imagination to develop characters and stories.
▸ cause someone to use their imagination more exercise, stretch I soon learnt how to tell stories in a way that stretched people's imagination.
▸ encourage people's imagination to work engage, excite, fire, fuel, ignite, inspire, spark, stimulate, stir, trigger, unlock Drawing is a great way to fire your imagination.
▸ when people become interested in something captivate, capture, catch, grab, grip This is a fantastic product that has caught consumers' imagination.
▸ when something goes beyond what people can imagine defy It was a decidedly hair-raising story that defied the imagination.

• N+v bring images into your mind conjure up sth My imagination conjured up a thousand images to torment me.
▸ get out of control play tricks on you, run away with you, run riot, run wild The fancy-dress party is an opportunity to let your imagination run wild!

• n+of+N lack There is a curious lack of imagination in this novel.

When someone says that something is all in your imagination or is a figment of your imagination, they mean that you have imagined it, and therefore it does not really exist: Bobby doesn't really exist; he's just a figment of Poppy's imagination. If something is not the case by any stretch of the imagination, it is not the case at all: This was not acceptable behaviour by any stretch of the imagination.

imaginative ADJ

involving new, different, or exciting ideas

• adv+ADJ brilliantly, extraordinarily, extremely, highly, hugely, particularly, really, richly, truly, very, wildly, wonderfully Visually, the play is stunning, and extraordinarily imaginative.

• ADJ+n way of thinking about or doing something approach, idea, method, proposal, response, solution, thinking, way Pupils gain from imaginative teaching approaches. ◉ Several imaginative solutions to these problems have been suggested.
▸ literature fiction, literature, storytelling, writing I get much of my reading enjoyment from imaginative fiction.

• and/or bold, creative, exciting, innovative, inventive, stimulating Television is filled with creative, imaginative people.

imbalance N

a situation in which the balance between two things is not equal or fair

• adj+N serious chronic, gross, growing, massive, serious, significant There is a serious regional imbalance in education for the disabled.

- ▸ not serious slight There was a slight imbalance bewteen the soloist and the orchestra.
- ▸ economic demographic, economic, financial, fiscal The Regional Development Agency aims to address social and economic imbalances.
- ▸ relating to chemicals in the body chemical, hormonal, metabolic His depression was caused by a chemical imbalance in the brain.
- ▸ relating to substances in food dietary, nutritional If children are allowed to only eat their favourite foods, nutritional imbalances may occur.
- ▸ between different places global, regional This course will address the question of global imbalance of power.

- • v+N cause an imbalance cause, create, lead to If we eat a lot of fatty foods while doing little activity outdoors, we create an imbalance.
- ▸ try to deal with an imbalance address, tackle We need leaders who can address the imbalances that cause poverty.
- ▸ correct an imbalance correct, eliminate, offset, overcome, rectify, redress, reduce, remedy, resolve A vitamin and mineral supplement would correct any dietary imbalance.
- ▸ cause an imbalance to continue or get worse aggravate, grow, perpetuate, worsen The excess fat tissue aggravates the hormonal imbalance. ◉ The current situation has worsened the imbalance between supply and demand.
- ▸ notice that an imbalance exists detect A regular check-up with a qualified practitioner can help you detect imbalances.

imitation N

1 an act of copying someone's behaviour

- • adj+N good or quite good close, fair, good, great, passable, perfect 'One has to live and learn,' she remarked, with a passable imitation of her father's manner.
- ▸ bad bad, feeble, poor All they could manage was a poor imitation of the Rolling Stones.

- • v+N do, give, perform Jacob can do a great imitation of Jim Carrey.

2 a copy of something that is usually not as good as the original

- • adj+N good or quite good close, exact, good, passable I think that it is a very good imitation of my handwriting.
- ▸ bad cheap, inferior, mere, pale, poor, second-class Their advice is: 'beware of cheap imitations'.

- • v+N produce an imitation create, make, produce You can produce a fairly good imitation of a restaurant pizza in a domestic oven.
- ▸ cause many imitations to be made spawn It is a novel that has spawned numerous imitations.
- ▸ avoid buying imitations avoid, beware of Cheap imitations are best avoided.

- • N+n weapon firearm, gun, handgun, weapon Carrying an imitation firearm in a public place is an offence.
- ▸ jewellery diamond, gold, jewellery In the jeweller's, I bought a necklace and earrings in imitation diamonds.
- ▸ leather leather You can get an imitation leather jacket if you do not like the idea of real leather.

immediate ADJ

1 happening or done now, without any delay

- • ADJ+n action action, measures, reaction, response, steps My immediate reaction was to say 'No'. ◉ People with genuine emergencies expect an immediate response.
- ▸ danger or worry concern, danger, threat The committee will first of all examine the areas of immediate concern. ◉ Doctors told him that his life was in no immediate danger.
- ▸ need need, requirement First there will be an informal chat to assess the immediate needs of the family and the child.
- ▸ aim aim, concern, objective, priority Our immediate concern now is to get the website up and running.
- ▸ result of something aftermath, consequence, effect, impact In the immediate aftermath of a disaster, we provide medical care, water, food, and shelter.
- ▸ end to fighting or holding of prisoners ceasefire, release An immediate ceasefire is necessary to stop the needless loss of lives.
- ▸ stopping something or taking something back ban, halt, withdrawal There must be an immediate halt to all military aid to the region.
- ▸ future future This situation is unlikely to change in the immediate future.

2 close in distance or relationship

- • ADJ+n people family, neighbours Only immediate family attended the funeral.
- ▸ place environment, environs, locality, neighbourhood, surroundings, vicinity There are a number of car parks in the immediate vicinity.

immense ADJ

extremely large

- • adv+ADJ absolutely, potentially, simply, truly The scale of the project is truly immense.

- • ADJ+n amount amount, number, quantity, range He did an immense amount of research before writing the book.
- ▸ importance importance, power, significance, value National Parks are of immense importance to our country.
- ▸ effect or influence benefit, impact, implications, influence Sociological analyses acknowledge that new technology has an immense impact on the way we live our lives.
- ▸ pleasure fun, pleasure, satisfaction His painting has given immense pleasure to people across the world.
- ▸ pressure or suffering difficulty, pressure, sadness, suffering This attitude to work causes immense pressure on family life.
- ▸ positive quality charm, courage, popularity, potential, talent Showing immense courage, the girl ran to call the police.
- ▸ wealth wealth Both Edinburgh and Glasgow were cities of immense wealth.

immigrant N

someone from another country who comes to live in a country

- adj+N legal/illegal illegal, legal, undocumented All illegal immigrants can claim asylum.
- ▸ recent new, newly arrived, recent Like many recent immigrants to the country, he is driving a taxi for a living.
- v+N encourage or allow immigrants into a country attract, integrate, welcome During the nineteenth century, Argentina was eager to attract immigrants from Europe.
- ▸ stop immigrants from entering a country arrest, detain, exclude, restrict Authorities may detain immigrants for a 'reasonable' period of time.
- ▸ send immmigrants away deport, expel, repatriate The new policy seeks to deport immigrants without trial.
- ▸ employ immigrants employ, hire What is the penalty for an employer who hires illegal immigrants?
- ▸ treat immigrants unfairly exploit Abbott wrote an article about the way immigrants were exploited.
- n+of+N flood, influx, wave The influx of immigrants has had a great impact on schools.

immigration N

the process of coming into a country to live there permanently

- adj+N legal/illegal clandestine, illegal, legal The government plans to introduce tougher measures on illegal immigration.
- ▸ involving large numbers large-scale, mass, massive The 1950s saw the start of large-scale immigration from the Caribbean.
- ▸ not controlled uncontrolled, unlimited, unrestricted Uncontrolled immigration is putting a strain on our public services.
- v+N control immigration control, curb, limit, reduce, restrict, tackle, tighten The arguments for curbing immigration are well known.
- ▸ try to stop immigration combat, oppose Those who oppose large-scale immigration want to establish 'Fortress Britain'.
- ▸ stop immigration halt, stop They are the only party proposing to stop unlimited immigration to this country.
- ▸ encourage immigration encourage, facilitate, increase The aim of the programme is to facilitate the immigration of experienced business people.
- N+n rules or control control, law, legislation, policy, restrictions, rules Under U.S. immigration law, immigrants may obtain a green card by marrying a U.S. citizen.
- ▸ person in authority adjudicator, authority, minister, officer, official When he arrived in Britain, he was given a certificate stamped by an immigration officer.
- n+on+N controls, crackdown, limit, restriction There will be a crackdown on immigration in the run-up to the election.
- n+of+N influx, tide, wave The third great wave of immigration into the United States occurred in 1884.

immoral ADJ

morally wrong

- adv+ADJ extremely deeply, grossly, highly, profoundly, totally A lifestyle that does not consider future generations is profoundly immoral.
- ▸ basically fundamentally, inherently, intrinsically The waste of life in war is inherently immoral.
- ADJ+n act, action, activity, behaviour, conduct, lifestyle, practice Recent business scandals involved a large measure of immoral conduct.
- v+ADJ be, consider sth, seem This modern form of slavery is simply immoral. • Until the 1950s it was considered immoral to use the corneas of dead people for transplant.

immune ADJ

not influenced or affected by something

- adv+ADJ almost almost, largely, practically, relatively, virtually Our teak outdoor furniture is virtually immune to the stresses of the British climate.
- ▸ completely completely, entirely, totally The south of France isn't entirely immune to the effects of winter.
- ▸ based on how something appears apparently, seemingly Waugh was apparently immune to fear.
- v+ADJ be, become, prove, remain, seem The company claimed that their I.T. systems were immune to hardware failure.
- ADJ+from law, liability, prosecution No person should be immune from prosecution for war crimes.
- ADJ+to attack, criticism, effects, influence, interference, pressure, stress, temptation The higher education sector can hardly be immune to the effects of a 10% cut in funding.

immunity N

1 a special right not to be affected by a law

- adj+N diplomatic, parliamentary, presidential Some diplomats have used their diplomatic immunity to avoid paying parking fines.
- v+N have immunity benefit from, enjoy Embassy staff will enjoy diplomatic immunity so long as they are in this country.
- ▸ claim immunity claim She claimed parliamentary immunity and refused to stand trial.
- ▸ give immunity grant (sb), guarantee (sb), promise (sb) Together with their families, they have been granted diplomatic immunity.
- ▸ remove immunity lift, waive His parliamentary immunity was lifted and he was sentenced to 16 years in prison.
- N+from action, jurisdiction, liability, proceedings, prosecution Prosecutors will now be able to offer immunity from prosecution.

2 the body's protection against disease or a particular disease

- adj+N weak compromised, decreased, depressed, impaired, lowered, suppressed You should avoid people with a lowered immunity if you have shingles.
- ▸ lasting a long time lifelong, long-lasting One infection is thought to confer lifelong immunity.
- ▸ present at birth maternal, newborn The puppy has received adequate maternal immunity to enable it to resist disease for some weeks.
- v+N give immunity confer, induce The new vaccine can confer immunity following just one dose.

- ▸ get immunity acquire Those who work with the varnish seem to acquire immunity to its actions.
- ▸ make immunity stronger boost, stimulate The high vitamin and mineral content helps to boost immunity and energy levels.

- • N+against/to disease, infection, virus In childhood, the adenoids are probably useful in developing immunity against infections. ◦ Do adults acquire immunity to the virus?

impact N

1 an effect or influence [usually singular]

- • adj+N strong dramatic, enormous, huge, major, maximum, powerful, profound, significant The machine includes prominent branding for maximum impact at the point of sale. ◦ This important musician had such a profound impact on my life.
- ▸ not strong limited, marginal, minimal, negligible The factory is designed to operate with minimal impact on the environment.
- ▸ positive beneficial, positive It is not clear whether these activities have a positive impact on children's reading skills.
- ▸ negative adverse, damaging, detrimental, devastating, disastrous, negative, serious, severe For the local community, the environmental impact of these new mines will be devastating.
- ▸ direct direct, immediate The results will have an immediate impact on the care that patients receive.
- ▸ lasting a long time lasting, long-lasting, long-term If we act now, we could make a lasting impact on poverty.
- ▸ affecting your mind or emotions emotional, psychological The psychological impact of living with HIV is an issue that affects both long-term survivors and the newly-diagnosed.
- ▸ relating to money and business commercial, economic, financial The study assesses the commercial impact of new information systems and the Internet.
- ▸ relating to a particular subject cultural, ecological, environmental, political, social, socioeconomic This process will inevitably have some ecological impact.

- • v+N have an impact create, have, make The funding is vital for the us to be able to make a real impact on the community.
- ▸ reduce impact absorb, cushion, lessen, limit, minimize, mitigate, reduce, soften Use your spending power to reduce your impact on the environment.
- ▸ examine impact analyse, consider, examine, explore, investigate, understand This paper examines the impact of new teaching methods that were introduced a year ago.
- ▸ measure impact assess, calculate, estimate, evaluate, measure, quantify In the next chapter, we assess the impact of the minimum wage on individuals and firms.

2 an occasion when one object hits another [usually singular]

- • v+N receive an impact take The ball of the foot should take the initial impact.
- ▸ make an impact less strong absorb, cushion, lessen, soften Inflatable balloons cushion the impact of the controlled crash landing.
- ▸ survive an impact survive, withstand Cycle helmets are designed to withstand impact at speeds of around 13mph

- • v+on+N explode detonate, explode The bombs are intended to detonate on impact.
- ▸ break break, shatter Casey's neck broke on impact.

impair V

make something less good or effective

- • adv+V greatly, markedly, profoundly, seriously, severely, significantly, substantially His disability severely impairs his ability to walk.
- • V+n ability, concentration, effectiveness, function, judgement, memory, mobility, performance The drug impairs mental functions such as attention and memory.

impaired ADJ

prevented from using a particular ability fully

- • adv+ADJ relating to the brain cognitively, intellectually, mentally, neurologically The majority of children here are severely mentally impaired.
- ▸ relating to sight visually Reading web content can be especially problematic for visually-impaired users.
- ▸ relating to hearing aurally The system is designed to help aurally-impaired people

You can also use the expressions hearing-impaired and sight-impaired: Signing will be provided at the meeting for the hearing-impaired.

- ▸ seriously profoundly, seriously, severely, substantially We work with the most profoundly impaired children.
- ▸ for ever permanently Now her memory is permanently impaired.
- ▸ not seriously mildly, slightly I am fine, apart from a slightly impaired memory function.

- • ADJ+n ability to see eyesight, sight, vision If your vision is impaired and you'd appreciate a large print version, please phone our Customer Services Department.
- ▸ ability to hear hearing Any child who has impaired hearing can join this group.
- ▸ ability to walk mobility This equipment helps us deal with patients whose mobility is impaired.

impartial ADJ

not connected to or influenced by a particular person or group

- • adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, entirely, strictly, totally Our aim is to provide completely impartial advice.
- ▸ really genuinely, truly We offer genuinely impartial advice.
- ▸ in a way that relates to politics politically A politically impartial civil service is a great national asset.
- ▸ as some people believe so-called, supposedly I cannot fully share his admiration for the supposedly impartial civil service.

- • ADJ+n person or group that judges adjudicator, assessor, judge, panel Entries will be judged by a panel of impartial adjudicators.

- ▶ person or group that settles disagreements arbitrator, mediator, tribunal The mediator is impartial: he or she does not take sides.
- ▶ person who makes sure people obey rules in sports referee, umpire The lack of impartial referees allowed players to break the rules.
- ▶ advice advice, guidance The service offers impartial advice to new businesses.
- ▶ journalism journalism, reporting We are committed to honest and impartial reporting of the news.

- and/or balanced, fair, objective, unbiased Members of the panel must be impartial and unbiased.

impatience N
the annoyed feeling you have when something does not happen as quickly as you would like

- adj+N growing, mounting His growing impatience with Robert began to show.
- v+N show impatience display, express, reveal, show Maintain normal eye contact and do not show impatience.
- ▶ control impatience conceal, control, curb, restrain I could no longer control my impatience at the delay; I climbed the stairs and opened the door.
- n+of+N feeling, gesture, sign I detect a feeling of growing public impatience.

impede V make it more difficult for something to happen or be done

- adv+V seriously greatly, seriously, severely, significantly This situation could seriously impede economic growth.
- ▶ in a way that is not necessary or reasonable unduly, unfairly, unnecessarily, unreasonably We provide security without unnecessarily impeding users' ability to perform their job.
- V+n movement circulation, flow, mobility, movement, passage, progress No sofas, chairs, or other furniture impeded the free circulation of the guests.
- ▶ ability ability All of these factors impede the ability of the blood to absorb oxygen.
- ▶ action or progress action, development, effectiveness, efforts, implementation, innovation, performance, progress Progress was impeded by problems of planning permission.
- ▶ economic performance growth, recovery, trade At first, worries about the safety of online transactions impeded the growth of e-commerce.

impetus N
a force that makes something happen or develop [always singular]

- adj+N strong considerable, dramatic, enormous, great, powerful, strong, tremendous The railway gave a powerful impetus to the prosperity of the town.
- ▶ most important main, major The main impetus behind the rise in inflation comes from the impact of higher food prices.
- ▶ new and different fresh, new, renewed This news lends fresh impetus to the union's campaign.
- ▶ given at the beginning initial, original The initial impetus for a literacy project came from a local literacy training day.
- ▶ extra added, additional, extra, further Recent legislation has brought further impetus to this project.

- v+N be an impetus act as, serve as The building project served as an impetus for regeneration.
- ▶ give impetus bring, give, inject, lend, provide Economic factors are providing the impetus for more automated solutions.
- ▶ create impetus create, generate The interest shown in our town has served to create a renewed impetus in the project.
- ▶ gain impetus acquire, derive, gain, receive This strategy is gaining impetus globally.
- ▶ lose impetus lose The songs cause the film to lose impetus.

implement V
make an idea, plan, system or law start to work

- adv+V successfully correctly, effectively, efficiently, properly, rigorously, successfully We successfully implemented the scheme on 17 February 2009.
- ▶ completely fully The planned changes have not yet been fully implemented.
- ▶ immediately immediately, quickly, swiftly, with immediate effect, without delay The adjudicator's decision is final and must be implemented immediately.
- ▶ over a particular area locally, nationally, widely National contracts will be locally implemented.
- ▶ badly badly, poorly Legislation which is poorly implemented is not acceptable.

Usage Implement is usually passive in all of the adv+V combinations shown above: Their advertising campaign was badly implemented. • We are now working to ensure that the recommendations are effectively implemented.

- V+n something that tells people how to deal with a problem guidelines, recommendations The government now aims to implement the recommendations of the safety review.
- ▶ way of dealing with a problem measures, policy, solution, strategy One purpose of implementing these measures is to control the flow of traffic.
- ▶ law or rule directive, law, legislation, provisions, regulations, ruling The legislation was fully implemented in July 2005, when international tobacco advertising was banned.
- ▶ plan plan, programme, proposal, scheme, system The committee agreed to implement the plan as soon as possible.
- ▶ official agreement accord, agreement, resolution He visited the US and Europe, promising to implement the peace accord.
- ▶ change change, improvements, reform There has been steady progress in implementing reforms in the police force.

- v+to-V agree to implement something agree, promise The management apologized and agreed to implement the recommendations.
- ▶ try to implement something attempt, try Many school teachers are attempting to implement the reform proposals.

▸ have to implement something be forced, be obliged, have You may be forced to implement change by internal factors.
▸ fail or refuse to implement something fail, refuse The council has refused to implement the ruling, due to budget cuts.

implementation N

the process of implementing something

• adj+N successful or complete effective, efficient, full, proper, smooth, successful We will consult widely to ensure smooth implementation of the legislation.
▸ quick immediate, rapid, speedy, timely Establish a timetable for the speedy implementation of recommendations.
▸ covering a wide area full-scale, large-scale, widespread The widespread implementation of the new methods is encouraging.
▸ actual actual, concrete, practical The actual implementation of a new policy can be challenging.
▸ in stages phased, step-by-step The phased implementation will be carried out in seven police forces.

• v+N achieve implementation achieve, ensure Regular meetings are held to ensure the smooth implementation of policy.
▸ manage implementation coordinate, manage, monitor, oversee, supervise The Department has a responsibility for overseeing implementation of EU directives.
▸ help implementation accelerate, aid, assist in, contribute to, facilitate, simplify, support This company was chosen to facilitate the implementation of the project.
▸ delay implementation defer, postpone Permission was granted to postpone implementation.

• N+n date, phase, plan, process, schedule, stage, strategy, timetable The implementation process required close collaboration between the various departments.

• n+to+N barrier, delay, obstacle The group will research the barriers to implementation of change in the industry.

implication N

1 a possible effect or result [usually plural]

• adj+N important considerable, enormous, important, profound, significant These differences have significant implications for growth and development.
▸ negative devastating, negative, serious This ruling could have devastating implications for thousands of people.
▸ possible possible, potential The potential legal implications of this approach are enormous.
▸ affecting a large number of people or things broad, far-reaching, wide, wide-ranging The legislation has far-reaching implications for property owners in the UK.
▸ over a long period of time long-term We need to carefully consider the long-term implications of development.
▸ relating to a real situation practical This report has practical implications for our work in the classroom.
▸ relating to money budgetary, economic, financial You should consider carefully the financial implications of studying for a higher degree.
▸ relating to a theory or method methodological, theoretical In this chapter, we discuss the methodological implications of two theoretical frameworks.
▸ relating to a particular subject environmental, ethical, legal, moral, pedagogical, philosophical, political Many decisions doctors take have ethical implications.

• n+N cost, health, policy, resource, safety, security, tax, welfare They also identify the cost implications of achieving improved energy ratings.

• v+N have implications carry, have Some of these changes carry more wide-ranging implications.
▸ consider implications consider, discuss, examine, explore, investigate, ponder, reflect upon, think about The paper discusses the implications of our findings in relation to students' learning.
▸ make a judgment about implications assess, evaluate Most users do not consciously assess the privacy implications of every online situation they encounter.
▸ understand implications appreciate, grasp, realize, understand We have failed to realize the wider implications of these events.

2 something that you suggest is true [usually singular]

• adj+N clear, obvious, underlying, unspoken The obvious implication was that Simon was lying.

• v+N deny, reject, resent She resented his implication that she was a cheat.

implicit ADJ

not stated directly

• ADJ+n something that people understand and accept or agree to acknowledgement, agreement, assumption, recognition, understanding There is an implicit assumption among the community that these issues will be resolved.
▸ criticism condemnation, criticism, critique, rebuke Throughout the report there was implicit criticism of the council's actions.
▸ threat challenge, threat We had to accept peace on their terms, or the implicit threat of renewed violence.

imply V

suggest that something exists or is true, without saying so directly

• adv+V clearly clearly, plainly, strongly The report clearly implied a growing need for new tests.
▸ wrongly falsely, incorrectly, misleadingly, wrongly The broadcast falsely implies that cycling is an unusually dangerous activity.
▸ as a logical result automatically, inevitably, logically, necessarily If we teach writing more effectively, does that logically imply that our students will becoming better writers?
▸ not necessarily or not at all in no way, not necessarily Autonomy does not necessarily imply unlimited freedom.

• V+n the fact that you approve of something acceptance, approval, consent, endorsement A link to another website does not imply endorsement of the material on that site.

- ▸ the fact that you do not approve of something contradiction, criticism, rejection Inclusion on the Register does not imply criticism of the person in question.
- ▸ the fact that something exists existence A positive result does not necessarily imply the existence of the disease.

- • n+V information that you discover data, evidence, findings, study Our findings imply the presence of liquid water on Mars.
- ▸ something that is said or written comment, definition, language, narrative, phrase, statement, wording This statement implies that we might as well just accept things as they are.
- ▸ theory hypothesis, theorem This hypothesis implies that when something occurs, it has more chance of happening again.

importance N
the fact of being important

- • adj+N great considerable, enormous, extreme, great, huge, immense, key, major, much, profound, tremendous These findings are interesting but they are not of much importance at this stage.
- ▸ essential critical, crucial, decisive, fundamental, key, vital People must understand the vital importance of these resources for future generations.
- ▸ more than anything else cardinal, especial, first, highest, overriding, overwhelming, paramount, particular, primary, prime, special, supreme, utmost I believe motivating students to learn is of paramount importance.
- ▸ little little, minor Compared to health, education, and taxes the issue is of minor importance.
- ▸ relative to something else equal, less, lesser, relative, secondary We assessed the relative importance of different factors in predicting whether young people would use drugs. ◦ Winning is of secondary importance, although it is very nice.
- ▸ becoming more/less declining, diminishing, growing, increased, increasing His growing importance in shaping policy became clear during the strike.
- ▸ types of importance archaeological, architectural, ecological, economic, historic, historical, strategic, symbolic The river port gave the city a special strategic importance.
- ▸ in a particular geographical area international, national This is a list of sites considered to be of national importance for nature conservation.

- • v+N be or become important assume, have, take on Air power has assumed a greater military importance in recent times.
- ▸ give something importance accord sth, ascribe, attach, attribute, give sth, place Do not attach too much importance to the differences in admissions procedures between the Colleges. ◦ Their business strategy places great importance on IT.
- ▸ understand something's importance acknowledge, appreciate, be convinced of, grasp, note, perceive, realize, recognize, understand We understand the importance of keeping you informed of progress.
- ▸ emphasize something's importance affirm, assert, emphasize, highlight, reaffirm, reassert, reinforce, reiterate, stress, underline, underscore Dr Connolly stresses the importance of being open and honest with children.
- ▸ exaggerate something's importance exaggerate, overemphasize, overestimate, overstate We cannot overstate the importance of this point.
- ▸ deny or forget something's importance deny, downplay, ignore, overlook, underestimate, underplay, understate, undervalue The Minister seemed to be downplaying the importance of the inquiry.
- ▸ show something's importance confirm, demonstrate, explain, illustrate, indicate, point to, reflect, reveal, show The report points to the importance of patients being able to access the service quickly.
- ▸ discuss how important something is assess, discuss, evaluate, examine This lecture will discuss the importance of patents to the pharmaceutical industry.

- • N+v be in, lie in The unit's importance lies in the pioneering work it is doing with children who have been excluded from mainstream schools.
- • v+in+N decline, gain, grow, increase The town grew in importance in the late 18th century.

important ADJ
having a major effect on someone or something

- • adv+ADJ very critically, crucially, enormously, extremely, fundamentally, highly, hugely, immensely, incredibly, massively, profoundly, really, so, terribly, tremendously, very, vitally During their captivity, that friendship was vitally important to them.
- ▸ especially especially, particularly, supremely This advice is especially important for younger women.
- ▸ rather pretty INFORMAL, quite Listen carefully. This is quite important.
- ▸ possibly potentially Anxiety was recognized as a potentially important factor.
- ▸ relative to something else doubly, equally, increasingly, most, too It is equally important for Government Offices to monitor and review progress. ◦ Our friendship is too important to risk over something so silly.
- ▸ clearly clearly, obviously It is obviously important to liaise with the owner of the land.

The expression the single most important is very common: This was probably the single most important factor in the decision.

- ▸ in a particular way architecturally, biologically, clinically, commercially, economically, historically, industrially, medically, strategically All the churches on the list are architecturally or historically important. ◦ This report highlights the decline in strategically important areas of industry.
- ▸ across a particular geographical area globally, internationally, locally, nationally, regionally The island is home to internationally important seabird populations.

- • ADJ+n factor or aspect aspect, component, consideration, element, facet, factor, feature, thing Socioeconomic deprivation is an important risk factor for heart disease. ◦ Music is the most important thing in the world to me.

▸ role contribution, part, role Carbohydrates play an important role in maintaining health.
▸ point or issue issue, point, question The website explains why climate change is such an important issue and what you can do to help.
▸ difference difference, distinction There is an important distinction to be made between cosmetic surgery and reconstructive surgery.
▸ decision or action decision, milestone, step Volunteers from across the country gathered to mark this important milestone for the organization.
▸ something you learn discovery, lesson What is the most important lesson you've learned in your professional life?

• v+ADJ be, become, consider sth, deem sth, feel, prove, remain, seem Knowledge of foreign languages is becoming increasingly important to businesses. ◉ It is considered important that feedback is given immediately after the session.

impose V

to force people to accept something

• adv+V from outside centrally, externally They have to make difficult choices within externally imposed budget constraints.

Usage Impose is usually passive in these combinations: Don't insult their professional judgement with a lot of centrally imposed regulations.

▸ in an unreasonable way arbitrarily, artificially, heavy-handedly, rigidly, simply, unilaterally No one was consulted in any way about the scheme, it was simply imposed. ◉ Agreement means consent from both parties, not one side unilaterally imposing its view.
▸ using force aggressively, forcefully, forcibly, physically In seeking to forcibly impose a belief system on everyone else, they display cultural intolerance.

• V+n punishment fine, penalty, punishment, sanctions, sentence The judge said she had no option but to impose a custodial sentence.
▸ restriction or limit condition, constraints, curfew, deadline, limit, limitation, moratorium, quota, requirement, restraints, restriction Section 23 imposes various restrictions on the Parliament's powers.
▸ tax or charge charge, levy, surcharge, tariff, tax Some Scandinavian countries impose much higher taxes on car ownership than does the UK.
▸ ban ban, blockade, embargo, prohibition They imposed an embargo on all exports to the area.
▸ rule regulation, rule The landlord is entitled to impose parking regulations on his tenants.
▸ duty duty, liability, obligation The Directive imposes obligations on public bodies with regard to how they use personal information.
▸ burden burden, strain The emissions from aircraft impose a great burden on the world's climate.
▸ will will It is wrong to impose the will of a small elite on the majority.

impossible ADJ

unable to be done or to happen

• adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, downright, quite, simply, totally, utterly I realized that it was absolutely impossible to get a job without a proper work permit.
▸ almost all but, almost, nearly, practically, virtually, well-nigh It's all but impossible to have a rational discussion about the issue. ◉ The prison cells were so overcrowded that it was almost impossible for prisoners to sit down.
▸ obviously clearly, manifestly, obviously Bringing a life-sized tree onto the stage was obviously impossible.
▸ apparently apparently, probably, seemingly We should be grateful for his tireless efforts against seemingly impossible odds.
▸ in a particular way humanly, logically, logistically, mathematically, morally, physically, politically, technically It would have been physically impossible to read them all, even if you did nothing else for a week.

• v+ADJ appear, be, become, be rendered, look, prove, seem, sound The game was rendered impossible by the wintry conditions. ◉ It proved impossible to reach an agreement. ◉ Telling your life story in 20 seconds sounds impossible.

impractical ADJ

not sensible, or not likely to be effective or successful

• adv+ADJ very highly, hopelessly, quite, ridiculously, simply, totally, utterly, wholly, wildly Without technology, these activities would be totally impractical.
▸ rather probably, rather, somewhat These cars are regarded as somewhat impractical, with little carrying capacity and poor fuel consumption.
▸ obviously clearly Building such a large single telescope is clearly impractical.

• v+ADJ be, become, be considered, be rendered, prove, seem Exchanging large files was rendered impractical by the low speed of the modem. ◉ It may prove impractical to move large quantities of fresh water.

impression N

an opinion or feeling about something or someone

• adj+N good favourable, good, positive, the right The food and service all made favourable impressions.
▸ bad bad, negative, poor, unfavourable It is regrettable that a negative impression has been created.
▸ incorrect erroneous, false, incorrect, mistaken, wrong Whoever is paying you is doing so under the mistaken impression that you're actually doing some work!
▸ that deceives someone deceptive, misleading A biased sample can give a misleading impression of the severity of the problem.
▸ accurate accurate, the right Your CV should convey an accurate impression of what you have achieved.
▸ general general, overall, overriding The picture gives an overall impression of peace and serenity.
▸ strong big, clear, deep, distinct, overwhelming, powerful, profound, striking, strong, vivid The visit made a deep impression on me. ◉ I got the distinct impression they were tired of being there.
▸ lasting a long time abiding, indelible, lasting No matter how old you are, this film will leave a lasting impression.

- ▸ vague or brief fleeting, vague Many people have no idea what we do, beyond a vague impression that it is 'good work'.
- ▸ immediate first, immediate, initial, instant His first impression of the party was not a very positive one.

- • v+N create an impression convey, create, give, leave, make, produce His account is incomplete and gives the wrong impression.
- ▸ get or have an impression form, gain, get, have I had the impression of a settled and happy community.
- ▸ correct an impression correct, counter, dispel I would like to correct the impression you may have got that I can't play.
- ▸ confirm an impression confirm, reinforce Evidence confirms our earlier impression that the effect is small.

impressive ADJ

very good, large etc in a way that you admire

- • adv+ADJ very deeply, enormously, especially, extremely, genuinely, highly, hugely, immensely, incredibly, massively, mightily, mighty INFORMAL, particularly, really, so, truly, very As a committed supporter of the disability movement, she is a mightily impressive individual.
- ▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather It must have once been a rather impressive town house.
- ▸ certainly admittedly, certainly, undeniably Their live performances are said to be exhilarating, and this debut album is certainly impressive.
- ▸ compared with something else doubly, equally, similarly To achieve such subtlety with such a young cast is doubly impressive.
- ▸ in a particular way architecturally, technically, visually Even after all these years, the film is still visually impressive.

- • v+ADJ be, become, look, prove, remain, sound The results so far have proved impressive.

imprisonment N

the punishment of being put in prison

- • adj+N illegal arbitrary, false, illegal, unjust, unlawful, wrongful He would like to thank everyone who has supported him over his 8 long years of wrongful imprisonment.
- ▸ long continued, indefinite, long, long-term Those who went against the authorities could find themselves facing execution or indefinite imprisonment.
- ▸ for a particular length of time life, 12 months', 5 years' etc The prisoner was fined and sentenced to 28 days' imprisonment for possession of drugs.

- • v+N when someone is imprisoned receive, serve, suffer, undergo He was told he had to serve eight months' imprisonment.
- ▸ avoid imprisonment avoid, escape Although she was heavily fined, she managed to escape imprisonment.
- ▸ risk imprisonment face, risk Some risked imprisonment and even death to take part in the protest.
- ▸ impose imprisonment impose, sentence sb to A sentence of imprisonment was imposed by the magistrate.

improve V

to make something better or to become better

- • adv+V a lot considerably, dramatically, drastically, enormously, greatly, hugely, immeasurably, immensely, massively, radically, remarkably, tremendously, vastly In the second half of the game, his concentration seemed to improve greatly.

If something has improved a lot, you can say that it is much improved: The bus services in this area are now much improved.

- ▸ a little marginally, slightly, somewhat Road conditions improved slightly today.
- ▸ noticeably demonstrably, markedly, materially, measurably, notably, noticeably, significantly, substantially, tangibly, visibly These developments will significantly improve healthcare facilities in the area.
- ▸ certainly certainly, definitely, undoubtedly The use of the program definitely improved the general understanding of the class.
- ▸ all the time consistently, constantly, continually, continuously He continually improves his performance by setting more and more challenging goals.
- ▸ slowly or gradually gradually, progressively, slowly, steadily Employment rates for older people have steadily improved.
- ▸ quickly fast, quickly, rapidly Current computing technology is rapidly improving.
- ▸ generally generally, overall Results have generally improved this year.
- ▸ in this way consequently, hence, thereby, therefore, thus More and more trees are being planted to provide green areas, thereby improving air quality.

- • V+with age, experience, practice, time, use It is a complex skill and, like all skills, it improves with practice.

improvement N

the process of becoming better or making something better

- • adj+N great big, considerable, dramatic, drastic, great, huge, major, massive, radical, remarkable, substantial, tremendous, vast England's 10-year-olds have shown a dramatic improvement in maths tests over the past decade.
- ▸ small marginal, minor, modest, slight I had an X-ray and the doctor said there was a slight improvement already.
- ▸ noticeable appreciable, definite, demonstrable, distinct, genuine, marked, measurable, notable, noticeable, real, significant, tangible These proposals will make a significant improvement to the current position.
- ▸ continuing constant, continual, continued, continuous, lasting, long-term, ongoing, sustainable, sustained, year-on-year It is clear that results have risen again this year, demonstrating the continued improvements in education.
- ▸ slow or gradual gradual, incremental, progressive, steady Then there was a gradual improvement in his work, particularly in science.

- ▸ rapid immediate, rapid After a few sessions of therapy there was a rapid improvement in his condition.
- ▸ general general, overall The inspectors noted an overall improvement on the previous year.
- ▸ necessary much-needed, necessary, needed, welcome The revenue raised would go into much-needed improvements in public transport.
- ▸ recent recent Recent technical improvements mean that a better solution is available.
- ▸ possible or planned further, future, planned, possible, potential, suggested Other suggested improvements included a greater police presence and better street lighting.
- ▸ types of improvement agricultural, cosmetic, environmental, genetic, operational, technical, technological Recycling has the potential to create jobs and achieve environmental improvement.

- • v+N make an improvement achieve, effect, implement, introduce, make, secure Her mission is to achieve a lasting improvement in her quality of life.
- ▸ cause an improvement bring, bring about, deliver, enable, produce, yield None of these variations of the basic design yielded any great improvements.
- ▸ notice an improvement identify, measure, note, notice, report, see The doctor said that if I didn't notice an improvement we would try a different drug.
- ▸ show an improvement demonstrate, show The overall pass rates showed a marginal improvement.
- ▸ be an improvement represent This represented a 13 per cent improvement in profitability.
- ▸ experience an improvement experience, undergo The area around the harbour is currently undergoing improvement.
- ▸ want or need improvement demand, expect, need, require, seek The actual wording of the report needs improvement.
- ▸ suggest an improvement plan, propose, recommend, suggest If you would like to suggest improvements to our website, we would be happy to hear from you.
- ▸ encourage improvement encourage, ensure, facilitate, promote, support Feedback should promote learning and facilitate improvement.
- ▸ promise an improvement promise I can report today that the promised improvements in the system are being delivered.

- • n+for+N need, opportunity, room, scope The present service is good, but there is always room for improvement.

impulse N
a sudden strong feeling that you must do something

- • adj+N sudden sudden On a sudden impulse, I rode after him.
- ▸ first first, initial My first impulse was to go out and buy a whole new set of clothes.
- ▸ strong irresistible, powerful, strong There came to him an irresistible impulse to pray.
- ▸ natural natural, primitive, spontaneous Our natural impulses can be altruistic and cooperative as well as selfish.
- ▸ violent, destructive aggressive, anarchic, destructive, murderous, sadistic, self-destructive, suicidal, violent His life is a constant struggle to control his destructive impulses.
- ▸ generous charitable, generous On a generous impulse, he gave the man his coat.
- ▸ creative artistic, creative The exhibition is a celebration of the creative impulse, which we all possess but which is so often stifled.
- ▸ not rational contradictory, irrational She will always be a woman of contradictory impulses.
- ▸ not expressed repressed Hidden motives, repressed impulses, and secret passions are revealed in the course of the play.

- • v+N have an impulse feel, have He felt an impulse to assist her.
- ▸ fight an impulse control, fight, repress, resist, restrain She resisted the impulse to give him a hug.
- ▸ obey an impulse follow, obey What I really want to do is just obey my own impulses.

inability N
the fact that you cannot do something

- • adj+N complete complete, sheer, total, utter What this indicates is their utter inability to deal with any policy issue.
- ▸ apparent apparent, seeming He deplores humanity's seeming inability to love selflessly.
- ▸ very bad or unfortunate chronic, pathological, woeful There is a woeful inability to learn from past experience.

- • v+N show inability demonstrate, highlight, prove, reflect, reveal, show This simply demonstrates an inability to work together effectively.
- ▸ overcome inability overcome Helen Keller was a deaf and blind girl who overcame her inability to communicate.

inaccurate ADJ
not accurate or correct

- • adv+ADJ very completely, grossly, highly, hopelessly, totally, very, wholly, wildly Many of the forecasts made about life in the future were wildly inaccurate.
- ▸ rather quite, rather, slightly, somewhat This is a slightly inaccurate quotation from Rudyard Kipling's poem If.
- ▸ in a bad way unacceptably, woefully The economic predictions made by these computer models were unacceptably inaccurate.
- ▸ in a particular way factually, historically, scientifically, technically His writing was criticized as being unoriginal and factually inaccurate.

- • ADJ+n information data, information, record If our invoice has been based on inaccurate information, we shall submit a revised invoice.
- ▸ description description, portrayal, report, reporting, representation An observer condemned the international media for its inaccurate reporting of events.
- ▸ when someone says what will happen estimate, forecast, prediction We understand that some of the estimates are grossly inaccurate.
- ▸ when someone believes something assumption, interpretation, perception We often make inaccurate assumptions about people if we are unaware they have a hearing problem.

- ▶ statement claim, statement If concerns are raised that our claims are inaccurate or unfounded, we will investigate.
- ▶ result result Review of medical papers must be meticulous to prevent false or inaccurate results being published.
- • and/or unfair distorted, unbalanced, unfair, unfounded To equate this great religion with backwardness is totally unfair and inaccurate.
- ▶ incorrect exaggerated, false, imprecise, incorrect, unreliable, untrue The claims made in the book are untrue and inaccurate.
- ▶ incomplete inadequate, incomplete You should be aware that at times the information may be incomplete, inaccurate or may have become out of date.
- ▶ outdated outdated, out-of-date If anything in the data is inaccurate or out-of-date, let us know and we will amend our records.
- ▶ confusing confusing, contradictory, inconsistent We believe that the use of the word 'racial' is in itself inaccurate and confusing, because we all belong to one human race.
- ▶ unhelpful irrelevant, unhelpful We cannot be held responsible if any advice you are given proves to be inaccurate or unhelpful.

inadequacy N

a failure or fault that makes something or someone not good enough

- • adj+N serious serious, total, utter, woeful Why do we accept the woeful inadequacy of our public transport system?
- ▶ not proved alleged, apparent The claim was based on the alleged inadequacy of the repairs.
- ▶ personal own, personal He at least recognizes his own inadequacy, and has a sense of responsibility.
- ▶ types of inadequacy conceptual, emotional, methodological, nutritional, sexual, structural, technical We should take into account the methodological inadequacies of the studies reporting the results.
- • v+N reveal inadequacy demonstrate, expose, highlight, illustrate, prove, reveal, show The dispute has exposed serious inadequacies in UK employment law.
- ▶ admit inadequacy acknowledge, admit, confess, realize, recognize Reading my own paper again, I realize its many inadequacies.
- ▶ do something about inadequacy address, overcome Senior officers must address these staffing inadequacies.
- ▶ hide inadequacy hide We hide our own inadequacies by blaming others.

inadequate ADJ

not good enough

- • adv+ADJ very completely, entirely, profoundly, quite, seriously, so, thoroughly, totally, utterly, very, wholly Their current email system is wholly inadequate for their requirements.
- ▶ in a very bad way desperately, grossly, hopelessly, miserably, pathetically, pitifully, ridiculously, woefully The guidance on this topic is still woefully inadequate.
- ▶ rather rather, somewhat We had to work with our somewhat inadequate resources.
- ▶ obviously clearly, demonstrably, manifestly, obviously, plainly However, this expenditure was clearly inadequate.
- ▶ generally altogether, generally Parents felt that complaints procedures were generally inadequate.
- ▶ in a particular way nutritionally, socially High-fat, low-carbohydrate diets are nutritionally inadequate.
- • v+ADJ appear, be, become, be considered, be deemed, feel, prove, seem The funds for this work are deemed inadequate. ◉ The operation of the market has proved inadequate as a means of assuring quality.

inappropriate ADJ

not suitable in a particular situation

- • adv+ADJ very completely, entirely, grossly, highly, particularly, quite, singularly, totally, utterly, wholly, wildly Motor traffic is wholly inappropriate in parks.
- ▶ rather rather, somewhat The scientific name is somewhat inappropriate, as the beetle is all one colour.
- ▶ obviously clearly, obviously The current system is clearly inappropriate for the future.
- ▶ in some way otherwise, somehow Staff must not send email messages which are in any way defamatory, obscene or otherwise inappropriate.
- ▶ generally generally It is generally inappropriate to bring disciplinary proceedings against workers because they took part in industrial action.
- ▶ in a particular way aesthetically, clinically, culturally, developmentally, morally, sexually, socially Children should not be given activities that are developmentally inappropriate to them.
- • v+ADJ appear, be, consider sth, deem sth, prove, seem We can help Internet users avoid content that they deem inappropriate for their children. ◉ Guidelines appropriate to industrialised countries may prove inappropriate in poorer countries.

incentive N

something that encourages people to do something or to work harder

- • adj+N strong, great attractive, big, generous, great, powerful, strong The aim of this system is to give suppliers a strong incentive to reduce costs.
- ▶ not great less, little For too many people, there is little incentive to stay in the area of their birth.

When you say that there is little or no incentive, you can use the expression a lack of incentive: There will be a lack of incentive for consumers to switch to the new technology if it is not made cheaper.

- ▶ additional added, additional, extra, further He has an added incentive to ensure the works are finished on time.
- ▶ enough/not enough adequate, insufficient, sufficient We know that it is possible for people to change, given sufficient incentive to do so.
- ▶ genuine clear, positive, real, tangible As money follows the patient, hospitals will have real incentives to improve.
- ▶ types of incentive cash, commercial, economic, financial, monetary, tax We are introducing tax incentives for companies to install energy conservation measures.

- v+N have an incentive have The supplier has an incentive to overestimate costs in order to set a higher price.
- ▸ provide an incentive act as, be, create, give sb, introduce, offer, provide The vouchers provide an excellent incentive for children to visit their local library.
- ▸ reduce an incentive reduce, remove, undermine This can reduce the incentive to give up smoking.
- ▸ increase an incentive improve, increase The exam performance of schools outside the city continues to improve, further increasing the incentive for families to move out.
- ▸ need an incentive need We need greater incentives for households to invest in renewable energy.

- N+n system framework, mechanism, plan, programme, scheme, structure We are putting in place a new management incentive scheme.
- ▸ payment bonus, package, payment Small employers will receive incentive payments if they file their tax returns electronically.

incidence N

the number of cases of an illness or condition; the number of times something happens

- adj+N high or higher elevated, greater, high, higher, increased The study showed elevated tumour incidence in the groups exposed to high radiation.
- ▸ low or lower low, lower, reduced Studies have demonstrated that there is a lower incidence of the disease in older horses.
- ▸ general average, cumulative, overall The cumulative incidence of gout in a population of caucasian US men was 8.6 per cent over a 29-year period.
- ▸ annual annual, yearly Primary brain tumours are relatively rare, with the annual global incidence ranging from six to 12 per 100,000 population.
- ▸ reported recorded, reported This was the first reported incidence of skin tumours believed to be caused by Papova Virus.
- ▸ estimated estimated Williams syndrome is a rare condition with an estimated incidence of 1 in 35,000.
- ▸ actual actual, true Fear of crime exceeds the actual incidence.

- v+N have a particular incidence have, show People with autism have a higher incidence of epilepsy.
- ▸ reduce the incidence decrease, lower, minimize, reduce The trial will determine whether antibiotics reduce the incidence of miscarriage.
- ▸ study the incidence compare, examine, investigate, monitor Several studies have examined the incidence of malnutrition in the UK.
- ▸ find out the incidence calculate, determine The study set out to determine the incidence of depression among the patients of a particular medical practice.
- ▸ estimate the incidence estimate, underestimate The study estimated the overall incidence to be one suicide per 1200 patients.

- N+v rise increase, rise The incidence of stroke rises with increasing age.
- ▸ fall decrease, fall The global incidence of leprosy is decreasing rapidly.
- ▸ vary vary This is one of the most common cancers in the world, but its incidence varies widely.

- n+in+N change, decline, decrease, difference, increase, reduction, rise, variation There was a significant increase in the incidence of football hooliganism during that period.

incident N

something that happens, especially something violent or dangerous

- adj+N serious adverse, catastrophic, critical, fatal, horrific, major, serious, traumatic, violent The directive is aimed at serious incidents of environmental damage.
- ▸ minor minor, trivial Even relatively minor incidents can damage business performance.
- ▸ related/not related isolated, one-off, related, separate, similar, unrelated A peaceful and festive protest, it was marred by a few isolated incidents. ◉ Troops have shot dead four armed men in two separate incidents overnight.
- ▸ strange or amusing amusing, bizarre, curious, embarrassing One amusing incident I remember involved a package which had to be delivered to Liverpool.
- ▸ that you regret regrettable, tragic, unfortunate, unpleasant, unsavoury, untoward This was a tragic incident in which a child has needlessly lost his life.
- ▸ reported recorded, reported The most serious types of incidents accounted for the smallest percentage of reported incidents.
- ▸ possible alleged, suspicious When and where did the alleged incident occur?
- ▸ involving an attack on a group antisemitic, homophobic, racial, racist It is our duty to encourage the reporting of racist incidents.

- n+N bullying, contamination, domestic violence, firearm, flooding, poisoning, pollution, security, stabbing, terrorist, traffic Victims should keep a diary of all bullying incidents.

When an event takes place without anything bad happening, you can say that it passes without incident: The anniversary of the massacre passed without incident.

- v+N officially report or record an incident document, log, record, report The victim's parents have reported the incident to police.
- ▸ describe an incident describe, discuss, mention, recount, relate She described the incident in her journal.
- ▸ see an incident witness We would like to hear from anyone who was travelling on that bus and witnessed the incident.
- ▸ deal with an incident attend, handle, investigate, manage, resolve, tackle Officers from the Crash Investigation Unit will attend such incidents to examine the scene. ◉ We aim to prevent crime through effectively resolving minor incidents.
- ▸ prevent incidents prevent, reduce The Food Hygiene Campaign aims to reduce incidents of food poisoning by 20 per cent.
- ▸ cause an incident cause A single insecure computer can cause a major security incident.

- N+v happen arise, happen, occur, take place I'd like to remind the public to lock car doors when possible, to stop such incidents occurring.

- ▸ cause something cause, prompt, result in, spark, trigger This incident sparked concerns about security at the airport.
- ▸ involve someone or something involve Terry was arrested after an incident involving his former partner.
- ▸ get worse escalate The incident escalated to the extent that the police were called.

incite V
to make people do violent or criminal things

- adv+V deliberately actively, deliberately, openly These marches are staged to antagonize people and deliberately incite trouble.
- ▸ indirectly indirectly It will also be illegal to publish material that indirectly incites terrorist acts.

- V+n incite violence or hatred hatred, murder, mutiny, racism, rebellion, riot, terrorism, unrest, violence Those that try to incite hatred or engage in violence have no place here.
- ▸ incite people crowd, mob In 1559, a sermon preached by John Knox incited a mob to ransack Scone Abbey.

inclination N a feeling that you want to do something; a tendency to do something

- adj+N personal natural, personal, sb's own There's obviously a natural inclination to be a teacher in me. ◉ My own inclination is to ignore the matter completely.
- ▸ strong strong Most of us have strong inclinations to preserve our lives.
- ▸ not strong the slightest It is disappointing that they show not the slightest inclination to compromise.
- ▸ types of inclination amorous, artistic, musical, religious, sexual His early musical inclinations were encouraged by his father.

- v+N have an inclination feel, have, show You can learn a lot, if you have the inclination to do so.
- ▸ follow your inclinations follow I firmly believe in allowing the learner to follow his/her own inclinations as far as is possible.
- ▸ resist your inclinations curb, resist We must resist the inclination to romanticize the past.

inclusion N
the action of including someone or something

- adj+N possible eventual, possible Send us your articles for possible inclusion in our newsletter.

- v+N deserve inclusion deserve, justify, merit, warrant In truth, every one of his poems merits inclusion in this anthology.
- ▸ make inclusion certain ensure, guarantee Acceptance does not automatically guarantee inclusion in the final publication.
- ▸ allow inclusion allow, permit Modifications have been made to the study to allow the inclusion of patients over 65 years old.
- ▸ prevent inclusion preclude, prevent We regret that lack of space has precluded the inclusion of some photographs.

- n+for+N criteria They had a set of criteria for the inclusion or not of items in the database.
- v+for+N consider sb/sth, qualify, select sb/sth If you'd like to be considered for inclusion in the next show, please send us your details. ◉ Most of the articles did not qualify for inclusion in the journal.

income N
money obtained from working or from investments

- adj+N high high, substantial Around half of those with the highest incomes say they want to reduce their working hours.
- ▸ low or moderate insufficient, limited, low, meagre, middle, moderate, modest Families on very low incomes will receive extra money as well.
- ▸ additional additional, extra We have been able to afford a new car because of the extra income.
- ▸ regular guaranteed, regular, secure, stable, steady It provides the charity with regular income, enabling us to plan long-term.
- ▸ estimated or future anticipated, estimated, expected, future, notional, projected A major development scheme will go ahead on the basis of projected income.
- ▸ average average, median, per-capita Average incomes grew by 36 per cent during this period.
- ▸ increasing rising It was a time of low inflation and rising incomes.
- ▸ total combined, family, household, joint, national, total Work out your total income for a week or a month, then take away the expenditure.
- ▸ remaining or available disposable, excess, residual, surplus Women now have far greater disposable incomes than in the past.
- ▸ taxed/untaxed gross, post-tax, pre-tax, taxable, taxed, tax-free, undeclared, untaxed The amount you get depends on the gross income for your household.
- ▸ basic basic, minimum People want to know that they have a decent minimum income in retirement.
- ▸ lost lost The TV company collapsed, costing the football club around £4 million in lost income.
- ▸ during a particular period annual, monthly, weekly, yearly Any young person who lives in a household with an annual income of £30k or less should apply for an allowance.
- ▸ not earned unearned Unearned income from savings should also be declared.

- v+N earn an income derive, earn, have, receive Neither of his sons earned an income from the farm.
- ▸ increase your income augment, boost, increase, maximize, raise, supplement To supplement his meagre income in the shipyards, Charlie worked as a waiter.
- ▸ reduce your income lose, reduce The rise in interest rates reduces the available income that people have to buy things.
- ▸ produce an income generate, guarantee, pay, provide, yield Increased visitors will generate income to support the rural economy and help to sustain jobs.
- ▸ declare an income declare It is your responsibility to keep records of your financial affairs and to declare your income.

- N+v increase grow, increase, rise Profits increased by 32 per cent and total income rose by 28 per cent.
- ▸ decrease decline, drop, fall, plummet As people come off benefits and go into work, they can actually find their incomes fall.

▸ change fluctuate It can be difficult for customers to budget when their income fluctuates in such an unpredictable manner.
▸ be more than exceed, outstrip If your trading income exceeds £58,000 you should register for VAT.

• n+in+N change, decline, drop, fall, growth, increase, reduction, rise After her illness and a drop in income, she fell into debt.

• n+of+N source We can only ensure the service is maintained if there is a regular source of income.

• and/or expenditure, expenses, outgoings You must keep a record of income and expenditure.

incompatible ADJ

unable to work or exist with something

• adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, entirely, quite, simply, totally, utterly, wholly His claims were completely incompatible with the facts I observed.
▸ not not, not necessarily The two systems have quite different, but not necessarily incompatible, agendas.
▸ basically fundamentally, inherently, intrinsically The assumption was that belief in God and belief in science are fundamentally incompatible.
▸ clearly clearly, manifestly These ideas are clearly incompatible with Buddhist teaching.
▸ at times largely, often, potentially The two theories seem largely incompatible.
▸ apparently apparently, seemingly These seemingly incompatible elements are woven together deftly in the book.
▸ disagreeing with something else mutually A range of sometimes mutually incompatible viewpoints coexist.

• v+ADJ appear, be, become, be considered, be declared, be deemed, prove, seem This description appears incompatible with what we know of human development. ◉ At that time, homosexuality was considered incompatible with service in the Armed Forces.

incompetence N

lack of skill or ability to do something well

• adj+N very bad bungling, crass, gross, sheer, shocking, staggering, total, utter Through its sheer incompetence, the Government could be endangering people's lives.
▸ types of incompetence administrative, bureaucratic, managerial, military, ministerial, official, professional These were 'friendly-fire' casualties, victims of military incompetence.

• v+N show incompetence demonstrate, display, prove, reveal, show He said the case revealed gross incompetence by Ministers.
▸ accuse someone of incompetence accuse sb of, allege They sued the company, alleging incompetence on the part of the managers.
▸ hide incompetence hide The company is using the Data Protection Act to hide its own incompetence.

inconclusive ADJ

not producing a definite result or complete proof

• adv+ADJ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, rather, somewhat The results of the test were interesting, but somewhat inconclusive.
▸ mostly generally, largely, often The debate so far has been largely inconclusive.

• v+ADJ be, prove, remain Further investigations were made, but they proved inconclusive.

• and/or ambiguous, conflicting, confusing, contradictory, uncertain, unclear, unresolved The evidence on complementary therapies remains inconclusive or contradictory.

inconsistency N

something that does not match something else; the fact of not matching something or of not always being the same

• adj+N apparent or possible alleged, apparent, perceived, possible, potential, seeming Can you clarify the apparent inconsistencies between these assessments of the number of civilian deaths?
▸ obvious blatant, glaring, obvious In spite of obvious inconsistencies in his story, the police did not consider it necessary to detain him.
▸ serious considerable, gross, major, serious, significant How, without gross inconsistency, can you allow one and not the other?
▸ slight minor, occasional, slight There is a slight inconsistency in the difficulty of the exercises.
▸ basic inherent, internal, logical The logical inconsistency between these objectives is clear.

• v+N show inconsistency demonstrate, expose, highlight, identify, illustrate, reveal, show, uncover This report highlighted major inconsistencies in the way job roles are classified.
▸ notice inconsistency detect, find, note, notice, perceive, spot Some people perceive inconsistencies in the approach taken towards different countries.
▸ deal with inconsistency address, avoid, correct, eliminate, overcome, reconcile, remove, resolve The two benchmarks would need to be agreed together to avoid inconsistency between them. ◉ The principles set out in this document will help to remove the inconsistencies that arise from the absence of a defined standard.
▸ contain inconsistency contain She referred to the inconsistencies contained in the medical report.
▸ explain inconsistency explain The police should be asked to explain any inconsistencies in the statements.

• N+v arise, exist, occur Inconsistencies exist in the definitions of 'a career'.

inconsistent ADJ

not matching, not always behaving in the same way or producing the same results

• adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, totally, utterly, wholly In Britain, we claim to be compassionate to animals, and this practice is wholly inconsistent with that claim.
▸ very hopelessly, so, very, wildly The accessibility of information on the web can be very inconsistent.
▸ rather a little, quite, rather, somewhat Some of his current policies are somewhat inconsistent with those principles.
▸ obviously clearly, plainly We believe such a treaty is plainly inconsistent with our fundamental obligations.

- ▸ in a way that annoys or surprises you frustratingly, strangely Despite some frustratingly inconsistent performances, he still produces moments of magic.
- ▸ disagreeing with itself or something else internally, mutually They offered varied and mutually inconsistent interpretations of the data.
- • and/or confusing ambiguous, conflicting, confused, confusing, contradictory, illogical, incoherent, unclear Current legislation was said to be confusing and inconsistent.
- ▸ unfair arbitrary, unfair, unjust The current system is inconsistent and unfair.
- ▸ not reliable erratic, unpredictable, unreliable The children were often exposed to erratic and inconsistent adult behaviour.
- ▸ not correct inaccurate, incorrect Duplication of documents can lead to inconsistent and inaccurate records.
- ▸ not complete inadequate, incomplete, patchy The medical evidence presented to the Inquiry is incomplete, inconsistent, and inadequate.

inconvenience N

an annoying problem or situation

- • adj+N great considerable, great, gross, major, serious, significant Staff are expected to use public transport, unless its use results in considerable inconvenience.
- ▸ minor mere, minor, slight, temporary, trifling Changing the clocks twice a year is little more than a minor inconvenience.
- ▸ too much too much, undue, unnecessary It is possible for us all to reduce our carbon footprint without undue inconvenience.
- ▸ minimum the least, minimal, minimum We will carry out the work in a way which causes you the least possible inconvenience.
- • v+N regret inconvenience apologize for, regret We regret the inconvenience and assure our customers that normal service will be resumed as soon as possible.
- ▸ cause inconvenience cause (sb), occasion, put sb to We realise that these arrangements may cause some inconvenience and thank you for your co-operation. ◉ The guests should not be disappointed or put to any inconvenience.
- ▸ experience inconvenience experience, suffer They may make compensation payments to those who have suffered severe inconvenience.
- ▸ prevent or reduce inconvenience avoid, eliminate, minimize, obviate, prevent, reduce, save (sb), spare sb Care must be taken to avoid inconvenience or disturbance to neighbours.
- ▸ compensate for inconvenience compensate (sb) for, outweigh, remedy The factory's cheap fuel supply outweighed the inconvenience of its location.

incorrect ADJ

wrong, or not accurate or true

- • adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, fundamentally, quite, simply, totally, wholly Many of the policies that have been proposed are based on totally incorrect assumptions.
- ▸ obviously blatantly, clearly, demonstrably, manifestly, obviously The claim that 'quantum theory needs no interpretation' seems to me to be obviously incorrect.
- ▸ partly partly, slightly The information I was given was slightly incorrect.
- ▸ in a particular way chronologically, factually, grammatically, historically, legally, mathematically, scientifically, syntactically, technically His statement is factually incorrect and logically absurd.

The expression politically incorrect refers to language or behaviour that may be offensive to people who have been affected by discrimination, for example women or ethnic minorities: She's intelligent and – forgive me for being politically incorrect – she doesn't look too bad either!

- • v+ADJ be, consider sth, deem sth, prove They were working with figures which are now considered incorrect. ◉ Their early forecasts proved incorrect.

increase V

to become larger or make something larger in amount or number

- • adv+V very much considerably, enormously, greatly, hugely, immeasurably, massively, significantly, substantially, tremendously, vastly The number of children who are overweight has increased significantly in the past decade.
- ▸ a little marginally, moderately, modestly, slightly, temporarily Viewing figures were low, although they did increase slightly as the season progressed.
- ▸ noticeably appreciably, markedly, noticeably The programme has noticeably increased students' final grades.
- ▸ suddenly or quickly dramatically, drastically, rapidly, sharply, steeply The number of vehicles having to be removed and disposed of has increased dramatically.
- ▸ steadily or gradually gradually, slowly, steadily Gradually increase your level of activity and you will enjoy the health benefits.
- ▸ by a particular factor exponentially, incrementally, progressively, twofold, threefold etc Complaints about male stereotypes in ad campaigns have increased tenfold since 1995.
- ▸ all the time constantly, continually, continuously The demand for these services is constantly increasing.
- ▸ because of something else accordingly, consequently, correspondingly, inevitably, therefore If the post is full-time then the budget will be correspondingly increased.
- • V+by average, factor, rate, five, ten per cent etc The risk was increased by a factor of ten for adults in the older age range.

increase N

a rise in number, amount, or degree

- • adj+N big big, considerable, enormous, huge, large, massive, significant, substantial, vast, whopping (great) INFORMAL The long-term data suggest a decline, although we have seen a significant increase in recent years.
- ▸ small marginal, modest, slight, small In 2008 the company recorded just 29 complaints, a slight increase on the 16 recorded the previous year.

- ▸ noticeable marked, noticeable We have noticed a marked increase in the numbers of birds in our garden.
- ▸ sudden or quick dramatic, rapid, sharp, steep, sudden The rapid increase in the local population put a strain on our services.
- ▸ steady or gradual gradual, progressive, steady, year-on-year After decades of steady increases, the number of bicycles on China's streets has begun to fall.
- ▸ continuing continual, continued, sustained An online ticketing system has enabled us to handle a continued increase in ticket sales.
- ▸ predicted or suggested anticipated, planned, projected, proposed We believe that the network has sufficient capacity to handle the anticipated increases in email volumes.
- ▸ apparent/actual actual, apparent, observed, real Naturally, we are disturbed by any suggestion of an apparent increase in crime.
- ▸ connected with something else consequent, corresponding, proportional, resultant This could result in a dollar sell-off and a corresponding increase in oil and gold prices.
- ▸ surprising or worrying alarming, unprecedented, worrying There has been an alarming increase in injuries and deaths among young drivers in the region.
- ▸ average average, overall This equates to an average increase in tax of 4.1 per cent.
- ▸ by a particular factor or amount double-digit, exponential, five, ten etc per cent, incremental, twofold, threefold etc During that period there was a fivefold increase in the number of patients presenting with asthma.

- v+N show an increase demonstrate, experience, indicate, reveal, show Turnover is expected to show an increase of over 45 per cent this year.
- ▸ be an increase represent This represents an increase in real terms.

You can also say that something is on the increase: Crime in the area is on the increase again.

- ▸ cause an increase achieve, bring about, cause, lead to, produce, result in Darkness causes an increase in the release of the body's sleep hormone.
- ▸ involve an increase be accompanied by, involve, mean The shortage of teachers was accompanied by an increase in class sizes.
- ▸ notice an increase note, notice, see, witness You have probably seen an increase in the amount of 'junk mail' showing up in your email box.
- ▸ report an increase announce, record, report They have reported an increase of 208 per cent in people visiting their website.
- ▸ predict an increase anticipate, envisage, expect, forecast, predict The US Energy Information Administration predicts a 43 per cent increase in carbon emissions by 2030.
- ▸ ask for an increase call for, demand, recommend, suggest The report recommended an increase in the state pension.
- ▸ deal with an increase absorb, accommodate The new road will accommodate the increase in vehicular traffic.

- N+v come, occur Much of the increase comes from burning fossil fuels. • Almost all of the increase occurred between the late 1970s and mid 1990s.

increased ADJ

greater in size, amount, or degree

- ADJ+n amount that is produced or ability to work well efficiency, productivity Employers will achieve increased productivity by allowing employees to focus on their work rather than family concerns.
- ▸ spending expenditure, funding, investment She called for increased investment by the council in roads and schools.
- ▸ possibility of something happening frequency, incidence, risk Women who carry this gene are living with an increased risk of breast cancer.
- ▸ level or rate level, rate Increased traffic levels will be detrimental to both pedestrians and cyclists.
- ▸ being aware of something awareness, understanding Increased awareness of new technologies in retailing is essential.
- ▸ amount that is wanted demand As the population grows there will be an increased demand for food.
- ▸ good quality in a person concentration, confidence, flexibility, motivation, satisfaction, self-esteem The course will give you increased confidence and skills in using information technology.

incur V

1 to have to pay something [usually passive]

- V+n expense costs, expenditure, expenses You will be reimbursed for any reasonable expenses incurred in attending the hearing.
- ▸ charge or penalty charge, debt, fee, fine, penalty, punishment, surcharge, tax, VAT Please note credit cards incur a 3 per cent surcharge.
- ▸ financial loss deficit, loss The insurance policy covers losses incurred as a result of forced entry.

2 experience something unpleasant as a result of your actions

- V+n someone's anger disapproval, displeasure, enmity, hostility, wrath The company might be trying to stall its creditors as long as possible without incurring their wrath.
- ▸ damage casualties, damage, injury The doctor said I must have incurred a head injury.
- ▸ delay delay Samples which are incorrectly labelled will incur needless delays.
- ▸ risk risk To stray from these pathways incurred a serious risk of drowning in mud and water.

independence N

freedom from the control of another country, organization, or person

- adj+N complete absolute, complete, full, genuine, outright, total, true The nationalist movement demanded complete independence.
- ▸ not complete conditional, nominal, relative The two states had British Governors while retaining their nominal independence.
- ▸ more greater, more At thirteen years plus, the child moves towards greater independence.
- ▸ new or recent new-found Leaving family behind can be exciting but also quite stressful as you learn to cope with your new-found independence.

- ▸ that you have to fight for hard-won She was unwilling to give up her hard-won independence.
- ▸ determined fierce, sturdy The stories reflect the unique character of the Yorkshire Dales, and the fierce independence of their inhabitants.
- ▸ types of independence economic, editorial, financial, intellectual, journalistic, judicial, legislative, national, operational, personal, political The company claims to follow a policy of editorial independence for all its newspapers.

- • v+N declare independence assert, declare, proclaim On November 3, 1903, Panama declared its independence from Colombia.
- ▸ achieve or have independence achieve, attain, gain, regain, secure, win When I gave up my job to become a mum, I didn't know how I could regain my financial independence.
- ▸ give independence give sb, grant sb, recognize, restore In 1960, Belgium decided to grant its colony independence.
- ▸ encourage independence advocate, develop, encourage, foster, increase, maximize, promote, respect, strengthen, support We work to promote independence and equal opportunities for deaf people.
- ▸ protect independence defend, ensure, guarantee, protect, safeguard, uphold The unions must at all times defend their complete independence from the employers.
- ▸ reduce independence compromise, undermine It would gravely compromise the independence of the organization if its director were appointed by Ministers.
- ▸ want and try and get independence call for, demand, fight for, seek, struggle for, want The main reason she left home was that she was seeking her independence.
- ▸ value independence cherish, enjoy, value Teenagers really value their independence.
- ▸ keep independence maintain, preserve, retain The tenants live in a secure setting, while maintaining their independence in their own apartments.
- ▸ lose or lack independence give up, lack, lose, sacrifice Older people are often fearful of losing their independence.

- • n+for+N battle, call, campaign, demand, desire, fight, struggle The book examines Gandhi's role in the struggle for Indian independence.

- • n+of+N degree, feeling, lack, loss, measure, sense The living arrangements enabled the elderly people to retain a degree of independence.

independent ADJ

1 ruled by its own government

- • adv+ADJ fully, genuinely, newly Survival was no easy task for the newly independent state.

- • ADJ+n country, nation, republic, state Croatia received international recognition as an independent republic.

- • v+ADJ be, become, feel, make sb, remain, stay Losing her mother so early had made her very independent. ◆ Many people manage to stay independent until well into their eighties.

- • v+ADJ be, become, declare sth, make sth, remain, stay India became independent from Britain in 1947. ◆ South Arabia was declared independent in 1967.

2 fair because not influenced by anyone else

- • adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, fully, genuinely, totally, truly, wholly Governments are sometimes hesitant about setting up truly independent bodies, in case their recommendations conflict with government policy.
- ▸ to some extent fairly, relatively The legal system of the country remained relatively independent.
- ▸ in a particular area of activity editorially, legally, politically The TV channel is funded by government money, but is editorially independent.

- • ADJ+n expert adviser, assessor, auditor, consultant, expert, observer Their independent financial advisers look at your current financial situation and then suggest which products you should consider.
- ▸ examination of a situation inquiry, review, verification The government initially refused to hold an independent inquiry into the circumstances that led to the war.
- ▸ organization body, charity, judiciary, organization, panel, regulator, thinktank, tribunal, watchdog The Electoral Commission, an independent body set up by Parliament to monitor elections, confirmed that it was investigating irregularities.
- ▸ help advice, arbitration The Citizens Advice Bureau service offers free, confidential, impartial and independent advice.

3 not depending on other people for help or money

- • adv+ADJ in a determined way fiercely, proudly He is a fiercely independent 88-year-old, still living in his own home.
- ▸ very or completely completely, quite, very Cats are very independent animals.
- ▸ rather fairly, quite, relatively In Africa, women traditionally led relatively independent lives.
- ▸ concerning money economically, financially They appreciated the opportunity to become financially independent of their parents.

index N

1 an alphabetical list at the back of a book

- • adj+N alphabetical alphabetical Almost all non-fiction books provide an alphabetical index.
- ▸ complete complete, comprehensive, detailed, extensive, full It also includes a comprehensive index.
- ▸ types of index author, online, searchable, subject, thematic The subject index will make the use of the book easier.

- • v+N create an index compile, construct, create, generate, produce She is compiling an index to the correspondence of Sir Walter Scott.
- ▸ use an index check, look in, search, use Use the index to look up key words.
- ▸ include something in an index include sth in, list sth in, mention sth in This topic is not mentioned frequently enough to be included in the index.
- ▸ look for something in an index look sth up in When you look up a subject in the index , you will find the page numbers where that subject is mentioned in the body of the book.

- N+v contain, cover, give, have, include, list, provide This index gives the first line of each hymn.

2 a number showing a value compared with something else

- n+N consumer-price, cost-of-living, inflation, market-share, price, retail-price, stock, stock-market The current rate of increase in the retail price index is around 1.9 per cent.
- N+v become higher climb, rise The index rose 0.2 per cent last month after a 1.2 per cent decline in June.
  - become lower drop, fall, slip From March 2000 to March 2001 the index fell from 4500 to 1750.
  - have a particular value at the end of a day close The Nikkei index closed on Monday at a five-year high.
  - have a particular value at the beginning of a day open The index opened down 60, but recovered slightly to be only lower by 40 points mid-morning.

indicate V

1 express something

- V+n willingess to do or accept something acceptance, agreement, assent, readiness, willingness He has indicated his willingness to negotiate treaty changes with Russia.
  - unwillingness reluctance, unwillingness She indicated her reluctance to take on the assignment.
  - wish desire, wish He has already indicated his desire to leave the club.
  - preference preference Please indicate your preference for a particular type of accommodation.
  - intention intention She has indicated her intention to retire from the Board in September.

2 show that something exists or will happen

- adv+V clearly clearly, explicitly, plainly, strongly This study clearly indicated that the scheme would save lives.
  - not always not necessarily We must remember that lowest price does not necessarily indicate best value.
- V+n existence existence, presence Preliminary field tests indicated the possible presence of a biological toxin.
  - degree degree, extent, level The study aims to indicate the extent to which religious discrimination overlaps with racial discrimination.
  - importance importance, status This indicates the importance of looking at population mobility in a wider context.
  - need need Changing circumstances indicate a need for more flexible approaches.
  - possibility likelihood, possibility, potential Recent work indicates the possibility of a link between long-term exposure and a range of chronic illnesses.

indication N

a sign or statement that something exists, happens, or is true

- adj+N clear clear, definite, obvious There are clear indications that some equipment manufacturers are aware of the need for change in design.
  - happening at the beginning of a process early, initial, preliminary Early indications are promising.
  - strong firm, good, positive, strong Often, the initial response of a cancer to radiotherapy is a good indication of how successful the treatment will be.
  - first first The first indication of the apparent success of this strategy came in October 1982.
  - accurate accurate, precise, reliable It is recognised that few students regard their exam performance as an accurate indication of their ability.
  - not exact approximate, broad, general, rough, vague Cast and crew were legally obliged to keep plot details absolutely confidential except for the vaguest indications about how the story would evolve.
  - quite good fair The pictures were taken a short while ago and are a fair indication of the overall condition of the car.
  - slight slight Today, the building gives not the slightest indication of its former history.
  - using only a few words brief Only a brief indication of the progress of the patient will be given.
  - useful useful The results of the survey provided a useful indication as to which methods of recycling are used most by householders.
  - not much little There is little indication at the moment that market conditions will change.
  - some some The fact that this CD is the third to be released in the series is some indication of how successful the concept has been.
- v+N give someone an indication give (sb), offer (sb), provide He gave no indication that he shares this view.
  - get an indication get, obtain, receive It is helpful for us to get an indication of what people feel about this situation.
  - have an indication have It would be a good idea to have some indication of how long it lasts.
  - understand something as an indication interpret sth as, regard sth as, see sth as, take sth as These figures should be taken as an indication of how much the project might cost overall.
- N+v be, point to sth, show sth, suggest sth All the indications are that is will be another successful year. ◆ The initial indications point to a victory for the ruling party.

Usage Indication is almost always plural in these combinations.

indictment N

something that shows how bad or wrong something is

- adj+N expressing strong criticism damning, devastating, powerful, savage, scathing, searing This new book is a damning indictment of the economic policies of the government over the past 20 years.
  - making you feel upset sad, shocking, terrible The editorial says this is 'a sad indictment of our education system'.

indifference N

lack of interest or sympathy

- adj+N complete absolute, complete, supreme, total, utter It is a matter of complete indifference to me.
  - not sympathetic callous, cold She shows a callous indifference to the suffering of others.

- ▸ felt by most people general, public Efforts to start a boycott are handicapped by public indifference.
- ▸ seeming to exist apparent, seeming Some of us were not a little wounded by the apparent indifference of the public.
- ▸ deliberate studied I adopted a pose of studied indifference.

- • v+N show indifference demonstrate, display, express, show Her tone expressed her entire indifference.
- ▸ feel indifference feel He seemed to be a man who felt total indifference to everything going on around him.
- ▸ pretend to feel indifference feign Of course, I feigned complete indifference.
- ▸ treat something with indifference treat sb/sth with They were accused of treating the wefare of the elderly with indifference.
- ▸ experience indifference be met with The suggestion met with indifference on the part of most members of the team.

indispensable ADJ

that you need in order to exist, or to be able to do something

- • adv+ADJ absolutely, completely, quite, truly, utterly This dictionary is absolutely indispensable for any serious student of the language.

- • ADJ+n source of information aid, book, companion, guide, reference, resource, source The book is an indispensable guide to understanding the relationship between law and politics in Northern Ireland.
- ▸ item or piece of equipment aid, resource, tool Millions of people around the world now view their mobile phone as an indispensable tool when travelling abroad.
- ▸ part addition, component, element, feature, part, role Postgraduate students are now an indispensable part of the teaching force at almost all universities.

individual N

a person, considered separately from their society or community

- • adj+N emphasizing that an individual is not part of a group private, single Grants are made to corporations as well as to private individuals.
- ▸ thinking in the same way as other people like-minded People tend to seek advice from like-minded individuals.
- ▸ particular certain, particular, specific The services will work best if they target specific individuals in a specific way.

- • v+as+N treat someone as an individual respect, treat, value It felt good to be treated as an individual at last.
- ▸ become more of an individual develop, grow The time away from family helped her develop as an individual.

individuality N

the things that make someone or something different from all others

- • v+N show individuality assert, express, reflect, show Some, however, did take the opportunity to express their individuality from time to time.
- ▸ have or develop individuality develop, have The architects intend each school to be unique and have its own individuality.
- ▸ give individuality to someone or something add, bring, give Pictures are a wonderful way to give your home individuality.
- ▸ help individuality to develop encourage, promote Our aims are to respect the individual and encourage individuality.
- ▸ keep individuality maintain, preserve, retain The villages have practically merged into one urban area, although each retains its own individuality .
- ▸ lose individuality give up, lose, sacrifice Members of a crowd lose their individuality.
- ▸ show that you understand the importance of individuality celebrate, recognize, respect, value Managers are working to develop a culture where diversity and individuality are valued.

- • n+of+N expression, loss, sense She felt that how she dressed should be an expression of her individuality.

indulge V

allow yourself to have or do something enjoyable

- • V+n appetite, curiosity, desire, fancy, fantasy, interest, love, obsession, passion, taste, whim His father decided to allow him to indulge his new-found passion for acting.

- • V+in something that you like doing activity, hobby, pastime, pleasures Retirement gave him the opportunity to indulge in his favourite leisure activities.
- ▸ something you feel fantasy, nostalgia, passion She indulged in elaborate fantasies of success and achievement.
- ▸ luxury luxury He privately indulged in every luxury that he forbade to others.
- ▸ thinking speculation, thinking I don't mind indulging in a little speculation.

industry N

the production of goods, especially in factories; the people and organizations involved in making products or providing a service

- • adj+N producing large/small goods heavy, light A variety of new light industries have been attracted to the area.
- ▸ successful booming, expanding, flourishing, growing, profitable, thriving Mumbai is the home of India's thriving film industry.
- ▸ not successful ailing, declining, loss-making The measures were designed to boost Britain's ailing manufacturing industry.
- ▸ owned/not owned by the state nationalized, private, privatized, state-owned The general strike paralysed both private industry and government departments for ten days.
- ▸ types of industry high-tech, knowledge-based, manufacturing, science, traditional The firm provides advice to high-tech industries such as those producing computer software and semiconductors.

- • v+N encourage and support industry benefit, help, promote, protect, subsidize, support Currently the government supports the rail industry to the extent of four billion pounds.

- ▶ damage industry cripple, damage, destroy The threat of disease has certainly damaged the tourist industry in the area.
- ▶ make industry obey rules regulate They accused the government of failing to regulate the banking industry adequately.
- ▶ take away rules relating to industry deregulate Recently, Japan has been deregulating its industries and privatizing state-owned businesses.
- ▶ organize industry in a different way restructure They put forward proposals for restructuring the road-haulage industry.
- ▶ when governments/private people take control of industry denationalize, nationalize, privatize After the war, many key industries were nationalized.

- • N+v be successful expand, flourish, grow, thrive As the coal industry expanded, the problems of flooding increased.
- ▶ not be successful collapse, decline, struggle Currently, as fewer people move house, the home-improvement industry is struggling.
- ▶ face something experience, face, suffer The tourist industry has suffered a steady decline in recent years.

inefficient ADJ
not working in the best possible way

- • adv+ADJ very extremely, grossly, highly, hopelessly, hugely, incredibly, very Our huge power stations are grossly inefficient: they waste two thirds of the energy that they produce.
- ▶ in comparison with someone or something similar comparatively, relatively In fact these methods are relatively inefficient.
- ▶ rather fairly, quite, rather While this system is certainly an improvement, it is still quite inefficient.

- • ADJ+n way of doing something method, practice, procedure, process, system, technique We are cutting costs by getting rid of inefficient practices.
- ▶ use use They are planning campaigns to educate the public on the consequences of inefficient energy use.
- ▶ management management In the private sector, when companies are in financial difficulty it is often as a result of inefficient management.

- • v+ADJ be, become, prove, seem Their method of calculating the average price of corn proved inefficient.

- • and/or not effective ineffective Our system may be complex, but it is neither ineffective nor inefficient.
- ▶ costing too much costly, expensive, wasteful Court procedures are inefficient and costly.
- ▶ old old, outdated They continue to use outdated and inefficient techniques.
- ▶ slow slow A new search engine will replace this slow and inefficient one.

inequality N
a situation in which people are not equal

- • adj+N types of inequality economic, educational, environmental, ethnic, geographical, racial, sexual, social, socioeconomic, structural The region has the highest rates of social inequality in the world.
- ▶ great extreme, glaring, great, gross, huge, massive, stark We believe that the gross inequalities in UK society damage not only the poorest in society, but everyone.
- ▶ relating to a particular area global, regional Children in the countries we work in are severely at risk as a direct consequence of poverty; poverty that is the consequence of global inequalities which need to be addressed at the highest levels.
- ▶ continuing to exist entrenched, persistent Health Action Zones will be concentrated in areas of pronounced deprivation and poor health, reflecting the Government's commitment to tackle entrenched inequalities.
- ▶ existing now current, existing And since the worse off tend to be disadvantaged in this area – in terms of motivation and information, as well as resources – it is likely to exacerbate existing inequality.
- ▶ becoming greater growing, increasing, rising, widening, worsening The growing inequality in our society has been highlighted over the past year.

- • n+N relating to money earnings, income, pay, wage, wealth Income inequality was greater in the mid-1990s than at any time since the late 1940s.
- ▶ relating to health health Further progress in the elimination of health inequalities is crucial.
- ▶ relating to social class class This book focuses on the ways in which class inequalities manifest themselves in Britain today.
- ▶ relating to race race More work is needed to overcome race inequality in public services.
- ▶ relating to the fact of being male or female gender During this time she was actively campaigning on the issue of gender inequality.

- • v+N try to deal with inequality address, challenge, combat, confront, redress, tackle, target The project offers a range of services designed to tackle inequality and disadvantage in the labour market.
- ▶ reduce inequality lessen, reduce Is the government really serious about reducing inequalities within our society?
- ▶ increase inequality exacerbate, increase, reinforce, widen They concede that globalisation has increased inequality between rich and poor.
- ▶ get rid of inequality eliminate, end, overcome, remove The Council is committed to eliminating inequality and discrimination wherever it can.
- ▶ experience inequality experience, face There is no evidence that the general improvement in living standards has lessened the inequality experienced by the majority of African Americans.
- ▶ cause inequality cause, create, lead to The goverment is working to tackle the social, educational and economic barriers that create inequality and poverty.
- ▶ allow inequality to continue to exist maintain, perpetuate The current system only perpetuates inequality.

- • N+v continue to exist continue, persist, remain Huge inequalities persist.
- ▶ exist exist We must recognize that inequalities exist and take steps to address them.
- ▶ become greater grow, increase, rise, widen Existing regional inequalities are widening.

inevitable ADJ impossible to avoid or prevent

- adv+ADJ almost almost, virtually A strike is now almost inevitable.
- ▶ perhaps perhaps His parents were farmers, so it was perhaps inevitable that he would spend most of his working life connected with the land.
- ▶ probably probably The eventual outcome was probably inevitable.
- ▶ according to what seems to be true apparently, seemingly The new training programme aims to break this seemingly inevitable decline.
- ▶ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, somehow Living so close to the sea, I guess it was fairly inevitable that I'd develop an interest in sailing.
- ▶ completely absolutely It's absolutely inevitable that it's going to happen at some point.
- ▶ in a way that you think is bad or wrong sadly The result was sadly inevitable.

- ADJ+n result consequence, corollary, outcome, result She said this criticism and interference was the inevitable consequence of giving more power to judges.
- ▶ decision conclusion This line of argument leads to the inevitable conclusion that military force is the only solution to this conflict.
- ▶ fighting clash, conflict, confrontation, war It now seems certain that war is inevitable.
- ▶ problem delay, disruption Whilst some disruption is inevitable with a project of this nature, we will endeavour to keep inconvenience to a minimum.
- ▶ bad situation collapse, death, decline, defeat, demise, fate As a society, we must innovate or face inevitable economic decline.
- ▶ change change Change is inevitable and the school must embrace that process and see it as an opportunity.
- ▶ mistake mistake Mistakes are inevitable in an operation on this scale.
- ▶ disappointment disappointment Such disappointments are inevitable in any market economy.
- ▶ loss loss The airlines are streamlining their businesses, and job losses are inevitable.

- v+ADJ appear, become, look, make sth, seem, see sth as When the talks collapsed, the closure of the firm became inevitable. ❁ A general lowering of standards seems inevitable. ❁ Some unhappiness can be seen as natural and inevitable.

- and/or desirable, natural, necessary, unavoidable Change, in one form or another, is both inevitable and desirable.

inexhaustible ADJ

never completely used up, and always available

- adv+ADJ almost almost, virtually She has an almost inexhaustible passion for her work.
- ▶ according to what seems to be true apparently, seemingly A man of seemingly inexhaustible vitality, Prior made an excellent teacher.

- ADJ+n supply fund, quantity, reserve, resource, source, store, supply He's also got an inexhaustible supply of similar stories.
- ▶ quality energy, enthusiasm, patience He possessed the organising ability and inexhaustible energy to carry on the good work of his predecessor.

infection N

the process of becoming infected with a disease

- v+N prevent or try to prevent infection avoid, guard against, prevent, protect against, stop To avoid infection, try to follow these simple rules.
- ▶ cause infection cause The cracks in the skin may allow bacteria to enter and cause infection.
- ▶ attempt to get rid of infection combat, control, fight, resist, treat Positive thinking has been found to boost the body's immune system so we can better fight infection.
- ▶ get rid of infection eliminate, eradicate There is no intention to continue vaccination beyond what is necessary to contain the epidemic and eliminate infection.
- ▶ reduce infection reduce The first national campaign to encourage hand cleaning by hospital staff in order to reduce infection has been announced.
- ▶ spread infection spread Good hygiene can cut down the risk of spreading infection.
- ▶ prove that infection is present detect By doing both tests simultaneously, it should be possible to detect infection in these animals.

- N+v arise, cause sth, clear up, occur, persist, spread Acute infections cause a very high body temperature. ❁ Most skin infections clear up with no permanent adverse effects.

- n+against+N defence, fight, immunity, protection With this condition, the body's defence against infection is severely impaired.

inference N an opinion you form about something based on information you already have

- adj+N reasonable logical, reasonable, valid He presents a set of statistics from which valid inferences can be drawn.
- ▶ clear clear, obvious The clear inference is that they were the first people to realize the mistake.
- ▶ wrong false, incorrect, mistaken The statement is wrong and would always lead to false inferences.

- v+N make an inference draw, make Critical reading has been defined as learning to evaluate, draw inferences and arrive at conclusions based on the evidence.
- ▶ make an inference possible or acceptable allow, justify, permit, support This action by itself is not sufficient to justify an inference of racial bias.

inferior ADJ

not as good or of such a high a status, as someone or something else

- adv+ADJ very decidedly, far, greatly, markedly, much, noticeably, significantly, vastly, very, very much Their weaponry is vastly inferior to ours.
- ▶ rather rather, slightly, somewhat Their second half performance was slightly inferior to their first half efforts.
- ▶ in a particular way genetically, intellectually, morally, numerically, racially, socially, technically, technologically He confesses that he still feels a bit socially inferior to his wife.

- ADJ+n status grade, position, rank, status Every day they are reminded of their inferior status.

- ▶ quality performance, quality Forgeries are often of inferior quality.
- ▶ product product I can't really see the point in paying the same sort of money for an inferior product.
- ▶ copy copy, imitation, sequel, version Inferior copies of our products have been flooding onto the European market from the Far East.
- ▶ person being Isabella grew up in a period when society regarded women as inferior beings.
- ▶ group race Racism is the belief that there are superior and inferior races.

- • v+ADJ be, consider sb/sth, deem sb/sth, feel, regard sb/sth Garnett's translation is generally considered inferior to Magarshack's. • He couldn't help feeling inferior to most of his colleagues.

inflated ADJ higher than it should be; made to seem more important than it really is

- • adv+ADJ greatly, grossly, hugely, vastly There is no way he can justify such a vastly inflated fee.

> Over-inflated can be used in the same way as inflated: Investors should be wary of over-inflated property prices in some parts of London.

- • ADJ+n price, number, or pay cost, fee, figure, price, rate, salary, wages Liquor was only available on the black market, and at hugely inflated prices.
- ▶ opinion of yourself ego, opinion, sense Footballers have an inflated sense of their own importance.
- ▶ claim or expectations claim, expectations The danger of such inflated expectations is that they can lead to disappointment.

inflation N

an economic process in which prices increase so money loses value

- • adj+N low low, moderate Although inflation is low, you will still feel your spending power reduce year after year.
- ▶ high double-digit, high, massive High inflation eroded the value of savings.
- ▶ becoming higher accelerating, galloping, increasing, rampant, rising, runaway, soaring, spiralling Rampant inflation and high unemployment might result.
- ▶ calculated for a particular period annual, quarterly The rate of annual inflation reached 14 per cent in March 2006.
- ▶ happening quickly rapid With rapid inflation, cash values of assets increase rapidly.
- • v+N cause inflation cause Their spending plans are likely to cause runaway inflation.
- ▶ control inflation bring under control, combat, control, curb, fight, keep down, keep in check, keep under control We are doing everything in our power to curb inflation.
- ▶ increase more quickly than inflation outpace, outstrip Average house prices are still outpacing inflation.
- ▶ increase inflation fuel, increase, push up They argue that high consumer spending is in danger of fuelling inflation.
- ▶ be equal to inflation keep pace with, keep up with, match The average wage increase matched annual inflation at around 1.8 per cent.
- ▶ reduce inflation bring down, get down, reduce The government's main aim is to keep down public expenditure so as to reduce inflation.

- • N+v become higher accelerate, increase, rise, soar, spiral Inflation has now risen to 8 per cent.
- ▶ become lower drop, fall Inflation has fallen sharply in India.
- ▶ reduce something erode, reduce Inflation has eroded workers' salaries to a degree not seen since the 1980s.
- ▶ slow down ease, slow, slow down Inflation slowed to 0.1 per cent, from 1.1 per cent in March.
- ▶ be higher than something exceed The Bank of England will take whatever action it thinks necessary to stop inflation exceeding its target.
- ▶ be at something average, reach, remain at, run at, stand at, stay at Inflation reached a new record level in June.

- • N+n figures, forecast, outlook, rate, report, target For the first time in three decades the inflation rate is in single digits.
- • n+against+N battle, fight, protection Tax policy also plays a role in the fight against inflation.
- • v+against+N protect sth All the benefits are protected against inflation.
- • n+of+N level, measure, rate There are a number of measures of inflation in use today.

inflict V

cause something unpleasant to happen

- • V+n damage damage, destruction, devastation The damage inflicted on London had been enormous.
- ▶ harm atrocities, cruelty, death, harm, horrors, injury, pain, suffering, torture, trauma, violence, wound Reprisals are an extreme measure because in most cases they inflict suffering on innocent persons.
- ▶ defeat defeat They succeeded in inflicting a 1–0 defeat on Woking.
- ▶ punishment penalty, punishment The government had stated that it would inflict penalties on any company that allowed a pay rise above 5 per cent.
- ▶ problems hardship, misery Of course, there are unfortunate occasions when we have to inflict hardship on innocent people to achieve something vital.
- ▶ deaths of people casualties, losses With the aid of accurate artillery fire, they managed to inflict heavy casualties on the Americans.

influence N

the effect that a person or thing has on someone or something; a person or thing that has an effect on someone or something

- • adj+N great big, considerable, decisive, enormous, great, important, major, profound, significant He wrote a great deal and had an enormous influence on a number of very important people.
- ▶ strong powerful, strong The media has a powerful influence on public opinion.
- ▶ good good, positive Sally was a good influence on her friend Harry. • We work closely with young people in the area and try to have a positive influence on them.

- bad bad, evil, negative, pernicious That group of boys were a bad influence on my son. • They argue that film and television can exert a negative influence on our children.
- affecting a particular area of activity cultural, political Russian cultural influence has been relatively small.
- by people who do not belong to a particular group external, outside They must exercise independent judgement, and must not be subject to any outside influence.
- unreasonable undue The Government stands accused of trying to exert an undue influence over the judicial process.
- continuing for a long time lasting Debussy's methods were to have a lasting influence on the direction of 20th Century music.
- direct direct She argues that the Vatican had little direct influence on the course of events in the years that followed the Second World War.
- making people feel calmer calming, steadying He had a steadying influence on his younger, less experienced, colleagues.
- making someone's character develop formative He has been a formative influence on a generation of German artists.

• v+N have or use influence exercise, exert, have, use, wield His writing was to exert great influence on Gandhi.

- increase influence extend, increase, spread, strengthen Both countries were attempting to extend their influence in the area.
- reduce influence diminish, reduce, undermine, weaken Constitutional changes were designed to weaken Russian influence in the country.
- examine the influence of someone or something examine, explore, investigate, trace This course will examine the main influences on Puccini's musical style.
- gain influence gain Operating in this way, large firms are able to gain still greater influence in related markets.
- oppose the influence of someone or something counter, counteract, resist One way to counter the influence of unhealthy food advertising would be to use the same techniques to promote healthier options.
- show the influence of someone or something reflect, show His work reflected the influence of Soviet filmmakers, particularly Eisenstein.
- admit that the influence of someone or something exists acknowledge Whistler and Monet both initially acknowledged the profound influence of Turner.

• N+v grow continue, extend, grow, remain Those were the years when British influence around the world was growing steadily.

- become less decline, diminish, wane After several hundred years, Rome's influence waned.

• v+under+N start being influenced by someone or something come, fall At university he came under the influence of various radical political thinkers.

- drive or act act, drive She was charged with driving under the influence of alcohol.

influence V

affect a situation or someone's behaviour

• adv+V very much deeply, greatly, heavily, hugely, powerfully, profoundly, significantly, strongly, substantially Blackmore claims to be heavily influenced by Bach.

- in a good way positively New research claims that interaction with pets can positively influence children's physical and emotional development
- in a bad way adversely, negatively You must avoid those things which negatively influence your thinking.
- clearly clearly, obviously, undoubtedly The idea has clearly influenced the current government agenda.
- mainly largely, mainly Venezuela's culture is largely influenced by its North American neighbour.
- directly directly By working closely with the artist, the children will be able to contribute ideas and opinions which will directly influence the development of the work.
- indirectly indirectly Many of these ideas indirectly influenced thinkers like Nietzsche and Heidegger.
- in an unreasonable way unduly There is a risk of the private sector unduly influencing the drafting of the new legislation.

• V+n decision choice, decision, decision-making There will be numerous factors which will influence your choice of car

- behaviour behaviour An important part of this study is the extent to which the media influences our behaviour.
- opinion attitude, opinion, perception, thinking He is willing to use his vast wealth to try and influence public opinion.
- result outcome It was, however, too late to influence the outcome of the election.
- process change, development, direction, process These are the priorities which are likely to influence the direction of government policy.
- work work, writing These authors were to influence her own writing later on.
- the future future By participating and making your views known, you can influence the future.
- design design, shape The trip made pupils more aware of how the local environment influences the design of buildings.
- plan agenda, plan, policy The organization also aims to influence government policy in this area.
- debate debate This is your chance to influence the debate.

influential ADJ

able to influence the way people think and behave

• adv+ADJ deeply, enormously, especially, extremely, highly, hugely, immensely, incredibly, massively, particularly, profoundly, very Like his friend and contemporary, Andy Warhol, he was hugely influential both during his life and after his death.

• ADJ+n person with a particular skill artist, commentator, critic, designer, journalist, leader, musician, philosopher, player, politician, thinker, writer He was hailed as 'one of the most influential thinkers of the 20th century'.

- person figure, voice His writings attracted the attention of influential figures in the Church of England.

- ▸ published piece of writing book, newspaper The Washington Post is a highly influential newspaper.
- ▸ group band, group The Government's approach has come in for strong criticism from an influential group of MPs.
- ▸ organization body, organization This body was very influential in shaping the direction of full-time professional education for librarians.
- ▸ part factor, role The successful candidate will have an influential role in shaping the company's long-term strategy.
- ▸ job position Last week I was talking to someone who now has a very influential position.

- • v+ADJ be, become, prove, remain She remains enormously influential, even ten years after her death.

influx N

a large number of people or things coming into a place

- • adj+N large big, enormous, great, huge, large, major, massive, significant, vast The club has had a huge influx of new members.
- ▸ recent fresh, new, recent China's booming economy has also contributed strongly to the recent influx of Chinese students pursuing academic qualifications in the UK.
- ▸ sudden sudden A sudden influx of migrant workers has led to a revival of extreme right-wing nationalism.
- ▸ quick rapid There is huge population growth in this area through the rapid influx of families from rural areas.
- ▸ continuous constant, regular, steady We need a constant influx of immigrants to do the jobs we don't want to, and to make up for the fall in population.

- • v+N get an influx experience, receive, see The firm has just received an influx of investment from its parent company.
- ▸ deal with an influx cope with, deal with, handle The universities struggled to cope with the influx of new students.

- • N+of people foreigners, immigrants, members, migrants, players, refugees, settlers, students, tourists, visitors, workers The influx of refugees would probably be more than Mali could cope with.
- ▸ money capital, cash, investment The economy is stable and benefiting from an influx of foreign investment.

informal ADJ

relaxed and friendly; not official

- • adv+ADJ very or completely completely, extremely, quite, totally, very This gives us the opportunity to discuss the topic in a very informal way.
- ▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, relatively Many research collaborations are fairly informal and simply involve two or more members exchanging information occasionally.

- • ADJ+n mood in a place atmosphere Dining is available in the informal atmosphere of our excellent restaurant.
- ▸ place setting It is always useful to meet potential employees in an informal setting, before the actual interview.
- ▸ conversation conversation, interview It was a friendly and fairly informal interview.
- ▸ social occasion gathering, get-together The magnificent state dining room can be used for special dinners or the family dining room for more informal gatherings.
- ▸ way manner, style, way Class sizes are small, with teaching taking place in an informal style.
- ▸ arrangement arrangement There are currently some informal arrangements for sharing equipment among participants.
- ▸ talks chat, consultation, discussions, talks Informal talks between union bosses and Tube management, aimed at averting a strike, broke down.
- ▸ meeting meeting, session The delegation will hold other informal meetings outside of the official agenda.
- ▸ meal dinner, lunch Prior to the meeting, members and guests attended an informal dinner held in honour of the speaker.
- ▸ question inquiries Informal inquiries and requests for further details are encouraged.

information N

knowledge or facts about someone or something

- • adj+N more additional, further, more, new, supplementary I can give you more information if you need.
- ▸ correct accurate, correct, precise, reliable The author has consulted original documentary evidence to ensure that the information is accurate.
- ▸ incorrect erroneous, false, inaccurate, incorrect, misleading You mustn't deliberately mislead the police, give them false information, waste their time or obstruct them.
- ▸ recent/not recent new, out-of-date, up-to-date, up-to-the-minute The writing style is clear throughout and the information is up-to-date.
- ▸ about what has happened in the past background Let me give you some background information on the case.
- ▸ useful pertinent, relevant, useful, valuable You will also find details of bus routes to schools and colleges in the area, and other useful information.
- ▸ basic basic The publication provides basic information for carers about services that exist in the local area.
- ▸ secret classified, confidential, inside, sensitive They believe they have acted in the public interest by disclosing confidential information.
- ▸ available available No information regarding troop losses is currently available.
- ▸ containing only facts factual Read this book for its factual information, not its analysis.
- ▸ detailed detailed, in-depth More detailed information can be found on the universities' websites.
- ▸ complete or enough/not complete or enough complete, comprehensive, full, incomplete, insufficient, sufficient We do not have sufficient information to make a decision at the present time.

When something provides a lot of information, you can say that it is packed with information: The guide is packed with information about what to do in the area.

- ▶ types of information bibliographic, biographical, economic, genetic, geographic, historical, practical, statistical It also contains much new biographical information about the artist.
- ● v+N have information have, possess Police are appealing for any witnesses, or anyone who may have any information in connection with this crime.
- ▶ need information need, require Should you require any further information about this event, please do not hesitate to contact us.
- ▶ provide information communicate, convey, disclose, divulge, give (sb), provide, supply, transmit In order to provide information more relevant to you, we need to learn more about you.
- ▶ tell private or secret information leak It may well have been Downing Street itself that leaked the information to the newspaper.
- ▶ get information access, acquire, elicit, extract, find, get, glean, obtain, receive, retrieve You can obtain further information from your Local Authority.
- ▶ ask for information appeal for, ask for, request Click here to request information on any of the courses listed above.
- ▶ look for information gather, look for, search for, seek The Colonel moved from group to group, seeking information about the unknown lady.
- ▶ contain information contain The following links are to pages that contain information on this subject.
- ▶ make information contain the most recent facts update Members and customers who have registered online with us may update their account information at any time.
- ▶ deal with information process Here the computers process all the information coming in by satellite from all over the world.
- ▶ interpret information analyze, interpret Our role is to collect and analyze information, which will be used to help make decisions.
- ▶ keep information keep, store Make sure you store private information in a directory that isn't accessible to others.
- ▶ exchange or share information exchange, share They agreed to exchange information on this matter.
- ▶ deliberately not provide information withhold Do you believe that the company is withholding information about its assets?
- ▶ collect information collect, gather Companies want to collect information about their customers for various reasons.

- ● n+of+N piece piece, snippet This was an important piece of information, as it confirmed our original suspicions. ◉ The little snippets of information about his personal life made the interview more interesting.
- ▶ large amount wealth This is a beautifully illustrated book, giving a wealth of information on the flowers of the area.
- ▶ source source The Internet is likely to be the most useful source of information for the project.

informative ADJ

giving a lot of helpful information

- ● adv+ADJ extremely, highly, particularly, really, so INFORMAL, very, wonderfully The lectures were highly informative and interesting.
- ● ADJ+n piece of writing article, book, booklet, guide, introduction, leaflet, magazine, newsletter, text She has written many amusing and informative articles for various national newspapers and magazines.
- ▶ talk commentary, lecture, presentation, talk The new footage is nice, as is the interesting and informative commentary.
- ▶ event seminar, session, workshop The sessions were very informative and efficiently run.
- ▶ website site, website I found the website informative and easy to use.
- ● v+ADJ be, find sth, prove The answers to the questionnaire proved very informative. ◉ This is a new course which we found very informative, especially for new recruits.
- ● and/or enjoyable, entertaining, helpful, interesting, stimulating, useful Journalists aim to provide articles that are both entertaining and informative.

informed ADJ

based on good knowledge of something; having a good knowledge about something

- ● ADJ+n decision choice, decision The area of study must be clearly defined so that students can make an informed choice at the outset.
- ▶ opinion assessment, judgment, opinion, view It is the job of a columnist to have an informed opinion.
- ▶ agreement consent The practice of obtaining informed consent is often left to the most junior and least experienced member of staff.
- ▶ knowledge understanding The government needs a more informed understanding of childhood poverty, or policies designed to improve the lives of poor children run the risk of failing.
- ▶ advice advice Our experience of the food industry enables us to provide objective and informed advice based on up-to-date knowledge.
- ▶ guess guess You have to make an informed guess.
- ▶ comment comment You will acquire knowledge and understanding of a wide range of issues and gain the ability to express your opinions and give informed comments.
- ▶ person or people citizen, consumer, observer, public, reader As science advances, the necessity for a more informed public becomes increasingly urgent. ◉ This book is designed for the informed reader.

ingenious ADJ

based on new and clever ideas

- ● adv+ADJ very highly, truly, very He used a very ingenious method to photograph snow crystals.
- ▶ rather quite, rather Her theory was quite ingenious but she was unable to back it up with evidence.

- ● ADJ+n machine contrivance, device, gadget, invention, machine More and more ingenious wireless devices are being introduced all the time.
- ▶ plan or method method, plan, ploy, solution, system, way They have come up with a very ingenious solution.

- ▸ idea idea This ingenious idea saved a massive amount of labour.
- ▸ use use This new production of the play makes ingenious use of simple resources.
- ▸ design design The frame is strong and light, thanks to its ingenious design.
- ▸ argument argument The defence countered with an ingenious argument.

ingenuity N

the ability to solve problems in new and clever ways

- adj+N great considerable, great, much Much ingenuity went into improvising the necessary components.
- ▸ not much a little Billions can be made with a little ingenuity and clever marketing.
- ▸ human human Human ingenuity will always find a way around the law.
- ▸ types of ingenuity creative, mechanical, technical, technological The technical ingenuity and combination of materials are typical of much of the furniture shown in the Exhibition.
- v+N need ingenuity need, require, take Cooking fish and meat using a minimal amount of fat, yet getting the maximum flavour, takes ingenuity.
- ▸ show ingenuity demonstrate, display, show Considerable ingenuity was shown in the design of these early systems.
- ▸ use ingenuity use He was forced to use his ingenuity to survive.
- ▸ have ingenuity have We also have the ingenuity to make them much more energy-efficient.
- and/or creativity, determination, energy, imagination, inventiveness, skill Artistic people are characterized by creativity, ingenuity and inspiration.

ingrained ADJ

having existed for a long time and difficult to change

- adv+ADJ deeply Their television viewing habits are deeply ingrained.
- ADJ+n behaviour behaviour, culture, habit, pattern Dishonesty is now an ingrained habit with this government.
- ▸ opinion attitude, belief, prejudice, sense We all have ingrained prejudices that we find it hard to overcome. ◉ He needed to overcome an ingrained sense of failure before he could feel content.

ingredient N

something that gives something else its character or that makes it effective

- adj+N important or essential crucial, essential, important, key, necessary, vital Don't forget the other vital ingredient in a successful relationship – fun.
- ▸ main main, principal The two main ingredients are time and advertising.
- ▸ special magic, secret, special They possessed that secret ingredient that only a handful of bands are capable of producing.
- ▸ basic basic, staple The basic ingredients of a good life are very similar in all cultures.

inhabitant N

a person or animal that lives somewhere

- adj+N original or early aboriginal, ancient, early, first, indigenous, native, original The indigenous inhabitants of Latin America exerted a great influence on the Spanish language.
- ▸ present current, present The present inhabitants are of Scandinavian stock.
- ▸ local local This phenomenon is well known to most of the local inhabitants.
- ▸ previous former, previous The new settlers made use of the places of worship which the former inhabitants had erected.

inhabited ADJ

lived in by people

- adv+ADJ by few people sparsely, thinly Tilos is a large but sparsely inhabited island.
- ▸ by many people densely The large oil and gas fields are close to densely inhabited areas.
- ▸ continuously continuously Damascus claims to be the oldest continuously inhabited city in the world.
- ▸ permanently permanently It is officially one of the hottest permanently inhabited places on the planet.
- ▸ in the beginning originally Haiti was originally inhabited by the Arawak, an Amerindian race.
- ▸ mainly chiefly, mainly, mostly The village was chiefly inhabited by workers employed in the weaving trade.

inherent ADJ

basic or essential, giving something its character

- ADJ+n fault ambiguity, bias, complexity, contradiction, defect, flaw, limitation, tension, weakness She pointed to the contradictions inherent in Government policy.
- ▸ danger danger, risk Keep in mind that there are inherent dangers in consuming excessively high amounts of protein.
- ▸ problem difficulty, problem However, there are inherent difficulties in providing the services they recommend.
- ▸ quality characteristic, quality It is also an inherent characteristic of the subject that an individual student's performance might vary greatly over different modules.
- ▸ tendency tendency The general tendencies inherent in capitalism are brilliantly analyzed by Marx and Engels.
- ▸ ability ability, strength One of the inherent strengths of the Internet is the access it affords to up-to-date information.
- ▸ quality of not being certain uncertainty A major area of his research is to understand how the brain deals with the uncertainty inherent in the world.

inheritance N

property or money you receive from someone when they die

- adj+N large, small He used a small inheritance to help finance his studies.
- v+N leave an inheritance leave (sb) People hoping to leave a sizeable inheritance could see a large chunk of it disappear in tax.
- ▸ claim or receive an inheritance claim, receive She was due to receive a large inheritance in the next ten years.

- ▸ waste an inheritance squander If there are concerns that a child may squander the inheritance, the money can be put into a trust fund.

- N+n laws, tax Politicians did not want to abolish inheritance tax.

initial ADJ happening at the beginning of a process

- ADJ+n time period, phase, stage There were delays during the initial stages of the case.
- ▸ idea advice, aim, analysis, concept, estimate, idea, proposal, thoughts The document sets out some initial thoughts for consideration.
- ▸ feeling enthusiasm, reluctance, scepticism, shock After the initial shock, I'm now really looking forward to it.
- ▸ reaction assessment, diagnosis, evaluation, feedback, impression, reaction, response, review The initial impression is of a very well-made item.
- ▸ result findings, indications, results, success The initial results of this work will be presented.
- ▸ way of getting information discussion, inquiry, investigation, survey Initial inquiries about research degrees should be addressed to the departmental office.
- ▸ meeting consultation, contact, interview, meeting An initial meeting was held in the autumn of 2009.
- ▸ payment cost, deposit, fee, investment, outlay An initial deposit will be required.

initiative N
1 an important action intended to solve a problem

- adj+N important ambitious, bold, exciting, high-profile, key, major, successful We are delighted to announce another major initiative to enhance access to the Library's archives.
- ▸ new groundbreaking, innovative, new, pioneering This is an exciting new initiative from the Government.
- ▸ happening in a particular area global, international, local, national, nationwide, regional, community-based, school-based, UK-based, etc, UK-wide, city-wide, industry-wide, etc It has grown from a regional initiative to a national project.
- ▸ happening with support from others collaborative, joint The new service is a joint initiative by the health service and local councils.
- ▸ paid for by a particular organization government-funded, EU-funded, council-funded, etc The council-funded initiative will help pay for athletes' training.
- ▸ to raise money fundraising The match is a fundraising initiative to raise money for disaster victims.

- n+N community, government This is a community initiative to tackle the problem of litter in the town.

- v+N start an initiative announce, introduce, launch We are about to launch a major initiative to find out your views.
- ▸ support an initiative back, encourage, fund, promote, sponsor, support, welcome We are delighted to back the initiative.
- ▸ make an initiative happen coordinate, develop, drive, implement, lead, spearhead, undertake He has worked in both sectors and is coordinating the initiative.
- ▸ take part in an initiative be involved in, contribute to, participate in, take part in Fifty three establishments are now involved in the initiative.

- N+v aim, focus on, include, involve, seek, target This national initiative aims to reduce the occurrence of motorcycle crashes on Scotland's roads. ● The initiative focuses on raising aspirations among young people.

- n+of+N number, raft, range, series This is one element in a whole raft of initiatives designed to improve the overall quality of education.

2 the ability to decide independently what to do [always singular]

- adj+N his own, her own, etc We are looking for someone who can work on their own initiative.

- v+N use initiative demonstrate, show, use Candidates should demonstrate initiative and flexibility. ● They will need to use their initiative.
- ▸ encourage initiative encourage The staff plan encourages initiative and the taking of responsibility.

- and/or courage, creativity, drive, enthusiasm, flexibility, resourcefulness, responsibility Experience is not essential if the candidate can show initiative and drive.

3 the opportunity to take action before others do

- v+N have, lose, regain, seize, take He didn't sit around waiting for someone else to take the initiative.

Usage Initiative is always used with the in these combinations: The party seized the initiative on key election issues such as tax and immigration.

injunction N
a court order that stops someone from doing something

- v+N ask for or get an injunction against someone apply for, bring, obtain, seek, take out, win The university applied for an injunction against the protesters. ● They won an injunction to prevent the government from terminating the contract.
- ▸ give an injunction grant (sb), issue The court refused to grant the injunction, citing a lack of evidence.
- ▸ not pay attention to an injunction be in breach of, breach Those who breach the injunction could face arrest.
- ▸ stop an injunction lift The judge ordered that the injunction be lifted.

- N+v ban, order, prevent, prohibit, require, restrain He issued an injunction restraining the BBC from publishing of the names of the two social workers.

injure V
cause damage to someone's body

- adv+V seriously badly, critically, fatally, gravely, permanently, seriously, severely They are not believed to have been seriously injured in the crash.

▸ slightly slightly 41 passengers were slightly injured or suffered from shock.

Usage Injure is usually passive in all the adv+V combinations shown above.

- V+n person who is not directly involved in a situation bystander, civilian, member of the public Six civilians were injured in the attack.

▸ person involved in a traffic accident cyclist, driver, motorcyclist, passenger, pedestrian Most cyclists who are injured or killed are hit by motor vehicles.

▸ body part ankle, knee, wrist, shoulder, etc He fell at work and injured his back.

- and/or kill, maim This is a home for children who have been injured and maimed by landmines.

injury N

physical damage done to a person

- adj+N affecting a body part facial, physical, spinal He miraculously escaped serious physical injury.

▸ to several parts of the body multiple He was struck by a passing car, sustaining multiple injuries, from which he later died.

▸ serious fatal, horrific, life-threatening, major, nasty, painful, serious, severe, terrible She suffered a serious injury to her head.

▸ not serious minor, niggling, slight Two people were treated in hospital for minor injuries.

▸ caused by work industrial, occupational, work-related Manual handling is a cause of many work-related injuries.

▸ caused accidentally/not accidentally accidental, non-accidental Falls are the main cause of accidental injury to children. ◉ It is quite likely that the injuries were non-accidental, and that the child was, in fact, assaulted.

- n+N affecting a body part ankle, knee, head etc He has sustained a brain injury.

▸ caused by a particular action or activity repetitive strain, sports, whiplash Whiplash injury is a very common consequence of car accidents.

- v+N receive an injury acquire, incur, pick up, receive, suffer, sustain He had picked up a back injury during training. ◉ No other injuries were sustained.

▸ have an injury be hampered by, be nursing, be plagued by, have Dave was nursing a hand injury. ◉ She was plagued by injury all season.

▸ pretend to have an injury feign He feigned injury to get a medical certificate.

▸ cause an injury cause, inflict Fireworks can inflict terrible injuries.

▸ deal with an injury overcome, treat He may play this weekend after overcoming an ankle injury.

▸ make an injury worse aggravate, exacerbate Do not attempt to move them: this could exacerbate the injuries.

▸ avoid or reduce injury avoid, escape, prevent, reduce Several men escaped injury in the explosion. ◉ Cycle helmets may reduce head injury by up to 80 per cent.

- N+v happen happen, occur Don't continue to exercise if an injury occurs.

▸ be a result of arise from, result from We will not pay compensation for any injury, unless it results from our negligence.

▸ get better heal Although her physical injuries have healed, the trauma of that day will remain with her for a long time.

- and/or damage, death, disability, ill-health, illness, loss The club shall not be liable for loss, injury or damage resulting from the use of this information.

injustice N

failure to treat someone fairly; an unfair action or event

- adj+N very bad appalling, blatant, cruel, glaring, grave, gross, monstrous, outrageous, terrible This would be a grave injustice.

▸ types of injustice racial, social We will continue our fight against all forms of social injustice.

- v+N commit an injustice commit, inflict, mete out, perpetrate, perpetuate Even in modern times, terrible injustices have been perpetrated.

▸ work against or correct injustice challenge, combat, correct, expose, fight, rectify, redress, remedy, right, tackle He became well known for exposing injustice and fearlessly criticizing the government.

▸ suffer injustice be a victim of, suffer I felt angry that I had been the victim of an injustice.

innocence N

1 the state of not being guilty of a crime or of doing something wrong

- v+N claim someone's innocence assert, claim, declare, maintain, plead, proclaim, profess, protest Although he protests his innocence, he remains a discredited figure.

▸ when someone pretends to be innocent feign It is unacceptable for these people to feign innoncence and try and shift the blame onto others.

▸ prove or decide on someone's innocence decide on, prove He had a good case to prove his innocence.

- and/or guilt It is the job of the court to decide on guilt or innocence.

2 the state of being like a child, having little experience of the world and trusting other people

- adj+N childish, childlike, naive, playful, sweet, touching, wide-eyed, youthful The movie combines childlike innocence with the darker emotions of adulthood.

- N+of childhood, youth His work portrays the innocence of childhood.

- n+of+N state or appearance air, look, state There has always been an air of innocence about the girl – that's her charm.

▸ loss loss The theme of the book is treachery and the loss of innocence.

If you do something in all innocence, you do it without intending to upset or harm someone: I asked him about his wife in all innocence.

innocent ADJ

1 not guilty of a crime, or of doing something wrong

- adv+ADJ completely, entirely, totally, wholly He was completely innocent of the charge.
- ADJ+n person harmed bystander, citizen, civilian, passer-by, victim They were the innocent victims of terrorist separatists.
- ▶ animal animal, creature The production of fur coats is not a reason to kill an innocent creature.
- v+ADJ be, be declared, be found, be presumed, be proven/proved He was declared innocent of any crimes by the court. ◆ The defendant is presumed innocent until proven guilty.

2 not intended to harm or upset anyone

- adv+ADJ seeming apparently, ostensibly, seemingly It was a seemingly innocent question.
- ▶ completely completely, entirely, perfectly, quite, totally They were probably quite innocent stories.

innovation N

1 a new idea, method, machine etc

- adj+N new or different cutting-edge, exciting, groundbreaking, the latest, radical, recent Once in a lifetime we see groundbreaking innovations such as these.
- ▶ important exciting, major, outstanding Find out about a range of exciting innovations.
- ▶ in a particular area artistic, educational, methodological, scientific, technical They earned £300,000 through a company that made money out of scientific innovations from the university.
- v+N introduce, showcase The company will be showcasing the latest innovations during the event.

2 the invention or use of new ideas, methods, equipment etc

- adj+N types of innovation artistic, educational, industrial, methodological, organizational, scientific, technical, technological These organisations foster technological innovation in healthcare.
- ▶ happening quickly or without stopping constant, continual, continued, continuous, rapid The 19th century was a time of rapid innovation and change in Britain.
- v+N encourage innovation be committed to, drive, embrace, encourage, facilitate, foster, invest in, nurture, promote, reward, spur, stimulate, support The funding has driven innovation.
- ▶ stop innovation discourage, inhibit, stifle Our aim is not to stifle innovation.
- and/or creativity, efficiency, enterprise, entrepreneurship, excellence, flexibility, imagination, improvement, invention, research Creativity and innovation are at the heart of a successful business.

innovative ADJ

new, original, and advanced

- adv+ADJ in a particular way technically, technologically We pride ourselves on providing technically innovative engineering solutions.
- ▶ very extremely, genuinely, highly, strikingly, truly, wonderfully This is truly innovative music.
- ADJ+n method or use approach, method, methodology, practice, technique, technology, use, way His innovative techniques made him a leader in his field. ◆ They won an award for the innovative use of IT in schools.
- ▶ project or course campaign, course, initiative, programme, project, research, scheme, strategy, work You will be working on innovative projects, breaking new ground and sharing your learning with others.
- ▶ idea or solution concept, design, idea, solution, strategy, thinking We deliver cost-effective, innovative solutions founded on technical competency.
- ▶ product or tool device, product, tool The company has quickly developed a reputation for its innovative products.
- ▶ feature aspect, feature The new software has many useful and innovative features.
- ▶ person designer, thinker, writer The country's most innovative young designers will show off their creations.
- and/or bold, creative, exciting, fresh, groundbreaking, imaginative, new, progressive Dubai has developed a reputation for its bold and innovative approach in creating architectural wonders.

input N

help consisting of ideas, advice, or information

- adj+N important invaluable, significant, valuable Additional thanks to Peter and Stephen for their invaluable input to the workshop.
- ▶ a lot considerable, significant, substantial Responses require a considerable input of time.
- ▶ not much minimal The students worked on their own and required minimal input from staff.
- ▶ more or extra additional The report was prepared by the City Council, with additional input from environmental organizations.
- ▶ types of input artistic, constructive, creative, parental, technical The sessions will encourage creative input from participants.
- v+N ask for or want input appreciate, need, require, seek, welcome We value your feedback and welcome your input into the process.
- ▶ think input is important value We are committed to continuous improvement of our services and we value your input and contributions.
- ▶ give input provide Visiting professionals provide specialist input throughout the course.
- ▶ get input get, receive The Education department is keen to receive input from local businesses.

inquest N

an official attempt by a court to find the cause of someone's death

- v+N adjourn, conduct, hold, open An inquest into the death was opened and adjourned.
- N+v receive information be told (that), hear (that) The inquest heard that large quantities of alcohol were found in his blood.
- ▶ decide conclude (that), record a verdict, return a verdict, rule (that) The inquest recorded an open verdict.

▸ start open An inquest will open this week.

inquiry N
1 an official examination of a crime, accident etc

- adj+N full, independent, internal, judicial, parliamentary, public She has been suspended by her employers pending an internal inquiry. ◉ The paper is calling for an independent public inquiry.
- n+N government, murder, police The organisation has demanded a government inquiry into the matter.
- v+N ask for an inquiry ask for, call for, demand The parents are right to demand a full inquiry into the death of their son while he was in custody.

▸ say that an inquiry will take place announce The minister will announce an inquiry into the effect of the ban.
▸ hold an inquiry conduct, hold, launch, undertake Police have launched a murder inquiry.

2 a question intended to get information

- adj+N done first or later further, initial, preliminary, subsequent, urgent He is now on police bail pending further inquiries. ◉ Preliminary inquiries into their finances have begun.

Usage Inquiry is often plural in these combinations

▸ general/specific general, routine, specific Please do not address routine inquiries to the Emergency Service. ◉ If you have a specific inquiry, please complete this online form.
▸ urgent urgent If your inquiry is urgent, you may prefer to phone the helpline.
▸ asking carefully confidential, discreet, tentative I started making a few tentative inquiries.
▸ using a particular form of communication house-to-house, postal, written Police carried out house-to-house inquiries.

- n+N email, media, press, telephone We were instructed not to respond to media inquiries.
- v+N make inquiries carry out, make To make inquiries about meetings, please contact the Administrator.

▸ send an inquiry to someone address to, direct to, email, send, submit Any inquiries relating to this should be addressed to Computing Services.
▸ welcome an inquiry welcome The library welcomes inquiries by phone, email or letter.
▸ receive an inquiry get INFORMAL, receive We received a huge number of inquiries.
▸ have a lot of inquiries be inundated with After the programme the BBC was inundated with inquiries about the case.
▸ deal with an inquiry answer, deal with, field, handle, reply to, respond to The Council has not responded to our inquiry concerning planning permission.

insane ADJ
very stupid or crazy; suffering from severe mental illness

- adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, quite, totally, utterly Are they totally insane? ◉ The whole idea is utterly insane.

▸ rather rather, slightly, somewhat It all sounded slightly insane.
▸ in a particular way clinically, criminally He was in a prison for the criminally insane.

- v+ADJ be, be certified, become, be declared, be driven, go, seem, sound She knew she must get help or she would go insane. ◉ This probably sounds insane from a common-sense point of view.

inscription N
writing that is cut into or written on a surface, or a special message written on a page

- v+N have an inscription bear, carry The book bears the inscription 'Printed in Newark in 1778'.

▸ when an inscription is cut into a surface be carved, be cut, be engraved, be etched There are two inscriptions carved on the plinth.
▸ read an inscription decipher, read The inscription was deciphered; the stone was a Roman milestone.

- N+v commemorate, date from, read, record, refer to, say The Greek inscription reads 'The best things are laid up for us in heaven.'

insecure ADJ
not confident, strong or safe

- adv+ADJ in a particular way economically, emotionally, financially, socially In the current situation, millions of people feel financially insecure.

▸ very deeply, desperately, extremely, very Mike has become very insecure about his relationship with his wife.
▸ rather a little, rather, slightly, somewhat It feels a little insecure giving our credit card details electronically.

- ADJ+n employment, job, network, status This is a tool for secure remote login over insecure networks.
- v+ADJ be, become, feel, remain Householders feel increasingly insecure, and vulnerable. ◉ Their financial situation remained insecure for many years.

insecurity N
the feeling of not being confident or safe

- adj+N types of insecurity economic, emotional, financial, global, national, personal, political, social Do you face financial insecurity?

▸ deep deep, deep-seated, fundamental, inherent This desire to project one's own values onto other people masks a deep-seated insecurity.
▸ great acute, extreme, great, huge There was a feeling of great insecurity among tenants, given their few legal rights.
▸ felt by a lot of people or all the time chronic, constant, endemic, general, pervasive, widespread The violence and rape continues, and there is widespread insecurity.

- n+of+N feeling feeling, sense, sign Graffiti, litter and criminal damage heighten communities' feelings of insecurity and fear of crime.

▸ state climate, state The end result is a society threatened in its core values, a state of social insecurity.
▸ cause cause, source The causes of insecurity must be tackled rather than simply responding after a problem has arisen.

▸ sign sign, symptom Mr Hastings said that displaying the flag was a sign of insecurity.

insight N

the opportunity or ability to notice and understand things; something that you notice or understand

- adj+N interesting fascinating, interesting, intriguing He presents fascinating insights into historical figures.
- ▸ different or unusual fresh, further, new, rare, unique This will be a rare insight into a very interesting part of the world.
- ▸ showing or allowing great understanding clear, considerable, deep, detailed, great, penetrating, perceptive, profound, real, remarkable, revealing Her article contains some profound insights.
- ▸ useful important, invaluable, powerful, useful, valuable The powerful insights gained from this process enable you to make positive changes.
- v+N get an insight acquire, gain, get, obtain Work experience is an opportunity for young people to gain an insight into the world of work.
- ▸ give an insight afford (sb), give (sb), offer (sb), present, provide, reveal, share, yield This survey will provide fresh insights into public attitudes.
- ▸ show insight display, show She displays considerable insight.

insist V

say very firmly that something is true or must happen

- adv+V often or continuously always, often, repeatedly, resolutely, still Officials have repeatedly insisted that such an incident was impossible. ◉ But he still insists it is a bargain.
- ▸ in a determined way adamantly, doggedly, strongly, stubbornly, vehemently My mother stubbornly insisted on trying to do everything herself.
- ▸ completely absolutely They absolutely insist on it; they won't take no for an answer.

People often start a statement with I must insist... instead of I insist...: I must insist that you respect the terms of our arrangement.

- ▸ correctly rightly, wisely My teacher rightly insisted I do it.

inspection N

the process of checking something; an occasion when something is checked officially

- adj+N unexpected random, unannounced There were further unannounced inspections in September.
- ▸ happening often or at set times annual, frequent, periodic, programmed, regular, routine, yearly The Commission carries out an annual inspection to monitor standards and premises.
- ▸ happening at the beginning/happening later further, initial, preliminary Further inspection revealed that the work had not been carried out to the requested standard.
- ▸ done by a particular group external, independent, joint, public The shop must pass a rigorous independent inspection to ensure it meets the high standard of service laid down in the code of practice.
- ▸ careful/not careful careful, close, cursory, detailed, full, quick, rigorous, thorough, visual On closer inspection, the damage was not as bad as I had thought.*
- ▸ when an organization passes an inspection positive, satisfactory, successful Accreditation normally follows two satisfactory site inspections.
- v+N do an inspection carry out, conduct, do, make, perform, undertake Regular inspections were carried out. ◉ When work is complete, a detailed inspection of the premises will be made.
- ▸ have an inspection undergo The vehicle has undergone an inspection.
- ▸ pass/fail an inspection fail, pass There was an increase in the number of schools that failed inspections.
- N+v happen take place He assured her that inspections had taken place and the equipment was safe.
- ▸ involve cover, involve The inspection covers hygiene, safety, quality and service.
- ▸ show confirm, highlight, identify, indicate, reveal, show The inspection identifies strengths and areas for improvement. ◉ Close inspection revealed fingerprints.

inspiration N

a sudden feeling of enthusiasm, or a new idea; someone or something that gives you new ideas

- adj+N types of inspiration artistic, culinary, divine, musical, poetic All these features make London a source of artistic inspiration.
- ▸ new or original fresh, original We're always open to fresh inspiration.
- ▸ great great, real, true He was a real inspiration. ◉ His life-saving actions are a true inspiration to others.
- v+N get inspiration derive, draw, find, gain, get, take He drew inspiration from classical tales. ◉ Sue finds inspiration in the shapes and colours of these beautiful objects.
- ▸ need or look for inspiration lack, look for, need, seek, wait for I needed some inspiration.
- ▸ provide inspiration act as, provide, serve as These experiences provide inspiration for his poetry.
- N+v come, strike Most of my inspiration comes from traditional stories. ◉ But then inspiration struck!
- n+of+N burst, flash, moment, source, spark, vein The answer came to me in a flash of inspiration. ◉ There were three main sources of inspiration for her art: the sea, the landscape, and wild flowers.

inspire V

give people a particular feeling

- V+n affection, awe, confidence, devotion, envy, loyalty, passion, respect, terror It's not hard to see why the band inspires such passion in their fans.

instance N

an example of something happening

- adj+N many innumerable, many, multiple, numerous, several There have been many instances of Members using Scots words in their debates.
- ▸ few few, rare Please note, there are a few instances of strong language.

▸ first, second etc first, second The second instance is of a more tragic, as well as of a more striking, nature.
▸ remarkable remarkable, striking We have heard of two rather remarkable instances of this lately.
▸ particular particular, specific Could the term have another connotation in this particular instance?
▸ only only, single, solitary We shall confine ourselves to a single instance.

• v+N be an instance be, represent To be fair, there are instances where the melodies do not vary much from track to track.
▸ find or record an instance find, identify, record I found several instances of the phrase being quoted on CNN.
▸ mention an instance cite, give, mention, provide, report I give one instance, typical although extreme.

• N+of abuse, brutality, cruelty, fraud, harassment, malpractice, misconduct, misuse, non-compliance, plagiarism, theft, vandalism We know that there were instances of fraud under the previous system. ◆ It is necessary to give this warning because instances of plagiarism have been detected in the past.

instant ADJ
immediate

• adv+ADJ almost, virtually The impact was almost instant.

• ADJ+n feeling dislike, gratification, liking, rapport, reaction They took an instant dislike to one another. ◆ Most people have been trained to expect instant gratification these days.
▸ success bestseller, classic, fame, hit, success His novel became an instant success.
▸ communication answer, communication, confirmation, feedback, information, message, notification, response This program gives you instant feedback. ◆ If you receive emails or instant messages that upset you, just try to ignore them.
▸ access access The service is designed to provide instant access to colleagues who have similar problems.
▸ result or solution answer, result, solution There are not always instant solutions to life's problems.

instinct N a natural tendency to act in a particular way; a natural ability to know what to do in a particular situation

• adj+N basic base, basic, primal, primeval, primitive The primal instinct of self-preservation takes over.
▸ natural human, innate, natural It's human instinct to be suspicious.
▸ for protecting or fighting aggressive, predatory, protective He's going to have to curb his aggressive instincts.
▸ like a mother or father maternal, motherly, paternal She has strong maternal instincts.

• n+N types of instinct herd, homing, hunting, killer, survival This dog still has a very strong hunting instinct.
▸ basic animal, gut Follow your gut instincts.
• v+N follow instincts follow, obey, trust You've always told me to trust my instincts.
▸ not follow instincts curb, fight, ignore, overcome, suppress We should make the effort to overcome our basic animal instincts.
▸ produce or develop an instinct arouse, develop, hone Her motherly instincts were instantly aroused. ◆ I had already developed a finely-honed instinct for survival.

• N+v cause someone to do something drive, guide, lead, prompt, say, tell, warn We are all animals, driven by instincts little changed by civilisation. ◆ Let your instincts guide you. ◆ Some instinct warns her not to reveal her feelings.
▸ start working kick in, take over A survival instinct kicks in.

instinctive ADJ done naturally and without thinking

• adv+ADJ almost, completely, largely, purely It was a purely instinctive thing that made me love him.

• ADJ+n feeling or understanding dislike, fear, feel, feeling, grasp, hatred, sense, sympathy, understanding He had an instinctive feel for what was important and what was not.
▸ behaviour ability, behaviour, reaction, response, tendency The instinctive response to such a dilemma is to try and find a course of action that doesn't make it worse.

institution N
a large organization such as a bank, university, or hospital

• adj+N types of institution academic, charitable, educational, financial, political, private, professional, public, tertiary The hospital was founded in 1771 as a charitable institution.
▸ existing in a particular area global, local, regional, international, European, British etc The University would be the only Scottish institution taking part in the pilot.
▸ well-known or prestigious established, important, leading, major, prestigious, well-known He received honorary degrees from many prestigious institutions, including Cambridge University.

• n+N money banking, finance, lending Banks and other lending institutions offer funding solutions.
▸ education further education, higher education, research, teaching, university This is principally a teaching institution.
▸ working with others host, partner Scholarships are made on the basis of the host institution providing matching funds.
▸ government government, public-sector Public-sector institutions are better equipped to absorb the costs.

• n+with+N collaboration, connection, cooperation, link, partnership, relationship The university maintains research links with similar institutions worldwide.

instruction N
1 a statement about something that must be done [usually plural]

- adj+N clear clear, explicit, precise, specific Councils were given clear instructions on how to put the proposals into practice.
- ▸ detailed comprehensive, detailed, full He gave me detailed instructions on what to do in his absence.
- ▸ firm firm, strict He is under strict instructions to say nothing.
- ▸ given in a particular way verbal, written Keep any verbal instructions short and simple.
- v+N give instructions give, issue, leave, send He sent instructions to his son to buy the land.
- ▸ wait for instructions await I await your instructions.
- ▸ receive instructions get, receive Students will receive detailed instructions on how to present their work.
- ▸ follow/not follow instructions act on, comply with, disobey, disregard, follow, obey Why didn't you follow my instructions?

2 information explaining how to do or use something [always plural]

- adj+N clear or easy clear, easy-to-follow, simple, step-by-step Our step-by-step instructions will help you install the software successfully.
- ▸ detailed detailed, full Each unit comes with detailed instructions on assembly.
- v+N give instructions give, provide We provide instructions for use with all our equipment.
- ▸ read and follow instructions follow, read Click on the link and then follow the instructions. ◆ Always read the instructions before lighting fireworks.

You can also say that you do something according to the instructions or in accordance with the instructions: I assembled the furniture according to the instructions supplied by the manufacturer.

instrument N

something that is used in order to make something happen

- adj+N financial economic, financial There will be more use of economic instruments such as pricing and taxation.
- ▸ legal legal, legally binding, statutory The Treaty is a legally binding instrument.
- ▸ effective/not effective blunt, effective, powerful Using criminal law to control human behaviour is using a blunt instrument against a sophisticated problem. ◆ Education is probably the most powerful instrument of change that we have.
- v+as+N act, be used, function, serve In order to serve as an instrument of communication, language must be bound by rules.

insufficient ADJ

not enough

- adv+ADJ clearly, grossly, quite, wholly He said their plans were 'grossly insufficient'.
- ADJ+n information data, evidence There is insufficient evidence to draw clear conclusions.
- ▸ care attention, emphasis Insufficient attention is paid to what is going on outside this academic discipline.
- ▸ space space If there is insufficient space, please continue on a separate sheet.
- ▸ computer memory memory, RAM Applications work slowly or keep saying 'insufficient memory'. What's wrong?
- ▸ resources funding, funds, resources, supply Insufficient resources were made available to facilitate this process.
- v+ADJ be, become, be considered, be deemed, prove, remain The firm's assets proved insufficient to meet his costs and remuneration.

insult N

an offensive remark; something that shows a lack of respect

- adj+N deliberate, the final, gratuitous, grave, gross, personal, racial, racist, the ultimate The final insult is that now we, the taxpayers, have to rescue the banks that caused the problem. ◆ This is a grave insult to all decent people.

To add insult to injury is used to talk about an additional problem: They are treated badly and, to add insult to injury, receive appallingly low wages.

- v+N shout insults hurl, shout, throw They hurled insults at me.
- ▸ when two people or groups insult each other exchange, trade The two politicians used the broadcast to exchange insults.

Usage Insult is usually plural in these combinations.

insulting ADJ

offensive

- adv+ADJ very deeply, downright, extremely, highly They found her behaviour deeply insulting.
- ▸ rather mildly, pretty INFORMAL, rather, slightly, vaguely Praising a book as a 'quick read' seems to me to be mildly insulting.
- ADJ+n behaviour, comments, language, remarks, words He admitted abusive and insulting behaviour towards staff.
- and/or abusive, aggressive, offensive, rude, threatening Material which contains abusive or insulting language will be banned.

insurance N an arrangement with a company in which you give them money regularly, and receive money from them if something bad happens

- n+N vehicle auto, automobile, car It is an offence to drive without car insurance.
- ▸ travel holiday, travel It is strongly recommended that you take out holiday insurance.
- ▸ personal health, home, household, life We could save you up to 25 per cent on your home insurance.
- v+N have or get insurance be covered by, buy, get, have, obtain, take out The cost of treatment will be covered by your insurance. ◆ It is sensible to take out insurance against cancellation.
- ▸ make insurance not valid invalidate Failure to disclose a pre-existing medical condition may invalidate your insurance.
- ▸ when someone makes a claim claim on When the kitchen was flooded, we claimed for the damage on our insurance.

- N+v cover sb/sth, pay out Check if your insurance covers you for legal costs. ◆ Make sure the insurance covers dentist's costs too. ◆ General insurance only pays out when the insured event occurs.
- N+n arrangement cover, plan, policy You are required to take out insurance cover.
- ▶ money costs, premium, quote Insurance premiums have risen by ten per cent this year.
- ▶ person or organization broker, company He worked as an insurance broker.
- ▶ claim claim Use this form if you need to make an insurance claim.

insurmountable ADJ impossible to deal with successfully

- adv+ADJ almost, apparently, seemingly It is a seemingly insurmountable problem.
- ADJ+n problem barrier, challenge, difficulty, hurdle, obstacle, problem, task This may seem like an insurmountable task to other people.
- ▶ chance of something happening odds He overcame seemingly insurmountable odds to achieve his dream.
- v+ADJ appear, be, prove, seem You must be prepared to be flexible if the problems prove insurmountable.

intact ADJ

not harmed, damaged, or lacking any parts

- adv+ADJ to a particular extent almost, largely, reasonably, relatively, substantially, virtually The bridge is still largely intact.
- ▶ completely completely, fully, perfectly We are now able to move large trees with the root system almost completely intact.
- ▶ still still The buildings had survived, with many of the original walls still intact.
- v+ADJ arrive, be, keep sth, leave sth, preserve sth, remain, survive The Welsh have preserved intact their language and music. ◆ This unique little church survived intact until 1757.

intake N

1 the amount of something you eat or drink

- adj+N high or too high excess, excessive, high A high intake of green vegetables is associated with a reduced risk for bowel cancer.
- ▶ moderate or adequate adequate, average, moderate Choose a balanced diet and focus on moderate fat intake.
- ▶ low or inadequate inadequate, insufficient, low People in poorer households have lower nutritional intakes than people in richer households.
- ▶ happening regularly daily, regular A diet that includes regular intake of spices can help maintain resistance to infection.
- ▶ types of intake caloric, calorific, dietary, nutritional Which food provides 15 per cent of our daily dietary calcium intake?
- v+N reduce intake cut, decrease, limit, lower, moderate, reduce, restrict Reducing calorie intake during pregnancy is generally not recommended.
- ▶ increase intake boost INFORMAL, double, increase, up INFORMAL I've upped my daily fruit intake considerably.
- ▶ control or check intake control, monitor, regulate I am taking steps to control my alcohol intake, but I find the thought of not drinking pretty tough.
- ▶ exceed intake exceed It is inadvisable to exceed the recommended daily intake.

2 the number of people accepted by an institution

- adj+N annual, current, estimated, new The MBA International has an annual intake of 75 students.
- v+N increase intake boost INFORMAL, double, increase The Committee advised the Government to increase student intake nationally by 1000 per year.
- ▶ reduce intake cut, reduce Both schools were considering reducing their intake for future years.

integration N

the process of combining things; or of becoming, or allowing someone to become, a full member of society

- adj+N effective or complete close, complete, effective, seamless, successful The judges were particularly impressed by their seamless integration of live and recorded music.
- ▶ types of integration economic, global, political, racial, regional, social
- v+N encourage or increase integration accelerate, encourage, enhance, facilitate, foster, improve, increase, promote, support This policy encourages integration of research and collaboration across traditional boundaries.
- ▶ achieve integration achieve, allow, bring about, enable, ensure This plan should achieve successful integration between the two departments.
- ▶ prevent integration hinder, impede Central government should ensure that integration is not impeded by factors that lie within its control.
- N+into community, economy, society, system Membership of the World Trade Organization is a linchpin of our integration into the world economy.
- n+towards+N move, progress, step They resisted all moves towards further European integration.

integrity N

1 the quality of always following your moral principles

- adj+N great or complete absolute, great, high, unimpeachable, unquestionable, the utmost Stan is well known to be a person of unimpeachable integrity.
- ▶ types of integrity academic, artistic, editorial, journalistic, moral, personal, professional, scientific Courtesy, tolerance and personal integrity are esteemed qualities.
- v+N have or keep your integrity have, maintain, retain Can he maintain his integrity and still remain silent when this is going on?
- ▶ damage someone's integrity compromise, undermine For years, I have argued that this state of affairs compromises our intellectual integrity.
- ▶ not have integrity lack Their leaders were all felt to lack integrity.

▸ respect someone's integrity respect Even those who disagree will respect her integrity.
▸ question someone's integrity doubt, question I'm not asking you to support me, but I don't think that anyone can question my integrity.

• and/or competence, courage, dignity, fairness, honesty, impartiality, openness, probity, professionalism, selflessness, sincerity, uprightness Honesty, integrity and professionalism underpin everything that we do.

2 the quality of being complete or whole

• adj+N physical, structural, territorial The item must also be inspected to ensure its structural integrity.

• n+N data, database, document, system Pages can be checked on-screen for data integrity and colour matching.

• v+N keep integrity ensure, guarantee, maintain, preserve, protect, retain, safeguard They took careful steps with the evidence to preserve its integrity.
▸ damage or threaten integrity compromise, jeopardize, threaten, undermine, violate The defect did not threaten the integrity of the building.
▸ check integrity check, verify Use this report to verify the integrity of your external links.

• and/or accuracy, authenticity, confidentiality, consistency, reliability, security, sovereignty This was considered a threat to the country's sovereignty and territorial integrity.

intellectual ADJ

relating to the ability to think intelligently

• adv+ADJ very or too highly, overly, too, very Seigl, highly intellectual and wealthy, is struggling to come to terms with his background.
▸ only merely, purely His earlier work tended towards purely intellectual puzzle pictures.

• ADJ+n good qualities challenge, curiosity, honesty, integrity What do I enjoy most about my job? The intellectual challenge. ◆ An intellectual curiosity and a real desire to learn are also important attributes.
▸ bad qualities dishonesty, laziness, snobbery, superiority You might accuse me of intellectual snobbery.
▸ ability ability, capacity The primary purpose is to develop your intellectual capacity.
▸ something that people do achievement, pursuit He participated in a number of cultural and intellectual pursuits.
▸ tradition or general situation climate, life, tradition The subject known as 'Cultural Studies' draws on the Marxist intellectual tradition.

• and/or aesthetic, artistic, creative, cultural, emotional, moral, physical, political, practical, sensory, social, spiritual The social, intellectual, spiritual and emotional needs of the pupils drive our educational agenda.

intelligence N

1 the ability to understand and think about things

• adj+N low/average/high above-average, average, high, low, superior Most children with epilepsy are of average intelligence.
▸ great considerable, great She's a writer of great intelligence and vitality.
▸ types of intelligence emotional, human, innate, interpersonal, intrapersonal What, if anything, is meant by 'emotional intelligence'?

• v+N have or show intelligence possess, show Why do human beings possess intelligence so superior to that of our nearest relatives?
▸ use your intelligence apply, use Try and teach children to use their intelligence.
▸ insult someone's intelligence insult, underestimate This report insults the intelligence of the public.
▸ measure someone's intelligence measure IQ or Intelligence Quotient is an attempt to measure intelligence.
▸ lack intelligence lack He much resembled his father, but lacked his sharp intelligence.

2 information about secret activity

• v+N get intelligence collect, gain, gather, obtain, receive They had received little intelligence that such an attack would take place.
▸ provide or share intelligence disseminate, provide, share Russia can give the US a great deal of help by sharing intelligence on terrorist groups.

• N+n person agent, analyst, chief, officer, official, operative, source The brothers were debriefed by Western intelligence officials.
▸ organization agency, community, service The intelligence agency says it will pay for information that is valuable to the U.S. government.
▸ activity gathering, operations, sharing They are providing a valuable source of intelligence gathering.

intelligent ADJ

good at thinking clearly and quickly

• adv+ADJ very exceptionally, extremely, fiercely, highly, incredibly, very Thinking up something highly intelligent, witty and relevant is a difficult thing to do.
▸ fairly fairly, moderately, quite, reasonably Some of the people who contact us seem reasonably intelligent and articulate.
▸ with regard to feelings emotionally Happiness requires emotionally intelligent attitudes and behaviour.

• ADJ+n living being animal, being, creature, layman, man, person, woman Nicely written for the intelligent layman, this is a good all-round introduction to what stone circles are all about.
▸ machine device, machine, robot, system When intelligent robots are sent into hazardous situations, fewer human lives are put at risk.

• and/or bright, creative, funny, informed, perceptive, sensitive, thoughtful, witty He struck me as an intelligent and thoughtful person.

intelligible ADJ

clear or simple enough to understand

• adv+ADJ completely fully, perfectly Her speech is not perfect, but she is perfectly intelligible.

▸ hardly barely, scarcely The Latin text is scarcely intelligible.
▸ easily easily, readily The discussion will be readily intelligible to a broad readership.
▸ when two people or groups can understand each other mutually Swedish is closely related to, and often mutually intelligible with, Danish and Norwegian.

• ADJ+n account, explanation, language, sentence, speech, word The language is intelligible even to a child.

• v+ADJ be, become, make sth, render sth His statement only becomes intelligible when we acknowledge that he is using irony. ❁ The EU can be made to work, and its workings can be made intelligible.

intense ADJ

very great or extreme; done with a lot of effort or attention

• adv+ADJ very extraordinarily, extremely, incredibly, really, so, too, very Extraordinarily intense flavours are found in every dish.
▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather The sun can be quite intense and you should take care to drink plenty of fluids.
▸ especially particularly The main focus of the meeting was on the drug industry, which is under particularly intense scrutiny at the moment.

• ADJ+n physical sensation aroma, cold, flavour, heat, pain We have cooler springs and less intense heat during the summer.
▸ feelings desire, dislike, emotion, excitement, feeling, longing Don't feel embarrassed about crying, as it helps when you release these intense emotions.
▸ when something is considered or discussed debate, scrutiny, speculation The bank was subject of intense speculation yesterday, with analysts suggesting it would be nationalized.
▸ when someone is thinking hard concentration This work demands intense concentration and it is very tiring.
▸ pressure pressure Ministries will now come under intense pressure to change the law.
▸ fighting bombardment, fighting The Allies attacked under cover of an intense bombardment.
▸ competition competition, rivalry Intense competition ensures that only a few actors reach star billing.

• v+ADJ be, become, get, grow, remain The pressure got more intense in the second year of the course.

intensify V become or make something greater, stronger, or more extreme

• adv+V dramatically, greatly, sharply First of all, exploitation of the colonies will become greatly intensified.

• V+n activity activity, campaign, competition, cooperation, effort, pressure We agreed to increase and intensify our efforts in the security area.
▸ conflict battle, conflict, crackdown, offensive, struggle, violence He announced his intention to intensify the conflict.

• n+V activity competition, fighting, pressure From 1985 to 1987, fighting intensified, with heavy casualties.
▸ physical sensation heat, pain As the heat intensified, the trucks became like ovens.

intensive ADJ

1 involving a lot of effort, energy, or attention

• adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, particularly, really, very Listening to a foreign language is a very intensive and demanding activity.
▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather I presented my Interim Report this morning and we had a fairly intensive discussion.

• ADJ+n study or training course, programme, study, training, tuition Many postgraduate courses are very intensive and can be extremely hard work.
▸ treatment or care care, chemotherapy, intervention, physiotherapy, support, therapy, treatment Having undergone months of intensive chemotherapy, Mollie felt weak and depressed.
▸ attempt effort The press generally praised the intensive efforts on the part of the government to secure the hostages' freedom.
▸ use use There is still little experience of the intensive use of Information Technology in the ordinary classroom.

2 producing as much food as possible

• ADJ+n agriculture, cultivation, farming, grazing, methods, production, rearing The book is about social injustice as well as intensive farming. ❁ Many health scares have been linked to intensive farming methods.

intention N

a plan in your mind to do something

• adj+N good the best of, good, honourable, noble, peaceful I know you had the best of intentions, but you should have consulted me first. ❁ She said that everything she had done had been done with good intentions.
▸ bad bad, evil, murderous Euthanasia of any form would inevitably be corrupted by those with evil intentions.

Usage Intention is usally plural in the adj+N combinations shown above: You can only talk of sin when a person's intentions are bad.

▸ stated or clear avowed, clear, conscious, deliberate, express, stated The stated intention of the changes is to deliver improved services for patients.

If someone does not intend to do something, you can say that they do not have the slightest intention of doing it: He was an armchair rebel and had not the slightest intention of going to jail.

▸ real real, true By the time Rick realised Tony's real intentions it was too late.
▸ first original The original intention had been to climb Helvellyn as well, but I decided to cut the route short.
▸ only sole This was done with the sole intention of causing controversy.

• v+N have an intention have In the future I have every intention of aiming higher.

You can say that you have no intention of doing something to emphasize that you do not intend to do it: We have no intention whatsoever of placing restrictions on the sports of angling and shooting.

- ▸ state an intention announce, communicate, declare, express, indicate, signal, state She has indicated her intention to retire from the Board.
- ▸ confirm an intention confirm, reaffirm, reiterate He confirmed his intention to come to Moscow for the event.

interest N

1 a feeling of wanting to know about something

- adj+N strong active, avid, considerable, deep, great, keen, passionate, special He has a keen interest in sailing and also enjoys fishing.
- ▸ lasting a long time abiding, lifelong, long-standing This early introduction to languages laid the foundations of his abiding interest in all languages.
- ▸ real genuine, real My real interest in railways dates from a visit to the Bluebell Railway in 1974.
- v+N have or show interest express, feel, have, show, take Peter was soon making contact with medical men who had an interest in hypnosis.
- ▸ create interest arouse, attract, generate, rekindle, spark, stimulate The demonstrations were very well supported and much interest was generated. ◉ Others who had already used the technology said the seminar had rekindled their interest.
- ▸ keep interest keep, maintain, sustain It's absolutely essential to maintain the audience's interest throughout your speech.
- ▸ lose interest lose I lost interest in music generally for many years.
- N+v grow, wane His interest in music has waned since he left university.
- n+of+N lack, level The students' lack of interest made teaching them hard work.

2 a quality that makes you notice something

- adj+N great considerable, especial, great, particular, special Of great interest to coin collectors is the reign of James II.
- ▸ little little Generally, this type of research is of little interest to the average reader.
- ▸ when something is interesting in itself intrinsic Students found that the intrinsic interest of the material justifies the work involved in studying it.
- ▸ types of interest archaeological, architectural, historic, historical, local, scientific The building is considered of significant historical interest.
- v+N be of, have, hold no, lack This specific issue will continue to be of interest in Scotland and throughout the UK. ◉ The topic held no interest for me.

3 something you enjoy doing or learning about

- adj+N main main, principal Ian's main interests are in cultural theory and gender studies.
- ▸ wide broad, wide, wide-ranging His scholarship and interests were wide-ranging.
- ▸ of a person personal, sb's own Construct an entirely customised itinerary, to suit your own interests and idiosyncrasies.
- ▸ in a particular area leisure, outside, sporting It is important to have outside interests apart from your work.
- ▸ academic academic, research, scholarly, specialist, teaching The group comprises researchers and scholars with a range of specialist interests.

4 money charged or paid for lending money

- v+N charge interest charge You will continue to be charged interest during any period of deferment.
- ▸ pay interest pay Mostly, the interest is paid without tax being deducted.
- ▸ earn interest earn If you save money on deposit with a bank or building society, you will earn interest.
- N+v accrue Interest accrues on a daily basis from the date of your purchase.
- N+n charge, payment, rate, repayment The interest payments are exempt from income tax.
- n+of+N rate What rate of interest will be charged?

5 an advantage or benefit to someone or something

- adj+N now, or in the future long-term, short-term We have to look after the long-term interests of the college.
- ▸ personal personal, private, selfish, sb's own He put his private interests above those of the residents.
- ▸ types of interest commercial, economic, financial, national, political, public We reserve the right to publish your views if there is an overriding public interest.

If something is in someone's best interests, it brings an advantage to them: It's in your best interests to resign now. If someone has somebody's (best) interests at heart, they want to help them: He claims he has only my best interests at heart.

- v+N represent or help someone's interests act in, further, look after, promote, represent, serve She claimed to be acting in the interest of the company. ◉ Pressure groups seek to represent the interests of a particular section of society.
- ▸ defend someone's interests defend, protect, safeguard They were searching for the best way to defend the interests of the nation.

interested ADJ wanting to know about or do something

- adv+ADJ very deeply, especially, extremely, greatly, intensely, keenly, particularly, passionately, really, very I was particularly interested in what she had to say about diabetes and insulin.
- ▸ slightly fairly, mildly, not terribly, vaguely I was vaguely interested in what he had to say.
- ▸ only only, simply He was only interested in how many of them I could sell for him.
- ▸ not at all not at all, not in the least, not remotely, not the least bit INFORMAL The public is not remotely interested in media ethics.
- ▸ mainly chiefly, mainly, primarily, principally The services are primarily interested in expanding in ways which fit with their existing business.
- ▸ truly genuinely, seriously, truly Please only reply if you are genuinely interested – thanks.
- v+ADJ appear, be, become, feel, get, get sb, remain, seem, sound If you are interested in sport, Birmingham has plenty of facilities. ◆ We need to get more people interested in taking part.

interesting ADJ

making you want to know about it

- adv+ADJ very especially, extremely, genuinely, intensely, particularly, really, terribly INFORMAL, very Combined degrees can be particularly interesting and challenging for students.
- ▸ not at all not remotely, not terribly INFORMAL, not very There's nothing remotely interesting or original going on in this storyline.
- ▸ rather or not very fairly, mildly, moderately, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, vaguely This is his own account of those years, an account I found quite interesting.
- ▸ because of what it is intrinsically You'll find the novel intrinsically interesting and also important for the light it sheds on the period.
- ▸ in a particular way architecturally, historically, philosophically, scientifically, theoretically, visually There were lots of large, modern office blocks and they really were very architecturally interesting.
- v+ADJ be, become, find sb/sth, look, make sth, prove, seem, sound You don't want to spend a year on something that you don't find at all interesting. ◆ The answers to the questionnaire proved very interesting.
- and/or useful enlightening, informative, instructive, relevant, useful, worthwhile We hope that you will visit the site and find the project interesting and informative.
- ▸ enjoyable amusing, engaging, enjoyable, entertaining, rewarding It was interesting and amusing to hear his experiences.
- ▸ exciting challenging, exciting, lively, stimulating, thought-provoking I'd describe the working environment here as continually interesting and challenging.

interminable ADJ

continuing for a long time in a boring way

- adv+ADJ seemingly Their war service was a seemingly interminable succession of physically and mentally punishing patrols.
- ADJ+n wait delay, wait After an interminable wait instructions were given to board a train which had just steamed alongside our ship.
- ▸ discussion argument, debate, discussion I never wanted to get involved in interminable arguments.
- ▸ meeting meeting I wasn't sorry not to have to attend any more of those interminable meetings when I retired.
- v+ADJ be, seem The journey through the night seemed interminable.

the Internet N

the computer system that allows people across the world to exchange information

- adj+N broadband, high-speed, mobile, wireless All students must have access to a computer which has broadband Internet.
- v+N have or use the Internet access, be connected to, be linked to, connect to, go on, link to, use There is no question that consumers want to access the Internet at high speeds.
- ▸ search the Internet explore, scour, search, surf, trawl I surf the Internet and do most of my work online.
- ▸ regulate the Internet censor, police, regulate The government uses filtering systems to police and censor the Internet.
- v+on+N advertise, buy, find, look, post, publish, search, sell, shop The results will be published on the Internet. ◆ I enjoy shopping on the Internet.
- v+via/over+N access, broadcast, communicate, deliver, order, purchase, sell, send The course is delivered via the Internet, using a Virtual Learning Environment. ◆ Most of our products are sold over the Internet.

interpret V understand or explain something

- adv+V correctly/wrongly accurately, correctly, incorrectly, mistakenly, properly, rightly, wrongly They had not interpreted the evidence correctly.
- ▸ broadly/narrowly broadly, flexibly, liberally, literally, loosely, narrowly, restrictively, strictly, widely The term 'language' is interpreted broadly to include all human communication.
- ▸ cautiously carefully, cautiously, tentatively The results of this analysis should be cautiously interpreted.
- ▸ by a lot of people widely This decision was widely interpreted as an admission of failure on the government's part.
- ▸ in different ways variously The name of the village has been variously interpreted.

Usage Interpret is usually passive in all of the adv+V combinations shown above: The results need to be carefully interpreted. With widely and various, interpret is always passive.

- V+n information data, evidence, findings, information, results There is concern that current requirements lead to a rather artificial approach to analysing and interpreting data.
- ▸ writing brief, passage, scripture, text Only the Pope or the top hierarchy could interpret the holy scriptures.
- ▸ symbols or dreams dream, parable, prophecy, symbol For many years, scholars interpreted these symbols as letters in Phoenician script.
- ▸ law law, legislation It is for the courts to interpret law, not the regulator.
- ▸ visual information chart, diagram, graph An added bonus is that pupils develop their ability to interpret graphs in a meaningful context.

interpretation N

an explanation of the meaning of something

- adj+N wide/narrow broad, liberal, literal, narrow, selective, strict Some religious groups argue for a literal interpretation of the Bible.
- ▸ correct/wrong accurate, authoritative, correct, false, incorrect, valid, wrong Will you confirm whether my interpretation is more correct than the one that you offered?

- possible plausible, possible We put forward possible interpretations of these results.
- personal sb's own, subjective His reading is based on a highly subjective interpretation.
- different alternative, conflicting, contradictory, different, differing, divergent The tradition of law is an ongoing process of conflicting interpretations.

If something is open to interpretation, its intended meaning is not clear and people may have different opinions about it: Beckett's play is open to various interpretations.

- v+N give an interpretation give, offer, present, propose, provide, suggest The advice and interpretation given is useful, wise and appropriate.
- accept an interpretation accept Sometimes their new interpretations were readily accepted by their peers.
- reject an interpretation challenge, dispute, reject The doctors are challenging the strict interpretations of the guidelines.
- support an interpretation confirm, favour, support The underlying Greek text does not support this interpretation.
- need interpretation need, require Data requires interpretation before it becomes 'information'.
- when something is difficult to interpret defy, resist There are some place names which defy interpretation.
- make an interpretation possible allow Satellite images allow the interpretation of habitats, population and industry.

- n+of+N matter, method, problem, process, question, range, variety The meaning of race is a matter of social interpretation, not a fact of biology or genetics. ⁕ These facts are open to a variety of interpretations.

interrupt V

stop someone speaking or make something stop for a time

- adv+V often/not often constantly, continually, frequently, occasionally, periodically, repeatedly According to one observer, he was unable to answer without being constantly interrupted.
- for a short time briefly, temporarily A mini stroke occurs when the blood supply is briefly interrupted.
- suddenly or violently abruptly, rudely, suddenly When I was 11, our quiet lives were rudely interrupted by World War II.

- V+n career, conversation, flow, proceedings, sleep, speech, studies, supply, thoughts All this running around interrupts the flow of the game.

interruption N

something that stops someone speaking or something happening for a time

- adj+N frequent/not frequent constant, frequent, occasional They had difficulty working in that office because of frequent interruptions.
- short or unimportant brief, minimal, minor, short, slight, temporary 62 Roper Road was to be my home, with a few short interruptions, for nine years.
- planned/not planned planned, unplanned, unscheduled IT services are subject to unplanned interruption from time to time.
- sudden or rude rude, sudden, unexpected There is a sudden rude interruption as the narrator dashes on stage and yells to the speaker.

- v+N cause interruption cause There is considerable engineering work that may cause interruption in your area.
- avoid or reduce interruptions avoid, minimize, prevent, reduce Steps should be taken to avoid unnecessary interruptions to consultations.
- experience interruption experience, suffer, tolerate Users will not experience any interruption in service.
- ignore interruptions ignore Ignoring the interruption, he continued.

intervene V

become involved in a situation, in order to change it

- adv+V directly actively, directly, personally, positively Will the Prime Minister personally intervene to defend our grammar schools?
- quickly early, immediately, promptly, quickly It is important to intervene early before problems become serious.
- effectively decisively, effectively, successfully We will intervene decisively and effectively where councils are failing local people.
- in a particular way militarily, physically There is already a general reluctance amongst states to intervene militarily.

- V+in a process affairs, case, debate, matter, proceedings, process, situation US administrations keep finding new excuses for intervening in Latin American affairs.
- a fight conflict, dispute, fight, row, struggle, war He intervened in a dispute which took place in a local shop.

intervention N

when someone becomes involved in something

- adj+N early early, timely With early intervention, disabled children's lives can be transformed.
- not much minimal The children work on their own or in groups, with minimal intervention from teachers.
- effective effective, targeted To be effective, interventions need to be customer-oriented.
- medical medical, pharmacological, surgical, therapeutic When other treatments have failed, surgical intervention is possible.
- by an army or government armed, government, humanitarian, military, state Government intervention in the media varies across countries.
- human/not human divine, human, manual Service has been patchy where the failure of IT has meant reliance on human intervention. ⁕ Mostly, this process will happen automatically, but sometimes manual intervention is required.

- v+N need or ask for intervention call for, necessitate, need, require Within a couple of years she felt that further surgical intervention was required.
- justify intervention justify, warrant The problem is not serious enough to warrant intervention.

interview N
a formal meeting in which someone asks another person questions

- adj+N for research face-to-face, follow-up, in-depth, one-on-one, one-to-one, qualitative, semi-structured, structured, unstructured Data was collected using semi-structured interviews and questionnaires.
- ▸ for the public candid, celebrity, exclusive, live, revealing In an exclusive interview with our paper, Daniel admitted that he had taken drugs.
- ▸ for a job job Hopefully, your job interviews will all go well.
- ▸ using a particular medium broadcast, newspaper, phone, radio, telephone, television, TV After you have submitted the application form there will be a telephone interview.
- ▸ formal/informal formal, informal Entry to this course is through an informal interview with the course manager.
- ▸ with the police police Police interviews with detainees should not be interrupted to facilitate visits.

- v+N conduct an interview carry out, conduct, do, hold In the majority of cases the interviews were conducted in the respondent's home.
- ▸ ask for or arrange an interview arrange, request The newspaper requested an interview with the minister.
- ▸ give an interview do, give, grant Bonney loves giving interviews and is exuberant and bubbly.
- ▸ get or attend a job interview attend, be called for, be invited for, be selected for, be shortlisted for, come for, go for, have Interested applicants are asked to attend an interview.

- N+n material data, transcript Actual quotations from interview transcripts are given in italics.
- ▸ process preparation, process, question, skills, techniques, tips What is the application and interview process?
- ▸ recording of interview clips, footage, snippets The clips were punctuated by interview footage of those who had been affected by the disaster.

- n+from+N excerpt, extract This is an excerpt from a 2008 interview with the party leader.

intimidating ADJ
making you feel nervous or frightened

- adv+ADJ rather a little, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, slightly, somewhat The sound of splintering glass was quite intimidating.
- ▸ very extremely, very Large fairs can be very intimidating.

- ADJ+n place or situation atmosphere, environment, experience, place, process, prospect, situation Being interviewed by a panel of five people was an intimidating prospect.
- ▸ a person's behaviour behaviour, manner, presence Even as a 16-year-old he had an intimidating physical presence.

- and/or abusive, aggressive, frightening, hostile, malicious, offensive, threatening, violent Intimidating or abusive behaviour just won't be tolerated.

intolerable ADJ impossible to bear or deal with

- adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, quite, simply I found this situation quite intolerable.
- ▸ almost almost, increasingly I meet people daily who find facets of their lives almost intolerable.

- ADJ+n situation burden, conditions, pressure, strain, stress Both the Prison and Probation Services are under near intolerable pressure.
- ▸ behaviour behaviour, interference, nuisance This sort of behaviour is intolerable.
- ▸ suffering pain, suffering His face expressed intolerable suffering.
- ▸ level level Local campaigners claim the new road will create intolerable noise levels.

- v+ADJ be, become, find sth, make sth, prove, seem The situation is becoming intolerable for the residents. ● Thousands of young women face challenges every day that most of us would find intolerable.

intolerance N
the refusal to accept behaviour or beliefs that are different from your own

- adj+N types of intolerance racial, religious Modern audiences may find the issues of religious intolerance and xenophobia rather close to home.
- ▸ increasing growing, increasing These developments are taking place in the context of growing intolerance and racism in Europe.

- v+N cause intolerance breed, cause These fears breed intolerance, discrimination and racism.
- ▸ show intolerance display, show He despaired that such a traditionally liberal country would show such intolerance of different points of view.

- and/or feelings bigotry, fanaticism, hatred, ignorance, prejudice, racism, xenophobia That kind of bigotry and intolerance towards minorities ought to be unacceptable.
- ▸ acts discrimination, persecution, violence Early modern Europe was noted for its religious intolerance, persecution and division.

intricate ADJ
very detailed in design or structure; very complicated

- adv+ADJ very amazingly, beautifully, extremely, highly, incredibly, very China's craftsmen create incredibly intricate ornaments and jewellery from jade.
- ▸ rather fairly, quite, rather The walls are covered with designs and patterns, many quite intricate.

- ADJ+n object carving, embroidery, tapestry The variety of materials and themes for these intricate carvings is astonishing.
- ▸ pattern decoration, design, detail, mosaic, pattern, shape You do not have the skill to paint the intricate designs.
- ▸ structure maze, network, web Once the heart of the old fishing town, Brighton's historic quarter is an intricate maze of twisting alleyways.
- ▸ in music harmony, melody, rhythm The intricate melodies and interwoven harmonies will repay careful and repeated attention.

▸ plot plot This is high-quality writing: the plot is intricate but coherent, and the characterization is excellent.

intriguing ADJ

very interesting, and often strange or mysterious

- adv+ADJ very endlessly, especially, highly, particularly, very, wonderfully Afghanistan is an amazing and endlessly intriguing place.
- ▸ rather quite, rather On paper, the character twists that emerge sound quite intriguing.
- ▸ truly certainly, genuinely, truly For adventurous diners, it offers some genuinely intriguing dishes.
- ▸ equally equally Act II of Richard and Anne's story is as intriguing and heartbreaking as the first.

- ADJ+n mixture blend, combination, mix, mixture Hobart itself is an intriguing blend of heritage and lifestyle, scenery and culture.
- ▸ idea or possibility concept, idea, possibility, premise, prospect This apparently simple provision raises a number of intriguing possibilities.
- ▸ story character, plot, story, tale, title The characters are developed and engaging, the plot is intriguing.
- ▸ look at something glimpse, insight The biography offers an intriguing insight into his early life.
- ▸ mystery mystery, puzzle, question The identity of the young woman remains an intriguing mystery.

- v+ADJ be, become, find sth, look, remain, seem, sound What aspects of Japanese culture do you find most intriguing? ● That sounds intriguing. Tell me more!

introduce V

bring something into existence or start to use something

- adv+V first first, initially, originally When civil partnerships were first introduced, many people tended to regard them as just a formality.
- ▸ slowly gradually, progressively Once we have discovered if the child can see at all, we can gradually introduce different stimuli.
- ▸ successfully successfully The right of access was successfully introduced two months ahead of target.
- ▸ accidentally/not accidentally accidentally, deliberately, inadvertently The water hyacinth was accidentally introduced to Lake Victoria in 1988.

- V+n law or rule bill, legislation, measure, reform, regulation There was a firm belief that the new Government would introduce legislation against age discrimination.
- ▸ idea or subject concept, idea, notion, topic Ideas and concepts introduced to you in your first year will be developed later in the course.
- ▸ system or policy change, initiative, method, policy, procedure, scheme, system We introduced the mentoring system into the college last year.

introduction N

1 the process of bringing something into existence or use for the first time

- adj+N gradual gradual, phased He is reassured by the idea of a gradual introduction.
- ▸ recent recent Its recent introduction has raised questions about whether the drug is effective and cost-effective.
- ▸ in many places widespread Pilot schemes are essential before widespread introduction.

- v+N bring about the introduction of something announce, facilitate, oversee, pioneer, propose The university has pioneered the introduction of the four-day timetable.
- ▸ delay or advance the introduction of something accelerate, bring forward, delay, postpone The government decided to postpone the introduction of the system.
- ▸ oppose or support the introduction of something oppose, prevent, support, welcome, would like to see I oppose the introduction of the euro on principle.
- ▸ when something is introduced herald, see That year saw the introduction of free bus passes for pensioners.

2 a first opportunity to learn or experience something

- adj+N short or simple accessible, basic, brief, concise, general, gentle, practical, quick The Ibsen workshop was a brief introduction to his work.
- ▸ good excellent, good, ideal, informative, perfect, readable, sound, useful This is an easy route, and an excellent introduction to the area.
- ▸ complete comprehensive, thorough The Handbook is a comprehensive introduction to health and safety.
- ▸ expressing opinions critical The book is called The New Media: a critical introduction.

- v+N give, include, offer, provide This book provides a sound introduction to economics, organization and management.

intruder N

someone who should not be in a place

- adj+N unwanted uninvited, unwanted, unwelcome The spiny branches are a useful deterrent against unwanted intruders.
- ▸ possible possible, potential, would-be The tannoy system has been effectively employed to scare off would-be intruders.
- ▸ with particular characteristics armed, malicious, masked Along the frontier, soldiers killed 34 armed intruders.

- v+N keep intruders away deter, keep out, repel, scare off, stop The presence of effective security measures strongly deters intruders.
- ▸ find or catch intruders catch, confront, detect, discover, disturb, identify, tackle They believe that the dog's barking disturbed the intruders.

intrusion N

someone or something that interrupts; the act of becoming involved in something in a way that is not wanted

- adj+N not wanted or not reasonable unacceptable, unauthorized, unnecessary, unwanted, unwarranted, unwelcome This is a piece of unnecessary intrusion into our national life.
- ▸ sudden or violent sudden, violent These films are based upon the sudden intrusion of modern life into a small rural Scottish community.
- ▸ types of intrusion government, media, press He says that media intrusion has played a big part in the collapse of the marriage.

- v+N reduce or avoid intrusion avoid, minimize, prevent, reduce The design places great emphasis on minimizing intrusion on the landscape.
- ▸ dislike intrusion resent He seemed to resent the intrusion of a human being in such an unfrequented spot.
- ▸ notice intrusion detect I have a CCTV system with movement detection to transmit video when an intrusion is detected.

intuition N

the ability to know or understand things through your feelings

- adj+N female, feminine, human, sb's own Here are some examples to check against your own intuitions.
- v+N use or develop intuition develop, follow, rely on, trust, use I'm sure it will work out – trust your intuition.
- ▸ confirm someone's intuition confirm The results of the survey confirmed our intuitions.
- N+v guide, suggest, tell sb What is your intuition telling you about this relationship?
- n+of+N flash, power By some flash of intuition, I knew what it was that he intended. ◉ We believe in the power of intuition and common sense.

intuitive ADJ

based on feelings rather than on facts

- adv+ADJ very deeply, highly, very She was observant, very intuitive and creative.
- ▸ completely completely, entirely, totally We can learn about beauty, but the concept itself is entirely intuitive.
- ADJ+n understanding ability, feel, grasp, insight, perception, sense, understanding, wisdom Most people have an intuitive grasp of the social meaning of genetics.
- ▸ approach approach, way What unites many of these bands is an organic, intuitive approach to music making.

invalid ADJ

not true or legally effective

- adv+ADJ in a particular way legally, scientifically, statistically, technically The marriage was ruled to be legally invalid.
- ▸ completely completely, totally If the earthing is faulty, this test should not be performed as the results would be totally invalid.
- ADJ+n in an election ballot, vote Any system should have live checking for invalid ballots.
- ▸ idea argument, assumption, conclusion The premise is true and no doubt comforting; but the conclusion is invalid.
- ▸ document permit Inaccurate details may render a permit invalid.
- v+ADJ be, become, be considered, be declared, be deemed, be held, be rendered, be ruled The vouchers they sent me are invalid! ◉ Consequently, the cheque was returned and the 79 votes declared invalid.

invaluable ADJ

extremely useful

- adv+ADJ very absolutely, particularly, quite, totally, truly British History Online is an absolutely invaluable source of British historic information.
- ▸ possibly often, potentially The service is potentially invaluable to companies who want to target a particular market.
- ADJ+n tool aid, asset, resource, source, tool The archive is an invaluable resource for educators.
- ▸ help or contribution addition, advice, assistance, contribution, feedback, guidance, help, input, service, support, tip Thank you once again for the invaluable contribution you are making.
- ▸ knowledge or understanding experience, expertise, information, insight, knowledge, skill I got an invaluable insight into the workings of an international current affairs magazine.
- ▸ opportunity opportunity The Congress offers invaluable networking opportunities.
- ▸ document book, companion, guide, reference, sourcebook This book is an invaluable guide to the Stanislavski system.
- v+ADJ be, become, find sth, prove Here are three books you'll find invaluable. ◉ Luckily, I had an old portable microscope, which proved invaluable.

inventory N

a list giving details of everything in a place

- adj+N full or complete accurate, complete, comprehensive, detailed, exhaustive, extensive, full, thorough Once the leases are signed, a detailed inventory is agreed between the landlord and tenants.
- ▸ up-to-date current, up-to-date My job is to keep an up-to-date inventory of all the school's Digital Media equipment.
- v+N make an inventory compile, complete, conduct, create, make, prepare, produce, take, undertake The executors had to compile an inventory of all of the deceased's possessions.
- ▸ keep an inventory keep, maintain, update You need to maintain an inventory of equipment, furniture etc.

invest V

spend money on something with the aim of making a profit; to use something for a particular purpose

- adv+V a lot aggressively, heavily, massively, significantly, substantially We invest heavily in training and talent development.
- ▸ carefully ethically, prudently, strategically, wisely Our research demonstrates how crucial it is that these resources are used to invest wisely for the future.
- ▸ outside your own country abroad, internationally, offshore, overseas More and more Taiwanese businesspeople are investing overseas.
- ▸ directly/indirectly directly, indirectly We do not have money to invest directly in these ventures, but we can offer support and training.
- ▸ using your own money personally All three managers have invested personally in the business.
- V+n money amount, assets, billions, capital, cash, money, savings, sum People are investing huge sums of money in property.

- ▸ time or effort effort, energy, time We have invested considerable energy in developing good relations with the local community.

investigate V
try to learn the true facts about something

- adv+V fully or thoroughly actively, adequately, carefully, extensively, fully, in depth, in detail, properly, rigorously, seriously, systematically, thoroughly, vigorously Any suspected case of bacterial contamination must be thoroughly investigated.
- ▸ in a fair way appropriately, formally, impartially, independently The External Auditor also has powers to independently investigate fraud and corruption.
- ▸ using a particular method archaeologically, critically, empirically, experimentally, numerically, scientifically This study investigated experimentally whether stress alters food choice during a meal.
- ▸ immediately immediately, promptly, urgently Complaints from students should be investigated promptly.
- ▸ personally personally He has many years' experience as a detective and has personally investigated over 100 murders.

- V+n incident or crime accident, case, crime, death, disappearance, fraud, homicide, incident, matter, miscarriage of justice, murder, robbery Kitson says he is willing to cooperate with authorities investigating the incident.
- ▸ theory or claim allegation, claim, complaint, hypothesis We investigate complaints about food premises within the Surrey Heath area.
- ▸ issue aspect, issue, phenomenon, problem The Government is investigating the issue of deteriorating health amongst older drivers.
- ▸ cause cause The body investigates the causes of all serious air accidents.
- ▸ possibility feasibility, possibility, potential We are investigating the feasibility of a new network for measuring air pollution.
- ▸ effect effect, impact The study investigated the effect of taking aspirin alone or in combination with ibuprofen.
- ▸ effectiveness applicability, effectiveness, efficacy, use A randomised controlled trial investigated the effectiveness of the drug in preventing cardiovascular disease.

investigation N
the process of trying to find out about something

- adj+N full or careful detailed, full, in-depth, lengthy, painstaking, proper, rigorous, systematic, thorough There must be a thorough investigation into any case where a child is harmed by a parent.
- ▸ fair impartial, independent Forensic scientists carry out impartial investigations on behalf of the prosecution or defence.
- ▸ official formal, official He wrote to the police requesting that they begin a formal investigation into the affair.
- ▸ internal internal The college launched an internal investigation into her complaint last year.
- ▸ happening now ongoing, underway Police said that the operation was part of an ongoing investigation into serious and organised crime. • An investigation is underway after an outbreak of botulism which killed 40 cows.
- ▸ early initial, preliminary Preliminary investigations indicate that this looks promising.
- ▸ later further, subsequent If the doctor feels that your dizziness requires further investigation, she will refer you to the Audiology department.
- ▸ types of investigation archaeological, criminal, empirical, epidemiological, experimental, forensic, laboratory, philosophical, police, radiological, scientific, undercover This first phase of the work will include archaeological investigations.

- n+N accident, crime, fraud, murder The murder investigation must be reopened immediately with a new police team.

- v+N carry out an investigation carry out, conduct, continue, pursue, undertake The tramway has been closed while the Health and Safety Executive conducts an investigation.
- ▸ need or deserve investigation deserve, merit, need, require, warrant This area warrants some serious scientific investigation.
- ▸ begin an investigation begin, commence, initiate, instigate, launch, reopen Startling new information on her family's past spurs Anya to launch her own personal investigation.
- ▸ finish an investigation complete, conclude, discontinue The advertisement must be withdrawn until an investigation is completed.
- ▸ ask for an investigation call for, commission, demand, order The Community Fund ordered an investigation into the organization's political activities.
- ▸ cause an investigation to be started prompt, trigger This information prompted an investigation into the child's home circumstances.
- ▸ be in charge of an investigation lead, supervise Detective Sergeant Steve Parker has been leading the investigation.
- ▸ get in the way of an investigation hamper, prejudice I am not at liberty to disclose my reasons because it could prejudice the investigation.
- ▸ be the subject of an investigation be under, undergo They were aware of the seriousness of the matter that was under investigation. • All water-pipes, flues, cisterns, and sewers underwent an investigation.

- N+v show something conclude, confirm, demonstrate, disclose, discover, establish, find, identify, indicate, prove, reveal, show, suggest, uncover, unearth Its investigation had revealed that the fake drug had come from outside the European Union.
- ▸ take place be carried out, continue, proceed, progress, take place It would be inappropriate to go into further detail whilst the criminal investigation is continuing.
- ▸ begin begin, commence Investigations have begun into the cause of the fire.
- ▸ involve someone or something concern, focus on, include, involve The investigation included detailed inspections inside the tunnel.

investment N

money spent on something with the aim of making a profit; the process of spending money; something that will give you benefits in the future

- adj+N large considerable, enormous, heavy, huge, large, large-scale, major, massive, significant, substantial They know their company makes a substantial investment in the community.
- not very large minimal, minimum, modest The album sold well and soon recovered its modest investment.
- risky risky, speculative Fraudsters had promised them lucrative returns on risky investments.
- sensible or good good, productive, profitable, responsible, shrewd, sound, wise, worthwhile With a recommended retail price of £180 they are a very worthwhile investment.
- public/private private, private-sector, public The government is keen to encourage private investment in the renewal of disadvantaged neighbourhoods.
- additional additional, extra, further, future We are putting substantial extra investment into schools.
- over a long period continued, long-term, ongoing, sustained The compensation award is needed to fund the basics of life, leaving nothing available for long-term investment.
- initial initial, up-front Investors get their initial investment back plus 75 per cent of profits.
- types of investment capital, equity, ethical, financial, housing, infrastructure, property, stockmarket, transport Ethical property investment offers the investor a financial, social and environmental return.
- v+N make an investment make, put into It is better to be aware of possible failure than to make a rash investment.
- encourage or get investment attract, boost, encourage, facilitate, promote, secure, stimulate China attracts more foreign investment than any country except the United States. ◉ It can be difficult for small business to secure investment.
- discourage investment deter, discourage He says entering the single currency would discourage investment.
- increase an investment double, increase There was a call for rich countries to double their investments in poor nations.
- get or pay back what you invested recoup, recover, repay They are convinced that the band has a following and that they stand a good chance of recouping their investment.
- make the most of an investment maximize, optimize After investing millions in new technology, businesses are looking to maximise their investment.
- pay for an investment finance, fund There was a discussion on how to appropriately finance property investments.
- protect an investment manage, protect, safeguard Regular servicing will help maintain your vehicle's value and protect your investment.
- need or ask for investment need, require, seek The harbour area desperately requires investment.

invitation N

a request to someone to do something or spend time with you

- adj+N friendly or kind cordial, gracious, kind, polite, warm The letter contained a cordial invitation to stay with his uncle for as long as he wished.
- formal formal, official Formal invitations had been sent out to the various ministries and embassies.
- open to everyone general, open The BBC placed an open invitation for tenders in the Official Journal of the European Communities.
- personal to someone exclusive, personal, special You can only get in by personal invitation.
- with no fixed date long-standing, open, standing Will he remind them of our long-standing invitation to the Prime Minister's wife to visit Fairfield hospital?
- v+N receive an invitation get, receive I received an invitation to the 10th Anniversary Meeting of the Society.
- send an invitation extend, issue, send, send out The advertisement extended an invitation to other businesses to join the ever-growing club.
- accept an invitation accept Leading figures in the industry have accepted an invitation to address the conference.
- refuse an invitation decline, refuse, reject He declined my invitation to join in the discussion.
- take back an invitation cancel, withdraw If you cannot attend within this time, we may have to withdraw your invitation.
- want an invitation request, welcome We welcome the invitation from the Commission on Environmental Pollution to respond.

invite V

1 ask someone to do something or spend time with you

- adv+V kindly cordially, generously, graciously, kindly, respectfully, warmly You are cordially invited to attend the 4th International Conference on Advanced Engineering Design.
- formally formally, officially Applicants selected will be formally invited to attend an interview.
- specially especially, expressly, particularly, personally, specially, specifically We were delighted to welcome the Mayor and his wife along with other specially invited guests.
- regularly annually, frequently, occasionally, often, regularly She is regularly invited to contribute to scientific journals.
- openly explicitly, openly We openly invite anyone seeking help to contact us.

2 say that you would like to receive something from someone

- V+n opinions or comments comments, contributions, feedback, responses, views Contributions to the debate are invited from both architects and historians.
- suggestions offers, proposals, suggestions Offers over £2000 are invited.
- applications applications We invite applications from all members of staff, regardless of where they are based.
- academic article or talk paper For the seminar, papers are invited on the following topics:

involved ADJ

1 affected by, included in, or taking part in something

- adv+ADJ actively, closely, deeply, directly, fully, heavily, intimately, personally Our feedback indicates that the project works best where students are actively involved (ie not just listening). ● Inaccurate reporting affects not just those directly involved, but also those who read what is written.
- v+ADJ be, become, feel, get, remain I wish I had got more involved in sport at college.

2 complicated and difficult to understand

- and/or complicated complex, complicated, detailed, difficult, intricate Management of an event can be a complex and involved task.
- ▸ long lengthy, long He was in the middle of a long, involved story.

involvement N

the act of taking part in something; the interest that you feel for something

- adj+N direct active, close, day-to-day, direct, hands-on, personal In psychiatry, getting better involves the patient's active involvement.
- ▸ when someone's feelings are involved emotional She learned to avoid emotiomal involvement with the children who passed through her care.
- ▸ continuing for some time continued, continuing, long-standing, ongoing, sustained The company's reputation was being damaged by his continued involvement.
- ▸ real or effective effective, meaningful, significant There should be meaningful involvement by all those with an interest in the future development of the area.
- ▸ great or increased extensive, full, greater, increased, increasing My increased involvement in the running of the club took up all my spare time.
- ▸ little minimal The Government takes a laissez-faire approach to offshore business, and its involvement is minimal.
- ▸ not proved alleged The charges relate to his alleged involvement in an illegal sports betting enterprise.

- v+N encourage involvement encourage, ensure, facilitate, foster, maximize, promote, secure, seek, stimulate, strengthen, support, value, welcome The Regeneration Team encourages community involvement in its projects.
- ▸ increase involvement deepen, enhance, extend, improve, increase, widen The University plans to deepen its involvement in the life of the city.
- ▸ reduce or stop involvement avoid, cease, limit, preclude Certain definitions of God and religion may preclude the involvement of those of a different faith.
- ▸ continue involvement continue, maintain He expects to continue his involvement with the work of the Crisis Centre in Bristol.
- ▸ admit involvement admit, confirm A 34-year-old man has admitted his involvement in a worldwide software counterfeiting scam.
- ▸ deny involvement deny When later questioned by police, he denied any involvement in the accident.

irony N

a funny situation in which something is the opposite of what is intended or expected; a form of humour in which words are used to express the opposite of what they really mean

- adj+N sad bitter, cruel, grim, poignant, sad, savage, terrible, tragic It is a bitter irony that James was able to leave the country unhindered by the secret police – only to be shot and killed weeks later.
- ▸ pleasing or amusing bittersweet, comic, delicious, delightful, nice, wry By a delicious irony, it was his own comments that were used to condemn him.
- ▸ great or greatest deep, final, great, profound, supreme, ultimate It is a great irony that he himself is the commissioner responsible for rooting out corruption.
- ▸ slight certain, gentle, subtle There is a certain irony to a web-based project promoting an Internet-free day.
- ▸ expressed strongly heavy 'You'll no doubt want to congratulate me,' she said with heavy irony.
- ▸ strange curious, strange One of the strange ironies of life is that while you need determination to succeed, too much determination leads to failure.
- ▸ not deliberate unintended, unintentional The film's unintentional irony is that we have to believe that a 40-year-old and a 29-year-old are the same age.
- ▸ part of something inescapable, inherent The inescapable irony is that the US desperately needs to revitalize the democratic process at home.

- n+of+N hint, touch, trace 'Perfect technique,' he commented, without a hint of irony.

irrational ADJ

done or happening without sensible reasons

- adv+ADJ apparently apparently, seemingly Fear attaches itself to new technology for seemingly irrational reasons.
- ▸ completely or very completely, deeply, entirely, highly, quite, totally, utterly, wholly Joining the Euro now would be completely irrational.
- ▸ basically essentially, fundamentally Most hatred is essentially irrational and based on ignorance.

- and/or not reasonable or logical absurd, illogical, perverse, stupid, superstitious, unreasonable, unscientific To apply the same rules to all countries, however different, is illogical and irrational.
- ▸ not fair arbitrary, unfair, unjust Penalising them in this way is irrational and unjust.
- ▸ bad, cruel, or violent destructive, immoral, vindictive, violent The government took us into a war that was illegal, immoral and irrational.
- ▸ not controlled chaotic, emotional, uncontrollable, wild Advertising tries to exploit the emotional and irrational drives of young children.
- ▸ hard to explain or predict inexplicable, unpredictable He was prone to irrational and unpredictable behaviour.

irreconcilable ADJ

so opposed that agreement is impossible

- adv+ADJ apparently apparently, seemingly The problem is that they must now do two apparently irreconcilable things at once.
- ▸ totally totally, utterly Those tests were totally irreconcilable with their claims to be committed to nuclear disarmament.

- ADJ+n conflict, contradiction, differences, disagreement She felt that there were irreconcilable differences between her public and her private life.

irrelevant ADJ

not important or not relevant

- adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, entirely, quite, simply, totally, utterly, wholly It's true, but completely irrelevant to the discussion.
- ▶ mostly or almost almost, increasingly, largely, mostly, often, practically, virtually The output of academic research is considered as mostly irrelevant to the real world of marketing.
- ▶ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, rather, somewhat We now read this letter as an interesting but somewhat irrelevant piece of history.
- ▶ basically basically, essentially, ultimately In science the individual scientist is basically irrelevant.
- ▶ apparently apparently, seemingly People were put off by the number of seemingly irrelevant questions you had to answer.

- v+ADJ appear, be, become, consider sth, deem sth, prove, regard sth as, seem In the age of the Internet, distance is becoming irrelevant. ● The actual text of an advertisement is often considered irrelevant.

- and/or not interesting boring, dull, uninteresting Is the Bible boring and irrelevant to children today?
- ▶ wrong or false erroneous, false, inaccurate, unsubstantiated, untrue You need to be wary of false or irrelevant information on the Internet.
- ▶ old-fashioned dated, obsolete, outdated, out-dated, outmoded, out-of-date Has public ownership become outdated and irrelevant?
- ▶ not helpful or useful meaningless, redundant, superfluous, unhelpful, unnecessary, useless He took out his phone and made a series of totally irrelevant and unnecessary calls.
- ▶ not important immaterial, inconsequential, superficial, trivial, unimportant The students are warned not to ask trivial or irrelevant questions.

irreversible ADJ

impossible to change or bring back

- adv+ADJ possibly or probably possibly, potentially, probably, seemingly Nutritional deficiencies in a baby's diet have potentially irreversible consequences.
- ▶ effectively effectively, essentially The decisions made on the basis of this report will be effectively irreversible.

- ADJ+n change or effect change, consequences, effect, process, shift Mankind has always made irreversible changes to his habitat.
- ▶ damage or destruction damage, destruction, harm, loss Degenerative brain diseases are marked by progressive, irreversible damage to cells of the central nervous system.
- ▶ process of getting worse decline, degradation, deterioration By 1998 it was clear that their market share was in irreversible decline.

irritating ADJ

making you feel annoyed or impatient

- adv+ADJ very deeply, downright, extremely, highly, hugely, immensely, incredibly, intensely, particularly, really, so, very I found her comment intensely irritating at the time.
- ▶ rather a bit INFORMAL, faintly, a little, mildly, moderately, quite, rather, slightly, somewhat The only mildly irritating aspect of the evening was the fact that people were allowed to smoke indoors.
- ▶ more and more increasingly David found the noise increasingly irritating as the night progressed.

- v+ADJ be, become, find sth, get The hard drive makes a rattling noise which becomes very irritating. ● Some people like his writing style, but I find it highly irritating.

isolated ADJ

1 alone, or a long way from other places or people

- adv+ADJ very completely, extremely She was among people, but she felt completely isolated.
- ▶ rather quite, relatively The university campus can seem relatively isolated and insular.
- ▶ more and more increasingly His behaviour, which was at times bizarre, left him increasingly isolated.
- ▶ in a particular way geographically, politically, socially They organize activities for socially isolated and lonely older people.

- v+ADJ be, become, feel, leave sb, remain Participating in a group or workshop helps students to feel less isolated. ● Many older people are left isolated when they finish working.

2 happening only once

- ADJ+n case, incident, instance, occurrence, outbreak, phenomenon The committee hope this was an isolated incident but will continue monitoring the situation.

isolation N

the state of feeling alone or being separated from other people

- adj+N complete or great complete, extreme, total The scribes worked day and night in complete isolation.
- ▶ relative comparative, relative For over sixty years she has lived and written in relative isolation.
- ▶ chosen/not chosen enforced, self-imposed Japan opened up to the outside world in 1854 after more than 200 years of self-imposed isolation.
- ▶ types of isolation cultural, emotional, geographical, intellectual, professional, social Their physical and social isolation makes it difficult for disabled women to break out of their situation.

- v+N prevent or stop isolation avoid, break, end, overcome, prevent Talking to others is the best way to prevent isolation and maintain perspective.
- ▶ reduce or combat isolation alleviate, combat, counter, lessen, reduce, relieve, tackle For deaf people, learning to lipread reduces isolation.
- ▶ increase isolation increase, intensify Such behaviour can increase the isolation and sense of despair felt by an individual.
- ▶ experience isolation experience, face, feel With the loss of a loved one, we experience pain and isolation.

issue N

a subject that people discuss or argue about; a problem

- adj+N important big, central, critical, crucial, fundamental, important, key, main, major, pressing, real, serious, special, substantive The key issue is that it all depends on the quality of the data.
  - ▸ that people feel strongly about burning, contentious, controversial, divisive, emotive, sensitive, thorny, vexed Darwin's theory of evolution seems to be a much more contentious issue in the USA than in Europe.
  - ▸ complicated complex, complicated, difficult, problematic Tax is a complex issue.
  - ▸ current contemporary, current, topical In our regular newsletter we draw attention to topical issues.
  - ▸ related pertinent, related, relevant We provide information and advice on disability and related issues.
  - ▸ not yet settled outstanding, unresolved Underlying the violence is the continuing, unresolved issue of the country's political future.
  - ▸ general/specific broader, general, particular, specific, wider If there are specific issues that you want to cover, then let me know.
  - ▸ affecting a particular area global, local Climate change is a global issue.
- v+N deal with an issue address, approach, confront, deal with, face, grapple with, handle, pursue, tackle, wrestle with The curriculum should address the real issues affecting young people's lives.
  - ▸ settle an issue decide, overcome, resolve, settle, solve If customers complain, we will seek to resolve the issue as quickly as possible.
  - ▸ discuss or investigate an issue analyse, consider, cover, debate, discuss, examine, explore, investigate, look at, outline, research The goal of this workshop was to discuss the issue of bilingual development.
  - ▸ look at an issue again readdress, review, revisit It will be interesting to revisit this issue at the end of the year.
  - ▸ mention or point out an issue bring up, broach, highlight, identify, mention, raise The Board discussed some of the issues regarding copyright that were raised at the Media Forum Seminar.
  - ▸ explain an issue clarify, explain, summarize The book does a good job of clarifying the fundamental issues.
  - ▸ avoid an issue avoid, dodge, duck, evade, ignore, sidestep Political parties cannot afford to duck this issue; they must face it head on.
  - ▸ make an issue less clear cloud, complicate, confuse, fudge The press has clouded the issue by stirring up emotions.
  - ▸ understand an issue grasp, understand We can help you understand the complex legal issues involved in exporting overseas.
- N+v have to do with something or someone be associated with, be involved in, be related to, concern, involve, relate to, revolve around, surround The clinic offers advice on obesity, alcohol and other issues surrounding men's health.
  - ▸ affect someone or something affect, confront, face, impact on This article looks at some of the issues facing Scottish artists.
  - ▸ occur arise, emerge The editors intended to include the feature until a copyright issue arose.
- n+of+N number, range, variety The public willl be consulted on a range of issues affecting the local community.

issue V

to officially give something or make something available

- V+n a statement or announcement alert, apology, declaration, notice, reminder, statement, ultimatum, warning The Environment Agency issued a flood warning for the area.
  - ▸ a document giving information bulletin, circular, communiqué, document, guidance, guidelines, invoice, leaflet, letter, manifesto, pamphlet, press release, prospectus, questionnaire When we despatch the item, we issue a final invoice which must be paid within 30 days.
  - ▸ a document giving permission or proof badge, card, certificate, invitation, licence, passport, permit, prescription, receipt, ticket, visa They issue parking permits for access to University areas.
  - ▸ an order command, decree, edict, fatwa, injunction, instructions, order, proclamation, ruling In 1290, King Edward I issued an edict ordering Jews to leave Britain.
  - ▸ legal document subpoena, summons, warrant, writ If the individual fails to appear in court on the appointed day, a warrant is issued for their arrest.
  - ▸ money or something worth money banknote, bond, cheque, coin, refund, shares, stamp, token, voucher If, for any reason, you are not happy with the goods you have purchased, we will issue a full refund.

Jj

jail N

a place where people have to stay as punishment for a crime

- adj+N very secure maximum-security, top-security Elite units guard the top security jail.
- ▸ with bad conditions notorious, overcrowded These executions took place in the dictator's most notorious jail.
- ▸ outside the normal system military, secret There are reports of the CIA operating secret jails for terrorism suspects.
- v+N go to or be in jail be in, be put in, be sent to, be thrown in, go to, languish in He committed a burglary, for which he went to jail for six months. ◉ Thousands of political prisoners are still languishing in jail.
- ▸ risk going to jail face, risk Two drivers involved in a high-speed car race have been warned they may face jail.
- ▸ avoid going to jail avoid, be spared, escape Her family spoke out yesterday after hearing her attacker was spared jail.
- ▸ leave jail be freed from, be released from, get out of, leave Kate is grateful to her mother, who helped her once she left jail.
- N+n sentence, term Those found guilty of harassment now face a five-year jail sentence.

jargon N

words that are used only by people doing particular work

- adj+N complicated or hard to understand arcane, complex, complicated, confusing, impenetrable, incomprehensible, meaningless, obscure A tutor will teach you how to use the Internet without confusing jargon.
- ▸ new current, fashionable, modern Green is used unless there is some reason to change. It's the default colour, to use modern jargon.
- ▸ types of jargon academic, bureaucratic, financial, legal, marketing, medical, military, scientific, technical We will simplify the legal jargon by clearly explaining any obligations or restrictions that may be relevant to you.
- v+N use jargon contain, spout INFORMAL, talk, use This is not a book where the authors simply spout theoretical jargon.
- ▸ avoid jargon avoid, banish, eliminate, remove Avoid jargon and abbreviations – they send out the message that your site is for an exclusive group of users.
- ▸ understand jargon know, understand Many people cannot understand the jargon and technical terms used by computer manufacturers.
- ▸ explain jargon decipher, demystify, explain, translate The author has a unique talent for demystifying medical jargon.

jaw N

1 the part of the face that includes the chin and bottom teeth

- adj+N chiselled, jutting, protruding, square, strong Daniel is a hunky actor with designer stubble on his chiselled jaw.
- v+N clamp shut, clench, lock, snap He clamped his jaw shut as he felt the point of the knife.
- N+v drop When I heard the song for the first time, my jaw dropped in amazement.

2 [always plural] the mouth

- adj+N dangerous powerful, slavering, snapping She was saved from the slavering jaws of a guard dog.
- ▸ open gaping, open The picture showed a savage wolf with gaping jaws.
- v+N prise open The jaws of the shark were prised open.
- N+v clamp, lock, snap A crocodile came onto the shore, jaws snapping.

jealous ADJ

unhappy because someone has something you want, or because someone you love seems attracted to another person

- adv+ADJ very bitterly, dead INFORMAL, deeply, extremely, fiercely, incredibly, intensely, really, so, terribly, very Seeing her husband kissing other women in film roles makes her extremely jealous.
- ▸ unreasonably absurdly, exceedingly, insanely, pathologically She became insanely jealous when he socialized with other people.
- ▸ rather a little, quite, rather, slightly, somewhat, a tad INFORMAL I imagine his brothers were a little jealous of his good fortune.
- ▸ more and more increasingly I am increasingly jealous about my partner's ex-wife.
- v+ADJ be, become, feel, get, make sb They may feel jealous of the attention the other child is getting. ◉ I always looked so happy, it made him jealous.

jealousy N an unhappy feeling because someone has something you want, or because someone you love seems attracted to another person

- adj+N strong bitter, extreme, fierce, sheer It's the story of Salieri and his bitter jealousy of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart.
- ▸ unreasonable or silly insane, irrational, obsessive, petty, unhealthy They find the academic world to be riddled with petty jealousies.
- ▸ of a particular type professional, sexual Infidelity and sexual jealousy seem to be universal elements of human sexual behaviour.
- v+N cause jealousy arouse, awaken, cause, engender, excite, incur, inflame, inspire, provoke, spark The king's generosity towards him had aroused the jealousy of some courtiers.
- ▸ feel jealousy be consumed with, experience, feel He says he never felt any jealousy of other players.
- n+of+N feeling, fit, pang, tinge, twinge He experienced pangs of jealousy when he discovered she had asked Ned to go with her instead.

jeopardize V

risk damaging or destroying something important

- adv+V seriously gravely, seriously, severely The students' safety is being seriously jeopardized by heavy traffic through the car park.
- ▸ possibly possibly, potentially New laws could potentially jeopardize jobs.
- V+n safety or health health, safety, security, welfare, well-being Her friends are worried her severe exercise regime is jeopardizing her health.
- ▸ opportunity or future success chances, future, prospects, success, survival, viability Don't jeopardize your chances at interviews by being unprepared.
- ▸ relationship friendship, relationship Germany did not want to jeopardize its relationship with Russia.
- ▸ job job, livelihood Illegal copying jeopardizes the livelihoods of artists and song writers.

jerk V

move very suddenly, or make something move suddenly

- adv+V suddenly abruptly, suddenly A whiplash injury occurs when the neck is jerked suddenly and the muscles are strained.
- ▸ violently uncontrollably, violently As soon as it took off, the aircraft started to jerk violently, which caused a panic.
- ▸ in a particular direction upright, forward, backwards etc I pulled the ripcord and was jerked back by the parachute as it opened.
- ▸ awake awake I jerked awake in the chair, startled.

job N

1 work that you do to earn money

- adj+N interesting or well-paid better-paid, decent, good, high-powered, plum, rewarding, top, well-paid Jennifer gave up her well-paid job to start a magazine.
- ▸ not interesting or well-paid boring, dead-end, low-paid, menial, tedious, unskilled His prospects were limited to a low-paid job in the civil service or the military.
- ▸ working particular hours full-time, nine-to-five, part-time I'd had part-time jobs in bars and cafés when I was a student.
- ▸ perfect dream, ideal, perfect Think about the future: what's your ideal job?
- ▸ difficult or skilled demanding, difficult, skilled, stressful Stressful jobs can increase the risk of heart disease.
- ▸ easy cushy INFORMAL, easy I have a cushy office job and feel I can continue to work past 65.
- ▸ new/old current, first, new, old, previous I have a lot of responsibility in my current job.
- ▸ permanent or secure permanent, proper, secure, steady At the end of the maternity cover assignment she was offered a permanent job.
- ▸ temporary holiday, summer, temping, temporary, vacation More people are likely to take temporary jobs over the festive period.
- ▸ types of job blue-collar, cleaning, desk, graduate, office, secretarial, teaching, white-collar She is moving to London, where she will begin a teaching job in September.
- v+N have or start a job have, start, take, take on, take up She now has a job with the council.
- ▸ get a job be offered, find, get, land After a few months he was offered a job as a legal assistant. • After graduating I was really confident that I could get a good job.
- ▸ do a job carry out, do, perform, work You have shown that you can do the job well.
- ▸ keep a job hold down, keep She's very unstable and has never been able to hold down a job.
- ▸ lose or leave a job change, leave, lose, quit, resign from If things at work don't improve soon, I'm going to have to change jobs. • Thousands of car workers are set to lose their jobs.
- ▸ make someone leave their job dismiss from, fire from, sack from Last week he was fired from a job he'd held for nearly three years.
- ▸ get rid of jobs axe, cut, shed, slash The ferry company says it wants to axe 1,200 jobs.
- ▸ when jobs are in danger of being lost jeopardize, threaten Cutbacks in funding will threaten jobs at the local council offices.
- ▸ create or protect jobs create, defend, generate, protect, safeguard, save Every year, around 600,000 jobs are created in the IT sector worldwide.
- N+v entail, pay What exactly does the job entail? • Unfortunately my new job doesn't pay very well.
- N+n availability creation, market, offer, vacancy Get details of job vacancies by email or text.
- ▸ opportunities opportunities, prospects They live in squalor, with little education or health care, and few job prospects.
- ▸ person who has or wants a job applicant, holder, hunter, seeker, sharer The program includes vocational training for job seekers.
- ▸ search hunting, search Job websites can assist you in your job search.
- ▸ happiness or security in your job insecurity, satisfaction, security Small rises in job satisfaction give us as much happiness as a big rise in salary.
- ▸ loss of jobs cuts, losses Organizational change has led to job losses.
- ▸ description or features of a job description, profile, role, spec INFORMAL, specification, title The job description included database design.

2 a task or piece of work

- adj+N done well amazing INFORMAL, brilliant, excellent, fantastic, fine, good, great, magnificent, marvellous, splendid, sterling, superb, terrific, tremendous, wonderful May I say what a fantastic job you have done with your website.
- ▸ not done well bad, bodged INFORMAL, botched After completing a botched job, the builders demanded four thousand pounds from the elderly couple.
- ▸ difficult difficult, hard, not easy, thankless, tough, unenviable They have the unenviable job of trying to motivate a team with no money available.
- ▸ big/small big, little, long, small It's a big job and it'll take a long time.
- ▸ of various kinds odd Volunteers are needed for helping with publicity, making coffee and doing other odd jobs.

Usage Job is always plural in this combination.

- v+N accept or do a job carry out, do, get on with, take on There are several freeware applications which will do the job just as well.
- ▸ finish a job complete, finish The job was completed in one and a half days to the satisfaction of the customer.
- ▸ get a job be given, get I was given the job of holding the ladder.
- ▸ give someone a job allocate (sb), give sb He spends a lot of his time allocating jobs to members of his team.

jog N
a run at a slow, steady speed

- adj+N slow easy, gentle, light, slow, steady Keep going at a gentle jog for 5–10 minutes.
- ▸ quick brisk, quick There's nothing like a quick jog around the field to make you feel awake.
- ▸ regular daily, morning I saw him out on his morning jog.

- v+N break into, go for At the top of the hill I broke into a jog. ◉ Every day I exercise, swim or go for a jog.

join V
become a member of an organization or club

- adv+V at a particular time eventually, immediately, recently, subsequently This page is to welcome the new members who have recently joined us.
- ▸ at first initially, originally Jarrod initially joined the bank in a technology role.
- ▸ officially formally, officially In May 1997, China sent observers to attend a meeting, and formally joined the committee later that year.
- ▸ because you want to voluntarily We believe that children benefit from out-of-school clubs that they join voluntarily.

- V+n group or club band, choir, club, forum, group, gym, party, team, union Anyone who might be interested in joining a school tennis team should sign up here.
- ▸ company company, firm He joined the firm in 1998 and became a Partner in 2003.
- ▸ armed forces army, battalion, navy, RAF, regiment He joined the army and served in Northern Ireland, Kosovo and Iraq.
- ▸ queue or list list, queue Click here to join our mailing list.

join in PHR VB
start an activity with others who are already doing it

- V+adv eagerly, enthusiastically, happily, heartily Someone started to applaud, and I enthusiastically joined in.

- V+n fun or celebration activities, celebrations, festivities, fun, game Local pubs joined in the fun with a beer festival, music and a barbecue.
- ▸ discussion, argument, or fight banter, conversation, debate, discussion, fight, fray Choose a book from the list below, read it and join in the discussion.
- ▸ dancing, singing, laughing etc applause, chorus, dance, dancing, laughter, singing The teacher starts the song and asks the children to all join in the chorus.
- ▸ procession or protest condemnation, procession, protest People joined in the procession as it wound through the town.
- ▸ search hunt, search The public were invited to join in the hunt for mediaeval treasure.

joint ADJ
involving two or more people or groups

- ADJ+n effort or work action, bid, effort, endeavour, initiative, operation, project, venture, working Members of the Rugby Club visited the school and donated rugby kit in a new joint venture.
- ▸ ownership or responsibility authorship, custody, ownership, responsibility, tenancy Doug and Alice remain in close contact, as they have joint custody of their nine-year-old son Joe.
- ▸ owner or controller editor, owner, tenant She is joint editor of the journal, Eurasian Studies.
- ▸ statement or agreement agreement, communiqué, declaration, statement After the meeting, the leaders issued a joint communiqué.
- ▸ meeting or group committee, conference, meeting This weekend, two media studies associations held a joint conference.
- ▸ winner or possible winner favourite, winner The two teams were declared joint winners.

joke N
something that is funny or intended to make people laugh

- adj+N good or funny funny, good, hilarious A joke isn't funny if you have to explain it.
- ▸ bad or not funny awful, bad, feeble, lame, silly, stupid, terrible, unfunny Dad used to embarrass me with his lame jokes.
- ▸ well-known corny, favourite, old There is plenty of audience participation, along with the usual corny jokes and slapstick.
- ▸ offensive crass, cruel, off-colour, offensive, racist, sexist, sick, tasteless Is this some kind of sick joke?
- ▸ about sex bawdy, crude, dirty, filthy, risqué, rude, smutty Most of the birthday cards contain smutty jokes.
- ▸ complicated elaborate There is a myth that contemporary artists are somehow indulging in an elaborate joke at the expense of the public.
- ▸ types of joke inside, visual This book is like an inside joke for anyone who loves Japan. ◉ The film is full of marvellous visual jokes.

A practical joke is a trick that is intended to surprise someone or make them look silly: April Fools' Day is the classic occasion for playing practical jokes on your family and colleagues.

- v+N when someone says or does something to make other people laugh crack, have, make, play, repeat, share, swap, tell Most of the officers were well liked by the men, and they even cracked jokes with us. ◉ He played a practical joke on Mervin by putting salt in the sugar bowl.
- ▸ enjoy jokes appreciate, enjoy, like I am very friendly and enjoy a good joke and a good laugh.

▸ understand a joke get, understand Philip got the joke and laughed heartily.
▸ know a joke hear, know, remember Remember the old joke about paying people to dig holes and then getting others to fill them?

• N+v be told to many people circulate, go around Jokes circulated widely about how there were 50 million suspects for the crime.
▸ go wrong backfire, fall flat The joke backfired badly on the girls when someone told the teacher what they had done.

jolt N
a sudden violent movement, shock, or feeling

• adj+N sudden sharp, sudden They were blown backward by a sudden jolt of energy.
▸ violent almighty, massive, severe, violent This came as a severe jolt to my pride.
▸ unpleasant nasty, sickening Suddenly there was a sickening jolt as the ship ran into the submerged rock.
▸ slight little, slight The cars stopped with a slight jolt.

• v+N experience a jolt feel, get, receive, suffer I felt a jolt of recognition when I first read his poetry. ◆ Edward's confidence received a jolt.
▸ give a jolt give (sth/sb) The bus gave a jolt and stopped.

journal N
a magazine relating to a particular subject or profession

• adj+N academic academic, learned, peer-reviewed, scholarly Papers presented at the seminar have since been published in peer-reviewed journals.
▸ respected august, esteemed, leading, prestigious, reputable, respected The New England Journal of Medicine is arguably one of the most prestigious medical journals.
▸ not well-known obscure His work was largely unpublished or published in some obscure journals that nobody read.
▸ specialized specialist, specialized Matthew writes regular articles for specialized journals and the general press.
▸ for members of a particular company or profession in-house, official, professional, trade This is the official journal of the American College of Sports Medicine.
▸ published in a particular form electronic, online, printed The library makes a wide range of electronic journals available to readers.
▸ published at particular times bimonthly, monthly, quarterly, twice-yearly, weekly The Cheshire Genealogist is the quarterly journal of the South Cheshire History Society.
▸ relating to particular subjects literary, medical, scientific Homeopathic remedies are no more beneficial than placebos, a leading medical journal has said.

• v+N produce a journal edit, found, produce, publish He is the only scientist ever to edit the literary journal Granta.
▸ buy or read a journal browse, read, subscribe to The tool allows you to explore research topics and browse scientific journals.
▸ write for a journal contribute to, submit sth to She has contributed to professional journals and published articles on teaching and learning.
▸ be published in a journal appear in, be cited in, be published in, be reported in, feature in His essays have appeared in many leading international journals.

• N+v be about be devoted to, cover, focus on We have an extensive database of journals devoted to the study of history.
▸ contain contain, feature, include, publish This journal includes articles on applied physiology.

• n+of+N copy, issue, volume The article appears in the current issue of the journal.

journalism N
the activity of reporting the news for newspapers, radio, or television

• adj+N of a good quality good, incisive, responsible, serious The best journalism has always come from dissidents.
▸ trying to change bad things campaigning, crusading, hard-hitting Her articles about the health service were crusading journalism at its best.
▸ trying to find out facts investigative Clever investigative journalism and many leaked stories led to a call for something to be done.
▸ popular or not serious gutter, mainstream, muckraking, popular, sensational, sensationalist, tabloid Maybe this is just another case of sensationalist, tabloid journalism.
▸ when people are paid money for information to be used in newspaper stories chequebook Paying the rapist for his story was an outrageous case of chequebook journalism.
▸ not good or accurate irresponsible, lazy, shoddy, sloppy, unethical News releases are helpful, but it's lazy journalism just to print everything they say.
▸ fair or objective independent, objective In the interests of objective journalism, a balanced article should have been printed.
▸ modern contemporary, modern These pamphlets represented the forerunners of modern British journalism.
▸ of a particular type literary, political, sports Generally, I think the standard of political journalism is poor in this country.
▸ in a particular form broadcast, magazine, online, photographic, radio, television There are obvious signs that the style of newspapers is being influenced by online journalism.

journalist N a person whose job is to report the news for a newspaper, radio, or television

• adj+N admired by many people distinguished, respected Penny is a respected journalist with her own column in design magazine Intra.
▸ well-known prominent, well-known He is a well-known journalist specializing in archaeological news.
▸ given an important prize award-winning, prize-winning Roger Hutchinson is an award-winning journalist and author.
▸ reporting on a particular area of activity environmental, financial, political There are now nearly 300 political journalists based at Westminster.

- travelling with an army and reporting on what it does embedded What embedded journalists write is controlled by the military, who thus feed their own version of the facts to the world.
- experienced experienced, veteran The veteran journalist was killed in the Gambia last week.
- not permanently employed by a particular company freelance, independent She has also had work published as a freelance journalist.
- trying to find out the facts about something investigative Gareth Jones was one of Wales' finest investigative journalists.
- trying to achieve political or social change campaigning, crusading In his work as a campaigning journalist, he exposed the use of torture in the country's police cells.

- n+N using a particular means of communicating information broadcast, magazine, newspaper, print, radio, tabloid, television, TV She cut her teeth as a newspaper journalist in her home town of Weston-super-Mare, in South West England, after training in Wales.
- reporting on a particular area of activity fashion, football, music, news, science, sports, travel Like many music journalists, I was really just a frustrated musician.
- when a private person reports on an event citizen In the age of blogs and digital photos, the phenomenon of the citizen journalist has become a force to be reckoned with.

- N+v write, or report on something cover, describe, report (on), specialize in, write (on) West is a journalist writing on health issues.
- ask someone questions interview Peters is a journalist who has interviewed many of the country's top football stars.
- make something publicly known expose, uncover Journalists who expose corrupt practices often find their lives under threat.
- try to find out about something investigate Lawyers have acquired notes made by two journalists who investigated the killings in 1972.

journey N
an occasion when you travel from one place to another

- adj+N in a particular direction homeward, onward, outward, return We had to go through the same ordeal on our homeward journey.
- when you go and return return, round-trip In the terrible conditions, it took them eight hours to make a four-mile round-trip journey.
- long epic, lengthy, long, long-distance It was a long journey of about 6 hours.
- short short After lunch, we got back on the coach for the short journey to Dartington.
- difficult or tiring arduous, difficult, exhausting, gruelling, hard, harrowing, nightmare, tiring In 1132, the monks embarked on the arduous journey to Yorkshire.
- pleasant enjoyable, pleasant They wished us a pleasant journey.
- interesting adventurous, eventful, exciting, fascinating, incredible, unforgettable Travelling by rail, you will have an unforgettable journey through the French countryside.
- without anything unusual or exciting happening tedious, uneventful We had a fairly uneventful journey.
- dangerous dangerous, hazardous, perilous She wrote a letter to her father telling him why she was undertaking this perilous journey.
- safe safe They said goodbye and wished us a safe journey home.
- lasting for a particular time five-minute, twenty-minute etc, two-hour, five-hour etc London Waterloo to Portsmouth Harbour Station is only a ninety-minute journey. ❁ Going to the nearest big town meant a four-hour journey by road and ferry.
- being a particular distance three-mile, ten-mile etc After their seventy-mile journey, Custer's men were too tired to fight effectively.
- going across land overland This is a classic overland journey to the roof of the world.

- n+N boat, bus, car, coach, ferry, plane, rail, railway, sea, taxi, train Barrow is located an hour's train journey from here.

- v+N make a journey go on, make, take, undertake He made the journey every day. ❁ We took a thrilling snowmobile journey across one of Europe's biggest glaciers.
- start a journey begin, commence, embark on, set off on, set out on, start Litvinov then sets out on his journey back to Russia.
- start a journey again continue, resume Their injuries were not serious and they were able to continue their journey to Newark.
- finish a journey complete, end, finish The representatives later transferred to a jet to complete their journey to Bonn.
- stay alive despite a journey survive He knew they wouldn't survive the 40-mile journey back to their ship.
- stop a journey for a short time break We broke our journey at Pittlochrie for breakfast around ten.

- N+v begin, continue, end, go, last, start, take, take sb They say that the longest journey begins with one small step. ❁ The whole journey took about four hours. ❁ Our journey took us through some spectacular scenery.

joy N
a feeling of great happiness; something that makes you feel very happy

- adj+N great deep, great, immense, intense, much, overwhelming In a very short time she learned to walk, to the great joy of her mother.
- impossible to describe indescribable, inexpressible, unspeakable We went through an experience that ranged from pure terror to indescribable joy.
- lasting for a long time eternal, everlasting, lasting, unending The believer will know eternal joy in heaven.
- without a limit boundless, unbounded, unbridled Nothing else brings such unbridled joy to so many people.
- complete pure, real, sheer, true, unadulterated, unalloyed, utter The band get together for the sheer joy of making live jazz happen.
- lasting for a short time short-lived But the joy was short-lived as the home side drew level six minutes later.

- v+N feel joy experience, feel, get, know, take We experienced both joy and sadness as we listened. • She took joy in everything she did in her life.
- ▶ cause joy bring (sb), give It is clear that he brought joy to many.
- ▶ discover joy discover, find It was a great thrill to watch so many children discover the joy of performing.
- ▶ discover joy again rediscover, relive I've rediscovered the joy of doing nothing.
- ▶ express joy convey, express The music expresses joy, love, and life.
- ▶ remember joy recall, remember I remember the joy that reading gave me.
- ▶ cause many people to feel joy spread They find a pleasure in spreading joy around them.
- ▶ share joy share Her neighbours and friends share her joy.
- ▶ imagine someone's joy imagine Imagine my joy when I heard the news.
- ▶ show joy radiate She radiates joy and vivacity as well as a profound sense of innocence.

judge N

1 someone who makes decisions in a court of law

- adj+N important distinguished, eminent Britain's most eminent judges have warned politicians that they will fight for their independence.
- ▶ experienced experienced He is one of the most experienced judges dealing with criminal cases in England and Wales.
- ▶ senior senior A senior judge has described the treatment of the prisoners as 'monstrous'.
- ▶ highest in authority chief He is a former chief judge of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit.
- ▶ not elected unelected Law in Britain is not just made by Parliament; it is also made by unelected judges.
- ▶ in charge of a trial presiding, trial He refused to answer questions put to him by the presiding judge.

- N+v make a decision about something conclude, decide, find, hold, rule The judges ruled that Mr Khan had not been given an adequate opportunity to respond to the allegations against him.
- ▶ be in charge hear, preside (over), sit Mr Justice Johnson, the judge who is presiding over the appeal, has asked for further medical opinion. • She told reporters that she believed the judge who was sitting in the case had ignored important defence evidence.
- ▶ not agree to something refuse, reject The judge had refused her application to have her case dealt with by arbitration.
- ▶ accept something accept, admit, agree, allow The judge accepted that the firm took its tax obligations seriously.
- ▶ allow something to be done grant On 11 August 1997 a judge granted the extradition of all three men.
- ▶ state officially that something is wrong dismiss, overrule, overturn, quash A judge later dismissed the charges for lack of evidence.
- ▶ order someone to do something direct, order The trial judge directed the jury that they should acquit the defendant.
- ▶ officially state what someone's punishment will be sentence The Virginia circuit judge has sentenced him to nine years in jail.
- ▶ give a summary of the evidence in a case sum up After the prosecution and defence had been completed, the judge summed up the case for the jury.
- ▶ state officially that something is right uphold The judges upheld the verdict of the original jury.
- ▶ officially decide to give someone something award The judge awarded £200,000 to each claimant.
- ▶ consider something consider The judge considered the submissions that had been made to him.

- v+before+N appear, come, go The boys appeared before the judge after spending a night in jail.

2 someone who decides who the winner of a competition will be

- v+N dazzle, impress, wow INFORMAL A number of aspects of the project particularly impressed the judges.

- N+v choose someone or something as the winner choose, decide, decide on, pick, vote for After hours of deliberation, the judges decided on the winner.
- ▶ praise someone or something commend, praise The judges praised the 'consistently high standard of gardening' achieved by each of the finalists.
- ▶ give something award Judges awarded the 'Free Newspaper of the Year' title to the Milton Keynes Citizen.

- n+of+N group, panel, team The panel of judges were unanimous in deciding who should win this highly coveted prize.

judge V

form an opinion about something after considering the facts

- V+n success effectiveness, success Visitors' figures alone are not sufficient to judge the success of an exhibition.
- ▶ the degree to which something is suitable acceptability, appropriateness, suitability It provides the employer with an opportunity to judge your suitability for the job.
- ▶ the degree to which something is correct accuracy, correctness I am unable to judge the accuracy of this claim.
- ▶ the degree to which something is good enough adequacy, validity Not having read Browne's book, I am in no position to judge the validity of his arguments.
- ▶ quality merit, quality No attempt is made here to judge the quality of that work.

judgment N

1 an opinion formed after thinking carefully about something

- adj+N final definitive, final We have not yet reached a final judgment.
- ▶ based on someone's own feelings and opinions personal, subjective This is an entirely subjective judgment, I realize.
- ▶ not based on someone's own feelings and opinions impartial, independent, objective You must make an objective judgment of the evidence.
- ▶ based on good knowledge or careful thought about something balanced, considered, informed, reasoned It is too early to make an informed judgment about the impact on the UK economy.

- ▶ made too quickly hasty, snap Avoid making snap judgments about people.
- ▶ unfair harsh He is inclined to harsh judgments about his former colleagues.

- • v+N make a judgment come to, form, make, reach I can make no judgment on that issue.
- ▶ base a judgment on something base on These are the criteria on which we base our judgments of students' performance.
- ▶ express a judgment deliver, give, pass, pronounce, render You are always so quick to pass judgment.
- ▶ not make a judgment reserve, suspend, withhold I am reserving judgment for the time being.

- • N+v be based on Their judgment was based on a broad range of evidence.

2 your ability to understand a situation well and make good decisions

- • adj+N types of judgment aesthetic, clinical, critical, editorial, ethical, moral, political, professional Some put it down to a lapse of editorial judgment.
- ▶ good fine, good, shrewd, sound She succeeded, more by luck than good judgment.
- ▶ bad bad, poor Perhaps this is a case of bad judgment on her part.
- ▶ not influenced by someone else impartial, independent He works with minimal supervision and exercises independent judgment.

- • v+N use judgment exercise, use If only the government would trust him and leave him to exercise his own judgment.
- ▶ affect judgment affect, colour, influence You are allowing personal opinions to influence your judgment.
- ▶ affect judgment in a bad way cloud, distort, impair I suspect that prejudice sometimes clouds their judgment.
- ▶ trust someone's judgment respect, trust She found herself afraid to trust her own judgment.
- ▶ feel doubt about someone's judgment doubt, question Accidents occurred because more junior staff did not want to question the judgment of their superiors.
- ▶ show judgment display, show Her conduct showed bad judgment on her part.

- • n+of+N error, lapse She made a further error of judgment by appointing him as a minister in her cabinet.

jump at PHR VB

take an opportunity in a very enthusiastic way

- • V+n opportunity chance, opportunity We jumped at the chance of a trip to Sri Lanka.
- ▶ offer offer Although he was just a few months short of retirement, Rogers jumped at the offer.
- ▶ idea idea Harry asked me if I could supply the music for his films and I jumped at the idea.

junior ADJ

1 without a lot of responsibility or power

- • ADJ+n worker or workers clerk, colleague, doctor, member of staff, minister, officer, partner, reporter, staff The British Medical Association reports that there are 21,000 junior doctors competing for 9,500 jobs. ◆ This scheme is about the observation of junior staff by their seniors.
- ▶ job job, position, post, rank Grace worked in the same department as Ann, but in a junior post.

2 intended for or involving young people

- • ADJ+n person taking part in a sport athlete, champion, player They have produced some outstanding junior athletes in the past. ◆ He was British junior champion in 1998.
- ▶ team squad, team Luke was captain of the junior squad that travelled to Germany.
- ▶ group of teams league There are many international soccer players who made it to the professional game through the junior leagues.
- ▶ club club The Trust's junior club has over 1500 members.
- ▶ member of a club member Clubs may, if they so desire, accept junior members.
- ▶ competition championship, tournament Adam came second in the junior championship.
- ▶ part of a club section The Club does not have a junior section.

junk N

old, broken, or useless things

- • adj+N assorted, old, unwanted, useless Use this as an excuse to get rid of any old junk.

- • v+N accumulate, collect Your attic will probably be full of junk that you have accumulated over the years.

- • n+of+N pile heap, pile On the right of the bed is a pile of junk.
- ▶ amount amount, load Judging by the amount of junk in our house, I don't think we throw anything away.
- ▶ piece bit, piece Skilled craftsmen take pieces of junk and transform them into useful items.

jurisdiction N

the right or power to make legal decisions

- • v+N have jurisdiction have, possess, retain An award can be attacked on the grounds that the adjudicator had no jurisdiction to make it.
- ▶ use jurisdiction exercise He sought to defend the right of the civil power to exercise jurisdiction in ecclesiastical matters.
- ▶ give jurisdiction confer, give, grant, transfer The Act of 1932 transferred jurisdiction to county courts.
- ▶ lack jurisdiction lack Judge Sirica ruled that the Federal District Court lacked jurisdiction to comply with the Senate Committee's request for the tapes.
- ▶ claim jurisdiction assert, claim African bishops have claimed jurisdiction over the three parishes.
- ▶ refuse to accept the jurisdiction of someone or something challenge, contest, dispute I intend to contest the jurisdiction.
- ▶ accept the jurisdiction of someone or something accept The parties shall accept the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.
- ▶ limit the jurisdiction of someone or something limit The Presidential Decree limits the jurisdiction of the court to those cases that took place after 30 August 1999.

- ▸ increase jurisdiction extend The Ombudsman's jurisdiction was extended to include complaints about the care and treatment of patients.
- ▸ go beyond jurisdiction exceed The adjudicator has exceeded his jurisdiction.
- ▸ have to accept the jurisdiction of someone or something be subject to, come under She argues that a wide range of current domestic policies will gradually come under the jurisdiction of the European Commission.

jury N

a group of members of the public who decide in a court of law whether someone has committed a crime

- • v+N speak to a jury address The prosecutor addressed the jury of six men and six women.
- ▸ order a jury to do something direct, instruct She directed the jury to return a not guilty verdict.
- ▸ persuade a jury convince, impress, persuade, satisfy, sway Forensic evidence convinced the jury that he had murdered the three women.
- ▸ make a jury give a formal promise swear in The jury was sworn in today and the prosecution started to present its case.
- ▸ be part of a jury serve on, sit on Anyone aged 18–70 can be summoned to serve on a jury.
- ▸ officially allow a jury to leave discharge, dismiss The jury was discharged after failing to reach a verdict.
- ▸ choose a jury select Reporting restrictions were lifted and a jury was selected.
- ▸ warn a jury warn It may be appropriate for the judge to warn the jury to exercise caution before acting upon the unsupported evidence of a witness.
- ▸ remind a jury remind The judge normally reminds the jury of their oath.

- • N+v make a decision about whether someone has committed a crime deliver a verdict, give a verdict, reach a verdict, return a verdict The jury returned a verdict of accidental death.
- ▸ officially decide that someone has not committed a crime acquit, clear, find sb not guilty He was acquitted unanimously by a jury of nine women and three men.
- ▸ officially decide that someone has committed a crime convict, find sb guilty The jury swiftly convicted her of murder.
- ▸ decide something decide, find The jury has decided that there was insufficient evidence to persuade them of the defendant's guilt.
- ▸ officially decide to give someone something award The next day, the jury awarded her record damages of £600,000.
- ▸ officially discuss whether someone has committed a crime be out, consider its verdict, deliberate The jury had deliberated for six hours before finding Elmore guilty.
- ▸ consider something consider The jury considered the evidence and returned the verdict that she had accidentally drowned.
- ▸ go to a private room to decide whether someone has committed a crime retire The jury retired to consider their verdict.

justice N

1 fair and moral treatment of people

- • adj+N divine, economic, environmental, natural, racial, social The Report recommended that arrangements for handling complaints should reflect the principles of natural justice.

- • v+N want or try to get justice ask for, demand, pursue, seek, want They carried posters demanding justice for pensioners.
- ▸ get justice achieve, get, obtain, secure She believed in the power of politics to achieve social justice.
- ▸ support justice promote, serve, uphold We are responsible in government for upholding justice, civil rights, and democracy.
- ▸ stop someone getting justice deny sb Miners with these terrible illnesses were denied justice for years.
- ▸ make certain that someone gets justice ensure This is the best prospect of ensuring justice for those who died.

- • n+for+N call, campaign, demand, desire, fight, quest, search, struggle He launched a campaign for justice for all Britain's 300,000 Travellers.

2 the legal process of judging and punishing people

- • adj+N civil, criminal, juvenile, restorative, retributive The book is an ideal text for students taking courses in criminal justice.

- • v+N provide justice administer, deliver, dispense, mete out Our object has been to establish an independent judiciary capable of dispensing justice effectively and efficiently.

When justice has been provided, you can say that justice has been done: The family was delighted that she had been convicted and that justice had thus been done.

- ▸ avoid justice avoid, escape, evade The real killer escaped justice, while two innocent men had their lives destroyed.
- ▸ try to prevent justice being provided obstruct They have been found guilty by a US court of obstructing justice.
- ▸ have to experience justice face He will never face justice in his home country.
- ▸ cause someone to have to experience justice bring sb to We will find these people and we will bring them to justice.

justifiable ADJ

that has a good reason for being done

- • adv+ADJ in a particular way commercially, economically, ethically, legally, morally, objectively, rationally She argues that the war is morally justifiable.
- ▸ completely entirely, fully, perfectly, quite, wholly If it has happened to you, don't be upset by the strength of your reactions, for they are perfectly justifiable.

- • ADJ+n feeling anger, pride All those who took part can feel justifiable pride in what was achieved.
- ▸ action act, action, measure You will admit that the action was morally justifiable, if technically criminal.
- ▸ reason argument, case, cause, grounds, reason

They may have valid and justifiable reasons for wanting to remain anonymous.
- ▸ criticism complaint, criticism There is justifiable criticism of the police for their failure to act quickly.
- ▸ worry or fear concern, fear There are, of course, many justifiable concerns about the proposals.
- ▸ claim claim Both could make a justifiable claim to being France's most picturesque village.
- ▸ decision decision We decided that it was a justifiable decision on the evidence available.
- ▸ use use I don't think it's a justifiable use of taxpayers' money.

- • v+ADJ be, consider sth, seem In some circumstances it was considered justifiable not to pursue the complaints. ◉ For these reasons, it seems justifiable to argue that the facility should continue to exist.

justification N
a reason why something is right

- • adj+N types of justification economic, ethical, ideological, intellectual, legal, moral, philosophical, rational, scientific, theological, theoretical The core of Dostoevsky's novel is Raskolnikov's attempt to find a moral justification for his crime.
- ▸ some or enough adequate, ample, proper, sufficient They argue that the United States would seem to have ample justification for an attack under international law. ◉ Some people argued, with some justification, that we did not get it right yesterday.
- ▸ not enough insufficient, little There seems little justification for such a policy.
- ▸ only only, sole The only justification for breaching a young person's confidentiality is if they are at serious risk of immediate harm.
- ▸ strong clear, compelling, convincing, strong Nowhere does he give a convincing justification for his decision.
- ▸ reasonable reasonable, valid Many had been arrested and detained without reasonable justification.
- ▸ not based on personal feelings objective That is not an objective justification, because it is itself rooted in discrimination.

- • v+N provide a justification give (sb), offer (sb), provide (sb with) While various justifications are offered for this, they are all irrelevant.
- ▸ need a justification need, require He evidently felt that fighting the evil of Nazism required no justification beyond the fact that it was the right thing to do.
- ▸ find a justification find It is hard to find a justification for his actions.
- ▸ understand a justification see I can see no justification for this at all.
- ▸ have a justification have The practice has no scientific justification.

justified ADJ doing something for good reasons, or done for good reasons

- • adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, fully, perfectly, quite, totally, wholly I feel fully justified in expressing a personal opinion about the matter.
- ▸ in a particular way economically, legally, morally, scientifically Do you think you are morally justified in downloading music illegally?
- ▸ partly partially, partly We can feel partially justified at least.
- ▸ very well Howie felt well justified in having invested $2m to treble capacity at his processing plant last year.
- ▸ in a way that is not based on personal feelings objectively The new law will prevent discrimination on the basis of age, unless that can be objectively justified.

- • v+ADJ appear, be, feel, prove, seem The fears she had expressed were to prove justified.

justify V
show that there is a good reason for something

- • V+n action act, action, intervention The evidence justifying intervention is simply not provided.
- ▸ decision choice, conclusion, decision Can you justify your choice?
- ▸ belief belief, faith They do not believe they need to justify their beliefs.
- ▸ money spent on something cost, expenditure, expense, investment, outlay, spending The rail company was unable to justify the expenditure on a line which carried so few people.
- ▸ existence existence In order to justify their existence, all branches of government have to be seen to be doing things.
- ▸ claim assertion, assumption, claim The research carried out on behalf of the advertisers was not rigorous enough to justify the claims made in their ads.
- ▸ refusal refusal It will be harder for an employer to justify a refusal of flexible working if the worker has suggested practical solutions to the employer's concerns.

- • v+to-V be used to serve The figures served to justify planned cutbacks in state pensions.
- ▸ seem to appear, seem Some of his statements seem to justify such criticism.
- ▸ try to attempt, seek, struggle, try I tried to justify my actions to myself.
- ▸ need to have, need Don't feel you have to justify your decision to anyone.

Kk

keen ADJ

1 wanting to do something

- adv+ADJ very desperately, especially, extremely, particularly, really, so INFORMAL, terribly, very We are particularly keen to encourage more girls and young women to consider a career in construction.
- ▸ not very not at all, not exactly, not overly, not that INFORMAL, not too I'm not too keen on the idea.
- ▸ rather pretty INFORMAL, quite I'm quite keen on learning more about photography.
- ▸ in a way that is easy to understand naturally, understandably The Prime Minister was understandably keen to stress the improvements in the economy since they gained power.
- v+ADJ appear, be, feel, look, remain, seem, sound She seemed keen to join the club.

2 very strong or very effective

- ADJ+n interest or awareness anticipation, appreciation, awareness, interest, sense Although Pepys had no scientific training, he took a keen interest in science and joined the Royal Society in 1665. ❁ She was a woman with a keen sense of public duty.
- ▸ physical ability eye, eyesight, hearing, sense of hearing, sense of smell You need keen eyesight to spot it.
- ▸ mental ability brain, insight, intellect, mind, wit She is a woman of keen intellect.

keep V

1 store information by writing it or putting it into a computer

- V+n accounts, archive, blog, diary, file, journal, log, note, record, register During that time she kept a diary which I am now preparing for publication.

2 make something stay within a limit

- V+within boundaries, bounds, budget, confines, limits, parameters, range We need to ensure expenditure is kept within budget.

keep to PHR VB

1 prevent an amount or number from passing a limit

- V+n level, limit, maximum, minimum The number attending will be kept to a maximum of 40.

2 follow an agreement or rule

- V+n plan deadline, plan, schedule, timetable The contractor will be required to keep to this schedule.
- ▸ agreement agreement, promise, terms If he failed to keep to the agreement, they would take immediate action through the courts.
- ▸ rule guidelines, rule Make sure the child is rewarded for keeping to the rules.
- ▸ amount budget This arrangement is perfect if you want to keep to a strict budget.
- ▸ limited amount of food diet I've been keeping strictly to my new diet.

keep up PHR VB

continue to do something

- V+n work good work You're doing great! Keep up the good work!
- ▸ rate momentum, pace He can't keep that pace up forever.
- ▸ payment payment, repayment She had been unable to keep up payments on the new loan.
- ▸ communication commentary, conversation, correspondence We met in 1997 and since then we've kept up a correspondence.
- ▸ effort effort, fight The longer-term answer must be to keep up the fight to repeal all the anti-union laws.
- ▸ opposition opposition She called on them to keep up their opposition to the war.
- ▸ pressure pressure, tension Unfortunately, Wales could not keep up the pressure in the second half.

key N

1 a metal object for locking a door or container or operating a vehicle's engine

- adj+N spare duplicate, spare Who has a spare key to the flat?
- ▸ that fits many locks master, skeleton He let them in with a master key.
- v+N use a key turn, use She jumped into her car, turned the keys in the ignition, and set off for work.
- ▸ put a key into a lock insert, put in You may start to find it difficult to hold a cup or insert a key into a lock.
- ▸ take a key out of a lock remove, take out Check that you have locked the back door and removed the key.
- ▸ cause keys to make a noise jangle, jingle We heard keys being jangled and a heavy door being opened.

When you have a key made, you get a key cut: When we rented out our flat, we needed to get some duplicate keys cut.

- N+v open something open, unlock Neil found that one of the keys opened the hut where the equipment was kept.
- ▸ lock something lock The biggest key locks the side door.
- ▸ be operated turn She heard the key turn in the lock.
- ▸ make a noise jangle, jingle His keys jingled in his pocket.
- n+of+N bunch, set He reached in his pocket and took out a bunch of keys.

2 the main thing helping you to achieve something [usually singular]

- v+N have, hold Wireless technology holds the key to further developments in the industry.
- N+to success prosperity, success, victory The executive producer of the show says audience participation is the key to its success.
- ▸ state of continuing to exist survival Care for the natural environment is the key to the survival of life on earth.

- ▸ development development, growth, improvement The key to small business growth is specialisation.
- ▸ future future So we have to make it a priority as a nation to invest in what is the key to our whole economic future.
- ▸ happiness happiness Big houses and fast cars are not the key to happiness.
- ▸ knowledge understanding It is the key to an understanding of this great world religion.

3 a part of a keyboard pressed to produce a letter, number etc

- • v+N press a key depress, hit, hold down, press, tap, use Initially, the children's fingers struggled to hit the correct keys.
- ▸ stop pressing a key release As soon as you release the key, the image stops scrolling.

key ADJ

very important

- • adv+ADJ absolutely, clearly, obviously, potentially Training is clearly key to success in this project.
- • ADJ+n part of something aspect, component, element, factor, feature, ingredient, part One of the key elements of highly effective teams is clearly defined roles and responsibilities.
- ▸ person figure, player Paul was a key player in the development of the training scheme.
- ▸ idea concept, idea, point, principle Use coloured pens to highlight key points.
- ▸ role part, role Both played key roles in Queensland's victory over Victoria yesterday.
- ▸ issue area, issue, theme This paper outlines the Association's views on key issues relating to English teaching.
- ▸ aim aim, goal, objective, priority The strategy sets out four key objectives which need to be met.
- ▸ information findings, information Below is a summary of some of the key findings.
- ▸ skill skill There are five specific key skills which were identified during the consultation process.
- • v+ADJ be, consider sb/sth, prove, remain, seem Sea grass is considered key to the health of coral reef habitats. ⁕ January's election may prove key to the future direction of the country.

kick V

hit someone or something with your foot

- • V+adj closed, open, shut The door was kicked open, and Phil rushed in.
- • adv+V violently brutally, hard, viciously, violently He also viciously kicked a boy of just seventeen.
- ▸ accidentally/deliberately accidentally, deliberately She was accidentally kicked on the back of the head by her opponent.
- ▸ many times repeatedly He was repeatedly kicked and stamped on.
- • and/or beat, bite, hit, punch, stamp They kicked and punched him, demanding his wallet, which he handed over.

kick N

1 a hit with your foot

- • adj+N hard, hefty, powerful, sharp, swift, vicious A vicious kick in the stomach left him desperately gasping for breath.
- • v+N get a kick get, receive He had to be carried off in the 20th minute after getting a kick on the shin.
- ▸ give someone or something a kick deliver, give (sb/sth), land, plant I had an overwhelming urge to give my motorcycle a hefty kick.
- ▸ aim a kick aim, take I took a kick at the front door of the flat.

2 INFORMAL a feeling of excitement or pleasure

- • adj+N big, great, huge, real In 1999 I broke the college record, and that gave me a real kick.
- • v+N get, give sb She seemed to get a big kick out of it.

kid N INFORMAL

a child

- • adj+N big, cool, little, local, poor, rich, young Whether you're young or just a big kid at heart, there's plenty for you to do in the area. ⁕ He spots this young kid walking up the road with something under his arm.
- • n+N city, neighbourhood, school, street The aim is to encourage school kids to take up the sport.
- • v+like+N act, behave, feel, look I'm really excited. I feel like a kid again.
- • n+of+N bunch, crowd, gang, group, load They clearly thought we were just a bunch of kids on a school excursion. ⁕ There were a load of kids there, out in canoes from the Activity Centre.

kill V

make a person or other living thing die

- • adv+V in a way that causes as little pain as possible humanely, painlessly Any animals showing symptoms will be humanely killed without delay.
- ▸ very quickly instantaneously, instantly, outright Six of the drivers were killed outright.
- ▸ nearly almost, nearly Leslie was returning home late at night when he was almost killed in a car crash.
- ▸ finally eventually, finally Harold was mortally wounded by an arrow which struck him in the eye and eventually killed him.
- ▸ slowly slowly The disease is slowly killing her.
- ▸ deliberately deliberately, intentionally They are claiming allied forces deliberately killed innocent people.
- ▸ accidentally accidentally, inadvertently He had forgiven the man who accidentally killed his eldest son.
- ▸ illegally illegally, unlawfully An inquest jury ruled that he had been unlawfully killed by officers from the Metropolitan Police.
- ▸ in a cruel way brutally This is what the journalist was investigating when he was kidnapped and brutally killed.
- ▸ without caring who dies indiscriminately The rebels were killing men, women, and children indiscriminately.

- ▸ in a way that causes great sadness tragically Stephen was tragically killed in a road accident in 1989.
- ▸ in a way that is not necessary needlessly Far too many people are needlessly killed or injured in crashes on our roads.

killer N
someone who kills another person

- adj+N mentally ill crazed, deranged, mad, psychopathic, psychotic A psychopathic killer viciously attacked a woman journalist returning home from a TV broadcast.
- ▸ killing several people one after another serial At the same time, another serial killer also began killing women in the Yorkshire area.
- ▸ cruel brutal, sadistic, vicious He's then sent to track down the sadistic killer.
- ▸ real real Is the real killer still out there?
- ▸ lacking sympathy cold-blooded, cold-hearted, merciless, ruthless Ripley is an unscrupulous art dealer and also a cold-blooded killer.
- ▸ famous infamous, notorious Is it possible that the infamous killer, never captured by the London police, has made his way to the streets of New York City?
- ▸ claimed to be a killer accused, alleged, suspected The alleged killers, three policemen, are in jail.
- ▸ paid to be a killer contract, hired, professional The suspect is known to have approached a contract killer a month before her murder.

- v+N catch a killer apprehend, arrest, catch, find, stop The parents of the schoolboy say they will not rest until their son's killers are caught.
- ▸ try to catch a killer hunt, trace, track, track down Murder squad police are still hunting the killer of the two young men.
- ▸ find out who the killer is identify After three months, however, police have not identified his killer.
- ▸ make a killer have a trial bring sb to justice So began a long investigation to bring her killer to justice.

- N+v kill someone kill, murder, strike When he finds his parents have been murdered by vicious killers, he sets out to track them down. • The killer had struck again, this time murdering a woman who was out walking a dog.
- ▸ move around in a place roam, stalk Will they find the identity of the killer stalking the streets, before any more young women are slaughtered?
- ▸ try to find someone in order to kill them hunt, stalk Meanwhile, he's being stalked by a killer.
- ▸ try to kill someone attack, target When Paige discovers that the killer is targeting children, she knows that she cannot just stand and watch as more die.

killing N an act of deliberately killing someone

- adj+N illegal extrajudicial, illegal, unlawful The inquest jury recorded a unanimous verdict of unlawful killing.
- ▸ deliberate deliberate, intentional, systematic, targeted, wilful The targeting and deliberate killing of civilians is unacceptable.
- ▸ accidental accidental Military officials are investigating the accidental killing of nine children during an air attack on an alleged terrorist hideout.
- ▸ cruel brutal The government is committed to a thorough investigation of the events behind the brutal killing.
- ▸ showing a lack of sympathy cold-blooded An ex-soldier has been arrested for the cold-blooded killings of four members of his family.
- ▸ causing many people to die mass Government soldiers have also been responsible for mass killings.
- ▸ done because of religious differences sectarian The bombing sparked a wave of sectarian killings.
- ▸ done without caring who dies indiscriminate The international community cannot permit the indiscriminate killing of civilians.
- ▸ done for no reason needless, random, senseless, wanton He was brutally murdered in a senseless killing.
- ▸ very unpleasant gruesome It turns out to be the first of a series of gruesome killings.
- ▸ causing as little pain as possible humane Inspectors have the power to require the humane killing of any protected animal they consider to be suffering excessively or unnecessarily.
- ▸ involving a series of people serial This is a well performed, thought-provoking film about the investigation into Korea's first serial killings.

- n+N contract, gangland, honour, mercy, revenge From physical abuse to forced marriages and honour killings, domestic violence continues to be frighteningly common in many communities.

- v+N stop a killing end, halt, prevent, stop The UN forces were unable to stop the brutal killings.
- ▸ say that a killing is wrong condemn No one has yet condemned the killing of an innocent man.
- ▸ order a killing order The three men were convicted in January of ordering the killing.
- ▸ say that a killing is not allowed forbid, prohibit The 1928 law forbade the killing of bulls in bullfights.
- ▸ approve of a killing condone I, of course, don't condone the killing of innocent people.
- ▸ commit a killing be reponsible for, carry out, commit Such killings are carried out by the security services.
- ▸ try to find out about a killing investigate A special commission was announced to investigate the killings.
- ▸ see a killing witness He had witnessed the killing of a detainee by a guard.
- ▸ say that there is a good reason for a killing justify They will probably try to justify the killing by saying that he was resisting arrest.

kind N
a type of person or thing

- adj+N different different This site has good guides to grammar and different kinds of writing.
- ▸ particular certain, distinct, particular, special, specific It is an advanced vocational course designed to prepare you for a particular kind of work.
- ▸ various several, various There are cages with monkeys and apes of various kinds in them.
- ▸ strange funny, odd, peculiar, strange, weird The man was playing a strange kind of instrument.

▸ same same, similar The British army conducted similar kinds of operations there in the 1950s.
▸ usual common, normal, typical, usual Amy is definitely not your usual kind of heroine.
▸ right/wrong right, wrong Our guide will help you choose the right kind of drill for the job.
▸ best/worst best, worst Swimming is probably the best kind of exercise you can take during pregnancy.
◉ These people are racists of the worst kind.

kind ADJ
behaving in a way that shows you care about other people

- adv+ADJ extremely, incredibly, really, so, too, very He was always extremely kind to her.
- and/or caring, considerate, friendly, generous, gentle, good, helpful, loving, nice, thoughtful 'He was probably the kindest, gentlest soul you'd ever want to meet,' she said.

kindness N
kind behaviour, or kind feelings

- adj+N extraordinary, great, human, loving, real, unfailing, utmost He spoke rather quietly, and was a man of great kindness.
- v+N show kindness to someone show (sb), treat sb with I would like to thank all my friends and neighbours, who showed me such kindness in my sad loss.
  ▸ reward someone for their kindness repay, return How can she truly repay his kindness?
  ▸ receive kindness meet with, receive Her mother had received so much kindness from the Deanes.
  ▸ remember someone's kindness never forget, remember I shall never forget your kindness.
  ▸ be grateful for someone's kindness appreciate Their kindness is very much appreciated.
- N+v overwhelm, touch I was overwhelmed by their kindness and thoughtfulness.
- and/or compassion, friendship, generosity, goodness, patience, sympathy, thoughtfulness, warmth We continue to rely on the kindness and generosity of our sponsors in order to keep the centre open.

king N
the senior male member of a royal family

- v+N make someone king anoint, appoint, crown, proclaim He was crowned king in 1306.
  ▸ force a king from his position of power depose, overthrow Shakespeare's Richard II was considered a highly political play, since it shows a king being deposed.
  ▸ become king become Edward III had become king in 1326 at the age of 14.
  ▸ perform duties for a king serve He thought of becoming a monk there when he could no longer serve the king.
- N+v rule command, reign, rule From the mid 6th century BC, Persian kings ruled over peoples and territory stretching from Northern Libya to Central Asia.
  ▸ officially give up power abdicate The king abdicated and was imprisoned in Pontefract Castle.

kiss V touch someone with your lips because of love or sexual feelings, or when you say hello or goodbye

- adv+V with strong sexual feelings passionately A surge of desire swept through me as we kissed passionately.
  ▸ gently gently, lightly, softly, tenderly He smoothed her hair from her forehead and kissed her very tenderly on the lips.
- and/or caress, cuddle, embrace, hug Then we all hugged and kissed and said goodbye.

kiss N an act of kissing someone

- adj+N involving strong sexual feelings passionate She surprised Ian by giving him a passionate kiss.
  ▸ first first Holly visits him in the hospital, and they share their first kiss.
  ▸ last final, last I just want him back, to give him one last kiss.
  ▸ big big He pulled her towards him and gave her a big kiss.
  ▸ little little I just gave her a little kiss on the forehead.
  ▸ showing that you like or care about someone affectionate, loving, tender, warm ▸ gentle gentle, soft I planted a gentle kiss on Daniel's head and pulled him even closer.
  ▸ quick quick She greeted me with a quick kiss on the cheek.
  ▸ wet sloppy INFORMAL, wet I miss the way you'd wake me in the morning with a sloppy kiss.
  ▸ lasting a long time lingering, long But this time we shared a tight hug and a long kiss.
  ▸ without any sexual feeling chaste, innocent He merely planted a chaste kiss on her forehead, instead of her lips as she'd expected.
- n+N farewell, goodbye, goodnight Natalie was hoping for a goodnight kiss.
- v+N place a kiss drop, place, plant She leaned forward and planted a kiss on his cheek.
  ▸ give someone a kiss give She gave me a kiss and touched my cheek with her hand.
  ▸ give someone a kiss unexpectedly snatch, steal He grabbed her from behind and stole a kiss.
  ▸ get a kiss get, receive He was hoping to get a kiss from her.
  ▸ give someone and be given a kiss exchange, share They exchanged a quick kiss.
  ▸ kiss your hand and pretend to blow the kiss to someone blow (sb) He blew her a kiss as he left.
- and/or cuddle, hug The couple finally paused in the deserted bus shelter, for a kiss and a cuddle.

knack N a skill or ability

- adj+N amazing, extraordinary, great, happy, incredible, real, special, uncanny, unerring, wonderful He has the uncanny knack of noticing when someone is upset, or in need of support, or simply just wants to talk.
- v+N have a knack have She seemed to have a knack for being in the right place at the right time.

▸ get a knack acquire, develop, get, learn It is relatively easy, once you have got the knack.
▸ lose a knack lose It seems that I've not lost the knack completely.
▸ show a knack demonstrate, display, show James shows a real knack for composing simple yet fantastic melodies.

knead V

prepare dough or clay by pressing it

• adv+V gently gently, lightly Knead the mixture lightly until it forms a smooth dough.
▸ thoroughly thoroughly, well Place the dough on a floured surface and knead it well until it feels elastic.
▸ for a short time briefly Briefly knead the dough to release some of the air.

• V+n bread, clay, dough, mixture, pastry On a board sprinkled with flour, knead the dough for 10–15 minutes.

knife N

1 an object with sharp blade for cutting food

• adj+N sharp/not sharp blunt, sharp Using a sharp knife, slice the aubergines lengthwise.
▸ with a row of points along the edge serrated With a serrated knife cut off the top and bottom of the orange.

• n+N for cutting a particular food bread, butter, steak, vegetable She threatened to stab him with the bread knife.
▸ used in a kitchen kitchen We have a wide range of kitchen knives available.
▸ made of steel stainless steel, steel He bought a set of twelve stainless steel knives.
▸ for cutting meat carving Why do we need an electric carving knife?

• v+N sharpen A flat stone was used for sharpening knives or tools.

• n+of+N blade, handle, set Keep the blade of your knife sharp at all times. ◉ I had bought myself a set of chef's knives.

2 an object with a sharp blade used as a weapon

• v+N carry a knife be armed with, carry Most of the young men were carrying knives.
▸ take out a knife produce, pull, pull out, take out She pulled a knife on me!
▸ point or wave a knife brandish, point, wave, wield They were robbed by two men brandishing knives.
▸ threaten or attack someone with a knife attack sb with, stab sb with, threaten sb with She had been repeatedly stabbed with a knife.
▸ put a knife in someone plunge, stick INFORMAL, thrust He grabbed him by the hair and plunged a knife into his back.

• N+n attack, crime, cut, fight, wound The reported levels of knife crime in the area are low.

knot N

a point where something is tied

• adj+N loose, tight Be careful to check that the knots are tight and the tension is correct.

• v+N tie a knot make, tie He tied a knot in his silk scarf.
▸ untie a knot undo, untie Stan was fumbling to undo the knot around the sack.
▸ make a knot tighter/looser loosen, tighten Now pull the ends of the yarn to tighten the knot.

knowledge N

what someone knows about a particular subject, or what is known generally about different things or about life

• adj+N when someone knows a lot detailed, encyclopaedic, extensive, good, in-depth, intimate, sound, thorough, unrivalled, vast The exhibition was greatly facilitated by Rosenthal's encyclopaedic knowledge of current British art.
▸ basic basic, limited, superficial He had a basic knowledge of French.
▸ knowing the most recent facts up-to-date They need to be good communicators and have up-to-date knowledge of the legal requirements.
▸ gained through doing or hearing something yourself direct, first-hand The students on work experience will gain first-hand knowledge about the police.
▸ given by someone who knows a lot expert, inside, specialist Health and safety advisers offer expert knowledge and skills in order to generate and promote a positive health and safety culture.
▸ types of knowledge factual, local, mathematical, medical, practical, professional, scientific, technical, theoretical We live on site and can help with any enquiries and share our local knowledge with you. ◉ I didn't have enough medical knowledge to know what was wrong with him.

• n+N what has happened in the past background The studies can be challenging and can require more background knowledge about the subject.

• v+N have knowledge have, possess All our drivers are familiar with the handling and controls of the vehicles and possess a good knowledge of mechanics should this be needed.
▸ not have knowledge lack Some of the staff lacked appropriate knowledge of the patients' specific care needs.
▸ get knowledge accumulate, acquire, gain, glean You will gain practical knowledge of all aspects of the job as well as recognised qualifications.
▸ improve knowledge advance, broaden, build on, deepen, develop, enhance, expand, extend, further, improve, increase, widen I hope to further my knowledge of languages by studying Spanish at university.
▸ use knowledge apply, draw on, use We apply our practical knowledge of what actually works in this field, to make your adverts stand out from the crowd.
▸ share knowledge disseminate, impart, pass on, share Workers in both organizations had established practices for sharing knowledge which were informal and unstructured.
▸ test knowledge test Children can take part in a quiz that will test their wildlife knowledge.
▸ show knowledge demonstrate, show All applicants will be required to demonstrate knowledge of legal requirements.

• and/or ability, confidence, experience, expertise, insight, skills, understanding The social work department provides ongoing support and training to help carers develop their knowledge and skills.

knowledgeable ADJ
knowing a lot

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, very The staff seemed very knowledgeable and up to date with the technology.
- ▶ enough sufficiently There will always be someone on the staff who is sufficiently knowledgeable about every individual student to provide a worthwhile reference.
- ADJ+n person audience, expert, guide, person, professional, speaker, staff, team A knowledgeable guide accompanies all our cruises.
- ▶ advice advice Thank you for your prompt service and knowledgeable advice.
- v+ADJ appear, be, become, seem, sound Patients are bcoming more knowledgeable about the range of treatment that is open to them.
- and/or enthusiastic, experienced, friendly, helpful, professional, skilled Our helpful and knowledgeable staff are ready and waiting for your call or email.

known ADJ that people know about

- adv+ADJ known about by many people commonly, generally, well, widely The author does little more than take widely-known ideas and regurgitate them under new headings.
- ▶ known about by few people little He played for a little-known band called 'Plastic Dog'.
- ADJ+n cause, cure, example, fact, problem, risk factor At present, there is no known cure for emphysema, which causes advanced damage to the lungs and can eventually kill sufferers.

kudos N
praise and respect because of an achievement

- adj+N much great His is a name that adds great kudos to any racing championship.
- ▶ extra added, extra A teaching assistant gains extra kudos and respect for being in charge of doling out the sweets!
- v+N have kudos have He also has the added kudos of having been part of the triumphant English team.
- ▶ get kudos earn, gain, get She earned further kudos by being the only girl in the class who could speak Spanish.

LI

labour N

1 workers considered as group

- adj+N relating to the amount of skill that workers have semi-skilled, skilled, unskilled The emphasis was on skills, as the need for skilled labour was clearly there.
- ▸ relating to the amount of money that workers earn cheap, unpaid They were criticized for using unpaid labour.
- ▸ relating to whether the workers are temporary or not casual, organized The mechanisation of farming began to reduce the need for casual labour.
- n+N child, immigrant, migrant, slave, sweatshop, volunteer We all want to see an end to child labour and to secure adherence to core labour standards across the world.
- v+N employ labour employ, hire, use David employs local labour to repair an outhouse at the farm.
- ▸ treat labour badly exploit Big businesses are profiting from exploiting cheap labour.
- N+n group of workers force, market, supply The UK has a highly skilled and flexible labour force.
- ▸ when workers are unhappy dispute, unrest The arbitration scheme deals with labour disputes.
- ▸ movement of workers flexibility, migration, mobility This rise in the standard of living is both a main cause and a main effect of labour migration.
- ▸ when there are not enough workers shortage The labour shortages in the booming economy of south-east England have attracted many workers from abroad.
- ▸ cost costs Redundancies are one way of reducing labour costs.
- ▸ law law Under UK labour laws, industrial action must commence within four weeks of a ballot closing.
- ▸ organizations movement, union The labour movement tries to protect workers' rights.

2 work, especially hard physical work

- adj+N back-breaking, forced, hard, manual, physical The Geneva convention bans the use of forced labour for prisoners of war.
- v+N withdraw The cleaners threatened to withdraw their labour after the informal talks with management broke down.

labour under PHR VB

- V+n delusion, illusion, impression, misapprehension, misconception For a long time, Garth had laboured under the misapprehension that the two men were related.

lack N

a situation when there is not enough of something

- adj+N complete complete, sheer, total, utter There appears to be a complete lack of interest in athletics.
- ▸ very serious chronic, profound, serious, severe, woeful She suffers from a chronic lack of self-confidence.
- ▸ easy to see conspicuous, distinct, marked, notable, noticeable, obvious, singular There's a distinct lack of modestly priced housing in the area.
- ▸ making you feel worried, angry or surprised alarming, appalling, remarkable, shocking, surprising, worrying There was a surprising lack of people in the 25 – 34 age range. ◉ The food hygiene survey uncovered a worrying lack of knowledge of basic hygiene which is putting people at risk.
- ▸ relative comparative, relative Despite his relative lack of formal education, he was very successful.
- ▸ apparent apparent, seeming In reality, it was the tedium of his life that had resulted in his apparent lack of memory.
- ▸ general general, overall There were complaints about the general lack of cleanliness.

lack V

not have any or enough of something

- adv+V clearly, completely, entirely, totally Her new book completely lacks the originality of her first novel.
- V+n ability or knowledge or experience ability, capacity, experience, knowledge, skill He lacked the experience necessary to do the job.
- ▸ a special quality finesse, originality, pace, punch, sophistication, spark, sparkle The film lacks the punch of films such as Memento and Jacob's Ladder.
- ▸ power or strength power, resources, strength This song could find itself inside the top three, but might just lack the strength to make it to number one.
- ▸ personal quality ambition, charisma, confidence, courage, imagination, motivation, sense, wisdom He confessed freely that he lacked the courage to speak out.
- ▸ quality that makes something believable conviction, credibility We were creating chances, but too many of our shots lacked any conviction.
- ▸ clear quality clarity, coherence The argument presented lacked any coherence.
- ▸ thorough and careful quality depth, rigour The work was generally good throughout, although it lacked rigour at times.

lacking ADJ

that does not exist or is not available

- adv+ADJ in a way that is serious or sad sadly, seriously, severely The film is quite exciting, but surprisingly lacking in plot.
- ▸ clearly clearly, conspicuously, distinctly, noticeably, obviously, singularly These 'life skills' were distinctly lacking in disadvantaged groups.
- ▸ completely completely, entirely, totally, wholly He is almost entirely lacking in emotion.
- ▸ rather rather, somehow This is an attitude which has been rather lacking in recent years.

land N

an area of ground, especially one used for a particular purpose

- adj+N used for farming agricultural, arable 84 per cent of agricultural land in the country is polluted by acid rain.
- ▸ used for businesses or factories industrial Details of council-owned industrial land available for sale can be found on the website.
- ▸ not used bare, derelict, disused, uncultivated, unused, vacant, waste Parks were built on derelict land, canals cleaned up and car-free days implemented.
- ▸ that has never had buildings on it greenbelt, greenfield, undeveloped And even if there is a need, such homes can be built elsewhere without spoiling greenfield land.
- ▸ that has had buildings on it before brownfield, previously developed The development is being built on a 70-hectare site, which is primarily brownfield land.
- ▸ good for growing crops fertile, rich Some Egyptians grew wheat and barley on the fertile land of the Nile valley.
- ▸ not good for growing crops barren, infertile Several years of drought have made the land even more barren.
- ▸ dirty or polluted contaminated, polluted He's heading a project to clean up contaminated land.
- ▸ owned by a particular person or company private The path is on private land and so is not accessible to the public.
- ▸ types of land arid, flat, hilly, low-lying, marshy It's a winding road that cuts across the flat land of the estuary.

- n+N farm, farming, grazing, pasture This is grazing land where livestock can wander freely.
- N+n management, reclamation He has been involved in brownfield land reclamation and redevelopment on sites formerly occupied by collieries and gas works.
- n+of+N area, expanse, parcel, patch, piece, plot, portion, stretch, strip, tract He bought a plot of land to build the house on.

landing N

the process of moving a plane etc down onto the ground

- adj+N smooth perfect, smooth The pilot managed to make a very smooth landing.
- ▸ not smooth bumpy, rough We were rather shaken up after a bumpy landing on a small grass airstrip.
- ▸ safe safe, successful The plane made a safe landing after a problem with one of its engines.
- ▸ because of a problem emergency, forced A charter jet carrying 237 passengers has made an emergency landing after it appeared to suffer engine trouble.

- n+N crash Two men were injured when their helicopter made a crash landing following technical difficulties.
- v+N attempt, make American Airlines and British Airways make routine landings there.

landmark N

1 an easily noticed famous building or object

- adj+N famous familiar, famous, iconic, recognizable, well-known The Eiffel Tower is arguably the most famous landmark in Paris.
- ▸ easy to see distinctive, notable, prominent The spire, standing 56 metres high, is still the most prominent landmark in Bishop's Stortford, and can be seen from virtually every part of the town.
- ▸ old historic, historical Clifton is famous for its plethora of shops and its historical landmarks, such as Brunel's famous Clifton Suspension Bridge.
- ▸ in the place that you are local Kendal Castle is an important local landmark and historical building.

- N+n building There are many landmark buildings, including the Stadium of Light – the home of Sunderland Football Club.

2 a major event or achievement in a process

- adj+N great, important, major, significant The adoption of the National Policy on Education by the Parliament in 1986 is a major landmark in the history of education in independent India.
- v+N celebrate, pass, reach The company celebrated a landmark in 1979 when over one million passengers were carried for the first time in a single year.
- N+n achievement, case, decision, event, judgment, ruling, study The court overturned the decision, making this a landmark ruling which will have a far-reaching effect for insurers.
- N+in development, history The event was a landmark in the history of the women's movement.

landscape N

a beautiful area of land or one that has a particular type of feature

- adj+N beautiful beautiful, breathtaking, dramatic, idyllic, picturesque, scenic, spectacular, stunning The Costa Calida's beautiful landscapes provide opportunities for a range of outdoor activities.
- ▸ not developed unspoilt This peaceful, unspoilt landscape supports a wealth of birdlife.
- ▸ empty barren, bleak, desolate, harsh, stark, wild The road changes character here, and the landscape is quite bleak.
- ▸ with mountains or hills hilly, mountainous The holiday villas are in an ideal location amongst the breathtaking, mountainous landscapes of Andalucia.
- ▸ without hills flat The city of Ely rises above the flat landscape of the East Anglian fens.
- ▸ with a lot of gentle slopes rolling, undulating Our route to Coniston took us through an undulating landscape.
- ▸ with rocks rocky, rugged People come to Cheddar Gorge because of its extraordinary rocky landscape.
- ▸ with a lot of trees wooded Wooded landscapes help to release rainwater more slowly, and this in turn means fewer floods.
- ▸ city/country rural, urban The UK has a rich variety of rural landscapes, from sweeping moorland to pretty hamlets.
- ▸ very green green, lush This is one of the Caribbean's most popular islands, with lush landscapes and stunning beaches.
- ▸ with different types of features diverse, varied New Zealand is a large country with a varied landscape.

- n+N desert, moorland, mountain It is a region of rocky plains and desert landscape broken by the fertile wine-growing areas.

- v+N be the main feature in a landscape dominate On the road to the village, a striking nineteenth-century church dominates the landscape.
- ▶ be present in a landscape dot, litter Enormous craters dot the landscape in many areas.
- ▶ form a landscape create, form, shape Farming plays a crucial role in shaping the landscape.
- ▶ change a landscape alter, change, transform The removal of hedges changed the landscape of the area completely.
- ▶ spoil a landscape blight, scar Rubbish clogs the waterways and blights the landscape.
- ▶ protect or improve a landscape conserve, enhance, protect Their aim was to enhance and conserve typical English landscapes.

language N

1 human communication using spoken or written words; the style or type of words used by a person or group

- adj+N rude abusive, bad, foul, obscene, offensive, strong Thomas was sent off for using foul and abusive language towards the referee.
- ▶ ordinary everyday, ordinary, plain, simple Use plain language and avoid jargon and technical terms.
- ▶ suitable appropriate, suitable Always use language that is appropriate for the situation.
- ▶ describing the level of formality colloquial, formal, informal
- ▶ types of language descriptive, figurative, literary, non-technical, poetic, racist, sexist, spoken, technical, written Poetic language is often figurative, with ideas condensed for maximum impact.
- v+N use language adopt, use Try not to adopt the language of the tabloid press. ❁ He then began to use some very bad language.
- ▶ get language acquire This module examines how children acquire language and learn to communicate.
- ▶ be careful with the language you use mind, watch You are a role model for the children and we ask you to mind your language at all times of day.
- N+n acquisition, development, learning, proficiency, skills Nursery rhymes encourage language development, imagination and a sense of rhythm.

2 the particular form of words and speech that is used by the people of a country or area

- adj+N first first, native If your native language is not English, you may be required to do a short test of proficiency in English.
- ▶ second foreign, second The ability to speak at least one foreign language is essential.
- ▶ used in official contexts official The material is available in both French and English, which are both official languages in Canada.
- ▶ still spoken/no longer spoken dead, modern Dead languages such as Latin are still taught in many schools.
- ▶ originally used in a place indigenous Welsh, the indigenous Celtic language of Wales, is the linchpin of national identity.
- ▶ only spoken by a minority of people minority Minority languages, such as Gaelic and Scots in Scotland, have received more attention in recent years.
- ▶ spoken by two or more people or groups common, shared The Old Slavs shared a common language, known as Old Slavonic.
- v+N speak a language speak He speaks four languages fluently.
- ▶ learn/teach a language learn, study, teach It's not easy to learn a new language as an adult.
- ▶ when someone learns a language without being taught acquire Children acquire the language of the community they are in.
- ▶ know a language well master It took me several years to master the language when we moved to Spain.

lapse N

a period of not doing something in the right way

- adj+N lasting for a short time momentary, temporary He had a momentary lapse of concentration and ran into the back of the car in front.
- ▶ happening occasionally occasional, odd Despite the odd lapse in concentration, her playing was pretty good on the whole.
- ▶ serious serious It was a serious lapse of judgement that would later almost destroy his career.
- ▶ not serious minor, slight I would hope that this is a minor lapse and does not indicate a lack of new ideas.
- n+N memory, security There have been security lapses at the prison in which prisoners have been able to escape.
- N+in concentration A lapse in concentration allowed Stevenage to score.
- N+of concentration, memory We all have lapses of memory occasionally, and this book will help improve your memory.

large ADJ

bigger than usual in size or amount

- adv+ADJ very exceptionally, extremely, impossibly, very There is a smaller bedroom which has an exceptionally large and comfy double bed.
- ▶ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, reasonably Sound files can be quite large and will therefore take longer to download.
- ▶ unusually abnormally, disproportionately, unusually The group included an unusually large quotient of female composers.
- ▶ large when compared to others comparatively, relatively Owners do not often look in their pets' mouths, so many mouth tumours are comparatively large when first seen.
- ▶ large enough sufficiently The print is sufficiently large so they won't need their reading glasses on.
- ▶ in a way that surprises you surprisingly, unexpectedly A surprisingly large crowd made it out of bed in time for the start.
- v+ADJ appear, be, become, figure, get, grow, look, loom, seem Mirrors make a room appear larger than it really is. ❁ Several issues have loomed larged in their discussions.

laugh V make a noise when you find something funny

- adv+V loudly, or so that people can hear aloud, loudly, out loud, uproariously I laughed aloud when I saw what he was wearing.
- ▸ quietly quietly, softly 'He is really rather naughty sometimes,' said Mary, laughing softly.
- ▸ when someone laughs a lot in a way that they cannot control hard, helplessly, hysterically, uncontrollably I was laughing so hard at the joke that my face was hurting.

When someone suddenly starts to laugh, you can say they burst out laughing: We looked at each other and burst out laughing.

- ▸ in a happy, enthusiastic way gleefully, heartily, merrily Philip gets the joke and laughs heartily.
- ▸ in a nervous way nervously Professor Baldwin laughed nervously and glanced at the stage area.
- ▸ showing regret ruefully 'I shouldn't have gone,' she said, and laughed ruefully.

laugh N
the sound you make when you laugh

- adj+N loud big, hearty, huge, loud Hudson greeted the question with a huge laugh.
- ▸ making other people laugh too infectious John's infectious laugh made everyone feel that he was nothing more than a mate playing a few tunes for you.
- ▸ showing someone's feelings or attitude embarassed, jolly, merrily, nervous, scornful He gave a nervous laugh and looked down at the floor.
- ▸ sounding sad, not happy hollow When you tell teachers that standards are rising, the most usual reaction is a hollow laugh.

- v+N when people laugh get, raise His speech got a few laughs.

You can also use the expression make someone laugh: The story was a familiar one but it made the audience laugh.

- ▸ make the sound of a laugh give Debbie gave a reluctant laugh and shook her head.
- ▸ stop a laugh from being heard stifle, suppress She had to stifle a laugh by hiding her face in Bob's coat.

laugh off PHR VB
joke to show something is not important

- V+n criticism, reports, rumours, suggestions He laughed off suggestions that he had become a sex symbol.

laughter N
the sound of someone laughing

- adj+N loud hearty, loud, raucous The whole class erupted in loud laughter.
- ▸ quiet or not expressed gentle, muffled, polite, silent She was shaking with silent laughter.
- ▸ impossible to control helpless, hysterical, maniacal, uncontrollable, wild The characters would burst out into maniacal laughter for no reason.
- ▸ nervous nervous There was nervous laughter as we donned our safety helmets.
- ▸ showing that you think someone or something is stupid derisive, scornful Facing the ordeal, he arrived at the door only to be met by the derisive laughter of two of his so-called friends.
- ▸ making other people laugh too infectious He was an affable listener and greeted other people's jokes with hearty and infectious laughter.

- v+N cause laughter bring, cause, prompt, provoke The remark provoked laughter in the courtroom.
- ▸ stop laughter stifle, suppress He put his hand over his mouth to stifle his laughter.

- N+v fill a place fill sth, ring out Their happy laughter rang out around the house.
- ▸ become quieter die down When the laughter died down, he resumed his speech.

- v+into+N break (out), burst He suddenly burst into hysterical laughter for no apparent reason.

- v+with+N cry, howl, roar, scream, shake The audience thought it was part of the act and roared with laughter.

- n+of+N sudden attack fit This last remark sent Alice into a fit of laughter.
- ▸ when laughter is loud gale, hoot, howl, peal, roar, shriek The question was met with a gale of laughter.
- ▸ when laughter spreads around a group of people ripple There was a faint ripple of laughter from the audience.

launch V
start a major activity or start selling a product

- adv+V officially formally, officially The health minister officially launched the campaign.
- ▸ recently newly, recently The University of St Andrews is one of four Scottish universities, which recently launched an innovative partnership with Edinburgh Zoo.

Usage Launch is always passive when used with newly: The club's newly launched website is packed with useful information.

- ▸ successfully successfully The product has already been successfully launched in the US.

- V+n business, product, or service book, brand, business, magazine, newspaper, paper, product, service, website Low-cost airline bmibaby has launched services from Cardiff International Airport.
- ▸ attack assault, attack, invasion, offensive A head teacher has launched a stinging attack on the Government's policy of sending special needs pupils to mainstream schools. ◉ It was the year that King Harald of Norway launched his invasion of England.
- ▸ attempt to achieve something appeal, bid, campaign, initiative, petition, programme, project, scheme The Department of Health has announced that it will launch a campaign to encourage people to be tested for hepatitis C infection.
- ▸ investigation inquiry, investigation, study, survey Detectives in Armagh have launched a murder inquiry after a man died having sustained a number of gunshot wounds.
- ▸ career career We'll give you as much support as we can in launching your catering career.

▸ competition competition A competition was launched to name the staff magazine.

launch into PHR VB
start something with a lot of enthusiasm

- V+n angry speech attack, diatribe, monologue, rant, tirade He launched into a serious diatribe about how important it was for me to keep accurate records.
- ▸ song rendition, song He launched into a jaunty rendition of 'When The Saints Go Marching In'.

lavish V
give someone a lot of something

- V+n attention, care, love, money, praise Children do not need lots of money lavished on them – what they want is lots of your time and attention.

lavish ADJ in large amounts, or costing a lot of money

- ADJ+n event or entertainment celebration, ceremony, entertainment, party, production, reception, wedding They wed at a lavish ceremony in Malibu.
- ▸ meal banquet, dinner, lunch, meal Our flexible facilities can accommodate a variety of requirements, from small intimate dinners to large lavish banquets.
- ▸ decoration decoration The manuscript is of great significance, owing to its lavish decoration and the fact that it is the only preserved illustrated chronicle of the Byzantine era.
- ▸ way of living lifestyle He has been living a lavish lifestyle, with fast cars and magnificent homes.
- ▸ gift gift He spent thousands on lavish gifts for his girlfriends.
- ▸ surroundings surroundings The premises provide excellent facilities in lavish modern surroundings.
- ▸ praise praise The school has received lavish praise from the inspectors.

law N an official rule or system of rules that people must obey

- adj+N strict draconian, restrictive, strict, stringent, tough Due to strict libel laws in the UK, the scientist identified will not be named in this article.
- ▸ wrong or unfair discriminatory, oppressive, repressive, unjust The white regime had no intention of changing the unjust laws of apartheid.
- ▸ relating to a country, state etc federal, international, national, state Anyone possessing marijuana for medicinal purposes would be breaking federal law.
- ▸ types of law civil, commercial, constitutional, criminal, electoral, environmental, humanitarian, matrimonial There are a number of criminal and civil laws to protect ownership. ◆ The team deals with all aspects of matrimonial law, with particular expertise in domestic violence.

- v+N obey a law obey, observe, respect, uphold When Crandall refused to obey the law she was arrested and imprisoned.

You can describe someone who obeys the law as law-abiding: The vast majority of our law-abiding customers appreciate our tough action against fare cheats.

- ▸ not obey a law breach, break, contravene, disobey, flout, infringe, transgress, violate Breaching copyright law is an offence.
- ▸ make something become a law adopt, enact, implement, impose, introduce, pass The government wants to introduce tougher laws on crime.
- ▸ change a law alter, amend, change, reform, review, revise The Scottish Executive is committed to reforming the law as soon as reasonably practicable.
- ▸ make sure that people obey a law administer, apply, enforce These laws are rarely enforced for SUVs, however, since these vehicles are seen as passenger vehicles instead of commercial trucks.
- ▸ become a law become When the Sunday Trading Act became law in 1994, there was protection for those who didn't want to work on Sundays.
- ▸ get rid of a law abolish, overturn, repeal The league was disbanded in 1846 when the laws were repealed.
- ▸ make a law stricter strengthen, tighten The government plans to tighten the law in order to protect the public from sex offenders.
- ▸ make a law less strict liberalize, relax Britain's licensing laws have been relaxed.
- ▸ make a law clearer clarify, interpret Where there is no clear statute law, the courts have to interpret and clarify the law.
- ▸ make a law deal with more things extend There are plans to extend laws against inciting racial hatred to include religious hatred.
- ▸ publicly disagree with a law and ask for it to be tested in a court challenge The two men successfully challenged laws which prevented workers over 65 claiming full employment rights.
- ▸ decide what a law will be formulate, make The law was formulated before the advent of the Internet.

- N+v control something control, govern, regulate The laws governing adoption in Wales are very similar to the laws in England.
- ▸ allow something allow, authorize, permit Charity law currently allows charities to undertake some trading activity.
- ▸ not allow something ban, forbid, prevent, prohibit, regulate Spain's government introduced a law banning mistreatment of pets.
- ▸ say you must do something dictate, force, oblige sb, prescribe, require (sb) All UK employers are required by law to register with a health and safety enforcing agency.
- ▸ say something say, state, stipulate The law states that the education and support of children and young people is primarily the responsibility of parents.
- ▸ limit something limit, restrict The law limits the number of pupils in an infant class with one qualified teacher to a maximum of 30.
- ▸ affect someone or something affect, apply to, cover The law applies to charities.
- ▸ accept something recognize The law already recognizes that this sort of evidence can be relevant.
- ▸ change change The law changed a few years ago and now part-time workers enjoy exactly the same rights.

- N+n enforcement, enforcer, reform Police and other law enforcers are under pressure to counter rising levels of violent gun crime.

lawsuit N

a legal case involving disagreement between two people

- v+N start a lawsuit bring, file, issue, launch The Hollywood movie studios have filed a lawsuit against 22 websites which they claim encourage and facilitate movie piracy.
- ▸ be going to have a lawsuit face The charity is facing three lawsuits from volunteers claiming unfair dismissal.
- ▸ end a lawsuit by reaching a decision settle Bates has settled his lawsuit with Chelsea following his acrimonious departure from the club.
- ▸ win/lose a lawsuit lose, win Eight families who have won lawsuits will receive more than $213 million.
- ▸ decide not to go ahead with a lawsuit drop They have dropped the multi-million dollar lawsuit over the title of the movie.
- ▸ say a lawsuit cannot continue dismiss A federal judge dismissed the copyright infringement lawsuit because there was not enough evidence to prove any melody had in fact been stolen.
- N+v accuse sb of sth, allege, claim, say 21 people have filed a lawsuit accusing the government of negligence. • The lawsuit alleges that the company failed to disclose vital information about the drug.

lay down PHR VB

state officially what someone must do

- V+n conditions, criteria, guidelines, legislation, principles, procedures, regulations, requirements, rules, standards The directive lays down rules governing the collection, processing, and transfer of personal data for marketing purposes.

layer N

an amount or sheet of a substance that covers a surface or that lies between two things or substances

- adj+N thick deep, dense, thick The glass may be wrapped in a towel or thick layers of paper tissue.
- ▸ thin fine, thin There was a thin layer of dust on the shelf.
- ▸ not allowing a substance to pass through impermeable, protective, waterproof When hiking, it's always advisable to wear a waterproof top layer or anorak.
- ▸ single/double double, single The first thing to do is to insulate the greenhouse with a double layer of polythene.
- ▸ extra additional, extra, second We recommend an extra layer of lacquer in kitchens and halls, where there is a greater risk of water spillage.
- ▸ on the outside outer, outermost Cork is the spongy outer layer of the bark.
- ▸ on the top top, topmost, upper Even a few weeks of very hot, dry weather can dry out the upper layers of the soil.
- ▸ in the middle inner, middle Halfway through the process, the cheese usually has three bands, the two outer layers where the cheese has ripened and a middle layer where the cheese is still white.
- ▸ on the bottom bottom, lower It is important that the pond has a good bottom layer of mud and other sediment.
- v+N form a layer form Esters are virtually insoluble in water and tend to form a thin layer on the surface.
- ▸ add a layer add, apply, place, put She applied a thin layer of cream all over her face and neck.
- ▸ remove a layer remove The outer plaster layer was completely removed.

lead N

first position in a race or competition; the distance etc by which someone is winning

- adj+N big clear, comfortable, commanding, decisive, healthy, strong, substantial, unassailable New Zealand now had a commanding 26-point lead.
- ▸ small narrow, slender, slim Bristol took a slender lead at 21–19 but were unable to close out the game.
- ▸ how big 5-point, 10-point etc, one-goal, two-goal etc A 69th minute header from Foley gave Ireland a three-goal lead.
- ▸ early in the game etc early After taking an early lead, Roma were beaten 3–1.
- v+N have the lead have Liverpool had the lead at the end of the first half.

If someone has the lead, you can also say they are in the lead: Ryder was in the lead at the end of the first week of the competition.

- ▸ take the lead from someone else gain, grab, seize, snatch, steal, take Livi almost snatched the lead when Alan Main made an error.
- ▸ take the lead again after not having it for a time regain, retake Tattenhall, however, continued to win more of the midfield battle and regained the lead just before half time.
- ▸ make the lead greater consolidate, double, extend, increase, open up, stretch In the second quarter, the team extended their lead to seven points.
- ▸ not have the lead anymore lose, squander, surrender Southall's problems continued when they surrendered a three-goal lead to eventually lose 5–4.
- ▸ keep the lead defend, hold, maintain, retain Fergus retained his one-game lead to take the cup.
- ▸ take the lead gradually edge into, establish, go into, move into They edged into the lead in the tenth minute and never looked back.
- ▸ take the lead very quickly in a game or race race into, storm into, surge into, sweep into Felce stormed into the lead and set a blistering pace.

leader N

1 a person who is responsible for or in control of a group, country etc

- adj+N types of leader civic, military, political, rebel, religious, spiritual, tribal Religious leaders are urging Western nations and bankers to cancel the debt owed by the world's poorest nations.
- ▸ good, or inspiring others charismatic, great, inspirational, visionary He has proved himself an inspirational leader.
- ▸ having a lot of power influential, prominent, senior

The course will provide training opportunities for senior leaders and governing bodies.
- ▸ natural born, natural Some people are natural leaders, but leadership skills can also be learnt.
- ▸ in the past or future former, future Neil Kinnock is a former leader of the Labour party.

- • v+N choose a leader appoint sb (as), choose sb (as), elect sb (as), recruit The party has changed its rules on electing leaders.
- ▸ become a leader become William Hague became party leader at the age of 36.
- ▸ get rid of a leader depose, topple They are prepared to go to war, if necessary, to topple the country's leader.

2 a person, company or product that is more successful than others

- • adj+N certain acknowledged, undisputed With headquarters in London, we are the UK's undisputed market leader in executive recruitment and coaching.
- ▸ in the whole world global, worldwide With over thirty years' experience, REL are considered the global leaders in working capital consultancy.

- • n+N brand, industry, market, world Mackie's ice cream is now well established as brand leader in Scotland.

- • N+in in an area of industry area, field, industry, market, sector We're a powerful player in the publishing industry and a leader in our field.
- ▸ in a particular process design, development, education, manufacture, provision, research, technology We're leaders in the manufacture and supply of mattresses.

leadership N
the position of being leader of something; the qualities of a good leader

- • adj+N good or that inspires others charismatic, clear, courageous, decisive, effective, excellent, firm, good, inspirational, inspiring, strong, visionary I want to see strong leadership with the mandate to make tough decisions.
- ▸ bad poor, weak Improvements had been hampered in a few schools because of weak leadership.
- ▸ types of leadership academic, civic, managerial, military, moral, political, spiritual, strategic The rebels lacked unity and political leadership, and after eighteen months the mutiny was crushed.

- • n+N business, church, community, government, party, project, research, school, team, union, world The course considers the key requirements of team leadership.

- • v+N get the leadership assume, gain, win Following Milner's death in 1925, he assumed the leadership of the group.
- ▸ give up the leadership relinquish, resign He resigned the party leadership after the electoral defeat of 1987.
- ▸ show leadership demonstrate, exercise, provide, show As a company, we demonstrate leadership from the top and we expect our managers to manage.
- ▸ need leadership need, require We have our goals, but setting them requires strong leadership.
- ▸ not have leadership lack They had the experience but they lacked leadership and courage.

- • N+n someone who wants to have the leadership candidate, contender The three leadership contenders will be appearing on a discussion programme.
- ▸ competition to decide who will have the leadership battle, contest, election He is the favourite to win the forthcoming Conservative Party leadership contest.
- ▸ attempt to persuade people to give you the leadership bid, campaign, challenge She launched her leadership campaign today.
- ▸ job position, post, role He took on a leadership role in the church.
- ▸ the way someone leads style The course enabled him to assess his leadership style and develop strategies to manage his workload more effectively.
- ▸ the ability to lead well ability, capability, qualities, skills The development of leadership skills across the whole staff is seen as a priority.

lead to PHR VB
begin the process that causes something to happen

- • adv+V afterwards or in the end eventually, finally, subsequently, ultimately The condition damages blood vessels and organs, and can ultimately lead to diabetes.
- ▸ possibly possibly, potentially The policy could potentially lead to divisions between students and lecturers.
- ▸ directly/not directly directly, indirectly This meeting led directly to my being offered a job.
- ▸ in a way that is certain and cannot be prevented automatically, inevitably, inexorably, invariably, necessarily Rampant consumerism has led inexorably to gross inequalities in our society.
- ▸ not always not necessarily A university degree does not necessarily lead to higher earnings, though this is usually the case.
- ▸ easily or quickly easily, quickly Fatigue can so easily lead to unsafe driving.
- ▸ naturally naturally This topic naturally leads to discussion of assessment procedures.

- • V+n something positive creation, discovery, dismissal, emergence, formation, founding, improvement It was the study of human white blood cells that eventually led to discoveries of current treatments in fighting AIDS.
- ▸ something negative arrest, closure, collapse, confusion, death, decline, delay, demise, destruction, deterioration, downfall, failure, loss, misunderstanding It was greed which led to his downfall.
- ▸ increase or growth growth, increase Research showed that a drop in oxygen levels in the blood can lead to an increase in blood clotting.
- ▸ decrease decrease, reduction These measures led to a 60 per cent reduction in overall accident frequency.

leap N
a sudden increase, improvement, or change

- • adj+N big or important big, dramatic, enormous, giant, great, huge, major, massive, quantum, significant, tremendous With a willingness to change, we could still make the quantum leap to eliminate poverty.
- ▸ small small My reason for doing this course was to make a small leap forward in my professional life.

- in your mind and thoughts conceptual, imaginative, intuitive, mental Lewis-Williams suggests it is a conceptual leap to make 2D drawings from 3D life.
- types of leap evolutionary, qualitative, technological There have been giant technological leaps in the computer industry.

- v+N make a leap make, take The team has taken a major leap forward today, with the appointment of a new manager.
- be a leap be, represent This development represents a massive leap in the use of web-based technology.
- need a leap require It requires a leap of imagination to fully understand what she was going through at that time.

leave N

1 a period of time away from your job

- adj+N annual, extended, paid, parental, unpaid A pilot is entitled to 20 days' annual leave. ◉ Employees can have unpaid leave of up to 12 months.

- n+N leave because you have a new child adoption, maternity, paternity It was David's first day back from paternity leave and he brought photos of his new baby.
- leave because you want to study sabbatical, study The current director is taking six months sabbatical leave from the organization.
- leave because you are ill sick, sickness She's on sick leave due to stress.
- leave because someone in your family is ill or has died bereavement, compassionate Her mother died and she took five days' bereavement leave.

- v+N have or take leave go on, have, take, use He's already taken all his leave.
- give someone leave give sb, grant (sb) Departments may grant additional leave, which will normally be unpaid or taken as annual leave.
- increase leave over a period of time accrue An employee continues to accrue annual leave while on paternity leave.

- N+n allowance, entitlement, period If the employee wants to take her full leave entitlement, she does not need to give you notice.

2 permission

- v+N give leave give sb, grant (sb) They will only be granted leave to enter in very limited circumstances.
- refuse leave refuse (sb) Mr and Mrs Reeman were refused leave to appeal to the House of Lords.
- get leave obtain The creditor must obtain the leave of the court to present a winding-up petition.
- try to get leave apply for, seek He was seeking leave to enter the United Kingdom.

lecture N

a talk to a group about a particular subject

- adj+N introducing a subject or series of lectures inaugural, introductory, keynote The day started with a lively keynote lecture by Professor John Gaffney.
- for everyone plenary Lynn Abrams has been invited to give the plenary lecture at the Scottish History conference at the University of Guelph, Canada.
- given each week or year annual, weekly Since 1968, when Professor Bernal retired from Birkbeck, the College has sponsored an annual lecture in his memory.
- traditional or formal/informal in style formal, informal, traditional The teaching methods will consist of formal lectures, case study analysis, practical workshops and discussion groups.
- public public This is a public lecture, open to all, and will be held at 7.00 p.m. in the main lecture theatre.
- with pictures illustrated Antonia Swinson is planning an illustrated lecture on her findings.
- to honour someone who has died memorial I am extremely honoured to have been invited to give this year's James Smart memorial lecture.
- interesting fascinating, informative, interesting, thought-provoking Mr Sampson gave an interesting lecture on 'How to Choose a Picture'.

- n+N guest In December, students attended a guest lecture given by Jean Bennett.

- v+N give a lecture deliver, give, present He has recently given a lecture to the Royal Society entitled 'Why We Co-operate'.
- go to a lecture attend, go to, listen to I went to a lecture about the history of British landscape painting.
- not go to a lecture miss Are lecture notes available if I've missed a lecture?
- have a lecture to go to have I only have one lecture today.
- organize a lecture hold Lectures are held on Thursday evenings and Friday mornings.

- N+v be entitled sth Dr Helen Mason will give a lecture entitled 'Our Dynamic Sun' at 9.15 a.m. on Saturday 23rd September.

- N+n where a lecture takes place hall, room, theatre The lecture theatre is on the ground floor of the Harris Building.
- written information handout, material, notes Printed lecture notes are made available and given out in class.
- series of lectures course, programme, series All lecture courses have weekly tutorials.

> You can also talk about a series/course/programme of lectures: The course will be taught through a series of lectures and tutorials.

- travelling around giving lectures tour He has recently been on lecture tours in the USA, Canada, and throughout the UK.

- n+of+N outline, recording, summary, text, transcript These are explanatory notes, not a transcript of the lecture.

leg N

a part of the body

- adj+N left/right left, right Straighten the right leg and swing the left foot forward.
- front/back back, front, hind, rear Unlike most other dinosaurs, it had front legs longer than the hind ones.
- long/short long, short He is a tall, thin man with long legs.

- ▸ fat/thin fat, slender, spindly She says he has little spindly legs and a huge belly.
- ▸ that hurt painful, sore We hurried down the mountain as quickly as our sore legs would carry us.
- ▸ with hair on them hairy Shorts aren't a good look if you have hairy legs.
- ▸ not straight bandy She had bandy legs from doing so much horse riding.

You can also say that someone is bandy-legged or bow-legged: I watched the slight, bandy-legged figure move towards me.

- ▸ not covered bare Her bare legs were tan.
- ▸ strong/weak muscular, strong, sturdy, weak, wobbly These birds have thick strong legs and powerful feet.
- ▸ part of leg lower, upper She had a fracture to her lower leg.

- • v+N stretch or bend your leg bend, straighten, stretch He stretched out his legs under his desk.

You can also say that someone's legs are straight: For these exercises, lie on your back with your legs straight.

- ▸ move your leg lift, raise, swing I swung my legs out of bed and went to the kitchen to make breakfast.
- ▸ sit with one leg over the other cross Jan crossed his legs and leaned back in the chair.
- ▸ kick your legs kick That's it son, kick your legs – well done!
- ▸ break your leg break, fracture I broke my leg playing football.

- • N+v hurt ache, hurt My legs were aching after I had been standing up all day.
- ▸ bend or shake bend, buckle, give way, shake He got out of the wheelchair and tried to stand up, but his legs gave way under him.
- ▸ hang down dangle, hang I sat at the front of the boat with my legs dangling over the side.

legacy N

something that exists because of a past event or what someone achieved

- • adj+N lasting a long time enduring, lasting Sam Cooke is one of those artists who died young but left a lasting legacy.
- ▸ that is impressive great, rich Cambridge is an ideal place in which to study History of Art, since it has a rich legacy of architectural masterpieces.
- ▸ connected with culture or the past cultural, historical The island's turbulent history and rich cultural legacy are seen in the many archaeological remains.

- • v+N leave or create a legacy create, leave behind, leave (sb) His playing left a large legacy with fellow musicians, not only in terms of his choice of format, but in terms of style.
- ▸ receive a legacy from someone have, inherit We inherited a legacy of high crime and underinvestment.

- • N+v live on, remain Elvis Presley died in 1977, but his legacy lives on.

legal ADJ

1 relating to the law or lawyers

- • ADJ+n advice advice He said the council had taken legal advice on the matter.
- ▸ lawyers or the legal system framework, profession, system She is researching students' attitudes to the law and the legal system.
- ▸ when a case is brought to court action, challenge, proceedings Such action is essential if providers are to avoid facing possible legal action.
- ▸ costs costs, fees If you do not win your case, the court may ask you to contribute to the other side's legal costs.

2 allowed by the law or according to the law

- • adv+ADJ completely, entirely, perfectly, strictly, totally It is perfectly legal to form a new company from the remnants of a failed company.

- • ADJ+n limit limit, minimum Check that you are driving within the legal speed limit.
- ▸ right right Under employment legislation, there is a legal right not to be unfairly dismissed.
- ▸ what you must do duty, obligation, requirement, responsibility There is a legal obligation for an appropriate adult to be present to look after the welfare of the young person.

- • v+ADJ be, become, make sth, remain Some people feel that cannabis should be made legal. ◉ Slavery remained legal in British colonies until 1833.

legality N

the fact that something is legal

- • adj+N doubtful, dubious, questionable This was an act of dubious legality.

- • v+N challenge, contest, determine, dispute, question, uphold Union members are questioning the legality of the University's actions.

legislation N

a law, or a set of laws

- • adj+N current current, existing Under current legislation, they have limited powers to act.
- ▸ new new, recent Apparently, the new legislation on this issue will not be retrospective.
- ▸ suggested draft, proposed The Times says that the proposed legislation will be good for rural drivers.
- ▸ strict draconian, repressive, strict, stringent, tough A further raft of draconian anti-terror legislation was announced by a Home Office minister.
- ▸ that people argue about controversial This controversial new legislation would decriminalize the possession of small guns.
- ▸ valid for what has happened in the past retrospective This legislation is not retrospective and applies only to cases that occurred after 1 December 2008.

- • v+N make legislation official adopt, approve, enact, introduce, pass, push through Legislation was introduced that gave tenants the right to purchase their home at a discounted price. ◉ They pushed through legislation to allow the police more powers.
- ▸ suggest or plan legislation announce, bring forward, call for, plan, propose, put forward Each member-state can both propose legislation and veto anything.

- ▸ prepare and write legislation draft, draw up The proposed assembly would not have the ability to draft legislation.
- ▸ change legislation amend, change, reform, revise, strengthen, tighten There have been recent discussions about amending this legislation.
- ▸ obey legislation abide by, comply with Your supplier should be able to demonstrate that they comply with the legislation.
- ▸ not obey legislation breach, contravene The restaurant pleaded guilty to breaching food safety legislation.
- ▸ make sure that legislation is obeyed enforce, implement The RSPCA has considerable experience of enforcing animal welfare legislation.
- ▸ need legislation need, require Out of the 61 recommendations, the Strategy Unit envisaged that 35 of them would require legislation.

- • n+of+N piece, raft Some pieces of legislation are easier to draft than others. ⁕ MPs are debating another raft of legislation relating to dangerous dogs.

legislative ADJ

relating to laws or the process of making new laws

- • ADJ+n process of making laws change, framework, power, process, programme, proposal, requirement These documents must be reviewed regularly and revised in the light of legislative changes.
- ▸ people who make laws assembly, authority, body The legislative assembly has 50 members elected to serve a five-year term.

legitimate ADJ

fair and reasonable

- • adv+ADJ absolutely, entirely, perfectly, quite, totally His reasons for refusing to take part were perfectly legitimate.
- • ADJ+n aim, claim, concern, expectation, interest, purpose, reason, right, target Society has a legitimate interest in procedures that may ultimately influence the genetics of the human race.
- • v+ADJ appear, be, consider sth, deem sth, seem The trial could not be considered legitimate in the these circumstances. ⁕ In brief, it seems legitimate to group the results as follows:

leisure N

activities you do to relax or enjoy yourself

- • N+n business of providing such activities centre, complex, facilities, industry, opportunities, services The Moorland Links Hotel has an excellent choice of leisure facilities.
- ▸ taking part in such activities activity, pursuit, time Most of the major retailers are striving to promote shopping as an enjoyable leisure activity.

lend V

give something a particular quality

- • V+n making an idea seem more correct credence, credibility, plausibility, support, weight These latest findings lend credence to his theory.
- ▸ feeling given by a place or situation air of sth, charm, dignity, sense of sth The crisp black-and-white cinematography helps lend an air of classic style to the whole affair.

lengthy ADJ

long, often longer than you want

- • adv+ADJ very extremely, very Here are a few examples from the extremely lengthy list:
- ▸ rather fairly, quite, rather, somewhat It turned out that applying for a visa was a fairly lengthy process.

- • ADJ+n way of doing something procedure, process These regulations are the product of a detailed and lengthy consultative process.
- ▸ when someone is away absence She finally returned to work after a lengthy absence.
- ▸ wait wait We then had a lengthy wait at the doctor's surgery.
- ▸ period of time delay, pause, period, spell There will be lengthy delays while the road remains closed.
- ▸ time spent talking debate, discussion, interview, negotiations After lengthy negotiations with the government, an agreement was reached.
- ▸ something written article, document, list, report At over 500 pages long, the report is a lengthy document.

- • and/or expensive costly, expensive Our advice is not to get involved in lengthy and costly litigation.
- ▸ complicated or taking a long time complex, complicated, detailed, difficult, laborious, time-consuming Where our advice is complicated or lengthy, it will be provided in writing.

lenient ADJ

punishing someone less severely than expected

- • adv+ADJ too, unduly In the past three years, 339 cases have had their sentences referred to the court of appeal for being unduly lenient.

- • ADJ+n punishment penalty, punishment, sentence, sentencing He received a lenient sentence because of his disability.
- ▸ opinion of something or way of dealing with someone approach, attitude, treatment, view The magistrates took a lenient view of the case.

lessen V

become smaller or make something smaller

- • adv+V very much considerably, greatly, significantly Support for continuing the war now lessened considerably.
- ▸ gradually gradually Social tensions have gradually lessened in the region.
- ▸ a little slightly, somewhat The impact of this announcement was lessened somewhat by the events which were to follow.

- • V+n effect of something burden, effect, impact This dramatically reduces transport costs, lessens the impact on the environment and diverts waste away from landfill sites.
- ▸ chance of something happening chance, likelihood, risk By incorporating a day of rest into your training, you lessen your chance of injury.
- ▸ unpleasant situation or feeling disruption, pain, stress, suffering, tension

lesson N
something you learn from life or experience

- adj+N important important, salutary, useful, valuable, vital I lost the bet, but learned a valuable lesson.
  - unpleasant or difficult bitter, hard, harsh, painful The whole experience was a hard lesson in humility.
  - moral moral A parable is a story whose purpose is to teach a moral lesson.
- v+N be a lesson be, serve as It's a sad story and should serve as a lesson to the young people of today.
  - learn a lesson draw, learn We will listen and learn, and draw lessons from other people's experiences. ◉ I learnt this lesson very early in my career.
  - teach a lesson give sb, teach (sb) Their loss taught me an important lesson about making the most of time that we have with people.
  - use a lesson apply He shows how we can apply the lessons learned on the rugby pitch to a business environment to achieve better performance.
  - identify a lesson identify The review has identified five important lessons for improving our service to customers.
- N+from experience, history, past We have to learn the lessons from the past.
- N+of history, past Those who ignore the lessons of history are doomed to repeat them.

lethal ADJ
very dangerous and able to kill you

- adv+ADJ possibly possibly, potentially Fireworks are potentially lethal, and experience tells us that young people especially are at risk.
  - very extremely, highly Pancreatic cancer is a highly lethal disease.
- ADJ+n something that affects or harms the body disease, dose, force, injection, weapon He was exposed to a lethal dose of radiation.
  - combination cocktail, combination She was found dead in her kitchen, having taken a lethal cocktail of alcohol and weedkiller. ◉ As well as being highly-strung with a frightening temper, John was also a heavy drinker – a lethal combination.
  - effect effect The lethal effects of the gas are well known.
- v+ADJ be, prove This strain of bird flu has proven especially lethal to humans, with a mortality rate approaching 70 per cent.

let out PHR VB
make a noise

- V+n loud noise cry, howl, roar, scream, shriek, whoop, yell She let out a piercing scream.
  - quieter noise gasp, sigh He let out a huge sigh of relief.

letter N
a written message that is sent to someone

- adj+N published, so everyone can read it open In an open letter, the Foreign Secretary said the visit would have many benefits for the UK.*
  - sent to a lot of people circular A circular letter about the merger was sent to shareholders on 27 May.
  - written as a reply to many people standard I had a feeling that this was just a standard letter.
  - formal formal Present employer reference and final security checks will be completed before a formal letter of appointment is sent to you.
  - personal personal We received a personal letter of congratulation from the mayor.
  - sent with something else accompanying, cover AME, covering To apply, please forward a full CV and covering letter to this address.
  - not in its final form draft The Council agreed the contents of a draft letter.
  - not signed anonymous Then an anonymous letter arrived, telling him he had a grown-up son who was looking for him.
- n+N acceptance, acknowledgement, confirmation, follow-up, reminder, resignation, thank-you, warning A second, follow-up letter was sent to all those who had failed to respond to the first one.
- v+N write a letter compose, dictate, draft, type, write Local people were urged to write a letter each to the company.

  You can use the expression by letter to say that someone communicates using a letter: All bookings must be confirmed by letter or email.
  - send or deliver a letter circulate, deliver, forward, post, send, submit A letter on the subject was circulated to all head teachers. ◉ She sent a letter of apology to Mr Payne. ◉ Please submit a letter of application to our Human Resources department.
  - receive a letter get, receive Did you receive my letter?
  - read a letter read Thank you for letting me read these letters.
  - reply to a letter answer, reply to, respond to We aim to answer letters within 20 working days of receiving them.
  - say you have received a letter acknowledge They acknowledged his letter of 6 April, but said that they were unable to help any further.
  - sign a letter sign A total of 23 Senators have signed a letter supporting the proposal.
  - write someone's name and address on a letter address The letter is addressed to 'The Occupier'.
  - send a letter with something else attach, enclose Our reasons for not attending are given in the enclosed letter.
- N+v have a date on it be dated I provided this information in my letter dated 15 March 2009.
  - say advise, confirm, explain, indicate, inform sb, outline, state The letter stated that no further money was available for the project.
  - end conclude (with), end (with) The letter concluded with the following sentence:
- N+of acceptance, apology, application, appointment, complaint, condolence, congratulation, invitation, objection, recommendation, resignation, support, sympathy, thanks The neighbours sent formal letters of complaint to the local council.

level N

1 the amount of something that can be measured

- adj+N high/low high, low High levels of poverty in this community lead to many young people dropping out of school.
- ▸ increasing increasing, rising People have experienced rising levels of stress since last month's terrorist attacks.
- ▸ highest/lowest maximum, minimum, record Introducing minimum pay levels for apprenticeships would encourage participation in the scheme.
- ▸ average or normal average, normal He argues that rising affluence in the developed world has not increased average levels of happiness.
- ▸ suitable or acceptable acceptable, appropriate, the right Stocks have now fallen to below the acceptable level.
- ▸ current current, present I believe that a decline in prices from their current levels is necessary.
- ▸ general general, overall These statistics show what has happened to the general level of unemployment over the past year.

- n+N blood-sugar, cholesterol, energy, fitness, noise, staffing, stress, traffic Traffic levels will inevitably continue to increase, and road capacity must meet the demand.

- v+N reach a level achieve, reach The tension again grew, reaching its highest level of the afternoon.
- ▸ increase a level improve, increase, raise Saturated fats raise your cholesterol level.
- ▸ reduce a level lower, reduce These properties have been double-glazed to reduce noise levels.
- ▸ stay at a particular level remain at House prices remain at the level they were at in 2008.
- ▸ make a level stay the same maintain To maintain the current levels of service, council tax is expected to rise by 2.5 per cent.
- ▸ measure or check a level assess, determine, measure, monitor How are we to determine the appropriate level of compensation for these kinds of personal disadvantage?
- ▸ decide on a level set Their report set minimum levels for the nutritional content of school meals.
- ▸ be more than a level exceed Exhaust emissions must not exceed prescribed levels.

- N+v become higher go up, rise, soar Over recent years, business investment levels have risen significantly.
- ▸ become lower drop, fall, go down, plummet Burglary levels have fallen steadily.
- ▸ change fluctuate, vary Employment levels varied significantly within the UK.

2 the standard of someone's ability or their position in an organization

- adj+N relating to a particular area global, international, local, national, regional The results will inform management decisions made at local, regional, and national levels.
- ▸ high or advanced advanced, high, senior, top, upper You should have experience of dealing with clients at a senior level.
- ▸ below advanced intermediate Classes are for beginner to intermediate level.
- ▸ low or basic basic, elementary, entry, low In the first chapter, the concept of scale is introduced at a basic level.

- n+N degree, postgraduate, undergraduate, university This book will be of interest to all students of literature at undergraduate level and above.

- v+N achieve, attain, reach I have attained the entry level required for the part-time Masters Degree course in Business Information Technology.

leverage N

the power to make someone do what you want

- adj+N great considerable, great, maximum Wallace is now a deputy First Minister with much greater political leverage than before.
- ▸ types of leverage diplomatic, economic, financial, political The EU should not hesitate to use this economic leverage for political purposes.

- v+N have leverage have Small retailers will see a much higher rise in cost because they don't have the leverage to negotiate.
- ▸ get leverage gain, get She used this incident to gain political leverage.
- ▸ give leverage give sb, provide Their position as junior partner in the Scottish Government coalition has given them the leverage to push the legislation through.
- ▸ use leverage exert, use If we fail to use our leverage in a positive way to bring about peace, the conflict will widen.

liability N

legal responsibility for causing damage, or for paying for something

- adj+N full/not full full, limited, strict This directive imposes strict liability on the producer of a defective product for damage caused by it.
- ▸ types of liability criminal, legal, personal The criminal liability of individual directors is usually limited.

- v+N accept liability accept, admit, assume We do not accept any liability for the content of external websites.
- ▸ have liability have We have no liability to pay you back any money by way of compensation or refund.
- ▸ not accept liability deny, disclaim Court proceedings would need to be issued if the other party denied liability for the accident.
- ▸ reduce level of liability limit Clauses have been included in most policies to limit insurance liability to a single policy year.
- ▸ avoid liability avoid Such a contract may be regarded as an attempt by the employer to avoid liability for death or personal injury.

- N+for damage or injury accident, damage, death, injury, loss We will not accept liability for any loss or damage incurred due to the details produced on this site.
- ▸ mistakes error, negligence The author cannot accept liability for errors or omissions.
- ▸ cost of something cost The task of the court is to decide the parties' liability for costs.
- ▸ content content The Trust accepts no liability for the content of the website.
- ▸ result consequences Neither we, nor any contributor, can accept any liability for the future consequences of your actions.

liable ADJ legally responsible for causing damage or injury; responsible for paying or doing something

- adv+ADJ in a particular way criminally, financially, legally The Appeal Court hearing ruled that the company was not legally liable for her death.
- ▸ with/without someone else individually, jointly, personally, solely You are solely liable for all your activities while using our equipment.
- ▸ completely fully, strictly Each individual is fully liable for any debt that is incurred.
- ADJ+for damage or loss damage, injury, loss Students will be liable for any damage done by them to University property.
- ▸ money cost, debt I understand that I will be liable for any such costs caused by my negligence.
- ADJ+to fine, imprisonment, penalty, prosecution, punishment, tax Any landlord who flouts these regulations will be liable to a fine up to a maximum of £1000.

liaison N

the exchange of information between people or organizations

- adj+N close, effective, good, ongoing, regular We are working in close liaison with the police in an attempt to improve the working environment for our staff. ◆ As part of its ongoing liaison with the local community, the centre offers a regular drop-in session open to all.
- n+N client, community, customer, family, police, school You will be responsible for customer liaison for commercial customers.
- v+N encourage, ensure, establish, facilitate, improve, maintain, promote, provide We will also maintain effective liaison with our colleagues in the Housing Advice Team.
- N+n person officer She regularly works with police liaison officers.
- ▸ group or organization committee, group, meeting, service, team Every academic department has a staff-student liaison committee.

liar N

someone who tells lies

- adj+N describing someone who cannot stop telling lies compulsive, habitual, pathological Jenkins was described in court as a compulsive liar.
- ▸ emphasizing that someone is a liar big Don't believe him – he's the biggest liar in the school.
- ▸ good/bad at telling lies bad, good Poor Milly is not a very good liar.
- v+N be, call sb Are you calling me a liar?
- and/or cheat, fool, hypocrite, thief The play portrays all politicans as cheats and liars.

liberty N

the freedom to behave how you want

- adj+N of all citizens civil He believes this is an attack on civil liberties.
- ▸ individual individual, personal A recent poll shows that the majority of voters believe that the Government is introducing too much legislation which infringes personal liberty.
- ▸ religious or political political, religious Since 1945 the country has enjoyed political liberty and a democratic constitution.
- ▸ human human The human liberties which we all hold dear need to be defended against flagrant abuse by any dictatorship.
- ▸ basic basic The most basic liberty of all is the right of the ordinary citizen to go about their business free from fear or terror.
- v+N protect liberty defend, guarantee, preserve, protect, safeguard He has led the campaign to protect religious liberty in the wake of a series of parliamentary and legal threats.
- ▸ limit or reduce liberty curtail, destroy, erode, infringe, restrict, undermine A growing climate of mistrust and fear in the country is damaging national unity and eroding civil liberties.
- ▸ threaten liberty endanger, threaten The new anti-terrorism laws threaten liberties that people take for granted.
- ▸ give someone liberty allow sb, give sb Students are given considerable liberty to manage their own time.
- ▸ have liberty enjoy, have As a writer, I have the artistic liberty to use the material as I see fit.
- ▸ lose liberty lose We are at risk of losing not just our civil liberties but our very lives through the actions of terrorists.
- n+on+N attack Detention is now regarded by some as an attack on the civil liberties of pupils!
- n+to+N right, threat Everyone has the right to liberty and security. ◆ She believes that ID cards are a threat to civil liberties.
- n+of+N infringement The author argues that the new Act constitutes a gross infringement of civil liberties.

licence N

a document giving you permission to do something

- adj+N types of licence full, provisional, special You must be aged 21 or over and have had a full driving licence for at least three years.
- ▸ officially accepted valid It is illegal to drive on the highways without a valid licence.
- n+N driving, entertainment, export, import, liquor, operating, software, TV, user We will need some ID, e.g. driving licence or council tax letter.
- v+N give someone a licence award (sb), grant (sb), issue The Coal Authority grants licences for coal exploration and extraction.

If a product is made or sold under licence, it is made or sold with the permission of the company that usually makes it: The majority of aircraft were manufactured under licence in the United States.

- ▸ get a licence buy, get, obtain, purchase, receive If you want to do street collections, you are required to obtain a licence from the local authority.
- ▸ ask for a licence apply for If you are applying for a provisional licence, you should indicate this on the application form.

- have a licence have, hold If you hold a licence for the most recent version of the software, you can purchase a licence upgrade.
- officially say a licence is no longer legal revoke, take away The channel was told it would have its broadcasting licence revoked unless drastic measures were taken.
- lose a licence lose Drivers whose breath tests are positive face losing their licence for 12 months.
- ask for a licence to continue longer renew The hotel's application to renew its entertainment licence is due to be heard on December 14.
- need a licence need, require If you have a mains-operated television in your home, you need a licence for it.

- N+v allow allow (sb), authorize (sb), enable (sb), permit (sb) This licence allows you to make a specified number of digital copies of the document.
- apply to apply to, cover The licence also applies to titles published in the last five years.
- be officially acceptable be valid The licence will be valid for 12 months from the date of issue.
- be no longer officially accepted expire The current licence expires in January 2011.

lie V exist or consist of something

- n+V answer answer, solution The answer lies in the fact that the diet prohibits nearly all carbohydrates.
- problem difficulty, problem In part, the problem lies in the fragmentary nature of the subject matter.
- responsibility for something blame, fault, responsibility The fault lies with society in general.
- quality difference, interest, power, strength The department's key strength lies in having a substantial and experienced team.
- future future Where do you think your future lies?

lie N

a deliberately untrue statement

- adj+N complete or obvious barefaced, blatant, complete, downright, outright This is a blatant lie and you know it.
- serious big They have been caught out in a big lie.
- told to avoid upsetting someone white It might be better to tell a little white lie.
- deliberate deliberate I do not believe that the Prime Minister stands up there and tells us deliberate lies.

- v+N tell a lie spread, tell She accused Susan of spreading vicious lies about her.
- believe a lie believe Perhaps he started to believe his own lies.
- make a lie known expose We have had to fight a battle to expose the lies of our leaders.

- n+of+N pack INFORMAL, tissue, web This unfortunately turned out to be a pack of lies. ◉ The case against him was based on a tissue of lies.

life N

1 the time from someone's birth to their death

- adj+N entire entire, whole I have lived in this region my entire life.
- long/short long, short Throughout his long life, he used literature as a means of escape.*
- later part of life later This may cause mental problems in later life.

You can also say late in life: He married late in life.

- earlier part of life early In early life he was a keen chemist, but soon devoted himself to the teaching of surgery.*

- n+N adult I had been in retail for most of my adult life.

- v+N live your life go through, live, spend She spent her whole life fighting for racial equality.
- spend a lot of your life doing something dedicate, devote, give He was able to devote his life to intellectual pursuits.
- make your life last longer prolong Public health is concerned with preventing disease, prolonging life and promoting health.
- make your life shorter shorten The dosage of painkillers necessary to control a patient's pain may have the side effect of shortening his life.
- come to the end of your life end She ended her life a contented woman.

2 a particular way of living and the experiences you have [usually singular]

- adj+N common or normal daily, day-to-day, everyday, normal, ordinary The decisions made by our elected representatives affect everybody's daily lives.
- real real I'm much less witty in real life than I am on my blog.
- personal personal, private He believes people have a right to a private life as long as it does not affect their public duties.
- relating to work professional, working Ken has been a journalist for most of his working life.
- relating to particular activities or situations cultural, political, public, religious, social In those days, women were effectively excluded from political life.
- new new Many people move to the city to start a new life.
- modern modern Few aspects of modern life remain unaffected by the use of email and the Internet.
- when you are married married They settled down to married life in Inverness.
- easy/not easy difficult, easy, hard Life wasn't easy at school for him.
- busy active, busy What a busy life we lead!
- healthy healthy We try to help people to live a healthier, less stressful life.
- happy happy Why does the education system so often fail to equip children to lead happy lives?
- in the town/countryside rural, urban It's not a realistic depiction of rural life in Denmark.

- n+N city, community, family, home, school, student, university, village Academics are being lured away from university life into research, development, and consultancy.

- v+N lead a particular life enjoy, have, lead, live I lead a very busy life.
- change or affect your life affect, change, improve, rebuild, transform That song changed my life forever.

3 the state of being alive

- v+N lose your life lose More than 300 people lost their lives in the disaster.
- ▶ save someone's life save The drink-driving campaign has undoubtedly saved lives.
- ▶ put someone's life in danger endanger, put at risk, risk, threaten These men and women risk their lives to save others at sea.
- ▶ take someone's life claim, end, take The disaster claimed 85 lives.
- ▶ when someone chooses to die give She gave her life to save her son.

lifeline N

a person or thing that you depend on very much

- adj+N important important, real, vital Village shops provide an important lifeline to rural communities.
- ▶ financial economic, financial Many small businesses provide a vital economic lifeline to local neighbourhoods.
- v+N give a lifeline give (sb), hand (sb), offer (sb), provide, throw (sb) The company would have collapsed, but was thrown a financial lifeline by a consortium of investors.
- ▶ be a lifeline act as, be, become, prove, serve as The Internet is becoming a lifeline for me because I work from home.
- ▶ have a lifeline have United had a lifeline and they looked like grabbing it with such intent that a shock victory was on the cards.

lifespan N

the length of time that a person or animal lives or something continues to exist

- adj+N normal or average average, expected, natural, normal One estimate of the average lifespan of the Snowy Owl is five years.
- ▶ of a particular length 10-year, 20-year etc During its five-year lifespan, the centre has developed its own unique character.
- ▶ short/long limited, long, short Recent research has shown that their long lifespan is, at least in part, as a result of good diet.
- ▶ human human Resources that accumulated over eons of geological time are being consumed in a single human lifespan.
- v+N have a lifespan have These penguins have a lifespan of 15–20 years.
- ▶ increase a lifespan extend, increase, lengthen, prolong Some packaging is necessary to protect products and prolong their lifespan.
- ▶ reduce a lifespan reduce, shorten Some researchers warn, however, that taking the drug in high doses may actually reduce lifespan.

lifestyle N

the type of life you have

- adj+N healthy/not healthy healthy, unhealthy Fruit and vegetables are key to a healthier lifestyle.
- ▶ active/not active active, inactive, sedentary Back pain is often brought on by a sedentary lifestyle and an inability to relax.
- ▶ spending a lot of time outside outdoor If you enjoy the outdoor lifestyle, Swaziland is a great place to be.
- ▶ busy busy, hectic A new online language tuition service has been launched to assist people wanting to fit in language lessons around a busy lifestyle.
- ▶ traditional/not traditional alternative, modern, traditional The Bedouin who live here are no longer able to follow their traditional nomadic lifestyle.
- ▶ able to pay for nice and expensive things comfortable, extravagant, lavish, luxurious, luxury She struggles to maintain the family's lavish lifestyle on their income.
- ▶ moving from place to place nomadic Mongolia is a country where approximately half of the population still leads a nomadic lifestyle.
- v+N have a particular lifestyle enjoy, have, lead, live He continued to enjoy a lifestyle of luxury yachts and holiday homes in Monaco.
- ▶ start having a particular lifestyle adopt, choose We have helped over 600 children lose weight, increase fitness levels, and adopt a healthy lifestyle.
- ▶ continue having a particular lifestyle maintain This is on the assumption that his pension will not be sufficient for him to be able to maintain his current lifestyle.
- ▶ change or improve your lifestyle change, improve I was told to change my lifestyle or I would very soon be dead.
- ▶ encourage people to have a particular lifestyle encourage, promote The Government has launched new guidelines aimed at promoting healthier lifestyles for children.
- ▶ be suitable for your lifestyle suit Learn at home at your own pace to suit your lifestyle.
- N+n advice, change, choice, magazine, modification Research suggests a person's quality of life directly reflects health-related lifestyle choices as opposed to genetic factors.
- n+in+N change This huge expansion in the market reflects the change in consumer lifestyles and shopping patterns.

lifetime N

the period of time when someone is alive or the length of time that something exists

- adj+N whole entire, whole It would probably take a whole lifetime to get to know Cairo.
- ▶ short/long long, short She has already achieved a lot in her short lifetime.
- v+N have, last, seem like, spend, take These artificial joints have a lifetime of about twenty years. ◉ He has spent a lifetime in the food business.
- N+of something that is planned or exists building, contract, parliament, plan, product, project Frequent update meetings will be held during the lifetime of the project to ensure communication channels are kept open.
- ▶ experience experience The conductor of the choir has a lifetime of experience in teaching music.

You can also say a lifetime's experience: She has a lifetime's experience of working with animals.

- n+of+N adventure, chance, experience, holiday, opportunity, trip Win an all-expenses-paid trip of a lifetime to the rainforests of Brazil!

lift V

1 officially end a rule or law stopping something

- adv+V completely, partially, temporarily Recent moves to partially lift the ban on ivory trade are eroding its effectiveness.
- V+n ban, blockade, curfew, embargo, restriction, sanction Several governments are now urging the UN to lift the sanctions.

2 when someone starts to feel happier or the weather improves

- V+n way someone is feeling heart, mood, spirit It's amazing how a bit of sunshine can lift the spirits, isn't it?
- ▸ something that causes trouble or difficulty burden, weight We will lift the suffocating burden of regulation and allow business to breathe again.
- n+V weather cloud, fog, mist By now, most of the fog had lifted and the sun was getting warmer.
- ▸ way someone is feeling spirits When I saw the children so happy, my spirits lifted for a while.

light N

1 brightness from the sun, a fire, a piece of equipment etc

- adj+N bright bright, brilliant, good, intense, shimmering, strong The light became brighter and I could distinctly see three shapes.
- ▸ not bright bad, dim, fading, faint, poor, weak I couldn't really see his expression in the dim light.
- ▸ natural natural The dining room has no natural light.
- ▸ artificial artificial, electric In 1895, Chester's streets were lit for the first time with electric light.
- ▸ having a particular colour golden, white, yellow The stage was flooded with bright white light.
- v+N provide light cast, emit, give, give out, provide An intensely white light was emitted by the object.
- ▸ reflect light reflect The two sides are white, to reflect the light.
- N+v be produced gleam, glow, shine On my way upstairs, I saw light shining through a chink in the door of a room which I knew to be unoccupied.
- ▸ make something bright illuminate The scene was illuminated by the midday light.
- ▸ become less bright fade, fail, go By the time I'd got there, the light was already fading fast.
- ▸ shine from or in a particular direction come from, emanate from, fall, stream There's also a lot of light coming from above.
- ▸ fill a place fill, flood The door suddenly opened and light flooded the scene.
- ▸ make someone temporarily blind blind, dazzle She was blinded by the light.
- n+of+N line of light beam, ray, shaft, streak Rays of light broke through chinks in the clouds and lit up the hills and lakes.
- ▸ amount of light that appears blaze, burst, chink, flash, gleam, glimmer, patch, pool, pulse There was a flash of bright light, and thunder rumbled in the distance.
- ▸ quality brightness, glare, glow, intensity The warm glow of the lights made the room homely and inviting.
- and/or dark, darkness, heat, shade, shadow, warmth The canopy of trees gives patches of light and shade in the forest.

2 a piece of electrical equipment producing brightness

- adj+N bright bright Local fishermen shine bright lights on the waters to attract squid.
- ▸ flashing blinking, flashing, flickering, pulsing, twinkling The flashing lights of the disco were a little overwhelming at first.
- ▸ making someone temporarily blind blinding, dazzling Suddenly, a blinding light flashed and a thunderous blast was heard.
- v+N switch on a light flick on, flip on, put on, switch on, turn on He came straight upstairs into the bedroom and put the light on.
- ▸ switch off a light extinguish, flick off, flip off, put off, put out, shut off, switch off, turn off, turn out Will the last one out please switch the lights off?
- ▸ use a light have on He was scared of the dark and always had a light on when he slept.
- ▸ continue to use a light keep on, leave on When you go out at night, close all the curtains and leave the lights on.
- ▸ make a light brighter turn up There can be a really long wait at the bar and they turn the lights up at the stroke of 11pm.
- ▸ make a light less bright dim, turn down Try turning down the lights and playing some atmospheric music.
- ▸ direct a light somewhere flash, shine Jim shone his light in Ron's face and then mine.
- N+v flash blink, flash, flicker, twinkle Two police cars sped by with their blue lights flashing.
- ▸ become less bright dim, go down The lights dimmed and the orchestra began to play.
- ▸ shine glow, shine He led them quietly towards the house where a few lights shone from windows.
- ▸ make something bright illuminate Suddenly, the road ahead was illuminated by lights bearing down on them.
- ▸ make someone temporarily blind blind, dazzle I was blinded by the strong theatre lights and I could not see the audience.
- ▸ be shining be on I went along Ingram Street, where few lights were on.
- ▸ not be shining be off, be out All the lights were off and the place was silent.
- ▸ start to shine come on, go on Get some timer switches so that lights come on automatically in the evening.
- ▸ stop shining go off, go out Half way through the gig, all the lights went out.

light ADJ

bright because of light from the sun

- adv+ADJ very extremely, very It was an extremely light and spacious fourth-floor flat.
- ▸ fairly fairly, quite The room was painted in a fairly light colour.
- v+ADJ be, become, get, grow, remain, stay It was just getting light outside when we set off.
- and/or airy, bright, spacious The rooms are light and airy.

light V make a place brighter by giving it light [usually passive]

- adv+V with not much light dimly She led me through the dimly lit corridors.
- well properly, well Always park somewhere that is well lit and preferably somewhere with CCTV.
- badly badly, poorly The way to the station is so badly lit, it is unsafe at night.
- brightly brightly, brilliantly We all received a very warm welcome as we entered the brightly lit hall.

lighting N
light of a particular type or quality

- adj+N artificial artificial, electric, fluorescent The salon is illuminated by fluorescent lighting.
- creating a particular mood or feeling atmospheric, moody The atmospheric lighting gave a spooky feel to the whole play.
- natural natural Unfortunately, the lack of budget means natural lighting only, so the indoor scenes are very dark.
- outdoor exterior, external, outdoor There is ample parking and also exterior lighting.
- indoor indoor, interior The remote control will switch on all of the car's lights, as well as the interior lighting.
- bright bright The building has been modernised, with spacious entrances, bright lighting, and underfloor heating among the improvements.
- not too bright low, soft, subdued, subtle Watch the DVD in a room with subdued lighting.
- not bright enough bad, dim, poor The lighting is so dim in Act 2 that it is difficult to see all the figures on stage.
- enough adequate, good, proper There should be adequate lighting in all urban streets and parks.
- on ceiling overhead You can use desk lamps in place of overhead lighting.

lightning N
flashes of light in the sky during a storm

- N+v hit someone or something hit, strike The house was seriously damaged after being struck by lightning.
- flash flash The lightning flashed for a third time.
- make something brighter illuminate, light, light up A spectacular thunderstorm built up, with lightning lighting up the sky.

- N+n bolt, flash, strike Many fires are due to natural events such as lightning strikes.
- n+of+N bolt, flash, steak Then came a flash of lightning followed by a loud peal of thunder.

likelihood N
the chance that something might happen

- adj+N less or smaller decreased, less, lower, reduced In small villages, there is less likelihood of properties becoming available to let. ◆ Girls in the group that did regular exercise had a lower likelihood of becoming obese.
- more or greater greater, increased, more Unfortunately, people with diabetes have a greater likelihood of increased blood pressure.
- not much little, not much, remote The population of the world shows little likelihood of decreasing.
- strong every, high, real, significant, strong, substantial There is every likelihood that we will be successful. ◆ This is a high risk strategy with a strong likelihood of failure.
- some reasonable Nowadays, most forms of cancer can be treated with a reasonable likelihood of a satisfactory outcome.

- v+N increase the likelihood of something enhance, improve, increase, maximize The incident had increased the likelihood of military action against the regime.
- reduce the likelihood of something decrease, diminish, lessen, minimize, reduce Wearing a cycle helmet reduces the likelihood of serious head injury.
- affect the likelihood of something affect, influence A pregnant mother's diet can affect the likelihood of health problems in her babies.
- make a judgment about the likelihood of something assess, calculate, consider, determine, estimate, evaluate, predict We will be able to better predict the likelihood of an individual responding to a particular course of drug treatment.

likely ADJ
probably going to happen, or probably true

- adv+ADJ very all too, entirely, especially, extremely, highly, more than, overwhelmingly, particularly, very It is highly likely that the treaty will be endorsed by an overwhelming majority of member countries.
- rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, reasonably This is a fairly likely scenario given that they have lost their last 10 matches.
- almost not at all hardly, remotely, scarcely If he was supposedly illiterate in his own language, Arabic, it is hardly likely that he would have been able to read Hebrew. ◆ We never looked remotely likely to score even one point.
- more or less than is right disproportionately This group is also disproportionately likely to have a low income.
- more and more increasingly Millwall now look increasingly likely to be relegated.
- equally equally Men and women are equally likely to be in work prior to having children, but this changes after childbirth.
- when you are asking whether something is likely at all Is it at all likely that he would have left without saying goodbye?
- not not at all She's not at all likely to take over the leadership if the present leader resigns.

- ADJ+n result consequence, outcome, possibility, result, scenario What would be the likely outcome of this situation?
- effect effect, impact Students will be expected to be able to analyse the likely impact of these trends on the performance of the business.
- person or thing that will probably achieve something candidate, contender, winner He now looks like the most likely winner of the championship.
- explanation explanation, reason The most likely explanation for this is an increase in population.
- cause cause Most learner drivers are within the age limits when the most likely cause of accidental death is in a road traffic accident.

▸ reaction reaction, response Particular attention should be paid to the likely reaction of customers to any changes in services.
▸ origin origin, source The most likely source is thought to be Asia.
▸ cost cost It is important you have a clear idea of the likely overall cost of studying in the UK.

• v+ADJ appear, consider sb/sth, look, make sth, regard sb/sth as, seem, sound, think sb/sth The artist signs himself 'W. de Brailes' and it seems very likely that he was the William de Brailes who lived in Catte Street in Oxford around 1230–1260. ◉ They thought it likely that he was involved in planning the robbery.

likeness N
the quality of being similar to someone or something

• adj+N exact, excellent, good, incredible, perfect, remarkable, striking, strong, true, uncanny They felt that the portrait was a good likeness of their daughter. ◉ You must admit the likeness is uncanny.

• v+N have a likeness bear, have He bears a remarkable likeness to Freddie.
▸ show a likeness capture, catch, show The painting is perfect, and you have captured his likeness so well.
▸ see a likeness see She saw no likeness between the friend of her youth and the prince who stood before her.

liking N
a feeling of enjoying or liking something

• adj+N strong great, particular, real, special, strong She admits to having a great liking for the music of Shostakovich.
▸ immediate immediate, instant We first met her at Jonathan's graduation, and took an instant liking to her.
▸ sincere genuine He acted out of a genuine liking for the man.

• v+N have a liking for someone or something have I have a liking for old films, preferably in black and white.

You can also say that something is to someone's liking: I'm afraid that the music they played wasn't really to my liking.

▸ start to have a liking for someone or something develop, take For some unknown reason, she took an immediate liking to the old man.
▸ express a liking for someone or something express He expressed his liking for New Zealand and its mountains.
▸ show a liking for someone or something show German audiences showed no liking for it.
▸ share a liking for someone or something share We both share a liking for the good things in life.

the limelight N attention from newspapers, television etc

• adj+N international, media, political, public The former council leader was propelled back into the political limelight last night.

• v+N try to have all the limelight grab, hog INFORMAL, steal Jim Carrey has a tendency to steal the limelight, which we can see on the DVD extras.
▸ like the limelight bask in, enjoy, love She is someone who enjoys the limelight.
▸ want or try to have the limelight seek, want A woman of humility and modesty, Paula never sought the limelight.
▸ avoid the limelight avoid, shun Leroy Burgess is an unusual artist, in as much as he shuns the limelight.
▸ share the limelight share For once, however, he will have to share the limelight.
▸ have the limelight be in Apparently, she wanted to be in the limelight for once in her life.
▸ not have the limelight be out of From then on, Byron was never out of the limelight.
▸ start to have the limelight come into, step into A new generation of young Arab women writers are stepping into the limelight.
▸ be forced to have the limelight be propelled into, be thrown into, be thrust into It has also been a time when Africa has been thrust into the limelight.

limit V prevent a number, amount, or effect from increasing past a particular point; reduce someone's ability to be effective

• adv+V drastically, seriously, severely The wartime measures severely limited the opening hours of pubs.

• V+n amount amount, capacity, intake Limit the amount you take to what you actually need.
▸ number capacity, intake, number We need to limit the number of new countries developing nuclear weapons.
▸ size extent, magnitude, scope, size These birds have relatively small feet, which limits the size of prey that they can catch.
▸ growth growth, spread These plans will aim to limit the spread of disease.
▸ damage damage The Italian government is said to be anxious to act quickly to limit the damage caused by such a revelation.
▸ power power He attempted to limit the power of the Supreme Court.
▸ effect effect, impact There is surely enough popular support behind measures to limit the impact of climate change.
▸ usefulness effectiveness, usefulness These are all factors which can limit the usefulness of this approach.
▸ someone's freedom to do something or go somewhere ability, access, freedom The law severely limited the freedom of the press.
▸ possibility or choice choice, opportunity, options, possibility Think carefully before you decide which subjects to take. Don't limit your options.

limit N
the largest or smallest amount of something that is allowed

• adj+N upper maximum, upper There is a fixed upper limit to the amount of interest charged on your home loan.
▸ lower lower, minimum Most buyers have a minimum limit on the number of bedrooms they need and want the maximum space they can afford.

- strict severe, strict, stringent, tight For this reason, strict limits are set on the levels of lead in drinking water.
- safe safe There is no known safe limit to exposure to asbestos.
- not based on any particular facts arbitrary Arbitrary limits on immigration would damage our economy and push up taxes.
- legal legal, statutory You may still be affected by alcohol the next day and could lose your licence if you drive and are still over the legal limit.
- fixed or agreed agreed, established, prescribed, recommended, set, specified The recommended daily limit for a woman is 70g of fat.
- acceptable acceptable What are the acceptable limits of individual freedom in a civilized country?
- normal normal His hearing is within normal limits so he does not need a hearing aid.

- n+N relating to money borrowing, cash, credit, earning, expenditure, overdraft, spending Don't go over your agreed overdraft limit.
- relating to speed, time, size, age, weight age, size, speed, time, weight A speed limit of 10 miles per hour must be observed in the University grounds.
- relating to alcohol alcohol The report has called for an alcohol limit to be applied to boat users along the lines currently applied to drivers.

- v+N not obey a limit breach, break, exceed, go over It is likely that the total level of salt in the water could exceed this limit.
- obey a limit obey, observe Simply obey the limit and you are doing all that is necessary for road safety.
- establish a limit agree, define, determine, fix, impose, introduce, place, prescribe, propose, put, set, specify There are now no limits imposed on importing tobacco and alcohol products from one EU country to another.
- increase a limit extend, increase, raise Ask your credit card provider to temporarily increase your limit.
- reduce a limit lower, reduce The government has resisted calls to reduce the limit.
- make sure that a limit is obeyed enforce The program will automatically enforce this limit for you.

limitation N

1 a rule or situation that puts a limit on something

- adj+N strict serious, severe, strict In addition, there was a strict limitation on the number of foreign players who could play for a club.
- major important, major, significant There would, therefore, be significant limitations on any fiscal expansion.
- current current Current limitations on funding for small voluntary organisations are unfair.
- financial budgetary, financial We tailor our service to the budgetary limitations of our clients.

- n+N budget, resource, size, space, time Because of space limitations we may be unable to print every letter we receive.

- v+N put a limitation on something impose, place, put They may also impose a limitation on the types of investment you are allowed to make.
- get rid of a limitation remove The Act removed the limitation on the use of Welsh in the courts.

2 a disadvantage or weak point [usually plural]

- adj+N types of limitations functional, methodological, physical, practical, technical, technological We ensure there is no discrimination toward applicants, based on age, sex, religion, marital status, sexual preference or physical limitations.
- existing as a permanent feature of something inherent, intrinsic The methodology has inherent limitations.
- serious serious, severe The existing machines are over 40 years old and have been demonstrated to have serious limitations.
- major important, major, significant Although the model has been used successfully to provide initial estimates, it has important limitations.
- current current The authors discuss some current limitations of the system.
- basic basic, fundamental These are engineering issues, not fundamental limitations, and have been dealt with in a recently published design for a new system.
- obvious obvious However, this approach has obvious limitations.

- v+N understand or accept limitations accept, acknowledge, appreciate, know, note, realize, recognize, understand It is difficult for some older people to acknowledge their limitations.
- try to deal with limitations address In this paper, we discuss three experiments that address the limitations of our previous studies.
- succeed in dealing with limitations circumvent, overcome, transcend The Museum welcomes disabled visitors and tries to overcome the limitations of a historic building that does not provide easy access for people with disabilities.
- have limitations have We recognise that our current method does have limitations.
- show limitations expose, highlight, identify, reveal The report highlights the limitations of this approach.
- consider limitations consider, discuss We should be considering the limitations of polls like these.

limited ADJ

not allowed to go above a particular level; not very good, or great in amount

- adv+ADJ very extremely, seriously, severely, strictly, very Staff time is extremely limited, so we ask you to phone only at certain set hours.
- rather fairly, quite, rather, relatively, somewhat The rail network in Scotland is relatively limited in extent.

- ADJ+n amount amount, budget, capacity, quantity, resources, supply Unfortunately, I only have a limited amount of time to spend answering these questions.
- number number, range Please book early, as there is only a limited number of places available.
- time duration, period, time This offer is for a limited time period only.
- space space Some airlines have decided on slightly smaller bag sizes because of the limited space in the aircraft.

- size extent, scope, size At the same time, the limited size of groups allows each individual to contribute fully to discussions.
- v+ADJ appear, be, become, remain, seem The commercial applications of the product remain limited.

line N

an imaginary limit or border between two situations or conditions

- adj+N fine, thin So remember that there is a fine line between helping the bride make her choice and imposing your choice upon her.
- v+N blur, cross, draw, straddle, tread I cannot help feeling that, with this legislation, our society has crossed a line. ◉ It's hard to draw a line between sadness and depression.

linger V

last or continue for a long time

- n+V doubt doubt, question, suspicion But a doubt lingers in my mind.

Usage Linger is usually used as a present participle adjective in these combinations: A clear answer would help to dispel any lingering suspicions as to his honesty.

- memory memory Memories of the attack still linger for most New Yorkers.
- taste flavour, taste Let the flavours linger on your tongue.
- smell aroma, odour, perfume, scent, smell That wonderful smell still lingers.
- tradition tradition Indeed, in all the Celtic parts of Britain, living traditions still linger.
- feeling pain, pain This was several years ago, but the pain still lingers!

In this meaning, you can use linger on in the same way as linger: Ten years later, the memory still lingers on.

link V

people, things, or events: be related [usually passive]

- adv+V so as to be impossible to separate indissolubly, inextricably, inseparably, intrinsically Although these aspects are all inextricably linked, it can be useful to consider them separately.
- strongly firmly, strongly Social group and housing type are strongly linked in Britain.
- directly directly, explicitly Death from malaria in Africa is thus directly linked to poverty.
- closely closely, intimately These two factors are, of course, closely linked.
- clearly clearly, obviously Tourism and holiday trends are clearly linked to consumer confidence and the economy.

link N

1 a connection between people, things, or events

- adj+N clear clear, definite, explicit, obvious Were we missing some obvious link?
- direct direct Quite clearly, there is a direct link between population growth and energy demand.
- weak tenuous, weak It feels like a tenuous link between two unrelated subjects.
- showing that one thing causes another causal There was very little evidence of a causal link.
- strong or close close, strong There is often a strong link between depression and problems at work.
- important or very important important, key, vital The Liaison Officer provides a vital link between the community and the site team.
- v+N establish, find, prove, see It is the job of the forensic scientist to establish a link between the perpetrator and the crime on the basis of scientific evidence.

2 a relationship between people, organizations, or countries [usually plural]

- adj+N close, strong We have close links with the parish of St Joseph's.
- n+N business, sporting, trade, trading The Australian economy is flourishing, not least because of trading links with its Asian neighbours.
- v+N create links build, create, develop, establish, forge, foster Over the years, we have forged close links with business and the professions.
- end links break, cut, sever Activists warned the company to sever links with a firm which carries out medical experiments on animals.
- continue links maintain The Association maintains links with related professional organizations.
- have links have He pointed out that he was the first Asian member of the Government and obviously had links with the Asian community.
- make links stronger strengthen I am looking forward to helping the college strengthen its links with employers.

3 (in computing) a connection between one file or section and another

- n+N download, email, hypertext, Internet, navigation, text, Web, website Listed here are a number of useful contact addresses and Web links.
- v+N use a link click, click on, follow, see, use Follow the link to the online form and send us your details.
- have a link contain, have, include Each job title has a link to the advertisement for that vacancy and further information if available.
- create a link add, build, create, post I have taken the liberty of building a link to your site from my own.
- provide a link provide Links are provided at the right hand side of this page.
- add the most recent information to a link update Now all you have to do is to update the link to your blog archives.
- check a link check This article was added to our website on 25/01/09, at which time all links were checked.
- send someone a link send To send a link for the car you are viewing to a friend, simply click 'Send to a friend'.

lip N

the top or bottom edge of your mouth

- v+N press your lips together compress, press together, purse She pursed her lips and frowned like a doctor considering a case.

- bite your lips bite, chew Her father bit his lip and gazed at the floor.
- open your lips open, part I opened my lips to speak.
- close your lips close She closed her lips and folded her hands before her.
- make your lips wet lick, moisten, wet He moistened his lips with the tip of his tongue.
- push your lips together and forwards pout, pucker She tossed her head and pouted her lips.
- make a noise with your lips smack Then the stranger tasted a spoonful of the soup and smacked his lips and said, 'Ah, delicious!'
- pull your top lip upwards at one side curl They curled their lips in contempt and turned away.

• N+v open/close close, open, part His lips opened, and he whispered, 'Kiss me.'
- shake quiver, tremble Her lips quiver as she searches for the right words to say.
- move move I was so overcome with emotion and feeling that, although my lips moved, no sound escaped my throat.
- be pressed together purse, tighten His lips tightened, and he frowned with solemn resolution.
- be pulled upwards at one side curl Her lips curled with scorn.

liquid N
a substance that flows

• adj+N burning easily flammable, inflammable Never use petrol or other flammable liquids to light fires.
- thick thick, viscous Each bottle contained a viscous liquid.
- thin thin Add more cold water a little at a time until it forms a thin liquid with the consistency of milk.
- resembling oil oily Vegetable fats tend to be oily liquids.
- having no colour colourless Formaldehyde is a colourless liquid used to preserve dead bodies.
- transparent clear Shake until the liquid is completely clear.

• v+N pour a liquid pour Next, he poured the liquid into the bowl and added the herbs.
- accidentally pour a liquid out of its container spill Take care not to spill the liquid.
- let a liquid flow away from something decant, drain, drain off, strain, strain off First, you need to begin draining the liquid in the tank.
- heat a liquid boil, bring to the boil, heat Heat the liquid to just below boiling point.
- when a dry substance takes in liquid absorb, soak up Simmer for 10 more minutes until the rice is tender and all the liquid is absorbed.

• N+v move somewhere drip, flow, pour, seep, spurt, trickle Thicker liquids, like syrup, flow more slowly.
- become thicker reduce Boil vigorously until the liquid has reduced to a thick sauce.

liquidation N a situation in which a business closes and sells everything

• adj+N compulsory, voluntary They have a duty to investigate the affairs of companies in compulsory liquidation.
• v+N experience liquidation be forced into, be placed in, be put into, enter, enter into, go into Work halted on the project a month ago, after the firm went into liquidation.
- avoid liquidation avoid The directors ought to have known that the company could not realistically avoid liquidation.
- be likely to experience liquidation face Unless a buyer is found, the football club faces liquidation.

list N
a set of names, numbers etc one below another

• adj+N complete complete, comprehensive, exhaustive, full The above list is not exhaustive.
- not complete incomplete, non-exhaustive, partial This is a non-exhaustive list of topics that may be covered.
- long extensive, huge, long I could probably come up with a long list of possible reasons.
- short brief, short The list is short, because these sites themselves provide links to many others.
- detailed detailed It is now possible to publish a detailed list of the coins in the Museum Collection.
- ordered in a particular way alphabetical, chronological Below is an alphabetical list of the bills which the Committee has considered so far this session.
- seeming to have no end endless We have members from all communities: Sikh, Hindu, Muslim, Afghan, Iranian, Kurdish... the list is endless.
- impressive impressive There was an impressive list of backers for the project.
- certain, and not likely to change definitive Consult the handbook for the definitive list of current course requirements.

• v+N make a list compile, create, make, prepare, produce Make a list of all the reasons why you want to stop smoking.
- publish a list publish The Tribunal will then publish a list of the names of the witnesses that it proposes should be called to give evidence.
- provide a list provide The search engine will provide a list of documents where your keyword occurs.
- add the most recent information to a list update I hope to update the list at fairly regular intervals.

listen V
pay attention to or try to hear a sound

• adv+V carefully actively, attentively, carefully, closely, hard, intently, properly, with care Obviously, we listened very carefully to what he had to say.
- in a patient way patiently Peter listened very patiently until Jake was finished.
- politely politely, respectfully, with respect They listened very politely to our explanation.
- in a sympathetic way sympathetically, with understanding I moaned about it to her for a while, and she listened sympathetically.
- in a keen or interested way avidly, eagerly, with attention, with interest All of them listened eagerly to him.
- quietly in silence, quietly, silently The whole audience listened quietly to her speech.

listener N someone who listens to a person speaking

- adj+N good good, great, sensitive Are you a good listener and sympathetic to others?
- careful attentive He found in Mrs Phillips a very attentive listener.
- sympathetic sympathetic A sympathetic listener is always there if you need someone to talk to.
- patient patient Both he and his wife were wonderfully patient listeners.

literacy N
the ability to read and write; the ability to understand a particular area of knowledge

- adj+N in a particular area cultural, digital, emotional, financial, functional, mathematical, musical, political, scientific, visual Emotional literacy includes the ability to understand, express and manage our own emotions and respond to the emotions of others. ◉ He reported on the work that is currently taking place to upgrade standards of financial literacy in the UK.
- basic basic, general Seven million adults have their opportunities for learning and employment reduced because they lack basic literacy.
- relating to everyone mass, national, universal Before universal literacy came in the years after 1870, spelling tended to follow local pronunciations.
- low in quality poor This new booklet is designed for practitioners who work with parents with poor literacy.

- n+N in a particular area computer, information, media Computer literacy and good administration skills are essential.
- relating to a particular group adult, female, male The borough has one of the lowest levels of adult literacy in the country.

- v+N improve literacy boost, develop, encourage, enhance, foster, improve, increase, promote It encourages all schools to focus on these approaches to improving literacy.
- teach literacy teach She is conducting research into improving methods of teaching literacy to boys.
- achieve literacy achieve, acquire, learn These people are not achieving literacy at a level adequate for functioning in today's society.

- N+n skills skills The school has seen improvements in these children's literacy skills.
- education education, instruction, teaching, training A small number of carefully picked pupils will have extra literacy teaching.
- development development The courses help parents to support their children's reading and literacy development.
- level level, rate, standard The country has a literacy rate of around 79 per cent.
- project initiative, programme, project, strategy The money will be spent on running women's literacy programmes.

- n+of+N level, standard A good standard of literacy and numeracy, supported by a good general education, is essential.

- and/or numeracy Approximately 20 per cent of adults report difficulties with literacy and numeracy.

literary ADJ involving the activity of writing or reading books

- ADJ+n expert critic, scholar He is literary critic of the New York Times.
- study criticism, study, theory Her academic interests include literary theory and women's literature.
- work of literature classic, masterpiece, text, work He is best known for his television dramatizations of English literary classics.
- magazine journal, magazine I also edited the school's literary magazine that year.
- tradition heritage, history, tradition Dublin is home to a great literary tradition.
- writer figure, giant Forster was also an influential critic who helped to establish younger literary figures, such as the poet Robert Browning.
- festival festival Just a short drive away is Hay-on-Wye, famous for its annual literary festival.
- type of literature genre This course gives students the opportunity to study a wide range of texts from different literary genres and periods of time.
- style style His literary style is remarkably fine.
- stories about imaginary events and people fiction We have the widest range of titles of any UK publisher, from children's books to literary fiction.

literate ADJ
having a good understanding of a particular subject

- adv+ADJ digitally, economically, emotionally, financially, mathematically, musically, scientifically, technically, technologically, visually The growing importance of scientific issues in our daily lives demands that everyone is scientifically literate.

literature N
1 stories, poems, and plays

- adj+N relating to a particular language or country English, American, Latin etc She's also started an Open University degree in Spanish literature.
- relating to a particular period classical, contemporary, medieval, modern, Victorian She has edited an anthology of contemporary literature in translation.
- relating to a particular century eighteenth-century, nineteenth-century etc I teach Victorian and twentieth-century literature, at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels.
- very good, and having been popular for a long time classic She directed a series of movies based on classic literature.

- v+N publish, read, study, teach, write He was educated at the Tokyo Imperial University, where he studied English literature.

- n+of+N piece, work Pushkin's Eugene Onegin is the first great work of Russian literature.

2 all the books, papers etc, about a particular academic subject

- adj+N types of literature academic, medical, peer-reviewed, scholarly, scientific The book's weak point is that it ignores so much of the most important scientific literature.
- current current, existing, recent This book fills a gap in the existing literature.

- ▶ available available We will review all the available relevant literature.
- ▶ large in amount extensive, vast It includes discussion of the extensive literature which has been published recently on film and religion.
- ● v+N analyse, appraise, evaluate, examine, read, review, study, summarize, survey The report surveys the literature on the effects of EU regulation on economic activity.
- ● N+n review, survey Students will be assessed on the basis of a 5000-word literature review.
- ● n+in+N confusion, debate, gap, omission There is debate in the literature about what constitutes a valid task. ◈ There would appear to be a gap in the literature here, and a need for further research.
- ● n+of+N when someone studies the literature appraisal, overview, review, survey Her dissertation included a review of the literature and current research on the subject.
- ▶ amount body, wealth There is a vast body of literature on this topic.

litigation N

the use of the legal system to settle a disagreement

- ● adj+N types of litigation civil, commercial, criminal Increasing efforts are being made to streamline civil litigation.
- ▶ expensive costly, expensive What can managers and employers do to protect themselves from costly litigation?
- ▶ possible possible, potential The field of medicine is a growing source of potential litigation as patients become more aware of their rights.
- ▶ complicated complex With extensive experience of all areas of complex litigation, we have particular expertise in cross-border claims.
- ▶ continuing for a long time endless, lengthy, protracted Most claims get caught up in protracted litigation.
- ▶ current current, ongoing The mayor's spokesperson said she was unable to comment on ongoing litigation.
- ▶ unnecessary unnecessary The great difficulty in introducing such a scheme was perceived to be the danger of encouraging unnecessary litigation.
- ▶ successful successful She has been interviewed and filmed for broadcasts in relation to successful litigation she has handled.
- ● v+N take part in litigation be engaged in, be involved in, bring, conduct, pursue, undertake We conduct litigation in all areas of law, particularly banking and insurance disputes.
- ▶ avoid litigation avoid, prevent We are conscious that our clients frequently prefer to avoid litigation.
- ▶ start litigation commence, initiate, launch, start What advice should a solicitor give to a client commencing litigation?
- ▶ encourage litigation encourage Some witnesses argued that this encouraged litigation in Scotland.
- ▶ try to prevent litigation discourage Our aim is to resolve disputes early on and to discourage litigation.
- ▶ consider starting litigation consider, contemplate The company is contemplating further litigation.
- ▶ threaten to start litigation threaten The slightest derogatory statement was enough to provoke a letter from his lawyers threatening litigation and demanding an apology.
- ▶ pay for litigation finance, fund He had provided money to fund the litigation.
- ▶ settle litigation end, settle We do not know the precise terms on which that litigation was settled.
- ▶ have to become involved in litigation face If we are not to face litigation in the future, we must implement what the law requires from us in this area.
- ▶ deal with litigation handle, manage We also have an extensive track record of successfully handling litigation in a number of foreign jurisdictions.

litter N

rubbish on the ground

- ● v+N drop litter drop, dump, throw There is no excuse for dropping litter.

You can also talk about litter being strewn: When I walk around the town, I see litter strewn around everywhere. ● I was disgusted by the litter-strewn streets of the capital.

- ▶ leave litter leave, leave behind Don't leave litter – use the bins provided.
- ▶ pick up litter clean up, clear up, collect, pick up, remove They will also be able to fine shops selling take-away food if they refuse to clear up litter outside their premises.
- ▶ reduce litter reduce Everyone needs to do their bit to reduce litter.

live V

have a particular kind of life

- ● adv+V in a peaceful way harmoniously, in peace, peaceably, peacefully Its inhabitants live harmoniously in a peaceful and unique multicultural society.
- ▶ without help from other people independently Social Services can help you to continue to live independently in your home.
- ▶ happily happily Everyone has a right to live happily and free from discrimination.
- ▶ well comfortably, well These people lived quite comfortably, pursued professional careers, and in some cases were quite wealthy.
- ▶ in a healthy way healthily The majority of older people have too small an income to live healthily.
- ▶ without spending much money frugally In this cold and inhospitable house, the sisters lived frugally.
- ▶ without enough money below the poverty line, in poverty His book was dedicated to the 'wretched of the earth', who were condemned to live in poverty.

livelihood N

something that provides the money you need to live

- ● adj+N good and secure decent, secure, sustainable, viable They highlighted the plight of the poor, who were denied sustainable livelihoods by unfair trade.
- ▶ not good or secure meagre, precarious The communities earned a precarious livelihood from the few tourists to the area.
- ● v+N earn a livelihood achieve, derive, earn, gain, make, secure The two girls had no immediate means of earning a livelihood.

- ▸ be likely to harm a livelihood jeopardize, threaten The policy threatens the livelihoods of thousands of fishermen.
- ▸ harm a livelihood affect, damage, destroy, ruin, undermine It is hoped that the big multi-national businesses can be pressurised into changing practices that seriously affect the livelihoods of the world's most vulnerable communities. ◉ By doubling its cotton exports, the USA will destroy the livelihoods of 250 million African cotton farmers.
- ▸ protect a livelihood defend, maintain, protect, safeguard, support This is a beautifully written and well-acted play about two families struggling to maintain their livelihoods.
- ▸ make sure a livelihood is possible assure, ensure, guarantee In such a society, everyone is guaranteed a livelihood.
- ▸ lose a livelihood lose Several projects were set up to help the many people who had lost their livelihoods during the disaster.
- ▸ try to find a livelihood seek These women were, in consequence, obliged to seek a livelihood elsewhere.
- ▸ provide a livelihood provide Today, agriculture provides a livelihood for about 60 per cent of Madagascar's population of 12 million.
- ▸ improve a livelihood improve Public funding of their work is a good way to improve the livelihoods of the poor in low-income countries.

- • N+v depend on The farmers' livelihoods depended on being able to harvest their crops in time.

lively ADJ involving many people giving their opinions

- • adv+ADJ very extremely, very Their differing viewpoints led to some extremely lively debates.
- ▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, rather The session turned out to be rather lively, with many conflicting opinions being expressed.

- • ADJ+n controversy, conversation, correspondence, debate, discussion, exchange, forum, messageboard, session Mr. McGlinn's paper generated a lively discussion.

- • and/or informative, stimulating, thought-provoking There then followed a lively and stimulating question-and-answer session.

live through PHR VB still be alive after experiencing a dangerous or unpleasant situation

- • V+n event revolution, war My grandfather lived through two world wars, and served in the first.
- ▸ experience change, experience, horror People in the nineteenth century lived through tremendous changes.
- ▸ period age, century, decade, era, period, time, year He lived through that period as a young man.

living N money that you earn to live on

- • adj+N good comfortable, decent, good It's still possible to earn a decent living as a contractor.
- ▸ likely to change without warning precarious He lived for a year in the United States, where he earned a precarious living as a journalist and short story writer.
- ▸ not good enough meagre Many village residents eke out a meagre living by raising chicken and sheep.

- • v+N earn a living earn, make A year after his release from prison, Lane was making a good living through a range of business ventures.
- ▸ have difficulty in earning a living eke out, scrape, scratch Aldington managed to scrape a living as a freelance writer and translator.
- ▸ provide a living provide He'd worked so hard to provide a living for his family.
- ▸ do something as a job in order to earn a living do sth for What do you do for a living?

load N an amount of work to be done; a problem or responsibility that you have to deal with

- • adj+N large full, heavy She could cope with a heavy load of work without any apparent falling off in quality.
- ▸ types of load administrative, legislative The increasing administrative load of the committee had led the Chairman to propose that the number of members should be raised to eight.
- ▸ small light Those research students who have taken fewer courses will normally be expected to add an additional 4,000 words to their dissertation to make up for the lighter load.
- ▸ extra additional, extra Staff members may require help to deal with the additional load.

- • n+N course, teaching, work His teaching load was extremely heavy.

- • v+N reduce a load ease, lessen, lighten, reduce It will help lighten the load on our systems at this peak time.
- ▸ share a load share We can always use more volunteers to share the load.
- ▸ divide and share a load spread This proposal would spread the load much more widely.
- ▸ increase a load increase This will inevitably increase the load on Directors.

loan N an amount of money that is borrowed

- • v+N get a loan arrange, get, obtain, raise, receive, take out I need to get a loan to pay for my holiday.
- ▸ give someone a loan arrange, extend, give sb, grant (sb), make (sb), offer, provide They also offer loans, and they have a low rate of interest.
- ▸ pay back a loan pay back, pay off, repay You only start repaying this loan once you have finished studying and are earning more than £15,000 a year.
- ▸ agree to give someone a loan approve, sanction The bank will not approve the loan.
- ▸ refuse to give someone a loan refuse If a loan is refused, a clear reason will be given to the customer.
- ▸ make sure that a loan will be paid back, guarantee, secure, underwrite The loan is secured against your property.
- ▸ ask for a loan apply for, ask for, negotiate, request The first stop was Washington, to negotiate a loan to prop up the ailing economy.

lobby N a group which is trying to influence politicians about a particular issue; a protest by a lobby

- adj+N powerful, strong, vociferous The whisky distillers have a very powerful lobby for their product, and urge every government to keep down the tax on whisky. ◆ The agricultural lobby is vociferous, in the face of declining incomes on family farms.
- v+N form, join, lead, organize Four MPs joined the lobby against the ban, forcing the government to review the case in the High Court.
- N+n group, organization A smokers' lobby group sent messages to politicians urging them not to support a total ban on smoking in public places.

lobby V
try to influence powerful people about a particular issue

- adv+V using a lot of effort actively, hard, heavily, strongly, vigorously We have lobbied hard to have this ban overturned.
  - ▸ successfully effectively, successfully The group successfully lobbied for the introduction of women-only wards in hospitals.
- V+n authority, company, council, councillor, government, minister, MP, parliament, politicians The group is calling for people to lobby the government for urgent legislation to end this discrimination.
- V+for amendment, change, funding, improvement, introduction of sth, legislation, right, support We have actively lobbied for a change in the law.

location N
the place or position of someone or something

- adj+N perfect ideal, perfect, prime The area's outstanding natural beauty makes it an ideal location for a well-earned break.
  - ▸ good or suitable accessible, appropriate, convenient, excellent, good, great, suitable, superb The company is based at a convenient location just off the motorway.
  - ▸ beautiful attractive, beautiful, idyllic, picturesque, scenic, spectacular, stunning The houses are in a beautiful location on the banks of the Conwy river.
  - ▸ quiet peaceful, quiet, tranquil The hotel stands in its own garden in a wonderfully quiet location.
  - ▸ exact exact, precise, specific The tracking device gives information on the car's exact location.
  - ▸ secret secret, undisclosed He is being held by U.S. intelligence agents at an undisclosed location.
  - ▸ in relation to other places geographic, geographical, physical Haddington's early prosperity was almost entirely due to its geographic location.
  - ▸ far from other places isolated, remote, secluded His ashes were scattered at a remote location on Dartmoor.
  - ▸ unusual and interesting exotic I'm envious because he's always jetting off to exotic locations!
  - ▸ popular popular Cardiff is a popular location for call centres, with a number of large organizations having offices within the city.
- n+N beachfront, beachside, city-centre, countryside, downtown, hillside, riverside, roadside, seafront, seaside, waterfront, waterside The town is famous for its lovely riverside location and annual arts festival.
- v+N confirm, determine, discover, establish, find, identify, indicate, mark, pinpoint, show, specify GPS uses satellites to pinpoint your location anywhere on the planet to within a few feet.

lodge V formally make a complaint, claim etc

- V+n amendment, appeal, application, case, claim, complaint, grievance, motion, objection, petition, protest, request Neighbours have lodged objections to the plans to erect five CCTV cameras around the grounds of her house.

logic N
the way someone connects ideas when they are explaining something; the fact of being a reasonable explanation

- adj+N basic basic, cold, inherent, pure, simple Simple logic says that making fuels from crops can reduce lethal greenhouse gas emissions.
  - ▸ incorrect faulty, flawed, perverse, twisted, warped A little close scrutiny soon reveals the twisted logic of racism.
- v+N use logic apply, be based on, employ, use I used the same rather obvious logic in selecting Frankie as you did with David .
  - ▸ understand or accept someone's logic accept, appreciate, follow, see, understand I appreciate the logic behind this line of thought. ◆ I am trying to follow the logic of why the health service should be run like a supermarket.
  - ▸ have doubts about someone's logic question He questioned the logic of pushing through changes in time for a general election.
  - ▸ be the opposite of what logic makes you think defy It defies logic to say that the beliefs of a theist and an atheist are equally valid.
  - ▸ explain logic explain Let me try to explain the logic underlying the decision-making process.
- N+v say dictate, say, suggest There is a mismatch between what logic dictates is good for our health, and what we actually do.
  - ▸ be relevant apply The same logic applies in the case of smaller organizations.

logical ADJ
connecting ideas in sensible way

- adv+ADJ very or completely completely, entirely, only, perfectly, purely, quite, strictly, very It seemed only logical that we investigate all the options open to us. ◆ They can't see themselves, and their behaviour seems to them perfectly logical.
  - ▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL The book is arranged in a fairly logical sequence.
- ADJ+n decision or result conclusion, consequence, outcome The logical conclusion of this research is to bring back the grammar school, so that all really smart kids can profit from this experience.

- ▶ stage or development development, extension, progression Smith said that genetic modification was a logical extension of natural plant breeding.
- ▶ order order, sequence, structure The chapters follow a logical sequence.
- ▶ thoughts or arguments analysis, argument, deduction, reasoning, thinking, thought I thought she presented a sound and logical argument. ● Being capable of logical thinking does not exclude appreciation of poetry, art, or music.
- ▶ method or action approach, process, step, way This is a natural and logical step for the society to take. ● Telephone groups are a logical way to build on the success of Parentline Plus.
- ▶ reason explanation, reason This must have a logical explanation, which at the moment eludes me.
- ▶ choice choice With all his experience, Ben was the logical choice for the job.

- ● ADJ+infinitive assume, conclude, expect, say, suggest, suppose, think It is logical to assume that the general results would not necessarily be different for larger populations.

- ● and/or coherent, methodical, rational, sensible Aim to communicate information in a logical and coherent fashion.

long ADJ

lasting a large amount of time

- ● adv+ADJ very awfully, extremely, incredibly, really, very I think we are in for a very long wait.
- ▶ rather comparatively, fairly, pretty INFORMAL, reasonably, relatively It was a pretty long match, at nearly three hours.
- ▶ too excessively, overly, unacceptably, unnecessarily, unreasonably Under this system, approval takes an unacceptably long time.
- ▶ long enough sufficiently Performance should be assessed over a sufficiently long period.
- ▶ longer than usual exceptionally, surprisingly, unusually We've had an unusually long spell of dry weather.
- ▶ so long that it seems almost silly impossibly, inordinately, ridiculously The drive to Prague was easy, even including a ridiculously long stop in Dresden.

longing N

a strong feeling of wanting someone or something

- ● adj+N great deep, great, intense, passionate, profound I came back here, feeling an intense longing to see the place again.
- ▶ secret secret Even the most relaxed parents have secret longings for their children to do well.
- ▶ for the past nostalgic Overall, there is a nostalgic longing to regain lost innocence.

- ● v+N have a longing be filled with, feel, have We all have longings for joy and satisfaction.
- ▶ satisfy a longing satisfy The trip had satisfied her longing for adventure.

- ● and/or desire, loneliness, nostalgia, regret, yearning We tend to look back on our lives with regret, or longing for the old days to come back.

long-standing ADJ

having existed for a long time

- ● ADJ+n relationship or connection association, collaboration, connection, friendship, link, partnership, relationship The university has long-standing links with Turin university.
- ▶ problem or illness illness, injury, issue, problem Midfielder Damian Lacey is another definite absentee after his long-standing foot problem flared up again.
- ▶ person client, customer, friend, member, partner, supporter He is an active and long-standing member of the golf club.
- ▶ interest or involvement commitment, concern, interest, involvement We have a long-standing commitment to education.
- ▶ way of doing something policy, practice, tradition The long-standing tradition of giving sweets to celebrate special occasions such as weddings was started centuries ago in Italy.
- ▶ an opinion, based on what you have done history, record, reputation This hotel has a long-standing reputation for good food and wine.
- ▶ disagreement/agreement agreement, debate, dispute The invasion was the result of a long-standing territorial dispute.
- ▶ experience or knowledge experience, expertise She has long-standing experience of project development.

long-term ADJ

1 continuing to exist or be relevant for a long time in the future

- ● ADJ+n result or effect consequences, effect, impact, outcome She is conducting research into the long-term effects of antenatal stress.
- ▶ plan plan, planning, policy, solution, strategy We're involved in the development of a long-term marketing strategy.
- ▶ aim aim, goal, objective, vision We need to ensure that the UK's long-term goal of reducing carbon emissions is met.
- ▶ success, health etc benefit, development, growth, health, preservation, stability, success, survival, sustainability, viability Addressing these challenges is crucial for long-term commercial success.
- ▶ damage, problems etc complications, damage, problem, risk Excessive exposure to the sun can cause long-term skin damage.
- ▶ future future, prospects The long-term future of the club remains uncertain.
- ▶ relationship relationship We aim to establish long-term relationships with all our clients.

2 having existed for a long time

- ● ADJ+n illness, relationship, unemployment Both our children are in long-term relationships but show no sign of getting married. ● The government has introduced new training schemes in a bid to tackle long-term unemployment.

look V

1 move your eyes to see someone or something

- ● adv+V directly directly, straight Looking directly at the sun can cause serious damage to your eyes.
- ▶ carefully carefully, closely, hard, intently, properly If you look carefully, you should be able to find evidence of foxes in the area.

▸ quickly briefly, quickly She looked quickly toward the other person.
▸ with a particular feeling anxiously, eagerly, earnestly, enviously, fondly, longingly, nervously, suspiciously, wistfully He looked anxiously over his shoulder as he spoke.

2 be planning to do something

• V+infinitive employ someone appoint, employ, hire, recruit, take on Our client is looking to recruit an experienced training manager to work as part of the training team.
▸ start something create, establish, start He was looking to start a new career.
▸ improve or increase something add sth, build up sth, develop sth, enhance sth, expand (sth), extend sth, improve (sth), increase sth, strengthen sth The company is looking to expand its overseas operations. ◈ We shall be looking to expand in the new financial year.
▸ buy/sell something acquire, buy, get, invest, purchase, sell I'm looking to buy a digital camera for my travels.
▸ move to a different place move They are looking to move to the South West for a change of lifestyle.

Usage Look is used in the form be looking to in this meaning.

look N

1 an act of looking at someone or something

• adj+N careful careful, close, good, proper, thorough This bird was too shy for me to get a proper look.
▸ quick brief, cursory, quick He turned, gave me a quick look and asked 'Which way did you come?'
▸ long lingering, long I took one last lingering look at the house, then turned and left.
▸ pretending that you are not interested casual I took a casual look inside, and saw that Caroline was already there.

• v+N have a look get, have, take He moved forward to get a closer look.
▸ have a quick look cast, shoot Jack shot a quick look at Daniel, whose expression was unfathomable.
▸ have a look secretly sneak I remember as a child, I used to sneak a look at their letters which my mother had kept.

2 an expression on your face or in your eyes

• adj+N strange funny, odd, strange He had a funny look on his face – I just knew he was in on the plot.
▸ showing that you want more information questioning, quizzical, searching Curtis glanced at it and gave him a quizzical look.
▸ showing that you are thinking carefully thoughtful The question provoked many thoughtful looks among the audience.
▸ showing that you do not approve angry, dark, dirty, withering Ann gave me a dirty look and left the room.
▸ showing that you do not understand something blank, puzzled There was a puzzled look in her eyes.
▸ showing that you know about something knowing 'Anything to do with the smugglers?' inquired the boy, with a knowing look.
▸ showing worry anxious, serious, worried She noticed the worried look on his face as his wife was put into the ambulance.

• v+N cast sb, give sb, shoot sb She gave me an anxious look.

• N+of surprise or shock amazement, astonishment, disbelief, shock, surprise There were looks of surprise when the winner was announced.
▸ confusion bewilderment, confusion, glazed There was a look of confusion on her face when I announced who I was.
▸ negative feelings despair, disappointment, disgust, fear, horror, panic, terror I will never forget the look of sheer terror on the face of that animal as it was being tortured.
▸ positive feelings concern, love, relief, triumph There she stood, with a look of triumph on her face.

3 an act of thinking carefully about something

• adj+N involving a lot of facts and details careful, comprehensive, detailed, in-depth, informative, thorough The talk provided an informative look into the world of caravanning.
▸ involving a few facts and details brief, cursory, quick Here we take a brief look at a couple of alternatives, and how one family is tackling the problem head on.
▸ considering something as it really is, even if unpleasant critical, hard, honest, realistic, serious The first step is to take an honest look at your financial situation.
▸ new fresh, new We need to take a fresh look at the situation.
▸ interesting or unusual fascinating, interesting, offbeat, refreshing, unique This site also includes an interesting look into the history that dictates which side of the road different countries drive on.
▸ involving humour entertaining, humorous, irreverent, light-hearted, satirical, wry The magazine offers a humorous look at women's lives.
▸ considering facts that only people involved will know behind-the-scenes, inside This is a behind-the-scenes look at the restaurant industry.
▸ making you remember happy times in the past nostalgic The film is a nostalgic look at Britain's steam trains.

• v+N have a look have, take We need to have a look at the way we deal with customer complaints.
▸ provide a look offer, provide Her book offers a fascinating look at life in the 19th century.

look into PHR VB

try to discover the facts about something

• V+n a situation or problem case, issue, matter, problem, situation, subject There is real anger among the public, and the minister must look into the issue immediately.
▸ a part of a situation aspect, cause, circumstances, detail The Hutton inquiry was set up to look into the circumstances surrounding the death.
▸ a complaint allegation, claim, complaint Greater Manchester police were looking into allegations of malpractice.
▸ a possibility feasibility, idea, option, possibility, question We are looking into the possibility of maintaining a local archive.

▸ an effect effect, implications A Parliamentary committee has been appointed to look into the effects of changing the law.

loophole N

a way of avoiding obeying a law etc

- adj+N legal legal Too often, we hear of employers who use legal loopholes to abuse the rights of workers.
- ▸ serious glaring, major, serious The organization has campaigned for the registration of nannies, to close a major loophole in the regulatory system.
- ▸ possible possible, potential The new amendment clsoed a potential loophole in the legislation.
- n+N security, tax We need to close the tax loopholes that allow the rich to avoid paying tax altogether.
- v+N use a loophole exploit, take advantage of, use Some drivers have exploited the legal loophole by 'transferring' penalty points on their licences to relatives or friends.
- ▸ create a loophole create, leave Critics argue that introducing this type of ID card would create loopholes which terrorists can exploit.
- ▸ get rid of a loophole block, close, plug The shake-up will close the loopholes which allowed the killer to get a job as a school caretaker.
- ▸ find a loophole discover, find, identify The company found a planning loophole that has allowed it to double the size of its existing stores by building a mezzanine level within the store.
- N+in law, legislation, regulations, system There are loopholes in the current law that still leave people vulnerable.

lose V

stop having a positive feeling, quality, or attitude

- V+n confidence, faith, hope, interest, patience, respect, trust People were beginning to lose hope of finding him alive.

loss N

1 money that is lost in business

- adj+N large big, considerable, enormous, heavy, huge, large, massive, severe, significant, substantial A hostile takeover would be likely if they suffered huge losses and their share price collapsed.
- ▸ small small The business is scheduled to make a small loss in its first year.
- ▸ financial economic, financial Financial loss forced the corporation to reorganize its business.
- ▸ total overall, total Overall losses are reckoned at more than $2 billion.
- ▸ before paying tax pre-tax The takeover announcement came as the company announced a pre-tax loss of £1.4 million.
- ▸ in a year annual They posted the largest annual loss in US corporate history.
- v+N suffer a loss incur, make, suffer, sustain The company made a loss before tax of £0.4 million.
- ▸ reduce a loss minimize, reduce An effective disaster recovery plan can reduce losses by 90 per cent.
- ▸ announce a loss announce, post, record, report The property company has reported a loss of GBP21.4m for the year to the end of June.
- ▸ get back a loss recoup, recover We're hoping to re-open in August, but we'll never recoup our losses.
- ▸ balance out the effect of a loss cover, offset These payments will help offset the loss of earnings.

2 the death of someone

- adj+N devastating, sad, terrible, tragic The family wish to thank all who have given help and support following the sad loss of Jo.
- v+N feel sad because of a loss grieve, mourn We mourn the loss not only of a good soldier, but of a good comrade as well.
- ▸ experience the loss of someone experience, suffer She suffered the loss of her grandmother in 2004.

loud ADJ

used to describe a sound that is strong and easy to hear

- adv+ADJ very deafeningly, extremely, incredibly, really, very There was a very loud explosion.
- ▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather At this speed, the fan was rather loud.
- ▸ too excessively, overly, too, uncomfortably Damage to hearing caused by excessively loud music adds up over the years.

love V

be very strongly attracted to someone; to care very much about someone

- adv+V deeply dearly, deeply, greatly, passionately, really, truly, unconditionally He loves his family deeply.
- ▸ in a way that is easy to see clearly, obviously She clearly loved Sidney as more than a conventional friend.
- ▸ secretly secretly Mary secretly loves Edward, but he thinks of her as a friend.
- ▸ in a way that is sincere genuinely Jim does genuinely love Karen, there's no doubt about it.

When someone loves another person, you can say that they are in love (with them): I was in love with my best friend's brother. ● We were young and we were in love. When someone starts to love with another person, you can say that they fall in love (with them): She had fallen in love with James the first time she met him.

love N

a strong emotional and sexual feeling for someone; the feeling of liking or caring for someone or something very much

- adj+N lasting forever or for a long time abiding, enduring, everlasting, steadfast, undying, unfailing They had declared their undying love for each other.
- ▸ strong boundless, deep, intense, passionate, profound, strong He has a deep love for the English countryside.
- ▸ sincere genuine, real, sheer, true But true love is strong and speaks the truth.
- ▸ when you are young first, young Young love can be intensely passionate.
- ▸ without demanding anything from the other person selfless, unconditional My parents have given me unconditional love and support.
- ▸ not felt by the other person unrequited This is a touching story of unrequited love developing into friendship.

- ▸ too strong and involving jealous feelings jealous, obsessive This is a tale of a man's obsessive love for a woman who has no love for him.

You can talk about someone being deeply/madly/head over heels in love with someone: After ten years of marriage they were still madly in love. If someone loves someone else from the first time they see them, you can talk about love at first sight: It was love at first sight when I met Alan.

- • v+N feel love be in, experience, feel, have I didn't feel any instant love for Flynn.
- ▸ start to feel love fall in She had fallen in love with one of her teachers.
- ▸ show love demonstrate, express, show Words couldn't ever express my love for you.
- ▸ tell someone you love him or her confess, declare, proclaim, profess In a moving scene, Brad declares his love for Lucy.
- ▸ look for someone who will give you love look for, pursue, seek Many people join dating agencies looking for love.
- ▸ find someone who will give you love discover, find Both women found love on their travels.
- ▸ tell someone that you do not want their love reject He was downcast because she had rejected his love.

- • N+v blossom, grow They kept in touch after their first meeting in Berlin, their love grew and they married.

- • and/or affection, attention, care, compassion, devotion, faith, friendship, happiness, joy, respect, sex, support, understanding Thank you to Paul for his love and support.

low ADJ small in amount or level

- • adv+ADJ very exceptionally, extremely, incredibly, remarkably Medical supplies are already extremely low.
- ▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, slightly Her blood pressure was quite low.
- ▸ when compared to other similar things comparatively, relatively This is a good product at a relatively low price.
- ▸ in a way that is dangerous dangerously, perilously The oxygen level in the pond could drop to dangerously low levels.
- ▸ in a way that is different from usual abnormally, artificially, unusually She maintained an abnormally low weight for her height.
- ▸ in a way that seems surprising or silly ridiculously, surprisingly He was driving at a ridiculously low speed. ◉ Off season, the weekly rates are surprisingly low.
- ▸ in a way that is not as good as it should be or not as good as you want disappointingly, unacceptably The level of response was disappointingly low.

- • v+ADJ be, become, get, keep sth, remain, run, stay The college has kept course fees as low as possible. ◉ We need more blood donors as stocks are running dangerously low.

loyal ADJ

always willing to support someone, even in difficult times

- • adv+ADJ absolutely, extremely, fiercely, intensely, totally, very I am fiercely loyal to my friends, and would do almost anything for them.
- • ADJ+n person or animal ally, citizen, client, companion, customer, dog, employee, fan, follower, friend, member, reader, servant, soldier, subject, supporter He has been a loyal friend.
- ▸ group audience, clientele, fan base, following, staff, workforce Not surprisingly, the restaurant has acquired a loyal following over the years.
- ▸ service or support service, support Whoever is the new leader, they can count on my loyal support.

loyalty N support for someone or something

- • adj+N strong absolute, fierce, great, strong, total, undying, unswerving The girls have a fierce loyalty to their mother.
- ▸ not thinking about whether someone or something deserves loyalty blind, unquestioning This is not blind loyalty to the Party, but a recognition that we are a collective movement.
- ▸ giving loyalty to someone or something that does not deserve it misplaced Reluctance to give information to the police may be out of a misplaced loyalty.
- ▸ types of loyalty personal, political, tribal The sense of ethnic identity and tribal loyalty of many remains strong.
- ▸ real and sincere true You showed me what true loyalty meant.

- • v+N show loyalty demonstrate, display, prove, show Fortunately for Mary, Joseph would later demonstrate his loyalty to her.
- ▸ increase loyalty build, create, encourage, increase, strengthen By giving employees some responsibility for the organization's direction, you are encouraging loyalty at a grass-roots level.
- ▸ make someone feel loyalty command, engender, foster, gain, generate, inspire, secure, win Motivated people inspire loyalty and that leads to excellence in what we do.
- ▸ feel loyalty develop, feel, have Some breeds of dog develop a strong loyalty to members of the family and are rather wary of strangers.
- ▸ keep someone's or your loyalty retain We must demonstrate our commitment to retaining the loyalty of our customer base. ◉ Few, if any, of the original members retained their loyalty to the party.
- ▸ give someone something in return for their loyalty repay, reward She rewarded his loyalty by making him a Privy Councillor.
- ▸ make a statement expressing loyalty declare, express, pledge, swear The book tells the tale of the great warriors Kuan Gung and Chang Fei, who pledged their loyalty to Liu Pei.
- ▸ want loyalty from someone demand, expect The leadership is very quick to demand loyalty from party members.
- ▸ test someone's loyalty test This is a strategy that is certain to test the loyalty and commitment of staff.

- • N+v lie I feel completely confident in him and I feel my loyalty lies with him.

• n+of+N declaration, expression, feeling, sense She refused to betray him out of some misguided sense of loyalty.

luck N

an influence that seems to make things happen, especially good things; success that you have by chance

• adj+N complete and pure blind, plain, pure, sheer By sheer luck he survived the war unharmed.
▸ good good, great They wished us good luck for the future.
▸ bad bad, cruel, ill, rotten, terrible Marco's run of rotten luck continues.

• v+N get or have luck get, have It's about time we got some good luck.
▸ bring luck for someone bring The four-leaved clover is supposed to bring luck and love.
▸ need luck need, require All singers need a degree of luck in order to succeed.
▸ deserve luck deserve I'm so pleased for you, you really deserve some good luck!
▸ wish someone else luck wish sb We wish her luck in her new job.
▸ feel annoyed because you have had bad luck curse Sarah stopped at the red light, cursing her bad luck.

• N+v change change, turn His luck changed when he landed a job with Hippo books.
▸ end run out On 39 minutes, our luck eventually ran out and the other team scored.
▸ continue continue, hold Luck held for Hawkins and Drake, as they were able to escape.

• n+of+N a time when several lucky things happen run He is like a gambler whose run of luck ends just before the biggest bet of all.
▸ a degree of luck amount, degree, element In many cases, however, there will be an element of luck as to the results that are obtained.
▸ a time when a lucky thing happens bit, piece, slice, stroke It was a deserved piece of luck for Bell and the whole team.
▸ a situation in which luck rather than skill controls what happens matter Winning the lottery is simply a matter of luck.

lucky ADJ

if you are lucky, something good happens to you as a result of luck

• adv+ADJ very exceptionally, extraordinarily, extremely, incredibly, really, very Under the circumstances, I was very lucky to survive.
▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite We were fairly lucky with the weather, so it all went well.

• v+ADJ be, consider yourself, count yourself, feel, get, strike I consider myself really lucky to be in such a beautiful place, working with a brilliant bunch of people. ◉ I waited less than a minute for both transfers, so I guess I got lucky. ◉ We struck lucky with the hotel we had chosen – it was excellent.

lucrative ADJ

bringing a lot of money

• adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, very This led to a desperate scramble for highly lucrative oil contracts.
▸ possibly in the future potentially They are promoting Scotch Whisky as a worthwhile and potentially lucrative investment for individuals.

• ADJ+n job or opportunity career, employment, job, opportunity, position, post, work The film opened the gateway to a lucrative career in TV.
▸ business business, industry, market, trade, venture Gaming is becoming a more lucrative business every day.
▸ deal bid, contract, deal, investment, offer Both groups are likely to get lucrative record deals.

luggage N

bags and suitcases for a journey

• adj+N heavy or large in size bulky, heavy, oversize If you have heavy luggage, it is best to take a taxi.
▸ carried on to a plane with you carry-on, hand Carry important medications in your hand luggage.
▸ put in the hold of an aircraft checked-in The airline will start charging for each piece of checked-in luggage.

• v+N carry luggage carry, transport Porters are hard to find, so you will be the one responsible for carrying your luggage.
▸ give luggage to someone at an airport so it can be put on the plane check (in) You can check your luggage in at the airline counter.
▸ load/unload luggage load, stow, unload Unload your luggage, and an official will safely park your car for you.
▸ get your luggage back collect, reclaim, retrieve I had to dash back to the station, retrieve my luggage and then hurry to the airport.

• n+of+N item, piece Please make sure all items of luggage are securely stowed in the overhead lockers.

lukewarm ADJ

not very enthusiastic or interested

• adv+ADJ decidedly, distinctly The movie may get better reviews here than in America, where it attracted a decidedly lukewarm response.

• ADJ+n reaction, reception, response, review, support Her last film got a lukewarm reception.

lull N

a quiet period during an active or violent situation

• adj+N brief, momentary, short, slight, temporary In the spring of 1942, there was a brief lull in fighting.

• N+in action, activity, conversation, fighting, proceedings, storm, violence During a lull in the conversation, I asked Irving about a comment he'd made earlier.

lunch N

a meal in the middle of the day

• adj+N good delicious, excellent, good, great, lovely, nice, superb, tasty, wonderful After an excellent lunch, some of us went to look round the museum.

- ▸ lasting a long time lazy, leisurely, long, relaxed The hotel terrace is ideal for long, lazy lunches.
- ▸ lasting only a short time quick We'll have a quick lunch then get back to work.
- ▸ eaten early/late early, late We then headed back down the valley for a late lunch.
- ▸ hot/cold cold, hot We serve a variety of hot and cold lunches.
- ▸ involving only a little food light The Verandah serves light lunches around the pool.
- ▸ involving good food or a lot of food full, gourmet, hearty, lavish, sumptuous We stopped at a pub and enjoyed a hearty lunch.
- ▸ in order to celebrate something celebration, celebratory, special She joined the rest of the family for a celebratory lunch.
- ▸ formal/informal formal, informal The meeting finished with an informal lunch.
- ▸ consisting of sandwiches that you take with you and eat somewhere box, pack, packed, picnic Packed lunches are available on request.
- ▸ consisting of a lot of alcohol boozy INFORMAL, liquid My boss always went out to lunch, and on his return it was obvious they were very liquid lunches!

- • n+N the place where you have lunch bar, pub, school We stopped for an excellent pub lunch at the Malt Shovel.
- ▸ the type of food you eat for lunch buffet, sandwich, snack The launch will be followed by a buffet lunch.
- ▸ the number of parts that a lunch has three-course, two-course The price includes two-course lunch and coffee.
- ▸ that you combine with business business, networking, working There will be a networking lunch before the seminar.

- • v+N have lunch eat, get, grab INFORMAL, have Chris and I headed off to Interlaken to get some lunch.
- ▸ make lunch cook, fix, make, prepare I then went to the kitchen to prepare the lunch.
- ▸ not have lunch miss, skip We'd skipped lunch to go to a show.
- ▸ meet someone and have lunch with them do INFORMAL, go for, meet for Tell him to call me – we'll do lunch.
- ▸ provide lunch provide, serve Lunch is served between 12.00pm and 3.00pm.

- • N+n the period when you stop work and eat lunch break, hour, period I went for a walk during my lunch break.
- ▸ the act of stopping doing something in order to eat lunch halt, stop A lunch stop is often made at a public house, although not always.
- ▸ an event that involves eating lunch date, meeting, party They agree on a lunch date, but Martha fails to show.
- ▸ a list of food that is available for lunch in a restaurant menu The lunch menu is based around baguettes, salads, and burgers.
- ▸ a place where you can eat lunch spot, venue Just to the south is Port au Moulin, another great lunch spot.

- • n+of+N bite INFORMAL, spot INFORMAL We ran for an hour, then returned home for a spot of lunch.

lure N

something that attracts someone [usually singular]

- • adj+N irresistible, tempting The stunning coastline is an irresistable lure for yachtsmen.
- • v+N be attracted by, be seduced by, be tempted by, resist, succumb to Customers can't resist the lure of a free gift.
- • N+of fame, gold, money, profit, the sea, the stage, wealth For ordinary people, the lure of fame can be all too tantalising.

lush ADJ

lush plants and places look very green and healthy

- • ADJ+n countryside, field, foliage, forest, garden, grass, greenery, hill, hillside, island, jungle, landscape, meadow, mountain, pasture, rainforest, scenery, valley, vegetation We stayed in a hotel set amongst lush tropical gardens.
- • and/or beautiful, fertile, green, tropical, verdant We explored the lush green landscape and picturesque sandy beaches.

lust N

1 a strong feeling of wanting to have sex

- • adj+N carnal, insatiable, sexual, unbridled Sexual lust will never banish our yearning for love.
- • v+N be driven by, indulge, satisfy He acted with no regard other than to satisfy his own sexual lust.

2 great enthusiasm for something

- • adj+N insatiable He was obssessed by an insatiable lust for power and money.
- • n+N blood They would start beating him up and would not stop until they had satisfied their blood lust.
- • v+N be driven by, have, indulge, satisfy Throughout the play, he is shown as being driven by his lust for revenge.
- • N+for adventure, blood, fame, gold, life, money, power, profit, revenge, violence, wealth What I love about Charlotte is her lust for life. ◈ I have seen what the lust for money brings out in people and it is not nice.

luxury N

1 something that is expensive or enjoyable but unnecessary; something that you would like to do or have but that is not necessary

- • adj+N expensive or impossible to afford expensive, unaffordable Oysters have become scarce, and thus an expensive luxury.
- ▸ not too expensive affordable Handbags count as one of those affordable luxuries that will make or break an outfit.
- ▸ little little, small Other little luxuries such as refrigerators, irons, hairdryers or Internet access are available on request.
- ▸ unnecessary unnecessary Advertising constantly tries to convince us that we really need one unnecessary luxury after another.
- ▸ rare rare Permanent chauffeurs are a rare luxury these days.

▸ real real, true There is electricity and running water which, to Mike, is a real luxury.
▸ extra added The chalet also boasts the added luxury of a sauna.

• v+N afford, enjoy Employees can no longer afford the luxury of feeling loyal to their employers. • If you enjoy the luxuries in life, why not upgrade to one of our executive rooms.

2 a very comfortable situation surrounded by the best and most expensive things

• adj+N great five-star, great, real, true Their Christmas hampers are a taste of real luxury at very reasonable prices.
▸ complete absolute, complete, pure, sheer, total, ultimate He lives in absolute luxury. • For ultimate luxury, the hotel offers a spa.
▸ when compared to other things comparative, relative I checked into the relative luxury of a Super 8 Motel.
▸ that you can/cannot afford affordable, unaffordable Our boutique shops offer affordable luxury.
▸ attractive and not trying to impress discreet, refined, understated Eight bedrooms provide classic understated luxury with private balconies overlooking the lush gardens.
▸ trying to impress extravagant, ostentatious, unashamed A third of the population lived at subsistence level, while the court lived in ostentatious luxury.

• v+N offer luxury offer, provide This is a stunning, romantic hotel offering sophisticated luxury, surrounded by glorious natural beauty.
▸ enjoy or experience luxury enjoy, experience, indulge in, live in If you enjoy discreet luxury, look no further than this resort. • We invite you to experience the luxury of being treated like royalty.

• n+of+N bit, lap, life, touch He was a rich, spoiled brat who had been brought up in the lap of luxury. • Tom works long hours as an aeroplane repairman so Leeza can live the life of luxury at home. • Our bedrooms are tastefully decorated to add a touch of luxury to your stay.

Mm

mad ADJ

1 very silly or stupid; mentally ill

- adv+ADJ completely absolutely, barking INFORMAL, completely, quite, raving INFORMAL, really, totally Everyone thought I was barking mad to leave my job.
- ▸ rather pretty INFORMAL, slightly The organization also attracted some slightly mad people.
- v+ADJ be, drive sb, go, seem The constant ringing of her phone was driving her mad. ◉ I'd go mad if I had to stay in bed for a week.

2 done quickly and without thinking or organizing

- ADJ+n dash, panic, rush, scramble At the end of the film, there was a mad rush for the doors.

madness N actions showing a lack of careful thought

- adj+N absolute, complete, pure, sheer, total, utter All this seems to me sheer madness.
- v+N be madness be, seem (like) It's a big river and it would be madness to try and cross it in the dark.
- ▸ stop madness end, stop We will end the madness of police officers having to fill in forms every time they stop someone.
- n+of+N act, bout, fit, minute, moment, touch Robert, in a moment of madness, tried to climb a ladder that wasn't leaning on anything.

magnet N

something that attracts people very strongly

- v+N act as, act like, become, behave like, be (like), prove, remain For much of the 20th century, the USA acted like a magnet for people facing oppression in their own homelands.
- N+for people artists, climbers, enthusiasts, migrants, tourists, visitors, walkers The beaches and waters adjacent to the coast act as a magnet for tourists.
- ▸ activity crime, investment, talent, tourism Many of the high-rise developments became magnets for crime.

magnify V

to make something bigger, worse, more severe etc

- adv+V a lot considerably, enormously, greatly, massively, significantly, tenfold Small differences that appear insignificant against an average player are magnified tenfold when you play against the best players in the world.
- ▸ just just, only, simply Avoiding relationship breakdown problems will not make them go away, but only magnify them.
- V+n difference, difficulty, effect, importance, power, problem, scale In large groups these problems are magnified.

magnitude N

the great size, importance, or effect of something

- adj+N great considerable, great, high, large, sheer, unimaginable, unparalleled You cannot visit the Eden Project without being amazed at the sheer magnitude of it all.
- ▸ small low, small Similar effects, although of a smaller magnitude, were observed for a second defect in the gene.
- v+N reduce the magnitude of something limit, reduce The size of the pins limits the magnitude of the load that can be carried.
- ▸ become greater in magnitude grow in, increase in The automobile engine produces heat, increasing in magnitude with increasing speed and load.
- ▸ differ in magnitude differ, vary This effect varies in magnitude for different reasons.
- ▸ guess or calculate the magnitude of something assess, calculate, determine, estimate, measure, predict, quantify Population pressure needs to be taken into account in predicting the magnitude of the expected migration.
- ▸ realize the magnitude of something appreciate, grasp, realize, understand He gradually comes to realise the magnitude of what he is being asked and goes to the police.
- ▸ not realize the magnitude of something underestimate I think that we underestimate the magnitude of what we are attempting.
- N+of achievement, change, difference, disaster, effect, error, problem, response, risk, task, threat When it comes to lung cancer, the magnitude of the effect of cigarette smoking far outweighs all other factors.

mailing list N

a list of people who receive letters or emails from a company

- v+N create a mailing list build up, create, generate, set up How do I set up a mailing list?
- ▸ put someone on a mailing list add sb to, put sb on Email or phone with your postal address and we will add you to the mailing list.
- ▸ be on a mailing list be included on, be on Unless you are on the mailing list, it's easy to find that you've missed the deadline for submitting entries.
- ▸ join a mailing list go on(to), join, register with, sign up to, sign up to, subscribe to Hundreds of people have signed up to the mailing list.
- ▸ take someone off a mailing list remove sb from, take sb off To be removed from the mailing list, reply to this message.
- ▸ take yourself off a mailing list unsubscribe from, withdraw from You can unsubscribe from our mailing list at any time.

main ADJ

most important, largest, or most frequently used

- ADJ+n point or theme concern, point, theme, thrust The main thrust of their work has been on geography.

- aim aim, focus, objective, priority, purpose The main objectives are to develop new research collaborations with Japanese companies.
- reason or cause cause, culprit, factor, reason, source The main reason behind their decision to move abroad is that they have had enough of life in the UK.
- feature attraction, feature The main attraction of Skiathos is the abundance of excellent beaches along the island's coastline.
- problem disadvantage, drawback, obstacle, problem The main drawback of bitumen is that it turns to a dull greyish colour over a period of time.
- finding conclusion, finding This article covers the main findings of our research.
- difference difference There isn't much that can be achieved in one platform that can't be on the other one. The main difference is how the end is achieved.

mainstream ADJ

considered ordinary or normal by most people

- adv+ADJ fairly fairly, quite, relatively Guitar bands are back in vogue and rock is fairly mainstream again.
- very completely, truly, very His films were popular but too cutting and socially conscious to be truly mainstream.
- increasingly increasingly The generation of energy from solar panels is becoming increasingly mainstream.

- v+ADJ be, become This idea met with staunch criticism when it was introduced because it was not mainstream.

maintain V

1 to keep something the same

- adv+V constantly, continuously, indefinitely, steadfastly, successfully We ensure that safety and hygiene standards are continuously maintained.

- V+n standard or level level, performance, quality, standard The University aims to maintain a high standard of academic scholarship and research.
- situation balance, consistency, continuity, control, momentum, stability, status quo If environmentalists are to maintain their current momentum, they will need to switch from defensive to offensive strategies.
- secrecy confidentiality, secrecy Secrecy is often maintained by the use of threats.
- personal qualities composure, dignity, integrity Try to maintain your composure during the interview.
- qualities of an organization competitiveness, independence, reputation Only by bringing together science and business more effectively will we maintain our competitiveness.
- communication or relationship contact, dialogue, links, network, relations, relationship All phone and Internet lines used by the troops to maintain contact with relatives have been shut down.
- level of interest or enthusiasm commitment, interest, morale He played a major role in maintaining the army's morale during a difficult period.
- control control, vigilance It's important to maintain constant vigilance, in order to ensure that the final product is as good as it can be.

2 to keep a building, road etc in good condition

- adv+V well beautifully, immaculately, successfully, superbly, well The house has been very well maintained.
- badly badly, inadequately, poorly Scooters and motorcycles are frequently unstable on poorly maintained roads.
- carefully carefully, lovingly, meticulously Smartly furnished and meticulously maintained, Adelphi House has ten comfortable guest bedrooms.
- properly or well enough adequately, correctly, fully, properly A full service history shows a car has been properly maintained.
- regularly regularly Automatic equipment must be regularly maintained and an alarm fitted to alert staff in the event of breakdown.

Usage Maintain is usually passive in all of the adv+V combinations shown above.

maintenance N

work done in order to keep a building, machine etc in good condition

- adj+N regular or planned annual, periodic, planned, regular, routine, scheduled A conventional power station is often shut down for routine maintenance.
- not planned unplanned, unscheduled The only unscheduled mechanical maintenance required was the replacement of an erratic oil pressure unit.
- done to prevent problems preventative, preventive Preventative maintenance is always better than cure.
- continuing constant, day-to-day, ongoing The Council runs a programme of ongoing maintenance which specifically deals with improving homes over a longer period of time.
- little little, low, minimal The benefit of kiosks is that they are smaller, cheaper, need little staff intervention and minimal maintenance.
- good/bad poor, proper Proper maintenance is important to ensure reliability of the apparatus when running unattended.
- general basic, general Most of the work we did was centred around general maintenance of the station.
- necessary essential, necessary The railway is currently closed for essential maintenance.

- v+N need maintenance need, require The instrument is easy to operate and requires no maintenance.
- do maintenance assist with, carry out, do, help with, perform, provide, undertake We need to clear overhanging branches in the car park and do some maintenance in the playground.
- not do maintenance neglect Maintenance of the road network was neglected during the war.
- ensure maintenance is done correctly ensure, oversee, supervise When in port, the mate will supervise deck maintenance, cargo operations, and general ship's business.
- receive maintenance receive, undergo We try to minimise the number of aircraft undergoing maintenance at any one time.
- improve maintenance facilitate, improve, simplify This additional revenue will be used to improve maintenance of existing sites.

▸ pay for maintenance contribute towards, cover, finance, fund, pay for There is a subscription to cover maintenance and upgrade.

• and/or cleaning, construction, improvement, installation, operation, renovation, repair, restoration, servicing, upgrade, upkeep Structures can become dangerous from lack of maintenance and repair.

major ADJ

important, serious, or large

• adv+ADJ fairly fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather Publishing a book is a fairly major undertaking.

▸ very particularly, really INFORMAL, very You could go through a very major operation, only to find that the cancer started to grow somewhere else.

▸ potentially potentially They were trying to prevent the spread of a potentially major problem.

• ADJ+n problem challenge, concern, drawback, flaw, hurdle, obstacle, problem, setback The negative attitude of the students proved to be a major obstacle to success.

▸ process of change change, overhaul, redevelopment, refit, refurbishment, shake-up, upgrade The graphics have had quite a major overhaul.

▸ cause or effect cause, factor, impact, influence, source Few would disagree that money is a major cause of stress in today's family.

▸ role or part component, contribution, part, role The papers published here together form a major contribution to the study of Burma. ◈ Market research plays a major part in understanding customers' needs.

▸ event development, incident The Government is investing a huge amount of money in the emergency services to enable them to better respond to major incidents.

▸ medical operation operation, surgery I had to have major surgery to both eyes.

▸ important point or stage in something breakthrough, milestone The opening of the Research Institute represents a major milestone in the history of scientific and medical research.

▸ project or course of action programme, project, scheme, undertaking During the 1990s, the area underwent a major programme of redevelopment.

majority N

1 most of the people or things in a group [always singular]

• adj+N large great, large, overwhelming, significant, substantial, vast The vast majority of women in prison are serving sentences for non-violent offences.

▸ not expressing their views silent A well-organized minority can often get more attention than the silent majority.

▸ clear, and impossible to doubt clear We believe these values are shared by a clear majority of the public.

• v+N form the majority be in, comprise, constitute, form, make up, represent In this part of the workforce, women are in the majority.

▸ suit or satisfy the majority benefit, satisfy, suit Moderate the pace to suit the majority of the group.

• N+n opinion or decision approval, decision, judgment, opinion, view They promised the plan would not go ahead if it was against the majority opinion.

▸ ownership holding, ownership, share, shareholding, stake The British Airports Authority agreed a deal for a majority stake in Budapest airport.

▸ owner shareholder, stockholder He is executive chairman and majority shareholder of Lunar Energy.

2 the number of votes by which a person or party wins

• adj+N large clear, huge, landslide, large, massive, substantial Any Government with a large majority can force things through the House.

▸ when one person or group gets more votes than all the others absolute, outright, overall The process continues until one candidate has an absolute majority.

▸ small narrow, slim, small In the national congress, the right still enjoys a slim majority in the upper house.

▸ of a particular size 64/10/144 etc seat, 73/54/60 etc per cent, one/600/13,000 etc vote, two-thirds/three-quarters etc We voted by an 85 per cent majority to adopt the resolution. ◈ Amendments to the Constitution shall only be made by a two-thirds majority of members present at the Annual General Meeting.

▸ not large, but large enough comfortable, solid She held on to her seat in Congress with a comfortable majority.

• v+N have a majority command, have In order to be Prime Minister, you have to be able to command a majority in Parliament.

▸ win a majority attain, gain, obtain, secure, win The film opens in 1920, two years after Sinn Fein had won a huge majority in the new Irish parliament.

▸ keep a majority retain ZANU-PF therefore still retains a majority of the seats in the 150-seat parliament.

▸ increase a majority increase As a consequence of this hard work, he has substantially increased his majority at each election.

▸ reduce a majority overturn, reduce, slash At the last election, his majority was slashed from approx 20,000 to a couple of hundred votes.

▸ lose a majority lose The Liberals also lost their majority in the national assembly.

• v+by+N decide or agree to something approve sb/sth, carry sth, decide sth, elect sb, endorse sb/sth, pass sth, ratify sth, vote sth This motion must be passed by a 75 per cent majority of the committee present at two consecutive meetings.

▸ not agree to something reject sb/sth The committee report was rejected by a majority of conference.

▸ defeat someone or something defeat sb/sth The motion was defeated by a large majority.

make-up N

1 substances for adding colour to someone's face

- adj+N very neat flawless, immaculate Her hair and make-up were always immaculate.
- ▶ a lot heavy, loads of INFORMAL Students are not allowed to wear jewellery or heavy make-up.
- v+N wear make-up wear Not all women wear make-up.
- ▶ put on make-up apply, do, put on I was driven up the road to the beauticians to have my make-up done.
- ▶ take off make-up remove, take off, wipe off It may be helpful to remove any make-up, so that your doctor can see your skin properly.

2 the people or things that form a single group or whole

- adj+N of a group of people cultural, demographic, ethnic, racial, religious, social, socio-economic What is the ethnic make-up of the school?
- ▶ of a person genetic, physiological, psychological Every human being's genetic make-up has a similar structure.
- ▶ of a substance chemical, geological Soil chemistry is about the chemical make-up of soils and sediments.
- ▶ with many different types of people cosmopolitan, diverse, multi-cultural The vibrant cosmopolitan make-up of London means we have over 12,000 restaurants selling produce from over 60 different cuisines.
- N+of audience, committee, community, council, household, population, society, squad, team, workforce Changes in the make-up of the workforce reflect an increase in women workers.

malice N

a strong feeling of wanting to be unkind

- adj+N deliberate, pure, sheer There really is such a thing as sheer motiveless malice.
- v+N bear (sb), be motivated by, do sth out of, intend (sb) He was a man who bore no malice.
- and/or cruelty, envy, greed, hatred, jealousy, revenge, spite It was an ufairly critical review full of spite and malice.

malicious ADJ

showing deliberate cruelty

- adv+ADJ deliberately, intentionally, particularly, truly The judge described it as an unpleasant and particularly malicious attack on an innocent person.
- ADJ+n remarks or criticism accusation, allegation, attack, claim, criticism, falsehood, gossip, rumour Huw dismissed these comments as malicious gossip.
- ▶ intention intent, purpose Children usually play with fire out of curiosity rather than malicious intent.
- and/or defamatory, deliberate, false, insulting, intimidating, spiteful, threatening, unfounded Every criticism was malicious and unfounded.

malnutrition N illness caused by lack of food

- adj+N severe acute, chronic, serious, severe The lack of variation in people's diets has led to chronic malnutrition.
- ▶ in children or unborn babies foetal, infant The identification of babies who suffered from foetal malnutrition is not easy.
- ▶ widespread common, rampant, rife, widespread Malnutrition was rife, causing many children to have rickets.

Usage The adjectives in these combinations come after the noun: Malnutrition was rampant. | • In some parts of India, malnutrition is extremely common.

- v+N have malnutrition face, have, suffer (from) One in five children suffers malnutrition on a daily basis.
- ▶ prevent or reduce malnutrition alleviate, combat, correct, prevent, reduce, tackle, treat Current advances in rice technology may be able to alleviate the severe malnutrition currently experienced.
- ▶ cause malnutrition cause, contribute to, lead to Mothers often give babies solid food too early, causing malnutrition.
- and/or physical or medical problems dehydration, disease, hunger, ill-health, malaria, starvation Most importantly, we want to end starvation and malnutrition, which affects billions of people.
- ▶ social problems illiteracy, insecurity, poverty The prosperous countries need to help the developing countries to overcome poverty, illiteracy and malnutrition.

management N

1 control and operation of a business or organization

- adj+N good effective, efficient, good, proper, sound, successful, sympathetic Integral to effective management is developing appropriate forms of evaluation.
- ▶ bad bad, poor Poor management will always impact a service regardless of size.
- ▶ general general, overall Many managers have moved on from accounting roles to general management .
- ▶ everyday day-to-day The board will endorse long-term direction rather than provide day-to-day management.
- ▶ business business, corporate Ann has over 26 years experience in corporate management.
- ▶ dealing with a particular area of work economic, environmental, financial, operational, strategic She is responsible for the company's strategic management and future planning.
- N+n system or method plan, practice, solution, strategy, system, technique, tool As with any management plan, actual performance should be regularly measured and monitored.
- ▶ structure framework, structure A new management structure was designed to speed up decisions.
- ▶ job function, position, role I went from supervisor to a management role.
- ▶ skills or experience experience, expertise, skills He is ex-Navy and brings with him all the management skills you'd expect from his background.
- ▶ style style People either like my management style or they don't.
- ▶ responsibility or decision decision, issue, policy, responsibility Management responsibilities increase with seniority.

▸ training training His original management training was gained from Manchester Business School.
▸ company or person company, consultancy, consultant In 1987, he left the Ministry of Defence to start his own management consultancy.

2 the people who manage a business or organization

• adj+N at a particular level middle, senior, top 11 per cent of senior management are women.
▸ new new The company opened under new management and is going strong to this day.
• N+n group of people board, committee, team The test results were welcomed by the management team.

3 the process of controlling or dealing with something

• n+N personal problems or injuries anger, pain, stress, weight, wound He had been on several anger management courses.
▸ public problems disease, flood, pest, traffic, waste Congestion has been reduced in urban areas through traffic management.
▸ project project Discover how you can really put your project management skills to work.
▸ money asset, debt, fund, investment, money Scottish Widows is one of Britain's largest asset management groups.
▸ difficult or risky situations crisis, disaster, risk It might be helpful to view Monday's events as a test in crisis management.
▸ resources energy, housing, resource, water Our advice on energy management can help you prepare for a low-carbon future.

manager N

someone whose organizes and controls part or all of an organization

• adj+N of a particular level assistant, deputy, junior, middle, senior, top Responsibilities would include keeping board members and senior managers up to date with government policies.
▸ immediately above you in an organization line If you need time off work, please ask your line manager.
▸ experienced experienced We are currently looking for an experienced manager for our Canterbury store.
▸ good effective, good, successful To be an effective manager, you must have a degree of freedom in how you use your time.
▸ of a whole business general The company has recently recruited Ian Welsh to be general manager of the motors business.
▸ of part of a business departmental, divisional, local, regional Ross Twyford is the Regional Manager of Interfleet's New Zealand office.
▸ temporary interim, temporary Our clients require talented interim managers for a wide variety of situations.
▸ of a particular area of work catering, commercial, financial, marketing, production, project, retail, sales, strategic, technical Please contact our Commercial Manager for a tailored quotation based on your specific needs.

• n+N bank, farm, hospital, shop, store, theatre Patients can also apply to the hospital managers to review their case.

managerial ADJ relating to the job of manager

• adv+ADJ predominantly, purely Initially, her role was that of a tax specialist, but in recent years she has moved into a predominantly managerial role.
• ADJ+n job career, job, occupation, position, post, role He has a managerial position within the security profession.
▸ responsibilities or qualities accountability, discretion, responsibilities, responsiveness, skills, style My day is split between my clinical work and my managerial responsibilities.
▸ bad qualities incompetence There are few automatic checks to managerial incompetence.

• and/or administrative, clinical, financial, operational, organizational, professional, supervisory, technical Many managerial and supervisory jobs are suitable for job sharing.

mandate N

the authority of an elected government to do things

• adj+N given in an election constitutional, democratic, election, electoral, popular With less than 30 per cent of the vote, they can hardly claim a popular mandate.
▸ clear clear, convincing, decisive, overwhelming, strong, sweeping The people have given us a clear mandate to be a voice on their behalf.
▸ new fresh, new, renewed The next election is about winning a renewed mandate to shape a future in which opportunities are available to everyone.

• v+N fulfil a mandate complete, discharge, exercise, fulfil We have no budgets of our own to fulfil the mandates we were elected on.
▸ extend a mandate extend The UN Security Council passed a resolution extending his mandate for 12 months.

• N+v end, expire He will not stand in next year's elections, and will retire when his mandate expires.

• N+for action, change, reform The new president took office in January, with a clear mandate for change.

manifest ADJ

obvious and easy to notice or understand

• adv+ADJ clearly, fully, increasingly, patently Their influence is clearly manifest in our religious literature.

• ADJ+n absurdity, contempt, disregard, injustice, nonsense, unfairness The present system is a manifest absurdity, which discredits Europe and its institutions.

manifesto N

a formal statement expressing the plans or aims of an organization, especially a political party

• v+N prepare a manifesto draft, draw up, prepare, produce We drafted a manifesto and got it accepted by the Party.
▸ publish a manifesto issue, launch, present, publish, unveil Their election manifesto was launched on 11th April.

▸ do what your manifesto says you will do carry out, carry through, implement We are determined to carry through the manifesto we were elected on.

- N+v call for sth, commit sb to do sth, outline sth, pledge sth, promise sth, say sth, set out sth, state sth The BNP's election manifesto pledged to 'encourage' immigrants to return to their country of origin.
- N+n commitment, pledge, promise The government failed to meet its manifesto commitments on public service reform.

manner N

1 the way in which something is done

- adj+N efficient or effective constructive, cost-effective, effective, efficient The main use of the plough is to clean snow from roads in an efficient manner.
- ▸ similar analogous, like, same, similar Each policy area is treated in a like manner.
- ▸ good enough acceptable, satisfactory We have not yet had our questions answered in a satisfactory manner.
- ▸ usual normal, traditional, usual Run the presentation in the usual manner, using the screen icon at the bottom left of the window.
- ▸ orderly controlled, orderly, structured, systematic Cars must be parked in an orderly manner.
- ▸ unplanned ad hoc Too often, testing is done in an ad hoc manner and too late in the development cycle.
- ▸ sensible appropriate, rational, responsible, safe, sensible The garbage collected was disposed of in a responsible manner.
- ▸ kind or fair equitable, humane, impartial, sensitive, sympathetic The policy is to deal with all calls in an understanding sympathetic manner, whilst offering the best possible advice.
- ▸ correct correct, proper You must use things like equipment in the proper manner.
- ▸ clear or simple accessible, concise, easy-to-read, easy-to-understand, logical, step-by-step, straightforward Colours, shapes, and graphics can be used to express ideas in a concise manner.
- ▸ at the right time timely In most cases, forces cannot be deployed abroad in a timely manner.

2 someone's way of behaving or speaking

- adj+N polite courteous, polite, respectful
- ▸ professional business-like, professional The ideal person will be of smart appearance with an outgoing but professional manner.
- ▸ bad anti-social, disorderly Teenagers were hanging around street corners, behaving in an anti-social manner.
- ▸ confident confident, outgoing She has a confident manner and loads of personality.
- ▸ calm calm, dignified, gentle Underneath this calm manner, there was a very strong sense of loyalty to those with him.
- ▸ bad aggressive, disparaging, patronising They try to intimidate you with an aggressive manner.
- ▸ friendly engaging, friendly, pleasant His friendly manner helped put me at ease.

- n+N bedside, telephone Any good doctor knows that his or her bedside manner is as important as any medicine.

3 accepted forms of polite behaviour [always plural]

- adj+N good excellent, exquisite, good, impeccable, perfect He seems a charming, gentlemanly sort with impeccable manners.
- ▸ bad bad, poor In certain countries, it is considered bad manners to make eye contact with a woman.

manoeuvre N

an action or movement that needs skill

- adj+N done in order to avoid something defensive, evasive Someone had put a line across the canal to snag our propeller, but we saw it in time and made an evasive manoeuvre.
- ▸ difficult or dangerous awkward, complex, complicated, difficult, risky, tricky He was excellent, taking us safely in to locks and doing all of the tricky manoeuvres.
- ▸ brave brave, daring Eventually, he took the lead with a brave manoeuvre at Paddock Hill Bend.
- ▸ types of manoeuvre bureaucratic, diplomatic, legal, political There have been desperate bureaucratic manoeuvres to try and deal with the crisis.
- ▸ done in order to get advantage for yourself clever, cynical The opposition saw the president's pledges as a cynical manoeuvre to allow him to retain his grip on power.
- ▸ of an aircraft acrobatic, aerial, aerobatic Once at a safe height, your instructor will demonstrate some basic aerobatic manoeuvres.
- ▸ of a vehicle braking, overtaking, reversing The crash was the result of an overtaking manoeuvre that went wrong.

- v+N carry out, complete, execute, perform Road safety campaigns need to focus on how to negotiate bends and junctions, and how to carry out overtaking manoeuvres.

manpower N

all the people who work in a particular place

- adj+N trained or skilled experienced, qualified, skilled, trained Our greatest problem was a lack of trained manpower.
- ▸ a lot abundant, ample, considerable, unlimited We have abundant manpower due to massive unemployment.
- ▸ available for work available By 1917, the army was using all of the available manpower.
- ▸ enough enough, necessary, sufficient Here, anyone who has the necessary manpower can plough land freely.
- ▸ not enough insufficient, limited, scarce After consideration, the YMCA decided that they had insufficient manpower to run the scheme.
- ▸ extra additional, extra, surplus Extra manpower from neighbouring fire stations was drafted in.
- ▸ types of manpower clerical, medical, military, police, technical, veterinary National Service provides military manpower relatively cheaply.

- v+N use manpower allocate, deploy, employ More than a quarter of their IT manpower is permanently deployed in non-productive 'fix and maintain' roles.
- ▸ reduce manpower budget, halve, reduce He promptly cut the army and navy and reduced manpower in both services.

▸ supply or recruit manpower provide, recruit, supply Imigration has supplied the manpower necessary for economic growth.
▸ need manpower need, require Enforcing department policy is an extensive task, which requires additional manpower.
▸ lack manpower lack They'd been told repeatedly the police lacked the manpower to pursue particular lines of inquiry.

• N+n shortage crisis, deficiency, shortage The manpower shortage caused by increased military drafts could no longer be filled.
▸ how manpower is used deployment, planning The key to proper manpower planning is to give staff enough incentive to work unsocial hours.
▸ needs requirements Many European countries still have military structures geared to territorial defence, with massive manpower requirements.
▸ supply reserves, resources Russia's manpower reserves were virtually limitless.
▸ costs costs One of the first things to break down in society was the criminal justice system, because of the manpower costs.

• n+of+N supply pool, reserve, reservoir, supply The dominions were important to Britain as they could provide a valuable reservoir of manpower.
▸ shortage lack, shortage There was a desperate shortage of medical manpower.

march N

a walk by a group of people protesting

• n+N anti-war, gay pride, hunger, peace, protest Campaigners fighting to save a North Wales hospital staged a protest march through a seaside resort.

• v+N go on a march attend, go on, join (in), participate in, take part in Along with more than a million others, I went on the peace march in London.
▸ lead a march lead John Burns, carrying a red flag, led a march through the capital.
▸ organize or hold a march hold, organize, plan, stage We have organised marches with thousands of people demanding that these multinationals are not given access to our lands.
▸ stop a march abandon, cancel, end, halt, stop The march was halted en route by the police.
▸ ban a march ban The Commissioner of the Metropolitan Police banned the march as politically motivated.

margin N

1 the amount a competition or election is won by

• adj+N small narrow, slender, slim, small, tight He was elected by only a narrow margin.
▸ large ample, comfortable, considerable, convincing, generous, huge, substantial, wide Estonia's 2001 win was by a very wide margin.
▸ winning winning Lindley scored a fine victory, extending his winning margin to almost seven seconds.

2 the difference between what a business pays for something and what they sell it for

• adj+N before tax gross, pre-tax Increasing gross margin entails increasing sales revenue or reducing the cost of the merchandise.
▸ after tax and other expenses net, operating The duty will wipe out any net margin made on shoe sales.
▸ small low, slim, small, tight The margins are low for tour operators.
▸ large fat INFORMAL, good, healthy, high, large These markets allow small producers to sell directly to consumers, giving them better margins.
▸ fairly large reasonable These prices should provide a reasonable profit margin for farms.

• v+N reduce a margin decrease, depress, diminish, erode, narrow, shrink, squeeze Rising rents squeezed margins for Dorfman's stores.
▸ increase a margin boost, improve, increase, maximise These notebooks are important for PC companies looking to boost their margins.
▸ maintain a margin maintain Maintaining an average gross margin of 25 per cent is very realistic.
▸ achieve a margin achieve, make By the third year, they were achieving a healthy margin of 30 per cent.

mark N

1 a small dirty, damaged, or coloured area

• adj+N difficult or impossible to remove permanent, stubborn On really stubborn marks, use a little neat ammonia on a damp cloth.
▸ dirty or unpleasant dirty, greasy, oily, unsightly There were greasy marks all over the windows.
▸ distinctive characteristic, distinctive The Jackdaw had a distinctive white mark on its neck.
▸ faint or small faint, slight, tiny The only visible remains were some very slight marks where the droplets had been.
▸ large or obvious big, dark, visible I have a big black mark from his tyre on my leathers.

• n+N types of mark bite, scorch, scratch, scuff, skid There were no skid marks or other signs on the roadway to indicate what had happened.
▸ made by a particular thing brush, bullet, claw, finger, grease, nail, paint, paw, teeth, tyre To remove grease marks from paper, sprinkle talcum powder over the grease mark and leave overnight.

• v+N make a mark leave, make You can chop vegetables or put a hot saucepan on it without leaving a mark.
▸ carry bear, carry, have All the fragments bear the unmistakable marks of machine saw cutting along their edges.

2 a particular level, stage, total etc that is reached [usually singular]

• v+N reach a mark hit, reach Troop levels at one stage had reached the 30,000 mark.
▸ pass a mark exceed, pass, surpass, top What's more interesting is that the figure nationally has passed the 50 per cent mark, at 61 per cent.
▸ be close to reaching a mark approach, near His CD and video sales are fast approaching the five million mark.

3 something showing a particular quality

• N+of high quality or achievement achievement, distinction, excellence, greatness This award is widely recognized as a mark of excellence.
▸ thanks appreciation, gratitude As a mark of gratitude for his service to the Club, the Directors awarded him a lifetime membership.

- ▸ positive feelings affection, approbation, esteem, honour, respect, trust Both teams will wear black armbands as a mark of respect.
- ▸ negative feelings contempt, displeasure, disrespect Prolonged eye contact when greeting the Chinese for the first time may be seen as a mark of disrespect.

marked ADJ clear and noticeable

- • ADJ+n difference contrast, difference, discrepancy, disparity, variation This pattern stands in marked contrast to the national trend.
- ▸ similarity resemblance, similarity They found a 'marked similarity' in the responses of those who chose to continue on into higher education and those who did not.
- ▸ decrease or worsening decline, decrease, deterioration, drop, reduction, slowdown This year, the entries fell from 400 to 130, a marked decrease.
- ▸ increase or improvement improvement, increase, rise, upturn The additional measures put in place in December had resulted in a marked improvement in the company's performance.
- ▸ tendency to do/not do something preference, reluctance, tendency, trend In the Cambrian pronunciation, there is a marked tendency to contract, or shorten the words.
- ▸ effect effect, impact, influence His plays had a marked influence on the development of French drama.

market N
1 trade in goods of a particular kind

- • adj+N with a lot of competition competitive, crowded, tough In a highly competitive market, pharmaceutical companies are under intense pressure to increase efficiency.
- ▸ successful booming, buoyant, healthy, profitable, thriving People are rebuilding MGs again and the spares market is booming.
- ▸ not successful depressed, sluggish, weak When the market is in a depressed state, properties can be difficult to sell.
- ▸ changing often volatile The market was initially extremely volatile, with sales swinging wildly from year to year.
- ▸ with no restrictions free, open There is no way of controlling a free market.
- ▸ illegal black, illegal There is a growing trade in illegally obtained fish, and some large specimens may fetch as much as £1000 each on the black market.
- ▸ worldwide global, worldwide The pace of change in global financial markets is accelerating.
- ▸ overseas foreign, international, overseas If you want to service overseas markets, you'll have to think about using foreign language pages on your website.
- ▸ in your own country or area domestic, home, internal, local We are a small family business which specialises in better quality carpets for the domestic market.
- ▸ types of market commercial, export, financial, rental, retail Why have the various sections of the retail market retained 'old-style' pricing strategies?

- • n+N advertising, car, energy, housing, insurance, labour, livestock, mortgage, oil, property, software The Internet advertising market is growing rapidly.

- • v+N enter a market break into, enter, get into, move into, penetrate, re-enter Digisoft announced plans to enter the computer games market.
- ▸ be the most powerful company in a market capture, corner, dominate, lead, monopolize As an after-work drinking spot, Occo is pretty much cornering the local market.
- ▸ put a product on the market bring sth to, put sth on Just over one in ten properties are put on the market by corporate landlords.
- ▸ take a product off the market take sth off, withdraw sth from The drug has now been withdrawn from the market for safety reasons.
- ▸ become available on the market appear on, come on, come onto, hit, reach You might have heard of a few great offers coming on the broadband market recently.
- ▸ come onto a market in large quantities flood, saturate We need to stop goods which are inefficient in energy flooding our markets.
- ▸ supply a market serve, service, supply Birds like these have a high commercial value and are often taken to supply the falconry market.
- ▸ make rules that control a market regulate It is essential that this market is regulated efficiently and effectively.
- ▸ remove rules that control a market deregulate, liberalize The Government's action plan takes on board the OFT's recommendations for liberalising this important market.
- ▸ find out about a market analyse, look at, research, test Take the time to research the car insurance market for the best deals.
- ▸ make a market operate in a wrong or harmful way disrupt, distort It's not the market itself which is the problem, but the market distorted by banks and monopolies.
- ▸ make good use of a market capitalize on, exploit, tap into The company needs to be applauded for exploiting a new market.
- ▸ make a market more stable stabilise The objective behind capping the rent is to stabilise the market.

- • N+v get bigger expand, grow, open up The market in postal services opened up to competition.
- ▸ improve pick up, recover, rise, stabilise What happens next will depend very much on whether the market picks up in August.
- ▸ get smaller be down, shrink Both domestic and foreign markets shrank because of a lack of money.
- ▸ get worse be down, decline, fall, slow The traditional soft drinks market is down 8 per cent.
- ▸ fail collapse, crash, fail The company was initially very successful, but the motorcycle market collapsed after the first world war.

Another way of saying that a market fails is to say that the bottom drops out of the market or the bottom falls out of the market: The bottom fell out of the market due to changes in leisure interests.

- ▸ change evolve, mature The market is continuously evolving to ensure magazines carry on appealing to their target audience.
- ▸ make sth happen demand sth, dictate sth, force sth You have to go with what the market dictates.

- • N+n share penetration, position, share A supplier that charges significantly more than its rivals is likely to lose market share.

- ▸ leader leader We are the market leaders in the sale and acquisition of leisure businesses.
- ▸ economy or economics economics, economy The market economy is able to respond more easily to the wishes of the consumers than the large official health care systems.
- ▸ value or price price, value The property was offered under market value for a quick let.
- ▸ research or information analysis, data, intelligence, knowledge, research, testing Your market research should contain details of many target companies.
- ▸ conditions or demand conditions, demand, failure, forces, trends Farmers were guaranteed a price for their crops regardless of market forces.
- ▸ part or area area, sector, segment The downturn has affected almost every market segment.

2 all the people who buy a product

- adj+N new emerging, new, potential With over 40 million people worldwide with Scottish roots, there is a sizeable potential market.
- ▸ growing burgeoning, expanding, growing Computer companies are beginning to realize that the elderly population is a growing market.
- ▸ large big, huge, large, mass, sizeable China has the potential to become a huge market for the company.
- ▸ specialized niche Their organic products supply a fast-growing niche market.

- v+N try to sell things to a particular market aim at, cater for, target The company has been targeting the Chinese market.
- ▸ create or expand a market build, develop, expand, grow, open, open up Jeremy spends much of his time overseas, developing new markets. ◾ They believe they can grow the market by 80 per cent in two years.

market V
to use advertising and other methods to sell something

- adv+V a lot actively, aggressively, heavily A low quality product aggressively marketed will often outsell a high quality product with passive marketing.
- ▸ well or successfully cleverly, effectively, properly, successfully The end result has been successfully marketed and sold into many high street retail chains.
- ▸ in many countries globally, internationally, worldwide The software will be marketed worldwide.
- ▸ commercially commercially Senior politicians and business figures are joining forces to devise and commercially market environmental initiatives.

marketable ADJ
a marketable product or person is one that people want to buy or have

- adv+ADJ easily, extremely, highly, hugely, readily Graduates from these courses are highly marketable.
- ADJ+n product asset, commodity, product Radio is a marketable commodity and programme controllers are fighting for listeners.
- ▸ skill or qualification qualification, skill As an LLB graduate, you will be in possession of a very marketable qualification.

marketing N a company's ways of encouraging people to buy its products or services

- adj+N good clever, creative, innovative, shrewd, slick, sophisticated Is this really going to benefit the learner, or is it just more clever marketing?
- ▸ successful effective, successful Successful marketing relies on effective targeting.
- ▸ using all possible methods aggressive, vigorous There must be aggressive marketing to ensure that drivers are made aware that the train offers a viable alternative.
- ▸ carefully planned strategic, targeted We specialize in strategic marketing and corporate communications.
- ▸ aimed at many people mass The use of the mobile phone as a mass marketing tool has not gone unnoticed over the years.
- ▸ not asked for unsolicited Your email address will not be circulated and we will not use it for unsolicited marketing.
- ▸ types of marketing direct, in-store, interactive, internet, mobile, on-line, viral Online marketing begins with the initial concept and design of your website.

- N+n plan campaign, effort, initiative, plan, programme, strategy A high-profile marketing campaign appears to be showing early signs of success.
- ▸ method or idea concept, gimmick, ploy, tactic, technique, tool Too many companies offer 'green' electricity tariffs that are little more than marketing gimmicks.
- ▸ people assistant, consultant, department, director, guru, manager, professional, specialist, team For years now, marketing gurus have been trying to improve on the world's best-seller, the Bible.
- ▸ company agency, company, consultancy, firm In 1996, he co-founded a marketing consultancy in Sydney.
- ▸ written material brochure, literature, material We do not send out unsolicited marketing material to anyone.
- ▸ excitement and interest hype Do not believe all the marketing hype on the covers.

marketplace N an area of business activity

- adj+N with many companies competing competitive, crowded, huge, overcrowded, saturated How do you distinguish yourself in a crowded marketplace?
- ▸ international global, globalized, international This legislation would be a further blow to European business in a demanding global marketplace.
- ▸ changing a lot changing, ever-changing, evolving, volatile The International Cocoa Organisation was set up to encourage price stability in a historically volatile marketplace.

marriage N
the relationship between people who are married to each other

- adj+N unhappy disastrous, loveless, stormy, tempestuous, troubled, unhappy She is tired of being in a loveless marriage.
- ▸ violent abusive, violent With more financial independence, women would not have to be trapped in a violent and abusive marriage.
- ▸ ending in divorce failed Apart from his failed marriage, Maurice was relatively successful with women.
- ▸ not producing children childless She was brought up by Tom and his second wife Laura, whose marriage was childless.
- ▸ not real sham A woman who had set up sham marriages to help Indian men skip immigration procedures was sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment.
- ▸ happy happy, perfect, stable, strong We wish them well for the future and hope they enjoy a long and happy marriage.
- ▸ between people of different faiths or races inter-faith, interracial, mixed, mixed-faith, mixed-race Judaism did not permit mixed marriages.
- ▸ between gay people gay, same-sex In October 2004, the Spanish government approved a draft law to legalise same-sex marriage.
- ▸ arranged by parents arranged She married for love at a time when arranged marriages were the norm.
- ▸ when one partner does not want to be married forced A marriage which takes place without the permission of the two people involved is defined as a forced marriage.

- v+N end a marriage annul, dissolve, end, terminate She appealed to the Pope to annul her marriage.
- ▸ destroy a marriage destroy, doom, ruin, wreck His obsessive behaviour was wrecking his marriage.
- ▸ save a marriage save In a last ditch attempt to save their marriage, they went to counselling.
- ▸ consider marriage contemplate, intend, talk about, think about In the summer of 1928, Jim was contemplating marriage to a local girl.
- ▸ propose marriage propose She has many admirers, including the wealthy Lord Augustus who proposes marriage to her.
- ▸ make a marriage legal or official consummate, legalize, solemnize The marriage was consummated and on 7 January 1796 a daughter, Charlotte, was born to the couple.
- ▸ ban a type of marriage ban, forbid, prohibit In 1950, Mao introduced the Marriage Reform Law which banned forced marriages.
- ▸ recognize a type of marriage recognize He also criticised the government's refusal to recognise same-sex marriages.

- N+v fail break down, break up, collapse, crumble, disintegrate, end, fail, founder When Billy was three, his parents' marriage broke down and his father left.
- ▸ survive or last last, survive My father had many affairs, but somehow his marriage survived.

- N+n breakdown, break-up, ceremony, certificate, contract, guidance, license, proposal, vows The stress stemming from job insecurity was found to be a major factor in marriage breakdown.

married ADJ

having a husband or wife

- adv+ADJ happily/unhappily happily, unhappily I am a happily married man with three children.
- ▸ recently newly, recently Everyone present at the wedding ceremony walks up to the front to congratulate the newly married couple.
- ▸ legally lawfully, legally This pension will only be paid to legally married partners.

marshal V

gather and organize people or things effectively

- adv+V ably, expertly, superbly, well Tate's return was a welcome one, and he dominated a well-marshalled defence.

- V+n facts or thoughts arguments, evidence, facts, thoughts He has collected and marshalled his evidence well and presents it in a persuasive manner.
- ▸ resources resources We are by the side of Britain in marshalling all resources to fight the menace of terrorism, no matter where it is.
- ▸ people for defending defence He captained the side and marshalled the defence superbly.
- ▸ people for fighting army, forces, troops The 33rd Division was marshalling its troops along the western bank of the river.

marvel V

show or feel surprise or admiration

- V+at sight architecture, scenery, sight, spectacle, vista We were able to marvel at this sight for several minutes before the group of lions moved off.
- ▸ positive quality beauty, brilliance, grandeur, magnificence, wonders I never fail to marvel at the wonders of technology!
- ▸ skill ability, ingenuity, skill Museums display early motor engines and people can marvel at their ingenuity.

- v+V can only, continue to, have to You could only marvel at the organisation and planning involved.

mass N

1 a large number or amount of people or things; an amount of a substance without a clear shape

- adj+N when many people are close together and moving about heaving, seething, teeming The crowd was now a sweating, seething mass of bodies pressing up against the stage.
- ▸ when people or things are very similar broad, undifferentiated This idea would be rejected by the broad mass of people. • It is important not to treat the sales force as an undifferentiated mass.
- ▸ confused or vague amorphous, confused, shapeless, swirling, tangled Polymers consist of a tangled mass of very long molecules in which the atoms are joined by strong covalent bonds.
- ▸ stretching over a wide area sprawling They looked down at the sprawling mass of the city below them.
- ▸ solid dense, solid A blood clot is a solid mass of blood.
- ▸ very large great, huge, large, vast Though the greatest mass of nerve cells is collected in the brain, the nervous system links all parts of the body.

- N+of of people in general humanity, mankind, people, the population I could see no individuals, just a mass of humanity following orders.
- ▸ of particular classes the peasantry, the peasants, the proletariat, the workers The success of the revolution depended on the working class being able to win the mass of the peasantry.

- ▶ of information evidence, information, material The mass of material to be considered is overwhelming.

2 ordinary people who are not rich or famous [always plural]

- adj+N downtrodden, exploited, huddled, oppressed, proletarian, toiling, uneducated, unwashed The oppressed masses rose up in a bid to secure justice for themselves.
- v+N entertain, rally, reach, rouse The leaders began rallying the masses in their cause.

mass ADJ affecting a large number of people

- ADJ+n movement of people emigration, exodus, immigration, migration, mobilization, movement There was much suffering and loss of life and a mass exodus.
- ▶ killing or death destruction, execution, extermination, extinction, killing, murder, slaughter, suicide Mass murder by the state is not rare.
- ▶ grave grave 90 or more soldiers were buried in a mass grave in a field at St Venant.
- ▶ protest or fighting demonstration, movement, protest, struggle The regime organised mass demonstrations. ◉ They called for the formation of a new party based on the mass anti-war movement.
- ▶ feeling hysteria In some areas there were deep social crises and a few outbreaks of mass hysteria.
- ▶ unemployment unemployment He was brought up in a community in which there was mass unemployment.
- ▶ tourism tourism It was a wonderful area, largely unspoilt by mass tourism.
- ▶ audience audience His plays failed to reach a mass audience as he had hoped they might.

massive ADJ

very large or great; very severe

- adv+ADJ very absolutely, quite, really, so, truly The BBC Internet infrastructure is absolutely massive – it's actually a network unto itself.
- ▶ fairly fairly, pretty INFORMAL Their product range is pretty massive, and they sell just about everything.
- ▶ possibly potentially The workload is potentially massive, but all workloads are.

- ADJ+n amount amount, quantity The program can deal with massive amounts of data.
- ▶ increase or decrease boost, expansion, growth, hike INFORMAL, increase, influx, rise There have been massive increases in the prices of many journals.
- ▶ task effort, task, undertaking The compilation of such a comprehensive guide is a massive undertaking.
- ▶ effect effect, impact Her resignation had a massive impact on the organisation.
- ▶ amount of money cuts, debt, investment, saving, subsidy Don't run up a massive debt in the first couple of months.
- ▶ success hit, success The event was a massive success.
- ▶ event that causes problems or sadness blow Losing a second match would be a massive blow to his world title hopes.
- ▶ attack or explosion bombardment, earthquake, explosion, retaliation Suddenly, there was a massive explosion.
- ▶ medical event bleeding, haemorrhage, heart attack In the early hours of the morning, she had a massive brain haemorrhage.

master V

learn something or control something

- adv+V quickly or easily easily, quickly He exhibited widely and quickly mastered new technical advances.
- ▶ completely completely, fully, properly, really, successfully, thoroughly, truly I never fully mastered the technique, but the theory was fine.
- ▶ in the end eventually, finally I had done it! I had finally mastered the art of making bread.

- V+n the basics basics, essentials, fundamentals Having mastered the basics of guitar playing, you quickly realise what a versatile instrument the guitar is.
- ▶ a skill art, craft, knack, skill, trick I just can't master the art of multi-tasking!
- ▶ task challenge, task Our course will help you identify your strengths and master the challenges of your new job.
- ▶ idea or subject concept, material, subject Maths tutorials are designed to help you master the material in the introductory coursebook.
- ▶ language grammar, language, vocabulary For someone who learnt slowly, she did well to master one language and have an understanding of a second.
- ▶ something complicated complexities, intricacies Sailors master the complexities of navigating their ships through various weather and sea conditions.

masterpiece N

an excellent painting, book, piece of music etc

- adj+N types of masterpiece architectural, artistic, choral, cinematic, comic, culinary, literary, musical, operatic Cambridge has a rich legacy of architectural masterpieces.
- ▶ recognized/not recognized acknowledged, forgotten, lost, neglected, undisputed Titus Andronicus is Shakespeare's neglected masterpiece.
- ▶ lasting enduring, timeless Few now challenge the fact that he wrote some of the enduring masterpieces of the late 19th and early 20th centuries.
- ▶ small or minor mini, miniature, minor 'My Dark Life' and 'The Bridge I Burned' are both miniature pop masterpieces.
- ▶ complete absolute, great, true This film is an absolute masterpiece.

- v+N create a masterpiece compose, create, paint, produce, write Now you can create your own culinary masterpiece.
- ▶ be recognized as a masterpiece be considered, be hailed as, be recognized as, be regarded as I kept asking myself why this book is considered a masterpiece.

- N+of architecture, art, cinema, comedy, craftsmanship, design, engineering, fiction, literature, painting, writing The Palace is a masterpiece of English baroque architecture.

mastery N great knowledge or skill

- adj+N complete or great absolute, consummate, great, perfect, supreme, total It is not his style that is so amazing, but his absolute mastery of it.
- ▸ showing no effort effortless Soderbergh's seemingly effortless mastery of his medium goes from strength to strength.
- ▸ types of mastery intellectual, musical, technical, technological Her technical mastery is unquestionable.
- v+N get or have mastery achieve, acquire, attain, develop, gain, have, obtain Information and skills will be repeated until mastery is achieved.
- ▸ show mastery demonstrate, display, show The topic must allow you to make a contribution to existing knowledge and demonstrate your mastery of the subject.

match N
1 a game in which players or teams compete

- adj+N types of match away, first-class, friendly, home, live, one-day, testimonial In a mark of gratitude for his service to the Club, the Directors awarded him a testimonial match.
- ▸ in a competition final, qualifying, quarter-final, semi-final, first-round, second-round etc She won her third-round match against Davis.
- ▸ close close, competitive, hard-fought, tense, tight, tough Our last game, a friendly against a Scottish team, was an extremely close match.
- ▸ very important because it decides something crucial This will be a crucial match that we must win!
- ▸ enjoyable entertaining, exciting, good, thrilling A draw was a fair result in an entertaining enough match given the soft ground.
- v+N win, lose or draw a match concede, draw, level, lose, win The first team to capture the flag will win the match.
- ▸ decide how a match ends clinch INFORMAL, decide That was the point that finally clinched the match.
- ▸ play a match play We have played some friendly matches at the new Sports Centre this term.
- ▸ be in charge of a match referee, umpire You are refereeing a first-round match.

2 a thing that combines with or looks the same as something else

- adj+N approximate, close, exact, good, ideal, perfect, suitable Exact colour match cannot be guaranteed.
- v+N find If you are looking for something in particular, just give us a ring and we will try to find your ideal match.

match V
1 be the same as something; to combine well with something else

- adv+V closely or exactly closely, equally, evenly, exactly, perfectly, precisely Even though the music was improvised, it perfectly matched the action on the screen.
- ▸ approximately broadly, roughly Professor Reynolds said: 'Our findings broadly match those from other countries'.
- V+n criteria, demand, description, expectations, needs, profile, requirements, specification You can set up a free Email Alert to tell you when a job matching your criteria is advertised.

2 achieve the same amount or level as something; to provide something that is equal in amount or level to something else

- V+n money donation, funding, funds Certain companies are prepared to match donations to a charity by their employees.
- ▸ growth or speed growth, increase, pace, rise Our office failed to match the growth of the rest of the company. • The pace of reform has to match the pace of change.

material N
1 a substance

- adj+N in a natural state raw As industry gathered pace, good sources of raw materials and power could turn a small town into a city.

Usage Material is usually plural in this combination.

- ▸ waste waste The amount of recycling of waste material has increased hugely.

Usage Material is usually plural in this combination.

- ▸ dangerous or radioactive hazardous, radioactive, toxic Radioactive materials are used extensively in medicine, agriculture, research, and manufacturing.
- ▸ recycled or recyclable recyclable, recycled Wherever possible, recycled materials were used.
- ▸ likely to catch fire combustible, flammable, inflammable Building sites contain a lot of highly flammable material.
- ▸ living or from something that was alive genetic, natural, organic Within each organism lies a unique set of genetic material that encodes the characteristics of that organism.
- ▸ artificial artificial, man-made, synthetic The cover is made of synthetic material.
- n+N building, construction, insulation, packaging, roofing, writing Alternative roofing materials were sought and the demand for slate never again recovered its former level.
- v+N dispose of, reclaim, recycle, reprocess, reuse, use There's still some debate as to how best you dispose of biodegradable materials.

2 information, ideas or documents

- adj+N in a particular form audio-visual, electronic, interactive, online, photographic, printed, unpublished, video, web-based Students are expected to work through the various online material that is provided.
- ▸ of a particular type or for a particular purpose educational, historical, illustrative, pornographic, promotional The promotional material from the company implied that the product was available now.
- ▸ secret or private confidential, sensitive Do not send sensitive material in email.
- ▸ not suitable inappropriate, indecent, unsuitable He was sacked for downloading inappropriate material from the Internet.

▸ real or original authentic, original The Internet is an excellent source of authentic language material for teaching purposes.

• n+N for business marketing, publicity Ideas for new publicity materials are welcome.
▸ for education or research background, course, reading, reference, self-study, source, teaching, training The walls and ceilings were brightly decorated with the children's own work and excellent teaching materials.
▸ types of material archive, copyright The precious collections of books and archive material published during the bombardment.

material ADJ relating to money and possessions, not emotions

• ADJ+n gain, goods, possessions, prosperity, resources, rewards, wealth We have the human and material resources available to achieve sustainable development.

matter N

1 something being discussed, considered, or dealt with

• adj+N serious or urgent/not serious or urgent important, minor, pressing, routine, serious, trivial, urgent Obviously, if the matter is urgent, it will be attended to as soon as possible.

You can say that something is no laughing matter to emphasize that it is serious: Whilst the image conjured up may be amusing, on reflection it's hardly a laughing matter.

▸ easy/difficult complex, complicated, contentious, easy, no easy, no simple, simple, straightforward How best to tackle this is no simple matter.

• v+N raise a matter bring before sb, bring to sb's attention, bring up, raise, refer to sb, report Is there anyone else I can refer the matter to?
▸ discuss or consider a matter consider, consult (sb) on, debate, discuss, talk about, think about The Committee discussed this matter at its meeting on 14 February.
▸ deal with a matter address, deal with, handle, intervene in, investigate, look into He/she will listen to your concerns, investigate the matter, and then report back to you.
▸ decide a matter clarify, decide, resolve, settle This resolves a matter which has been of concern for a number of years.
▸ involve a matter relate to This question will not be discussed at the meeting as it relates to a matter that is outside the deparment's concern.

You can use concerning and regarding to mean 'about a matter': For further details regarding this matter, please contact our Head Office.

▸ take a matter further pursue, take further We might have to pursue the matter through the courts.

You can use the expression let the matter drop when someone is not taking a matter further: We decided to let the matter drop and said no more about it.

• N+v affect, appertain to, concern, pertain to, relate to It is important to understand that matters which relate to children can be brought before a court at any time.

2 a particular type of substance

• adj+N physical dry, inorganic, organic, solid, vegetable All soils contain some percentage of nitrogen, which is obtained from the organic matter.
▸ for reading printed, reading A number of countries require imported printed matter to be marked with the country of origin.

mature ADJ

grown to adult size or behaving in a sensible way, like an adult

• adv+ADJ in a particular way emotionally, physically, sexually, spiritually I was of the opinion that he was an emotionally mature, intelligent man of the world.
▸ very or surprisingly astonishingly, incredibly, particularly, remarkably, surprisingly, truly, very If you ask what they like, you get a range of surprisingly mature responses.
▸ completely fully Most of the trees are now fully mature.
▸ fairly fairly, quite, reasonably, relatively You need to be a fairly mature reader to cope with the ideas discussed.

mature V

1 become adult or start behaving like an adult

• adv+V quickly/slowly/early/late early, fast, late, quickly, rapidly, slowly Children who mature late, comparatively speaking, are generally smaller than their peers.
▸ in a particular way emotionally, intellectually, physically, psychologically, sexually, spiritually As she continued to mature spiritually, the poems continued to flow.

2 to develop a pleasant strong flavour

• adv+V quickly/slowly fast, quickly, slowly The wine is left to mature slowly in the cellars.
▸ naturally or well beautifully, naturally, nicely, traditionally Cheese requires time to mature naturally.

• n+V cheese, whisky, wine Wines mature in either stainless steel tanks or large oak vats.

maturity N

1 the qualities and behaviour of a sensible adult

• adj+N types of maturity emotional, intellectual, moral, psychological, spiritual Spiritual maturity isn't like chronological age.
▸ great astonishing, remarkable Children understand the message with astonishing maturity.

• v+N get or have maturity achieve, attain, gain, possess, reach He possesses a maturity well beyond his years.
▸ lack maturity lack If we lack the maturity and wisdom to act wisely, then we ask for help.
▸ show maturity demonstrate, display, show Sixth-form students demonstrate considerable maturity.

2 full growth or completed development

• adj+N full, physiological, reproductive, sexual, skeletal Males reach sexual maturity at 5–6 years old, females at 3–5 years.

- v+N reach maturity achieve, attain, gain, reach It takes 3 to 4 years for the spider to reach maturity.
- ▸ approach maturity approach, near A tree such as this, nearing maturity, would not be growing as rapidly as a younger specimen.

maximize V make something as large as possible

- V+n money or value gains, profitability, profits, return, revenue, value, yield The methods used are designed to maximize profits, always at the expense of the animals.
- ▸ chances chances, likelihood To truly maximize your chances of getting interviews, the time to act is now.
- ▸ how well something works effectiveness, efficiency, performance, potential, productivity, throughput Colleges have been driven by new public management practice in an attempt to maximize efficiency.
- ▸ extent to which people take part in something attendance, participation We hope to maximize employee participation by giving them direct access to information about the scheme.
- ▸ sales sales Using the Internet as a marketing tool will help your company maximize sales.

maximum ADJ

the largest possible in amount, size, or number

- ADJ+n measurements depth, height, length, speed, temperature, weight, width Remember that the maximum length of any consultation should be no more than 20 minutes.
- ▸ punishment fine, penalty, sentence The maximum penalty is an unlimited fine.
- ▸ amount or number amount, capacity, dose, limit, number, score, size, value The maximum score that could be achieved was 35.
- ▸ abstract qualities advantage, benefit, comfort, efficiency, enjoyment, flexibility The vouchers come in £5, £10 & £25 denominations for maximum flexibility.
- and/or allowable, permissible, possible, recommended Note that the upper voltage line of each pair shows the maximum allowable current under ideal conditions.

maximum N

the largest possible number, amount, or degree

- adj+N recommended or allowed allowable, legal, permitted, recommended, statutory All offenders will be prosecuted to the maximum allowable under current copyright laws.
- ▸ fixed absolute, specified, stated Rent is paid according to the number of moorings within the specified maximum.
- v+N reach or exceed a maximum attain, exceed, reach Average sales volumes are 1.6 tonnes per year and reach a maximum of three tonnes per year.
- ▸ set a maximum allow, permit A maximum of 2 hours is permitted for each customer.

meal N

an occasion when you eat, such as breakfast, lunch, or dinner

- adj+N good decent, delicious, excellent, gourmet, lovely, sumptuous, tasty After our delicious meal, we prepared for the afternoon excursion.
- ▸ small/large big, hearty, heavy, light, slap-up INFORMAL, snack, square The Green Lounge Cafe is the ideal place for a hearty meal, cup of tea or a quick snack. ◉ School dinner is often the only square meal they get in the day.
- ▸ biggest meal in the day main We have our main meal in the evening.
- ▸ healthy balanced, healthy, nourishing, nutritious A consistent effort to eat healthy meals is the key to losing weight.
- ▸ how many courses two-course, 3-course etc The price for the four-course meal (excluding wine) has been set at £35.
- ▸ fresh/not fresh frozen, home-cooked, prepared, ready-cooked, ready-made The company is also looking into the provision of ready-cooked frozen meals.
- ▸ cooked and served hot hot We will ensure that a hot meal is delivered to every old person every day.
- ▸ where people serve themselves from a table buffet A buffet meal will be served in the course of the evening.
- ▸ served on a plane in-flight Huge savings can be made by not serving in-flight meals.
- v+N cook a meal cook, prepare Everyone takes a turn in helping to cook one evening meal.
- ▸ eat a meal digest, eat, have, snatch Be regular in your meal times and eat your main meal in the middle of the day. ◉ I usually snatched my meals in the canteen, when time allowed.
- ▸ order a meal order I can read a newspaper in French and order a meal in a French restaurant.
- ▸ miss a meal miss, skip Eat regularly and do not skip meals.
- ▸ provide a meal provide, serve A total of some 400 meals are served each working day.

meaning N

the thing, action, feeling, or idea that a word or words represent

- adj+N basic basic, literal, ordinary, original, plain The words have a literal meaning that we can easily understand.
- ▸ hidden or deep deep, hidden, inner, metaphorical There are quite a few possible hidden meanings to this film.
- ▸ when words are not used in their normal meaning figurative, metaphorical, symbolic Some words have both literal and metaphorical meanings, for example 'to hammer'.
- ▸ more than one double, multiple The project aims to cast new light on the multiple meanings of democracy.
- ▸ clear clear He didn't express himself too well, but the meaning was clear: he did not want to come with us.
- ▸ exact exact, precise You must give the precise meaning of what you are being asked.
- ▸ true actual, intended, real, true The real meaning of Christmas is so much more evident in a smaller community.

▸ same or different different, same Sometimes different words will carry the same meaning.

• v+N give meaning ascribe, assign, attach, give There may be more than one symbolic meaning attached to the lighthouse in the novel.
▸ have or get meaning acquire, get, have, take on Viewed from this perspective, the issues take on a whole new meaning.
▸ find meaning discover, find Help your children to find the meanings of words by showing them how to use a dictionary efficiently.
▸ understand meaning catch, decipher, determine, get, grasp, guess, infer, understand The dog must be able to understand the meaning of the word 'no'.
▸ explain meaning clarify, define, explain, interpret The draft policy guidance is also welcome in that it helps to clarify the meaning of social inclusion.
▸ communicate meaning communicate, convey, express In art, images need to be read and understood if they are to communicate their meaning.

meaningful ADJ

serious, useful or important; having a meaning

• adv+ADJ in a particular way or area biologically, clinically, personally, physically, semantically, socially, statistically Only three trials were of sufficient power to detect a clinically meaningful difference.
▸ very deeply, highly, profoundly, really, truly, very Listening to music is profoundly meaningful.

• ADJ+n discussion consultation, conversation, dialogue, discussion You may find yourself having deep and meaningful conversations with total strangers.
▸ relationship interaction, relationship Some people felt that their disability prevented them from having meaningful social relationships with their peers.
▸ activity contribution, engagement, involvement, occupation, participation Below are 3 examples of projects which have used meaningful occupation to help change peoples lives.
▸ conclusion or comparison comparison, conclusion The response was large enough to draw meaningful conclusions about local views.
▸ result result We shall not get any meaningful results form this flawed piece of research.
▸ way manner, way Finally, the seventh phase is to synthesise the data in a meaningful manner.
▸ when a meaning is expressed without words gesture, glance, look He gave me a meaningful glance, as if to say 'That's enough'.

• v+ADJ be, become, consider sth, prove, seem Her life only became meaningful when she was able to make decisions for herself. ◉ This data was ignored for the purposes of the analysis as it was considered less meaningful.

means N

a method for doing or achieving something

• adj+N effective cost-effective, effective, efficient, excellent, powerful, reliable Massage is itself a powerful means of relaxation.
▸ main chief, dominant, primary, prime Councils still rely on landfill as the primary means of waste disposal.
▸ only only, sole CVs will not be accepted as a sole means of application.
▸ useful or essential convenient, essential, invaluable, key, useful, valuable, vital Taxis are an invaluable means of door-to-door transport for many people. ◉ 'Park and Ride' is used a key means of reducing congestion on the roads.
▸ reasonable or legal acceptable, legal, legitimate, proportionate, viable Due to economic and environmental reasons, the canal is no longer a viable means of transporting goods.
▸ preferred preferred When travelling further afield train travel is the preferred means of transport.
▸ not using force non-violent, peaceful They hoped to achieve their objectives by peaceful means.
▸ different alternative, different, other I had no other means of repaying them for the help they had given me.

• v+N find or look for a means devise, discover, find, seek In 1819, Sir John Herschel discovered a means by which photographs could be fixed and therefore stored.
▸ provide a means afford, establish, offer, provide College grades afford a means of recording intellectual efficiency.
▸ be or become a means be, become, constitute Previously a community relations site, it became an invaluable means of communicating with interested clients.

If something is done purely in order to achieve an aim, you can refer to it as a means to an end: We monitor the projects that deal with standards, either as a means to an end, or an end in itself.

▸ have/not have a means lack, possess Even had they possessed the means to help, they lacked the will.

measure N

1 an action to achieve or deal with something [usually plural]

• adj+N that prevent or protect something precautionary, preventative, preventive, protective The company is withdrawing the drug as a precautionary measure.
▸ severe draconian, drastic, harsh, punitive, severe, stringent, strong, tough Drastic measures must be taken to reduce the overall use of toxic substances.
▸ temporary interim, short-term, temporary It was decided to freeze the Charity's bank accounts as a precautionary, interim measure.
▸ necessary, suitable or effective appropriate, effective, necessary Modern pest control measures are effective, but cannot be relied upon entirely.
▸ special or extra additional, special The programme will involve special measures to challenge the gifted and talented students.
▸ to correct something corrective, remedial If you take corrective measures, you can bounce back from exhaustion in a week or two.
▸ to save money, energy or water cost-cutting, cost-saving, energy-saving, water-saving In view of the budget deficit, a wide range of cost-cutting measures was introduced.

• n+N austerity, conservation, efficiency, emergency, safety, security The additional security measures, imposed last year, remain in place.

- v+N introduce or suggest measures announce, identify, introduce, outline, recommend The Chancellor announced measures to boost funds for health research.
- ▶ use measures adopt, implement, take, undertake Drastic measures were taken to improve the situation.
- ▶ make someone use measures enforce, impose We will continue to take, and enforce, national measures to conserve stocks.
- ▶ oppose measures oppose We oppose any measures which will further erode the traditionally superb standards of animal and plant health.
- ▶ include measures incorporate Developers will be encouraged to incorporate measures to enhance biodiversity.

2 an amount that is neither large nor small

- adj+N large or quite large considerable, large, reasonable, significant, substantial Caution and common sense can provide a large measure of protection for sensitive documents.
- ▶ small limited, small Such a limited measure of reform is a mere farce.

- N+of autonomy, certainty, independence, protection, self-government, success The National Assembly provides a limited measure of autonomy for Wales.

medal N

an object that you are given for winning a competition or being brave

- adj+N important or that people want very much coveted, prestigious The garden was judged to be one of the best in the show, and was just points away from a coveted gold medal.
- ▶ for a person or team individual, team If he runs to form, he has an outside chance of an individual medal.
- ▶ deserved well-deserved All of the competitors went home with a well-deserved medal.
- ▶ marking an event commemorative, souvenir Players receive a commemorative medal.

- v+N win a medal claim, clinch INFORMAL, earn, gain, scoop INFORMAL, secure, snatch INFORMAL, win Several women have won the class medal in recent years.
- ▶ be given a medal be awarded, be given, be presented with, collect, get INFORMAL, receive Frank was awarded the military medal in 1918.
- ▶ give a medal award (sb), present (sb with) The chairman at the sponsoring company presented the medals.
- ▶ deserve a medal deserve The mastermind who invented low-fat chocolate mousse deserves a medal.

- N+n possible winner contender, hope, hopeful, prospect The aim of the programme is to identify and develop medal hopefuls aged between 13–16 years.
- ▶ winner winner It was the end of an era for the five times Olympic Gold Medal winner when she retired from the sport last week.
- ▶ number of medals won haul, tally The final medal haul for the team was 3 gold, 2 silver and 5 bronze.

the media N

radio, television, newspapers, the Internet, and magazines

- adj+N types of media corporate, mainstream, mass, news, tabloid, traditional One fairly obvious constraint of the mass media is that most of us don't have access to them.
- ▶ in a particular area foreign, local, national Most of them, of course, were Londoners – where the national media is based.
- ▶ methods of delivery broadcast, digital, electronic, interactive, online, print, printed All electronic media is afforded the same copyright restrictions as a literary or artistic work.

- v+N control the media control, dominate, manipulate They think they can control the Internet the way they try to control the print media, but they will fail.
- ▶ use the media exploit, handle, use Handled well, the media is a useful vehicle for getting your message across.
- ▶ blame the media accuse, blame He accused the media of creating a 'frenzy' during the A-level scandal this summer.

- N+v focus on, pick up on, portray, report Thankfully, the media didn't pick up on the story until much later. ◈ The media reports that house prices are rising again now.

- N+n people who own the media baron, mogul, tycoon I am not sure whether it is better to be called a 'media mogul' or a 'paper tiger'.
- ▶ people who work in the media commentator, correspondent, pundit, regulator Now a respected media pundit, he writes an exclusive column for Liverpoolfc.tv each week.
- ▶ media company or companies conglomerate, empire, giant, industry
- ▶ excitement circus, frenzy, hype, hysteria We do not know what caused this minor media frenzy, but we tried our hardest to take advantage of it.
- ▶ what the media does or says campaign, coverage, enquiry, speculation There will be a media campaign from both the police and the local council.
- ▶ attention attention, exposure, spotlight Although the service has developed rapidly, its development has not been in the media spotlight.
- ▶ when the media is not allowed to comment blackout She is responsible for the media blackout on reports about her brother.

medical ADJ

relating to medicine and the treatment of conditions

- ADJ+n person or job adviser, doctor, expert, officer, personnel, practitioner, profession, professional, researcher, staff, student Please consult your own medical practitioner for advice specific to yourself.
- ▶ condition or problem condition, emergency, problem If you are on medication or suffer from a medical condition, it is best to discuss your plans with your doctor.
- ▶ treatment attention, care, intervention, procedure, supervision, therapy, treatment In 1948, the National Health Service was formed and for the first time everyone was entitled to free medical treatment.

- ▸ examination check-up, consultation, examination You must also pass a medical examination.
- ▸ advice advice If you experience any of these symptoms you should seek medical advice within 24 hours.
- ▸ progress advance, breakthrough The paper gives an overview of recent medical advances that benefited from research on animals.

medication N a drug you take to treat an illness

- • adj+N non-prescription, oral, over-the-counter, prescribed, prescription, preventive Many people take prescribed medication on either a short-term or long-term basis.
- • v+N take medication receive, take Some simply forget to take their medication unless reminded.

You can say that someone is on medication when they are regularly taking medication: Please take care when driving if you are on medication, as it can have side-effects.

- ▸ give medication administer, dispense, prescribe A doctor can prescribe medication to prevent or reduce the frequency of headaches.
- ▸ need medication require Do any of the pupils require medication for asthma?
- ▸ change medication adjust, change, review It is useful to review all medication regularly.
- ▸ stop or refuse medication discontinue, refuse, stop, withdraw You should not discontinue this medication without first consulting your doctor.

medicine N

the treatment and prevention of illnesses and injuries

- • adj+N traditional conventional, orthodox, traditional Aromatherapy should be regarded as complementary to conventional medicine.
- ▸ alternative alternative, complementary, homeopathic, unconventional Most people using complementary medicine do so in conjunction with conventional medicine.
- ▸ from a particular area Western, Oriental etc Acupuncture is an alternative therapy based on the principles of traditional Chinese medicine.
- • v+N graduate in, practise, qualify in, study, train in, work in He is currently studying medicine at Birmingham University.
- • n+of+N aspect, branch, field They specialize in developing technologies in the fields of medicine and healthcare.

meet V

do what is necessary in order to deal with a situation or to do what you planned

- • adv+V adequately, consistently, effectively, successfully The corresponding demand in England was adequately met.
- • V+n what is needed or asked for demands, need, needs, requirements The council proposes to meet this need by building two new sports facilities. ◉ We have tailored the course to meet the needs of our students.
- ▸ amount that is wanted demand It will not be possible to meet the demand for new houses in the next few years.
- ▸ a standard condition, criterion, expectation, specification, standard Any who did not meet the set criteria were set to work on farms or left to fend for themselves.
- ▸ an aim aim, challenge, commitment, deadline, goal, objective, target They only care about meeting their own deadlines and scoring the best marks.
- • and/or exceed, surpass This target was met and subsequently exceeded.

meeting N

an occasion when people gather to discuss things

- • adj+N previous, next etc first, forthcoming, last, next, previous, recent, upcoming They asked for improved attendance at the next meeting.
- ▸ how frequent annual, monthly, quarterly, regular, weekly We shall discuss these issues in our annual meeting.
- ▸ formal/informal formal, informal The matter will be discussed first at an informal meeting.
- ▸ public/private confidential, open, private, public, secret This is an open meeting, which anyone is welcome to attend.
- ▸ first or early first, founding, inaugural, initial, preliminary, preparatory The inaugural meeting of the new association will be held on 20 January.
- ▸ talking directly to a person or people face-to-face, one-to-one Face-to-face meetings remain the most effective method of communicating.
- ▸ where something is achieved constructive, positive, productive, successful Thank you all for a very productive meeting.
- ▸ types of meeting consultation, consultative, emergency, extraordinary, planning, special The next monthly planning meeting will be on Thursday 5th.
- • v+N ask for a meeting ask for, call for, demand The unions have called for a meeting with the Minister.
- ▸ hold a meeting arrange, call, convene, hold, organize, plan, request, schedule The formal meetings with the staff are held every six months at set times of the year.
- ▸ run a meeting chair, conduct, host, preside at, preside over The British Film Commission hosts regular meetings of the UK Film Commission Network.
- ▸ delay or cancel a meeting call off, cancel, defer, postpone In the event, the meeting was postponed pending clarification of the Council's budget cuts.
- ▸ start or end a meeting adjourn, bring to a close, close, draw to a close, end, open She thanked the speakers and brought the meeting to a close at 10pm. ◉ The Chairman opened the meeting and made a short statement about the Club Knock-Out Competition.
- ▸ speak at a meeting address, inform, remind, report to, speak at, tell Each meeting is usually addressed by an invited speaker.
- ▸ go to or take part in a meeting attend, go to, participate in, take part in Delegates from all the major national and regional bodies are attending the meetings.

- N+v start or end begin, break up, close, commence, conclude, end, finish, open The meeting officially broke up at around ten o'clock.
- ▶ discuss or decide approve, decide, discuss, ensorse The application was approved by the planning meeting.

meet with PHR VB

get a particular result or reaction

- V+n approval or success acclaim, applause, approbation, approval, enthusiasm, success Both of these superb albums met with high acclaim and commercial success.
- ▶ opposition or criticism criticism, derision, disapproval, hostility, opposition, protest, resistance, scepticism The proposals for the multiplex development have met with widespread opposition.
- ▶ response response If you can say a few words in Arabic, you will usually meet with an enthusiastic response.
- ▶ when someone does not believe you disbelief, incredulity This theory initially met with disbelief on the part of most researchers.
- ▶ little or no reaction indifference, silence Our proposition continues to meet with a resounding silence.

Meet is used with the same meaning: He met resistance from the local Police force, who didn't like him poking his nose around the place.

mellow ADJ relaxed, soft, or smooth

- ADJ+n sound or music jazz, sound, tone, tune, vocal Bassoons have a rich and mellow sound.
- ▶ mood mood Luckily, I'd caught him in a mellow mood.
- ▶ flavour flavour Heating tends to reduce the acidity, so if a more mellow flavour is required, cook it.
- and/or rich, smooth, soft, sweet, warm They manufactured a very popular, sweet, mellow cider.

melody N

a tune or song

- adj+N beautiful beautiful, enchanting, gorgeous, soft, sweet Here the album reaches its peak and the band create some gorgeous melodies and heartfelt lyrics.
- ▶ making you feel emotional haunting, lyrical, soaring, soulful, sublime, sweeping, uplifting This is a thoughtful song with a haunting melody that I can listen to over and over again.
- ▶ easy to sing or remember catchy, hummable, infectious, memorable Jam-packed with intensely catchy melodies, their guitar-driven rock is guaranteed to get you on your feet.
- ▶ with a rising and falling sound lilting The gently plucked guitars and lilting vocal melodies conjured up the atmosphere of the Islands.
- v+N perform a melody hum, play, sing, whistle I used to hum melodies from Louis Armstrong.
- ▶ write a melody compose The haunting melodies were especially composed for the production by Martin Phipps.

member N

someone who belongs to a club, organisation, or group

- adj+N original founder, founding, original She was a founder member of the local Bridge club.
- ▶ new/present/former current, former, new, past, present A list of past and present members of the Board can be accessed online.
- ▶ senior/junior junior, rank-and-file, senior Rank-and-file members of the party felt they were being ignored by government ministers.
- ▶ with a particular status affiliate, associate, ex-officio, full, honorary, ordinary, voting Only full members will be entitled to vote on the issue.
- ▶ important important, key, leading, prominent Mark has been a key member of a story management team.
- n+N audience, band, board, cabinet, cast, church, club, committee, council, crew, faculty, family, gang, group, party, squad, staff, team, trade union, union I am looking forward very much to meeting the staff, tenants and board members when I take up my new post in January. ◆ Most weavers are taught to weave at an early age by a family member.
- v+N make someone a member appoint, elect, nominate Committee members are appointed for two years as a general rule.
- ▶ get a new member or members recruit This is our main chance to recruit new members for the year.
- ▶ be or become a member be, become How did you become a member?
- N+v attend, join, participate (in), serve, vote The session was attended by all the members of the team. ◆ Members who join during the year will receive all the publications published that year.

membership N

the fact of belonging to an organization or group

- adj+N types of membership affiliate, associate, corporate, full, honorary, individual, joint, ordinary Honorary membership will only be awarded to members who have made a considerable contribution to the advancement of the Association.
- ▶ length of membership annual, temporary A 9-hole golf course is ¼ mile away, where temporary membership is readily available.
- ▶ being very involved in the organization you have membership of active Requests for cruiser moorings are not normally considered from members who have not had five years active membership of the Club.
- n+N that will continue for all of your life life, lifetime If you are a member of a club, consider taking out lifetime membership.
- ▶ for a short period to see if you like it trial For all these pilots, learning to glide started with a trial membership.
- v+N when someone becomes or asks to become a member apply for, register for, seek, take out If you wish to apply for membership, you should fill in this form.
- ▶ have membership have, hold He also holds membership of the Royal Society of Chemistry.
- ▶ end your or someone's membership cancel, resign, suspend, terminate, withdraw You have the right to cancel your membership at any time.

- ▶ arrange for membership to continue renew If you renew your membership before the end of the month, you will be entitled to a 10 per cent discount.
- ▶ say someone cannot have membership deny sb, refuse sb The Committee may refuse membership to any person without being required to provide a reason.
- ▶ allow someone membership approve, award, grant (sb), offer For applicants under 16, we require that a parent or guardian sign a permission form before we grant membership.
- ▶ fulfil the conditions for membership qualify for 11–16 year olds qualify for junior membership, and this costs just £26 per year.
- ▶ get membership gain, obtain In April 2005, RSIN successfully gained full membership of the Telephone Helpline Association
- ▶ keep membership retain Other party members have retained their membership, but are sorely disappointed in their party.

- • N+n money you pay for membership dues, fee, subscription The annual individual membership fee is £10 for adults and £5 for juniors.
- ▶ things given to you when you get membership card, number, pack All you need to do to benefit from member prices is show us your membership card.
- ▶ person who deals with membership issues secretary For full details, contact the membership secretary.

memo N a short note you send to a colleague

- • adj+N secret confidential, secret A confidential memo of a conversation between the US president and the British Prime Minister was leaked to the press.
- ▶ within an organization internal An internal police memo said that the suspects were professional and respectable.
- ▶ given to journalists or the public even though it should be secret leaked Details of the schemes emerged in a leaked memo last night, causing anger among MPs .

- • v+N write or send a memo circulate, draft, issue, send, write The Head of Security issued a memo advising that the old security passes will expire at the end of the month.
- ▶ make a memo public even though it is secret leak Shortly after the memo was leaked to the press, the chief executive of the bank resigned.

memorable ADJ worth remembering or easy to remember

- • adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, really, truly, very Walking trips with your family make truly memorable holidays.
- ▶ particularly especially, particularly The bar is particularly memorable for its warm friendly atmosphere.
- ▶ immediately instantly The chorus is instantly memorable, creating the feeling that the song is familiar to the listener in a very short time.

- • ADJ+n event encounter, event, experience, holiday, journey, occasion, performance, stay, trip, victory, visit, win Whether you are touring Cornwall or visiting for business, we promise you a happy, relaxed and memorable stay.
- ▶ time day, evening, moment, night, weekend My sincere thanks go to them both for a memorable evening.
- ▶ music chorus, melody, song, tune Mendelssohn's Violin Concerto is packed full of memorable tunes.
- ▶ words line, phrase, quote, words Tony Blair's most memorable phrase from the 1997 election was 'Education, Education, Education'.
- ▶ something you see image, scene The magazine has undoubtedly produced some iconic and memorable images.

- • v+ADJ be, make sth, prove, remain The hotel aims to make your stay truly memorable. ◈ The match proved memorable, but for all the wrong reasons.

memorandum N
a short written statement containing information about an official issue

- • adj+N containing information that should not be made public confidential, secret This plan was first presented in a confidential memorandum sent to the Cabinet secretary.
- ▶ made public even though it should be kept secret leaked We know from a leaked memorandum that the army had been planning the raid for some time.
- ▶ within an organization internal The staff are kept informed by internal memorandums and briefing meetings.
- ▶ prepared by two or more groups or organizations joint A joint memorandum was then signed by the two ministers.

- • v+N write a memorandum draft, prepare, write Fleming wrote a lengthy memorandum describing the structure and functions of the organization.
- ▶ send a memorandum issue, send, submit The management company issued a memorandum to each of its vessels highlighting the lessons to be learned from the accident.
- ▶ sign or put the date on a memorandum date, sign A number of academic economists signed a memorandum calling on the British government to abandon the theories of hardline monetarism.

- • N+v outline, set out, state This memorandum sets out the terms and conditions of the agreement.

memorial N a structure built to remind people of a famous person or event

- • adj+N permanent everlasting, lasting, permanent Dartmouth Hospital was opened in 1877 as a permanent memorial to Queen Victoria's Jubilee.
- ▶ suitable fitting, suitable The grave was cleaned and restored in 1993 and is a fitting memorial to the founder of the church.
- ▶ making you feel sad poignant The windows are a poignant memorial to the thousands of Allied servicemen who lost their lives in the Battle of Normandy.

- • v+N build a memorial build, create, erect, put up The memorial was erected here following the South African War (1899–1902).

- show a memorial for the first time at a special ceremony unveil The Prince of Wales unveiled a British memorial near Ground Zero.
- say officially that a memorial is for someone dedicate The memorial was dedicated at a moving ceremony last week,

- N+v be dedicated to, commemorate, mark, record The memorial commemorates those who lost their lives in the last war.

- N+to casualties, the dead, soldiers, sb's memory, victims After the disaster, the people of Coventry paid for a playground to be built as a lasting memorial to the dead.

memory N

1 something you remember

- adj+N good fantastic, favourite, fond, good, happy, lovely, sweet, wonderful He still has very fond memories of his days here.
- bad bad, bitter, haunting, painful, traumatic, unhappy, unpleasant Training may bring back unpleasant memories for some members of staff.
- clear clear, strong, vivid Ali said he still had vivid memories of the night when his parents were killed.
- not clear dim, distant, fading, faint, hazy, vague I have vague memories of my childhood.
- special to you cherished, precious, special, treasured Auntie Catherine died too young but left us precious memories.
- lasting for a long time abiding, enduring, lasting, unforgettable My abiding memory will be of a sunny Sunday morning by the Seine.
- that stays with you for a long time in an unpleasant way haunting She was still tortured by haunting memories of life in the death camps.
- that you try to forget repressed I hoped that the therapy would unlock repressed childhood memories of the time when my sister disappeared.
- first earliest, first My earliest memory was having to shelter under the table at the age of three during the blitz of 1940.

- n+N childhood, family, holiday, wartime It's strange how vivid some childhood memories are.

- v+N have or provide a memory have, hold She has many happy memories of her time in Seattle. ◆ Leeds holds many good memories for me and it will be nice to return.
- make a memory come into your mind awaken, bring back, conjure up, evoke, invoke, prompt, rekindle, revive, spark, stir (up), trigger Our sense of smell has the ability to evoke memories – both visual and emotional.
- get rid of a memory block out, bury, erase, repress, suppress She decided to move house to erase her painful memories of him.
- make a memory continue keep alive, perpetuate, preserve Writing a diary is a wonderful way to preserve your cherished memories.
- talk or write about a memory recall, recount, share He recounts his memories of Nazi persecution with extraordinary courage and compassion.
- remember a memory with affection cherish, treasure We will cherish the memories from our first visit to Scotland and hope to come back soon.
- do something which makes a memory come back relive They decided to relive the memories of their special wedding by returning to the Cayman Islands.
- do something which will make a memory create School trips can create lasting memories of school life.

- N+v stay in your mind linger (on), live on, remain, stay The memory of that night lingered in my mind.
- disappear from your mind fade Most memories fade with time.
- give you unpleasant feelings for a long time haunt Years later, Laura is still haunted by memories of her childhood.
- suddenly come into your mind flood back Memories flooded back of his years at Oxford and his girlfriend there.

2 ability to remember things

- adj+N bad bad, impaired, poor, short, terrible I have a terrible memory for books I've read.
- good good, long People with long memories will remember that before 1971 a pound was divided into twenty shillings.
- for things that happened a long/short time ago long-term, short-term Symptoms of dementia can be loss of short-term memory, confusion and disjointed conversations.
- remembering only some things and not others selective Humans have a selective memory which is susceptible to distortion.

- v+N improve your memory in general enhance, improve, strengthen In some patients, these drugs help to improve memory and concentration.
- improve your memory about a particular thing jog, refresh This photo may help refresh your memory.
- make your memory worse impair Different types of encephalitis can impair memory and understanding of words, amongst other things.
- lose your memory lose Ali was knocked unconscious in an accident and lost his memory.
- stay in someone's memory be etched in, haunt, linger in, live (on) in, remain in, stay in His tremendous skill is still etched in my memory. ◆ Her mother's beautiful face still haunted her memory for years afterwards.
- not stay in people's memory fade from After that, Mary Seacole faded from memory.

If you cannot remember a particular fact, you can use the phrase escape your memory: He was a tall man, but his name escapes my memory.

- N+v fail (you), go My memory fails me on certain things. ◆ My balance, perception and memory have gone and I have a weakness on my left side.

If you do not remember things correctly, you can also say that your memory plays tricks: Maybe my memory's playing tricks, but I'm sure we went there once before. When you are saying that you think that you have remembered something correctly, you can use the expression if my memory serves me well/right/correctly: They won the title in 1997, if my memory serves me correctly.

menace N

1 someone or something that is dangerous or annoying

- adj+N great great, real, serious The noise and mess seagulls produce is a real menace.
- ▸ becoming greater growing Vandalism is a growing menace, which the legal establishment does not seem to take very seriously.
- ▸ existing all the time constant Electricity pylons are a constant menace to paraglider pilots and have been responsible for a number of deaths.
- v+N be or become a menace become, constitute, prove Drugs are becoming a menace in parts of Wales.
- ▸ deal with a menace combat, fight, tackle All eight Scottish police forces will be tackling the menace of drink drivers.

2 a threatening quality or feeling

- adj+N brooding, hidden There was an atmosphere of brooding menace.
- n+of+N air, atmosphere, hint, sense When I went on, the footsteps started again and with them a sense of menace I cannot describe.

menacing ADJ intended to threaten or frighten someone

- adv+ADJ very deeply, extremely, genuinely This was a genuinely menacing thriller, with a good sense of place.
- ▸ rather rather, slightly, somewhat, vaguely One of the cats sat facing me, giving me a slightly menacing look.
- ADJ+n atmosphere, character, look, presence, threat, tone He gives the film a truly menacing tone as the creepy host of the party.

mental ADJ relating to the mind

- ADJ+n illness or problem breakdown, condition, difficulty, disability, disorder, handicap, illness, impairment, instability, problem, retardation He was suffering from mental illness.
- ▸ health health, state, wellbeing Positive and negative forces at home impact on a child's mental wellbeing.
- ▸ ability/inability to do things ability, agility, capacity, faculties, function, functioning, incapacity It quickly became clear that he lacked the mental capacity to do the job.
- ▸ activities done or happening in your mind activity, arithmetic, attitude, awareness, calculation, challenge, effort, image, note, picture, process There is also a need for more work focused on mental arithmetic. ◉ I enjoy challenges, and climbing has proved a new physical and mental challenge. ◉ Those three words will evoke a string of mental images. ◉ They studied the activity of the brain as humans engaged in various mental processes.
- ▸ bad feelings anguish, confusion, distress, stress, suffering Children who were being bullied showed high levels of mental distress.
- ▸ positive qualities alertness, energy, stimulation, strength, toughness Children are calmer if given enough exercise and mental stimulation.
- and/or bodily, emotional, physical, psychological, spiritual If you are taking care of another person, you need a break occasionally, for the sake of your physical and mental wellbeing.

mention N

the act of referring to someone or something

- adj+N quick brief, cursory, passing, quick The exhibition receives only cursory mention in the last chapter.
- ▸ special or praising someone favourable, honourable, special I would like to make special mention of the unsung heroes who support the playing side of the club.
- ▸ particular explicit, particular, specific There is no specific mention of legal action in the report.
- ▸ not much little, scant In the past, hypnotism as a form of medical treatment fell out of favour and received scant mention in the medical journals.
- ▸ used for emphasizing the big effect that mentioning something has the mere, the very If the very mention of the gym makes you reach for the chocolate biscuits, try to find a sport or fitness class that you enjoy.
- v+N give a mention give, make I must give a special mention to the title track because it's a great song. ◉ Mention was made of all his exploits.
- ▸ get a mention earn, get, receive His most recent film doesn't even get a mention in the article. ◉ The clinic's treatment and research work received a special mention in the report.
- ▸ deserve a mention deserve, merit, rate, warrant The final two songs here deserve an extra-special mention.

When you are praising or thanking someone, you can say special mention goes to: A special mention goes to Hannah Brown, who completed the course in very difficult circumstances.

- ▸ make no mention avoid, omit His autobiography omitted any mention of his career in the IRA.

You can also say there is no mention of: There is no mention of any such costs in the contract.

- ▸ read or hear a mention find, hear I could find no mention of them in the guide.

menu N

1 a list of food available in restaurant etc

- adj+N with many choices extensive, full, varied There is a varied menu, including a variety of fish or cheeses and continental cold meats.

You can say that something is on the menu when it is available: We've got fresh lobster on the menu tonight.

- ▸ with food that sounds good excellent, exciting, imaginative, impressive, mouth-watering, superb, tasty, tempting There is a tempting menu to suit all palates.
- ▸ types of menu à la carte, fixed, fixed-price, seasonal, set, table d'hôte, traditional, vegetarian, three-course etc There is a choice of four dishes per course and a separate vegetarian menu is available. ◉ The two-couse menu is only £15 at lunchtimes.
- v+N look at a menu look at, peruse, read, study

We managed to find a table outside and settled down to peruse the menu.

- ▸ create a menu create, devise, plan, prepare He regularly devised new menus, and trained chefs.
- ▸ change a menu change, vary We vary our menus frequently to keep our regular customers inspired and to make the most of seasonally available produce.
- ▸ choose what you want from a menu choose from, order from, select from Children under 12 can select from the children's menu.

- • N+v boast, feature, offer The hotel's menu boasts a selection of delicious dishes.

2 a list of choices on a computer screen

- • adj+N drop-down, interactive, main, navigation, on-screen, pop-up, pull-down The text is small, but a navigation menu remains present at the top of the page.
- • v+N show or use a menu access, activate, browse, display, navigate, view Hold the right mouse button down to activate the pop-up menu.
- ▸ choose from a menu access sth from, choose (sth) from, select (sth) from Select from the menu on the left to learn more about the various courses on offer.

mercy N

an act of forgiving or not punishing someone

- • adj+N divine, great, infinite The letters bear witness to God's infinite mercy.
- • v+N ask for mercy ask for, beg for, cry for, plead for, pray for, seek He had sunk to his knees, begging for mercy.
- ▸ show mercy grant (sb), show (sb) They showed little mercy to their prisoners.

You can also use the expression have mercy on someone: They prayed that God would have mercy on them all. When something or someone shows no mercy, you can say that they act without mercy: The original inhabitants of the islands were hunted down and shot without mercy.

- ▸ receive mercy obtain, receive He had received mercy and grace from God for his sins.

- • and/or compassion, forgiveness, goodness, grace, justice, love Quite often these solutions are based on threat and force, rather than considerations of mercy and compassion.

merger N

the process of combining two companies or organizations

- • adj+N possible or planned planned, possible, potential, proposed The proposed merger between Volvo and Saab-Scania was the most discussed business deal of the year.
- ▸ complete complete, full The sheer size of these firms would make a full merger difficult.
- ▸ between big companies big, major The deal between the two British providers is the fourth major merger this year for the European hosting market.

- • v+N be in charge of a merger oversee Having successfully overseen the merger of Coca-Cola UK and Schweppes, she was appointed Commercial Director.
- ▸ announce a merger announce Hewlett-Packard (HP) and Compaq announced a merger to form a new company.
- ▸ say that a merger can happen agree, approve The Secretary of State has been asked to approve the merger.
- ▸ say that a merger cannot happen block, prohibit The Competition Commission has only ever blocked 18 mergers outright.
- ▸ complete a merger complete The Incentive Travel and Meetings Association has finally completed its merger with the Corporate Events Association to form an organization named Eventia.

- • N+n discussions about a merger discussions, negotiations, talks Merger talks between the two companies continued, but they too failed eventually.
- ▸ plan for a merger plan, proposal The civil aviation ministry is planning to seek the views of various ministries on the merger proposal.
- ▸ agreement on a merger agreement, deal Under the terms of the merger agreement, shareholders will receive $12.50 per share in cash.

merit N

an advantage or good quality; the fact of having good qualities

- • adj+N great considerable, exceptional, great, outstanding We conclude that there is considerable merit in implementing such a proposal.
- ▸ not certain dubious, questionable He was droning on about the dubious merits of bathing in olive oil.
- ▸ when compared with others comparative, relative There was much discussion of the relative merits of the two schemes.
- ▸ relating to one person or thing individual, personal The qualifications and individual merits of each candidate will also be taken into account.
- ▸ essential and part of someone or something intrinsic Tourists use the town as a base from which to explore the south of the island rather than for any intrinsic merit.
- ▸ types of merit academic, aesthetic, architectural, artistic, literary, scientific, technical I think the novel is entertaining, but has no literary merit whatsoever.

- • v+N discuss merits argue, debate, discuss Today colleges debate the relative merits of the humanities and the sciences.
- ▸ judge merits assess, compare, consider, determine, evaluate, examine, investigate, judge, weigh (up) The proposals are collected together below so that you can assess their merits.
- ▸ have merits have, possess Each of these strategies possesses respective merits.
- ▸ see that someone or something has merits acknowledge, appreciate, recognize, see He suddenly saw the merits of Cabinet decision-making.
- ▸ tell other people enthusiastically about merits extol She was reading the travel section of the newspaper which was extolling the merits of the latest fashionable ski resort.
- ▸ express doubts about merit question The ombudsman is not able to question the merits of any decision by the local council, but can investigate the way in which the decision has been taken.

merit V

deserve or be worth something

- adv+V a lot fully, well The orchestra well merited the encore it received for the three dances.
- ▸ not much hardly If the mountains had been just below 3,000ft rather than just above, they would hardly merit a mention.

- V+n being looked at, discussed or mentioned attention, consideration, discussion, examination, exploration, inclusion, investigation, a mention, study Four proposals have been received that merit serious consideration.
- ▸ treatment or action action, treatment He said that criminals fully merited the harsh treatment they received.
- ▸ protection protection Who is to decide which species of animal merit protection?
- ▸ recognition or praise award, name, place, praise, recognition, title She was a key figure, who merited a place in any list of major photographers.

mess N

a dirty or untidy place or person; a difficult situation caused by people making mistakes

- adj+N very bad or unpleasant appalling, awful, big, dreadful, horrible, huge, sorry, terrible, unholy Despite all that happened, some good has come out of the whole sorry mess. ◉ How can you find anything in this unholy mess?

People often use the expression a fine mess to describe a difficult situation: What a fine mess the Borough Council has got itself into again!

- ▸ complete absolute, complete, real, right INFORMAL, total, utter I'd just got up and I looked a right mess. ◉ 20 years of underfunding has left the system a total mess.
- ▸ types of mess gooey, soggy, sticky, tangled Kate's hair was a tangled mess.

- v+N cause a mess cause, create, leave, make It is the government that has created this whole mess. ◉ He was very tidy and made sure he left no mess at all.

You can also say leave something in a mess: Try not to leave your room in such a mess. ● When he retired, we found that he had left the accounts in a mess.

- ▸ deal with a mess clean up, clear up, sort out Mum ordered them to clean up the mess. ◉ If the government doesn't sort out this mess, the electorate will turn to extreme parties.
- ▸ be in or get into a mess be in, get into They had been eating chocolate and were in a terrible mess. ◉ How did the department get into this mess?
- ▸ look a mess look I tried to tidy the kitchen, but it still looked a mess when they arrived.

message N

1 a piece of information you send to someone when you cannot speak to them directly

- adj+N brief, cryptic, important, secret, urgent There was a cryptic message left at the scene of the crime, which the police were unable to decipher.

- n+N answerphone, email, mail, phone, radio, SMS, telephone, text, voice, voicemail I had a voicemail message from my mother saying that she was arriving that evening.

- v+N send a message leave (sb), post, record, send (sb) He had left me a message on my voicemail asking me to call him immediately. ◉ You can send messages to his family and friends through his tribute website.
- ▸ get a message get, receive Callers phoning out of hours will receive a message asking them to phone back within normal working hours.
- ▸ write a message compose, write He wrote a wonderful little message for the children on the back of the postcard.
- ▸ read or listen to a message listen to, open, read, retrieve Simply open your message and you will notice two options side by side towards the bottom. ◉ To retrieve your voicemail messages, dial 2580.
- ▸ pass a message to someone else forward, give sb, pass on, relay, take I'm afraid John's not here. Can I give him a message? ◉ She's out of the office. Can I take a message?
- ▸ see if anyone has left a message for you check He had been too busy check the messages on his phone.
- ▸ take a message from one place to another carry, convey, transmit His job was to carry messages from the general to the troops.

- N+v say something ask (sb), confirm, contain, indicate, say, state, tell sb If you have no items in your basket, you will see a message stating the basket is empty.
- ▸ arrive arrive, come, pop up The messages pop up automatically when a user is logged in, making them harder to ignore.
- ▸ get to someone reach Unfortunately, the message didn't reach me in time.

- N+of condolence, congratulation, support, sympathy, thanks Thank you to everyone who sent messages of condolence and sympathy, which were gratefully received and appreciated.

2 the main idea that you want people to remember

- adj+N strong powerful, strong The demonstration sent a powerful message to the government that war is not wanted.
- ▸ clear clear, consistent, simple, stark, unambiguous The government wants to send out a clear message on the importance of school attendance.
- ▸ not clear conflicting, confusing, contradictory, mixed We are constantly bombarded with conflicting messages regarding image and diet.
- ▸ main basic, core, key, main The handbook draws together the key messages in the new legislation.
- ▸ important important, serious The presentation had a number of important messages.
- ▸ hidden hidden, subliminal There is a hidden message that lots of young people commit antisocial behaviour, when in fact it is only a tiny minority.
- ▸ negative/positive/the wrong/the right negative, positive, the right, the wrong A poor display gives potential customers negative messages about product quality and is worse than no display at all. ◉ We help you communicate the right message about job cuts, both inside and outside your organization.

- v+N communicate a message carry, communicate, convey, get across, give, present, put across, send (out) The story carries a message about the power of friendship and community. ◆ They may be small-scale studies, but they convey a clear message.

- ▶ emphasize a message bring home, highlight, promote, ram home, reinforce The campaign aims to reinforce the message that drinking and driving is dangerous.
- ▶ spread a message to a lot of people disseminate, preach, proclaim, spread We firmly believe that the most effective way to spread the message about animal cruelty is through the work of local activists.

messy ADJ complicated, difficult, and unpleasant to deal with

- ● ADJ+n affair, business, compromise, divorce, process, reality, situation A messy divorce had left him with a rather low opinion of marriage. ◆ This novel is about the painful, messy reality of family life.

metaphor N

a way of referring to one thing as another, in order to show how they are similar

- ● adj+N suitable appropriate, apt The 'urban jungle' is an apt metaphor for modern city environments.
- ▶ having a strong effect potent, powerful The great statues were toppled over and mutilated, providing a powerful metaphor for the end of a 'golden age '.
- ▶ types of metaphor extended, mixed, poetic, visual Extended metaphors are particularly useful. These are metaphors developed through more than one point of comparison. ◆ What McKenna doesn't do is explain that he's got an uphill struggle on his hands (excuse the mixed metaphor).
- ▶ main central The central metaphor of the book is indebtedness.
- ▶ complicated elaborate The author introduces repetitive strain injury as an elaborate metaphor for her character's sense of frustration.
- ● v+N create, develop, employ, provide, use His extraordinary ability to use metaphors really brought the subject alive for people.
- ● N+v describe, imply, represent, suggest The coin metaphor suggests that both sides are necessary at some level.

method N

a way of doing something

- ● adj+N traditional or normal common, conventional, normal, standard, traditional, usual Traditional methods of repair have to be used in order to preserve the character of a building.
- ▶ new innovative, new, novel At The Prince's Trust, we are using innovative methods to reach and support the hardest to help young people.
- ▶ good acceptable, accurate, convenient, effective, efficient, good, practical, proven, reliable, tried-and-tested, useful Trailers are a proven method of advertising a film's genre, stars and storyline to an audience.
- ▶ main or favourite preferred, principal Everyone has his or her preferred method of making tea.
- ▶ different alternative, different E-learning provides an alternative method of learning.
- ▶ easy easy, simple The Internet offers a simple method for the exchange of information during the lengthy process of public consultation.
- ▶ using the most modern ideas and equipment advanced, modern, sophisticated Very sophisticated screening methods are used to determine the size of the tumour.
- ● n+N collection, communication, construction, cooking, farming, learning, manufacturing, payment, production, research, selection, teaching, training, treatment, working Use low fat cooking methods such as grilling, barbequing, stir-frying, dry roasting or poaching. ◆ This page confirms your address and asks you to choose your preferred payment method.
- ● v+N use a method apply, employ, use, utilize They use methods of assessing vision that are most suitable for young children.
- ▶ start to use a method for the first time adopt, choose, implement, introduce, pioneer Tens of thousands of farmers have adopted the method in the years since researchers introduced it to Cambodia in 2001.
- ▶ discover a method develop, devise, discover, establish, find, identify, invent Scientists and engineers have devised several methods to clean up oil spills.
- ▶ change a method change, improve, revise Lessons from this study can be applied to improve methods for data analysis.

meticulous ADJ thorough and paying attention to detail

- ● ADJ+n analysis, approach, attention, attention to detail, care, detail, examination, planning, preparation, record, research, study, work The book examines all aspects of English grammar in meticulous detail. ◆ All school trips and visits require meticulous planning and organization.
- ● and/or careful, detailed, methodical, painstaking, thorough Only by meticulous, painstaking research can we hope to establish the truth.

migrant N

someone travelling to another place to work

- ● adj+N economic, illegal, rural, skilled, undocumented He believes that identity cards would not deter terrorists, criminals, or illegal migrants.
- ● N+n a group of migrants community, population The organization supports refugee and migrant communities in the UK.
- ▶ working labour, labourer, worker Migrant labour provides an important part of the village income. ◆ A sudden influx of migrant workers led to a revival of extreme right-wing nationalism.

mild ADJ

not serious or not severe

- ● adv+ADJ very very Typically, the illness is very mild and most patients do not need to consult their doctor.
- ▶ rather fairly, quite, rather I'm lucky, my asthma is quite mild.
- ▶ usually generally, usually Psoriasis is a long-term condition, but in most people it is usually mild.

- when compared to others comparatively, relatively The seizures are brief, and the epilepsy is relatively mild.

- ADJ+n illness or disability attack, condition, disability, disease, illness, impairment, infection, injury, problem, virus Flu can vary from a very mild illness to a very severe one. ◉ Cognitive behavioural therapy can be useful in treating mild to moderate mental health problems.
- particular illness or condition asthma, depression, discomfort, fever, headache, pain, rash, stroke Paracetamol should be their first choice of drug for mild pain.
- a form or case of an illness case, dose, form, strain, version She suffered from a mild form of anemia characterized by a folic acid deficiency.
- effects of an illness effects, reaction, symptoms Most people in the UK who have dysentery only have mild symptoms.
- feeling annoyance, interest, irritation, panic, shock, surprise, upset There was mild panic when I couldn't find the passports.
- punishment or criticism criticism, punishment, rebuke Remember that even the mildest criticism can be very hurtful.

milestone N

an event or achievement that marks a stage in a process

- adj+N important big, critical, crucial, great, historic, huge, important, key, major, real, significant The next key milestone comes tomorrow, with completion of the eagerly waited Southwater Community Centre.
- types of milestone developmental, personal From ages four to five, parallel play and learning to share with others are developmental milestones.

- v+N reach a milestone achieve, hit, meet, pass, reach Fifty years old this year, the organization has reached a major milestone.
- celebrate a milestone celebrate, mark To mark the milestone in her career, colleagues presented her with a beautiful bouquet of flowers.
- be a milestone be, represent This award represents a milestone in the development of the division.

- N+in career, development, history, life, process Delmedigo's book can be regarded as a milestone in the history of Jewish thought.

military ADJ relating to armies or armed forces

- ADJ+n activity action, activity, attack, campaign, conflict, coup, effort, exercise, intervention, invasion, mission, operation, presence, response, strike He took part in military campaigns against France and its allies in Hanover (1805–6).
- group force, organization, unit In 1747, he was commander in chief of all military forces in India and the Far East.
- people authorities, commander, leader, officer, official, personnel At the time, there were 22,000 U.S. military personnel in Afghanistan.
- place where a military organization is based base, installation, site He had taken photographs of Soviet military installations and airfields.
- equipment and facilities aircraft, cemetery, equipment, facility, hospital, training, uniform, vehicle About a quarter of the world's jet fuel is used by military aircraft.
- power capability, might, power, strength No nation has ever had as much military power as the United States.
- service service As soon as he was released from military service, he left England aboard a ship bound for Spain.
- when a military force controls a place government, occupation, regime, rule East Timor won its independence in 2002 after a long struggle against military occupation
- a place that a military organization is trying to attack target The insurgents have recently increased attacks on police and military targets in the area.

mimic V

copy someone or work in the same way as something else

- adv+V accurately, closely, effectively, exactly, perfectly This immune system is too complex to be accurately mimicked either in the laboratory or by computer simulation programmes.

- V+n action, behaviour, condition, effect, movement, process, sound, structure, style The drug appears to mimic the action of human oestrogen hormones.

mind N

the part of you that thinks, knows etc; your intelligence and ability to understand things

- adj+N mind human Both the human body and the human mind are constructed to need daily rest.
- with a lot of ideas active, creative, fertile The Mini was created by the fertile mind of Alec Issigonis.
- clever bright, brilliant, intelligent, keen, lively, quick, sharp Mr Howard's sharp, lawyerly mind would have been perfectly suited to these disputes.
- wanting to know things enquiring, inquisitive To be a good journalist, you need an enquiring mind.
- full of thoughts crowded, full His mind was full of schemes for keeping us out of mischief.
- thinking in a logical way analytical, logical, rational She had a cool, logical mind, and a quick, ready wit.
- having bad or unpleasant thoughts dirty, sick, troubled, twisted It becomes clear that his ingratiating good manners hid a deeply troubled mind.
- not willing to accept new ideas closed As a journalist, I learned early on that it was unwise to have a closed mind.
- willing to accept new ideas open You will enjoy the stay if you go with an open mind and not with any preconceived notions.
- suspicious suspicious She had a suspicious mind and was inclined not to believe him.
- the part of the mind that you are aware of conscious There is always dynamic interaction between the conscious mind and the subconscious mind.
- the part of your mind that you are not aware of subconscious, unconscious A dream is your unconscious mind processing your hopes and fears.

- v+N come into your mind come into, come to, cross, enter, go through A sudden thought crossed my mind.
- ▸ fill your mind fill, occupy Floods of painful memories filled my mind.
- ▸ develop and improve your mind broaden, challenge, develop, exercise, improve, stimulate, stretch, train Travel helps to improve your confidence and broaden your mind.
- ▸ make your mind think about one thing concentrate, direct, fix, focus Awareness of breathing is central to all forms of yoga and promotes calmness, helping to focus the mind and relieve stress and mental fatigue.

You can also use the expression keep your mind on: It was difficult to keep my mind on my work with all that was going on around me.

- ▸ stop your mind from having particular thoughts clear, empty, free I know it sounds stupid but when I'm running it clears my mind.
- ▸ make your mind feel more relaxed calm, relax Meditation is a way to calm the mind.
- ▸ use your mind engage, use Using the subconscious mind is the fastest way to create calm.
- ▸ confuse or surprise your mind boggle How that will happen boggles my mind.
- ▸ know what someone else has in their mind read He had a seemingly uncanny ability to read minds.
- ▸ lose lose Often we are reluctant to talk about such fantasies, fearing that we are losing our mind.

- N+v work work These notes offer an unrivalled glimpse into how his mind worked.
- ▸ start turn to sth With that immediate matter resolved, Julian's mind turned again to escape.
- ▸ start to think about other things that are not relevant drift, wander Her mind wandered too, back to happier times.
- ▸ have a lot of thoughts buzz, race My mind raced for a few moments, trying to rationalise the situation.
- ▸ feel confused or surprised boggle, reel, spin My mind boggled at the implications of what he was saying. ◆ Her mind was reeling with the effort of keeping up with everything that had happened to her in the last fortnight.

You can also use the expression mind-boggling to say that something is hard to imagine: Footballers now earn a mind-boggling amount of money.

minefield N

a situation with many possible problems or dangers

- adj+N possible potential Customers face a potential minefield when trying to select a reputable supplier.
- ▸ real veritable The Internet is a veritable minefield of things that can invade your computer and affect your data.
- ▸ in a particular area ethical, legal, moral, political The speaker painted a picture of the legal minefields associated with GM crops.

- v+N avoid, enter, face, navigate, negotiate, prove Practical advice can be provided for negotiating the minefield of employment regulations. ◆ The practice of medicine on cruise ships can prove a legal minefield, with doctors being sued in countries that they never visited.

minimal ADJ

extremely small, or as small as possible

- ADJ+n amount or cost amount, cost, level, number, use We can easily provide this service for you at minimal cost. ◆ We aim for minimal use of chemicals.
- ▸ bad effect damage, delay, disruption, disturbance, loss, risk The ship had been hit but had suffered minimal damage.
- ▸ effect change, effect, impact The design of the building will have a minimal impact on the environment.
- ▸ work or effort effort, input, intervention, involvement, maintenance, supervision, support, training, work Researchers are able to access information with minimal effort.

minimize V

reduce something to the smallest amount or degree

- V+n amount or cost amount, cost, need, number, time Businesses aim to maximize profits and minimize costs.
- ▸ something bad burden, damage, danger, delay, disruption, errors, harm, loss, noise, problem, stress, waste The works have been scheduled to take place during quiet periods, in order to minimize disruption for road users.
- ▸ the possibility of something bad happening chance, possibility, risk, threat Good personal hygiene minimizes the chances of spreading the disease.
- ▸ effect effect, impact Making payments over a longer period of time can minimize the effect on your budget.

minimum ADJ

as small as necessary or possible

- ADJ+n amount age, amount, level, number, period, time The minimum age for Junior Diving membership has been set at 14 years of age.
- ▸ amount of money charge, cost, payment, price, rate, value We apply a minimum charge of £150, however short the let.
- ▸ measurement of something distance, height, length, score, size, speed, temperature, weight, width Hutches should be a minimum size of 4 feet x 2 feet x 2 feet, with larger ones for bigger breeds.
- ▸ something bad or unwanted delay, disruption, disturbance, effort, fuss, loss, risk A good company should pay a genuine claim promptly and with minimum fuss.
- ▸ standard criteria, requirement, standard The minimum requirements are a year's experience within a legal environment and a sound administrational background.

minimum N

the smallest amount or degree necessary or possible

- adj+N absolute absolute, bare, basic, very The bare minimum needed is the computer itself, a monitor, and a keyboard.
- ▸ legal legal, statutory Our training is very rigorous and far exceeds the legal minimums adopted by many airlines.

▸ definite guaranteed The size of the jackpot is determined by the number of people who participate in each draw but there is a guaranteed minimum of 1.27 million euros.

▸ advised recommended There is a recommended minimum of one toilet, one hot shower and one washbasin for every twelve persons catered for.

• v+N keep sth to, reduce sth to Costs are kept to a minimum.

• N+of delay, disruption, disturbance, fuss, hassle INFORMAL, inconvenience, interference The new system allows appointments to be changed with the minimum of fuss.

minister N

an official in charge of a government department

• adj+N chief, junior, senior The junior minister for Italy's civil protection has attacked the UN and other countries for failing to keep their promises.

• n+N cabinet, government The news sparked a national row and government ministers promised to examine the case.

• v+N give someone the job of minister appoint sb (as), elect sb (as) Hilbrand Nawijn was appointed minister for asylum and immigration.

▸ get rid of a minister dismiss (sb) as, sack He appointed and dismissed his ministers at his own will.

▸ try to influence a minister lobby, urge Campaigners are lobbying ministers to upgrade the road.

minor ADJ

not very important in comparison with others

• adv+ADJ very extremely, very All of the above are very minor problems, and solutions have already been found for most of them.

▸ rather or compared with something else comparatively, fairly, rather, relatively A large proportion of women in jail are there for comparatively minor offences.

▸ apparently apparently, seemingly A seemingly minor glitch can cause a computer to crash.

• ADJ+n change adjustment, alteration, amendment, change, correction, modification, repair, revision, tweak, variation They made only minor amendments to the text.

▸ problem or fault blip INFORMAL, bug, defect, drawback, error, fault, flaw, inconvenience, mistake, problem, setback For most of us, changing the clocks twice a year is little more than a minor inconvenience.

▸ illness or injury, or when somebody is operated on ailment, illness, injury, operation, surgery Pharmacists are a good source of advice about minor ailments.

▸ complaint or criticism complaint, gripe, irritation, quibble Still, these are minor quibbles with what is otherwise a very enjoyable film.

▸ illegal activity breach, crime, offence She said that most women were in prison for minor offences and should instead be rehabilitated within the community.

▸ something that happens accident, incident They managed to prevent a minor incident turning into a major blaze.

▸ road road The map is very detailed, with all paths, minor roads, campsites etc shown.

▸ difference difference, discrepancy Although there are some minor differences in the system, the principles are the same.

minority N

a smaller, different group within a larger group

• adj+N large significant, sizeable, substantial A sizeable minority of respondents, about 20 per cent, felt that people from other religions were treated better.

▸ small insignificant, small, tiny The party represents the interests of a tiny minority of the electorate.

▸ badly or unfairly treated disadvantaged, oppressed, persecuted, under-represented Diabetes is a particular threat to disadvantaged minorities in industrialized nations.

▸ with advantages elite, over-represented, privileged, wealthy This rotten system only benefits a privileged minority.

▸ aggressive or complaining a lot militant, vocal, vociferous The campaign appears to be led by a vociferous minority.

▸ types of minority ethnic, linguistic, racial, religious, sexual The University will especially welcome applications from women and ethnic minorities.

• v+N be a minority be, constitute, represent The problem of students with such problems varies from institution to institution. But even where they constitute a small minority, it is important that their needs are met.

▸ treat a minority badly or unfairly discriminate against, exclude, persecute

• N+n group background, community, culture, faction, group, nationality, party, population, sect Police met with representatives from the many minority groups that make up the community.

▸ believed or held by a minority faith, opinion, religion, viewpoint We want to overcome our differences without silencing minority viewpoints.

▸ done, used etc by a minority interest, language, sport Minority languages used within the EU include Croatian, Romani, Slovak, Romanian, Serbian and Slovene.

▸ owning a minority of something holding, shareholding, stake He will keep a minority stake in the company.

minute N

a period of 60 seconds; a short period of time

• adj+N a few a few, several Download the pack by clicking on the icon below – this may take a few minutes.

▸ first or early early, first, opening The first goal came in the opening minute of the match.

▸ last closing, dying, final, last The closing minutes of the game were unbearably tense. • They came away with a disappointing 2–2 draw after missing a penalty in the last minute.

▸ spare spare Have a look at our website when you've got a few spare minutes.

You can also say a few, etc minutes spare: Have you got a few minutes spare to hear about the new system?

- v+N take a minute last, take This test takes 15–20 minutes. ◆ Could I have a word with you? It'll only take a minute.
- ▶ spend a minute spend, wait, waste We had to wait 30 minutes for the car to come and pick us up.
- ▶ allow a minute allow, spare Please allow a minute or so for this page to load.

- N+v pass elapse, fly by, pass, tick by Perhaps five minutes had elapsed before the man turned around.
- ▶ remain be left, remain The match was abandoned with 18 minutes remaining.

minute ADJ

very small

- ADJ+n object or piece droplet, particle, speck, trace Many marine species are now affected by minute toxic particles from plastic bags.
- ▶ quantity fraction, quantity This only represents a minute fraction of total education spending.
- ▶ detail detail He wanted to know about everything in minute detail.

miracle N an extraordinary or impossible event, especially one considered an act of God

- adj+N great amazing, astonishing, mighty, stupendous, wondrous It was an astonishing miracle – I have never seen anything like it.
- ▶ small minor, small In the last two years a minor miracle has taken place.
- ▶ performed by God divine Some believe this to be a divine miracle.
- ▶ types of miracle economic, medical The growth of China in recent years has been described as an economic miracle.

- v+N perform a miracle accomplish, perform, work The teachers were being asked to perform miracles with limited resources.

Usage Miracle is usually plural in these combinations: Successive governments have worked miracles in creating a modern, vibrant and successful economy.

- ▶ see or experience a miracle witness Many people claim that they have witnessed a miracle either in their own life or another person's.
- ▶ want or expect a miracle expect, hope for, pray for You can't expect miracles overnight.
- ▶ promise a miracle promise We are not promising miracles; but there is a great deal that can be done.

- N+v happen happen, occur I do believe that miracles happen, but in this case I would ask people to use their common sense.
- ▶ be called be hailed as The 'weeping' statue is being hailed as a miracle by some.

- N+n solution cure, diet, drug There is no magic pill or miracle diet for losing weight.
- ▶ person who can do miracles worker He was not a miracle worker, but he was a great teacher.

miraculous ADJ

extremely lucky and unexpected

- adv+ADJ apparently allegedly, apparently, seemingly, supposedly Her family and friends rejoiced at this seemingly miraculous recovery.
- ▶ truly truly The survival of the gardens over so many centuries is truly miraculous.
- ▶ almost almost It will be a tremendous and almost miraculous achievement if they succeed.

- ADJ+n escape or recovery escape, recovery Villagers had a miraculous escape when a fighter jet crashed into the village just yards away from a loaded petrol tanker.
- ▶ cure cure, healing There are no miraculous cures for baldness. ◆ Many people, from different Christian traditions, believe that miraculous healing continues to take place.
- ▶ action or event deed, feat, occurrence, transformation How did he accomplish this miraculous feat?

miscalculation

when a mistake is made

- adj+N big disastrous, grave, gross, serious, tragic They made a grave miscalculation.
- ▶ small slight Even a slight miscalculation at this sensitive juncture could cause discord.

- v+N make The alternative explanation is that someone made a simple miscalculation.

miscarriage N

the process of giving birth to a baby before it has developed enough to live

- adj+N repeated frequent, recurrent, repeated Twenty women with a history of recurrent miscarriage took part in the study.
- ▶ with an unknown or accidental cause spontaneous, unexplained Many spontaneous miscarriages are connected to potential birth defects.
- ▶ early in pregnancy early Mrs Peters has had two early miscarriages.
- ▶ possible threatened Herbs were used to treat specific conditions such as threatened miscarriage.

- v+N have a miscarriage experience, have, suffer She revealed that she had suffered five miscarriages.
- ▶ cause a miscarriage cause, induce These chromosomal abnormalities may be severe enough to cause a miscarriage.
- ▶ prevent or avoid a miscarriage avoid, prevent More frequent scanning is not going to prevent a miscarriage.

- n+of+N cause, history, likelihood, risk Women who smoke face an increased risk of miscarriage or stillbirth.

misconception N

a wrong belief caused by not understanding something

- adj+N common common, popular, prevalent, widespread It is a common misconception that an unsecured loan is less risky than a secured loan.
- ▶ bad or unfortunate damaging, gross, serious, unfortunate, worrying Many in the West harbour gross misconceptions regarding Islam.

- basic basic, fundamental There is a fundamental misconception about the art of Tracey Emin, Rachel Whiteread and their generation.
- v+N have a misconception harbour, have, hold, labour under There are many misconceptions held by teachers and parents about careers in the arts. • Some boys labour under the misconception that carrying a knife will make them seem 'cool'.
- correct or get rid of a misconception allay, clarify, correct, dispel, overcome, redress, refute We are holding a series of meetings to dispel misconceptions surrounding our intentions.
- take action against a misconception address, challenge, combat, confront, counter, tackle The paper is focused on addressing public misconceptions about mental illness.
- cause a misconception give rise to, lead to, perpetuate, reinforce The lack of archaeological data has perpetuated misconceptions about this period.
- be based on a misconception be based on This theory is based on several misconceptions about the nature of modern society.
- N+v abound, arise, persist The misconception arose chiefly because they had been supplied with incomplete information.

You can use surrounding, regarding or concerning to say what a misconception is about: The fears and misconceptions surrounding the disease mean that those with early symptoms are reluctant to come forward.

misconduct N

bad or dishonest behaviour, especially in your job

- adj+N serious criminal, grave, gross, serious Accusations of gross misconduct were levelled against the Finance Officer.
- deliberate deliberate, flagrant, wilful Security was so lax that it amounted to wilful misconduct.
- types of misconduct academic, professional, scientific, sexual University staff should see plagiarism as a significant form of academic misconduct.
- suspected alleged, suspected A confidential report about the minister's alleged sexual misconduct was leaked to the press.
- v+N say that there is misconduct accuse sb of, admit, allege, report, suspect Where there are grounds to suspect serious misconduct, the University reserves the right to record telephone calls.
- commit misconduct be guilty of, commit A lawyer could be accused of stealing client funds or otherwise committing professional misconduct.
- deny misconduct deny The Doctor, an official government adviser, denies professional misconduct.
- investigate or prove misconduct investigate, prove The Commissioners investigate misconduct and abuse.
- when someone loses their job dismiss sb for, sack sb for It is not appropriate for employers to dismiss an employee for alleged gross misconduct without a hearing taking place.

miserable ADJ

extremely unhappy or uncomfortable

- adv+ADJ very absolutely, downright, so, thoroughly, truly, utterly One quarter of the population believe life is unfair, and one in three feel downright miserable.
- rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, rather It is always pretty miserable driving alone through the outskirts of London.
- ADJ+n life or experience childhood, existence, experience, fate, life, plight Peter, now a very old man, recalls his miserable childhood in Ireland.
- conditions conditions Animals suffer miserable conditions on factory farms.
- state condition, state When I left him he was in a miserable state.
- person creature, wretch We were all arrested, including those miserable wretches who had just been freed from decades of incarceration.
- place hovel, hut, slum Millions flee the poverty of rural life to the equally miserable city slums.
- weather afternoon, drizzle, weather It is an attractive place, even on a miserable afternoon.
- v+ADJ be, feel, look, seem, sound Nearly a million young people have felt so miserable that they have considered suicide.

misery N

the state of being extremely unhappy or uncomfortable

- adj+N very great abject, appalling, indescribable, squalid, unspeakable, untold, utter Taking this lifeline away from people with Alzheimer's will cause untold misery to patients and their families.
- absolute absolute, sheer Bullying can make life at work sheer misery.
- hopeless helpless, hopeless Men stood on the deck of the sinking ship in helpless misery.
- of people human The government promised a crackdown on traffickers who profit from human misery.
- v+N cause misery bring, cause, herald, inflict (on sb), spell These are the prolific offenders who inflict misery on the law-abiding majority. • High fuel bills spell misery for the poor.
- make misery worse aggravate, compound, deepen, heap on sb, perpetuate, pile on sb, spread The Chancellor was accused of piling misery on bereaved families by increasing inheritance tax.
- stop or reduce misery alleviate, ease, end, relieve He had a desperate need to earn money to alleviate his family's economic misery.
- suffer misery endure, suffer Commuters will continue to suffer the misery of long traffic queues.

misfortune N

bad luck, or something unpleasant that happens

- adj+N very bad cruel, dire, dreadful, grave, great, terrible What dreadful misfortune had befallen him?
- personal personal We tend to assume that all personal misfortune must be someone's fault.
- v+N suffer misfortune endure, experience, have, suffer He suffered the misfortune of being declared bankrupt and losing his business.
- bring misfortune bring In some parts of the country, people with red hair were thought to bring misfortune.

▸ suffer a lot of misfortune be dogged by, be plagued by The ship finally docked after a voyage that had been dogged by misfortune.

• N+v befall sb/sth, happen, occur, overtake sb/sth, strike Misfortune struck, and the building was destroyed by fire.

• n+of+N catalogue, run, series It seemed that there had been a run of misfortune in the village and a number of children had died.

misgivings N doubts about something

• adj+N serious considerable, deep, grave, profound, serious, severe, strong I have grave misgivings about the practical implications of these arguments.
▸ slight slight I must admit to slight misgivings when I bought my ticket.
▸ at first early, initial Despite initial misgivings, I have come to like the book a lot.
▸ about what is right or wrong ethical Many researchers have ethical misgivings about doing applied research.

• v+N have misgivings entertain, feel, harbour, have I have some misgivings about the plan to knock down the main building.

You can use concerning or regarding to say what misgivings are about: There are many groups which have serious misgivings concerning commercial genetic testing.

▸ express misgivings express, voice The Irish Farmers Association has voiced misgivings.
▸ overcome misgivings allay, overcome If you overcome your misgivings and visit an auction, you will find yourself hooked.
▸ cause misgivings arouse This new form of surveillance aroused misgivings in the public.

misguided ADJ
based on wrong judgments or opinions

• adv+ADJ in a very bad or unfortunate way dangerously, sadly, terribly, tragically, woefully The idea that it is in their interest to continue fighting is woefully misguided.
▸ completely completely, deeply, fundamentally, profoundly, totally, utterly It is a well-meaning thought, but utterly misguided.
▸ rather a little, rather, somewhat There is a somewhat misguided obsession with celebrity in the art world.

• ADJ+n attempt attempt Their misguided attempts to tell everyone how to live their lives have the opposite effect.
▸ belief assumption, belief, idealism, notion He had the misguided belief that the band could not continue without him.
▸ impression impression, perception There is a misguided perception among young people that cannabis is harmless.
▸ emotion hope, loyalty People sometimes protect an incompetent colleague out of misguided loyalty.

• and/or dangerous, ignorant, naive, wrong To suggest that all video games are 'evil' is ignorant and misguided.

mishap N
a minor mistake or accident

• adj+N small minor, slight You need to cope with minor mishaps such as losing your mobile phone.
▸ serious major, serious, unfortunate One major mishap occurred when a videotape was accidentally wiped.
▸ funny or embarrassing amusing, comic, embarrassing, hilarious All this leads to an extremely entertaining comedy with hilarious mishaps and witty dialogue.
▸ occasional occasional Even the most experienced translator has an occasional mishap.
▸ types of mishap mechanical, medical, technical The charity offers help to the victims of medical mishaps.

• v+N prevent or avoid a mishap avoid, prevent The article was entitled 'How to avoid holiday mishaps'.
▸ have a mishap have, suffer If a child does suffer a mishap during lessons or at playtime, prompt treatment is essential.

• N+v befall sb, occur An unfortunate mishap befell one of the cast members.

• n+of+N catalogue, series The first in a series of mishaps occurred when a train hit the buffers at Lime Street station.

misinformation N false or incorrect information

• adj+N deliberate, intentional The media had been fed deliberate misinformation.

• v+N spread misinformation circulate, disseminate, feed sb, peddle, propagate, spread Having lost the arguments, our opponents are now reduced to peddling misinformation.
▸ correct misinformation correct, counter, counteract, dispel When invited to correct this misinformation at interview, he simply confirmed it.

• n+of+N amount, piece The book manages to correct some pieces of misinformation concerning the history of the school.

misinterpret V understand or explain something wrongly

• adv+V deliberately deliberately, wilfully They have ignored or wilfully misinterpreted the evidence we have provided.
▸ badly completely, grossly, wildly The remarks I made on News 24 about this were grossly misinterpreted.
▸ always or often consistently, frequently, often Do you feel that you are consistently misinterpreted or misrepresented by journalists?
▸ by many people commonly, widely This was widely misinterpreted as forcing employees to work until their 70th birthday.

Usage Misinterpret is usually passive in these combinations.

▸ easily easily Many of the instructions are misleading or easily misinterpreted.

Usage Misinterpret is usually passive in these combinations.

- V+n word or statement comment, instructions, meaning, message, phrase, remark, words He accused the foreign press of misinterpreting his remarks.
- ▸ intentions intentions, motives I could tell her everything without fear that she would misinterpret my motives.
- ▸ signal sign, signal I thought he wanted to kiss me, but I could have misinterpreted the signs.
- ▸ facts evidence, facts, statistics Anybody who thinks I have misinterpreted the facts can check them out.

misjudge V make a wrong judgment about a person or situation; make an incorrect calculation

- adv+V badly, completely, fatally, grossly, horribly, seriously, sorely, totally, woefully The new minister appeared with his beautifully crafted speech, but fatally misjudged the mood of Parliament.
- V+n speed or movement of something bounce, distance, speed, timing The goalkeeper misjudged the bounce and the ball went over his head.
- ▸ mood or situation mood, situation He took too much notice of the press and completely misjudged the situation.

misleading ADJ

intended or likely to make someone believe something incorrect or false

- adv+ADJ seriously or completely completely, dangerously, downright, grossly, highly, profoundly, seriously, totally, wholly, wildly This statement is either grossly misleading or completely false.
- ▸ deliberately deliberately, intentionally, knowingly, wilfully The way in which he had filled out his form was deliberately misleading.
- ▸ not deliberately inadvertently, unintentionally Computer-generated displays can be unintentionally misleading.
- ▸ clearly blatantly, frankly, positively To publish the research in this form would be positively misleading.
- ▸ rather a little, rather, slightly, somewhat The title may be slightly misleading.
- ▸ possibly possibly, potentially He commented on the potentially misleading nature of the scores.

- ADJ+n advertisement advert, advertisement, advertising, propaganda The document lays down rules concerning misleading advertisements.
- ▸ title headline, title Despite the misleading headline, the article did go on to represent the research accurately.
- ▸ statement or claim assertion, claim, statement, wording Many of the studies are full of misleading statements unsupported by data.
- ▸ impression impression A biased sample can give a misleading impression of the scale of a problem.

mismanagement N

the process of managing something badly

- adj+N very bad appalling, disastrous, gross, serious Every shareholder lost money thanks to the gross mismanagement of the company.
- ▸ possible alleged Detectives are investigating the alleged mismanagement of a lottery competition at the club.
- ▸ types of mismanagement bureaucratic, economic, financial, governmental, ministerial This town has suffered over the years from bureaucratic mismanagement.

- and/or corruption, fraud, incompetence, inefficiency, misconduct, neglect, waste The Commission is satisfied that there has been no misconduct or mismanagement in the administration of the charity.

miss V

1 not notice or understand something

- adv+V completely completely, entirely, totally The article completely misses the fact that fresh research has been done since that time.
- ▸ somehow somehow All these years I've somehow missed what a fantastic drummer he is.
- ▸ easily easily These are details that are easily missed.
- V+n clue, joke, point I think you've missed my point.

2 fail to take advantage of something; fail to do something in time

- adv+V not often never, rarely The government never miss an opportunity to make political capital out of the company's problems.
- ▸ unfortunately unfortunately I unfortunately missed the closing date for entries.
- ▸ not deliberately accidentally, inadvertently What happens if you inadvertently miss a dose of your medication?
- V+n miss an opportunity chance, opportunity Your numbers are automatically entered every single week, so you never miss a chance to win.
- ▸ when you do not do something that you have arranged appointment, deadline It has a handy alarm that means I don't miss my deadlines!

3 feel sad because someone is not with you

- adv+V badly, dearly, deeply, desperately, greatly, really, sadly, sorely We will sorely miss him, as will his thousands of devoted fans around the world.

mission N

1 an important piece of work for a government or large organization, or a military operation

- adj+N secret covert, secret, top-secret, undercover Special Forces operatives risk their lives on undercover missions around the world.
- ▸ difficult dangerous, daring, perilous Kerensky had set out on a dangerous mission to bring loyal troops from outside the city.
- ▸ types of mission diplomatic, humanitarian, military, tactical He described the trip as a humanitarian mission aimed at setting up a blood bank in Baghdad.
- ▸ with a particular purpose bombing, fact-finding, outreach, peace-keeping, reconnaissance, rescue, spying, trade The Mayor is flying to the earthquake zone on a fact-finding mission.

- v+N carry out a mission conduct, execute, further, participate in, perform, pursue, undertake We will fund other costs where it helps us to further our charitable mission.
- ▸ complete a mission accomplish, achieve, complete, fulfil They rely on local people for the information they need to accomplish the mission.
- ▸ stop a mission abort A severe storm blew up and the mission was aborted.
- ▸ be given a mission be assigned, be charged with, be entrusted with, be given, be sent on Each field artillery unit is assigned a tactical mission.
- ▸ go on a mission begin, embark on, go on Together they embarked on a daring mission to save her.

2 an important goal for a person or organization

- adj+N most important core, main, primary The targets that we have set all aim towards our core mission: to build a safe, just and tolerant society.
- ▸ general overall The overall mission of the Library Service is to bring knowledge and enjoyment to as many people as possible.
- ▸ publicly stated stated Its stated mission is to promote and support science in Scotland.

- v+N achieve your mission achieve, fulfil We will endeavour to fulfil our mission by inviting and welcoming artists into membership.
- ▸ have a mission have IT Services have a mission to provide ICT solutions which enable and support the University's learning community.
- ▸ carry out your mission pursue In pursuing this mission, we must work in close partnership with local healthcare teams.

- N+n statement Our mission statement is 'to produce outstanding products that genuinely make a difference'.

mist N

a mass of small drops of water in the air close to the ground

- adj+N thick dense, impenetrable, thick We set off for the moor, driving straight into dense mist.
- ▸ thin hazy, thin, wispy We walked in bright sunshine, with a few strands of wispy mist.
- ▸ soft gentle, soft The sun shone through the soft silvery mist that hung in patches over the sea.
- ▸ making things look mysterious atmospheric, eerie, ghostly You can see for miles and eerie mists around Glastonbury Tor offer an atmospheric walk to the top.
- ▸ of a particular colour grey, silvery, white The track is swathed in a grey mist.
- ▸ low low-lying There is background of high hills, their peaks rising clear above low-lying mist.
- ▸ moving rolling, swirling Troops landed on the beach in the swirling mist of a grey dawn.
- ▸ only present in some places patchy The night will be cold and clear but patchy mist may develop by morning.
- ▸ seen at a particular time autumn, autumnal, dawn, early, evening, morning, winter Once the early autumn mist had cleared, it was a beautiful late September day.
- ▸ in or from a particular place moorland, mountain, sea A dense moorland mist had settled, reducing visibility to a few feet.

- N+v surround or cover something cling to, envelop, hang over, obscure, shroud, veil The day turned out dull and cold, with a mist shrouding the bare limestone edge.

  You can also say that something is shrouded in mist: Behind us rose the bulk of Elephant Island, shrouded in mist.
- ▸ move drift, rise, roll, swirl We stood on the cliffs and watched as the mist rolled in from the sea.
- ▸ disappear clear, disperse, lift By the time I got there, blue patches of sky were appearing and the mist had cleared.
- ▸ come down come down, descend, settle A thick mist soon descended, so we had to turn back.
- ▸ be over somewhere hang, lie The day dawned sunny, with a light mist hanging over the valleys.

- v+into+N disappear, vanish I tried to keep him in sight, but then he disappeared into the mist and I was alone.

- n+of+N bank, blanket, cloud, patch, veil We ran into a bank of sea mist that reduced the visibility to fifty metres.

mistake N

1 something you do, say, write, or think that is not correct

- adj+N silly careless, embarrassing, foolish, silly, sloppy, stupid The misnaming of the defendant in the claim form was a silly mistake by the claimant's solicitors.
- ▸ serious bad, serious There are often bad mistakes in job descriptions.
- ▸ not serious minor, slight There are one or two minor mistakes and misspellings in the subtitles, but nothing serious.
- ▸ happening occasionally occasional, odd He makes the odd mistake simply because he's so keen, but overall he's coming on great.
- ▸ common or basic classic, common, elementary So many people make one or more of these common mistakes on their CV.
- ▸ not deliberate genuine, honest, innocent, unintentional Many discounts are issued incorrectly because of genuine mistakes made by claimants.
- ▸ deliberate deliberate This reminds me of adverts for proofreaders that are filled with deliberate mistakes.
- ▸ obvious glaring I have seen glaring mistakes in expensive magazine ads.
- ▸ types of mistake copying, factual, grammar, grammatical, printing, punctuation, spelling, translation I apologise for any factual or grammatical mistakes.

- v+N make a mistake make They made a mistake in the original certificate of registration.
- ▸ notice a mistake discover, find, notice, realize, spot If you spot a mistake, please send us the details and we will pass it on to the people responsible for maintaining the data.
- ▸ correct or get rid of mistakes correct, eliminate, fix, rectify, remedy, undo The present edition improves on its predecessors by correcting a few minor mistakes. ● Before submitting your work, use the checklist to eliminate common mistakes.
- ▸ contain a mistake contain The list clearly still contains mistakes.

▸ admit or apologize for a mistake acknowledge, admit As regular readers will know, I do like to admit my mistakes and rectify them before they do too much damage.
▸ forgive a mistake excuse, forgive Please forgive any mistakes, broken links, and the like.

• N+v arise, creep in, happen, occur The mistake crept in because the Korean numbering system is different to the European one.

2 something you wish you had not done, because it causes a lot of problems

• adj+N serious awful, bad, big, disastrous, dreadful, fatal, ghastly, grave, grievous, horrible, huge, serious, terrible, tragic The opinion became firmly established that the last war was a grave mistake.
▸ costing a lot of money costly, expensive Get advice from the professionals and avoid costly mistakes.
▸ types of mistake defensive, fashion, tactical It was, as many US officials now concede, a tactical mistake.

• v+N make a mistake commit, make They made the mistake of assuming that all users will have a broadband Internet connection.
▸ avoid mistakes avoid, prevent In order to prevent any future mistakes, we need to have a clear agreement.
▸ make the same mistake again repeat They risk repeating the mistakes of the past by building large housing estates.
▸ realize or regret a mistake acknowledge, admit, regret As I look back on my life, I realize that I don't regret a single life-changing mistake.
▸ forgive a mistake excuse, forgive As he was very young at the time, perhaps he can be excused this mistake.

mistaken ADJ

wrong, not correct

• adv+ADJ fundamentally, gravely, grossly, much, profoundly, sadly, seriously, very much They would be profoundly mistaken if they thought so. ◆ Unless I'm very much mistaken, this will prove to be a bestseller.

• ADJ+n belief assumption, belief, conclusion, explanation, idea, impression, interpretation, notion, perception, view Normandy villages were destroyed in the mistaken belief that they housed the German army.
▸ identity identification, identity He felt that it was a case of mistaken identity, but could not find the real culprit.

• v+ADJ be, prove This idea later proved seriously mistaken.

misunderstanding N

a failure to understand someone or something correctly; a small argument

• adj+N serious complete, fundamental, gross, profound, serious, terrible A critic claimed the poet's popularity was based on a complete misunderstanding of what his poems are about. ◆ The reason is the persistent and gross misunderstanding of Darwinian evolution.
▸ not very serious slight There had been a slight misunderstanding with Smith over funding arrangements.
▸ common common, widespread There continues to be a widespread misunderstanding that the term 'common law wife/husband' has legal significance.
▸ unfortunate tragic, unfortunate Say it now. That may save a tragic misunderstanding later on.
▸ unnecessary or silly ridiculous, unnecessary Hasty messages sent without due consideration can cause unnecessary misunderstandings.
▸ amusing comic, comical, hilarious That small lie turns into a bigger one, and soon Paul's life is a series of comical misunderstandings.
▸ deliberate intentional, wilful This is a wilful misunderstanding of gambling as a harmless hobby rather than an addiction.
▸ genuine genuine Often the issue at the heart of the argument turns out to be a genuine misunderstanding.
▸ on both sides mutual I write about the Irish/British relationship and all its mutual attractions and mutual misunderstandings.
▸ between different cultures cross-cultural, cultural, inter-cultural Cultural misunderstandings can lead to the loss of business deals.

• v+N be based on a misunderstanding arise from, be based on, result from, stem from In my view, the concerns are based on a misunderstanding about the nature of our proposal.
▸ resolve or correct a misunderstanding clarify, clear up, correct, dispel, eliminate, overcome, resolve The report dispels the common misunderstanding that chronic diseases mainly affect people in wealthy countries.
▸ avoid a misunderstanding avoid, minimize, prevent In future, we are asking people to confirm in writing, to avoid any misunderstandings.
▸ cause misunderstandings cause, lead to Cultural differences in behaviour can cause misunderstandings.
▸ reveal a misunderstanding betray The language used betrays a misunderstanding of geology and geological processes.

• N+v arise, lead to sth, occur Sometimes difficulties and misunderstandings arise between parents or guardians and teachers. ◆ A misunderstanding has led to a misinterpretation of the facts.

mix V

1 combine activities, ideas, styles etc

• adv+V cleverly cleverly, deftly, effortlessly, expertly, skilfully The film deftly mixes fact and fiction.
▸ without showing that things are mixed seamlessly DJs like to mix one track into another seamlessly.
▸ randomly randomly His surrealist poetry creates poems by randomly mixing together newsfeeds from online news sources.
▸ freely freely, liberally Media coverage of popular science is often liberally mixed with myth.

2 meet people socially and talk to them

• adv+V socially informally, socially Their visit also gave them an important opportunity to mix informally with their fellow candidates.
▸ freely freely The College is one of Cambridge's

friendliest, with undergraduates, graduates and Fellows mixing freely.

mix N

a particular combination of objects, qualities, substances, or a combination of different types of people

- adj+N right or well balanced appropriate, balanced, even, good, healthy, the optimum, perfect, the right The school has a balanced socio-economic mix. ◉ He plays the role with just the right mix of charm and malice.
- exciting exciting, exhilarating, heady, intoxicating, lively, potent, stimulating, vibrant The coast of Tanzania offers a heady mix of east African and Arabian cultures.
- dangerous explosive, volatile The website contains a volatile mix of apocalyptic religious and conspiracy theories.
- varied broad, cosmopolitan, diverse, eclectic, rich, varied Universities offer a wider range of courses than ever before, suiting a much broader mix of abilities. ◉ Daniel has done well to assemble such an eclectic mix of works by local artists.
- unusual or interesting bewildering, bizarre, complex, curious, fascinating, interesting, intriguing, odd, strange, unique, unusual, weird The magazine is a unique mix of news and gossip.
- usual usual Before that there is the usual mix of bureaucracy and builders to deal with.
- pleasing clever, delicious, delightful, nice, pleasing, refreshing, wonderful His new book is a clever mix of reporting and theory.
- types of mix cultural, ethnic, racial The ethnic mix within the Company is extremely diverse.

- v+N contain or consist of a mix boast, combine, comprise, consist of, contain, feature, incorporate, offer, provide The event was a great success, combining the right mix of new and existing customers. ◉ This day workshop will comprise a mix of presentations and case studies.
- create a mix bring together, create Employ people of all ages to create a mix of skills and experience that benefit your business.
- attract a mix attract We hope to attract a good mix of creative people and technologists.
- show that there is a mix reflect Guatemala's culture reflects the fascinating mix of influences on the country's turbulent history.

mixed ADJ

partly good and partly bad

- adv+ADJ very decidedly, distinctly, very The album was greeted with decidedly mixed reviews upon its original release.
- rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, rather, somewhat The figures suggest that the economic forecast is somewhat mixed.
- strangely curiously, strangely It describes the strangely mixed emotions of so many middle-aged parents whose children are leaving home.
- not surprisingly predictably On the topic of the Millennium Centre, opinions are predictably mixed.

- ADJ+n something that is present or happens blessing Knowledge can be a mixed blessing – sometimes it's better not to know.
- success fortunes The year has been one of mixed fortunes for the netball team.
- emotions emotions, feelings It was with mixed feelings that I learned I was to meet him again.
- reaction reaction, reception The proposal met with a mixed reception from residents.

mixture N

a combination of different things, people, qualities etc

- adj+N varied complex, eclectic, rich The architecture of the centre is an eclectic mixture of contemporary and traditional styles.
- good or balanced balanced, delightful, judicious The album is a perfectly balanced mixture of slow, tender songs, and upbeat rock songs.
- strange bizarre, curious, odd, strange, uneasy His work is a curious mixture of the old and new methods of inquiry.
- interesting fascinating, intriguing The book is an intriguing mixture of theory, practice, and case history.
- powerful heady, potent The show contains a potent mixture of dreams and sacrifices, family rebellion and romance.
- dangerous combustible, explosive, incendiary, volatile They had chosen the most combustible mixture of personalities they could possibly find.

- v+N be, comprise, consist of, contain, include, provide The newsletter provides a mixture of local news plus guides to entertainment and shopping in the area.

mob N

a crowd that is dangerous or difficult to control

- adj+N angry or excited angry, enraged, excited, frenzied, furious, hostile, infuriated The building was torn down by an angry mob.
- violent armed, bloodthirsty, violent Dickens wrote A Tale of Two Cities from the point of view of the aristocrat as victim of the bloodthirsty mob.
- badly behaved drunken, rioting, riotous, rowdy, unruly The military were called in to help clear the neighbourhood of the unruly mob.
- making a noise baying, braying, howling, jeering, noisy She was almost dragged out of her car by the baying mob.
- hungry hungry With bread prices at record levels, hungry mobs attacked the gates of Paris.
- stupid ignorant An ignorant mob slaughtered most of a family because they were 'witches'.

- n+N wanting to kill or punish someone lynch, vigilante Feelings were running high and she feared her son might become the victim of a lynch mob.

- v+N encourage or excite a mob incite, rouse He accused the newspaper of trying to incite vigilante mobs with sensationalist stories.
- calm or break up a mob calm, disperse, quell Troops were called in to quell a mob attacking a meeting at the Courthouse.

- N+v attack someone or something assail, assault, attack, besiege, chase, storm The police station was besieged by a mob and its windows smashed.
- kill someone lynch, murder In 1736 an Edinburgh mob lynched Captain Porteous, the commander of the Town Guard.

- ▸ damage or steal property loot, plunder, ransack, smash A mob had ransacked the Colonial Building.
- ▸ throw things pelt, stone A 50-strong mob pelted police with bottles and broken glass.
- ▸ come together gather A mob gathered outside the prison.
- ▸ break up or go away disperse He was asked to remain behind for his own safety, until the mob dispersed.

- • N+n justice, mentality, rule, violence Only hate-filled racists want to see mob rule, lynchings and persecutions.

mobility N

1 the ability to move your body or to travel from one place to another

- • adj+N restricted decreased, impaired, limited, restricted The whole of the Conference Centre is easily accessible for people with impaired mobility.
- ▸ getting worse declining, decreasing, deteriorating Advancing years and declining mobility obliged him to sell the boat.
- ▸ improved increased The benefits of massage include increased mobility in the neck and shoulders.

- • v+N reduce mobility affect, compromise, constrain, hinder, impede, inhibit, limit, reduce, restrict She has leg and hip problems that have affected her mobility. ◉ Corded phones restrict your mobility while you talk.
- ▸ increase mobility aid, enhance, facilitate, improve, increase This session comprises 30 minutes of gentle exercises to increase mobility in muscles and joints.
- ▸ get back, give back, or keep mobility maintain, regain, restore Despite moments of great pain and despair, he worked hard to regain full mobility.

2 a tendency to move between places, jobs, social groups etc

- • adj+N to a higher or lower social class downward, upward The number of state-educated entrants to our top universities has risen, a potent symbol of upward mobility.
- ▸ types of mobility geographic, geographical, occupational, social Traditionally, western Europe has had a very low rate of geographic mobility.

- • n+N job, labour, population, staff, student The 'Erasmus' scheme encourages greater student mobility between participating universities.

- • v+N increase or encourage mobility aid, ease, encourage, facilitate, promote The scheme also aids staff mobility because employees can move to other participating employers and stay in the same pension scheme.
- ▸ limit or discourage mobility impede, limit, restrict The housing market is making inequality wider and further impeding social mobility.

mobilize V

to bring together something such as a large group of people or money and support, in order to achieve something

- • adv+V quickly immediately, quickly, rapidly He quickly mobilized the public to collect money and materials.
- ▸ successfully effectively, successfully The union has successfully mobilized against the government.

- • V+n people to fight army, forces, masses, troops Germany invaded the Soviet Union on the very same day, mobilizing the largest army (3,500,000 men) ever known.
- ▸ supporters allies, electorate, voters He used the Internet to mobilize voters.
- ▸ support or resources public opinion, resources, votes This can be used to predict high-risk years for malaria with sufficient time to mobilize resources to reduce the impact of epidemics.
- ▸ opposition opposition, protest The focus of the campaign is to mobilize local opposition to the development.

mock V

laugh at someone or something and make them look stupid

- • adv+V in an unkind way cruelly, mercilessly Everybody else in the house mercilessly mocked me.
- ▸ in a kind way affectionately, gently, lightly They gently mock people for being too young, too posh, or too Australian.
- ▸ openly openly People openly mocked the singer's voice as shrill, piercing and annoying.

- • and/or belittle, deride, despise, insult, jeer, persecute, ridicule, scorn, sneer at, tease Are you being mocked or ridiculed at school?

mode N

a particular way of doing something or of operating something

- • adj+N usual dominant, main, normal, standard, traditional, usual Verbal speech remains our usual mode of communication.
- ▸ only only, sole The car does not need to be your sole mode of transport.
- ▸ best best, preferred Our preferred mode of communication is email.
- ▸ different alternative, different, new, other, various You will experience different modes of behaviour when you travel abroad.

- • v+N use a particular mode activate, choose, operate in, run in, select, switch to, unlock The device can operate in several different modes. ◉ Next, select an appropriate screen mode for your program.
- ▸ use one mode and then another switch between, toggle between You can toggle between modes with the control lever.

- • N+of transport transport, transportation, travel Cycling is a sustainable mode of transport and an effective means of exercise.
- ▸ communication communication, expression, interaction Images, rather than words, have become the dominant mode of communication.

model N

a way of behaving or doing something, especially one which other people copy

- • adj+N simple or usual basic, common, conventional, dominant, simple, standard, traditional We follow the traditional comprehensive model of secondary schooling.

- ▸ good excellent, good, positive, successful It is particularly important that the staff work well as a team and provide a good model.
- ▸ different alternative, different, innovative, new In this section we consider an alternative trading model.
- ▸ relating to society, business, or the economy business, economic, financial, management, social The European economic model itself is now under criticism.

- • v+N create a model build, create, design, develop, introduce, produce, provide The company provides a positive model for businesses in the region.
- ▸ use a model adopt, apply, follow, use The model that we are currently using is not suited to children with special needs.
- ▸ fit a model conform to, fit In your research, do not force language data to fit your model.

- • N+of behaviour, best practice, excellence, good practice The organization is a model of best practice.

moderate ADJ

not very great or very small; not extreme

- • adv+ADJ when compared with others comparatively, relatively Reactions to the announcement were relatively moderate.
- ▸ very very She congratulated him on his very moderate speech.
- ▸ relating to politics politically I would vote for any politically moderate party at the moment.
- ▸ rather fairly, quite The path can be muddy, even after quite moderate amounts of rainfall.
- ▸ surprisingly surprisingly Toronto has a surprisingly moderate climate.

- • ADJ+n number, degree, or size amount, degree, level, number, size Eat only moderate amounts of dairy products.
- ▸ speed pace, speed The tour pace is moderate with generally easy walking.
- ▸ increase or growth growth, increase In horses, a moderate increase in body temperature is not a disadvantage.
- ▸ money paid, earned, or charged charge, cost, fee, income, price, rent, tax They have a good selection of wines at moderate prices.
- ▸ eating food or drinking alcohol consumption, drinking, intake Most people suffer no ill effects from the moderate consumption of alcohol.
- ▸ weather breeze, climate, rain, rainfall, temperature, visibility Areas of yellow on the map indicate moderate rainfall.
- ▸ exercise activity, exercise Adults should take half an hour of moderate exercise five times a week.

modest ADJ

1 fairly small, unimportant, or inexpensive

- • adv+ADJ when compared with others comparatively, relatively Many of our managers earn a relatively modest salary.
- ▸ very extremely, remarkably, very The director's office is remarkably modest.
- ▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather From pretty modest beginnings, he's gone on to work with some of the most respected names in the business.
- ▸ in a way that you do not expect surprisingly These wines are available for surprisingly modest prices.

- • ADJ+n money to pay amount, charge, cost, fee, outlay, premium, price, sum There is a modest entrance fee to the centre.
- ▸ amount of money someone has or earns budget, grant, income, means, profit, salary, savings They had a very modest budget for the film.
- ▸ amount amount, number Only a modest amount of coal is still produced.
- ▸ increase or improvement gain, growth, improvement, increase, rise There has been a modest increase in revenue from membership fees.
- ▸ size or rate of something scale, size Expansion of the factory took place on a modest scale.
- ▸ success success The new service met with modest success.
- ▸ change change Even this modest change in the law has had some unexpected consequences.
- ▸ effect benefit, effect, impact Some people take Vitamin E, which may have a modest effect on the progression of the illness.

2 not liking to talk about your achievements

- • adv+ADJ typically characteristically, typically She was characteristically modest about her achievements.
- ▸ too overly, too, unduly Don't be unduly assertive, but don't be unduly modest, either.

- • and/or humble, self-effacing, shy, unassuming Modest unassuming folk rarely get the success they deserve.

modesty N

a tendency not to talk about your achievements

- • adj+N greater than is necessary excessive, extreme, undue Excessive modesty has no place in a job interview.
- ▸ false false, mock This is no time for false modesty: you need to be honest about what you can do.
- ▸ typical of someone's character characteristic, innate, natural, typical With characteristic modesty, Brian did not mention the award at all.

modification N

a change to something

- • adj+N great drastic, extensive, major, radical, significant, substantial The building must undergo extensive modification before it can be used.
- ▸ small minimal, minor, simple, slight, small Minor modifications can be made to accommodate changes in temperature.
- ▸ necessary or important important, necessary Any necessary modifications to play equipment must be carried out before the park opens.
- ▸ more further, subsequent The building was erected in the 13th Century, with subsequent modifications in the 15th Century.
- ▸ to the genes of something gene, genetic Genetic modification of plants allows much greater control over the features of any crop.

- • v+N make modification carry out, implement, make, perform, undertake Some further bodywork modifications were carried out in the workshop.
- ▸ need modification entail, involve, need, require

The advantage of this kind of building was that it did not require major modification.
- ▸ receive modification receive, undergo The ship is currently undergoing modifications in Poland.
- ▸ include modification include, incorporate, introduce The second edition includes several minor modifications.

modify V change something

- adv+V to a great extent considerably, drastically, extensively, greatly, heavily, profoundly, radically, substantially The church was extensively modified between 1300 and 1310.
- ▸ to a small extent slightly, somewhat, subtly The pictures above have been slightly modified for demonstration purposes.
- ▸ according to particular needs accordingly, appropriately, specially, suitably The software has been suitably modified for use in a classroom context.
- ▸ in a scientific way chemically, genetically About one third of all the corn has been genetically modified.

Usage Modify is usually passive in all of the adv+V combinations shown above: If your car has been heavily modified, you should seek a specialist. • It is important to keep up with changes in the law, so that plans can be modified accordingly.

module N
a unit of a course of study

- adj+N that you must study compulsory, core, mandatory, obligatory, required In your first year, you follow compulsory modules in your specialist language.
- ▸ that you can choose to study elective, optional Many of these optional modules will be available by distance learning.
- ▸ taken during a particular period introductory, first-year, second-year etc I failed one of my final-year modules.
- ▸ gaining a particular number of points or credit double, single, 10-credit, 20-credit etc Students taking our MA courses must complete four double modules over two years. • Each 15-credit core module is taught over a period of five weeks in twenty hours of lectures.
- ▸ taken after/before completing a degree postgraduate, undergraduate I teach three undergraduate modules at the University of Cardiff.
- ▸ separate individual, self-contained, separate, single, stand-alone To attend an individual module, the student must be registered for it. • It is possible to apply for single modules.
- ▸ available on the Internet online Online learning modules are free to anyone visiting the site.
- ▸ involving more than one subject interdisciplinary The module is interdisciplinary, taught by faculty members from the schools of English and History.

- v+N teach a module deliver, offer, teach The module is delivered through lectures, seminars and presentations.
- ▸ study a module complete, do, study, undertake, work through Computing and business awareness modules are studied in the first year.
- ▸ choose a module choose, opt for, select, take Students can choose a module on French cinema.
- ▸ decide whether someone has passed a module assess The module is assessed through a coursework essay and an examination.
- ▸ pass/fail a module fail, pass What happens if I fail one module?

- N+v be composed of sth, be divided into sth, be split into sth, comprise sth, consist of sth The programme consists of four modules and five compulsory weekend sessions.

moisture N a small amount of water or other liquid in or on something

- adj+N too much excess, excessive Dehumidifiers work by removing excess moisture from the air.
- ▸ that remains somewhere residual, trapped Trapped moisture on the floor covering is a breeding ground for micro-organisms.
- ▸ in the air ambient, atmospheric Many of these plants have aerial roots to absorb atmospheric moisture.

- v+N take moisture out of something absorb, draw, extract, pull, remove, suck A sheet of kitchen paper will help to absorb any moisture.
- ▸ hold moisture conserve, lock in, retain, seal in, trap Trees are important as they conserve moisture and protect the landscape.
- ▸ stop moisture entering something displace, repel, resist The material repels moisture, maintaining its effectiveness in outdoor conditions.

- N+v turn into steam evaporate Continue to fry the mushrooms until all the moisture has evaporated.
- ▸ turn back into water condense The air cools, and the moisture condenses.

- N+n amount of moisture in something content The increased moisture content leaves the skin soft and supple.
- ▸ small drops droplets, vapour The wool fibres pull the moisture vapour away from the skin.

moment N
a point in time or a short or important period of time

- adj+N important critical, crucial, decisive, defining, important, key, pivotal The computer crashed at a critical moment.
- ▸ very good or enjoyable glorious, great, magic, magical, memorable, special, wonderful Describe a special moment in your life.
- ▸ giving you a particular feeling embarrassing, funny, poignant, proud What was the most embarrassing moment in your career?
- ▸ when you are not doing anything else odd, spare She wrote the story at odd moments when the children were out of the house. • I worked on it every spare moment.
- ▸ suitable good, opportune, perfect, right The offer came at an opportune moment in my career.
- ▸ exact exact, particular, precise, very They are playing live in Glasgow at this very moment.
- ▸ lasting a short time or not happening frequently brief, fleeting, odd For a fleeting moment, he believed her. • There was the odd moment of brilliance in what was otherwise quite a dull movie.

- v+N enjoy a moment cherish, enjoy, revel in, savour 'Aah,' sighed Sarah, savouring the moment.
- ▸ act quickly to take advantage of a moment capture, seize A good photographer can capture these magical moments of nature.
- ▸ remember a moment recall, reflect on, relive, remember, return to Do you recall any moments of rebellion in your youth?
- ▸ wait for a moment hang on (for), hesitate (for), hold on (for), pause (for), wait (for) Ellie cleared her throat and paused a moment.
- ▸ choose a moment to do something choose, pick My mother always picks the worst moments to call me.
- ▸ wait for a moment with fear dread I dreaded the moment when she would find out what had been going on.

- N+v happen arrive, come, occur Finally, the moment came and we were off.
- ▸ stop happening pass Fortunately, those difficult moments soon pass.

- N+of happiness glory, joy, magic, triumph I was in the changing room, enjoying a brief moment of triumph.
- ▸ great skill or intelligence brilliance, genius The performance showed several real moments of brilliance.
- ▸ silence calm, silence, stillness After a moment of silence, she shyly spoke.
- ▸ when you are not thinking clearly madness, panic In a moment of madness, I agreed to go with her on the trip.
- ▸ when you find out the truth clarity, revelation, truth The moment of truth has arrived.

If you do something on the spur of the moment, you do it suddenly, without taking the time to plan it: I decided on the spur of the moment to invite him. If you do something in the heat of the moment, you do it at a time when you are too excited or angry to think carefully: I said things I didn't mean in the heat of the moment.

momentary ADJ

lasting for a very short time

- ADJ+n period when nothing happens hesitation, hush, lull, pause, respite There were several gunshots, with a momentary pause between each.
- ▸ when you fail to do something correctly aberration, lapse The driver of the car had a momentary lapse of concentration and ran into the back of the bike.
- ▸ excited or nervous state flicker, flutter, frisson, pang, panic, shudder, thrill Not even a momentary flutter of interest stirred her face.
- ▸ when you see something for a very short time glimpse I only managed to get a momentary glimpse of the photo before she snatched it away from me.

momentum N

progress or development that is becoming faster or stronger [always singular]

- adj+N strong considerable, great, high, real, strong We enter the new year with considerable momentum and exciting new products.
- ▸ becoming stronger gathering, growing, increasing These profits reflected growing momentum in business markets.
- ▸ that cannot be stopped inexorable, irresistible, irreversible, unstoppable Over the past few years, this concept has developed an irresistible momentum.
- ▸ happening again with more energy fresh, new A new momentum has been established in our business.

- v+N create momentum build (up), create, generate We need to build some momentum before the semi-final. • The fear is that the momentum which we have built up over the past three years will be lost.
- ▸ gain momentum acquire, develop, gain, gather In 1997, the first wave of Internet fever was starting to gather momentum.
- ▸ keep momentum at the same level conserve, keep going, keep up, maintain, sustain He could not keep the momentum going, and eventually finished third.
- ▸ use momentum build on, capitalize on Hopes that manufacturing companies could build on the momentum established at the turn of the year have been dashed.
- ▸ lose momentum lose The Government cannot afford to lose momentum at this stage.

- N+v build (up), continue, gather, grow Then, just as momentum was gathering, the group split.

- N+for action, change, improvement, reform I am confident that the momentum for change can be maintained.

monarchy N

a form of government in which a king or queen rules the country; the royal family of a country

- adj+N absolute, constitutional, hereditary, parliamentary Absolute monarchy in France was established during the 17th century. • Today, Thailand is a constitutional monarchy comprising 76 provinces.

- v+N force a monarchy out of power abolish, depose, destroy, end, overthrow, reject, remove, topple The monarchy was abolished in 1889, and a republic was established.
- ▸ bring back a monarchy re-establish, restore In 1660, the monarchy was restored in a period of history known as the Restoration.
- ▸ establish a monarchy establish, found, set up A constitutional monarchy was established in 1993.

- n+of+N abolition, collapse, downfall, fall, overthrow Conrad accepted the collapse of the monarchy without particular emotion.

monetary ADJ

relating to money and financial systems

- ADJ+n set of plans or actions agreed by government economics, mechanism, policy, reform, regime, rules, target Responsibility for monetary policy was transferred to the Bank of England in 1997.
- ▸ when money is earned or paid compensation, discipline, donation, gain, incentive, recompense, reward An online business can earn you big monetary rewards.

- ▸ how much money something is worth valuation, value Art finds its true monetary value from what the experts say.
- ▸ situation in which there are no sudden changes stability Long-term monetary stability is essential for economic success.

money N
what you earn and buy things with

- • adj+N enough enough, sufficient I haven't got enough money to go out tonight.
- ▸ extra additional, extra, more Families on very low incomes will receive extra money as well.
- ▸ available to be spent spare, unspent Have you got any spare money?
- ▸ in a large amount big, serious Magazine work: this is where the really big money is.

When someone has or gets a large amount of money, you can say that they are in the money: He doesn't want to know me any more now he's in the money.

- • v+N spend or invest money invest, pay, pay out, spend Don't spend too much money!
- ▸ waste or lose money fritter away, lose, squander, throw away INFORMAL, waste If you buy this phone, you'll be wasting your money.
- ▸ earn or receive money borrow, bring in, collect, earn, get, make, raise, receive I want to earn money and travel abroad.
- ▸ give or lend money donate, give, lend, loan They donated part of the money to a charity.
- ▸ use money for a particular purpose allocate, earmark Money is allocated to schools according to how many pupils they have.
- ▸ cost money cost, set sb back Do your piano lessons cost much money? ◉ The holiday set us back a lot of money.
- ▸ owe money owe I had to work in the evenings because I owed money.
- ▸ put money away to spend later save We're trying to save our money so we can have a holiday.
- ▸ steal money embezzle, extort, siphon off, steal The money was stolen from a car in Millgate last night.
- ▸ take money out of a bank account access, draw out, take out, withdraw You can withdraw money using a cash-machine.

- • N+v be spent on or given to go on sth, go to sth The money went to the French government.
- ▸ have as a source come from sth Most of our money comes from charitable donations.
- ▸ be earned or received in large amounts come in, flow in, pour in, roll in INFORMAL Business improved, and money started pouring in.

- • N+n problems problems, worries Money worries cause more stress than anything else in our daily lives.
- ▸ hiding origins of money launderer, laundering The two men were arrested for money laundering.

monitor V regularly check something or watch someone

- • adv+V in a thorough way accurately, carefully, closely, properly, rigorously, strictly The new system creates opportunities for managers to closely monitor work.
- ▸ regularly annually, constantly, continually, continuously, daily, monthly, periodically, regularly, routinely, systematically Experts continually monitor the volcano for signs of activity.

- • V+n how something changes change, progress, progression, trend Monitor your progress in order to keep yourself motivated.
- ▸ how good something is or how well it is done delivery, effectiveness, implementation, performance, quality, standard The law requires public authorities to monitor delivery of their services, and respond to findings. ◉ The Quality Assurance Team monitors the quality of the service.
- ▸ what is happening activity, behaviour, movement, situation We will continue to monitor the situation.
- ▸ how much is being spent or used expenditure, usage The school governors are responsible for setting the school budget each year and monitoring expenditure.
- ▸ effect or result effect, impact, outcome, success The committee was asked to monitor the effects of these changes.

monologue N a long speech by one person

- • adj+N funny amusing, comic, hilarious, humorous She had a gift for comic monologues.
- ▸ dramatic dramatic His verse ranges widely, from dramatic monologues to love lyrics and poems about public events.
- ▸ expressing what a person is thinking inner, interior, internal The film was one of the first to use a voice-over to denote an internal monologue.
- ▸ lasting a particular amount of time hour-long, ten-minute, two-hour, etc He launched into an hour-long monologue about the company's past achievements. ◉ The discussion ended with a five-minute monologue from the chairman.
- ▸ long extended, lengthy, rambling The essays take the form of an extended monologue.

- • v+N perform a monologue deliver, perform, recite, speak By the age of eight, Paul was writing poetry and reciting monologues.
- ▸ start a monologue launch into, open She launched into a dramatic monologue about how beautiful life is.

monopolize V control something and not let others be involved in it

- • adv+V almost, nearly, practically, virtually The fishing industry here is nearly monopolized by one company.

- • V+n trade market, marketplace, trade A small number of supermarkets monopolize the retail trade.
- ▸ conversation conversation Don't monopolize the conversation; you will learn more by letting others talk.
- ▸ attention attention Newborn babies tend to monopolize their parents' attention, leading to jealousy on the part of older siblings.

monopoly N
the only company providing a product or service, or the control that one company has

- adj+N owner by the government public, state, state-owned, state-run The school is a state-owned monopoly, and it once controlled all ski instruction in France.
- ▸ private capitalist, commercial, corporate, private Commercial monopolies are not generally good for consumers.
- ▸ large big, giant, global, powerful At that time, he was head of Russia's giant gas monopoly.
- ▸ almost total effective, near, virtual In 1840, the company had a virtual monopoly of all the waterways in the area.

- v+N create a monopoly create, establish, secure, set up A merger between the two companies would create a monopoly in this sector.
- ▸ have a monopoly enjoy, exercise, have, hold, possess One local paper enjoys a near monopoly on the publication of local news.
- ▸ continue to have a monopoly keep, maintain, preserve, retain It is not sensible to retain a state monopoly in telecommunications.
- ▸ get rid of a monopoly abolish, break, challenge, end The party is committed to ending the monopoly of the postal service.

monotonous ADJ boring and unpleasant because not changing

- adv+ADJ fairly, rather, somewhat This piece of music starts off with a somewhat monotonous drum beat.

- ADJ+n voice drawl, tone, voice I could hear Ray's monotonous tones in the next room.
- ▸ sound drone, hum, sound The engine resembles the monotonous drone of a tractor.
- ▸ when something is repeated many times regularity, repetition, routine, uniformity We can go back twenty years and find that the same issues are raised with monotonous regularity. ◦ Many people are happy to accept the idea of living the same monotonous daily routine.
- ▸ work chore, drudgery, task Boring or monotonous tasks may increase fatigue.
- ▸ landscape landscape, scenery The highway runs dead straight for mile after mile, through one of the most monotonous landscapes on Earth.

- and/or boring, dull, repetitive, tedious For some people, endless hours in a gym become monotonous and boring.

monumental ADJ used for emphasizing how big, bad, or important something is

- adv+ADJ absolutely, truly We have been given the opportunity to create a truly monumental work.

- ADJ+n mistake or failure blunder, error, failure, folly On some occasions he showed great skill, but on others he committed monumental blunders.
- ▸ task or achievement achievement, challenge, effort, feat, task, work The event was a monumental feat of organization.

You can also say that something happens on a monumental scale, or talk about a mistake or achievement of monumental proportions to emphasize how big or important something is: The movie is about men in power committing fraud on a monumental scale. • This was a disaster of monumental proportions.

- ▸ change change The Inuit way of life faces monumental changes in the next decade or so.

mood N
the way a person or group of people feels

- adj+N good buoyant, good, jovial, playful, upbeat The country was in a positive, upbeat mood.
- ▸ very good ecstatic, euphoric, jubilant The team flew home yesterday in euphoric mood.
- ▸ bad bad, depressed, foul, melancholic, sombre The Queen's death cast a sombre mood over the nation.
- ▸ when someone is thinking deeply contemplative, pensive, reflective In reflective mood, she thought back over her achievements of the past year.*
- ▸ having good feelings about the future bullish, confident, optimistic We're all in confident mood after some good results.
- ▸ relaxed mellow, relaxed I'm in a mellow mood and I've been playing some great songs on the guitar.
- ▸ of people in general general, national, popular, prevailing, public The popular mood is to resist government policy and to force change.
- ▸ celebrating an event celebratory, festive The news put us in celebratory mood.

Usage Mood is often used without an article in these adj+N combinations: A successful deal had been done, and they left the meeting in buoyant mood.

- v+N experience a particular mood be in, feel in Despite the weather, I still feel in the mood for an adventure.
- ▸ improve someone's mood brighten, elevate, heighten, lift, lighten Sport can lift your mood and make you sleep like a baby.
- ▸ spoil someone's good mood dampen, kill, spoil Don't let a bit of rain dampen your mood.
- ▸ make people think of or experience a particular mood capture, cast, catch, convey, encapsulate, evoke Music can convey different moods.
- ▸ create a mood create, establish, set The decor sets the mood for serene and lazy days.
- ▸ go well with a mood go with, match, reflect, suit Choose the colour that best suits your mood.

- N+v improve brighten, lighten He grinned, and Elizabeth's mood lightened.
- ▸ become worse darken, deepen, descend, worsen In the later years of the century the public mood darkened.
- ▸ change alter, change, shift, swing, turn, vary Our mood naturally varies from day to day.

- N+of bad feeling anger, cynicism, depression, despair, despondency, disappointment, pessimism There is a general mood of pessimism about the future.
- ▸ good feeling anticipation, optimism There is a real mood of optimism amongst our members.

moon N
the object that goes around the Earth and that can be seen shining at night

- adj+N of a particular shape crescent, full, half A full moon was rising over the town.
- ▸ of a particular colour and brightness bright, glowing, luminous, pale, silvery A pale yellow moon hung above a vast empty land.
- v+N hide the moon cover, eclipse, hide, obscure At the time of his birth, the moon was eclipsed.
- ▸ look at the moon observe, see, view, watch We can easily observe the moon and its phases.
- N+v be in the sky appear, come up, hang, rise This evening, the moon appeared above the horizon at 9 pm. • A slender crescent moon hung low in the sky.
- ▸ produce light cast sth, glow, illuminate sth, light sth, light sth up, shine The full moon cast a silvery light over the beach.
- ▸ get bigger/smaller wane, wax Most herbs are more powerful when the moon is waxing or full.

moral ADJ relating to right and wrong

- adv+ADJ deeply, highly, intrinsically, profoundly, purely, strictly, truly Her autobiography has a profoundly moral message.
- ADJ+n right or duty duty, imperative, obligation, responsibility, right We have a moral duty to help those who are poorer than we are.
- ▸ difficult decision choice, dilemma Many countries are posed with a moral dilemma when asylum seekers arrive on their shores.
- ▸ good qualities courage, superiority, virtue Is moral virtue the principal goal of Buddhism?
- ▸ judgment judgment A doctor should work to cure someone without forming a moral judgment about their activities.
- ▸ rules or principles beliefs, code, norms, precept, principle, standards, values They have a strict personal moral code, and they try to abide by it.
- ▸ criticism indignation, outrage They were quick to express their moral outrage at the government's policies on refugees.

morals N
generally accepted principles of right and wrong [always plural]

- adj+N good or strict good, high, pure, religious, strict, traditional He was a man of integrity and high morals.
- ▸ not strict dubious, lax, loose, questionable Our lives are too often influenced by the lax morals of our society.
- ▸ personal/public personal, public They accused him of attempting to corrupt public morals.
- ▸ relating to sex sexual Drugs, alcohol, and the decline in sexual morals are all worries faced by parents.
- v+N have/lack morals have, lack Joe lacks morals, and doesn't care about betraying those who trust him.
- ▸ teach morals teach (sb) Children should be taught morals and ethics from the start.
- ▸ cause morals to be lost or risk being lost compromise, corrupt, endanger, undermine Bad language corrupts the morals of our children.

morale N
the amount of enthusiasm that is felt in a group at a particular time

- adj+N good enhanced, excellent, good, high, improved Morale is generally better when you have a casual dress code.
- ▸ bad damaged, low, poor The report noted poor performance and low morale in most departments.
- ▸ becoming worse flagging, plummeting, sagging The win boosted the team's sagging morale.
- ▸ felt by the people of a country civilian, domestic, internal, national, public The government quickly realized the importance of good public morale.
- n+N crew, employee, staff, troop, workplace Staff morale has been really high this month.
- v+N affect morale affect These cuts have affected morale in the public sector.
- ▸ improve morale bolster, boost, improve, raise, restore, revive A win against Barcelona will boost morale in the UK.
- ▸ make morale weak damage, dent, erode, lower, sap, undermine, weaken Repeated attacks on the city had sapped morale.
- ▸ destroy morale destroy Members of the team who aren't pulling their weight can destroy the morale of the rest of the team.
- ▸ not lose morale foster, maintain, sustain Keeping your goal in mind will help you to maintain your morale when times are hard.
- N+v get worse collapse, drop, fall, plummet, sink, slump, worsen Production dropped, morale plummeted and many people left the company.
- ▸ get better improve, rise Morale has improved and attendance is up.

You can also talk about something being morale boosting: They realized the importance of providing the troops with morale-boosting music.

moratorium N an official agreement to stop an activity temporarily

- adj+N lasting for a particular period 90-day, 6-month, 5-year, etc The country has declared a two-year moratorium on some of its foreign debt repayments.
- ▸ covering a particular area EU-wide, global, international, worldwide In 1986, the worldwide moratorium on commercial whaling came into force.
- ▸ declared by one country or group unilateral They have announced a unilateral moratorium on further testing.
- ▸ starting immediately immediate There should be an immediate moratorium on the trade of any object appearing on this list.
- ▸ done by choice self-imposed, voluntary Their voluntary moratorium on nuclear testing was universally welcomed.
- ▸ lasting for a limited period temporary The City Council has placed a temporary moratorium on all planning applications.
- v+N want or ask for a moratorium argue for, ask for, call for, demand, vote for Switzerland voted for a five-year moratorium on the planting of GM crops.

- ▶ introduce a moratorium announce, declare, impose, institute, introduce The EU introduced a moratorium on the drug until 2015.
- ▶ increase the period of a moratorium extend The moratorium was extended for two additional years in 2007.
- ▶ end a moratorium end, lift, overturn The moratorium was lifted in May this year.

morning N
the period from midnight, or from when the sun rises, until midday

- adj+N at the beginning, middle, or end of the morning early, late, mid I usually have a small glass of fruit juice with breakfast, and an apple mid morning.

If you do something first thing in the morning, you do it at the very beginning of the day: Drink the juice of fresh lemon in a glass of warm water first thing in the morning

- ▶ with good weather beautiful, bright, glorious, lovely, sunny, warm On Saturday we awoke to a lovely sunny morning.
- ▶ with wet weather damp, foggy, misty, rainy, wet The morning was wet and foggy, but we decided to go ahead with the trip anyway.
- ▶ with cold weather chilly, cold, crisp, frosty It was a fine crisp early morning just before Christmas when we first noticed the change.
- ▶ without sun cloudy, dreary, dull, grey, overcast The morning was overcast with a little rain from time to time.
- ▶ relaxed lazy, leisurely We spent a leisurely morning looking around the old town.

- N+v begin arrive, begin, break, dawn, start Saturday morning dawned clear and bright.
- ▶ continue pass, progress, wear on As the morning progressed, the crowd grew.

mortality N
the fact of dying, or number of deaths within an area, group etc

- adj+N high/low great, high, low, significant Mortality among transplant patients is high.
- ▶ of babies infantile, neonatal, perinatal, premature These children are at increased risk of neonatal mortality.

- v+N reduce mortality cut, decrease, improve, lower, reduce We aim to reduce mortality from cancer by three-quarters.
- ▶ experience mortality experience, suffer This species suffers heavy mortality when winters are severe.
- ▶ study mortality analyse, assess, examine, explain, monitor, observe, record The aim of the study was to assess mortality among single mothers.

- N+v become less decline, decrease, drop, fall Infant mortality has fallen, and average height has increased.
- ▶ increase increase, rise This area is the only part of the world where child mortality is rising.

- N+n rate pattern, rate, ratio, risk, trend The maternal mortality rate is high.
- ▶ information data, figures, statistics The mortality figures are available sorted by age, sex, cause, and area.

mortgage N a legal agreement to borrow money to buy a house

- v+N arrange to have a mortgage apply for, arrange How do I go about arranging a mortgage?
- ▶ get a mortgage get, obtain, secure, take out Taking out a mortgage is a big decision.
- ▶ have a mortgage have Do you have a mortgage on your home?
- ▶ pay back money borrowed on a mortgage clear, pay, pay off, redeem, repay There are various ways to repay your mortgage.
- ▶ change to a different mortgage change, switch Many people regularly switch their mortgage to take advantage of better deals.

- N+n person or organization that gives or arranges mortgages adviser, broker, intermediary, lender I would advise you to go through an independent mortgage broker.
- ▶ amount of money paid back payment, repayment Londoners spend an average of 22.8 per cent of their salaries on mortgage repayments.
- ▶ money that a person has failed to pay back arrears Mark describes how the loss of his job led to mortgage arrears.
- ▶ cost of mortgage rate We can find you the best mortgage rates in the UK.

motion N
1 a formal proposal to discuss and vote on

- v+N suggest a motion file, introduce, lodge, move, propose, put, put forward, submit, table Councillor Goodman put forward a motion stating that cyclists should not be permitted use of pedestrian areas.
- ▶ discuss a motion consider, debate, discuss The committee agreed to consider any motion submitted by any member.
- ▶ support a motion argue for, back, be in favour of, second, sign, speak for, speak in favour/support of, support, vote for The motion was seconded by Nick Jones and unanimously approved by the committee.
- ▶ oppose a motion argue against, be against, oppose, speak against, vote against I strongly oppose this motion.
- ▶ vote on a motion vote on The council then voted on the motion, which was approved by a majority vote.
- ▶ vote for and accept a motion accept, adopt, approve, carry, pass There were no speeches against, so the motion was passed.
- ▶ vote against and not accept a motion defeat, reject The motion was overwhelmingly defeated by doctors attending the conference.

2 the process or action of moving [usually singular]

- adj+N well controlled controlled, fluid, gliding, smooth, steady Follow the swing through with your arms and shoulders, all in one smooth motion.
- ▶ not smooth bouncing, jerky, wobbling Trevor shrieked with horror, swiping at the creature with a jerky motion.

- quick quick, rapid, swift She took hold of his hand gently in one swift motion.
- circular anticlockwise, circular, clockwise, rotary, rotational, spinning, swirling, twisting Apply the cream using a circular motion on the forehead and neck.
- from one side to another rocking, rolling, swaying, swinging My baby loved the music and the rocking motion.
- in a particular direction backwards, downward, forward, horizontal, sideways, upward, vertical The viewer has a sense of continuing forward motion.
- continuing all the time constant, continuous, perpetual Liquids consist of particles that are in constant motion.

- v+N perform a motion make, perform He began to perform a circular motion with his right hand.
- copy motion mimic, simulate The children moved backwards and forwards to mimic the motion of the waves.
- feel motion detect, feel When motion is detected, the alarm will sound.

motivate V

make someone feel determined or enthusiastic

- V+n people at work colleagues, employees, staff, team, workforce Flexible working conditions and training can help to motivate your workforce.
- learners learners, pupils, students This series of lessons will interest and motivate pupils.
- people in general individuals, others, participants, youngsters Lisa is a capable leader with the ability to motivate others.

- and/or empower, encourage, energize, engage, enthuse, excite, inspire, stimulate This fascinating CD will inspire and motivate all pupils of mathematics.

motivated ADJ

1 enthusiastic and determined to succeed

- ADJ+n person or people at work employee, professional, staff, team, workforce Your organization will benefit from a more motivated workforce.
- learner graduate, learner, pupil, student Individuals in the 12–15 age group are well motivated, enthusiastic learners.
- person individual, person Are you a dynamic and motivated individual?

- v+ADJ be, become, get (sb), keep (sb), stay Keep your staff motivated by giving regular feedback. ◉ Staying motivated can often be a real challenge.

- and/or ambitious, committed, dynamic, energetic, enthusiastic, skilled, talented Our staff are motivated, enthusiastic and committed to delivering high quality care.

- adv+V very highly, strongly, well This approach to learning encourages students to be highly motivated.
- not very poorly He described the army as 'poorly equipped, poorly trained, and poorly motivated'.

2 caused, or made to act, by a particular belief or emotion

- adv+V only or mainly primarily, purely, solely We are motivated solely by our desire to help.
- relating to race ethnically, racially Two hundred racially motivated attacks were reported between January and September.
- relating to politics ideologically, politically We believe that the accusations against all these men were politically motivated.
- relating to religion and morals ethically, religiously, theologically The police want to improve their service for people who are victims of religiously motivated crime.
- relating to money commercially, financially Company goals are normally financially motivated.

motivation N

enthusiasm and determination to do something

- adj+N strong great, high, strong Motivation among the staff is high.
- low low, poor Poor motivation can lead to poor attendance at classes.
- extra extra The sessions should give you extra motivation when you see how far you have come since the beginning.
- personal personal Much depends on each boy's personal motivation: if he wants to work, he will make progress.

- v+N have motivation find, have Without her, I could never have found the motivation to carry on. ◉ Teachers need to find out why these students have poor motivation.
- not have motivation lack, lose Often, young athletes will lose motivation or drop out of a sport when they suffer their first injury.
- give someone motivation generate, provide For others, the office environment can provide the motivation and interaction that people need to work effectively.
- keep and increase motivation boost, build, encourage, enhance, improve, increase, keep, maintain, raise, sustain Students said that they learnt a huge amount on placement and it increased their motivation for the final year. ◉ Praise is important to keep motivation high.
- make someone's motivation less strong reduce When asked to name factors whcih reduced motivation, 56 per cent mentioned 'workload'.

- n+of+N lack, level, source Often pupils do not see the purpose of what they are being taught and so display an apparent lack of motivation.

- and/or ability, attitude, commitment, confidence, enthusiasm, interest, morale, skill We aim to improve the motivation and skills of our workforce.

motive N

the reason you do something

- adj+N not obvious hidden, underlying Greed and revenge are her underlying motives.
- thinking about other people/about yourself altruistic, pure, selfish Apart from the altruistic motive of sharing your knowledge and ideas with others, there is much to be gained from publishing.
- giving an advantage ulterior It soon emerges that he has an ulterior motive.
- bad/good bad, good, right, sinister, wrong I know it was done for the best of motives. ◆ It now seems evident that there was some much more sinister motive behind the timing of this announcement.

- ▸ main main, primary, prime Persistent questioning led to a confession that the primary motive for the move was economic.
- ▸ real real, true The police doubt whether car theft was the real motive for the murder.
- ▸ types of motive economic, political, religious The campaign was inspired by purely political motives.

- • n+N profit It appears that the profit motive was put before miners' lives.

- • v+N have a motive have It transpires that Mary had her own motives for bringing Jane along to the meeting.
- ▸ look at or have doubts about someone's motive consider, doubt, examine, question, suspect I question the motives of those who wish to restrict particular areas of work to particular groups.
- ▸ find out someone's motive establish, find, find out No motive for the crime was clearly established.
- ▸ understand or explain someone's motive explain, understand Although the audience cannot condone what he has done, they must understand his motives.
- ▸ say that someone has a motive attribute You must stop attributing sinister motives to those around you.

motley ADJ consisting of many different types

- • ADJ+n group of people band, bunch, crew, crowd Gathered together in the hall, we looked a motley crew.
- ▸ group of things assortment, collection They travelled about the country in a motley collection of old vans, lorries and buses.

mount V

1 when a feeling gets stronger over time

- • V+adv rapidly, steadily The mystery is entertaining and the suspense rapidly mounts into a terrific climax.

- • n+V concern, excitement, fears, pressure, speculation, suspense, tension Tension had been mounting in the town for most of the day.

2 prepare for and begin an activity or event

- • V+n assault, attack, campaign, challenge, defence, exhibition, investigation, operation, opposition, protest, resistance, response It is essential that we mount a vigorous campaign to remove the restrictions.

mountain N

a very high hill

- • adj+N high high, huge, lofty, tall, towering They climbed the three highest mountains in Scotland, England and Wales in 25 hours 45 minutes.
- ▸ steep steep The steep mountains and treacherous ravines render much of the Islands inaccessible.
- ▸ impressive and beautiful beautiful, dramatic, magnificent, majestic, spectacular The road gives the visitor a high-level view of the majestic mountains to the west.
- ▸ with rough rocks craggy, rocky, rugged He set out from his family's home in the rugged Basque mountains of northern Spain.
- ▸ with snow on top snow-capped, snow-covered, snowy She could see the towering snow-capped mountains in the distance.
- ▸ covered in mist misty The view was spectacular, with the misty mountains in the background.
- ▸ with forests on it forested The two birds of prey were seen flying high above the forested mountains.
- ▸ near/far distant, nearby, remote Looking south, you see the snowy peaks of a distant mountain.
- ▸ surrounding surrounding On a clear day, the views of Mont Blanc and the surrounding mountains are simply awe-inspiring.

- • v+N go up a mountain ascend, climb, go up, scale, walk up His hobbies include collecting Japanese pottery and climbing mountains.
- ▸ come down a mountain come down, go down Watch the film carefully, and you may see us coming down the mountain.
- ▸ cross mountains cross Today we cross the mountains into Italy.

- • N+v be tall and easy to see rise Sheer cliffs and steep rugged mountains rise on either side of the turbulent river.
- ▸ surround a place surround It is a colourful town surrounded by beautiful mountains.

- • N+n group chain, range Karakoram in Pakistan is one of the highest mountain ranges of Central Asia.
- ▸ area or view landscape, region, scenery, terrain, view Take a mountain bike to the top of the cable car and enjoy the exhilarating descent through spectacular mountain scenery.
- ▸ top peak, summit, top Eagles soar over the mountain peaks.
- ▸ part crag, ridge, slope, valley The wall here follows a narrow mountain ridge that gives spectacular views over the surrounding area.
- ▸ town or valley resort Our school in the mountain resort of Zell am see offers German-language courses for beginners.

mounting ADJ increasing

- • ADJ+n money to pay costs, debts With mounting debts, the business is heading for trouble.
- ▸ something bad anger, anxiety, concern, crime, criticism, frustration, pressure, problems, tension The UK government will face mounting pressure this week to review the laws on cannabis.
- ▸ excitement excitement We waited in the Arrivals Lounge with mounting excitement.
- ▸ evidence evidence There is mounting evidence that fatigue is associated with poor immune function.

mount up PHR VB

increase or get larger

- • n+V evidence evidence Evidence is mounting up that the situation is rapidly getting worse.
- ▸ problems problems Looking after your house regularly will make sure that problems do not mount up.
- ▸ money to pay bills, costs, debts Small debts can easily mount up.

mouth N

the part of the face that is used for eating and speaking

- adj+N open/closed closed, gaping, open, wide-open This announcement was met with gaping mouths and amused glances.
- ▸ big big, large, wide High cheekbones and a wide mouth give her a permanent air of faint amusement.
- ▸ small or thin small, thin These fish have quite small mouths.
- ▸ dry dry Her mouth was too dry for her to spit.
- ▸ sore sore Some chemotherapy drugs can make your mouth sore and cause small ulcers.
- ▸ full full Don't talk with your mouth full.

- v+N open your mouth, especially to speak open She is not very interesting to talk to since she rarely opens her mouth.
- ▸ close your mouth and not speak close, keep closed, keep shut, shut Keep your mouth shut, do not volunteer any information.
- ▸ cover your mouth cover It is sometimes necessary to cover your mouth with your hand to avoid inhaling the insects that hover beneath the trees.

- N+v open or be open drop open, fall open, hang open, open I stepped into the room and my mouth fell open.
- ▸ close close The woman's eyes began to flutter and her mouth closed.
- ▸ when water forms in your mouth water I passed a house where they were cooking curry, and by the time I got to the end of the street my mouth was watering.
- ▸ have little water in it go dry He swallowed and his mouth instantly went dry as he panicked at the thought of leaving the ground.
- ▸ move, and show a particular expression curl, tighten, turn up/down, twitch Her mouth turned down in a look of disgust.

- n+of+N back, corner, roof, side A half- smoked cigar hung from the corner of his mouth.

move N

something done to achieve something; or a change in something

- adj+N good or clever clever, good, positive, right, sensible, shrewd, smart, welcome, wise It is a wise move to make sure your anti-virus program is bang up-to-date.

  You can also talk about a move in the right direction: These proposals represent a move in the right direction.

- ▸ brave bold, brave This is a bold move, and one that should be supported.
- ▸ bad or wrong bad, wrong Reducing staffing levels at train stations is a bad move.
- ▸ important big, significant Although the overall system remains segregated, there have been significant moves towards a more inclusive approach.
- ▸ when it happens first, latest, next, recent Union leaders will meet on Friday to discuss their next move.
- ▸ unusual unprecedented, unusual In an unprecedented move, the police issued the images of 31 protesters they wanted to interview.*
- ▸ planned planned, proposed In a carefully planned move, the union decided that they would ask their members to strike for a period of four hours.*
- ▸ carefully planned to achieve an aim strategic, tactical This merger represents the best strategic move for both companies.

- n+N career You will receive expert advice on your next career move from our recruitment consultant.

- v+N make a move make At the moment they daren't make a move against their enemies.
- ▸ plan or consider a move announce, consider, contemplate, plan Focus on what you want to achieve and plan each move carefully.
- ▸ support a move back, support, welcome We welcome any moves to encourage industry to support postgraduate students.
- ▸ oppose a move be opposed to, block, condemn, oppose, reject, resist I pointed out that the University opposed any move to take selection away from College tutors.
- ▸ lead to a move prompt These problems prompted moves to reform the entire system.
- ▸ be a move be, be seen as, represent The reclassification of the drug in no way represents a move towards decriminalization or legalization.

- N+v come, follow, involve, mark, mean, prove, reflect The move follows mounting criticism of the level of ministers' pay.

movement N

1 a group of people with the same aim

- adj+N involving many people global, international, mass, national, popular Change has come from mass social movements exerting pressure on the ruling class.
- ▸ involving ordinary people grass-roots 'Stop the War' began as a grass-roots movement and its strength has remained at its roots.
- ▸ growing emerging, growing There is a growing movement against corporate globalization.
- ▸ types of movement anti-capitalist, anti-war, environmental, nationalist, political, religious, revolutionary, social, socialist She soon became a leading figure in the socialist movement.

- n+N animal rights, civil rights, independence, labour, peace, resistance, trade union Many of the most enthusiastic supporters of the proposals come from the senior ranks of the trade union movement.

- v+N start or organize a movement build, create, found, launch, organize, start The modern Olympic movement was founded by Baron Pierre de Coubertin.
- ▸ support or be part of a movement be engaged in, be involved in, be part of, join, support He became increasingly involved in the civil rights movement.
- ▸ lead a movement lead She led the movement for independence.
- ▸ make a movement stronger encourage, strengthen We need to strengthen the fair trade movement in this country.
- ▸ oppose or destroy a movement crush, oppose, suppress They did everything they could to crush the rebel movement by repression.

- N+v begin arise, begin, emerge, start Why did the women's movement emerge from the middle of the 19th century in so many countries?

▸ grow grow, spread The international anti-war movement grew on an unprecedented scale.

You can also say that a movement gains momentum, ground, or strength, or that it gathers momentum or strength: The environmental movement is gaining strength at an increasing rate.

▸ be against/for something oppose, support The disability rights movement strongly opposed this approach.

2 a change in the position of your body; an act of moving

- adj+N in a particular direction backward, downward, forward, lateral, upward Remove the mascara in an upward movement of the lashes to avoid irritating the eye.

▸ slight slight The outside light reacts to the slightest movement.

▸ quick quick, rapid, sudden Neck strain can be caused by a sudden movement of the head, backward, forward or sideways.

▸ smooth fluid, smooth Simply press the key and the front can be opened in a smooth movement.

▸ not smooth or controlled involuntary, jerky There may be twitching or jerking of the arms or legs, or involuntary eye movements.

▸ of your body bodily, physical Playing a stringed instrument involves physical movement.

- n+N arm, body, eye, hand, head, limb, muscle After each set of eye movements, the therapist will ask the client what they noticed.
- v+N make a movement make, perform Do not make any sudden movements.

▸ limit a movement limit, restrict My hip is painful and restricts my movement.

▸ control a movement control, direct A motor nerve is one that runs down to a muscle and controls its movement.

▸ notice a movement detect, feel, notice, sense Sensors can detect the slightest movement.

movie N

a film shown in a cinema or on television

- adj+N coming soon forthcoming, upcoming He also talked about his upcoming movie and the launch of his autobiography.

▸ costing/not costing a lot of money high-budget, low-budget There has been a boom in low-budget horror movies for home rental.

▸ making you feel frightened horror, scary Are you terrified of scary movies? Do you hide behind the sofa?

▸ making you feel happy feel-good This is not a feel-good movie; it is a deeply sobering wake-up call.

▸ with a lasting value classic She loved classic movies such as The Maltese Falcon and Casablanca.

▸ very successful blockbuster He was known mainly for blockbuster movies like Alien or True Lies.

- v+N watch a movie go to, see, watch I first saw this movie when I was twelve.

▸ make a movie create, direct, film, make, produce, shoot You can make the scariest movie without a single drop of blood.

▸ make a movie available release I am looking forward to the movie being released in the UK.

▸ show a movie show Built in 1913, The Empire Picture Playhouse was used for showing silent movies.

▸ show a movie on a DVD player or computer play Click on the image to play the movie.

▸ appear in a movie act in, appear in, co-star, feature in, star in Since then she has starred in several successful movies.

- N+v have in it co-star, feature, star Michael Mann's spectacular 1992 movie starred Daniel Day-Lewis.

▸ take place be set in Dog Soldiers is a horror movie set in Scotland but filmed in Luxembourg.

moving ADJ

making you feel emotional

- adv+ADJ deeply, incredibly, intensely, profoundly, quite, very It was a poignant and deeply moving end to the day.
- ADJ+n account, experience, moment, speech, story, tribute This is a very moving story of a woman who struggles to come to terms with her father's death.
- v+ADJ be, find sth I found the whole experience deeply moving.
- and/or funny, inspiring, poignant, powerful Over the past 30 years, he has created some of the most moving and powerful music ever written.

muddled ADJ

not clear or effective

- adv+ADJ very hopelessly, very This hopelessly muddled thinking was typical of the department at that time.

▸ rather a little, rather, slightly, somewhat The arguments they presented were somewhat muddled.

- ADJ+n thinking, thought We take the view that this proposal is the product of muddled thinking and must be revisited.

muffled ADJ

not easy to hear because the sound is blocked by something

- ADJ+n cry, footsteps, laughter, noise, roar, sob, sound, thud, voice There was a muffled cry and the sound of a body hitting the floor.

multilateral ADJ involving three or more groups

- ADJ+n agreement agreement, treaty Most developing countries have signed up to multilateral environmental agreements.

▸ discussion diplomacy, negotiations, talks The deal had been the result of more than six years of multilateral negotiations.

▸ organization agency, institution, organization It also works with multilateral institutions, including the World Bank, United Nations agencies, and the European Commission.

▸ way of doing something approach, disarmament, system They demanded that the government should support the multilateral approach to international policy-making.

- ▸ getting rid of weapons disarmament There had been limited success in multilateral disarmament and arms control.

- and/or bilateral, unilateral Governments in the region are increasingly forming bilateral and multilateral alliances to combat terrorist activity.

multinational ADJ having offices, shops, factories etc in several countries

- ADJ+n company, conglomerate, corporation, enterprise, firm, giant, group, manufacturer, organization As with all major high-technology industries, it is now dominated by large multinational companies.

multiply V increase in number or by a large amount

- adv+V quickly quickly, rapidly, uncontrollably Because orders were multiplying rapidly, they decided to build a new plant on the site of the existing works.
- ▸ by a large amount exponentially, greatly The number of complaints during this year has multiplied greatly.
- ▸ to a particular degree fivefold, tenfold etc They estimated that the number of operations carried out had multiplied fourfold.

- n+V bacteria, cell, germs, parasites, virus Storage temperature affects the speed with which harmful bacteria multiply.

mumble V
speak in quiet way that is not clear

- adv+V incoherently, quietly, softly Groups of adolescents can often be seen loitering around shopping arcades, mumbling incoherently to each other.

- V+n apology, excuse, nonsense, something, words Rob arrived, mumbling something about the alarm not working.

mundane ADJ
ordinary and not interesting or exciting

- adv+ADJ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, relatively, somewhat This is, of course, a fairly mundane use of the new technology.
- ▸ very extremely, incredibly, positively, utterly, very Unfortunately, some photos of such ghostly mists have very mundane explanations.
- ▸ appearing to be mundane, but perhaps not apparently, seemingly Rubber is a seemingly mundane substance that comes to life through its social history.

- ADJ+n what someone does or how they live activity, chore, existence, job, life, reality, task, world For Miles, the trip represents an opportunity to get away from his mundane existence.
- ▸ fact or aspect of a situation detail, explanation, level, matter, thing More mundane matters also occupied the committee – on 6th May the librarian was authorized to obtain a new doormat!
- ▸ something that happens event Good writing enables the most mundane event to be transformed into something significant, exciting even.
- ▸ object item, object The camera avoids their faces, focusing on mundane objects such as a bowl of cereal, an alarm clock, a fish tank.

- and/or boring, dull, everyday, ordinary, routine, trivial His paintings are rooted in the everyday, mundane aspects of life.

murder N
the crime of killing someone deliberately

- adj+N extremely violent and unpleasant bloody, brutal, gruesome, horrific She was the victim of a brutal murder.
- ▸ when two or more people are killed double, mass Nelson was sentenced to 35 years in prison for the double murder.
- ▸ deliberately planned or showing no emotion cold-blooded, premeditated, wilful This was no accident – it was cold-blooded murder.
- ▸ when someone tries to murder someone but does not succeed attempted She faced charges of attempted murder and abduction.
- ▸ when the person responsible has not been found unsolved In various newspapers he was linked to other unsolved murders.
- ▸ because of someone's race racist Police believe this was a racist murder.

- v+N commit a murder carry out, commit It's about a group of teens who conspire to commit murder.
- ▸ see someone commit a murder witness The child had witnessed the brutal murder of two gang members.
- ▸ find out who committed a murder investigate, solve Police investigating the murder of the 13-year-old girl have spoken to thousands of people in the area.
- ▸ be involved in a murder be implicated in, be involved in They were suspected of being involved in the murder of the leader of the opposition.
- ▸ when someone says that they have committed a murder confess to She confessed to the murder of her husband under extreme provocation.
- ▸ say that someone has committed a murder accuse sb of, arrest sb for, charge sb with, convict sb of So far, nobody has been arrested for this murder.

- N+v occur, take place This was the same weekend that the murders took place.

- N+n relating to the police and courts of law case, charge, conviction, inquiry, investigation, trial The cause of death was violent and we are treating the investigation as a murder inquiry.
- ▸ person suspect, victim A body found in a peat bog in northern Germany was first thought to be a murder victim.
- ▸ weapon or scene scene, weapon The murder weapon has never been recovered.
- ▸ story about a murder mystery His latest film is a psychological murder mystery set in Victorian London.

- n+in+N complicity, involvement, part He is also charged with complicity in mass murder.

- n+to+N conspiracy, incitement He pleaded guilty to five charges of conspiracy to murder.
- n+of+N allegation, charge, series, spate, suspicion, verdict This was the latest in a spate of murders involving supervised offenders. ◆ She was arrested on suspicion of murder.

murder V

commit the crime of killing someone deliberately

- adv+V in a cruel way brutally, cruelly, gruesomely, in cold blood, savagely, viciously Her brother was murdered in cold blood.

Usage Murder is usually passive in these combinations.

- ▸ in a planned or organized way deliberately, systematically The brutal regime systematically murdered thousands of its citizens.

murderer N

someone who commits murder

- adj+N killing several or many people mass, serial He was indeed a mass murderer and a tyrant, but he was not alone.
- ▸ thought to be guilty alleged, suspected The young woman, an alleged child murderer, was treated brutally by the other inmates.
- ▸ proved to be guilty convicted The agreement resulted in the release of many terrorists, including convicted murderers.
- ▸ showing no emotion cold-blooded, ruthless Why are you mounting a campaign in support of cold-blooded murderers?
- ▸ very cruel brutal, sadistic He had brought to justice some of America's most brutal murderers.
- ▸ well known infamous, notorious Crippen is one of the most notorious murderers in the history of Scotland Yard.

- v+N arrest, bring to justice, catch, convict, find The murderer was never caught.

murmur V

say something in a very quiet voice

- adv+V apologetically, appreciatively, quietly, softly 'Wake up, please,' I murmured softly.
- V+n greeting, prayer, reply, something, thanks, words She murmured some words of sympathy.

murmur N

something said in a quiet voice; a quiet expression of a feeling, or a low sound

- adj+N quiet faint, gentle, indistinct, low, slight She spoke in a low murmur.
- ▸ with many people speaking general There was a general murmur of approval from those present.
- ▸ loud or that you can hear audible, loud There was an audible murmur of discontent when the news was announced.

- N+of showing people's feelings agreement, approval, disapproval, discontent This speech was met with murmurs of agreement from around the room.
- ▸ sound of voices conversation, voices A murmur of voices came from behind that door.

muscle N

a piece of flesh that connects one bone to another, used for moving a part of your body

- adj+N stretched tight tense, tight Some of my muscles were very tense and others were weak.
- ▸ when a muscle hurts or is damaged aching, damaged, pulled, sore, stiff, strained, tired, torn, weak Warming up is important, especially in cold weather, to avoid strains and pulled muscles.
- ▸ strong and healthy lean, strong Strong muscles are less prone to sprains.
- ▸ sticking out bulging He is in perfect health, with huge bulging muscles.

- v+N make a muscle tight or less tight contract, flex, relax, stretch, tense, tighten Stretch the cramped muscle by pulling or pushing your toes towards your shin.
- ▸ damage a muscle damage, pull, strain, tear He pulled a muscle in his back and had to leave the field.
- ▸ make your muscles stronger build, strengthen, tone You can use weights to strengthen your arm muscles.
- ▸ exercise your muscles exercise Walking around and stretching exercises muscles and increases blood circulation.

- N+v become tight/less tight contract, cramp, flex, relax, tense, tighten The dog's eyes gleamed and its leg muscles tensed, ready to spring.
- ▸ hurt or become weak or damaged ache, waste (away), weaken My chest is becoming congested and my muscles are wasting away.
- ▸ move or stick out bulge, ripple, twitch Have you watched weightlifters and seen how their muscles bulge and eyes pop?

music N a pleasant arrangement of sounds made by voices and instruments

- v+N play music make, perform, play They mainly played music from the 70s and 80s.
- ▸ write music compose, create, write The theme music was composed by John Williams.
- ▸ listen to music hear, listen to Take your child to hear live music being played. ◆ My only form of entertainment is to listen to music and go on the Internet.
- ▸ be filled with music be filled with It was an evening that was filled with the most delightful music.
- ▸ record music record Most of this music was recorded between 1997 and 2003.
- ▸ write music to go with something set sth to There will be a fantastic firework display set to music with Preston docks as a backdrop.
- ▸ understand the symbols of written music read I learned to play the piano and read music early in life.

- N+v be heard blare (out), blast (out), come, flow, play Music was playing quietly in the background.
- ▸ sound sound The title music sounds menacing and mysterious.
- ▸ float through the air drift, waft Music drifted up from the village in the evenings.
- ▸ be heard with something accompany The film is accompanied by the music of Bach.

▸ stop or start begin, fade (away), start, stop The Cuban people are incredibly welcoming, so don't expect to stay seated when the music starts!

• n+of+N piece of music piece What is your favourite piece of music?
▸ type of music kind, style, type He is extremely experienced in all styles of music, ranging from Classical to Pop.

musician N

a person performing or writing music

• adj+N very good accomplished, brilliant, excellent, fine, gifted, outstanding, talented, virtuoso The orchestra features some of London's most talented young musicians.
▸ professional/not professional amateur, professional We perform at least four concerts each year, regularly engaging professional musicians and soloists.
▸ famous and respected acclaimed, distinguished, eminent, famous, influential, leading, legendary, renowned, respected, top The ensemble brings together internationally renowned musicians from the UK and South Africa.
▸ having experience experienced, trained Only 13 per cent of trained musicians enter 'performance related' employment.
▸ having a range of different skills multi-talented, versatile He is a versatile musician, having learnt to play piano, flute and saxophone at an early age.
▸ hoping to be successful aspiring, budding We have many budding musicians and singers at our school.

muster V

try to produce enthusiasm or determination

• V+n courage, energy, enthusiasm, strength, support, will She finally mustered the courage to speak up.

muted ADJ

not as strong or extreme as usual

• adv+ADJ curiously, rather, slightly, somewhat, strangely, very A significant factor has been the rather muted response of the moderates in the party.
• ADJ+n reaction applause, criticism, reaction, response There has been a surprisingly muted response to the proposed changes in the law.
▸ colours colour, palette, shade, tone, grey, green etc The rooms are decorated in muted shades.
▸ sound sound We stood outside the church, listening to the muted sound of hymn-singing from inside.
• v+ADJ be, become, remain, seem The response to the new arrangement remained muted, to say the least.

mutter V

talk quietly, especially when annoyed or embarrassed

• adv+V in an angry or threatening way angrily, darkly 'I won't be responsible for what I do to that cat if he comes back,' she muttered darkly.
▸ quietly quietly, under your breath A visitor was heard to mutter under his breath that he did not believe a word of it.
• V+n apology, curse, expletive, oath, prayer, remark, something, threat, word He was last seen wandering towards the exit, muttering something about trying to hire a car.

mutual ADJ

done in the same way by each person, or belonging to each person

• ADJ+n feeling admiration, appreciation, attraction, distrust, love, recognition, respect, suspicion, tolerance, trust, understanding A way to stop all these conflicts is to start developing a level of mutual respect for each other.

You can say the feeling is mutual to say that one person dislikes someone as much as that person dislikes them: I didn't like her much when I first met her, and I am sure the feeling was mutual.

▸ agreement agreement, consent The parties have agreed by mutual consent to conclude the contract between them.
▸ help or advantage advantage, assistance, benefit, cooperation, interest, support The committee provides a forum where issues of mutual interest can be explored.
▸ dependence dependence, dependency, interdependence It was a close community, supported by mutual dependence.
▸ feeling of worry concern The two organizations met to discuss issues of mutual concern.
▸ friend friend They first met through a mutual friend.

mystery N

something you cannot explain or understand

• adj+N not yet explained or not able to be explained enduring, insoluble, unexplained, unfathomable, unsolved The issue of consciousness is considered by many to be the most important unsolved mystery of modern science.
▸ great big, deep, great, profound They all shared a consuming desire to understand the deepest mysteries of life.
▸ complete complete, total INFORMAL The cause of this is still a complete mystery to me. ◉ What really happened remains a total mystery.
▸ little little It was obviously another of life's little mysteries, that we would never explain.
▸ interesting intriguing Inspector Wallander has yet another intriguing mystery to solve in this new novel by Mankell.
• v+N explain a mystery explain, reveal, solve, uncover, unlock, unravel The novel is about the attempts of a young journalist to unravel the mystery of a young girl's murder 25 years previously.
▸ try to understand a mystery explore, ponder, understand Now science has given us the tools to understand the mystery of healing foods and nutrients.
▸ be or remain a mystery be shrouded in, remain His early life is shrouded in mystery.
• N+v deepen, remain, surround sth, unfold, unravel The mystery deepens when another intelligence officer is murdered in the same way. ◉ Mystery still surrounds the causes of this disease.

You can use surrounding or regarding to say what a mystery is about: Police are no closer to solving the mystery surrounding the young man's death.

- n+of+N quality or feeling air, aura, sense It seems there is an air of mystery about the place that attracts them.
- ▸ to some extent a bit, something Just how advertising works continues to be something of a mystery.

myth N

something wrongly believed to be true

- adj+N that many people believe common, popular, urban, widespread Contrary to popular myth, not everyone wants to go to university.
- ▸ modern/old modern, old This raises another old myth about rail freight: that freight trains are slow and that road freight transportation is faster than rail.
- ▸ lasting for a long time enduring, persistent One of the most enduring myths about Manchester is that is always rains there.
- ▸ dangerous dangerous The idea that nuclear power is the solution to climate change is a dangerous myth.
- v+N prove or show a myth is not true counter, debunk, demolish, destroy, dispel, disprove, explode, expose, scotch, shatter 'Real Nappy Week' is all about dispelling the myths about modern re-usable nappies.
- ▸ create or spread a myth create, peddle, perpetuate, propagate Women's magazines perpetuate the myth that thin is beautiful.
- ▸ believe a myth believe, buy into Far too many people believe the myth that modern languages are superfluous because 'the whole world speaks English'.
- ▸ question whether a myth is true challenge The report challenges myths about food and poverty.
- ▸ be based on a myth be based on The belief that all political careers end in failure is based on the myth that all MPs hope to become Prime Minister.
- N+v abound, grow up, persist, remain A myth has grown up over the last two years that this is a unilateralist administration.

You can use surrounding or regarding to say what a myth is about: This article aims to dispel the myths surrounding refugees and migrant workers.

Nn

naive ADJ
lacking experience of life and believing things too easily

- adv+ADJ very extremely, hopelessly, incredibly INFORMAL, so, very I can't believe I was so naive.
- ▸ rather a bit, a little, quite, rather, somewhat I was under the rather naive impression that people would gladly pay for you to help them out in this way, but I was wrong.
- ▸ in politics politically I may be accused of being politically naive, but I always mistrust suggestions that one votes according to the way one thinks the vote will be received.

- ADJ+n idea or method approach, assumption, belief, notion, question, theory, view We tend to adopt a naive view, assuming that pictures in books and magazines tell a simple truth.
- ▸ feeling that things will go well optimism Young people tend to display a naive optimism about human nature and human society.

- and/or foolish, gullible, idealistic, innocent, simplistic, young He was a competent teacher, but very young and naive.

naked ADJ
1 not wearing any clothes

- adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, quite, stark, totally The door closed behind me and I was now standing stark naked in the corridor.
- ▸ almost almost, half, nearly, practically, virtually The miners worked, almost naked, for up to twelve hours a day in filthy conditions. ◉ She's always wandering around half naked.

- ADJ+n person boy, child, figure, girl, lady, man, model, woman I stopped beside a sculpture of a naked woman.
- ▸ part of the body breast, foot, shoulder, torso The hot sand burned his naked feet.
- ▸ skin flesh, skin The softness of the fabric felt nice against her naked flesh.
- ▸ body body, form Her naked body was found by her cleaner in the bathroom.

- v+ADJ be, pose, strip (sb), run, swim, walk They were made to strip naked and their heads were shaved.

2 not covered

- ADJ+n bulb, flame, light, sword Close all doors and windows, extinguish all naked flames and switch off the gas supply.

3 very strong, not controlled or limited

- ADJ+n aggresion, ambition, greed, hatred, self-interest While he was in office, his unscrupulousness and naked ambition brought about his downfall.

name N
a word or set of words by which a person or thing is usually known

- adj+N that is given to you Christian, first, given We called each other by our first names.
- ▸ of your family family, last, second The practice of using a surname or family name is relatively recent.
- ▸ middle middle, second 'Have you got a middle name?' 'Yes, it's Elizabeth – Mary Elizabeth Jones.'
- ▸ that a woman uses before/after she gets married maiden, married What was your mother's maiden name?
- ▸ that someone uses instead of their own name assumed, false, pen He signed the letter using an assumed name. ◉ She wrote the book under the pen name George Eliot.

- v+N change your name change She didn't change her name when she got married.
- ▸ take and use a name adopt, assume, take The school adopted its current name in 1954.
- ▸ have the name be known by, go by, have I know there was a family going by the name of Griffin in the area at the time.

narrative N a story or account of something

- adj+N that holds your attention compelling, engaging, gripping, vivid Her latest novel is a complex and compelling narrative that weaves together many strands of plot.
- ▸ complicated/not complicated complex, conventional, detailed, multi-layered, simple, straightforward In the documentary there is no conventional narrative, just a collection of filmed scenes.
- ▸ in which the parts fit together well coherent He looks at a number of different cases and they are tied into a coherent narrative.
- ▸ told in a particular order chronological, linear, non-linear The film is a chronological narrative of her life, from a traumatic birth to a contented old age.
- ▸ told from a particular point of view first-person, third-person I chose a first-person narrative, because that made it sound like something you might be hearing spoken aloud.
- ▸ types of narrative autobiographical, biblical, biographical, fictional, historical, personal, poetic, traditional She mixes passages of autobiographical narrative with polemical discussion.

- v+N create a narrative construct, create, develop, produce, shape, weave, write Archaeologists can learn from historians that we should use our findings to create good narratives and engaging stories about the past and its people.
- ▸ offer a narrative give, offer, present, provide He has skilfully mastered the evidence to provide a coherent narrative.

- N+v emerge, flow, progress, unfold As the narrative gradually unfolds, the nature of the relationship between mother and daughter becomes clearer.

- N+n account, film, form, history, poem, strand, structure, style, thread, voice The book has a complex narrative structure, flowing backwards and forwards in time.

narrow ADJ

1 limited in range or variety

- ADJ+n range or situation confines, focus, range, scope On the courses, teachers get to know their pupils as people, beyond the narrow confines of the classroom. ◦ The report suggested that small schools limited pupils to a narrow range of opportunities.
- ▸ view definition, interpretation, perspective, sense, view One would have to have a very narrow view of the world to not see the value of this.

2 achieved with difficulty

- ADJ+n defeat, escape, majority, margin, victory He knew what a narrow escape he had had. ◦ They won the semi-final by a very narrow margin.

nasty ADJ

unpleasant to experience; unkind or offensive

- adv+ADJ very downright INFORMAL, especially, extremely, particularly, plain INFORMAL, really, truly, very The boys were being cheeky, rather than downright nasty. ◦ I cannot help feeling that this must have been a particularly nasty way to die.
- ▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather It left a rather nasty brown stain.
- ADJ+n surprise shock, surprise Some of them are likely to be in for a nasty surprise.
- ▸ situation business, situation It was a nasty business, from any point of view.
- ▸ period moment He still winces as he recalls that nasty moment.
- ▸ smell smell There was a nasty smell in the building which no one had ever been able to identify.
- ▸ taste taste My daughter now takes half a tablet instead and prefers this as there is no nasty taste.
- ▸ experience experience She'd had a nasty experience the day before.
- ▸ noise noise A nasty noise started coming from the gearbox.
- ▸ statement attack, comment, letter, message, stuff, thing She made a really nasty comment about his wife.
- ▸ person character, man, person, piece of work INFORMAL John shouts after Ken, 'You're a nasty little man!' ◦ She is a throughly nasty piece of work.
- ▸ action trick She decided it was time to play a nasty trick on him after what he did last week.
- ▸ part of someone's personality side There is a nasty, vicious side to him.
- ▸ injury bite, cut, gash, injury, wound He suffered a nasty injury to his leg.
- ▸ illness bug, cold, cough, disease, infection, virus It's a very nasty disease you don't want to get.
- ▸ accident accident, fall Toby has a nasty accident in the kitchen.
- ▸ effect effect We are constantly bombarded with information about the nasty effects of climate change.
- ▸ problem problem It caused a very nasty problem for the government.
- ▸ case case She thought she had a nasty case of flu.
- v+ADJ be, get, look, smell, sound, taste, turn I had an experience which, in retrospect, could have turned very nasty indeed.

nation N

a country that has its own land and government; the people of a particular country

- adj+N poor developing, impoverished, poor The G8 Summit meets this week to decide the fate of the world's poorest nations.
- ▸ rich affluent, prosperous, rich, wealthy The rich nations are still negotiating primarily in the interests of their major multinationals.
- ▸ strong great, leading, major, powerful, strong They argued that these were the qualities that had made their nation great.
- ▸ suffering unfair treatment oppressed The nationalism of oppressed nations is an inevitable reaction to colonialism.
- ▸ industrial industrial, industrialized The rapid rate of growth in all the major industrial nations has led to a considerable shortage of IT specialists.
- ▸ advanced advanced, developed There is global trend towards an ageing population in developed nations.
- ▸ independent free, independent, sovereign The period ended with Mexico becoming an independent nation.
- ▸ democratic democratic In democratic nations, national laws are also driven to a large extent by public opinion.
- ▸ new emerging, new, young The capital of the new nation was named Washington in his honour.
- ▸ behaving in a dangerous way rogue There is a growing threat of missile attacks from rogue nations.
- ▸ whole entire, whole He apologized in the name of the whole nation.
- ▸ with people sharing the same aims or beliefs united We are no longer a united nation.
- ▸ with people disagreeing about aims and beliefs divided The Britain of 1974 was a much more divided nation than a decade earlier.
- v+N govern a nation govern, lead He has shown he is no longer fit to lead our nation.
- ▸ defend a nation defend, protect, save The whole concept of dying to defend a nation is almost alien to modern minds.
- ▸ create a nation build, create The UN has had the momentous task of trying to build a nation from scratch.
- ▸ destroy a nation destroy They are determined to fight the evil that threatens to destroy their nation.
- ▸ affect a nation shock, sweep Her horrific murder shocked the nation. ◦ World Cup fever was sweeping the nation at the time.
- ▸ cause a nation to disagree about aims and beliefs divide Many issues divided the nation.
- ▸ unite a nation unite Royalists say that this week has shown the royal family can still unite the nation like nothing else.
- ▸ speak to a nation address, tell Addressing the nation, the Prime Minister called the attack mass murder.
- ▸ represent a nation represent The Queen represents the nation at times of great celebration or sorrow.
- ▸ serve a nation serve When War was declared in August 1914, many British women demanded the right to serve the nation.

nationalist N someone who believes that their nation should be independent, or that their nation's interests are more important than those of other nations.

- adj+N considered reasonable moderate There was now a belief that moderate nationalists and unionists could now work constructively together.
- considered unreasonable extreme The extreme nationalists of the Scottish Republican Socialist Movement are also unrepresented.
- with very strong beliefs ardent, fervent, radical He was a fervent nationalist and a supporter of the Welsh deciding their own destiny.

nationalist ADJ trying to achieve political independence for a particular nation; believing that your nation's interests are more important than those of other nations

- ADJ+n set of things that need to be done or that you want to achieve agenda, aspirations He dealt with nationalist aspirations by creating a federation of six republics.
- aim or fight cause, opposition, struggle He took up the nationalist cause, becoming the champion of the poor tenant farmers against their absentee English landlords. ◆ The traditional nationalist opposition to British rule is thus seen by unionists as incompatible with the survival of their own sense of identity.
- tradition tradition Both books sought to deny the importance of the nationalist tradition in Irish history.
- opinion feeling, sentiment The war was preceded by a rise in nationalist feeling.
- system of ideas ideology, policy The movement was a reaction against attempts to poison the minds of young workers with bourgeois nationalist ideology.
- style of speaking or writing rhetoric The EU disapproved of his authoritarian politics and nationalist rhetoric.

nationalistic ADJ
extremely proud of your own nation and believing that it is better than other nations

- adv+ADJ aggressively, fervently, fiercely, highly, intensely, strongly Chopin's music with its strongly nationalistic character was bound to fall under suspicion in certain quarters.
- ADJ+n attitude, feelings, fervour, pride, sentiment The atmosphere of nationalistic fervour which they encouraged may well have hastened the conflict.
- and/or chauvinistic, militaristic, patriotic, xenophobic The idea that the English national identity has to be nationalistic, xenophobic and racist has completely gone now.

nationality N
the legal status of being a citizen of a particular country

- adj+N relating to a particular country British, French etc Under Irish law, any person born on the island of Ireland may obtain Irish nationality.
- relating to two countries dual Dual nationality can only be acquired in accordance with the laws of both Finland and the other state in question.
- mixed mixed Groups are of mixed nationality but the main language spoken is English.
- foreign foreign With regard to the amount of tax, persons of foreign nationality are required to pay the same as citizens of the country.
- v+N get a particular nationality acquire, adopt, assume, obtain, take Rupert Murdoch was born in Australia, but took US nationality.
- give someone a particular nationality grant sb He took up residence in Britain but was not granted British nationality.
- have a particular nationality have, hold, possess Generally, an English person is someone who lives in England and holds British nationality, regardless of their racial origin.
- change nationality change I arrived in 1960, and I changed my nationality in 1963 from Pakistani to British.
- lose a particular nationality lose So, if you get another nationality, you will not lose your British nationality.
- keep a particular nationality keep, retain Charlie Chaplin retained his British nationality throughout his life.
- claim a particular nationality claim Claiming French nationality, he was transferred to a camp near Marienburg for French prisoners of war.

natural ADJ
1 existing in nature and not produced or caused by people

- adv+ADJ completely, totally It is made from completely natural ingredients.
- ADJ+n substance ingredients, material, product, resources, substance They stressed the need for using natural resources in a sustainable way.
- surroundings ecosystem, environment, habitat, landscape, setting, surroundings, world Article 55 states: Care shall be taken in warfare to protect the natural environment against widespread, long-term and severe damage.
- beauty beauty Everyone was amazed by the island's natural beauty.
- process process Germination is a natural process that depends on the right supply of moisture, light, and air.
- state state Large areas of the park have been left in their natural state.
- event phenomenon It is generally agreed that the vast majority of UFO reports can be explained as misidentifications of aircraft or natural phenomena.
- causes causes He died of natural causes, and there are no suspicious circumstances.
- feature feature We will work with the local community to safeguard coastal wildlife and the coastline's unique natural features.
- choice alternative, choice Herbal medicines offer a natural alternative to conventional medicines.

2 reasonable or expected in particular situation

- adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, perfectly, quite, totally It was perfectly natural always to have your gas mask with you when you went to school.

- very very In these circumstances, it is very natural to feel fear, anxiety, and despair.
- only only When we see our friends in trouble, it's only natural to want to help.

- ADJ+n reaction or result consequence, reaction, response I fully agree with Elaine; it is a natural reaction to retaliate when hit.
- thing thing To want a quiet life is the most natural thing in the world.
- choice choice He was the natural choice for the part of Johnny.

3 existing in someone from early age

- ADJ+n ability ability, talent He has a tremendous amount of natural ability.
- tendency inclination, instinct, tendency All this goes against the natural instincts of the Chancellor.

nature N

a basic quality or feature of something

- adj+N real real, true His expression immediately indicated the true nature of his feelings.
- exact exact, precise There is a debate amongst historians as to the precise nature of Charles II's intentions at this time.
- same same, similar There are no other commercial sites of a similar nature in the West Midlands.
- different different Colin, however, had problems of a different nature.
- basic basic, essential, fundamental We must first be clear about the essential nature of democracy.

You can use the expression by its (very) nature to describe a quality that something has because of what it is: Medical records, by their very nature, contain sensitive information.

- general general This booklet contains information of a general nature about the school.
- complicated complex, complicated The involvement of the African Union in the mediation effort is especially important because of the complicated nature of the crisis.
- technical technical Some of the information is of a highly technical nature.
- serious serious The serious nature of some offences may mean that they cannot be dealt with in this court.
- private or needing to be dealt with carefully confidential, personal, private, sensitive Page 1 of the letter was of a personal nature, so it has been omitted.
- very special unique The unique nature of the university has attracted a diverse range of students.
- containing different elements diverse The diverse nature of the party's electoral support needs to be underlined.

- v+N know the nature of something know, recognize, understand Perhaps the best way to try to understand the nature of this problem is to take a familiar modern analogy – that of doctor and patient.
- examine the nature of something analyse, consider, discuss, examine, explore, investigate The book seeks to explore the nature of religious belief and practice in fourteenth-century England.
- establish the nature of something assess, define, determine, establish We will work with your business to establish the exact nature of your finance requirements.
- change the nature of something alter, change, transform The Act will fundamentally change the nature of higher education.
- keep the nature of something keep, preserve We wanted to preserve the informal nature of our meetings.
- show the nature of something emphasize, reflect, reveal, show We wanted to create a website that reflected the nature of the business in a clear and uncomplicated manner.
- explain the nature of something explain Physics endeavours to explain the nature of the physical world from sub-atomic particles to the whole universe.
- describe the nature of something describe In his introduction to the book, John describes the complex nature of his relationship with his mum.

nausea N

the feeling that you are going to vomit

- adj+N severe acute, severe, violent Chemotherapy can have serious side effects such as hair loss and severe nausea.
- not severe mild, slight Twelve of the nineteen participants reported feelings of mild nausea at some time during the trial.
- lasting for a long time chronic, persistent Chronic nausea can significantly impair a patient's quality of life.

- v+N cause nausea bring on, cause, induce, produce High doses of iron can cause nausea.
- experience nausea experience, feel, have, suffer (from) As many as 90 per cent of pregnant women will experience some nausea and vomiting.
- prevent nausea combat, control, prevent There are now new drugs to control nausea which can be very effective, so do ask your doctor or nurse.
- reduce nausea alleviate, ease, reduce, relieve Ginger tea or ginger tablets can help reduce nausea.
- cure nausea treat The drug has been used in the UK for over 30 years to treat nausea in cancer patients.

- n+of+N bout, feeling, onset, sensation, wave I felt weak and had to fight off occasional waves of nausea.

navigate V

choose a path for a ship, plane, or car to go along; find a path through a difficult place or a way of dealing with a difficult situation

- adv+V successfully effectively, efficiently, smoothly, successfully Ten days later, he successfully navigated the lifeboat on the epic sixteen-day journey from Elephant Island to South Georgia. ◉ He helped his clients successfully navigate UK immigration laws.
- in a safe way safely These notes will help you navigate your way safely through the complex decisions that you will have to take.
- easily easily There is a site map to help you navigate easily around the website.
- accurately accurately You need to be able to navigate accurately in fine weather and foul.
- confidently confidently By the end of the workshop, you will be able to navigate confidently around the Internet.

- ▸ skilfully skilfully Anyway, he safely got us airborne and skilfully navigated across the featureless wastes below.

navy N
the part of a country's armed forces that fights at sea

- adj+N large, modern, strong In 1629, Richelieu decided that France needed a proper and modern navy.
- v+N join/leave the navy enter, join, leave He joined the navy at the age of twelve, and was a captain at 26.
- ▸ create a navy build, create The United States used its economic supremacy to build a strong navy.
- ▸ defeat a navy defeat Their aim now was to defeat the Egyptian navy.
- ▸ have a navy have Switzerland doesn't have a navy.
- ▸ increase the size of a navy expand From Britain's point of view, Germany's desire to expand her navy was unacceptable.
- ▸ continue to have a navy maintain Even weaker countries tried to maintain a navy.
- ▸ serve in the navy be in, serve in He served in the French navy for a time.

necessary ADJ essential or needed for something

- adv+ADJ very or exactly absolutely, entirely, really, strictly, very, vitally A qualification in this area will be helpful although it's not strictly necessary.
- ▸ scarcely hardly, scarcely It's hardly necessary to stress that these facts should not be disclosed to the public.
- ▸ more and more increasingly It has become increasingly necessary for the industry to establish standards of practice.
- ▸ clearly clearly It is clearly necessary to involve parents at the planning stage.
- ▸ equally equally Resources are essential, but equally necessary is the will to succeed.
- ▸ in a particular way clinically, legally, logically, medically, politically The surgery must be medically necessary; cosmetic surgery does not qualify.
- v+ADJ consider something believe sth, consider, deem, feel sth, find sth, judge sth, regard sth as, see sth as, think sth The Inspector was given powers to do anything he considered necessary.
- ▸ be or become be, become, remain Occasionally, surgery may become necessary.
- ▸ seem appear, seem The measures that he recommended do not seem necessary at this stage.
- ▸ make something make sth, render sth The act makes it necessary for employers to ensure that employees have a safe environment in which to work.
- ▸ be shown to be prove Ambulances have been put on standby in preparation for a full-scale evacuation, should it prove necessary.

necessity N
1 the fact of a process, thing, or action being needed in a situation

- adj+N types of necessity commercial, economic, financial, historical, legal, logical, medical, military, operational, political, social Throughout her life, she would insist that she became an artist through economic necessity.
- ▸ urgent dire, immediate, urgent Do not use this technique except in cases of dire necessity. ◆ We should draw attention to the urgent necessity to change what is happening in that country, for the benefit of its own citizens.
- ▸ great absolute, great, sheer, vital Local residents use the road for vehicles only in cases of absolute necessity. ◆ I had to go out to work from sheer necessity.
- ▸ practical practical As a matter of practical necessity, non-EU parts of Western Europe comply with many EU regulations.
- v+N avoid or get rid of necessity avoid, eliminate, obviate, remove The new line into London obviated the necessity to run trains over the North Kent line.
- ▸ stress necessity assert, emphasize, highlight, stress, underline They stressed the necessity for groups to keep their records up to date.
- ▸ realize or accept necessity accept, acknowledge, perceive, realize, recognize, understand We recognize the necessity of reaching young people through other young people.
- ▸ question or deny necessity deny, question She questioned the necessity of so many advisers being present.

2 something that you must have in order to live, work, or do something

- adj+N basic bare, basic Their parents have to work from dawn to dusk to provide the basic necessities.
- ▸ great absolute, vital Things that are luxuries are often presented to the consumer as absolute necessities.
- ▸ needed every day daily He's talking here about food, clothing, daily necessities.
- v+N have, lack We lived in poverty and lacked even the basic necessities.

neck N
the part of the body that joins the head to the body

- adj+N painful or injured bad, broken, fractured, painful, sore, stiff I've had a bad neck for years.
- ▸ short/long long, short He was small and stocky, with a short neck.
- ▸ thick fat, thick He craned his thick neck to glance back over his shoulder.
- ▸ thin scraggy INFORMAL, scrawny, slender, slim, thin She was a tall girl with a slender neck.
- ▸ not covered bare He could feel the draught on his bare neck.
- v+N stretch your neck bend, crane, extend, strain, stretch She craned her neck to see what was going on.
- ▸ break your or someone's neck break, snap In a freak accident in February 1940, Leonard broke his neck.
- ▸ injure your neck crick, hurt, injure, strain, twist In the warm-up, Ferdinand cricked his neck, so couldn't play.
- ▸ twist an animal's neck twist, wring They killed the chickens by wringing their necks.

need V
when it is necessary to have or do something

- adv+V very much badly, desperately, really, sorely, urgently In order to achieve this, we desperately need your help.
- ▸ not always or not in every situation not necessarily You don't necessarily need to be present in person.
- ▸ in fact actually, really For such short trips, do you really need to take the car?
- ▸ only just, only, simply I only need glasses for reading.
- ▸ clearly clearly, obviously The woman clearly needed urgent medical help.
- ▸ certainly certainly, definitely This old hotel certainly needs a facelift.
- ▸ usually generally, normally, usually A schoolchild usually needs to sleep about 10 hours every night.
- ▸ almost not hardly These fears, I need hardly say, are completely unjustified.

need N
1 a situation in which it is necessary for something to be done

- adj+N great or urgent desperate, dire, great, immediate, pressing, urgent The school was in desperate need of refurbishment. ◉ There was a pressing need for such a facility in the area.
- ▸ increasing or continuing constant, continuing, growing, increasing We have been unable to meet the increasing need for training.
- ▸ clear clear, obvious The project identified a clear need for flexible training opportunities.

- v+N show or emphasize the need for something emphasize, highlight, show, stress, underline, underscore These figures highlight the urgent need for tougher action on climate change.

You can use the expression in need of to say that something is necessary: The system was in need of updating. The phrase there is no need means that something is not necessary: There was no need for the computers to be replaced.

- ▸ feel the need of something feel, have I felt the need to speak out.
- ▸ get rid of the need for something avoid, eliminate, obviate, remove We do not claim that GM crops will eliminate the need for economic, political or social change, or that they will feed the world.
- ▸ see or accept the need for something accept, acknowledge, perceive, recognize, see, understand We all recognize the need for greater environmental protection.
- ▸ satisfy the need for something address, fulfil, meet, satisfy This chapter addresses the need for alternative research strategies.
- ▸ reduce the need for something reduce Better treatment techniques may further reduce the need for surgery for patients with these cancers.
- ▸ increase the need for something increase Slow economic growth has increased the need for public expenditure.
- ▸ show the need for something demonstrate, reflect, show The international conflicts of recent years have clearly demonstrated the need for better understanding between different cultures.
- ▸ create the need for something create This expansion has created the need for larger office facilities.

2 something that someone requires [usually plural]

- adj+N basic basic, essential, fundamental We are not meeting the basic needs of some of the most disadvantaged groups in society.
- ▸ great or urgent immediate, pressing 50,000 tonnes of grain would be enough to satisfy the immediate needs of the population.
- ▸ special or particular individual, particular, special, specific We realize that you have very specific needs, so we will tailor the course to you.
- ▸ not satisfied unmet There is now a range of innovative therapies to satisfy unmet needs in cancer patients.
- ▸ different conflicting, different, diverse It is often difficult to cater for the conflicting needs of diverse groups.
- ▸ types of need dietary, economic, educational, financial, health, human, medical, nutritional, physical, psychological, social, spiritual Different criteria apply for children with special educational needs.

- v+N identify or consider need assess, consider, identify Training needs will be identified at each stage.
- ▸ satisfy or try to satisfy need accommodate, address, cater for/to, focus on, fulfil, meet, provide for, respond to, satisfy, suit, support We will use our resources to respond effectively to the diverse needs of the pupils in our care. ◉ We offer three packages to suit your particular needs.
- ▸ when needs decide something be determined by, be dictated by, be driven by, be geared to/towards, be tailored to We are driven by the needs of our customers in every situation. ◉ This service is tailored to the needs of individual small companies.
- ▸ balance needs balance Each headteacher must balance the needs of the troublesome pupil along with the needs of the rest of the children in the school.

negative ADJ
1 expressing disagreement, criticism, or opposition; giving more attention to bad possibilities than to good ones

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, overwhelmingly, strongly, very Several patients expressed strongly negative reactions.
- ▸ rather quite, rather, somewhat Sometimes the remarks of our closest friends and family can at first be quite negative.
- ▸ completely completely, entirely, purely, totally, wholly Stevenson's message was not totally negative.
- ▸ mainly generally, largely, mostly, predominantly I'm amazed at how the reviews on this page seem to be largely negative.

- ADJ+n reaction reaction, response The paper was prepared and submitted, but the group received a negative response.
- ▸ statement comment, feedback, remark I was shocked at some of the negative comments.
- ▸ emotion emotion, feeling One of the best ways to avoid succumbing to negative emotions is to be focused on the task.
- ▸ thought thought Do you suffer from negative thoughts about your body and health?

▸ view attitude, perception, stereotype, view Youngsters from poorer backgrounds can develop negative attitudes to learning early on.
▸ image or description image, portrayal Do social workers really deserve the negative image the media give them?
▸ attention in magazines or newspapers, or on television or radio coverage, publicity The Conference aimed to counteract much of the negative publicity surrounding migrant workers.
▸ idea association, connotation The term 'asylum seeker' carries many negative connotations.

2 harmful or bad

• adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, overwhelmingly, profoundly, strongly, very Such a proposal could have extremely negative implications for the BBC.
▸ rather quite, rather, somewhat In fact, she got over this rather negative feeling very quickly ▸ completely completely, entirely, purely, totally, wholly A ban would also have an entirely negative effect.
▸ mainly generally, largely, mostly World War I had a generally negative impact on Honduras.
▸ possibly potentially The report focuses on the potentially negative results for future welfare services .

• ADJ+n effect effect, impact The survey found that 60 per cent of respondents thought the current tax system was having a negative impact on their international competitiveness.
▸ result consequences, implications, repercussions, result Significant numbers still choose not to disclose this information because they fear negative consequences.
▸ aspect aspect, side Modern historians have been quick to emphasize the negative aspects of the period.
▸ experience experience For most people, serving on a jury is a negative experience.

neglect V

1 fail to do something you should do

• V+n duty duty, responsibility He had been neglecting his duties as a director.
▸ work schoolwork, task, work So concentrate on your football, but don't neglect your schoolwork.
▸ education education He has neglected the education of his children and spoiled them by indulging all their wishes.
▸ health health She neglected her health and became seriously ill.

• V+infinitive say explain, inform, mention, point out, report, tell He neglected to mention that he was already married.
▸ pay pay The record company had neglected to pay the studio and the tapes were confiscated until payment was received.
▸ ask ask I spoke to a young woman who I think was Mr Woolley's daughter, though I neglected to ask.
▸ bring bring Then darkness descended, and we realized that we had neglected to bring a torch to look at our map.
▸ consider consider Of course, he neglects to consider the actual consequences of his action.

2 fail to pay attention to something

• adv+V often or to a great extent largely, often She looks at poetry that has been largely neglected by scholars.
▸ to some extent relatively, somewhat This aspect of local studies has been somewhat neglected.
▸ unfairly or sadly sadly, unfairly, unjustly This is an unjustly neglected masterpiece of 18th century prose.

Neglect is usuallly plural in all of the adv+V combinations shown above.

• V+n subject field, issue, subject, topic Literary scholars have rather neglected the whole issue.
▸ importance importance, role Sometimes, in our preoccupation with government and politics, we neglect the importance of civil institutions.
▸ piece of work work Professor Friedman completely neglects the work of Herman Daly, Robert Costanza and other ecological economists.
▸ aspect aspect But she neglects the darker aspects of the drama.
▸ fact fact The book neglects the fact that the operation of markets and of government are entirely interdependent.

neglect N

the failure to give someone or something the care or attention they need

• adj+N deliberate deliberate, wilful Parents can be prosecuted for wilful neglect if they leave a child unsupervised in a manner likely to cause unnecessary suffering or injury to health.
▸ serious gross, serious, severe The case revealed gross neglect within the CIA.
▸ types of neglect emotional, physical What they experienced was clearly emotional neglect and physical abuse.
▸ by parents parental Parental neglect can cause lasting damage.
▸ complete complete, total Since his death, he has suffered almost total neglect as a composer.
▸ kind and not intended to be harmful benign The administration is now following a policy of benign neglect, allowing market forces to push down the dollar's value internationally.
▸ relative comparative, relative This is reflected in the relative neglect of the study of legislation.
▸ general general These days, the buildings suffer from general neglect.
▸ seeming to exist apparent It's quite true that she was deeply wounded by the king's apparent neglect.
▸ criminal criminal Whether this constitutes criminal neglect is not for me to judge.

• v+N experience neglect experience, suffer, suffer from The city suffers from comparative neglect.
▸ deal with neglect address, tackle The local authority has a moral and legal responsibility to address the neglect of our local heritage and environment.
▸ make people notice neglect highlight The report highlights the shameful neglect of this vulnerable and often isolated group of people.

neglected ADJ

1 not given attention

• ADJ+n area, aspect, classic, dimension, element, field, masterpiece, subject, topic The article concludes by suggesting that it would be fruitful for more research to be done in this largely neglected area.

2 not cared for

- ADJ+n person child, wife The King spent very little time with his neglected wife.
- ▶ place building, garden All this is a far cry from the dark and somewhat neglected garden that Michael and Caryl took over in 1983.

negligence N

failure to give necessary care or attention

- adj+N serious gross, serious The Government also proposes three new offences designed to make individuals in an organization accountable for serious acts of gross negligence which result in death.
- ▶ deliberate deliberate, wilful Welsby thinks that I may have a case if I were to sue for wilful negligence.
- ▶ involving guilt or a crime criminal, culpable He said even if Dr Norris made an error of judgement it did not amount to criminal negligence.
- ▶ personal personal Members will be charged for loss or damage resulting from personal negligence.
- ▶ for which you are partly responsible contributory A finding of contributory negligence is highly likely.
- ▶ types of negligence clinical, corporate, medical, professional He has written on issues related to clinical negligence and personal injury.

- v+N accuse sb of, admit, allege, arise from, claim, establish, involve, prove, result from A private prosecution brought by the father alleged negligence on the part of the travel company. ◉ They claimed for injury resulting from the firm's negligence.

negligent ADJ

failing to give necessary care or attention

- adv+ADJ allegedly, criminally, grossly, potentially, professionally The Security Council was grossly negligent in not monitoring the effects of sanctions.
- v+ADJ be, consider sb, deem sb, find sb, prove sb The court found that he had been criminally negligent. ◉ You could be convicted if you are proved negligent in a court of law.

negligible ADJ

very unimportant or small

- adv+ADJ almost almost, virtually The cost of such items is almost negligible.
- ▶ fairly fairly, pretty INFORMAL While the books get an undeniable boost in sales from the films, it's usually fairly negligible compared to the overall sales.
- ADJ+n amount amount, content, level, proportion, quantity Pesticide levels are reduced during washing, cooking, or processing fruits and vegetables, with negligible amounts remaining in the final product.
- ▶ effect effect, impact, influence Present policies seem to be having a negligible effect on getting more people to cycle.
- ▶ cost cost, overheads The overheads are negligible and the benefits considerable, even when it appears that a machine has vast resources; rarely are you the only user!
- ▶ risk chance, risk Very low doses of radiation are used, which pose a negligible risk to health.
- ▶ importance importance In virtually all cases, these differences are of negligible importance.
- ▶ increase increase, rise There has been a negligible increase in public investment in these sectors since 2005.
- ▶ difference difference The price difference was negligible, so we went ahead and bought it.
- ▶ loss or damage damage, loss A negligible loss to a large company, for example, could be catastrophic for a private individual or small business.
- ▶ help or benefit benefit, contribution Pacific Island countries make a small or negligible contribution to greenhouse gas emissions.
- ▶ rate rate The drop-out rate is negligible for these courses.

- v+ADJ be, become, consider sth, seem Their contribution to the event was negligible. ◉ In this case, the risk is considered negligible.

negotiate V

1 try to reach agreement by discussing something in a formal way

- adv+V successfully effectively, successfully Trade unions still successfully negotiate wage settlements for whole sectors of industry.
- ▶ separately individually, separately Directors' contracts must be negotiated individually.
- ▶ directly directly In the summer of 1647, Cromwell and his senior army colleagues decided to negotiate directly with the King.
- ▶ for a particular area locally, nationally The report also called for women to be able to negotiate locally for more flexible working practices.

- V+n agreement agreement, arrangement, ceasefire, contract, deal, package, peace, purchase, sale, settlement, terms, treaty, truce A union often negotiates agreements with employers on pay and conditions.
- ▶ price discount, fee, price, rate, salary Taxis fares are fixed, but it is a good idea to negotiate a price before getting in.
- ▶ solution or change change, solution Either negotiate changes with your lender or refuse the loan.
- ▶ right right The company negotiated exclusive rights to import and distribute his products within the UK.

2 successfully travel along a path or road; get past something that is in your way or stopping you doing something

- adv+V carefully, safely, skilfully, successfully After safely negotiating the road, we then had to cross a railway line.

- V+n route path, road, route, way We all have to negotiate our way through public spaces in our everyday lives.
- ▶ obstacle or danger bend, hazard, maze, minefield, obstacle, roundabout, stairs We successfully negotiated the minefield of regulations relating to the employment of young people. ◉ You will need to help elderly residents to negotiate the stairs on their way to the meeting.

negotiation N formal discussions in which people or groups try to reach an agreement [usually plural]

- adj+N relating to a particular area international, local, national The EU has played a significant role in international negotiations on climate change.
- ▶ types of negotiation contractual, diplomatic, political There have been incidents where political negotiations have floundered because of careless reporting.
- ▶ involving a particular number of groups or countries all-party, bilateral, multilateral, multi-party We have made clear our readiness to engage in multilateral negotiations.
- ▶ involving people at a high level high-level In this job you will be involved in high-level negotiations with leading retailers.
- ▶ lasting for a long time lengthy, prolonged, protracted A deal was signed yesterday after weeks of protracted negotiations.
- ▶ current/future current, forthcoming, future, ongoing They are worried about the possible failure of the current negotiations. ◈ She had been involved in ongoing negotiations since the middle of December.
- ▶ complex or difficult complex, detailed, difficult, intense, intensive, tough Detailed negotiations with Swansea Council are underway to finalize the arrangements.
- ▶ formal/informal formal, informal Formal negotiations are scheduled to start next week.
- ▶ direct direct, face-to-face There is no reason not to explore the alternative option of direct negotiation with the employer.

- n+N climate (change), contract, disarmament, pay, peace, trade Trade ministers will discuss launching a new round of trade negotiations.

- v+N start negotiations begin, commence, enter, enter into, initiate, open, start The Government said it would enter into negotiations with the unions on their plans.
- ▶ continue negotiations continue The EU urges the parties to continue negotiations in order to arrive at a peaceful settlement.
- ▶ organize negotiations conduct, hold, pursue, undertake We have conducted negotiations with the manufacturers on behalf of the client.
- ▶ deal with negotiations handle Devon County Council will be handling the negotiations with landowners along the route of the line.
- ▶ be in charge of negotiations lead, oversee The union's deputy general secretary will lead the negotiations.
- ▶ finish negotiations complete, conclude China remains optimistic about concluding the negotiations before the deadline.
- ▶ stop negotiations break off, suspend, terminate Then the three senior executives got up and strode angrily out of the room, breaking off negotiations.
- ▶ start negotiations again reopen, restart, resume, revive He expressed deep concern over the violence and urged both sides to resume negotiations.

- N+v start begin, commence, start Negotiations began with a financial institution last December, but an agreement over the price hasn't been reached.

If something is open to negotiation, it is able to be changed after discussion: The union said that everything is open to negotiation. When something is subject to negotiation, it may be changed after discussion: We've reached a broad agreement but the details are subject to negotiation.

- ▶ continue continue, go on, proceed Although the pay dispute has not been settled, nurses are continuing to work while the negotiations continue.
- ▶ take place take place The committee chairman said negotiations were still taking place over the purchase.
- ▶ fail break down, collapse, fail, stall At the end of June, negotiations broke down.

neighbourhood N a particular area of a city or town

- adj+N local immediate, local, surrounding Improve your local neighbourhood by renovating disused premises so that they can be used as a base for community activities.
- ▶ good good, nice Every one wants and is entitled to live in a good neighbourhood.
- ▶ bad bad, dangerous, rough, tough As a child I grew up in a very bad neighbourhood.
- ▶ rich affluent, wealthy Children in England's poorest areas are three times as likely to be hit by a car as those in more affluent neighbourhoods.
- ▶ poor deprived, disadvantaged, low-income, poor, run-down We all know the problems of our poorest neighbourhoods – decaying housing, unemployment, street crime, and drugs.
- ▶ quiet quiet This quiet neighbourhood is just 5 minutes' walk from the town centre.
- ▶ safe safe He argues that local communities want CCTV because they believe it will reduce crime, and make their neighbourhood safer.
- ▶ in a particular area city, inner-city, suburban, urban The report recommended solutions to bring people back into urban neighbourhoods.
- ▶ containing a particular social class middle-class, working-class They own a large comfortable house in a middle-class neighbourhood.
- ▶ containing a mixture of different types of people or buildings mixed We lived in a mixed neighbourhood – black, white and Mexican – and many of the houses were rundown.
- ▶ consisting mainly of houses residential The streets in the residential neighbourhood are eerily empty.

- v+N make a neighbourhood create, establish One of our aims is to create safer neighbourhoods and healthier workplaces.
- ▶ improve a neighbourhood improve, regenerate, renew, revitalize, transform We are working to regenerate some of the most disadvantaged neighbourhoods of the city.

neighbouring ADJ near each other

- ADJ+n area area, borough, county, district, parish, region The benefits of using the same system in neighbouring areas are clear.
- ▶ country country, state The majority of refugees go to neighbouring countries.
- ▶ town or village city, community, resort, town, village The situation in the neighbouring villages is no better.

- ▸ organization authority, council, local authority A neighbouring authority, Lambeth Council, demanded an environmental assessment.
- ▸ piece of land farm, farmland, field, land, property The house and grounds were scoured but there was no sign of the lad and so the neighbouring fields were searched.
- ▸ building or street building, house, property, school, street The fire in the shop caused damage to a neighbouring property.
- ▸ island island There is a plan to build Britain's biggest wind farm on the neighbouring island of Lewis.
- ▸ person or people farmer, land owner, resident, tribe The land around the canal was sold off to a variety of neighbouring landowners following closure.

nerve N

1 a worried feeling that you will fail [always plural]

- v+N have nerves get, have, suffer from Afterwards, she reportedly admitted that she had suffered from nerves.
- ▸ calm nerves calm, ease, settle, soothe, steady He gave Atherton some pills to calm his nerves.
- ▸ control nerves control, deal with, overcome, steady Trying hard to overcome her nerves, she strode into the main building.

2 the ability to control your fear and remain determined in a difficult or dangerous situation

- v+N have nerve have I'm glad I had the nerve to talk to you that day.
- ▸ keep your nerve hold, keep England can win if they hold their nerve.
- ▸ lose your nerve lose I lost my nerve when I realised how high up I was.
- ▸ need nerve need, require, take It takes a lot of nerve to make the jump.
- ▸ lack nerve lack This government lacks the nerve to make tough decisions.
- ▸ show nerve show He showed the nerve and composure that fans have become accustomed to.
- ▸ find your nerve find I'm still not sure where I found the nerve to do it.
- ▸ find out how good someone's nerve is test Abseiling will really test your nerve.

nervous ADJ

feeling excited and worried, or slightly afraid

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, incredibly, particularly, really, so INFORMAL, very On the first day of filming I was really nervous.
- ▸ slightly a little, slightly I was a little nervous to start with, but now I'm fine.
- ▸ rather pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, somewhat She had been quite nervous about performing in front of more than 100 people.
- ▸ clearly clearly, obviously, visibly Mrs. Gough was obviously nervous and very shy.
- ▸ more and more increasingly Demand will often drop significantly during downturns as buyers become increasingly nervous.
- ▸ in a way that is normal and reasonable understandably Staff are understandably nervous about the future.
- v+ADJ appear, become, feel, get, grow, look, make sb, remain, seem, sound I was starting to feel very nervous about the exams. ◉ Sit down: you're making me nervous walking up and down like that.
- and/or anxious, apprehensive, edgy, excited, frightened, jumpy, scared, shy, tense, worried I didn't sleep well and woke up at five with a nervous excited feeling in my stomach.

nervousness

being nervous

- adj+N slight certain, slight There was a slight nervousness about our play last weekend.
- ▸ natural natural, understandable I detect an understandable nervousness on your part.
- ▸ early or apparent apparent, initial Despite her apparent nervousness, she had a deep assurance about her.
- and/or anxiety, excitement, irritability, restlessness, tension The most common side effects are restlessness, nervousness, and headaches.
- n+of+N degree, feeling, sign, trace In most cases, outward signs of nervousness evaporate within two or three minutes of starting the interview.
- v+N hide or overcome nervousness hide, overcome In the end, I overcame my initial nervousness.
- ▸ show nervousness betray Sue was quiet, and when she did speak her voice betrayed a slight nervousness.
- ▸ cause nervousness cause Caffeine can elevate blood pressure, and cause nervousness or irritability.

network N

1 a system of connected roads, wires etc

- adj+N relating to a particular area global, international, local, national, nationwide, regional, worldwide Each of these airports will be linked to its region by regional high-speed train networks.
- ▸ large extensive, large, wide An extensive network of canals waters the fertile fields.
- n+N for transport bus, motorway, rail, railway, road, train, transport The EU will be providing structural funds for improving our transport network.
- ▸ for communication broadband, mobile phone, mobile telephone, phone, telecommunications, telephone Your computer is connected to the telephone network to access remote computers and online services.
- v+N create a network build, construct, create, develop, establish Over the next three years, the project aims to develop a network of paths and cycleways through these woodland areas.
- ▸ operate a network manage, operate, run Until then, the coach network was managed by the National Bus Company, a state-owned business.
- ▸ form a network form These fallen trees formed a network of bridges that we regularly crossed on our adventures.
- ▸ keep a network operating maintain They maintain a network of footpaths, providing access to the gorge.

▸ make a network increase in size expand The £33.5bn is part of a ten-year transport plan, which the committee believes is not enough to expand the network.

2 a group of people, organizations, or places that are connected or that work together

- adj+N relating to a particular area global, international, local, national, nationwide, regional, worldwide It sells a wide range of financial products direct to the public through its national network of branches.
- ▸ large extensive, large, wide They are the country's largest network of independent estate agents.
- ▸ complex complex There is a complex network of subsidies and quotas, which supposedly protects farmers by guaranteeing prices.
- ▸ social social Contact with children from different cultural and socio-economic backgrounds enhances children's capacity for developing wider social networks.
- ▸ informal informal This is an informal network which meets in order to share ideas about the important issues of the day.
- ▸ support support We have set up a learning and support network that is open to all students.

- v+N create a network build, construct, create, develop, establish, set up We have also established a network of distributors in over 20 countries, where customers can purchase our materials in local currency.
- ▸ operate a network manage, operate, run The Forestry Bureau operates a network of hostels in forest areas that are more than a day's journey from any city.
- ▸ form a network form Officials of the ancient Egyptian bureaucracy were highly trained individuals who ran all the major state institutions and formed a network of highly motivated and powerful people.
- ▸ join a network join You will be joining a network of like-minded individuals, all of whom are passionately committed to providing pre-school children with a positive introduction to sport.
- ▸ use a network use Always keep your CV up to date and use your existing network of contacts, as well as developing new ones, to create opportunities for career development.
- ▸ keep a network operating maintain The organization maintains a network of regional offices across the UK.
- ▸ have a network have We have a network of experienced professionals who will guide you in choosing the right solution for you.
- ▸ provide a network provide The agreements we have with universities in over 20 countries provide a network of educational opportunities to satisfy the most ambitious student.
- ▸ support a network support An international fund was set up to support a global network of public research institutions.
- ▸ make a network increase in size expand The Alumni Association is continuously expanding its network of contacts all over the world.

neutral ADJ

not supporting a particular side in an argument or disagreement

- adv+ADJ ethically, ideologically, politically, religiously The monarch is supposed to be politically neutral and represent the whole nation.
- ADJ+n opinion or attitude approach, attitude, evaluation, point of view, position, stance, view, viewpoint If you feel unable to support us openly, then you must take a neutral position.
- ▸ person arbiter, mediator, observer, party, person, third party, umpire As a neutral observer, I recently attended the Public Inquiry on the proposed bus route.
- v+ADJ appear, be, remain, stay Sweden's comments reflect its attempts to appear neutral in international affairs.

neutrality N

the state of not supporting either side in a war, disagreement etc

- v+N continue your neutrality maintain, observe, preserve, retain, uphold Hitler believed that neither Belgium nor Holland would long maintain their neutrality.
- ▸ make sure neutrality continues ensure, guarantee Mr. Chen has also ensured the neutrality of the civil service.
- ▸ announce your neutrality declare, proclaim On the outbreak of World War I, Norway declared its neutrality.
- ▸ give up your neutrality abandon The West might succeed in forcing them into abandoning their neutrality.
- ▸ not accept someone's neutrality violate Which of the belligerent nations had been first to violate the neutrality of Europe's non-combatant states?
- ▸ damage your neutrality compromise They run the risk of compromising their neutrality and thus jeopardizing their traditional humanitarian role.

new ADJ

1 recently made

- adv+ADJ very brand, spanking INFORMAL, very The company offers a comprehensive service whether you are looking for a brand new car or a used vehicle.
- ▸ fairly comparatively, fairly, quite, relatively They were living in a relatively new house.

2 replacing something

- adv+ADJ completely, entirely, genuinely, quite, radically, totally, wholly The development of quantum mechanics led to some radically new ideas about the behaviour of matter.

news N

1 information about something that has happened recently

- adj+N good excellent, fantastic, good, great, positive, welcome, wonderful Joe has good news for Pauline – his daughter Megan can attend the wedding.
- ▸ bad awful, bad, disturbing, shocking, terrible So you're suggesting that next year we say to them: 'We have some bad news for you.'
- ▸ exciting exciting, interesting You might think that this is not very exciting news.
- ▸ sad devastating, sad, tragic He received letters next day from his wife and sister, conveying the same sad news.

- v+N get news get, have, hear, receive I was so very sorry to hear the news of Carl's death yesterday.
- ▸ give someone news announce, break, bring, deliver, give sb, tell sb We were worried about breaking the news to our friends and families.
- ▸ share news share, spread Sheila hurried back to the room to share her news.
- ▸ be pleased to get news welcome We welcome the news that the project has received funding from the Home Office.
- ▸ wait for news await, respect, wait for The family anxiously awaits news of their son James, who is away at war.
- N+v arrive arrive, come, reach But during the day worrying news arrived that the Duke of Cumberland's army was already at Lichfield.
- ▸ become known by more people spread The news spread quickly.
- n+of+N bit, piece, snippet As Elinor and Marianne were walking together the next morning, the latter communicated a piece of news to her sister.

2 information about recent events reported in newspapers, television, radio, the Internet etc

- adj+N recent breaking, hot INFORMAL, latest, recent, up-to-the-minute Here is a round-up of the latest news.
- ▸ relating to a particular area domestic, foreign, global, international, local, national, regional We will also keep you updated on local news and events.
- ▸ relating to a particular subject corporate, economic, financial, political Bloomberg is a large-scale provider of financial news and information.
- ▸ important front-page, headline, important, major When this story gets out, it will be headline news in the financial press.
- n+N relating to a particular subject business, celebrity, company, entertainment, football, health, industry, market, music, science, sports, technology, travel Aside from specialised content, such as crosswords, or business news on the Financial Times's FT.com, newspapers offer their content free.
- ▸ relating to a particular area home, world In November, one story will dominate world news more than any other: the American Presidential Election.
- v+N announce news announce, break, broadcast, post, print, publish, report The Washington Post was first to break the news of Saylor's plans.
- ▸ contain news carry, contain, cover, feature, include The news was covered in the Saturday edition of the paper.
- ▸ become news become Two years ago she became front-page news when her boyfriend was sentenced to two years in jail after a horribly bizarre series of events.
- ▸ provide news deliver, provide Many organisations now provide news in this format.
- ▸ pay attention to the development of news follow I followed the news on Reuters and the Internet.
- N+v break, come in, emerge The news broke in Thursday's local evening press.
- N+n piece of news flash, item, release, story You can view older news items by using the links at the bottom of the page.
- ▸ broadcast that gives news briefing, bulletin, programme, report The site offers subscribers a discussion forum, and a daily news briefing on developments in the stock market.
- n+of+N item, snippet It seems every week now there's some item of news about how we need to reduce our dependence on cars.

newspaper N

a set of large printed sheets of folded paper containing news

- adj+N relating to a particular area foreign, international, local, national, provincial, regional She decided to put an advert in the local newspaper.
- ▸ published at a particular time daily, evening, morning, Sunday, weekly Berlin's largest daily newspaper publicised the event.
- ▸ published in a particular size broadsheet, tabloid Four things sell tabloid newspapers on a Sunday in South Africa – sex, drugs, music, and soccer.
- ▸ dealing with serious/entertaining news popular, serious Why did he make this important announcement, not in Congress, but in a popular newspaper?
- n+N business, community, company, sports, student, university She got a taste of journalism while working on the university newspaper.

nice ADJ

1 attractive, enjoyable, or pleasant

- adv+ADJ very awfully, especially, extremely, particularly, perfectly, really, so INFORMAL, very I just relaxed, got a video, and had a really nice meal.
- ▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather Where we live is quite nice.
- v+ADJ feel, look, seem, smell, sound, taste You look so nice in that dress.

2 friendly, kind, and pleasant

- adv+ADJ very awfully, especially, extremely, incredibly, particularly, perfectly, really, so INFORMAL, thoroughly, very When I got back, he was particularly nice to me.
- ▸ rather pretty INFORMAL, quite The teachers are all quite nice
- ▸ in a sincere way genuinely, truly You get the impression he is a genuinely nice guy.
- v+ADJ seem They were really reserved and quiet but seemed very nice.

niche N

1 a job or activity that you are good at and that is very suitable for you

- v+N carve, carve out, find Rich could never find the niche where he felt he belonged.

2 a market for a specific product or service that no one else is providing

- v+N find a niche discover, find, identify, recognise, spot Their rapid expansion is proof that they have identified a niche in the market.
- ▸ establish a niche carve, carve out, create, develop, establish It has carved a niche for itself servicing firms with between 50 and 500 employees, who tend to spend £1,000 to £10,000 a month.

- ▶ have a niche fill, occupy Firms may respond to this pressure by specialising and deliberately occupying different niches.
- ▶ use a niche in order to get an advantage exploit The company has excelled at exploiting niches in the past.
- ▶ provide what a niche needs fit, serve It was keen to develop more products to serve this lucrative niche.
- ▶ try to sell to a niche target He hopes not to target just one specific niche but an entire cross-section of markets.

- • N+n market area, industry, market, sector The private sector has also developed niche markets, such as cosmetic surgery, which are either limited or unavailable on the NHS.
- ▶ company business, channel, company, consultancy, firm, operator, player, practice She unveiled the company's plans to concentrate on building niche businesses around its existing specialities.
- ▶ product brand, magazine, model, product, publication, title Companies include major international players and small organisations manufacturing niche products.
- ▶ use of advertising to sell products marketing Specialist sites could be used to support niche marketing.
- ▶ people watching or listening to something on television or radio audience I think this is going to appeal to a very small niche audience.

night N
the part of a day when it is dark

- • adj+N dark black, dark It is said that on dark nights, when the wind blows gently through the ruins, the hideous shrieks of the monk can be heard.
- ▶ cold chilly, cold, cool, frosty The nights are still cool, even when the days are scorching.
- ▶ warm hot, mild, warm It was another warm night in southern California.
- ▶ with a lot of wind stormy, wild, windy On a stormy night, she and Clifford escaped from the castle on horseback.
- ▶ with a lot of clouds cloudy After a mainly cloudy night, the sky will clear around dawn.
- ▶ with light from the moon bright, moonlit It was a moonlit night, so he decided to take his wife on a romantic boat ride on the lake.
- ▶ with no light from the moon moonless He kept his eyes fixed on the dark road, his mood as black as the moonless night.
- ▶ with no clouds or rain clear, dry, fine On a clear night, sit on the veranda and be amazed by the brightness of the twinkling stars. ◈ To the north it will be a dry night with clear skies and some patchy, shallow, ground fog will develop in the valleys.
- ▶ wet damp, rainy, wet We woke after a very wet night to a slight drizzle.
- ▶ beautiful beautiful It had been a gorgeous spring day and as the sun sank slowly, there was the promise of a beautiful night too.
- ▶ with a lot of stars starlit, starry I confess to being spellbound when I stand outside on a starry night and simply gaze upwards.

nightmare N an extremely difficult or frightening situation

- • adj+N complete absolute, complete, real, total My search for a nanny for my two girls is proving to be an absolute nightmare.
- ▶ worst biggest, ultimate, worst It turned out to be their worst nightmare.
- ▶ types of nightmare administrative, bureaucratic, environmental, financial, legal, logistical Planning a wedding can be a logistical nightmare.

- • v+N endure, experience, face, live, suffer With a shortage of radiotherapists, thousands of patients are living a nightmare, waiting for their treatment to begin.

- • N+n journey, scenario, season, situation, start, vision, world That is the nightmare scenario research scientists warned of this week.

nod V move your head downwards and then upwards, to show you agree or understand

- • adv+V slowly slowly He nodded slowly, starting to understand.
- ▶ quickly quickly The woman nods quickly, and points to the building opposite.
- ▶ in a way that shows you are worried gravely, grimly, seriously, solemnly, thoughtfully He nodded gravely at intervals as they told their story. ◈ He nods thoughtfully while considering the question.
- ▶ in a way that shows you are wise sagely, wisely Another general sat nodding sagely at every remark that Hitler made.
- ▶ in a way that shows you understand knowingly, sympathetically, understandingly I explained the situation to a receptionist, who nodded knowingly.
- ▶ in a way that shows you agree approvingly, enthusiastically Campbell and Milburn, who were listening attentively, nodded approvingly.
- ▶ in a way that shows you are sad sadly When he is asked if he knows what happened to her, Willard nods sadly.
- ▶ slightly gently, imperceptibly, slightly, weakly He nodded slightly at his superior, but said nothing.
- ▶ politely politely, respectfully The councillors I was addressing nodded politely and pretended to have understood what I was saying.
- ▶ without saying anything quietly, silently He pointed this out to Thomas, who nodded silently.
- ▶ with a strong movement emphatically, furiously, vigorously I could not help nodding vigorously in agreement.

noise N
a loud or unpleasant sound

- • adj+N loud deafening, loud Persistent exposure to loud noise can result in deafness.
- ▶ too much excessive, too much Excessive noise is also a significant hazard for site workers.
- ▶ unpleasant horrible, terrible Inside the capsule the noise is terrible, but the rocket is still held on the launch pad.
- ▶ present around you ambient, background, extraneous, general I found the background noise unbearable.
- ▶ continuous constant, incessant The constant noise of machinery was deafening.

- not wanted unwanted Our system is designed to eliminate unwanted noise.
- types of noise banging, buzzing, clicking, hissing, humming, rattling, rumbling The transformer makes a slight humming noise.

- v+N make noise cause, create, generate, make, produce We were careful not to make too much noise.
- make less noise control, keep down, keep to a minimum, reduce Oi, you lot, keep the noise down!
- reduce the effect of noise deaden, drown out, minimize, reduce
- get rid of noise eliminate, stop This has the advantage of eliminating any noise coming from the main house.
- increase noise increase Bringing traffic into a place where no traffic exists will greatly increase noise.

- N+n amount of noise level Campaigners said the new road would create intolerable noise levels.
- controlling the amount of noise abatement, control, management, reduction, suppression Electric vehicles have environmental benefits, but will also bring about noise reduction.
- bad effects of noise impact, nuisance, pollution, problem Cycling can help reduce traffic congestion and noise pollution.

noisy ADJ

1 making a lot of noise

- adv+ADJ very extremely, incredibly, particularly, really, so INFORMAL, terribly, very If your neighbour is particularly noisy, it may be worth having a word with them anyway .
- rather fairly, a little, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, slightly, somewhat They can be quite noisy for such tiny birds.

2 full of noise

- adv+ADJ very extremely, incredibly, particularly, really, so INFORMAL, terribly, very The interior of the aircraft was extremely noisy.
- rather fairly, a little, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, slightly, somewhat Rooms overlooking Green Street can be a little noisy.

- and/or full of people or activity boisterous, busy, chaotic, crowded, lively The place was very busy and noisy.
- large big, large I left the large noisy nightclub with a couple of friends, having danced a bit.
- small cramped, little, small Forty minutes sitting alone with a drink in a small, noisy café is not much fun.
- dirty dirty, dusty, polluted The city itself is noisy and dirty.
- having an unpleasant smell smelly The laundry is noisy and smelly, and not unlike a factory.
- hot hot New York is noisy and hot and I lie awake for much of the night.

nominal ADJ

very small and much less than something is really worth

- ADJ+n amount, charge, cost, fee, price, rate, rent, sum, value Copies can be obtained from the address below for a nominal fee of £10.

nomination N an official suggestion that someone should get a job or a prize

- adj+N Democratic, presidential, Republican She has already established herself as the early frontrunner for the Democratic nomination.
- n+N Academy Award, Emmy, Grammy, Oscar, party Both the director and the film itself are definitely in line for Oscar nominations.
- v+N get a nomination earn, gain, get, receive, secure, win He tried to win the Republican nomination for the presidency of the United States, but failed.
- make a nomination make, put forward, send, submit Members are invited to make nominations for this year's awards, which will be presented at a special event on 22nd March.
- ask for nominations ask for, encourage, invite, request, solicit, welcome Nominations are invited for the following posts: President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer.
- say that you no longer want a nomination withdraw The election was postponed and James was persuaded to withdraw his nomination.
- try to get a nomination seek, stand for It is important that all members should feel free to seek nomination or to nominate others.
- accept a nomination accept Miss Pamela Henry accepted the nomination for President and was duly elected.
- announce a nomination announce Bardem could well be in the running again for an Oscar when the nominations are announced on January 25th.
- consider a nomination assess, consider, review The Committee considered 37 nominations for honorary degrees.
- support a nomination endorse, support He joined the Republican Party and in 1860 supported the nomination of Abraham Lincoln.
- give official agreement to a nomination approve The Board shall approve the nomination to the Chairmanship.

- N+n documents relating to nomination document, form, letter, papers The committee now has 60 days to check the nomination papers for any irregularities.
- process arrangements, criteria, procedure, process The nomination procedure has been kept as simple as possible to encourage participation.

nonchalance being relaxed and not worried

- adj+N airy, apparent, carefree, deceptive, seeming, studied The air of nonchalance is very deceptive, however, since the strength and skill needed are enormous.

- v+N fake, feign His opponent was leaning against the wall, unsuccessfully feigning nonchalance.

nonsense N

ideas, behaviour, or statements that are not true or sensible

- adj+N complete absolute, arrant, complete, plain, pure, sheer, total, utter The police said that the claims were 'utter nonsense'.

▸ such such I've never heard such nonsense in all my life.

• v+N talk or write nonsense peddle, speak, spout INFORMAL, talk, write You're talking complete nonsense.
▸ believe nonsense believe, be taken in by You don't want to believe that nonsense.

norm N

1 something that is usual or expected

• adj+N accepted, established, existing, expected, prevailing The nuclear family has been the firmly established norm for the past fifty years or so.

• n+N industry, market, sector The results obtained were consistent with industry norms.

• v+N establish a norm create, establish, set All the law can do is set a norm and enforce it equally.
▸ become a norm become These things have become the norm in academic life today.
▸ obey a norm accept, conform to, follow, observe I'm afraid I have always been a bit of a rebel and don't like to conform to the norm.
▸ refuse to obey a norm break from, challenge It is important to continually challenge the norm.
▸ be different from a norm depart from, deviate from, differ from, diverge from, vary from, violate He has composed a unique score which dares to deviate from the accepted Hollywood norm.
▸ continue to be a norm remain Once established, this type of architecture remained the norm for over a millennium.
▸ think that something is the norm consider sth For most positions, one month's notice is considered the norm.

2 standards of behaviour accepted in a particular society [always plural]

• adj+N social cultural, social, societal Throughout our life, we belong to a number of social groups with differing social norms.
▸ moral or religious ethical, moral, religious Moral norms are taken to be universal and to exercise some constraint on conduct.
▸ traditional traditional Two hundred and sixteen children described living with parents who insisted on traditional norms.

• n+N community, gender, group Such a person will by and large not have his/her attitudes determined mainly by group norms.

normal ADJ

not unusual or surprising in any way

• adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, entirely, perfectly, quite, totally To the people living 50 years ago this would have seemed perfectly normal.
▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, relatively They appeared to lead fairly normal lives.

• ADJ+n method manner, method, mode, practice, procedure, process, routine, system, way If you want to do a PhD, you need to go through the normal application process.
▸ situation circumstances, conditions, course of events, development, situation, state In normal circumstances, this is a very safe and routine operation.
▸ amount or measurement amount, cost, fee, level, pressure, price, range, rate, size, speed, temperature, value, weight The background radiation level remained more or less normal.

• v+ADJ seem normal appear, look, seem The guard checks the monitor, but everything looks normal.
▸ consider something normal accept sth as, call sth, consider sth, regard sth as, view sth as It is considered normal to gain 10 to 12kg during pregnancy.

normality N

a situation in which everything is normal

• adj+N relative comparative, relative The new King and Queen and the Princesses had only two years of comparative normality before the outbreak of World War II.
▸ seeming to exist apparent, seeming His music establishes the film's tone, which discourages us from trusting the apparent normality and tranquillity of this small town.

• v+N go back to normality regain, resume, return to With the removal of Milosevic from his presidency, the Balkans were slowly returning to normality.
▸ make normality exist again re-establish, restore Today, the city is trying to restore some normality after the attack.
▸ seem like normality approach, resemble I just want to get my life back to something approaching normality.

• n+of+N a kind of normality degree, kind, semblance, sort Finally, the markets seem to have returned to some semblance of normality.
▸ a feeling of normality feeling, sense This is an important way of helping restore a sense of normality to the community.

nose N

the part of your face above your mouth that you use for smelling and breathing

• adj+N large and noticeable big, large, long, prominent Jon has the biggest nose I've ever seen.
▸ small button, little, short, small It would be nice to have a smaller nose, but I don't think I'd seriously consider cosmetic surgery.
▸ pointed pointed, pointy INFORMAL, sharp She wasn't exactly pretty: her nose was too sharp for that.
▸ flat flat, pug, snub He was a handsome, blond man, with deep-set eyes, a snub nose, and a small moustache.
▸ straight straight His nose was straight with rather flared nostrils.
▸ curved downwards aquiline, hook, hooked His hair was grey, his forehead high, and his nose aquiline.
▸ curved upwards turned-up, upturned Her sister had a dear little upturned nose.
▸ preventing you from breathing well stuffy Take hot showers to clear a stuffy nose.
▸ with liquid coming from it runny, snotty INFORMAL It's that time of year when every child seems to constantly have a runny nose.
▸ covered in blood bleeding, bloodied, bloody The young man appeared to sustain a bloody nose during the attack.

nostalgia N thoughts about happy times in your past

- adj+N complete pure, sheer, unashamed The reunion in May assembled nearly 40 old members for an evening of pure nostalgia.
- ▸ when you remember something as being better than it really was misty-eyed, romantic, rose-tinted, sentimental The number of truly dire 'vintage' shows is too easily forgotten by those who cling to their rose-tinted nostalgia for yesteryear.
- ▸ slightly sad wistful The music for this beautiful film is filled with a wistful nostalgia.
- ▸ for a particular period 50s, 60s, 70s etc He is clearly not returning to the music scene to cash in on 80s nostalgia.
- v+N produce a feeling of nostalgia bring, bring back, evoke Such footage is included to add historical authenticity to the piece, but often evokes the most nostalgia in the viewer.
- ▸ feel nostalgia feel This little restaurant is definitely worth a visit, especially if you have visited Spain recently and are feeling nostalgia for the food or culture.
- ▸ enjoy nostalgia enjoy, indulge in, wallow in They seem to do nothing but wallow in nostalgia for the good old days.
- N+for age, childhood, days, era, past If you fancy an unusual day out, or have the faintest bit of nostalgia for a more civilized age of travel, then this is definitely worth trying.
- n+of+N a feeling of nostalgia feeling, mood, pang, sense, wave For you, those three words will evoke a string of mental images, but more importantly a sense of nostalgia, and also, a sense of outrage.
- ▸ a little nostalgia bit, hint, touch There is nothing wrong with a bit of nostalgia.
- ▸ a period of nostalgia bout, evening, moment, night For classic rock fans, this was going to be a night of nostalgia.
- ▸ an example of nostalgia dose, piece, slice INFORMAL It was a classic piece of nostalgia from when the show was arguably at the height of its powers.

notable ADJ unusual or interesting enough to be mentioned or noticed

- ADJ+n achievement accomplishment, achievement, feat, success, victory, win There have been a number of notable successes recently.
- ▸ action that helps to achieve something contribution This is an excellent resource and a notable contribution to Puerto Rican studies.
- ▸ someone or something that is different from the rest exception East Asian economies (with the notable exception of Indonesia) have been slowly recovering.
- ▸ example case, example, exponent, instance The Town Bridge is a notable example of a fine medieval bridge.
- ▸ feature feature The two most notable features of the July weather were the extreme heat over most of the month, and then the severe thunderstorm on 26th.
- ▸ person figure, personality He was a notable figure in the history of nineteenth-century Africa.
- ▸ building building Other notable buildings include the church of St Peter and St Paul, one of the most beautiful in the county.
- ▸ piece of work work Some of his most notable works include the themes to Star Wars, Superman, Jaws, and E.T.
- ▸ difference difference The most notable difference between the two coinages was the twenty pence coin, the Irish coin being circular as opposed to the seven-sided British version.
- ▸ change change, departure, improvement This announcement represents a notable departure from earlier policy statements.
- ▸ something that is expected, but missing absence, omission There were some notable omissions in the paper's list of 'the 100 best novels'.

note N
1 short pieces of information that you write in order to remember something, especially when studying [usually plural]

- adj+N in detail comprehensive, copious, detailed, extensive, extensive I made copious notes in the reference library.
- ▸ short and without much detail brief, rough Just have a quick look through your brief notes, diagrams or lists, test yourself on a couple of topics, then relax.
- n+N course, discussion, field, lab INFORMAL, laboratory, lecture, research, revision There is more to revision for an examination than memorising your lecture notes.
- v+N write notes make, scribble, take, write, write down, write up I sit in the lecture theatre for an hour taking notes and copying down diagrams from the overhead projector.
- ▸ read notes go through, look through, read, read through The waiting area is comfortable and quiet enough if you want to read through notes before the exam.

2 a particular mood or style

- adj+N positive brighter, happier, hopeful, lighter, optimistic, positive On a positive note, customer reaction has been good.
- ▸ serious serious, sombre Unusually, this comedy ends on a serious note.
- ▸ sad sad However, I have to finish on a very sad note.

Usage In all of the adj+N combinations shown above, note usually appears in the pattern on a ... note.

note V
notice or realize something

- V+n change, difference, importance, lack, need, problem, progress, use Please note the changes of venue for these meetings.

noted ADJ
well known for a particular quality or ability

- ADJ+n architect, artist, author, authority, composer, critic, expert, historian, scholar, writer The book was selected by noted historian Paul Johnson as one of his three favourite books of the year.

noteworthy ADJ worth giving special attention or praise to

- adv+ADJ especially, particularly In terms of the town's history, however, 1848 was particularly noteworthy.
- ADJ+n aspect of something aspect, example, fact, feature, item A noteworthy feature of the Department is the relative youth of its members.
- ▸ event event, incident The most noteworthy event of the winter of 1915/16 was a successful British raid on the trenches at Gommecourt.
- ▸ achievement accomplishment, achievement, contribution, performance, success Through her various books and papers, she has made a noteworthy contribution to contemporary philosophy.

notice V
become conscious of someone or something by seeing, hearing, or feeling

- adv+V almost not barely, hardly, not really, scarcely It's very light and you will hardly notice you are wearing it.
- ▸ not even not even Three of us had our bags stolen without even noticing that anything had happened.
- ▸ immediately at once, immediately, instantly I entered my room and immediately noticed my laptop was gone.
- ▸ quickly quickly, soon By doing these exercises on a regular basis you will soon notice a difference.
- ▸ just just, only just I've just noticed that on every page on the site I spelled 'World' as 'Wold'.
- ▸ only only His absence was only noticed at eleven pm.
- ▸ suddenly suddenly He was preparing lunch when he suddenly noticed a strange figure standing behind some bushes in the garden.
- ▸ first first I first noticed that I was losing my hair at the age of 18.
- ▸ never never I must have driven past it so many times, but I had never noticed it before.

notice N
information or a warning about something that is going to happen

- adj+N given previously advance, previous, prior All prices are subject to change without prior notice.
- ▸ written written The student concerned shall be given written notice of the complaint.
- ▸ enough adequate, reasonable, sufficient With sufficient notice, we can prepare menus for those with special diets.
- ▸ according to the usual rules due Organizers had to provide local magistrates with due notice of the time and place of the meeting.
- ▸ a particular amount of time before something happens a week's, 21 days', three months' etc Staff were given only one month's notice of the decision to close the factory.

- N+v have notice get, have, receive You'll want everyone to have notice of the event well in advance.
- ▸ give notice give, send Each party must be given notice of the hearing date.
- ▸ need notice need, require We require notice of cancellation before 2pm on the day prior to delivery.

- N+of a plan or planned event date, decision, event, intention, meeting You must give your employer 4 weeks' notice of the date you intend to leave.
- ▸ a change in something planned cancellation, change, termination, withdrawal A full refund will be given, provided we receive notice of cancellation seven days before the event.

noticeable ADJ easy to see, hear, or feel

- adv+ADJ very especially, particularly, quite, really, so, very In Britain, increased alcohol consumption is particularly noticeable in young women.
- ▸ almost not barely, hardly, scarcely The engine noise is barely noticeable.
- ▸ clearly clearly, easily, readily The swelling on my face was easily noticeable.
- ▸ immediately immediately, instantly What was immediately noticeable was the far lower police presence than usual.

- ADJ+n difference difference You will soon see a noticeable difference in your dog's behaviour.
- ▸ effect effect, impact, result Higher prices have had a noticeable effect on demand.
- ▸ change change, shift, variation This change is noticeable in all major towns and cities.
- ▸ improvement improvement However, a few areas had not shown a noticeable improvement from the previous survey in 2001.
- ▸ increase increase, rise There has been of late a very noticeable increase in the number of accidents on this stretch of road.
- ▸ reduction decline, drop, reduction The police report a noticeable reduction in the amount of graffiti.
- ▸ tendency tendency, trend By 2010, one of the most noticeable trends will be an ageing population.
- ▸ lack absence, lack There is still a noticeable lack of black and minority ethnic people in NHS leadership and management positions.
- ▸ feature aspect, feature Perhaps the most noticeable feature of the church is the elaborately carved gilt altar.

notification N an official announcement that something has happened or will happen

- adj+N previous advance, early, previous, prior The University reserves the right to withdraw or amend a scholarship without prior notification.
- ▸ immediate immediate, instant, prompt Once I had placed my order I got an immediate notification.
- ▸ in a particular form electronic, email, written You have the right to cancel your order, without giving a reason, providing that we receive written notification of cancellation within 7 days of the receipt of your order.
- ▸ official formal, official, statutory Formal notification will be sent to members nearer the time.
- ▸ automatic automatic You can ask for automatic notification by email.

- v+N get a notification get, have, receive You can register on our website to receive notification of all our new publications.
- ▸ give someone a notification give, issue, provide, send, submit Councillor Bresland had not been given notification of the meeting.

▸ need or ask for a notification request, require Many mortgage lenders require notification that commercial activities are being undertaken at the property.

• N+of something that has happened or will happen appointment, decision, event, meeting, outcome, result We are awaiting notification of the results of a recent school inspection.
▸ a change cancellation, change You must give the Benefits Agency notification of any changes in your circumstances.

notify V inform someone officially about something [usually passive]

• adv+V immediately forthwith, immediately, instantly, promptly Ensure all customers are immediately notified of any new properties that may be suitable.
▸ officially formally, officially You will be formally notified of the result of your examination by the Examinations Office.
▸ automatically automatically Please complete your details here to be automatically notified when new items are added to the website.
▸ before sth happens beforehand, in advance Anyone wishing to attend on the night needs to notify us in advance.
▸ directly directly Winners will be notified directly and details of all winners will appear on our website.
▸ according to agreed rules accordingly, duly, properly We are investigating this problem, and customers will be notified accordingly.

• V+by email, letter, mail, phone, post, telephone You will be notified by email when this has been done.

• V+of change amendment, change, update I have tried to ensure that all details are updated as soon as I'm notified of any changes.
▸ decision or result decision, outcome, result A senior officer will consider your application and you will be notified of the outcome in writing.
▸ date date They were then notified of the date of the hearing before the judge.
▸ event event, incident If you register your email address with us, you will be notified of all future events.
▸ meeting meeting He complained that he had not been notified of the meeting.
▸ request application Neighbours will be notified of your application and asked for objections.

notion N an idea, opinion, or belief

• adj+N silly absurd, crazy, foolish, ridiculous, romantic, silly, strange That's a ridiculous notion.
▸ traditional accepted, conventional, prevalent, traditional As a result, traditional notions of the classroom have begun to undergo a radical change.
▸ not clear vague Some of us have known from a very early age what career we want to pursue; others have only a vague notion.
▸ clear clear Alice had no very clear notion of how long ago it had happened.
▸ incorrect false, misguided, mistaken Is it a misguided notion to believe in the goodness of humanity?
▸ basic basic, fundamental She seems to be questioning the basic notion that political legitimacy comes from democratic elections.
▸ important central, important, key This is a central notion in Wittgenstein's later thinking.
▸ general broad, general The introduction to the report will give you a general notion of some of the many problems we faced.
▸ modern contemporary, current, modern But from the 1870s onwards, the modern notion of addiction began to take shape.
▸ simple or too simple simple, simplistic Their approach is based on the simple notion that it is more cost-effective to get it right first time than correct mistakes later.
▸ old old, old-fashioned, outdated, primitive We should move away from the outdated notion that education is only for the young.
▸ particular particular But it was more than twenty years earlier that he had come to accept this particular notion of perfection.
▸ common common, popular, widespread This is very different from the common notion of God.
▸ whole entire, whole The whole notion of celebrity has changed.
▸ existing as a thought in the mind abstract, theoretical The acceptance of the abstract notion of an 'afterlife' is still a very powerful impulse in directing individual action.
▸ slightest faintest, foggiest, slightest I didn't have the faintest notion of who she was!
▸ strange bizarre, fanciful, odd, strange There was no medical evidence to support such a fanciful notion.
▸ difficult to understand or deal with complex, problematic Governments favour the idea of 'sustainability', but it is a complex notion.

• v+N have a notion have At the time I had no notion of where this would lead.
▸ support a notion reinforce, support Other studies support the notion that exercised muscles need protein very rapidly.
▸ express doubts about a notion challenge, question Some scholars have rightly questioned this notion.
▸ accept a notion accept, embrace, entertain We cannot accept the notion of time-travelling.
▸ refuse to accept a notion abandon, dismiss, dispel, reject Beth quickly dismisses the notion as absurd.
▸ discuss a notion consider, discuss, examine, explore This paper will discuss these two notions from a theoretical and historical point of view.
▸ offer a notion so that it can be considered introduce, put forward The final story introduces the notion of immortality.
▸ add details to a notion develop He does not develop further his notion of how full European integration might be achieved.
▸ explain the meaning of a notion define We must first define the notion of public interest.

notoriety N
the state of being famous for doing something bad or shocking

• adj+N some a certain, some He has a certain notoriety in his home town.

- a lot of considerable, great, much, widespread He wrote several works on social issues which attained considerable notoriety.
- in a particular place international, national, worldwide In real life, Coach Carter achieved national notoriety when he made the controversial decision to bench the whole of his team.
- immediate instant, sudden The book gained instant notoriety because of its assertion that Hitler knew nothing of the Holocaust.
- lasting for a long time lasting The name Fletcher Christian has obtained a lasting notoriety through its connection with the Mutiny on the Bounty.
- public public Stevenson would have revelled in such public notoriety.

- v+N achieve notoriety achieve, acquire, attain, earn, gain, win Jenny and her gang rapidly achieved notoriety. ◆ In the 1930s, it gained notoriety as one of the few churches in London where divorced people could get married.
- have notoriety enjoy, have Perhaps one of the most famous prisoners held in the Tower of London, Walter Raleigh enjoyed notoriety throughout his life.
- cause notoriety bring The murder brought notoriety to the small village.

notorious ADJ

famous for something bad

- ADJ+n person who commits a crime bandit, criminal, gangster, highwayman, killer, murderer, pirate, robber, smuggler, terrorist, thief, villain Here is where the most notorious criminal of all, Jack the Ripper, carried out his crimes.
- person character, figure That night he went to visit a couple of notorious characters who would do literally anything for money.
- crime crime, murder A man jailed almost 50 years ago for one of the province's most notorious murders has had his name cleared.
- event or action case, episode, example, incident, scandal In a notorious incident in 1860, British and French soldiers ransacked the imperial summer palace outside Beijing.
- place blackspot, camp, district, estate, jail, prison, road, slum, spot Conditions in the notorious camp were becoming increasingly appalling.
- reputation reputation The Glasgow audience had a notorious reputation for being the most difficult in the country.
- group band, gang Cruz was a former member of one of New York's most notorious gangs.
- film film The scene has clearly been included purely to generate some publicity for the film – a ploy which has worked for some of the most notorious films in history.
- court case case, trial Many significant legal reforms were influenced by notorious cases.

nourishment N

1 food or the substances in food that are necessary for life, growth, and health

- adj+N not much insufficient, little These high-calorie foods provide very little nourishment for you and your baby.
- enough adequate, enough, proper, sufficient Pandas need to eat up to 18kg of food a day to get enough nourishment. ◆ Cancer patients must be diligent about getting the proper nourishment.
- extra extra Cakes, biscuits, chocolate, puddings and crisps are an easy way of getting extra nourishment.
- essential essential, vital It provides the nourishment essential to a baby's healthy and sustained growth.

- v+N provide nourishment provide, supply It has food value and is intended to provide nourishment.
- get nourishment derive, gain, obtain, receive During his last few weeks, he could only receive nourishment through a tube.
- need nourishment need Food supplements can be helpful if you need extra nourishment.
- try to get nourishment seek These monks, observing their order's rule against meat, sought nourishment in milk, butter, and cheese.
- take nourishment draw, take The root is the only place through which the whole tree can draw nourishment.

2 something that encourages the development of ideas, feelings, abilities etc

- adj+N emotional, intellectual, spiritual These volumes provide plenty of intellectual nourishment.

- v+N provide nourishment provide, supply He claims that the normality and remoteness of Minneapolis provided just the artistic nourishment he needed.
- get nourishment derive, draw, gain, obtain, receive, take Goodall enjoys listening to pop and classical, but as a composer he derives more nourishment from the latter.
- need nourishment need We need spiritual nourishment if we are to live as God's people in this world.
- try to get nourishment seek In some cultures, they seek nourishment in some form of New Age spirituality.

novel N

a long written story about imaginary characters and events

- adj+N types of novel classic, comic, contemporary, epic, Gothic, graphic, historical, romantic, satirical, Victorian Not many people read Sir Walter Scott's historical novels these days.
- popular best-selling, blockbuster, popular, successful He has produced a string of best-selling novels.
- regarded as very good acclaimed, award-winning, important The movie is an adaptation of her award-winning novel.
- exciting compelling, exciting, gripping, unputdownable Full of drama, passion and mystery, her novel is completely unputdownable.

- n+N adventure, crime, detective, fantasy, horror, mystery, science fiction, sci-fi, spy Linda is an avid reader of crime novels.

novel ADJ

new or unusual

- adv+ADJ very completely, entirely, genuinely, truly The book introduces an entirely novel concept in linguistics.
- fairly fairly, quite, rather, relatively They came up with a rather novel approach to the problem.

- ADJ+n way approach, form, method, model, process, solution, strategy, technique, way We have devised a unique Student Learning Programme, which offers students a completely novel approach to study.
- ▶ system system The transfer involved the creation in Hong Kong of a novel system of government.
- ▶ idea concept, idea Here's a novel idea to help keep the kids amused during those long summer holidays.
- ▶ technology technology Collaboration with pharmaceutical companies will be necessary to enable this novel technology to be rigorously tested on a wide range of animals and humans.

nuance N

a slight difference that is fairly important

- adj+N slight delicate, fine, slight, subtle Young children do not understand the subtle nuances of more sophisticated stories.
- ▶ of language linguistic, semantic, verbal Remember, these guys are lawyers, attuned to every verbal nuance.
- ▶ of music musical, rhythmic, tonal, vocal The subtle vocal nuances of the singer are less noticeable on the DVD.
- ▶ types of nuance contextual, cultural, emotional, stylistic In order for a PR campaign to be successful abroad, an appreciation of the target language and its cultural nuances is necessary.
- v+N capture a nuance capture, convey, master, reflect, reveal Rosemary Edmonds's classic translation fully captures the subtle nuances of Tolstoy's writing.
- ▶ understand or notice a nuance appreciate, detect, grasp, hear, understand He liked to scoff at Danny for his failure to grasp the nuances of thuggish etiquette.
- ▶ not capture a nuance lack (in), lose, miss Pitt gives this performance his all, not missing a nuance of Bishop's layered personality.
- ▶ add nuance add His book adds nuance to a debate that is often depicted in stark or simplistic terms.
- and/or ambiguity, complexity, subtlety Good interpreters are alert to nuances and subtleties of meaning in both languages.

numb ADJ

having no feeling, or unable to react because of shock

- adv+ADJ completely completely, pretty INFORMAL, totally My limbs were completely numb.
- ▶ slightly a little, quite, rather, slightly I walked down the stairs, feeling slightly numb, and then I saw a familiar face outside the hotel.
- ▶ emotionally emotionally Feeling emotionally numb is often the first reaction to the death of a loved one.
- ADJ+with cold cold It is hard to work when your hands and feet are numb with cold.
- ▶ emotion fear, grief, shock Sitting in Europe and hearing about the earthquake in my home town left me feeling powerless and numb with shock.

number N

a quantity of people or things

- adj+N large considerable, great, high, large, sheer, significant, substantial In 2005, there were 128 women elected to the UK Parliament, the highest number ever.
- ▶ very large enormous, huge, infinite, massive INFORMAL, overwhelming, record, unlimited, vast BMX is a sport enjoyed by a huge number of young people.
- ▶ surprising or unexpected surprising, unprecedented Due to the unprecedented number of applications received, we will not be able to reply to unsuccessful applicants.
- ▶ fairly large fair INFORMAL, good INFORMAL, reasonable About 60 people attended in the end which was a fair number.
- ▶ small limited, low, small, tiny Please note there are only a limited number of seats available.
- ▶ same or similar equal, same, similar The condition affects approximately 2 per cent of the population. and men and women are affected in equal numbers.
- ▶ enough adequate, sufficient The creche is offered subject to there being sufficient numbers of children.
- ▶ too big disproportionate, excessive A disproportionate number of accidents involve child cyclists.
- ▶ total final, overall, total The home page indicates the total number of visitors to the site.
- ▶ real or exact actual, exact, real The actual number of women who have experienced domestic violence is far more than that.
- ▶ correct correct, right Although their current residence had the right number of rooms, the bathrooms were too small.
- ▶ not exact approximate, estimated These figures have been used to calculate approximate population numbers.
- v+N increase the number of something double, increase, raise The airline wants to increase the number of flights to Maputo to three or four a week.
- ▶ reduce the number of something cut, limit, reduce Our aim is to reduce the number of cars on the road.
- ▶ give the number of something give, indicate, list, specify The figure in brackets gives the number of students in the class.
- ▶ count or guess the number of something count, determine, estimate, identify, record A wildlife survey of 1979 estimated the number of elephants in Mozambique at over 54,000.
- ▶ be more than the number of something exceed The Romans lost about four hundred men, and the wounded did not exceed that number.
- N+v increase double, grow, increase, rise, soar, swell Student numbers have grown rapidly in recent years.
- ▶ decrease decline, decrease, drop, dwindle, fall, plummet Although the class was well attended at first, numbers soon dwindled and the class had to close.
- ▶ change or be different change, differ, fluctuate, vary Rabbits can quickly disappear during a hard winter, with the result that numbers fluctuate widely over time.
- ▶ used for saying what a number is approach sth, exceed sth, reach sth Airport passenger numbers exceeded 1 million for the first time.

numerous ADJ existing in large numbers

- adv+ADJ very exceedingly, extremely, pretty INFORMAL, very These soft-bodied beetles may be very numerous on flower heads in summer.
- ▶ fairly fairly, quite, rather, relatively The benefits of keeping the hospital open were fairly numerous.
- ▶ more and more increasingly He was returned to office at the election, despite increasingly numerous allegations of corruption.
- ▶ enough sufficiently The communities are never sufficiently numerous to constitute a village.
- ▶ especially especially, particularly They were all over North America, but were particularly numerous in the Rocky Mountains.

nursing N
the job, skills, or training of nurses

- adj+N community, district, intensive care, medical, mental health, orthopaedic, paediatric, psychiatric, veterinary I deeply admire his commitment to psychiatric nursing.
- v+N do nursing do, practise, specialize in She is registered to practise nursing in the UK.
- ▶ study nursing learn, study, train in The best decision I ever made was to study nursing.
- ▶ decide to do nursing as a career choose, enter, pursue We are delighted to be awarding prizes to young people who wish to pursue nursing as a career.

nutrition N food, or the science of food

- adj+N good adequate, balanced, correct, good, healthy, proper Adequate nutrition is essential if a child is to enjoy a healthy childhood.
- ▶ bad inadequate, poor Poverty means not only low incomes but also lack of education and poor nutrition and health.
- v+N improve nutrition boost, enhance, improve It is important that nutrition is improved in hospitals and in care homes.
- ▶ provide nutrition deliver, ensure, provide The emphasis is on providing basic affordable nutrition for less well-off people.
- ▶ receive nutrition receive To progress and succeed in your training, your body must receive the proper nutrition and rest it requires to recover.

nutritious ADJ
providing the substances needed for good health

- adv+ADJ extremely, highly, incredibly, particularly, very Bread is highly nutritious and provides a good source of vitamins and minerals.
- ADJ+n breakfast, diet, food, lunch, meal, recipe, snack Don't forget to include some nutritious snacks, such as dried fruit, cereal bars or oatcakes.
- and/or appetising, balanced, delicious, healthy, palatable, satisfying, tasty, well-balanced, wholesome It is important that the foods eaten should be wholesome and nutritious.

Oo oath N a formal promise

- adj+N binding, holy, judicial, sacred, solemn, sworn The speech should probably end with Hal on his knees, making a solemn oath before the king.
- v+N make an oath sign, swear, take People holding public office were required to swear an oath of loyalty to the Crown.
  - ▸ break an oath break, refuse, renounce, violate I hope you are not asking me to break my oath.
  - ▸ not break an oath fulfil The President has promised to fulfill his oath to protect this and future generations of Americans.
  - ▸ make someone make an oath administer The Clerk administers the oath to the Jury.
- N+of allegiance, loyalty, obedience, office, secrecy Many people who live in Britain would not want to take the proposed oath of allegiance.

obedience N doing what someone tells you to do

- adj+N without thinking blind, implicit, passive, slavish, unquestioning Robin, accustomed to unquestioning obedience, turned and went immediately up the stairs.
  - ▸ total absolute, perfect, strict, unconditional The government of North Korea is based on an ideology of absolute obedience to the supreme leader Kim Jung Il.
  - ▸ showing a good quality dutiful, faithful, humble, loving, sincere He sat down with humble obedience.
- v+N demand or expect obedience command, compel, demand, expect There was something in his stern face and resolute action which compelled obedience.
  - ▸ promise or show obedience owe, promise, swear, vow, yield The friars who have already vowed obedience wear a particular type of tunic.
  - ▸ enforce or reward obedience enforce, reward The magistrate who would reward obedience must punish rebellion.
  - ▸ refuse obedience refuse If people refuse that obedience, then they cut themselves off from the Church.

obey V
to do what a law or person says you must do

- adv+V without thinking blindly, implicitly, slavishly, unquestioningly, without question The father who is blindly obeyed is obeyed from sheer weakness.
  - ▸ in a willing way cheerfully, gladly, willingly The children willingly obeyed their elders, and toddlers played peacefully together without arguing.
  - ▸ in a loyal way dutifully, faithfully, loyally Under hypnosis, Bill dutifully obeyed.
  - ▸ in a reluctant way reluctantly I reluctantly obeyed, because he threatened me with dire consequences if I didn't.
  - ▸ quickly immediately, instantly, promptly, without hesitation He gave the order for his men to run into the castle, which they instantly obeyed.
- V+n command, instruction, law, order, rule, summons If the patient is awake enough to obey commands ask them to lift their head off the pillow for 5 seconds.

object N
the person or thing that people have a particular feeling about

- N+of love or admiration admiration, adoration, affection, desire, reverence, veneration, worship The object of his affections was a girl whom he had met at a school dance.
  - ▸ dislike or pity derision, hatred, pity, ridicule, scorn It treats the rich and powerful as objects of ridicule rather than objects of reverence.
  - ▸ interest curiosity We had become objects of curiosity to the people on the quay.

object V
to be opposed to something, or to express opposition to something

- adv+V a lot bitterly, fundamentally, greatly, strenuously, strongly, vehemently, vigorously, violently When he realized what the medical data was being used for, he objected strenuously.
  - ▸ in a particular way formally, legally, publicly All the affected local authorities formally objected to the proposals.
  - ▸ consistently consistently In these discussions, he consistently objected to any directives that were clearly in contravention of existing international law.
  - ▸ loudly loudly, vociferously The defence lawyers objected vociferously to the display of the money, saying that the prosecution had not proved its origin.
  - ▸ at first initially Even the men who initially objected to doing manual work eventually helped out.
  - ▸ when you think someone is right conscientiously, rightly Feminists rightly object to such demeaning portrayals of their sex.

objection N
a reason for disagreeing with a plan, or a statement expressing your disagreement

- adj+N main chief, main, primary, principal My main objection to hunting is that it is cruel.
  - ▸ strong fundamental, serious, strenuous, strong There are fundamental objections to human reproductive cloning.
  - ▸ reasonable or valid principled, valid She doesn't think there are any valid objections he can raise.
  - ▸ not reasonable frivolous, spurious This sort of spurious objection is being allowed to obscure a very serious issue.
  - ▸ formal formal, written You will be given 6 weeks from the date of publication to make formal objections on the finalised plan.
  - ▸ not dealt with or impossible to deal with insuperable, unresolved Any unresolved objections will be considered at a public inquiry.

▸ types of objection ethical, ideological, moral, philosophical, religious, theological Some people have an ethical objection to birth control.

• v+N have an objection have They can then write to the planning committee if they have any objections.
▸ make an objection express, make, outline, raise, state, voice No one present voiced any objections.
▸ make a formal objection lodge, register, submit Once an application has been received you have 28 days in which to lodge an objection.
▸ withdraw an objection drop, withdraw For these reasons, the committee has decided to withdraw its objections.
▸ answer an objection answer, counter, deal with, meet, reply to, respond to It is often better to answer an objection before a customer even thinks of it.
▸ not accept or ignore an objection dismiss, ignore, refute, reject He dismisses objections that Web-based systems are not fast or secure enough for automation applications.

objective N something you plan to achieve

• adj+N main core, first, key, main, major, overall, overarching, overriding, primary, prime, principal The overriding objective is getting it right first time.
▸ clear clear, explicit, stated Teachers plan carefully, and lessons have clear objectives.
▸ not specific broad Their broad objective is to enrich the education of the student in the widest cultural sense.
▸ for the future long-term, ultimate The union of the Arab world is the ultimate objective.
▸ for now immediate, short-term Our immediate objective is to reduce the rate of growth of smuggling.
▸ shared common, shared The club has grown to approximately 40 members with one common objective, to have fun running.
▸ different conflicting In radiotherapy two conflicting objectives must be reconciled for each patient.
▸ only sole Over time his sole objective became extending his own life.
▸ able to be measured measurable The success of training should be assessed against measurable objectives.
▸ able to be achieved achievable, realistic, sustainable I believe our objectives are realistic and achievable.
▸ difficult to achieve ambitious The government has set itself the ambitious objective of making the UK the world's most favourable environment for e-commerce.
▸ types of objective business, corporate, educational, environmental, learning, military, organisational, policy, strategic Here is a list of your learning objectives for this term.

• v+N achieve an objective accomplish, achieve, attain, fulfil, meet, reach, realize, satisfy, secure, succeed in Reason and science cannot always tell us the best course of action to achieve our objectives.
▸ try to achieve an objective further, pursue Are other organisations working in your field or pursuing similar objectives?
▸ set or state an objective agree, clarify, define, identify, outline, set, state Allow a coach to help you set objectives to achieve the best impact on your performance.

objective ADJ
based only on facts

• adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, entirely, purely, totally, truly, wholly The assessment of a candidate's suitability is rarely wholly objective.
▸ fairly or partly essentially, fairly, partly, reasonably, relatively Select information in order to give a comprehensible and reasonably objective account.
▸ when something may not be objective apparently, ostensibly, seemingly, supposedly The supposedly objective assessment of the outcomes of medical interventions is increasingly popular in the Health Service.

• ADJ+n assessment account, analysis, appraisal, assessment, evaluation, judgement, measurement, reasoning, study, testing The independent expert's report is intended to be an objective assessment of the scheme.
▸ journalism journalism, reporting The newspaper gives fairly balanced objective reporting of the news.
▸ viewpoint stance, standpoint, view, viewpoint From an objective standpoint, there is nothing unusual about the present case.

obligation N something you must do

• adj+N legal or contractual constitutional, contractual, legal, legislative, regulatory, statutory Where a tour operator has failed to honour its contractual obligations to a customer, it may be liable to pay compensation.
▸ moral ethical, moral With ownership comes the moral obligation to share it.
▸ strict absolute, onerous, solemn, strict These companies are under a strict obligation to protect your data.
▸ most important overriding, primary The Court has an overriding obligation to be fair.
▸ that must be fulfilled binding, enforceable, mandatory At this stage, there is no binding obligation on you or us.
▸ that two people have to each other mutual, reciprocal The agreement we sign with partners reflects our mutual obligations.
▸ that cannot both be fulfilled conflicting The different aims of medical practice and scientific research generate potentially conflicting obligations for physicians who engage in clinical research.
▸ to other countries international Failure to implement the treaty would result in the United Kingdom being in breach of its international obligations.
▸ types of obligation disarmament, financial, lease, pension, planning, religious If you own your house, then obviously your biggest financial obligation is your mortgage.

• v+N have an obligation be under, feel under, have, owe We all owe obligations to each other.
▸ give someone an obligation impose, place, place sb under Obligations are placed on broadcasters to deliver services in the public interest.
▸ accept or understand an obligation accept, acknowledge, recognise, respect, understand It is difficult to imagine them accepting an obligation to take out further insurance.

- ▸ fulfil an obligation comply with, discharge, fulfil, honour, meet, observe, perform, satisfy, undertake Society must fulfil its obligations to those unable to help themselves.
- ▸ not fulfil an obligation avoid, be in breach of, breach, disregard, evade, flout, ignore, violate The authorities had breached their obligations under international law by banning the march.
- ▸ make someone fulfil an obligation enforce There are no legal grounds to enforce this obligation.
- ▸ define an obligation define, outline There is a growing battery of legislation that defines your obligations to your workforce.
- ▸ behave as though you have an obligation assume The press assumes a curious obligation to inform us about matters relating to firearms.
- ▸ be more important than an obligation override The obligation to help my child overrides my obligation to meet you for lunch.

obliterate V to get rid of something completely

- adv+V completely completely, entirely, totally The runway has completely obliterated the next section of the old A9 road.
- ▸ almost almost, largely, nearly, virtually Then they spent a week demolishing the wall stone by stone and virtually obliterating any sign of its existence.
- ▸ partly partially, partly A steep pathway, now worn with age and partially obliterated, remains.

oblivion N

the state of having no memory or consciousness or of being totally forgotten

- adj+N total complete, total, utter Then the visions disappeared and left me in utter oblivion.
- ▸ almost near The Liberal Party rose to supremacy in the mid eighteen-hundreds, only to disappear into near oblivion by the 1960s.
- ▸ when this is a good thing comfortable, merciful, sweet The anaesthetic finally brought merciful oblivion.
- ▸ caused by alcohol alcoholic, drunken Everyone was obviously well on their way to alcoholic oblivion.
- v+into+N disappear, fade, fall, pass, sink, slip It is unbelievable that an artist of such talent and ability should slip into almost total oblivion.

oblivious ADJ

not noticing or knowing about something

- adv+ADJ totally absolutely, completely, entirely, totally, utterly He wanders through life totally oblivious to the problems he causes for everyone.
- ▸ fairly or mainly fairly, largely, quite, somewhat A few groups of younger people were chatting at a large table, fairly oblivious to how obnoxious they sounded.
- ▸ almost almost Many of these fascinating creatures seem almost oblivious to our presence.
- ▸ happily blissfully, happily The crowd had surrendered to the passion and joy of the day and seemed blissfully oblivious of the cameramen.
- ▸ seemingly apparently, seemingly This man has no principles and is seemingly oblivious to shame.

obscene ADJ

offensive in a sexual or moral way

- adv+ADJ very or completely absolutely, downright, particularly, truly A name may translate into something funny or downright obscene in another language. ❁ To welcome the use of this technology for beer and drugs, while denying it to those in need of food, seems to me to be truly obscene.
- ▸ fairly or almost almost, quite, rather, vaguely Viz's writers would latch onto any vaguely obscene street slang and print it.
- ADJ+n sexually obscene abuse, call, gesture, graffiti, joke, language He made an obscene gesture to Radebe's back as he walked away.
- ▸ morally obscene amount, inequality, profit, wealth A small minority at the top enjoy obscene wealth while a massive majority exists in abject poverty and misery.
- and/or abusive, defamatory, indecent, lewd, libellous, offensive, pornographic, profane, racist, threatening, vulgar The contents of the message were described by the judge as 'obscene and defamatory'.

obscenities N

sexually offensive words or actions

- v+N mouth, mutter, scream, shout, yell They shook their fists, shouted obscenities, and threatened to kill her.

obscurity N

when someone or something is not known or remembered

- adj+N almost comparative, relative, virtual Animation attracts people who are happy to work away in relative obscurity.
- ▸ total complete, sheer, total From total obscurity they made a great leap to national fame and superstardom.
- v+from+N bring someone out of obscurity pluck sb, rescue sb Rakhmonov was plucked from relative political obscurity to become Chairman of the Supreme Soviet.
- ▸ come out of obscurity emerge, rise Tanzania has emerged from comparative obscurity to stand as one of Africa's most popular travel destinations.
- v+in+N be lost, die, languish, live, remain An influx of well-paid U.N. employees and foreign diplomats has revived the careers of some painters who had been languishing in obscurity.
- v+into+N disappear, drift, fade, fall, sink, slip, vanish Many of his films have faded into obscurity.

observant ADJ

noticing everything that happens

- adv+ADJ acutely, extremely, keenly, sharply, shrewdly, very He was keenly observant, and he noticed the changes in the creek.

observation N

1 the process of watching

- adj+N careful or continuous accurate, acute, careful, close, continuous, detailed, precise, systematic Careful observation over a period of time will show the effects quite clearly.

- ▸ not careful casual Let me give a couple of examples, drawn from casual observation.
- ▸ done yourself direct, first-hand, personal First-hand observation gives an account a certain authenticity.
- ▸ types of observation behavioural, classroom, clinical, ethnographic, experimental, scientific, visual Meteorology is based on the scientific observation of the Earth's atmosphere.

- • v+from+N know something from observation deduce sth, draw sth, infer sth, know sth, learn sth, obtain sth Some observers assume they know from observation alone what is happening, and why.
- ▸ come from observation arise, come, derive, result, stem All the sound medical knowledge of today stems from observations carried out on human beings.

- • v+under+N keep, place Children must be kept under close observation at all times.

2 a written or spoken comment

- • adj+N clever or interesting accurate, astute, insightful, interesting, perceptive, pertinent, sharp, shrewd He makes some startlingly astute observations during the discussion.
- ▸ funny humorous, witty, wry Waugh's rich language and witty observations make Brideshead Revisited an essential part of any book lover's collection.
- ▸ general general There are a couple of general observations that are worth making.

- • v+N make, offer If you would permit me, I'd like to make an observation.

observe V

1 to accept and obey a rule, agreement, custom etc

- • adv+V correctly, duly, faithfully, impeccably, keenly, scrupulously, strictly When you are driving, always wear a safety belt and strictly observe speed limits.

- • V+n rule or precaution limit, ordinance, precaution, restriction, rule Failure to observe parking restrictions could result in the clamping of unauthorised vehicles.
- ▸ custom convention, custom, ritual Even secular Jews still observe many customs that are of a religious origin.
- ▸ something that has been agreed ceasefire, confidentiality, silence Before kick-off a minute's silence was observed in memory of a former member of the club who had recently died.

2 to make a comment

- • adv+V in a clever or funny way astutely, drily, perceptively, shrewdly, wryly As Mortlock wryly observes, the subject was the cause of some agitation at the time.
- ▸ in a casual way casually At the awards ceremony, one of the judges casually observed that, as a bass, I had 20 years to wait before reaching vocal maturity.
- ▸ when someone is right correctly, justly, rightly Jo rightly observed that it was "a lovely drying day".
- ▸ when someone's comments are famous famously Alfred Hitchcock famously observed that movies should be more than just picture postcards of people talking.

observer N

someone who watches or sees something, but does not take part

- • adj+N with no special interest or involvement casual, passive But the Empress was more than just a passive observer.
- ▸ impartial disinterested, dispassionate, external, impartial, independent, neutral, objective, outside, unbiased What seems criminality on a grand scale to the impartial observer was to the British simply a matter of getting on with the job.
- ▸ clever acute, astute, intelligent, keen, perceptive, shrewd Astute observers have commented on the strangely close relationship between corporate culture and counterculture.
- ▸ with a particular attitude cynical, sympathetic Other more cynical observers have accused Bush of trying to buy votes in the UN to gain more support for the war against Iraq.
- ▸ experienced or trained experienced, expert, informed, seasoned, trained He is a seasoned observer of the international scene who has worked in 59 countries.
- ▸ not experienced or trained inexperienced, novice, untrained When an experienced surgeon operates he or she is using many small 'tricks', which may not be obvious to the inexperienced observer.
- ▸ types of observer climatological, election, industry, meteorological, military Germany also provides military observers for UN peacekeeping missions.

obsession N too much thought about someone or something

- • adj+N not good unhealthy, worrying I think you may be developing an unhealthy obsession with shopping.
- ▸ strange bizarre, morbid, unnatural, weird We're not alone in our unnatural obsession with food and weight.
- ▸ not sensible excessive, irrational, neurotic People with OCD are aware that their compulsions and obsessions are irrational or excessive.
- ▸ extreme compulsive, fanatical, single-minded Because they're not allowed to travel into the West it becomes an almost fanatical obsession to do it.
- ▸ about sex erotic, sexual Asylum is a dark psychological thriller of sexual obsession set in the 1950s.
- ▸ continuing for a long time lifelong, longstanding His lifelong obsession was the idea that there could be life on other worlds in our solar system.
- ▸ increasing growing We live in a materialistic age where there seems to be a growing obsession with money.

- • v+N have an obsession have, suffer from A local 16-year-old known as the Insect Boy has an obsession with bugs.
- ▸ have the same obsession share I'm very lucky to have a partner who shares the obsession of my life!
- ▸ be an obsession amount to, be His love for the harp amounted to an obsession.
- ▸ almost be an obsession border on She has a liking for cream cakes that borders on obsession.
- ▸ become an obsession become, develop, turn into Coffee has become an obsession for Kiwis in recent years, in particular the search for the perfect 'flat white'.

▸ satisfy an obsession feed, indulge, satisfy The library gives me access to all the books necessary to indulge my obsession with the Great War.
▸ overcome an obsession overcome We need to overcome our obsession with material things.
▸ show an obsession reflect, reveal Jenni Sinclair's art reflects her obsession with people and the nature of humans.

obsolete ADJ replaced by something newer and better

• adv+ADJ almost almost, effectively, essentially, largely, nearly, practically, virtually Paper communication between staff is virtually obsolete, with email the preferred medium of internal communication.
▸ completely completely, entirely, thoroughly, totally, wholly Manpower will not become totally obsolete, but its use will be substantially reduced.
▸ partly partially We will see mobile learning applications make the classroom partially obsolete.
▸ more and more increasingly The rise of solar and other renewable industries worldwide could make oil an increasingly obsolete fuel.

• v+ADJ be or become obsolete be, become, seem 15 per cent of what you buy can suddenly become obsolete.
▸ make something obsolete make sth, render sth Many road maps have been rendered obsolete by changes in the road network.
▸ say that something is obsolete declare sth This weapon was declared obsolete in 1947, having been in service since 1915.
▸ consider something obsolete consider sth, deem sth His tier of management has apparently been deemed obsolete.

obstacle N
a difficulty or problem that prevents you from achieving something

• adj+N large big, daunting, enormous, formidable, major, serious, significant Despite the formidable obstacles in her path, she allowed nothing to deter her from meeting the needs of sailors and their families.
▸ impossible to overcome immovable, impassable, insuperable, insurmountable The mental health practitioner is faced with seemingly insurmountable obstacles, especially the stigma associated with mental health problems.
▸ main chief, greatest, main, principal The chief obstacle, of course, was money.
▸ types of obstacle bureaucratic, legal, logistical, procedural Many farmers find that they face many costly and bureaucratic obstacles. ◆ Removal of legal obstacles leads to easier divorce.

• v+N overcome an obstacle overcome, surmount Young people from impoverished areas often have to surmount additional obstacles to gain a better education.
▸ encounter an obstacle be confronted by, be confronted with, come across, encounter, face, run into Your parents knew they were going to encounter obstacles from both cultures when they decided to marry.
▸ remove an obstacle clear, eliminate, remove We need to be providing real opportunities for women in this field, offering more training and removing the obstacles to their success.
▸ be an obstacle act as, be, constitute, pose, present, prove The lack of effective judicial procedures poses a further obstacle to securing remedies for unacceptable conduct.
▸ avoid or deal with an obstacle avoid, deal with, negotiate, tackle The mentoring process helps teachers to tackle obstacles they face.

• N+v block, hamper, hinder, impede, prevent What do prisoners get out of learning and what obstacles hinder their progress?

You can also say that an obstacle stands in someone's way or an obstacle stands in the way of something: These people didn't let any obstacles stand in their way. ◆ A number of obstacles stand in the way of our country's advancing to the next stage in terms of human rights.

obstruct V to take action to prevent something from happening

• adv+V deliberately deliberately, intentionally, wilfully They were not intentionally obstructing lawful work.
▸ often constantly, frequently, repeatedly The Baghdad regime repeatedly obstructed efforts to resume monitoring of its program to produce weapons of mass destruction.

• and/or delay, disrupt, hinder, impede, interfere with, prevent It is an offence to obstruct or impede firefighters or ambulance workers.

obstruction N
something blocking a path, passage, door etc, or the act of blocking it

• v+N cause an obstruction cause, create, lead to, result in Many of the bins stay out all day, causing an obstruction.
▸ encounter an obstruction encounter, hit He only changed direction when he encountered an obstruction.
▸ remove an obstruction clear, relieve, remove Nasal decongestants such as ephedrine can help relieve nasal obstruction.
▸ avoid an obstruction avoid, bypass I follow the path and am careful to avoid obstructions.
▸ prevent or minimize an obstruction minimize, prevent Parking is no longer permitted on the north side of Bradford Street to prevent obstruction to through traffic.
▸ be an obstruction amount to, constitute Any protrusion was so minimal that it could not be said to amount to a physical obstruction of the highway.

obtain V
to get something you want or need

• adv+V illegally or dishonestly dishonestly, falsely, fraudulently, illegally, improperly, unfairly, unlawfully He had obtained the cash by fraudulently obtaining a number of bank loans.
▸ legally or honestly fairly, lawfully, legally Personal data should be fairly and lawfully obtained.

▸ easily or quickly easily, quickly, readily All of the new forms can be easily obtained from the website.
▸ for little or no money cheaply, free (of charge) Tickets to the village swimming pool can be obtained free of charge from the hotel reception.
▸ separately independently, separately The two samples were obtained independently.
▸ directly directly A solicitor must take all reasonable steps to obtain directly from a witness the potential evidence in a case.
▸ from somewhere abroad, locally More and more HIV positive people are appreciating the help that can be obtained locally, including in their own homes.
▸ in a particular way commercially, electronically, experimentally It was possible to plot a graph in a few minutes using a computer that would have required days to obtain experimentally.

• V+n permission approval, authorisation, clearance, confirmation, consent, permission The wedding couple had obtained special permission from the Bishop to use the church.
▸ information advice, estimate, evidence, feedback, information, quotation, quote, result Where can I obtain further advice?
▸ money compensation, credit, funding, loan, mortgage, relief Participants will learn how schools obtain funding and prepare their budgets.
▸ official document degree, grant, injunction, license, permit, qualification, warrant Would you like to obtain a qualification for the work that you do?
▸ for work to be done estimate, quotation, quote You will need to obtain an estimate from two or three different builders before you decide to do the work.

obvious ADJ

clear to almost anyone

• adv+ADJ very abundantly, blatantly, blindingly, glaringly, immediately, intuitively, painfully, patently, perfectly, plainly, pretty INFORMAL, so INFORMAL, very You may have missed something blindingly obvious.
▸ fairly fairly, quite, rather The turn is right, not left, off the main road (as there is no left turn this will be fairly obvious!)
▸ more and more increasingly Towards the end of the 18th Century, it became increasingly obvious that nobody had any idea about the number of people living in the British Isles.

• ADJ+n reason or result answer, explanation, implication, reason The majority of companies have restrictive contracts for obvious reasons.
▸ difference/similarity difference, exception, parallel, similarity There are the obvious parallels with what happened in America during the fifties
▸ good thing advantage, attraction, benefit The most obvious advantage of a caravanning holiday is financial.
▸ bad thing danger, disadvantage, flaw, limitation, mistake The obvious flaw in this film is the lack of Kevin Bacon.
▸ choice choice I was interested in finance and banking was the obvious choice after university.

• v+ADJ seem obvious appear, look, seem, sound It would seem obvious that resources should be weighted to the areas where there is greatest need.
▸ be or become obvious be, become By the 1830's it had become obvious that Queen Adelaide was not going to produce a living child.
▸ make something obvious make sth They made it obvious they didn't like me.

occasion N

1 a time at which something happens

• adj+N few a few, the odd, rare Even if you do not wish your child to have a meal at school every day there is always the odd occasion when you do. ◆ It was one of those rare occasions when we all disagreed with him.
▸ different different, other, separate Harold considered the harassment so serious that he reported it to the police on three separate occasions.
▸ previous earlier, previous Pupils from our school have visited the home on three previous occasions.
▸ subsequent or future future, subsequent He again on a subsequent occasion showed supreme courage in tending wounded soldiers under heavy shell fire.
▸ one the only, particular This was the only occasion on which Johnson was ever moved to reply to an attacker.
▸ many countless, frequent, many, numerous She is a skilled healer and has helped me on numerous occasions.
▸ several several, various That they are spending such a large amount of money has been confirmed to me on several occasions.
▸ one after the other consecutive, successive Roosevelt was elected on four successive occasions as US President.

Usage Occasion is always plural in the last three adj+N combinations shown above: Liverpool won the League Cup on four consecutive occasions. ● There will be countless occasions when things go wrong.

• V+N recall, recount, remember, remind sb of, talk about, think of I was reminded of a previous occasion when we had a chapel outing there years ago.

2 a special or important time or event

• adj+N special auspicious, big, glittering, historic, landmark, memorable, special, unique Messages for special occasions can be read out over the tannoy system during the half-time interval.
▸ formal ceremonial, civic, formal, official, royal, state For ceremonial occasions, the regiment dresses in absolutely authentic uniforms.
▸ happy enjoyable, happy, joyful, joyous They provided champagne and the lunch was a joyous occasion.
▸ sad sad, solemn Warn children that the funeral will be a sad occasion.
▸ for celebrating or socializing festive, social Meals are also social occasions.

• n+N family, sporting Weddings are family occasions.

• v+N mark or celebrate an occasion celebrate, commemorate, honour, mark, record A plaque marking the occasion will be erected at a later date.

- ▸ spoil an occasion mar, ruin, spoil Special occasions were usually ruined by his drinking.
- ▸ suit an occasion befit, fit, suit We have menus to suit every occasion.
- ▸ attend an occasion attend, grace, participate in, witness Many illustrious nobles and generals of the Empire graced the occasion with their presence.

occupant N

someone who uses a place or has a particular job for a period of time

- adj+N original or previous former, last, original, previous Nigel was the previous occupant of the office that I now use.
- ▸ current current, present A quick way to judge the suitability of a property is to talk to the current occupants and neighbours.
- ▸ future future, next Properties should be left as found, ready for next occupant.
- ▸ only one only, sole Are you the sole occupant of the flat, or do you have tenants?
- N+of apartment, building, car, chair, flat, house, post, premises, property, room, vehicle The occupants of the house were not injured in the explosion. ◉ She will be the first female occupant of this important government post.

occupation N

1 a job

- adj+N types of occupation clerical, industrial, managerial, manual, non-manual, professional, skilled, technical, unskilled The last decade has witnessed a huge increase in the number of people employed in managerial and professional occupations.
- ▸ done for the whole week etc full-time She combines coaching gymnastics with her full-time occupation as a teacher.
- v+N have a particular occupation follow, pursue Many of the unemployed had no hope of following their normal occupation in mining or shipbuilding.
- ▸ start a particular occupation enter Research showed that the majority of students entered professional occupations.
- ▸ write down what your or someone's occupation is give, list In the 1841 census, Edward's occupation was given as a clerk.

2 going into a place and taking control away from the people or government there

- adj+N types of occupation brutal, colonial, foreign, illegal, imperialist, military The country finally won its independence after a long struggle against military occupation.
- ▸ continuing to exist continued, continuing They protested at the continuing occupation of their country by foreign powers.
- v+N oppose an occupation fight, oppose, resist We support the right of the people to resist occupation but oppose methods of individual terror.
- ▸ end an occupation end The campaign to end the occupation will continue in this country and abroad.
- N+v begin, end, last As soon as the occupation began, it was clear that the occupiers had given no thought to civil society.

occur V

happen or exist

- adv+V often commonly, frequently, regularly, repeatedly Droughts are likely to occur more frequently in the south east of the country.
- ▸ mainly generally, largely, mainly, mostly, normally, predominantly, primarily, typically, usually Abuse is known to occur primarily within families.
- ▸ rarely infrequently, rarely Osteoarthritis rarely occurs before the age of 40.
- ▸ sometimes, but not in a predictable way by chance, occasionally, sporadically The probability of such improvements occurring by chance was found to be less than one in a thousand. ◉ This error may first occur only sporadically.
- ▸ suddenly or quickly immediately, quickly, rapidly, suddenly, without warning Such a condition can occur suddenly, as a result of an accident, or can develop more slowly.
- ▸ naturally naturally, spontaneously These flu viruses occur naturally among birds.
- ▸ at the same time as something else simultaneously, together These processes occur simultaneously.
- n+V problem or mistake difficulty, error, failure, fault, mistake, problem Problems normally occur when helicopters stray from designated routes or fly too low in the sky.
- ▸ damage or loss damage, loss We do not accept responsibility for any damage which occurs to vehicles in this car park.
- ▸ delay delay Considerable delays usually occur before the application is finally processed.
- ▸ event or situation activity, event, incident, opportunity, phenomenon, situation In the middle of winter, an exciting event occurred.
- ▸ change change, development, growth, transformation Huge changes have occurred.
- ▸ accident or disaster accident, collision, crash, crisis, disaster, emergency, explosion, fire, tragedy More than half of all fatal crashes occur on rural roads.
- ▸ crime attack, crime, murder, offence, theft Many of the offences occurred overnight when the homeowner was asleep.
- ▸ something bad affecting your body complications, condition, death, disease, illness, injury, pain, symptom Death usually occurs within two years of the symptoms appearing.

occurrence N

something that happens

- adj+N happening often common, daily, everyday, frequent, regular, widespread This problem is a frequent occurrence in those who are just taking up diving.
- ▸ rare freak, infrequent, isolated, rare, uncommon, unique, unusual In the past few years, weather events which would once have been written off as freak occurrences have become more and more frequent. ◉ Whilst drain failure is a very rare occurrence, it can cause major disruption to production.
- ▸ strange odd, strange, unexpected Strange occurrences begin happening.
- ▸ natural natural, normal Blackheads are unpleasant, but they are a natural occurrence.

odd ADJ
unusual or unexpected

- adv+ADJ very extremely, really, very Harriet's behaviour was extremely odd.
- ▸ rather a bit, a little, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, slightly, somewhat The structure of the book is a bit odd and did not encourage me to read further.
- ▸ definitely and simply decidedly, distinctly, downright, plain If you do come across anything broken or just plain odd, please let me know.

- v+ADJ appear, be, feel, find sth/sb, look, seem, sound Their methods may seem odd, but we are assured that they are extremely effective.

If you think something is odd, you can also say that it strikes you as odd: It struck me as odd that he didn't even reply to the letter.

- ADJ+infinitive hear, say, see, suggest, think It's odd to think that the events that happened a week ago could alter our lives forever.

odds N
1 the chances of something happening

- adj+N when it is likely something will happen good, great, high, short The game offers players 27 times better odds of winning a jackpot than the National Lottery does. ◈ They laid short odds on another attack taking place very soon.
- ▸ when it is not likely something will happen long, low Only Portugal at 200 to 1 have lower odds.

If there is not much chance of something happening, you can also say the odds are stacked against someone/something: Some smokers do live long lives, but the odds are still heavily stacked against it.

- v+N when you make something more likely improve, increase, shorten The article tells you how to increase your odds of getting a loan.
- ▸ when you make something less likely reduce By controlling your blood pressure, you are reducing your odds for having a stroke.
- ▸ go against the odds beat, defy, overcome Several small companies have beaten the odds and stayed in business.
- ▸ say what the odds are give, lay, offer, set The bookmaker, however, has offered odds of 2 to 1.

2 difficulties or conditions that make success unlikely

- adj+N impossible, insurmountable, overwhelming, tremendous He has shown great courage in the face of overwhelming odds. ◈ They managed to cling to life against tremendous odds.

odour N a smell

- adj+N unpleasant bad, foul, musty, offensive, stale, unpleasant Soiled garments and perspiration caused bad odours.
- ▸ strong pungent, strong Fats should be stored in a cool place and away from strong odours.
- ▸ not strong faint, slight It was a pale yellow liquid with a faint odour of fruit.
- ▸ staying in a place for a long time lingering Try and eliminate any lingering odours from the dustbins.
- ▸ easy to recognize characteristic, distinctive Allicin is one of the compounds that gives garlic its characteristic odour.

- v+N produce an odour emit, give off, produce This species of plant emits a strong odour.
- ▸ cause an odour cause, create Street urination causes an unpleasant odour and health risks.
- ▸ reduce or get rid of an odour control, eliminate, neutralize, reduce, remove It is gently scented and eliminates odours very effectively.
- ▸ notice an odour detect, smell Approximately 53 minutes into the flight, the flight crew smelled a strong odour of burning in the cockpit.

offence N
1 a crime or illegal activity for which there is a punishment

- adj+N serious grave, major, serious Throwing or letting off fireworks in a public place is a serious offence, which can result in a fine of up to £5,000.
- ▸ not serious minor, petty, trivial Every year the police record a whole range of minor and petty offences.
- ▸ types of offence drug-related, non-violent, sexual, terrorist, violent Most women in prison are there for non-violent offences, most commonly shoplifting.
- ▸ describing what the result or punishment could be arrestable, bookable, disciplinary, imprisonable, indictable, punishable, sackable Possession of the drug is no longer an arrestable offence. ◈ He was sent off for a second bookable offence.
- ▸ said to have happened but not yet tried in a court alleged If you wish to contest the alleged offence, you may request a court hearing.
- ▸ according to the law statutory It is a statutory offence to drive a vehicle along a bridleway in the absence of a private right to do so.
- ▸ according to a criminal/civil law civil, criminal In the UK, infringement of copyright is a civil offence and the remedy has to be found in the civil courts.

- n+N driving, drug, firearms, motoring, parking, public order, sex, traffic Community officers have powers to deal with some traffic offences such as illegal parking.

- v+N accuse sb of, admit, be convicted of, commit, constitute, investigate The company admitted 20 offences of illegally employing children aged 13. ◈ He was convicted of a drink-driving offence and lost his licence. ◈ The consequences for staff who commit an offence are potentially very serious. ◈ Failure to register contitutes a criminal offence.

2 the feeling of being angry, upset, or insulted

- adj+N great, widespread They concluded that the poster was distressing and likely to cause widespread offence.

- v+N cause offence cause, give The TV station apologized for causing offence with its report on the dead singer.
- ▸ feel offence take Mr Gabb took offence at the accusation.
- ▸ intend offence intend, mean I'm sorry, I didn't intend any offence.

Usage These collocations are used in negative sentences: Don't be hurt. I meant no offence.

offend V make someone angry or upset

- adv+V very much deeply, greatly, seriously I've only been here a day and he's already deeply offended me.
  - easily easily If you're easily offended, then you probably shouldn't watch this programme.
- and/or hurt, insult, shock, upset Movies have a great power to shock and offend as well as entertain and inspire.

offender N
someone who has committed a crime

- adj+N having committed more than one crime persistent, prolific, repeat, serial Custodial sentences should be imposed for serious, persistent offenders.
  - having committed a crime for the first time first, first-time First-time offenders can be sentenced to up to three years in prison.
  - young juvenile, young This project aims to help young offenders or those at risk of offending.
  - having committed a serious crime dangerous, serious The police force has a good record of catching serious offenders, including those involved in burglary and drug crime.
  - having committed a crime that is not serious minor, petty He believed that prison for minor offenders was a waste of money.
  - having committed a particular type of crime sexual, violent It's the government's job to protect the public from violent offenders.
  - believed to have committed a crime alleged, suspected The alleged offender is known to the victim.
  - having been found guilty in a court of law convicted If convicted offenders feel they didn't receive a fair trial, they are entitled to appeal.
- n+N drink-drive, drug, sex Convicted drug offenders are referred for treatment.
- v+N catch an offender apprehend, arrest, catch, detain Police are appealing for help in catching the offenders responsible for breaking into the home of an elderly lady.
  - punish an offender imprison, prosecute, punish, sentence The police try to prosecute offenders wherever possible.

offensive ADJ unpleasant or insulting

- adv+ADJ very deeply, downright, extremely, grossly, highly, very That suggestion was not only deeply offensive, but also wrong.
  - in a way that seems unnecessary gratuitously He condemned the gratuitously offensive and indeed racist remarks.
  - in a particular way morally, racially I find your views morally offensive and totally reprehensible.
  - likely to be offensive potentially Filtering can also protect you from potentially offensive material which may be contained within spam emails.
- ADJ+n writing or remarks comment, content, graffiti, joke, language, material, message, remark, word Employees who use company email to share offensive jokes or obscene images with friends will be dealt with severely.
  - behaviour behaviour, gesture, manner Avoid insulting or offensive behaviour – this includes swearing and insulting others.
- v+ADJ be, be deemed, consider sth, find sth, seem Many of the pictures could be deemed offensive. ◉ It is his hypocrisy which I find offensive.
- and/or abusive, defamatory, illegal, inappropriate, indecent, insulting, obscene, pornographic, threatening Please don't make offensive or defamatory posts on our forum.

offer V
to give someone something or let them know that you will do something

- adv+V kindly generously, kindly Stuart kindly offered to swap seats with me so I could sit next to my wife.
  - willingly freely, willingly He willingly offered his time and money to help the charity.
- v+to-V seem to offer something appear, seem Bespoke software, written for your organization, may appear to offer advantages.
  - not offer something fail He criticized the main parties for failing to offer voters a genuine choice on tax and spend.
  - to have to offer something be compelled, be forced, be obliged All schools will be obliged to offer part-time school attendance.

offer N
a statement in which you offer someone something

- adj+N kind generous, kind This generous offer was immediately accepted.
  - good attractive, exciting, fantastic, good, tempting It was a tempting offer which I just couldn't refuse.
  - formal or official formal, written Two references will be taken up for all successful candidates prior to a formal offer of employment.
  - with/without conditions conditional, unconditional She had been given an unconditional offer of a place at the college.
- v+N make an offer make (sb), put in When you place an order you are making an offer to buy the goods, which the company can refuse to accept. ◉ Seven bidders are thought to have put in offers for the UK grocery business.
  - get an offer get, have, receive I received an offer to buy out my business.
  - refuse an offer decline, refuse, reject, turn down He asked her to go to Hong Kong with him, but she rejected his offer.
  - accept an offer accept, take, take up The minister accepted an offer to visit Sheffield.
  - think about an offer consider We will consider offers to tour to any location in the UK or abroad.
  - say an offer is no longer available withdraw We will withdraw the offer of a place if we find that you have given fraudulent or misleading information.

offset V
balance effects so that there is no advantage or disadvantage

- adv+V to a certain extent partially, partly, slightly, somewhat Increases in the retail sector were partially offset by a fall in the motor trades.
- ▸ completely completely, fully The reduced turnover costs would not be sufficient to offset completely the higher wage bill.
- ▸ very much largely Cost saving initiatives and selling price increases has largely offset cost inflation.
- V+n cost or amount cost, expenditure, expense, fee, payment, price, savings To offset these costs, many small recycling businesses pool resources with other companies.
- ▸ increase gain, growth, increase, rise However, increased utility costs and business rates are likely to more than offset these gains.
- ▸ loss or decrease decline, deficit, fall, loss, reduction, shortfall Any development will need to contribute significant economic and environmental benefits to offset the loss of greenfield land.
- ▸ effect benefit, effect, impact Sports drinks have been designed to offset the impact of dehydration by replacing both the fluids and body salts that are lost during exercise.
- ▸ risk risk Cycling has health benefits which can offset the risks attached to it.
- V+against cost, income, profit, tax The group's losses can be offset against future taxable profits.

omission N
someone or something not included

- adj+N obvious glaring, notable, obvious, striking There are some glaring omissions, and some odd inclusions.
- ▸ important important, major, serious, significant I believe that there is an important omission from the current proposals, something that I consider to be an essential point.
- ▸ not important minor This has nothing to do with the main story, so it is a very minor omission.
- ▸ strange and unexpected curious, strange, surprising There is no diesel model, which is a surprising omission in a car of this class.
- ▸ deliberate/not deliberate deliberate, inadvertent, intentional I understand that any false information or deliberate omissions will disqualify me from employment.
- ▸ that you regret regrettable, unfortunate Readers must be aware of some unfortunate omissions in the article.
- v+N notice an omission identify, note, notice, spot If you spot any omissions that you think should be included, please let us know.
- ▸ correct an omission correct, rectify, remedy To correct that omission we provide the details here – see below.

omit V fail to include someone or something

- adv+V deliberately deliberately, intentionally, purposely These letters were deliberately omitted from the autobiography in order not to cause offence.
- ▸ not deliberately accidentally, inadvertently These figures were accidentally omitted from the calculations.
- ▸ in a way that is to someone's advantage carefully, conveniently Mr. Arnold conveniently omitted his political title when replying to a letter in the newspaper.
- ▸ completely altogether, completely, entirely, totally Several passages were altered and some were omitted altogether. ◉ Increase water intake and totally omit starches, sugars, processed foods from your diet.
- V+n information details, fact, information, mention, name, reference She had omitted a few minor details about her husband. ◉ The statement omitted any mention of responsibility for the war.
- ▸ part of some writing letter, line, paragraph, passage, section, verse, word In reading, young children may sometimes omit words.
- V+infinitive add, ask, mention, say, state, tell My only slight criticism is that the reviewer omitted to mention the excellent cinematography.

one-sided ADJ in which one person, opinion etc has more influence

- adv+ADJ very or completely completely, totally, very The review was very one-sided and failed to do justice to the novel.
- ▸ rather pretty INFORMAL, rather, somewhat In the second half, two further goals ended a rather one-sided match.
- ▸ in a bad way embarrassingly, grossly, hopelessly, horribly The report is selective and grossly one-sided.
- ADJ+n affair, approach, argument, contest, conversation, game, match, relationship, view The negotiations should not be a one-sided affair.

onset N
the beginning of something, especially something bad [always singular]

- adj+N sudden or quick abrupt, rapid, sudden People who have a stroke experience a sudden onset of disability.
- ▸ slow gradual, insidious, slow Symptoms begin with a gradual onset of breathlessness.
- ▸ early/late delayed, early, late Building was delayed by the early onset of winter.
- v+N cause the onset cause, trigger This hormone is important in triggering the onset of labour.
- ▸ delay or prevent the onset delay, postpone, prevent, slow There are treatments that can control HIV and delay the onset of AIDS.
- ▸ mark the onset herald, mark, signal Primroses, daffodils, bluebells and wild orchids herald the onset of the main holiday season.
- N+of illness condition, disease, illness, pain, symptoms, dementia, diabetes etc The onset of a mental illness is often heralded by being unable to fulfil roles that had previously been carried out successfully. ◉ For some, the onset of shizophrenia will be rapid, with family members noticing psychotic symptoms.
- ▸ process in the body labour, menstruation, puberty Teenagers with the disease frequently experience a delay in the onset of puberty.

▸ problem or event crisis, problem, war Both Tamara and Isaac had fled Poland with the onset of war, and had met as exiles in London.
▸ weather or season rain, season, weather, winter Try and arrive before the onset of the hurricane season. ◆ The containers should be well watered before the onset of bad weather. ◆ Food shortages will become more acute with the onset of winter.

onslaught N large numbers of people or things coming at the same time; an attack

- adj+N constant, relentless As the blog grows, under the relentless onslaught of my posts and project updates, the good stuff tends to get buried.
- v+N start or continue an onslaught continue, launch, mount, unleash Domestically, he launched an onslaught on civil liberties.

▸ have to deal with an onslaught face People in Britain are facing an onslaught of cuts in local council services.
▸ deal with an onslaught successfully resist, survive, withstand Email servers should be secure enough to withstand the onslaught of email-borne threats like viruses and spam.

ooze V
show a particular quality in an obvious way

- adv+V just, positively, simply The cottages are in a charming rural location that simply oozes character and atmosphere.
- V+n atmosphere, character, charisma, charm, class, confidence, quality, sex appeal, style It's a classy bar and restaurant that oozes style.

open ADJ
1 honest and not keeping things secret

- adv+ADJ very or completely completely, entirely, genuinely, quite, totally, truly They were quite open about it.

▸ to some extent fairly, relatively The management had been fairly open about its intentions.

- and/or fair, frank, friendly, honest, transparent Couples must be open and frank with each other.

2 willing to consider different things

- adv+ADJ genuinely, refreshingly, surprisingly They have a refreshingly open approach to solving the company's problems.
- ADJ+to ideas, offers, possibilities, suggestions Munro is a man who is open to all possibilities.

3 when it is possible or reasonable to do something

- ADJ+to abuse, argument, attack, criticism, debate, discussion, exploitation, interpretation, negotiation, question The system is poorly designed and open to abuse.

open V
begin a discussion, trial etc

- V+n campaign, debate, discussion, inquiry, investigation, meeting, negotiations, proceedings, session, talks Prosecutors have opened a criminal investigation over the jailbreak.

opening N
1 an occasion when a new place is open to the public for the first time

- adj+N formal, grand, official, public The venue's official opening will take place on Saturday 17 June.
- v+N celebrate an opening celebrate, commemorate, mark The prince unveiled a plaque to mark the opening of the garden centre.

▸ go to an opening attend More than 250 guests attended the official opening of the hospice.

- N+n ceremony The opening ceremony was a fantastic extravaganza with balloons, singing and dancing.

2 an opportunity to do something

- adj+N new, possible We need to examine not just the problems encountered with the current state of affairs, but also possible new openings.
- v+N create, give sb, provide The changes have created welcome openings for foreign companies.

openness N honesty, when you do not try to hide information; willingness to accept new ideas

- adj+N more greater, increasing, more Although the responses show increasing openness, a culture of secrecy still prevails in some institutions.

▸ new new The underlying reason for this new openness, which grew through the 1980s, was the change of generations.
▸ complete absolute, complete, total My policy has always been one of complete openness with the staff.
▸ types of openness emotional, intellectual, political Intellectual openness is the prerequisite for all scientific work.

- v+N show openness demonstrate, show He also showed an openness with his party.

▸ encourage openness encourage, promote The Act aims to promote greater openness between employers and staff.

- and/or accountability, fairness, flexibility, honesty, integrity, respect, transparency, trust I also appreciate the honesty and openness shown during the interviews.

operate V
if an organization operates, it does its work; to run an organization

- adv+V well effectively, efficiently, satisfactorily, smoothly, successfully Good PAs are an invaluable asset, and few companies can operate efficiently or effectively without them.

▸ in a particular area globally, internationally, locally, nationally, nationwide, overseas, worldwide Established in 1992, the company now operates internationally.
▸ in a way that makes a profit commercially, profitably The theatre operated quite profitably for many years.
▸ independently autonomously, independently The two organizations operate independently, within the National Health Service.

operation N

1 a set of actions to achieve something; the fact of something functioning

- adj+N large big, large, large-scale, major, massive A British soldier was killed and another was injured yesterday during a major operation.
- ▸ secret clandestine, covert, secret, undercover Hundreds of senior officers had been involved in this covert operation.
- ▸ difficult or dangerous complex, dangerous, hazardous It was a complex operation involving more than 400 staff from over 20 prisons.
- ▸ done with someone else joint The area was cleaned up through a joint operation between the police and the Environment Agency.
- n+N to find or get back someone or something recovery, rescue, salvage, search We returned to duty to continue the recovery operation at the aircraft crash scene.
- ▸ to increase security intelligence, security, surveillance He was involved in planning the security operation for the Olympc Games.
- ▸ to stop fighting peace, peacekeeping United Nations peacekeeping operations began in 1948.
- ▸ to make a place clean again clean-up This clean-up operation is very necessary to tackle Balsall Heath's rat problem.
- ▸ to help people in need relief We have launched relief operations in the east of the island district, where the majority of houses have been completely destroyed.
- v+N start an operation launch, mount Villagers launched a clean-up operation after homes and gardens were left covered in straw.
- ▸ carry out an operation carry out, conduct, perform, run, undertake There are publications about how to properly conduct covert operations.
- ▸ lead an operation direct, lead Mr Jack Clark was also on the scene directing operations.
- ▸ check an operation is being done correctly monitor, oversee, supervise Someone in authority must supervise any digging-out operation.
- ▸ organize an operation coordinate, organize Superintendent Bartlett is coordinating the police operation.
- ▸ stop or interrupt an operation cease, disrupt, suspend The company suspended drilling operations because of the extreme cold.
- ▸ start an operation again resume They resumed the search operation at first light.

2 the medical process of cutting into a person's body

- adj+N big major, serious My father has been in hospital for the last five weeks recovering from a major stomach operation.
- ▸ small minor, routine, small Unless your operation is very minor, you will undergo some routine tests.
- ▸ done to find out what is causing a problem exploratory The surgeon may suggest an exploratory operation on your ankle to check on the state of the joint.
- ▸ that saves someone's life emergency, life-saving James needed a life-saving operation when one of his lungs collapsed.
- v+N have an operation have, undergo He was taken to hospital where he underwent an operation under full anaesthetic.
- ▸ do an operation carry out, do, perform The surgeon who did my operation did a wonderful job and saved my life.
- ▸ need an operation need, require Unfortunately, at the end of September, Diana fell in the street and broke her hip and required an operation.
- ▸ get better after an operation recover from Jones is at home recovering from an operation.

3 a company or part of a large company

- adj+N operating in a particular place global, international, multinational, national, offshore, overseas, regional, worldwide They began extensive reviews of the company's global operations.
- ▸ large big, large It is the largest automotive transport operation of its type, and has 37 locations around Europe.
- ▸ small small The range of goods was impressive for such a small operation.
- ▸ types of operation commercial, retail In 1966, HMV began expanding its retail operations in London.
- v+N start an operation establish, set up, start After the massive stampede to set up offshore operations, things have stabilised.
- ▸ manage an operation manage, run This course focuses on the logistical skills necessary to run a watersports operation.
- ▸ make an operation bigger expand The company has announced new initiatives to expand its operations in the UK and the USA.

operational ADJ working

- adv+ADJ currently, fully Lerwick's new international ferry terminal became fully operational in October 2002.
- ADJ+n ability or level of success activity, capability, effectiveness, efficiency, level, performance These tools will help businesses make further improvements to their operational efficiency.
- ▸ costs costs The provision of high levels of quality will have a significant impact on operational costs.
- ▸ needs needs, requirements Any arrangement that you choose must be agreed with your Head of Department so that it fits into the operational requirements of the department.
- ▸ method practice, procedure, process Operational procedures typically need to be tailored to fit the needs of the particular environment.
- ▸ problem difficulty, issue, problem These incidents must be resolved promptly as security incidents can cause operational problems, damage reputations or even have legal implications.
- v+ADJ be, become, declare sth, keep sth, remain The system was declared operational after extensive testing. ◉ The station had to remain operational at all times during the contract.

opinion N

the attitude that you or a group of people have towards something

- adj+N good favourable, good, high, positive He always had a high opinion of Rhodri's talents.

- bad low, negative, poor I'm afraid I have a low opinion of taxi drivers whether I'm driving or cycling.
- strong strong Some strong opinions have been voiced about the issue.
- honest honest If you can, speak to the existing tenants and get their honest opinion of the house.
- different conflicting, different, mixed There were decidedly mixed opinions on this wine.

When people disagree, they have a difference of opinion: Despite our many differences of opinion, we remained good friends.

- based on good knowledge expert, informed, professional, specialist This was the expert opinion of an eminent neuro-surgeon who gave evidence at the trial.
- of one person personal, sb's own, subjective We are all entitled to our own opinions!
- of most people general, popular, public The Prime Minister would be foolish to ignore public opinion.
- types of opinion legal, medical, political, religious, scientific If someone posts a political opinion that you disagree with, please feel free to comment.
- from someone else second When you're dealing with doctors, it's sometimes better to get a second opinion on your diagnosis.

• v+N have an opinion have, hold Email me if you have any opinions on the design.

You can also use the expressions in someone's opinion and be of the opinion that: People don't take enough exercise, in my opinion. • The board was of the opinion that further cuts would need to be made.

- begin to have an opinion develop, form, formulate The tribunal formed the opinion that there was a serious risk to the well-being of the residents in Hillside Manor.
- say what your opinion is air, express, give, offer, provide, state, venture, voice Herbert thought about the situation for a while before venturing an opinion.
- ask for people's opinions ask (for) sb's, canvass, seek, solicit The review team sought opinions from a wide range of those who were affected by the decision.
- get someone's opinion get sb's, obtain sb's It is useful to get someone else's opinion.
- change your opinion alter, change, revise I've revised my opinion of Jacques.
- have the same opinion as someone else share The police didn't seem to share that opinion.
- respect other people's opinions respect, value We really value your opinion and want to hear it.
- influence people's opinion about something influence, shape, sway The war had shaped voters' opinions.
- show that someone's opinion is correct confirm, support Is there any information that would confirm this opinion?

• N+v exist prevail On this point, three different opinions prevail.

- differ differ, diverge, vary Opinions on the procedure differ widely among doctors.
- change change, shift As I get older, I find my opinions are changing. • US public opinion on the war has shifted in the past year.

You can use regarding or concerning to say what an opinion is about: I strongly disagreed with the writer's opinion concerning the underlying cause of the catastrophe.

opponent N

someone who competes or argues against you; someone who disagrees with something

• adj+N difficult to beat dangerous, formidable, powerful, strong, tough We will come up against stronger opponents, but Ealing never field a bad side.

- not difficult to beat weak Our opponents were surprisingly weak by their usual high standards, and we enjoyed a runaway victory.
- main chief, leading, main, prominent She was one of the main opponents of the war.
- political political The government acted in a repressive manner towards its political opponents and critics.
- having qualities that make you respect them worthy I think Gosport will prove to be worthy opponents.
- expressing an opinion often and strongly bitter, fierce, outspoken, staunch, vocal They have both been vocal opponents of government plans for privatization.

• v+N face an opponent face But in all these areas Britain faces tough opponents.

- defeat an opponent beat, crush INFORMAL, defeat, overcome As long as you stay within the rules, there are loads of ways in which you can try to defeat your opponent.
- be cleverer than your opponent outwit In race after race he outwits opponents by overtaking them when they are stationary in the pits.

opportunity N

a chance to do something

• adj+N good amazing, excellent, exciting, fantastic, golden, good, great, huge, invaluable, major, superb, tremendous, valuable, wonderful This is a very exciting opportunity to be part of the leadership team. • This presents a great opportunity for us to show what we can do.

- special or unusual exceptional, historic, once-in-a-lifetime, outstanding, rare, unique, unparalleled, unrivalled A hot air balloon ride provides you with a unique opportunity to see tourist attractions from thousands of feet up in the air!
- perfect heaven-sent, ideal, perfect This meeting will be the perfect opportunity for them to find out more.
- genuine real, significant These agreements offer a real opportunity to improve the relationship between central and local government.
- new new, unprecedented There are new opportunities for collaboration between biologists, programmers and engineers.
- first earliest, first You should discuss this with your tutor at the earliest opportunity.
- many ample, endless, many, numerous As well as the organised events, there is ample opportunity to just chat.
- available available, every Check out the newspapers to see what opportunities are currently available in your local area.

Usage Available usually comes immediately after opportunity in this combination: In such a large organization as ours there are many careers and opportunities available to you.

- more additional, further, more Field trips provide further opportunities to develop specialist skills and knowledge.
- possible future, possible, potential The management were unwilling to give any guarantees about future employment opportunities.
- missed lost, missed, wasted Your days at school may be remembered as a time of prejudice, frustration and lost opportunities.
- equal equal Employers should ensure they are offering equal opportunities for any job.

Usage Opportunity is usually plural in this combination.

- types of opportunity business, career, commercial, creative, economic, educational, employment, funding, investment, job, learning, networking, professional, promotional, recreational, scoring, training Free travel to the Museum would improve educational opportunities for a significant number of children. ◆ This property presents a terrific investment opportunity.

- v+N have an opportunity get, have You will have the opportunity to try different styles of writing including novels, plays, poems, and magazine articles.
- provide an opportunity afford (sb), allow sb, bring (sb), create, give sb, offer (sb), present (sb with), provide (sb with), represent Members will be given the opportunity to ask questions at the end.
- take an opportunity embrace, exploit, grasp, seize, take People would seize any opportunity to ease their miserable lives.
- fail to take an opportunity lose, miss, pass up, squander, waste Don't miss this rare opportunity to see and hear the best of world music all on one stage.
- appreciate an opportunity appreciate, embrace, enjoy, relish, welcome We would welcome an opportunity for further discussion.
- offer more opportunity develop, enhance, expand, extend, improve, increase, maximize, promote Our economic policy is based on maximising economic opportunity for all.
- not allow someone an opportunity deny sb, limit, reduce At that time, Chinese people were denied the opportunity to buy homes outside the Chinatown ghetto.
- notice or point out an opportunity find, highlight, identify, see, spot We can identify job opportunities and match them with the right people.
- look for an opportunity pursue, seek We are actively seeking opportunities to extend our market reach.

oppose V

not approve of a plan or policy

- adv+V strongly actively, adamantly, bitterly, fiercely, firmly, strenuously, strongly, vehemently, vigorously, violently I strongly oppose these proposals and I have made my views known to the Commission.
- completely absolutely, totally, utterly A resolution totally opposing war was overwhelmingly passed.
- by a large majority overwhelmingly The American Black community overwhelmingly opposed Bush.
- openly openly, publicly Church leaders were faced with the decision of whether to openly oppose the totalitarian regime.
- at first initially Residents of the village came to value the building which they had initially opposed.
- without ever changing consistently, resolutely, steadfastly The Tories have resolutely opposed proposals of this kind in government and in opposition.

opposed ADJ

not wanting something to happen

- adv+ADJ strongly bitterly, fiercely, strongly, vehemently, violently He was vehemently opposed to factory reforms.
- completely fundamentally, totally, utterly These people are fundamentally opposed to the use of animals in research.
- in a determined way adamantly, firmly, implacably, resolutely The Church was implacably opposed to such marriages.
- by a large majority overwhelmingly There is no doubt that the Turkish people are overwhelmingly opposed to war.
- in a particular way ideologically There must be thousands of people who resort to private medicine despite being ideologically opposed to it.

opposite ADJ

completely different

- adv+ADJ completely completely, diametrically, directly, entirely They feel they are being asked to do two diametrically opposite things at the same time.
- exactly exactly, precisely His views on society were exactly opposite to those expressed by Julius Caesar.
- apparently apparently, seemingly This was a wonderful mix of music and science, two seemingly opposite disciplines.

- ADJ+n position or direction corner, direction, end, extreme, polarity, pole, side While donations have risen sharply in America, the trend in Britain has gone in the opposite direction. ◆ Each new theory was a reaction against the one before, and would go to the opposite extreme.
- effect effect, reaction Some people have the opposite reaction: 'Yes, this is the job for me!'
- conclusion conclusion On similar facts the Court of Appeal came to the opposite conclusion.

opposition N

strong disagreement with a plan or policy

- adj+N strong bitter, considerable, fierce, formidable, implacable, intense, stiff, strong, tough, vehement, vigorous, vocal, vociferous The bill is still not signed and still faces stiff opposition. ◆ Local parents are united in their vehement opposition to the plan.
- by many people concerted, mass, massive, overwhelming, united, widespread The Minister decided to push ahead with the code despite widespread opposition.
- growing growing, increasing, mounting He faced increasing opposition even within his own party.

- ▸ open open, outright Respondents expressed views ranging from concern to outright opposition.
- ▸ political democratic, parliamentary, political Denmark had to scale back its military deployment because of parliamentary opposition.
- ▸ based on principles ideological, principled He was known for his principled opposition to corruption.
- ▸ violent armed, violent A campaign of violent opposition by the nationalists led to the suspension of the constitution.

- • v+N express opposition declare, express, state, voice They appeared on national TV to voice their opposition to the legislation.
- ▸ repeat your opposition reaffirm, reiterate, restate He reiterated his opposition to any expansion of Birmingham Airport.
- ▸ experience opposition encounter, face, meet, meet with The government is proposing new anti-terrorist laws, but they are already encountering fierce opposition.
- ▸ create opposition arouse, draw, provoke The coming of the motor car aroused opposition from pedestrians and cyclists alike.
- ▸ organize opposition galvanize, mobilize, organize, rally Loyalist groups attempted to mobilize opposition to the peace process.
- ▸ stop opposition crush, overcome, repress, silence, stifle, suppress He has used death squads to crush opposition.

You can also say that someone brooks no opposition: He has demonstrated time and time again that he will brook no opposition to his vision.

- ▸ give up opposition drop, withdraw They urged him to drop his opposition to reform.
- ▸ control opposition counter, overcome Medicine was her choice from an early age and she had to overcome family opposition in order to achieve her goal.

oppression N

unfair and cruel treatment by a powerful person or government

- • adj+N cruel brutal, cruel, grievous, ruthless, tyrannical The play is a celebration of individual virtue in the face of tyrannical oppression.
- ▸ never stopping continued, relentless, systematic Martin Luther King preached against the systematic oppression of African Americans.
- ▸ types of oppression colonial, feudal, imperialist, patriarchal, racial, racist Imperialist oppression and exploitation created the conditions for terrorism.

- • v+N experience oppression endure, experience, face, suffer Lesbians and gay men had suffered oppression before the change in the law.
- ▸ fight oppression challenge, combat, end, fight, fight against, overcome, overthrow, resist, struggle against Islam, Christianity and Judaism all call on their followers to resist oppression.
- ▸ escape from oppression escape (from), flee People wrongly believe most of them are not fleeing political oppression but are economic migrants.
- ▸ defend oppression justify Physical and cultural differences are used to justify oppression.

- • and/or brutality, cruelty, discrimination, domination, exploitation, humiliation, injustice, persecution, poverty, racism, slavery, subjugation, tyranny The constitution should offer safeguards against tyranny and oppression.

optimism N

a tendency to expect good things to happen

- • adj+N cautious cautious, guarded, reserved Fears of a drought gave way to cautious optimism.
- ▸ great boundless, eternal, heady, irrepressible, unbridled, unfailing, unqualified My father's boundless optimism was strong enough to give me and my sister a better life. ◉ The book reflects the heady optimism of the early 1960s.
- ▸ not reasonable blind, excessive, facile, misplaced, naive, undue, unfounded, unrealistic, unwarranted They tend to display a naive optimism about human nature and human history.
- ▸ cheerful buoyant, cheerful, cheery, infectious A spirit of cheery optimism and confidence animates all his letters.
- ▸ typical of the young bright-eyed, youthful He plays the role of a politician whose youthful optimism has long since died.
- ▸ new renewed The second half of the year has started well, with renewed optimism about the state of the global economy.

- • v+N express optimism express, exude, radiate He believed it was the duty of a leader to always exude optimism.
- ▸ cause optimism engender, instil His appointment engendered optimism that more enlightened policies could emerge.
- ▸ reduce or destroy optimism dampen, shatter, temper Increasing unemployment across the UK has failed to dampen the optimism of recruitment firms.

- • N+v disappear evaporate, wane But Robert's initial optimism has already waned.
- ▸ be common abound, prevail I feel a sense of optimism is prevailing in Japan.
- ▸ be justified be justified, be rewarded We started the season with high hopes, and this optimism was soon rewarded.

optimistic ADJ

hopeful and confident about the future

- • adv+ADJ excessively absurdly, excessively, falsely, hopelessly, hugely, naively, over, overly, ridiculously, a tad INFORMAL, too, unduly, unrealistically, wildly Budget estimates were overly optimistic. ◉ Perhaps I was a tad optimistic to hope for 300 competitors to turn up.
- ▸ carefully cautiously, guardedly, moderately, quietly Of course he could still withdraw, but I feel cautiously optimistic that he will buy the flat.
- ▸ always determinedly, eternally, relentlessly The Bank of England remains determinedly optimistic about growth prospects.
- ▸ strangely or surprisingly extraordinarily, remarkably, strangely This is a strangely optimistic book, set in very grim times yet leaving you with a sense of dignity and hope.
- ▸ by a large majority overwhelmingly Respondents to the survey were overwhelmingly optimistic about the future of the sector.
- ▸ calmly moderately, quietly As a politician who remained committed to peaceful change, he was quietly optimistic of the future.

- ADJ+n attitude attitude, outlook, view The entrepreneur has an optimistic outlook on life.
- ▸ prediction or estimate assumption, estimate, expectation, forecast, prediction, projection, scenario, vision This growth rate is above even the most optimistic forecasts for developing countries.
- ▸ conclusion conclusion, prognosis There is another way of assessing the work that leads to a less optimistic conclusion.
- ▸ hope hope I have finished my novel and have optimistic hopes of getting it published.
- ▸ mood or tone mood, note, tone There is a slightly more optimistic mood in the music industry.

- v+ADJ be or feel optimistic be, become, feel Now I feel more optimistic about my future.
- ▸ remain optimistic remain, stay Despite falling listeners and fewer ads, the station remains optimistic.
- ▸ seem optimistic appear, look, seem, sound I do not wish to sound too optimistic, but everything is falling into place.
- ▸ prove too optimistic prove Even that lower figure may prove optimistic.

option N

something you can choose in a particular situation

- adj+N good or attractive attractive, easy, good, preferred, safe After School Clubs are usually the easiest option for school-age children. ◉ Please let us know your preferred option.
- ▸ practical or sensible realistic, sensible, viable Solar energy could become a viable option for energy production.
- ▸ cheap/expensive cheap, expensive For a cheaper option, buy a model with rechargeable batteries.
- ▸ available available, open, possible You need to accurately compare the costs of all the available options. ◉ This should be considered as a last resort if no other treatment options are open.
- ▸ various additional, alternative, different, following, other, several, various In Appendix 1, a number of alternative options are detailed for comparison.
- ▸ only only For many, low skilled, low paid jobs are their only option.

- n+N accommodation, career, childcare, dining, housing, payment, transport, travel, treatment It's never too late to start thinking about your career options. ◉ We've been tackling congestion by giving people better information about their travel options.

- v+N have an option have Little more than five years ago, web developers had just one option when creating online shopping sites.
- ▸ choose an option choose, exercise, favour, pursue, select, specify Those who wish to exercise this option should contact their personal tutor.
- ▸ discuss or consider options assess, consider, discuss, evaluate, examine, explore, investigate, review Currently, the Council is considering two options.
- ▸ give someone an option give sb, grant sb, offer (sb) We offer the option of receiving all the news as a single daily digest.
- ▸ describe options identify, list, outline The paper outlined three possible options.
- ▸ reduce options limit I realise that working from home limits my options somewhat.
- ▸ in computing set The Job Wizard allows you to set many options and is very easy to use.

optional ADJ available or possible if wanted

- adv+ADJ completely, entirely, purely, strictly The project is entirely optional and students may form any group of people to undertake the research.

- ADJ+n additional feature accessory, add-on, extra You can also purchase optional accessories including a travel charger and a wireless keyboard.
- ▸ part of course of study dissertation, module, subject, unit Optional modules include: advanced research methods; medical law and ethics; Freud and Psychoanalysis.
- ▸ trip excursion, tour We can organise your choice of accommodation, optional tours and transfers.

ordeal N

a very unpleasant experience

- adj+N terrible appalling, awful, distressing, dreadful, excruciating, frightening, grim, gruelling, harrowing, hideous, horrendous, horrible, horrific, painful, terrible, terrifying, traumatic She managed to escape after her horrific ordeal and called the police.
- ▸ long entire, lengthy, prolonged, whole Passengers and crew suffered a prolonged ordeal while they waited to be rescued.

- v+N suffer an ordeal endure, experience, face, suffer, undergo Then he had to endure the terrifying ordeal of a press conference with a barrage of hostile questions.
- ▸ survive an ordeal survive Many animals are dead, and those that have survived the ordeal are in a terrible condition.
- ▸ avoid an ordeal be spared, escape She was spared the ordeal of having to identify the bodies.
- ▸ describe an ordeal describe, recount, relive The director persuaded the two men to relive their ordeal for the camera.

order N

1 the way things are arranged or done

- adj+N sensible or correct correct, logical, natural, right Then draw up an agenda by putting everything into a logical order.
- ▸ from highest/lowest or first/last ascending, descending, reverse Hotels are listed in descending order of price per room. ◉ Let me take things in reverse order and deal with the last point first.
- ▸ not in order random The shuffle function plays all the songs from that year in a random order.

You can also say that something is in no particular order: The artists featured are listed in no particular order.

- ▸ types of order alphabetical, chronological, numerical, rank, sequential The bibliography is arranged in alphabetical order according to authors' surnames. ◉ The criteria to be applied are listed in rank order.

- v+N put things in an order arrange sth in, list sth in, put sth in Can you put them in the order in which they occurred?
  - ▶ change an order change, reverse If you change the order of words in a sentence, you change the meaning.
- N+of importance, precedence, preference, priority, seniority There are three possible solutions, listed here in no specific order of preference.

2 a request for a product

- adj+N large bulk, large, major We offer discounts on bulk orders, so it makes sense to stock up.
  - ▶ new new Do you have the resources to cope with new orders and enquiries that come in?
  - ▶ special special They had received a special order for a different version of the design.
  - ▶ placed in a particular way mail, online, telephone When you place an online order, we will send a confirming email message.
- v+N make an order make, place, put in, submit The matching headcover is included free when you place your order through the website.
  - ▶ get or accept an order accept, confirm, get, receive, secure, take We accept orders only with a UK-based billing address. ◈ The waiter asked, 'Can I take your order?'
  - ▶ deal with an order complete, fulfil, process We aim to process your order by the end of the next working day.
  - ▶ send what has been ordered deliver, dispatch, send, ship International orders are sent by Air Mail.
  - ▶ change or cancel an order amend, cancel, change You may cancel or amend your order prior to checkout.

3 an instruction from someone in authority

- adj+N strict strict Agamemnon had given him strict orders to guard his wife when he left for Troy.
  - ▶ temporary interim, temporary The tribunal will make an interim order that he remains employed until the full hearing.
  - ▶ types of order court, military The device was used to encode military orders during World War II.
  - ▶ for a particular thing to be done adoption, banning, closure, confiscation, disqualification, preservation, purchase, restraining, winding-up Compulsory liquidation is where a person, usually a creditor, petitions the court to make a winding-up order.
- v+N give an order give (sb), grant (sb), issue, send, sign A possession order was granted by the Court. ◈ Robert issued orders for pits to be dug beside the road.
  - ▶ obey an order carry out, execute, follow, obey The soldiers had no choice but to obey orders.
  - ▶ disobey an order breach, disobey, refuse He said Mr Field had breached the court order by returning to the flat. ◈ They were prosecuted for inciting soldiers to disobey orders.
  - ▶ be given an order get, have, receive The troops received orders to march immediately on the town.
  - ▶ obtain an order obtain, secure Residents secured a closure order last month forcing the tenants out of the area.
  - ▶ change an order change, revoke The judge may at any time revoke an order committing a person to prison.
  - ▶ ask for an order ask for, seek The lender can seek a court order to recover the debt.
- N+v state or specify something prescribe sth, require sth, specify sth, state sth An enforcement order specifies the steps the company has to take to comply. ◈ The orders stated the attack would take place the following day.
  - ▶ forbid something ban sth, forbid sth, prohibit sth These orders ban certain football supporters from attending matches.
  - ▶ allow something authorize sb/sth The Minister gave an order authorizing the carrying out of the works.

4 a situation in which people obey laws and rules

- adj+N public civil, public Sensationalist news coverage can itself be a threat to public order.
- v+N create or bring back order impose, restore He was tasked with restoring order at the end of the civil war.
  - ▶ keep order keep, maintain I had to maintain order, so after two warnings I sent her out of the classroom.

order V

tell someone they must do something

- adv+V immediately immediately, promptly The French court immediately ordered her release.
  - ▶ specifically expressly, specifically Some Generals specifically ordered bombings of civilian villages.
  - ▶ according to reports allegedly, reportedly He allegedly ordered that payments be misrecorded in the company books.

orderly ADJ

well organized, or well-behaved

- ADJ+n manner fashion, manner Luggage should be collected in an orderly fashion.
  - ▶ working conduct, functioning The government has a duty to ensure the orderly functioning of the economy.
  - ▶ change handover, succession, transition The retiring chairman will remain at the company until the AGM in order to assist in an orderly transition.
  - ▶ queue procession, queue People are blocking entrances to the loos by not forming an orderly queue.
  - ▶ leaving somewhere evacuation, retreat, withdrawal Fire Stewards will ensure the orderly evacuation of the building.
  - ▶ sensible order progression, sequence Teaching skills in an orderly sequence usually has the best results.

organ N

a body part that does a specific job

- adj+N of the body bodily, internal A mouse has a similar set of bodily organs and muscles to a human.
  - ▶ needed for life major, vital The body's vital organs cannot function without water.
  - ▶ with a particular function digestive, reproductive, sense, sensory, sex, sexual In fact, the reproductive organs do not start to function until puberty.
  - ▶ in a particular place abdominal, genital, pelvic Sometimes, other pelvic organs such as the bladder and bowel are injured during a hysterectomy.

- diseased diseased Stem cell treatments have the potential to regenerate damaged and diseased organs.
- transplanted transplanted The drug helped to overcome the problem of the patient's body rejecting the transplanted organ.

- v+N damage affect, damage This bacteria can also cause septicemia and damage the internal organs.
- remove remove, transplant The main problem in transplanting organs is rejection.
- donate donate Discuss your wishes with your relatives if you wish to donate your organs.

- N+n transplant donation, transplant, transplantation Our teaching hospitals provide advanced care, such as organ transplants, cancer and cardiac care.
- problem damage, failure, rejection He died of multiple organ failure.
- donor donor Not everyone is a suitable organ donor.

organize V

prepare or arrange an activity or event

- V+n conference or meeting conference, meeting, seminar, symposium, workshop The Art History Department is organizing a conference on conservation.
- protest boycott, demonstration, march, protest, rally The Black community was outraged, and quickly organized a boycott of the buses in protest.
- trip expedition, tour, trip The Artsline Youth Project organizes trips to cinemas, theatres, and gigs.
- event or show competition, contest, event, exhibition, tournament Barbara organizes our annual poetry contest.
- something written petition, referendum, rota Liberal Democrats are organizing a nationwide petition to scrap council tax.

organized ADJ

showing careful planning

- adv+ADJ well brilliantly, efficiently, highly, well This is a highly organized and well-run department.
- not very well loosely, poorly It seems to be a loosely organized group with no single identifiable leader.

origin N

the place, time, situation etc where something or someone comes from or begins to exist [usually plural]

- adj+N not known or understood dubious, mysterious, obscure, uncertain, unknown The origins of the word are unknown.
- types of origin biological, ethnic, genetic, geographical, national, racial A government survey has found that ethnic origin plays a big part in the sort of ill health someone will suffer.
- from a particular time ancient, medieval Longton is another village of ancient origin.
- not rich humble He was a wonderful man, full of humanity, who never forgot his humble origins.
- not from this world divine, extraterrestrial, mythical, supernatural His right to rule was believed to be of divine origin.

- v+N have a particular origin have, owe, trace It is said these Games owe their origins to tests of strength and skill set by Highland chiefs. ◉ The Liberal Party traces its origins to the 18th century.
- discover someone's or something's origins ascertain, determine, discover, pinpoint, uncover, unravel When a pain is felt internally, it can be difficult to pinpoint its origin.
- investigate someone's or something's origins examine, explore, investigate The course explored the origin and development of Darwin's evolutionary theory.
- reveal someone's or something's origins betray, indicate, reveal, suggest This is the family name and indicates the Persian origin of the family.
- hide someone's or something's origins belie, conceal, disguise, obscure His tanned skin and dark, curly hair belie his German origins. ◉ The money is passed through a series of transactions to obscure its origin.
- explain someone's or something's origins explain, understand The goal of the research was to seek to understand the origin of life.

- N+of civilization, consciousness, cosmos, galaxy, species, universe Professor Stephen Hawking is a theoretical physicist noted for his research into the origin of the universe.

original ADJ

new, interesting, and different from anything else

- adv+ADJ very or completely completely, entirely, genuinely, highly, hugely, totally, truly, utterly, wholly, wildly Steve has developed a highly original songwriting style.
- in a surprising or exciting way amazingly, breathtakingly, powerfully, remarkably, startlingly, strikingly, stunningly, thrillingly It is a work of great poetic beauty, written in a startlingly original voice.
- in a good way brilliantly, fantastically, refreshingly, wonderfully This is the most refreshingly original book about British politics that I have read for some time.
- not very hardly, not terribly While the plot isn't terribly original, the central characters are interesting.

originality N

the quality of being new and interesting, or the ability to think of new and interesting ideas

- adj+N great genuine, great, much, outstanding, real, sheer, utmost There was always much originality and ingenuity in what he did. ◉ The sheer originality of this comedian will ensure that you will see no other performer like him.
- surprising or exciting astonishing, compelling, daring, remarkable, startling, striking This is an unclassifiable work of startling originality.
- types of originality artistic, creative The judges will be particularly looking for artistic originality and innovation.

- v+N show originality demonstrate, display, exhibit, exude, possess, show Our musical style is eclectic, experimental at times, and exudes originality.
- lack originality lack, lose He was a learned man, but he lacked originality.
- keep originality maintain, retain His poems still retain their originality, freshness, and often humorous content.

ornate ADJ decorated with complicated patterns or shapes

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, incredibly, lavishly, richly, very The concert hall is renowned for its lavishly ornate interior.
- ▸ in a good way beautifully, fantastically, wonderfully Within the gardens are many wonderfully ornate fountains and ponds.
- ▸ excessively excessively, over, overly, rather The clothing was of good quality, but overly ornate and overpriced.

- ADJ+n object balcony, balustrade, buckle, canopy, ceiling, chandelier, cornice, facade, fireplace, fountain, frieze, lamppost, pulpit, railing, reredos, urn, valance The lavishly decorated banquet hall is complete with ornate chandeliers and panelled walls.
- ▸ work carving, decor, ironwork, plasterwork, stonework The building has soaring ceilings with ornate plasterwork.

orthodox ADJ
generally accepted as correct, usual, or traditional

- adv+ADJ strictly rigidly, strictly He was as rigidly orthodox as Mark Twain was revolutionary.
- ▸ in a particular way doctrinally, theologically Like Newton, most scientists at this time were theologically orthodox.

- ADJ+n religious belief system creed, doctrine, dogma, theology, Judaism, Christianity etc Orthodox Protestant theology counts among its central doctrines the primacy of the individual conscience.
- ▸ believer believer, rabbi, theologian, Jew, Muslim etc Both parties were orthodox Jews and were required, under Jewish law, to refer their disputes to a Beth Din.
- ▸ political or scientific system medicine, Marxism, Darwinism etc There are already more alternative 'healers' in Britain than practitioners of orthodox medicine.

orthodoxy N an idea, practice, or set of beliefs that is traditional, usual, or generally considered correct

- adj+N current or accepted accepted, established, fashionable, prevailing, reigning, ruling This was the accepted academic orthodoxy until the 1930s.
- ▸ strict dogmatic, rigid There were times, however, when his seriousness degenerated into dogmatic orthodoxy.
- ▸ religious doctrinal, religious, theological, Catholic, Protestant etc Franciscans believe in simplicity, obedience and doctrinal orthodoxy.
- ▸ political, economic etc feminist, ideological, liberal, modernist, Keynesian, Marxist etc France in the 1990s saw a tremendous backlash against the liberal economic orthodoxy of the 1980s.

- v+N accept, challenge, defy, question, reject, subvert We need MPs like him who remain willing to challenge current orthodoxy.

outbreak N
the sudden start of war, disease etc

- adj+N very bad devastating, severe, virulent There was devastating outbreak of cholera which killed many in the 1830s.
- ▸ happening occasionally or again periodic, renewed, sporadic The East End has seen sporadic outbreaks of mob violence.
- ▸ possible/definite confirmed, suspected Three toddlers have been taken to hospital after a suspected outbreak of the E coli virus.
- ▸ sudden sudden There was a sudden outbreak of theft, and Roddy was suspected.
- ▸ of a particular disease cholera, flu, foot-and-mouth, influenza, measles, salmonella, smallpox, typhoid England is experiencing its biggest measles outbreak in 20 years.
- ▸ worldwide pandemic There is currently a significant risk of a worldwide pandemic influenza outbreak.
- ▸ infectious communicable, infectious Nationally and internationally infectious disease outbreaks in farm animals can have devastating results.
- ▸ how caused foodborne, waterborne Gastroenteritis, the illness most often cause by waterborne outbreaks, is not uncommon and has many causes.

- v+N cause an outbreak cause, precede, precipitate, trigger Many believe that it was military and strategic factors that precipitated the outbreak of war in 1914.
- ▸ deal with or stop an outbreak combat, control, eradicate, halt, investigate, prevent, tackle There is a detailed contingency plan to eradicate any outbreak of avian flu in poultry.
- ▸ say there is or will be an outbreak detect, fear, predict, report Police feared outbreaks of violence between the contending factions.

- N+of disease cholera, diarrhoea, disease, fever, flu, foot-and-mouth, influenza, measles, meningitis, mumps, plague, poisoning, rabies, scabies, smallpox, typhus In the 13th Century, a terrible outbreak of the plague, known as the Black Death, hit London.
- ▸ violence hostilities, violence, war He was in Paris just before the outbreak of hostilities in 1939.

outburst N a sudden spoken expression of strong feeling

- adj+N aggressive or violent abusive, aggressive, angry, drunken, intemperate, petulant, violent He had a tendency toward violent outbursts and an admitted drink problem.
- ▸ very emotional emotional, hysterical, impassioned, indignant, irrational, uncontrollable A letter of complaint would surely have been more effective than this hysterical outburst.
- ▸ occasional/frequent frequent, occasional, sporadic Despite recent elections, there are still sporadic outbursts of conflict.
- ▸ sudden or surprising explosive, spontaneous, sudden, uncharacteristic, unexpected He has a hair-trigger temper which often leads to sudden outbursts of violence.

- v+N cause, prompt, provoke, trigger The television drama provoked an outburst from the Unionist leader.

- N+of anger or emotion anger, emotion, grief, indignation, rage, temper, violence, wrath My family suffered through my drinking and outbursts of temper.
- ▸ laughter or applause applause, laughter There were occasional outbursts of laughter from the audience.

outcome N

the final result of something

- adj+N good beneficial, favourable, optimal, positive, satisfactory, successful This practical step-by-step guide will help you to achieve a successful outcome.
- ▸ bad adverse, disappointing, fatal, negative, poor, tragic, unsatisfactory The review calls for more clinical trials on the adverse outcomes of treatment.
- ▸ after some time eventual, final, longer-term, long-term, overall, ultimate There is acute uncertainty about the eventual outcome of global financial instability. ◦ The earlier treatment begins, the better the long-term outcome.
- ▸ immediate or not likely to last short-term The short-term military outcome may not be in doubt, but questions remain regarding broader political outcomes.
- ▸ known/not known anticipated, expected, inevitable, logical, predictable, uncertain, unexpected From that point on, the outcome was inevitable.
- ▸ wanted/not wanted agreed, desirable, desired, intended, undesirable, unintended It was vital to be clear from the start about intended outcomes.
- ▸ possible or likely likely, possible, potential, probably As has been said very often, life is a terminal illness with only one possible outcome.
- ▸ that can be clearly seen actual, measurable, tangible Most charity trustees want to see immediate and tangible outcomes of the funding they provide.
- ▸ most important key, main, primary A key outcome of the study was the recognition that more investment was needed.
- ▸ of a particular type of process birth, clinical, educational, health, learning, pregnancy, surgical, treatment Access to computers can enhance educational outcomes for socially disadvantaged learners.

- v+N produce an outcome achieve, deliver, ensure, guarantee, know, optimise, produce, secure, yield Prospects for diplomacy to deliver a satisfactory outcome were undermined.
- ▸ decide the outcome decide, determine, predetermine This debate will be crucial in determining the outcome of the election.
- ▸ affect the outcome affect, alter, improve, influence, shape Teachers are being asked to improve academic outcomes for all their students. ◦ Local people felt they were not given any chance to influence the outcome of the process.
- ▸ analyse the outcome analyse, assess, compare, discuss, evaluate, examine, measure, monitor, review He evaluates the likely outcome of pursuing each possible course of action.
- ▸ predict or expect an outcome anticipate, envisage, expect, predict The results will improve our ability to predict the outcome of a stroke.
- ▸ describe an outcome define, detail, identify, record, report, specify, summarise This section summarises the main outcomes of the discussions which took place.
- ▸ make assumptions about an outcome pre-empt, prejudge The investigation is at an early stage and it would be wrong to prejudge the outcome.
- ▸ wait for the outcome await The agency houses asylum seekers while they await the outcome of their residency applications.

- N+of consultation, discussion, experiment, investigation, negotiation, process, project The town council was delighted with the outcome of the negotiations and readily agreed to them.

outcry N

an angry reaction by many people

- adj+N public open, popular, public If a school had such unstable, inconsistent leadership there would be a public outcry.
- ▸ large great, huge, massive, much There would be a massive outcry if such a scheme were proposed now.
- ▸ in a particular area international, national The community are convinced that an international outcry will stop this tourist development.
- ▸ angry furious Plans for a mobile phone mast have sparked a furious outcry from people in the area.
- ▸ immediate immediate There was an immediate outcry which led to the building plans being scrapped.

- v+N cause an outcry cause, prompt, provoke, spark, trigger When the government announced a slight rise in social security payments, it provoked an outcry.
- ▸ make an outcry raise Everyone remembers the furious outcry raised by the press.

outlay N

money needed for a new business or project

- adj+N small little, minimal, minimum, modest, small For a minimal outlay, your site content remains fresh and relevant to your customers.
- ▸ large considerable, hefty, huge, large, significant, substantial Shareholders are unlikely to sanction a further hefty outlay on new players this summer.
- ▸ at the beginning initial The initial outlay is so small it is only a matter of weeks before you are in profit.
- ▸ total total Our total outlay on paper, printing and other expenses was £429.
- ▸ financial capital, cash, financial For charities, it's an opportunity to have a piece of work done with no financial outlay.

- v+N get back an outlay recoup, recover, repay At $99, you'll easily recoup the outlay in your increased productivity.
- ▸ be able to afford an outlay afford, justify Many supporters cannot afford the outlay for a season ticket.
- ▸ require an outlay incur, involve, require You may be looking at ways to expand your business whilst incurring little capital outlay.
- ▸ reduce an outlay minimize, reduce Users can adopt a pay-as-you-use approach to minimise their outlays.

outlet N

a way of expressing feelings not normally expressed

- v+N find an outlet find His anger and hatred had been brewing for twenty-five years and now it had found an outlet.
- ▶ want an outlet need, seek These young men seek an outlet for their aggression.
- ▶ be an outlet act as, be, provide (sb with) Music provides an invaluable outlet for safe expression of feelings and emotions.

- N+for anger aggression, anger, frustration Most games simply act as an outlet for our frustrations.
- ▶ creativity creativity, self-expression, talent Rapping can be an excellent outlet for self-expression.
- ▶ energy or enthusiasm energy, passion Young people need an organisation that provides adequate outlets for their energies.
- ▶ feelings emotion, feelings, instinct Laughter provides a harmless outlet for these negative emotions.

outline V

give the main ideas without giving all the details

- adv+V briefly briefly, succinctly This book starts by outlining briefly the type of world in which Margaret lived.
- ▶ clearly clearly, eloquently A booklet supplied with the video case clearly outlines the key messages.
- ▶ generally broadly The new structure of the school is broadly outlined below.

- V+n plan framework, measures, plan, proposal, vision I have asked the architects to outline their proposals for environmental sustainability in the design of the new building.
- ▶ principles or rules basics, criteria, principles, requirements The paper outlines the principles which lie behind Labour's new policy making processes.
- ▶ method approach, methodology, procedure, steps, strategy Employees should use the procedure outlined in their contract to pursue grievances.
- ▶ aim aim, objectives, priorities This report will outline our objectives for the coming year.
- ▶ results or findings findings, progress, recommendations This document outlines the main findings from the research.
- ▶ reasons background, rationale, reasons The union outlined its initial reasons for opposing the sell-off.

outline N

an explanation including general points but not details

- adj+N brief brief, succinct Applicants are initially invited to provide a brief outline of their idea.
- ▶ vague bare, sketchy, vague The town has an interesting history, of which I know only a sketchy outline.
- ▶ general broad, rough This article gives a rough outline of what you need to get yourself online.
- ▶ basic bare, basic Let me give you a basic outline of the project.
- ▶ detailed detailed For a more detailed outline of this course, go to our Courses page.
- ▶ not yet definite provisional, tentative A provisional outline of the programme follows – please note that this is subject to revisions.

- v+N prepare an outline draft, prepare, sketch I have sketched the outline of my argument in favour of a written constitution.
- ▶ provide someone with an outline give (sb), present (sb with), provide (sb with), submit Authors wishing to contribute are encouraged to submit an outline of a prospective paper.
- ▶ change an outline revise You will probably need to revise your outline as you plan your essay.

outlook N

an idea about what something will be like, or a general attitude to things

- adj+N positive or optimistic bright, cheerful, optimistic, positive, rosy, sunny Political stability has given Cambodia a more optimistic outlook.
- ▶ negative or pessimistic bleak, gloomy, grim, pessimistic Many of the students believe they have failed and that their outlook is bleak.
- ▶ uncertain uncertain Despite an uncertain outlook at the beginning of last year, we managed to turn a small operating profit.
- ▶ reflecting someone's age mature, youthful I enjoyed reading this collection of poems, particularly for its refreshing, youthful outlook.
- ▶ over a particular time period long-term, medium-term, short-term Sources are optimistic about the medium-term outlook for growth.
- ▶ types of outlook conservative, economic, humanistic, liberal, materialistic, philosophical, reactionary, religious, secular, theological This change was a shift in his basic philosophical outlook.

- v+N change alter, change, shape, transform She accepts that prices will fall, but that does not change her positive outlook.
- ▶ make better/worse improve, worsen These cuts have further worsened the economic outlook.
- ▶ make broader broaden, widen We must broaden our outlook by listening to other cultures as well.
- ▶ share share They shared a radical outlook and became conscientious objectors during the war.
- ▶ reflect reflect His policy of hiring people who were bilingual was because he felt bilingualism reflected a broader outlook on life.

output N

the amount produced by a person, organization etc

- adj+N large large, massive, prodigious, prolific The stories he wrote for use in the classroom were the beginning of a prolific output of children's writing.
- ▶ total combined, entire, gross, total The share of total economic output accounted for by industry has declined in recent decades.
- ▶ maximum maximum, peak This system has a maximum output of 500 kW.
- ▶ that can be measured measurable, tangible One of the major difficulties is in defining the measurable outputs of the organisation.
- ▶ types of output agricultural, creative, electrical, industrial, literary, musical Why did agricultural output in Africa decrease between 1980 and 2001?

- v+N give a particular output achieve, deliver, generate, produce He admitted they had absorbed a lot of money and as yet produced little valuable output.
- ▶ increase output boost, double, increase, maximize, optimize We provide all the necessary information on how to maximise output and contain costs.

- ▸ decrease output decrease, reduce This can reduce the output of blood from the heart.
- ▸ control or measure output control, measure, monitor, restrict First, we have to do more to control our own output of greenhouse gases.

outrage N

1 a strong feeling of anger and shock

- • adj+N moral moral, righteous His innocent suffering excites the audience's pity and moral outrage.
- ▸ easy to understand justifiable, justified, understandable Whatever the motivation behind his comment, it caused understandable outrage in Northern Ireland.
- ▸ easy to notice palpable The anger and outrage were palpable, but there seemed to be nothing anyone could do.
- ▸ from many people public, widespread There has been widespread outrage at his remarks.
- ▸ pretended mock 'Put that down,' he orders in mock outrage.

- • v+N cause outrage arouse, cause, ignite, prompt, provoke, spark, trigger His comments on race relations in Britain have frequently sparked outrage.
- ▸ feel outrage feel, share If you share our outrage at this barbaric practice, please help us with a donation.
- ▸ express your outrage express, voice The UN High Commissioner on Human Rights has also expressed outrage at the attacks.
- ▸ pretend to feel outrage feign They feign outrage over the slightest perceived insult.

- • and/or anger, condemnation, derision, disgust, dismay, horror, incomprehension, incredulity, indignation, shock Revelations about how the children were treated have provoked outrage and disgust.

2 an event causing strong anger and shock

- • adj+N violent brutal, murderous He must do everything in his power to stop these murderous outrages.
- ▸ extremely bad appalling, unspeakable Perpetrators of unspeakable outrages are being allowed to go free.
- ▸ real absolute, utter This is an absolute outrage and completely unacceptable.
- ▸ by terrorists terrorist London is on alert for a possible terrorist outrage.

- • v+N commit an outrage commit, perpetrate Atrocities and outrages were perpetrated by both sides during the civil war.
- ▸ condemn an outrage condemn The Prime Minister was quick to condemn the outrage.

outrageous ADJ

very shocking or unreasonable

- • adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, quite, so, totally, truly, utterly The prices were completely outrageous, and I couldn't understand how a normal family could afford them.
- ▸ rather pretty INFORMAL He's pretty outrageous at times.
- ▸ in a particular way morally One might well argue that such treatment of him would be morally outrageous.

- • ADJ+n behaviour antics, behaviour, stunt Certain stunts are so outrageous or strange that they deserve celebrating in their own right.
- ▸ clothes clothes, costume, outfit We are still planning to have some fun on Christmas Eve as we do our pub run in some outrageous outfits.
- ▸ entertainment comedy Her breakout role came as the choirgirl in the outrageous teen comedy hit 'American Pie'.
- ▸ lie or accusation accusation, claim, lie, slur, story That's an outrageous slur!

outset N

the start of something

- • v+at+N say declare, emphasize, mention, say, specify, state, stress As stated at the outset, there is a vast array of advantages to building sustainable, low emissions buildings.
- ▸ decide decide, determine, establish The precise curriculum will be determined at the outset by detailed discussion between the tutor and the students concerned.
- ▸ agree acknowledge, agree, recognize We recognise at the outset that this was a very small sample and there were good reasons for this.
- ▸ make clear clarify The costing of projects must be clarified at the outset.

- • v+from+N be damaged or likely to fail be doomed, be flawed She now claims that the scheme was doomed from the outset.
- ▸ say acknowledge, state, stress You must state from the outset what you are including with the house.
- ▸ think about consider All design details should be considered from the outset, and not as an afterthought.

outspoken ADJ stating your opinion honestly

- • ADJ+n critic critic, opponent She is well known as an outspoken critic of bureaucracy.
- ▸ supporter advocate, defender, proponent, supporter He is an outspoken advocate for public education.
- ▸ criticism attack, criticism, opposition He used a radio interview to launch an outspoken attack on the government.

- • and/or controversial, forthright, frank, independent, opinionated He was opinionated and outspoken, but he was honest and truthful.

outstanding ADJ

extremely good or impressive

- • adv+ADJ very absolutely, particularly, quite, really, simply, truly These cottages offer truly outstanding accommodation and are within an easy drive to places of historical interest.
- ▸ in a particular way academically, internationally, technically Academically outstanding students can realize their full academic potential through the Honors Program.
- ▸ over a period of time consistently, still Staff are encouraged to submit a nomination for an award for any employee who offers consistently outstanding service.

- ADJ+n achievement achievement, contribution, merit, performance, record, reputation, result, success We are ready to use many of the outstanding achievements of European social democracy as our model.
- ▶ ability ability, talent At the Jesuit College, Torricelli showed that he had outstanding talents.
- ▶ feature or quality beauty, feature, quality, scenery The scenery is outstanding, and has given the name 'Little Switzerland' to this part of Hampshire.
- ▶ example example The Pompidou Centre in Paris is an outstanding example of the effect of urban regeneration.

outweigh V be more important, useful, or valuable than something

- adv+V very greatly decisively, far, greatly, heavily, hugely, massively, vastly The benefits far outweigh these obstacles, he says, adding that the main challenge is training.
- ▶ considerably considerably, significantly, substantially The cost of filming in Scotland considerably outweighed the cost of filming in New Zealand.
- ▶ certainly or probably certainly, clearly, definitely, easily, probably, surely The benefits can certainly outweigh the difficulties.
- V+n advantages advantage, benefit, gains, pluses, positives, pros INFORMAL, rewards To be brutally frank, however, the negatives far outweigh the positives.
- ▶ disadvantages cons INFORMAL, disadvantages, drawbacks, harm, negatives If the gains clearly outweigh the drawbacks, carry on with this process.

ovation N

act of clapping to express approval or enjoyment

- adj+N enthusiastic enthusiastic, huge, loud, rapturous, rousing, spontaneous, thunderous, tremendous, tumultuous, warm Eminently moving in places, the film 'Tarnation' received a rapturous ovation, and with good reason.

A standing ovation is an occasion when an audience stands and applauds at the same time: At the end there was a standing ovation for him and the whole cast.

- ▶ long long, prolonged, five minute, ten-minute etc Clinton's appearance on stage brought the crowd to its feet for a prolonged ovation.
- ▶ deserved deserved, well-deserved The lads got a terrific and well-deserved ovation.
- v+N be given, earn, get, receive, win We received a standing ovation and a personal letter of congratulation on behalf of the King.

overall ADJ

considering or including everything

- adv+ADJ 2nd, 3rd, 4th etc I limped to the finish line 10 seconds behind Joe, happy with a placing of 5th overall.
- ADJ+n aim aim, objective, strategy Our overall aim is to provide teaching of excellence, to students of high calibre from a wide range of backgrounds.
- ▶ result mark, rate, rating, score Each assignment is equivalent to 1000 words and counts for 5 per cent of the overall marks.
- ▶ outcome conclusion, effectiveness, performance, satisfaction Our overall conclusion is that this is a competitive market.
- ▶ effect effect, impression The overall impression is of a warm and light-filled openness.
- ▶ cost budget, cost Use of lower cost services did not necessarily reduce overall costs.
- ▶ responsibility responsibility The Board has overall responsibility for the Group's system of internal control.
- ▶ winner winner Choosing the overall winner was a difficult task for the judging panel.
- ▶ feeling feel, picture The course aims to give an overall picture of the framework of the law relating to charities.

overcome V

1 succeed in dealing with a problem

- adv+V partly/completely completely, largely, partially, partly Some of these difficulties can be partially overcome by using calculators.
- ▶ finally eventually, finally, ultimately The boy eventually overcame the mental block and told me about it.
- ▶ quickly/slowly gradually, quickly, soon The aim of the treatment is to help the person to gradually overcome their addiction.
- ▶ successfully successfully No other paper has reported this approach to successfully overcome this problem.
- V+n a problem adversity, barrier, challenge, constraint, difficulty, hurdle, obstacle, prejudice, problem Can you identify ways to try to overcome those barriers?
- ▶ a lack or weakness disadvantages, fear, inertia, limitations, reluctuance, shortcomings, weakness I am using excitement to overcome my fear.
- ▶ opposition objection, opposition, resistance High-density housing must overcome cultural resistance and a negative historical legacy.

2 make someone very emotional, weak, or ill [usually passive]

- n+V emotion anger, curiosity, emotion, excitement, fear, greed, grief, guilt I am overcome by my curiosity about one point.
- ▶ smoke or gas fumes, gas, smoke The men in question were overcome by the fumes.
- ▶ sleep sleep Sleep overcame a few of the party on the return to London that evening.

overdose N too much of a drug taken at once

- adj+N fatal/not fatal fatal, lethal, non-fatal Fatal overdose of stimulant drugs is usually linked with cardiac depression and arrest.
- ▶ accidental/deliberate accidental, deliberate, intentional Deliberate or accidental overdoses were not included; nor were patients who were not admitted overnight to hospital.
- ▶ very large massive I took a massive overdose and was devastated when I woke up 4 days later.

▸ suspected suspected Any patient with a suspected paracetemol overdose should be taken to hospital immediately.

• v+N die from, die of, take On the day they were to leave for Ibiza, she took an overdose of pills and died.

overdraft N

an agreement with a bank allowing you to spend money from an empty account

• adj+N not charged for fee-free, interest-free Most banks now offer interest-free overdrafts of up to a few hundred pounds to all students.
▸ allowed/not allowed agreed, authorized, unauthorized Take care not to run up an unauthorised overdraft.
▸ big big, hefty, huge I've lots of plans for the summer, mainly paying off my huge overdraft.

• v+N arrange or have an overdaft arrange How quickly can an overdraft be arranged?
▸ allow an overdraft agree, authorize, offer The basic bank account does not offer an overdraft, a cheque book or a debit card.
▸ pay back an overdraft clear, pay off, reduce, repay He suggested that we should be trying to repay the overdraft, not increase it.
▸ increase an overdraft extend, increase Extending your overdraft may be an option, but your bank may not agree to this.

overestimate V

consider something to be better or bigger than it is

• adv+V greatly greatly, grossly, seriously, significantly, substantially, vastly Such writers tend to vastly overestimate the uniqueness of their ideas.
▸ to some degree slightly, somewhat The title 'New Media' slightly overestimates the scope of the book.

• V+n importance extent, importance, significance It would be as well not to overestimate the significance of the discontent.

You can say that it is impossible, hard or difficult to overestimate something when you want to stress its extent or significance: It is impossible to overestimate the importance of the contribution made by Britain's iron-masters.

▸ influence impact, influence Many persons are inclined to overestimate the influence of inheritance in determining success in business.
▸ risk risk People tend to overestimate risks that have received a lot of media attention.
▸ ability ability In general, they overestimate the abilities of children at any given age.

overhaul V completely change a system to make it work better

• adv+V completely, extensively, fully, radically, substantially, thoroughly, totally Over the course of the year, we had to radically overhaul our systems of accounting.

• V+n law, legislation, procedures, regulations, structure, system The proposals will completely overhaul chemicals safety legislation. ◉ The postal service plans to overhaul its pricing structure as it faces increased competition.

overhaul N

thorough changes to a system

• adj+N changing many things drastic, fundamental, radical, thorough The EU budget needs a thorough overhaul, the report says.
▸ large in scale comprehensive, extensive, major, massive, total The Ford Motor Company is planning a major overhaul of its largest plant, which will revolutionize the way it makes cars.

• v+N need an overhaul need, require The current rules now need an overhaul.
▸ carry out an overhaul carry out, undertake As Home Secretary, he undertook an overhaul of the prisons.
▸ have an overhaul undergo Norwich International Airport is set to undergo a major overhaul.

overheads N

the regular costs of a business or organization

• adj+N low low, minimal, negligible The administration is run on a voluntary basis, so overheads are minimal.
▸ high costly, excessive, expensive, high, huge, significant The problem is that a business like this requires large, central locations with massive overheads.
▸ extra additional, extra, increased You incur no additional overheads other than to meet your advertising costs.
▸ unnecessary unnecessary The coalition also tries to avoid incurring unnecessary overheads.
▸ types of overheads administrative, bureaucratic, computational, institutional, organizational This is part of an effort to spend as little as possible on bureaucratic overheads.

• v+N reduce overheads eliminate, minimize, reduce Your sales strategy should be based on minimizing overheads.
▸ have to pay overheads incur Projects such as the Wellcome Trust Building and the Cancer Centre incur significant overheads.

overlook V fail to do something or ignore something

• adv+V often or sometimes frequently, often, sometimes The needs of disabled people from black and ethnic minority groups were often overlooked.
▸ mainly or completely completely, entirely, largely It is unsurprising that the findings of the Report were largely overlooked.
▸ deliberately/accidentally conveniently, inadvertently This is a scientific fact conveniently overlooked and denied by many male scientists.
▸ easily easily If you don't get it right, you'll be easily overlooked.

• V+n distinction, fact, importance, possibility, shortcomings, significance These arguments overlook a fact which we neglect at our peril.

overriding ADJ more important than anything else

- ADJ+n aim aim, goal, objective The overriding objective should be to provide high quality public services.
- ▸ factor or idea factor, principle, theme The overriding factor is the rise in uncertainty in life.
- ▸ concern concern, consideration, preoccupation, priority The overriding consideration should be to keep the size and complexity of plans manageable.
- ▸ impression impression The overriding impression she gained from this was that she and the child were safe.
- ▸ duty duty, obligation Expert witnesses owe their overriding duty to the court, not the client.
- ▸ importance importance The course emphasises the overriding importance of initiative and creativity.
- ▸ longing ambition, desire, passion His overriding desire was to have a brief period alone.

oversee V
watch something to check it happens correctly

- V+n creation or development construction, creation, development, expansion, preparation, production, progress, transformation, transition Sir David oversaw a tremendous expansion of the institute's research activities.
- ▸ operation administration, conduct, operation, running I am responsible for overseeing the running and management of the building itself.
- ▸ delivery delivery, implementation The group will set up an action plan and oversee its delivery.
- ▸ feature aspect We can save you time and money by overseeing each aspect of running an event.
- ▸ project project The librarian will continue to oversee the project and maintain the website.

- and/or manage coordinate, direct, manage, monitor, regulate, supervise The success of the website illustrates my ability to coordinate and oversee this kind of project.
- ▸ enforce enforce, implement The Information Commissioner's Office is the Government department that oversees and enforces freedom of information.

oversight N
1 the job of checking that something works well

- adj+N types of oversight democratic, editorial, judicial, pastoral, regulatory, strategic There is no provision for judicial oversight.
- ▸ by a particular body or group civilian, congressional, episcopal, parliamentary These efforts will merit close congressional oversight as they are implemented.
- ▸ effective independent, rigorous Birkbeck College maintains its own internal rigorous oversight of standards.

- v+N have oversight exercise, have, include, provide We also have oversight from an equipment technician and educational audiologist.
- ▸ keep or improve oversight ensure, improve, maintain, retain, strengthen A Finance Committee has been established to improve financial oversight.
- ▸ give oversight to someone delegate, give The Governing Body has delegated the oversight of this policy to its Curriculum Committee.
- ▸ need oversight require He has suggested that independent oversight is now required.

- N+of activity, arrangements, implementation, matters, operation, programme, regulation The Audit Committee provides independent oversight of audit activities.

2 something you do not notice that causes problems later

- adj+N administrative, glaring, slight, unfortunate Please let me know if there are any glaring oversights or errors in this.

- v+N correct, rectify, remedy A three-year research project aims to remedy this oversight.

overthrow V force a leader or government from power

- adv+V completely, eventually, finally The regime was finally overthrown by its regional opponents in 1991.

- V+n a leader dictator, king, leader, president, ruler, tsar, tyrant If it is possible, should a tyrant be overthrown?
- ▸ a government or political system capitalism, democracy, dictatorship, dynasty, government, imperialism, monarchy, regime, tyranny At meetings, Edwards constantly called for an armed uprising to overthrow the government.

overtones
noticeable but not obvious qualities

- adj+N types of overtones emotional, moral, political, racial, racist, religious, romantic, sexual, supernatural Her music is laden with heavy emotional overtones. ◈ This is a rip-roaring adventure story with political overtones.
- ▸ strong or clear clear, heavy, obvious, strong The idea of spreading the word carries obvious religious overtones.
- ▸ slight slight, subtle In addition to its avowed purpose, marriage has acquired subtle overtones as a sign of maturity.
- ▸ negative or frightening dark, negative, pejorative, sinister It's a pity that the word mythology has the negative overtones that it has.

- v+N carry, have Like many Arabic words, 'Hilya' carries multiple overtones, making it difficult to translate.

overturn V officially change a decision or law [usually passive]

- adv+V later subsequently Only one case was subsequently overturned.
- ▸ completely or successfully completely, successfully The Review Commission has seen 50 per cent of the convictions it has referred being successfully overturned on Appeal.

- V+n legal decision acquittal, conviction, decision, injunction, judgement, ruling, sentence, verdict His conviction was overturned in 1995.
- ▸ law ban, law No EU law has ever been successfully overturned by Parliament.

overview N a description or knowledge of the main features of something

- adj+N short brief, concise, introductory, quick, succinct This Handbook provides an introductory overview to the subject.
- ▸ long or detailed comprehensive, thorough Chapter two gives a particularly thorough, comprehensive overview of assessment procedures.
- ▸ good excellent, useful This revised paperback version provides an excellent overview of the fundamentals of exercise physiology.
- ▸ general broad, general The aim is to give you a broad overview of the types of content available.
- ▸ types of overview detailed, historical, impartial, strategic The University has produced a strategic overview of learning.
- v+N give an overview give, include, offer, present, provide A brief overview is provided in Appendix One.
- ▸ get an overview gain, get, obtain Students will gain an overview of one of the central branches of Western philosophy.
- ▸ include an overview feature, include This is a research guide featuring concise overviews of historical periods and chronologies.
- N+of concepts, issues, subject, theories, topic Read these pages for an overview of each topic.

overweight ADJ

heavier than you should be

- adv+ADJ very dangerously, excessively, extremely, grossly, seriously, severely, significantly, very Figures show that one in five adults is dangerously overweight.
- ▸ slightly or moderately slightly, somewhat He was a classic candidate for a heart attack, somewhat overweight, a smoker and a drinker.
- and/or inactive, obese, underweight, unfit Today's youth are getting rapidly overweight and seriously unfit.

overwhelm V

affect someone's emotions in a very powerful way

- adv+V completely absolutely, completely, quite, simply, totally, utterly Such incidents and feelings have the effect of completely overwhelming our coping resources.
- ▸ almost almost I looked in the window and nausea almost overwhelmed me.
- n+V something someone does enthusiasm, generosity, kindness, response We have been overwhelmed by your enthusiasm for Fairtrade. ◆ I have been overwhelmed by the generosity and support of so many people.
- ▸ feelings or a feeling emotion, feeling, grief, sadness Unexpectedly, I had been overwhelmed by emotion on seeing Applecross again.
- ▸ a quality beauty He was so overwhelmed by her beauty that he asked Griselidis to marry him.
- V+with emotion, feeling, gratitude, grief, joy, sadness, sorrow I was overwhelmed with gratitude at such concern.

Usage Overwhelm is usually passive in all of the n+V combinations shown above: Tina has lost her son Sam, and is overwhelmed by grief.

overwhelming ADJ

1 much larger, stronger etc than anything else

- adv+ADJ completely or very absolutely, completely, quite, so In the case of the firefighters, opposition to the government was absolutely overwhelming.
- ▸ apparently seemingly A brilliant strategist, he won many battles, often against seemingly overwhelming odds.
- ▸ rather pretty INFORMAL He said: 'I expected to win because the evidence was pretty overwhelming'.
- ADJ+n numbers or strength firepower, majority, odds, preponderance, superiority, vote The overwhelming majority of the jobs created were in the private sector.
- ▸ acceptance/rejection consensus, endorsement, opposition, rejection These results reveal an overwhelming consumer endorsement for face-to-face service.
- ▸ success popularity, success, victory The campaign was an overwhelming success.
- ▸ evidence evidence, impression There is no overwhelming evidence to support this and information has been anecdotal and subjective.
- ▸ response response We had an overwhelming response to the survey and would like to thank all who took part.
- v+ADJ appear, be, become, prove, seem Here he argues that the statistics demonstrating the futility of wind power are now overwhelming.

2 an overwhelming emotion is very strong

- adv+ADJ completely or very completely, quite, so, too, totally, truly, utterly To hear how loyal the fans are, it's truly overwhelming.
- ▸ almost almost, nearly Number 4 is a work of enormous strength and passion almost overwhelming in its intensity.
- ▸ rather pretty INFORMAL, rather, somewhat The whole experience can be somewhat overwhelming.
- ▸ slightly a little, slightly Initially, the number of characters we are introduced to can seem a little overwhelming.
- ▸ in a particular way emotionally Heartbreak Productions bring their unique style of storytelling to a new production of this emotionally overwhelming play.
- ADJ+n feelings desire, emotion, feeling, urge My overwhelming feeling is sadness.
- ▸ a particular feeling grief, guilt, joy, sadness For some considerable time, you may have moments of overwhelming sadness.

owner N

someone who owns something

- adj+N present, previous or future current, former, new, original, present, previous, prospective, would-be Holland House is named after a former owner in Sir Henry, Earl of Holland.
- ▸ only or joint joint, principal, sole The joint owners of the newspaper decided to close it down.

▶ legal legal, rightful All materials and images on this site are considered to be copyrighted to its rightful owner.
▶ proud proud It seems that the hard work has been worth it and Collingwood will be the proud owner of a brand new gym.

ownership N
legal possession of something

• adj+N legal or complete freehold, legal, outright, rightful During the building contract period, legal ownership of the building site transfers to our Contractor.
▶ public/private private, public It was proposed that the company should be converted to public ownership.
▶ only or shared joint, shared, sole Click here for more information on shared ownership.
▶ belonging to everyone collective, common, communal Work, production and ownership were all communal.

• v+N claim ownership assert, claim The law should prevent squatters from claiming ownership of your farmland.
▶ prove ownership confirm, establish, prove, verify To obtain the permit, you must prove ownership of the vehicle.
▶ take or keep ownership acquire, assume, establish, retain, take There are areas in which foreign citizens may not acquire ownership of real property.
▶ give up ownership relinquish, transfer I relinquish all ownership!
▶ dispute ownership dispute Where ownership is disputed, ask for written evidence to prove ownership.

ozone N
oxygen existing high in the Earth's atmosphere

• adj+N atmospheric, ground-level, stratospheric An accurate way of measuring atmospheric ozone is by using an Ozone Monitor.

• v+N create ozone create, form, generate, produce Ozone is formed in the stratosphere by free radical reactions.
▶ destroy ozone deplete, destroy What is the evidence that stratospheric ozone is destroyed by chlorine and bromine?

• N+n depletion, hole, layer Global warming could increase ozone depletion.

Pp

pace N
the speed at which something happens

- adj+N slow gentle, leisurely, sedate, slow, unhurried Trade unions will still be disappointed at the slow pace of change.
- ▸ moderate even, moderate, relaxed, steady It is a village that is growing at a steady pace.
- ▸ fast brisk, fast, quick, rapid Refugee returns continued at a brisk pace last year.
- ▸ very fast blistering, breakneck, cracking, electrifying, ferocious, frantic, frenetic, furious, hectic, relentless, tremendous The second half began at the same frantic pace.
- v+N make the pace faster accelerate, force, quicken The book is written in short, sometimes very short, chapters that serve to quicken the pace.
- ▸ make the pace slower slacken, slow The conflict almost certainly would slow the pace of the global economic recovery.
- ▸ keep the pace the same keep, maintain, match, sustain During the past 40 years, food production has kept pace with global population growth. ◈ We are willing to put forth our most concerted effort, in order to maintain a steady pace of reform.
- ▸ set the pace set Our laser technology continues to set the pace for other companies to meet.
- ▸ have no or little pace lack The film feels slow and lacks the pace needed to keep your interest.

You can also say that something gathers pace when it happens more quickly: Once agreement has been reached, the financial and legal procedures will gather pace.

- N+v increase accelerate, hot up INFORMAL, increase, pick up INFORMAL, quicken Gradually the pace quickens and the activity increases.
- ▸ decrease slacken, slow Although the pace slackens somewhat in the second half, this is a pleasing, cosmopolitan film.
- N+of of change change, development, globalisation, growth, innovation, progress There is every reason to believe that the pace of change will remain intense.
- ▸ of life life The pace of life here is very slow.

pact N
an agreement between people or groups to do something

- adj+N electoral, military, nuclear In entering into this agreement, we are clear that this is not an electoral pact.
- n+N cooperation, defence, growth, non-aggression, security, stability, trade We have always declared our readiness to conclude a non-aggression pact with any state.
- v+N make a pact agree, conclude, enter, make, sign As for anyone who reads this – let's make a pact that we'll never forget him.
- ▸ break a pact break, violate I thought the band was over as we'd broken the pact we formed when we started.

pain N a feeling that you have in your body when you are hurt or ill

- adj+N in a particular part of the body abdominal, back, chest, joint, muscular, neck, stomach There is a lot you can do to prevent back pain in your workplace.

You can refer to pain that has no single location as aches and pains: I had aches and pains that continued into the next day.

- ▸ lasting for a long/short time acute, chronic, constant, persistent It is sometimes possible to treat the cause of chronic pain.
- ▸ very bad agonizing, excruciating, extreme, much, severe, terrible, unbearable The pain was excruciating.
- ▸ not bad mild, moderate, slight Paracetemol should be the first choice for mild pain.
- ▸ intense burning, intense, searing, sharp, stabbing I feel a sharp pain in the side of my arm.
- v+N reduce pain alleviate, control, decrease, dull, ease, lessen, reduce, relieve, soothe, treat Soon after injury, an ice bag may be applied to relieve pain and swelling.
- ▸ cause pain cause, inflict Possibly nothing inflicts more intense pain than fire.
- ▸ feel pain endure, experience, feel, suffer He suddenly felt a terrific pain in his head as though a nail had been driven into it.
- ▸ help to prevent pain eliminate, minimize Hypnosis can be used to minimize the pain of dental surgery.
- N+n control of pain control, management, relief Advice may need to be sought from the pain management team.
- ▸ tolerance of pain threshold, tolerance There is considerable variation in individual pain thresholds.
- ▸ medicine for pain medication, meds INFORMAL Over-the-counter pain medications are recommended to relieve minor pain from tension headache.
- and/or aches, discomfort, distress, suffering People with epilepsy say that they do not experience pain or distress before or when they have seizures.

painful ADJ
1 making you feel upset, ashamed, or unhappy

- adv+ADJ very acutely, agonizingly, exceedingly, excruciatingly, extremely, incredibly, intensely, terribly, too, unbearably, very Parents have recognised that embarrassment is excruciatingly painful for adolescents.
- ▸ rather quite, rather That was the best team I have ever swum with and it was rather painful to lose.
- ▸ in a particular way emotionally While paranoia can be treated by analysis, it is a difficult and emotionally painful process.
- ADJ+n event, experience, or situation choice, circumstances, decision, dilemma, episode, experience, ordeal, scene, shock, situation Nobody wants to prolong the painful ordeal of a divorce.

▸ memory memory, recollection, reminder Some painful recollection had stolen across his mind, and driven him into silence.
▸ feeling emotion, feeling He learned to welcome his painful feelings during meditation.

• v+ADJ be, prove, seem Perhaps things that once brought her pleasure now seem painful.

2 feeling pain

• adv+ADJ very acutely, agonizingly, exceedingly, excruciatingly, extremely, incredibly, intensely, terribly, too, unbearably, very Death from cholera is quick and agonizingly painful.
▸ rather quite, rather For a few years, several of these joints were quite painful and often red and tender.

• ADJ+n condition, contraction, cramp, sensation, spasm This can make normal mobility impossible and can also cause painful muscular spasms.

• v+ADJ be, become, feel, look, sound As time went by, the knee became quite painful on exercise.

painless ADJ

1 not causing any physical pain

• adv+ADJ almost almost, virtually Many people are worried about this, but acupuncture is usually almost painless.
▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, relatively As this form of glaucoma is relatively painless, a person can lose up to 60 per cent of vision and not know.
▸ completely completely, entirely, quite, totally The whole process takes around 20 minutes and is completely painless.

• ADJ+n operation, procedure, process, treatment Radiotherapy is a painless procedure but can have uncomfortable side effects.

• and/or quick fast, quick, rapid, swift He was reassured that his friend would have experienced a swift and painless death.
▸ easy simple, smooth, straightforward The measurement of blood pressure is a painless and simple process.
▸ safe safe The flu vaccine is safe, painless and effective.

2 less difficult or unpleasant than you expect

• adv+ADJ almost almost, relatively, virtually Even changing money at the bank was an almost painless experience.
▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL The Bank believes that such an adjustment should be fairly painless.
▸ completely completely, entirely, quite, totally Economic experts did not expect this process to be entirely painless.

• ADJ+n operation, procedure, process, transition If you are buying a direct flight, then booking online is a painless process.

• and/or quick fast, quick, rapid, swift As noted before, plugging everything together was fairly quick and painless.
▸ easy simple, smooth, straightforward The relatively painless and smooth transition was in no small part due to Janice's hard work.

palate N

the ability to taste and judge flavours

• adj+N refined discerning, discriminating, refined, sophisticated Our menus are designed to delight the most discerning palate.
▸ tired jaded With over 500 restaurants, Birmingham is certain to be able to satisfy even the most jaded palate.

• v+N tempt someone's palate tempt, tickle Pasta is a versatile food and can make hearty suppers or light dishes to tempt the palate.
▸ satisfy someone's palate delight, refresh, satisfy A little green salad on the side is quite nice as it helps to refresh the palate.
▸ take away tastes cleanse After testing wine, drink some water to cleanse the palate.

pale ADJ

having lighter than usual skin

• adv+ADJ very extremely, very Lucy turned very pale and slumped motionless over a table.
▸ rather fairly, a little, quite, rather, slightly, somewhat Apart from looking slightly pale, he seemed his usual self.
▸ unusually abnormally, unusually Tell your doctor if the child looks unusually pale or bruises more easily than usual.

• v+ADJ be, become, go, grow, look, seem, turn 'You look pale, my child,' said her father. ◆ His face turned pale and he was struggling for air.

• ADJ+as death, ghost, sheet Then, looking pale as a ghost, Amelia crept warily into the kitchen.

• and/or gaunt, haggard, sickly, thin, wan Day by day, his face was growing pale and wan.

panel N

a group of people who make decisions or discuss things

• adj+N of experts distinguished, expert Abstracts will be reviewed by an expert panel.
▸ independent independent In July each year, an independent panel of judges shortlist 12 albums which they believe to be the 'Albums of the Year'.
▸ types of panel advisory, disciplinary, editorial, interviewing, judging A course may be substituted by a programme of directed reading if the advisory panel considers this more appropriate.

• n+N adjudication, adoption, appeals, arbitration, interview, review, selection If you are unhappy with the school allocated to your child, you can appeal to an independent appeals panel.

• v+N be on a panel be on, be represented on, serve on, sit on Members are invited to consider who should sit on the panel.
▸ be in charge of a panel chair Damien Hirst chaired the panel of judges.
▸ establish a panel appoint, assemble, convene, establish An independent panel convened by the American Council on Science and Health reviewed the health risks of DINP, the plasticiser used most frequently in toys.

• N+of academics, adjudicators, advisers, assessors, examiners, experts, interviewers, judges, speakers

The winner and runners up will be selected by a panel of judges.

- v+to+N appeal, present sth, put sth, refer sth, submit sth Each entry was photographed and submitted to a panel of judges who will select seventeen national winners.
- n+of+N chair, chairman, member I am sure that other members of the panel will agree.

pang N

a sudden strong and unpleasant pain or emotion

- adj+N brief or slight little, momentary, slight A slight pang of jealousy overcame Leah.
  - ▸ strong or sudden bitter, sharp, sudden I felt a blow and then a sharp pang, and there I was pinned by the shoulder to the mast.
- v+N feel a pang experience, feel, suffer Later, I suffered pangs of guilt for what I had done.
  - ▸ make a pang less strong allay, relieve The berries relieved their pangs of hunger for a time.
- N+of emotion conscience, disappointment, guilt, jealousy, loneliness, nostalgia, regret, remorse, sympathy Her tears and sorrow looked so realistic that I almost felt a pang of remorse.
  - ▸ physical feeling hunger, pain, thirst But suddenly he felt a pang of hunger, got the box out of his satchel and opened it up.

panic N

a sudden very strong feeling of fear or worry [always singular]

- adj+N brief or slight mild, momentary 'Nothing,' Rhanda said, feeling foolish for her momentary panic.
  - ▸ extreme blind, full-blown, mad, sheer, utter I was pleased that this little setback hadn't sent me into a blind panic. ◉ He had a moment of sheer panic at what he had done.
  - ▸ by a lot of people mass, widespread When the disease broke out in the Far East last year, there was widespread panic.
  - ▸ sudden or just before something last-minute, sudden I decided that pre-booking a place would avoid any last-minute panic.
  - ▸ unnecessary unnecessary This has helped to quash silly rumours and quell unnecessary panic among divers.
  - ▸ moral moral Is the current moral panic over young offenders misplaced?
- v+N cause or spread panic cause, create, induce, lead to, provoke, spark, spread, throw sb into, trigger The engine failed, sparking panic in the cockpit.
  - ▸ calm panic calm, quell I tried to focus on my breathing, trying to slow it down and calm the panic that was beginning to take hold.
  - ▸ prevent panic avoid, prevent He explains that he wants to keep the incident a secret to avoid panic.
  - ▸ feel panic experience, feel, fly into, get in, get into At some time or other, most people experience panic, and when this happens we notice changes in our body.
- N+v happen or spread break out, ensue, grip sb, rise, seize sb, set in, spread, strike (sb), sweep through sb/sth Suddenly faced with reality, panic set in.
  - ▸ become less subside After the panic had subsided, she managed to get herself free.
- n+of+N air, atmosphere, feeling, fit, look, moment, sense, state, surge, wave He felt a huge wave of panic ripple up through his whole body.

paper N

an academic piece of writing or a talk on an official or academic subject

- adj+N types of paper academic, consultative, official, research, scholarly, scientific, technical A standard scientific paper in most journals will contain around 6 figures or tables.
  - ▸ important seminal The article has become a seminal paper for researchers in the field.
  - ▸ written with someone else joint They published a joint paper on this subject in 2008.
  - ▸ when someone who is an expert comments on a paper peer-reviewed He has actually never published a peer-reviewed paper on climate change.
- n+N for an occasion or publication conference, journal, keynote, seminar A list of publications, abstracts and published conference papers are given below.
  - ▸ for discussion consultation, discussion, working This prompted us to examine the issue and offer our explorations as a discussion paper.
  - ▸ not final draft She asked me to read her draft paper before she submitted it to a journal.
- v+N write a paper draft, prepare, produce, write This paper was originally drafted in 2000.
  - ▸ write a paper with someone else co-author, contribute to This work is introduced in a paper co-authored with Ian Stark.
  - ▸ present a paper deliver, give, present I travelled to San Francisco to present my paper at the 5th International Conference of Sports Engineering.
  - ▸ publish a paper issue, print, publish She has published papers on a wide range of topics.
  - ▸ submit a paper submit Students can submit papers only with the approval of their supervisors.
  - ▸ mention a paper cite, quote If no one has cited a paper within two or three years of publication, the work it contains is very likely to be lost.
  - ▸ write about a paper comment on, respond to, review, summarize We aim to secure the participation of a set of world-class experts to comment on the papers presented.
- N+v present or describe something address, consider, describe, discuss, examine, explore, focus on, outline, present He was the author of another influential paper describing computer security issues.
  - ▸ state or suggest something argue, propose, state, suggest This paper argues that the trend of a shorter average length of hospital stay is likely to continue.

paperwork N

the part of a job that involves producing reports, records, and letters

- adj+N necessary necessary, relevant, required You will be responsible for ensuring that all required paperwork is completed to deadline.

▸ excessive endless, excessive, unnecessary We want to cut down on unnecessary paperwork for police officers.

• v+N complete paperwork complete, finalize Individual staff should complete their paperwork in advance of the review meeting.
▸ involve paperwork involve, require In some situations registering a death may involve more paperwork, so it will take a bit longer.
▸ deal with paperwork check, deal with, handle, organize, process, sort out The paperwork was sorted out quickly and efficiently and the customer service was excellent.
▸ reduce or get rid of paperwork cut, cut down on, eliminate, reduce Our aim is to reduce paperwork and bureaucracy to the absolute minimum.

• n+of+N backlog, mass, mountain, pile, reams Each meeting involves a mountain of paperwork.

paradox N

a situation with features that do not normally exist together

• adj+N apparent apparent, seeming They have achieved the seeming paradox of combining exciting modern design at low cost.
▸ strange or interesting curious, interesting, strange It is a curious paradox of our age that, at a time when we are confronted with global issues, we tend to attach great importance to small matters.

• v+N present a paradox pose, present These two facts present an apparent paradox.
▸ solve a paradox explain, resolve, solve How does she resolve the paradox that she makes use of the very technologies that she is criticizing?

parallel N

a similarity, or something or someone that is similar; a comparison

• adj+N obvious obvious, striking This model offers a striking parallel to the situation in the Shetland Islands today.
▸ close or exact close, exact The word 'Weltanschauung' has no exact parallel in English.

• v+N draw, find, note, reveal, see, suggest Dufton draws interesting parallels between the treatment and education of the deaf in Paris, Dresden and Prague. • The film, though set in the past, reveals obvious parallels with our own times.

paralysis N

the loss of the ability to move your body

• adj+N partial/total partial, total A brain tumour has left her with partial paralysis and loss of vision.
▸ temporary/permanent permanent, temporary During this phase of sleep, our closed eyes dart rapidly about and our muscles suffer temporary paralysis.

• v+N cause paralysis cause, lead to, result in Paralysis is caused by something being wrong with the nerves that activate muscles.
▸ suffer paralysis be affected by, suffer (from) Not all the victims of polio suffered paralysis.

parameter N

a limit affecting how something can be done [usually plural]

• adj+N particular certain, specific, specified The partnerships will operate within specified parameters.
▸ broad/strict broad, strict The broad parameters of the inquiry will be set by academic staff.
▸ important basic, critical, important, key, relevant Uncertainty has been identified as one of the key parameters limiting the development of brownfield sites.

• v+N set parameters define, determine, establish, set, specify By setting the parameters for discussion in this way, the debate has been skewed.
▸ change or vary parameters adjust, alter, change, modify, vary We are already changing the parameters by which we judge legitimate interpretations.
▸ choose or use parameters choose, use These parameters are used to classify stars into different types.

• v+within+N fall, operate, work The changes fall within the parameters of the original plans.

paranoia N

the feeling that people do not like you and are trying to harm you, although there is no proof for this

• adj+N extreme acute, deep, extreme, intense, rampant, severe The film accurately portrays Hitler's acute paranoia and his sense of being betrayed by a number of his generals.
▸ slight mild, slight I suffered a lot of nervous tension, with slight paranoia.
▸ increasing creeping, escalating, growing, increasing, mounting Soon he starts to wonder about his own growing paranoia – who can he trust?
▸ not based on fact unfounded It turned out that Ian's paranoia was not unfounded, when a soldier broke into their hotel room.
▸ of a lot of people collective, mass, widespread Why was there a widespread paranoia about Catholicism in late seventeenth century England?
▸ caused by drugs drug-fuelled, drug-induced After two decades of drug-fuelled paranoia and erratic behaviour, the singer was back on track.

• v+N suffer from paranoia experience, suffer (from) Vince is experiencing intense paranoia at work, petrified that Rosalie has revealed his secret.
▸ cause paranoia fuel, generate, induce Cocaine damages the heart, can lead to strokes, and can induce paranoia.

• n+of+N atmosphere, climate, feeling, mood, sense, state In a complete state of paranoia, the police quickly cordoned off the area outside the gates.

pardon N

a decision to forgive someone for a crime

• adj+N with no conditions free, full, general, unconditional In prisoner amnesties, convicted criminals are granted full pardons.
▸ with conditions conditional He was given a conditional pardon that meant he could leave Tasmania but could never return to England.

▸ given to someone who has died posthumous Was Hanratty the victim of a miscarriage of justice and should he receive a posthumous pardon?

• v+N give a pardon give sb, grant (sb), issue The Secretary of State is now re-considering whether to grant a pardon.
▸ receive get, obtain, receive, secure Fifteen officers sentenced to death received a royal pardon.

parental ADJ involving or provided by parents

• ADJ+n permission consent, permission Our group leaders provide extra activities for students who do not have parental consent to go off campus.
▸ responsibility or rights duties, responsibility, rights Desperate for money and unable to face his parental responsibilities, Bruno gives his son away.
▸ choice choice, preference Parental preference cannot always be met.
▸ involvement involvement, participation We want to encourage greater parental involvement in school matters.
▸ help guidance, support A key factor for success at school is parental support.
▸ feelings affection, anxiety, approval, disapproval, expectations, wishes Parental anxiety about daughters studying abroad was identified as an influence in dissuading some girls from the study of modern European languages.

parliament N an elected group of people who make the laws of a country

• adj+N devolved, hung This would have produced a hung parliament, with Labour as the largest party.

• v+N enter parliament enter, go into Mussolini entered parliament in 1921.
▸ try to be elected to a parliament run for, stand for What made you decide to stand for parliament?
▸ elect someone to parliament elect sb to She later went to prison, but was ultimately elected to the Indian parliament.
▸ elect a parliament elect Voters went to the polls in September 2005 to elect a new parliament.
▸ present something to parliament lay sth before, present sth to, put sth before The legislation was finally laid before parliament in 2002.
▸ ask parliament for something lobby, petition Their MP was with them when they came to London to petition parliament.
▸ formally end parliament dissolve, suspend A general election is called when the queen dissolves parliament on the advice of the Prime Minister.

• v+through+N go through parliament go, pass, progress A new broadcasting Bill is currently going through parliament.
▸ make something go through parliament force, push, rush The bill was rushed through parliament with very little debate.

parody N
1 a humorous copy of a literary or musical work

• adj+N funny amusing, comic, funny, hilarious, witty His tale takes the form of an amusing parody.
▸ affectionate affectionate, gentle The two comedians play a host of characters from gangland bosses to useless detectives in an affectionate parody of the gangster movie.

• v+into+N descend, slip He gives a terrific performance as a complex and untrustworthy politician, without descending into parody.

2 something done so badly that it seems like a parody

• adj+N unpleasant cruel, grim, grotesque He described the book as 'a grotesque parody of scientific inquiry devoid of intellectual credibility or literary merit'.
▸ only mere In his mind, this act created a mere parody of freedom.

parole N permission to leave prison before the official time

• v+N get parole get How are these prisoners expected to get parole when they are required to acknowledge an offence that they have in fact not committed?
▸ try to get parole apply for Brady accepted his fate and has never applied for parole.
▸ grant someone parole grant sb, release sb on The century's most notorious child killer has been granted parole after twenty-five years.
▸ think about granting someone parole consider sb for The offender will qualify to be considered for parole at the half-way point of the sentence.
▸ refuse someone parole deny, refuse The vast majority of offenders had been refused parole.
▸ break your parole breach, break, violate Later released, she was re-arrested for violating parole.

part N
1 an individual piece, section, or aspect of something

• adj+N important core, crucial, essential, important, integral, key, main, major, vital A web operation should always be an integral part of any business.
▸ large big, great, large, significant, substantial A large part of my thesis concerns Shakespeare's tragedies.
▸ small minor, small, tiny Only a small part of the old city still stands.
▸ late or last final, latter, second The latter part of the 19th century was one of relative economic decline.
▸ early or first early, first The parish register begins in 1570, but the early part is very imperfect.
▸ difficult difficult, hard, tricky Not being able to see what they were doing was the hardest part.
▸ separate different, distinct, individual, separate The module is split into two distinct parts.
▸ making a whole component, constituent The whole team is greater than its constituent parts.

• v+N be a part of something be, become, constitute, form, remain, represent Motor racing will remain a big part of his life.
▸ have a number of parts be composed of, be comprised of, be made of, consist of, fall into, have The study falls into two principal parts.

• v+into+N break, divide, separate, split, subdivide The paper is divided into four parts.

2 the way in which someone or something is involved in an activity or event [always singular]

- adj+N important or most important big, important, large, leading, major, significant He took a leading part in the campaign for greater staff involvement. ◉ Counselling can play a significant part in helping families face loss.
  - small minor, small We can play a small part in helping the charity raise the money it needs.
  - active active Members are encouraged to take an active part in the running of the club.
- v+N have, play, take All the staff had an important part in the achievement of our target.

participant N

someone who takes part in something

- adj+N enthusiastic or willing active, eager, enthusiastic, keen, willing Church leaders were not merely pawns in a political game; they were active participants.
  - unwilling reluctant, unwilling A small team of committed staff would be preferable to a larger team, some of whom are reluctant participants.
  - potential potential, prospective, would-be It is important that prospective participants provide us with the relevant information.
  - taking part at the same time fellow I found that most of my fellow participants were about 20 years older than me.
- v+N get participants attract, recruit, select Test participants were recruited at random.
  - motivate participants encourage, engage, motivate By breaking down inhibitions and focusing energy, Anjali inspires and motivates workshop participants.
  - ask participants to do something ask, invite The participants were invited to suggest topics for discussion.
  - allow participants to do something allow, empower, enable, equip, help The scheme enables participants to spend a day a week at college.

participate V

to take part in something

- adv+V enthusiastically or fully actively, enthusiastically, freely, fully Our aim has been to encourage every member to participate actively in our community.
  - willingly voluntarily, willingly They participated willingly in the class discussions.
  - in a useful way constructively, meaningfully Occupational therapy helps patients participate meaningfully in activities of daily life.
  - successfully effectively, successfully Our organization works to promote equality of opportunity for women and enable them to participate effectively at all levels.
  - directly directly She assisted with the preparation of the report but did not participate directly in the writing of it.

participation N

the process of taking part in something

- adj+N enthusiastic active, enthusiastic Active participation in political life is the mark of a good citizen.
  - useful or effective effective, meaningful How do we ensure full and meaningful participation in education?
  - voluntary voluntary Will you tell participants that their participation is voluntary?
  - by a lot of people full, mass, maximum, wide Mass participation in the Internet in this country has become a reality.
  - more increased, more, widening Increased participation in decision making is a desirable goal.
  - by a particular group audience, employee, parental, public, pupil, youth The first set is traditional Bavarian music, with a lot of audience participation.
- v+N encourage participation encourage, facilitate, foster, promote Were there attempts to encourage participation from those parents who would most benefit?
  - increase participation boost, broaden, enhance, increase, maximize, stimulate, strengthen, widen How do we maximize participation in recycling schemes?
  - discourage participation discourage, inhibit Peer attitudes towards students from marginalised groups can be critical in either encouraging or inhibiting active participation.
  - enable participation enable, ensure, secure We hope to secure the participation of a set of world-class experts to comment on the papers presented.

particular ADJ

especially great

- ADJ+n attention attention, emphasis, focus, reference Chris will be teaching a karate course, with a particular focus on realistic fighting methods. ◉ She gave a paper on trends in agriculture, with particular reference to sustainable production methods.
  - interest or importance concern, importance, interest, relevance, significance The talk on newspaper design was of particular interest.

parting ADJ

done or said when someone is leaving

- ADJ+n comment, gesture, gift, message, shot, thought, words As a parting shot, the secretary hoped that more of the committee would attend the next meeting.

partnership N a relationship between people in business or in another activity, or an organization formed through this relationship

- adj+N successful or useful beneficial, effective, fruitful, productive, successful The company has a long and fruitful partnership with a leading German security software firm.
  - close or real close, genuine, solid, strong, true Our approach to research is based upon a spirit of close partnership with our clients.
  - long or long-lasting lasting, long, long-standing, long-term, sustainable From Shanghai, the airline offers convenient connections to several cities within China through its long-standing partnership with China Eastern Airlines.

- ▸ equal equal, joint We should be working together in an equal partnership, not pushing apart.
- ▸ in business business, commercial, corporate, professional They formed a corporate partnership with the company several years ago.
- ▸ for working together collaborative, working She believed that a collaborative partnership would benefit both institutions.
- ▸ for doing something creative creative Braque is the only artist ever to sustain a creative partnership with Picasso.

- • v+N form a partnership build, cement, create, develop, embark on, establish, forge, form, launch This new type of school will run on independent lines, but forging strong partnerships throughout its community.
- ▸ break up a partnership break up, dissolve, withdraw from One partner can rescind the contract, effectively dissolving the partnership.
- ▸ encourage a partnership encourage, facilitate, foster, promote The scheme is designed to foster partnerships between university academics and industry.

- • v+in+N act, deliver sth, develop sth, operate, organize sth, run sth, work The programme is run in partnership with a neighbouring college. ◉ We work in partnership with a wide range of organizations across the country.

- • v+into+N enter, go William went into partnership with his father at the age of 22.

party N

1 a social event at which people celebrate something or have fun

- • v+N hold a party arrange, give, have, hold, host, organize, organize, stage, throw It will be the biggest party ever thrown.
- ▸ invite someone to a party invite sb to I've been invited to John's retirement party.
- ▸ go to a party attend, come to, go to Nearly a thousand guests attended house parties there.
- ▸ go to a party uninvited crash INFORMAL, gatecrash The uninvited guests jump over a wall to gatecrash the party.

- • N+n atmosphere, mood The music gives the place a real party atmosphere.

2 a political group that people can vote for in elections

- • adj+N political political They did not organise as a political party until 1885.
- ▸ main main, mainstream, major All the major political parties support a cut in climate-change gases.

- • n+N in government governing, ruling This was a way of keeping the peasants dependent on the state and harvesting their votes for the ruling party.
- ▸ in opposition opposition The Government and opposition parties say they are serious about addressing the health threat posed by obesity in young people.
- ▸ with few or fewer votes minority The Liberal Party has been a minority party for most of this century.

- • v+N divide, elect, expel sb from, form, join, lead, leave, represent, resign from, unite, vote for You can further help our campaign by making a donation or joining the party.

- • N+n politics politics What we really need is an end to party politics.
- ▸ people activist, chairman, faithful, leader, leadership, member, membership, official His comments angered the party faithful.
- ▸ support affiliation, loyalty What were her political party affiliations?

pass V

1 to be successful in a test or examination

- • adv+V successfully or easily easily, successfully, with ease All children who successfully passed the test received a certificate.

If someone passes a test very easily, you can say that they pass with flying colours: We all passed the assessment with flying colours.

- ▸ in the end eventually, finally She took her driving test three times before eventually passing.

- • V+n assessment, audition, exam, examination, inspection, test Before a shop is accepted into the scheme, it must pass a rigorous independent inspection.

- • V+with+n distinction, merit In total, 8 students passed with distinction.

2 to make a law, proposal etc official

- • adv+V overwhelmingly, unanimously A resolution totally opposing war was overwhelmingly passed.

- • V+n act, amendment, bill, law, legislation, motion, ordinance, resolution There were no speeches against, so the motion was passed.

passion N

1 a powerful emotion

- • adj+N real genuine, heartfelt, true He plays and sings the blues with genuine passion.
- ▸ great deep, fierce, great, intense, raw, strong, unbridled, violent Fierce passions were aroused by the debate.
- ▸ negative or violent destructive, violent She believes that humans are driven by self-interest, greed and other destructive passions.

- • v+N cause passion arouse, excite, fuel, ignite, inflame, rouse, stir The presence of foreign troops arouses strong passions in the region.
- ▸ show someone's passion convey She does a wonderful job of conveying the passion and dedication of these volunteers.

2 a strong enthusiasm or interest, or something that produces this interest

- • adj+N strong all-consuming, burning, consuming, real, ruling Photography gradually developed for him from a casual interest to a consuming passion.
- ▸ lasting a long time abiding, enduring, lifelong His thesis was on American cars, one of his lifelong passions.

- • v+N develop, discover, harbour, have, indulge, pursue, share Andrea is based in San Jose and indulges her passion for the outdoors by regular treks in the mountains.

passionate ADJ
showing or expressing strong beliefs, interest or emotions

- adv+ADJ very absolutely, deeply, extremely, incredibly, intensely, really INFORMAL, very He gave an intensely passionate vocal performance.
- ▸ genuinely genuinely, truly The staff were very helpful, the chef genuinely passionate about the food.
- ADJ+n people advocate, believer, campaigner, fan, supporter The Chief Constable is a passionate advocate of speed cameras.
- ▸ feeling or belief belief, commitment, desire, devotion, interest, longing, love, opposition, support I have been inspired by your passionate devotion to your children.
- and/or committed, dedicated, energetic, enthusiastic, knowledgeable, motivated I know how committed and passionate our nursing team is.

passport N an official document used when travelling to foreign countries

- adj+N full or valid full, valid A full passport is required for entry, but there is no need for a visa. ◉ You cannot travel abroad without a valid passport.
- ▸ not valid expired, invalid How do I renew an expired passport?
- ▸ false counterfeit, fake, false, forged He was arrested trying to leave Heathrow airport on a fake passport.
- ▸ replacing another passport replacement Any replacement passport that is issued will have the same expiry date as your existing passport.
- ▸ types of passport biometric, machine-readable For entry to the US, you must have a machine-readable passport.
- v+N have a passport be in possession of, carry, have, hold, travel on They were accepted into the country reluctantly, even though they carried Brtiish passports. ◉ She generally travels on her Irish passport rather than her British one.
- ▸ get a passport apply for, get, renew You will need to obtain a renewal form in order to renew your passport.
- ▸ give someone a passport issue (sb with) Please state the place where your passport was issued.
- ▸ check or mark a passport check, endorse, stamp Bring your offer of employment, plus a suitably endorsed passport.
- ▸ take someone's passport away confiscate Their passports were confiscated and they were unable to leave the airport.
- ▸ give up your passport surrender Some fans have been ordered to surrender their passports in a bid to stop hooligan problems at the World Cup.
- N+v be valid, expire As a rule, passports expire after ten years.
- N+n applicant, application, check, fraud, holder, renewal, stamp US passport holders currently require a Tourist Visa.

password N
the series of numbers or letters that you need in order to get into a computer system

- adj+N incorrect/correct correct, incorrect, invalid, valid Each incorrect password entered is logged, showing the time, and the password supplied.
- ▸ secure/not secure secure, strong, weak These passwords are usually very secure, but can be very hard to remember.
- ▸ secret confidential, secret You must keep these passwords secret as if anyone else knows them they will be able to rewrite your page.
- ▸ temporary temporary You must change your temporary password when logging in for the first time.
- v+N enter a password enter, re-enter, type If the correct password is typed, then the screen is unlocked.
- ▸ change a password change, reset How do I reset my password?
- ▸ protect a password encrypt, protect eBay's security policy states that they always encrypt your password.
- ▸ tell someone a password disclose, divulge, reveal We never ask you to divulge your password via email.
- ▸ confirm a password confirm, verify The next window asks you to verify your password.
- ▸ give a password allocate, assign, generate, issue, set, specify, supply A secure password is automatically generated for you.
- ▸ get a password recover, retrieve To retrieve your password, follow the steps outlined here.
- ▸ find out someone's password crack They were able to crack user passwords and access personal accounts.

past N
the things someone has done or that a place has experienced

- adj+N with problems tragic, traumatic, troubled, turbulent, violent She had a troubled past; her father had left the family home when Sarah was only ten.
- ▸ when bad things happened dark, murky, shady, sordid They immediately fall in love and Alma confesses her slightly murky past to him.
- ▸ when good or interesting things happened colourful, fascinating, glorious, illustrious, rich To stay at the Savoy Hotel is to experience London's illustrious past.
- ▸ when both good and bad things happened chequered The island has had a chequered past, as have many regions in this part of the world.
- ▸ with a particular government or economy colonial, imperial, industrial, maritime There are still signs of Hong Kong's colonial past.

pastime N
something you do regularly for fun

- adj+N enjoyable enjoyable, pleasant, pleasurable, popular, relaxing, rewarding Seen as a pleasurable pastime, gardening can be fraught with danger.
- ▸ harmless harmless, innocent Gambling can be a harmless pastime for the majority but a terrible addiction for a few.

▸ done in your spare time leisure, recreational A huge selection of recreational pastimes are offered in and around the resort.

• v+N engage in, enjoy, indulge in, pursue Most people indulged in that favourite holiday pastime – lying on a sunbed basking in the Mediterranean sun.

patch N
an area different from what surrounds it

• adj+N wet/dry damp, dry, icy, wet Building surveyors will be able to tell you whether the damp patch is due to a roof leak.
▸ hair bald, bare He took the hat off that was covering his bald patch.
▸ colours pale, white, brown etc It is a common condition that causes pale, white patches to develop on the skin.

• N+of colour, ice, mud, rust, skin, sky, snow By the time I got there, blue patches of sky were appearing and the mist cleared.

patch up PHR VB become friends again after a disagreement

• V+n differences, relations, relationship, things It's time the leaders got together in an attempt to patch up their differences. ◉ He needs to patch things up with his father.

Usage When used with things, the word things always comes between patch and up: He realises he may have left it too late to patch things up with his father.

patchy ADJ
1 happening or existing only in some places

• adv+ADJ rather rather, somewhat Below this lodge, the forest becomes somewhat patchy, punctuated by areas of secondary growth and clearings.
▸ very extremely, very Last year the rains in Ghana were very late, and extremely patchy when they did arrive.

• ADJ+n weather cloud, drizzle, fog, mist, rain, snow The weather was bright and sunny with some patchy clouds.
▸ way something is shared or spread around coverage, distribution, provision These birds live all around Britain, but their distribution is patchy.

2 not complete, or only good in parts

• adv+ADJ rather a bit, rather, somewhat The information in this section is somewhat patchy: we have tried to make sure that it is accurate but we may have made mistakes.
▸ very decidedly, extremely, very Her education has been extremely patchy and consists mainly of fluency in foreign languages.

• ADJ+n affair, album, evidence, performance, picture, quality, record, results The production was a patchy affair, reliant on the comic talents of a few individual actors.

path N
a way for walking from one place to another

• adj+N ways of describing a path long, long-distance, narrow, short, steep, well-trodden, well-worn, winding At the gate, we turned right along a narrow path.
▸ main main Retrace your steps to the main ridge path and head southeast.
▸ surface grassy, muddy, paved, rocky, rough, stony The only way up to it is by a steep and muddy path.
▸ beside the sea coastal The Pembrokeshire coastal path runs right past the house.

• n+N surface concrete, grass, gravel, tarmac The lake is available for fishing and is bordered by a tarmac path for easy access.
▸ where the path is cliff, coast, forest, mountain, riverside, woodland The route follows a series of cliff paths linking coastal towns and villages.

• N+v climb, continue, descend, follow sth, fork, go, lead to sth, leave sth, pass, run, turn, wind The path follows the contours of the field edge going around a house and garden. ◉ The path runs due northeast for another kilometer or so.

patience N
doing something or waiting for a long time without losing interest or becoming angry

• adj+N seeming to have no limit endless, inexhaustible, infinite, limitless, unfailing, unlimited He was a fantastic teacher with infinite patience.
▸ a lot/not much considerable, great, little, much, not much You showed great patience when we were being particularly slow on the uptake.

• v+N have or show patience display, have, show United showed patience in waiting for their chance.
▸ lose patience lose, run out of Web users are often impatient and, if a page takes a long time to appear, they will lose patience and look elsewhere.
▸ make someone lose or nearly lose patience exhaust, test He had been more than usually annoying and my patience was exhausted.

You can say that someone tries your patience when they are very annoying and you are beginning to get angry with them.

▸ need patience need, require, take This trick might require some patience, but is well worth it.
▸ reward patience reward It is a game that rewards patience and thought, rather than speed and reflexes.
▸ be patient be, exercise, practise Learning to drive can be frustrating and requires you to exercise considerable patience.

• N+v run out, wear out Our patience is running out and we need you to make a decision.

You can say that someone's patience is wearing thin when they are no longer willing to do or accept something: My wife has been hugely patient, but her patience is wearing thin.

patriotic ADJ
feeling love and duty towards your country

• adv+ADJ fiercely, very The Irish, Scots and Welsh can also be fiercely patriotic.

• ADJ+n feelings feeling, fervour, pride, sentiments, spirit, zeal People took to the streets in an outpouring of patriotic fervour.

▸ duty duty He believes it is a citizen's patriotic duty to question the government.

pattern N
a series of actions showing how things normally happen

• adj+N same/different different, same, similar A similar pattern of violence was seen in other parts of the region.
▸ usual or fixed basic, common, familiar, habitual, normal, predictable, set, traditional, typical, usual There is no set pattern for feeding a normal healthy baby in the first 24 hours.
▸ regular consistent, regular The results did not seem to settle down into any regular pattern.
▸ that changes changing, flexible, shifting These figures show changing patterns in drink consumption and production throughout the world.
▸ general general, overall While some indicators are clearly getting better, there is no general pattern of improvement.
▸ clear clear There was no clear pattern as to which characteristics were likely to be associated with problems.
▸ of behaviour behavioural The study will specifically examine the behavioural patterns of scent communication in foxes.

• n+N behaviour, consumption, shift, sleep, travel, usage, weather, working Appetite and sleep patterns may be disrupted.

• v+N follow or agree with a pattern conform to, fall into, fit, fit into, follow, repeat This collection of stories follows the pattern of his best work: believable story lines with low-key descriptions.
▸ establish a pattern establish, set Momentum is key to establishing the pattern of the campaign in its early stages.
▸ show a pattern exhibit, reveal, show These results show a similar pattern to those given in table 3.
▸ recognize a pattern find, identify, recognize, see Studying crime reports and identifying patterns helps us catch culprits.
▸ change a pattern alter, change, disrupt, shift One of the consequences of climate change may be to alter the pattern of migration for birds and fish.

• N+v change, emerge Over and over again, the same pattern emerges.

• N+of behaviour, consumption, employment, growth, interaction, usage, use By monitoring monthly usage, a pattern of consumption can be identified.

pause N
when someone stops doing something before starting again

• adj+N for a short time brief, momentary, short, slight There was a brief pause while he did some mental arithmetic.
▸ for a long time lengthy, long, prolonged After a long pause, Michael said 'Yes, I'll come.'
▸ having a particular effect or meaning awkward, dramatic, pregnant, uncomfortable 'I need to straighten some things out,' she said, after an awkward pause.
▸ how often frequent, occasional Keep sentences short, with frequent pauses.

pay N money you receive for doing your job

• adj+N amount you receive average, gross, net, take-home, total Sales commissions still account for a significant proportion of take-home pay.
▸ full/half full, half In times of ill-health, a teacher can receive full pay for six months.
▸ without any extra payments basic We have been able to secure a 2.2 per cent increase in basic pay.
▸ high/low good, high, low, poor Although the job security was good, the pay was poor.
▸ equal equal You have the right to equal pay with members of the opposite sex doing the same or a comparable job to you.
▸ controlled by law contractual, statutory During pregnancy you are eligible for statutory maternity pay.

Sick pay is money you are entitled to when you are ill and off work: A company refused to pay a worker sick pay because they thought he was not genuinely ill.

• n+N holiday, maternity, paternity, redundancy Since 1993, all temporary workers are entitled to holiday pay.

• v+N receive pay earn, get, receive If you are an extra in a student movie, don't expect to get any pay.
▸ give sb pay give sb, pay (sb) Redundancy pay is paid gross without deduction of tax and national insurance.
▸ reduce pay cut, reduce Margaret's pay was cut and holidays reduced when a new company took over the running of the business.
▸ increase pay improve, increase Academics from two unions have voted to strike unless their pay is increased.

payment N
money that you pay or receive, or the process of paying money

• adj+N at regular times annual, monthly, quarterly, regular, weekly, yearly Her monthly mortgage payment is £706.
▸ single lump-sum, one-off, single This is a one-off payment only and not an annual requirement.
▸ needing to be paid now due Full payment is due prior to delivery of the goods.
▸ paying on time or late immediate, late, overdue, prompt There are fines for late payment.
▸ paying the full amount or part of it full, part, partial For bookings cancelled with less than 48 hours' notice, full payment will be required.
▸ by electronic means electronic, online We accept online payment in a secure environment by debit and credit card.

• n+N compensations, debt, dividend, mortgage, redundancy, royalty The International Monetary Fund urged Aregntina to set aside more cash for debt payments.

• v+N make a payment make, send If you experience a problem making your online payment, you can email or telephone us for advice.

- ▸ continue to make regular payments keep up, meet Use our budget calculator to work out whether you'll have enough to meet your monthly payments.
- ▸ fail to make a regular payment miss Any missed payments are chased on the lender's behalf by a debt collections agency.
- ▸ accept or receive a payment accept, receive, take We accept payment using the following credit cards.
- ▸ say a payment can be made approve, authorize When the budget holder is satisfied with the invoice, they should authorize payment and pass it to finance for processing.
- ▸ stop a payment being made cancel, defer, delay, stop, withhold The insurance company withheld payment.
- ▸ deal with a payment process Payments are usually processed within two working days.
- ▸ ask for a payment demand, request He has received four letters demanding payment.

pay off PHR VB

pay money that was borrowed to buy something

- V+n amount, balance, credit card, debt, loan, money, mortgage There are no charges if you want to pay the loan off early.

peace N

a situation in which there is no war

- adj+N that lasts durable, enduring, lasting, permanent, perpetual After centuries of conflict and war, lasting peace can now finally be achieved.
- ▸ that might not last long fragile, uneasy The agreement brought a fragile peace to the region.
- ▸ relative relative With relative peace in Scotland during the 18th century, the population of the town doubled.
- ▸ world global, international, world Children are our best hope for world peace.
- v+N bring peace bring, build, make, secure The international community has played a major role in bringing peace and stability back to the countries of the region.
- ▸ keep peace keep, maintain, preserve, safeguard These operations support diplomatic efforts to maintain peace in an area of potential conflict.
- ▸ make peace exist again re-establish, restore In the meantime the revolt collapsed, thus briefly restoring peace to the country.
- ▸ achieve peace achieve Negotiation can achieve peace on honourable terms.
- ▸ encourage peace negotiate, promote The agreement would serve the interests of both sides and promote regional peace and security.
- ▸ harm the chances of peace endanger, threaten Terrorism gravely threatens international peace.
- N+n agreement accord, agreement, deal, settlement, treaty Wars go on and on beyond the signing of international agreements and peace treaties.
- ▸ discussions negotiations, process, talks The peace talks have stalled again.

peaceful ADJ

1 not involving war or violence

- adv+ADJ completely entirely, exclusively We are committed to exclusively peaceful means of resolving political issues.
- ▸ mainly largely, relatively Despite growing unrest, the presidential elections were relatively peaceful and fair.
- ADJ+n coexistence, demonstration, means, protest, resolution, settlement, solution We will support and defend the right to peaceful protest.

2 calm and quiet

- adv+ADJ delightfully, quite, so, truly, very, wonderfully It is completely surrounded by trees, and is a wonderfully peaceful place.
- ADJ+n atmosphere, location, place, setting, spot, surroundings Although within easy reach of major routes, the farm is in a delightfully peaceful spot, overlooking rolling countryside.
- and/or beautiful, calm, idyllic, picturesque, quiet, relaxing, secluded, tranquil, unspoilt Throughout my visit a peaceful and relaxing atmosphere prevailed.

peak ADJ

highest, or involving the largest number of people

- ADJ+n time hours, months, period, season, time There will be a shortage of parking spaces at peak periods.
- ▸ amount wanted or done demand, output, performance Last year the company recorded its highest ever peak demand for water.
- ▸ level level, rate No need to compromise web browsing speed – we deliver quick responses even at peak traffic levels.

peer V

look carefully at something that is difficult to see

- adv+V closely or with interest closely, curiously, intently He sat down opposite me, peering intently into my eyes.
- ▸ in a worried or careful way anxiously, cautiously, nervously I waited for him at a coffee shop, nervously peering up over the top of my book.
- ▸ direction about, ahead, back, down, inside, out, up He opened the box slightly and peered inside before shutting it quietly.

penalty N

a punishment for breaking a rule or law

- adj+N severe draconian, harsh, heavy, hefty, severe, stiff, tough There are severe penalties for making a false declaration.
- ▸ most severe possible maximum The maximum penalty is up to two years' imprisonment.
- ▸ fixed fixed Failure to submit the form will incur an automatic fixed penalty.
- ▸ legal civil, criminal The company or its directors may face criminal penalties.
- ▸ financial financial In one country, energy regulators have imposed financial penalties when investment commitments were not fulfilled.
- n+N cost, tax, time Courts have the power to impose cost penalties on parties who unreasonably refuse to mediate.

- v+N give someone a penalty exact, give, impose, introduce If the tax office finds that there are errors in your tax return, they are likely to impose penalties.
- ▸ receive a penalty face, incur, receive, suffer If you fail to comply with these responsibilities, you are likely to incur financial penalties.
- ▸ lead to a penalty carry, prescribe Non-compliance with the safety regulations is a criminal offence and carries monetary penalties or imprisonment.
- ▸ avoid a penalty avoid Filing online could help you to avoid late-payment penalties.
- ▸ make someone pay money charge, levy Any student who registers late will be charged a late registration penalty.
- ▸ make a penalty more severe increase Despite moves to increase penalties for gun crime, the illegal possession of firearms is becoming a significant threat.

pension N

money received regularly after you stop working

- adj+N types of pension basic, occupational, personal, private Many higher-paid workers can afford to retire earlier on private pensions.
- ▸ paying well decent, generous The money is available to ensure that all people receive a decent pension when they come to retire.
- ▸ whole amount full She has recommended increasing the age at which retired people become entitled to a full state pension up from 65 to 67.
- ▸ each year annual, yearly Retirement benefits consist of an annual pension paid for life and a tax-free lump sum.
- n+N company, retirement, state He received a state retirement pension from October 1996 onwards.
- v+N receive a pension collect, draw, get, receive He may be able to start drawing his pension early.
- ▸ have the right to receive a pension be entitled to, qualify for I do not qualify for a state pension.
- ▸ officially ask for a pension claim Ministers have been told that one in five men will not live long enough to claim a state pension if the retirement age is raised to 70.
- ▸ no longer receive a pension lose We need to find a just solution for those who have lost their pensions, many of whom are suffering real hardship.
- ▸ pay a pension grant, pay Any pensions paid to partners or dependants will be subject to income tax in the normal way.
- ▸ increase a pension increase, raise The government has committed to raise pensions in line with prices, not earnings.
- ▸ make payments to pay for your pension contribute to, fund A member of an occupational pension scheme cannot contribute to a personal pension.
- N+n age, arrangement, benefit, contribution, fund, plan, provision, scheme The income generated within a pension scheme is tax-free.

perceive V

understand something in a particular way

- adv+V in general commonly, generally, widely The main political parties are widely perceived to be too similar.

Usage Perceive is usually in the passive in these combinations.

- ▸ clearly clearly He received what he clearly perceived to be threatening phone calls.
- ▸ only slightly dimly The extent to which their own economy is propped up by public money is only dimly perceived, if at all.
- ▸ in different ways differently The circumstances surrounding the breakdown may be perceived differently by the patient and the doctor.
- V+as problem, threat Parking is generally not perceived as a problem in the town.

perceived thought to be real

- V+n problem or danger bias, danger, failure, inadequacy, injustice, lack, risk, shortcomings, threat, unfairness, weakness There are constant complaints about a perceived lack of proper medical care. ◉ He argues that the perceived threat of communism created a new interest in human rights in Western democracies.
- ▸ need necessity, need There was also a perceived need for Norfolk to be more aggressive in promoting its attractions.
- ▸ benefit benefit, usefulness This chapter involves a detailed analysis of the perceived benefits of using computer-generated displays in the courtroom.
- ▸ wisdom wisdom For too long the perceived wisdom has been that UK farmers must compete at world prices.

percentage N

part of a total divided by 100

- adj+N high great, high, large, significant, sizeable Young people make up a large percentage of new drivers.
- ▸ low low, small, tiny Our income from circulation is just a small percentage of the newspaper's income.
- ▸ total overall The report reveals that the overall percentage of female engineers has actually declined.
- ▸ average average The average percentage of pupils having to share books is just over 44 per cent.
- v+N calculate a percentage calculate Now calculate the percentage of time spent on each subject.
- ▸ put an amount in the form of a percentage calculate sth as, express sth as Marks are expressed as a percentage.
- ▸ be a particular percentage represent The products available on-line represent only a small percentage of those in our shop.
- ▸ increase/reduce a percentage increase, reduce A bus interchange is being built at the airport in order to increase the percentage of passengers using public transport.

perceptible ADJ able to be noticed

- adv+ADJ almost not barely, hardly, scarcely For a time progress was slow, in fact barely perceptible.
- ▸ clearly clearly This research suggests that technology needs to have a clearly perceptible benefit before it will be adopted.

- ADJ+n change, difference, effect Even a fairly big jump in disk performance might not make a perceptible difference to the overall speed of your system.

perception N
a way of understanding or thinking about something

- adj+N shared by many people common, general, popular, public, widespread There continues to be a widespread perception that large-scale international fraud is victimless.
- ▸ negative/positive negative, positive The new campaign launched today aims to reverse negative perceptions of the region.
- ▸ not true distorted, false, misguided, mistaken Such stories tend to instil a false perception that offending by young people is rising.
- v+N change or influence a perception affect, alter, change, influence, shape I think becoming parents has also changed our perception of TV.
- ▸ change a perception so that it is not true colour, distort Companies who are unresponsive or take too long distort customer perceptions in a way which impacts on the whole profession.
- ▸ create a perception create Attacks of this sort create a perception of vulnerability and loss of control.
- ▸ make a perception stronger heighten, reinforce Some of the proposals may simply reinforce negative perceptions of young people.
- ▸ improve a perception enhance, improve If we work together to drive up performance across the sector, we can improve public perception of our service.
- ▸ question or examine a perception challenge, counter, examine, explore, investigate The film challenges perceptions of disability.
- N+of beauty, reality, risk, safety, self The exhibition examines perceptions of beauty in the built environment.

perceptive ADJ
noticing or understanding things quickly

- adv+ADJ extremely, highly, unusually, very Her act is filled with intelligent and highly perceptive observations.
- ADJ+n something said or written analysis, article, comment, insight, observation This essay shows good organization, and offers perceptive comments on the text.
- ▸ person critic, reader He may be the most perceptive critic writing about jazz today.

perfect ADJ completely good, correct, or accurate

- adv+ADJ completely absolutely, just, quite, simply, utterly The weather was absolutely perfect, without a cloud in sight.
- ▸ almost almost, near, nearly, practically, virtually, well-nigh Three swans came around the point, their wings beating in almost perfect unison.
- ▸ appearing to be perfect seemingly It is a seemingly perfect society, but just crack the surface and you find chaos and corruption lying underneath.
- ▸ apart from that otherwise It is the only flaw in an otherwise perfect tale.
- ▸ in a particular respect aesthetically, morally, technically, theoretically The singing is without doubt technically perfect.
- v+ADJ be, become, look, make (sth), seem, sound The proposition looks perfect on paper.

perfect V make something completely free from faults

- V+n art, method, skill, technique Having undertaken no formal musical training, he spent the next few years practising and perfecting his technique.

perfection N a state of being perfect

- adj+N complete absolute, sheer Her standard of absolute perfection never changes.
- ▸ almost complete near His last album was a work of near perfection.

You can also say that a person or thing is close to perfection: They came as close to perfection as any team had ever done.

- ▸ types of perfection moral, physical, spiritual, technical She became addicted to a quest for physical perfection in place of her self-esteem.
- v+N achieve perfection achieve, attain, reach It's unrealistic to expect that we will ever achieve perfection.
- ▸ want or try to achieve perfection demand, expect, seek, strive for Having grown up as an internationally competitive gymnast, Allie strives for perfection in all that she does.

perform V
1 complete a complicated action or activity

- V+n something you have to do duty, obligation, service, task Employees may be required to perform tasks beyond their strict job description.
- ▸ job a person or thing has function, role The second chamber needs the legitimacy to perform its functions – revision, scrutiny, and constitutional oversight – effectively.
- ▸ operation or activity action, activity, exercise, manoeuvre, operation, procedure, surgery Sometimes surgeons find cancer when they are performing a routine gall bladder operation.
- ▸ experiment or test check, experiment, test The rovers will land at separate sites and perform detailed geological experiments on the surface of Mars.
- ▸ ceremony ceremony, ritual Councillor Denny performed the opening ceremony by unveiling a suitably inscribed plaque.
- ▸ calculation or examination analysis, calculation, examination, measurement, search Perform a post-code search to find your nearest branch.

2 do something with a particular amount of success

- adv+V well admirably, brilliantly, effectively, efficiently, excellently, flawlessly, strongly, superbly, well The software is reliable and always performs well.
- ▸ well enough adequately, consistently, satisfactorily Our other regional offices continue to perform satisfactorily.

▸ not well badly, poorly My digital camera performs badly in very bright sunshine, rendering shadows pitch black.

performance N

1 performing a play, dance, or other entertainment

• adj+N given before an audience live, public She began recording some of her live performances.
▸ performing alone solo In this solo performance, Faith Brook takes on the most challenging role of her career.
▸ very good brilliant, excellent, fine, good, great, impressive, memorable, outstanding, stunning Ian McKellan's performance is outstanding and fully deserved the standing ovation at the end.
▸ types of performance musical, theatrical, vocal Emma Williams delivers a dazzling vocal performance.

• n+N time of the day evening, matinee Prices are often reduced for matinee performances.
▸ types of performance concert, dance, music, stage, theatre The hall is used for theatre performances and musical productions.

• v+N give a performance deliver, give Tom Hanks gives the funniest performance of his career.
▸ organize a performance produce, put on, stage The theatre regularly puts on performances of Shakespeare and well known musicals.
▸ watch a performance attend, go to, see, watch Later she took ballet classes, although she had never seen a live performance.
▸ be part of a performance feature The show will feature a performance from the winner of the 2009 competition.

2 how well or effectively someone or something does something

• adj+N very good excellent, fine, good, great, impressive, outstanding, strong, superb Both sides produced excellent team performances in a match that was 'an advert for football'.
▸ very fast or powerful high This chip has been proved through testing to achieve high performance and stability.
▸ not good bad, disappointing, poor How would you account for the party's poor performance in the election?
▸ as a whole overall Progress to the MSc depends on overall performance in assignments and examinations.
▸ types of performance academic, economic, environmental, financial These measures are intended to improve the economic performance of the region.

• n+N business, sales, school Our sales teams receive quarterly bonuses based on sales performance.

• v+N improve performance boost, enhance, improve, increase Sports science support can help to improve athletic performance.
▸ affect performance affect Too much stress can affect your performance at work.
▸ make performance as good as possible maximize, optimize We provide expert support to extend the life of your systems and optimize their performance.
▸ measure or check performance assess, evaluate, measure, monitor We monitor our performance frequently to ensure the continuous improvement of our services.
▸ produce a performance achieve, deliver, give, produce, put in Supermarkets delivered a strong trading performance during the first half of the year.

perfume N

the pleasant smell of something

• adj+N delicate, exotic, heady, rich, sweet There was the heady perfume of honeysuckle in the air.

peril N

danger

• adj+N great deadly, dire, extreme, grave, great, mortal, serious Your father is in great peril.
▸ happening soon imminent Rescue parties worked in imminent peril from a dangerous roof to recover the bodies from the debris.
▸ your own own Anyone who ignores these warnings does so at their own peril.

• v+N be in, encounter, face The penguins face many perils as they seek their traditional breeding grounds.

permission N

the right to do something given by someone

• adj+N stated clearly explicit, express, specific We will not approach a current employer for a reference without the express permission of the candidate.
▸ written or formal formal, official, written It is illegal to copy any of the content on this site without written permission from the editor.
▸ already obtained prior Any motor vehicle left on a University car park overnight without the prior permission of the Security Officer will be removed.
▸ special special Former students have special permission to use a number of the University's facilities.
▸ complete full We will only reveal personal information to anyone else with your full permission.
▸ necessary appropriate, necessary, relevant Unfortunately, we do not have the necessary permission to publish the presentation.
▸ from a child's parents parental If you're under 16, you may need parental permission, so go with one of your parents.
▸ for building or changing a building planning Some types of development do not need planning permission.

• v+N have permission have Do you have permission to take photographs?
▸ get permission gain, get, obtain, receive You must obtain permission for the use of these photographs.
▸ give permission give (sb), grant (sb) Unless you give your explicit permission, we will not print your address.
▸ refuse permission deny (sb), refuse (sb) Maria was refused permission to change her course.
▸ ask for permission apply for, ask, ask for, request, seek I contacted the owners and asked for permission to use their pictures.
▸ need permission need, require You may need permission to build an extension to your home.

permit N an official document giving permission to do something

- adj+N necessary, special, temporary, valid Visitors should report to reception on arrival for a temporary parking permit.
- n+N fishing, parking, residence, work Overseas graduates must be in possession of a valid work permit.
- v+N let someone have a permit authorize, grant, issue The River Kelvin Angling Association (RKAA) issues season permits, which cost £15 for a year.

▸ get a permit apply for, buy, get, obtain, renew How do I obtain a resident's parking permit?
▸ have a permit have, hold University personnel not holding a permit may use the parking facilities on a day-to-day basis.
▸ need a permit need, require Do you have a car park and do I need a permit?
▸ show a permit display Make sure your permit is clearly displayed in the nearside of the vehicle's windscreen.

perpetuate V make a bad situation or process continue

- adv+V merely, only, simply, unwittingly Retribution and vengeance simply perpetuates the cycle of violence.
- V+n idea or belief idea, lie, myth, stereotype Television perpetuates the myth that science is all-knowing.

▸ bad or unfair situation cycle, division, inequality, injustice, poverty, violence Does the largely segregated education system in the country perpetuate community divisions?

persecution N
extremely bad treatment of someone

- adj+N severe brutal, cruel, fierce, intense, ruthless, severe, terrible In the meantime, my proposal should be accepted and the cruel, wasteful persecution and jailing of of seriously ill people should end.

▸ done in a thorough and continuous way relentless, renewed, repeated, systematic He has overseen systematic persecution of the Basques since he came to office.
▸ types of persecution political, racial, religious Many of these people have left their country because they were direct targets of political, religious or racial persecution.

- v+N suffer persecution be subjected to, endure, experience, face, suffer, undergo All of the early converts faced persecution, and some were put to death.

▸ escape from persecution avoid, escape, flee Britain should be a safe refuge for those genuinely fleeing persecution.
▸ be frightened that you might suffer persecution fear People can seek asylum in the UK if they fear persecution in their own country.

- and/or death, discrimination, imprisonment, intolerance, oppression, poverty, prejudice, repression, suffering, violence, war No decent country wishes to send genuine asylum seekers back to persecution or death.

perseverance N determination to continue doing something difficult

- adj+N dogged, indomitable, patient, sheer, steady They fought for freedom with a dogged perseverance and indomitable endurance that can only be termed heroic.
- v+N demand, demonstrate, need, require You need perseverance to push through those moments of frustration.
- N+v be rewarded, pay off Eventually, his perseverance paid off and he found a job.
- and/or commitment, courage, dedication, determination, effort, energy, hard work, patience, skill Hard work and perseverance will pay off.

persist V continue to exist

- adv+V indefinitely, still This belief still persists to this day.
- n+V problem or illness condition, difficulty, pain, problem, symptom If your symptoms persist, please contact your doctor.

▸ feeling doubt, fear, feeling Where doubts persist, it is very important for tutors not to brush these aside as something everyone experiences.
▸ situation difference, effect, inequality, situation, trend Income inequalities persist and grow.
▸ belief attitude, myth, rumour Rumours persist that she's expecting her first baby, but she's not confirming or denying anything.

persistent ADJ
1 continuing

- ADJ+n illness cough, diarrhoea, headache, infection, inflammation, injury, pain, symptom, vomiting, weakness Smoking can cause a persistent cough.

▸ problem breach, difficulty, failure, harassment, problem Where there are persistent problems, the council could take over management of the property.
▸ bad weather drizzle, fog, rain Persistent rain throughout the morning resulted in this match being abandoned.
▸ belief belief, myth, reports, rumour There are persistent rumours that within the grounds of two country parks in Scotland are mass-graves.

2 continuing to do something in a determined way

- ADJ+n behaviour or actions attack, attempt, call, demand, effort, refusal The BBC's persistent refusal to cover absolutely anything to do with the Election campaign raised much criticism in 1955.

▸ criminal or person doing something bad criminal, offender, shoplifter, troublemaker, truant Custodial sentences should be imposed for serious, persistent offenders.

personality N someone's character

- adj+N good good, great, pleasant I meet a guy, he's lovely, attractive, great personality, open, intelligent, amazing.

- ▶ strong big, dominant, forceful, larger-than-life, powerful, strong He was a man with a happy disposition and a big personality.
- ▶ lively charismatic, colourful, dynamic, flamboyant, lively, vibrant Jose's lively personality and sense of humour got us all through many a challenging day!
- ▶ not easy to understand complex She has a complex personality and is so sensitive, she gets hurt very easily.
- ▶ friendly and liking to be with other people bubbly, friendly, outgoing, warm I have a bubbly personality and like good conversation and a laugh or two.
- ▶ interesting and attractive charming, engaging, likeable, magnetic We found him a man of charming personality, and an excellent speaker.
- ▶ your own individual, unique Tony has been at the group for 9 years and his unique personality and charm will be very much missed.
- ▶ addictive addictive I have an addictive personality and intend to steer clear of drugs.

- • v+N show what someone's personality is like express, reflect, reveal, show The interior decor of your home should reflect your personality.
- ▶ not have much of a personality lack Vanna and Nella share their mother's beauty, but lack her strong personality.

- • N+n personality type type People of different personality types are better at different tasks.
- ▶ part of someone's personality characteristic, quirk, trait Personality traits such as determination, motivation, and curiosity all contribute to the success of students.
- ▶ personality problem defect, disorder, problem Stone's case was complex because of a personality disorder combined with drug and alcohol abuse.
- ▶ a test to discover what someone's personality is like profile, questionnaire, test Online personality tests aren't really the best judges of character.
- ▶ the situation when two people argue because they have very different personalities clash, conflict, difference Due to the nature of the business, personality clashes can occur between students and teacher.

personnel N

people in a company, organization, or military force

- • adj+N having a lot of experience or training competent, experienced, qualified, skilled, trained The application of herbicide should be carried out only by trained personnel.
- ▶ most important key, senior It is essential that key personnel are on site to assist before the incident escalates.
- ▶ types of personnel administrative, armed, civilian, medical, military, naval, operational, professional, supervisory, technical 2,800 medical personnel were mobilised at short notice to support 467,000 British troops.

perspective N

a way of thinking about something

- • adj+N new fresh, new The challenges gave me a new perspective on my own role.
- ▶ different alternative, contrasting, different, differing The film is made up of stories told by people with differing perspectives.
- ▶ in terms of a particular place global, international, local, national, regional The report provides a genuinely international perspective, showing how people all over the world were affected by the war.
- ▶ involving many ideas broad, wide Staff will also have to consider their own personal development and skills, and have a broad perspective of the council's business.
- ▶ reasonable and considering all possibilities balanced, holistic, proper If you feel it is appropriate, try talking to other people to help you get a balanced perspective on which are the most likely explanations.
- ▶ your own perspective personal, sb's own From a personal perspective, doing this work has given me a renewed confidence in my abilities.
- ▶ not the same as anyone else's unique Their unique perspectives and input created an exhibition that was exciting and educational.
- ▶ types of perspective critical, cultural, economic, financial, historical, human, philosophical, political, practical, psychological, public, religious, social, sociological, theoretical We examine how the problem can be dealt with from a practical perspective.

- • v+N have a perspective embrace, have These are just my thoughts and I'm sure some people will have a different perspective.
- ▶ offer a perspective bring, give, offer, present, provide Tillerson provided an industry perspective on the impact of shifts in the global energy sector.
- ▶ discuss or analyse a perspective consider, discuss, examine, explore This module explores two complementary perspectives.
- ▶ get a perspective develop, gain, get Try and get a genuine perspective of what the job is like from people who work in the industry.
- ▶ use a particular perspective in a piece of writing adopt, take Her recent work on conflict and development takes a cross-sectoral perspective to explore agency responses to war and violent conflict.
- ▶ change a perspective change, shift Also, this changed my perspective on what I want to do in the future.
- ▶ have the same perspective as someone else share There are allies who share our perspective and will work with us to secure common objectives.
- ▶ make your perspective include more ideas broaden, widen The course should help broaden your perspectives on different areas of plant biology.
- ▶ include a perspective incorporate The course is an ideal opportunity for EU studies to incorporate perspectives from many disciplines.

persuasive ADJ

good at making people do or believe what you want

- • adv+ADJ gently, highly, very The case for the Lord Chancellor to set a figure below 3 per cent is highly persuasive.

- • ADJ+n writing, speech, argument account, argument, case, communication, evidence, language, message, monologue, presentation, rationale, reason, reasoning, speech, writing This programme offers the most persuasive evidence of success in reducing recidivism.

- ▶ power or skill force, power, skills The persuasive powers of these individuals are incredible.

- v+ADJ be, prove, seem, sound There is one piece of evidence that at first glance seems persuasive.

pertinent ADJ relevant to something

- adv+ADJ especially, extremely, highly, particularly, very This issue is particularly pertinent to North East London, which has some of the most deprived boroughs in the country.

- ADJ+n comment, data, detail, example, fact, factor, information, issue, observation, point, question, topic This book contains a wealth of helpful material, with pertinent observations and practical suggestions. ◉ Hopefully, patients will be better informed and able to ask pertinent questions at their consultation.

- v+ADJ be, become, consider, remain, seem The company will have to take the decisions it considers pertinent.

pervasive ADJ spreading through the whole of something

- adv+ADJ all, increasingly Visiting some Asian cities, one becomes aware of the all pervasive influence of American globalization.

- ADJ+n effect, influence, nature, presence, problem, sense, smell, theme, use We need to deal with the pervasive influence of drugs and crime. ◉ With the all pervasive nature and rapid development of the Internet, educational products will also begin to trade as global commodities.

pessimism N
the belief that the worst will always happen

- adj+N deep, deep-seated, extreme, growing, profound She carried into adulthood a profound pessimism about human relationships.

- v+N express, reflect The article expresses a deep-seated pessimism about the potential of art to effect radical change.

- and/or cynicism, despair, fear, optimism He was obviously trying to be funny, but his statement reflects the despair and pessimism of our times.

pessimistic ADJ
thinking that the worst will always happen

- adv+ADJ very deeply, extremely, profoundly, very He's extremely pessimistic about what will happen in the world generally.
- ▶ rather rather, somewhat I was somewhat pessimistic about getting a draw let alone a win!
- ▶ too overly, too, unduly But perhaps I'm being overly pessimistic here.

- ADJ+n attitude or belief assessment, assumption, attitude, conclusion, outlook, view There is a pessimistic view that the group can never develop into a mass organisation.
- ▶ forecast estimate, forecast, prediction The crisis is even more severe than the most pessimistic forecasts from a year ago.
- ▶ situation scenario The scientists are emphasizing the most pessimistic scenario in order to attract public attention.

pest N an insect or animal that damages plants or food

- v+N get rid of a pest combat, control, destroy, eradicate, kill, suppress A biopesticide will control only the pest for which it has been developed.
- ▶ attract a pest attract Shrinkage in timber which has not properly been dried will open gaps that can attract pests.
- ▶ not attract a pest deter, prevent, resist Crops that are genetically modified to resist a pest do not need to be sprayed with pesticides to control that pest.

- N+n things done to deal with pests control, management, resistance Biological control is an increasingly important area of modern pest management.
- ▶ a time when pests attack something attack, infestation, problem Considerable financial loss is incurred by pest infestations in food and packaging materials.

petition N a document signed by many people who want something

- n+N email, Internet, online Over 900 people have signed the online petition at the campaign's website.

- v+N sign a petition sign When people saw this, they signed a petition objecting to planning permission.
- ▶ give a petition to someone in authority deliver, hand in, lodge, present, send, submit, table We demonstrated in Leicester Square and then we presented a petition to the Prime Minister.
- ▶ start and organize a petition circulate, launch, organize, raise, start Scotland's churches have launched a joint petition urging the UK Government not to replace the Trident nuclear weapons system.
- ▶ write a petition draft, word The Clerk is available to give advice to Members drafting petitions.
- ▶ reject a petition dismiss, reject Parliament rejected a massive petition calling for the adoption of the Charter.

- N+v a petition asks for something ask for sth, call for sth, demand sth, request sth, urge sth Campaigners collected 8,500 signatures on a petition calling for a referendum.
- ▶ a petition supports something support sth Thousands of locals have signed petitions supporting the development.
- ▶ a petition opposes something oppose sth, protest against sth Over 40,000 people signed a petition opposing the scheme.

petty ADJ about things that are not important

- ADJ+n argument argument, bickering, dispute, squabble Please let's not get into petty arguments about spelling.

- ▶ rule regulation, restriction, rule Mack hates the children's home that he lives in, with its petty rules.
- ▶ feeling concerns, jealousy, rivalry He wanted to demonstrate his distance from petty concerns. ◉ The academic world was riddled with petty jealousies, rumours of love affairs and swindled funds.

phase N a period during the development of something

- ● adj+N coming at or near the beginning developmental, early, first, initial, preliminary, preparatory, primary, second, start-up Work started on the first phase of the rail link in October 1998.
- ▶ coming at or near the end final, last, later, subsequent, successive The final phase of development at Meridian is nearing completion.
- ▶ important critical, crucial, important, key, major The project is now entering a critical phase before full launch later this year.
- ▶ when activity takes place operational The operational phase continued for approximately 21 weeks during which 41,232 cubic metres of water was treated.
- ▶ different different, distinct The process of digestion can be thought to have three distinct phases: ingestion, digestion and egestion.
- ▶ lasting only for a short time passing, transient In the early days, some thought his obsession with computer games was just a passing phase.
- ▶ moving from one phase to another transitional The Egyptians also believed that the precision of the equinoxes triggered the various transitional phases in both civilization and the natural world.

- ● v+N enter a phase begin, enter, start After a rolling programme of art fairs in London since March, we now enter a quieter phase over the summer.
- ▶ make a phase start to happen initiate, launch The company has launched the next phase of demolition at Longbridge.
- ▶ go through a phase go through Many children go through phases of refusing to eat certain foods.
- ▶ end a phase complete We completed the research phase of the project on time.
- ▶ mark a phase mark This marks an exciting phase in the development of one of the UK's most strategically important waterfront sites.

phenomenal ADJ
extremely impressive or surprising

- ● adv+ADJ absolutely, quite, simply, truly The campaign attracted a truly phenomenal level of support.

- ● ADJ+n increase growth, increase, rise In the 1980s and 1990s, the Southeast Asian countries saw phenomenal economic growth.
- ▶ ability ability, memory, power, talent I have never ceased to be amazed by Cardinal Martin's phenomenal memory.
- ▶ achievement achievement, performance, result, success The phenomenal success of online auctions is unprecedented.
- ▶ speed at which something happens pace, rate, speed The club grew at a phenomenal pace through the late 1990's.
- ▶ amount of something amount, demand, response We have had a phenomenal response and there are only a limited number of places still available.

phenomenon N
something that happens or exists

- ● adj+N rare isolated, rare, unique It is a unique phenomenon – no other theatre in Britain attempts this extraordinary turnover of plays.
- ▶ common or known about common, familiar, well-known The teachers found specific learning disability a less familiar phenomenon than intellectual disability.
- ▶ becoming more common growing Home education of children is a growing phenomenon in the UK.
- ▶ strange bizarre, curious, extraordinary, mysterious, peculiar, strange, unexplained, unusual The strange phenomenon was discovered in the corner of a field.
- ▶ interesting fascinating, interesting, remarkable An interesting phenomenon which happens at sea is that time can simultaneously progress incredibly quickly and tortuously slowly.
- ▶ relating to things that do not seem to have a scientific or natural explanation paranormal, psychic, supernatural Do you believe in psychic phenomena, and have you had any personal experience of ghosts?
- ▶ natural natural He believed that climate change was a natural phenomenon, and not caused by the way we live.
- ▶ able to be seen observable, observed The theory of evolution is an attempt to explain observed natural phenomena.
- ▶ happening everywhere global, international, universal, widespread, worldwide Terrorism is an international phenomenon and requires an international response.
- ▶ new or recent emergent, modern, new, recent Racial hatred resulting in abuse and vicious murderous attacks is not a new phenomenon.
- ▶ types of phenomena astronomical, biological, celestial, cultural, economic, historical, linguistic, mental, physical, political, psychological, religious, scientific, social Globalisation is not merely an economic phenomenon, and that is why our response cannot simply be an economic one.

- ● v+N understand a phenomenon explain, understand To understand this phenomenon, one must first grasp the inextricable connection that exists between magnetism and electricity.
- ▶ study a phenomenon analyse, examine, explore, investigate, research, study There are groups which investigate the phenomenon of UFOs.
- ▶ discover a phenomenon discover These ideas have helped scientists to formulate specific questions and discover new phenomena.

- ● n+of+N explanation, interpretation, investigation, nature, observation, understanding You will never be able to ensure that your interpretation of the phenomenon is the right one.

phobia N
a very strong fear of something

- ● adj+N dental, social, specific People with a social phobia have a fear of embarrassing themselves or of being humiliated in public.

- v+N have a phobia experience, have, suffer from I have had a phobia of spiders since childhood.
- ▸ start to have a phobia develop I started to develop phobias about walking up and down stairs.
- ▸ deal successfully with a phobia overcome She's also overcome her phobia of water and enjoys swimming now.
- ▸ give medical help to someone with a phobia cure, treat Hypnotherapy can be an effective way of treating phobias.
- and/or anxiety, depression, disorder, fear Hypnosis can very effectively help with fears and phobias.

phone N a telephone

- v+N use a phone get on INFORMAL, use What are you waiting for? Get on the phone and book your flights!
- ▸ pick up a phone when it rings answer, get INFORMAL, pick up Ellie rushed to answer the phone.
- ▸ talk to someone using a phone be on, chat on, speak on, talk on A couple of nights ago I was talking on the phone to my father.
- N+v go, ring A minute later the phone rang again.

physique N
the shape of someone's body, especially a man's

- adj+N athletic, balanced, fine, great, lean, magnificent, muscular, powerful, strong In both of these films, Pitt's muscular physique was on display.

picture N
a description or idea of what someone or something is like

- adj+N clear clear, coherent, vivid We can provide a clear picture of your financial performance.
- ▸ general general, overall The overall picture is therefore rather bleak for the American armed forces.
- ▸ including many details balanced, broad, comprehensive, detailed, rounded The film presents a comprehensive picture of life in China.
- ▸ including all details big, complete, full, whole Be careful when comparing the performance of individual schools based only on these results – they don't give you the full picture.
- ▸ not correct distorted, false, misleading Official figures can sometimes give a distorted picture.
- ▸ correct accurate, real, realistic, true If you want an accurate picture of just how evil and deceived he was, read this book.
- ▸ showing that a situation is not good bleak, depressing, disturbing, gloomy, grim The report paints a gloomy picture of the organization's current position.
- ▸ showing that a situation is good positive, rosy It was an upbeat presentation which painted a positive picture for the future.
- ▸ in your own mind mental Mental pictures rarely match the reality.
- v+N give a picture create, give, offer, paint, portray, present, provide History, however, paints a different picture of the reasons behind the wall's existence. ◆ The book presents an accurate picture of rural life.
- ▸ get a picture build, form, gain If they come and speak to me, it will help me to build a wider picture of what is happening.
- ▸ make a picture complete complete The property is newly furnished, and the log fire completes the picture of a tranquil and picturesque holiday home.
- N+v emerge A clearer picture is also emerging of Chester's place in the hierarchy of Roman Britain.

piece N
a piece of writing, art, or music

- v+N write a piece of music or writing compose, produce, write I would like to write a bass trombone piece with orchestra.
- ▸ play a piece of music perform, play We are quite happy to play any piece of music which is not already in our repertoire, given sufficient notice.
- ▸ make a piece of art craft, create, make, produce This piece is crafted in sterling silver.
- ▸ record a piece of music record We recorded the last piece of music for the last scene of the film.
- ▸ publish a piece of writing publish This is an edited version of a piece originally published in the British Medical Journal.

pinnacle N
the most successful part of something

- adj+N absolute, very Barenboim was at the very pinnacle of his profession.
- v+N achieve, mark, reach, represent, rise to This song doesn't quite reach the same pinnacle of excellence as the title track. ◆ The Olympic Games represent the pinnacle of sporting achievement.
- N+of job career, profession Footballers at the pinnacle of their careers earn huge amounts of money.
- ▸ achievement or success achievement, excellence, fame, power, success Frankie Howerd rose to the very pinnacle of comedic success.

pinpoint V discover or explain exactly what something is

- adv+V accurately, exactly, precisely Technicians need to accurately pinpoint the location of the leak before repairs can begin.
- V+n a place area, location, position, spot GPS uses satellites to pinpoint your location to within a few feet.
- ▸ a time date, moment Many people can pinpoint the precise moment when their interest in mathematics was awakened.
- ▸ a cause or reason cause, factor, reason, source Many people are simply not able to pinpoint the source of their stress.
- ▸ a problem problem, weakness Detailed records about each piece of equipment help our engineers to pinpoint any possible problems.

pint N INFORMAL
a pint of beer

- v+N drink a pint consume, down, drink, have, knock back, sink, sip, sup The toilets were out of order, which made things very uncomfortable for those of us who had downed a pint or two.
- ▸ buy a pint buy, get, grab, order Grab a pint and join us for the Oktoberfest celebration.
- ▸ serve a pint pour, pull, serve As a child she lived in a pub, and she still remembers how to pull a pint.
- ▸ like a pint enjoy, like He still enjoys a pint in the area's excellent pubs.

pioneering ADJ done for first time using new methods

- ADJ+n work course, development, effort, experiment, initiative, programme, project, research, scheme, service, study, system, work A pioneering programme to help stop young people falling into a life of crime is proving a success. ◉ Enzo Tiezzi has carried out pioneering work on sustainable development and ecological problems.
- ▸ method or idea approach, design, idea, method, solution, technique, technology, way Leeds Metropolitan University has developed a pioneering approach to tackling obesity in young people.
- ▸ medical treatment surgery, treatment Patients will benefit from pioneering treatments in world-class facilities.

pipe N
a tube that carries liquid or gas

- adj+N broken broken, burst, cracked, fractured, leaking, leaky, perforated A large amount of water is lost through leaking pipes.
- ▸ what pipe is made of clay, concrete, copper, earthenware, iron, lead, plastic The water is transported by plastic pipes from the filter tank to the village.
- v+N put a pipe somewhere connect, fit, install, lay, run In 1919, a pipe was laid to supply water to the new houses.
- ▸ mend damage to a pipe fix, repair He was on the road outside the house fixing the burst water pipe.
- ▸ stop a pipe being connected disconnect The worst part of the job is the moment when you disconnect the fuel pipe.
- ▸ put material around a pipe to prevent heat loss insulate, lag The fuel pipes have been insulated.
- ▸ prevent liquid or gas running freely through a pipe block We had to remove a tree root which was blocking the drainage pipe.
- N+v a pipe goes somewhere go, lead to sth, run The pipes run under the floor.
- ▸ a pipe bursts or leaks burst, fracture, leak If your pipes burst, then your priority will be to minimize any damage from escaping water.
- ▸ a pipe has a particular liquid flowing through it carry sth Several of the original pipes still carry water.

pitch N a flat area for playing particular sports on

- n+N sport played on a pitch baseball, cricket, football, hockey, rugby, soccer, sports, training The school has excellent sports facilities with two football pitches and a gym.
- ▸ made from grass grass, turf The stadium has a retractable roof, and a grass pitch.
- ▸ made from an artificial material all-weather, artificial, astro, astroturf, synthetic Through the winter, good use has been made of the new all weather pitch at the leisure centre.

pitfall N
a problem that is likely to happen

- adj+N possible possible, potential Despite all these potential pitfalls, most whirlpools are successfully installed.
- ▸ most likely to happen common, main, major Here are some common pitfalls to avoid when using the Internet, and suggestions for how to cope with them.
- ▸ obvious obvious Another obvious pitfall at a job interview is forgetting what you wrote on your application form.
- v+N have a pitfall have As laudable as the clinical programme is, it has some pitfalls.
- ▸ have a lot of pitfalls be fraught with, be full of It is a difficult process which is fraught with pitfalls.
- ▸ avoid a pitfall avoid, overcome Try to avoid the pitfalls that so many people fall into when writing their CV.
- ▸ not avoid a pitfall fall into I believe that the Prime Minister is in danger of falling into the very pitfalls highlighted in this book.
- ▸ know about a pitfall know, understand Get advice from someone who has already bought a house and knows the pitfalls.
- ▸ find a pitfall identify, recognise The project began with research to identify any potential pitfalls.

pity N a feeling of sympathy for someone

- adj+N deep, genuine, great, much, real He feels great pity for animals that are mistreated.
- v+N have pity be filled with, be full of, feel, have He was quite unmoved; he had no pity for me.
- ▸ show pity show There were some nice moments of O'Sullivan showing pity for his victims.
- ▸ deserve pity deserve The weak deserve our pity; the wicked our contempt.
- ▸ arouse pity arouse, evoke, excite What we fear for ouselves excites our pity when it happens to others.
- and/or anger, compassion, horror, mercy, sympathy She became aware, for the first time, of the sympathy and pity that disabled people have to face every day.

place N an opportunity to be a member of a sports team, organization, college etc

- v+N get a place clinch, earn, gain, get, obtain, secure, win His form suggests that he will be one of the favourites to win a place in the Great Britain team.
- ▸ give someone a place award sb, give sb, offer sb National Scholarships will be provided to all those who are offered a place at a Higher Education institute.
- ▸ say someone cannot have a place deny sb, refuse sb He was refused a place at his first choice of university because his grades were too low.

- accept a place accept, take up The number of people taking up places on HND courses rose by 2.5 per cent.

place V

1 put something somewhere

- adv+V carefully, firmly, gently, neatly, randomly I carefully placed my poppy wreath at the foot of the column and left the cemetery. ◆ Take the needle out of its wrapping and place it firmly onto the tip of the syringe. ◆ Twenty-four colourful carpet tiles have been placed randomly on the floor.

2 to have a particular attitude to someone or something

- V+n importance emphasis, importance, value The dental practice places a special emphasis on preventive care.
- hope or trust confidence, faith, hope, reliance, trust Going through the process several times is necessary before we can place any confidence in our methodology.
- blame blame She placed the blame squarely on her brother.

plan N

actions that help you achieve something

- adj+N future future, long-term, overall Future plans at the Eden Project include a hotel and an Education Centre.
- with many details comprehensive, detailed Clearly you cannot make any detailed plans now, as the project will need to be discussed in depth with your supervisor.
- big and possibly difficult to achieve ambitious, big, grand, grandiose, great, major, radical The school had ambitious plans to develop the site.
- likely to succeed coherent, definite, realistic, sound, viable Sound plans are in place to sustain the steady growth achieved over more than 85 years.
- clever brilliant, clever, cunning, elaborate Will their cunning plan succeed?
- involving disagreement between people controversial Controversial plans to convert a derelict chapel into a nightclub have moved a step closer to completion.
- clear clear The report includes clear plans for retaining and developing teachers.
- involving strategy strategic The strategic plans of the University of Glasgow place great importance on collaboration.

- v+N make a plan construct, create, develop, devise, draw up, figure out, form, formulate, hatch, make, prepare, produce, put together, work out The industry will develop a plan for in-house supplementary training.
- have a plan have Do you have a contingency plan for just such an emergency?
- tell people what the plan is announce, launch, outline, present, publish, reveal, set out, unveil Ministers have already announced plans to recruit 20,000 teaching assistants.
- implement a plan adopt, carry out, execute, implement, introduce, pursue The local history society adopted his plan to hold a 65km race in traditional wooden boats.
- decide not to continue with a plan abandon, cancel, drop, reject, scrap, shelve The television company abandoned plans to broadcast the show.
- support a plan support, welcome We welcome the plans to build a new community hospital.
- approve a plan agree (to), approve Father Tunstall approved the plans for the church but had retired before the official opening.
- oppose a plan fight, oppose Campaigners are fighting plans to turn Elvaston Castle into a luxury hotel.
- think about a plan consider, discuss The company is considering plans to launch a franchise operation to sell its drinks in the US.
- change a plan alter, amend, change, modify, review, revise The council hastily changed the plans after protests from the public.
- decide the final details of a plan finalize They needed longer to finalize their plans.
- stop a plan from being successful derail, foil, scupper INFORMAL, thwart These plans were thwarted by much opposition.

- N+for development, expansion, future, growth, improvement, redevelopment, reform There are now detailed plans for the redevelopment of children's services in the borough.

plan V

think carefully about actions you will take

- adv+V for the future ahead, in advance Planning ahead is essential for your organization's success.
- carefully carefully, meticulously, thoroughly I had been carefully planning this trip for so long.
- badly badly, poorly The war was never necessary and was turning out to be badly planned.
- well effectively, properly, successfully, well To plan effectively, we need to know where the gaps in provision lie.

- V+n travel expedition, holiday, journey, route, tour, trip, visit, walk Always use an Ordnance Survey map to help you plan your route.
- event conference, event, party, wedding We look forward to helping you plan the wedding of your dreams.
- what you will do during a particular time day, itinerary, schedule, week, weekend, your time He had a breakfast of bread and fruit, eaten while mentally planning his day. ◆ You are free to plan your own itinerary.
- activity activity, campaign, lesson, operation, programme, project There is a separate teachers' section to help you plan your lessons. ◆ Police officers used video footage from the game and local intelligence to plan the operation.
- career or life career, life The centre offers information and practical advice for planning your career.

plane N

an aircraft with wings

- v+N travel somewhere on a plane catch, get on, jump on INFORMAL, take Jon immediately caught a plane to Pennsylvania when he heard his mother was sick.
- get on a plane board, get on He forgot his passport and wasn't allowed to board the plane.

- ▸ get off a plane get off, leave, step off The heat hit me as I stepped off the plane at Delhi.
- ▸ arrive too late to get a plane miss We almost missed the plane because the car broke down on the way to the airport.
- ▸ fly a plane fly, pilot The pilot was drunk and shouldn't have been flying the plane.
- ▸ make a plane come down to the ground land She managed to land the plane safely.
- ▸ take control of a plane illegally while it is flying hijack On September 11, 2001, four planes were hijacked over American skies.

- • N+v a plane comes down to the ground arrive, land, touch down I was asleep and didn't feel the slight bump as the plane touched down.
- ▸ a plane leaves the ground and moves up into the sky take off At 12:25 our plane took off for Stavanger.
- ▸ a plane has people or things in it carry sb/sth A UN plane carrying one U.S. citizen and two Philippine nationals crashed in a field earlier today.
- ▸ a plane moves through the sky fly, travel The plane flew over the city.
- ▸ a plane hits something by accident crash The plane crashed in Wales, killing all on board.

- • N+n trip flight, journey, ride, trip We took a forty-minute plane ride over the Canyon.
- ▸ ticket ticket You can save money by buying plane tickets online.
- ▸ accident crash He was killed in a plane crash.

planning N

the process of deciding how to do something or how something should be

- • adj+N careful or good careful, detailed, effective, efficient, meticulous, proper, thorough All school trips require meticulous planning and organization.
- ▸ poor inadequate, poor Traffic chaos results from poor town planning.
- ▸ future forward, future, long-term, strategic The following quotes show the value of forward planning and organisation.
- ▸ types of planning environmental, financial, regional, urban A fundamental requirement of sound financial planning is having an up-to-date will.

- • n+N business, career, contingency, emergency, family, inheritance, land, retirement, tax, transport, wedding The report has brought the crucial topic of retirement planning into the public spotlight.

- • N+n request/permission application, approval, consent, decision, permission The Secretary of State has formally refused planning permission for the 5,000 dwelling scheme.
- ▸ process framework, guidance, policy, process, stage, system We are arguing for the right of third parties to have an enhanced role within the planning process.
- ▸ authority authority, committee, department Your local authority's planning department will be able to provide you with the forms you need.
- ▸ rules or laws enforcement, guidelines, law, legislation, regulations Property owners should always check that planning regulations do not apply to changes they want to make.

plant N

a factory that produces or processes things

- • adj+N for making things assembly, chemical, industrial, manufacturing Honda were losing over 1,000 workers from their manufacturing plant in Yokohama.
- ▸ for producing power coal-fired, generating, nuclear, power The nuclear plant has not been generating power since early 2002.
- ▸ for processing things desalination, incineration, processing, recycling, refrigeration, sewage Arguments for higher landfill taxes often come from those who run incineration plants.

- • v+N open or shut a plant close, close down, open, shut, shut down When a plant is shut down, all the steam condenses in the pipework.
- ▸ run a plant operate, run There comes a time when it is no longer economic to operate the plant.

platform N

a chance to express something or for something to happen

- • adj+N strong profitable, robust, solid, stable He said that now we had a stable platform, we could address our priorities for the future.
- ▸ very good ideal, perfect Major sporting events provide a perfect platform for creative media ideas.

- • v+N build, create, provide The main target is to provide a platform where French researchers and foreign guests will learn to work together.

- • N+for for discussion debate, dialogue, discussion, exchange, networking The success of this year's event has established Orkney as a major international platform for scientific debate. ◉ The purpose of the forum is to provide a platform for the exchange of ideas.
- ▸ for growth or change delivery, expansion, the future, growth, innovation, integration She would be concentrating on keeping costs to a minimum and building a platform for growth.
- ▸ for cooperation collaboration, cooperation, sharing I want this to be a platform for collaboration.
- ▸ for types of people artist, designer, musician, talent Scotland has a thriving art scene and Glasgow is a great platform for new artists.

plausible ADJ likely to be true or effective

- • adv+ADJ very/not very entirely, not remotely, perfectly, remotely, superficially, utterly I presented him with this perfectly plausible theory and he threw it back in my face.
- ▸ rather quite, reasonably Although I am unable to verify this story, I find it quite plausible.
- ▸ in a particular way biologically, intuitively, physically, psychologically, scientifically There is enough evidence for evolution to make it scientifically plausible.

- • ADJ+n suggestion argument, assumption, hypothesis, scenario, suggestion, theory The most plausible scenario was thought to be connected with the volcanically active moon Io.
- ▸ explanation explanation, interpretation, mechanism They argued that they could find no plausible mechanism which would be responsible for the effect.

- v+ADJ appear, be, look, remain, seem, sound The significance of these observations is unclear, and it remains plausible that this is simply an effect of differences in the sleep/wake cycle.

play N

a piece of writing that is intended to be performed

- adj+N types of play classic, comic, morality, musical, mystery, one-man, one-woman This is an action-packed historical mystery play, with Elizabethan writer and poet Sir Francis Bacon as its central character.
- ▸ for a particular medium radio, stage, television, TV Do you think we'll see a new stage play from you at some point?
- ▸ of a particular length full-length, one-act, short By the end of the semester, students will have a developed idea for their full-length play.
- ▸ good or successful acclaimed, award-winning, brilliant Throughout his career he has directed numerous critically acclaimed plays and musicals.
- v+N prepare a play direct, produce, rehearse On weekdays, you will often find a theatre group rehearsing an upcoming play in the church hall.
- ▸ perform a play broadcast, perform, present, put on, stage The total number of plays performed is vast, and many lack real merit.
- ▸ create a play adapt, commission, devise, write Stuck at home full-time with kids, she wrote her first play, Mummy Make it Better, in 2003.
- ▸ watch a play see, watch We might go to a theatre to watch a play.

plea N

1 an urgent or emotional request for something

- adj+N strong earnest, eloquent, emotional, heartfelt, impassioned, passionate, plaintive He was an extraordinary figure whose passionate plea for liberty has relevance for every generation.
- ▸ urgent anguished, desperate, urgent Even the title of the new album seems an almost desperate plea for a new beginning.
- ▸ repeated constant, repeated Despite repeated verbal pleas from the police to put the weapon down, the man refused.
- ▸ made at a particular time final, last-minute, timely Just one final plea, don't forget to tell us if you change your address!
- v+N make a plea issue, make This gives me the opportunity to make a plea to parents to stand as school governors.
- ▸ repeat a plea repeat He repeated his plea for the decriminalisation of cannabis.
- ▸ accept a plea answer, hear, heed The majority heeded our plea following last year's event to clean up after your dogs.
- ▸ reject or ignore a plea dismiss, ignore, reject, resist The King ignored her pleas; he was blind to the passion of her feelings.
- N+for clemency, forgiveness, leniency, mercy He has a sense of fair play and justice, but he's not easily swayed by pleas for mercy.

2 when someone says if they are guilty or not

- adj+N guilty, not-guilty The acquittal rate for not-guilty pleas was around 40 %.
- v+N change, dismiss, enter, offer, submit, tender He has vowed not to enter a plea in protest at a law he describes as 'corrupt'.
- N+of ignorance, innocence, insanity The Bench accepted his plea of ignorance and dismissed the case.

plead V

1 ask for something in an urgent or emotional way

- adv+V desperately, earnestly, eloquently Alexander pleads eloquently for an education in both the sciences and the humanities.
- V+for mercy forgiveness, mercy, pardon, sb's life The farmer's face turned as white as milk, and he began to plead for pardon.
- ▸ help assistance, help The regional authorities in the Azores are pleading for help.

2 say in court if you are guilty or not

- V+adj guilty, not guilty The prisoner pleaded guilty.
- V+n ignorance, innocence, insanity He pleaded insanity at the trial, but it was rejected and he was sentenced to death.

pleasure N

a feeling of happiness, enjoyment, or satisfaction

- adj+N strong absolute, enormous, great, immense, intense His painting has given immense pleasure to people across the world.
- ▸ physical or not spiritual carnal, earthly, hedonistic, sensual, sensuous, sexual, worldly They advocate generosity to the poor, and they rebuke all worldly pleasures.
- ▸ not normal or healthy dubious, guilty, perverse, sadistic, vicarious It's a dreadful movie, but there's a certain perverse pleasure to be taken in its sheer awfulness.
- ▸ simple genuine, innocent, pure, sheer, simple I think there is a case for doing subjects that simply stretch the mind, for the sheer pleasure of learning.
- ▸ types of pleasure aesthetic, aural, dining, driving, listening, reading, shopping, viewing Lucio selects the best new music for your aural pleasure.
- v+N give pleasure afford, bring, give It gives me great personal satisfaction to create jewellery which then brings pleasure to other people.
- ▸ get pleasure derive, discover, experience, feel, find, have, take, taste We take particular pleasure in sharing your visit and helping you make the most of it.
- ▸ show that you feel pleasure communicate, express, show The Director expressed her pleasure at being asked to take over the project.
- ▸ increase pleasure enhance, heighten, maximize The pleasure is heightened by the fact that it is the middle of a British winter.
- and/or comfort, delight, enjoyment, excitement, happiness, joy, pride, satisfaction Ducks and geese are delightful birds and can give their owners much pleasure and enjoyment.

pledge N a serious and public promise to do something

- adj+N serious or important firm, historic, personal, solemn The first priority is the fulfilment of our solemn pledge to rid the world of nuclear weapons.
- ▸ in politics campaign, election, manifesto, pre-election Their manifesto pledges are like a litany of broken promises.
- v+N make a pledge affirm, make Last week, the party made a firm pledge that they would cancel the incinerator.
- ▸ keep a pledge fulfil, honour, meet, redeem We want the Government to honour its pre-election pledge and set a target for reducing packaging.
- ▸ break a pledge abandon, break, drop, violate The General Council promptly broke its pledge, to the delight of the mineowners.
- ▸ repeat a pledge reiterate, repeat I reiterate our pledge to reduce our own nuclear arsenal.
- N+of allegiance, love, loyalty, support We received strong pledges of support for our campaign.

plight N
a sad, serious, or difficult situation

- adj+N very bad desperate, dire, perilous, pitiful, sad, sorry, terrible Meanwhile, the B team knew nothing of the desperate plight of the main expedition.
- ▸ current current, present Like many Leeds fans, I would gladly trade those dark days for the reality of our current plight.
- ▸ types of plight economic, financial News of the club's financial plight was broken to the players on Wednesday.
- v+N improve someone's plight address, aid, alleviate, ease It requires a common will to alleviate the plight of the people.
- ▸ explain someone's plight explain, expose, highlight, illustrate, publicize The film highlights the plight of high school students in the Richmond area.
- ▸ ignore or make worse someone's plight ignore, neglect, worsen Does development improve or worsen the plight of third-world peoples?
- N+of asylum seekers, the homeless, orphans, pensioners, the poor, refugees This year, we ran a day focussing on the plight of the homeless.

plot N
1 a secret plan to do something bad

- adj+N evil dastardly, devious, fiendish, sinister Their dastardly plot was ready for execution.
- ▸ complicated complex, elaborate The police concoct an elaborate plot to reveal the killer.
- n+N assassination, bomb, murder, revenge, terror, terrorist Air travellers face further delays after this morning's foiled bomb plot.
- v+N create a plot concoct, hatch A plot is hatched to restore Richard to the throne.
- ▸ discover a plot uncover, unravel In 1861, Pinkerton uncovered a plot to assassinate Abraham Lincoln.
- ▸ make a plot fail foil, thwart Haven't we foiled countless terrorist plots since 9–11?

2 the main story of a book, film etc

- adj+N complicated complicated, convoluted, intricate, labyrinthine The traditional convoluted plot has been replaced by a more simple storyline.
- ▸ appealing clever, gripping, intriguing Great stories, gripping plots and characters you really care about make these books ideal for the older child.
- ▸ boring predictable The early shows reflected the lack of cash, with predictable plots and relatively low production values.
- N+v be about something concern sth, hinge on sth, involve sth, revolve around sth The opera's plot hinges on the feigned death of one of the characters. ◉ I have to stress that the plot revolves around a historical murder mystery, but religion and politics certainly play an important role in the unfolding of the story.
- ▸ get more complicated thicken, twist, twist and turn When the ex-wife of the doctor, Sarah, turns up, the plot thickens.
- ▸ progress move along, move forward, move towards, progress, unfold, unravel The problem lies in the film's inability to establish the main characters before the plot progresses.

ploy N a way of tricking or confusing someone

- adj+N clever or cunning clever, cunning, cynical, deliberate I don't believe there is any attempt to mislead here, nor is the title a cynical marketing ploy.
- ▸ obvious or usual cheap, common, obvious, usual He expects his readers to have forgotten, or not noticed, his cheap ploy.
- ▸ types of ploy advertising, marketing, propaganda, psychological, tactical Is this just another marketing ploy, or is customised skincare really the future?

plunge V
1 fall quickly from a high position

- adv+V down down, downwards, headfirst, headlong The front of the boat plunged downwards and disappeared.

2 if an amount or level plunges it suddenly becomes much lower

- n+V price, profits, shares, temperature In winter, temperatures plunge to minus 36 degrees Celsius.

3 suddenly go into a bad situation

- V+into chaos, conflict, crisis, debt, depression, despair, poverty, recession, turmoil The thirties saw the world plunged into an economic depression.

poem N
a piece of writing arranged in fixed lines

- adj+N types of poem dialect, epic, lyric, lyrical, narrative, nonsense, satirical Why do we associate the epic poem with Homer?
- ▸ short/long long, short The interview will include discussion of a short poem which they will be given one hour beforehand.
- ▸ funny/sad funny, humorous, poignant, sad, touching One of the saddest poems was that on the cruel murder of his son.

- about love erotic, love, romantic Burns was writing his romantic poems all about shepherdesses and the grandeur of nature.
- well-known/not well-known famous, unpublished, well-known His most famous poem, A Drunk Man looks at a Thistle (1926), examined the spiritual nature of his home country.
- favourite favourite It would be hard to select a favourite poem from such an altogether pleasing book.

- v+N write a poem compose, craft, pen, write Paradise Lost may be one of the greatest poems ever written.
- publish a poem print, publish, reprint A book of his poems was published in 1919.
- say a poem read, recite Read your poems to the class or display the poems in a class book.
- refer to a poem quote Click here for references to the poems quoted in this article.
- dedicate a poem dedicate Even after their final separation in 1926, he was to continue to dedicate his poems to Gabrielle.

poignant ADJ

giving you feelings of sadness

- adv+ADJ very deeply, especially, extremely, particularly, unbearably, very, wonderfully There is something particularly poignant about Christmas time for the bereaved.
- rather quite, rather I also found Mahmut's relationship with his ex-wife to be quite poignant.

- ADJ+n work of art ballad, drama, lyric, memoir, poem, tale, tragedy The title piece is a poignant memoir of his family and of growing up in Leeds.
- reminder memorial, reminder, tribute It was a poignant reminder of how life could be nasty, brutish and short.
- moment moment Certain moments are nicely poignant, others are wonderfully funny.
- ending ending, farewell There's some delightful writing in this piece, with something of a poignant ending.
- portrait portrait, portrayal It's a poignant portrait of the innocence of a child caught in an tragedy created by adults.

point N

1 an idea or opinion

- adj+N main central, crucial, essential, important, key, main, major, salient, vital The key point is that your body views any change as stressful.

A moot point is one that is open to discussion and cannot easily be decided: How any undergraduate could possibly be expected to be 'original' in any meaningful sense is surely a moot point. A talking point is one that people are eager to discuss: The factory workforce all turned out to witness the move of the aircraft that had been the talking point of everyone since its inception back in 1944.

- good excellent, good, interesting, valid, valuable Mr Carr put forward some very interesting points in response to correspondence received.
- first/last final, first, last That brings me to my final point, which is how do we help give the Climate Group the focus that it needs?
- not important minor, trivial However, there are some minor points to be made.

- v+N make a point make, put forward, raise He raises some very good points, which I've seen before elsewhere.
- explain a point clarify, get across, illustrate, summarize You are very welcome to ask me to clarify any points or questions when you next see me.
- discuss or prove a point address, argue, discuss, prove The content analysis undertaken here cannot solidly prove this point one way or the other.
- understand/not understand a point get, miss, see, understand I thought maybe it was me who was missing the point.
- emphasize a point drive home, emphasize, hammer home INFORMAL, highlight, labour, reinforce, reiterate Good PowerPoint slides emphasise the points that you are making.

2 an aspect or feature

- adj+N good good, high, strong The section on interpersonal skills is obviously not the author's strong point.

The finer points of something are the most important or interesting aspects of it: Post match, there will be a bar and light refreshments for those who want to discuss the finer points of the game.

- bad low, weak It will probably become necessary to work on your weak points.

pointless ADJ

lacking any purpose or use

- adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, entirely, totally, utterly The film starts off with a completely pointless opening sequence aboard a boat.
- rather almost, fairly, largely, pretty INFORMAL, rather Such speculation is pretty pointless.
- slightly a little, slightly, somewhat Now that I think about it, that does seem a little pointless.
- apparently apparently, seemingly Despite the seemingly pointless situation of the entire protest, the day must be considered a success.

- ADJ+n action or activity activity, exercise, experiment, gesture, pursuit, task, waste This may all seem like a pointless exercise.
- discussion or comment argument, comment, debate, discussion, question, review The committee got bogged down in a pointless debate about why each drug is in a particular class.

- v+ADJ be or become be, become, be rendered, prove If no one buys the new products, then the recycling process becomes pointless.
- seem feel, seem In fact, it seems pretty pointless to try and duplicate his advice here.

point of view N

a way of judging a situation

- adj+N a particular point of view aesthetic, business, commercial, economic, environmental, historical, legal, military, moral, philosophical, political, practical, scientific, technical, theoretical When evaluating a project, organisations often want to establish whether it is worthwhile from an economic point of view. ◆ I think they are getting bad advice, certainly from a moral point of view.

▸ personal personal, subjective This website is written from a personal point of view and not a medical one.

• v+N have a point of view adopt, have, take A journalist is, after all, entitled to have a point of view.
▸ understand a point of view see, understand We expect you to try to understand other people's point of view.
▸ express a point of view express, present, put across, put forward Show respect and sympathy to the customer by listening patiently, and then put forward your point of view.

point to PHR VB
show the truth or importance of something

• V+n fact or possibility existence, fact, possibility, reality All the evidence pointed to the fact that Danielle was the only one who could have done this dreadful act.
▸ problem danger, flaw, lack, shortcoming, weakness Scholars have rightfully pointed to flaws in survey research into attitudes of EU citizens.
▸ difference/similarity contradiction, discrepancy, inconsistency, similarity Sceptics take great delight in pointing to the obvious contradiction.
▸ need necessity, need Above all, they point to the need for regular oversight of these centres.
▸ conclusion conclusion I think the work of several of our leading developmental psychologists points to this conclusion.

poised ADJ about to do or achieve something

• ADJ+for breakthrough, comeback, expansion, growth, success, victory The business is – or should be – poised for explosive growth.
• ADJ+on the brink of, the edge of, the threshold of In short, the climate system as we know it is poised on the edge of a profound transition.
• ADJ+infinitive attack attack, invade, strike Rommel had driven the British out of Libya and stood poised to invade Egypt.

poison N
a substance that can harm or kill people

• adj+N dangerous dangerous, deadly, fatal, lethal, potent, powerful, toxic Almost all cyanide compounds are extremely deadly poisons.
▸ slow slow Slow poison was so much more subtle: by the time it could be detected it was too late.
• v+N take poison drink, eat, ingest, swallow The symptoms usually begin half an hour to an hour after ingesting the poison.
▸ give poison administer, give sb, inject She made an impassioned speech for her own defence, in which she totally denied administering poison.
▸ put down poison lay, spread Instructions for laying the poison are clearly printed on each packet and should be followed carefully.

police N
people who try to catch criminals

• n+N with a particular job border, riot, security, traffic They blocked the roads around the plant and fought a long battle with the riot police.
▸ in uniform/not in uniform plain-clothes, uniformed Plain-clothes police officers targeted traders selling pornography.
▸ types of police armed, civilian, military, neighbourhood, paramilitary, secret, undercover The gunman was killed by armed police the next day.

• v+N contact the police alert, contact, inform, notify, summon, tell I would stress she does not have to contact the police if she does not wish to do so.
▸ phone the police call, phone, ring, telephone Over thirty people witnessed the attack on her, but not one of them came to her aid or even phoned the police.
▸ help the police assist, help When members of the public wish to assist the police, they can do so by contacting their local police station.
▸ blame or not help the police accuse, blame, criticise, obstruct, sue The doctors protested their innocence and accused the police of using torture.

• N+n action or activity bail, brutality, check, custody, investigation, raid We are protesting because we believe police raids could happen to anyone.
▸ person escort, patrol, spokesman A police spokesman said the farmers were not part of the protest.
▸ vehicle car, helicopter, van I was thrown against the police van while they frisked me.

police V
use police officers to control something

• adv+V effectively effectively, properly, well Only by effectively engaging with our diverse communities will we be able to police effectively.
▸ severely heavily, rigorously, strictly They strictly policed the demonstration, removing placards that were deemed inappropriate.
• V+n event parade, protest A huge security presence is required to police the parade through the town.
▸ area district, neighbourhood Find out more about those policing your neighbourhoods.

policy N
plans agreed by a government, party, or business

• adj+N areas of policy agricultural, economic, educational, employment, energy, environmental, fiscal, foreign, monetary, planning, public, security, social, transport It's hard enough for a British government to frame an economic policy for all of Britain.
▸ national or local domestic, local, national, regional The consultation claims that the government's regional policies are delivering results.
▸ current or future current, future It helps if you are aware of current policies affecting your area.
▸ official federal, government, official, state Her responsibilities include keeping senior managers up to date with government policies in the area of green technology.
▸ clear or effective policy clear, coherent, deliberate, effective The total lack of any coherent policy has been apparent to all.
• v+N create policy design, develop, devise, draft, formulate, make, plan We have ensured that the medium of Welsh is considered when formulating new policies.

- ▶ introduce or follow a policy adopt, apply, follow, implement, impose, introduce, propose, pursue It would probably benefit all concerned to adopt a policy of cooperation.
- ▶ decide policy decide, determine, set All of these aspects need to be considered in detail before deciding future policy.
- ▶ change policy amend, change, reverse, review, revise, update It is your responsibility to review this policy from time to time.
- ▶ influence policy affect, influence, inform, shape The discussion forum enables us to influence policy both locally and nationally.

- ● N+n making policy decision, initiative, making, recommendation Expect to see significant policy decisions in this area. ❁ The European Women's Lobby Aims to increase women's impact on European policy making.
- ▶ people who make policy advisor, analyst, maker One aspect of this work has led to an IT based checklist for policy makers.
- ▶ statement of policy document, formulation, framework, paper, statement You can read our views on natural resources in our policy statements.
- ▶ policy aims goals, objectives Taken together, these two responses will help Ministers set policy objectives for the industry.
- ▶ policy change changes, reform, review The Party will lobby for a balanced package of policy reforms.

polite ADJ
behaving towards other people in a pleasant way

- ● adv+ADJ very extremely, incredibly, scrupulously, so, terribly, very The service was swift and the staff incredibly polite and efficient.
- ▶ always unfailingly Whatever you want, he is unfailingly polite.
- ▶ rather generally, perfectly, quite, rather I was only asking you in a perfectly polite way a simple rational question.
- ▶ too too She is not impressed by my materialism, but is far too polite to comment.

- ● ADJ+n behaviour gesture, manner, smile Polite manners are essential in company.
- ▶ writing letter, reminder, reply, request A polite letter to them to ask them if they would be willing to give a talk to your Group will do wonders. ❁ I have to take the time to write a polite reply that I can't do it.

- ● and/or pleasant charming, considerate, courteous, friendly, pleasant, respectful, well-mannered Our pupils are well behaved, polite and courteous.
- ▶ helpful or efficient attentive, competent, efficient, helpful Ensure your waiting staff are polite and attentive, yet not overbearing.

political ADJ relating to politics, or involved in politics

- ● adv+ADJ openly/not openly blatantly, explicitly, inherently, intrinsically, openly, overtly The group said that their new album would see a return to their overtly political songs.
- ▶ partly or mainly essentially, fundamentally, mainly, partly, primarily Their main functions are religious and military, not primarily political.
- ▶ very or completely deeply, highly, intensely, profoundly, purely This seemingly trivial issue has become profoundly political.

- ● ADJ+n thought or discussion culture, debate, discourse, ideology, opinion, philosophy, power, theory, thought We will engage in and encourage the process of political debate.
- ▶ people activist, elite, leader, leadership, opponent There was a top-down democracy run by and for the political elites.
- ▶ situation climate, context, landscape, situation Has the political climate made us forget humanity?
- ▶ conflict instability, struggle France seems to be undergoing a period of intense political instability.
- ▶ organization institution, party The experience of urban parish councils is that political parties often control them.

politics N ideas and activities for getting political power

- ● adj+N for a particular cause democratic, left-wing, nationalist, progressive, radical, revolutionary, right-wing, socialist He became involved in progressive politics.
- ▶ relating to gender feminist, gender, sexual To conclude, I reflect briefly on the implications of her work for feminist identity politics.
- ▶ in a particular area domestic, global, internal, international, local, national The whole book is a valuable source on the current activities and concerns of NGOs in global politics.
- ▶ types of politics electoral, mainstream, parliamentary, partisan, sectarian He came to parliamentary politics relatively late.

- ● v+N to into politics enter, go into, practise In entering politics he was following in the footsteps of his father.
- ▶ leave politics denounce, quit, reject, shun Mowlam, who quit politics in the last election, said the Prime Minister had become more presidential than she liked.
- ▶ talk about politics debate, discuss, talk (about) Robinson's main hobby was talking politics.
- ▶ change politics influence, shape, transform It is common to observe that British politics was enduringly transformed by the reign of Queen Victoria.

poll N
an occasion when many people are asked their opinions

- ● adj+N recent the latest, recent According to the latest polls, the percentage of Christian marriages ending in divorce is around 50 %.

A poll is often called an opinion poll: A recent opinion poll revealed that more than 80 per cent of people in Catalonia agree that bullfights are cruel.

- ▶ types of poll national, nationwide, public, reader, viewer A nationwide poll suggests most people would like the government to take more action to improve public health.

▸ how the questions are asked online, phone, telephone Have your say in this week's online poll.
▸ informal informal, quick, straw Feelings are mixed, as a pavement straw poll outside the office revealed.
▸ how often monthly, weekly You can have your say in our weekly poll.

• v+N carry out a poll carry out, conduct, do, hold, organise, run, take, undertake A poll was conducted during the program in which more than 8,000 people took part.
▸ publish a poll post, publish, release The National Institute for Mental Health has posted a poll on the members' discussion zone inviting your views. ◈ The five main UK polls published on the morning of the general election predicted a Labour lead of 0.8%.
▸ pay for a poll commission The BBC commissioned a telephone poll of viewers to find the greatest Briton of all time.

pollution N

the process of damaging the environment, or the substances that do this

• adj+N affecting something atmospheric, environmental, groundwater, marine, water Atmospheric pollution is global, and affects all soils, as does climate change.
▸ caused by something agricultural, airborne, carbon, carbon dioxide, chemical, industrial, light, noise, pesticide, radioactive, sewage, smoke, traffic To minimise light pollution, careful consideration has been given to the external lighting.

• v+N cause or increase pollution cause, emit, generate, increase The pollution is caused mainly by traffic emissions.
▸ reduce or prevent pollution avoid, control, curb, cut, eliminate, minimize, prevent, reduce, tackle Isn't the aim to reduce pollution?
▸ check pollution measure, monitor Many local councils monitor urban pollution to determine, for example, the effects of local traffic congestion.

• N+n abatement, control, emission, level, monitoring, prevention, reduction Substantial financial savings can be made from pollution prevention measures.

ponder V

think carefully about something before reaching a decision

• adv+V with time expressions again, awhile, ever, long, often, still My friends and I often pondered on the possibility of marriage and a family.
▸ deeply deeply, seriously He pondered deeply on all matters of seafaring.

• V+n a mystery conundrum, enigma, mystery I got on my bike, still pondering the mystery of the missing tombstone.
▸ the meaning of something implications, meaning, significance We should all ponder the implications of this.
▸ a question or problem fact, matter, possibility, problem, question Philosophers and scientists have been pondering this question for centuries.
▸ the future fate, sb's future, sb's next move Michelle is pondering her future in education.

popular ADJ

1 liked by many people

• adv+ADJ very enormously, exceedingly, exceptionally, extremely, highly, hugely, immensely, incredibly, massively, particularly, so, tremendously, universally, very, wildly Sandra has run hugely popular Dance and Yoga Holidays for the past five years. ◈ Colin was charming, universally popular with colleagues and adored by his patients.
▸ increasingly increasingly Nowadays, it is increasingly popular to ask candidates to fill in on-line application forms.
▸ fairly fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, relatively Ethical investments are now a relatively popular way of making money.

• ADJ+n place attraction, destination, location, resort, spot, venue Germany is becoming an increasingly popular holiday destination.
▸ activity game, pastime, sport Denmark has a long history of sea faring, and sailing is a popular pastime.
▸ choice choice, option Renting a holiday cottage is a popular choice for many people during the Summer.
▸ culture culture, entertainment, fiction, genre, magazine, music, series, show, song A writer in a popular magazine once described what she thought a perfect world would be like.

• v+ADJ be or stay popular be, prove, remain, stay Tuesday coached sessions are proving popular with members.
▸ become popular become, be made, get, grow High diving became popular amongst a small circle of enthusiasts.
▸ seem popular appear, seem So far, these sessions appear popular, with good attendances.

2 held by many people

• ADJ+n belief, misconception, myth, opinion, perception You seem to subscribe to the popular misconception that science is arbitrary.

The expression contrary to popular belief/opinion etc is used to say that what many people believe is not actually true: Contrary to popular opinion, a wedding isn't the end of anything but a new start.

popularity N

the situation of being popular with many people

• adj+N great enormous, huge, immense, incredible, overwhelming, renewed, tremendous We have a perpetual backlog of submissions due to the enormous popularity of the site.
▸ growing burgeoning, ever-growing, ever-increasing, increasing, rising, soaring Because of the ever-increasing popularity of aromatherapy, the demand for practitioners has never been greater.
▸ recent new-found, sudden Verdi's new-found popularity sprang not least from his own identification with the nationalist movement.
▸ longlasting continued, continuing, enduring, lasting No wonder this show has enjoyed such enduring popularity.
▸ in many places widespread, worldwide Salsa has origins in Cuban music but credit for its worldwide popularity belongs to the Puerto Ricans of New York.
▸ decreasing declining, waning The declining popularity of school meals is placing a strain on local authorities

- v+N gain, keep, or increase popularity attain, boost, gain, increase, regain, retain Laser hair removal is gaining popularity as a method of permanent hair removal.
- ▶ lose or reduce popularity diminish, lose He began to lose popularity among his people.
- N+v increase grow, increase, rise, soar, spread Her album Fever sent the Melbourne-born singer's popularity soaring around the world.
- ▶ decrease decline, plummet, wane With a career spanning some 30 years, Paul's popularity has never waned.
- and/or fame, importance, influence, reputation, success Hunt was invited to give the sermon because of his current popularity and fame.

populated ADJ

a populated area has people living there

- adv+ADJ heavily densely, heavily, highly We live on a heavily populated island, and create a lot of waste.
- ▶ lightly sparsely, thinly This is considered a good little school in a very thinly populated district.
- ADJ+n area, city, country, island, region Toronto is Canada's largest and most populated city.

population N

the people who live in a particular area

- adj+N types of population civilian, ethnic, general, human, indigenous, native, resident Pro-government militias then launched reprisals against the civilian populations.
- ▶ in a particular area local, rural, urban The Town Council recognises that rural populations have special transport needs.
- ▶ whole entire, total, whole The municipality has a total population of around 25,000 inhabitants.
- N+v increase double, expand, explode, grow, increase, rise The background is that the population is rising by over 3 per cent per year.
- ▶ decrease decline, decrease, fall, shrink The population declined markedly from 1,460 in 1861 to 919 in 1961.
- N+n increase or decrease decline, explosion, growth, increase There are environmental arguments for population stability, but we do not need population decline.
- ▶ figures census, estimates, projections, statistics, trends The Home Office noted the need for population estimates by ethnic group and religion.
- ▶ size density, size The list does not take into account the population sizes of the areas.

portfolio N

the set of investments or other things belonging to a person or company

- adj+N varied balanced, broad, comprehensive, diverse, diversified, varied, wide, wide-ranging The UK needs a balanced portfolio of energy generating capacity from numerous sources.
- ▶ large enviable, extensive, impressive, large They recently announced a new addition to their already extensive product portfolio.
- n+N asset, bond, client, equity, investment, loan, patent, product, property, share The company has a $400 million investment portfolio.
- v+N expand a portfolio broaden, develop, diversify, expand, grow, strengthen A good independent financial adviser will show you how you can diversify your portfolio.
- ▶ put together a portfolio assemble, build, construct We have assembled an exciting portfolio of investments.
- ▶ manage a portfolio manage As property managers we manage a portfolio of properties.
- N+v a portfolio includes consist of, contain, include The portfolio consists of more than 100 hospital sites across England and Wales.

portrait N

1 a picture of someone, especially their face

- adj+N using a particular medium engraved, pastel, photographic There is a black and white photographic portrait of him in 1937.
- ▶ large/small full-length, life-size, miniature Whistler alternated between small painting and full-length portraits.
- ▶ making someone look more/less attractive flattering, idealized, unflattering His more recent paintings include a rather unflattering portrait of the Queen.
- ▶ looking real lifelike A lifelike portrait by Hans Holbein hangs in the city museum.
- v+N create a portrait create, draw, paint, sketch Peter has painted iconic portraits of rock stars.
- ▶ have a portrait done commission Her husband commissioned the portrait to celebrate her 70th birthday.

2 a description of someone or something

- adj+N showing affection affectionate, sympathetic The book provides an affectionate portrait of this underrated artist.
- ▶ including many personal details candid, intimate, revealing This film is an intimate portrait of three generations of one family.
- ▶ with strong details vivid His report presents a vivid portrait of a political system under pressure.
- ▶ making someone seem more/less attractive flattering, idealized, unflattering His reminiscences also include unflattering portraits of his political colleagues.
- ▶ sad haunting, poignant It's a poignant portrait of the innocence of a child caught in a tragedy he cannot comprehend.
- ▶ critical satirical This novel includes a satirical portrait of Stalin.
- v+N craft, create, draw The director crafts a beautiful portrait of Cuban culture.

portray V

show or describe someone or something in a particular way

- adv+V very clearly graphically, powerfully, starkly, vividly The writer vividly portrays the dangers of the harsh Arctic environment.

- very well brilliantly, eloquently, excellently, magnificently, memorably, skilfully, superbly He lost several stone in weight to brilliantly portray a factory worker with insomnia.
- in a way that seems real convincingly, realistically, subtly He is a director with a talent for convincingly portraying human emotion.
- showing sympathy for the subject sensitively, sympathetically The film sympathetically portrays a lesbian relationship.
- in a way that touches the emotions movingly, touchingly The plight of young homeless people is movingly portrayed.

Portray is usually passive in these combinations: Their marriage is touchingly portrayed.

- accurately accurately, faithfully We have taken great trouble to ensure that this Parents' Guide accurately portrays the school.
- not accurately falsely, misleadingly The advert falsely portrayed Roberts as a supporter of violent acts.
- not in a positive way negatively, stereotypically Many faith groups feel that religion is portrayed negatively in the media.

- n+V media media The media habitually portrays young people in a negative light.
- actor actor, actress How many actors have portrayed the Doctor in the series?
- artist artist, author, cartoonist, painter He had been upset by the way he was portrayed by political cartoonists.
- work advert, advertisement, cartoon, film, movie, novel, painting, photograph, poster Advertisements portraying an environmentally-friendly image are part of their strategy.

portrayal N

the way that something or someone is portrayed

- adj+N honest, even about bad things frank, gritty, truthful, uncompromising, unflinching 'Mean Streets' is Scorsese's brutal, unflinching portrayal of violence.
- seeming real convincing, realistic, vivid Wright's vivid portrayal of growing up makes compelling reading.
- accurate/not accurate accurate, inaccurate It's a more accurate portrayal of the legal system than most thrillers.
- negative or unfair negative, stereotyped, stereotypical The stereotypical portrayal of a drink-driver is as a man in middle age.
- showing affection or understanding affectionate, sympathetic As a director, he is known for his sympathetic portrayal of women.
- skilful or subtle masterful, masterly, nuanced Newman earned an Oscar nomination for his nuanced portrayal of the former sports hero.
- revealing many personal details intimate The 90-minute film is an intimate portrayal of the Cuban leader.
- sad moving, poignant, touching I found the novel a poignant portrayal of the effects of war.
- shocking or frightening chilling, harrowing, haunting, searing This is a witty but chilling portrayal of the last decadent days of the French aristocracy.
- in a particular form cinematic, fictional, film, media, on-screen, screen, television The movie is a fictional portrayal of a modern-day Robin Hood.

pose V

create or present something difficult that someone has to deal with

- V+n threat or danger danger, harm, hazard, menace, risk, threat Members of the public may very occasionally pose a threat to staff.
- obstacle or difficulty barrier, challenge, constraint, difficulty, obstacle, problem Antarctica poses logistical challenges for researchers.
- question query, question Dennis then posed the question of what the next step should be.
- difficult question conundrum, dilemma, headache, paradox, puzzle, riddle This particle poses a serious puzzle in astrophysics.
- something worrying concern The effects of cyanides on human health pose concerns.

position N

1 the way someone or something is placed, or the place where they are

- adj+N good or important central, prime, prominent A placard hangs in a prominent position on the wall of the dressing room.
- correct correct, right The aircraft was now several miles off from its correct position.
- exact exact, precise They were able to locate their precise position using GPS.
- horizontal, vertical etc horizontal, upright, vertical He leaned to the left before returning to an upright position.
- not moving fixed, permanent Weights can be used to hold the patient's spine in a fixed position.
- before being moved neutral, original, starting Hitting this icon will restore the window to its original position and size.
- same same, similar He takes a photograph every morning from exactly the same position.
- comfortable comfortable Sit quietly, in a comfortable position with a straight back.
- high commanding, elevated, high The cottage is situated in a wonderful elevated position.
- performing a particular action driving, lying, lying-down, riding, sitting, standing You may feel dizzy when you get up quickly from a lying or sitting position.
- in the world, in a country etc geographical Apart from its strategic geographical position, Bulgaria is also famous for its exceptional natural landscape.
- in sport defensive, offside, pole He got caught in an offside position.
- in war commanding, defensive, offensive, strategic The ridge provided a natural defensive position and the Germans decided to dig in.

- v+N get into a position adopt, assume, get into, take, take up The seat allows the rider to adopt a natural, upright sitting position.
- be in a position occupy The group of islands occupies a very central position in the Indian Ocean.
- change a position adjust, alter, change, shift The referee will need to adjust his position throughout the game.
- show or find a position determine, indicate, mark These mark the positions of the roof timbers.

2 the situation that someone or something is in

- adj+N strong or good dominant, good, important, prominent, strong As market leader, we will strive to remain in this prominent position.
- ▸ very special enviable, ideal, privileged, unique You are in a unique position to help us.
- ▸ not strong weak Farmers are in an extremely weak bargaining position.
- ▸ difficult or dangerous awkward, compromising, dangerous, difficult, precarious If you are a teacher, you must tread very carefully so as not to put yourself in a difficult position.
- ▸ current current, present The documents relate to the current financial position of Thames Trusts.
- ▸ same same, similar Unfortunately, Northern Ireland did not make it to the World Cup, and Scotland and Wales were in the same position.
- ▸ types of position bargaining, competitive, financial, legal, market, negotiating, strategic, tax A solicitor can advise you about your legal position.

- v+N be in a position be in, hold, occupy Military factors still occupy an important position in state security.
- ▸ reach a position attain, establish, gain, reach, regain We are not yet at crisis point, but much work needs to be done to stop us reaching that position.
- ▸ keep or strengthen your position cement, confirm, consolidate, defend, improve, maintain, reinforce, retain, secure, strengthen Sales are up 9 per cent, confirming our position as the country's leading brand. ◈ The supermarket continued to match competitor prices order to maintain its competitive position.
- ▸ weaken a position undermine Britain's global position was fatally undermined by the incident.
- ▸ explain the position explain, outline, state He outlined the position and told them what he intended to do.
- ▸ change or consider changing your position change, consider, review We met to review the position and to consider what lessons could be learnt.

3 someone's opinion about an important issue

- adj+N official official These comments do not reflect the official position of the U.S. Government.
- ▸ common common We are collaborating with other professional bodies to establish a common position on copyright law.
- ▸ clear clear The international community has a very clear position on the nature of his regime.
- ▸ neutral neutral 'We have a neutral position,' said a spokeswoman.
- ▸ types of position ideological, philosophical, political, theoretical This work contains the fullest statement of his political position.

- v+N take a position adopt, assume, reach, take Mr Michel has tried in vain to push the EU into adopting a common position over Iraq. ◈ We take the position that so-called 'crimes of honour' should be treated like any other acts of violence.
- ▸ change your position alter, change, reconsider, shift Jeffreys appears to have changed his position on the study.
- ▸ explain your position clarify, defend, explain, reverse, state, summarize In an interview shown on News at Ten, he explained his position.

positive ADJ

1 expecting or indicating something good, or believing that something is good

- adv+ADJ very enormously, exceptionally, extremely, highly, hugely, incredibly, really, strongly, tremendously, very We have had extremely positive talks with the city council.
- ▸ rather fairly, mildly, pretty INFORMAL, quite With the possibility of a record deal in the future, things are looking fairly positive.
- ▸ mostly broadly, generally, largely, mainly, mostly, overwhelmingly, predominantly The impact of the scheme on the local economy has been generally positive.
- ▸ completely completely, consistently, entirely, unambiguously, unanimously, unequivocally, uniformly, universally, wholly 83 people attended, and feedback was almost universally positive.
- ▸ compared with something else equally, similarly Emiliana's endearing personality has evoked an equally positive response from the media.
- ▸ in a way that is surprising amazingly, refreshingly, remarkably, surprisingly, wonderfully The scheme has had a remarkably positive impact on young people.

- ADJ+n attitude or mood attitude, emotion, ethos, feeling, note, outlook, thinking In this session, we have aimed at fostering positive attitudes to learning. ◈ On a positive note, the treatment did not make any patients worse, although it does not seem to have worked for them.
- ▸ reaction comment, feedback, reaction, response The initial response from employees was overwhelmingly positive.
- ▸ effect or influence effect, impact, influence The positive effects of eating fresh fruit and vegetables as part of a healthy diet are well proven.
- ▸ result outcome, result, sign The team's first tournament of the season ended with a positive result when they came second.
- ▸ way of doing something approach, manner, way We are looking for someone who thrives on change, with a flexible, positive approach.
- ▸ contribution benefit, contribution They have proved that they can make a positive contribution to the community.
- ▸ action action, move, step There are several positive steps you can take to improve the situation.
- ▸ change change, difference, trend Some companies reported positive changes, for example increased productivity.
- ▸ aspect aspect, attribute One of the positive aspects of the Scottish education system is that there is less social segregation than in England and Wales.
- ▸ experience experience, relationship The staff work at developing a positive relationship with their customers.
- ▸ encouragement affirmation, encouragement, reinforcement Positive encouragement from you will contribute to the children's enjoyment and self-esteem.
- ▸ impression image, impression The media should be encouraged to portray positive images of disabled people.
- ▸ message message, publicity, spin The film puts across a positive message about tolerance.

- v+ADJ feel be, feel, think INFORMAL I began to feel very positive – convinced I had made the right decision. ◉ I don't often despair about anything – think positive!

- ▸ seem appear, look, seem, sound The vast majority of those I have talked to seem very positive about the future.
- ▸ remain keep, remain, stay As professionals, we stay positive and we get on with the job of teaching.
- ▸ be be, prove Hopefully this change will prove positive, although it's too early to tell.

2 completely sure

- • adv+ADJ completely absolutely, quite Are you absolutely positive about that?
- ▸ not completely almost, fairly I'm almost positive that it shouldn't cost £15 to travel from Euston to Soho.

possess V

to own or have an object, quality or ability

- • V+n characteristic attribute, characteristic, personality, quality, trait If you believe that you possess the necessary attributes for this role, apply now.
- ▸ ability ability, capability, capacity, faculty, power, skill, talent He possessed the ability to immediately grasp complex situations.
- ▸ knowledge expertise, knowledge They possess an in-depth knowledge of client affairs, often gained over many years.
- ▸ good quality charm, courage, merit, virtue Despite its many problems, the city possesses a natural charm.
- ▸ educational qualification degree, qualification You must possess a relevant technical qualification.
- ▸ personal property property, wealth Those who possess wealth possess political influence.
- ▸ something that may be illegal arsenal, cannabis, firearm, weapon, WMD The police may revoke a certificate if they believe the holder no longer has good reason to possess a firearm.

possession N

something you own

- • adj+N very valuable to someone cherished, precious, prized, treasured, valuable, valued The painting of his son soon became his most prized possession.
- ▸ material earthly, material, worldly We were marching with all our worldly possessions on our backs.
- ▸ personal personal, private There was no storage space for his personal possessions.

possibility N

the chance that something might happen or be true

- • adj+N strong or definite definite, distinct, real, realistic, strong There is a distinct possibility that the virus may change into a very virulent form.
- ▸ obvious obvious Cardboard coffins are an obvious possibility for people selecting woodland burials.
- ▸ great or many endless, immense, infinite, limitless, tremendous, unlimited Combining and manipulating these images on my computer, I find the possibilities are endless.

Usage Possibility is usually plural in these combinations: As an artist, he explores the infinite possibilities of a world without boundaries.

- ▸ slight remote, slight, slim The clear benefits of breast-feeding should be weighed against the remote possibility of adverse effects.
- ▸ exciting or interesting exciting, interesting, intriguing This approach has exciting possibilities for researchers.

Usage Possibility is usually plural in these combinations: The idea raises interesting possibilities in terms of product placement.

- ▸ existing in theory future, logical, mere, theoretical The mere possibility of prosecution was likely to lead to more self-censorship.
- ▸ different alternative, different An alternative possibility is a commentary guiding the student through the text on an audio-cassette.
- ▸ types of possibility creative, practical, technological I find the creative possibilities the game offers utterly wonderful.

- • v+N discuss or examine a possibility discuss, examine, explore, investigate The Board has explored the possibility of the sale of the company.
- ▸ consider or admit a possibility admit, concede, consider, contemplate, entertain He began to contemplate the possibility of meeting her by chance.
- ▸ rule out a possibility eliminate, exclude, exhaust, preclude, rule out The system eliminates the possibilities of cross contamination between patients. ◉ We should not blame a staff member before exhausting every technical possibility.
- ▸ refuse to admit a possibility deny, dismiss, ignore We cannot ignore the possibility that migratory birds played a part in transmitting the virus.
- ▸ avoid a possibility avoid, minimize, reduce This will minimize the possibility of anything going wrong with our service.
- ▸ offer a possibility allow (sb), offer (sb), open, raise This raises the possibility of future drugs being able to provide a cure.
- ▸ mention a possibility mention, suggest He didn't mention the possibility of deliberate abuse of the system.
- ▸ face a possibility face Many regions face the possibility of droughts.
- ▸ take advantage of a possibility exploit Military forces understandably seek to exploit the possibilities of cutting-edge technology.

possible ADJ

something that is possible can be done

- • adv+ADJ perfectly certainly, entirely, perfectly, quite He accepts it is perfectly possible that evolutionary change moved faster at some times than others.
- ▸ logically logically, theoretically Isn't it logically possible that the universe should have contained nothing but two exactly similar spheres?
- ▸ according to what is reasonable humanly, reasonably The band like to play as many gigs as humanly possible.
- ▸ equally equally Although it is likely that many will prove to be correct, it is equally possible that some will be proved wrong.

▸ from a particular point of view physically, practically, technically It was technically possible to take the information from the database.
▸ not likely or not often rarely, remotely, scarcely Contrary to popular myth, it is rarely possible to state an exact time of death.

Remotely is often used with a negative word such as never or not: It never seemed remotely possible that I would go to university.

▸ only just hardly I had such severe knee and joint pain that it was hardly possible to do my job.

• ADJ+n explanation cause, explanation, reason, source There are only two possible explanations to this case.
▸ solution answer, solution The concepts shown are amongst a number of possible solutions for the business.
▸ result consequence, outcome The table summarises what actions need to be taken and indicates possible outcomes.
▸ effect effect, impact, implication The report into possible effects on children living near the site has yet to be completed.
▸ situation combination, scenario The first task is to list all the possible combinations of 0s and 1s.
▸ alternative alternative, option There is time for you to get more information about possible alternatives.
▸ way means, route, way Our goal will be to support them in every way possible.
▸ exception exception He is the best tennis player I have ever seen, with the possible exception of Federer.

• v+ADJ be or become possible be, become, be made, be rendered, prove, remain Using genetic techniques, it has proved possible to pinpoint the genetic abnormality responsible for causing a rare disease.
▸ seem possible appear, look, seem It seems possible that he was in the Navy.
▸ believe something is possible believe sth, consider sth, deem sth, dream sth, imagine sth, think sth I soon found myself working harder than I'd ever done in my life, but also having more fun than I'd thought possible!

Usage In these combinations, possible usually directly follows the verb, referring back to the object which is a construction with a comparative, 'ever' or 'never': Conditions got worse faster than I could ever believe possible. • You will be challenged in ways you never imagined possible.

post N
a job

• adj+N available vacant The post of director of finance is vacant currently.
▸ senior/not senior junior, senior We plan to create two new senior teacher posts.
▸ permanent/not permanent fixed-term, locum, permanent, temporary Temping for a charity can open doors into permanent posts.
▸ full-/part-time full-time, part-time There are 21 full-time posts within the Fire Control Department.
▸ types of post academic, administrative, diplomatic, lecturing, managerial, ministerial, teaching An increasing proportion of women now occupy academic posts.
• v+N have a post hold, occupy He has held a postgraduate training post at The Royal London Hospital.
▸ get a post accept, secure, take, take up If the successful candidate accepts the post, she will not be able to start work until December.
▸ leave a post quit, relinquish, resign Curry unfortunately had to resign his post as Station Manager.
▸ find someone for a post advertise, appoint sb to, fill If a Nurse left the Trust, it would take a minimum of 12 weeks to fill the post.
▸ pay for a post fund Only one local school for children with learning disabilities currently funds a music therapy post.

postpone V decide something will be done later

• adv+V for a long time or permanently forever, indefinitely She was under suspicion of murder, and her release was postponed indefinitely.
▸ temporarily provisionally, temporarily The planned surgery has been provisionally postponed.
▸ more than once again, repeatedly, twice The completion of the work has been repeatedly postponed.

• V+n life event honeymoon, parenthood, retirement, wedding People now need to work longer, and postpone retirement.
▸ election or competition election, fixture, match, referendum We have decided to postpone the election until the Autumn.
▸ start or departure commencement, departure, launch The launch was postponed on 13 July after a problem with a hydrogen tank sensor.
▸ decision or judgement decision, hearing The hearing is now postponed to September 25.
▸ meeting AGM, meeting The board were forced to postpone the AGM.

• and/or abandon, adjourn, cancel, defer, delay, rearrange, reschedule The organisers reserve the right to postpone, cancel, or abandon the race in bad weather or bad light.

posture N
1 the position of someone's body when sitting, standing, or walking

• adj+N upright alert, erect, upright She should sit in an upright posture, with the chair supporting her lower back.
▸ standing or sitting seated, sitting, standing I slowly raised myself into a sitting posture.
▸ lying down reclining, recumbent In the painting the Bishop is represented in a recumbent posture, dressed in his robes.
▸ good or comfortable correct, good, neutral, relaxed, resting You need to pay attention to correct posture. ◈ The comfortable, arched shape holds your hand in a natural resting posture.
▸ not good or comfortable abnormal, awkward, contorted, poor, unnatural There were ceramic figurines of ballet dancers in various contorted postures. ◈ Poor posture and unsuitable seating often result in back, neck or shoulder pain.
▸ bent hunched, stooped The woman's great age can be guessed from her hunched posture and wrinkled face.

- ▸ not moving static The photograph, judging by the static postures of the figures, is a reconstruction after the event.
- ▸ typical characteristic Weight gain at the front of the body encourages the characteristic posture adopted by most pregnant women.
- ▸ of the body bodily Humans have certain bodily postures that we associate with aggression.

- • v+N take up a posture adopt, assume, take, take up Your physiotherapist will help you to adopt good posture.
- ▸ change your posture adjust, improve Before you step out, adjust your posture – knees bent, body straight.
- ▸ keep or return to the same posture maintain, resume The guard waved them through and resumed his posture of vigilance.

2 attitude or behaviour towards other people

- • adj+N aggressive aggressive, threatening Governments, through adopting threatening postures, endanger the whole world.
- ▸ not aggressive defensive, neutral, submissive We strive for a neutral posture and have appointed an American-Palestinian as our Director.

potential ADJ possible or likely in the future

- • ADJ+n danger or harm damage, danger, harm, hazard, liability, loss, risk, threat Building sites are full of potential hazards that can present a real threat to personal safety.
- ▸ problem barrier, conflict, difficulty, pitfall, problem The joy of coming parenthood is often coupled with fear about potential problems.
- ▸ benefit advantage, benefit, gain, saving, solution People need to understand the potential economic benefits that can result from environmental protection.
- ▸ effect consequence, effect, impact, implication The police were concerned at the potential impact of a march on good community relations.
- ▸ provider of something bidder, buyer, client, customer, donor, employer, funder, investor, partner, purchaser, source, sponsor, supplier, user She was showing a potential buyer around the house.
- ▸ receiver of something applicant, audience, beneficiary, candidate, employee, recruit, target We are responsible for selecting new students from potential applicants.

potential N

the future possibility to develop or achieve something

- • adj+N great considerable, enormous, great, huge, immense, incredible, massive, tremendous, vast There is enormous potential for the waterways to play a vital role in the regeneration of the city.
- ▸ maximum full, maximum We aim to encourage every pupil to develop his or her full potential.
- ▸ unlimited infinite, limitless, unlimited Every human life represents almost unlimited potential.
- ▸ real real, significant, true, undoubted If they are not fit, they cannot play to their true potential.
- ▸ future future, long-term Increasing participation in the labour market will help to raise the economy's long-term growth potential.
- ▸ unused unfulfilled, untapped We should be more innovative with our marketing, as there is great untapped potential.
- ▸ of people human The fulfilment of human potential is what all great schools should be aiming for.
- ▸ types of potential academic, archaeological, comic, commercial, creative, destructive, economic, educational, expressive, productive, therapeutic There is a need for workspaces that make the most of people's creative potential.

- • n+N to earn or make money earning, export, investment, money-making, profit, revenue, yield The right qualifications can make a big difference to your earning potential.
- ▸ to grow expansion, growth We see our biggest growth potential in eastern Europe.
- ▸ personal qualities leadership, sporting Candidates will have the chance to display their leadership potential.

- • v+N have or show potential demonstrate, have, offer, show This is their chance to demonstrate academic potential. ◆ I believe that I have the potential to make it big within the film industry.
- ▸ use one's potential achieve, fulfil, reach, realize Our aim is to ensure that every student realizes his or her full potential.
- ▸ make the most of potential develop, enhance, exploit, harness, increase, maximize, optimize, tap into, unleash, unlock, utilize The task of harnessing the potential of all staff in the creative process is particularly difficult. ◆ The strategy aims to maximise the development potential of areas of East London.
- ▸ study potential assess, consider, evaluate, examine, explore, investigate We are exploring the potential of hand held devices with wireless internet facilities for staff and students.
- ▸ recognize potential appreciate, highlight, identify, identify, recognize, see, spot, understand He recognized the potential for disaster was enormous.

- • N+for growth expansion, growth There is still great potential for growth in the market.
- ▸ improvement or advantage collaboration, improvement, savings The report identified the potential for further savings.
- ▸ problem conflict, contamination, damage, disaster, disruption, duplication, harm Many substances have the potential for harm if not used appropriately.
- ▸ use or abuse abuse, exploitation, fraud, misuse These are interesting and unusual properties with potential for commercial exploitation.
- ▸ confusion or error confusion, error, misunderstanding Electors casting votes in order of preference removes the potential for confusion.

poverty N

the situation of not having enough money

- • adj+N very bad abject, appalling, crippling, crushing, desperate, dire, extreme, grinding, severe, terrible These are countries rich in resources, but their people are suffering abject poverty.
- ▸ affecting very many people endemic, mass, rife, widespread Unemployment is high and poverty is rife. ◉ There is widespread poverty among mountain inhabitants.

- ▸ hard to get rid of chronic, entrenched, persistent The charity was established in response to the chronic poverty and environmental crisis in Africa.
- ▸ in a particular area global, rural, urban The idea is a series of concerts to highlight global poverty.
- ▸ compared to others absolute, relative In Nigeria, 75 million people live in absolute poverty.

- • v+N fight poverty address, combat, fight, overcome, tackle We are asking candidates what they and their party would do to tackle poverty.
- ▸ reduce poverty alleviate, halve, reduce, relieve Increasing home ownership won't alleviate poverty, he says.
- ▸ get rid of poverty abolish, eliminate, end, eradicate Our goal is eradicating child poverty.
- ▸ increase poverty deepen, exacerbate, perpetuate, worsen Water related diseases exacerbate poverty and threaten lives.
- ▸ experience poverty experience, live in, suffer Lone parents and their children are more likely to experience poverty and ill health.
- ▸ escape from poverty escape, flee Emma dreams of escaping the poverty of the East End.

- • and/or additional problems famine, homelessness, hunger, illiteracy, starvation, underdevelopment, unemployment World leaders committed to halving extreme poverty and hunger by 2015.
- ▸ inequality or unfairness exclusion, inequality, injustice, oppression The new president expressed his intention to deal with poverty and inequality in Brazil.
- ▸ suffering or bad conditions degradation, deprivation, destitution, hardship, misery, squalor He was horrified at the poverty and misery of these women.

power N
the ability to influence or control others

- • adj+N great absolute, awesome, great, immense, mighty, sheer, supreme The UN has immense power; they can send troops anywhere in the world.
- ▸ supernatural or magic divine, magical, miraculous, psychic, superhuman, supernatural Prospero's magical powers allow him to take control of the island.
- ▸ types of power executive, expressive, judicial, legal, legislative, military, political This is an abuse of political power.
- ▸ to do a particular thing bargaining, decision-making, healing, law-making, purchasing, sentencing, spending, veto The system is less democratic because decision-making powers are held by one person.

- • v+N have power have, hold, possess A mother has power over her child.
- ▸ use power abuse, exercise, exert, harness, use, wield In a democracy, judges must be able to exercise their judical powers independently.
- ▸ give power confer (on sb), give (sb), grant (sb), hand The Act conferred power on the authorities to prohibit public gatherings.
- ▸ get power acquire, gain, get, seize, take, usurp He seized power in a bloody coup.
- ▸ lose or lack power lack, lose Those who lack power are often silenced.
- ▸ share or give away power cede, decentralize, delegate, devolve Central government refuses to devolve power to local government because it thinks it is inefficient.
- ▸ increase power centralize, consolidate, increase, leverage Our aim is to increase people's power over their own lives.
- ▸ reduce power curb, reduce He failed in his attempt to curb the power of the Church.

powerful ADJ able to influence or control people

- • adv+ADJ very amazingly, awesomely, enormously, extremely, hugely, immensely, incredibly, massively, pretty INFORMAL, tremendously, very He sees global culture as driven by a few immensely powerful corporate interests.
- ▸ unusually or particularly especially, exceptionally, extraordinarily, particularly Television is an exceptionally powerful medium.
- ▸ in a particular way economically, emotionally, politically The number of women in politically powerful positions has not increased significantly.
- ▸ really really, truly Harper Lee's 'To Kill a Mockingbird' is a truly powerful and important masterpiece.

practicable ADJ able to be done or used successfully

- • ADJ+n action measure, precaution, step The company must take all reasonably practicable steps to ensure the health and safety of employees.
- ▸ solution remedy, solution Putting up a wall seemed like the only practicable solution to the problem.
- ▸ choice alternative, option, proposition A bonfire may be the best practicable option for disposing of garden waste.
- ▸ way means, method, way Use all practicable means to reduce risks.

practical ADJ involving or relating to real situations

- • adv+ADJ very eminently, extremely, highly, immensely, incredibly, intensely, perfectly, supremely, thoroughly, totally, uniquely, very The material is not merely very readable but eminently practical.
- ▸ fairly or mostly essentially, mostly, predominantly, reasonably The course is essentially practical, and skills will be acquired by doing rather than by listening.
- ▸ in a good or surprising way refreshingly, superbly, surprisingly, wonderfully Her approach is refreshingly practical.
- ▸ strictly or completely entirely, purely, severely, strictly, utterly When they planned the garden, the impetus behind it was purely practical.
- ▸ really really, truly Focus recently has been upon creating a truly practical signing system for babies.

- • ADJ+n help or advice advice, assistance, guidance, guide, help, suggestion, support, tip We offer practical advice on issues such as careers, housing, and health.
- ▸ knowledge or experience experience, knowledge, skill Our advice comes from people with practical experience as volunteers.

- ▸ solution or action approach, solution, step, way The journal focuses on practical solutions rather than theory.
- ▸ use or effect application, implementation, implication, importance, purpose, signficance, use Are these notions just academic waffle, or do they have some practical implications?
- ▸ aspect aspect, consideration, reason The module concentrates on the practical aspects of solar astronomy.
- ▸ problem difficulty, issue, problem There may be practical difficulties in getting to the clinic.
- ▸ example example The delegates were shown practical examples of how enzymes are being used.
- ▸ class or exercise activity, class, demonstration, exercise, session, training, workshop The workshop will use a mix of presentations, practical exercises, and group discussion.

- • and/or not practical academic, conceptual, creative, emotional, ethical, intellectual, moral, spiritual, theoretical Success is demonstrated through the practical and intellectual capability to both design and make quality products.
- ▸ realistic down-to-earth, everyday, hands-on, manual, proven, realistic, sensible, simple The Food Doctor for Babies and Children provides sensible, practical aid to ensure that your child has a balanced diet.

practice N

a way of doing something

- • adj+N good best, effective, good, recommended, safe, sound There are many excellent teachers and many examples of good practice.
- ▸ usual common, established, everyday, normal, routine, standard, traditional, usual It is standard practice to ensure candidates agree each application.
- ▸ current actual, current, existing, modern We feel some of the initiatives are no improvement on our current practice.
- ▸ bad bad, poor The majority of car accidents are caused by poor driving practices.
- ▸ unfair discriminatory, unfair The agency will consider whether unfair business practices have been used.
- ▸ types of practice agricultural, artistic, clinical, commercial, cultural, educational, environmental, legal, medical, religious The Government uses this judgement as the basis for accepted medical practice.
- ▸ doing a particular thing accounting, driving, employment, farming, management, nursing, teaching, working The Association offers advice on safe working practices.

- • v+N use a practice adopt, continue, demonstrate, employ, follow, implement, introduce If more people adopted this practice, we would have fewer security problems.
- ▸ share or encourage a practice disseminate, encourage, promote, share, spread We will encourage sustainable land management practices. ⁕ Members work together as a team to share best practices.
- ▸ examine practice evaluate, examine, review I would encourage all departments to review their practices and procedures regularly.
- ▸ influence practice influence, inform, underpin Further research is required to inform nursing practice.
- ▸ improve practice change, develop, enhance, improve This is a very useful document and I'm sure it will improve environmental practice at airports.
- ▸ identify practice highlight, identify We will produce a Household Waste Disposal guide highlighting best practice.
- ▸ say what practice must be ensure, prescribe Our staff comprises experienced therapists whose work is supervised to ensure good practice.

- • and/or idea, policy, principle, research, theory The course is a stimulating blend of theory and practice designed to create graduates with the necessary skills to manage a business.

practise V

1 repeat an activity regularly so you get better

- • adv+V carefully assiduously, diligently, hard On most days he practised assiduously, preparing for his violin lessons.
- ▸ regularly daily, regularly These exercises are easily taught by a physiotherapist and should be practised daily at home.

2 work in a particular profession

- • V+as legal jobs advocate, attorney, barrister, lawyer, mediator, notary, solicitor Cole became the first Black African to practise as a barrister in the English Courts.
- ▸ medical jobs counsellor, doctor, GP, midwife, nurse, physician, psychotherapist, surgeon, therapist Val has been practising as a midwife for the last 13 years.
- ▸ other professions accountant, architect She originally trained and practised as an architect.

pragmatic ADJ emphasizing practical results or reasons

- • adv+ADJ very eminently, extremely, highly, very The book is highly pragmatic in its approach.
- ▸ entirely or only entirely, merely, purely, wholly The choice of what type of building to live in is not merely pragmatic. ⁕ Humane treatment of political prisoners is preferable, even for purely pragmatic reasons.
- ▸ mostly or rather essentially, fairly, largely, pretty INFORMAL, rather The arguments in favour of the change are largely pragmatic.
- ▸ in a way that is typical typically Roger is typically pragmatic about the problem.

- • ADJ+n approach or attitude approach, attitude, perspective, stance, view A pragmatic stance, rather than a humanitarian one, seems to have dominated their response to the deportations.
- ▸ solution compromise, response, solution We believe in pragmatic compromises rather than dogmatic ideology.
- ▸ reason argument, consideration, reason Our agreement should be based on pragmatic considerations of mutual benefit and not on a political agenda.

- • and/or flexible, practical, realistic, sensible With their pragmatic and flexible approach, British troops demonstrated admirable peacekeeping skills.

praise V express strong approval or admiration

- adv+V enthusiastically enthusiastically, extravagantly, highly, lavishly, roundly, warmly He had had two novels published, both of which had been lavishly praised by critics.
- ▸ by everyone or many people consistently, unanimously, universally, widely The symphony was almost universally praised.
- ▸ by critics critically He is the author of critically praised books about Fidel Castro and Pope John Paul II.

Usage Praise is usually passive in the three adv+V combinations shown above: It was the most highly praised biography of the year. • The company was widely praised for its response to the crisis.

- ▸ in a way that is deserved justly, rightly She rightly praises the efforts of local people.
- ▸ in public openly, publicly Since taking office, he has publicly praised the insurgency.

praise N an expression of strong approval or admiration

- adj+N great effusive, exaggerated, extravagant, fulsome, glowing, gushing, hearty, high, lavish, sincere, unqualified Since opening in 2003, the hotel has garnered lavish praise from travel magazines.
- ▸ not great faint They issued a statement that damns the new alliance with faint praise.
- ▸ by everyone or many people unanimous, universal, widespread The book has deservedly received almost unanimous praise.
- ▸ deserved/not deserved deserving, undeserved, well-deserved The composer joined those on stage to receive well-deserved praise.
- ▸ types of praise critical, verbal He won critical praise for his smaller independent films.

- v+N give praise bestow on sb/sth, heap on sb/sth, lavish on sb/sth, shower on sb/sth The manager heaped praise on his side after they came from behind to win the game.

You can also say that someone sings the praises of someone or something: I have been singing your praises to all my friends and they want to meet you.

- ▸ receive praise attract, earn, garner, receive, win Despite these problems, the conference earned praise for its organisation.
- ▸ deserve praise deserve, merit The medical profession deserves the highest praise for this astonishing achievement.

pray V
very strongly wish or hope for something, or ask God for something

- adv+V sincerely earnestly, honestly, humbly, sincerely Peter was kept in jail, but the church prayed earnestly to God for him.
- ▸ enthusiastically devoutly, fervently, heartily He most devoutly prayed that his government might be prosperous.
- ▸ quietly/loudly aloud, loudly, privately, quietly, silently She raced down the stairs, silently praying that her feeling of foreboding might be unfounded.
- ▸ all the time constantly, incessantly, unceasingly She would pray incessantly that the real murderer might give himself up.

prayer N
words spoken to God

- adj+N contemplative, earnest, fervent, silent Cromwell regarded the manoeuvre as the answer to his fervent prayers.
- v+N say a prayer offer, read, say, utter The whole school had an assembly and said some prayers.
- ▸ repeat a prayer chant, intone, recite, repeat They are told to recite Christian prayers six times a day.
- ▸ say a prayer quietly mumble, murmur, mutter, whisper I closed my eyes and whispered a prayer for a successful outcome to my journey.
- ▸ answer someone's prayer answer, hear Her prayers are answered and her son is safely returned.

precaution N
something that is done to protect against possible harm

- adj+N sensible common-sense, prudent, sensible, wise This may be a wise precaution under certain conditions.
- ▸ good enough adequate, appropriate, necessary, proper, reasonable, suitable The judge found that the company failed to take reasonable precautions against the risk of accident.
- ▸ usual or basic basic, elementary, simple, usual Too many people do not follow simple precautions to protect their property.
- ▸ strict elaborate, strict, stringent Elaborate precautions are taken to ensure that there is no fraud of any kind.
- ▸ additional added, additional, extra, special Police are urging residents to take extra security precautions following a spate of burglaries.
- ▸ types of precaution fire, hygiene, safety, sanitary, security Legislation requires that adequate fire precautions are in place.

- v+N take precautions adopt, exercise, follow, observe, take The best way to keep yourself safe when you're out is to take sensible precautions.
- ▸ put precautions in place implement, institute, put in place He instituted air-raid precautions including a black-out of London.
- ▸ describe precautions detail, outline This Code outlines sensible precautions for those visiting the countryside.
- ▸ require precaution need, require This task may require additional precautions, such as the wearing of gloves.
- ▸ advise precaution advise, recommend The guidelines recommend precautions for avoiding static electricity problems.
- ▸ ignore precautions neglect Target-obsessed executives have neglected elementary precautions in order to maximise output.

precedent N a past action as an example or reason for doing something

- adj+N bad bad, dangerous, disastrous, disturbing, ominous, unacceptable, undesirable, unfortunate, unwelcome, worrying These sackings represent a very worrying precedent.

- good encouraging, useful His success in securing permission to write his finals in Scots is an encouraging precedent.
- plenty ample There is ample precedent for producing films for children with well-written dialogue and convincing characters.
- types of precedent artistic, biblical, classical, historic, historical, judicial, legal, scriptural His speech invoked historical precedents for the union of kingdoms.

• v+N create a precedent create, establish, set He warned that using force to impose democracy sets a dangerous precedent.
- be a precedent act as, become, constitute, provide, serve as This could serve as a precedent for other cases where 'crimes of opinion' are punished.
- follow a precedent follow Following a precedent set by the US, the EU announced a ban on 23 organizations.
- refer to a precedent cite, invoke He could cite various Biblical precedents for the use of song in the service of God.

precise ADJ exact and accurate

• adv+ADJ very absolutely, exceptionally, exquisitely, extremely, highly, infinitely, perfectly, quite, surgically, very, wonderfully He was engaged in an exquisitely precise examination of the details of linguistic usage. • What she means by this is something quite precise.
- surprisingly amazingly, incredibly, remarkably, surprisingly She spent, apparently, an incredibly precise 43 per cent of her time with her father.
- rather fairly, rather, reasonably, relatively Some students already have a fairly precise idea of the research topic which they intend to pursue.
- enough/not enough insufficiently, sufficiently The use of the words 'seven days' is insufficiently precise, and it would be preferable to stipulate 'seven working days'.
- in a particular way historically, mathematically, scientifically, technically We take the photographs in a consistent and scientifically precise way.

• ADJ+n description or words used description, detail, formulation, specification, wording We spent days haggling over the precise wording of our declaration.
- meaning definition, meaning, semantics Uncertainty over the precise meaning of 'serious misconduct' is an area of concern.
- instructions instruction It is difficult to give precise instructions covering all situations, so we have provided some general guidelines.
- estimate or calculation calculation, estimate, figure, measurement, prediction These are difficult tasks requiring precise measurements.
- time or position date, extent, location, moment, timetable, timing For urgent deliveries where precise timing is required, we can use an express courier service.
- movement or change adjustment, alignment, positioning The cooker includes child safety knobs that allow precise adjustment.
- nature of something mechanism, nature There are many diseases where the precise mechanism is not understood but the cause is established.
- opposite opposite Replacing human contact with computerised phone lines is the precise opposite of personalising public services.
- cause or reason cause, circumstance, diagnosis As for the precise cause of the accident, that is something that the coroner will decide.

preconception N
an opinion formed without much information or experience

• adj+N false or negative erroneous, false, negative, stereotypical The racial politics that inform his outlook are based on stereotypical preconceptions.
- deep in a person or culture cultural, ingrained Our preconceptions about groups of people are deeply ingrained.

• v+N question or overcome preconceptions abandon, challenge, confound, defy, discard, dispel, overcome, puncture, question, rethink, shatter, subvert The module aims to challenge preconceptions of what music is.
- have preconceptions have I'm sorry to say I had a very false preconception of how Africa and African people would be.
- fit preconceptions fit, match, suit It was obvious that he rejected the information because it did not fit his preconceptions.

predicament N an unpleasant situation that is not easy to escape

• adj+N very bad appalling, desperate, dire, dreadful, perilous, precarious, terrible We can feed the vulnerable children, but food alone will not solve their dire predicament.
- difficult or embarrassing awkward, embarrassing, unfortunate, unpleasant He has put himself in a very awkward predicament.
- current current, present Indeed, she is partly responsible for the country's present predicament.

• v+N be in a predicament be caught in, be in, be stuck in, face Midwives face an appalling predicament when women refuse a caesarean in the late stages of labour.
- understand a predicament appreciate, realize, understand We then realized our unfortunate predicament: there was no way we could get back in time.
- describe a predicament describe, explain I called the breakdown service and explained my predicament.
- solve a predicament escape, overcome, solve She offered him an opportunity to escape his predicament.
- make a predicament worse worsen The company's predicament was worsened by delivery problems.

predict V say what you think will happen

• adv+V correctly accurately, correctly, realistically, reliably, rightly, successfully He has made a name for himself by accurately predicting election results.
- precisely exactly, precisely You won't be able to predict exactly what will appear on your exam paper.

- wrongly incorrectly, wrongly Currently, around 50 per cent of students have their A level grades incorrectly predicted.
- with confidence boldly, confidently, safely The coach boldly predicted that his side would win the World Cup. ◉ These are the people who we can safely predict will turn out to vote.
- by many people consistently, widely This did not constitute the severe earthquake which had been widely predicted.

Usage Predict is usually passive in these combinations.

- using a particular method mathematically, theoretically This effect was predicted theoretically using basic cell biology.

- V+n result consequence, effect, outcome, prognosis Cost analysis can help to predict the outcome of different policies.
- fall/rise fall, growth, increase, rise, shortfall, trend The British Airports Authority has predicted a rise in the number of passengers over the next ten years.
- how likely something is likelihood, occurrence, probability It's hard to predict the likelihood of your pet becoming ill or being injured.
- how bad something is collapse, severity Researchers are hoping to develop simple blood tests which could predict the severity of osteoarthritis.
- future future He said that the best way to predict the future is to create it.
- behaviour behaviour, performance If a child has a good understanding of emotions, then they are more likely to be able to predict the behaviour of others and respond appropriately.

predictable ADJ

happening in the way you would expect

- adv+ADJ very completely, eminently, entirely, highly, totally, utterly, wholly There were two overwhelming and entirely predictable responses.
- in a bad way boringly, depressingly, disappointingly, horribly, painfully, sadly, tediously It is depressingly predictable that there should be resistance to this proposal.
- rather fairly, largely, a little, pretty INFORMAL, rather, reasonably, relatively, slightly, somewhat Most of his stories were fairly predictable, with clear-cut heroes and villains.

- ADJ+n result consequence, outcome, result These were the predictable consequences of their policies, which were actually fuelling crime.
- way of doing something manner, pattern, routine Customers don't behave in a predictable manner.
- reaction reaction, response This was another predictable reaction from resentful locals.
- story ending, plot, storyline The ending is somewhat predictable, but the high quality acting compensates for this.

prediction N

a statement about what will happen in the future

- adj+N accurate accurate, correct, good, precise, reliable Her astonishingly accurate predictions are an invaluable asset to the American business world.
- incorrect false, inaccurate, incorrect, wrong All the experts' predictions were wrong.
- specific specific Specific predictions of tsunamis are not going to be possible in the foreseeable future.
- about natural events climate, tidal, weather Although they are made by the same sort of mathematical model, weather forecasts and climate predictions are really quite different.
- involving amounts mathematical, numerical, quantitative, statistical We have reached the very interesting point where we can compare the numerical predictions with the experimental observations.
- saying that something very bad will happen dire, gloomy, grim, pessimistic Despite dire predictions of a devastating wave of human disease, very few humans have contracted the infection.

- v+N make a prediction give, make, offer, provide In that article, I made a prediction which turned out to be drastically incorrect.
- show that a prediction is correct confirm, fulfil, support, validate, verify These computations have so far confirmed the predictions of her hypothesis.
- produce a prediction generate, model, produce Different numerical techniques now produce the same predictions.
- make a prediction possible allow, enable Newton's laws of motion generally do not allow precise predictions except in the simplest cases.
- obtain a prediction get, obtain The program offers users the ability to obtain tidal predictions for over 6,000 ports worldwide.
- match a prediction match As the images above show, the actual eclipse matched the predictions very closely.
- improve a prediction improve, refine, revise An understanding of how the infection is transmitted will improve predictions of how the epidemic will develop.

preferable ADJ

more suitable or useful than something else

- adv+ADJ to a large degree far, greatly, highly, infinitely, much, vastly Having 70 people moving smoothly and quickly on a bus is far preferable to having 70 single-occupant cars blocking the whole road.
- clearly clearly, obviously Wilhelm Stekel's method of psychoanalysis is, in my experience, often clearly preferable to Freud's or Adler's.
- in a particular way environmentally, morally The aim is to identify environmentally preferable products that meet basic quality specifications.
- usually generally, normally, often, usually Paracetamol is usually preferable, as it is less likely to have unwanted side effects, and costs less.
- definitely certainly, definitely, surely But if we allow ourselves to be influenced by the convenience argument, some methods are certainly preferable to others.

preference N

a feeling of liking or wanting someone or something more than someone or something else

- adj+N personal individual, personal In the end it all comes down to personal preference.
- definite clear, marked, particular, strong There was no single view but a strong preference for (b).

- relating to a particular subject or activity constitutional, cultural, ideological, political, racial, sexual In December 2003, the government introduced legislation making discrimination in the workplace over sexual preference illegal.
- showing position in a series first, second etc The voter may express a third preference, so that if the Liberal Democrat candidate is eliminated, then the voter can still influence whether a Labour or a Conservative candidate is elected.
- general general There was a general preference for the small group sessions rather than the set-piece lectures.
- shown by a particular group parental, patient, public It is unrealistic – and unfair to parents – to give the impression that parental preference can always be met.
- different different At the end of the day, different people have different preferences.

- v+N have a preference have If you have a preference, please let me know which day you prefer.
- show a preference exhibit, indicate, reflect, reveal, show In the first six weeks, babies show no preference for a particular person.
- state a preference declare, express, specify, state This section of the form allows you to express a preference for the school you want your child to go to.
- give preference to someone or something give The College gives preference to applicants with Mathematics at A level.
- suit someone's preference match, meet, suit There is a range of lodging in the village to suit all preferences and budgets.
- know someone's preference know Please let us know your preference when making your reservation.
- on a computer change, configure, reset, set Under the Options menu you can set various preferences for display.
- choose choose, select The restaurant can send a menu so we can choose our preferences beforehand.

pregnancy N

the condition of being pregnant, or the period when a woman is pregnant

- adj+N affecting girls who are teenagers teen, teenage, underage The UK has the highest rate of teen pregnancies in western Europe.
- not wanted unintended, unplanned, unwanted Contraception is really important as it can prevent unplanned pregnancy.
- early early Women need to take folic acid supplements during early pregnancy to help give their babies the best start in life.
- late late Researchers warned that scans in late pregnancy were now routine in many countries.
- involving more than one baby multiple, twin The first edition of this book was a landmark publication in establishing the study of multiple pregnancy.
- involving a baby growing outside the organ in which babies grow ectopic Tests over several days may be requested to rule out an ectopic pregnancy.
- normal healthy, normal, uncomplicated, uneventful Providing your pregnancy is normal, you can continue to exercise throughout the nine months.
- successful successful From what you say, there seems every chance of a successful pregnancy.

- v+N have a pregnancy experience, have She had had a trouble-free pregnancy.
- end a pregnancy abort, end, terminate Women now have the well-established right to terminate an unwanted pregnancy.
- prevent a pregnancy avoid, prevent The following figures will give you some idea of which methods are best at preventing pregnancy.
- plan a pregnancy plan Most of them had not planned their pregnancies.
- prove that a pregnancy exists confirm The doctor called to confirm her pregnancy .
- reduce the number of pregnancies reduce For those interested in reducing teenage pregnancy the message is bleak.

- N+n advice, care, kit, problem, rate, symptom, test, testing I decided to do a pregnancy test as I felt that I was pregnant.

pregnant ADJ

having a baby developing inside the body

- adv+ADJ very heavily, hugely, very He travelled to Washington with his heavily pregnant wife and their two small children.
- clearly visibly It had only been 7 months since her last pregnancy and she was already visibly pregnant.
- recently newly, recently Benjamin drops out of high school to set up home with his newly pregnant girlfriend.
- unexpectedly unexpectedly When Eileen finds herself unexpectedly pregnant, her husband is determined the family should move to more spacious accommodation.
- for a particular period of time eight weeks, five months etc Lisa is four months pregnant and is said by friends to be 'thrilled'.

- v+ADJ become pregnant become, fall, get Joanne got pregnant at 17 while still at school.
- look pregnant look Does Melissa look pregnant to you in that picture?
- make someone pregnant get sb, make sb When Briony started being sick, he thought he'd got her pregnant.

prejudice N an unreasonable opinion or feeling, especially the feeling of not liking a particular group of people

- adj+N types of prejudice cultural, national, political, racial, racist, religious, social In far too many firms, technicians and technologists, designers and production engineers are held back by the social prejudices and anti-scientific bias of the 'old boy' network.
- personal individual, personal What people say is rarely objectively factual, because the person's background, knowledge and individual prejudices and preoccupations usually determine it.
- strong deep, deep-rooted, deep-seated, ingrained, strong There was a strong prejudice against Government aid.

- common common, popular, widespread As well as coping with popular prejudice and frequent racism, asylum seekers arriving in Scotland face a real risk of falling into poverty.
- unreasonable blind, extreme, ignorant, irrational, unfair It should be a civilized and grown-up debate based on facts rather than blind prejudice.
- not deliberate unconscious, unwitting Steps will be taken to eradicate all forms of unwitting prejudice.
- obvious blatant When faced with blatant prejudice, don't be afraid to challenge it.

• v+N have a prejudice have, hold Do you think employers have a prejudice against young people who live on inner-city housing estates?

- succeed in dealing with prejudice counter, eliminate, overcome, remove We need to work hard to overcome the prejudice faced daily by people living with HIV.
- experience prejudice encounter, experience, face, suffer They remain a minority that has suffered racial prejudice for over 400 years.
- fight prejudice challenge, combat, confront, fight, reduce, tackle The association also aims to challenge prejudice within society against people with mental health issues.
- make a prejudice stronger confirm, reinforce It is important to understand that there are some widely used words and actions that are offensive because they reinforce prejudice and negative stereotypes.
- show prejudice reflect, show These views may be based on out-of-date knowledge or on rumour, or may reflect personal prejudices.

• and/or bias, bigotry, discrimination, fear, hatred, ignorance, racism If you have evidence of bias or prejudice, you should present this to your head of department.

prejudice V

make someone form an opinion about someone or something before they have enough information

• adv+V unfairly unduly, unfairly, unreasonably It could well be that the two women's costumes unfairly prejudiced us against them from the outset, but their performance left us rather cold.

- seriously seriously, substantially The trial was dramatically halted after the Sunday Mirror published an article which, the judge said, risked 'seriously prejudicing' the jury.

• V+n employer, jurors, jury Everybody would agree that disability should not prejudice an employer against recruiting or retaining someone.

preliminary ADJ

coming before the most important part of something

• ADJ+n results conclusions, findings, observations, results The preliminary results obtained show the effectiveness of our approach.

- study analysis, assessment, examination, investigation, research, study, survey, test, trial Hitler commissioned a preliminary study of the problems the military would experience in an attack on Norway.
- data data, evidence Preliminary data on the reliability and validity of the procedure are reported, and its potential applications in the care of the long-term mentally ill are discussed.
- stage round, stage The original fourteen teams had competed in two preliminary rounds earlier in the term.
- design design This is a very preliminary design, and the size and shape have yet to be finalized.
- report report The committee made no significant changes to the proposals outlined in its preliminary report issued last August.
- meeting discussions, hearing, talks An LG spokesman told Mobile: 'We have no comment on the reported interest in acquiring Siemens' handset unit.' However, LG is understood to have entered into preliminary discussions with Siemens. ◆ The new rules apply to any criminal proceedings such as a preliminary hearing, trial or sentencing.
- act of reading reading Ideally, they should come to the lecture having done some preliminary reading.
- in a court of law injunction, ruling The case was referred to the European Court for a preliminary ruling as to whether it was contrary to the Equal Treatment Directive.

preoccupation N

1 a state in which you think about something so much that you do not think about other things

• adj+N current contemporary, current, modern, ongoing, present The current preoccupation with terrorism risks overshadowing the need to eradicate poverty.

- continuing for a long time constant, lifelong His lifelong preoccupation with death became acutely personal in the 1980s when he became seriously ill.
- much more than is reasonable excessive, obsessive He has shown excessive preoccupation with the purely administrative side of the work.

2 something that you think about and want to do because it is important

• adj+N main central, chief, main, major, overriding, primary To provide for defence in a way that is not seen by neighbours as aggressive has been a major preoccupation of arms control over the last fifteen years.

- current contemporary, current, modern, ongoing, present Canadian music is one of my current preoccupations.
- continuing for a long time constant, lifelong In the camps, keeping up the spirits of the sick was a constant preoccupation.
- common common, usual A common preoccupation of much contemporary writing about world politics concerns the relationship between continuity and change.
- only sole Cuts in public expenditure seem to be almost the sole preoccupation of both national and local government.
- relating to a particular subject cultural, political, thematic These products embody many of our deepest cultural preoccupations.

preparation N

1 the process of making someone or something ready for something

• adj+N good effective, excellent, good, ideal, proper Good preparation helps you manage your nerves and shows the employer that you really want the job.

- ▸ enough adequate The key here is adequate preparation and ensuring everyone knows what they need to do.
- ▸ not enough inadequate, poor Some barristers were criticized for last-minute or poor preparation of cases.
- ▸ careful careful, thorough He has already put months of careful preparation into this project.
- ▸ types of preparation mental, physical My role here will be to co-ordinate the physical preparation of the players.
- ▸ necessary essential, necessary Morton argues that four months is not enough time for the necessary preparation.
- ▸ much a lot of, much Much preparation has already been done for the audit, which will take place in the week commencing 26 April.
- ▸ not much little, not much In all too many cases, they have had little preparation for the task.

- • v+N do preparation do, undertake Did you do any preparation for the role?
- ▸ need preparation need, require Good meetings don't just happen – they require a lot of preparation and planning.
- ▸ be in charge of preparation coordinate, facilitate, oversee, supervise She is responsible for overseeing the preparation of the advertising campaign.
- ▸ provide preparation give, offer, provide The course provides a valuable preparation for a wide variety of careers.

- • and/or cooking, implementation, planning, presentation, research, storage, training Some time spent in preparation and planning is vital – but not to the extent that no real work gets done.

2 things that you do so that you are ready for something [always plural]

- • adj+N final final, last-minute Final preparations are getting under way in London today for a spectacular £1 million firework display to mark the New Year.
- ▸ necessary essential, necessary The Board instructed him to make whatever preparations were necessary.
- ▸ special special Do I need to make any special preparations for your visit?
- ▸ military military The military preparations of the United States were in the initial stages.
- ▸ detailed detailed, elaborate, extensive Extensive preparations have been made to minimize any disruption to the public.

- • v+N make preparations make Anna was making her preparations for going to Southend as had been arranged.
- ▸ start preparations begin, commence, start In June the 4th Army, under General Sir Henry Rawlinson, began preparations for an Allied counter-offensive on the Somme.
- ▸ complete preparations complete, finalize, finish The team are completing their preparations in Ulster this week.
- ▸ continue preparations continue Meanwhile, Bulgaria was continuing its preparations for accession to the EU.
- ▸ be in charge of preparations coordinate, oversee The music was conducted in turn by three senior boys who had overseen the final preparations in the absence of the musical director, injured in a car accident.

prerequisite N

something that must exist before something else is possible

- • adj+N essential absolute, crucial, essential, indispensable, necessary, vital Good comprehensive insurance cover is an essential prerequisite of any winter holiday.
- ▸ important important, key, main The ability to relate to customers from a diverse range of cultures is a key prerequisite for this position.
- ▸ basic basic, fundamental A basic prerequisite for doing business in any country is that you agree to abide by that country's laws.

- • N+for development development, growth, progress Promote modernization of India's infrastructure as a prerequisite for the continued growth of the Indian economy.
- ▸ course of study course, module Many second-year courses are prerequisites for later modules.
- ▸ permission to take a course of study admission, entry Formal qualifications in mathematics are not a prerequisite for entry to the course.
- ▸ employment employment Knowledge of both Italian and German is a prerequisite for all employment in state administration and public corporations in South Tyrol.
- ▸ success achievement, success Investment in a well-educated workforce is now accepted as a prerequisite for economic success.
- ▸ process of taking part in something membership, participation Membership of the United Nations, furthermore, is not a prerequisite for membership of the WHO.
- ▸ peace peace The independence and territorial sovereignty of all nations is a prerequisite for peace in the world.
- ▸ democracy democracy A fundamental prerequisite for democracy is the principle of freedom of expression.

presence N

1 the existence of someone or something in particular place

- • v+N show the presence of someone or something betray, demonstrate, indicate, reveal, show, signal, suggest Finds of pottery, flint and stone axes indicate the presence of Neolithic communities in the 5th and 4th millennia BC.
- ▸ ask for the presence of someone or something request, require She was not continuously seen in the series but was only brought in when a particular storyline required her presence.
- ▸ feel the presence of someone or something feel, sense I could feel her presence.
- ▸ discover the presence of someone or something detect, determine, establish, identify When tests have established the presence of a kidney stone, the next step is to determine treatment.
- ▸ prove the presence of someone or something confirm The study confirmed the presence of two populations of wild boar living in Britain.

▸ explain the presence of someone or something explain How else can we explain the presence of plant species found nowhere else in the world?
▸ notice the presence of someone or something note, notice Vigilance should be exercised in noting the presence of strangers or of unusual parcels or packages in the building.
▸ show someone that you have noticed their presence acknowledge The man acknowledges their presence but doesn't look directly at them.

2 a group of people who are in a place for a particular purpose

• v+N establish a presence create, establish Attacking Afghanistan would also help to establish an American presence in Central Asia (with its vast oil reserves).
▸ increase a presence build, develop, expand, increase, strengthen The King has sought to tighten his grip on the country by introducing daily curfews and increasing the presence of police on the streets.
▸ continue a presence continue, maintain We will maintain an appropriate military presence for as long as is necessary.
▸ have a presence have What other European countries does your company have a presence in?

present ADJ

existing or happening now

• adv+ADJ naturally, physically, regularly History staff regularly present research papers at leading national and international conferences around the world.

• ADJ+n time day, moment, time The museum tells the story of flight up to the present day.
▸ situation arrangements, circumstances, conditions, position, situation He went to see Mr Osman and told him what the present situation was.
▸ person or group government, member, occupant, owner The kitchen is in a single-storey extension added by the present owners.
▸ system arrangement, system We are working hard to make the present system more efficient.
▸ level level I would be extremely concerned if there were a reduction in the present level of service.
▸ state condition, form, state, structure He described the Church at the time as small, but very light, airy and neat, which is a fair description of its present state.

• v+ADJ be present be, become, remain Witnesses are not allowed to remain present in the proceedings after they have given evidence.

present V

cause something such as a problem, threat, or opportunity

• V+n problem challenge, difficulty, problem International operations, on any scale, can also present problems.
▸ danger danger, hazard, risk, threat The research concluded that, for adults, the normal use of mobile phones does not present a measurable risk to the health of the individual.
▸ opportunity chance, opportunity The scheme presents a significant opportunity to contribute to the long term regeneration of the town.

presentation N a formal talk in which you describe or explain something to a group

• v+N make a presentation deliver, do, give, make She gave a brief presentation on a proposed scheme for developing the area.
▸ be at a presentation attend, hear, see, view In the afternoon, the meeting heard short presentations from four invited speakers.
▸ prepare a presentation prepare A colleague and I prepared a presentation about our project.

preserve V

1 take care of a place or building in order to prevent it from being harmed or destroyed [usually passive]

• adv+V well beautifully, excellently, perfectly, superbly, well, wonderfully Skara Brae is a well preserved village dating from 2500BC.
▸ carefully carefully, faithfully, lovingly The city possesses a wealth of superb architecture that has been carefully preserved.
▸ badly badly, poorly The wood contains evidence of shell holes and trenches, though these are poorly preserved.

2 keep something from changing or being lost

• V+n character, freedom, heritage, history, identity, integrity, life, memory, peace, right, tradition Perpignan, once the capital of the kingdom of Majorca, has managed to preserve its Spanish heritage.

press N

newspapers and news magazines

• adj+N for a particular area foreign, international, local, national, provincial, regional We will be inviting the local press along to report on the day.
▸ relating to a particular subject financial, music, trade She also writes about pensions for the financial press.
▸ having a particular quality gutter, left-wing, mainstream, popular, quality, right-wing, tabloid This appalling racism is encouraged by right-wing politicians and sections of the popular press.
▸ not controlled by government democratic, free, independent, liberal They have rule of law, and protection of minorities, a free press, and a viable political opposition.
▸ published every day daily, monthly, weekly A lot of nonsense has appeared in some of the British daily press recently.

• N+n briefing, campaign, clipping, coverage, enquiry, freedom, report, statement Air disasters receive widespread press coverage, which often causes people to cancel flights.

press for PHR VB

try in a determined way to achieve something

• V+for action, ban, change, improvements, legislation, measures, meeting, reduction, reform, solution A group called the Chartists, which developed in the late 1830s, pressed for sweeping changes to the political system.

pressure N

1 attempts to persuade, threaten, or force someone to do something

- adj+N great considerable, enormous, great, intense, maximum, strong His father was himself an outstanding musician and exerted great pressure on the young Wolfgang to develop his musical abilities.
  - too much excessive, extreme, heavy, undue Radio and television stations should be free to report news, comments and opinions without undue pressure from any quarter.
  - types of pressure commercial, economic, financial, political, social We want to put political pressure on the government to end the deportations.
  - continuous constant, continued Continued popular pressure led to the eventual suspension of the project.
  - increasing growing, increasing, mounting Mounting international pressure soon forced an early end to the the fighting.
  - public popular, public Don't underestimate the power of public pressure.
  - international diplomatic, international International pressure will be essential to ensuring that this happens.
  - from outside a place or organization external We also face external pressures to compromise.
- v+N put pressure on someone apply, bring to bear, exert, place, put Did they mean that the US was not putting enough pressure on the Israeli prime minister to make concessions for peace?
  - increase pressure on someone add to, heighten, increase, intensify Consumer groups are also increasing the pressure on mobile phone companies to take action.
  - reduce pressure on someone alleviate, ease, lessen, reduce School uniforms can be helpful in reducing the pressure on parents to buy expensive designer clothes for their children.
  - continue pressure on someone keep, maintain, sustain We must ensure that the EU maintains pressure on the Peruvian government and offers support when appropriate.
  - resist pressure resist, stand up to, withstand President Kennedy resisted pressure to intervene in Laos in 1961–62.
  - experience pressure be under, come under, experience, face The Home Secretary faces irresistible pressure to comply with today's Supreme Court ruling.
  - fail or be unable to resist pressure bow to, buckle under, give in to This is a fantastic band who do not bow to the commercial pressures of the music industry.

2 a worried feeling that you get when dealing with a difficult or complicated situation

- adj+N great considerable, enormous, extreme, great, heavy, immense, intense, severe It was apparent that she was under considerable pressure.
  - continuous constant People feel overworked, under constant pressure, and inadequately rewarded for their increased efforts.
- v+N experience pressure be under, come under, experience, feel He was feeling the pressure in his new post.
  - understand pressure understand They understand the pressures and pace of such organizations.
  - cause pressure cause, create Working part time can create added pressure for international students, as studying in a different language and in a different academic tradition can be more time-consuming than for a UK student.
  - deal with pressure cope with, deal with, handle, stand, take He simply could not handle the pressures of being a head coach at this level.

prestige N

a good reputation caused by impressive achievements

- adj+N great considerable, enormous, great, high, immense Men have much greater prestige and authority in the village.
  - low low The artillery had the lowest prestige of all branches of the armed forces.
  - types of prestige academic, cultural, moral, political, social A state grant allows her to study at university and thereafter to acquire social prestige as a secondary-school teacher.
  - in a particular place international, national At that time, the U.S. feared that it was falling behind the U.S.S.R. both in technological advances and international prestige.
  - personal personal Nevertheless, his office does not automatically confer influence or personal prestige.
- v+N have prestige enjoy, have For two thousand years, Egypt had enjoyed a prestige throughout the known world second to none.
  - increase prestige boost, enhance, increase, raise It was not an essential building and it is thought that it was constructed in order to enhance the prestige of the abbey.
  - give prestige add, attach, bestow, bring, carry, confer, lend The Festival's standing as a major UK arts event brings enormous prestige to our City.
  - get prestige acquire, gain, get, win People in this category often join gangs to gain prestige in their peer group.
  - keep prestige maintain Throughout the later centuries the village has always maintained a certain prestige, owing to its past history.
  - get or give prestige again recover, regain, restore The ports of the East of Scotland never recovered the prestige they had in the Middle Ages.
  - want prestige seek, want He had always wanted prestige and power and now his dreams were going to come true.

prestigious ADJ admired and respected by people

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, hugely, particularly, truly, very Her performance earned her a highly prestigious Tony Award.
  - rather fairly, quite, rather I was Captain of the Wales Youth side, which is quite prestigious.
  - in a particular way internationally, socially They were mentioned in a recent edition of The Mathematical Gazette, the internationally prestigious publication of the Mathematical Association.
- ADJ+n event ceremony, competition, conference, contest, event, festival, tournament This prestigious event takes place at the National Exhibition Centre in Birmingham.

- ▸ prize accolade, award, medal, prize, title, trophy The RIBA Stirling Prize is the UK's most prestigious architectural prize.
- ▸ institution institution, school, university It is one of the oldest and most prestigious universities in Greece.
- ▸ publication journal, publication The results of the research have been published in the most prestigious journal in the field.
- ▸ organization brand, client, company, organization Ballet Nacional de Cuba is one of the world's most prestigious dance companies.
- ▸ place location, venue Claire has played at various prestigious venues in and around London.
- ▸ project contract, development, project We are delighted to be working with the British Olympic Association on such a prestigious project.

pretence N behaviour that does not honestly express your real feelings, thoughts, or intentions

- • adj+N elaborate, fair, mere, plausible, specious, vain Union leaders accepted defeat in advance, with a mere pretence of consulting the rank and file.
- • v+N make a pretence make She made no pretence of despair at the loss of his affection.
- ▸ end a pretence abandon, destroy, drop, end, give up, stop It's time to drop the pretence.
- ▸ continue a pretence keep up, maintain, sustain He kept up the pretence for the rest of his life.
- • N+of democracy, impartiality, justice, neutrality, objectivity, piety The US failed to maintain any pretence of neutrality.

pretext N a reason you pretend to have in order to hide your real reason

- • adj+N false false, spurious New legislation is needed to protect consumers from individuals and companies who attempt to obtain personal or financial information under false pretexts.
- ▸ slight or difficult to believe flimsy, slight, thin The police constantly harass them and demand their identity papers on the slightest pretext.
- ▸ providing an advantage convenient He was executed using some convenient pretext.
- ▸ difficult to believe flimsy His view is that Britain and America invaded Iraq on the flimsiest pretext.
- ▸ when emphasizing that something is just a pretext mere The claim that nuclear deterrence is needed to avoid biological and chemical attacks is understood by many as a mere pretext to retain nuclear weapons forever.
- ▸ likely to be true plausible I managed to find a plausible pretext to see him.
- • v+N provide a pretext afford, furnish, provide A 4–0 home defeat by Manchester United provided the pretext for sacking him.
- ▸ find a pretext discover, find He would usually find some pretext to go upstairs when I was around.
- ▸ look for a pretext seek Are the U.S. and Britain seeking a pretext for intervention in order to take advantage of Sudan's oil?
- ▸ create a pretext create, fabricate, invent They must not appear to be deliberately creating a pretext for war.

prevailing ADJ
1 existing at a particular time or place

- • ADJ+n situation circumstances, climate, conditions, environment, situation So it was a question of making the best of the prevailing conditions.
- ▸ rate price, rate, value All our prices are subject to VAT at the prevailing rate.

2 most common, or having most influence

- • ADJ+n opinion assumption, attitude, ideology, mood, opinion, orthodoxy, trend, view, wisdom The prevailing mood is summed up by a headline in the Baghdad edition of the London-based daily.
- ▸ culture culture We must recognize the prevailing secular culture of our society.
- ▸ style style About a century afterwards, the house underwent alterations, in conformity with the prevailing style of architecture.
- ▸ practice custom, practice He called upon the bishops of the province of Asia to abandon their custom and to accept the prevailing practice of always celebrating Easter on Sunday.

prevent V
stop something from happening or someone from doing something

- • adv+V completely, easily, effectively, hopefully, necessarily, permanently The emergency measures put in place by the government effectively prevented this, however.
- • and/or control, cure, delay, detect, manage, minimise, reduce, treat They recommend the use of the drug as a means of preventing and treating obesity.

preventable ADJ capable of being prevented

- • adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, totally, wholly Most health conditions being treated by medicine today are entirely preventable.
- ▸ easily easily The message is that most fires in the home are easily preventable.
- ▸ mostly largely, mostly Problems with the teeth and gums in cats are largely preventable if you feed the correct diet from a young age.
- ▸ possibly potentially Even more tragically, 90 per cent of these cancers are potentially preventable.
- • ADJ+n disease blindness, cancer, condition, disease, illness, infection, problem Aid agencies say 6,500 Africans die of preventable diseases daily.
- ▸ accident or injury accident, disaster, fire, incident, injury Every year, thousands of children are injured in preventable accidents involving toys.
- ▸ death death, mortality Obesity is the second biggest cause of preventable death in the United States.
- ▸ mistake error We have seen an increasing number of preventable errors within the NHS this year.
- ▸ cause cause, factor Most newborn deaths are the result of preventable causes such as infections, complications at birth and low birth weight.

- and/or avoidable, curable, predictable, treatable Millions of people in remote rural populations die every year from preventable or treatable diseases.

price N

the amount of money that something costs to buy

- adj+N good affordable, competitive, fair, good, great, reasonable Book in advance to get the best price.
- ▸ low cheap, low, minimum Online stores can sell these products at much lower prices and still make a profit.
- ▸ high high, inflated So don't put up with second-rate service and high prices when you don't have to.
- ▸ special special, unbeatable These posters are now available to our supporters at a special price of £1 each.
- ▸ complete full All tickets bought on the day will be at the full price.
- ▸ usual normal, usual Subscribe to the magazine today and save 28 per cent off the normal price.
- ▸ including all costs inclusive The Hotel is offering a special 3-course lunch served between 12 noon-2pm for an inclusive price of £16.95 every day of the Festival.
- ▸ reduced discounted, reduced I got another 20 per cent off the discounted price.
- ▸ total total When we accept your order we will confirm the total price that you will be asked to pay.
- ▸ for goods sold in large quantities to shops wholesale Power companies will, of course, seek to justify the increases by pointing to the steep rise in wholesale prices.
- ▸ for goods sold directly to the public retail Royalties usually pay around 2 per cent to 5 per cent of the retail price.
- ▸ average average In the district, the average price of a house has risen by around 40 per cent since 2001.
- ▸ right or true actual, correct, realistic, right We provide our clients with common-sense marketing advice and guidance to help them sell their property promptly and at the right price.

- n+N admission, bargain, commodity, house, market, property, purchase, share, ticket Average house prices increased by around 25 per cent between 2001 and 2005.

Usage Price is usually plural when used with house and property.

- v+N increase a price double, increase, put up, raise The UK government recently increased the price of student visas.
- ▸ reduce a price bring down, cut, drop, keep down, lower, reduce, slash Just last week, we saw several leading supermarkets reduce the price of bananas by 21 pence per kilo.
- ▸ pay a price pay Their customers are used to paying really low prices.
- ▸ agree a price agree, agree on, guarantee, negotiate The difference with us compared with most other firms is that we will always agree the price in advance with you.
- ▸ charge a price charge, fix, set Rich countries set low prices for the goods that poor countries produce.
- ▸ compare prices check, compare Read product reviews and compare prices on over a million products.
- ▸ offer a price give, offer, quote We can offer very competitive prices.
- ▸ be sold for a price achieve, command, fetch, get, go for, obtain Rare and collectable toys have been going for record prices over the last decade or so.
- ▸ want to sell for a price ask, ask for We could ask a considerably higher price.

- n+in+N drop, fall, fluctuation, increase, reduction, rise Inflation is expected to decline because of a slower econnomy and a drop in fuel prices.

pride N

a feeling of pleasure and satisfaction that you get when you, or someone connected with you, have achieved something special

- adj+N much considerable, enormous, great, immense, much, particular You ought to take great pride in what you have achieved here tonight.
- ▸ real real There is a firm but exceedingly friendly relationship between teachers and pupils, and there is a real pride in the school.
- ▸ strong fierce The village has a strong sense of community spirit and a fierce pride in its history.
- ▸ some a certain, little, some German President Horst Koehler said: 'That a fellow countryman has become Pope fills us with a special joy in Germany – and also a little pride.'
- ▸ reasonable justifiable Mr Lambert told me with justifiable pride that this wine had recently won several awards.
- ▸ easy to see obvious The students' obvious pride in their achievement spoke volumes.

- v+N have pride feel, have, take You should have pride in what you do.
- ▸ express pride express Coach Craig Dowd expressed his pride in such a courageous performance by his young team.
- ▸ share pride share We do hope you will consider coming to Edinburgh, and share our pride in our city and our college.
- ▸ give pride back regain, restore By driving crime out we will be encouraging more people to shop locally, helping to restore pride and prosperity in our communities.
- ▸ make someone feel pride engender, foster, instil Her aim is to look after the area and to foster community pride.
- ▸ damage someone's pride bruise, dent, humble, hurt, wound The sinking of the Titanic humbled the pride of the British people.
- ▸ not be too proud to change your mind swallow The Government should swallow its pride and scrap their road-building scheme.

- N+in achievement achievement, performance, quality, success The UK fire service can take pride in its many successes.
- ▸ appearance appearance All staff take a pride in their appearance and ensure that they are well groomed when they arrive for work.
- ▸ place area, city, community, country, environment, neghbourhood, school, surroundings, town Only together can we crack this type of crime and restore genuine pride in our communities.
- ▸ history culture, heritage, history, tradition This is an opportunity to regain our pride in our heritage and our powerful links with the past.

- ▸ ability ability We are constantly updating the product range and take pride in our ability to meet clients' ever-changing needs.
- ▸ work job, work There certainly was pride in a job well done.

primary ADJ
most important

- ● ADJ+n aim aim, goal, objective, purpose The primary aim of the report was to contribute information on the research findings from various mental health programmes.
- ▸ cause or reason cause, motivation, reason Councillor Ingram cited the war as his primary reason for leaving Labour and joining the Greens.
- ▸ thing you are most interested in or concerned about concern, consideration, focus, interest Here Kant shows awareness of the range of the world's religions, but his primary focus continues to be upon Christianity. ◉ Her primary research interests are Caribbean, African, South Asian and Black-British writers.
- ▸ duty duty, responsibility The fundamental principle of our approach to postgraduate training is that the student has the primary responsibility for her/his own learning.
- ▸ job function, role The primary role of the review has been to look at how effective the Council's legal services are.
- ▸ method means Ten years ago, the company moved to email as a primary means of communication.
- ▸ where something comes from source Plants are not only the primary source of food on earth, but they also supply oxygen to the air we breathe.

prime ADJ
1 most important

- ● ADJ+n aim aim, goal, objective, purpose Reduced energy consumption was one of the prime objectives of the project.
- ▸ cause or reason cause, driver, factor, motivation, motive, reason Human activities are the prime reason the world's oceans have slowly warmed over the past 40 years.
- ▸ thing considered important concern, consideration Animal welfare and the enrichment of their lives will always be our organization's prime concern.
- ▸ thing concentrated on focus These courses cover a wide range of language skills for non-native speakers, with the prime focus being on oral and writing skills.
- ▸ thing providing information source They should therefore be considered prime sources for the military historian and author.
- ▸ job or duty duty, function, responsibility, task The Air Force had the prime responsibility for UFO investigation.
- ▸ importance importance It is their editorial skills which are of prime importance when it comes to giving authors really practical help.
- ▸ influence influence, mover He was the planner and prime mover in the military and diplomatic preparation for war.
- ▸ job function, role The Wolves front line failed in its prime function of scoring goals.

2 of the highest quality

- ● ADJ+n place area, land, location, position, site, spot The main campus is an ideal venue, taking full advantage of the University's prime location in Cardiff's civic centre.
- ▸ example example Academies are a prime example of the innovation we seek.

principle N
1 a basic belief, theory, or rule that influences how something is done

- ● adj+N basic basic, elementary, first, fundamental, underlying The need for a thorough grounding in the basic principles of mathematics and statistics has never been more important.
- ▸ important core, guiding, important, key, overarching, overriding, underlying The University's animal research work is governed by four key principles.
- ▸ general broad, general The general principle in employment tribunal cases is that each party has to pay their own costs whether they win or lose.
- ▸ main essential, main One of the Government's main principles for addressing family issues has been that paid work is the route out of poverty for families.
- ▸ from the beginning founding One of the founding principles of the National Health Service was that health care should be provided free at the point of use.
- ▸ types of principle democratic, legal, scientific There is considerable discussion at the moment in the UK about the wisdom of adopting some legal principles developed in the United States.
- ● v+N establish a principle develop, establish, identify This report established some important principles.
- ▸ explain a principle cover, explain, illustrate, outline, set out The following example illustrates some of the principles set out in this article.
- ▸ use a principle apply, follow, use The problems of applying such principles in practice are therefore familiar.
- ▸ support a principle support, uphold The Council supports the principle of meeting a proportion of energy needs from renewable sources.
- ▸ accept a principle accept, adopt The government had finally accepted the principle that 'society should include in its economic structure some form of direct financial provision for the maintenance of children'.
- ▸ make a principle less important abandon, compromise, undermine Bukharin blamed Lenin for undermining the principles of the revolution.

2 a basic moral rule or belief that influences your behaviour [usually plural]

- ● adj+N moral ethical, moral In planning the study, ethical principles and cultural norms were carefully specified.
- ▸ very good high He was a man of high principles.
- ▸ for everyone universal Responsibility for one's own actions is a universal principle that we should not change.
- ● v+N have principles have He has been accused of having no principles because he changed his mind over three important issues.

- ▸ give up principles abandon, betray, compromise They seemed to have totally abandoned their principles in order to hang on to power.
- ▸ continue to have principles adhere to, stand by, stick to You have to admire them for sticking to their principles.

prior ADJ happening, existing, or done before a particular time

- ● ADJ+n knowledge experience, knowledge Even those without any prior knowledge should pick up the basic skills in just one day.
- ▸ arrangement agreement, arrangement, booking Orders may be collected from our premises by prior arrangement.
- ▸ permission agreement, approval, authorization, consent, permission Your details will not be passed onto any third parties without your prior consent.
- ▸ warning notice, notification, warning Timings may alter without prior notice.
- ▸ meeting or arrangement appointment, commitment, engagement He had an important prior commitment, of course.
- ▸ discussion consultation Banks and credit card companies change conditions without prior consultation.
- ▸ achievement attainment, qualification Teaching should address the preferred learning styles of pupils as well as their prior attainment.

priority N

1 something important that must be done first

- ● adj+N important absolute, clear, first, great, high, important, key, main, major, top Burglaries are not always treated as a high priority.
- ▸ urgent immediate, urgent Our immediate priority at the moment must be to boost student numbers both at undergraduate and postgraduate level.
- ▸ not important low Many people in the local community viewed these issues as a low priority.
- ▸ relating to a particular area local, national, regional We believe that local people are best placed to decide local priorities.
- ▸ types of priority corporate, political, strategic Tackling child poverty is one of our top political priorities.
- ▸ relating to a particular time current, future This policy document seeks to identify future priorities.
- ● v+N establish priorities define, establish, set This approach sets out a clear framework for making choices and setting priorities.
- ▸ recognize priorities decide, determine, identify At the conference a number of priorities were identified.
- ▸ make someone or something a priority consider sb/sth, make sb/sth We need to make tackling corruption a priority.
- ▸ be a priority be, become, remain The need for speedy communications became a priority in Elizabeth I's reign.
- ▸ show priorities highlight, reflect The NHS of the future must reflect those priorities.
- ▸ agree priorities agree Bear this in mind when discussing treatment options and agreeing priorities and goals with the patient.
- ▸ deal with priorities address, deliver The aim is to give hospitals more freedom to address local priorities.

2 the importance that you give to something that must be done

- ● adj+N important absolute, great, high, top The government attaches a high priority to effective public involvement in local transport policies.
- ▸ urgent urgent It seems highly unlikely that the EU itself will take appropriate action, unless a conscious decision is made to give this matter the urgent priority it deserves.
- ▸ not important low As a result, projects given lower priority by the committee did not receive immediate funding.
- ● v+N have priority have People with disabilities can join the programme immediately and have priority for suitable training places.
- ▸ get priority get, receive, take In times of water shortage, newly planted trees and shrubs should take priority over established plants.
- ▸ give priority to someone or something assign, give, place, put The Council tries to help as many people as possible, but has to give priority to those in the greatest need.

prison N

an institution where people are kept as punishment for committing a crime

- ● v+N leave prison be discharged from, be let out of, be released from, come out of, get out of, leave Our aim must be wherever possible that those leaving prison have a job on release.
- ▸ avoid prison avoid, escape Some footballers have escaped prison simply because they were high-profile professional sportsmen.
- ▸ go to prison enter, go to Key recommendations include early interventions to prevent young people with a mental illness entering prison.
- ▸ send someone to prison put sb in, send sb to, throw sb in, throw sb into More women are sent to prison for shoplifting than anything else.
- ▸ escape from prison break out of, escape from Marsh's wife helps the criminal duo to escape from prison.
- ● N+n official authorities, governor, guard, officer, official, staff, warden, warder Rioting left ten prison officers and three inmates injured.
- ▸ period of punishment sentence, term A Spanish court has condemned an employer to a three-year prison sentence following a fatal accident for which he was held responsible.
- ▸ person being punished inmate, population The total prison population of this country is about 75,000.
- ▸ room cell The prison cells smelt of damp.
- ▸ conditions conditions, life Prison conditions are growing progressively worse as the government fails to tackle overcrowding.

privacy N

the freedom to do things without other people watching you or knowing what you are doing

- ● adj+N complete absolute, complete, maximum, strict, total The Mountain View Suite is for those looking for complete privacy.

- ▸ personal individual, personal Britain's first law protecting personal privacy on a more general basis was included in Queen's Speech in May 1997.
- ▸ more added, extra, greater, more They aim to ensure better facilities for patients with a comfortable environment and more privacy.
- ▸ not much little, not much There's little privacy and, at busy times, it can be difficult for people to concentrate.

- • v+N protect privacy ensure, guarantee, maintain, preserve, protect, respect, safeguard Those people who wish to protect their privacy may use a Box Number for their correspondence.
- ▸ spoil someone's privacy breach, compromise, disturb, infringe, intrude on, invade, violate It is not our intention to invade your privacy in carrying out such checks.
- ▸ provide privacy afford, allow, give, offer, provide Screens were used from early on in China as decorative items and to provide privacy within a living area.
- ▸ consider privacy important value Keane rarely courted publicity and was famed for valuing his privacy.

privilege N
a special benefit or right available only to some people

- • adj+N great absolute, enormous, extraordinary, great, huge, immense, real, tremendous It is an immense privilege to accept this award.
- ▸ not as good as it seems doubtful, dubious Alan has the dubious privilege of being the person I'm going to work with.
- ▸ for only one person or group exclusive, monopoly, peculiar, unique Certain English kings granted exclusive trading privileges to favoured merchants.
- ▸ rare rare It is a rare privilege to have an audience with a king.
- ▸ special special We want civil and religious liberty for all and special privileges for none.

- • v+N have a privilege benefit from, enjoy, have, possess The wealthy and powerful enjoy many privileges.
- ▸ be given a privilege be entitled to, gain, get, receive Older students receive many privileges.
- ▸ use a privilege claim, exercise Previously, free postage had been available to Members of Parliament, who could exercise their privilege for official purposes.
- ▸ give someone a privilege afford sb, assign (sb), confer, give (sb), grant sb Membership of the club confers enormous privileges.
- ▸ not give or take away a privilege deny sb, revoke, withdraw This child is being denied the privilege of seeing his father .
- ▸ abuse a privilege abuse Everyone has my number in case they need to contact me in between visits, but they hardly ever abuse the privilege.

privileged ADJ
having special advantages and opportunities

- • adv+ADJ very enormously, extremely, highly, immensely, incredibly, really INFORMAL, very I feel immensely privileged and honoured to be invited.
- ▸ rather quite, relatively In the UK, we enjoy a relatively privileged position in the world.
- ▸ having a privilege that no one else has uniquely You could say that the 'modern' period begins in 1969, when a uniquely privileged man put his lonely footprint on the moon.

- • ADJ+n group caste, class, elite, minority All such information should be made available to everyone, and not just to a privileged elite.
- ▸ childhood or family background, childhood, upbringing He was born into an aristocratic family and had a highly privileged upbringing.
- ▸ position position, status We're in the privileged position of being able to pay the loan back early.

prize N
a reward for success in a sport or competition

- • adj+N important or special amazing, big, coveted, fabulous, fantastic, generous, glittering, major, prestigious, special, ultimate We are delighted that the Museum has been shortlisted for this prestigious prize.
- ▸ first first, jackpot, top The regional winners will go through to the next round, and have the chance to win the top prize of £25,000.
- ▸ second runner-up, second Winner and runner-up prizes will be awarded in each of the two age categories 7–10 and 11–14.
- ▸ for coming last booby, consolation Dusty Bin was the booby prize on which TV gameshow?
- ▸ in the form of money cash, monetary A competition with cash prizes for the highest scores adds a little zest to the proceedings.

- • v+N win a prize claim, clinch, collect, land, receive, scoop, win The competition is open to everybody, and there is the opportunity of winning some amazing prizes.
- ▸ give a prize award, give, offer, present Prizes were awarded for the best poster.
- ▸ deserve a prize deserve I think everyone that stops smoking deserves a prize.

- • v+for+N compete, consider, nominate, qualify, shortlist She was shortlisted for the Turner prize in 1987.

probability N a measure of how likely something is

- • adj+N high great, high, real, reasonable, significant, strong There is a high probability that any soya-bean meal imported into the EU will be from GM sources.
- ▸ low low, small There was a low probability of the information being true.
- ▸ equal equal All anwers have an equal probability of being correct.
- ▸ based on scientific methods mathematical, statistical The hospital uses a program that calculates the patient's statistical probablity of dying.

- • v+N calculate or guess the probabilty of something assess, calculate, determine, establish, estimate, evaluate, find, predict, quantify He was one of the first to calculate the probability of collisions between the asteroids and the major planets.

- ▶ increase the probability of something enhance, improve, increase, maximize, raise The key question is how to increase the probability of success in this competitive environment.
- ▶ reduce the probability of something decrease, lessen, lower, minimize, reduce Race alone does not directly increase or decrease the probability that a child will be poor.
- ▶ affect the probability of something influence Similar factors are found to influence the probability of both boys and girls attending and completing school.
- ▶ show the probability of something indicate The volcano's condition indicates a high probability for an eruption to occur in the immediate future.

probable ADJ

likely to happen or be true

- adv+ADJ entirely, equally, extremely, highly, increasingly, quite, reasonably, statistically, very At some point in your family's past, it is highly probable that a direct ancestor arrived from overseas.
- ADJ+n result or effect consequence, effect, impact, outcome, result, scenario It is too early to forecast the probable outcome of their efforts.
- ▶ cause or reason cause, diagnosis, explanation, reason That doesn't seem to me a very probable explanation.
- ▶ origin origin, source Central Africa was the most probable source of the infection.
- ▶ number or amount cost, date, loss, value The company faces collapse, with the probable loss of 10,000 jobs.

problem N

something that causes trouble or difficulty

- adj+N serious acute, big, fundamental, huge, major, real, serious, severe, significant, urgent The risk of flooding is a major problem in this area.
- ▶ main central, key, main I think the main problem is that we have too many overpaid players.
- ▶ not serious little INFORMAL, minor, slight, small He had slight problems with some of the hard to pronounce names.
- ▶ difficult complex, difficult, intractable In practice, most problems are too complex for this approach.
- ▶ common common, global, widespread Shrinkage and cracking in concrete flooring is a common problem facing the builder.
- ▶ possible possible, potential A fire-detection system will identify and deal with potential problems at a very early stage.
- ▶ not obvious hidden, underlying There may be an underlying problem that is causing your illness or making it worse.
- ▶ types of problem behavioural, debt, economic, emotional, environmental, financial, health, logistical, mechanical, medical, practical, psychological, social, technical, traffic Any technical problems associated with installing the system should be referred to the technical support unit.
- ▶ continuing for a long time chronic, long-term, ongoing She was suffering from chronic health problems.
- ▶ happening at the beginning of something initial, teething Despite a number of teething problems, the project was a great success.

- v+N cause a problem cause, create, lead to, result in Water shortages could lead to environmental problems.
- ▶ solve a problem combat, correct, cure, fix, get around, get over, overcome, rectify, remedy, resolve, solve, sort out Violence should never be an accepted way to solve problems.
- ▶ deal with a problem address, approach, confront, deal with, handle, respond to, tackle, treat Over the past few years there have been several attempts to tackle these problems.
- ▶ try to solve a very difficult problem grapple with, struggle with, wrestle with Researchers have been grappling with the problems associated with the collection of accurate data.
- ▶ make a problem worse add to, compound, contribute to, exacerbate, increase Flood alleviation works need to be planned carefully to ensure that they do not exacerbate problems elsewhere.
- ▶ make a problem less serious alleviate, ease, help with, minimise, reduce This lack of investment in physical activity will do little to alleviate the problems of obesity and poor health.
- ▶ experience a problem develop, encounter, experience, face, have, run into, suffer (with) If you encounter problems while trying to view the full size images, please read the help page.
- ▶ experience a lot of problems be beset by, be beset with, be blighted by, be dogged by, be dogged with, be hampered by, be plagued by, be plagued with The service has been beset by problems and delays.

Usage In these combinations, problem is always plural: The estate was badly designed and dogged by problems from the beginning. • The whole production has been beset with problems.

- ▶ be a problem be, become, pose, present, remain International operations, on any scale, can present problems.
- ▶ avoid or prevent a problem avoid, eliminate, guard sb/sth against, prevent, protect sb/sth against The advantage of headsets over conventional speakers is that they eliminate any problem of feedback.
- ▶ find out about a problem come across, detect, diagnose, discover, identify, spot Any problems were quickly identified.
- ▶ investigate a problem investigate, look at, look into Call our helpline and we will look into the problem for you.
- ▶ show that a problem exists alert sb to, highlight, indicate, point to This disorder doesn't generally point to psychological problems.

- N+v happen arise, emerge, occur, start The problem arises when plants and animals are introduced to garden ponds that are from a different area.
- ▶ exist or be caused by something exist, lie, stem from The problem lies not with the public but with governments.
- ▶ remain persist, remain If the problem persists, then please contact us.

- n+to+N answer, approach, reaction, remedy, resolution, response, solution Many ideas have to be considered before a good solution to any problem can be found.

- v+as+N identify sth, perceive sth, regard sth, see sth, treat sth, view sth An ageing population should be regarded not as a problem but as an asset.

procedure N

a way of doing something, especially the correct or usual way

- adj+N normal or usual established, normal, routine, standard, usual Standard procedures were used to withdraw people from the situation.
  - correct appropriate, correct, formal, proper Problems can occur if you do not follow the correct procedures.
  - required by law legal, statutory If formal permission is required, there is a statutory procedure for applying to undertake the work.
  - strict rigorous, robust, strict Due to rigorous checking procedures, errors in the data are extremely rare.
  - complicated or long complex, complicated, detailed, lengthy The analysis of the results is a complicated procedure.
  - simple simple, step-by-step, straightforward If all this sounds a bit technical, it isn't, it's a really simple procedure.
  - types of procedure administrative, bureaucratic, disciplinary, legislative, parliamentary Employers must inform staff about disciplinary procedures.
- n+N for making a complaint complaints, grievance The independent review is the final stage of the complaints procedure.
  - for ensuring safety evacuation, safety, security All the staff and students need to know about safety procedures.
  - for deciding who to choose admissions, recruitment, selection The admissions procedures for children with special educational needs are different from those for other children.
  - for checking or testing something assessment, checking, evaluation, monitoring, testing The professional institutions will have to make sure that they have proper assessment procedures in place.
  - for applying for something application We've covered how to find a course and the application procedure.
- v+N follow a procedure adhere to, comply with, follow, go through, use If you follow the safety procedures when you dive, you are unlikely to suffer a serious accident.
  - start to use a procedure adopt, implement, introduce We have introduced a new simple procedure for student assessment.
  - make a procedure better simplify, standardise, streamline We need to simplify the procedures for testing new students.
  - describe a procedure define, describe, detail, explain, outline, set out This book of guidance sets out the Department's procedures for dealing with poor performance.
  - develop a procedure develop, establish, set up To address these issues, we have developed a screening procedure.
  - change a procedure change, revise The department recommends that child protection procedures should be revised.

proceedings N actions taken to settle a legal matter

- adj+N civil, court, criminal, disciplinary, judicial, legal Legal proceedings may be the only method of resolving some disputes.
- n+N adoption, arbitration, bankruptcy, defamation, disqualification, divorce, extradition, impeachment, infringement, insolvency, libel Can I commence divorce proceedings straight away?
- v+N start proceedings bring, commence, initiate, instigate, institute, issue, start The Attorney-General instituted proceedings against the Editor of that newspaper.
  - stop or delay proceedings adjourn, delay, discontinue, disrupt, halt, interrupt, terminate The proceedings were formally discontinued at Camberwell Youth Court on 29 July 1993.

process N a series of actions or events that are designed to have a particular result

- adj+N slow or long drawn-out, gradual, lengthy, long, slow It can be a very long, slow process to develop a relationship of trust.
  - difficult or complicated complex, complicated, difficult The complex process of testing the new drug had begun.
  - simple simple, straightforward Life coaching is a fairly simple process.
  - continuing or continuous continuous, ongoing We would like feedback to be an ongoing process, and we welcome all your comments – positive or negative.
  - done with great care rigorous All applicants have to undergo a rigorous interview process.
  - types of process biological, creative, democratic, evolutionary, industrial, legal, natural, physical, physiological, political Fumes and odour are produced in many industrial processes.
- n+N for choosing someone admissions, appointment, interview, recruitment, selection Personal qualities and experience are taken into account in the selection process.
  - for achieving peace peace If it really wants to relaunch the peace process, it must stop acts of terror.
  - for finding out if something is good appraisal, assessment, evaluation The person is at the centre of the whole assessment process and their 'needs' are its focus.
  - for making something design, manufacturing, production The entire manufacturing process is carefully controlled and monitored.
  - for deciding or planning something consultation, decision-making, planning We want staff to be more involved in decision-making processes.
  - for looking at past decisions appeals, review The review process had revealed the need to revisit and clarify some of the earlier provisions.
  - for applying for something application, registration Is the application process the same for mature applicants?
  - in the body aging, healing Wrinkles are a normal part of the aging process.

Usage In these combinations, process is always singular: There is no way of reversing the aging process. • Some treatments may speed up the healing process.

- v+N be involved in a process be involved in, go through, participate in, undergo Belfast is going through a process of continuous regeneration and development.
- ▸ speed up a process accelerate, drive, speed up The process is accelerated by heat, light, and the presence of water.
- ▸ slow down a process delay, slow (down) One thing that slows the process down is having to go through so many checks.
- ▸ improve a process enhance, improve, simplify, streamline There has been a lot of discussion about streamlining the processes of the EU so that the system can work properly.
- ▸ help a process to be successful aid, assist, ease, facilitate, help It works with nature's ability to heal the body and aids this healing process.
- ▸ interfere with a process complicate, disrupt, interfere with, undermine A number of substances interfere with physiological processes in the body.
- ▸ start a process begin, embark on, initiate, start They took the top floor of the buildings over and began the slow process of turning it into a home.
- ▸ continue or complete a process complete, continue Step 6 completes the online payment process.
- ▸ repeat a process repeat Repeat this process until the cabbage is all used up.
- ▸ check on a process monitor, oversee, review A second office in Hong Kong oversees the production process.

process V

to deal officially with a document, request etc

- adv+V well correctly, efficiently, properly, securely, successfully This will ensure that your delivered manuscript can be efficiently processed.
- ▸ quickly immediately, promptly, quickly The order was processed very quickly and you kept me informed of its progress.
- ▸ by hand/computer automatically, digitally, electronically, manually It was recognised that manually processing cheques was simply not an efficient use of time.
- ▸ separately individually, separately All applications will then be processed separately from all general enquiries.
- V+n application, booking, cheque, claim, enquiry, invoice, order, payment, refund, request Rachel Todd is in charge of processing grant applications.

proclaim V

to announce something publicly

- adv+V boldly, confidently, loudly, openly, proudly, publicly, repeatedly The department loudly proclaimed its latest successes in seizing smuggled drugs.
- V+n information fact, message, news Many zoos proclaim a 'conservation' message, but does their performance reflect this?
- ▸ a fact about yourself allegiance, commitment, innocence, intention He continues to proclaim his innocence after 20 years in jail.
- ▸ a feeling or belief belief, faith, love In his speech, de Gaulle proclaimed his faith that France would eventually be liberated.
- ▸ a successful result independence, liberty, peace, victory In 1813, Colombia proclaimed its independence from Spain.

proclamation N

an official announcement about something important

- adj+N formal, official, presidential, public, royal, verbal The original flag was set out by royal proclamation on 12 April 1606.
- v+N issue, make, publish, sign Important public proclamations were made here.

produce V

to make or grow something

- adv+V in a particular way automatically, cheaply, commercially, easily, naturally, organically, professionally, quickly, sustainably Today, coal and textiles can be produced more cheaply in other countries.
- ▸ in a particular place domestically, locally Support local business by purchasing locally produced goods.

produce N

fruit, vegetables and other things that farmers produce

- adj+N types of produce agricultural, dairy, farm, fresh, garden, horticultural, organic, seasonal Consumers are buying more organic produce.
- ▸ produced nearby local, locally-grown There are weekly markets selling local produce.
- ▸ of good quality fine, quality Growers are recognising there is a market for quality produce.
- v+N sell or supply export, market, promote, sell, stock The National Milk Bar idea was developed by a Welsh dairy farmer as a way to market his produce.
- ▸ buy or produce buy, grow, import, purchase, source The problem is that most of their produce is imported from all over the world.

product N

1 something made, grown, or obtained for sale

- adj+N new or special exciting, innovative, new, unique Organisations have been reluctant to devote precious resources to developing innovative new products.
- ▸ not new existing, traditional Which of the company's existing products are really working for them?
- ▸ recycled or organic natural, organic, recycled, sustainable Here are some samples of our recycled products.
- ▸ not working properly defective One customer claims the company makes defective products and values profits over safety.
- ▸ specialist niche, specialist We sell organic wine and other niche products.
- ▸ types of product agricultural, beauty, cleaning, commercial, cosmetic, dairy, digital, electrical, electronic, food, industrial, medicinal, pharmaceutical Avoid consumption of alcohol and medicinal products containing alcohol.

▸ finished end, final, finished I have seen a review copy of the book but not the final product.

Usage Product is usually singular in these combinations: Were you happy with the finished product? • The final product looks very much like a dustbin lid.

• v+N design a product design, develop These products are designed for a variety of customers.
▸ produce a product create, make, manufacture, produce, supply All our products are individually manufactured from high quality timber.
▸ advertise a product advertise, endorse, market, promote Focus on the price of the product and not all the fancy advertising promoting the product .
▸ sell a product distribute, sell, stock These products are sold in Spain and in the Canary Islands, mainly to tourists.
▸ start to sell a product launch, release We will be launching some exciting new underfloor heating products in the near future.
▸ buy a product buy, order, purchase To order these products, please contact your local HP sales representative.
▸ import/export a product export, import We have now started to export our products to the Far East.

• n+of+N choice, line, number, range, selection, variety We offer a full line of affordable products to decorate your home.

2 the result of something

• N+of thoughts fantasy, imagination, mind, thinking Supernatural creatures are products of the imagination.
▸ natural process evolution, nature We are products of nature, but we also create ourselves through our own activity in shaping the world.
▸ political process capitalism, globalization He was a strong opponent of Marxist theories that war was the product of capitalism.
▸ relationship collaboration, fusion, interaction, interplay, partnership Knowledge is the product of the interaction of a person's skills and experience with information.
▸ culture civilization, culture, tradition She argued that 'femininity' may be more a product of culture than of biology.
▸ upbringing background, upbringing My first marriage was to Matsui-san, who was the product of a middle class upbringing in Japan.
▸ time decade, era, period The tradition is the product of a bygone era.
▸ hard work effort, labour, research, work This stunning piece of software is the product of a major collaborative effort.

production N

the process of making things in large quantities

• adj+N in factories commercial, factory, industrial The product goes into commercial production later this year.
▸ on farms agricultural, farm The challenges to increasing agricultural production are too great for most farmers.
▸ in one country/the world domestic, global, international, national, regional For global oil production, the peak is predicted to come sometime between 2007 and 2020.
▸ in large quantities bulk, intensive, large-scale, mass Mass production and increasing competition is all good news for you, the consumer, as you get improved products at a cheaper price.
▸ in small quantities limited, low, small-scale Some climates can support only low production of crops.
▸ too much excess, surplus Waste is defined as any activity that adds cost but not value to the end product such as excess production, stock, and idle work in progress.
▸ efficient efficient, lean, successful Lean production is a philosophy and a way of working involving eliminating all forms of waste.
▸ producing little pollution clean, renewable, sustainable Industry needs to be convinced of the benefits of cleaner production and pollution control.
▸ without using chemicals organic During the two years of conversion to organic production, the farm hosted more than 400 visitors.

• v+N stop production cease, discontinue, end, halt, stop Production was halted and advertising of the drug was withdrawn.
▸ start production begin, commence, go into, put sth into, start Their latest model is due to go into production in December.
▸ restart production restart, resume There are no plans to restart production.
▸ cause problems for production affect, delay, disrupt, interfere with The occupations are disrupting the production of tobacco and other agricultural crops.
▸ increase production boost, double, expand, improve, increase, maximise, stimulate New technologies can help rice farmers boost production.
▸ reduce production cut, decrease, limit, reduce, restrict 10 OPEC countries reduced oil production by 640,000 barrels a day.
▸ move production to another place move, shift, switch, transfer Capitalists threaten to shift production abroad if workers do not agree to everything they demand.
▸ make production more automatic automate, mechanize We are now in a position to automate the production of our magazine.

productive ADJ producing a lot of something or achieving good results

• adv+ADJ very enormously, extremely, highly, incredibly, remarkably, very Bees are highly productive workers.
▸ rather fairly, quite, reasonably I then went to work and had a reasonably productive day.
▸ to both people mutually The university has a mutally productive relationship with local industries.
▸ in a particular way agriculturally, biologically, economically, scientifically Kelp forests are among the most biologically productive habitats in the marine environment.

• ADJ+n people employee, force, labour, worker, workforce Excessive hours working is no recipe for a healthy, productive workforce.
▸ relationship collaboration, interaction, links, partnership, relationship I am very pleased to be working with them and look forward to a very productive relationship.

- ▶ discussion dialogue, discussion We had a useful and productive discussion on that subject.
- ▶ something you own asset, capital, resource For many people, good health is probably also the only productive asset they have.
- ▶ for saying how productive something is capacity, efficiency, potential, power A business can improve productive efficiency by producing output at the lowest cost possible.

- ● v+ADJ be, become, prove, remain, stay The mines in this area were re-opened, and proved remarkably productive.

productivity N
the rate at which goods are produced

- ● adj+N high excellent, high, maximum, optimum You should ensure that your business maintains maximum productivity at all times.
- ▶ low low, poor It is a myth that low productivity is caused by excessive regulation of the labour market.
- ▶ total net, overall, total The project will help to achieve the Government's target of improving the overall productivity of small firms.
- ▶ types of productivity agricultural, economic, industrial The contribution this department makes to the country's economic productivity and prosperity is ever more important.
- ▶ lost lost Polio places a burden on populations in terms of suffering, lost productivity and increased need for medical resources.

- ● v+N increase productivity boost, drive, enhance, improve, increase, raise We recognise that enhancing productivity is a continuing challenge to firms.
- ▶ increase productivity to the maximum level maximize, optimize Maximize your productivity with a fast, reliable internet connection.
- ▶ reduce productivity compromise, decrease, diminish, hamper, hinder, reduce We have always said that long hours working can hinder productivity.
- ▶ affect productivity affect, impact (on), influence Phishing attacks can seriously impact business productivity.

- ● N+v increase double, grow, improve, increase, rise Today's figures show that productivity has risen by nearly a fifth.
- ▶ decrease decline, fall In some areas, productivity is declining as soil degrades or erodes.
- ▶ be less than someone or something lag behind sb Overall our productivity lags behind our main competitors.

- ● n+in+N increase gain, growth, improvement, increase, rise Wage increases can only be justified by improvements in productivity.
- ▶ decrease decline, decrease, drop, fall, reduction How can this decline in productivity be turned around?

profession N
a job that needs special skills and qualifications

- ● adj+N respectable honourable, noble, respectable, respected Journalism is often seen as an honourable profession, with a mission to keep the public informed.
- ▶ well-paid financially rewarding, lucrative, well-paid Music is a lifetime of hard study, and it can be one of the least financially rewarding professions there is.
- ▶ with mainly men male-dominated Although photography is still quite a male-dominated profession, Liz hasn't really had any problems.
- ▶ types of professions accountancy, acting, architectural, dental, financial, journalistic, legal, medical, teaching I look upon the general practitioner as the most important man in the medical profession

Usage In these combinations, profession is singular: She works in the legal profession. ● I have been in the teaching profession for 20 years. However, when you are talking about professions such as nursing and social work, you can refer to these as a group as the caring professions: Many people in the caring professions put other people's needs above their own.

- ● v+N enter a profession choose, enter (into), go into, join To enter certain professions, it is necessary to take a course of study.
- ▶ leave a profession abandon, leave, quit INFORMAL, retire from A worrying number of student teachers are quitting the profession shortly after qualifying.
- ▶ work in a profession belong to, engage in, exercise, follow, practise (in), pursue, work in Librarians belong to a profession that values and insists on systematic skills updating.
- ▶ control a profession with rules govern, regulate Lawyers are currently awaiting publication of draft legislation governing the way the legal profession is regulated.

professional ADJ
1 showing a high level of skill or commitment

- ● adv+ADJ extremely, highly, incredibly, really INFORMAL, thoroughly, totally, truly, utterly, very I have always found them to be highly professional individuals, offering their clients an excellent service.

- ● ADJ+n approach, attitude, behaviour, conduct, manner Players are expected to compete in a professional manner.

2 involving work needing special skills and qualifications

- ● ADJ+n help advice, assistance, guidance, help Every business needs professional help.
- ▶ skill or knowledge competence, experience, expertise, knowledge, skill We have used our professional expertise to help many organizations with specific projects.
- ▶ opinion judgement, opinion In my professional opinion, you do not need an antibiotic.

3 relating to the rules, standards, and arrangements or a profession

- ● ADJ+n qualification or training accreditation, degree, development, qualification, training If you want to improve your business skills, you can choose a professional qualification in a management or marketing area.

- ▸ organization association, body, institute, organization, society The Association of Lighting Designers is the professional body representing lighting designers.
- ▸ standards code, ethics, integrity, standards He believed that many problems were due to a lack of professional ethics among civil servants.
- ▸ responsiblities duties, obligations, responsibilities Staff must be adequately trained to carry out their professional duties.
- ▸ bad behaviour misconduct, negligence She was dismissed because of serious professional misconduct.

proficiency N a high degree of ability or skill

- adj+N reasonable adequate, intermediate, reasonable, sufficient All students must demonstrate adequate proficiency in the English language.
- ▸ good advanced, considerable, great, high At nine years of age, he attained a great proficiency in the Greek language.
- ▸ not good basic, limited Most people can quickly gain basic proficiency with the software without doing a course.
- ▸ types of proficiency academic, linguistic, mathematical, musical, technical There is great skill and technical proficiency in Croft's poetry.

- v+N achieve proficiency achieve, acquire, attain, develop, gain He had already attained the highest proficiency in kung fu techniques.
- ▸ improve proficiency enhance, improve, increase The best way to improve your proficiency in English is to read as much as you possibly can.
- ▸ maintain proficiency maintain Like any newly learnt skill, to maintain proficiency, one must practise.
- ▸ show proficiency demonstrate, prove, show You will need certificates demonstrating proficiency in fire-fighting, survival and first aid.

- n+of+N degree, level, standard Achieving high levels of proficiency in any type of task requires an effective training strategy.

proficient ADJ
very skilful at something you have learned

- adv+ADJ very extremely, fully, highly, very Diane is a highly proficient software developer.
- ▸ rather fairly, quite, reasonably, sufficiently I was becoming reasonably proficient at recognizing different species of trees.
- ▸ technically technically He was interested in photography from an early age and was very technically proficient.

- and/or confident, experienced, knowledgeable, professional, skilled We support a number of training courses to help our members become more knowledgeable and proficient.

profile N
1 the public image of a person or organization

- adj+N getting a lot of/little attention high, low, strong The company's owner has always tried to keep a low profile.
- ▸ good excellent, favourable, good, positive David Beckham is clearly craving a more favourable media profile.
- ▸ public media, public He spends as much time working on his public profile as he does on his business interests.
- ▸ of a person own, personal We can provide you with an opportunity to raise your personal profile.
- ▸ of an organization company, corporate Expect to dramatically boost your company's corporate profile with our professional sign solutions.
- ▸ in a particular area of life or business academic, economic, online, political, social His political profile has fallen recently.
- ▸ in a particular place international, local, national Previous hosts of the conference have found that it can be an opportunity to raise the international profile of their own institution.

- v+N improve your profile boost, elevate, enhance, heighten, improve, increase, raise The main aim of the project is to raise the profile of beaches along this stretch of coastline.
- ▸ keep your profile keep, maintain Ruth has been keeping her profile high with appearances on TV.
- ▸ change your profile alter, change By the early 19th century, the town's status had deteriorated badly, and its profile subsequently was altered out of all recognition by new building.
- ▸ establish a profile build, develop, establish, gain It is difficult for organizations such as Greenpeace to establish a high profile in some countries.

2 a description of a person, group, or organization

- adj+N detailed or complete complete, comprehensive, detailed, full, in-depth I researched and prepared detailed profiles of people the Prime Minister was to meet.
- ▸ not detailed brief, short Please email a brief profile of yourself to me.
- ▸ accurate accurate A business starts with an accurate profile of each and every customer.
- ▸ of one person individual, personal You can update your personal profile at any time.
- ▸ of someone's mind or character personality, psychological I read a newspaper article outlining a psychological profile of the serial killer.
- ▸ of someone's genes DNA, gene, genetic We compared the genetic profiles of Polynesians with people from mainland China.
- ▸ of the people in an area demographic, population The demographic profile of the area shows an ageing population.
- ▸ of someone's work or achievements academic, career, professional Parents are kept infomed or their child's progress through academic profiles.
- ▸ of someone's social position social, socio-economic The groups in the three areas exhibited different socio-economic profiles.
- ▸ of a company company, corporate Click here to view the company profile.

- v+N create a profile build (up), compile, construct, create, generate, produce, write We are hoping to build profiles of listeners to our radio station.
- ▸ change a profile alter, change, edit, modify, update Most of the people have only updated their profile every few years or so.

▶ match a profile fit, match You tell us the type of events you're interested in and you'll receive a regular email detailing those which match your profile.

profit N
extra money earned after costs are paid

- adj+N large big, considerable, decent INFORMAL, fat INFORMAL, good, handsome, healthy, hefty INFORMAL, high, substantial, tidy INFORMAL It was said that he made quite a tidy profit with the tales of his story.
- ▶ very large enormous, huge, massive, record, vast Huge profits were reaped by the pharmaceutical companies which sold these drugs.

If you disapprove of the fact that a company makes very large profits, you can say that they make obscene profits: While many local sports clubs are barely surviving, big multi-national companies are making obscene profits.

- ▶ more than is reasonable excess, excessive If anything, the scope for making excess profit has narrowed.
- ▶ small low, meagre, modest, reasonable, small We still intend to make a profit; albeit a relatively modest one.
- ▶ before tax gross, pre-tax, taxable During 2008/9, the company reported pre-tax profits of $1.8 million.
- ▶ after tax after tax, clear, net, overall, post tax Net profit is the balance of the gross profit once operating expenses are deducted.
- ▶ possible in the future future, potential The costs of building a global brand would far outweigh the potential profits.
- ▶ expected expected, forecast Shares have been falling, along with forecast profits.
- ▶ lost lost, unrealized The lender will at least recoup some of their lost profits through the exit fee.
- ▶ from normal business operating Operating profit was up by 11 per cent.

- v+N make profit bring (in), deliver, derive, earn, extract, generate, make, realize, reap, return, take, turn, yield Building companies are there to make a profit.
- ▶ increase profit boost, double, increase, maximize To boost profits, many supermarkets have taken on additional roles as pharmacies, clothes stores and petrol retailers.
- ▶ announce or show a profit announce, post, report, show We are delighted to announce pre-tax profits of $116.8 million for the six months ended October 31st.
- ▶ share profit share, split We set up a joint venture where we would split the profits.

- N+v rise climb, double, go up, grow, increase, jump, leap, rise, soar, surge While supermakets' profits soar, farmers and growers are struggling to stay in business.
- ▶ fall come down, decline, drop, fall, plummet, plunge, slump The electronics group's profits slumped from $21.6m to $2.4m last year.
- ▶ equal an amount amount to, equal, total Pretax profit amounted to 90.72 billion yen.

profitability N
the degree to which something is profitable

- v+N increase profitability boost, enhance, improve, increase, maximize, raise Her replacement will be charged with improving profitability.
- ▶ reduce profitability reduce Imposing a tax would push up our costs and reduce our profitability.
- ▶ maintain profitability maintain, sustain Profitability must be maintained whatever the circumstances.
- ▶ achieve profitability achieve, ensure, reach You will never achieve profitability that way.
- ▶ affect profitability affect, compromise, impact (on), influence Profitability was impacted by the increase in energy costs.
- ▶ bring back profitability restore They have taken vigorous steps to restore profitability.

profitable ADJ making a profit

- adv+ADJ very enormously, extremely, highly, hugely, immensely, very Mumbai is the home of India's hugely profitable movie-making industry.
- ▶ rather fairly, quite Now it is quite profitable to collect personal data.
- ▶ slightly barely, marginally Marginally profitable mines became unprofitable and ceased production.
- ▶ potentially potentially You will have drawn up a 'business plan' which shows that your business idea is potentially profitable.
- ▶ financially commercially, economically, financially It is important that the service is carefully monitored to ensure it remains commercially profitable.

- ADJ+n business, company, enterprise, industry, investment, market, operation, venture David built Impressions into a very successful and profitable enterprise.

profound ADJ very great

- ADJ+n effect consequence, effect, impact, implications, impression, influence, ramifications, repercussions The battle would have a profound effect on the rest of the war.
- ▶ feeling contempt, disagreement, disappointment, feeling, gratitude, grief, ignorance, impression, regret, sadness, sense, shock, sorrow, sympathy Once he'd gone, I felt a profound sense of failure.
- ▶ disability deafness, disability, impairment She had problems at school due to her profound deafness.
- ▶ change or difference change, difference, shift, transformation This era witnessed profound transformations in the American industrial labour market.
- ▶ problem crisis, difficulty, problem The government was unable to cushion them from the profound economic crisis.
- ▶ quiet or stillness silence, stillness A profound silence reigned throughout the assembly.
- ▶ knowledge awareness, grasp, knowledge, understanding She was a distinguished academic, with a profound grasp of the economic issues.

program N
instructions making a computer work or perform an action

- v+N start or operate a program execute, initiate, invoke, launch, open, restart, run, start Make sure you run your anti-virus program every time you switch on the computer.
- ▶ write a program compile, create, design, develop, write It is worth your while trying to write the program yourself.
- ▶ load a program download, install, load Then run the file to install the program and to add an entry to your Start Programs menu.
- ▶ edit a program configure, edit, modify It is not possible to edit the program.
- ▶ end a program close, exit You'll have to exit the whole program and start again.

programme N a plan of activities for achieving something

- adj+N full or varied complete, comprehensive, extensive, full, intensive, varied, wide We are planning a comprehensive programme of presentations and publicity.
- ▶ well-organized structured Our structured training programme is unique to us.
- ▶ flexible flexible The college's flexible programmes allow you to tailor your studies to your individual interests.
- ▶ new innovative, new The ski school has an innovative learn-to-ski programme.
- ▶ important or special ambitious, exciting, major, special In 1998, there was a major programme to refurbish and enlarge the building.
- ▶ continuous or long-term long-term, ongoing, rolling After a rolling programme of art fairs since March, we now enter a quieter phase over the summer.
- ▶ with someone else collaborative, integrated, joint This is a joint programme between Edinburgh and Cambridge Universities.
- ▶ educational academic, college, degree, education, educational, graduate, research, school, training, undergraduate An educational programme for dancers, ballet teachers and choreographers needs to be established to decrease the incidence of ballet injuries.
- ▶ in a particular place international, local, national, regional There is no national screening programme.
- n+N training or education degree, education, graduate, induction, leadership, literacy, mentoring, postgraduate, skills, study, teaching For more information on our graduate programmes, see the online prospectus.
- ▶ medical or health-related drug, health, immunization, recovery, rehabilitation, screening, treatment, vaccination Cancer rates have fallen thanks to the new screening programme.
- ▶ for improving something or somewhere modernization, reform, refurbishment, regeneration The area remains problematic, despite a multi-million pound regeneration programme.
- ▶ exercise or sport coaching, exercise, fitness, sports Money has been made available to fund a sports programme for the under-12s.
- v+N design a programme design, develop, devise, draw up, establish, plan, set up This part-time programme is designed for students already working in health care.
- ▶ run or manage a programme conduct, co-ordinate, deliver, implement, manage, offer, organize, oversee, run, undertake Five institutions are already delivering professional development programmes to staff.
- ▶ take part in a programme attend, complete, follow, join, pursue, undergo You may be completing a training programme or starting your first job.
- ▶ start a programme begin, initiate, introduce, launch, start The programme was launched in 1998 by the United Nations.
- N+of study or training education, lectures, research, study, teaching, training, work The undergraduate degree is a three-year programme of study.
- ▶ change or improvement change, development, expansion, improvement, maintenance, modernization, reform, refurbishment, regeneration, rehabilitation, renewal, renovation, restoration The government began an ambitious programme of land reform.
- ▶ action or activities action, activities, measures You need to draw up a programme of action to tackle the issues you have identified.
- ▶ providing money investment, support Our ongoing programme of investment across our business ensures we can deliver the right solutions to our clients.

progress N

the process of developing or improving something

- adj+N gradual gradual, incremental, smooth, steady The team made steady progress to the semi-finals.
- ▶ fast fast, rapid, speedy, swift This enables our teachers to develop each student's abilities so that they make rapid progress.
- ▶ slow slow Dissatisfied with the slow progress being made, Alan resigned.
- ▶ a lot considerable, dramatic, encouraging, enormous, excellent, genuine, good, great, impressive, real, remarkable, significant, substantial, tremendous Significant progress has been made over the past three years.
- ▶ a little limited, little There is little progress on environmental reforms.
- ▶ satisfactory adequate, satisfactory, solid, sufficient The trainee must maintain satisfactory progress at all times.
- ▶ not satisfactory insufficient, unsatisfactory Departments prepare reports on the progress of all students whose progress is unsatisfactory.
- ▶ continuing continued, further, future, sustained The latest sales figures demonstrate the continued progress of the business.
- ▶ types of progress academic, economic, educational, industrial, medical, scientific, social, technical, technological We live in a world of unprecedented wealth and technological progress.
- v+N make progress achieve, make We continue to make good progress across all of our planned development areas.
- ▶ follow something's progress chart, follow, monitor, oversee, trace, track, watch They will use the new camera it to chart the progress of building works currently being carried out at the school.

- slow down something's progress delay, hamper, hinder, hold back, impede, inhibit, slow (down), undermine Progress was impeded by problems of access and planning permission.
- speed up something's progress accelerate, facilitate The company said it was examining all options to accelerate its progress.
- measure or check something's progress assess, check (on), evaluate, gauge, measure, review This survey will provide hard facts for us to measure our progress.
- stop something's progress arrest, block, halt, stop There are treatments to stop the progress of the condition and help relieve symptoms.
- show something's progress demonstrate, mark, show The photos show the progress of the restoration.
- continue something's progress continue, maintain Scholarships can be held for up to three years, subject to satisfactory progress being maintained.

progress V

to continue to develop or move forward

- adv+V well favourably, nicely, satisfactorily, smoothly, successfully, well She goes to school, where she is progressing nicely.
- quickly apace, fast, quickly, rapidly, swiftly Fundraising is progressing apace.
- slowly or gradually gradually, slowly, steadily Paralysis associated with the disease progresses steadily, though the rate differs between individuals.
- a lot considerably, enormously, significantly Since then, the band has progressed significantly and has recently performed at various venues around the region.

progression N

a gradual change or development

- adj+N natural automatic, inevitable, logical, natural So when the job came up, it seemed the natural progression and I jumped at the opportunity.
- fast quick, rapid Hudson attributes her rapid progression through the sport to the goals she set herself from the beginning.
- slow or gradual gradual, slow, steady Critics see in his work a steady progression from lighter, frivolous work to darker, more serious plays.
- smooth and without breaks seamless, smooth To enable the smooth progression of research grant applications, the following procedures have been established.
- more further, future, incremental Even if you do develop eye disease, it can be managed and treated to prevent any further progression.
- satisfactory positive, satisfactory, successful The curriculum is designed to ensure satisfactory progression to college education.

- v+N slow down a progression delay, hinder, inhibit, retard, slow (down) There are drugs that slow the progression of heart disease.
- speed up a progression accelerate, aid, encourage, enhance, facilitate, promote, support These reports, together with your record of achievement and development, facilitate your progression as a teacher.
- stop or prevent a progression block, halt, prevent, reverse, stop The chairman's ego refused to give in and foolish pride has halted the progression of the football club.
- affect a progression affect, determine, influence Education is important because it influences career progression and earnings once in work.
- monitor a progression chart, follow, monitor, track The book charts the progression of this republican movement from the 1920s to today.
- ensure a progression allow, enable, ensure, guarantee Successful completion of the course guarantees progression to the first year of a degree course.
- show a progression demonstrate, show The old boatyard now houses an array of boats, showing the progression to modern day vessels.
- make a progression make Steve made the natural progression from modeling to television by becoming the presenter of 'The Popfactory'.

prohibit V

to officially stop something from being done [usually passive]

- adv+V absolutely, completely, effectively, explicitly, expressly, generally, legally, specifically, strictly, totally Cheating is strictly prohibited.

prohibition N

a law or rule that prevents something

- adj+N complete absolute, blanket, complete, outright, total In some workplaces, there may be an absolute prohibition on possession of alcohol.
- extremely clear explicit, express There is an express prohibition on discrimination on the ground of pregnancy.
- general comprehensive, general The Bill created a general prohibition of smoking at work.
- supported by laws legal, legislative, statutory National parliaments should examine whether they have adequate legal prohibitions against using statistical information to bring harm on individuals.

- v+N introduce a prohibition impose, issue The final section of the Act gives the police power to impose parking prohibitions and restrictions.
- make sure a prohibition is obeyed enforce The Tobacco Control Agency enforces prohibitions on the advertising of tobacco products in Ireland.
- remove a prohibition end, lift, relax, remove, repeal This provision would lift the current prohibition on imported meat.
- not obey a prohibition breach, contravene, infringe, violate In 1987, US courts ruled that the Office of Public Diplomacy had violated a prohibition against using federal funds for domestic propaganda.

prohibitive ADJ

too expensive to buy or use

- ADJ+n cost, expense, fee, premium, price, tariff The prohibitive cost of childcare will make it uneconomical for these women to continue working for the company.

project N

a planned piece of organized work

- adj+N large or important ambitious, big, important, large, large-scale, major Some schools have undertaken very ambitious projects, such as building their own wind turbines.
- ▸ small short, small There is a growing interest in smaller community-based projects.
- ▸ involving groups working together collaborative, joint The study is an outcome of a collaborative research project between the Universities of Berlin and Oxford.
- ▸ involving new and exciting ideas creative, exciting, innovative, pioneering You will be working on innovative projects and sharing your learning with others.
- ▸ successful successful Overall, the project was very successful in meeting the objectives originally set.
- ▸ continuing ongoing Police say the operation is part of an ongoing project to crack down on drug use in schools.
- ▸ involving research research At the end of this period, students are expected to complete a short research project.
- ▸ done for a short time as a test pilot The initial results from this pilot project were presented by the design team.

- v+N be responsible for a project and do it carry out, conduct, embark on, undertake Many projects are undertaken each year where students work with commerce and industry.
- ▸ be in charge of a project lead, manage, organize, oversee, run, supervise This project is run to provide gardening maintenance and care for the elderly and disabled of Newstead Estate.
- ▸ start a project implement, initiate, launch, set up, start The project was set up to record the memories and experiences of the Vietnamese living in the UK.
- ▸ complete a project complete, deliver The team was able to complete both projects to time and on budget.
- ▸ plan a project design, develop, plan It took a year to plan the project and find the money to make it happen.
- ▸ provide the money for a project finance, fund, support These projects are funded by a range of sources, including the EU, industry, and UK and overseas governments.
- ▸ judge the quality of a project assess, evaluate, monitor, review The project was extensively evaluated by researchers from the Department of Public Health.

projection N

a calculation about how something will develop

- adj+N in the future forward, future, long-term The falling birth rate is also reflected in the future projection of the number of children under 16.
- ▸ based on good evidence accurate, detailed, realistic The Chairman insisted on the importance of making realistic cost projections.
- ▸ too confident optimistic Growth rates have exceeded our most optimistic projections.
- ▸ types of projection demographic, economic, financial, fiscal It may prove impossible to meet the financial projections.

- n+N cash flow, growth, income, population, revenue, spending She prepared a business plan, including cash flow projections for a full year.

- v+N make a projection make, outline, prepare, produce Starting with population data from 1650 to the present day, projections are made for the future.
- ▸ base a projection on something base on sth All projections are based on a set of assumptions.
- ▸ make changes to a projection revise, update The company has revised downwards its market growth projection.
- ▸ be greater than a projection exceed The report states that last year market growth exceeded all projections.

- N+v when a projection shows something indicate sth, predict sth, show sth, suggest sth All our projections indicate that the demand for university education will continue to grow.
- ▸ when a projection depends on something else assume sth, depend on sth Current population projections assume that immigration will continue at the same level.

prolific ADJ

producing many books, works of art etc

- adv+ADJ extremely, highly, hugely, incredibly, quite, very Haydn was an extremely prolific composer.

- ADJ+n writer, musician, or artist artist, author, composer, journalist, novelist, painter, poet, songwriter, writer Adrian is the prolific author of poetry, novels, and plays.
- ▸ football player goalscorer, scorer, striker Van Basten proved to be a prolific goalscorer.
- ▸ criminal burglar, offender, thief Burglary levels have fallen steadily as the police target prolific offenders.
- ▸ what someone produces output For almost 20 years his orchestral output was prolific.
- ▸ time when someone is prolific career, life, period His most prolific period as a painter came after the end of World War One.

prolong V make something last longer

- V+n life life, life expectancy, lifespan, survival According to the experts, a diet that is high in nutrition and low in fat can actually help prolong your life.
- ▸ time spent in a place stay I was keen to prolong my stay in the city.
- ▸ pain or suffering agony, suffering In some cases, restarting the patient's heart leaves them with a severe disability, and only prolongs their suffering.
- ▸ war or serious disagreement conflict, dispute, war The UN accused the warring parties of deliberately prolonging the war as they looted gold, diamonds, and other goods.

prominence N

the state of being important or well known

- adj+N more greater, increased, increasing Women characters have taken on increasing prominence in his work.
- ▸ equal equal, same Signs must be fully bilingual, giving equal prominence to both English and Welsh.
- ▸ appropriate or deserved appropriate, deserved, due In our view, significant risk factors were not given due prominence.

▸ not deserved or necessary undue Our view is that these statistics are unreliable, and have been given undue prominence by the news media.
▸ involving a lot of people global, international, national, public Rob admitted that the speed of his rise to national prominence has stunned him.

• v+N give prominence accord, give sb/sth We were of the view that this story was given too much prominence in the news bulletin.
▸ have or achieve prominence achieve, acquire, assume, come into, come to, enjoy, gain, rise to The young forward rose to prominence in the 1982/3 season.

• n+to+N rise The city's rise to prominence began in the 12th century with the founding of the Cathedral.

prominent ADJ important and well known

• adv+ADJ especially, increasingly, particularly, very This school of thought is becoming increasingly prominent in the USA.

• ADJ+n influence in a situation part, role The Welsh language plays a prominent part in the teaching and in the everyday life of the school.
▸ feature feature One of the most prominent features of the blogging phenomenon is that anyone can do it.
▸ person artist, businessman, campaigner, figure, lawyer, leader, member, name, politician, scholar, scientist She is one of the broadcasting industry's most prominent figures.
▸ issue factor, issue, theme A prominent theme in Shakespeare's plays is the unjust accusation of infidelity.

• ADJ+in+n campaign, circles, field, movement She comes from a family that is prominent in local business circles.

promise V
tell someone you will definitely do something

• adv+V strongly faithfully, repeatedly, solemnly Unwilling to let him go, his wife consents on condition he promises faithfully to return to her.
▸ at first first, initially, originally Only 5,000 tickets were available for fans – far fewer than the number that was initially promised.

promise N
1 a statement that you will definitely do something

• adj+N not sincere empty, false, hollow Without change, these targets are little more than empty promises.
▸ that is not kept broken, unfulfilled People are sick and tired of the government's broken promises.
▸ that you must keep binding A binding promise does not have to be made in writing on headed notepaper.
▸ not clearly explained vague Such vague promises were unlikely to satisfy the workforce.
▸ serious solemn Solemn promises were made to increase aid and support development in Africa.

• v+N make a promise give, make Leaders around the world have made endless promises to end poverty.
▸ keep a promise deliver, deliver on, fulfil, honour, implement, keep, meet I'm sorry, I couldn't keep my promise.
▸ break a promise break, go back on Cecil promised the conspirators they would be allowed to escape or pardoned, and then broke his promise.
▸ make someone keep a promise hold sb to We are determined to hold the new BBC leadership to that promise.
▸ receive a promise be given, receive They had received vague promises of support from the Secretary of State.
▸ persuade someone to give you a promise extract, obtain, secure According to legend, the dying queen extracted a promise from Shah Jahan that he would build a magnificent mausoleum.

2 signs that someone or something will be successful

• adj+N great considerable, enormous, exceptional, great, much, real She was immediately recognized as a writer of great promise.

You can also say that something is full of promise: The day started full of promise.

▸ early early, initial The heyday of steam ploughing came at the beginning of the 20th century, but it never quite fulfilled its early promise.
▸ not achieved unfulfilled I do have a sense of unfulfilled promise when reading this book.

• v+N show promise hold, show I look forward to seeing more mature work from him, as his prose shows great promise.
▸ be as good as expected confirm, fulfil, live up to, realize The second half didn't quite live up to the promise of the early chapters.

promising ADJ likely to be successful

• adv+ADJ very exceptionally, extremely, highly, really, very Kempson's performance against Northampton was highly promising.
▸ fairly fairly, quite, rather At first sight, the new software looked rather promising, but we soon began to see its weaknesses.

• ADJ+n beginning beginning, debut, start The home team got off to a promising start with a goal in the first five minutes.
▸ chance of future success career, future, prospects Why would a man give up a promising literary career to become a sportswriter?
▸ person candidate, newcomer, player, prospect, talent, youngster Eventually, the choice was whittled down to a small number of promising candidates.
▸ way of doing something approach, avenue, direction, line, method, route, strategy, technique, way Genetically engineering rice is seen as a promising approach to tackling food shortages. ◉ Darwin's research suggested several promising lines of investigation.
▸ evidence of success results, sign The drug has shown promising results in mice with Type 2 diabetes.

• v+ADJ appear, be, look, seem, sound The day was already looking very promising.

- and/or bright, exciting, new, young She is one of European cinema's most promising new talents.

promote V support or encourage something

- adv+V strongly aggressively, heavily, strongly, vigorously We believe that micro-enterprises deserve to be strongly promoted in the UK.
- ▸ in an active way actively, positively Schools which have actively promoted cycling have been successful in increasing the numbers of children who cycle to school.
- ▸ effectively effectively, successfully Solutions do exist and, if promoted effectively, can go a long way to solving management problems.
- ▸ in a lot of places widely The philosophy of inclusive education has been widely promoted in Canadian schools.

- V+n knowledge or understanding awareness, education, interest, learning, study, understanding The aim of the project was to promote awareness of energy conservation in the home and school.
- ▸ development or increase development, growth The Chancellor announced today a series of measures to promote productivity growth.
- ▸ equal rights and treatment access, diversity, equality, opportunity, rights The programme is designed to promote equal access to education and employment for all. ◆ The government claims it is committed to promoting the rights of people with diabilities.
- ▸ involvement by many people collaboration, co-operation, integration, involvement, participation, partnership We want to promote greater participation by local people in the planning process.
- ▸ discussion debate, dialogue, discussion The aim of the conference is to promote dialogue between scientists and religious leaders.

promotion N
1 a move to a higher level in an organization, group of sports teams etc

- v+N get promotion achieve, clinch, earn, gain, get, receive, secure, win The club's main focus this season is on winning promotion.
- ▸ try to get promotion seek The qualifications gained will assist you when you seek promotion.

- n+of+N chance, hope, possibility, prospect If we win this game, then we have a very good chance of promotion.

2 activity to help sell products, increase business etc

- n+N business, export, product, sales, trade The company has experienced teams dedicated to sales promotion.

- v+N do, launch, organize, run We are currently running a consumer promotion offering a free trial to new customers.

prompt V
cause something to happen or be done

- V+n ideas or discussion about something call, debate, discussion, investigation, question, speculation The company prompted speculation about its future by suspending its shares on Tuesday.
- ▸ worry concern, fears The discovery of a flock of dead swans prompted fears that the virus was spreading.
- ▸ change change, development, review Eventually, pressure from the public prompted a change in government policy.
- ▸ reaction reaction, response The employees have refused to raise their offer, prompting an angry reaction from the teaching union.
- ▸ action action, move What prompted the move into theatre?

prompt ADJ immediate or quick

- ADJ+n action, attention, delivery, diagnosis, payment, reply, response, service, treatment Thank you very much for your prompt reply.

- and/or accurate, courteous, effective, efficient, friendly, helpful, professional, reliable Feedback on the assessment was prompt and helpful.

prone ADJ likely to do or experience something

- adv+ADJ especially, extremely, increasingly, notoriously, particularly, very Small businesses and sole traders are particularly prone to stress.

- n+ADJ accident, crisis, disease, error, injury We are introducing a computerized system that will automate many tasks that were previously tedious and error prone.

- v+ADJ be, become, remain, seem Despite all these improvements, the area remains prone to drought and famine.

- ADJ+to natural disasters drought, earthquake, famine, flooding The area is still prone to flooding.
- ▸ physical or mental illness allergy, anxiety, cancer, depression, disease, disorders, illness, infection People who are overweight are more prone to sleep disorders.
- ▸ problems or lack of proper functioning breakdown, damage, error, problems Most of the trucks were in poor condition and prone to breakdown.

proof N
information showing that something is definitely true

- adj+N that cannot be doubted absolute, conclusive, definitive, final, incontrovertible, irrefutable There is speculation as to how old the carvings are and who carved them, but there is no conclusive proof.
- ▸ likely to persuade people clear, convincing, positive He claims these images are the most convincing proof yet of UFOs.
- ▸ based on facts concrete, real, solid, tangible She suspects that her husband had a hand in her son's death, but there is no tangible proof.
- ▸ enough ample, sufficient Their financial success is ample proof that they are offering a service that people enjoy.
- ▸ more additional, further It is further proof, if needed, that keeping an open mind is essential when listening to music.

- types of proof documentary, experimental, formal, mathematical, scientific Is there any scientific proof of the effectiveness of aromatherapy?

- v+N give someone proof furnish, give sb, offer (sb), present, produce, provide (sb with), show (sb), submit, supply To be eligible, you will need to provide proof of residency.
- have proof have The bar staff have the right to refuse to serve you if you have no proof that you are over 18.
- need or ask for proof ask for, demand, need, request, require, seek, want Orders made from countries outside the UK may require further proof of identity to support the card transaction.
- be proof be, constitute Anecdotal evidence does not constitute scientific proof.
- get proof find, get, obtain, see How do I obtain proof of my student status?

propaganda N

information spread by a government or organization to influence people

- adj+N deliberately dishonest blatant, false, misleading, pure There would be an outcry if such blatant political propaganda was introduced into schools.
- types of propaganda extremist, political, racist, religious, right-wing, socialist, sorporate Her article set out to attack corporate propaganda that climate change was not a serious issue.

- n+N enemy, government, state, war, wartime Despite government propaganda, news of the hellish reality of the war was well known in Britain due to returned wounded servicemen.

- v+N spread propaganda broadcast, disseminate, distribute, issue, peddle, publish, spread The movement spreads its propaganda mainly via radio and TV.
- reply to propaganda counter, counteract Be prepared to counter any anti-union propaganda that the management may distribute.
- believe propaganda accept, believe, swallow There is every sign that he came to believe his own propaganda.

- N+n system or process for spreading propaganda campaign, effort, exercise, war The union does seem to be winning the propaganda war.
- people responsible department, machine, machinery, ministry In 1929, he had been given overall charge of the party's propaganda machine.
- purposes purposes The media was used during the conflict for propaganda purposes.
- methods or materials used broadcast, film, leaflet, material, messages, poster He also appeared as the devil, complete with horns and tail, in a number of short propaganda films.

- n+of+N barrage, form, means, piece The pamphlet is nothing but a nasty piece of propaganda.

proper ADJ

right, correct, or morally good

- adv+ADJ completely or very entirely, perfectly, quite, very, wholly He argues that in many cases it is perfectly proper to withhold or withdraw life-preserving treatment.
- no more than what is right only I am usually quick to complain if I receive poor service, so I feel it only proper to compliment good service.

- and/or effective, fair, reasonable, right Many hours had been spent discussing the issue, as was entirely right and proper.

proportion N

a quantity forming part or share of whole

- adj+N large considerable, great, high, huge, large, significant, sizeable, substantial A high proportion of the town's residents work in the capital.
- larger or increasing greater, higher, increasing Populations in the West are shifting towards a greater proportion of older people.
- small low, small, tiny Only a tiny proportion of party members ever got involved in the policy-making process.
- fairly large fair, good, reasonable A fair proportion of the revenue raised from the scheme is to be spent on making the streets more accessible.
- equal equal Where these repairs are undertaken, the costs are divided amongst all properties on the estate in equal proportions.
- same same, similar Only 12 per cent consumed the recommended amount of five a day or more, while the same proportion consumed none at all.
- certain certain, specified He would like all electrical generation to have a certain proportion from wind farms.

proposal N

a plan or suggestion to be considered

- adj+N detailed detailed, full I will consult all interested parties before we bring forward detailed proposals for this new body.
- not detailed or in its final form draft, outline The architect had submitted draft proposals by fax for security fencing at the front of the building.
- previous or current current, initial, latest, new, original, recent, revised The Government's initial proposals for reform were published in October 2002.
- practical or specific concrete, specific The report is rather vague when it comes to making concrete proposals.
- causing disagreement controversial The Association of British Insurers plans to reveal these controversial proposals at a conference later this month.
- involving major changes ambitious, exciting, innovative, radical Some of the transport proposals are radical and will require a separate public consultation.
- formal formal, written A formal proposal will now be presented to English Nature, and a public consultation exercise will take place.
- relating to a law legislative We look forward to working closely with the Government on legislative proposals to implement this Directive.
- important important, major, significant The talks eventually led to some significant new proposals.

- v+N make a proposal bring forward, make, present, put forward, submit Short-listed applicants will be invited to submit full proposals by the end of March.
- develop a proposal develop, draft, formulate, prepare The next stage will be to develop some specific proposals for improvements to the park.

- ▸ give the main ideas of a proposal outline The parking proposals are outlined in section 4G.
- ▸ support a proposal endorse, support, welcome I am sure that good businesses are going to welcome the proposals to strengthen industry codes of practice.
- ▸ accept a proposal accept, adopt, approve If your proposal is approved, you will be notified by e-mail.
- ▸ not accept or support a proposal oppose, reject The Labour Government will continue to oppose any proposals to increase the permitted maximum weight limit for heavy lorries.
- ▸ discuss or consider a proposal assess, consider, discuss, evaluate, review I have been travelling the country to discuss the proposals with students.

propose V
suggest a plan, idea, or actions

- V+n plan or action approach, measure, mechanism, plan, programme, scheme, solution, strategy We propose a number of measures to create jobs and clean up the environment.
- ▸ change amendment, change, reform The Government has proposed widespread changes to the taxation of trusts.
- ▸ law or rule directive, law, legislation, regulation, standards The law proposes tough new standards for nutrition in school meals.

proposition N
1 an offer or suggestion

- adj+N interesting or worth doing attractive, compelling, exciting, tempting We have given much thought to Mr Engelman's submission, but have to say that we do not find it an attractive proposition.
- ▸ likely to be successful feasible, practical, realistic, viable Loans can be provided to help applicants who have a viable business proposition.
- ▸ in business business, commercial Had the channel been considered as a commercial proposition, it would never have been launched.

- v+N make a proposition make, put to sb He then made a startling proposition: that they start a new life in Africa. ◆ Before I put this proposition to you, I must ask for your solemn promise to be discreet.
- ▸ accept/not accept a proposition accept, reject Where referenda have been held on the creation of directly elected mayors, voters have often rejected the proposition.

2 someone or something that must be dealt with

- adj+N difficult or causing problems difficult, expensive, risky, serious, tough, tricky Taking on a whole new workforce of 20,000 people from scratch would be a tough proposition.
- ▸ attractive attractive, exciting, interesting The night bus service has also improved hugely, making late nights in town a more attractive proposition.
- ▸ different different We easily beat them last season, but they are likely to be an entirely different proposition this time around.

prose N written language that is not poetry

- adj+N clear clear, lucid, readable The book is thoroughly researched and written in the lucid prose we expect from the author.
- ▸ well written beautiful, elegant, poetic Written with all his characteristically elegant prose, this short biography is still perhaps the best introduction to Newton and his work.

> Purple prose is written in a very emotional or complicated style: How do you convey the essential nature of music without resorting to highly technical jargon or purple prose?

- ▸ describing something or telling a story descriptive, narrative To support the descriptive prose there are numerous excellent photographs.

prosecution N
the process of formally accusing someone of a crime

- v+N be likely to suffer prosecution be liable to, face, risk You could face prosecution if smoke from your bonfire causes a nuisance.
- ▸ avoid prosecution avoid, escape A number of police officers were caught speeding but escaped prosecution.
- ▸ cause a prosecution to happen bring, initiate, mount, pursue The Inspectorate will bring prosecutions if it believes that it has evidence that water unfit for human consumption was supplied.
- ▸ result in a prosecution lead to, result in Failure to comply with the above terms may result in prosecution for unauthorized use of copyrighted material.

- N+n people advocate, counsel, lawyer, team, witness They argued they did not receive a fair trial and claimed prosecution witnesses had been coached.
- ▸ facts or claims case, claim, evidence Police Officer Hadley rejected prosecution claims that he had destroyed vital evidence.

prospect N
the possibility that something will happen, or the thought of it happening

- adj+N likely to happen or succeed excellent, good, realistic, reasonable There is no longer a realistic prospect of conviction.
- ▸ immediate immediate We regret to report that there is no immediate prospect of her return to work.
- ▸ not much little Students are leaving school with little prospect of getting a job because they lack basic literacy skills.
- ▸ worrying or frightening alarming, bleak, daunting, frightening, grim, terrifying It was a daunting prospect and I did have to think about it, but it was a once in a lifetime opportunity.
- ▸ interesting or exciting attractive, exciting, interesting, tantalizing, tempting I will be travelling to China for the first time, an exciting prospect.

- v+N provide the prospect of something offer, provide, raise The elections do not offer any prospect of change.
- ▸ have to deal with a prospect be faced with, face Many of our young people face the prospect of years of unemployment.
- ▸ be happy about a prospect be excited about, be excited at, relish, welcome She did not relish the prospect of all the administrative work she would have to do.

▸ make a prospect more likely boost, enhance, improve A period of voluntary work could boost your long-term career prospects.

prosperity N

the situation of being successful and rich

- adj+N economic commercial, economic, financial, material It was a time of relative economic prosperity.
- ▸ continuing in the future continued, future, lasting, long-term These new conference and exhibition facilities are essential to the city's future prosperity.
- ▸ increasing growing, increased, increasing, rising There is more work to do to ensure everyone can share in the growing prosperity of the country.
- ▸ great great, unparalleled I predict a year of great prosperity and success.
- ▸ relative relative Aberdeen has enjoyed three decades of relative prosperity and low unemployment.
- ▸ experienced by most people general, national, shared Enterprise is the key to our national prosperity.

- v+N bring prosperity bring, build, create, deliver, ensure, promote, spread Shipbuilding, manufacturing and trading brought prosperity to Inverclyde in the 19th and 20th centuries.
- ▸ experience or achieve prosperity achieve, enjoy Britons today enjoy prosperity far greater than that of previous generations.
- ▸ increase the level of prosperity boost, enhance, increase It is hoped that investment in green technologies will enhance the prosperity of the region.

protect V

keep someone or something safe from harm [usually passive]

- adv+V completely completely, fully We can assist you in making sure your rights are fully protected.
- ▸ well adequately, effectively, properly, well Despite high levels of anxiety over online security, many computers aren't adequately protected against infection.
- ▸ not well enough inadequately, poorly Experts who examined the site concluded that the uranium was inadequately protected.
- ▸ by laws or rules constitutionally, legally, specially, statutorily Confidentiality of medical information is legally protected.

protection N

the process of keeping someone or something safe

- adj+N good enough adequate, effective, proper, sufficient Every business should have adequate protection against viruses and data loss.
- ▸ better better, greater, improved The junction needs to be redesigned to provide better protection for cyclists and pedestrians.
- ▸ additional added, additional, enhanced, extra, further The shelter is erected on a solid surface, and then covered in sandbags to provide added protection.
- ▸ complete complete, comprehensive, full, maximum He should be kept away from other cats for 10 days after the second injection to ensure maximum protection.
- ▸ special special Children and young people have a right to special protection.
- ▸ legal legal, statutory We believe that children have a right to the same legal protection from violence as adults.
- ▸ environmental environmental Environmental protection cannot be successfully achieved without tackling the accompanying social issues.

- n+N data and computers anti-virus, copyright, data, firewall, password They are a major London law firm advising clients in all aspects of data protection.
- ▸ people child, consumer We provide training in topics such as child protection and food hygiene.
- ▸ money or property income, mortgage, payment, property The mortgage includes an income protection plan, in case you lose your job.

- v+N give protection afford (sb), give (sb), offer (sb), provide (sb with) A large golf umbrella certainly affords greater protection from the rain.
- ▸ make sure someone or something has protection ensure (sb), guarantee (sb) The vaccination is usually effective, but it does not guarantee protection.
- ▸ need or try to get protection need, require, seek Hanging baskets will need protection over the winter.
- ▸ have or receive protection enjoy, have, receive Because of its vulnerable status the dormouse receives legal protection under the Wildlife and Countryside Act.

- n+of+N degree, level, standard The anti-virus software provides a high level of protection.

protective ADJ wanting to protect someone from harm

- adv+ADJ very extremely, fiercely, very She is fiercely protective of her step-daughter.
- ▸ more than is reasonable over, overly, too Parents who drive their children to school are sometimes seen as over-protective.

- v+ADJ be, become, feel She's so vulnerable and trusting that you're immediately drawn into her character and feel hugely protective towards her.

protest N

1 a strong complaint or disagreement

- adj+N angry or strong angry, loud, strong My argument was greeted by a storm of angry protest.
- ▸ formal formal, official I am writing to register a formal protest regarding the treatment that I received recently at your store.

- v+N make a protest lodge, make, register, voice After the race, the Spanish team lodged an official protest.
- ▸ make a protest happen prompt, provoke, spark The referee awarded the goal, sparking vociferous protests from United.
- ▸ ignore a protest ignore Ignoring the drunken protests of the girls, she heaved herself to her feet.

- n+of+N howl, storm Any calls to reduce the danger posed by motor vehicles, such as actually enforcing legal speed limits, lead to howls of protest from drivers.

2 public actions designed to show strong disagreement

- adj+N peaceful/violent non-violent, peaceful, violent The invasion triggered violent protests across the world.
- ▸ involving many people global, international, mass, massive, popular, public, widespread There had been an outbreak of popular protest against the tax.
- ▸ political political The regime attempted to pass a bill banning all political protest.
- v+N organize a protest hold, launch, organize, stage Supporters staged a brief sit-down protest before the game.
- ▸ make a protest happen lead to, spark Allegations of vote-rigging sparked massive protests.
- ▸ support or take part in a protest join, lead, support Over 100 people joined a protest last Saturday against the government's harsh treatment of asylum seekers.
- ▸ try to stop people protesting ban, prevent, stifle, suppress The law gives police the power to impose no-go zones and to ban peaceful protest.
- N+n demonstration, group, march, meeting, movement, rally Sunday's protest march drew thousands of people into the capital.
- n+of+N act, campaign, storm, wave A wave of protests erupted across France.

protest V

express strong disagreement with something, especially as a group and in public

- adv+V loudly or strongly loudly, strongly, vehemently, vigorously Why didn't people protest more vigorously against such treatment?
- ▸ in a peaceful way peacefully We are determined to continue peacefully protesting outside parliament.

protester N

someone who publicly shows opposition to something

- N+v come together demonstrate, gather, march, occupy sth Hundreds of protesters had gathered to prevent work starting on the controversial rail tunnel.
- ▸ make demands call for sth, chant sth, demand sth, shout sth Outside the court, protesters chanted anti-war slogans.

proud ADJ

happy about your achievements, possessions, family etc

- adv+ADJ very enormously, especially, extremely, fiercely, immensely, incredibly, particularly, really, so INFORMAL, truly, very We are immensely proud of Paula and all she has achieved.
- ▸ with a good reason for being proud justifiably, justly, rightfully, rightly They ought to feel justifiably proud of their efforts.
- ▸ rather quite, rather I'm feeling quite proud of myself as I never used to run more than 2 miles when I was at school.
- v+ADJ be, feel, look, seem, sound We all felt incredibly proud that the students had achieved such excellent results.

prove V

1 provide evidence which shows that something is true

- adv+V so that there is no longer any doubt beyond a doubt, beyond the shadow of a doubt, categorically, conclusively, definitively, without a doubt, without the shadow of a doubt Genetic testing can prove conclusively whether someone has the disease or not.
- ▸ in a scientific way clinically, mathematically, scientifically, statistically It was a long time before the benefits of tea to health would be scientifically proven.
- ▸ only just, merely, only This decision only proves that the World Trade Organization is unqualified to deal with complex scientific and environmental issues.
- V+n a claim allegation, case, claim, point 'That, Peter,' I replied, 'proves my point.'
- ▸ fact of being guilty/not guilty guilt, innocence They destroyed any piece of evidence that might prove his innocence.
- ▸ fact of who you are identity You will need to provide original documents proving your identity.
- ▸ value value, worth He has to be given a chance to prove his worth.
- ▸ existence existence Modern science has not yet proved existence of intelligent life on other planets.
- ▸ ability ability, capability, competence, fitness, skill He is an actor who has proved his ability in a number of important films.
- ▸ a theory hypothesis, theory The class introduces students to the scientific method, helping them create tests to prove their hypotheses.

2 be shown to have a particular quality

- V+adj useful advantageous, beneficial, fruitful, helpful, invaluable, useful, valuable This file contains tips and suggestions that might prove useful.
- ▸ popular popular The conference has proved very popular, and we regret to inform you that all available spaces have now been taken.
- ▸ difficult challenging, difficult, problematic, tough, tricky, troublesome Documentary evidence has proved difficult to find.
- ▸ easy easy Finding suitable accommodation in the area proved easy.
- ▸ interesting interesting I thought it might prove interesting to compare their different approaches to the problem.
- ▸ expensive costly, expensive Any later changes to the design will prove costly in both time and money.
- ▸ successful effective, successful The plan was well thought out and immediately proved successful.
- ▸ unsuccessful disastrous, inadequate, ineffective, unsuccessful, unworkable His efforts proved unsuccessful.
- ▸ causing someone to die fatal In the UK there are 65,000 cases of skin cancer each year, with 2,000 proving fatal.
- ▸ necessary necessary The Government intends to use its powers to cap local authority budgets, should that prove necessary.
- ▸ impossible impossible Getting a visa proved nearly impossible.
- ▸ possible possible The intention had been to interview three separate groups of parents at each school but this proved possible in one school only.

- ▸ true or correct accurate, correct, true If these rumours prove true, she will be forced to resign.
- ▸ untrue or incorrect false, incorrect, unfounded, wrong What protection does the buyer have if the seller's information proves incorrect?

proven ADJ
shown to be true, real, or effective

- • ADJ+n method approach, method, methodology, procedure, solution, strategy, system, technique, way Proven, old-fashioned methods are the most successful.
- ▸ ability ability, capability, competence, expertise, skills, talent Our reputation for integrity and our proven ability to deliver high quality work to a very high standard were also key factors in winning this contract.
- ▸ experience background, experience Ideally, you will have at least five to eight years proven experience of communicating ideas and information in a highly competitive commercial environment.
- ▸ benefit advantage, benefit There are definite and proven health benefits from simply drinking more water.
- ▸ record of achievements pedigree, record, reputation, track record Course tutors have a proven track record in teaching science to non-specialist adults.
- ▸ connection connection, link However, there is as yet no proven link between the use of mobile phones and brain cancer.
- ▸ results results These methods are simple and give proven results.
- ▸ fact fact All I'm saying is, I don't think it's a good idea to say something is a proven fact when it is not.
- ▸ technology technology The lower the amount of proven technology involved in the project, the greater the difficulty in raising finance.
- ▸ product design, product, tool The system has been developed using widely available and proven software tools.
- ▸ success success These unique study guides are a proven success in helping students achieve their maximum potential.
- ▸ quality of being reliable reliability Because of its small size, ease of use, and proven reliability, the stove has been the choice of campers and hikers worldwide for many years.

provide V
1 give someone something that they want or need

- • V+n information analysis, background, data, details, evidence, explanation, information, summary The site provides information on its three major research programmes.
- ▸ help aid, assistance, care, help, support The government is providing further support for those parents with particular needs.
- ▸ advice advice, feedback, guidance Once you've made your choice, we can provide advice on how best to set up your system.
- ▸ education education, teaching, training Our aim is to provide practical training which gives students the skills they need.
- ▸ protection protection The system is designed to provide protection from terrorist attacks.
- ▸ service service We also provide a service specifically for South Asian women.
- ▸ place to live or work accommodation, environment, facility, space The library is housed in a chapel that has been refurbished to provide modern facilities in beautiful surroundings.
- ▸ range range The Institute provides a range of undergraduate and graduate programmes.

2 cause something to exist or be available

- • V+n opportunity opportunity The work provided the opportunity for students to enjoy being physically active out in the fresh air.
- ▸ way of understanding something insight, overview This Report provides a very useful insight into the range of activities undertaken by the Fund.
- ▸ answer answer, solution The same approach also provides the practical answer to forging a new relationship between scientists and the public.
- ▸ way of doing something basis, framework, mechanism, system Each chapter would provide the basis for a term's work.
- ▸ way of using something access Our reference libraries provide access to a wide range of information.
- ▸ opportunity for discussion forum, platform The website provides a forum for you to exchange ideas with other researchers.

provider N
an organization that provides a service to the public

- • n+N Internet broadband, Internet, Internet service, network, service We are currently acting for a number of well established IT businesses, including Internet service providers and software companies.
- ▸ information content, data, information Information providers are responsible for the content they publish.
- ▸ technology applications, software, technology Check with your software provider for these updates regularly.
- ▸ care care, childcare, healthcare, treatment The purpose of the Act is to improve the regulation of healthcare providers.
- ▸ education course, education, training We work in partnership with the voluntary sector, education providers, and employers.
- ▸ financial service credit card, finance, insurance, loan, mortgage, pension In most instances, we can get a better rate than your existing pension provider.
- ▸ place to live accommodation, housing The website is a useful resource, and we urge housing providers, tenants, and community groups to use it.
- ▸ service service, support The Disability Discrimination Act makes it unlawful for a service provider to discriminate against a disabled person.
- ▸ transport transport Our aim is to work in partnership with transport providers to achieve an efficient and affordable transport system.
- ▸ solution solution They have already established themselves as an innovative solutions provider.

provision N

1 the act of providing something that someone needs

- adj+N relating to time current, existing, future Respondents were also invited to provide comments on the current provision of the service.
- ▸ relating to education educational The overall quality of educational provision is improving.
- ▸ public public In housing, the role of public provision, and even public finance, may diminish.
- ▸ private private With the move to increased private provision of previously public tasks, the non-profit sector has grown steadily.
- ▸ local local Local provision of suitable facilities is also very patchy.
- ▸ required by the law legal, statutory What are the rules governing the statutory provision of childcare facilities?
- v+N improve provision enhance, improve This report makes recommendations on how to improve the provision of care.
- ▸ make certain that there is provision ensure To ensure the provision of up-to-date information, the details on this site are maintained by the retailers themselves.
- ▸ increase provision develop, expand, extend, increase The Association was formed in 1967 to increase the provision of low-cost affordable housing in the district.
- ▸ say that provision is necessary require The Broadcasting Act requires the provision of high-quality national and international news during peak time.
- ▸ consider provision consider, review The school should consider the provision of better, more secure facilities for bicycle storage.
- ▸ encourage provision encourage, support The Green Party supports the provision of good-quality subsidized public transport for all students who do not live within a short distance of their school.

2 plans or preparations for future needs

- adj+N special special, specific Despite representations from various bodies, the Government has, at least so far, declined to make special provision for such insurance.
- ▸ additional additional, further This issue obviously arose years before we came into office, but we have made additional provision for research.
- ▸ good or enough adequate, effective, good We hope that adequate provision will be made in the spending review now being conducted by the Government.
- ▸ not good enough inadequate, poor Their forecasts made inadequate provision for the effects of inflation.
- ▸ suitable appropriate, proper Appropriate provision must be made for research.
- v+N make All airlines make provisions for travellers with diabetes if you inform them at the time of booking.
- N+for access, development, education, needs, parking, payment, protection, retirement, service, use They can then assess the individual early in the process and begin to make provision for their needs at an early stage.

provisional ADJ

intended to be temporary, and not yet finally agreed or settled

- adv+ADJ merely, only, still Please note that this timetable is only provisional, and subject to change.
- ADJ+n information data, figures Provisional figures showed that the number of nurses and midwives had increased by over 10,000 in the last year alone.
- ▸ decision conclusion, decision The ombudsman made provisional decisions on both cases in July and received a significant number of comments in response.
- ▸ results findings, results The main trends were published as provisional results in December 2008, but the latest bulletin includes final figures.
- ▸ suggestion recommendation Of all the Commission's provisional recommendations, this one has perhaps been the most controversial.
- ▸ plan or system arrangement, measure, plan, programme, timetable However, provisional arrangements are already being made for next year's conference. ⁕ Please be aware that these plans are provisional and may change.
- ▸ statement diagnosis, estimate, report, statement A provisional diagnosis of inflammatory bowel disease was made.
- ▸ title title The provisional title for this publication is 'Lessons from the South'.
- ▸ list list A provisional list of topics for discussion is given below.
- ▸ agreement or approval agreement, approval Ankara and Damascus signed a provisional agreement in 1987.
- ▸ arrangement to buy something booking, reservation We can hold a provisional booking for two weeks.
- ▸ date date A provisional date of 12 March has been set for the partners' meeting.
- ▸ offer offer She had received a provisional offer of employment.
- ▸ request for permission application It is appreciated that many students will not have finalized plans by that date, but a provisional application should be submitted.

provocation N

something that causes you to react in an angry or violent way

- adj+N very little least, slight She loses her temper at the slightest provocation.
- ▸ extreme extreme Our police officers have behaved in a measured and professional way despite extreme provocation.
- ▸ clear and intentional blatant, deliberate, direct This resolution is a direct provocation to the government of Iraq.
- ▸ serious serious, severe North Korea's nuclear test was a 'serious provocation', the US Secretary of States said at a press conference.
- v+N avoid, condemn, constitute, react to, respond to The way in which some officers responded to provocation was clearly an important issue.

provocative ADJ intended to annoy or upset people or to cause discussion or disagreement

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, particularly, very The Committee considered that her comments had been highly provocative and very inappropriate.
- ▸ deliberately deliberately, intentionally Some of the articles are deliberately provocative.
- ▸ rather rather, somewhat The anti-American sentiment completely undermines the film's rather provocative message.
- ▸ slightly slightly Some of his remarks could have been misinterpreted as being slightly provocative.
- ADJ+n piece of writing article, book, essay, piece, read, title It is certainly an original and provocative book, though at times extraordinarily difficult.
- ▸ statement or speech claim, comment, remark, speech, statement You made a very provocative statement in your New York Times interview.
- ▸ question question But the passage raises some provocative questions which are as relevant for us today as they were then.
- ▸ language language Prior to the England v. Germany game, some newspapers used provocative language in their headlines.
- ▸ action act, action, visit We are working with the international community for a decisive response to this provocative act.
- ▸ behaviour attitude, behaviour, manner The police behaved in a highly professional way in the face of extremely provocative behaviour.
- ▸ idea idea This is a rich book, full of provocative ideas, which should appeal to any reader concerned about the future of human rights law and practice.
- ▸ film or other artistic production film, image, play Now five of his most provocative, thought-provoking films are available in one collection.
- ▸ argument argument Philosophy abounds with provocative arguments in which apparently simple assumptions lead to unexpected and often baffling conclusions.
- and/or challenging, controversial, entertaining, funny, informative, interesting, original, powerful, stimulating, thoughtful This is a challenging and provocative work, and recommended to anyone interested in the subject.

provoke V cause a reaction, especially an angry one

- adv+V deliberately deliberately They claim that the police deliberately provoked disorder to discredit the protestors and their cause.
- ▸ easily easily Such rumours could easily provoke financial chaos in the markets.
- ▸ finally eventually, finally History says that the murder of Calvo-Sotelo, a right-wing leader, was what finally provoked the conflict.
- ▸ immediately immediately The announcement immediately provoked an angry response from some of the leading names in French film-making.
- ▸ in a way that is impossible to avoid inevitably Hume's omission from the team inevitably provoked debate among supporters.
- V+n reaction reaction, response, retaliation The subject is complex and provokes strong reactions.
- ▸ anger anger, fury, outrage, resentment, wrath The news has provoked outrage amongst the thousands of travellers who rely on this service.
- ▸ discussion debate, discussion His talk should be very entertaining and provoke much discussion.
- ▸ violent action attack, conflict, confrontation, rebellion, resistance, riot, violence, war The government's decision to suspend elections will provoke violence from militants.
- ▸ opposition attack, backlash, criticism, opposition, outcry, protest, resistance Naturally, this provoked widespread opposition from other Bishops and Archbishops.
- ▸ feeling emotion, feeling The case has provoked strong feelings all round.
- ▸ thought reflection, thought It is an engaging drama, and one that provokes much thought.
- ▸ question question Our short courses are designed to stimulate thinking, provoke questions, and provide opportunities for our students to explore ideas.
- ▸ disagreement controversy, disagreement, dispute Proposals to redevelop this site have provoked considerable local controversy.
- ▸ worried feeling anxiety Final-year examinations in particular tend to provoke great anxiety amongst students.
- ▸ difficult situation crisis The news that Chen had gone over to the opposition provoked a crisis in the party.
- ▸ comment comment, remark I knew my remarks would provoke a comment or two from you.
- ▸ interest interest These projects have provoked much public interest.

prowess N great skill or ability

- adj+N physical physical Gifted with a laser-sharp mind and extraordinary physical prowess, she rose quickly through the ranks.
- ▸ at thinking or studying academic, intellectual, mental Why does the school give so much priority to sporting activities and not enough to academic prowess?
- ▸ at sport athletic, batting, footballing, goal-scoring, sporting Liddell is best known for his athletic prowess immortalized in the film 'Chariots of Fire'.
- ▸ sexual sexual Rumours were already spreading of Finch's sexual prowess.
- ▸ at fighting martial, military There was never any doubt about the military prowess of the soldiers of both countries.
- ▸ at music instrumental, lyrical, musical, vocal We were impressed by their professionalism and musical prowess.
- ▸ at art or literature artistic, creative, literary At that moment I wished for some artistic prowess, so that I could have painted the image.
- ▸ at cooking food culinary Use these recipes to impress dinner guests with your culinary prowess.
- ▸ technical technical, technological What they lack in technical prowess, they certainly make up for in enthusiasm.
- v+N show prowess demonstrate, display, show Britain's young riders showed their prowess in the finals, as they took home the team gold medal.
- ▸ test someone's prowess test The aim of the competition is to test the prowess and agility of the dogs.

- ▶ prove your prowess prove Nikola proved his prowess in mathematics at school, and entered the Technical University at Graz in order to study electrical engineering.

prudent ADJ careful and using good judgment

- ● adv+ADJ very extremely, very We have approved what we believe to be a very prudent budget that will enable us to maintain an effective service.
- ▶ fairly reasonably The return to the idea of a transfer of emphasis from nuclear to conventional forces appears reasonably prudent.
- ▶ in a particular way commercially, economically, financially, fiscally, politically You have a duty to ensure that the club's business is operated in a financially prudent way.

- ● ADJ+n course of action course, course of action, measure, move, step Mr Soames agreed that this was a prudent course of action to take.
- ▶ plan policy, provision, strategy The International Red Cross maintained a prudent policy of discreet diplomacy and aid.
- ▶ decision assumption, decision It's often a prudent decision to invest no more than 25 per cent of your portfolio in the riskiest assets.
- ▶ management management Through the prudent management of its finances in recent years, the College has been steadily improving its financial position.
- ▶ financial behaviour borrowing, budgeting, investment, spending Prudent investment, notably in British and American railways, greatly increased his fortune.
- ▶ method approach And, in the light of recent experience, we have adopted a more prudent approach to forecasting income tax revenues.
- ▶ planning planning Time will tell what the results of this prudent planning will achieve.
- ▶ use use There is now a conscious regard for protecting the environment through prudent use of energy.
- ▶ advice advice When out Christmas shopping, the most prudent advice is to park in a well-lit, security-patrolled area.
- ▶ level level The Minimum Wage was set at a cautious and prudent level so as not to undermine competitiveness.

- ● v+ADJ be or seem prudent appear, be, seem It would seem prudent to spend money on technologies that have less harmful side effects.
- ▶ think something prudent consider sth, deem sth, think sth It is considered prudent to control the kinds of development permitted in the vicinity of these installations.
- ▶ be shown to be prudent prove It may prove financially prudent to review your investments at this time.

psychological ADJ involving or affecting your mind

- ● ADJ+n problem condition, disorder, issue, problem There are some claims that cannabis use can lead to psychological problems like schizophrenia.
- ▶ aspect aspect, factor He argues that it is psychological factors which influence adults' willingness and ability to learn.
- ▶ health health, well-being Social isolation can have a detrimental effect on psychological well-being.
- ▶ harmful effects damage, distress, harm, stress, trauma It is far too early to say what psychological damage has been done in the long run.
- ▶ need need Such commitment between two people meets a deep-rooted psychological need.
- ▶ condition condition, state Alex is asked to evaluate her psychological state.
- ▶ help help, support, therapy, treatment Priority should be given to providing psychological support to children and their families.
- ▶ effects consequences, effects, impact The research deals with refugees and the psychological effects of the traumas they had been through.

puberty N
the period when a child changes physically into an adult

- ● v+N start puberty attain, enter, hit INFORMAL, reach The girls are married off when they reach puberty, often at the age of 12.
- ▶ be about to start puberty soon approach I was now in the period when I was fast approaching puberty.
- ▶ experience puberty go through, undergo Many young people go through puberty and adolescence with few problems; for others it is a time of uncertainty and anxiety.
- ▶ delay puberty delay Excessive exercise tends to delay puberty by about five months for every year of training.

- ● n+of+N age, onset, sign This disease mainly affects women, usually just after the onset of puberty.

public N people in general

- ● v+N involve the public engage, involve Part of the Planning department's role is to involve the public and enable them to have a say in what is being planned.
- ▶ tell the public inform, tell, warn The police defended their decision not to inform the public of his escape.
- ▶ ask the public for its opinion ask, consult The government actively seeks to consult the public on certain pieces of legislation.
- ▶ protect the public protect What changes do you think should be made to the criminal justice system to protect the public better?
- ▶ educate the public educate The campaign will be aimed at educating the public and informing MPs and other decision-makers.
- ▶ work for the public serve Members of Congress would do well to remember that they are there to serve the public, not to dictate to us.
- ▶ persuade the public convince, persuade, urge The nuclear industry has some serious work to do to convince the public that it can be trusted.
- ▶ make the public feel less worried assure, reassure I'd like to reassure the public that they have nothing to fear.

▸ give the public false information deceive, misinform, mislead The government has misled the public on this highly controversial issue.

publication N

1 producing a book, magazine, report etc and making it available to the public

• v+N start/stop publication begin, cease The magazine ceased publication in December 2006.
▸ prevent or delay publication delay, prevent, prohibit The Inquiry's report is complete, but it is feared that the government will delay publication.
▸ be the time when publication happens mark, see 1859 saw the publication of Darwin's famous book.
▸ welcome the publication of something welcome Friends of the Earth have welcomed the publication of a report on the power of supermarkets.
▸ wait for publication await, wait for Children were eagerly awaiting the publication of the next Harry Potter book.
▸ announce publication announce We are very pleased to announce the publication of our new series of business books.

• v+for+N accept something for publication accept, approve, select Over 120 papers from 10 countries were accepted for publication.
▸ offer something for publication submit This article was submitted for publication earlier this year.
▸ prepare something for publication edit, prepare During that time, she kept a diary which I am now preparing for publication.
▸ consider something for publication consider All submissions will be considered for publication.
▸ intend something for publication intend, plan, schedule Raphael's notebooks were never intended for publication. ◦ His latest thriller is scheduled for publication soon.
▸ make arrangements for the publication of something arrange In 1786, he arrived in Edinburgh to arrange for the publication of his poetry.

2 a book, magazine, article etc

• adj+N new forthcoming, new, recent For details of forthcoming publications, see our website.
▸ important important, key, major Her new book is a key publication which sums up recent work in the field.
▸ useful relevant, useful Your course leader will circulate a list of relevant publications.

publicity N

attention in magazines, newspapers, or television

• adj+N positive excellent, favourable, good, great, positive Think of the good publicity that will bring the school.
▸ negative adverse, bad, damaging, negative, unfavourable He proves that there is no such thing as bad publicity.
▸ a lot considerable, great, massive, much The Awards have had considerable publicity on both sides of the Atlantic.
▸ in a particular area international, local, national This year's event attracted less national publicity than usual.
▸ everywhere extensive, wide, widespread Recent reports of accelerating rates of ice melting across the Arctic have received widespread publicity.
▸ free free The media give terrorists free publicity for which commercial advertisers would pay literally millions of pounds.
▸ as much as possible maximum The Board emphasised that maximum publicity should be given to the new arrangements.
▸ recent recent Given the recent publicity around identity theft, it would be wise to prevent your information falling into the wrong hands.

• v+N get publicity gain, garner, get, receive The band is getting much more publicity now.
▸ give someone or something publicity give, provide The story was given wide publicity in the press.
▸ create publicity attract, bring, create, generate The tour generated plenty of positive publicity.
▸ avoid publicity avoid, shun He always tried to avoid any publicity.
▸ try to get publicity seek, want The lottery winners wanted no publicity and I promised them that they would get none.
▸ need publicity need I don't need the publicity.
▸ like publicity enjoy, revel in, welcome She seemed to revel in all the publicity she received during the court case.

publish V

1 produce many copies of a book, magazine, or newspaper

• V+n book book, edition, journal, magazine, newspaper, paper, work This journal is published twice a year by the Faculty of Economics in Ljubljana, Slovenia.

2 make information available to the public, in a report, newspaper, website etc

• V+n piece of writing article, document, guidance, paper, report, study The study was published last year by the German Institute for Economic Research.
▸ information data, details, figures, findings, information, list, material, research, results New figures published by the industry regulator confirm the company has met its target for the year. ◦ Her recent research was published in the Journal of Comparative Psychology.

pull in PHR VB

attract a large number of people

• V+n audience, crowd, listeners, punters, tourists, viewers, visitors They are hoping the town's new literary festival will help to pull in the tourists. ◦ His talk show regularly pulled in 3.5 million viewers on Friday nights.

pulse N

the regular movement of blood pumped round the body

• adj+N fast fast, racing, rapid He found Martin in bed, with a severe fever and a very rapid pulse.
▸ slow slow The first signs are low blood pressure and a slow pulse.
▸ strong strong His pulse is still strong.
▸ weak faint, weak She had a suspected fracture of the skull and her pulse was weak.

- regular regular, steady His blood pressure is 180/90mmHg and he has a regular pulse with a rate of 55 bpm.
- not regular irregular I seem to have an irregular pulse.

- v+N check a pulse check, take To see if she really had malaria, I took her pulse.
- feel a pulse feel She could feel no pulse and thought that the man must have died.
- find a pulse find Workers rushed to his aid, but he was unconscious and they could not find a pulse.
- have a pulse have Mouth-to-mouth is simple and works really well for people who still have a pulse but aren't breathing well or easily.
- make a pulse become faster quicken Studies have shown that the colour red can quicken the pulse and breathing rate, as well as increase appetite.
- check whether someone has a pulse check for, feel for When checking for a pulse, use the carotid artery in the neck.

- N+v make strong regular movements beat, pound, throb I felt my flesh tingle with excitement, and my pulse beat rapidly.
- become faster quicken I felt my pulse quicken as I scanned the pages.
- be very fast race Her pulse raced as her instinct told her that something was not right.
- slow down slow, slow down His pulse slowed and his blood pressure showed a reduction.

punch N

when you hit someone or something with your closed hand

- adj+N strong big, hard, heavy, mighty, powerful, solid, strong Then half way through the third round, I caught him with three hard punches in succession.
- first first The old man had always said, 'Son, always get the first punch in'.
- making someone fall and be unable to get up killer, knockout Barnes landed a knockout punch in the first round.
- weak weak He was totally off balance and only able to throw weak punches.
- single single He was laid out with a single punch.

- v+N aim a punch aim, swing, throw He clearly threw the first punch.
- hit someone or something with a punch deliver, give sb, land He grabbed Harry's shirt and landed a punch in his face.
- hit each other with punches exchange, trade Williams was sent off after exchanging punches with one of the other players.
- prevent a punch from hitting you block, dodge Alan swung at Steve, who blocked the punch and connected with a blow of his own to Alan's face.
- have a strong punch pack Tyson packed a powerful punch.

punish V

make someone suffer for doing something wrong or illegal

- adv+V severely harshly, heavily, severely He was caught trying to break out of prison and he was severely punished.
- in a cruel way brutally, cruelly, ruthlessly Some of the workers went on strike, and were brutally punished for it.
- properly accordingly, duly, properly We will ensure that those who are dealing drugs are properly punished.
- fairly fairly, justly Justice means ensuring people who break the law are punished fairly and rehabilitated if possible.
- unfairly unfairly, unjustly Who doesn't remember being unfairly punished by their teachers?
- physically physically The study found that children who were smacked were more likely to display aggression than those who were never physically punished.

- V+n person criminal, culprit, murderer, offender, perpetrator, wrongdoer The key question to ask is whether punishing offenders actually reduces crime.
- bad or illegal act behaviour, crime, infringement, offence, transgression The role of the criminal justice system is, of course, to detect and punish crimes.
- act that is against religious laws evil, sin God's justice demands that sin be punished.
- failure failure Their position is that we should reward success and punish failure.

- V+for illegal act contempt, crime, offence It is vitally important that, as well as being punished for their crimes, fraudsters are deprived of their criminal gains.
- bad act act, action, behaviour Several of the villagers were punished for their actions in the Civil War.
- act that is against religious laws sin The Bible says that each person will be punished for their own sin.
- mistake mistake Should I be punished for a mistake which was clearly not my fault?

punishment N

the action of punishing someone or of being punished

- adj+N severe draconian, harsh, heavy, serious, severe Punishments were very severe for protesters.
- suitable appropriate, due, fitting, suitable There needs to be appropriate punishment for such a terrible crime.
- fair just She asked that she should be sent to prison as a just punishment for her wickedness.
- continuing for ever eternal, everlasting He thinks she deserves eternal punishment for what she did.
- worst worst The worst punishment we can give someone in this country is to sentence them to life imprisonment.

- v+N give someone punishment administer, give sb, impose, inflict, mete out The judge imposed the maximum punishment of three months' imprisonment.
- accept punishment accept, bear, take He should just shut up and take his punishment like a man.
- receive punishment face, receive, suffer Youngsters will still need to face punishment whether it is a fine, caution, or work in the community.
- avoid punishment avoid, escape Members of privileged groups often escape punishment.
- deserve punishment deserve She knows she deserved punishment, but argues that the sentence was too hard.

▸ state what punishment should be given prescribe The law prescribes harsh punishments for those convicted of such activities.

pure ADJ

1 not mixed with anything that might spoil the quality or effect

- adv+ADJ very extremely, remarkably, very Diamonds are made of carbon, and are extremely pure.
- ▸ completely absolutely, perfectly The magnesium in the samples analysed was absolutely pure.
- ▸ fairly quite, relatively Many of their components have now been isolated in a relatively pure form.
- ▸ almost almost, nearly, virtually Previously, gold coins were made from almost pure gold.

2 used for emphasizing the amount or degree of something

- ADJ+n enjoyment or pleasure bliss, delight, enjoyment, entertainment, fun, happiness, joy, magic, pleasure Driving the car is just pure joy.
- ▸ luck chance, coincidence, luck It was pure chance that we eventually found the car again.
- ▸ statements about a possible situation conjecture, speculation Bear in mind, though, that this is pure speculation.
- ▸ statements that are not true fantasy, fiction, invention The prosecution showed that several of these claims were pure fantasy.
- ▸ evil evil Hitler still, more than anyone else, embodies pure evil.
- ▸ love love It's the nearest thing to pure love I've ever experienced.
- ▸ very high level of skill or ability genius All six episodes from this series are pure genius.

purpose N

the aim someone wants to achieve

- adj+N main chief, main, primary, prime, principal The primary purpose of chemical weapons is to deter their use by others.
- ▸ useful practical, useful This is a fun project with a practical purpose.
- ▸ specific particular, special, specific Charles said that some of these funds were given for specific purposes.
- ▸ common common, shared A confederation is a group of states united for a common purpose.
- ▸ general general For many years it has been part of Crystal Palace Park and is used by local people for general recreational purposes.
- ▸ original original It is the only medieval monastery in Britain still being used for its original purpose.
- ▸ only only, sole This we are told is the sole purpose of existence.
- ▸ types of purpose administrative, charitable, commercial, educational, military, political Any use of this material for commercial purposes of any kind is strictly forbidden.
- ▸ real or intended intended, real, true Of course, the real purpose of the race was to raise money for charity.
- n+N business, information, insurance, marketing, reference, research, security, tax, teaching, training All businesses, including sole traders, need to register for tax purposes.

Usage Purpose is usually plural in all of the n+N combinations shown above: A lot of businesses now use Twitter for marketing purposes.

- v+N achieve a purpose accomplish, achieve, fulfil A great deal of aid has been sent to the region, but without really achieving its purpose.
- ▸ make it possible to achieve a purpose answer, meet, serve This meeting has served no useful purpose.
- ▸ prevent a purpose from being achieved defeat This, of course, defeats the entire purpose of the exercise.
- ▸ suit someone's purpose suit The US sold weapons to Iraq when it suited their purpose.
- ▸ explain a purpose explain, outline The questionnaires clearly explained the purpose and nature of the research.
- ▸ have a purpose have, share The Bill has three main purposes.

pursue V

follow a course of activity

- adv+V actively actively, energetically, enthusiastically, vigorously For several years, they vigorously pursued the objective of eliminating poverty.
- ▸ with great determination doggedly, relentlessly, systematically They are still doggedly pursuing policies which will cause huge environmental damage.
- V+n course of action course, course of action, line Only one bank seems seriously interested in pursuing this course of action.
- ▸ policy or plan approach, initiative, path, policy, programme, strategy There is no justification for changing a policy pursued by successive Governments for nearly fifty years.
- ▸ career career I was already sure that I wanted to pursue a career in law.
- ▸ study course, course of study, research, study Postgraduates often work directly with companies whilst pursuing their research.
- ▸ activity activity, interest, opportunity, project He announced he would be leaving the company to pursue other projects.
- ▸ legal case action, case, claim She is pursuing an action for damages in the courts.
- ▸ aim or ambition aim, ambition, dream, goal, objective They fear that those who have used violence to pursue political objectives in the past will do so again in the future.

pursuit N

1 the process of trying to achieve something

- N+of aim aim, ambition, dream, goal, objective, purpose, vision He was to devote the next ten years of his life to the pursuit of this goal.
- ▸ happiness happiness, pleasure Life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness are at the top of America's list of rights.
- ▸ money money, profit, wealth With any large corporation, pursuit of profit is the prime motivation.
- ▸ knowledge or truth knowledge, truth, understanding All members of the university, both academic staff and students, share a common aim: the pursuit of knowledge.

- ▸ peace peace The UN Secretary-General said that 'there are times when the use of force may be legitimate in the pursuit of peace'.
- ▸ justice or fairness equality, justice, rights He is a detective who is dogged in his pursuit of justice.
- ▸ quality excellence, quality As an artist, she is more interested in the pursuit of excellence than in financial reward.
- ▸ power or success power, success She is driven by the pursuit of power for its own sake.

2 an activity you enjoy [usually plural]

- adj+N types of pursuit academic, artistic, creative, cultural, intellectual, literary, scientific Born into a wealthy family, he was able to devote his life to intellectual pursuits.
- ▸ outdoor country, outdoor Inverclyde is a centre for numerous outdoor pursuits and activities.
- ▸ popular favourite, popular Diving is a particularly popular pursuit on the Cayman Islands.
- ▸ active active, energetic, sporting Cycling is one of the few active pursuits that you can all do as a family and all enjoy.
- ▸ traditional traditional On Exmoor, hunting, shooting, and fishing are traditional pursuits enjoyed by a large number of local people.
- ▸ done for enjoyment leisure, recreational Walking and swimming are his main recreational pursuits.

- v+N like particular pursuits enjoy, love, prefer Never a star pupil in academic subjects, he preferred pursuits such as photography and carpentry.
- ▸ take part in particular pursuits be engaged in, be involved in, engage in, follow, indulge in, participate in, take part in You will be able to take part in a variety of creative pursuits.
- ▸ provide particular pursuits offer Glengarry is the ideal base for a Highland holiday, offering many leisure pursuits.

push for PHR VB
try hard to get or achieve something

- V+n change action, change, improvement, reform We are organizing demonstrations to push for change.
- ▸ position place He is pushing hard for a place on the team.
- ▸ law amendment, law, legislation Senators are pushing for speedy legislation to protect endangered animals in the area.
- ▸ increase increase At the same time, the Civil Service is pushing for an even bigger increase in pay.
- ▸ agreement agreement The charity is pushing for trade agreements to benefit poor people.
- ▸ official statement that something must not be done ban Campaigners are urging the President to push for a complete ban on chemical weapons.
- ▸ war war The prime minister pushed for a war which three-quarters of the UK population opposed.
- ▸ official decision or action adoption, implementation, introduction Most of the poorer countries were pushing for a rapid implementation of low-carbon policies.

put aside PHR VB
stop being affected by a problem, argument etc so that you can achieve something more important

- V+n concerns, differences, prejudices, rivalries, thoughts We now feel that we can put aside these rivalries and work together to rebuild the party.

put forward PHR VB
offer an idea, opinion, reason etc

- V+n proposal plan, proposal, proposition, recommendation, suggestion At the UN General Assembly in 1996, China put forward a five-point proposal on nuclear disarmament.
- ▸ opinion opinion, point of view, view The conference is also an opportunity for members of the public to put forward their opinions about the way forward for the city.
- ▸ idea argument, hypothesis, idea, theory Tutorials give students a chance to put forward ideas that are sometimes new to the tutor.
- ▸ reason reason At a Congressional Inquiry, the Association put forward seven reasons why the proposals should be scrapped.

put in PHR VB
make an official request, claim, offer etc

- V+n offer bid, offer Manchester United had put in a bid of more than £7.5 million.
- ▸ request application, request It is worth putting in an application as you can always withdraw it later if you really have to.
- ▸ claim claim We decided to demand compensation from the holiday company, and put in a claim.

puzzle N
someone or something you cannot understand

- adj+N challenging, complex, complicated, difficult, hard, tough The disease presents a complex biochemical puzzle.

- v+N solve a puzzle crack, piece together, solve, unravel They have been trying to solve the puzzle of where the 20,000–30,000 laborers who built the pyramids lived.
- ▸ be or continue to be a puzzle pose, present, remain His complex theories as well as his enigmatic personality also pose a puzzle. ◈ The source of the problem remains a puzzle, airline officials say.

Qq

qualification N

something you obtain after successfully finishing an educational course

- adj+N educational academic, educational, postgraduate He felt that in the UK education system there was too much focus on academic qualifications.
  - professional financial, professional, technical, vocational, work-related The truth is that 33 per cent of asylum seekers have degrees or professional qualifications.
  - suitable for a purpose appropriate, relevant, suitable An appropriate qualification in the subject to be taught is a prequisite.
  - basic basic Some offenders gained basic qualifications while in prison.
  - additional additional, further Further qualifications can enhance careers, or open up whole new ones.
  - officially recognized accredited, formal, recognized Formal qualifications are preferable but not vital.
  - special special, specialist, specific While no specific qualifications are needed, many companies like a graduate or someone with A levels.
  - necessary in order to do a job essential, mandatory, minimum, necessary Only half the staff have the necessary qualifications.
  - with the same value equivalent You should have GCSEs or equivalent qualifications in English Language and Mathematics.
- n+N for teaching a subject coaching, teaching, training Some roles will also require a recognized teaching qualification.
  - for a particular job accountancy, business, childcare, engineering, IT, management, marketing, nursing, social work Steve currently holds three management qualifications including an MA in management studies.
  - allowing you to take a course entrance, entry The University claims it is attracting more students with better entry qualifications.
  - in a language English language, language Employers appreciate a language qualification, even when the jobs they seek to fill require no special language ability.
- v+N have a qualification have, hold, possess Almost three-quarters of staff in care homes have no qualifications.
  - get a qualification achieve, acquire, gain, get, obtain, secure, take I hope to gain further qualifications and eventually become a teacher.
  - offer a qualification offer, provide The college offers vocational qualifications in subjects such as travel and tourism, computing and business.
  - complete a qualification complete The programme is organized so that participants can complete the qualification in approximately three months .
  - give a qualification award You must pass all the internal assessments in order to pass the course and be awarded the appropriate qualification.
  - accept that a qualification is valid recognize In France, they tend not to recognise non-French qualifications.
  - need a qualification need, require You don't need any special qualifications, just an ability to listen and a desire to help.
  - study for a qualification pursue, study for, train for, undertake You will enhance your career prospects if you pursue a professional qualfication.
- and/or degree, education, experience, expertise, knowledge, skill, training A lack of appropriate qualifications and experience is, in practice, an obstacle to employment.

qualified ADJ thoroughly trained for a particular job

- adv+ADJ properly fully, properly In this course, you will be trained by a fully qualified instructor.
  - well highly, well Students work with highly qualified staff, most of whom have worked in industry.
  - recently newly, recently Organizations recruiting newly qualified graduates are often looking for very specific skills.
  - to a suitable standard appropriately, suitably We will normally interview all suitably qualified applicants.
  - to a professional standard professionally The Centre's Director and counsellors are all professionally qualified.
  - in a particular area of activity clinically, legally, medically, technically Each tribunal is headed by a legally qualified chairperson who sits with two independent members.
  - well enough adequately, sufficiently It is becoming increasingly hard to recruit sufficiently qualified engineers.
  - not well enough insufficiently, poorly There remains the significant problem of poorly qualified school leavers.
  - with formal educational qualifications academically The admissions process is fair and open, with all academically qualified candidates receiving equal consideration.

qualify V

1 become a member of a particular profession after a period of training or study

- V+as accountant, architect, barrister, dentist, doctor, engineer, instructor, lawyer, midwife, nurse, physiotherapist, pilot, solicitor, surveyor, teacher, therapist Simon qualified as a solicitor in 1994.
- V+in dentistry, law, medicine, nursing, psychology, science She qualified in medicine at the University of London.
- V+infinitive act, practise, teach, undertake, work The programme allows graduates to qualify to teach while doing 'on the job' training.

2 have the right qualities to be allowed to do something or have something

- V+for financial help aid, allowance, assistance, award, benefit, funding, grant, help, loan, payment, pension, support Carers on low incomes may qualify for benefits such as Income Support.

- ▸ reduction in charge discount, reduction, relief Investors in venture capital trusts will qualify for income tax relief of 30 per cent.
- ▸ permission not to pay something exemption Which items qualify for exemption from VAT?
- ▸ special price rate You need to be a student over 50 per cent of the time in order to qualify for a student rate.
- ▸ right to do something or join something admission, entry, membership Completed forms must be returned before 31st March to qualify for entry into the draw.
- ▸ programme programme, scheme You will also need proof that you qualify for the scheme.
- ▸ entry to a competition championship, competition, event, race, tournament She had qualified for the event by setting a time of 12.3 seconds in the trials.

quality N

- • adj+N good excellent, exceptional, fine, good, great, high, outstanding, superb, superior, top Australian wheat is of higher quality than ours.
- ▸ bad inferior, low, poor The result is usually a product of poor quality that weighs more than most adult bikes.
- ▸ general general, overall The potential impact of a weak teacher on the overall quality of a school can be considerable.
- ▸ fantastic INFORMAL
- ▸ good enough adequate, reasonable, satisfactory, sufficient Their range of computers provides reasonable quality at an affordable price.
- • v+N improve quality develop, enhance, improve, increase, promote, raise The aim is to improve the quality of decision-making throughout the company.
- ▸ reduce quality degrade, reduce A supplier may seek to reduce quality of service in order to increase profits.
- ▸ check quality assess, check, evaluate, monitor The panel is supposed to assess the quality of the content of each journal article submitted for publication.
- ▸ affect quality in a negative way affect, compromise, sacrifice Budget cuts are affecting the quality of education students are receiving.
- ▸ achieve quality achieve, deliver Our aim is to achieve the highest possible quality in research at the international level.
- ▸ make sure that quality stays the same assure, ensure, maintain, preserve, protect In order to increase volume, while maintaining quality, we began forging links with other organic farms in the area.
- • N+n assessment, assurance, control, management, monitoring, standards The research has been conducted by a senior manager with responsibility for quality assurance.

quality ADJ

of a high standard

- • ADJ+n product craft, food, furniture, goods, produce, product, software, toy, wine Established in 1985, the company has grown to become a leading manufacturer of quality electrical products.
- ▸ service advice, care, service, solutions, support Rushforth said the continued growth of the company was down to 'providing a very professional, quality service'.
- ▸ company supplying a product supplier We always try to buy from quality local suppliers.
- ▸ material material Manufactured from quality raw materials, it is built for strength and durability.
- ▸ places to live or work accommodation, houses, housing, offices The Council recognises it has a duty to provide safe, quality housing where residents can feel secure.
- ▸ education or training education, research, teaching, training We have a proven track record of delivering quality training in management.

quantity N

the amount of something

- • adj+N large copious, enormous, generous, great, high, huge, immense, large, massive, substantial, unlimited, vast Deciduous trees can drop vast quantities of leaves in autumn.
- ▸ quite large considerable, moderate, reasonable, significant An abundance of corn grows in this area, and a considerable quantity of it is exported.
- ▸ too large excessive Eating excessive quantities of food leads to obesity and health problems.
- ▸ small limited, low, minute, small, tiny A post-mortem revealed tiny quantities of arsenic in his body.
- ▸ enough adequate, sufficient Many people in the world do not have access to sufficient quantities of food.
- ▸ the least possible minimum The minimum quantity you can order by post is 200g.
- ▸ the most possible maximum This is the maximum quantity of information that the device is capable of storing.

quarrel N

an argument

- • adj+N serious and angry bitter, deadly, fierce, serious It was during this period that Scott had a bitter quarrel with his mother.
- ▸ about something unimportant petty, silly, unseemly She got involved in a petty quarrel with one of her housemates.
- ▸ between members of a family or other group domestic, internal, personal, private I was dragged into a domestic quarrel between Jane and her mother.
- • v+N have a quarrel become involved in, be involved in, get involved in, have He got involved in a quarrel with his cousin, who was staying at the same hotel.
- ▸ try to start a quarrel pick, provoke He had a tendency to take offence and to pick quarrels with people.
- ▸ end a quarrel end, patch up, resolve, settle They tried to let the children settle their own quarrels without taking sides.
- • N+v arise, break out, erupt A quarrel broke out between Olga and her sister.

quarrel V

have an argument

- • adv+V bitterly, constantly, frequently, violently He was always in trouble at school, constantly quarrelling and getting into fights with other children.

quash V
officially say a court's decision was wrong

- V+n acquittal, conviction, decision, indictment, order, sentence, verdict He was found guilty but, on appeal, his conviction was quashed by the Court of Appeal.

query N
a request for information or an explanation

- adj+N easy to deal with minor, quick, small I have sent Mr Blake a few small queries, which I am sure he will be able to deal with.
- more additional, further, more, other For any further queries, please email the conference organizer.
- about one particular thing specific I was researching a holiday and had a specific query about flight times.
- general general If you have a general query, and are unsure who to contact, the administrator will be able to help.
- not yet dealt with outstanding The insurance company still had to resolve a number of outstanding queries before they could issue a policy.

- v+N have a query have If you have any further queries, please do not hesitate to contact us.
- tell someone what your query is pose, raise, submit Check the details, and raise any queries immediately.
- deal with a query deal with, handle, process Please e-mail us and we will respond to your query as soon as we can.
- give information in response to a query answer, resolve, solve We aim to answer your email queries within 2 working days.
- get a query from someone get, receive We have received many queries about the date of the next concert.

quest N a long difficult search

- adj+N continuing for a long time constant, endless, eternal, long, never-ending, relentless, unending She is engaged in a constant quest to find clothes that fit.
- happening now and continuing continuing, ongoing The ongoing quest for safer food has meant that increasing numbers of consumers view supermarkets with suspicion.
- unlikely to be successful fruitless, futile, hopeless, impossible The novel centres on her futile quest to find a job she enjoyed.
- types of quest intellectual, personal, religious, scientific, spiritual What had begun as a personal quest had grown into a very promising research project.

- v+N start a quest begin, embark on, start A third coalition was necessary because Napoleon began a quest for military empire in Europe.
- be involved in a quest be engaged in, continue, go on, pursue, undertake The book is about one man pursuing his quest for what he believes to be right.
- end a quest successfully achieve, complete, end After two months, I had completed my quest of visiting every single church in Suffolk.
- end a quest before you have completed it abandon At the age of forty six, and in failing health, he had to abandon his quest for power.

- N+for for information answer, enlightenment, knowledge, meaning, solution, truth, understanding The quest for answers goes on.
- for a particular state freedom, justice, love, peace, perfection, revenge If your quest for love has so far proved fruitless – how about spending a night speed dating?
- for success or power domination, excellence, glory, power, success He has agreed to help the club in its quest for success.

question N
1 a request for information

- adj+N good and worth asking fair, good, interesting, intriguing, pertinent, reasonable, relevant, valid That's a good question and I'm not sure what the answer is.
- silly silly, stupid He's always pestering me with stupid questions.
- difficult to answer awkward, challenging, difficult, hard, tough, tricky This is a really hard question to answer.
- easy to answer basic, easy, quick, simple Answer a simple question for your chance to win a fantastic family holiday at Center Parcs.
- not yet answered outstanding, unanswered If you still have any unanswered questions, please contact us and we'll do our best to help.
- asking for an opinion and not an answer of 'yes' or 'no' open, open-ended Ensure there is no presumption of guilt and ask open questions.
- designed to discover the truth probing, searching Howard asked me a lot of probing questions about our chances of success.
- direct because you want to get information direct, pointed The Minister was ruffled by some very pointed questions.
- designed to make someone give a particular answer leading, loaded, trick Advocates should not be permitted to ask their witnesses leading questions.
- about your private life personal She didn't want to answer personal questions about her family life.

- v+N have a question have If you have any questions about the services we offer or would like to place an order then please contact us.
- ask a question ask (sb), pose, put Young children ask a lot of questions.
- officially ask someone to answer a question submit, table He has tabled questions to the defence secretary asking what plans were drawn up to evacuate British nationals.
- answer a question answer, reply to, respond to The teacher was on hand to answer questions.
- try to avoid someone's question avoid, dodge, evade, ignore, sidestep Politicians are often accused of trying to avoid questions.
- express a question in a particular way formulate, frame, phrase In an investigation of this type, you need to take great care in the way you frame your questions.

- express a question in a different way rephrase If your students do not understand what you are talking about, then you should try to rephrase the question.
- have to deal with questions face, field After the break, Robinson fielded questions on his career.

2 an issue needing to be discussed and solved

- adj+N important basic, big, burning, central, critical, crucial, fundamental, important, key, main, major, serious, vital The critical question is whether they will be able to cope.
- difficult challenging, complex, controversial, difficult, thorny, tough, tricky, vexed Whether Mr Brooks should or should not have been prosecuted is a vexed question.
- that has not been dealt with unanswered, unresolved His presidency was very controversial, and there are still many unresolved questions.
- types of question constitutional, environmental, historical, moral, philosophical, political, scientific, social, theological The role of the church in politics raises important constitutional questions.
- v+N make people start to think about a question bring up, highlight, pose, prompt, raise This raises the question of how representative the data is.
- think about or discuss a question consider, debate, discuss, examine, explore, investigate, ponder These questions are considered in the next two essays of the collection.
- deal with a question address, confront, deal with, handle, tackle Some hospitals have not addressed the question of the management of emergency admissions.
- solve a question answer, resolve, settle, solve DNA research has finally resolved the question of the dodo's ancestry.
- avoid a question avoid, ignore In an age of many beliefs and none, the church cannot avoid the great theological questions.

question V

have or express doubts about something

- adv+V strongly seriously, strongly I seriously question the legality of this move.
- often constantly, continually, increasingly The effectiveness of this approach is, however, increasingly questioned.
- not often rarely The need for a professional police force is rarely questioned.
- correctly rightly Some scholars have rightly questioned this notion.
- in a public way openly, publicly They will openly question the referee's decisions.
- V+n an idea or belief assumption, attitude, belief, claim, existence, faith, idea, notion, view As I grew older, I began to question the existence of God. ◆ I've always questioned the idea of music as 'entertainment' but it's really difficult to define it as anything else.
- whether it is good, right, or legal to do something accuracy, effectiveness, legality, legitimacy, merit, validity, value, wisdom Senior politicians were privately questioning the wisdom of appointing him to such a role.
- an aspect of someone's character ability, commitment, integrity, sanity, sexuality I feel unsure of myself; I constantly question my own ability, and my self-confidence is rock-bottom.
- a way of doing something approach, decision, policy, practice, technique, use, way All organizations need to question the way they do business.
- the reason why someone does something aim, motivation, motives, purpose She has questioned their motives for this decision.
- whether something is needed need Local residents question the need for yet another runway.
- someone's right or power authority, right During the Reformation, people questioned the authority of the Pope.
- what someone or something does role The community has begun to question the role of the security forces.

questionable ADJ

possibly not good, right, or true

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, very The country has developed a highly questionable asylum policy, built on shaky evidence.
- rather rather, somewhat His management of the team was somewhat questionable.
- in a particular way ethically, legally, morally Some genetic research is ethically questionable.
- ADJ+n usefulness or relevance benefit, relevance, utility, value Their advice on agricultural methods is of questionable value for subsistence farmers in developing companies.
- action or decision action, activity, decision, method, practice, procedure The discussion ended with a highly questionable decision regarding the funding of basic research.
- belief or claim argument, assertion, assumption, claim Her theory is based on several rather questionable assumptions.
- correctness legitimacy, validity Opponents of these plans produced some statistics of questionable validity.
- v+ADJ appear, be, become, remain, seem It remains questionable whether these measures will bring a return to economic stability.

questioning N

a situation in which someone is asked questions

- adj+N aggressive, close, further, tough The parents are being held for further questioning.
- v+N be brought in for, be detained for, be held for, be wanted for, face, undergo The two men are wanted for questioning in connection with a burglary at a superstore.

questioning ADJ

showing that you want more information or that you have doubts

- ADJ+n approach, attitude, glance, look, mind Students are adopting a more questioning approach in lectures.

queue N

a line of people waiting for something

- adj+N long big, endless, enormous, huge, large, lengthy, long, massive At weekends there are often huge queues at the checkouts.
  - ▶ short short, small Maurice joined a short queue of people at the reception desk.
  - ▶ well-behaved and well-controlled orderly He made them all stand in an orderly queue, and anyone who pushed was sent to the back.
- v+N be in a queue be in, stand in, wait in We got fed up with waiting in the queue so we just went home.
  - ▶ join a queue join You can buy tickets at the venue. However, be prepared to join the queue.
  - ▶ form a queue form People are blocking entrances by not forming an orderly queue.
  - ▶ reduce the length of a queue cut, reduce Self check-in was designed to cut queues at the airport.
  - ▶ move in front of people who have been waiting longer than you jump Jumping the queue is considered extremely impolite in Britain.
- N+v when a queue forms build up, form Outside the theatre a large queue had formed.
  - ▶ when people in a queue move forward move Queuing didn't take too long as the queue moved quite quickly.
  - ▶ when a queue is very long snake, stretch Queues snaked around the building.

quick ADJ

fast

- adv+ADJ very exceptionally, extremely, incredibly, really, very Cataract surgery is an extremely quick and effective operation which can be performed on almost every patient.
  - ▶ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, reasonably, relatively When he lost the first set 15/4, I thought the match was going to be pretty quick.
  - ▶ in a way that is surprising amazingly, remarkably, surprisingly A surprisingly quick train journey got me to Cardiff for mid-morning.
- ADJ+infinitive acknowledge sth, condemn sb/sth, criticize sb/sth, defend sb/sth, dismiss sb/sth, judge (sb), point out sth, praise sb/sth, react, realize sth, recognize sth, respond, spot sth As US officials were quick to point out, details of the offer were extremely sketchy.
- and/or and easy convenient, easy, painless, simple, straightforward The recipes are all quick and easy to cook.
  - ▶ and good accurate, effective, efficient, good, reliable, safe We are a small company, dedicated to providing a quick and efficient service.
  - ▶ and cheap or free cheap, cost-effective, free, inexpensive Try our quick and free assessment to see if the programme could help you.

quiet ADJ

1 making little or no noise

- adv+ADJ very exceptionally, extremely, perfectly, really, very The engine is smooth and very quiet.
  - ▶ rather fairly, a little, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, reasonably, relatively, somewhat Despite being fairly quiet while walking, the girls soon bounced back to their happy noisy selves shortly after reaching the hut.
  - ▶ in a way that is unusual or surprising remarkably, strangely, surprisingly, unusually Prescott was strangely quiet that day.
- v+ADJ stay quiet keep, remain, stay Keeping quiet for a minute or two is easy.
  - ▶ become quiet become, fall, go, grow The room fell quiet as we waited for the big announcement. ◆ He grew quiet when he joined them in the kitchen.
  - ▶ seem quiet appear, seem The other cat seemed pretty quiet in comparison.

2 with little activity

- adv+ADJ very dead INFORMAL, exceptionally, extremely, perfectly, really, very The Canaletto Hotel is an elegant, family run hotel situated in a very quiet residential area.
  - ▶ rather fairly, a little, pretty INFORMAL, quite, reasonably, relatively, somewhat In the neighbourhood where we live, life is relatively quiet.
  - ▶ in a way that is unusual or surprising remarkably, strangely, surprisingly, unusually The windows are open to the evening, the street below us strangely quiet.
  - ▶ in a way that is slightly frightening deathly, eerily, suspiciously, uncannily The streets were eerily quiet after the explosions.
- ADJ+n place area, backwater, location, neighbourhood, place, resort, road, room, setting, spot, street, suburb, surroundings, town, village The cottage is located in a quiet road in this charming village.
  - ▶ time day, evening, moment, month, night, period, time, week, weekend We were tired so decided to have a quiet day.
  - ▶ occasion or event affair, drink, game, holiday, life, meal This unique atmosphere makes it a perfect setting for a quiet drink after work.
- and/or calm, clean, comfortable, lovely, nice, peaceful, relaxing, rural, secluded, tranquil, unspoiled The hotel was nice and quiet. ◆ The quiet, peaceful life in the warm climate of Guernsey suited her.

quirk N

a strange or annoying habit or feature

- adj+N strange or unusual bizarre, funny, interesting, odd, strange Apart from a few odd quirks, I haven't found any significant problems with the new software.
  - ▶ annoying annoying, unfortunate The CD also has some annoying quirks; one song sounded as if it has been recorded in a shower room.
  - ▶ little little, minor Children can develop all sorts of little quirks, most of which are perfectly normal parts of growing up.
  - ▶ of one person or thing individual, personal Much like people, aircraft also have their own individual quirks.
- and/or foible, oddity For all of his foibles and quirks, Partridge can be quite a funny and interesting personality.

quit V

leave a job, school etc permanently

- adv+V finally, immediately, recently, suddenly By the time I finally quit five years ago, the decision came naturally, and I had the strength to do it.

- V+n band, business, club, game, job, post, profession, role, school, show, sport, work I hated working with him so much that I quit my job.

quota N

an officially allowed amount of something

- adj+N full full, maximum The full quota of ten teams participated.
- ▸ not changing fixed, strict With the exception of a quota of seven in Medicine imposed by the University, we have no fixed quotas in any subject.
- ▸ relating to a particular time period annual, daily, monthly, weekly There is an annual quota of 9,000 New Zealand working holiday visas for British passport holders.
- ▸ large high, large It may be difficult to achieve high quotas of affordable housing.

- v+N decide what a quota should be allocate, establish, impose, introduce, set Universities set quotas for the number of undergraduates they accept.
- ▸ increase a quota double, increase, raise Canada has gradually increased the quota on harp seal hunts, allowing up to 350,000 a year to be killed.
- ▸ reduce a quota cut, reduce The EU decided today to cut fish quotas by up to 55 per cent.
- ▸ reach a quota achieve, fulfil, meet, reach In order to meet the production quotas, employees will have to work harder.
- ▸ have or do more than a quota allows exceed If you exceed your email quota you will be unable to receive any new messages.

quotation N

1 words taken from book, play, film etc

- adj+N using exactly the same words direct, exact, verbatim Verbatim quotations should be in inverted commas, and directly acknowledged.
- ▸ short brief, short Short quotations should, as far as possible, be included in the text and enclosed in single quotation marks.
- ▸ long lengthy, long There were too many lengthy quotations.
- ▸ well-known famous, well-known The French satirist Voltaire's famous quotation – 'Work banishes those three great evils: boredom, vice and poverty' – was widely propagated.

- v+N give a quotation cite, include, use In his book on Russia, he cites a quotation from The Revolution Betrayed.
- ▸ get a quotation from somewhere take The following quotation is taken from the 1995 report.
- ▸ say who first said something attribute Make sure you attribute quotations, ideas and theories to the people who came up with them.

- N+v a quotation comes from something come from sth The quotation comes from Shakespeare's Macbeth.
- ▸ a quotation shows or suggests something illustrate sth, indicate sth, show sth, suggest sth As this quotation suggests, the UK tends to do relatively well in international comparisons of student retention.

- N+from article, book, interview, letter, paper, play, poem, source, speech, text Your dissertation should be in English, but quotations from primary sources must be in the language of the original.

2 the price someone offers to do some work for someone

- adj+N competitive, detailed, free, full, no-obligation, online, personal, written Written quotations are available on request.

- v+N give someone a quotation give (sb), issue, offer (sb), provide (sb with), supply Quotations are provided on request.
- ▸ get a quotation get, obtain Do get an accurate written quotation for all work required.
- ▸ ask for a quotation request, seek The secretary was asked to seek quotations for carpeting the office.
- ▸ agree to the price in a quotation accept If you accept our quotation, we will then inform you of when work is likely to proceed.

quote V

1 say or write someone else's words

- adv+V often or in many places commonly, extensively, freely, frequently, publicly, widely He is a regular guest on business television and he is frequently quoted in newspapers and periodicals.
- ▸ using the exact words that were said accurately, correctly, directly, verbatim Readers' comments are quoted verbatim from a recent readership survey.
- ▸ using only some words or ideas selectively Naturally, I have selectively quoted the statistics that promote this school's academic strengths.
- ▸ in a way that shows you like what someone said approvingly When the leader of a party of 'the left' approvingly quotes Republicans, something very odd is going on.

- V+n author, message, paragraph, passage, phrase, remark, sentence, text, verse, word It is not necessary to quote a passage in full.

- V+from article, book, document, letter, material, paper, poem, publication, report, review, source, speech, text She quotes from a well-known paper about how children acquire language.

2 give something as an example to support a statement

- adv+V commonly, extensively, frequently, often, widely Another frequently quoted investment is your own home, but the prime reason for owning your home should be the convenience and pleasure you get from living in it.

- V+n case, evidence, example, figure, number, research, statistic, study, work Figures were quoted which showed the extent of the decline.

quote N

1 a quotation from a book, play, speech etc

- adj+N using exactly the same words direct, exact I'm struggling to remember the exact quote.
- ▸ well-known classic, famous, memorable, quotable, well-known There are famous quotes from all of the popular Shakespeare plays.
- ▸ long/short brief, long, short Only short quotes are included.
- ▸ good or interesting good, great, inspirational, interesting, wonderful Inspirational quotes provide comfort in difficult times.

- v+N attribute, take, use Ceefax reported the result with a quote attributed to Tony Blair. • The quotes below are taken from the research survey in response to a question about community living.
- N+v a quote comes from somewhere come from sth The quotes come from a wide variety of sources and backgrounds.

▶ a quote shows or suggests something illustrate sth, indicate sth, show sth, suggest sth The following quotes show the value of forward planning and organization.

2 the price someone offers to do some work for someone

- adj+N offering a low price affordable, cheap, competitive, low, reasonable Motorists should not only search for a competitive quote, but also for the best insurance cover.

▶ with full details detailed, full Please contact us for a full quote.

▶ not costing anything free We'll offer you a free website design quote, including your requirements and budgets.

▶ given online or in writing online, written Visit several garages and get them to provide you with a written quote.

▶ given very quickly instant, quick You can get an instant online quote.

▶ done especially for you individual, personal We are happy to send you a personal quote to suit your requirements.

- v+N get a quote get, obtain Before you get started, obtain several quotes and compare terms.

▶ give someone a quote give (sb), offer (sb), provide (sb with) We will provide a free quote, with a breakdown of all costs.

▶ ask for a quote request, seek The Clerk has been asked to seek quotes for this.

▶ agree to the price in a quote accept Don't accept the first quote you get.

▶ compare different quotes compare Compare these quotes with your current home insurance policy to see if you are over-paying.

Rr

race N
a competition, especially in sports or politics

- v+N take part in a race be in, compete in, contest, enter, join, participate in, run in, take part in Four riders contest a race, usually in pairs from opposing clubs.
- ▸ win/lose a race lose, win He felt cruelly disappointed to lose the race when victory had been in sight.
- ▸ decide to stop taking part in a race drop out of, pull out of, retire from, withdraw from He considered withdrawing from the leadership race.
- ▸ do things so you are ready for a race prepare for, train for We are preparing for the opening race of the season.
- ▸ organize a race have, hold, organize, stage This year they will be staging an extra race for runners in the under-15 category.
- ▸ complete a race complete, finish She entered and completed the race in 3 hrs 23 mins.
- ▸ be winning a race dominate, lead Corser led the first race from start to finish.

racial ADJ happening between people of different races

- ADJ+n good or fair treatment and relationships equality, harmony, justice, tolerance He spent his whole life fighting for racial equality. ◈ These values of racial tolerance are very much part of Muslim teaching.
- ▸ unfair treatment bias, discrimination, inequality, prejudice There is no doubt that racial discrimination exists and that current legislation is insufficient to tackle it.
- ▸ violent or threatening behaviour abuse, attack, crime, harassment, hatred, incident, slur, violence Most of the residents reported experiencing racial abuse.
- ▸ social divisions and lack of trust conflict, division, intolerance, tension In many cities, explosive urban riots sparked by racial tensions have shattered community relations.

racism N
failure to respect people of other races

- adj+N very obvious blatant, overt Today, overt racism is rare in schooling.
- ▸ in every part of an organization, society, etc endemic, ingrained, inherent, institutional, institutionalized Institutionalized racism and social exclusion are facts of life in modern Britain.
- ▸ existing, but not intentional or openly expressed covert, subtle, unconscious, unwitting In some cases, covert racism is expressed through criticism of religious practices.
- ▸ of the most extreme kind extreme, vicious, violent, virulent The party's virulent racism has been linked to a rise in attacks on ethnic minorities.

- v+N suffer racism encounter, experience, face, suffer Of 85 people interviewed, 43 experienced racism on a regular basis.
- ▸ deal with the problem of racism address, challenge, combat, confront, deal with, fight, tackle The union is committed to tackling racism, fascism and other forms of bigotry in the workplace.
- ▸ get rid of racism counter, eliminate, end, eradicate, stamp out The police are working hard to eradicate racism – and to control crime.
- ▸ encourage racism encourage, fuel, promote This wave of hysteria about asylum seekers has fuelled racism in every corner of society.

radiation N energy produced during nuclear reaction or sent out by the sun

- adj+N high/low in amount high-level, intense, low-level While the dangers of high-level radiation have been more obvious, the hazards of low-level radiation are increasingly coming to light.
- ▸ dangerous dangerous, deadly, harmful In the worst-case scenario, this could lead to a nuclear explosion, unleashing deadly radiation.

- v+N produce or give off radiation emit, generate, produce, release, transmit There's little danger to human health from the relatively weak radiation generated by mobile phones.
- ▸ take in radiation absorb Triple-glazed windows are coated to absorb infrared radiation in the winter and reflect it in the summer.
- ▸ measure radiation detect, measure When measuring the radiation, meters measure the electric or the magnetic field, and then it is converted into the power density.

radical ADJ
new and very different from usual

- ADJ+n change change, departure, improvement, overhaul, reform, restructuring, rethink, review, revision, shake-up, shift, transformation The Government must work for a radical reform of the world's financial system.
- ▸ idea or plan agenda, alternative, approach, idea, programme, proposal, solution The political class proved too weak to adopt radical solutions to the threat of climate change.

raft N
a very large number of people or things

- adj+N huge, new, whole To start with, there's a whole raft of programmes that have had to be approved.

- N+of benefits, changes, features, improvements, initiatives, issues, laws, legislation, measures, policies, proposals, regulations There is a raft of new policies and initiatives designed to tackle the problems of disadvantaged areas, schools and pupils.

rage N
a very strong feeling of anger

- adj+N very great blind, boiling, furious, great, jealous, murderous, uncontrollable, violent Thomas cut her throat in a jealous rage.

▶ but unable to do anything frustrated, impotent I am one of those listeners who frequently find themselves shouting at their radios in impotent rage.
▶ when drunk drunken His father tried to shoot him while in a drunken rage.

● v+N feel rage be consumed with, be filled with, feel, seethe with In the story, he is consumed with rage and sets out to kill his sister's murderer.
▶ control rage channel, control, suppress I could no longer suppress the rage that burned within me.
▶ express or show rage explode with, express, unleash, vent They vented their rage by breaking the windows and shutters of the house.
▶ cause rage cause, provoke This decision will provoke rage from smokers.
▶ make rage worse fuel These revelations fuelled the rage of an already angry electorate.

● and/or anger, despair, fear, frustration, fury, grief, hatred, jealousy, pain, violence Rage and jealousy overwhelm him, and trouble ensues.

rage V continue with force, violence, or angry arguments

● adv+V fiercely, furiously The storm raged furiously.

● n+V argument argument, battle, conflict, controversy, debate Debates are raging about the best way to tackle global warming.
▶ war or fighting battle, fighting, struggle, war There were unwinnable wars raging on two continents.
▶ natural event epidemic, fire, gale, storm, tempest An intense fire was raging by the time firefighters arrived on the scene.

raid N

a sudden short military attack

● adj+N big big, heavy, large, major, massive There was a heavy raid on Coventry, with over 400 bombers destroying a large part of the city centre.
▶ brave daring Ireton led a daring raid on the Royalists' quarters and took a number of prisoners.
▶ causing a lot of damage devastating Roxanne worked in Liverpool during the devastating air raids.
▶ done without warning, to surprise your enemy lightning, surprise Huge damage was done by their lightning raids on our shipping.

● n+N types of raid air, bomber, bombing, commando, enemy The bridge was destroyed by the RAF during a bombing raid.
▶ time when a raid happens dawn, daylight, morning, night, night-time, pre-dawn Daylight attacks gradually gave way to night raids.

● v+N make a raid carry out, conduct, execute, launch, make, mount, stage The US airforce launched bombing raids on Basra, destroying a radar system.
▶ be in charge of a raid lead He was killed in action while leading a raid on enemy trenches at Loos, in October 1916.
▶ experience a raid experience, suffer On September 1, 1939, as the war broke out, Warsaw suffered the first air raids on a major city.

rain N

water falling in drops from the sky

● adj+N heavy drenching, driving, hard, heavy, horizontal, pouring, torrential The lifeboat battled in strong winds, driving rain and poor visibility to bring the man to safety.
▶ light drizzling, drizzly, fine, gentle, light, slight, soft Northern Scotland had a mostly mild night with some light rain.
▶ continuing for a long time constant, continual, continuous, endless, incessant, persistent, prolonged, relentless, steady Building work was halted in December after weeks of incessant rain.
▶ happening for short periods intermittent, occasional, showery It was a dull and damp morning with intermittent light rain and poor visibility.
▶ happening in some places patchy A large area of patchy rain was over Northern France.

● N+v rain falls beat down, come down, descend, fall, lash down, pelt down, pour down The traffic was awful and the rain was lashing down.
▶ rain stops cease, clear, stop The rain quickly cleared and the garden produced a myriad of birds.
▶ rain becomes less ease (off), let up Once the rain had eased, we returned to the field.
▶ rain starts arrive, begin, come, start The heavy rain arrived a little sooner than predicted.
▶ rain seems likely to start threaten The nature trail is also a good option if rain is threatening, since it is easy to get back to the hotel.
▶ rain seems likely but does not happen hold off The rain held off too – most of the time.
▶ rain makes someone or something very wet drench sb/sth, flood sth, soak sb/sth The rain drenched not only my clothes, but also my spirits.
▶ rain hits a place hit sth, sweep sth Glasgow was hit by heavy rain, leaving the organisers no alternative but to call off proceedings.

rain V

when water falls in drops from clouds

● adv+V a lot hard, heavily, torrentially It rained hard all night.
▶ a little lightly It was only raining lightly so we set off for our walk.
▶ all the time constantly, continuously, incessantly, non-stop, solidly, steadily It rained continuously for three days.

rainfall N

amount of rain during particular time

● adj+N high above average, excessive, extreme, heavy, high, intense, prolonged, significant, substantial, torrential The period since 30th October has seen significant rainfall across northern China, with scores of rivers having burst their banks.
▶ low below average, light, little, low The region enjoys a relatively mild climate and low rainfall.
▶ not high and not low moderate In the east of the country, there is moderate rainfall throughout the year.
▶ average average, mean, normal Between 18th and 23rd June we had 1 ½ times the normal rainfall for the whole of June.
▶ typical of a particular season autumn, seasonal, spring, summer, winter Seasonal rainfall over the highlands of Ethiopia controls the flow of the Blue Nile.

▸ enough for a country's needs abundant, plentiful In good years, abundant rainfall guarantees a good rice crop.

▸ not enough inadequate, limited, poor In recent years, poor rainfall and persistent drought have caused widespread misery.

▸ each year, month etc annual, daily, monthly Annual rainfall is high (1700mm), but there is a dry season from May to September.

• v+N have rainfall experience, have, receive The east-coast city of Edinburgh receives much less rainfall than the west of Scotland.

▸ measure or record rainfall measure, record 12.7mm of rainfall was recorded over 7.5 hours at Pitsford Hall.

rainforest N

a forest in hot countries where it rains a lot

• adj+N ancient, dense, lowland, lush, pristine, temperate, tropical, virgin Green iguanas live in tropical rainforests.

• v+N protect a rainforest protect, save The website provides details of their work to protect the rainforests, marine ecosystems and wildlife.

▸ destroy or be likely to destroy a rainforest destroy, threaten Today agriculture and logging are not destroying the rainforest at the same rate as 40 years ago.

• N+n canopy, conservation, destruction, ecosystem, environment, habitat, species White-faced monkeys live in small family groups in the rainforest canopy.

• n+of+N area, patch, swathes, tract Demand for soya crops led to the destruction of vast swathes of rainforest.

raise V

cause a particular feeling or reaction

• V+n alarm, awareness, concerns, consciousness, doubts, fears, hopes, interest, suspicion, tensions Thousands of events have been organised to raise awareness of the disease. ◉ This decision will raise fears that some patients will not be given the best treatment.

rally N

a public meeting showing support, or as a protest

• adj+N large major, mass The general strike ended with a mass rally in the capital city.

▸ not violent peaceful Anti-war groups are calling for a peaceful rally and a march on parliament.

▸ with a particular purpose anti-war, election, peace, pre-election, protest She was speaking at a Conservative Party pre-election rally last night.

• v+N organize a rally hold, organize, stage It was here that the suffragettes staged their rallies in support of votes for women.

▸ take part in a rally attend, join, take part in He attended an anti-vivisection rally in Trafalgar Square.

▸ speak at a rally address, speak at Union leaders will address a rally against the proposed new legislation.

random ADJ chosen or happening without any particular method or pattern

• adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, genuinely, purely, totally, truly, utterly Perhaps the selection of the dates is purely random.

▸ apparently apparently, seemingly There were row upon row of books in seemingly random order.

▸ almost or rather almost, essentially, fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, slightly, somewhat These devices create passwords that are essentially random but easy for you to remember. ◉ They gave me a lot of slightly random questions which I had to answer.

• ADJ+n sample or choice choice, sample, sampling, selection This is a random selection some of my favourite photos.

▸ check or test check, test, testing Since random testing has been introduced into the sport there has been a reduction in the number of positive samples.

▸ order order The device plays the 100 songs you listen to most in a random order.

• v+ADJ appear, be, look, seem The whole process seems completely random.

range N

a number of different things, numbers, measurements etc included within a category or limit

• adj+N large broad, comprehensive, enormous, extensive, huge, large, massive, vast, wide We provide a wide range of training opportunities to meet the needs of teachers and classroom assistants.

▸ varied diverse, varied He has had an impressive film career, portraying a diverse range of characters.

▸ full complete, entire, full, whole Throughout this website, the term 'deaf' is used to cover the whole range of hearing loss.

▸ impressive or good excellent, exciting, fantastic, good, great, impressive, superb They make an impressive range of furniture from a variety of woods.

▸ small limited, narrow We have wetsuits for hire, but in a limited range of sizes.

▸ normal normal All these children are within the normal range of intelligence.

• v+N have a range boast, demonstrate, display, have, show Our menu boasts a range of expertly prepared dishes.

▸ produce or create a range develop, introduce, manufacture, produce The archive produces a range of audio and print publications related to its collections.

▸ include a range contain, cover, embrace, encompass, feature, include, incorporate, reflect, represent, span The course has covered a good range of topics.

▸ offer or provide a range bring, deliver, launch, offer, provide, sell, supply We can help you launch a new product range. ◉ The school offers a full range of options for postgraduate study.

▸ examine a range address, consider, discuss, examine, explore, study, view You will explore a range of computing platforms and electronic media.

▶ use a range access, choose from, enjoy, experience, select from, use Guests can enjoy a wide range of leisure activities.
▶ increase a range broaden, expand, extend, increase, widen The course is ideal for managers seeking to extend their range of skills.

rapid ADJ happening, moving, or acting quickly

● adv+ADJ very exceedingly, excessively, extremely, spectacularly, very His recovery was extremely rapid.
▶ surprisingly amazingly, astonishingly, remarkably, surprisingly, unexpectedly There have been astonishingly rapid technological developments in broadcasting.
▶ unusually abnormally, exceptionally, extraordinarily, unusually This followed a long period of unusually rapid economic growth.
▶ rather comparatively, fairly, quite, reasonably, relatively At first, they made fairly rapid progress.

● ADJ+n growth or increase expansion, growth, increase, rise, spread During the nineteenth century there was a rapid expansion of large-scale industry.
▶ start onset 'Acute' describes a disease of rapid onset, severe symptoms and brief duration.
▶ improvement or progress advance, progress, progression, recovery This enables our teachers to develop each student's abilities so that they make rapid progress.
▶ getting less or worse decline, deterioration There was a rapid decline in the fortunes of the British film industry.
▶ change change, evolution, turnaround, turnover We are living in a time of incredibly rapid change.
▶ speed acceleration, pace Our Internet service is growing at a rapid pace.
▶ sequence of events succession The family moved several times in very rapid succession.

rapidity N
speed

● adj+N great extraordinary, extreme, great Several new settlements sprang up with great rapidity.

Usage These adj+N combinations are usually in the form with+adj+rapidity: His moods would change with great rapidity. ● The men work with astonishing rapidity.

▶ surprising amazing, astonishing, startling, surprising The flames spread with amazing rapidity.
▶ frightening alarming, disturbing, frightening Such an infection can develop with alarming rapidity.

rapport N a relationship in which people like and understand each other

● adj+N natural or immediate easy, genuine, immediate, instant, instinctive, intuitive, natural There was an instinctive rapport between the two musicians that comes across in every note.
▶ close close, friendly, intimate, warm Her reserve and caution make it difficult for her to build a close rapport with others.
▶ good excellent, extraordinary, fantastic, good, positive, remarkable, strong, superb, terrific, tremendous, wonderful The two actors have a terrific rapport, coming to life in their scenes together.

● v+N have a rapport enjoy, have He enjoyed a good rapport with the rest of the team.
▶ develop a rapport achieve, build, create, develop, establish, strike up She always established a wonderful rapport with her pupils.
▶ maintain a rapport maintain They maintained a strong rapport with the audience throughout the set.

● N+with audience audience, crowd, fans, viewers The success of the gig was due to their rapport with the crowd.
▶ customer etc clients, customers, patients, pupils We are looking for someone with good interpersonal skills, who is able to build rapport with customers.
▶ people at work colleagues, staff His rapport with his colleagues makes him an excellent role model.

rare ADJ
not happening, seen, or found very often

● adv+ADJ very exceedingly, exceptionally, extremely, impossibly, rather, vanishingly, very It is an area of outstanding beauty and home to extremely rare wildlife.
▶ rather comparatively, fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, relatively, somewhat Childhood leukaemia is a comparatively rare disorder.
▶ fortunately fortunately, mercifully, thankfully Child abduction makes the headlines but is fortunately rare.
▶ surprisingly extraordinarily, incredibly, surprisingly Cases of aggression after playing violent games are surprisingly rare.
▶ more and more increasingly Vinyl records are increasingly rare in homes.

● ADJ+n case or event event, example, exception, instance, occasion, occurrence With a few rare exceptions, these researchers work in university laboratories. ❁ On the rare occasions that they had people for dinner my mother might cook 'Boeuf Bourgignon'.
▶ opportunity chance, opportunity This is a rare chance to see these world-renowned performers in the UK.
▶ sight appearance, sight These fish are now a fairly rare sight in our waters.
▶ look glimpse In the film we get a rare glimpse into a world that remains intensely private.
▶ thing commodity We pride ourselves on our personal service – a rare commodity nowadays.
▶ medical condition complication, condition, disease, disorder Another rare complication is that surgery can cause damage to the spinal cord.
▶ animal, plant etc bird, breed, butterfly, plant, species The park is a haven for the rarest species of Scottish wildlife.

rash ADJ
acting or done too quickly

● adv+ADJ rather, somewhat, too It would be somewhat rash to assert that the recession is now behind us.

● ADJ+n assumption, conjecture, decision, prediction, presumption, promise He made the brave, if maybe rash, decision to appear on BBC News.

- ADJ+infinitive argue, assert, assume, attempt, attribute, deny, dismiss, predict, presume It would be rash to assume that the trial judge will agree.

rate N

the number of times something happens, or the speed at which it happens, during a particular period

- adj+N high or fast alarming, fast, high, rapid They claim that the Earth is heating up at an alarming rate. ◆ In addition, occupying troops suffer very high injury rates.
  - low or slow low, slow Prosperous countries tend to have lower birth rates.
  - maximum/minimum maximum, minimum You should exercise at 50–60 per cent of your maximum heart rate.
  - average average, overall Average vacancy rates dropped to 13.89 per cent.
- n+N birth, crime, death, detection, growth, mortality, pass, response, success, survival, unemployment 10-year survival rates with this form of cancer are as low as 10 per cent.
- N+v rise double, increase, rise, soar The death rate has risen even more in recent months.
  - fall decline, decrease, drop, fall, plummet, slow The inflation rate has fallen dramatically over the past 5 years.
  - change or vary fluctuate, vary Questionnaires are commonly used, but response rates vary greatly.
  - be average, be, remain Over the years, our repayment rate has averaged 98 per cent.
  - be more than exceed In maths the pass rate exceeds 88 per cent.

rating N

a measurement of how good or popular something is

- adj+N high high, maximum, top Twenty-four of the college's 37 subject areas have been awarded the highest rating.
  - low low The government has slipped to its lowest poll rating since 2005.
  - average average, overall The album has an average rating of 8 out of 10 based on 8 reviews.
- n+N approval approval, popularity, satisfaction Our aim is to achieve at least an 80 per cent satisfaction rating from our clients.
  - by particular people customer, user You can check user ratings for all these products online.
- v+N get or have a rating achieve, earn, gain, get, have, obtain, receive We have achieved a top research rating, one of only three departments in the country to do so.
  - give someone or something a rating assign, award (sb/sth), give (sb/sth) Participants were asked to assign a rating of 1–7 to each of the photos.
- N+v rise go up, rise, soar His performances sent the show's audience ratings soaring.
  - fall decline, drop, fall, go down, plummet, slip, slump, tumble Her approval ratings have plummeted in recent months.
  - vary depend on, range from The ratings range from Very Useful to Useless.
  - show or mean something demonstrate, indicate, mean, reflect What do the star ratings mean? ◆ His rating reflects the huge improvement in performance this year.

ratio N

a relationship between numbers or amounts

- adj+N high high These plants maintain a high ratio of carbon dioxide to oxygen within photosynthetic cells.
  - low low For this group the success ratio was even lower.
  - good favourable, optimum Small groups enable us to provide a favourable pupil:teacher ratio.
- n+N of staff to customers etc staffing, staff-patient, staff-student, student:staff Day nurseries have more intensive staffing ratios depending on the ages of children being cared for.
  - of males to females male:female, sex The department has a male:female ratio of 65:35.
  - of deaths mortality, survival We measured five-year survival rates and relative survival ratios.
  - in economics benefit/cost, cost-benefit, price/earnings The benefit/cost ratio is predicted to be 1.3 to 1.

The noun modifiers in this group can be written with a slash, a hyphen, a colon, or separated by the word 'to': staff/student ratio, ● price-earnings ratio, ● cost:benefit ratio, ● male to female ratio.

- N+v go up increase, rise Within 10 years the firm's debt-equity ratio had risen to 570 per cent.
  - go down decline, decrease, drop, fall, halve The sex ratio declined further to 719 girls to every 1,000 boys.
  - get better/worse improve, worsen Staff/student ratios have worsened.
  - vary differ, range from sth Mortality ratios range from approximately 0.5 to 0.8.
  - be more than something exceed sth This shows that the patient:staff ratio exceeds that recommended in 2005.
  - indicate something indicate, mean A low ratio indicates that the dividend is at an unsustainable level.

rational ADJ

based on sensible practical reasons

- adv+ADJ very eminently, perfectly This is a perfectly rational response to the situation.
  - entirely entirely, purely, rigorously, strictly, wholly An attacked nation is unlikely to act in a purely rational way.
  - mostly essentially We have an image of the self as an essentially rational being.
  - apparently apparently, seemingly, supposedly It is for this reason that theories of aliens continue to gain support among seemingly rational people.
  - from a particular point of view economically, scientifically You could argue that young people who are choosing to go to university are being economically rational.
- ADJ+n ability to think faculty, thinking, thought

Our rational faculties also allow us to think abstractly. ◉ He seemed to have lost the power of rational thought.

- ▸ argument or analysis analysis, argument, debate, discourse, discussion Inspectors' decisions must be backed up by rational argument.
- ▸ way of doing something approach Research showed that donors adopt a rational approach to their giving, tending to donate to charities where they can see how their money is used.
- ▸ response response This technology is the only rational response to abrupt climate change.
- ▸ explanation or reason basis, explanation, justification The majority of alternative medicines have no rational scientific basis. ◉ I can give no rational explanation for why these boats were so quick.
- ▸ choice or conclusion calculation, choice, decision This assumes that people make a rational financial calculation about whether to take a job or remain on benefit.
- ▸ view or theory assessment, hypothesis, theory, view I like the eminently rational view that Peterson takes.
- ▸ person being, creature, thinker His theory assumes that people are rational creatures who plan long-term goals.

reach V

achieve something after discussion or thought

- • V+n agreement agreement, compromise, consensus, settlement Trained mediators help those involved to reach an agreement which everyone can live with.
- ▸ decision conclusion, decision, verdict Reviews over the past 25 years have reached different conclusions.

react V

behave in a particular way when something happens

- • adv+V positively enthusiastically, favourably, positively This workshop will look at how managers can help their staff to react positively to change.
- ▸ negatively adversely, badly, defensively, negatively, unfavourably It seems inconceivable that anyone could react negatively to this decision.
- ▸ angrily or violently aggressively, angrily, furiously, sharply, violently Parents of children at the school have reacted angrily to the proposals.
- ▸ quickly immediately, instantaneously, instantly, promptly, quickly, rapidly, swiftly We will be able to react more quickly to customers' needs.
- ▸ calmly or carefully calmly, cautiously Although clearly upset, she reacted calmly and without fuss.
- ▸ emotionally emotionally, instinctively, spontaneously You should avoid reacting emotionally to anything that is said in the interview.
- ▸ strongly strongly, vigorously A normal adult reacts strongly to any suggestion of violence being directed at a baby.
- ▸ appropriately accordingly, appropriately The character is placed in extraordinary circumstances and he reacts accordingly.
- ▸ differently differently Would the referee react differently if this incident happened in the last minute of the game?
- • V+in fashion, manner, way Different people react in different ways to a sudden shock.
- • V+with anger or shock anger, disdain, dismay, fury, horror, hostility, indignation, outrage, scorn Conservationists reacted with fury after the land was sold for development.
- ▸ surprise or disbelief amazement, astonishment, disbelief, incredulity, scepticism Officials have reacted with incredulity to the latest claims.
- ▸ pleasure glee Academics reacted with unconcealed glee to the news of his resignation.

reaction N

1 the way you react to something

- • adj+N positive favourable, positive We have never had such a positive reaction to a guest speaker before.
- ▸ negative negative We all have a fear of failure or of a negative reaction.
- ▸ mixed mixed Published in 1972, the book drew a very mixed reaction.
- ▸ angry or violent angry, defensive, hostile, violent The slow progress of reform led to a violent reaction from the nationalists.
- ▸ strong extreme, hysterical, strong It is a film that tends to prompt extreme reactions.
- ▸ emotional emotional If you receive a threatening phone call, don't say anything – the caller wants to get an emotional reaction.
- ▸ immediate or first immediate, initial, instant He said that his inital reaction was shock.
- ▸ done quickly without thinking gut, instinctive, knee-jerk, spontaneous The chairman insisted this was not a knee-jerk reaction and took into account the views of the fans.
- ▸ normal natural, normal, understandable Worry is an understandable reaction to change.
- • v+N cause a reaction cause, draw, elicit, evoke, lead to, produce, prompt, provoke, result in, spark, trigger The subject is complex and provokes strong reactions.
- ▸ get a reaction get, receive She did not receive quite the reaction that she had expected.
- ▸ observe or measure a reaction gauge, observe Extensive market research was carried out to gauge the reactions of consumers.
- ▸ expect a reaction anticipate, expect They anticipate very cautious reactions to their suggestions.

2 a bad effect on the body caused by something

- • adj+N negative adverse Adverse reactions to the drug include headaches and gastro-intestinal disturbances.
- ▸ very bad acute, fatal, life-threatening, serious, severe Several reports have been published of severe reactions in people with no previous psychiatric symptoms.
- ▸ possible suspected Suspected adverse reactions in children should always be reported.
- ▸ not immediate delayed Travel should be avoided within 14 days of the treatment in case a delayed reaction occurs.
- ▸ types of reaction allergic, anaphylactic, immune, inflammatory, systemic, toxic This provokes an immune reaction that includes chronic inflammation.
- • v+N have a reaction experience, show, suffer

(from), undergo A clear procedure must be followed when a patient undergoes a serious reaction.
- ▸ cause a reaction cause, induce, lead to, produce, provoke, result in, stimulate, trigger Researchers have identified a type of protein that triggers allergic reactions.
- ▸ report or notice a reaction observe, report Several city residents reported allergic reactions after recent crop dusting on nearby farms.

read N
something that you read; an act of reading something

- • adj+N good cracking INFORMAL, good, recommended, terrific This is a terrific read for those interested in the real Venice.
- ▸ holding your attention compelling, compulsive, engrossing, enthralling, fascinating, gripping, riveting, thrilling I found the book to be an extremely gripping read, as well as being very informative.
- ▸ interesting or informative informative, interesting, stimulating, thought-provoking His blog is a very interesting read.
- ▸ amusing or enjoyable amusing, engaging, enjoyable, entertaining, rollicking INFORMAL Sharp, witty and fast-paced, this is an undemanding but thoroughly enjoyable read.
- ▸ worth reading rewarding, satisfying, worthwhile It is a worthwhile read for pharmacists and for those interested in herbal remedies.
- ▸ easy easy, quick This is a small volume, with large type and a lot of white space that make it a quick read.

reader N
someone who reads

- • adj+N keen avid, interested, voracious Although I was an avid reader, I never thought of myself as a writer. • Interested readers may contact me for a copy of the list.
- ▸ regular faithful, loyal, regular As a regular reader of Gardening Review, I will miss her column.
- ▸ ordinary casual, general, ordinary To a casual reader, these are just numbers.
- ▸ clever or careful alert, astute, critical, discerning, observant Astute readers will have spotted the deliberate mistake by now.
- ▸ good or confident competent, confident, experienced, fluent Using this system, the children have become more fluent and confident readers.
- ▸ not keen or confident reluctant They have published a new range of short, fast-paced books aimed at adult reluctant readers.

readiness N
the state of being ready, or willing to deal with something

- • v+N express readiness announce, declare, express, imply, signal, stress Several candidates have signalled their readiness to stand.
- ▸ confirm readiness confirm, reaffirm The EU reaffirmed its readiness to contribute to a multilateral diplomatic solution.
- ▸ show readiness demonstrate, indicate, show Candidates enrolling on the programme must demonstrate readiness to undertake doctoral-level work.
- ▸ make sure of someone's readiness assure, ensure, maintain Pre-season exercises will help ensure your readiness for the season itself.
- ▸ assess someone's readiness assess, determine Monitor your progress and assess your own readiness to sit the exam.
- ▸ increase readiness enhance, increase They have the overall goal of increasing the school readiness of young children.

reading N something that you read; the act of reading something

- • adj+N compulsory compulsory, essential, required It will be essential reading for everyone involved in teaching or learning economic theory.
- ▸ recommended recommended, suggested A list of recommended reading accompanies your module material.
- ▸ additional additional, further, supplementary This site also provides links to further reading.
- ▸ to prepare for something background, introductory, preliminary, preparatory Doing preparatory reading will make it easier for you to follow the lecture.
- ▸ interesting compelling, compulsive, fascinating, interesting They make interesting reading as they tell us so much about the daily life of our ancestors.
- ▸ worrying or shocking depressing, grim, uncomfortable The report will make uncomfortable reading for the Government.
- ▸ careful careful, close, critical I should like to thank Professor Jones for his careful reading of the first draft of this paper.

real ADJ
having the true qualities of particular type of thing

- • ADJ+n problem or difficulty challenge, concern, difficulty, issue, need, problem We know that anti-social behaviour causes real problems.
- ▸ danger danger, risk, threat Climate change is a real threat to the future of humanity.
- ▸ change or effect change, difference, impact You could make a real difference to the lives of people touched by cancer.
- ▸ benefit or improvement advantage, benefit, improvement, progress, value These grants have brought real benefit to local communities.
- ▸ chance chance, opportunity, possibility, prospect There is also the very real possibility of injury.
- ▸ choice alternative, choice She opposed their policies without proposing any real alternative.
- ▸ pleasure pleasure, treat It was a real treat to be able to sit in the sunshine.
- ▸ something unfortunate pity, shame It's a real shame for students who are really quite gifted not to have this opportunity.
- ▸ feeling feeling, sense Recycling gives us a real sense that we are doing something for the environment.

realism N
the ability to accept or see situations as they really are

- • adj+N gritty, stark, unflinching In its depiction of the urban working classes, the film lacked the gritty social realism that was later pioneered by directors such as Loach.

- v+N add realism add, bring, increase, inject, introduce, lend The Institute has made efforts to inject some realism and clarity into the debate.
- ▸ show realism achieve The actors commented that it had been hard to achieve realism in the fight scenes.
- ▸ reject realism abandon, reject Atkinson abandons realism in favour of demonstrating the possibility of achieving happiness after loss.
- ▸ lack realism lack Capable of great inspiration and idealism, they are often accused of lacking realism.
- n+of+N feeling sense Attention to historical detail added a sense of realism to the display.
- ▸ amount air, degree, dose, element, level, touch Optimism, tempered by an element of realism, will help you ensure that your dream becomes a reality.
- ❁ These new simulations achieve an unprecedented level of realism.

realistic ADJ

1 based on facts and situations as they really are

- ADJ+n chance or hope chance, expectation, hope, possibility, proposition, prospect There is no realistic prospect of any action.
- ▸ alternative or solution alternative, option, solution Public transport is not a realistic alternative for many of these journeys.
- ▸ goal or plan aim, goal, plan, target It is most important to set realistic goals in relation to children's weight.
- ▸ time or money allowed budget, timeframe, timescale, timetable The problem was the absence of a sensible and realistic timescale for implementation.
- ▸ assessment of something appraisal, assessment, assumption, estimate Figures must be based on realistic estimates.
- ▸ attitude attitude, view This attitude is simply not realistic.

- and/or accurate, achievable, attainable, believable, credible, deliverable, honest, manageable, meaningful, measurable, practical, pragmatic, sensible, workable Are the aims of the project realistic and achievable within the proposed timeframe?

2 seeming very like real life

- adv+ADJ very amazingly, completely, incredibly, intensely, remarkably, strikingly, stunningly, vividly A strikingly realistic wax mask of King George will be on display.
- ▸ in a frightening or shocking way brutally, chillingly, disturbingly, frighteningly, grimly, grittily, horribly, scarily Her emotionally disturbed cellmate is played in a frighteningly realistic portrayal by Gillian Wright.
- ▸ in a good way brilliantly, impressively, wonderfully With brilliantly realistic models, the animated dinosaurs really bring this story to life.

- ADJ+n picture depiction, picture, portrayal Viewers were invited to witness a realistic portrayal of the often unglamorous daily lives of police detectives.
- ▸ animation animation, simulation Motion capture allows for realistic animations of human movement.
- ▸ situation scenario, situation Trainees are tested in realistic scenarios by the Ambulance Service.
- ▸ effect effect The sound effects were amazingly realistic.

reality N

the real character of things, not what is imagined or possible; a fact, event etc as it really exists

- adj+N sad or difficult brutal, grim, gritty, harsh, sad, stark The harsh financial reality is that we have to reduce our spending on services.
- ▸ of every day; ordinary day-to-day, everyday, mundane The exhibition explores everyday realities of life in a war zone.
- ▸ actual physical, practical Imagination is a link between the outer world of physical reality and our inner world.
- ▸ objective/not objective objective, subjective This all comes down to belief, not objective reality.
- ▸ types of reality commercial, economic, historical, political, practical The courts must understand commercial realities and not impose excessive regulation.

- v+N accept or deal with reality accept, acknowledge, confront, experience, face, recognize I seek to understand why events occurred, even if this means confronting unpleasant realities.
- ▸ understand reality grasp, understand He seemed to have an inability to grasp reality.
- ▸ reflect or show reality depict, mirror, portray, reflect The programme-makers would argue that they they were merely trying to portray reality.
- ▸ deny or ignore reality deny, doubt, escape, ignore We cannot deny the reality that, in our modern world, the principle of a job for life is dead.
- ▸ try to hide reality disguise, distort, obscure The ad distorts reality by using stereotypes and simplifications.
- ▸ become reality become If we work together, we can ensure that this dream becomes a reality.

realization N

the process or moment of understanding something

- adj+N coming gradually dawning, gradual, growing There has been a gradual realization that people within very different communities nevertheless want very similar things.
- ▸ sudden sudden The sudden realization of my own ignorance came home to me.
- ▸ frightening or worrying awful, chilling, sobering, stark Our satisfaction with these achievements is matched by the sobering realization that much remains to be done.

- v+N arrive at, come to We all need to come to the realization of what trouble we're in.

- N+v come, dawn (on sb), hit sb, spread The realization dawns that there is money left and a short time to spend it.

realize V

1 know and understand something

- adv+V quickly or at once immediately, instantly, quickly, soon But I soon realized that this wasn't the case.
- ▸ suddenly suddenly I suddenly realized that I had been talking out loud to myself.

- first first When did you first realise you wanted to write fiction?
- slowly or later afterwards, belatedly, eventually, finally, gradually, slowly You eventually realize that they are not just giving you knowledge, but teaching you how to think.
- completely fully I wonder if these sportsmen fully realize the enormous responsibility they have to young players.

- V+n importance importance, significance It is possible that journalists don't themselves realize the importance of this fact.
- seriousness enormity, extent, seriousness I now realize the enormity of the problems they are facing in developing countries.
- mistake error, folly, mistake They missed the turning and didn't realise their mistake till they were nearly back in Toddington!
- problem danger, futility, limitations She stopped, realizing the futility of the question.
- truth truth It seems incredible that those close to her did not realize the truth.

2 achieve something planned or hoped for

- V+n hope or dream ambition, aspiration, dream, ideal, vision At long last he was able to realize his ambition to become a painter.
- goal goal, objective The group met to decide the best way of realizing their objectives.
- possibility potential She is a very capable woman who is gradually realizing her full potential.
- money gain, profit, saving Car manufacturers could realize savings of $2,700 per vehicle produced.

reappraisal N

an occasion when you consider an attitude or situation again

- adj+N complete complete, fundamental, radical, thorough, total The decline in funds will require a radical reappraisal of the way in which teaching and research are conducted.
- urgent urgent There needs to be an urgent reappraisal of bed numbers in all new hospitals.
- occasional periodic The conditions of the code of professional conduct are subject to periodic reappraisal.
- critical critical It's time for a critical reappraisal of new age music.

- v+N demand, force, invite, lead to, necessitate, prompt, require, trigger Increasing membership necessitated reappraisal of the services offered.

reason N

a fact or situation that explains why something happened or is true; a cause for doing or thinking something

- adj+N good compelling, good, legitimate, logical, right, sound, sufficient, valid There could be compelling social reasons for a person to live in a particular area.
- not good wrong Young people are always making the headlines – often for the wrong reasons.
- main fundamental, key, main, major, primary, prime, principal Survey results show farmers choose to grow biotech crops for two main reasons.
- only only, sole We believe that the only reason the system has not collapsed completely is the diligence of staff.
- obvious obvious The majority of companies have restrictive contracts, for obvious reasons.
- common common The most common reasons for needing to work away from the office were business trips and meetings.
- real genuine, real, underlying Citizens were probably unaware of the real reasons why the government decided to go to war.
- simple simple There are very simple reasons for this. ◉ We don't provide accommodation for the simple reason that most people prefer to find their own.
- various different, many, several, various For various reasons, sales of DAB digital radios have been poor.
- same same, similar, very Avoiding clutter is the very reason why many people buy a laptop in the first place.
- possible possible The sample should be examined to identify a possible reason for these low moisture levels.
- unknown strange, unknown For some unknown reason she took an immediate liking to him.

You can also say that something is done for no apparent reason, for no particular reason, or for reasons unknown: The bass player wandered off stage for no particular reason.

- types of reason commercial, economic, financial, historical, legal, medical, operational, personal, political, practical, technical The results may be unavailable for some technical reason.

- n+N business, confidentiality, conservation, copyright, family, health, hygiene, privacy, safety, security, tax, timetabling This cannot be dealt with over the phone for obvious security reasons.

Usage In all of these combinations, reason is usually plural and preceded by for: The owner was wealthy enough to live abroad for tax reasons.

- v+N have a reason have Our cleaning staff have every reason to be proud of the role they perform.
- give a reason cite, give (sb), indicate, list, mention, offer, provide, reveal, specify, state, suggest If the form has been rejected, you will be given the reasons why. ◉ Can you suggest any reasons for these differences?
- explain or describe the reason articulate, describe, detail, explain, highlight, outline, set out It might help allay your concerns if I explain the reasons why the regulations were published. ◉ The adverts are aimed at highlighting the reasons for speed limits.
- examine the reasons address, analyse, consider, discuss, examine, explore, investigate This new research explores the reasons why children run away from home.
- discover the reason ascertain, discover, find, identify, pinpoint, uncover Discovering the reason for certain behaviour can improve your relationship.
- know or understand the reason guess, know, see, understand At least I now know the real reason. ◉ I apologise about this in advance and I hope you understand my reasons.
- not accept a reason question More and more people questioned his reasons for becoming involved.

If you do not think that there is any reason for something, you can say that you see no reason for it: I see no reason to change the rules at this time.

- ▶ be the reason be, constitute, seem to be She seems to think her desire to hurt his reputation constitutes a genuine reason for doing so.
- ▶ think something is the reason believe, suppose, suspect I suspect his real reason for going on the show was to find fame.

- • v+as+N cite, give, quote, regard, see, suggest, use Lack of motivation is usually cited as the reason for students failing to complete the course.

reasonable ADJ

sensible and fair

- • adv+ADJ very or completely eminently, entirely, extremely, perfectly, very There is no simple answer to your perfectly reasonable question.
- ▶ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite I have tried to present my arguments in a fairly reasonable and open style.

- • ADJ+n explanation excuse, explanation Illness will only be considered a reasonable excuse if the person can produce a doctor's note.
- ▶ expectation assumption, expectation, request We are committed to providing our customers with the standard of service that meets their reasonable expectations.
- ▶ agreement compromise The deal seemed a reasonable compromise in the circumstances.
- ▶ cause cause, grounds There are reasonable grounds for suspecting that there is a risk to public safety.
- ▶ chance chance, prospect He ruled that the appeal had no reasonable prospects of success.
- ▶ action or effort attempt, care, effort, precaution, step We have taken every reasonable precaution to ensure the accuracy of information on this website.
- ▶ guess estimate, guess This method gives a reasonable estimate of the body size.
- ▶ belief belief, doubt, suspicion It is for the prosecution to prove beyond a reasonable doubt that the defendant committed the crime.
- ▶ time period notice, period, timescale Alternative vegetarian menus are available, given reasonable notice.

- • v+ADJ be, consider sth, deem sth, look, regard sth as, seem, sound, think sth This level of expenditure was considered reasonable. ◆ It seems reasonable to conclude that most people are in favour of the changes.

- • ADJ+infinitive argue, assume, believe, conclude, deduce, expect, hypothesize, infer, presume, speculate, suggest, suppose, suspect It is reasonable to assume that cats may have acquired some resistance to common diseases of rats and mice.

reasoning N

the process of thinking in an intelligent sensible way

- • adj+N types of reasoning causal, deductive, inductive, logical, mathematical, non-verbal, verbal Business relies heavily on inductive reasoning, which assumes that the future will resemble the past.
- ▶ good clear, correct, sound There was sound reasoning behind the choice of a woman as a candidate for the post.
- ▶ bad circular, false, faulty Her argument was based on faulty reasoning.

- • v+N explain the reasoning explain, justify, outline Lesley explained the reasoning behind her choices.
- ▶ question the reasoning query, question Mr Thomas questions the reasoning behind such a conclusion.
- ▶ understand the reasoning understand The main aim is to learn what people have to say about a topic and understand their reasoning.
- ▶ use reasoning apply, employ You can apply the same reasoning to other cases.

- • N+behind choice, decision, move, recommendation In the event that institutions choose to differ from this guidance, the reasoning behind the decision should be stated.

reassurance N

the act of making someone feel less worried; an explanation that helps someone to feel less worried

- • adj+N not worth very much bland, false I expressed my concerns, only to be met with bland reassurances that, to me, were unconvincing.
- ▶ constant constant, repeated I felt the need for constant reassurance that I was doing the right thing.
- ▶ additional added, additional, extra Participants have the added reassurance that a 300-person trial showed the vaccines were safe.
- ▶ public public, visible There is a need to communicate successes and to provide public reassurance.
- ▶ spoken verbal This time the government will not settle for verbal reassurances but will have to see concrete action.

- • v+N need or want reassurance need, require, seek, want We therefore seek reassurances that the company's commitment to regional planning will be maintained.
- ▶ give reassurance give (sb), offer (sb), provide (sb with) Additional scrutiny provides reassurance that marking has been carried out appropriately.
- ▶ receive reassurance receive Until we receive reassurances that this has been done, we will remain concerned.

rebate N

money that is officially given back to someone

- • v+N have the right to a rebate be eligible for, be entitled to, be owed, be promised, qualify for She was promised a 10 per cent rebate if she changed suppliers.
- ▶ ask for a rebate claim This enables us to claim a tax rebate of 28 pence for every pound you donate.
- ▶ get a rebate get, negotiate, receive, secure A full time student will receive a 25 per cent rebate.
- ▶ give someone a rebate grant (sb), offer (sb), pay (sb) The government pays a rebate of National Insurance contributions to your pension provider.

rebellion N an occasion when people refuse to obey, or attempt to remove, their government or leaders

- v+N stop a rebellion crush, defeat, quash, quell, repress, subdue, suppress The government sent in troops to quell the rebellion.
- ▸ encourage rebellion foment, incite, instigate He was court-martialled and executed on charges of fomenting rebellion.
- ▸ organize and take part in a rebellion join, launch, lead, participate in, stage Employees staged a successful rebellion against the appointment of a new Chief Executive.
- ▸ cause a rebellion precipitate, provoke, spark, trigger This action sparked an anti-government rebellion.

rebuild V

make a situation as good as it was previously

- V+n confidence confidence, self-confidence, self-esteem, trust To counter negative media coverage, the agency was commissioned to rebuild consumer confidence.
- ▸ life or means of living life, livelihood Small producers organised themselves into co-operatives in order to begin the process of rebuilding their livelihoods.
- ▸ economy economy After the war, the first priority was to rebuild the shattered economies of Europe.

rebuke N

an occasion when someone is told they have behaved badly

- adj+N strong furious, indignant, scathing, severe, sharp, stern, stinging, strong The head of the UN delivered a stern rebuke to both states over the breaking of international law.
- ▸ weak gentle, mild There was not even a mild rebuke for the huge losses that had been sustained.
- v+N give a rebuke administer, deliver, issue The European Parliament issued a stinging rebuke to the British government for its handling of the crisis.
- ▸ earn or receive a rebuke draw, earn, provoke That provoked a sharp rebuke from the US Secretary of State.

recall V

remember something

- adv+V very well accurately, clearly, distinctly, precisely, vividly I can still vividly recall the smell of damp plaster which seemed to pervade the building.
- ▸ not very well barely, dimly, not exactly, vaguely I vaguely recall a comment from one of his novels.
- ▸ with affection fondly, lovingly, with affection, with fondness She fondly recalls her students' enthusiasm for the subject.
- ▸ with regret bitterly, ruefully, sadly He still ruefully recalls the opportunities that he failed to take advantage of.

recede V

to move back from a high point, or become less strong

- adv+V quickly dramatically, fast, quickly, rapidly Young people are seeing the prospects of home ownership receding fast.
- ▸ slowly gradually, slowly The pain in his tooth gradually receded over the course of the day.
- n+V water flood, flood water, sea, tide, water, wave When the water finally receded, we were left with the job of cleaning up the house.
- ▸ something bad danger, fear, menace, pain, threat The threat of an imminent attack seems to have receded, but we must all remain vigilant.

recent ADJ

happening or starting a short time ago

- adv+ADJ rather comparatively, fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, reasonably, relatively Diving as we know it today is of comparatively recent origin.
- ▸ very especially, so, too, very All presentations were based on research that was either very recent or still under development.
- ▸ in a particular way geologically, historically Most of the geologically recent eruptions are due to the nitrogen and methane on Triton.

- ADJ+n study article, paper, poll, publication, report, research, review, study, survey A recent survey showed that 60 per cent of churchgoers in this country never read their Bibles outside church.
- ▸ change advance, change, development, trend We're hoping to increase understanding of recent changes in demography and family structure.
- ▸ event announcement, conference, discovery, event, meeting, trip, visit Our only regret is that we didn't stay longer as part of our most recent visit.
- ▸ period decade, history, month, past, week, year There have been many cutbacks over recent years in every unit, not just ours.
- ▸ decision decision, judgment There have been many articles about the recent court decision that email is not private.
- ▸ discovery discovery, findings In this workshop, I will summarize some of the recent findings from neuroscience that I think are useful.

reception N

the way someone or something is received

- adj+N very good cordial, ecstatic, enthusiastic, favourable, rapturous, rousing, tumultuous, warm Tonight, I think we got it right; the song received a rapturous reception.
- ▸ very bad frosty, hostile They were going home very likely to a hostile reception.
- ▸ neither very good nor very bad cool, lukewarm, mixed Her last film got a lukewarm reception.
- v+N be given, get, meet with, receive The former Burnley captain led Luton out and received the most incredible reception.

recession N

a period of economic problems and high unemployment

- adj+N bad or longlasting bad, deep, full-blown, prolonged, severe, sustained We had just come through a full-blown official recession.
- ▸ happening everywhere global, international, world, worldwide These factors increase the risks of another worldwide recession.
- ▸ economic economic Few people could have imagined that an international economic recession was just around the corner.

- about to happen impending If I believe in a property market crash then I must believe in an impending recession.
- getting worse deepening Last year was also marked by a deepening global recession.

• v+N face or experience a recession be hit by INFORMAL, enter, experience, face, move into, suffer I agree that we are now entering a recession.

- cause a recession cause, precipitate, trigger Worsening problems for the world's largest economy could trigger a worldwide recession.
- avoid or survive a recession avoid, prevent, survive, weather Linda started her business in 1990 and immediately had to weather the recession of the early 90s.
- predict a recession predict Some observers predict a recession of 1930s proportions, but lasting much longer.

• N+v be about to start loom I could see a recession looming and I'd been offered a teaching post at Princeton.

- start begin, hit INFORMAL When recession hit just a few months later in 1989, they went under.
- get worse bite, deepen Brazil's recession deepened, and eventually it too faced a currency crisis.

recipe N

1 instructions for preparing a particular dish

• adj+N delicious delicious, fabulous, flavourful, mouth-watering, tasty, yummy INFORMAL The first is a tasty recipe for almond macaroons.

- types of recipe authentic, favourite, savoury, seasonal, secret, traditional, vegetarian For more traditional Spanish recipes see our recipe for Spanish paella.
- healthy healthy, nutritious I have come up with many delicious, nutritious recipes any school age child can follow and enjoy.

• v+N create a recipe concoct, devise, invent, perfect We had great fun concocting different recipes and eating them.

- change a recipe adapt, recreate They started work on trying to recreate the recipe from memory.
- follow a recipe cook, follow, test, try Why not try this classic recipe?

2 something that makes it very likely that another thing will happen

• N+for bad things anarchy, confusion, disaster, paralysis, stagnation Consuming non-renewable fossil fuels is generally accepted as a recipe for global disaster.

- good things fairness, happiness, success Like many other recipes for instant success, this new world order proved to be built on sand.

recognition N

praise, respect, or admiration

• adj+N official or formal explicit, formal, institutional, legal, official, statutory A number of individuals have been identified as deserving formal recognition.

- among particular people or in certain places international, national, professional, public, social, wide, worldwide When she met him, Robert Graves had achieved international recognition.
- deserved growing, overdue, proper, well-deserved Many congratulations to Philip on this well-deserved recognition.

• v+N get recognition achieve, attain, earn, enjoy, gain, get, obtain, receive, secure, win By the mid sixties he was gaining recognition as a virtuoso folk guitarist.

- deserve recognition deserve, merit Thank you, keep up the excellent work, you deserve recognition for such a contribution.
- want recognition seek Agnes was a modest woman who never sought recognition or reward.
- give recognition confer, give sb We have an honours system designed precisely to confer public recognition on acts of personal good.

• N+for achievement, commitment, contribution, effort, excellence, success, work He received little recognition for his achievements during his lifetime.

recognizable ADJ

able to be recognized

• adv+ADJ immediately immediately, instantly Sheltered beneath the familiar shape of Table Mountain, this historic city is instantly recognizable.

- easily clearly, easily, readily They are generally evergreen and have easily recognizable needle-like leaves.
- with difficulty barely, hardly, scarcely The city is hardly recognizable since I last visited it in 1986.

recognize V

accept that someone or something is true, important or good

• adv+V among particular people generally, officially, publicly, universally, widely The need for an up-to-date study of the place names of the area is widely recognized.

- in particular places globally, internationally, nationally, worldwide The University of Alabama at Birmingham is nationally recognized.
- directly/indirectly explicitly, implicitly The Conventions explicitly recognize that drugs should be available for medical purposes.
- clearly clearly, fully, readily It is readily recognized by almost all biblical students that the Gospel of John was the last of the Gospels written.

Usage Recognize is usually passive in all of the adv+V combinations shown above.

• V+n importance or excellence achievement, excellence, greatness, importance, significance As time goes on, major companies are beginning to recognize the true importance of podcasting.

- need necessity, need Christians generally recognize the necessity for the believer to live a holy life.
- problems dangers, limitations, problems, risks If you recognize your limitations and ask for assistance, you will do much better than even you anticipated.
- truth legitimacy, truth, validity Indonesia accepts and recognizes the universal validity of basic human rights and fundamental freedoms.

recoil V

be upset by something frightening or unpleasant

- V+in horror disgust, horror Even as I recoiled in horror, the courtyard became flooded with intense light.
- ▸ shock shock, surprise He awoke with a start and recoiled slightly in surprise.
- ▸ fear fear, terror They had glimpsed the terrible prospect of civil war and recoiled in terror.

recollection N

a memory of something that has happened

- adj+N clear clear, distinct, vivid Eliza West was my grandmother and I still have a very vivid recollection of her in her eighties.

You can use the expression to the best of my recollection to say that you think you remember something but are not entirely sure: To the best of my recollection, the officer's name was Jackson.

- ▸ vague dim, faint, hazy, imperfect, vague I have a vague recollection of a cloakroom in a house.
- ▸ pleasant/unpleasant distressing, fond, painful, pleasant Painful recollections will intrude which cannot be repelled.
- ▸ personal autobiographical, personal A whole generation has now reached adulthood without any personal recollection of either World War.
- ▸ from a long time ago childhood, distant, early His earliest recollections as a child are of singing simple pop songs around the house.

- v+N have/not have a recollection have, have no I have a pleasant recollection of an incident so many years ago.
- ▸ share a recollection share We would like to thank everyone who has shared their recollections.
- ▸ keep a recollection cherish, preserve, record To the last, he cherished fond recollections of his student days in Glasgow.

- N+of childhood, event, incident, life, past The most chilling section of the book contains his recollections of his childhood with his father and brother.

recommend V

1 advise someone to do something

- adv+V strongly highly, strongly, unanimously We strongly recommend that you only run software with a good security track record.
- ▸ certainly certainly, definitely I would definitely recommend giving her a call.
- ▸ especially especially, particularly, specifically Helmets and gloves are particularly recommended for off-road riding.
- ▸ usually or always always, normally, often, usually We normally recommend a taxi, of which there is a never-ending supply at the front of the station.

2 say someone or something is good

- adv+V strongly heartily, highly, thoroughly, unreservedly, warmly, wholeheartedly 'The Fall of Paris' is an excellent book which I can thoroughly recommend.
- ▸ definitely certainly, definitely, particularly The lodge was great and I will certainly recommend it to anybody who is looking to stay there.
- ▸ willingly happily, unreservedly I would happily recommend you to anyone needing your services.
- ▸ personally personally I can personally recommend Southampton as a great place to study Geology.

recommendation N a suggestion about how to deal with something

- adj+N final/not final final, interim, preliminary, provisional The recommendations are provisional and may change after consultation.
- ▸ main key, main, principal A key recommendation was made that disabled people be involved throughout the development of the website.
- ▸ definite concrete, definite, detailed, formal, specific These are still immature technologies and few definite recommendations can be made.

- v+N produce a recommendation come up with INFORMAL, formulate, produce, put forward The paper has drawn out the factors that influence successful partnership working and has produced recommendations.
- ▸ make a recommendation issue, make, outline, present, propose, submit This wide ranging review made two key recommendations on regional data.
- ▸ discuss a recommendation consider The group will consider recommendations from the committee.
- ▸ accept or adopt a recommendation accept, adopt, agree, approve, endorse, follow, implement, ratify, welcome If you follow our recommendations, you can minimise the risks of security problems occurring.
- ▸ reject a recommendation ignore, overturn, reject The government rejects this recommendation but accepts that the Code of Practice needs amendment.

recompense N

payment for injury or loss caused

- adj+N fair adequate, fair, just, proper, reasonable It is an offence for an officer to receive anything beyond the proper recompense for doing his or her job.
- ▸ financial financial, monetary If you have been in a car accident that was not your fault, we can help you to get financial recompense.
- ▸ generous ample The hill-lover will discover ample recompense for the time spent in an exploration of these hills and dales.

- v+N ask for recompense claim, demand, seek There was one occasion when someone did try to seek recompense for advice.
- ▸ be given recompense be given, get, receive In return, authors and publishers will receive fair recompense for this secondary use of their material.

reconciliation N

a new friendly relationship after arguing or fighting

- adj+N final complete, eventual, final, ultimate Her vision is one of ultimate reconciliation between Ulster's two peoples.
- ▸ true genuine, true He stressed the need for tolerance, and for genuine national reconciliation.
- ▸ national national These recommendations were meant to promote national reconciliation.

- v+N try to get reconciliation attempt, seek We should seek reconciliation and a good-neighbor policy.

▸ achieve reconciliation achieve, bring about, effect Nothing more can be done to effect the reconciliation.
▸ encourage reconciliation encourage, facilitate, foster, promote Is it possible for outsiders to foster reconciliation and peacebuilding?

• and/or peace or forgiveness forgiveness, healing, mediation, peace, redemption, repentance In his life he worked for peace and reconciliation and unity.
▸ cooperation or justice cooperation, justice, reconstruction, unity We are committed to a non-violent struggle for peace, justice and reconciliation.

reconstruct V

build something again

• adv+V carefully carefully, meticulously, painstakingly Over the next two years, the building was painstakingly reconstructed.
▸ exactly accurately, exactly, faithfully In 1965 the Suspension Bridge was faithfully reconstructed by Buckinghamshire County Council.
▸ partly partially, partly, substantially It was possible to partially reconstruct the sequence of events.
▸ completely completely, entirely Her knee has had to be completely reconstructed.
▸ mentally imaginatively, mentally The pictures are inspired by fragments that are imaginatively reconstructed.

reconstruction N

the process of building something again

• adj+N physical 3D, full-scale, full-size, life-size, three-dimensional The 3D reconstruction includes the Loyn Bridge which is also an ancient monument.
▸ mental hypothetical, imaginative There are many different ways of using language: for example, description, analysis, storytelling and imaginative reconstruction.
▸ after a disaster post-conflict, post-flood, post-war A donor conference on post-flood reconstruction should be held in Maputo later in May.
▸ accurate accurate, faithful, meticulous The uncompressed images are a faithful reconstruction of the originals.
▸ types of reconstruction climatic, dramatic, forensic, historical, virtual The jury, wearing special goggles, were able to watch a virtual reconstruction of the operating theatre.

• v+N attempt or suggest reconstruction attempt, propose Some scholars have attempted a reconstruction of what the document might have contained.
▸ allow reconstruction allow, enable, facilitate, permit This data can enable a fairly accurate historical reconstruction of this formative time period.
▸ carry out reconstruction perform, undertake Work began in the C11th, additions and reconstructions being undertaken in subsequent centuries.

record N

1 information kept about something that has happened

• adj+N types of record academic, accounting, administrative, archaeological, bibliographic, criminal, historical, medical, official, patient The role of plant foods in prehistoric diets is seriously under-represented owing to its scarcity in the archaeological record. • Patients can apply for access to their medical records.
▸ in a particular form electronic, manual, photographic, written A written record of the bullying makes it easier to prove what has been going on.
▸ true or accurate accurate, correct, true The minutes were then agreed as a true and accurate record.
▸ complete or detailed complete, comprehensive, detailed, extensive, full Please see Charles and Susan's website for a much more detailed record of progress.
▸ permanent permanent A permanent record of this spectacular exhibition will appear as the next issue.
▸ secret confidential, secret When the judge asked him how he had gained access to confidential phone records, he refused to reply.

• v+N keep a record hold, keep, maintain, preserve, retain, store Keep an accurate record of past exam results.
▸ look at a record access, check, consult, examine, inspect, retrieve, review, search, view We will then contact you to make arrangements to access the records.
▸ make a record compile, create, place sth on, put sth on Before it is too late, I shall endeavour to place on permanent record all such notices of our town music.

You can say that someone goes on record when they say something that will be officially recorded: The library committee went on record more than once to express their satisfaction with his services.

▸ publish a record publish, release Thanks to the Freedom of Information Act, the security forces were forced to release secret records which revealed the use of torture.
▸ change a record amend, update These credit records are updated monthly to show whether you keep payments up to date.
▸ destroy a record delete, destroy The decision to reverse the policy and reinstate deleted records came in June.

2 the best achievement in an activity, especially sport

• adj+N at a particular level British, club, county, national, Olympic, world She improved the junior women's club record by 4 seconds.
▸ not beaten unbeaten That result was good news for Helen, who maintained her unbeaten record.

• v+N set a record establish, set His determination to set the record shines through.
▸ hold or keep a record hold, maintain, retain The family now holds world records in both Hardball and Softball.
▸ beat a record beat, break, smash INFORMAL We later found out he smashed his own record by 0.6 of a second.

3 the things someone has done, giving an idea of what they are like

• adj+N good enviable, excellent, good, impressive, outstanding, proven, strong Our graduates have an impressive record of obtaining work with a wide range of employers.

A record in this sense is often referred to as a track record: The ideal candidate has a proven track record in business-to-business sales.

- ▸ bad appalling, bad, poor The two candidates of the left have poor records of supporting industrial action.
- • n+N accident, attendance, employment, human rights, safety, voting Although Britain has one of the best road safety records in the world, ten people die on the roads every day.

record V

make a record of something that has happened

- • adv+V accurately accurately, carefully, correctly, properly Parents were unable to record accurately the quantities of food consumed by their children.
- ▸ regularly annually, daily, faithfully, regularly, routinely A lot of athletes keep a training diary, faithfully recording everything they do.
- ▸ in a particular form digitally, electronically, manually We visit your home and digitally record your possessions.
- ▸ in a particular way automatically, formally, officially, systematically Over the last four years, there have only been around 200 to 250 officially recorded strikes each year.

recount V

say what happened

- • adv+V with a particular feeling gleefully, happily, proudly He gleefully recounts every personal detail.
- ▸ causing a particular reaction movingly, vividly Local characters and customs are vividly recounted.
- ▸ briefly briefly Let me briefly recount Cartwright's view as I see it.
- • V+n story anecdote, legend, saga, story, tale A story-teller will recount traditional Indian tales, and there will be Indian music.
- ▸ event deed, encounter, episode, incident Later in the same letter, his friend recounted an episode of almost suicidal courage.
- ▸ adventure adventures, exploits In the classical texts, her mythological exploits are recounted.
- ▸ experience conversation, dream, experience, memory The Vice Chairman recounted this conversation to the Chief Executive of the Trust.

recover V

become healthy and strong again after illness or problems

- • adv+V quickly quickly, rapidly, speedily He recovered rapidly, and Edith decided to train as a nurse.
- ▸ slowly gradually, slowly He was slowly recovering from his wounds.
- ▸ completely completely, fully, properly, successfully All will change when I fully recover from my surgery. ◉ Despite initial problems in the banking sector, the economy recovered successfully from one of the worst recessions in the last 100 years.
- ▸ after a certain period eventually, never, soon It is important to note that most people eventually recover from the illness.
- ▸ partly enough, partially, sufficiently Four months after my stroke, I was recovered enough to take on voluntary work.
- • V+from from illness, injury, or medical treatment anaesthetic, illness, infection, injury, operation, stroke, surgery, trauma, wounds People recover from most minor illnesses by themselves and don't need to be seen by a doctor.
- ▸ from a difficult or bad experience crash, crisis, disaster, ordeal, recession, setback, shock, war Manufacturing industry has never fully recovered from the setbacks of recent years.

recovery N

the process of getting back to normal after illness or problems

- • adj+N quick fast, quick, rapid, speedy, swift We send all our best wishes for a speedy recovery.
- ▸ slow gradual, slow Emma's recovery was quite slow with intensive physiotherapy while still in hospital.
- ▸ in the economy economic, gradual, modest, partial, seasonal, slow, sustained Scotland's traditional textiles industry is making a remarkable and sustained recovery.
- ▸ unexplained miraculous, remarkable, spontaneous Maybe you have had a miraculous recovery, I don't know.
- ▸ complete complete, full When identified and treated early, more than half of the cases made a full recovery.
- • v+N help recovery aid, assist, drive, encourage, ensure, facilitate, promote, revive You can play your part in reducing the stress for the patient and aiding their recovery. ◉ It will be a tough challenge to revive economic activity and promote the recovery of agricultural production.
- ▸ make a recovery make He was expected to make a full recovery.
- ▸ make recovery quicker accelerate, hasten, speed What can be done to hasten recovery?
- ▸ prevent recovery or make it happen more slowly delay, hinder, limit, prevent The dry soils could delay the seasonal recovery in eastern England.
- ▸ make recovery as large as possible maximize Targeted measures could improve the situation and help maximize economic recovery.
- • N+from from illness, injury, or medical treatment addiction, anaesthesia, depression, illness, infection, injury, operation, stroke, surgery, wounds It is never too late to begin recovery from alcohol addiction.
- ▸ from a difficult or bad experience crisis, damage, failure, recession The ERM collapse saw a reduction in interest rates and the beginnings of a recovery from deep recession.

recruitment N

the process of finding people to join an organization

- • adj+N temporary/permanent permanent, temporary For specific examples of how we deliver temporary recruitment give us a call.
- ▸ fair or careful fair, rigorous, selective Lewisham puts great importance on ensuring that every stage in our recruitment process is fair.
- ▸ international international, overseas Since 1997, Britain has relied heavily on overseas recruitment.

▶ large-scale large-scale, mass Mass recruitment by the IRA began only after Bloody Sunday.

● n+N donor, graduate, postgraduate, staff, teacher, trainee, trustee, volunteer This month is volunteer recruitment month

● v+N increase recruitment aid, boost, encourage, improve, increase, stimulate The on-site gym is likely to boost recruitment at the hospital.
▶ manage recruitment co-ordinate, facilitate, oversee The Human Resources Department co-ordinates all recruitment.
▶ check recruitment monitor The University will continue to monitor its recruitment of students from ethnic minorities.

● N+n company agency, consultancy, firm Speak to recruitment consultancies to get their view on what the organisation is like.
▶ process procedure, process, strategy What is the recruitment process for a graduate applying for work with your organisation?
▶ problems crisis, difficulties First of all there is the recruitment crisis confronting the service at large.
▶ campaign campaign, drive We will shortly be launching a recruitment drive for more members.

recur V happen again

● adv+V often commonly, frequently, often, regularly The unfortunate result is that the back-ache regularly recurs.
▶ all the time constantly, continually Modest is the word that constantly recurs in tributes.

● n+V disease, pain, problem, symptom If symptoms recur within 2 months, consult a medical practitioner.

recurring ADJ happening again, especially several times

● ADJ+n pattern motif, pattern, phrase, refrain, theme The need for cooperation between specialists was a recurring theme.
▶ dream dream, nightmare The book begins with Nick's attempts at communicating the horrors of his recurring nightmare to his closest friend.
▶ problem or illness headache, illness, infection, problem Doctors advise regular examinations for patients with a history of recurring ear infections.

recycle V change waste materials so that they can be used again

● adv+V safely or carefully economically, efficiently, responsibly, safely Make sure you recycle responsibly.
▶ many times continuously, endlessly, infinitely, repeatedly Aluminium cans can be recycled infinitely.

● and/or use again reclaim, recover, refurbish, repair, reprocess, reuse Much of the waste that we produce can be reused or recycled.
▶ get rid of discard, dispose of You can use our household waste and recycling sites to recycle and dispose of household rubbish.

recycling N
the process of changing waste materials to use again

● n+N from a place doorstep, household, kerbside In 2002 just over half of households had a doorstep recycling service.
▶ of a product or material aluminium, cardboard, cartridge, glass, plastic, rainwater, waste A cardboard recycling scheme is being considered for the future.

● v+N increase recycling boost, expand, improve, increase, maximize Ultimately, the goal is to reduce waste production and to maximize recycling and reuse.
▶ encourage recycling encourage, facilitate, promote We are delighted to help the Council to promote its recycling, reuse and composting initiatives.
▶ introduce recycling introduce Paper was being recycled as early as 1690, while New York introduced metal recycling in 1776.

red ADJ
of the same colour as blood

● adj+ADJ bright bright, brilliant, fiery, vibrant, vivid Your minimum requirements should be a front light with distinct beam and a bright red rear light.
▶ light light, pale The prevalent colouring of the decorations was grey blue, lemon yellow and pale red.
▶ dark dark, deep, dull, dusky, rich She wore a tiara and veil in her hair and carried a bouquet of deep red roses.
▶ types of red carmine, cherry, crimson, pinkish, poppy, purplish, ruby, rust, scarlet As castings are removed from the moulds, they are often still glowing cherry red with heat.

● v+ADJ become red become, flush, glow, turn As darkness fell, the sky glowed red from the fires which were still raging.
▶ make something red colour sth, dye sth, paint sth, stain sth The approximate extent of the estate is coloured red on the map below.

reduce V
make something less in size, amount etc

● adv+V greatly considerably, greatly, markedly, much, seriously, significantly, substantially With so many parents both working, time with their children has been greatly reduced.
▶ very greatly dramatically, drastically, massively, radically, severely, sharply, vastly On Sundays and public holidays, schedules are drastically reduced.
▶ gradually gradually, progressively, steadily In Britain the monarch's absolute power has been gradually reduced over time.
▶ slightly slightly A Zip file of the document has been created to slightly reduce the file size for downloading.

reduction N
the process or result of making something smaller

● adj+N large considerable, marked, significant, substantial The very significant reduction in grants was not thought through.

- very large dramatic, drastic, huge, massive, sharp We should like to see drastic reduction in rates of perinatal and infant death.
- small modest, slight The agreement also provides for a very slight reduction in annual hours.
- gradual gradual, progressive, steady, sustained We must therefore plan today for a gradual reduction of our bases in the Far East.
- quick rapid A rapid reduction can lead to a physical withdrawal syndrome in up to 40 per cent of cases.
- overall overall The overall reduction in car mileage travelled was 17 per cent.

• n+N of a social problem crime, debt, poverty, traffic This section provides residents with a wealth of information about community safety and crime reduction.
- of a problem people have harm, risk, stress Others had worked specifically testing the impact of the arts on stress reduction.
- of a substance carbon, emission, greenhouse gas, pollution, waste Rewarding carbon reduction is vital to enable the sensible investment and policy decisions we need.

• v+N suggest or announce a reduction announce, negotiate, propose, recommend The European Commission's reaction was to propose the most drastic reductions we have yet seen.
- cause or make a reduction achieve, bring about, cause, deliver, effect, make, secure How has this reduction been achieved?
- experience a reduction experience, face The Group experienced a significant reduction in output without a comparable reduction in energy use.
- show a reduction demonstrate, show They were able to demonstrate an 84 per cent reduction in hospital admissions from those who attended the Project.

• N+in rate or severity frequency, incidence, number, prevalence, rate, severity, size The new directives will see a reduction in the number of different polymers used.
- money paid or received cost, duty, expenditure, fee, funding, income, price, spending, tax The company has been able to maximize the efficiency of its workforce and make significant reductions in expenditure.
- death casualty, fatality, mortality The largest reduction in mortality was seen in patients with progressive heart failure.

redundancy N
a situation where a worker is no longer needed

• adj+N compulsory/voluntary compulsory, enforced, planned, voluntary Managers are under instructions to avoid compulsory redundancies wherever possible.
- large-scale collective, large-scale, mass, massive, widespread Large-scale redundancies and industrial action affected many workers.
- coming soon imminent, impending, inevitable The effect of an impending redundancy on an individual may be significant.
- possible potential, threatened The employees sought advice about their potential redundancy.
- unfair unfair Grievances dealt with include unfair dismissal, unfair redundancy, harassment and discrimination.

• v+N plan or suggest redundancies plan, propose, threaten Representatives said they were horrified by the level of redundancies proposed.
- expect redundancy be faced with, be threatened by, be threatened with, expect, face Are you facing redundancy, early retirement, or just looking for a change?
- accept redundancy accept They want the dockers to accept compulsory redundancies.

redundant ADJ
no longer needed

• adv+ADJ mainly or partly largely, partially, pretty INFORMAL, somewhat, virtually Child fares are largely redundant now but are available for those children who don't have a Photocard.
- completely completely, effectively, entirely, totally, utterly Is the notion of style as a sign of personal expression completely redundant?
- increasingly increasingly The traditional model is becoming increasingly redundant.

• v+ADJ make something redundant declare sth, render sth The church was declared redundant in the early 1970s, and has been closed ever since.
- be or seem redundant be, become, seem Reviewing the film itself seems pretty redundant.

reference N
1 a mention of someone or something

• adj+N clear direct, explicit, particular, specific Research the course thoroughly so you can make specific reference to areas which interest you.
- not clear oblique, obscure, vague, veiled They laugh at the jokes and they pick up on obscure references too.
- detailed or numerous constant, detailed, frequent, numerous, repeated There were of course numerous references to Nottingham in the text.
- short or infrequent brief, occasional, passing Brief references are made to medication review.
- types of reference biblical, cultural, historical, literary, visual I think there are a lot of cultural references here which don't translate well.

• v+N contain a reference contain, include Paragraphs 8.3 and 8.13 contain additional references to the company.
- make a reference make The Government's latest evidence made no explicit reference to procurement costs.

2 a statement giving information about you, used when you are applying for a job

• adj+N good excellent, glowing, good, satisfactory All appointments are subject to the receipt of satisfactory references.
- types of reference academic, character You need to include two academic references and copies of your qualifying certificates.

• v+N ask for a reference request, require The HR Department will normally request references prior to interview.
- provide a reference provide, supply Can you provide references?

▸ give someone a reference give sb, write The Personal Supervisor would normally be expected to write a reference for a student if requested to do so.
▸ check a reference check, follow up, obtain, take up All our staff are checked through the Criminal Record Bureau and all references are followed up.

3 a mention in writing of a writer or piece of work

• adj+N bibliographic, bibliographical, selected, useful From the beginning you should ensure you record complete bibliographical references.

• v+N give references cite, give, include, list, quote, supply Where multiple references are cited, they should be in numerical order irrespective of chronology.
▸ contain references contain Each section is illustrated by examples and contains references for further information.

referendum N an opportunity for people to vote on one subject

• adj+N types of referendum binding, constitutional, consultative, national, nationwide, presidential The result of the referendum is not legally binding.
▸ coming soon forthcoming, upcoming The money will support the forthcoming constitutional referendum.

• v+N have a referendum call, conduct, have, hold, organize At least nine countries are committed to holding a referendum on the new treaty.
▸ want a referendum call for, demand, propose, want We demand a referendum on this fundamental shift in the way we are governed.
▸ win/lose a referendum lose, win There is little likelihood that he can win a referendum on giving up the pound.

refer to PHR VB

send someone or something to another person or place

• V+n a question enquiry, query Please do not refer routine enquiries or non-urgent items to the Emergency Service.
▸ a problem or case case, complaint, dispute, matter, merger Subsequently, Britain referred the dispute to the League of Nations.
▸ a person caller, client, enquirer, journalist, offender, patient, reader The callers are referred to the appropriate organisation for support.

refine V

improve something by making small changes

• adv+V all the time constantly, continually, continuously This technology was developed in-house and is continuously refined.
▸ gradually gradually, progressively These first establish broad outlines of the embryo body plan, which are progressively refined as the embryo develops.

• V+n method methodology, technique One enters into research not only to gain credentials but to refine methodology and present findings.
▸ theory concept, criteria, definition, estimate, hypothesis, model, parameters, specification As the web technology spread, his initial specifications were refined.
▸ skill skills, understanding She chose to refine her translation skills by taking a post-graduate diploma in Technical and Specialised Translation.

reflect V

show the existence or nature of something

• adv+V correctly accurately, correctly, exactly, faithfully, properly, truly I did not think the newspaper article accurately reflected my views.
▸ completely certainly, fully, obviously, perfectly Improvements in the quality of teaching are fully reflected in pupils' performance.
▸ more or less adequately, broadly, largely, partially, partly, probably These three projects broadly reflect the areas of research central to the company.
▸ necessarily necessarily The article does not necessarily reflect the views of the government.

• V+n change, commitment, concern, difference, diversity, fact, importance, interest, need, opinion, priority, reality, trend, view The very low figure reflects the fact that people are spending less on eating out.

reflection N

1 careful thought about something

• adj+N calm mature, quiet, sober, sombre, thoughtful On sober reflection, it would appear that this element of the design was a mistake.*
▸ types of reflection critical, personal, philosophical, prayerful, theological The candidate needs to be able to demonstrate a high level of critical reflection.

• v+N cause reflection encourage, prompt, provoke, stimulate Each section is followed by questions to prompt reflection and suggestions for further reading.
▸ help reflection aid, facilitate Some questions are designed to aid reflection on past experiences.

• N+v reveal, show, suggest Yet a moment's reflection reveals that this too is unlikely.

2 something that clearly shows something

• adj+N accurate accurate, clear, fair, true The eventual 6–2 scoreline provides a fair reflection of the balance of play.
▸ causing regret poor, sad This is a sad reflection on our legal system.
▸ not accurate distorted The political instability at the top is a distorted reflection of the general instability in society.

reform N

a change that is intended to improve a system or correct faults

• adj+N making major changes far-reaching, fundamental, radical, sweeping, wide-ranging The system dated back to the Second World War and needed radical reform.
▸ types of reform agricultural, constitutional, democratic, economic, educational, electoral, institutional, judicial, legislative, liturgical, monetary, parliamentary, penal, regulatory, social The conquest of inflation is the most visible sign of economic reform.

- n+N curriculum, immigration, justice, law, NHS, pension, police, prison, tax, voting, welfare The Democratic National Platform in 2000 criticised the Republicans' proposed tax reform.
- v+N support reform advocate, back, embrace, favour, propose Our parliamentary party will back reforms that help people find work.
- ▸ make reform happen announce, bring about, carry out, carry through, drive through, effect, enact, implement, initiate, introduce, push through, undertake We have recently introduced the largest reforms of NHS dentistry in over 50 years.
- N+n act, agenda, bill, effort, initiative, legislation, measure, movement, package, process, programme, proposal Under the reform package, our farmers will be required to compete globally with foreign farmers.

reform V

improve a situation by correcting bad things

- adv+V completely, drastically, fundamentally, radically, totally The Government had promised to radically reform public services.

refreshing ADJ

welcome because of being different or exciting

- adv+ADJ delightfully, surprisingly, thoroughly, truly, wonderfully It was wonderfully refreshing to walk in the sand and to feel the cool sea washing over our feet.
- ADJ+n alternative, antidote, candour, change, honesty, simplicity, take His inventive humour provides a refreshing take on the insanity of modern life.

refuge N

protection from dangerous or unpleasant things

- v+N give someone refuge afford, give, grant, offer, provide The room gave refuge from the pressures of school life.
- ▸ get refuge find, take More than 33,000 people took refuge in storm shelters across the state.
- ▸ try to find refuge seek He agrees to shelter his wife's cousins who are seeking refuge in New York as illegal immigrants.
- and/or asylum, safety, sanctuary, shelter The government aims to recognise the rights of those seeking asylum, refuge and a better life.

refugee N

a person who leaves their country because of danger

- v+N send refugees away deport, disperse, evacuate, expel, force out, relocate, repatriate, return It is the policy of the government to repatriate the refugees in a gradual manner.
- ▸ give refugees a place to live house, resettle, shelter Authorities have begun resettling refugees in cities across the country.
- ▸ put refugees in prison detain The refugees were detained at the police station because their documents were not in order.
- N+v come to a place arrive in, enter, flood into, flow into, pour into, settle in, stream into More than 3,000 Kosovo refugees streamed into Albania.
- ▸ leave a place depart, escape, flee More than 100,000 refugees have fled to Thailand.
- N+n place or group camp, community, convoy, hostel, population Kenya also has a refugee population of 180,000, mainly from the Sudan and Somalia.
- ▸ organization helping refugees agency, organization He found out through the UN refugee agency that resettlement to Chile was an option.
- ▸ movement of refugess exodus, influx It was the scene of a massive refugee exodus following an uprising that was crushed in 1991.
- ▸ legal position status The US soldier attempted to claim refugee status in Canada.
- ▸ problem crisis The EU donated US$633,500 in emergency aid to help deal with the Kosovo refugee crisis in Albania.

refund N

money you paid that you get back

- adj+N complete, due, full, immediate, partial If a refund is due, we will credit your credit card within twenty four hours. ❁ If this is not satisfactory to you, you will be given a full refund.
- v+N ask for a refund apply for, ask for, claim, demand, request You may be able to claim a refund for travel costs to the hospital.
- ▸ get a refund get, obtain, receive How can I obtain a refund for faulty goods bought from a market trader?
- ▸ give sb a refund arrange, give, grant, issue, offer, process We will issue a full refund of the price you paid for the item, and the return postage.

refusal N

the act of refusing to do something

- adj+N firm adamant, outright, point-blank, resolute, steadfast Their stance is characterised by an almost point-blank refusal to consider other points of view.
- ▸ repeated continued, persistent, repeated Shell's repeated refusal to deal with these issues shows the need for Government intervention.
- ▸ unfair obstinate, stubborn, unreasonable, wilful The only obstacle to a totally harmonious society is the stubborn refusal of its inhabitants to embrace the virtues of the market.
- v+N get a refusal meet with So far our requests have met with a refusal.
- ▸ try to change a refusal appeal, appeal against, challenge If an applicant wishes to challenge a refusal, he or she should in the first instance apply to the department concerned.
- ▸ change a refusal override, overturn, quash Recently, another inspector overturned a refusal of planning permission for a car showroom.

refuse V

say you will not give, accept or do something

- adv+V firmly absolutely, adamantly, bluntly, categorically, flatly, outright, point-blank, resolutely, simply, steadfastly They flatly refused to increase their pay offer any further.

▸ unfairly obstinately, stubbornly, unfairly, unreasonably, wilfully, wrongfully, wrongly The organization wilfully refused to believe what was clearly true.
▸ several times consistently, continually, persistently, repeatedly They have consistently refused to listen to students' concerns over the library closure plans.

• V+n permission in general consent, leave, permission They were refused leave to appeal to the House of Lords.
▸ permission to enter a place admission, admittance, entry He has received an apology from the US government after he was refused entry to the country.
▸ something that someone asks for application, bail, licence, parole, registration, request, visa More than 500 drivers were refused licences last year.
▸ something that someone offers invitation, mediation, offer, treatment Joyce refuses his invitation to dinner.

regain V

get something again that you lost

• adv+V completely completely, fully It may be some time before he fully regains the strength he has lost.
▸ quickly immediately, quickly, rapidly John rapidly regained his mental faculties and his physical health improved dramatically.
▸ slowly eventually, finally, gradually, slowly Liberating forces are gradually regaining control of parts of the occupied territory.

• V+n behaviour or mental state composure, confidence, consciousness, credibility, dignity, fitness, popularity, sanity, self-confidence, self-respect, strength This setback rocked the home side and they struggled to regain their composure for at least twenty minutes.
▸ possession control, crown, independence, lead, possession, sovereignty, throne Portugal had regained its independence from Spain the previous year.

regard V

consider someone or something in a particular way

• adv+V with a good opinion favourably, highly, well Lee, a highly regarded stand-up comedian, speaks with measured, deadpan precision.
▸ by most or all people commonly, generally, normally, universally, usually, widely Stars from the earliest days of British rock 'n' roll gathered at the spot widely regarded as its birthplace.
▸ which is fair or correct justly, rightly The clinic is quite rightly regarded throughout Europe as the most progressive of its kind.
▸ for a long time long, traditionally Mickelson was long regarded as the best modern-day player not to win a major tournament.

• V+with affection, awe, caution, contempt, disdain, favour, horror, hostility, indifference, respect, scepticism, suspicion This adversarial style of debate is regarded with disdain by New Labour women.

regard N

1 attention or care given to something or someone

• adj+N not enough insufficient, little, scant, slight It has become increasingly evident that the councils and their officials have scant regard for local people's welfare.
▸ which the situation deserves due, positive, proper, sufficient Due regard must be paid to such policies, and authorities must not appoint unqualified staff.
▸ special particular, special Landscape policies for the coast also need to pay particular regard to how development is viewed from the sea and along the coastline.

• v+N demonstrate, give, have, pay, show Hospitals need an approach that pays regard to patients' wishes.

2 respect and admiration for someone or something

• adj+N high, mutual, utmost It was characteristic of Carr that this did not alter his high regard for Orwell.

• v+N demonstrate, have, hold sb/sth in, show Today, many years after the end of the Second World War, Winston Churchill is still held in high regard.

regime N

1 a government, especially a strict or unfair one

• adj+N authoritarian, brutal, corrupt, dictatorial, fascist, oppressive, repressive, strict, totalitarian, tyrannical These companies also sell arms to repressive regimes.

• v+N get rid of a regime change, depose, destabilize, oust, overthrow, topple The US determined to topple the Iraqi regime.
▸ make a regime stronger bolster, strengthen Oil companies were accused of bolstering a repressive military regime.
▸ make a regime less strict liberalize, modernize, reform He needed to clear the baggage of Stalin as a way of modernising the regime.
▸ establish a regime establish, set up When the communist regime was established in 1940, art became subordinate to politics.
▸ criticize a regime challenge, criticize, discredit, oppose The delegates did not fear to criticize the Bolshevik regime and present the demands of the workers.

• N+v stop existing collapse, crumble, fail, fall The Shah of Iran's westernised regime had collapsed and given way to a theocratic Islamic state.
▸ treat people badly oppress, persecute The majority of Iraq's population are Shi'ite Muslims, but the Sunni Muslim regime has brutally oppressed them.

• N+n change, shift The film documents the way in which female citizens of Afghanistan were positively affected by the regime change.

2 a system of rules controlling something

• adj+N fiscal, regulatory We need a regulatory regime which takes a direct interest in public services.

• n+N enforcement, inspection, licensing, tax, testing, verification In the 1970s, the burden of UK taxation drove her to Ireland which had a more favourable tax regime.

• v+N make a regime exist establish, implement, impose, institute, introduce We are now over a year into the new family-friendly regime introduced by the Government.

▸ make a regime simpler simplify We should be simplifying the tax regime and providing incentives for people to save.

region N

a large area with particular politics, geography, or culture

- adj+N arid, coastal, mountainous, polar, remote, temperate, tropical The coastal regions of east Malaysia have some of the best diving sites in the world.
- n+N border, desert, frontier, highland, mountain Huge amounts of solar energy fall on desert regions.

register V

1 show your feelings about something

- V+n disgust, interest Her eyes registered a sudden interest in this unusual visitor.

2 make your opinion known publicly or officially

- adv+V formally, officially There will be a period when members of the public get the chance to formally register their objections to the proposed rail link.
- V+n complaint, intention, objection, opposition, protest, vote A boycott of imported products is an effective way of registering a protest about the policies of the government concerned.

register N

an official list or record of something

- adj+N types of register baptismal, burial, electoral, episcopal, parochial, statutory We need to ensure that everyone who has the right to vote is on the electoral register.

▸ applying to a whole country or organization central, national The government plans to introduce a new national register of competent contractors.

- v+N have a register compile, hold, keep, maintain The University is required to maintain a register of equipment assets.

▸ set up a register create, establish The Agency has established a register of how many of its staff speak Welsh.

▸ look at a register access, check, consult, inspect, search, view I took a trip to Northampton Record Office to consult the original parish registers.

▸ change a register amend, edit, update He instructed the elections department to update its register of eligible voters.

- v+from+N take someone or something off a register delete, erase, remove, strike He was guilty of breaching the rules and was erased from the medical register.
- v+in+N enter, hold, include, keep, list, mention, note, place, record When he was christened at twelve days old, he was mistakenly entered in the register as a girl.
- v+on+N be on a register appear, go, remain, stay 'Member' means any person whose name appears on the register.

▸ put someone or something on a register enter, hold, include, list, place, put, record Their names are placed on the Church register.

registration N

the process of recording information on an official list

- v+N end the registration of someone or something block, cancel, invalidate, suspend, terminate, withdraw There was no appearance from the couple and in their absence a decision was made to cancel the registration.

▸ register someone or something complete, confirm, effect, grant, process, renew Follow the on-screen instructions to complete your registration.

- N+n document card, certificate, document, form Simply click on the 'Sign In' button and complete the registration form.

▸ process procedure, process, scheme The details will not be passed to any party not involved in the registration procedure.

▸ number, symbol, or other detail code, detail, mark, number, status How do I enter my registration code?

regret V feel sorry or sad that something has happened

- adv+V bitterly, deeply, greatly, much, profoundly, seriously, sincerely, truly We deeply regret any inconvenience that this possible compromise may cause you.
- V+infinitive announce, inform, report, say The conference has proved very popular, and we regret to inform you that all available spaces have now been taken.

regret N

sadness about something that has happened

- adj+N considerable, deep, great, much, profound, sincere All casualties suffered by the UK Armed Forces are a source of profound regret.
- v+N show regret express, show, voice Israel's leaders had voiced their deep regret for the civilian deaths and injuries.

▸ feel regret feel, harbour, have Reflecting on his previous career, it is clear that he harbours regrets.

- n+of+N small amount of regret hint, pang, sense, tinge, twinge I felt a slight pang of regret that I wouldn't be visting them this summer.

▸ feeling or expression of regret expression, feeling, sense Expressions of regret started to pour in after his death.

▸ matter of regret matter It is a matter of regret that the Government refuses to do the right thing.

▸ cause of regret cause, source She said it was a source of great regret that nine firefighters had lost their lives as a result of the explosion.

- and/or apology, bitterness, disappointment, grief, guilt, longing, remorse, resentment, sadness, shame, sorrow, sympathy Holding onto regrets and bitterness will only keep your life from moving forward.

regrettable ADJ making you feel sad or sorry

- adv+ADJ deeply, extremely, highly, particularly, profoundly, very The Minister said any job losses would be 'deeply regrettable'.
- ADJ+n accident, consequence, decision, delay, fact, incident, mistake, omission, situation The bombing of the Chinese Embassy was a deeply regrettable mistake.

regulate V control an activity, process, or industry

- adv+V very well carefully, closely, heavily, highly, strictly, tightly These 'adult' channels are much more tightly regulated here than in other parts of Europe.
- ▸ not very well minimally, poorly, weakly Meals in many schools are poorly regulated and of low nutritional value.

regulation N official rules controlling how things are done

- adj+N strict strict, stringent, tight, tough These properties have to comply with stringent legal regulations regarding fire safety and facilities supplied.
- ▸ too strict burdensome, excessive, restrictive, unnecessary They promised not to impose burdensome regulations on business.
- ▸ types of regulation economic, environmental, federal, financial, legal, statutory Air France has been gradually phasing out its Boeing 747–200Fs to comply with environmental regulations.
- ▸ that must be obeyed binding, disciplinary, prescriptive The UK government is pushing for voluntary controls rather than binding regulations on business.
- v+N make regulations exist adopt, enact, introduce, issue, lay down Members must accept the will of the majority where specific regulations are not laid down.
- ▸ fail to obey regulations breach, contravene, flout, infringe, violate The employee has a right of appeal if the employer has breached the regulations.
- ▸ make people obey regulations enforce, implement, impose These officers are fully trained to deal with public order situations and enforce traffic regulations.
- ▸ change regulations in some way amend, harmonize, revise, simplify, tighten A revised proposal from the Netherlands did little to tighten regulations.
- ▸ obey regulations adhere to, comply with, conform to, satisfy The prospective employer must make a formal application, which must satisfy the appropriate regulations.
- N+v state something define, mean, prescribe, state, stipulate EU regulations state that researchers must assess the pain that an animal may feel during an experiment.
- ▸ not allow something outlaw, prohibit, restrict The regulations outlaw discrimination on grounds of (among other things) a philosophical belief.
- ▸ allow something or make something necessary allow, impose, permit, require Mexican regulations permit the owner of an automobile to import it into Mexico for a period of six months.
- ▸ refer to something or control something affect, apply, concern, cover, govern, pertain, regard, relate This review will look at the regulations governing those activities.

reign N
the period when a king or queen rules

- adj+N bringing wars or problems bloody, disastrous, inglorious, troubled, turbulent It was a very troubled reign, and insurrections took place in this country against Roman rule.
- ▸ bringing peace or comfort glorious, illustrious, peaceful, prosperous Louis Philippe's reign was prosperous but uneventful, as his ministers pursued cautious policies.

reinforce V make an idea, belief, or feeling stronger

- adv+V very much powerfully, strongly This image was powerfully reinforced by the popular television series entitled Roots by Alex Hailey.
- ▸ often constantly, continually, continuously The habit of making firm decisions continuously reinforces the sense of personal growth.
- V+n idea or belief belief, commitment, notion, prejudice, stereotype, tendency, view Your answer should avoid stereotyping or reinforcing prejudices.
- ▸ feeling feeling, impression, message, perception, suspicion Lambert's illustrations reinforce the impression of a lazy afternoon in summer.

reject V not accept something

- adv+V firmly categorically, comprehensively, decisively, emphatically, explicitly, firmly, flatly, outright, overwhelmingly, roundly, strongly, summarily, totally, unanimously, unequivocally, utterly, vehemently In many cases the deportees' claims have been rejected outright as 'manifestly unfounded'.
- ▸ angrily angrily, contemptuously, indignantly, scornfully The King contemptuously rejects the Parliamentary proposals.
- V+n statement or opinion accusation, allegation, argument, assertion, belief, claim, contention, hypothesis, idea, notion, proposition, suggestion We also reject the shallow notion that those who carry out terrorist attacks are motivated by evil.
- ▸ suggestion bid, invitation, offer, proposal, proposition, suggestion He was the only man able to persuade shareholders to reject the bid from Mr Green.
- ▸ attempt attempt The UK must reject any attempt to undermine environmental legislation.
- ▸ request application, call, demand, plea, request Nato rejects call to cut nuclear arms.

rejection N a refusal to accept something or someone

- adj+N decisive, explicit, outright, overwhelming, utter, wholesale Representatives voted for outright rejection of the management's proposals.

- v+N advise people to reject something recommend, urge Many in the Church are urging the rejection of the arguments of the extremists.
- ▸ when rejection is possible fear, risk Patients with this condition commonly fear social rejection.
- ▸ experience rejection cope with, deal with, endure, experience, suffer Inevitably, your paper may be rejected – many are, and all academics have suffered rejection at some time.

relapse N

a return to illness or another bad state

- v+N cause a relapse cause, precipitate, trigger Even moving house can precipitate a relapse in some people.
- ▸ experience a relapse experience, suffer Two patients experienced a relapse.
- ▸ prevent a relapse avoid, prevent Longer-term preventive therapy aims to prevent relapses.

relate V

be about something, or be connected to something

- adv+V only or mainly especially, exclusively, mainly, mostly, particularly, primarily, principally, solely, specifically This section relates solely to unincorporated charities.
- ▸ closely clearly, closely, directly, strongly Scientists are interested in the viscoelasticity of cells, since it directly relates to their biological functioning.
- ▸ not closely loosely I suspected that the first and second halves might only loosely relate to each other.
- n+V subject discipline, issue, issue, matter, theme, topic This web page will include features and articles on a wide range of topics relating to Latin and Roman culture.
- ▸ question or action complaint, enquiry, query, question There were complaints relating to defective goods and faulty installation.
- ▸ law or rule enactment, law, legislation, provision, regulation, rule This legislation relates to offshore and non-resident business.
- ▸ document article, correspondence, data, document, documentation, material, paper, record, statistic The police can require a mobile-phone operator to provide traffic data relating to a suspect's use of a mobile phone.
- ▸ argument dispute Our lawyers are able to advise on disputes relating to website and partnering agreements.
- ▸ crime offence The ambulance driver was subsequently convicted for a driving offence relating to the accident.

related ADJ

1 connected

- adv+ADJ closely, directly The two matters are not directly related.
- ADJ+n subject discipline, issue, item, matter, subject, topic We deal only with divorce and related issues.
- ▸ document article, document, documentation, link, material, site, websites The last part of each page consists of a number of related links to other information held on the web site, or links to external resources.

2 belonging to the same family

- adv+ADJ closely, distantly Members within each superfamily are distantly related to each other.

relation N

1 the relationship between countries, people, or organizations [always plural]

- adj+N types of relations diplomatic, industrial Blair had transformed Labour's approach to industrial relations.
- ▸ international bilateral, foreign, international, transatlantic Bilateral relations between Saudi Arabia and Iran deteriorated to the point of confrontation.
- ▸ friendly friendly, harmonious The new approach of the Natural Law Party simultaneously strengthens sovereignty while promoting constructive and harmonious relations with all European nations.
- ▸ getting worse deteriorating, worsening The expulsion of two diplomats added to the worsening relations between the two countries.
- v+N improve relations cement, improve, promote, strengthen This event aims to cement relations between Scotland and Catalunya.
- ▸ create relations establish, forge, foster They were attempting to forge better relations between the trade unions and employers.
- ▸ make relations worse damage, sour, strain, worsen But his rhetoric also soured traditional relations with the United States.
- ▸ end relations sever Iraq was likely to sever all relations with Australia.
- ▸ make relations good again normalize, re-establish, restore, resume We are exploring ways to normalize relations with China.
- ▸ change relations alter, transform Some sociologists believe that the purpose of learning is to transform social relations.

2 a connection between people or things

- adj+N types of relation causal, logical, semantic, spatial Our theoretical framework describes how visual and textual information combine in terms of semantic relations between images and texts.
- ▸ close close The close relation of urology and transplant surgery means that some of the staff work in both departments.

relationship N

1 the way in which things are connected

- adj+N causal, close, complex, direct, strong, symbiotic There is often a symbiotic relationship between the data and the hardware/software system that provides access to it.
- v+N consider a relationship examine, explore, investigate He was keen to explore the relationship between literature and theology.
- ▸ describe a relationship clarify, define, describe, understand This formal document clarifies the relationship between the Council and community and voluntary sectors.

2 people's behaviour towards each other

- adj+N close, intimate, lasting, long-standing, loving, personal, sexual, stable We're beginning a process of continuous involvement in projects to build long-lasting relationships between European and Brazilian partners.

- v+N create a relationship build, develop, establish, forge, form, foster By forging strong relationships with private landowners and environmental organisations, the company has a unique take on the island.
- ▸ make a relationship better cement, deepen, improve, repair, strengthen Music is very important to most E4 viewers and we hope this new programming will help strengthen our relationship with our existing audience as well as attract a new one.
- ▸ make a relationship worse damage, ruin, strain, undermine An atmosphere of suspicion can ruin relationships and undermine confidence.

relative ADJ

having a particular quality when compared with something

- ADJ+n positive aspect abundance, calm, importance, merit, stability, strength There was a discussion on the relative merits of different logos.
- ▸ negative aspect decline, deprivation, isolation, lack, obscurity, paucity, poverty, risk The Council's grants programme is now more targeted at socially excluded groups and areas of relative deprivation.

relative N

a member of your family

- adj+N close, dead, deceased, dependent, distant, elderly, living, long-lost, near The wedding party was made up of distant relatives and slight acquaintances.
- and/or friend, neighbour Also thank you to the many friends and relatives who attended her funeral.

relax V

1 rest and allow yourself to become calm

- adv+V just just, simply You can sit outside to eat or just relax and admire the spectacular view.
- ▸ completely completely, totally She finds it difficult to 'switch off' and completely relax.
- ▸ slightly a bit, a little, slightly Once we knew we weren't going to be late, we relaxed a bit.
- ▸ in a way that can be seen visibly With each puff on her cigarette she visibly relaxed.
- v+to+V begin to, help sb (to), learn to, make sb, need to, start to, try to Playing quiet, calming music can prove soothing and help you to relax. • The audience are already on your side so try to relax.
- and/or chat, enjoy sth, rest, sit, unwind, watch sth This is the ideal place to relax and unwind after a busy day.

2 make less strict

- V+n law or rule constraint, control, law, regulation, requirement, restriction, rule We have now relaxed our restrictions on imports from Europe.
- ▸ way of thinking about something approach, attitude, policy, stance For a time the government relaxed its stance on the use of soft drugs.

relaxed ADJ

calm, informal, and comfortable

- adv+ADJ very or completely completely, totally, very, wonderfully The day's travelling was very relaxed, and the scenery was absolutely spectacular throughout.
- ▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, relatively There is a fairly relaxed but disciplined attitude towards training which makes it very enjoyable to learn.
- ▸ in a pleasant way pleasantly Most patients feel pleasantly relaxed after treatment and there are no side-effects.
- ADJ+n mood or feeling in person or a place ambience, atmosphere, environment, feel, feeling, mood, setting, surroundings The Guildford campus offers a friendly and relaxed atmosphere.
- ▸ way of doing or thinking about something approach, attitude, manner, style The residential nature of the school allows a chance to discuss the issues raised in a relaxed manner.
- v+ADJ appear, be, feel, keep sb, look, seem She appeared completely relaxed and seemed to be enjoying herself. • It's important to keep everybody relaxed and happy.

relay V

communicate information to someone; receive and send a broadcast signal

- V+n footage, image, information, instructions, mail, message, news, signal, story There were several large screens relaying images of the festivities from around the world. • The results are confidential and no information is relayed to third parties.

release V

make information or documents, or a film, CD, software etc, available

- adv+V recently newly, recently That's the conclusion to be drawn from recently released statistics.
- ▸ officially or publicly officially, publicly Details of the proposed changes have yet to be officially released.
- ▸ in the past originally, previously This remastered version was originally released in 1982.
- V+n information details, document, figures, information, report, statement, statistics Applications are up by nearly 5.8 per cent on last year, according to new figures released today.
- ▸ film, CD, software etc album, CD, DVD, edition, film, movie, recording, single, software, song, track, update, version The young band is about to release its debut album. • New software updates for the phone will be released soon.

release N

1 the act of letting someone leave

- adj+N early, immediate, imminent The US President demanded the immediate release of the 39 sailors.
- v+N demand, negotiate, secure The government of France has sent diplomatic envoys to try to secure the release of the two men.

2 the act of making information or documents, or a film, CD, software etc, available

- adj+N forthcoming, future, latest, original, previous, upcoming Fans are looking forward eagerly to the forthcoming release of the band's new album.
- n+N news, press Click here to link to the full press release.
- v+N anticipate, authorize, await, delay, postpone, prevent There are safeguards to prevent the unauthorized release of personal information.

relevance N

the quality of being directly connected with and important to something else

- adj+N specific particular, special, specific I now turn to a subject which is of particular relevance to Northern Ireland, namely veterinary education.
- ▸ direct direct, immediate Much of the report will be of direct relevance to parents.
- ▸ relating to real or modern situations contemporary, practical We should not think that his work is of no contemporary relevance just because he got his predictions wrong.
- ▸ great or greater considerable, great, obvious, wider The researchers conclude that the findings of this work have wider relevance.
- ▸ limited limited, little Much of the course was of limited relevance to some of the participants.
- ▸ continuing continued, continuing Reading these poems demonstrates the continued relevance of Classics in the modern world.
- ▸ possible possible, potential Other general topics of potential relevance to prospective travellers are covered very briefly here.
- ▸ when something is probably not relevant dubious, marginal, questionable Much of the material on such websites may be of quesionable relevance.

- v+N have relevance be of, have, retain Chapters 1 and 11 are of particular relevance to this case.
- ▸ not have relevance lack, lose Things that once seemed so important to me have begun to lose their relevance.
- ▸ show relevance demonstrate, emphasize, show, underline, underscore Competitions like this deserve to be well supported, to demonstrate the relevance of chemistry to the wider community.
- ▸ make certain of relevance ensure All the modules have been developed in co-operation with leading industrialists, to ensure relevance and currency.
- ▸ consider relevance assess, consider, determine, evaluate, explore, gauge, judge Look at the references to assess the relevance of the results of each search.
- ▸ have doubts about relevance question They questioned the relevance of listing outdated achievements.
- ▸ understand relevance see, understand It is often difficult for students to see the relevance of statistics to their degree subject.
- ▸ increase relevance increase The UK pages option increases the relevance of returned pages for the UK searcher.

relevant ADJ

directly connected with something being discussed

- adv+ADJ very clearly, entirely, especially, extremely, highly, particularly, very This is an interesting question and highly relevant to the discussion.
- ▸ more and more increasingly These skills are highly valued and increasingly relevant to today's society.
- ▸ not, or not very not entirely, not necessarily, not strictly The data that is not strictly relevant to the research project is not discussed here.
- ▸ directly directly, immediately Applicants ideally should have some directly relevant conservation experience.
- ▸ still/no longer no longer, still Although the opera was written in the mid-19th century, its themes are still relevant today.
- ▸ in a particular way clinically, commercially, culturally, locally, morally, personally, professionally, socially Is there a morally relevant distinction between the two cases?

- v+ADJ be, become, consider sth, deem sth, regard sth as, remain, seem, see sth as Give details of anything not included elsewhere in this form which you consider relevant to your application ◉ Today the novel seems more relevant than ever.
- N+to circumstances, debate, discussion, investigation, issue, job, needs, situation, study, subject, theme, topic Please keep the message relevant to the subject of the article.

reliability N

the quality of being reliable

- adj+N high high We can arrange delivery of your purchases worldwide, with reasonably low prices and high reliability.
- ▸ more greater, improved, increased The new computer system offers improved performance, as well as increased reliability.
- ▸ low poor Passengers continue to complain of high prices, poor reliability, and dirty, old trains.
- ▸ shown to be the case proven Our equipment is now used worldwide and has a proven reliability.

- v+N improve reliability enhance, improve, increase We aim to reduce operating costs and improve reliability.
- ▸ judge reliability assess It is impossible to objectively assess the reliability and validity of the research.
- ▸ make certain of reliability ensure Proper maintenance is important to ensure reliability of the apparatus when running unattended.
- ▸ express doubts about reliability question The report questions the reliability of the tests' results.

- N+of information data, evidence, information, results There have also been concerns about the reliability of the data.
- ▸ how something works or is done service, supply, system While overall reliability of service has improved, punctuality is still disappointing.

reliable ADJ

that can be trusted to be accurate

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, very The tests were considered to be extremely reliable indicators of fitness.

▸ completely completely, totally, utterly I suggest they are the very best of witnesses and that their testimony is utterly reliable.
▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, reasonably The number of unique visitors provides a reasonably reliable measure of a web page's popularity.
▸ in a particular respect historically, statistically A statistically reliable test must await a larger sample size made up of more valid data.

• ADJ+n information data, estimate, evidence, figures, indicator, information, measure, measurement, result, statistics, test There is a shortage of reliable information on the issue.
▸ source of information guide, source, witness But don't forget that the Internet is not always a reliable source.

reliance N
the state of depending on a person or thing

• adj+N great great, heavy Singapore has a heavy reliance on international trade.
▸ increasing growing, increased, increasing Growing numbers of people in their 20s and 30s are suffering from severe memory loss because of increasing reliance on computer technology.
▸ too much excessive, too much, undue Much confusion can be created by undue reliance on anecdotal evidence.
▸ total exclusive, sole, total Recent events make it evident that an exclusive reliance on military force will not bring about a fundamental solution.
▸ continuing continued, continuing Continued reliance on these fossil fuels could delay the development of renewable technologies.

• v+N place reliance on something place The tribunal was unable to place much reliance on what he said.
▸ increase/reduce reliance increase, reduce These crops really help us to reduce our reliance on imports.

reliant ADJ
depending on someone or something

• adv+ADJ to a great degree heavily, increasingly Those without access to a car were heavily reliant on costly and inadequate public transport.
▸ completely completely, entirely, totally, wholly When you are totally reliant on your pension, you are less likely to take risks with your pension fund.

relief N
1 the happy feeling that something bad has not happened, or the reduction of pain

• adj+N great enormous, great, huge, immense I've been told there's nothing to worry about, which is a huge relief.
▸ just what you need blessed, much-needed, welcome It is a welcome relief that this potential loophole has been so firmly closed.
▸ for a short time short-term, temporary Applying local heat to a painful joint often gives short-term relief.
▸ immediate immediate, instant These tablets produce immediate pain relief.
▸ effective effective The drug can give effective relief for a range of conditions with minimal side effects.

• n+N pain, stress She is refusing any form of pain relief.

• v+N give relief bring (sb), give (sb), offer (sb), provide (sb with) Seasonal rains brought relief to some areas during April and May.
▸ be a relief come as The news came as a huge relief.
▸ look for or get relief find, get, seek Many people find crying an outlet for grief, whilst others find relief for their sadness in other ways.
▸ express or feel relief express, feel At first I was nervous, but walking in I felt sheer relief.

• n+of+N feeling, sense, sigh Jeff breathed a sigh of relief.

2 help given to people in a bad situation

• adj+N humanitarian The emphasis has shifted from simple humanitarian relief to broader economic assistance and the rebuilding of infrastructure.

• n+N disaster, emergency, famine, flood, tsunami We raised £1.4 million for the appeal, which was spent entirely on emergency relief.

• v+N provide relief give sb, provide (sb with) The charity provides relief to victims of natural disasters and violent conflicts.
▸ receive relief receive One year after the disaster, tens of thousands of people have received emergency relief.

• N+n work done effort, operation, programme, work Volunteers are helping with the relief efforts by distributing food and medicines.
▸ people agency, fund, organization, worker The mountainous nature of the land made the aid effort very difficult for emergency relief agencies.
▸ help given aid, supplies The city's traumatized survivors are living in roadside tents and relying on relief supplies.

relieve V make pain, a problem, or a bad situation less unpleasant or serious

• V+n pain discomfort, pain, symptoms Nitrous oxide is now widely used to relieve pain, during childbirth in particular.
▸ something bad anxiety, boredom, burden, congestion, poverty, pressure, stress, suffering, tension Laughter is great for bonding and relieving stress.

relieved ADJ
happy because something bad has not happened

• adv+ADJ very greatly, mightily, very We were mightily relieved to hear the half-time whistle.
▸ rather quite, somewhat She was somewhat relieved when she finally learnt that he had merely broken his arm.

• ADJ+infinitive discover, find, hear, know, learn, see We are all relieved to see that Janice has made a full recovery.

religion N
the belief in the existence of a god or gods

• v+N belong to or believe in a religion belong to, embrace, practise, profess Do any family members practise a religion?

- ▸ not agree with a religion reject It hurt his parents to see him openly rejecting their religion.
- ▸ change your religion change He had persuaded her to change her religion and marry him.
- ▸ start a religion found Jainism is a religion founded in India in the 6th century BC.
- ▸ teach or study a religion study, teach The course will introduce different ways of studying religion and theology.

religious ADJ

1 relating to religion or a particular religion

- adv+ADJ expressed in an open way explicitly, overtly Few of the quotations were overtly religious.
- ▸ only or exactly purely, specifically, strictly This is a political rather than a purely religious issue.
- ▸ mostly essentially Whilst some war memorials were essentially religious in character, others were primarily secular.
- ADJ+n belief affiliation, belief, conviction, faith, tradition I can understand the strength of feeling with which many people hold religious beliefs.
- ▸ group of people community, denomination, group, institution, minority, movement, sect The Christian Union is the largest religious group on the campus.
- ▸ activities and duties ceremony, festival, observance, practice, ritual, worship Sharia is the sacred law of Islam, and applies to all aspects of life, not just religious practices.
- ▸ bad feelings or treatment discrimination, hatred, intolerance, persecution Legislation has been introduced to tackle religious discrimination in employment.
- ▸ right to have beliefs freedom, liberty, tolerance This law is meant to promote religious freedom.
- ▸ teaching education, instruction The government has scrapped a proposal to drop religious education from the school curriculum.
- ▸ leader leader The country's efforts to ensure inter-religious harmony have been fully approved by international religious leaders.

2 believing strongly in your religion

- adv+ADJ very deeply, devoutly, intensely, profoundly, very She was a deeply religious woman.

relinquish V

give up power, position, or an advantage

- V+n control, position, post, power, responsibility, right, role It soon became clear that the ruling class did not want to relinquish control.
- v+to-V be forced to, be reluctant to, refuse to He was ultimately forced to relinquish power.

relish V

get great pleasure or satisfaction from something

- V+n challenge, chance, idea, opportunity, prospect, role, thought The girls relished the opportunity to practise their language skills and enjoy the culture of these cities.

reluctance N

being unwilling to do something

- adj+N great considerable, extreme, great, marked She accepted his resignation with great reluctance.
- ▸ that can be understood natural, understandable There is an understandable reluctance of people, particularly older workers, to move long distances to take up work.
- ▸ seeming to exist apparent The reason for her apparent reluctance to co-operate has not been explained.
- ▸ at first initial In spite of their initial reluctance, they had worked very hard.
- ▸ shared by many people general This is the result of men's general reluctance to undergo regular health checks.
- v+N show reluctance express, show Some of these dogs take easily to water but others show a reluctance to get more than their feet wet.
- ▸ deal with your reluctance overcome The Harry Potter books have persuaded huge numbers of children to overcome their reluctance to reading.
- ▸ understand someone's reluctance understand We are sure the Court will understand our reluctance to incur further legal costs at this stage.

reluctant ADJ

unwilling to do something

- adv+ADJ very or rather extremely, increasingly, somewhat, very The police were extremely reluctant to take action.
- ▸ at first initially Although we were initially reluctant to go to the street party, it turned out to be great fun.
- ▸ when it is not surprising understandably Prison medical staff are understandably reluctant to prescribe these kinds of drugs too freely.
- ▸ when it is surprising strangely Dr Fleming seemed strangely reluctant to discuss his research.

rely on PHR VB

trust someone or something to do something for you, or need someone or something

- adv+V very much heavily In the past, Kent's economy has relied heavily on the growing of hops for the production of beer.
- ▸ completely completely, entirely, exclusively, solely, totally We receive no government or charitable funding, and rely solely on donations.
- ▸ mainly largely, mainly, primarily The Panamanian economy relies primarily on the service sector, which accounts for 75 per cent of national income.
- ▸ more and more increasingly As a nation we are increasingly relying on credit to finance our lifestyles.
- ▸ only simply Do not simply rely on your memory to store all the strands of information you come across.
- V+n help or money donations, generosity, goodwill, support, volunteers The museum is short of funds, relying on private donations and voluntary unpaid trustees and guides.
- ▸ your opinion, memory, or ability ability, assumption, expertise, judgement, memory I was always prepared to go into hospital if the doctors said so – I relied on their judgement.
- ▸ information evidence, fact, source Historians do not rely on single sources.
- ▸ other people others While I was ill, I had to rely on others to do the simplest of tasks.

remain V continue to be in a situation or condition

- V+adj anonymous, constant, high, intact, low, open, silent, stable, strong, true, unchanged, unclear, unknown Her weight has remained relatively constant for the past five years. ◆ It remains unclear to me what the benefits are.

remark N
something that someone says

- adj+N coming at the beginning/end closing, concluding, introductory, opening, preliminary If your project is focussed on one particular industry or technology, you might include introductory remarks about this here.
  - without thinking about it first casual, chance, off-the-cuff, throwaway I'm surprised this generated so much correspondence, as it was just a throwaway remark.
  - brief brief, passing Let me conclude with some brief remarks about the country's defence industry.
  - unpleasant or insulting cutting, defamatory, derogatory, disparaging, insulting, offensive, rude, sarcastic, snide She did make a few derogatory remarks about economists.
  - insulting someone's race or sex racist, sexist Ferdinand has called for tough penalties for players who make racist remarks during matches.
  - kind complimentary, kind I want to thank Professor Briggs for the complimentary remarks he makes about my book in his review.
  - not serious enough flippant That was a very flippant remark to make if you don't mind me saying so.
  - clever and funny witty Sophie made some witty remark on the subject.
- v+N make a remark make People on the team were making uncomplimentary remarks about each other.
  - hear a remark hear He felt irritated when he heard such glib remarks.
  - begin/end remarks conclude, preface She prefaced her remarks with greetings from the King.
  - repeat a remark quote The remarks were widely quoted in newspapers and on the broadcast media.

remark V say a few words about something

- adv+V casually, drily, famously, jokingly, pointedly, wryly Ruth casually remarked that she thought her arm was broken.

remarkable ADJ unusual in a surprising or impressive way

- adv+ADJ very absolutely, quite, truly, very The results were truly remarkable.
  - rather pretty INFORMAL, rather, somewhat I think it's a pretty remarkable book.
  - equally equally His second novel, following shortly after his first, was equally remarkable.
  - especially especially, particularly There was nothing particularly remarkable about her two-bedroom bungalow.
- ADJ+n something done or achieved achievement, career, feat, progress, recovery, success We raised the money in six months, a remarkable achievement.
  - event, account, or fact coincidence, discovery, fact, feature, phenomenon, story Bede's World tells the remarkable story of the life and times of the Venerable Bede, one of the greatest scholars of the Early Middle Ages.
  - being similar resemblance, similarity The room bears a remarkable resemblance to the one in the painting.
  - ability ability, talent She is largely self-taught and has a remarkable ability for learning music by heart.
  - person or people man, people, woman He was, indeed, one of the most remarkable men of his generation.
  - example example, instance Kew gardens are also home to two remarkable examples of Victorian glass technology.

remedy N
a solution to a particular problem

- adj+N good or effective effective, perfect The most effective remedy to ITV's audience decline will be increased investment in original programming.
  - legal judicial, legal We always prefer to enter into agreements rather than being forced to resort to legal remedies.
  - suitable adequate, appropriate The court ruled that judicial review was not the appropriate remedy, as other means of redress had not been tried.
  - possible available, possible A landowner faced with squatters has a number of remedies available to him.
  - simple simple If suppliers don't like the prices they are paid by supermarkets, the remedy is simple: don't deal with them.
- v+N provide or suggest a remedy offer, propose, provide, suggest How well does the Code provide remedies for borrowers' legitimate grievances?
  - find a remedy find, pursue, seek I could claim damages and seek a legal remedy.
  - use all remedies exhaust It is important to exhaust all local remedies to the situation before taking serious international action.
  - have a remedy have Do you have any remedy for loss of business or inconvenience suffered while you wait for these repairs?

remember V have an image in your mind of something in the past

- adv+V clearly clearly, distinctly, vividly, well She vividly remembered the day the news of his death arrived.
  - not clearly barely, dimly, hardly, vaguely It made no impression on me and I can barely remember what happened. ◆ I vaguely remember realizing that something wasn't right.
  - correctly correctly, rightly It was Saturday morning, at about 11.30, if I remember correctly.
  - exactly exactly It's hard to remember exactly, but I think there were around a dozen or 15 people there.
  - with positive feelings affectionately, fondly, lovingly I have always fondly remembered those days in Manchester.

▸ always or still always, forever, still I still remember how excited I was when I first heard that record.

• V+with affection, fondness, gratitude, love, pleasure, pride, sadness She will be remembered with affection by many past students.

reminder N

something that reminds you of something in the past or of something you need to do

• adj+N existing for a long time or happening often constant, daily, frequent, lasting, permanent The vast lava flows are a constant reminder of the destructive power of nature.
▸ coming at a very suitable time timely This incident served as a timely reminder that mishaps can occur, regardless of the experience of the diver.
▸ felt strongly and clearly powerful, sharp, stark, vivid The deaths in West Virginia have been a stark reminder of how dangerous an operation coal mining can be.
▸ that you can see visible Today there are few visible reminders of what the town was like in medieval times.
▸ giving you sad or unpleasant feelings chilling, grim, painful, poignant, salutary, sobering, unwelcome The cemetery and museum remain as a poignant reminder of these events.
▸ done gently or quickly brief, gentle, little, quick, subtle This is a gentle reminder to all those who've yet to book that the deadline is 30 June.
▸ useful useful The checklists are designed to be useful tick-box reminders to help you put good practice into action.

• v+N be a reminder act as, be, provide, serve as Christopher's death and today's convictions serve as a reminder of the potential consequences of carrying knives.
▸ give a reminder give (sb), issue, send (sb) Halfway through the year, now is probably the time to give a brief reminder of forthcoming events on the calendar.
▸ receive a reminder get, receive Every summer, I get a fortnight-long reminder of what city life is like.
▸ need a reminder need Sometimes I need a little reminder of the good things in life.

reminiscent ADJ reminding you of something

• adv+ADJ very strongly, very The guitar work is well executed and strongly reminiscent of the classic Rainbow sound.
▸ rather faintly, rather, slightly, somewhat, vaguely Many of the young trees have a conical shape, vaguely reminiscent of conifers.
▸ in a strange way curiously, eerily, oddly, strangely The route features scenery eerily reminiscent of that at Land's End over a thousand miles behind you.

remorse N

a strong guilty feeling about something that you have done

• adj+N deep, genuine Wallis, on the other hand, had shown signs of genuine remorse.

• v+N show remorse express, show The defendants have shown no remorse for their conduct.
▸ feel remorse be filled with, be full of, feel Mary couldn't wait to get away, yet now as she recalled the day when she left her home, she was filled with remorse.

• n+of+N feeling feeling, pang Polly felt a sudden pang of remorse.
▸ lack lack Parole was refused because of his lack of remorse.

remove V

take someone or something out or away or get rid of it

• adv+V completely altogether, completely, entirely, totally This paragraph should be removed altogether.
▸ without difficulty easily You can easily remove sticky fingerprints in traditional varnish using white spirit.
▸ carefully or gently carefully, gently Carefully remove the tree from its pot, protecting the roots while doing so.
▸ using force forcibly, physically He was forcibly removed for attacking the security guard.
▸ using your hands; not automatically manually, physically You can set dates for content expiry so that members of staff don't need to manually remove details of an out-of-date event, etc.
▸ automatically automatically Normally tax is removed automatically before you receive the interest.
▸ safely safely The data storage device can now be safely removed from the system.
▸ quickly immediately, quickly It is the job of the Environment Agency to make sure such obstructions are removed quickly to keep the river flowing.
▸ for a short time for ever permanently, temporarily Click on the delete button to permanently remove information you no longer want on the website.
▸ by a medical operation surgically Currently, the only way to prevent the disease spreading is by surgically removing the colon.

• V+n difficulty or problem barrier, obstacle, restriction As a means of removing barriers to learning, ICT has a great deal to offer.
▸ something that blocks something else obstruction Gently tilt the person's head back and remove the obstruction in their throat.
▸ need need The Council will ensure that all reasonable steps will be taken to remove the need for court action to recover possession of a property.
▸ mark or what is left debris, dirt, stain, trace What is the best method to remove tea stains from a carpet?
▸ something said or written material, reference Steps will be taken where possible to remove any inappropriate material posted on the message board.

renaissance N

new interest that makes something popular again

• adj+N cultural, economic, urban The station's redevelopment will also aid the urban and economic renaissance of that area of the city.

You can say that a place or thing is experiencing something of a renaissance: Patchwork is enjoying something of a renaissance, increasingly seen as an exciting contemporary art form.

• v+N experience a renaissance enjoy, experience, see, undergo In Argentina, documentary film-making is enjoying a veritable renaissance.

▸ cause a renaissance achieve, create, initiate, spark, stimulate He was part of the group that sparked a renaissance in traditional cuban music.

render V cause to be something

- V+adj not useful ineffective, obsolete, redundant, unusable, useless Electronic resources can be rendered obsolete by rapidly changing hardware and software.
▸ without meaning or value invalid, irrelevant, meaningless, worthless If you do this, your will may be rendered invalid in the eyes of the law. ◉ Copyright protection will be rendered meaningless if it is not backed up by legal enforcement.
▸ difficult or not possible difficult, impossible Further attempts were rendered impossible because of the lack of money available.
▸ not able to speak speechless I am rendered speechless by the insensitivity of such remarks.

renew V
do or have something again after a pause

- V+n relationship acquaintance, friendship I am looking forward to meeting new friends and renewing old acquaintances at the conference.
▸ interest enthusiasm, interest The course will offer teachers an opportunity to refresh their skills and renew their enthusiasm for their subject.
▸ attack attack The media renewed their attack on the prime minister in the papers today.
▸ when someone asks for something appeal, call The Conservative party renewed its call for a public inquiry into the affair.
▸ when someone does something effort We shall have to renew our efforts in an attempt to fill the vacancy.
▸ when someone promises something commitment, promise The company has renewed its commitment to education by doubling the number of scholarships it is offering.

renovate V repair and improve a building [usually passive]

- adv+V recently newly, recently We stopped off at the newly renovated Olympic stadium.
▸ completely or to a large degree completely, extensively, fully, totally The property was completely renovated in 2007.
▸ in a way that is attractive or shows good judgement beautifully, carefully, sympathetically, tastefully, thoughtfully The house has been sympathetically renovated in keeping with the original style.

renovation N
the repairing and improving of a building

- adj+N large in degree extensive, major The building underwent extensive renovation in 2009.
▸ complete complete, total The farmhouse is in need of complete renovation.
▸ recent recent The Park Plaza Hotel has undergone a very recent renovation.
- v+N experience renovation undergo The facility has recently undergone a major renovation.
▸ need renovation need, require The ground floor is completely unfinished and needs total renovation.
▸ do renovation carry out, complete, undertake In 2004 a complete renovation of the hotel was carried out.
▸ be closed while renovation is done be closed for The theatre is currently closed for major renovations.
- N+n programme, project, scheme, work They are looking to buy a house as a renovation project.
- and/or construction, conversion, extension, maintenance, refurbishment, repair, restoration The property could benefit from some renovation and refurbishment.

rent N
money paid regularly for using a building

- adj+N how often rent is to be paid annual, monthly, weekly, yearly Her monthly rent is £525.
▸ low/high affordable, high, low Dundee has a wide choice of properties available at affordable rents.
▸ very small nominal, peppercorn The Council leased the land to the community group for 21 years at a peppercorn rent.
▸ fair or usual fair, market Each tenant pays a fair rent, which is used to cover maintenance costs and to repay the mortgage. ◉ The flats will be let out at the market rent.
▸ due to be paid due, payable All rents are due on the 1st of each month.
▸ not yet paid unpaid The deposit may also be retained to cover unpaid rent or bills.
- v+N pay rent pay Students will be more inclined pay higher rents for warm, well-maintained accommodation.
▸ charge rent charge The monks became greedy and charged excessive rents, and the townspeople protested.
▸ receive or get rent collect, receive When the first houses were built on the estate, he was put in charge of collecting rents and electricity payments from residents.
▸ have or be enough money to pay the rent afford, cover For people on low incomes, housing benefit continues to cover the rent.
▸ owe rent owe The tenant still owes two months' rent.
▸ say what the rent is fix, set The tenancy of a unit is renewable every three years and the rent is fixed for that period.
▸ increase/ reduce the rent increase, raise, reduce Is the landlord able to increase my rent?

reorganization N
the process of organizing something in a different way

- adj+N bringing major changes complete, comprehensive, major, massive, radical, significant, wholesale A major reorganization of hospital services has occurred.
▸ types of reorganization corporate, departmental, internal, structural Performance slipped last year due to internal reorganization following a reduction in staff numbers.
- v+N experience reorganization undergo During 2009, the faculty and departmental structure of the University underwent major reorganization.

- ▸ carry out reorganization carry out, implement, undertake As profits plunged, the company's board undertook a radical reorganization.
- ▸ plan or announce reorganization announce, discuss, plan, propose The Administration is proposing a major reorganization of its secret services.

repair N
work done to fix something damaged

- adj+N big extensive, major, significant, substantial Over £2 million will be spent on major repairs and improvements over the next six years.
- ▸ small minor, small The ground floor remained almost the same for the next 500 years, although there were minor repairs and alterations.
- ▸ needing to be done immediately emergency, immediate, urgent Urgent repairs had to be carried out on the ceiling, which had become dangerous.
- ▸ necessary essential, necessary We will carry out any necessary repairs within 24 hours if it is an emergency.
- ▸ temporary running, temporary They made temporary repairs to the roof in appalling conditions.
- ▸ permanent permanent A temporary repair can be effected until a permanent repair is possible.
- ▸ usual and not done for a specific reason general, routine The county council spends around £15 million a year on routine housing repairs.
- ▸ types of repair electrical, mechanical, structural, surgical Structural repairs to 500 sewers started in April 2005.

- v+N do a repair carry out, do, effect, make, perform, undertake Repairs were carried out on the clock in 1998.
- ▸ have a repair done undergo The building is currently undergoing extensive external repair.
- ▸ need repair be in need of, need, require Don't be fooled by doorsellers calling and suggesting your property needs urgent repairs.
- ▸ organize or give permission for repairs arrange, authorize, manage, organize We're waiting for our insurance company to authorize the repairs.

Usage Repair is usually plural in all of the v+N combinations shown above.

- N+n work job, work This is a list of the repair work needed to bring your property up to a reasonable standard.
- ▸ cost bill, costs The total repair bill will run into many millions of pounds.
- ▸ place where repairs are done centre, facility, shop, workshop He also started the first motorcycle repair shop in Wolverhampton.
- ▸ company that does repairs business, company She runs a shoe repair business.
- ▸ person who does repairs man The washing machine repair man is coming to the house.
- ▸ service service Your warranty says the company will provide an on-site repair service within 24 hrs of calling.
- ▸ a set of tools to make small repairs kit An emergency repair kit is included.

- and/or alteration, construction, improvement, maintenance, modification, refurbishment, renovation, replacement, restoration Structures can also become dangerous from lack of maintenance and repair.

repay V
1 give someone money you borrowed from them

- adv+V fully, immediately, promptly The loan must be fully repaid within a year.
- V+n amount, balance, capital, cost, debt, fee, grant, interest, investment, loan, money, mortgage, overpayment, sum You only start repaying this loan once you have finished studying and are earning a salary.

2 reward someone who has helped you

- adv+V amply I had shown her some acts of kindness, for which she amply repaid me.
- V+n compliment, faith, favour, hospitality, kindness, loyalty Now I want to repay the club's faith in me by scoring goals.

repayment N an amount of money you pay a person or bank after you have borrowed from them

- adj+N how often the payment is made annual, monthly, weekly In the early years, the monthly repayment consists almost entirely of interest.
- ▸ complete full, total You can insist on full repayment.
- ▸ paid before you need to early Your existing loans may have penalties for early repayment.
- ▸ the least amount that is possible minimum A borrower making the minimum repayments each month will take 32 years to repay the average credit card debt.
- ▸ low enough to be easy to make affordable, easy, low, manageable Our Homeowner loan plans could help make your monthly repayments more affordable.

- v+N make a repayment make, pay If you've got some extra cash, you can make a larger repayment to reduce your debts more quickly.
- ▸ make all the repayments needed keep up, meet If a lender is to finance your business, they must be sure that you can meet the repayments.
- ▸ arrange for repayments to be made later defer Repayments are often deferred until your first job commences.
- ▸ make repayments over a particular period spread You have the flexibility to spread your repayments over one to ten years.
- ▸ have enough money to make repayments afford Be sure you can afford the repayments before entering into any credit agreement.
- ▸ ask for repayment claim, demand, seek The lender is not obliged to renew your loan, and may demand repayment at the end of the original period.
- ▸ increase/reduce a repayment increase, reduce You don't have to remortgage to reduce your repayments.
- ▸ calculate a repayment calculate Use this Mortgage Calculator to calculate approximate mortgage repayments.
- ▸ fail to make a repayment at the agreed time miss If you miss a repayment, the bank will make every effort to assist you.

repeat V

1 say or write something again

- adv+V using exactly the same words exactly, faithfully, verbatim I won't repeat verbatim what has been said elsewhere.
- ▸ many times and in a way that continues for too long ad nauseam, constantly, continually, continuously, endlessly, over and over (again) With Inspector Charlton continually repeating her threats, I reluctantly signed the form.
- ▸ often frequently, often My own name I heard frequently repeated, with, 'Bring him out, bring him out!'
- ▸ just merely, simply This involves much more than simply repeating words.
- ▸ one more time again, once more 'Can I talk to the police officer?' the boy repeated again in a low whisper.

2 do something again

- adv+V often frequently, often, regularly When the same muscular action is frequently repeated, injuries sometimes follow.
- ▸ just merely, simply To invite more people, simply repeat the above process as many times as you like.
- ▸ many times, and in a way that continues for too long constantly, continually, continuously, endlessly, indefinitely If an employee continually repeats an offence then it is a case of gross misconduct.
- ▸ how often someone repeats something annually, daily, periodically It is hoped that this event will be repeated annually. ◉ The review will be repeated periodically.
- ▸ one more time again He was concerned to see the same approach being repeated again.
- ▸ in exactly the same way exactly Every detail of the experiment has to be given, so that somebody else can repeat exactly what was done.

repeated ADJ

done many times

- ADJ+n something you say or write assertion, assurance, call for sth, claim, complaint, question, reference, request, statement, warning I have not received a copy, either, even after repeated requests.
- ▸ attempt to do something attempt, effort Despite repeated attempts to contact the artist, he remained elusive.
- ▸ use of something application, exposure, use With repeated use, tolerance develops so that a person has to take more of the substance to achieve the desired effect.
- ▸ something you do act, action, attack, failure, movement, visit Regrettably, under the current Government it has all too often been a story of repeated failure. ◉ Repeated visits to my doctor resulted in me being prescribed various types of antibiotics.
- ▸ type of medical treatment doses, injections, treatment There are still questions over the safety of giving patients repeated doses of cortisone.

repercussions N

the bad effects that something has

- adj+N big and important enormous, huge, huge, important, major, profound, serious, significant, wide Industrial action will have major repercussions for the company.
- ▸ especially bad adverse, devastating, negative, severe The negative repercussions of alcohol abuse can affect the whole family.
- ▸ possibly going to happen possible, potential It's important to understand which risks you face and the potential repercussions for your business.
- ▸ types of repercussions economic, emotional, environmental, financial, legal, political, social France was badly affected by the economic repercussions of the Habsburg-Valois Wars.
- v+N cause, fear, have, suffer The incident could have major repercussions on Iraqi-Jordanian relations.

repertoire N

the full range of things that a person can do or a performer can perform

- adj+N large broad, extensive, huge, large, vast, wide, wide-ranging A singer in this type of band will need to have a wide repertoire.
- ▸ small limited, small We performed a small repertoire of unaccompanied songs.
- ▸ of many different styles diverse, rich, varied The band has a very diverse repertoire, ranging from the traditional to the modern.
- ▸ involving different types of music choral, classical, musical, operatic, orchestral, vocal In recent years she has extended her operatic repertoire into the area of popular musicals.
- v+N have a repertoire have The 6-piece band has a wide repertoire.
- ▸ develop a repertoire build, build up, create, develop Over the years, he has developed his repertoire of skills and tricks.
- ▸ perform a repertoire perform, play, sing We play a broad repertoire of classic jazz standards, blues and funky improvization.
- ▸ make a repertoire bigger add to, broaden, expand, extend, increase We were interested in expanding our dance repertoire and this competition gave us the perfect opportunity.
- N+v consist of sth, cover sth, encompass sth, extend from sth to sth, feature sth, include sth, range from sth to sth Her repertoire includes a variety of popular and lesser-known songs.

repetitive ADJ

involving repeating the same action over long periods

- adv+ADJ very highly, incredibly, overly, very It was very repetitive and got a little bit boring after a while.
- ▸ rather a little, quite, rather, somewhat You may find some of the questions a little repetitive.
- and/or boring, dull, long, monotonous, predictable, routine, simple, tedious I find their songs dull and repetitive.

replacement N

someone or something that replaces another person or thing

- adj+N good or suitable adequate, appropriate, good, ideal, perfect, suitable If a suitable replacement is not available, we will provide a refund.

- ▸ direct direct Energy-saving light bulbs are available as direct replacements for incandescent ones.
- ▸ permanent/temporary long-term, permanent, temporary We appointed a temporary replacement, who has been excellent.
- ▸ possible possible, potential Mick McCarthy has been touted as a possible replacement.

- v+N be a replacement act as, be, be intended as, serve as This document will not act as a replacement for travel insurance .
- ▸ look for a replacement look for, search for, seek The band is now urgently seeking a replacement to take up the vacant slot.
- ▸ find a replacement find, get, obtain, purchase She left the company in June, and it has been very hard to find a replacement. ◉ If your card has been lost or stolen, you can get a replacement from the Student Services Information Desk.
- ▸ provide a replacement arrange, provide, supply If the item is faulty, call us and we will arrange a suitable replacement.
- ▸ appoint a replacement for someone doing a job appoint, nominate, recruit, select If a vacancy occurs, the Executive Committee must appoint a replacement as soon as possible.

replica N

an accurate copy of something

- adj+N exact in every detail accurate, authentic, detailed, exact, faithful, perfect The cenotaph was an exact replica of the one in France.
- ▸ of the same size full-scale, full-size, life-size There are also life-size replicas of various extinct species outside in the grounds.
- ▸ smaller miniature, scaled-down, small He built a miniature replica of the White House.

- v+N build, construct, create, make, produce This is an exciting project to build a replica of Captain Cook's famous ship.

- N+n sports clothes (football) kit, (football) shirt, strip He was dressed in a Chelsea replica football shirt.
- ▸ weapons firearm, gun, weapon A large percentage of gun crime is carried out by people using replica firearms.
- ▸ vehicles car, ship A replica ship was used in the filming of the movie.

reply V

say or do something as an answer

- adv+V quickly immediately, instantly, promptly, quickly Although some publishers reply quickly, others may take weeks, and some do not reply at all.
- ▸ directly directly We regret that we are unable to reply directly to individual queries.
- ▸ personally individually, personally If you provide an email address, we'll try to reply personally.
- ▸ in a particular way calmly, kindly, politely, quietly "At least I don't hide it from you," Tony replied calmly.

reply N

something you say or write as answer

- adj+N happening quickly early, immediate, instant, prompt, quick, rapid, speedy, swift We will ensure you receive a prompt reply.
- ▸ happening after a long time late Sorry for the late reply.
- ▸ with a lot of details detailed, full, substantive We aim to send a full reply to all complaints within 20 working days.
- ▸ short brief, curt, terse I can't do justice to the issues in a brief reply.
- ▸ long lengthy, long A week later, I received a rather lengthy reply to my letter of complaint.
- ▸ positive encouraging, favourable, positive I sent off ten letters asking for work and I've had two positive replies.
- ▸ negative or unhelpful inadequate, negative, unsatisfactory We emailed the company we bought it from, but got a very unsatisfactory reply.
- ▸ formal or written formal, written We hope that this formal reply will resolve the matter to your satisfaction.
- ▸ personal personal While he guarantees a personal reply, this might take a few days.

- v+N give a reply give, post, provide, publish, send, write You can't post a reply because you are not logged in.
- ▸ get a reply get, receive Half an hour later I got a reply to my email.
- ▸ wait for a reply await, expect, wait for Two weeks after our complaint, we are still awaiting a reply.

- N+to to a letter, email etc email, letter, message, post My colleague James Porter has written a reply to this letter.
- ▸ to a question enquiry, query, question, questionnaire The children were always so ready with replies to his questions.
- ▸ to a request request I have received no replies to my requests for information.
- ▸ to a complaint or criticism complaint, criticism, objection In some cases, you may still not be satisfied after receiving a reply to your complaint.
- ▸ to a something that someone says or writes article, comment, paper, point, report, review Another section, 'Forum', includes occasional short replies to articles appearing in recent issues.

report N

1 a spoken or written description of an event or situation, especially in the news media

- adj+N written or spoken oral, printed, verbal, written Any materials brought into the examination room will be confiscated, and a full written report will be made on the circumstances.
- ▸ given while a situation or process is still continuing early, initial, original Initial reports of high casualties turned out to be exaggerated.
- ▸ giving different facts that do not agree with each other conflicting, mixed We have heard conflicting reports concerning the company's performance and prospects.
- ▸ likely to be true accurate, credible, reliable There have been credible reports of human-rights abuses by US personnel.
- ▸ not based on reliable evidence anecdotal, unconfirmed According to one unconfirmed report, three US soldiers have been killed by a roadside bomb.

- ▸ given by someone who was present at an event eyewitness, first-hand Thanks to an eyewitness report from the streets, we have strong evidence of police brutality.

Usage Report is often plural in all of the adj+N combinations shown above.

- • v+N give a report carry, give, post, provide Today's Times carries an excellent report on the presidential debate. ◉ Each staff member gives a report on their current work at the monthly staff meeting.
- ▸ hear or read a report get, hear, read, receive, see We're getting reports of a serious train crash in Austria. ◉ You can read a full report on today's Olympic action on our website.
- ▸ say that the facts in a report are untrue deny, dismiss, reject Milan's coach denied reports that his star player was planning to leave.
- ▸ say or show that the facts in a report are true confirm, corroborate The other members of the crew confirmed Wilson's report.

2 a document dealing with a particular subject, plan, event etc, especially in an official context

- • adj+N complete and detailed comprehensive, detailed, extensive, full, in-depth Accident investigators produced a detailed report, and recommended improved safety measures.
- ▸ favourable encouraging, excellent, favourable, glowing, good, positive The school has just received a glowing report from the inspectors.
- ▸ full of criticism adverse, bad, critical, damning, disturbing, negative There is a new and highly critical report on the administration's transport policy.
- ▸ given regularly at particular times annual, monthly, periodic, quarterly, weekly The final quarterly report for 2009 showed improvements in turnover and profits.
- ▸ not available to the public confidential, secret, unpublished A committee of ex-ministers has produced a confidential report on the terrorist threat.
- ▸ recently published new, recent A major new report from the National Center for Food and Agricultural Policy outlines the benefits of biotech crops.
- ▸ important authoritative, groundbreaking, influential, key, major Her influential report on drug abuse was published in 1996.
- ▸ given when something is still in progress initial, interim, preliminary An interim report will be published shortly, but we will have to wait until next year for the final version.
- ▸ produced by someone who is not involved in a situation independent An independent report published last week points to weaknesses in the administration's decision-making process.
- ▸ on a particular subject economic, environmental, financial, medical, psychiatric, scientific, statistical, technical The council's environmental report claims that the new road will reduce inner-city traffic.

- • v+N prepare a report compile, draft, prepare, produce, write All buildings have been inspected by specialist surveyors, and a report is being compiled.
- ▸ ask someone to write a report commission, order Local healthcare providers commissioned an independent report into the care Stone had received.
- ▸ make a report publicly available circulate, issue, launch, publish, release The Trade and Industry Committee published its report on Employment Regulation.
- ▸ give a report to the people who ordered it deliver, present, submit The low-pay commission is due to deliver its report to Congress next month.

- • N+v a report says something argue (for) sth, mention sth, note sth, point out sth, say sth, state sth, warn sth The report argues for all energy sectors to be back under one department. ◉ A report warns that the reputation of higher education is being put at risk by falling standards in literacy.
- ▸ a report shows something demonstrate sth, indicate sth, reveal sth, show sth Stern's report showed that a global temperature rise of 2 degrees was almost inevitable.
- ▸ a report deals with something address sth, consider sth, contain sth, cover sth, detail sth, discuss sth, examine sth, include sth, investigate sth, look at sth, outline sth The report covers a wide range of proposed reforms in higher education.
- ▸ a report says something is true after considering facts conclude sth, confirm sth, find sth The report found that the proportion of women in academic posts rose 9 percentage points to 36 per cent between 1995 and 2005.
- ▸ a report uses information draw on sth The report also draws on recent research to show the importance of pre-school education.
- ▸ a report emphasizes something emphasize sth, highlight sth The report highlights the importance of basic research.
- ▸ a report suggests something propose sth, recommend sth, suggest sth Last week a government report suggested that vehicle tax should be massively increased.

report V

produce an official statement or document about something

- • V+n conclusion, figure, findings, outcome, progress, result The purpose of this paper is to document the study and to report the preliminary results.

represent V

1 speak, act, or make decisions as a representative of someone

- • adv+V well adequately, effectively, fairly, properly, truly We need independent directors who can effectively represent the shareholders.
- ▸ legally legally It is not essential to be legally represented, but it may be in your best interest to consider this.

2 be something

- • V+n be a change change, departure, development, shift, step, turning point Both products represented a big departure from their previous product line. ◉ This discovery represents a significant step forward for our research.
- ▸ be an improvement advance, improvement, progress This paper represented a dramatic advance in our understanding of how the brain works.

- ▸ be an important achievement achievement, breakthrough, landmark, milestone, victory We believe these results represent an important milestone for the project.
- ▸ be an opportunity challenge, opportunity This new venture represented a fantastic opportunity for the business.
- ▸ be a danger danger, risk, threat He has not committed a serious offence and does not represent a threat to public safety.

representative N

someone chosen to represent other people

- • adj+N official accredited, authorized, named, official Our authorized representative may enter any part of the hall at any time during the hire period.
- ▸ chosen appointed, designated, elected In theory, he is the elected representative and spokesman of the villagers.
- ▸ important chief, key, leading, senior The consultation was conducted with key representatives from the defence industry.
- ▸ of a particular area international, local, national, regional If you are in any doubt about this instruction, please contact your local representative.
- ▸ only only, sole With Davis injured, Majid is now the sole Canadian representative in the competition.
- ▸ special special The Duke of York is the special representative of UK Trade & Investment.
- ▸ representing an important individual personal We managed to get a meeting with the President's personal representative.
- ▸ permanent permanent The company has a permanent representative on the panel.
- ▸ not linked to a particular organization independent The group consists of a panel of independent representatives and a panel of industry practitioners.
- ▸ types of representative industrial, legal, parliamentary, political Many people are cynical about their political representatives.

- • v+N choose a representative appoint, choose, elect, nominate, select Each network nominated a representative to be on WCEN Board of Directors.
- ▸ talk to or meet a representative consult, contact, meet Scottish Ministers may consult representatives of the profession before making their decision.
- ▸ ask a representative to go somewhere for you send It was proposed that we should send a representative to attend the International Congress of Librarians.

representative ADJ

typical of people or things in group

- • adv+ADJ very or truly fully, genuinely, highly, properly, sufficiently, truly, very We must ensure that these groups are genuinely representative of ordinary working people.
- ▸ rather broadly, fairly, reasonably I think these opinions are broadly representative of the views of local residents.
- ▸ not very hardly, not entirely, not really The end result was a test of six or seven people – hardly representative of the target market.
- ▸ in a way that is scientifically valid demographically, geographically, statistically The interviewees are not statistically representative of these ethnic groups.

- • ADJ+n group collection, cross-section, group, range, sample, section, selection A representative sample of 1,007 adults was interviewed.
- ▸ study study, survey In a representative study of the working population, it was shown that 26.5 per cent had suffered from a serious back problem.
- ▸ impression picture, view We do not claim that this is a comprehensive or representative picture of the problem. ◉ I am concerned that the commissioner will not receive a fair and representative view of the issues.
- ▸ example example Choose two authors, one from each period, and compare representative examples of their writing.

- • ADJ+of of a group area, community, country, group, people, population, the public, range, sector, society We currently have 1,100 people on the panel, who are broadly representative of the population in the area in terms of age, gender and ethnicity.
- ▸ of opinions feelings, opinions, views The petition was still representative of local views.

repress V

1 prevent yourself from showing a feeling

- • V+n anger, desire, emotion, feeling, memory, thought, urge He tried to repress his feelings of impatience.

2 use force or violence to control people

- • adv+V brutally, ruthlessly, savagely, violently The police and army brutally repressed local people for over ten hours.
- • V+n repress opposition dissent, opposition, rebellion, revolt At that time the President had banned and repressed all opposition to his regime.
- ▸ repress people people, population We campaign for changes in countries that torture and repress their people.

repression N

the use of force to control people

- • adj+N severe or violent bloody, brutal, harsh, savage, severe, vicious, violent The brutal repression of whole ethnic groups will no longer be tolerated.
- ▸ types of repression military, political, religious Military repression was used against the peaceful demonstrators.

- • v+N suffer repression face, meet with, suffer Its people suffered brutal repression.
- ▸ use repression mete out, unleash, use The regime is increasingly using repression to try and keep people quiet.

- • n+of+N act, campaign, wave A new wave of repression against the students put an end to their revolt.

- • and/or aggression, censorship, exploitation, fear, persecution, poverty, violence, war After 25 years of repression and persecution, the tiny country of East Timor was racked with poverty.

reprieve N a decision to stop or delay something bad

- adj+N brief, eleventh-hour, last-minute, temporary The Education Secretary granted a last-minute reprieve, overturning the State Senate's decision.
- v+N get a reprieve earn, gain, get, have, win A school threatened with closure has won a reprieve after a judge gave local people permission to challenge the decision.
- ▶ give someone or something a reprieve give, grant Some lenders are granting a 30-day reprieve; some, six months.

reprimand V

tell someone officially that they have done something wrong

- adv+V formally, officially, publicly, severely He was severely reprimanded for disobeying an officer's orders.

reprimand N

an official statement telling someone they have done something wrong

- adj+N formal, official, public, severe I actually got an official reprimand at one point for being 'too nice' on the phone.
- v+N get a reprimand get, receive He had received a reprimand for a fight outside school.
- ▶ give someone a reprimand give, issue The police can give reprimands and warnings at the police station.

reputable ADJ

generally considered to be honest and reliable

- ADJ+n business agency, agent, brand, breeder, builder, business, company, dealer, firm, insurer, manufacturer, organization, retailer, shop, store, supplier Always buy a car from a reputable dealer.
- ▶ person or thing giving information journal, site, source Details of transactional security measures will be given on reputable sites. ◉ The report came from a very reputable source.

reputation N

people's opinion about how good someone or something is

- adj+N good considerable, enviable, excellent, fearsome, fine, formidable, good, great, impressive, outstanding, positive, solid, strong, unrivalled, world-class The pub has an enviable reputation for good ale and excellent food.
- ▶ bad bad, dubious, poor, terrible, unenviable The software has a poor reputation and many people find it unstable.
- ▶ that you deserve well-deserved, well-earned The faculty has a well-earned reputation for research and enterprise.
- ▶ that has existed for a long time long-established, long-standing, well-established The Centre for Language and Communication Research has a well-established reputation in a number of teaching and research areas.
- ▶ becoming stronger burgeoning, growing Throughout the 18th century, Bath's growing reputation as a health spa attracted both patients and doctors to the town.
- ▶ national, international etc global, international, local, national, wide, worldwide It is the region's best known cancer centre and has an international reputation for cancer treatment.
- ▶ types of reputation academic, corporate, professional Allegations of assault, even when unproved, can ruin a teacher's professional reputation.
- v+N have a reputation boast, enjoy, have, hold This family pub enjoys a reputation for good food and fine beer.
- ▶ develop a reputation build, carve, create, develop, establish, forge, make The company has built an enviable reputation based on service, quality and value for money.
- ▶ get a reputation achieve, acquire, earn, gain, get, win The college has gained a reputation for providing students with first class lectures.
- ▶ make a reputation stronger cement, confirm, consolidate, reinforce, secure, strengthen, uphold Tales of riots and imprisonment helped to cement their bad-boy reputation.
- ▶ make a reputation better boost, enhance, improve The car repair industry knows it must improve its reputation.
- ▶ make a reputation worse damage, destroy, harm, ruin, sully, tarnish His reputation was almost destroyed by lies.
- ▶ do something that might make your reputation worse compromise, risk, stake I am not prepared to risk my reputation by being associated with drugs.

You can also use the phrase put your reputation on the line: She was willing to put her reputation on the line in order to get political progress.

- ▶ keep the good reputation that you have defend, maintain, preserve, protect, retain The Faculty of Engineering has maintained an excellent reputation over many years.
- ▶ make a reputation better after it has been damaged rebuild, re-establish, restore, salvage, save The company must be praying that its smart new product will restore its reputation.
- ▶ lose the good reputation that you have lose The party lost its reputation for economic competence.
- N+as skilled or impressive person artist, composer, employer, expert, leader, painter, performer, player, speaker, specialist, teacher, writer She has established her reputation as the best viola player of her generation.
- ▶ place or organization centre, destination, provider, resort, supplier, venue Throughout the 1990s, it built up its reputation as a centre for cancer research.
- N+for a good quality excellence, expertise, honesty, hospitality, innovation, integrity, performance, quality, reliability, service We pride ourselves on our reputation for quality, innovation and service.
- ▶ the thing you do or make cuisine, design, food, research, teaching, work The local café has a great reputation for vegetarian food. ◉ Birmingham University has an outstanding reputation for research and teaching.

request N

an act of asking for something, especially by means of a formal or official process

- adj+N needing to be dealt with immediately urgent With the new system, you can send in an urgent request for information about someone at 1 a.m., and get an answer.
- ▸ reasonable legitimate, reasonable, valid A valid request will be answered within 40 calendar days of being received.
- ▸ not reasonable unreasonable, vexatious I had to get very tough with this guy and say that his request was unreasonable.
- ▸ formal formal, official, written If you would like your credit refunded, please make a written request.
- ▸ polite polite The tenants received a polite request to stop causing excessive noise.
- ▸ special special When you book, if you have any special requests just let us know and we'll try to accommodate your wishes.
- ▸ strange odd, strange, unusual What is the strangest request you have ever received?
- ▸ made for the first time initial, original I received an email today (8 days after my original request) saying he would call me soon.
- ▸ made several times frequent, numerous, repeated I have still not received a refund, even after repeated requests.
- ▸ made by one person individual, personal The University cannot give preference to individual requests from students for specific dates for exams.
- ▸ made by many people common, frequent One of the most frequent requests we get to our site concerns programmes at Budapest's State Opera House.
- ▸ easy to deal with simple, straightforward A simple request to view the building was met with ready consent by the owner.

- v+N make a request file, issue, make, put in, send, submit, write You must make a formal request for a permit.
- ▸ get a request get, have, receive I receive many requests from visitors about good places to stay.
- ▸ agree to do what someone has asked you to do accommodate, comply with, fulfil, honour We will accommodate all requests where practicable and where it is not practicable will explain why.
- ▸ give someone permission to do or have what they have asked for accede to, accept, agree to, approve, grant After a stressful delay, her request for a work permit was eventually granted.
- ▸ say 'no' to someone's request decline, deny, refuse, reject She was dissatisfied with their explanation and asked for an independent review, but her request was refused.
- ▸ deal with a request answer, deal with, handle, process, reply to, respond to We will process your request within 24 hours and contact you should any additional information be required.
- ▸ consider someone's request assess, consider, discuss, review There is a duty on employers to consider requests for flexible working hours.

request V

ask for something in a formal way

- adv+V in a polite way kindly, politely, respectfully Hotel guests are respectfully requested to smoke outside only.
- ▸ specifically explicitly, expressly, particularly, specially, specifically Unless there have been extensive corrections you will not normally see revised pages unless you specifically request them.
- ▸ many times commonly, frequently, often, repeatedly Black is the most frequently requested colour.
- ▸ formally formally, officially Councillor Southby formally requested permission to set up a committee.
- ▸ urgently urgently Clarke claimed that he urgently requested a cabinet level meeting.
- ▸ simply merely, simply Over 50 per cent of calls were simply requesting information.

- V+n documents brochure, catalogue, copy, data, document, file, form, pack, report Click here to request a copy of the University prospectus.
- ▸ information data, details, evidence, information Using the Freedom of Information Act, we requested data on the number of people arrested for terrorist offences.
- ▸ help or advice advice, assistance, feedback, help, support The Coastguard requested assistance for a woman stuck in the mud near the Marina.
- ▸ money donation, funding, money, payment, refund Full payment is requested 8 weeks prior to the commencement of your vacation.
- ▸ a meeting appointment, call, interview, meeting, visit Several groups involved in the debate had requested meetings with officials.
- ▸ permission to do something access, permission You may request permission to use the images for other purposes by contacting the photographer.

requirement N

something you must do, according to a law or rule [usually plural]

- adj+N according to a law, contract, or rule contractual, legal, legislative, mandatory, regulatory, statutory They are responsible for ensuring that we meet the Housing Corporation's regulatory requirements.
- ▸ strict absolute, demanding, rigorous, strict, stringent The nuclear regulatory regime imposes stringent safety requirements on nuclear power stations.
- ▸ basic basic, critical, fundamental, key This is a fundamental requirement of the policy.
- ▸ the least you can have or do minimum The minimum requirement is a grade 1 in English and Maths.
- ▸ official formal, official While there are no formal entry requirements, candidates should be advised that this is a professional level qualification.
- ▸ that you must do compulsory, essential, necessary These courses are not a compulsory requirement, but they are recommended for all students.
- ▸ types of requirement academic, dietary, educational, environmental, financial, nutritional, technical We need a heating system that meets current and future environmental requirements.

- v+N do what a requirement says you should achieve, adhere to, comply with, conform to, fulfil, match, meet, satisfy Failure to meet the requirements of this Act can result in prosecution.

- say what the requirement is define, determine, establish, lay down, outline, set out, specify, state Attendance requirements are determined by the relevant Head of Department.
- introduce a requirement implement, impose, introduce We will also implement the requirements of the proposed legislation on Freedom of Information.
- get rid of a requirement dispense with, relax, remove, waive Changes to safety legislation will remove the requirement for fire certificates for workplaces.
- do more than a requirement says exceed, go beyond It is our policy to create products which meet the latest European standards, and in most instances exceed the requirements.
- make sure people do what a requirement says enforce We have a duty to enforce the requirements of food hygiene legislation.

rescue N

an act of saving someone from an unpleasant situation

- adj+N daring, dramatic, heroic, successful Three police officers risked their lives in a dramatic rescue.
- v+N carry out a rescue carry out, come to sb's, effect, mount, perform A kayaker came to the rescue of a surfer, bringing him back to shore after seeing him in difficulty in Portland Harbour. ◆ Davies jumped in, but was unable to effect the rescue and the man was drowned.
  - try to rescue someone attempt, go to sb's Three lifeboats went to the rescue, but the sea was so rough that only one reached the ship.
  - wait for someone to rescue you await He stayed on the boat, trying to attract attention, and awaiting rescue.
- N+n an attempt to perform a rescue attempt, bid, effort, mission, operation A rescue operation was immediately organized, which took most of the day to recover the bodies.
  - work done to perform a rescue work Without their sterling rescue work, the South China Sea would have claimed many more lives that day.
  - a group of people performing a rescue crew, party, personnel, squad, team, unit, workers She was trapped for 15 minutes before being released by a rescue team.
  - organization whose function it is to carry out rescues organization, service We are working on a new TV drama based on the work of the mountain rescue service.
  - equipment or vehicles used for performing a rescue boat, craft, equipment, helicopter, ship, vehicle, vessel She was taken to hospital by RAF rescue helicopter.

research N detailed study that discovers new facts

- adj+N done recently or being done now current, the latest, new, ongoing, recent New research suggests that most trainee teachers feel confident that their training has prepared them well.
  - new and different cutting-edge, groundbreaking, innovative, pioneering The pioneering research of Professor Donald and his team has given us a clearer picture of early pregnancy.
  - important important, necessary, vital Money raised by the charity has funded some of the most important research into kidney conditions.
  - involving a lot of thorough and detailed work detailed, extensive, in-depth, intensive, meticulous, painstaking, rigorous, thorough Many of the issues raised in the inquiry demand further detailed research.
  - done with someone else collaborative, interdisciplinary, joint There is a strong tradition of collaborative research with colleagues in the Faculty of Medicine.
  - done on a particular subject biological, biomedical, clinical, educational, environmental, genetic, historical, medical, scientific, social Recent scientific research has shown a link between poor oral health and conditions such as heart and lung disease.
  - using particular methods academic, applied, comparative, empirical, qualitative, quantitative Much of the research is qualitative and based on both male and female samples.
- v+N do research carry out, conduct, do, perform, pursue, undertake She is continuing to do research into medieval European dress.
  - provide money for research finance, fund, sponsor, support Every penny received goes directly to buy equipment or to fund research.
  - officially ask someone to do research commission The government has commissioned further research to be carried out by The National Parenting and Families Institute.
  - tell people the results of research deliver, present, publish, report Professor David Mellor is to present his research at a conference organised by Compassion in World Farming next month.
  - be in charge of a programme of research co-ordinate, direct, lead, manage, supervise The research was led by Professor Dennis Parker.
  - look at other people's research assess, evaluate, review This paper will review the research of the past decade and consider some of the gaps in our knowledge.
  - report or publish your research disseminate, present, publicize, publish, report The monthly meeting provides a forum for team members to present their research.
- N+v be about something address sth, centre on sth, concentrate on sth, cover sth, examine sth, explore sth, focus on sth, include sth, investigate sth, involve sth, look at sth This research focuses on the experiences of people being discharged from psychiatric in-patient treatment.
  - show something conclude sth, demonstrate sth, find sth, highlight sth, identify sth, indicate sth, report sth, reveal sth, show sth, suggest sth, uncover sth Recent research has found that regular physical activity can add two or more years to life expectancy. ◆ As to how such challenges might be tackled, this research highlighted a number of areas in need of attention.
  - prove something confirm sth, prove sth, support

Recent research has confirmed that early diagnosis of hearing problems is very important.

▸ aim to do something aim to do sth, seek to do sth My research aims to push the boundaries of both the above developments.

- N+n someone doing research assistant, group, scientist, staff, student, team We accept people as research students if there is clear evidence that they can work independently on a research question.

▸ results of research findings, results New research findings show that 47 per cent of us suffer from a headache at least once a month.

▸ methods of research methodology, methods, process, strategy You will be given a general introduction to research methods.

▸ research work activity, programme, project, study, work She is currently working on a research project looking at stresses in the lives of working parents.

▸ organization or place doing research centre, establishment, facility, institute, institution, laboratory, organization We are raising funds for a dedicated brain tumour research centre.

▸ money for research budget, funding, grant He holds a research grant to investigate attitudes to disability.

▸ the subject you research area, interest, topic My main research area is English phonetics and phonology, and the interface between the two.

▸ a written plan of something you want to research proposal Please make your research proposal as detailed and specific as you can.

▸ something you use to help you do research tool The book is an invaluable research tool.

resemblance N

similarity between people or things

- adj+N great close, distinct, great, marked, strong The software bore a strong resemblance to its predecessor.

▸ great and surprising remarkable, startling, striking, uncanny Lesley bears a striking resemblance to Catherine Zeta Jones.

▸ slight faint, passing, slight, superficial, vague Shinty has a passing resemblance to hockey though the rules are very different.

▸ very little little The article has been re-written so it bears little resemblance to the original.

▸ physical physical I was struck by the close physical resemblance between Billy and his brother.

- v+N have a resemblance bear, have, show Our lifestyle today has little resemblance to that of our ancestors.

▸ notice a resemblance note, notice, see, spot When I straighten my hair I can see the resemblance between us so much.

resemble V

be similar to someone or something

- adv+V very much closely, exactly, greatly, strongly He was named Peter after his grandfather, whom he strongly resembled.

▸ rather remotely, slightly, somewhat, vaguely The plant somewhat resembles Indian corn, or maize.

▸ in physical appearance physically, superficially Though it superficially resembles a wasp, a hover-fly is completely harmless.

▸ increasingly increasingly Crime and violence have increased, and the area increasingly resembles a war zone.

resent V experience angry unhappy feelings when treated unfairly

- adv+V bitterly, deeply, greatly, really, strongly I bitterly resented his criticisms.
- V+n attempt, criticism, fact, idea, implication, interference, intrusion, presence, sb's success, suggestion She resents the fact that she isn't able to work.

resentful ADJ

angry because of being treated unfairly or without respect

- adv+ADJ bitterly, deeply, increasingly Local people are deeply resentful of what they see as interference by central government.
- v+ADJ be, become, feel, seem Without the opportunity to learn and grow, children may become increasingly resentful.
- and/or angry, bitter, frustrated, jealous The Treaty of Versailles left the German people feeling bitter and resentful.

resentment N

an angry unhappy feeling caused by unfair treatment

- adj+N great bitter, considerable, deep, great, intense, much, strong There is deep resentment among many people in the local community about the ban.

▸ becoming greater growing, increasing It is clear that there is growing resentment among the people towards the occupation of their country.

▸ felt, but not openly expressed festering, latent, simmering, smouldering The tax rises led to simmering resentment among the lower-paid, who felt they were bearing most of the burden.

▸ among many people popular, widespread Widespread resentment of the system was seen as contributing to Ireland's social unrest.

- v+N cause resentment arouse, breed, cause, create, generate, lead to, provoke, stir When people were forced to take work home with them, it could sometimes cause resentment.

▸ make resentment stronger exacerbate, fuel, increase Giving greater power to traffic wardens could fuel resentment among drivers already angry about speed cameras.

▸ feel resentment feel, harbour He is envious of Donna's greater intellectual ability and feels some resentment towards her.

▸ show resentment express, show Members of the local population have at times expressed resentment over aid from donor agencies going only to the refugees.

- n+of+N a feeling of resentment feeling, sense If staff perceive that they are valued, then feelings of resentment can be minimised.

▸ a cause of resentment cause, source The abuses committed by many landlords was also a major cause of resentment.

- and/or anger, bitterness, envy, fear, frustration, guilt, hatred, hostility, jealousy, suspicion Resentment and bitterness may breed new terrorists.

reservation N

1 an arrangement to have or use something later

- n+N accommodation, dinner, ferry, flight, hotel, restaurant, seat, table, ticket, travel The new cinema will also have a service desk to help patrons with calling a taxi or making a dinner reservation.
- v+N make a reservation make, place, secure We can handle your flight bookings and make reservations for hotels and restaurants.
- ▶ cancel a reservation cancel If you have to cancel your reservation more than 14 days before your visit, any deposit will be refunded.
- ▶ say that a reservation is definite confirm We will confirm your reservation by email as soon as we receive your deposit.
- N+n agent, deposit, enquiry, fee, form, office, price, request, service, system, team We provide a high-quality travel reservation service.

2 doubts about whether something is right [usually plural]

- adj+N serious deep, grave, major, serious, severe, strong Congress had expressed 'grave reservations' about the plans.
- ▶ minor minor, slight Despite very slight reservations about the sound problems, I would have no hesitation in recommending this product.
- v+N tell people about your reservations air, express, voice I took the liberty of voicing some personal reservations about the content or balance of the scientific programme.
- ▶ have reservations harbour, have Given the enormity of these changes, it is unsurprising to learn that many people harbour some reservations about going ahead.

If you want to say that you have no doubt that something is good, you can use the phrase without reservation: The one poet whom I can recommend without reservation is T. S. Eliot.

reserve N

a supply of something that can be used when people need it [usually plural]

- adj+N enormous, finite, huge, substantial, untapped, vast The marshes happen to be on top of the some of the greatest untapped reserves of oil.
- n+N natural resources coal, energy, fuel, gas, hydrocarbon, mineral, oil, ore, petroleum The main demand of the demonstrators is for the nationalisation of the country's gas reserves.
- ▶ financial resources capital, cash, currency, dollar, euro, gold, sterling At that time, the US dollar accounted for over 70 per cent of global currency reserves.
- v+N use some of a reserve dip into, draw on, exploit, tap into A strong and stable relationship will be able to draw on reserves of strength.
- ▶ build up a reserve accumulate, amass, build up, develop The enemy had amassed a great secret reserve of fighter aircraft.
- ▶ have a reserve have, hold, own There are queues at the gas stations – and this is in a country which holds the world's second largest oil reserves.
- ▶ use all of a reserve deplete, drain, exhaust By 1797 war with France had drained the gold reserves.
- ▶ increase a reserve again after it has been used replenish From mid-May to August, reserves of food are replenished.

resign V

state formally that you are leaving a job permanently

- adv+V in a willing way happily, voluntarily, willingly Employees who resign voluntarily in the first 6 months must repay any relocation fees.
- ▶ suddenly abruptly, forthwith, immediately, promptly, suddenly, unexpectedly When Bealle revealed this fact, Richards resigned forthwith.
- V+as captain, chair, chairman, director, editor, executive, head, leader, manager, minister, president, secretary, trustee Anyone wishing to apply for a remunerated position within a charity should immediately resign as a trustee.
- V+from board, cabinet, committee, council, government, job, office, party, position, post He resigned from the board when an agreement couldn't be reached.

resignation N

1 the act of leaving a job permanently

- v+N tell your boss that you are leaving hand in, offer, submit, tender However, he soon became disheartened with the Fund and tendered his resignation in 1886.
- ▶ tell the public that you are leaving announce Senator Jeffords of Vermont announced his resignation from the Republican Party to sit as an independent.
- ▶ cause someone to leave force, lead to, prompt, provoke, trigger The defeat had triggered the resignation of the party leader and precipitated a leadership contest.
- ▶ say publicly that someone must resign call for, demand There were articles in all the main newspapers calling for the resignation of the council leader.
- N+n letter, speech, statement Resignation letters should be addressed to the Human Resources department.

2 the attitude of accepting something unpleasant

- adj+N passive, quiet, weary She paused, and a look of quiet resignation crossed her features.
- n+of+N air, feeling, sense, sigh An air of resignation seemed to hang over the everyone in the office.
- and/or despair, patience, regret, sadness Scully doesn't answer, but the sadness and resignation on her face says it all.

resilience N
the ability to become healthy, happy, or strong again, after illness, problems etc

- adj+N emotional, mental, natural, physical The key to success lies in promoting better mental health through initiatives which improve emotional resilience.

People are often described as showing resilience in the face of something: The report discusses other people's resilience in the face of difficulties.

- v+N show resilience demonstrate, display, prove, show During the war years the residents demonstrated their resilience in many ways.
- ▸ make resilience stronger build, develop, enhance, improve, increase, promote, strengthen We need to consider what promotes resilience in children, as well as how best to help them when things go wrong.

resilient ADJ quickly becoming healthy, happy, or strong again after illness, problems etc

- adv+ADJ amazingly, extremely, highly, incredibly, remarkably, surprisingly, very Children can be amazingly resilient and positive.

People are often described as being resilient in the face of something: Our government, our citizens and our way of life proved once again resilient in the face of evil.

- v+ADJ be, prove, remain Despite the financial crisis, the housing market remained remarkably resilient.

resist V
1 stop yourself from doing or having something attractive

- adv+V firmly, resolutely, steadfastly, stoutly Steadfastly resisting the sirens of Hollywood, Jarmusch has fashioned a series of stylish, worldly, and thoroughly hip movies.
- V+n allure, appeal, impulse, lure, pull, temptation, tendency, urge Will he be strong enough to resist the temptation to go back to a life of crime?

2 oppose something or fight against something

- adv+V actively, bravely, fiercely, resolutely, strenuously, strongly, stubbornly, vigorously The Finns resisted fiercely and fighting continued until March 1940.
- V+n aggression, arrest, attempt, eviction, imposition, invasion, occupation, onslaught, oppression, pressure She continually resisted our attempts to enlist her as a full-time member.

resistance N
1 the ability not to be affected or weakened by something

- v+N make resistance weaker decrease, lower, reduce, weaken A poor diet had weakened their resistance to illness.
- ▸ make resistance stronger build up, develop, enhance, improve, increase The substance is added in small quantities to a petroleum product to increase its oxidation resistance.
- ▸ provide resistance confer, give, provide They are investigating a gene which appears to confer resistance to the HIV virus.
- N+to disease disease, infection, pathogen, virus Stress can lower the body's resistance to infection.
- ▸ chemicals or chemical action antibiotics, chemicals, corrosion, drug, herbicide, insecticide Bacteria can develop a resistance to chemicals and antibiotics.

2 refusal to accept something new

- adj+N fierce, stiff, stubborn, token Stiff resistance from the bosses threatens the implementation of these changes.
- v+N encounter, face, meet with The committee's recommendations had met with initial resistance in Cambridge.

3 opposition to someone or something

- adj+N armed, fierce, heroic, non-violent The Kosovar Albanians maintained an unbroken non-violent resistance despite mass arrests and torture.
- v+N break, crush, overcome, quell A successful attack broke the rebels' resistance.
- N+v collapse, crumble From 1812 onwards, Napoleon's resistance rapidly crumbled.
- N+n exercise, fighter, movement, training They join forces with a group of resistance fighters.
- N+to occupation, oppression, regime, tyranny The armed resistance to occupation has been growing by leaps and bounds.

resistant ADJ not harmed or affected by something

- adv+ADJ very completely, extremely, highly, totally, very The disc is also highly resistant to dust, shock and scratches.
- ▸ in a particular way chemically, genetically, naturally The blocks can be made from chemically resistant plastic.
- v+ADJ appear, be, become, prove, remain, seem Some of the trees appear resistant to disease, and these grow normally.
- N+to action or effect abrasion, corrosion, degradation, drought, mildew, oxidation, pest, weathering Plaswood is resistant to weathering and ideal for marine furniture.
- ▸ substance or drug antibiotics, chemotherapy, disinfectant, herbicide, insecticide, penicillin Tubercle bacteria are more resistant to chemical disinfectants than other bacteria.

resolution N
1 a formal proposal

- v+N make a resolution propose, put forward, submit, table A resolution tabled by the European Union was backed by 54 members of the International Atomic Energy Agency.
- ▸ accept a resolution approve, endorse, enforce, pass, sign up to, vote for The United Reformed Church has passed a resolution to operate the Fairtrade scheme.

- ▸ discuss a resolution consider, debate, negotiate The European Parliament will debate an emergency resolution from the Fisheries Committee calling for more scientific evaluation.
- ▸ oppose a resolution block, dispute, oppose, reject, veto Russia has threatened to veto the resolution if it comes to a vote.
- ▸ take action on the basis of a resolution adopt, implement Bush claimed that Saddam had failed to implement several UN resolutions.

2 the solving of a problem or settling of an argument

- • adj+N without violence or arguments amicable, harmonious, non-violent, peaceful South Korea believes that there are 'favourable grounds for a peaceful resolution' of the crisis.
- ▸ quick speedy, swift We hope that this offer of talks indicates that the employers share our desire for a swift resolution to the dispute.
- • n+N conflict, crisis, disagreement, dispute Staff are trained in the basic tenets of good governance, and conflict resolution.
- • v+N achieve, bring about, facilitate How can I help facilitate a harmonious resolution for all concerned?

resolve V

solve a problem or disagreement

- • adv+V without violence or arguments amicably, easily, fully, peacefully, satisfactorily, successfully The majority of noise problems can be resolved amicably by talking to the person who is responsible.
- ▸ quickly immediately, promptly, quickly, speedily, swiftly The whole affair – though speedily resolved – was bound up with the coming war with Germany.
- • V+n disagreement or dispute conflict, differences, disagreement, dispute If the two sides cannot resolve their differences, it may be time to call in an adjudicator.
- ▸ problem or bad situation concern, crisis, impasse, issue, matter, problem, question, situation, tension Kashmir holds the key to resolving the current security crisis in South Asia.
- ▸ difficult question, where there seems to be no clear answer ambiguity, contradiction, controversy, dilemma, inconsistency, paradox, uncertainty They have to resolve the contradiction between their peaceful beliefs, and the actions of some of their followers.

resolve N

firm determination to do something

- • v+N make someone's resolve stronger fix, harden, reaffirm, reinforce, stiffen, strengthen Each of the stories we heard from the refugees stiffened our resolve to create a safe future for them.
- ▸ destroy someone's resolve break, shake, undermine, weaken Nothing seems to shake their resolve; problems are always seen as opportunities.
- ▸ test someone's resolve test This challenge must have tested their resolve to the limit.
- • and/ or commitment, courage, determination, spirit, strength They resisted the threats with great determination and resolve.

resort to PHR VB

do something extreme in order to solve a problem

- • V+n dishonest or illegal bribery, cheating, crime, subterfuge, trick, trickery We discovered that some students had resorted to cheating in order to pass the test.
- ▸ method expedient, means, measure, remedy, strategy, tactic Refugees may resort to illegal means of escape.
- ▸ violence or threats force, intimidation, terrorism, violence These groups were not afraid to resort to intimidation or violence to achieve their aims.

resource N

something, such as money or materials, that you use to help you achieve something [usually plural]

- • adj+N useful excellent, invaluable, precious, useful, valuable The database remains an invaluable resource for members without access to a major reference library.
- ▸ available only in small quantities finite, limited, scarce Refurbished historic buildings make an effective contribution to the sustainable use of finite resources.
- ▸ available in large or large enough quantities abundant, adequate, extensive, rich, sufficient, vast The area has fertile soil and rich mineral resources.
- ▸ types of resource economic, educational, environmental, financial, genetic, human, legal, natural, technical I would like to thank the previous sponsors of these series for providing much more than simply financial resources.
- ▸ relating to computers digital, electronic, online, web-based Look at the list of websites for more web-based resources on this area.
- • v+N provide resources allocate, commit, devote, distribute, divert, provide, target Central government is failing to allocate adequate financial resources to the social care sector.
- ▸ use resources access, deploy, exploit, use, utilise All students are encouraged to utilise the centre's resources for study and research.
- • N+n use consumption, exploitation, usage, utilisation This has brought about a reduction in resource consumption in traditional materials, but an attendant increase in the use of plastics.
- ▸ management allocation, budgeting, management, mobilization, planning The committee makes recommendations on long-term planning and resource allocation.
- ▸ place providing resources base, centre Lecturers of the courses you take may place materials for you in the resource centre.
- ▸ set of resources file, library, pack We produce a resource pack for 3 to 5 year olds and their parents.

Usage Resource is always singular in all of the N+n combinations shown above.

resourced ADJ

provided with money or materials to help you achieve things

- adv+ADJ well, or well enough adequately, appropriately, fully, generously, properly, well We can deliver an appropriately resourced service with fully qualified personnel.
- ▸ badly inadequately, insufficiently, poorly Higher Education has been dogged by underfunding, with universities that are poorly resourced, and some on the brink of bankruptcy.

respect N

the attitude of admiring something or considering it seriously

- adj+N much deep, enormous, genuine, great, immense, profound, sincere, tremendous, utmost He always ensured that his musicians were treated with the utmost respect.
- ▸ not much grudging, little, scant The old building seems to have been regarded with scant respect.
- v+N get or deserve people's respect command, deserve, earn, gain, garner, inspire, regain, win He was a brilliant communicator who commanded immense respect.
- ▸ show respect demonstrate, have, show, treat with By using the language of ethnic communities in educational literature, authorities demonstrate their respect for these groups.
- ▸ have the respect of other people enjoy, receive, retain She enjoys enormous respect within the television industry.
- ▸ lose respect lose They blamed Gorbachev for destroying the Soviet Union, and rapidly lost respect for Yeltsin and his disastrous reforms.
- ▸ cause people to lose respect undermine The legislation is creating a rights culture that has undermined the respect for the law.
- and/or admiration, affection, appreciation, compassion, courtesy, dignity, fairness, friendship, love, tolerance, trust We affirm our desire to promote respect and tolerance for each other's beliefs, cultures and traditions.

respect V

show that you understand the importance of something

- V+n autonomy, belief, boundary, confidentiality, copyright, custom, difference, dignity, diversity, freedom, independence, individuality, integrity, obligation, opinion, privacy, right, sovereignty, tradition, wishes The company has respected the wishes of local people.

respected ADJ

admired and approved of by people

- adv+ADJ well deeply, enormously, fully, greatly, highly, hugely, immensely, much, well She is well known and greatly respected in the local community.
- ▸ by many people globally, internationally, nationally, universally, widely A group of internationally respected security experts has reviewed the system.

respite N

a short rest from a difficult or unpleasant situation

- adj+N lasting a short time brief, momentary, short, short-lived, temporary His comrade's bravery had earned them a momentary respite.
- ▸ enjoyable much-needed, perfect, welcome The inn served great food and offered a welcome respite from the rain.
- v+N give someone respite afford, allow, bring, give, grant, offer, provide The building offered no respite from the bitter cold.
- ▸ try to get respite seek Seeking respite from her failing marriage, she embarked on a relationship with a neighbour.
- ▸ get respite enjoy, find, gain, obtain The house provided him with an environment in which he could find respite from the anxieties of war.

respond V

react to something with a particular action

- adv+V in a positive or useful way constructively, creatively, effectively, enthusiastically, favourably, flexibly, generously, magnificently, positively, sensitively, sympathetically, well Previous supporters are more likely to respond favourably to another approach.
- ▸ in a suitable way accordingly, appropriately We will continue to monitor the situation and respond accordingly.
- ▸ quickly immediately, instantly, promptly, quickly, rapidly, swiftly We will keep this guidance under review so we can respond swiftly to new issues as they arise.
- ▸ in a negative way angrily, negatively Friends of the Earth has responded angrily to today's decision to allow oil to be pumped between ships in the Firth of Forth.
- V+to things that people say or ask for appeal, call, challenge, complaint, concern, criticism, demand, enquiry, invitation, pressure, query, question, request The EU position on GMO labelling goes too far in responding to consumer concerns.
- ▸ things that happen crisis, disaster, emergency, incident, threat The Highways Agency has substantially strengthened its ability to detect and respond to incidents.
- ▸ a new situation change, opportunity The farming community has responded well to changes in people's eating habits.

response N a reaction

- adj+N showing that you like something encouraging, enthusiastic, favourable, positive This piece receives an enthusiastic response from the audience.
- ▸ showing that you dislike something negative These shows had a negative response from viewers.
- ▸ quick fast, immediate, instant, prompt, quick, rapid, speedy, swift The University will facilitate swift responses to enquiries and applications.
- ▸ given quickly without thinking properly knee-jerk Some condemned this law as a knee-jerk response to the events of September 11th.
- v+N cause a response bring, evoke, generate, induce, prompt, provoke, stimulate, trigger His comments prompted an angry response from environmentalists.

▸ get a response attract, elicit, get, receive An initial survey elicited an enthusiastic response from the members.
▸ give a response give, offer, submit The deadline for submitting your response is the end of next week.

responsibility N
the state of being in charge or being to blame

• adj+N types of responsibility administrative, individual, legal, managerial, ministerial, moral, parental, personal, social, statutory Owners have a statutory responsibility to ensure that these signs are maintained.
▸ emphasizing who is really in charge overall, prime, sole, ultimate The committee takes overall responsibility for finance and budgeting.
▸ when responsibility belongs to a group rather than an individual collective, corporate, joint The Cabinet takes collective responsibility for decisions like these.

• v+N have or accept responsibility accept, assume, bear, have, retain, share, shoulder, take, undertake Classroom assistants were shouldering much more responsibility than they should.
▸ give responsibility to others assign, charge sb with, delegate, devolve, hand over, pass, transfer The Convener had chosen to delegate these responsibilities to an assistant.
▸ refuse to accept responsibility abdicate, disclaim, shirk, shrink from He could not have been accused of shirking his responsibilities.

• N+v fall on, lie with, rest with A fundamental principle in maritime safety is that the ultimate responsibility rests with the shipowner.

responsible ADJ having a responsibility, and therefore able to be blamed if something goes wrong

• adv+ADJ emphasizing that only one person is in charge or to blame directly, entirely, solely, ultimately, wholly The driver will be solely responsible for any damage or injury resulting from an accident.
▸ when a group of people is responsible, rather than an individual collectively, jointly The police and city council are jointly responsible for controlling crime and disorder in the area.
▸ mainly chiefly, largely, mainly, principally The postholder will be principally responsible for dealing directly with customers.
▸ in a particular way financially, legally, managerially, morally, professionally Landlords are legally responsible for maintaining gas appliances and must have regular safety inspections.

• v+ADJ consider sb/sth, deem sb/sth, find sb/sth, hold sb/sth, make sb/sth, regard sb/sth, think sb/sth Captains are deemed responsible for the actions of their teams.

rest V
relax or sleep after a tiring activity

• and/or eat, enjoy, feed, recover, refresh, relax, sit, sleep, stop, unwind I play computer games as a way of resting and relaxing from a hard day's work.

rest on PHR VB
depend on or be based on something

• adv+V chiefly, entirely, largely, primarily, principally, solely, ultimately His place in physics rests chiefly on his researches in radiation.

• V+n an assumption assertion, assumption, presumption, presupposition But these hopes often rest on unrealistic assumptions.
▸ a principle or belief argument, belief, conviction, foundation, idea, premise, principle, proposition, tenet Our policy for sourcing goods rests on firm ethical principles.
▸ a mistaken belief misunderstanding Their position on the Middle East rests on a misunderstanding of recent history.

restoration N
the process of bringing something back to its original condition

• adj+N done with care and respect careful, meticulous, painstaking, sensitive, sympathetic, tasteful Now fitted with Pullman Seats throughout, the rest of the cinema is undergoing tasteful restoration.
▸ complete and on a large scale complete, extensive, major, thorough The castle has undergone extensive restoration in the last 15 years.
▸ incomplete cosmetic, partial In the short-term, the budget will only allow for cosmetic restoration – mainly a thorough clean of all the brickwork.

• v+N experience restoration undergo A number of landmark buildings are currently undergoing restoration.
▸ do restoration carry out, complete, perform, undertake The Heritage Trust also undertakes restoration of historic buildings.
▸ need restoration await, be in need of, need, require The college buildings were improved in 1980, but are now in need of further restoration.

restore V
1 cause a particular situation or state to exist again

• V+n a positive feeling confidence, dignity, faith, pride, sanity Will the tighter regulations help restore public confidence?
▸ a positive situation credibility, democracy, discipline, equilibrium, harmony, normality, peace, profitability, stability After the bombings, it was important to restore normality as soon as possible.

2 return someone or something to a previous state

• V+to beauty, elegance, fitness, glory, grandeur, health, splendour The town of Whitehaven is being restored to its Georgian splendour.

Usage Restore is often passive in these V+to combinations.

3 make something old and damaged look new again

• adv+V well beautifully, carefully, completely, extensively, faithfully, fully, imaginatively, immaculately, lovingly, magnificently, meticulously, newly, painstakingly, sensitively, splendidly, superbly, sympathetically, tastefully, wonderfully The building has been thoroughly and sympathetically restored, maintaining its charm.

▸ partly cosmetically, partially, partly The nave clerestory and roof are of the 15th century but have been partly restored.

Usage Restore is usually passive in all of these adv+V combinations.

restraint N controls on people's behaviour or actions

- adj+N budgetary, constitutional, dietary, fiscal, judicial, monetary, moral, regulatory Such budgetary restraints are common to all building projects.
- v+N advise people to control their behaviour advocate, recommend, urge He advocated restraint in eating, drinking and sexual behaviour.

▸ control your own behaviour apply, exercise, observe, practise, show The Presidency calls on all parties to exercise restraint and refrain from any action which would make the situation worse.

▸ force people to control their behaviour enforce, impose The Government will use these powers to enforce restraint.

restrict V

keep something within strict limits

- adv+V unfairly artificially, unduly, unfairly, unnecessarily, unreasonably Critics contend that current programmes unfairly restrict private landlords.

▸ strictly greatly, seriously, severely, tightly Severely restricting sports development and facilities will not improve the health of the nation.

restriction N

a rule or action that limits something [usually plural]

- adj+N strict severe, strict, stringent, tight, tough We would have to impose much tighter restrictions on motoring, but this is politically risky.

▸ unfair arbitrary, draconian, undue, unnecessary, unreasonable We urge members to resist arbitrary restrictions placed upon their activities.

▸ imposed by a law or rule contractual, legal, legislative, regulatory, statutory When employees are under 20, there are statutory restrictions on the number of hours they can work.

▸ types of restriction budgetary, commercial, dietary, environmental, financial, geographical, religious, technical Engines had to be modified to meet California's stringent environmental restrictions.

- v+N make a restriction exist apply, enforce, impose, introduce, place The nature of the building is such that we have to impose a few restrictions on visitors.

▸ obey a restriction comply with, meet, observe Some trucking companies had failed to comply with the restrictions on drivers' hours.

▸ make a restriction stop existing abolish, ease, lift, loosen, relax, remove, waive The major supermarkets wanted the Government to lift all restrictions on trading on a Sunday.

▸ avoid or break a restriction breach, bypass, circumvent, evade, ignore, overcome, override, violate Attempts to violate restrictions on producing electrical goods would no longer be tolerated.

restrictive ADJ

strictly limiting or controlling someone or something

- adv+ADJ excessively, extremely, highly, overly, too, unduly, unnecessarily, unreasonably, very Limiting the use of downloaded music to a single copy on a single PC seems unduly restrictive.
- ADJ+n law, legislation, measure, policy, practice, regime, regulation, rule This policy is more restrictive than the law requires.

result N

1 something caused by something else

- adj+N good excellent, good, positive, satisfactory Good results can be achieved through patience and regular daily treatments.

If you want to emphasize that one thing happens because of another particular thing, you can use the phrase as a direct result of: As a direct result of all the structural work undertaken leading up to the Expo, Lisbon now boasts an extended underground system.

▸ bad catastrophic, disappointing, disasterous, negative Poor yoga practices will likely produce disappointing results.

▸ after considering everything end, final, net, overall The net result of these changes is that postage costs will be cheaper.

▸ clear and noticeable concrete, real, tangible, visible The new policy has not yet produced concrete results.

2 information obtained, for example from an experiment or piece of research [usually plural]

- adj+N good or useful encouraging, impressive, outstanding, pleasing, promising The drug has been trialled on mice, and so far the results are impressive.

▸ not yet final first, initial, interim, preliminary In the next chapter, we discuss the preliminary results of our survey.

▸ surprising startling, surprising, unexpected When he did this, he got some interesting and unexpected results.

▸ bad, or not good enough disappointing, inconclusive, negative, poor, unsatisfactory Some of the statistical measures were abandoned because they produced unsatisfactory results.

- v+N publish results announce, disseminate, give, present, publish, release, report, show The paper presents the results of their research into carbon capture.

▸ consider or analyze results analyze, assess, collate, discuss, evaluate, interpret, review Predictably, the UK media has tried to find a way to interpret the result negatively.

▸ produce results generate, give, produce, return, yield Searching for titles with 'Zen' and 'Tao' in them will also yield good results.

▸ obtain results get, obtain, see We're seeing better results now that we've changed the formula we use for calculating scores.

- N+v confirm, demonstrate, highlight, imply, indicate, mean, prove, reflect, report, reveal, show, suggest The results clearly demonstrate a huge variation between species.

resume V
start something again after stopping temporarily

- V+n discussion conversation, deliberations, dialogue, negotiations, talks Union officials are to resume talks with bosses in an attempt to avert a strike on New Year's Eve.
- ▸ fighting attack, battle, fighting, hostilities, offensive, operations If the intense cold was not bad enough, they also had the threat of the Afghans resuming hostilities.
- ▸ other activities career, duties, journey, search, study, testing, work Borschette had a heart attack that night and never resumed his duties as a Commissioner.

retain V continue to have something

- V+n good qualities atmosphere, character, charm, flexibility, identity, independence, integrity The village has retained its rural charm despite the onset of tourism.
- ▸ right to do or have something copyright, freedom, option, ownership, possession, right, status, title Under the contract, the artist retains ownership of his master tapes.
- ▸ power or responsibility control, power, responsibility The president retained control over defence policy.

retaliation N
something unpleasant done to punish a bad action

- adj+N severe devastating, harsh, massive, overwhelming, violent Nuclear states manage their relations by the threat of devastating retaliation.
- ▸ types of retaliation economic, military, nuclear This policy is intended to deter a major aggressor by threatening nuclear retaliation.
- v+N cause retaliation invite, prompt, provoke, trigger The attack undermines the progress we are making towards peace and is likely to provoke retaliation.
- ▸ threaten retaliation threaten Some officials in those countries have threatened retaliation against U.S. companies.
- ▸ be afraid of retaliation fear Residents had already fled their homes, fearing retaliation.
- ▸ experience retaliation face, suffer He warned Shia Muslims not to attack Sunnis, saying they could face retaliation.
- N+for attack, bombing, death, killing, murder Moscow decided not to use force in retaliation for the bombings.

rethink N an act of considering something again in order to change it

- adj+N complete, fundamental, major, radical, serious, thorough, urgent The housing crisis will only be solved by a radical rethink of current government policy.
- v+N cause, demand, force, prompt, require, urge These trends are forcing a rethink of the current business model.

retirement N
the time when older people stop working

- adj+N before the planned or expected date early, premature He is taking early retirement in order to concentrate his energies on teaching adults.
- ▸ after a long period of hard work well-deserved, well-earned She will be taking well-earned retirement from the company in August this year.
- ▸ even if you do not want it compulsory, forced, mandatory Their government was the first to abolish compulsory retirement at age 65.
- ▸ about to happen forthcoming, imminent, impending With Professor Welch's impending retirement, the department needs to find a new head.
- v+N reach the age of retirement reach When you reach retirement, you may want to move to a smaller home.
- ▸ be about to reach retirement approach, face, head towards, near If you are nearing retirement, these bonds could be a popular investment solution.
- ▸ think about taking retirement consider, contemplate, ponder, think about Officer Wilkins says he has pondered retirement, but will keep going as long as he has enthusiasm for the job.
- ▸ take retirement take Once you have taken retirement, there may be increased opportunity for visiting new countries and discovering new cultures.
- ▸ decide to take retirement later than usual defer, delay, postpone Members must not feel forced by pension scares to delay retirement indefinitely.
- ▸ have enough money for your retirement finance, fund, provide for, save for How much do you need to save in order to fund a comfortable retirement?

retreat N an act of leaving an unpleasant or dangerous place or situation

- adj+N done quickly, especially without planning disorderly, hasty, headlong, hurried, quick, rapid The dog let out a yelp and beat a hasty retreat to his doghouse.
- ▸ deliberate and well-planned orderly, strategic, tactical To avoid losing the election, they made a tactical retreat on the issue of tax.
- ▸ causing a loss of respect humiliating The change of tactics forced his rivals into a humiliating retreat.
- v+N beat, be forced into, lead, make, sound This weakened and demoralized the Comintern and the leadership finally sounded the retreat.
- N+from+n politics, public life But Karadzic's public retreat from politics did not necessarily mean the end of his influence.

retribution N punishment that a bad person deserves

- adj+N quick immediate, swift The chance for immediate retribution has been missed, so what can be done now?
- ▸ violent bloody, terrible, violent Seven killers each bring their own bloody retribution.
- ▸ justified or from God divine, just Vengeance is not our goal, nor do we seek merely a just retribution.
- v+N seek retribution seek, threaten He then threatened further retribution.

- take retribution bring, exact, inflict The victorious allies inflicted retribution on Germany.
- deserve or suffer retribution face, invite, suffer To take such a position in an election campaign would be to invite retribution from voters.
- avoid retribution avoid, escape Has he somehow faked his own death in order to avoid some terrible retribution?
- fear retribution fear They refused to give evidence because they feared retribution against them or their families.

return N

1 when someone goes back to a place or situation

- adj+N welcome happy, triumphant, welcome New World marked a welcome return to the studio for the Zombies after a twenty-year absence.
- quick prompt, quick, rapid, speedy, swift I wish to take this opportunity to wish the Liberal Democrat spokesman a speedy return to health.
- soon/not soon eventual, gradual, immediate, imminent, long-awaited We will intensify our search for Amber and we remain hopeful of her eventual safe return.
- safe safe Marianne went to church to light a candle to her favourite saint and pray for Yohan's safe return.

- v+N want or expect a return await, demand, expect The Law Lords have demanded a return to respect for human rights.
- delay a return delay We decided to delay our return, in the hope that the weather would improve.
- indicate a return announce, herald, signal Rumbles of thunder heralded our return.
- welcome a return celebrate, welcome The Thai community seemed largely to welcome the return of tourists.
- see a return see Attempts to clean up the river have seen the return of salmon and trout.

- N+to a good state fitness, normality, profitability Initially, Andrew seemed to make a rapid return to normality.
- someone's home, origins or place earth, homeland, mainland, roots, shore Would they one day return to their own homeland as prophesied in the Scriptures?

2 a profit on money invested

- adj+N types of return economic, equity, financial, investment, rental, stock I guess you have already started to experience lower rental returns.
- amount of return average, guaranteed, maximum, total, 2%, 3%, 5% etc The sector's average return was a shade less than 65% over the period.
- good/bad adequate, decent, fair, good, high, low, poor, reasonable His primary concern is to ensure an adequate return on his investment.
- quick immediate They look for long-term stability rather than immediate returns.

- v+N give a return achieve, deliver, earn, generate, guarantee, yield There was a sufficient quantity of good land to yield a good return in rent.
- make a return bigger increase, maximize, optimize Socially responsible funds try to maximize returns while staying within these self-imposed boundaries.

reunion N

when people meet again after a long time

- n+N types of reunion alumni, cast, class, college, family, school Join us at an alumni reunion and catch up with old friends and meet new ones.

- adj+N happening at or after a particular time annual, 20th, 30th, 50th etc, 25th anniversary, 40th anniversary, 50th anniversary etc, 25-year, 30-year etc The 40th reunion of the 1965 Dental Year was celebrated in Glasgow in October.
- happy or emotional emotional, happy, joyful, joyous, tearful Much to my surprise the show ended with their joyful reunion.
- big grand We are looking forward to a grand reunion.

- v+N plan a reunion arrange, organize, plan, propose We will help arrange a great reunion here for you and all your extended family.
- go to a reunion attend, go to I attended the 50th anniversary reunion of the 509th Division in Utah.
- hold a reunion hold, host It is hoped that all departments will participate by hosting reunions for their alumni.

reveal V

let something become known

- adv+V clearly clearly, plainly, starkly The report revealed clearly that the Directive is failing to do its job of protecting animals.
- publicly openly, publicly To protect the witness, neither the place, the state, nor the sources will be publicly revealed.
- slowly/quickly gradually, methodically, progressively, slowly, suddenly The explanatory text is a fairly gentle guide that progressively reveals what is going on.
- accidentally accidentally, inadvertently It appears the unsavory truth was accidentally revealed by a State Department employee.
- in the end eventually, finally, ultimately Twain's lively satire ultimately reveals just what it is that defines cultural identity.
- exclusively exclusively Research revealed exclusively to the Times shows that the union supports the Government's plans.

- n+V survey poll, survey Surveys revealed that gardeners were keen to encourage wildlife into their gardens.
- research analysis, findings, report, research, results, study A study has revealed high levels of dissatisfaction among university staff.
- investigation or examination enquiry, examination, excavation, inspection, investigation, tests Excavations have revealed evidence of an earlier cemetery.
- medical examination autopsy, post mortem, scan, test, tests, x-ray The autopsy revealed that Kevin died from a heroin overdose.
- figures figures, statistics Job tenure statistics reveal only a small decline in the length of time most people spend in their jobs.

revealing ADJ

providing new, surprising, or important information

- adv+ADJ very especially, extremely, highly, particularly, very One of these prose poems, 'The Visit', is particularly revealing.

- ▸ rather quite, rather The results have been rather revealing.

- • ADJ+n piece of work autobiography, biography, interview, memoir, passage, portrait She also published a revealing autobiography, 'What's It All About?'
- ▸ insight glimpse, insight The letters offer revealing glimpses into Chekhov's preoccupations.
- ▸ words anecdote, remark There is a wonderfully revealing remark early on in the book.

revelation N a surprising piece of information

- • adj+N surprising startling, surprising Nick presents some startling revelations which will simply blow you away.
- ▸ very surprising astonishing, astounding, earth-shattering, sensational, shattering She is confronted by a series of shattering revelations that threaten everything she believes in.
- ▸ shocking embarrassing, shocking At age 32, he learned the shocking revelation that his sister was really his mother.

revenge N hurting or defeating someone who has hurt or defeated you

- • adj+N violent bloody, brutal, cruel, murderous, terrible, violent As Titus plots his bloody revenge, he reflects that 'Rome is but a wilderness of tigers'.
- ▸ quick immediate, swift In the meantime, the creditors' revenge was swift.
- ▸ enjoyable sweet Revenge was sweet for the former champions.
- ▸ justified just It is at this point that he articulates the notion of a just revenge.

- • v+N plan revenge plan, plot, threaten Jamie knows his guilty secret and is planning a terrible revenge.
- ▸ want revenge seek, want Dawn felt angry towards Konzani and wanted revenge.
- ▸ promise revenge swear, vow Fearing his son dead, Edward swears revenge on the French.
- ▸ take revenge exact, gain, get, take, wreak Truro gained their revenge however, by beating Newquay to retain the Cup.

- • N+for for a violent act attack, death, killing, murder They reportedly took revenge for the killing of their relatives.
- ▸ for a defeat defeat, loss Revenge for the nightmarish semi-final defeat in 1999 would be sweet.

revenue N income from business activities or taxes

- • adj+N net/gross average, gross, net, taxation, total Net revenue in the first three months rose to $84m, an increase of 42 per cent.
- ▸ extra additional, extra, increased, incremental It focuses business strategy on engaging staff with customers and thereby creating incremental revenues.
- ▸ lost lost One clause allows companies to sue governments for lost revenue caused by strikes.
- ▸ expected anticipated, estimated, projected At a rate of £7 per day and 50 spaces available for stall owners, the anticipated revenue for this year is expected to reach £8,400.
- ▸ in a particular period annual, yearly Tourism is the world's largest industry, with an annual revenue of almost $500 billion.

- • n+N from business advertising, export, oil, sale, sponsorship, subscription, tourism Advertising revenues are volatile, but overall continue to be around 1 per cent, up year-on-year.
- ▸ from tax custom, tax, toll He also increased tax revenues for infrastructure development.

- • v+N create revenue create, generate, raise, yield The Library currently generates revenue in the order of £24 million annually.
- ▸ get revenue collect, derive, earn In the last two years, the company has been improving its performance and earning higher revenue.
- ▸ increase revenue boost, double, increase, maximize The investment was planned to bring cost savings and help to boost sales revenue.
- ▸ expect revenue anticipate, expect, project In the first year, net revenues were projected at £130m.
- ▸ lose revenue lose We are losing revenue as we cannot transport vehicles to Dunoon.

- • N+n creation or increase funding, generation, growth, raising Revenue growth over the summer has continued the trend we saw at the beginning of the year.
- ▸ something that earns revenue earner, generator, raiser, stream Few archaeological publications are potential major revenue earners.
- ▸ loss leakage, shortfall Reducing revenue leakage and maximising profits is the aim of every operator in the market.
- ▸ sharing allocation, sharing At the moment remuneration is based on volume, but in the future it could move to revenue sharing.

reverence N a strong feeling of respect and admiration

- • adj+N great deep, great, profound Anna is enthusiastic about the process before them, having great reverence for her native African traditions.
- ▸ proper due, proper The party has renewed itself, but without proper reverence for its eternal principles.

- • v+N show reverence pay, show He did not show reverence to anyone, not even to his parents.
- ▸ cause reverence command, inspire Despite his many achievements, he has never really inspired the same reverence as other innovators of his generation.

- • n+of+N attitude, feeling, sense, spirit From her came the early and deep feelings of reverence that marked his life.

- • and/or love affection, devotion, love Halley's writings show his reverence and affection for Newton to have been as keen and lively as ever.
- ▸ fear or respect awe, fear, humility, respect Traditional worship promotes awe and reverence, spirituality and thoughtfulness.
- ▸ admiration admiration, wonder My respect, my admiration, my reverence for you will be with me always.

reversal N a change that makes something into the opposite thing

- adj+N sudden abrupt, dramatic, rapid, sharp, sudden There is no hint that Frank is unhappy with Martha, so why the sudden reversal?
- ▸ surprising astonishing, remarkable, unexpected How was such an astonishing reversal in constitutional practice justified?
- ▸ complete/partial complete, partial We need to have a complete reversal of the current situation.
- v+N experience a reversal experience, suffer, undergo The decline of goodwill was most precipitous in Mexico, where opinions underwent a complete reversal.
- ▸ seek a reversal demand, seek, suggest Climate change demands a reversal of our moral compass, for which we are plainly unprepared.
- ▸ mark a reversal mark, represent, see The decision in Scotland marks a reversal of previous Labour policy.
- N+of of a tendency decline, pattern, trend There must be a reversal of the trend of reduced levels of health service funding.
- ▸ of a decision decision, policy Customs and Excise are appealing to the High Court for reversal of the decision.
- ▸ of roles role Both commented that it was a very interesting and productive reversal of roles!

You can also talk about role reversal: This was a total role reversal for both men.

- ▸ of luck fortunes There are two stories of dramatic reversals of fortune.

reverse V
change a process or situation to the opposite process or situation

- adv+V suddenly abruptly, dramatically, suddenly My opinions were soon to be dramatically reversed!
- ▸ quickly/slowly quickly, slowly The current trend in the opposite direction should at least be halted, if not slowly reversed.
- ▸ completely/partly completely, partially, partly Today that situation is completely reversed.
- ▸ temporarily temporarily The welfare state temporarily reversed this tendency by institutionalising the university as a public good.
- ▸ in practice effectively Having placed such individuals under suspicion, the burden of proof of guilt is effectively reversed.
- ▸ simply simply Many people think that an eating disorder can be reversed simply be eating normally again.
- V+n a tendency decline, situation, trend We shall be looking at various ways and means of reversing this trend.
- ▸ a decision decision, ruling In an 8–0 judgement, the court reversed the ruling of a Montreal school board, which banned Gurbaj Singh Multani from wearing his dagger, known as a kirpan.
- ▸ someone's luck fortunes He reversed the ailing fortunes of his previous school, and hopes to repeat his success.
- ▸ damage damage No amount of restoration can reverse damage on this scale.

review N
1 the process of studying a situation or idea again

- adj+N full complete, comprehensive, detailed, full, fundamental, in-depth, thorough It's now over 20 years since the last comprehensive review of housing.
- ▸ after a particular period annual, constant, monthly, periodic, quarterly, regular There is on annual review of this policy by the IT co-ordinator.
- ▸ types of review critical, ethical, expert, formal, independent, internal, judicial, strategic, systematic The extraction was done by a statistician experienced in systematic reviews.
- n+N governance, medication, pay, performance, rent, salary, spending These costs may well be considered as part of the spending review that will shortly be announced.
- v+N ask or pay for a review apply for, ask for, call for, commission, request, seek You have a right to request a review of this decision.
- ▸ carry out a review carry out, complete, conduct, undertake The Culture Committee is currently conducting a review of the impact of sport and the arts on regeneration.
- ▸ announce or start a review announce, initiate, institute, launch, order In Spring 2006 the University initiated a review of the Student Charter.
- ▸ have a review be kept under, be subject to, be under, undergo It is advised that this situation be kept under constant review.

2 an article giving someone's opinion of a book, film etc

- adj+N positive excellent, favourable, glowing, good, positive, rave INFORMAL Elinor's books were read all over the world and she received glowing reviews.
- ▸ negative or mixed bad, critical, mixed It will be interesting to see what he will make of a film that has had mixed reviews so far.
- ▸ short/long brief, critical, detailed, in-depth, short In Musical Traditions they can find in-depth critical reviews of records and books by real experts
- n+N types of review album, book, CD, DVD, film, gig The journal also carries a bibliography of recent publications and book reviews.
- ▸ by a person or in a place consumer, customer, online, press, reader Check online reviews and user ratings.

review V
study a situation, policy, or idea again

- adv+V at particular intervals or now annually, currently, periodically, regularly Subscriptions to all journals will be reviewed annually.
- ▸ all the time constantly, continually, continuously The policy and procedures will be reviewed continuously and in line with the school's Action Plan.
- ▸ carefully or thoroughly carefully, comprehensively, systematically, thoroughly The system should be thoroughly reviewed and consideration given to providing a bi-lingual service.
- ▸ in a particular way critically, formally, independently This Code of Practice will be formally reviewed after a period of three years.

revise V

change something such as a plan, law, or piece of writing

- adv+V up/down downward, downwardly, downwards, upward, upwardly, upwards Forecasts for global oil demand have again been revised downwards.
- ▸ a lot/a little completely, comprehensively, extensively, fully, slightly, substantially, thoroughly This is a completely revised, updated and expanded edition of Training an Actor.
- ▸ all the time constantly, continually, continuously We are constantly revising and improving these resources following your feedback.
- ▸ at particular intervals annually, periodically We periodically revise the guidance notes and application forms to include changes and to improve clarity.
- ▸ severely drastically, radically To take full advantage of telecommuting, traditional organisational structures must be drastically revised.
- ▸ recently newly The aim of this newly revised online database is to keep researchers informed of current research activities.

- V+n document document, draft, edition, version This is a fully revised edition of the groundbreaking study on tourism.
- ▸ estimate budget, estimate, figures, forecast, prediction It revised its estimate of the ship's cargo from 900 tons to 1,900 tons.
- ▸ plan or suggestion plan, proposal, schedule, strategy, timetable Do we revise our plans to keep them relevant?
- ▸ rules code, constitution, directive, legislation, regulations This is probably a good time to revise the constitution of the governing body in line with the new requirements.
- ▸ way of doing something criteria, guidance, guidelines, procedure We know that companies will need to revise their procedures to take advantage of this change.

- and/or make better or more correct amend, correct, edit, review, rewrite, update We continue to revise and update this site and to add new material.
- ▸ make bigger enlarge, expand Now this indispensable reference volume has been enlarged and completely revised.
- ▸ publish or give again reissue, relaunch, reprint, republish, resubmit The plan was revised and reissued at least four times.

revision N

the process of changing a plan, law, or piece of writing

- adj+N big/small minor, substantial, thorough There was no really thorough revision of the text before the end of the sixteenth century.
- ▸ complete drastic, radical, wholesale Singer concludes that morality requires a radical revision of our moral duties.
- ▸ all the time or not all the time constant, continual, periodic As the game progresses, the player's estimate of her winning chances will undergo constant revisiom.
- ▸ upward or downward downward, upward Building leases include a clause to enable upward revision of the rental charge to prevailing market conditions.

- v+N need or require revision necessitate, need, require The authors have written an important book that will necessitate the revision of many traditional theories.
- ▸ ask for revision ask for, call for, request After discussion, members requested a further revision of the structure.
- ▸ suggest revision propose, recommend, suggest The report recommends revisions to the original plans.
- ▸ have revision undergo The law is currently undergoing revision to close a rather strange loophole.
- ▸ carry out revision complete, initiate, undertake Eliot undertook a thorough revision of his translation for the second edition.

revival N

the process of becoming successful or popular again

- adj+N brief, mini, modest, short-lived The World Cup coverage seems to be prompting a mini revival of the game at kids' level and above.

- v+N cause a revival inspire, kick-start, spark Harsh words at half time seemed to spark a mini revival and Leamington finally took the lead.
- ▸ experience a revival enjoy, experience, undergo, witness In recent years, the Cornish language has undergone a revival.
- ▸ lead a revival spearhead In the 1870s William Morris spearheaded a revival of block printing.
- ▸ indicate a revival herald, mark, signal The introduction of a National Short Story Prize marks a revival of interest in the UK.

- N+of interest, sb's fortunes, tradition There is currently an enormous revival of interest in herbal medicine.

revive V

become or make something popular or successful again

- adv+V briefly, miraculously, partially, single-handedly, successfully He retired to Thailand, where he almost single-handedly revived the Thai silk industry.

- V+n a feeling hope, interest, memory, sb's spirits A hearty breakfast of sausage rolls, orange juice and tea seem to revive the spirits.
- ▸ the economy economy Efforts have been made by international bodies to revive the economies of Africa.
- ▸ aim or activity ambitions, career, fortunes The local economy is putting its money into next year's Winter Olympics, which will, it hopes, revive its fortunes.
- ▸ a tradition custom, tradition The school has recently revived the tradition of academic scholarships.

revolt N

an attempt to remove a government using force

- adj+N unsuccessful abortive, attempted, unsuccessful The revolt was unsuccessful and their last attempt at regaining any control.

▸ mass mass, popular Presumably they would stage a mass revolt if there was any suggestion that major rigging of elections had taken place.
▸ armed or bloody armed, bloody By this time, the term 'revolution' had come to mean a bloody revolt.

• v+N stop a revolt crush, put down, quell, repress, suppress He commanded the French expedition that helped quell an anti-Bourbon revolt in Spain in 1823.
▸ start a revolt provoke, spark, trigger The Dissolution provoked an armed revolt which nearly cost Henry his throne.
▸ organize or lead a revolt foment, lead, organize, stage Traveling from church to church allowed Turner to gather the knowledge he needed to organize his revolt.

revolution N

1 a situation in which people completely change their government

• adj+N political bourgeois, communist, democratic, proletarian, socialist A socialist revolution cannot be carried through from above.
▸ successful glorious, permanent Their leaders know that there will be no glorious revolution.

• v+N start a revolution ignite, inaugurate, instigate, precipitate, spark In Belgium in 1830, an opera sparked a revolution.
▸ have a revolution accomplish, bring about, effect, foment The proletariat of a backward country was fated to accomplish the first socialist revolution.
▸ lead a revolution lead, spearhead They are the only class capable of leading a revolution.
▸ defeat a revolution defeat, overthrow They used every means they could to isolate and defeat the revolution.

2 a sudden or major change in the way something is done

• adj+N agrarian, biotech, biotechnology, broadband, communications, digital, genetics, industrial, media, scientific, technological, telecommunications There is currently a technological revolution taking place in higher education.

• v+N start a revolution herald, inaugurate, instigate, kick-start, precipitate, spark The knowledge of our genetic make-up will herald a revolution in new diagnostic tests.
▸ bring about a revolution accomplish, bring about, effect It has been claimed that T.S. Eliot effected a poetic revolution.
▸ lead a revolution lead, spearhead Monica spearheaded the aerobics revolution in this country.
▸ experience a revolution experience, undergo Language teaching has undergone a revolution during the past decade.

• N+in in a subject or activity agriculture, biology, communication, computing, healthcare, mathematics, medicine, physic, science, technology The first half of the nineteenth century saw a revolution in agriculture.
▸ in thoughts or attitudes attitude, taste, thinking, thought The 20th century has seen a revolution in our attitudes to mental problems.

revulsion N an extreme feeling of dislike

• adj+N felt by many people popular, public, universal, widespread It coincides with growing and widespread revulsion for professional politicians.
▸ strong deep, utter Words cannot adequately express our utter revulsion and horror at this senseless act.

• v+N cause revulsion cause, provoke It was a case that would provoke revulsion in the mind of all decent people.
▸ feel revulsion feel, share Does he share my revulsion at yesterday's acts of violent thuggery?
▸ express revulsion express Words cannot express my revulsion at a law which would place anyone in that situation.

• and/or disgust, fear, horror, shock This vicious and cowardly crime has filled us all with horror and deepest revulsion.

reward N

1 something good received for good behaviour

• adj+N large/small ample, great, immense, rich, scant, substantial A one-goal lead at the break was scant reward for a dominant home display.
▸ in heaven eternal, heavenly Your eternal reward will directly reflect your suffering.
▸ suitable fair, fitting, just It was a fitting reward for many hours of hard work by our students.
▸ now or later immediate, instant, ultimate For many students, instant rewards for speaking English are much more motivating.
▸ clear obvious, tangible Many donors seek the tangible rewards and impact of giving locally.

• v+N get a reward enjoy, gain, get, obtain, reap, receive Meanwhile, a targeted approach to improving behaviour is already reaping rewards.
▸ deserve a reward deserve, earn, merit We both vowed that night that such tenacity and determination deserved its rewards.
▸ offer or give a reward bring, offer, promise, yield External motivation can be affected by offering appropriate rewards for success in language learning.
▸ expect a reward expect Albania certainly expects substantial rewards for having proven itself as a loyal and stable ally.

• N+for for effort effort, endeavour, labour Relegation to the Third Division was the only reward for their endeavours.
▸ for success achievement, excellence, success This is a reward for significant school achievements in the previous year.
▸ for loyalty loyalty The Order of the Garter is an honour presented by the British monarch as a reward for loyalty and for military merit.

2 money you receive for working or giving information

• adj+N financial financial, monetary, tangible Rice makes about two to three times what he made as a scientist, but the rewards aren't all monetary.
▸ large ample, great, handsome, immense, rich, substantial I am guessing the financial rewards are handsome.

▸ fair fair, just It is important that people receive a fair reward for their labours.
▸ immediate immediate, instant The first is the set up fee which is a one off payment and is an immediate reward for work done.

• v+N get rewards enjoy, gain, get, obtain, reap, receive They are concerned about developers gaining financial reward from those practices.
▸ deserve reward deserve, earn Teachers who consistently raise standards deserve fair reward.
▸ offer or give a reward bring, offer, promise, yield Information regarding the robbing of a house might yield a reward of 10 guineas.
▸ expect or claim a reward claim, expect Please contact us to claim your reward.

rewarding ADJ giving you satisfaction, pleasure, or profit

• adv+ADJ very enormously, extremely, highly, hugely, immensely, incredibly, infinitely, particularly, richly, tremendously, very, wonderfully Research into Medieval English is complex but richly rewarding.
▸ in a particular way financially, intellectually, personally, professionally Being a roofer can be a financially rewarding profession.

• ADJ+n career career, employment, job, profession The job is rewarding and varied.
▸ task challenge, task Parenting today is a complex but rewarding challenge.
▸ hobby hobby, pastime, pursuit Candlemaking is an easy and rewarding hobby.
▸ experience experience This was to be a very intense but rewarding experience that I will never forget.
▸ feature aspect What is the most rewarding aspect of your job?
▸ relationship relationship Any dog owner should have a long and rewarding relationship with their dog.

• v+ADJ be, find, prove Strathclyde University has proved extremely rewarding and I am now enjoying my first job.

• and/or enjoyable enjoyable, exciting, pleasurable We are hopeful you will find your time as a volunteer with us enjoyable and rewarding..
▸ interesting fascinating, interesting, stimulating My history course is brilliant – constantly challenging but also very interesting and rewarding.
▸ challenging challenging, demanding The role is both rewarding and challenging.
▸ satisfying satisfying, worthwhile Our graduates go on to secure rewarding and worthwhile careers.

rhetoric N a style of speaking or writing that is intended to influence people

• adj+N exaggerated exaggerated, high-flown, overblown I do not like this kind of overblown, exaggerated rhetoric.
▸ empty empty, hollow, mere You wrote with the same empty rhetoric as your other replies.
▸ types of rhetoric anti-imperialist, government, left-wing, nationalist, patriotic, populist, right-wing It is vital to avoid surrendering to populist rhetoric.
▸ intended to stir emotion alarmist, bellicose, emotive, inflammatory Headlines scream out with emotive rhetoric, spreading fear within the community.

• v+N use rhetoric adopt, deploy, employ, spout You're repeating hearsay and spouting rhetoric with absolutely nothing to back it up.
▸ challenge rhetoric challenge, examine A Catholic apologist challenges the anti-Catholic rhetoric of some extreme fundamentalists.
▸ avoid rhetoric avoid We have successfully avoided flowery rhetoric.
▸ believe rhetoric believe You will not be surprised to hear that no one in the conference believed the rhetoric.
▸ match rhetoric match We must ensure that the reality is changed to match the rhetoric.

rhythm N
1 a regular pattern in nature or in life

• adj+N regular/irregular abnormal, irregular, steady My opinion is that his heart had a sudden abnormal rhythm.
▸ types of rhythm biological, cardiac, circadian, diurnal I suffer from insomnia, unless I am careful about my circadian rhythm.

• v+N disrupt, disturb, upset Damaged heart muscle can also upset the normal rhythm of the heart.

2 a regular pattern of sounds in music

• adj+N repetitive hypnotic, insistent, pulsing, repetitive The insistent rhythms of its music had drawn and were holding a large crowd.
▸ not smooth dotted, jerky, staccato, syncopated The irregular metre is interrupted by many pauses, creating a slow and rather jerky rhythm.
▸ smooth or gentle gentle, lilting, undulating As soon as the spoken part is over, the percussion starts beating out a gentle rhythm.
▸ strong drumming, funky, percussive, pounding, pulsating, throbbing There are now eight such groups across Europe playing the same funky rhythms.
▸ appealing catchy, infectious, upbeat These infectious rhythms are what make the band so popular among locals and visitors to the islands.

rich ADJ
1 having a lot of money

• adv+ADJ very enormously, exceedingly, extremely, fabulously, fantastically, immensely, incredibly They're not fabulously rich, or famous, or beautiful.
▸ too filthy, obscenely, stinking The Lydian King, Kroisos, was filthy rich, coining his own money at will.

• and/or beautiful, famous, powerful, privileged For the most part we didn't become rich and powerful through our own efforts.

2 interesting, with many different qualities, experiences etc

• adv+ADJ very amazingly, astonishingly, extraordinarily, fantastically, incredibly, infinitely, wonderfully Clara's songs, recently discovered, are wonderfully rich in their own right.

- ▸ unusually exceptionally, particularly, remarkably, unusually The valley has an unusually rich flora of over 600 species with many rarities.
- ▸ in a particular way biologically, botanically, culturally, ecologically, functionally, graphically, harmonically, visually Today this culturally rich area gives a wonderful view on its history.
- • ADJ+n history heritage, history, legacy, tradition The cuisine reflects the region's rich heritage and tradition.
- ▸ mixture diversity, mix, tapestry, variety This is a rich tapestry of a book, researched with meticulous accuracy.
- ▸ plants or animals fauna, flora The Quantocks is noted for its rich flora and fauna set against stunning views across the Severn Estuary.
- • ADJ+in biodiversity, birdlife, flora, fossils, wildflowers, wildlife The island is rich in wildlife.
- • and/or colourful, diverse, fascinating, satisfying, stimulating, varied Oakley Court was built in 1859 and has a rich and colourful history.

ridicule N

remarks that make someone or something seem silly

- • v+N risk ridicule face, invite, provoke, risk Of course, without a phone teenagers risk the ridicule of their peers.
- ▸ use ridicule heap on sth/sb The journalist joined the editor in the easy work of heaping ridicule on the whole thing.
- ▸ avoid ridicule avoid All the people involved had kept it quiet in order to avoid ridicule.
- ▸ suffer ridicule be the object of, be the subject of, endure, incur, suffer It treats the rich and powerful as objects of ridicule, rather than objects of reverence.
- ▸ cause ridicule attract Such policies have attracted widespread ridicule and non-compliance.
- • and/or contempt, criticism, derision, hatred, hostility, insults, mockery, rejection, sarcasm, scorn All sympathy was immediately withdrawn and replaced by scorn and ridicule.

ridiculous ADJ

silly or unreasonable

- • adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, downright, frankly, quite, simply, totally, utterly The church's minister said: 'I think this rule is utterly ridiculous.'
- ▸ clearly patently, plain INFORMAL, plainly The idea is patently ridiculous.
- ▸ slightly faintly, a little, slightly The nation at large may regard the British intellectual as slightly ridiculous.
- ▸ rather pretty INFORMAL, rather, somewhat The food was actually pretty good and the amounts somewhat ridiculous.
- • ADJ+n idea idea, notion That would be a ridiculous notion.
- ▸ statement accusation, assertion, claim, excuse, lie, rumour U.S. officials have called the accusations ridiculous.
- ▸ amount amount People have been offering us ridiculous amounts of money for this.
- ▸ situation situation The whole situation is just ridiculous.

rift N

a disagreement between two people or groups

- • adj+N serious big, deep, huge, serious There is a serious rift, though no reason is recorded.
- ▸ getting worse deepening, widening There appears to be a widening rift between the President and the Prime Minister.
- • v+N heal a rift heal, mend, overcome, repair He worked hard behind the scenes to heal the rifts within the Party.
- ▸ make a rift worse deepen, widen The appointment of a woman Bishop has deepened rifts within the Anglican Communion.
- ▸ cause a rift cause Unfortunately, this caused rather a rift with his wife, Beryl.
- ▸ reveal a rift expose The crisis during March 1946 had already exposed a serious rift.

right N

something that is allowed morally or legally

- • adj+N legal automatic, constitutional, contractual, legal, statutory This policy is in addition to your legal statutory rights.
- ▸ basic absolute, basic, fundamental, inalienable That statement proclaims that every child is unique and has a fundamental right to education.
- ▸ types of rights democratic, individual, moral, parental, public He had no moral right to be connected with business at all.
- • n+N rights to do or have something abortion, borrowing, cancellation, pension, privacy, reproduction, resale, voting Although they have no voting rights if under 18, these members can include school students.
- ▸ rights associated with something citizenship, employment, maternity, patent, property, welfare New employment rights are now in force.
- ▸ rights for different groups animal, consumer, disability, gay, minority, women's None of the above terms and conditions affects your statutory consumer rights.
- • v+N have or claim a right assert, claim, enforce, have You have a right to request a review within 28 days.

You can say that someone reserves or retains the right to do something: We reserve the right to edit responses before publication.

- ▸ get or keep a right acquire, get, secure Time is running out for new residents to secure their right to vote.
- ▸ give someone a right confer, grant The charter conferred the right of a weekly market to be held on Wednesdays.
- ▸ use/not use a right exercise, waive You can waive your moral rights via a release form.
- ▸ defend a right defend, guarantee, protect, uphold We will tell you what you can do to protect your rights to stay in your home.
- ▸ attack or refuse a right deny, infringe, violate They claimed it violated her right not to be denied education under the Convention.

- affect a right affect This return policy does not affect your statutory rights.
- recognize a right recognize, respect We respect your right to privacy.

- N+to abortion, compensation, confidentiality, education, a fair hearing, freedom, liberty, privacy, representation, self-defence, self-determination, trial Britain is a multi-faith society in which everyone has the right to religious freedom.

rigid ADJ
difficult to change, or unwilling to change

- adv+ADJ too excessively, overly, too European governments, especially, seem to have taken an overly rigid stand on the issue.
- very extremely, highly, very They have very rigid views about what helping strategies they are prepared to accept.
- rather fairly, quite, relatively, somewhat The system is relatively rigid in operation, with limited options for customisation.
- completely absolutely, completely, totally True, this was not an absolutely rigid society.

- ADJ+n adherence, categorisation, dogma, fixation, hierarchy, observance Rigid adherence by the parties to their past positions will simply continue the stalemate.

- and/or bureaucratic, dogmatic, hierarchical, inflexible His faults are a tendency to be rigid and inflexible, and too serious.

rigorous ADJ thorough or severe

- adv+ADJ in a particular way academically, intellectually, mathematically, methodologically, scientifically, statistically In my opinion, the research presented is methodologically rigorous.
- enough/not enough insufficiently, sufficiently, suitably Assessment was not always sufficiently rigorous or accurate.
- rather fairly, quite In order for a qualification to have credibility, it helps if the test is fairly rigorous.
- very extremely, highly, very Due to extremely rigorous checking procedures, errors in the data are extremely rare.

- ADJ+n testing analysis, assessment, evaluation, examination, scrutiny, testing We went through a very rigorous testing and assessment process.
- method approach, methodology, procedure, process The broad philosophy is to apply rigorous scientific methodologies to questions that are relevant to a wide range of human diseases.
- checks checks, inspection, investigation, monitoring We enforce rigorous checks on the quality of our ingredients.
- proof proof Mr Mitchell laid particular emphasis on the need for clear and rigorous proof.
- standards criteria, standards The criteria are rigorous, and all criteria must be fulfilled to achieve the award.

rigour N
the quality of being thorough and careful

- adj+N types of rigour academic, analytical, conceptual, critical, intellectual, journalistic, mathematical, methodological, philosophical, scholarly, scientific, technical, theoretical This course combines the intellectual rigour of a graduate programme with the delivery of a business school.
- great full, great, the utmost In the medical domain, everything is tested with the utmost rigour.

- v+N bring rigour apply, bring As far as possible, the research team apply academic rigour to their activity.
- maintain rigour ensure, maintain Are academic staff also involved to ensure that academic rigour is maintained?
- lack rigour lack Students found the peer assessment process lacked rigour due to peer pressure for 'good' grades.

riot N
a violent protest by a crowd

- adj+N big full-scale, widespread The night before, they had attended a full-scale riot in the area.
- violent bloody, violent These bloody riots lasted for several days and claimed the lives of many Welsh miners.
- types of riot communal, sectarian The same period saw the first outbreaks of sectarian riots, which have recurred regularly since.

- n+N prison, race, street There are genuine fears that prison riots could break out as a result of this policy.

- v+N cause a riot cause, incite, instigate, provoke, spark, trigger The riots were sparked by the G8 Leaders' Summit scheduled to start later in the week.
- crush a riot quell, suppress As an interim step, troops were sent in to quell riots.
- start a riot start Lenin had returned to Russia in April 1917 and he was blamed by the government for starting the riots.
- stop a riot prevent, stop Society is still incapable of preventing race riots in the streets of many countries.

- N+v break out, ensue, erupt, happen, occur His family moved to England shortly after the first riots erupted in 1969.

ripple N

- v+N cause, create, send, spread These announcements will cause ripples of displeasure across the public sector.

- N+of of a sound applause, laughter After a ripple of applause from the audience, Bob was able to continue with the show.
- of an emotion excitement, fear It will send unnecessary ripples of fear throughout one of the UK's most vulnerable communities.

rise V
1 increase in size, amount, quality, or strength

- adv+V quickly or suddenly dramatically, exponentially, fast, quickly, rapidly, sharply, steeply, suddenly Carbon emissions from aviation are rising sharply.
- slowly or gradually gradually, progressively, slowly, steadily Imports of Australian wine into Great Britain rose steadily.

▸ a lot considerably, markedly, significantly, strongly, substantially Trading profits in these businesses rose significantly in the first half of the year.
▸ a little marginally, slightly The annual amount given to charities rose slightly after 1998.
▸ continually consistently, constantly, continually, continuously, inexorably Our readership numbers seem to rise inexorably.

2 achieve success, power, or higher status

• adv+V quickly dramatically, fast, rapidly, swiftly Success followed, and he swiftly rose up the managerial ranks.
▸ slowly gradually, slowly, steadily She gradually rose to become a leading character in the series.

• V+to dominance, eminence, fame, greatness, heights, prominence, stardom The director of the Netherlands Architecture Institute explains how such a small nation rose to such prominence.

rise N

1 an increase in size, amount, quality, or strength

• adj+N fast or sudden abrupt, dramatic, exponential, fast, rapid, sharp, steep, sudden Customers are being urged to conserve water following a sharp rise in demand during the hot weather.
▸ large or noticeable big, huge, marked, massive, noticeable, significant, substantial Melting glaciers would lead to a massive rise in global sea levels.
▸ slow gradual, slow, steady There has been a steady rise in the number of voices supporting the 'open sourcing' of science.
▸ small modest, slight When the government announced a slight rise in social security payments, it provoked an outcry.
▸ surprising or worrying alarming, unprecedented, worrying The statistics show an unprecedented rise in arrests for cannabis possession.
▸ expected anticipated, expected, predicted, projected The new road will help to cope with a predicted rise in traffic volumes.
▸ continuing continued, inexorable, sustained The first six months of the year saw continued price rises.
▸ as a result of something consequent, corresponding, inevitable Expenditure on tobacco advertising increased, with a corresponding rise in consumption.

• v+N cause a rise accelerate, cause, fuel, trigger They fuel the rise in racism by attempting to blame immigrants for the government's shortcomings.
▸ prevent or control a rise combat, counter, curb, halt, offset, prevent, reverse, stem There is a growing recognition that medicine alone cannot halt the rise of mental illness.
▸ expect a rise anticipate, expect, forecast, predict The authority predicted a rise in the number of passengers using the airports over the next ten years.
▸ see or experience a rise experience, see, show, witness This is why we are witnessing the rise in terrorism around the world.
▸ report a rise announce, report The company reported a rise in profits.
▸ explain a rise attribute to sth, explain Scientists attributed the rise to an increase in solar activity.

2 an increase in power or success

• adj+N fast or sudden dramatic, exponential, meteoric, phenomenal, rapid, spectacular, sudden The Wars of Independence brought the meteoric rise of one of Scotland's most famous sons, William Wallace.
▸ gradual gradual, slow, steady The last ten years have seen a steady rise in the band's fortunes.
▸ impossible to stop inexorable, irresistible, relentless, unstoppable The inexorable rise of the car and the lorry produces huge problems.

• v+N see a rise see, witness This period also witnessed the rise of a new tradition of working-class autobiography.
▸ describe or record someone's rise chart, chronicle, document, record, trace The novel charts the rise to notoriety of the Ryans, a poor Irish family, who become one of the foremost crime families in London.

• N+to dominance, fame, greatness, power, prominence, stardom The exhibition will examine the whole of his life and work, from his beginnings through to his rise to fame.

rising ADJ becoming larger, greater in level, or more frequent

• ADV+n price cost, price There are numerous steps you can take to combat rising petrol prices.
▸ demand demand, popularity We have benefited from the rising popularity of specialist wholefood stores.
▸ frequency incidence, level, prevalence, rate, trend There is a rising incidence of cervical cancer in young women.
▸ problem crime, inequality, inflation, tension, unemployment Consumers are putting off major purchases, partly because they are afraid of rising unemployment.
▸ wealth affluence, income, prosperity We want a fairer Britain, where everyone can share in rising prosperity.
▸ expectation expectation The pace of technological change brings ever rising expectations of what can be achieved.

risk N

the possibility that something bad might happen

• adj+N great or high big, considerable, great, high, significant, substantial Such trading would involve considerable risk to the charity's resources.
▸ greater than usual elevated, heightened, higher, increased Elevated levels of the protein have been associated with a higher risk of cardiovascular disease.
▸ small or low low, minimal, negligible, slight, small People in professional jobs have lower risks of lifestyle-related diseases like heart disease.
▸ serious grave, serious There is a serious risk of injury to employees or members of the public.
▸ real or immediate immediate, imminent, real There is a real risk that an unusual tidal event could result in floods.
▸ possible possible, potential, theoretical Individual workers must be aware of potential risks.
▸ not necessary or acceptable unacceptable, undue, unnecessary A reckless minority of drivers continue to take unacceptable risks by drinking and driving.

- taken deliberately calculated We need to encourage innovation and the taking of calculated risks in business.
- associated with something associated, attendant, inherent Trading over the Internet has certain inherent risks.
- easy to predict foreseeable, obvious The risks are obvious, and so are the solutions.
- types of risk credit, environmental, financial, health, occupational, operational, personal, political, security At great personal risk, John crawled under the debris and dragged him out.

- n+N of a particular event accident, avalanche, cancer, contamination, fire, flood, suicide Homes in areas of flood risk will be given improved flood protection.

- v+N reduce the risk address, control, cut, decrease, halve, lessen, limit, lower, manage, minimize, mitigate, reduce, spread In some cases, we can reduce the risk of getting the condition in the first place.
- avoid or eliminate risk avoid, eliminate, prevent, remove Whenever possible, avoid risks altogether by removing hazards.
- increase the risk double, increase If you smoke, you more than double your risk of having heart disease.
- be or present a risk carry, constitute, entail, involve, pose, present, represent The treatment carries the risk of side effects in the form of serious allergic reactions. ◉ It is absurd to say these people pose a terrorist risk.
- take or accept a risk accept, assume, bear, face, incur, run, take Its leaders now run the risk of bringing the country to the brink of economic collapse. ◉ Some people invest money in businesses and take risks.
- understand or measure the risks assess, calculate, consider, estimate, evaluate, identify, predict, quantify, understand A Code of Good Practice has been produced to help farmers identify the risks. ◉ They understand the health risks, but are unable to quit smoking without help.
- report a risk highlight The report highlights potential risks to children from toxic landfill sites.
- be equal to or greater than a risk balance, outweigh The benefit of the treatment may outweigh the risks at this stage of the disease.

- N+v happen because of something arise from, be associated with, be attached to, be involved in There are political risks attached to this course of action.
- be equal to or greater than something be balanced by, outweigh Transplantation is likely to be necessary in the future, but at present the risks outweigh the potential benefits.

risky ADJ
involving the possibility of danger or failure

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, hugely, seriously, very This is an extremely risky strategy if you are unsure of how your colleagues will respond.
- rather fairly, a little, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, slightly, somewhat Home birth in the UK has been seen as an odd and slightly risky thing to do.
- too too, unacceptably To start their own business was considered too risky.
- possibly possibly, potentially A new way of diagnosing brain tumours without the need for potentially risky biopsies has been developed.
- more than other things or than before especially, increasingly, particularly Falls in blood pressure are particularly risky in the elderly.
- in itself inherently Combat is inherently risky, but the prudent leader takes measures to reduce the risk.
- from a particular point of view financially, physically, politically I prefer to work for myself, even though it is financially riskier.

- ADJ+n bet, business, enterprise, gamble, manoeuvre, move, proposition, strategy, tactic, undertaking, venture A business with a well-established management team is a less risky proposition to a purchaser. ◉ Waiting until you get to the interview to show them how good you are is a risky tactic.

ritual N
something such as a formal ceremony that is always done in the same way

- adj+N religious or magic magic, magical, occult, religious, sacred, satanic Perfumes have always been of great importance for religious rituals.
- strange or complicated arcane, bizarre, elaborate The Houses of Parliament seems to be full of bizarre rituals conducted in dated language.
- ancient ancient The influence of ancient ritual in shaping our landscape is well known.
- regular nightly Her children loved the nightly ritual of bedtime stories.
- without meaning meaningless He satirizes the meaningless social rituals of the upper middle class.
- with a particular purpose bathing, ceremonial, cleansing, funeral, funerary, healing, mating, purification, sacrificial, tribal The warriors would perform a cleansing ritual before going off to fight.

- v+N perform a ritual conduct, enact, observe, perform, practise People come together at Christmas and enact the family rituals of past years.
- repeat a ritual re-enact, repeat He pauses at each door and repeats the same ritual.

rival N
a person, team, or business competing with another

- adj+N very great big, bitter, deadly, fierce, hated, serious The two banks were in different political camps and for many years they were bitter rivals.
- main chief, closest, main, nearest They remain top of the league, with an eight-point lead over their closest rivals.
- for a long time longtime, long-time, perennial She has finally overtaken her long-time rival to become world number one.
- difficult to beat fancied, formidable, worthy The Earl of Leicester looked upon him as a formidable rival at court.
- jealous envious, jealous Protected by the emperors, he could work free from his jealous rivals.
- possible potential For her, everyone else was a potential rival.

- v+N defeat a rival beat, defeat, eliminate, overcome, trounce, vanquish We managed to beat our local rivals 3–2.

▸ do better than a rival leapfrog, outdo, outpace, outperform, outsell, outshine, outstrip, outwit, overtake, surpass The new model car has qualities that far outshine its traditional rivals.
▸ be cheaper than a rival undercut The tax loophole has enabled the company to undercut its rivals in the music, DVD and videogame markets.

rivalry N competition between people, businesses etc

• adj+N strong bitter, fierce, intense The relationship between the firms is characterised by both cooperation and fierce rivalry.
▸ friendly friendly, good-natured This is part of the good-natured rivalry that exists between Australia and New Zealand.
▸ over unimportant things petty He describes the petty rivalries and bad reviews that marked his debut as an actor.
▸ old age-old, long-running, long-standing It was the age-old rivalry between the two ancient universities.
▸ between groups factional, inter-departmental, internecine, inter-professional, sectarian, tribal There were fears a referendum could inflame ethnic and sectarian rivalries.
▸ and/or competition, conflict, hatred, jealousy, tension There are rivalries and jealousies in every family.

• v+N start or continue a rivalry continue, encourage, ignite, intensify, renew, resume The match will renew an old sporting rivalry.
▸ overcome rivalry end, forget, overcome, settle, transcend His two daughters have to overcome their own rivalry to rescue their father.

river N
an area of water flowing towards the sea

• adj+N flowing fast fast-flowing, free-flowing, rushing Five fast-flowing rivers powered the city's water wheels.
▸ large or deep mighty, swollen They crossed the swollen river with the aid of a rope.
▸ shallow shallow He had to wade across a shallow river.
▸ not straight meandering, winding This is a landscape of rich pastures and meandering rivers.
▸ clean/not clean clean, muddy, polluted The Mersey was then one of the most polluted rivers in Europe.

• N+v flow along a course bend, flow, meander, run, rush, wind A long section of the river flows through privately-owned land.
▸ flood burst its banks, flood, overflow its banks Some of the garden had been washed away when the river flooded.
▸ dry up dry up Some of the rivers have dried up, as they are experiencing a long dry season.
▸ move earth deposit sth, erode sth The river has deposited over 2m of sand, gravel and alluvial silt.
▸ start/finish somewhere drain, rise The estuary has a lot of silt from the river draining into it. ◈ The river rises high in the Cairngorm mountains and reaches the sea at Aberdeen.
▸ get wider/narrower narrow, widen Where the river widens lies an island at its centre.

road N
a way from one place to another

• adj+N important or busy busy, main, major Note that this is a main road, often with heavy traffic.
▸ not important or busy minor, quiet, rural, unclassified, unmade The cottage is located in a quiet road in this charming village.
▸ safe/not safe dangerous, icy, narrow, safe, steep, wet You're on a narrow road with a sheer cliff on your side.
▸ straight/not straight straight, twisty, windy You will be travelling east on a very straight road.
▸ with a bad surface bumpy, dusty, rough This small seaside community lies about 10km west, along some fairly rough dirt roads.

• N+v follow a course go, head, lead, pass, run You eventually join a minor road leading back to the car park.
▸ connect places connect, link This was the main road linking London and Norwich.
▸ bend bend, curve, turn, wind Where the road bends sharply to the left, turn right into the gateway.
▸ divide into two fork, split Just before the railway, the road forks.
▸ go higher/lower climb, descend After this, the road climbs through tea and coffee plantations.
▸ become wider/narrower narrow, widen The road narrows and potholes increase, but our driver is patient.

roar N a loud sound made by a crowd or by something such as an engine or a storm

• adj+N very loud almighty, deafening, ear-splitting, full-throated, loud, mighty, thundering, thunderous, tremendous, tumultuous The noise of the river is a thunderous roar and truly awe-inspiring.
▸ not very loud distant, dull, muffled, muted The dull roar of the traffic could be heard all day from the bridge.
▸ deep guttural, rumbling, throaty The guttural roar of the tractor shatters the peace of the countryside.
▸ continuous incessant They listen to loud music to drown out the incessant roar of the machines.
▸ happy rapturous, triumphant She stepped on stage and was greeted by a rapturous roar from the eager crowd.

• N+of applause, approval, defiance, delight, disapproval, laughter, rage A roar of laughter went up from the audience.

robbery N
the crime of stealing money or property

• adj+N violent armed, brutal, knifepoint, terrifying, violent This violent robbery was terrifying for customers and staff in the pub at the time.
▸ failed or possible alleged, attempted, botched, bungled Police are appealing for witnesses after an attempted robbery in the city.
▸ daring audacious, daring The gang planned a daring robbery of the prestigious train.

• v+N commit or organize a robbery commit, orchestrate, perpetrate, stage He was only 17 when the robberies were committed.

- ▸ see a robbery witness Anyone who witnessed the robbery is asked to contact detectives.
- ▸ stop a robbery foil He became a local hero when he foiled a robbery at his diner.
- ▸ investigate a robbery investigate Police investigating a knife-point robbery have issued a picture of a man they are trying to trace.

role N

1 someone's or something's purpose or job

- adj+N important big, central, critical, crucial, decisive, dominant, enhanced, essential, fundamental, important, influential, key, lead, major, pivotal, prominent, significant, valuable, vital This new harbour played a key role in the supply and repair of military ships.
- ▸ not important diminished, limited, minor, small Many studies have shown that material goods play only a minor role in enhancing quality of life.
- ▸ main main, primary, principal Although resolving disputes is our primary role, ombudsmen have traditionally made a broader contribution.
- ▸ active active, positive, proactive Education can help people play an active role in their communities.
- ▸ same/different different, respective, similar We must ensure that individuals are competent to carry out their respective roles.
- ▸ including different things dual, varied, various Headteachers of small schools have a dual role, combining class teaching with management.
- ▸ traditional traditional He expected her to settle into the traditional role of wife and mother.
- ▸ new or present current, new My new role encompasses all management activities.
- ▸ possible future, potential These initiatives will help establish the future role of the pharmaceutical profession.
- ▸ specific clear, defined, distinct, specific, unique Sport had a specific role to play in this society.
- ▸ difficult challenging, demanding Her experience and local knowledge will be invaluable in this challenging role.
- ▸ senior senior Rich has taken up a new senior role as group MD.
- ▸ types of role administrative, advisory, caring, functional, managerial, professional, strategic, supervisory Ms Dale will stay with the School in a part-time advisory role.

- n+N admin, campaigning, coaching, consultancy, consulting, co-ordination, decision-making, enforcement, leadership, liaison, management, marketing, mentoring, monitoring, nursing, teaching, volunteer It will provide you with the skills and knowledge for business consultancy roles within IT.

- v+N have a role carry out, fill, fulfil, have, occupy, perform, play, take Both played key roles in the team's cup final victory.
- ▸ accept a role accept, adopt, assume, move into, settle into, step into, take on, undertake The Church must learn to accept a less directly important role in everyday affairs. ◆ Geoff has taken on the role of caring for Jo.
- ▸ examine the role of someone or something assess, consider, discuss, evaluate, examine, explore, identify, investigate The author examines the role of ICT in the tourism industry.
- ▸ define or explain the role of someone or something clarify, define, describe, explain, outline The charter defined the roles and powers of the mayor and councillors.
- ▸ understand the role of someone or something acknowledge, recognize, understand Librarians must recognize their social role.
- ▸ be given a role be assigned, be given, be thrust into In most societies, men and women are assigned different roles.
- ▸ emphasize the role of someone or something emphasize, highlight, stress Today's report highlights the role of social inequality in increasing the risk of lung disease.
- ▸ extend the role of someone or something develop, enhance, expand, extend, increase, strengthen The regulations should strengthen the educational role of broadcasting.
- ▸ exchange or combine roles combine, reverse Tom combined the manager's role with being Secretary of the club. ◆ In this sculpture, the gender roles are reversed.

2 the character someone plays in a film or show

- adj+N large or important lead, leading, main, major, principal, starring He became well-known through his starring role in the TV series Lovejoy.
- ▸ not large or important minor, small The film features Sam Shepherd in a minor role.
- ▸ difficult challenging, demanding She has probably the most challenging role as Klara, a troubled intellectual.

- v+N play a role act in, have, perform, play, reprise, star in Actor Parry Shen plays the lead role of Ben in the film. ◆ She reprised her role as the overburdened mother in 'Cheaper By the Dozen 2'.
- ▸ be given a role be cast in, be given, get, land Following a string of commercials, she landed a role in the feature film Annie.
- ▸ accept a role accept, slip into, take, take on In accepting a role that was coveted by dozens of actresses, she felt considerable pressure to succeed.

romance N an exciting romantic relationship

- adj+N exciting fairytale, heady, passionate, steamy, torrid This story of desperate love behind bars features intense drama and steamy romance.
- ▸ sudden or short brief, whirlwind They had a whirlwind romance, but the relationship broke down within a year.
- ▸ sad or unsuccessful bittersweet, doomed, failed, ill-fated, tragic It is the story of a doomed romance between a nobleman and a beautiful peasant girl.
- ▸ new budding, burgeoning The budding romance between the two teenagers blossomed.
- ▸ involving young people teen, teenage This spirited drama perfectly captures the excitement and passion of teen romance.

romantic ADJ

connected to love and the excitement of love

- adv+ADJ very beautifully, deeply, gloriously, highly, incredibly, irresistibly, terribly, truly, very, wildly, wonderfully Choosing to marry abroad can be wildly romantic, not to mention cheaper.

- ▸ excessively hopelessly, impossibly, overly You often have very naive, idealistic, or overly romantic attitudes towards people.
- ▸ rather rather, somewhat The house has a rather romantic history.
- ▸ in a mysterious or intense way darkly, intensely The songs have doomed, darkly romantic lyrics.
- ▸ without embarrassment overtly, unashamedly There's something to be said for a film that is so unashamedly romantic.

room N
the possibility for something to exist or happen

- N+for flexibility flexibility, manoeuvre Forcing doctors to tell the police would leave no room for manoeuvre.
- ▸ individual expression creativity, experimentation, imagination, improvisation, individuality Academic research must allow room for creativity and unexpected discovery.
- ▸ improvement improvement This was just a first attempt, so there's plenty of room for improvement.
- ▸ optimism complacency, optimism There is no room for complacency in a highly competitive market.
- ▸ misunderstanding ambiguity, confusion, misinterpretation, misunderstanding His address put across the message in a way that left no room for misunderstandings.
- ▸ discussion or compromise compromise, debate, disagreement, negotiation The political atmosphere is absolutely toxic, with very little room for compromise on either side.
- ▸ doubt doubt His remarks left little room for doubt about what he had decided.
- ▸ error error Everything happens live, which leaves little room for error.
- ▸ growth expansion, growth Adolescents must have room for emotional growth, yet know their parents are behind them.

root N someone's or something's origins, background, or basic cause [usually plural]

- v+N find someone's or something's roots discover, explore, rediscover, research, revisit, uncover This is the story of the author's 25,000 mile journey to rediscover her roots in Ethiopia. • The Family History Club is an informal gathering of those researching their family roots.
- ▸ have roots have, trace The Masons is a secretive society that traces its roots to medieval craft associations in Britain.
- ▸ forget your roots betray, forget What a shame he betrayed his musical roots in pursuit of money and fame.
- ▸ attack the roots address, attack, strike at, tackle A more holistic approach to tackling the roots of racism is needed.

- N+of bitterness, conflict, crisis, evil, oppression, problem, racism, terrorism We need to address the roots of the problem, not least by challenging economic inequalities.

rooted ADJ
based on or influenced by something

- adv+ADJ strongly deep, deeply, firmly, profoundly, securely, solidly, soundly, strongly His work is firmly rooted in the tradition of English landscape paintings.
- ▸ partly partly The legends surrounding Glastonbury's past are partly rooted in fact.
- ▸ basically fundamentally, ultimately His unionism is ultimately rooted in a wider tradition of conservative political philosophy.
- ▸ having a particular type of basis biologically, culturally, historically, locally, socially These studies suggest that severe obsessions and compulsions are biologically rooted.

rough ADJ
not complete or exact

- ADJ+n indication guide, guideline, idea, indication As a rough guide, we find that the cost of data handling is typically 10–15% of a total budget.
- ▸ estimate calculation, estimate, estimation, guess They will produce a rough estimate of what they think the work will cost.
- ▸ equivalent approximation, equivalent, translation A rough translation for the term is 'pawn shop'.
- ▸ drawing or writing draft, outline, sketch This documuent is a rough outline of some of the discussions we have had.

route N
1 a way that something or someone travels

- adj+N main arterial, main, major This used to be the main route from London to Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire.
- ▸ busy busy, congested Drivers using congested routes would pay the highest tolls.
- ▸ quick or easy easy, fast, quick, short The hovercraft service from Southsea is the quickest route to the Isle of Wight.
- ▸ direct direct, through The rail company had no direct through route from Birmingham to Bristol.
- ▸ not quick or direct circuitous, long, roundabout, scenic, tortuous This meant that mail had to go via Royston – a circuitous route. • From here, you can take the scenic mountain route to Glenelg or you can continue along the A87.
- ▸ different alternate, alternative, different When walking with a dog, look for alternative routes around fields with animals.
- ▸ suggested or planned intended, planned, proposed, suggested The intelligent navigation system will guide you back on to the planned route.
- ▸ best or usual obvious, popular, preferred, recommended, usual Book early to ensure your preferred holiday route and starting point.
- ▸ marked or fixed designated, marked, signposted, waymarked Problems normally occur when helicopters stray from designated routes.
- ▸ circular circular Riders take a circular route which passes through many picturesque villages.
- ▸ possible possible It is important to have a map which covers all possible descent routes.
- ▸ new/old ancient, existing, new, original There's a new bit of dual carriageway, with the original route running to the east of this.

- strategic strategic The M40 is a strategic route between London and Birmingham.

- v+N take a route climb, follow, rejoin, retrace, take, travel, use, walk The ride follows an easy route to a quaint country tearoom. • Charity collectors walk the entire route collecting donations.
- plan or choose a route choose, plan, select You can find further information on planning your route using public transport online.
- show or describe a route describe, indicate, map out, mark, plot, show, trace Pupils are asked to plot their routes to school on a large map.
- find a route discover, establish, find, identify, navigate Most people, given a current map, can find a route that suits them.
- explore a route explore, survey This is ideal for mountaineers wanting to explore more adventurous routes of ascent.
- be on someone's route block, line, obstruct Thousands of people lined the route to the cemetery.
- offer a route operate, ply Highland Country Buses also operate many local routes.

2 a way of doing something that produces a particular result

- adj+N quick or easy direct, easy, fast, fast-track, principal, quick, short Penny has not had an easy route to the top.
- usual existing, main, normal, principal, traditional, usual The normal route is surgery. • Running one's own business is a traditional route for migrant communities to better themselves.
- good or best favoured, obvious, preferred, recommended The government has made clear that it sees work, not benefits, as the preferred route out of poverty.
- different alternative, different, possible A number of possible design routes were examined.
- types of route educational, vocational There are a range of employment-based and educational routes into the teaching profession.

- v+N take a route choose, explore, follow, pursue, take You may also choose to pursue a clinical route by completing the Dispensing Opticians qualification. • The musical follows the fortunes of Percival and Rooster, who are taking different routes through life.
- offer a route offer, provide The Rural Charter provides a route for companies to make a real contribution to rural life.
- find a route establish, find, identify Others found a route to the public sphere through voluntary work.

- N+to success prosperity, salvation, stardom, success, the top, victory For many young artists, this prize might be the route to stardom.
- knowledge or power empowerment, enlightenment, independence I believe the only real route to empowerment is enabling people to help themselves.
- happiness happiness Convention tells us the route to happiness is having children.
- education or employment accreditation, employment, qualification, self-employment Other changes include more use of modules and flexible routes to qualification.

routine N

someone's usual way of doing things

- adj+N usual familiar, normal, usual Respite services are provided to give carers a break from the usual routine.
- boring boring, dreary, dull, humdrum, monotonous, predictable, repetitive She wants to escape from the boring routine of work.
- regular day-to-day, everyday, regular, daily, weekly etc He has a nightly routine of checking locks and closing doors.
- strict rigid, strict By adhering to a strict routine, the risk of accidents is reduced.
- busy hectic She is settling into into the hectic routine of having a newborn baby.

- n+N at a particular time of day bedtime, night-time, morning, evening etc I was so determined to stop drinking I changed my whole weekend routine.
- exercise exercise, fitness, workout This should be part of a daily fitness routine.
- cleaning cleansing, disinfection, hygiene Use a face-mask occasionally alongside your normal cleansing routine.

- v+N establish a routine establish, get into, settle into Help your toddler learn to go to bed by establishing a bedtime routine.
- disturb a routine disrupt, disturb, interrupt, upset The building work will inevitably disrupt the normal routines of the office.

- N+n task chore, task He is able to live independently, completing many routine tasks without the help of a carer.
- check check, check-up, examination, inspection, monitoring, scan, screening, surveillance, testing I went for a routine check-up with my midwife and was told to go home and rest.
- repair or care cleaning, maintenance, repairs, servicing The rent normally includes the cost of routine repairs and maintenance.
- visit appointment, follow-up, patrol The clinician will then schedule routine follow-up appointments.
- question enquiry With fewer routine enquiries to handle, staff can now concentrate on more complex issues.
- immunization immunization, vaccination Pet insurance will generally not cover the cost of routine vaccinations.

row N

an argument, or a serious disagreement

- adj+N angry bitter, fierce, furious, heated, stand-up The two men had a furious row and never spoke to each other again.
- very bad or serious almighty, big, major, unholy, unseemly During an almighty row, the girl smacked her mother.
- getting worse escalating, growing The Union chief is at the centre of a growing row as firefighters get ready to strike.
- continuing endless, long-running, simmering There was no-one to back her up in the endless rows with her parents.
- drunken drunken Police tried to break up a drunken row between her and another woman.
- types of row diplomatic, political The extradition case erupted into a full-scale political row.

- v+N start a row ignite, provoke, reignite, spark, trigger The news sparked a national row and Government ministers promised to examine the case.
- ▸ have a row get into, have He got into a row with the landlady, and she threw him out.
- ▸ make a row worse escalate, fuel His comments will fuel the damaging row in Whitehall.
- ▸ help stop a row break up, defuse The Government is attempting to defuse the row over faith-based schools.

- N+v start blow up, break out, ensue, erupt A new row erupted last night over the lack of European Union aid for Scottish fisherman.
- ▸ threaten to start be brewing, be looming A major diplomatic row was brewing between India and America.
- ▸ get worse escalate, flare up The threat of this row escalating into an embarrassing incident has been averted.
- ▸ continue be raging, rumble on The road has been completed now, but the row still rumbles on.

rub V

press and move your hands over a surface

- adv+V gently gently, lightly, softly Gently rub your stomach as it can help relax the muscles.
- ▸ firmly briskly, firmly, hard, roughly, vigorously She vigorously rubbed her hands together muttering 'Brrrr, it's cold'.
- ▸ all the time constantly, continuously, repeatedly She developed a habit of constantly rubbing her face.

rubbish N

1 things thrown away because they are no longer useful

- adj+N unwanted unwanted The park had been used as a place to leave unwanted rubbish.
- ▸ unpleasant stinking, unsightly Beach rubbish is unsightly and can be dangerous to sea creatures.
- ▸ not collected uncollected Litter and uncollected rubbish create a perception that a street is uncared for.
- ▸ possible/not possible to recycle etc biodegradable, burnable, compostable, non-biodegradable, non-recyclable, recyclable You will be given two sacks: a black one for rubbish and a clear one for recyclable rubbish.
- ▸ from a particular place domestic, garden, household Fire extinguishers must not be disposed of with domestic rubbish.

- v+N throw away chuck INFORMAL, deposit, discard, dispose of, dump, throw away, tip But we are running out of space to dump our rubbish.
- ▸ recycle compost, recycle, reuse People in Wales are playing their part in recycling their rubbish.
- ▸ burn burn, incinerate It is permissible to burn garden rubbish.
- ▸ bury bury We are running out of space to bury our rubbish.
- ▸ take away clear, collect, remove Our task was to clear rubbish from the river.

2 things that have no meaning or value

- adj+N complete absolute, unadulterated, utter Some people say it's hard to mix with students on other courses, although I think this is utter rubbish!
- ▸ stupid inane, trite, vacuous Most older people think children's television today is inane rubbish.
- ▸ trying to seem superior patronizing, pretentious More cynical critics have suggested the film is nothing more than pretentious rubbish.
- ▸ worthless useless, worthless He just keeps churning out the same old worthless rubbish.

- v+N peddle, spout, talk Is he being deliberately dishonest or just talking rubbish?

rude ADJ

not polite

- adv+ADJ very abominably, downright, exceptionally, extremely, incredibly, plain, so, terribly, very Although appearing to behave as an impeccable hostess, she is actually abominably rude. ◉ Sending an unsolicited email to somebody calling them names is downright rude.
- ▸ rather a little, quite, rather, slightly, somewhat Blowing your nose in public is seen as rather rude in Japan.

- v+ADJ appear, be, be considered, seem, sound It is considered rude to cancel a meeting at the last minute.

- and/or disrespectful discourteous, dismissive, disrespectful, impolite, insolent Frankly, I found the staff insolent and rude.
- ▸ unpleasant abrupt, arrogant, impatient, obnoxious, sarcastic He was tired of solicitors being described as arrogant, rude, and patronizing.
- ▸ insulting abusive, insulting, offensive Letters that we consider to be rude and abusive will not receive a response.
- ▸ thoughtless ignorant, inconsiderate, thoughtless The police officer said that rude and thoughtless drivers were unfortunately part of the job.
- ▸ unkind hurtful, unfriendly, unhelpful, unkind There are people who use 'honesty' as a reason for simply being rude and hurtful.
- ▸ crude crude, lewd, uncouth, vulgar Account holders are asked to report any rude or lewd emails which get through the system.

ruin V destroy or severely damage something

- adv+V completely completely, hopelessly, totally, utterly When there are floods, the rice crop is completely ruined.
- ▸ permanently forever, irreparably, irretrievably, permanently He felt that his life was ruined irretrievably.
- ▸ partly partially, partly They returned to find the city in chaos and their home partially ruined.

Usage Ruin is usually passive in these combinations.

- ▸ almost almost, nearly, practically I nearly ruined everyone's day by making a serious miscalculation.
- ▸ eventually effectively, eventually, potentially, ultimately Wells writes that technology will ultimately ruin human society.
- ▸ unfortunately sadly It was a pleasant spot, sadly ruined by rubbish which hadn't been picked up.
- ▸ in a particular way economically, financially Farmers are being ruined financially by falling livestock prices.

- V+n chance chance This ruined any chance I had of getting my work done on time.
- ▸ life life Terry goes into graphic detail about his addiction and how it almost ruined his life.
- ▸ career career, livelihood Companies should be held to account for decisions that ruin workers' livelihoods.
- ▸ reputation credibility, reputation He must be fully aware that serious allegations can ruin a person's professional reputation.
- ▸ pleasure appetite, enjoyment, surprise If I told you now, it would ruin the surprise.
- ▸ everything everything A tragic accident ruined everything she had worked for.

ruin N
the remaining parts of a severely damaged building [usually plural]

- adj+N old ancient, prehistoric, venerable Remains of the ancient ruins can also be found underwater.
- ▸ attractive atmospheric, evocative, impressive, magnificent, majestic, picturesque, romantic The gardens were created around the romantic ruins of a medieval vicarage.
- ▸ in bad condition crumbling, mouldering, shattered Amid the shattered ruins were personal clothing and cooking utensils.
- ▸ damaged by fire blackened, burning, smoking, smouldering They were dismayed to see the village was now a collection of blackened ruins.
- ▸ in good condition well-preserved The Gedi National Park protects the well-preserved ruins of a Swahili city.
- ▸ types of ruin monastic, Roman, Mayan etc Islands with their monastic ruins are often still places of pilgrimage. ◉ Crete boasts impressive Minoan ruins at Knossos and Phaestos.

rule N
1 a statement explaining what someone can or cannot do

- adj+N strict absolute, hard and fast, restrictive, rigid, strict, stringent, tough There are no hard and fast rules as to how risk assessments should be carried out. ◉ In racing, there are strict rules about the length, width and weight of your boat.
- ▸ basic or important basic, cardinal, fundamental, ground Many consumers still don't follow basic hygiene rules.

You can also refer to a very important basic rule as the golden rule: The golden rule is that you can make good soup only from good ingredients.

- ▸ general general Obviously, every situation is different, but there are some general rules to follow.
- ▸ specific or detailed detailed, specific These principles appeal to basic concepts rather than spelling out detailed rules.
- ▸ complex complex This is a simple guide to the complex new rules governing the licensing of bars and clubs.
- ▸ clear or simple clear, simple It is important to set clear ground rules at the start.
- ▸ usual normal, usual Each match was played according to normal indoor cricket rules.
- ▸ relevant applicable, relevant Each chapter presents the applicable grammar rule followed by examples.
- ▸ existing current, existing Under current rules they must wait six months before they are eligible for benefits.*
- ▸ agreed accepted, agreed, defined Their aim was to make sure countries abided by agreed rules.
- ▸ new or different different, new, special Click this link for a summary of the new pension rules. ◉ In some cases special rules apply which mean that backpay can be claimed.
- ▸ fair/not fair arbitrary, fair, unfair Good manners, unlike the arbitrary rules of etiquette, do not change with the times.
- ▸ not officially stated unspoken, unwritten There is an unwritten wedding rule that no one should look more beautiful than the bride.
- ▸ types of rule disciplinary, fiscal, grammatical, legal, moral, procedural, statutory The vast majority of the grammatical rules used by Shakespeare still apply now.

- V+N obey a rule abide by, apply, follow, implement, obey, observe, play by, respect, satisfy, stick to, uphold You need to make sure that the children obey the school rules.
- ▸ disobey a rule breach, break, contravene, flout, ignore, infringe, violate Those who persist in breaking the club rules will be asked to leave.
- ▸ make someone obey a rule adopt, apply, enforce, implement, impose, uphold Schools must set and enforce clear rules on lateness, absence and bullying.
- ▸ create or state a rule define, establish, fix, formulate, introduce, lay down, lay out, set, set out, specify We are merely seeking justice within the rules laid down by the legal system.
- ▸ change a rule alter, amend, change, harmonize, modify, reform, revise, rewrite, simplify We propose to amend the rules for elections to the Assembly.
- ▸ make a rule less strict bend, relax, stretch She warned her not to bend the rules for her own benefit.
- ▸ make a rule more strict tighten Should trade rules be tightened to protect poorer countries?
- ▸ explain a rule clarify, explain, interpret The booklet clearly explains the rules of the game.
- ▸ suggest a rule propose We are proposing new rules on the disclosure of personal information.

2 control of a place by a particular person, country or group

- adj+N by another country colonial, British, Spanish etc They fought to free Mozambique from Portuguese colonial rule. ◉ The island has been under French rule for 235 years.
- ▸ by a particular regime authoritarian, communist, military After half a century of authoritarian rule, we stand at the crossroad to democracy.

rule V
1 officially control or govern a country or area

- adv+V well justly, wisely He ruled wisely as King for many years.
- ▸ not well harshly, unjustly The Spanish viceroy fled to Panama, where he ruled harshly until his death in 1821.
- ▸ with someone else jointly Severus ruled jointly with his eldest son Caracalla.
- ▸ in name/in reality effectively, nominally The tsars effectively ruled over most of the territory belonging to what is now the Republic of Kazakhstan. ◉ The Roman Empire was divided into provinces nominally ruled by the Senate.

2 make and announce a decision

- adv+V in a definite or permanent way categorically, conclusively, definitely, explicitly, specifically The Court has already ruled definitively against the company on this issue.
- rightly/wrongly rightly, wrongly The government's actions were rightly ruled unconstitutional by the Supreme Court.
- with everyone in agreement unanimously Five Law Lords unanimously ruled that the case should be heard in the UK.
- in a way that causes disagreement controversially, harshly The pass was controversially ruled as offside.

rule out PHR VB

stop considering something as a possibility

- adv+V in a clear or definite way categorically, conclusively, definitely, definitively, explicitly, flatly, specifically The US has not categorically ruled out a nuclear attack.
- completely completely, entirely He completely rules out the notion that a woman could be the killer.
- in practice effectively This result effectively rules out a diagnosis of congestive heart failure.
- almost virtually He suffered an awful injury that virtually ruled him out for the rest of the season.
- V+n move, option, possibility The management have still not ruled out the possibility that he will sign a new contract.

ruling N

a decision by a court or authority

- adj+N important because it changes things ground-breaking, historic, landmark A landmark ruling has named a gay man as the sole heir to his late partner's estate.
- definite and absolute authoritative, binding, definitive The courts' rulings are binding.
- agreed by all authorities unanimous This unanimous ruling meant that the British government would have to redraft the law.
- in someone's favour favourable He obtained a favourable ruling from the Solicitor General.
- that causes disagreement absurd, controversial The Law Lords made a controversial ruling allowing the withdrawal of food and water from a patient.
- temporary interim, preliminary, provisional The case was referred to the European Court for a preliminary ruling.
- legal court, judicial, legal She fears that her claim is caught up in the confusion following the latest legal ruling.
- v+N give a ruling issue, make The court issued a historic ruling that schools must take steps to eliminate harassment on the grounds of sexuality.
- disagree with and change a ruling overturn, quash, reverse The justices voted by 8–1 to overturn a lower court ruling.
- confirm a ruling confirm, enforce, uphold The Court of Appeal has upheld a ruling against the Board.
- consider changing a ruling reconsider It was agreed that the Committee would reconsider this ruling.
- obey a ruling accept, follow, obey The European Court can only work if member states agree to accept its rulings.
- ask for a ruling to be changed appeal, appeal against, challenge The government may appeal the ruling.
- be glad about a ruling hail, welcome She hailed the ruling as a victory for unmarried women.
- be angry about a ruling condemn Low pay campaigners have condemned the ruling.
- ignore a ruling disregard, ignore They deliberately ignored the ruling which the court made in August.
- wait for a ruling await Two requests are awaiting rulings by the Information Commissioner.
- get a ruling in your favour win The family won a ruling in the High Court to have the inquest verdict quashed.

rumour N

unofficial information that may not be true

- adj+N false or untrue baseless, false, groundless, unfounded, untrue Unfounded rumours of a financial link between his company and the campaign were circulated.
- unpleasant or malicious defamatory, malicious, nasty, scandalous, scurrilous, ugly, unkind, vicious, vile Malicious rumours from government sources have been spread by the mass media.
- shocking alarming, disturbing, scandalous He reported alarming rumours of a possible English attack on France.
- not confirmed unconfirmed, unsubstantiated There had been an unconfirmed rumour of him being seen alive in Scotland.
- common or persistent persistent, rife Rumours are rife that they are thinking of moving to LA.
- exaggerated or silly exaggerated, ridiculous, wild She was quick to dismiss these as ridiculous rumours.
- vague vague Report anything suspicious to the police, but only facts, not vague rumours.
- in the press press, tabloid Tabloid rumours that she was to rejoin the band proved baseless.
- v+N stop a rumour counter, dispel, quash, quell, scotch, squash The principal quashed rumours of racist activity at the college.
- deny a rumour contradict, counter, deny, discount, dismiss, refute, rubbish, slam I must counter these absurd rumours with the actual facts. ◆ She has denied rumours that she will perform at the Commonwealth Games.
- cause a rumour to start fuel, prompt, spark She was photographed wearing an engagement ring, sparking rumours that she and Mr Doherty are engaged.
- spread a rumour circulate, propagate, spread She accused the other candidates of spreading scurrilous rumours to scupper her campaign.
- hear a rumour hear I heard rumours that someone was trying to get me disqualified.
- confirm a rumour confirm, substantiate He confirmed rumours that he will be making a sequel to the film.
- be the subject of rumours be dogged by The couple have been dogged by rumours that their marriage is on the rocks.

- N+v be common abound, circulate, float around, fly, go around, spread, sweep sth, swirl around Rumours abound that they had an affair during the shooting. • There's a rumour going around that Kate has been working on a new album.
- ▸ continue or return persist, resurface But rumours persisted that he was somehow responsible for her disappearance.
- ▸ begin begin, start, surface As time passed, the questions and rumours began.
- ▸ be about someone or something surround Rumours were already surrounding the fate of the Princess.
- ▸ say something suggest But later rumours suggested he had been seen in France.
- ▸ come from somewhere emanate from The leaks and rumours emanating from Washington were not encouraging.
- and/or things which may not be true conjecture, gossip, half-truth, hearsay, innuendo, speculation, supposition, tittle-tattle, whisper Avoid accusations based on rumours or hearsay.
- ▸ things which are not true disinformation, lies, misinformation, myth, untruths Rumours and disinformation flourish during a conflict.

run V control and organize something such as a business, organization, or event

- adv+V well efficiently, properly, smoothly, successfully, well Many thanks to all of the volunteers who helped make the competition run smoothly.
- ▸ by a particular group independently, privately, professionally Most day nurseries are privately-run.
- ▸ by more than one person or group jointly The course is run jointly by The University of Stirling and The University of Dundee.
- V+n company or organization business, clinic, club, company, school, shop Until recently, she ran her own travel agency business.
- ▸ course or class class, course, seminar, session, workshop We run workshops to help you improve your study skills.
- ▸ event competition, event Let us know if you want help with running an event in your area.
- ▸ project or scheme campaign, programme, project, scheme, service If your company runs this scheme, ask your human resources department for a form to fill in.

run into PHR VB start to have

- V+n problems difficulty, glitch, obstacle, problems, snag, trouble However, the idea has already run into trouble with some councillors.
- ▸ opposition controversy, flak, opposition Even before the company announced the plans, it ran into controversy.

run up PHR VB
get into a situation where you owe money

- V+n bill, debt, losses, overdraft Ron proceeded to run up a huge phone bill which he never paid.

rural ADJ relating to or in the countryside

- adv+ADJ mostly essentially, largely, mainly, mostly, overwhelmingly, predominantly Aylesbury Vale is a predominantly rural area.
- ▸ very or completely decidedly, deeply, entirely, exclusively, genuinely, purely, truly, wholly The holiday will appeal to those seeking a decidedly rural atmosphere.
- ▸ in a pleasant way delightfully This is a delightfully rural village, nestling amid lush green fields and wooded valleys.

rush V
hurry to do something

- adv+V blindly, eagerly, frantically, furiously, headlong, hurriedly, madly, suddenly, wildly She advised me not to rush headlong into anything. • The team rushes hurriedly to prepare the rocket for launch.

rush N
1 a sudden movement forward or a hurry to do something

- adj+N intense desperate, frantic, frenzied, hectic, mad, unseemly We left in a frenzied rush because I set our alarm for 8 am instead of 6 am.
- ▸ sudden sudden Why this sudden rush to go there?
- ▸ last-minute last-minute, late Order early to avoid the last-minute rush.
- v+N cause a rush cause, precipitate, prompt, provoke, spark, trigger The heatwave has sparked a mad rush to buy barbecues and sun loungers.
- ▸ avoid the rush avoid, beat, escape Beat the Christmas rush – buy your calenders here!
- ▸ stop the rush halt, stem It may be too late to halt the rush towards climate catastrophe.
- ▸ observe a rush observe, witness This term, we have witnessed the great rush to find accommodation for next year.
- ▸ expect a rush expect The Inspector said they were expecting a large rush of traffic heading out of town.

2 a sudden strong emotion

- adj+N emotional breathless, euphoric, exhilarating, giddy, heady, impetuous I felt the heady rush of new love once again.
- ▸ sudden sudden She felt a sudden rush of hope when she heard his name.
- v+N feel a rush experience, feel, get I experienced a rush of anger which I found difficult to control.
- ▸ cause a rush cause, trigger Frustration produces anxiety, which triggers an adrenaline rush.
- N+of particular emotion energy, enthusiasm, excitement, happiness, love, relief, warmth I got a rush of excitement and a burst of energy and started walking much faster.
- ▸ feelings emotion, feelings Many children can be disturbed by this rush of feelings.
- ▸ physical reaction adrenalin, blood The rush of blood returning to the feet makes them feel warm to the touch.

Ss

sacrifice V
give up something important or valuable

- adv+V gladly, willingly He would have gladly sacrificed his life if he thought it would save Kathryn.
- V+n personal asset career, comfort, freedom, happiness, liberty, life He is the one who sacrifices his happiness to make sure I am happy.
- ▸ good quality accuracy, individuality, integrity, performance, quality All this is achieved without sacrificing the individuality of your company or its products.

sacrifice N
the act of giving up something important or valuable

- adj+N big big, considerable, enormous, great, huge, major, real History abounds with tales of men and women who made great sacrifices for love.
- ▸ small little, small There are small sacrifices that can be made to save money.
- ▸ leading to death final, supreme, ultimate These are the widows of soldiers who made the supreme sacrifice.
- ▸ unselfish or good courageous, heroic, noble, selfless Thanks to their courageous, selfless sacrifices, I was born and raised as a free, equal citizen.
- ▸ personal own, personal, self My act of self-sacrifice impresses my shipmates.

saddened ADJ sad

- adv+ADJ very deeply, extremely, greatly, really INFORMAL, very The Prime Minister said he was deeply saddened by her death.
- ▸ rather quite, rather, somewhat We are somewhat saddened by this anti-French propaganda.
- ADJ+by death, loss, news, passing I have been deeply saddened by the loss of my friend.
- ADJ+infinitive find out hear, learn, read, see I was saddened to hear she had breast cancer.
- ▸ report announce, report We are saddened to announce that our club president has died.
- and/or angered, appalled, disappointed, shocked, surprised Police working on the investigation were shocked and saddened by the suffering this baby must have endured.

sadness N a feeling of being unhappy

- adj+N great deep, extreme, great, immense, intense, much, overwhelming, profound, terrible Dona Rosita is a curious play in that it combines profound sadness with light comedy.
- ▸ real genuine, real The shock and the sadness is very real.
- v+N express sadness be tinged with, express, show His voice is tinged with sadness when he talks about his days as a hunter. ◉ In her grief, Petra cannot find words to express her sadness.
- ▸ feel sadness ache with, be filled with, be overwhelmed with/by, experience, feel Under pale moonlight, filled with sadness, a tear rolls down her cheek.
- ▸ cause sadness bring, cause The war brought sadness and disruption to so many homes.
- n+of+N hint, note, tinge, touch I felt a tinge of sadness as we left Lisbon – I'd had a great time.
- and/or bad feelings anger, anguish, despair, frustration, gloom, grief, guilt, hopelessness, loneliness, longing, regret, sorrow, tear The closure of the factory has been greeted with a mixture of anger and sadness.
- ▸ good feelings happiness, joy We have journeyed together through times of joy and sadness.

safe ADJ protected from harm or not likely to cause harm

- adv+ADJ very or totally absolutely, completely, entirely, extremely, perfectly, remarkably, totally, truly, very The Minister announced that GM food was perfectly safe.
- ▸ fairly comparatively, fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, reasonably, relatively Walking appears to be a relatively safe means of travel.
- ▸ as part of its basic qualities inherently, intrinsically These stores are provided with ventilation, artificial lighting and fire detection equipment that are intrinsically safe.
- ▸ in a particular way clinically, ecologically, electrically, environmentally The cleaning products we use are environmentally safe and biodegradable.
- v+ADJ feel or seem safe appear, feel, seem I went into a church where I felt safe.
- ▸ be or become safe be, become, get, prove As long as everyone is safe, I'm happy. ◉ Nuclear waste is highly dangerous and can take tens of thousands of years to become safe.
- ▸ stay safe remain, stay We should teach our children how to stay safe on and near roads.
- ▸ consider something safe consider sth, deem sth The insulin was tested on animals and deemed safe.
- ▸ say that something is safe declare sth Forensic work cannot begin until the building has been made safe.
- ▸ make something safe make sth, render sth Several explosive devices were rendered safe by the mine disposal officers.
- ▸ keep something safe keep sth The Child Protection legislation is aimed at ensuring that children are kept safe.
- ADJ+from attack, crime, danger, harm, terrorism, threat It is a continuing struggle to keep our children safe from the dangers of drugs.
- and/or of a person happy, sound Nicolette arrived safe and sound, if slightly delayed.
- ▸ of a method or product affordable, cheap, clean, convenient, effective, efficient, hygienic, quick, reliable Now, people have safe, clean water right in the heart of their village.

- ▸ of a place or environment accessible, caring, comfortable, friendly, secure, supportive, warm It is important to provide a safe and secure environment for the staff to park their vehicles.
- ▸ of an activity easy, enjoyable, healthy Walking to school is a safe and healthy option.

safety N
the fact that something is safe

- adj+N of a group child, community, consumer, passenger, pedestrian, public Does this man pose a threat to public safety?
- ▸ of an individual own, personal Never put your personal safety at risk.
- ▸ better better, enhanced For even better safety, consider using a wooden board as a base for each firework.
- ▸ more added, additional, extra, greater, more These devices are designed for greater patient safety.
- ▸ complete absolute, complete, maximum, perfect, total You can see whole families out on their bikes in complete safety.
- ▸ relative comparative, reasonable, relative Those who could left the city for the comparative safety of the countryside.
- ▸ general basic, general, overall The overall safety of the drug is still being tested.
- ▸ future future, long-term Our job is to develop a long-term safety strategy for the rail industry.
- ▸ at work occupational, workplace, work-related I deal with the occupational safety of personnel working offshore.
- ▸ types of safety clinical, drug, environmental, fire, food, nuclear, physical, road, structural There is no environmental safety information on 95 per cent of the chemicals on the market.

- v+N ensure someone or something's safety assure, ensure, guarantee, maintain, protect, safeguard, secure It is your responsibility to maintain and ensure the safety of all pipes and equipment.
- ▸ risk someone or something's safety affect, compromise, disregard, endanger, jeopardize, prejudice, risk, sacrifice, threaten, undermine Some people are willing to risk their own safety to help others.
- ▸ improve safety boost, enhance, improve, increase, maximize, promote Quite rightly, the rules are primarily to do with maximizing safety on the race.
- ▸ assess something's safety assess, check, evaluate, monitor, test The Fire Service carry out free home safety checks, where they assess fire safety in people's homes.
- ▸ worry about someone's safety be concerned about, fear for, worry about Residents are very concerned about the speed of traffic and rightly fear for the safety of pedestrians.
- ▸ try to make something safe address, consider, manage, tackle Hospital plans must address safety for staff, patients and visitors.

- N+n check assessment, check, inspection Safety checks showed that lives are being put at risk by parents fitting child seats in the front of their vehicles.
- ▸ measure feature, measure, precaution, procedure, system We have installed carbon monoxide detectors as a safety precaution.
- ▸ hazard hazard, risk The small quantities of mica being handled shouldn't pose a safety hazard if handled carefully by adults.
- ▸ rules or law law, legislation, policy, regulation, requirement, rule Non-compliance with the safety regulations is a criminal offence.
- ▸ information or advice advice, guidelines, information, recommendation, tip INFORMAL People are being denied vital safety information.
- ▸ course of action campaign, initiative We feel it is important to organize road safety initiatives all year round.
- ▸ issue issue, matter It's not a safety issue, it's an image issue.
- ▸ reasons or concerns concerns, considerations, implications, reasons If, for safety reasons, you cannot have a pond, consider a bog garden.
- ▸ level or standard levels, limits, standards The nuclear regulatory regime imposes stringent safety requirements on the industry.

saga N INFORMAL a long series of events

- adj+N continuing, long, long-running, ongoing, sorry, whole The long-running saga regarding the future of the old theatre has taken another turn.
- N+v begin, continue, drag on, end, rumble on, unfold Scientists around the world watched as a dramatic saga unfolded in the depths of space.

salary N a fixed amount of money earned by working

- adj+N high big, excellent, exorbitant, fat, generous, good, high, inflated, six-figure, top The Council leaders rewarded themselves with inflated salaries and generous perks.
- ▸ fairly high attractive, competitive, decent INFORMAL, reasonable We offer competitive salaries and benefits.
- ▸ low low, meagre, minimum, modest, small They live on her meagre salary and some social security.
- ▸ before/after tax gross, net You can borrow up to two thirds of your gross annual salary.
- ▸ all full When she was on maternity leave, she was paid her full salary.
- ▸ before commission basic You will benefit from a good basic salary plus commission.
- ▸ paid every year, month etc annual, monthly, weekly, yearly Monthly salaries at the company currently range from $130 to $280.
- ▸ at the end/start of a career final, starting MPs pensions will now be calculated on a 40th of their final salary.
- ▸ now current Please send your CV with details of your current salary to our Human Resources department.

- v+N earn a salary command, draw, earn, get, have, receive, take Due to their valuable skills, our graduates can command top salaries.
- ▸ pay a salary give sb, offer, pay, provide What salary is paid to the specialist carrying out the work?
- ▸ increase a salary augment, boost, double, increase, inflate, raise I was immediately offered a more responsible job, and my salary was doubled!

▸ reduce a salary cut, reduce, slash Some tutors are having their salaries reduced by 40 percent.
▸ add to a salary supplement He started writing fiction to supplement his newspaper salary.
▸ fix a salary determine, fix, negotiate As a partner in the business, she can negotiate her own salary.
▸ review a salary review We will review your salary on an annual basis.

• N+v for saying how much a salary is amount to sth, be sth, exceed sth, range from sth to sth, start at sth Typical salaries range from 8,000 – 12,000 pounds per annum.
▸ increase double, go up, increase, rise This year, his salary rose to $180,100.
▸ decrease drop, fall, go down You might find that your basic salary has gone down, but the total you are paid is still higher.
▸ depend on something be commensurate with sth, depend on sth, reflect sth Basic salary is commensurate with experience.

sale N [usually plural]
the total sold within a period or the money earned

• adj+N high good, high, huge, massive, record, strong Ticket sales have been much higher than expected.
▸ low disappointing, poor The company said it had disappointing sales in Europe.
▸ total overall, total In 2005, UKAI exported over 67 per cent of its total sales.
▸ average average The average sales for 1839 were 36,000 copies a week.
▸ gross/net gross, net The group has operations in 55 countries and net sales of 2.8 billion US dollars.
▸ per year annual, yearly Annual sales are up by 10 per cent.
▸ per month monthly, quarterly The company saw a 2.8 per cent rise in quarterly sales.
▸ future future, possible, potential If our customers are not happy, then we lose potential sales.
▸ in shops high street, over-the-counter, retail The company is restructuring its retail sales force.
▸ not in shops direct, online, private, telephone Is your goal to make direct sales via e-commerce on your website?
▸ in the world global, worldwide Total worldwide sales of her books are now at four million copies.
▸ in other countries export, foreign, international, overseas Overseas sales continued to be important.
▸ in your own country domestic, home, local The ban on advertising applies to export sales as well as to domestic sales.

• v+N increase sales boost, double, drive (up), expand, grow, improve, increase, maximise, push up The Louis Vuitton brand is helping to drive sales.
▸ achieve sales achieve, generate, get, notch up, secure The tour didn't seem to generate many sales for the band.
▸ forecast or expect sales anticipate, expect, forecast, predict, project The business has forecast sales of £100 million this year.
▸ reduce sales affect, hurt, impact on, reduce The 2p per litre price increase had not affected sales.
▸ announce sales announce, report Hyundai announced sales of 44,508 vehicles for the month, an all-time record.

• N+v increase go up, grow, increase, leap, rise, rocket, soar Sales are rising slowly as prices drop.
▸ decrease decline, decrease, dip, drop, fall, go down, plummet, slip, slow down, slump It is only when it becomes obvious that sales are declining that a firm might start to investigate the reasons why.
▸ equal an amount amount to sth, reach sth, total sth In the first six months of 2006, Ford's U.S. sales totalled 1.55 million.
▸ be more than an amount exceed sth, top sth Sales so far have exceeded initial forecasts.

sample N
1 a small amount of a substance used for tests

• adj+N first first, initial, original The orginal sample would be sent to another laboratory for analysis.
▸ new fresh, new She ran the tests again and sent fresh samples to three other labs.
▸ of faeces faecal, stool The most effective way of finding out whether it is food poisoning is for the ill person to provide a faecal sample for testing.

• n+N from the body blood, DNA, fluid, hair, tissue, urine 200 patients had blood samples taken in their own homes.
▸ from the earth rock, soil, water Over 250 soil samples have been collected.
▸ for comparison control Control samples are taken from unaffected parts of the same field for comparison.

• v+N collect a sample collect, draw, extract, get, obtain, take How is the sample collected for testing?
▸ test a sample analyze, examine, peform sth on, process, test By testing blood samples, the laboratory can measure the hormones which control the ovaries.
▸ provide a sample give sb, provide, send in, submit Wildlife specialists submitted hair samples from captive lynx as evidence of their presence in Washington and Oregon forests.
▸ damage a sample contaminate If the sample is contaminated with blood we may be unable to provide a result.

2 a group of people tested to find out about a larger group

• adj+N small small, tiny Even with a small sample of six organisations visited, we observed significant differences in the way they were organised.
▸ large bulk, large We are confident that the methodology applied here is robust and 'portable' to larger samples of staff.
▸ total overall, total We asked our total sample to prioritise their interest in retailing across twelve product sectors.
▸ first first, original Just under half of the original sample were retained in the school system to the age of fourteen.
▸ good good, representative The aim is to select a representative sample of all posts within the University to act as benchmarks.
▸ not specially chosen random The study measured height in a random sample of 50 males and 50 females.
▸ national national In most examples, a national population sample does yield an approximately normal distribution.

- v+N study a sample examine, interview, study We interviewed samples of deaf people in five different regions.
- ▸ choose a sample choose, draw, select Dr Hill said the sample was randomly selected from hospital patients.

sanction N [usually plural] punishment of a country that has broken international law

- adj+N strict comprehensive, crippling, draconian, harsh, severe, strict, stringent, tough The country was already in the midst of a humanitarian disaster caused by 12 years of crippling sanctions.
- ▸ economic economic, trade The League had imposed economic sanctions on Italy for the invasion of Abyssinia.
- ▸ from one/more than one country international, multilateral, unilateral Without international sanctions, they will be able to allocate greater financial and human resources to their nuclear program.
- v+N impose sanctions apply, implement, impose, introduce, slap United Nations trade sanctions were slapped on Baghdad after its 1990 invasion of Kuwait.
- ▸ end sanctions end, lift, suspend, waive The deals can not be implemented until sanctions are lifted.
- ▸ make sanctions less strict ease, loosen The President announced his decision to ease some sanctions against North Korea.
- ▸ make sanctions more strict strengthen, tighten When the West tightens sanctions against Iraq, the people suffer.
- ▸ threaten sanctions threaten The European Union threatened sanctions should they refuse to stop enriching uranium.
- ▸ not obey sanctions break, circumvent, evade, violate He refused to say whether Washington believed the visit had in fact violated the sanctions.
- ▸ make sure someone obeys sanctions enforce The ILO does not have the power to enforce sanctions to ensure that labour rights are recognised around the globe.
- ▸ agree/disagree with sanctions oppose, support I oppose the sanctions on humanitarian grounds.

sanitation N conditions and processes relating to people's health

- adj+N good adequate, decent, effective, good, proper, safe Nearly half of the world's people lack access to adequate sanitation.
- ▸ bad bad, inadequate, non-existent, poor Conditions in barracks were very bad, with overcrowding, poor sanitation and little ventilation.
- ▸ basic basic A staggering 2.4 billion people don't even have basic sanitation.

sanity N
the ability to think, speak and behave normally

- v+N lose your sanity lose Grant is in danger of losing his sanity.
- ▸ keep your sanity keep, maintain, preserve, retain There's a way to get through this and maintain your sanity.
- ▸ save someone's sanity save She must have saved his sanity on many an occasion with her level-headed advice.
- ▸ get your sanity back recover, regain, restore I eventually regained my sanity and that's when I realised the drugs had never been my primary addiction.
- ▸ threaten someone's sanity threaten Strange things start to happen that threaten her sanity.
- ▸ doubt someone's sanity doubt, question I began to doubt my own sanity.

sap V
to make someone feel weak or unenthusiastic

- V+n confidence, energy, enthusiasm, morale, strength, vitality, will Disruptive behaviour in the classroom has an adverse impact on all of the class and saps the morale of our teachers.

sarcasm N saying the opposite of what you mean

- adj+N biting, bitter, heavy, withering Some people were offended by his biting sarcasm.
- and/or cynicism, humour, irony, mockery, ridicule, wit He was happy to employ ridicule and sarcasm in defence of free speech and reason.

sarcastic ADJ
using sarcasm to upset someone

- ADJ+n comment comment, put-down, remark, reply The judges are there to help, so will not be offering sarcastic put-downs to the contestants.
- ▸ humour humour, wit He uses his sarcastic wit to shield himself and his feelings.
- ▸ tone tone I don't like your sarcastic tone!
- and/or cynical, humorous, ironic, rude, witty He believes that everything I say is cynical, sarcastic and intended to hurt.

satellite N
an object that travels around the Earth

- adj+N artificial, astronomical, civilian, communications, meteorological, military, radar, reconnaissance, spy, weather Sputnik 1 was the first artificial satellite, launched by the Soviet Union in October 1957.
- v+N launch a satellite deploy, launch On board was the largest telecommunications satellite ever launched.
- ▸ follow a satellite follow, track The user's device must then track a satellite's movement across the sky.
- ▸ find a satellite find, locate Then move the dish to locate the required satellite.
- ▸ operate a satellite control, operate The satellites were operated from a remote ground station in Australia.
- N+v go round something circle sth, orbit sth These changes are now continually monitored by satellites orbiting the Earth.
- ▸ broadcast something broadcast sth, transmit sth These satellites transmit radio signals which the GPS receiver picks up.
- ▸ notice or watch something detect sth, monitor sth, observe sth Spy satellites then observed the vehicles turn around and return to the centre of the city.

satire N
the use of humour to criticize someone, or something that uses this kind of humour

- adj+N strong or clever biting, clever, savage, scathing, sharp 'Popcorn' is a biting satire of America's litigation culture.
- ▸ funny comic, hilarious, witty I'm not expecting incisive social comment or witty satire.
- ▸ types of satire political, social Amidst the humour, there is some serious political satire.
- and/or comedy, farce, humour, irony, parody, ridicule, wit The film was a mix of comedy and satire, with elements of drama thrown in.

satisfaction N pleasure obtained from getting what you want

- adj+N great considerable, deep, enormous, great, high, immense, much, real, tremendous, ultimate To my immense satisfaction, I landed beside a main road.
- ▸ continuing for a long time lasting Lasting satisfaction comes from helping others.
- ▸ complete complete, entire, full, total Our overall mission is complete customer satisfaction, whatever it takes.
- ▸ little little, low It was expected that restructuring would result in lower job satisfaction and greater job insecurity.
- ▸ overall general, overall The overall satisfaction of patients with most NHS services is high.
- ▸ too happy smug You could feel the smug satisfaction from all the men there.
- ▸ of both people mutual Safe and satisfactory anaesthesia can easily be obtained to the mutual satisfaction of the patient, surgeon and anaesthetist.
- ▸ of yourself own, personal, self When I have achieved a successful result for my client, that gives me great personal satisfaction.
- ▸ of the public public The survey shows high levels of public satisfaction with parks and open spaces across the country.
- ▸ types of satisfaction emotional, intellectual, marital, professional, sexual Couples who share household tasks find greater marital satisfaction.
- n+N of a group of people client, consumer, customer, employee, learner, patient, staff, student, tenant, user We aim to deliver customer satisfaction and the highest possible standards of service.
- ▸ with something career, job, life, service She would be able to have a direct impact on bringing about change, so job satisfaction would be high.
- v+N feel satisfaction achieve, experience, feel, find, have You'll have the satisfaction of doing something really worthwhile.
- ▸ get satisfaction derive, gain, get, take The cast probably derived more satisfaction out of the play than the audience.
- ▸ express satisfaction express, indicate, report, show He expressed satisfaction at the progres of the project.
- ▸ give satisfaction afford, bring, give, provide Every part of the book would afford satisfaction and information to the reader.
- ▸ ensure someone's satisfaction assure, ensure, guarantee We guarantee your complete satisfaction.
- ▸ measure satisfaction assess, gauge, measure, monitor The questionnaire is designed to measure the job satisfaction or dissatisfaction of teachers.
- ▸ improve satisfaction enhance, improve, increase The industry is working hard at improving customer satisfaction.

satisfactory ADJ
good enough

- adv+ADJ completely altogether, completely, entirely, equally, fully, perfectly, totally, wholly Neither of these solutions is entirely satisfactory, however. ◉ A different approach might bring you equally satisfactory results.
- ▸ very highly, really INFORMAL, thoroughly, very The company concluded the financial year with highly satisfactory financial results.
- ▸ mainly broadly, generally In the sixth form, students' progress is broadly satisfactory.
- ▸ fairly fairly, quite, reasonably These methods are fairly satisfactory out of doors, but are unlikely to succeed in a cave.
- ▸ almost not barely, hardly, rarely The result was a barely satisfactory recording interrupted by family conversations.
- ▸ for both people mutually It is hoped that a mutually satisfactory approach will be found.
- ADJ+n end or result completion, conclusion, outcome, resolution, result, solution On satisfactory completion of this course, you will receive a diploma.
- ▸ answer answer, explanation, reply, response There doesn't seem to be a satisfactory answer to this. ◉ No satisfactory explanation was given for this delay.
- ▸ progress or performance performance, progress The trainee must maintain satisfactory progress at all times.
- ▸ arrangement arrangement, compromise, settlement Both parties agreed to a satisfactory compromise.
- ▸ alternative alternative, substitute Semi-skimmed milk is a satisfactory alternative to full-fat milk.
- ▸ standard or condition condition, level, quality, standard All work must be undertaken to a satisfactory standard.
- ▸ manner manner We hope to be able to resolve the matter in a speedy and satisfactory manner.
- v+ADJ consider something satisfactory consider sth, deem sth, find sth, judge sth, rate sth Premises must not be opened to the public until the work is deemed satisfactory.
- ▸ be or remain satisfactory be, prove, remain Her condition seemed to remain satisfactory although she had some swelling in her legs.
- ▸ seem satisfactory appear, seem None of these explanations seems fully satisfactory.

satisfied ADJ pleased with what has happened

- adv+ADJ very or completely completely, fully, perfectly, totally, very Please say if you are not perfectly satisfied with the service.
- ▸ fairly fairly, quite, reasonably We feel reasonably satisfied because the team finished, but it was a shame we didn't score any points.

satisfy V
1 to provide something that someone wants

- adv+V completely completely, entirely, perfectly, thoroughly, totally, wholly We strive to totally satisfy all our customers.
- V+n wish or need ambition, aspirations, demand, desire, expectation, need, request, urge, wish I was finally able to satisfy my ambition to travel around the world.
- ▶ interest curiosity To satisfy his own curiosity, Pemberton examines the family's history.
- ▶ physical feeling appetite, hunger, lust, thirst We don't only eat to satisfy hunger.
- ▶ strong wish craving, longing, yearning If you find you need to satisfy your cravings for big city shops and nightlife, London is close by.

2 to have the qualities needed by a rule, condition etc

- adv+V more or less generally, reasonably The report as a whole generally satisfies the requirements set out by the Council.
- ▶ completely completely, entirely, fully This practice fully satisfies the requirements of UK law.
- V+n condition, constraint, criterion, obligation, requirement, rule To study at the university, students must satisfy certain entry requirements.

satisfying ADJ making you feel pleased or happy

- adv+ADJ very deeply, enormously, extremely, hugely, immensely, incredibly, intensely, really INFORMAL, richly, supremely, thoroughly, very, wholly After six years of anticipation, to hold a European trophy was immensely satisfying.
- ▶ when something is surprising strangely, surprisingly I found cleaning strangely satisfying!
- ▶ in a particular way aesthetically, emotionally, intellectually You learn to use other languages in an intellectually satisfying way.
- and/or challenging, enjoyable, entertaining, meaningful, productive, rewarding, stimulating, worthwhile Beethoven sonatas are among the most satisfying and rewarding to play.

saunter V
to walk in a slow and relaxed way

- adv+V casually, gently, nonchalantly, slowly He casually sauntered down to the platform.

savage ADJ cruel or severe

- ADJ+n ferocity, indictment, irony, onslaught, repression, reprisals The book is a fairly savage indictment of social workers.
- and/or barbaric, brutal, cruel, ignorant, primitive, wild The Greeks did not necessarily think that all foreigners were savage and ignorant.

saving N [always plural] money that you have saved or invested

- adj+N of a person personal, private Through personal savings and a bank loan, she was able to purchase and install the required machines.
- ▶ that you have worked hard for hard-earned It is quite outrageous that computer mistakes deprive pensioners of their hard-earned savings.
- n+N emergency, household, life, lifetime, retirement Don't put your entire life savings into an online account.
- v+N build up savings accumulate, build up, increase As you begin to accumulate savings, you can start to invest.
- ▶ pay in savings deposit, invest Encourage older children to deposit savings in a High Street savings account.
- ▶ take out savings take out, withdraw Click here for more information on how to withdraw your savings.
- ▶ have savings have Many households on lower incomes have no savings at all.
- ▶ use savings dip into, raid, use Britons have been dipping into savings to pay for luxury items such as gifts, holidays and shopping.

say V
to express something using words

- adv+V aloud aloud, out loud The irregular verbs can be said aloud in chorus whilst clapping.
- ▶ clearly or carefully clearly, loudly, plainly, precisely, slowly I said clearly that there would be no public statements made.
- ▶ calmly/not calmly calmly, casually, excitedly 'My daughter has leukaemia', she said almost casually.
- ▶ quickly briefly, hastily, hurriedly, quickly 'Yes,' Sam said hastily, before Kate or Gary could formulate their own questions.
- ▶ quietly gently, quietly, softly 'I love you,' she said softly.
- ▶ firmly or confidently confidently, emphatically, firmly Firmly say the word 'no' when your dog jumps up at you.
- ▶ definitely categorically, certainly, definitely, definitively, genuinely, positively, safely, truly, unequivocally I could safely say that he was one of the best painters I had ever met.
- ▶ specifically explicitly, expressly, specifically I explicitly said that I would not attend any function at which he was even present.
- ▶ angrily angrily, shortly 'Well,' he said shortly, 'people's private opinions can wait'.
- ▶ happily cheerfully, happily 'Daisy, come and help me,' Margot said cheerfully.
- ▶ seriously or sadly gravely, grimly, ruefully, sadly, seriously, solemnly He stared at me hard, then he solemnly said, 'You shouldn't be out, you should be home in bed.'
- ▶ directly or rudely abruptly, bluntly, directly, flatly, pointedly, rudely 'He's in his office,' said Mr Henchard bluntly.
- ▶ proudly/not proudly modestly, proudly Santa Cruz has become, they say proudly, the new Barcelona.
- ▶ in a pleasant or useful way helpfully, kindly, politely 'Don't you hurry, sonny,' said the old lady kindly .
- ▶ in a joking way dryly, jokingly, sarcastically I said jokingly to the clerk 'I bet you hope that never happens'.
- ▶ publicly/privately openly, privately, publicly Many things which they say publicly show the extent of their ignorance.

- ▸ honestly earnestly, frankly, honestly, truthfully I can honestly say that I have never been so nervous in my life.
- ▸ basically basically, effectively, essentially, really What I'm basically saying is that I disagree with you.
- ▸ only merely, simply I am simply saying that all the research that I have done has left me exasperated.
- ▸ often again and again, consistently, constantly, continually, frequently, often, repeatedly I have said repeatedly that I believe climate change is the major long-term threat facing our planet.
- ▸ when someone is right correctly, rightly As the Governor General rightly said, 'I knew too much'.
- ▸ when people say someone said something allegedly, apparently, reportedly He has reportedly said he will give away 95 per cent of the money.
- ▸ when what someone says is well-known famously Winston Churchill famously said of democracy: 'It is the worst form of government, except for all the others'.

saying N
a well-known statement about what often happens

- • adj+N clever or funny wise, witty She paid little attention to his witty sayings and sparkling comments.
- ▸ old or well-known common, famous, old, popular, well-known 'The price of liberty is eternal vigilance' is a well-known saying.
- ▸ favourite favourite 'Neither a borrower nor a lender be' was my granny's favourite saying.
- ▸ short and effective pithy, proverbial Short pithy sayings become popular when they express something that the experience of life shows to be true.

scale N
1 the size of something, especially when it is big

- • adj+N large big, broad, full, grand, great, large, sheer, wide We were indeed impressed by the grand scale of the building.
- ▸ very large colossal, enormous, huge, massive, unimaginable, unprecedented, vast Increasing population and consumption are altering the planet on an unprecedented scale.
- ▸ small modest, small Ben made the same mistake as Max but on a more modest scale.
- ▸ world global, international, worldwide Climatic chaos has reached a global scale.
- ▸ country national Crimestoppers has been in operation on a national scale since 1988.
- ▸ region local, regional A modern telecommunications system is essential for any business that seeks to operate on more than the local scale.
- ▸ industry commercial, industrial Criminals can now produce these fakes on an industrial scale.

2 an ordered arrangement of people, figures, levels etc

- • adj+N fixed, incremental, sliding, standard The cost is on a sliding scale – 99 pence for the first four frames, then 50 pence for the rest, with a 10 pence charge to edit a frame.
- • n+N of people's pay pay, salary, wage For the first time, one set of salary scales was introduced throughout all the railway companies.
- ▸ for measuring the level of something intensity, length, temperature, time, wavelength Unless the council can come up with a definitive time scale for starting the work, the offer will be withdrawn.
- ▸ with a specified number of levels 3-point, 5-point, 10-point etc Regular feedback on individual teaching sessions is provided by the students using a 5-point scale.

scandal N
a situation in which important people behave badly

- • adj+N big big, huge, major, real An even bigger scandal, involving corrupt politicians and officials, is now gathering momentum.
- ▸ small minor He made many enemies and seemed to be dogged by minor scandals.
- ▸ well-known high-profile, national, notorious, public, tabloid When Stalin died in 1953 a notorious scandal erupted over Picasso's drawing of him.
- ▸ alleged alleged The Serious Fraud Office is investigating an alleged bribery scandal.
- ▸ of a particular type abuse, accounting, bribery, corporate, corruption, financial, match-fixing, mis-selling, political, sex, sexual, sleaze Sexual scandal in high places is no longer as shocking as it used to be.
- • v+N reveal a scandal expose, reveal, uncover The scandal was uncovered by the Belgian newspaper De Morgen.
- ▸ cause a scandal bring, cause, create, lead to, provoke In 1918 Josiah Wedgwood caused a scandal by divorcing his wife of twenty-four years.
- ▸ be involved in a scandal be embroiled in, be implicated in, be involved in Edward was embroiled in a scandal which effectively ended his political career.
- • N+v happen break, ensue, erupt, unfold The scandal broke at the end of December.
- ▸ affect someone or something dog sb/sth, engulf sb/sth, hit sb/sth, rock sb/sth, shake sb/sth His political career was dogged by scandal.
- • and/or controversy, corruption, gossip, intrigue, scam, sleaze He was a somewhat flamboyant monarch and a faint whiff of scandal and intrigue was to accompany his reign.

scapegoat N someone who is wrongly blamed for something

- • adj+N convenient, easy, handy Jews were used as a convenient scapegoat, and were blamed for many of the country's problems.
- • v+N become, find, make sb, need, seek He feels that he has been made a scapegoat.

scarce ADJ
when there is not much of something

- • adv+ADJ very exceedingly, extremely, very Wartime pictures of the village are extremely scarce.
- ▸ rather comparatively, fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, relatively Carry a toilet roll with you on your travels, as they can be quite scarce in some countries.
- ▸ increasingly increasingly Water is an increasingly scarce resource throughout the world.

• v+ADJ be, become, grow, remain Fresh water is now becoming scarce in many regions of the world.

scarcity N

when there is not enough of something

• adj+N relative comparative, relative The relative scarcity of land will continue to decline.
▸ extreme absolute, acute, extreme, severe Nationwide, there is a severe scarcity of allergy clinics.
▸ economic economic The dramatic increase in poverty across the globe is not caused by economic scarcity.

• N+of food, fuel, land, material, money, resources, water Wars and civil violence often arise from the scarcity of resources such as water and land.

scare V

to make someone feel frightened or worried

• adv+V a lot the (living) daylights out of INFORMAL, really INFORMAL, stiff INFORMAL, to death, witless INFORMAL You really scared me! ❁ Many a brave person has been scared witless by attempting to ghost hunt here.
▸ a little a little, slightly I must admit he scares me a little.

scare N

when people suddenly feel worried or frightened

• adj+N small brief, minor, slight There was a slight scare at the end of the first lap as his wheel touched the trackside grass causing a serious wobble.
▸ big big, major, real She caused a major food scare by declaring that most eggs were contaminated with salmonella.
▸ real/not real false, genuine There were enough genuine scares to make me and the rest of the audience jump several times!

• n+N AIDS, bomb, cancer, food, health, injury, pregnancy, safety, security, terrorist Earlier in the year the online filing system was hit by a security scare.

• v+N cause a scare cause, create, generate, provoke, spark, trigger A suspicious package which sparked a bomb scare turned out to be a birthday present.
▸ suffer a scare suffer In January 1985, Margaret suffered a cancer scare and a section of lung was removed.
▸ survive a scare recover from, survive She's survived health scares, heartbreak and career lows but now she's back.

scenario N

a situation that could possibly happen

• adj+N possible likely, plausible, possible, probable, realistic We have to tailor our advice to realistic scenarios in the everyday working environment.
▸ bad bad, pessimistic Even in our most pessimistic scenarios we couldn't imagine that human society would be so stupid.
▸ good best-case, ideal, optimistic, win-win The optimistic scenario of a quick victory over the IRA began to unravel rapidly.
▸ the worst possible apocalyptic, doomsday, nightmare, worst-case The nightmare scenario for us is where the customer wants it all done by 2pm tomorrow afternoon.
▸ different alternative, different The user can also explore alternative scenarios.
▸ imaginary fictional, fictitious, hypothetical, imaginary, simulated Professionals were asked to state how they would react to a hypothetical scenario.

• v+N imagine a scenario consider, envisage, foresee, imagine, look at, think of, visualize It is possible to envisage other scenarios – say, one in which a Democratic administration becomes extremely unpopular.
▸ describe a scenario construct, depict, paint, present The press painted an apocalyptic scenario of disaffected working class voters switching to extremist parties.
▸ cause a scenario lead to, produce The terrorism laws could lead to a scenario in which the police are arresting innocent people.

• N+v arise, emerge, happen, occur, play out, unfold There is still time to stop this scheme before this disastrous scenario unfolds.

scene N

1 a part of play, book, film etc

• adj+N climactic, comic, dramatic, funny, hilarious, romantic, violent The play is interesting because of Miller's meaty dialogue and the repeated dramatic scenes.

• n+N battle, chase, fight, murder, rape, sex, street We were rehearsing a fight scene and my knee hit her nose accidentally.

• v+N create a scene act out, enact, film, improvise, rehearse, set, shoot They participate in drama games and improvise a key scene from the show.
▸ get rid of a scene cut, delete They decided to cut a scene in which Jack questions his government's policy.

• N+v depict sth, feature sth, include sth, involve sth What should I do if I wish to film scenes involving firearms?

2 the place where something happens

• v+N leave a scene depart from, escape from, flee, run from Jane flees the scene, but is soon caught and arrested.
▸ go to or be at a scene arrive at, attend, be at, be on, remain at, rush to, stay at, stop at Emergency services were on the scene within minutes. ❁ A passing motorist stopped at the scene of the accident.

• N+of accident, battle, collision, crash, crime, disaster, fighting, incident, massacre, murder, riot, robbery, shooting, tragedy, violence The upper floor, scene of the murder and arson in 1893, is used as a store.

3 an area of interest or activity, especially in the arts or politics

• adj+N in which interesting things happen exciting, lively, vibrant The city still has a vibrant jazz scene.

▸ active and successful burgeoning, flourishing, thriving Scotland has a thriving art scene and Glasgow is a great platform for new artists.

• n+N art, dance, folk, hip-hop, indie, jazz, music, punk, rave Your main base is Cambridge. How big is the hip-hop scene there?

• v+N become part of a scene, especially in a noticeable way arrive on, burst onto, come onto, emerge onto We had an exclusive interview with a young rapper who had just burst onto the scene.

▸ stop being involved in a scene depart from, disappear from, fade from, retire from, vanish from, withdraw from For nearly a year he disappeared from the political scene.

4 things that you see around you, especially when they involve death or suffering

• v+N observe, survey, witness A falcon was sitting comfortably on its perch, surveying the scene.

• N+of bloodshed, carnage, chaos, desolation, devastation, horror, mayhem, suffering As the attacks came over with increasing intensity, our camp became a scene of chaos.

scenery N

natural things that you see in a place

• adj+N very beautiful or impressive amazing, beautiful, breathtaking, dramatic, fabulous, fantastic, glorious, gorgeous, lovely, magnificent, majestic, picturesque, spectacular, splendid, stunning, superb, unspoiled, wonderful With breathtaking scenery and long winding roads, Dorset is a paradise for bikes.

▸ of a particular type alpine, coastal, mountainous, rugged Hotel Les Chamois makes an ideal base from where to explore some dramatic alpine scenery.

• n+N desert, forest, highland, limestone, moorland, mountain, woodland Expeditions by sea kayak or on foot through spectacular highland scenery are also on offer.

If you want to talk about the scenery around a place, you can say that it is set amid or set amidst scenery of a particular type: You could stay at the Grunenberg, a family hotel set amid beautiful Black Forest scenery.

• v+N admire, appreciate, discover, enjoy, experience, look at, savour, take in, view Once at the top, we took a little time to savour the stunning scenery.

scent N

a particular smell

• adj+N strong aromatic, heady, overpowering, pungent We sat there inhaling the heady scents of a hot African evening.

▸ pleasant alluring, delicious, heavenly, irresistible, refreshing By this time the fruits should be ready to release their heavenly scent.

▸ types of scent earthy, feminine, floral, fruity, masculine, musky, spicy, sweet Distilled from the fresh leaves, this oil has a sweet, floral, geranium-like scent.

▸ slight delicate, faint The faint scent attracts bees, which pollinate the flowers.

• v+N smell a scent enjoy, inhale, smell, sniff She draws a finger over the roll's shiny egg glaze, sniffing its warm yeasty scent.

▸ produce a scent emit, exude, give off, produce, release The leaves, when rubbed, exude a strong caraway scent and taste.

sceptic N

someone who has doubts about things that other people accept

• adj+N complete, extreme, hardened Only the most hardened sceptic could not find some sympathetic resonance within this book.

• v+N persuade a sceptic to believe something convert, convince, persuade, win over If they are to win over the sceptics, they need more evidence that these alternative medicines actually work.

▸ prove that a sceptic is wrong confound, prove sb wrong, silence The company's continued existence has proved many sceptics wrong.

sceptical ADJ

having doubts about something that other people accept

• adv+ADJ which is easy to understand justifiably, naturally, rightly, understandably People in the health profession are understandably sceptical about the benefits of drug therapy.

▸ very deeply, extremely, highly, very Many of us are deeply sceptical about the assurances that civilian casualties will be minimised.

▸ slightly a little, mildly, slightly, somewhat I hope the Secretary of State will forgive those of us who are mildly sceptical of the Government's performance.

• ADJ+n argument, attitude, stance, view, viewpoint The public was rejecting Bush's sceptical stance on climate change.

• v+ADJ appear, be, become, feel, grow, remain, seem Some politicians remain sceptical about climate science.

scepticism N

doubts about things that other people accept

• adj+N great considerable, deep, extreme, much, profound, strong, total Whether these victims will receive the justice they deserve is a matter for profound scepticism.

▸ expressed by many people general, public, universal, widespread Among the general public, there appears to be almost universal scepticism about the trial.

• v+N express scepticism demonstrate, express, greet sth with, regard sth with, reveal, share, treat sth with, view sth with, voice The plan was greeted with scepticism by the Disability Rights Commission. ◉ A number of councillors have voiced scepticism about the move.

▸ cause a reaction of scepticism meet with, provoke Plans for a new 'state-of-the-art' market hall have met with scepticism from traders.

• n+of+N amount of scepticism deal, degree, dose, lot Her claims were treated with a considerable degree of scepticism.

▸ feeling of scepticism attitude, climate, mood, spirit

In the current climate of scepticism, it is difficult to persuade people of the need to conserve energy.

schedule N a plan of times for activities or events

- adj+N busy, crowded, demanding, exhausting, gruelling, hectic, packed, punishing, relentless, rigorous, strict, tight Some presenters, feeling the strain of a hectic television schedule, might practise yoga.
- v+N make a schedule agree, plan, prepare, produce, set In an exchange of emails, we set a rough schedule for getting the work done.
- ▸ make changes to a schedule adjust, revise, update These IT projects have been poorly managed, with schedules that get revised on a regular basis.
- ▸ follow a schedule adhere to, conform to, keep to, stick to, work to Stick to the schedule and don't fall behind in your work!

If you fail to follow a schedule, and things happen later than they should, you can say that you are behind schedule or you have fallen behind schedule: After weeks of bad weather, the construction project is seriously behind schedule.

scheme N

a plan for achieving something

- adj+N new and ambitious ambitious, innovative, new, pioneering, radical Hundreds of young people have been helped to join the workforce thanks to this pioneering scheme.
- ▸ on a large scale comprehensive, large, major The report gives details of major new road schemes which are being planned.
- ▸ effective effective, successful The whole district has been transformed, following a successful regeneration scheme.
- n+N award, bonus, housing, licensing, loyalty, quality-control, recycling, regeneration, stakeholder, training, transport In February 2005, the new kerbside recycling scheme was introduced.
- v+N begin to run a scheme devise, establish, implement, introduce, launch, pilot, set up The school launched a new award scheme to get youngsters thinking up their own ideas.
- ▸ run or manage a scheme administer, manage, operate, run Crime is lower here than in similar areas not operating this scheme.
- ▸ support a scheme back, fund, support Other measures to be introduced to support the building schemes include action against anti-social behaviour.

scholarship N

money that allows someone to study

- v+N get a scholarship gain, obtain, receive, secure, win She attended Brighton High School, where she won a scholarship to Newnham College, Cambridge.
- ▸ give someone a scholarship award, grant, offer When I was 13, I was awarded a scholarship to Wakefield Art College.

school N

a place where children are taught

- v+N begin to go to school enter, start I passed the entrance examination and entered the school in 1931.
- ▸ go to school attend, be at, go to About 82 per cent of young entrants to undergraduate courses had attended such schools.
- ▸ stop going to school finish, leave After finishing secondary school, Eisenstein enrolled at an institute for civil engineering.
- ▸ stop going to school before the usual age drop out She got involved in drugs, and dropped out of high school before she graduated.
- ▸ be forced to leave school because of bad behaviour be booted out of INFORMAL, be expelled from, be kicked out of INFORMAL I was on the verge of being kicked out of school for missing classes.

scope N

1 the things that an activity, organization, subject etc deals with

- v+N increase the scope of sth broaden, enlarge, expand, extend, increase, widen Professor Sykes advised her to broaden the scope of her research.
- ▸ decrease the scope of sth curtail, delimit, limit, minimize, narrow, reduce, restrict These findings usefully restricted the scope of the investigation.
- ▸ say exactly what the scope is circumscribe, define, determine, explain We wanted to determine the scope of this problem.
- N+of+n of a programme of work or study analysis, investigation, programme, project, research, review, study, work The first task is to define the scope of your research.
- ▸ of a written document article, book, document, paper, report The costs of the proposals fall outside the scope of this paper.
- ▸ of a law or rule directive, law, legislation, regulations It is not clear whether live musical events fall within the scope of this legislation.

2 the opportunity or freedom needed to do something

- adj+N great ample, broad, considerable, endless, enormous, immense, tremendous, unlimited, wide Due to our unique patient population, there is ample scope for clinical research.
- ▸ little limited, little, narrow, restricted The limited scope for tax cuts meant that growth was much slower than in the 1980s.
- v+N afford, allow, give sb, offer, provide sb with Its aim is to allow maximum scope for you to innovate and develop unique solutions.

score N

1 the number of points gained in a game or competition

- adj+N good big, excellent, good, high, record, top They won by 12 goals to 2 – still a record score for this competition.
- ▸ bad bad, low, poor At this level, 36 is a pretty bad score.
- ▸ average aggregate, average, mean, median If each team has won an equal number of matches, the aggregate score of the two matches between the teams shall decide the issue.

▸ total combined, final, overall, total Robertson blocked a ten-yard shot to keep the final score 1–0 to Raith.

• v+N make the score the same for each team or player even, level, tie A superb goal from Charlie levelled the score at 1–1.

▸ get a score get, notch up, reach, record In an exciting game, they notched up their highest score of the season.

• N+v be, be at, reach, remain at, stand at At the moment, the score stands at 149 for the challenger against 126 for the incumbent.

2 the number of points or marks gained in a test or examination

• adj+N good excellent, good, high, maximum, top The school regularly produces some of the highest test scores in the country.

▸ bad bad, low, poor With scores as low as this, he is unlikely to gain a place at college.

▸ average average, mean The mean score for the class was 7.6, but the girls performed better than the boys.

▸ total aggregate, combined, final, overall, total A strong result in the final test gave him a combined score of 82 per cent.

• v+N get a score achieve, attain, gain, get, obtain, receive Candidates will need to achieve a score of 40 out of 75 in order to pass.

▸ improve your score boost, improve, increase A good oral test will boost your overall score significantly.

scorn N

complete lack of respect for someone or something

• v+N greet with, heap on, pour on, treat with He poured scorn on those who thought the general strike would be a peaceable economic weapon.

• and/or contempt, derision, ridicule The Kaiser now became an object of derision and scorn as the clouds of war gathered.

scream N

a loud shout of pain, fear, or excitement

• adj+N blood-curdling, high-pitched, loud, piercing, shrill, terrifying, wild A piercing scream rang out and the crowd suddenly parted.

• v+N emit, give, let out, utter Nelly uttered a wild scream, and rushed forward with outstretched arms.

• N+v cut through sth, pierce sth, ring out A high-pitched scream pierces the air.

• N+of agony, anguish, horror, pain, rage, terror Their screams of terror could be heard from outside the building.

screen V

test someone to see if they have a particular illness

• adv+V carefully, effectively, regularly, rigorously, systematically, thoroughly This way, the animals can be screened effectively for viruses.

• V+for cancer, condition, defect, diabetes, disease, disorder, infection, virus Since then, all blood donations have been screened for the virus.

screening N

tests to check someone for disease

• adj+N done regularly annual, regular, routine Routine screening for breast cancer has improved survival rates.

▸ done very carefully careful, rigorous, systematic Offenders can only be released after rigorous psychiatric screening.

▸ when people must receive screeing compulsory A controversial law introduced compulsory screeing for HIV for new employees.

• v+N carry out screening arrange, carry out, conduct, introduce, offer, organize, perform, undertake Some public and private institutions routinely perform screening for the virus.

▸ receive screening undergo Each donor undergoes rigorous screening for possible genetic and infectious risks.

scrutinize V examine something very carefully

• adv+V carefully, closely, critically, rigorously, thoroughly Every fact he comes across is carefully scrutinized for accuracy.

Usage Scrutinize is usually passive in these combinations.

• V+n someone's work performance, progress, work The body was set up to scrutinize the performance of family doctors.

▸ a proposal or decision decision, plan, policy, proposal The council leader says he will rigorously scrutinize all planning proposals.

▸ financial details accounts, budget, expenditure One of the tasks of the committee is scrutinizing staff budgets.

▸ a new law bill, law, legislation Any proposed legislation will be carefully scrutinized by congressional committees.

scrutiny N

careful examination of someone or something

• adj+N thorough careful, close, constant, critical, detailed, in-depth, intense, proper, rigorous, strict, thorough, tough Jones came under intense scrutiny when he played against Australia this summer.

▸ independent democratic, external, independent This assessment is then subjected to external scrutiny by one of our neighbouring authorities.

▸ carried out by politicians or lawyers judicial, legislative, parliamentary, regulatory The Liberal Democrats made the case for parliamentary scrutiny of the commission's activities.

• n+N council, expert, government, peer, police, shareholder Without peer scrutiny, research data have very little scientific value.

• v+N be examined carefully be subjected to, come under, endure, face, undergo At the moment, the drug has not undergone any independent scrutiny.

▸ still seem good after examination bear, stand, withstand We need to make sure that our processes are sufficiently robust to withstand external scrutiny.

▸ deserve to be examined attract, deserve, merit, require, warrant The process nonetheless merits detailed scrutiny by this department.

▸ avoid examination avoid, bypass, escape, evade This was a cynical attempt to manipulate the procedures of the House to avoid proper scrutiny.

sea N

the salt water that surrounds land

- adj+N with large waves angry, choppy, foaming, heavy, raging, rough, stormy, treacherous, turbulent The rain and heavy seas made the work of the rescue crew very difficult.
- ▸ with small waves or none calm, glassy, smooth We had six days of unbroken bright sunshine, calm seas and exceptional visibility.

Usage Sea is usually plural in all of these adj+N combinations.

- ▸ with light reflecting off it glistening, glittering, shimmering, shining, sparkling He sat thoughtfully gazing out of the window across the glittering sea.
- v+N brave, cross, navigate, roam, sail, traverse And in the great ship they crossed the sea, and eventually came to Greenland.
- N+v batter, crash against, lap, pound, wash The sea was pounding the rocky coastline and there was a distinct chill in the air.

seal V

close a container or space tightly

- adv+V completely, effectively, firmly, hermetically, permanently, properly, safely, securely, tightly The building is in effect hermetically sealed, with no opening windows.

Usage Seal is usually passive in all of these adv+V combinations.

search N an attempt to find something or someone

- adj+N thorough comprehensive, diligent, exhaustive, extensive, relentless, systematic, thorough The site was selected for development after an exhaustive search.
- ▸ done by someone who is worried desperate, frantic When Kyle discovers that her daughter is missing, she embarks on a frantic search for answers.
- ▸ producing no useful result fruitless, unsuccessful That night we had another fruitless search for a decent restaurant, so went back to the boat to eat.
- v+N start a search commence, initiate, launch After two drivers were reported missing, a sea and air search was initiated.
- ▸ make a search carry out, conduct, do, execute, perform, undertake The Police said they didn't have enough resources to undertake missing persons searches.
- ▸ stop a search abandon, call off This failure should not give us cause to abandon the search for clarity of thought.
- N+v elicit, find, result, return, reveal, uncover, yield An Internet search returned eight BBC articles on the murder.

search V

look carefully in order to find something or someone

- adv+V thoroughly actively, comprehensively, constantly, continually, diligently, efficiently, endlessly, exhaustively, systematically, thoroughly He would diligently search the noticeboard morning and evening for information.
- ▸ with no useful result fruitlessly, unsuccessfully, vainly While officials searched fruitlessly for the memory stick, the people whose data was compromised were not informed of the loss.
- ▸ in a worried way desperately, frantically She was frantically searching her pockets for the passport.
- ▸ in many places everywhere, far and wide, high and low The officers search everywhere for Anne, but in vain.

season N

a particular period of the year when certain things happen

- adj+N busy busy, high, peak During the peak season, the village can appear as busy as a railway station in the rush hour.
- ▸ of particular weather dry, rainy, wet The rainy season is from November to April.
- n+N type of weather hurricane, monsoon, typhoon The region is prone to serious flooding in the monsoon season of June to September.
- ▸ animal activity breeding, mating, migration, nesting The bird becomes very bold and confident during the breeding season.
- ▸ farming activity grazing, harvesting, planting The festival takes place at the end of the harvesting season.
- ▸ hunting fishing, hunting, salmon, shooting They want the hotel to be ready in time for the next shooting season.
- ▸ tourist activity holiday, tourist, vacation The road currently gets clogged with traffic during the tourist season.
- ▸ sporting activity baseball, basketball, cricket, football, hockey, racing, rugby, skiing, soccer There are 140 to 160 games in a typical baseball season.
- ▸ illness flu, hay-fever, pollen The health campaign will run over several weeks before the onset of the winter flu season.

seasonal ADJ in existence, or available, during a particular season

- ADJ+n changes or differences adjustment, fluctuation, variability, variation There is a large seasonal fluctuation in mortality, with around 40,000 more deaths between December and March than in other periods.
- ▸ food fruit, ingredient, produce, refreshment, veg, vegetable This menu is updated each semester to reflect the seasonal produce available to our chefs.
- ▸ illness allergy, flu, rhinitis Most people tested for flu-like symptoms will be suffering from regular seasonal flu.
- ▸ weather conditions, flooding, rainfall, temperature The river was still wide and shallow, with marshland to the north where seasonal flooding occurred.

seat N

a position as member of an elected group such as a parliament or committee.

- adj+N easy to win or keep safe, winnable The Liberal Democrats seized one of Labour's safest seats in a key north London by-election.
- ▸ which any candidate might win marginal The paper also reports from Cheadle constituency, the country's most marginal seat.
- v+N win a seat gain, pick up, take, win He won the seat at the 1906 General Election.
- ▸ try to get or keep a seat contest, defend, fight for Representatives had until Saturday to inform the party whether they intended to contest their seats.
- ▸ keep a seat which you already have hold, hold onto, keep, retain Despite a strong challenge, she held onto her seat with a small majority.
- ▸ lose a seat lose We lost many seats, but we won the election.

secluded ADJ

private, peaceful, and not near other people

- adv+ADJ
- ADJ+n corner, hideaway, location, retreat, setting, spot, surroundings You will have the chance to meet people and work in some beautiful, secluded spots.
- and/or peaceful, private, quiet, rural, sheltered, tranquil The park offers a number of tranquil and secluded spots for picnicking.

second V officially support a proposal in a meeting

- V+n amendment, motion, nomination, proposal, resolution In seconding the proposal, Councillor McBride welcomed the provision of car parking spaces.

secrecy N

a situation in which you keep something secret

- adj+N absolute, complete, deep, extreme, great, perfect, strict, total, utmost This is a very confidential matter that requires the utmost secrecy.
- v+N keep something secret ensure, maintain, preserve, protect Maintaining the secrecy and mystery of the Order is one of the main strengths of the Freemasons.

If something is very secret, you can say that it is shrouded in secrecy or cloaked in secrecy: The new inquiry has been shrouded in secrecy since it was quietly resumed last year.

- ▸ require secrecy demand, impose, require The administration imposed strict secrecy on the production process.

If you make someone promise to keep something secret, you swear them to secrecy: The few people who knew of its existence were sworn to secrecy.

- n+of+N blanket, cloak, shroud, veil, wall Under a blanket of secrecy, almost a million soldiers were gathered for the attack.

secret N

a piece of information which must not become publicly known

- adj+N not told to anyone closely-guarded, deep, hidden, well-guarded, well-kept All the liqueurs are made to our own recipes, which are closely-guarded family secrets.
- ▸ concerning personal matters innermost, intimate Our unconscious world has the power to reveal our innermost secrets.
- ▸ concerning bad or illegal behaviour dark, deadly, dirty, dreadful, guilty, shameful, shocking, sinister, sordid, terrible This has been the west's 'dirty little secret' ever since President Roosevelt's time.
- v+N tell people a secret betray, disclose, divulge, give away, leak, let slip, let sb in on, reveal, share Putin's government accused the former naval officer of divulging state secrets.
- ▸ discover a secret find out, learn, steal, uncover, unearth, unlock Retracing her path, he unearths a terrible secret about a woman he never truly knew.
- ▸ not let others find out bury, conceal, guard, harbour, hide, keep His eldest son harbours a guilty secret.
- N+v come out, emerge, get out, leak out Dark secrets emerge and hidden pasts are revealed.

section N

a part of a book, document etc

- adj+N central, concluding, first, following, introductory, last, main, next, preceding In the preceding section, several references were made to new drugs currently under development.
- N+v comprise, consist of, contain, cover, deal with, describe, detail, discuss, examine, explain, feature, focus on, highlight, include, list, outline, provide, refer to The next section outlines the main stages in the process.

sector N

a part of a country's economic or business activity

- adj+N involving a particlar type of business agricultural, automotive, commercial, creative, cultural, financial, industrial, legal, medical, pharmaceutical, retail The industrial sector produces 0.5 million tonnes of plastic packaging waste per year.
- ▸ running a business in a particular way charitable, corporate, independent, non-profit, not-for-profit, private, public, regulated, voluntary Opinion on this is divided within the charitable sector.
- n+N banking, biotechnology, business, charity, construction, education, energy, engineering, finance, healthcare, hospitality, housing, leisure, manufacturing, property, telecommunications, tourism, transport The company's priority is to strengthen our position in the competitive leisure sector.

secure V get or achieve something

- adv+V safely, successfully Thanks for all your help in successfully securing my personal loan.
- V+n money award, backing, finance, funding, funds, grant, investment, loan, mortgage, sponsorship The main task was securing the funding to deliver the project.
- ▸ an agreement agreement, contract, deal The union took national action over a year ago to secure a better pay deal.
- ▸ a job appointment, employment, job, placement, position, promotion, title She subsequently secured a position with the Darmstadt City Opera in Germany.
- ▸ a victory comfortably, victory, win Simon Downer secured the win by heading home Nick Crittenden's cross in the 52nd minute.

secure ADJ safe from attack, harm, or damage

- adv+ADJ very absolutely, completely, extremely, fully, highly, perfectly, totally The system uses a simple yet highly secure web interface.
- ▸ in a particular way economically, emotionally, financially, physically, psychologically I am emotionally secure and have a loving relationship with my partner and family.
- v+ADJ be secure appear, be, become, feel, look, seem Here are some tips to ensure that your child's bike is secure against any attempt to steal it.
- ▸ make something secure keep, make This type of wireless network can be made almost as secure as a wired network.

security N
1 safety from attack, harm, or damage

- adj+N strict added, additional, enhanced, extra, heightened, maximum, strong, tight Prisons operate under incredibly tight security.
- ▸ types of security corporate, environmental, financial, internal, military, nuclear, personal, physical Individuals who make provision for their retirement are interested in financial security.
- v+N make security certain afford, assure, enforce, ensure, guarantee, maintain, protect, provide, safeguard We have frameworks in place to safeguard the security of the information we hold.
- ▸ make security more certain bolster, enhance, improve, increase, strengthen, tighten, upgrade Airports are employing facial recognition techniques to enhance security.
- ▸ put security in doubt breach, compromise, endanger, jeopardize, threaten, undermine The system offers fast Internet connectivity that doesn't compromise security.
- N+n actions or systems to protect security check, feature, issue, measure, mechanism, policy, procedure, solution, system You should change your password after you provide the information below, as a security measure.
- ▸ something that threatens security breach, concern, flaw, risk, threat If you have authorised someone else to trade on your account, this may constitute a security breach.

2 a feeling of confidence and safety

- n+of+N feeling, sense Ours is quite a small group, which possibly adds to the feeling of security when expressing some very personal thoughts.

seed N a part a plant produces that can grow into a new plant

- v+N plant seeds plant, sow Most popular herbs can be raised from seed sown indoors during early spring.
- ▸ spread seeds over an area bear, disperse, scatter, shed, spread The sweet chestnut tree starts to bear its seeds when about 30 years old. • The seeds are dispersed by the wind.
- ▸ produce seeds produce, set When plants are fertilized they produce seeds that can develop into new plants.
- ▸ grow plants from seeds grow sth from, raise sth from These trees were grown from seeds collected from a forest.
- N+v grow appear, develop, germinate, grow, sprout Water and then cover until the seeds have germinated.

seek V
ask for or try to get something

- adv+V in an active way actively, proactively Funding from commercial sources is also actively sought.
- ▸ in a worried or urgent way desperately, earnestly, urgently Police are urgently seeking information about the disappearance of two children.
- ▸ in a keen or enthusiastic way diligently, eagerly Tickets for the final are being eagerly sought.
- ▸ always or regularly always, constantly, continually We constantly seek to improve the quality of our teaching.
- ▸ now currently We are currently seeking applications for the position of Store Manager.
- ▸ deliberately deliberately Was she deliberately seeking to anger him?
- V+n help or support advice, assistance, clarification, guidance, help, reassurance, support You are strongly advised to seek professional legal advice.
- ▸ protection asylum, refuge Figures show a steep decline in the number of people seeking asylum.
- ▸ permission or approval access, approval, permission If you wish to use any part of this article for your coursework, you have to seek permission from the University.
- ▸ opinion opinion, views The report highlighted the positive contributions of our students when their views were sought.
- ▸ answer or solution answer, resolution, solution, way We are seeking answers to these questions.
- ▸ information information I am seeking information about my maternal grandfather.
- ▸ work employment, opportunity, work She spends a lot of time travelling overseas to seek business opportunities.
- ▸ money or financial support compensation, funding, funds, sponsorship We are actively seeking funding for a new research project.

see off PHR VB deal successfully with someone, especially by defeating them

- V+n challenge, competition, opposition, rivals, threat Alonso saw off a strong challenge from Raikkonen in yesterday's Canadian grand prix.

seethe V
be extremely angry

- V+with anger, discontent, frustration, hatred, indignation, rage, resentment I was seething with anger all the way home.

see through PHR VB not be tricked by something

- V+n deception, disguise, illusion, lie, plan, ruse, scam, trick I could see through her lies straight away.

segregation N
the policy of keeping different groups separate

- adj+N for particular reasons ethnic, gender, occupational, racial, religious, residential, social Apartheid was state-imposed racial segregation.
  - strictly applied complete, compulsory, rigid, strict Even during a period of rigid segregation, Robeson worked regularly with white musicians.
- v+N deal with or oppose segregation challenge, end, fight, reduce, resist, tackle One of our main tasks is to tackle gender segregation in the workplace.
  - cause segregation to exist or continue contribute to, encourage, increase, lead to, promote, reinforce Segregation in housing leads to segregation in education.
  - make sure that segregation is obeyed enforce, ensure, maintain Segregation was rigidly enforced in the city.

seize V gain control in a situation

- adv+V eagerly, immediately, promptly, quickly A once-in-a-generation opportunity has presented itself: it must be seized immediately or lost.
- V+n opportunity advantage, chance, moment, opportunity, possession, power It was vital to seize this historic opportunity before it was lost.
  - control control United began to seize control of the match.
  - opportunity to take action before others initiative The Conservatives have seized the initiative on the key election issues of tax and immigration.

select V
choose someone or something from a group

- adv+V with no particular pattern or method arbitrarily, at random, randomly We surveyed twenty randomly selected websites.
  - carefully carefully, meticulously In the second and third years students carry out project work with carefully selected clients.
  - for a particular purpose exclusively, specially, specifically Accommodation is in a range of specially selected quality hotels.
  - automatically automatically With Automatic Exposure, shutter speed and aperture are automatically selected.
  - by one person only personally All plants are personally selected by Martin Gibbons to offer you consistent quality.

Usage Select is often used in the passive in all of the adv+V combinations shown above.

selection N things to choose from, or things chosen

- adj+N large broad, comprehensive, extensive, huge, large, vast, wide Our online delicatessen offers a wide selection of British gourmet food.
  - including very different things diverse, varied, wide-ranging This guidebook includes a rich and varied selection of walks on the island.
  - good excellent, fantastic, fine, good, great, interesting, rich, superb, wonderful In our restaurant you can enjoy great food, a stunning selection of wines and exceptional service.
  - small limited, small This album is just a small selection of his vast output.
  - with no particular method or pattern random A random selection of instruments was tested for accuracy by researchers.
  - representative representative We asked a representative selection of drivers to tell us their opinions.
- v+N have or provide a selection carry, feature, have, offer, present, provide, serve, stock A market is held every Wednesday, offering a wide selection of goods and bargains.
  - include a selection boast, contain, include The hotel's menu boasts a fantastic selection of seafood dishes. ◆ A museum within the building contains an interesting selection of historic banknotes and coins.
  - find a selection find You'll find a selection of our current vacancies on this site.
  - choose from a selection choose from Choose from a selection of ten hotels, three-star to five-star.
  - look at a selection browse, view We spent the morning in the market, browsing the excellent selection of local products.

self-confidence N confidence in your own abilities

- adj+N great enormous, great, supreme Miss Burgess exuded a supreme self-confidence.
  - low low He seems to understand what it's like to be a teenager with low self-confidence and esteem.
- v+N increase self-confidence boost, build, develop, increase Students said that getting early feedback boosted their self-confidence.
  - have or get self-confidence gain, have, rebuild, regain, restore You will gain more self-confidence as you deliver more speeches.
  - give someone self-confidence give sb This is a fantastic project which has given self-confidence to many of our pupils.
  - not have self-confidence lack, lose She admits that she lacks self-confidence in new situations.

You can also talk about a person's lack of self-confidence: He suffered from a chronic lack of self-confidence.

- ▶ make someone's self-confidence weaker destroy, undermine She lost her temper all the time, and the constant rants started to undermine my self-confidence.

self-control N

the ability to control your behaviour

- • v+N have or use self-control exercise, have, possess, practise The test is to see if you can exercise self-control under trying circumstances.
- ▶ not have self-control lack, lose For the first time I was really on the verge of losing my self-control.

You can also talk about a person's lack or loss of self-control: Alcohol may lead to lack of self-control, unconsciousness, or even coma.

- ▶ learn self-control develop, learn I've gained weight and need to learn more self-control.
- ▶ need self-control require, take It took all my self-control to prevent me from breaking out into a cry of astonishment.

self-esteem N

the feeling that you have good qualities and deserve to be treated well

- • adj+N low low, negative, poor There is evidence to show that individuals with low self-esteem are more likely to be intolerant of others.
- ▶ high high, increased, positive Such children generally have higher self-esteem than kids with absent or uninvolved fathers.
- • v+N increase self-esteem bolster, boost, build, develop, enhance, foster, improve, increase, raise These sessions help boost the children's self-esteem and confidence.
- ▶ make self-esteem weaker damage, erode, lower, undermine Being out of work can lower your self-esteem and affect your confidence.
- ▶ have self-esteem have, suffer from His wife suffered from low self-esteem and deep depression after the birth of her two sons.
- ▶ not have self-esteem lack, lose The problem for many of these children is that they lack self-esteem.
- ▶ make somone have self-esteem again rebuild, restore Our priority is to restore these addicts' self-esteem.
- • and/or confidence, dignity, independence, motivation, self-confidence, self-worth Youngsters on the course gain in confidence and self-esteem.

self-evident ADJ obvious, and therefore not needing any explanation

- • adv+ADJ almost, by no means, fairly How the costs are calculated is by no means self-evident.
- • ADJ+n idea or statement fact, principle, proposition, truth It is a self-evident fact that what looks good on paper may not necessarily translate to the small screen.
- ▶ answer or meaning answer, meaning The answer is not self-evident or simple.
- • v+ADJ appear, be, seem It might seem self-evident that new technology will improve productivity, but this is not always the case.

selfish ADJ

thinking only about yourself

- • adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, purely, totally, utterly I was in favour of the ban for purely selfish reasons, because I don't smoke.
- ▶ very extremely, incredibly, very That's not only incredibly selfish, it's downright irresponsible.
- • and/ or greedy, inconsiderate, irresponsible, lazy, rude, thoughtless The emergency services complain that they get too many unecessary calls from thoughtless and selfish people.

semblance N

a situation in which a condition only exists to a small degree

- • v+N keep a semblance keep, maintain, preserve, retain We must endeavour to maintain the semblance of unity.
- ▶ give a semblance bring, give sth His efforts to bring some semblance of order to his team never flagged.
- ▶ get a semblance again regain, restore Extra resources will be needed to restore some semblance of stability and equity.
- ▶ not have a semblance lack, lose We had lost all semblance of control.
- • N+of control, dignity, legitimacy, normality, order, sanity, unity Eventually, the war came to an end and, again, a semblance of normality returned to the villages.

seminar N

a meeting where people discuss a subject

- • adj+N at a regular time annual, fortnightly, monthly, regular, weekly The course is taught in ten weekly one-hour seminars in the first term.
- ▶ length of seminar one-hour, two-day etc Additionally, we run six one-day seminars each year at our Conference Centre.
- ▶ free free Businesses are being offered the chance to attend free training seminars on the Green Tourism Business Scheme.
- ▶ for people in part of a country or from several countries international, regional The study group organized ten international seminars, the proceedings of which have been published.
- ▶ done online interactive, online, virtual Most students reported that they enjoyed the virtual seminars, and wanted more of them.
- • n+N time of the day afternoon, breakfast, evening, lunchtime, weekend Regular evening and lunchtime seminars are held.
- ▶ for people doing an advanced degree graduate, postgraduate The Department also runs a series of staff and postgraduate seminars featuring regular presentations by scholars of international standing.
- ▶ subject of seminar business, history, management, marketing, research, training The Department holds a weekly research seminar for its staff and postgraduates.
- • v+N be present at a seminar attend, go to As part of their formal training, all students at UCC attend seminars on project management.

- organize a seminar convene, hold, host, organize, run, stage The first seminar was held at Keele in December 2005 and was attended by over 70 delegates.
- give a seminar conduct, deliver, give, present In March, Professor Philip Hanson gave a seminar on 'Economic Developments and Prospects in Russia'.
- be in charge of a seminar chair, facilitate, lead A senior member of staff chairs the seminar.

• N+n set of seminars programme, series An intercollegiate seminar programme is run by graduates in London.

- what is said or written discussion, paper, presentation, topic In June he presented a seminar paper on 'A Year of President Putin'.
- room facilities, room, space Sessions are generally held in the ground floor seminar room.
- time seminar takes place session The presentations should reflect the subject matter of the lectures and seminar sessions.
- people attendee, class, group, speaker, tutor Tuition takes place in seminar groups of up to 22 students.

senior ADJ

with a high rank or position

• ADJ+n worker or workers advisor, director, executive, judge, lecturer, manager, member of staff, officer, official, partner, professor, staff, vice-president These records should be regularly checked by a senior member of staff.

- job level, position, post, role Graduates from our courses occupy senior positions throughout the construction industry.

sensation N

a physical feeling

• adj+N affecting your body bodily, physical, tactile Standing in front of a band like that is a real physical sensation.

- strange odd, strange, weird I felt a strange sensation on top of my head.
- unpleasant painful, uncomfortable, unpleasant Giving an animal one mild electric shock to the paws causes a brief unpleasant sensation, but doesn't cause any lasting harm.
- pleasant pleasant, pleasurable Such drugs produce pleasurable sensations in those who use them.
- stinging or burning burning, prickling, stinging, tingling Some people may experience a tingling sensation in the fingers.
- extreme intense, overwhelming I returned to bed and after a few minutes became aware of an intense burning sensation.

• v+N experience a sensation experience, feel, have He felt a mild sensation, akin to an electric shock, down his side.

- produce a sensation cause, create, evoke, produce, trigger Too much adrenalin will have an effect on the brain and produce the sensation of tiredness.
- enjoy a sensation enjoy I enjoy the sensation of floating in water.

sense N

a strong feeling or belief

• adj+N strong deep, great, keen, overwhelming, powerful, profound, strong As he stood there looking out, he felt a deep sense of well-being.

- real genuine, palpable, proper, real, true They were proud of their work and had a real sense of achievement.
- clear clear Our UK staff work in a variety of locations, each with its own clear sense of purpose and identity.
- growing growing, heightened I watched them with a growing sense of unease.
- shared shared Co-operation between parents, staff and governors leads to a shared sense of purpose.

• v+N give a sense bring, convey, create, develop, encourage, engender, evoke, foster, generate, give sb, instill, produce A social centre helps to create a sense of community.

- have or get a sense experience, feel, gain, get, have Once he'd gone, I felt a profound sense of failure.
- not have a sense lack, lose Prison can make people feel hopeless, make them lose any sense of self-value.
- keep a sense keep, maintain, retain As a relatively small school, we strive to maintain a sense of community among students and staff.
- share a sense share I share your sense of disappointment with the film.

• N+of belonging to a group belonging, community, identity, involvement, solidarity For most of us, verbal language is central to our sense of identity.

- good feeling achievement, duty, excitement, pride, purpose, relief, responsibility, satisfaction, security, well-being, wonder I think everybody departed on Sunday evening with a great sense of achievement.
- bad feeling disappointment, failure, frustration, guilt, insecurity, isolation, loss He admitted that he felt an increasing sense of guilt.
- being urgent urgency There seemed to be little sense of urgency.
- having a clear purpose mission, purpose The aim of the talk was to give the group a clear sense of purpose.

sense V

know about something through a natural ability or feeling

• V+n a feeling or mood atmophere, feeling, mood As we went into the stadium, we could sense the atmosphere of mounting excitement.

- a negative feeling anxiety, disappointment, discomfort, fear, frustration, hostility, tension, unease I sensed his unease as he struggled to justify his decision.
- a positive feeling excitement, relief At last they scored a goal, and you could sense the relief in the crowd.
- possibility of danger danger, threat, trouble Sensing the danger they were in, they started to run.

senseless ADJ

happening or done for no purpose

• ADJ+n act, death, destruction, killing, murder, slaughter, tragedy, violence, waste I shudder to think what this senseless act of aggression has done to the peace process.

sensible ADJ reasonable and practical

- adv+ADJ very eminently, entirely, perfectly, quite, really, thoroughly, very The proposed approach seems eminently sensible.
- ▸ in a particular way commercially, economically, environmentally, politically For the company, it is no longer commercially sensible to work in this area.
- ADJ+n action, method or plan approach, arrangement, compromise, course of action, measure, policy, precaution, solution, step, strategy, way You should always take sensible precautions when downloading any information from the Internet.
- ▸ choice or decision choice, decision, option The employment market is difficult, so it may be a sensible option to take a Master's degree.
- ▸ advice or suggestion advice, proposal, suggestion A good financial adviser will give you sensible advice about saving.
- v+ADJ appear, be, look, seem, sound The plan is to run the factory on renewable energy, which sounds very sensible.

sensitive ADJ needing to be kept secret or dealt with carefully

- adv+ADJ very exceptionally, extremely, highly, incredibly, particularly, very Clearly, factory closures were a highly sensitive issue with major political implications.
- ▸ possibly, in the future potentially The government eventually published the report, but only after removing potentially sensitive information.
- ▸ from a particular point of view commercially, culturally, ecologically, emotionally, environmentally, ethically, politically Correspondence may be edited if it contains material that it is confidential or commercially sensitive.
- ADJ+n information data, information, material Sensitive information such as credit card details and customer records are not held on our website.
- ▸ subject or issue case, issue, matter, subject, topic Most Internet users are worried about their online privacy, especially when it comes to the sensitive subject of their medical information.
- ▸ nature nature Public access to a conference on terrorism was barred due to the sensitive nature of the topic, the organizers said.

sensitivities N a tendency to have strong emotional reactions or be offended

- adj+N cultural, local, political, religious As new massive re-construction of the area went ahead, it took little account of local sensitivities.
- v+N show you understand someone's sensitivities be aware of, respect, take account of When exhibiting your work you need to be aware of the sensitivities of others.
- ▸ offend someone's sensitivities offend Advertisers are warned to be careful about offending religious sensitivities, particularly when advertising in untargeted media.

sentence N a punishment given by a judge

- adj+N in prison/not in prison custodial, non-custodial Both women are now serving custodial sentences.
- ▸ most/least severe allowed maximum, minimum Those found guilty of harassment now face a maximum five-year jail sentence.
- ▸ long/short brief, lengthy, long, short Anyone who breaches the injunction will face arrest and the possibility of a long prison sentence.
- ▸ length of sentence two-year, six-month etc Scott is nearing the end of a five-year prison sentence.
- ▸ severe harsh, heavy, tough If defendants feel that the sentence was too harsh, they can appeal against it in the Appeal Court.
- ▸ not severe lenient, light In my judgment, the sentence was unduly lenient.
- ▸ ordered by law mandatory The mandatory sentence for murder is life.
- ▸ only if you commit another crime conditional, suspended She received a two-year suspended sentence for bank fraud.
- n+N community, death, jail, life, prison He is serving a life sentence for murder.
- v+N officially say what the sentence is hand down, impose, pass, pronounce If the defendant is found guilty the judge may pass sentence immediately.
- ▸ receive a sentence be given, get, receive He was found guilty on two charges and received an 18-month sentence.
- ▸ spend time in prison complete, serve The vast majority of women in prison are serving sentences for non-violent offences.
- ▸ when a sentence is likely face If found guilty, she faces a prison sentence of 15–20 years.
- ▸ reduce a sentence commute, reduce His death sentence was commuted to life imprisonment.
- ▸ lead to a particular sentence attract, carry This offence carries a custodial sentence.
- ▸ officially cancel a sentence overturn, quash She initially got 8 years in jail, but the sentence was overturned in the Appeal Court.

sentiment N [usually plural] a belief or an attitude towards something

- adj+N positive admirable, fine, generous, lofty, noble, positive What a pity such noble sentiments are married to such awful words and music.
- ▸ negative negative When children are constantly criticized, they begin to have negative sentiments about their own abilities.
- ▸ felt by many people common, general, popular, widespread During this period, there was widespread anti-American sentiment.
- ▸ types of sentiment anti-war, liberal, nationalist, patriotic, racist, religious Her policies appealed to the public's growing nationalist sentiment.
- v+N express a sentiment express, voice Other speakers expressed the same sentiments.
- ▸ express or show the same sentiment echo, reflect Many delegates echoed these sentiments.
- ▸ agree with a sentiment agree with, endorse, share, support We agree wholeheartedly with the sentiments in the article.

If you are agreeing with someone, you can also say my sentiments exactly: 'If that's art, I give up.' 'My sentiments exactly!'

- ▸ understand a sentiment appreciate, understand He said he appreciated the sentiments expressed by his colleague, but did not agree with them.

sequence N

a set of related things in a particular order

- adj+N arranged by time, numbers, or the alphabet alphabetical, chronological, numerical Can you place these events in a chronological sequence?
- ▸ sensible and reasonable logical The chapters follow a logical sequence.
- ▸ with no particular pattern random Create passwords that will be hard to guess – ideally a random sequence of letters and numbers.
- ▸ with things following one after the other linear Programs comprise a linear sequence of arguments and functions.
- ▸ correct correct, proper, right Pupils have to arrange the pictures in the correct sequence.
- ▸ complete complete, entire, whole I can't remember the whole sequence of events all these years later.
- ▸ long/short extended, lengthy, long, short They just avoided equalling the club record for the longest sequence of defeats.
- ▸ complicated complex, complicated The dance involves a complex sequence of movements.

serious ADJ

bad or dangerous enough to cause problems, damage, or anxiety

- adv+ADJ very exceptionally, extremely, incredibly, particularly, really, very The situation is now extremely serious.
- ▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL He had a pretty serious crash yesterday and you never know how that affects someone.
- ▸ possibly potentially The drug can cause potentially serious side effects.
- ▸ enough enough, sufficiently Her injuries were considered sufficiently serious to require medical attention.

- ADJ+n something causing physical harm accident, condition, crash, disease, illness, incident, infection, injury Young drivers are most at risk of death and serious injury.
- ▸ problem or mistake difficulty, error, flaw, mistake, problem, weakness We all have a one-in-thirteen chance of developing a serious sight problem.
- ▸ breaking a law or rule breach, crime, offence, violation Throwing or letting off fireworks in a public place is a serious offence.
- ▸ result or effect consequences, effect, implication, side-effect Failure by employers and employees to complete the procedures will have serious consequences.
- ▸ damage or risk damage, danger, harm, risk, threat The city suffered serious damage.
- ▸ situation business, challenge, crisis, issue, situation The healthcare system is on the verge of a serious crisis.

- v+ADJ be serious appear, be, look, seem, sound He will have a scan to determine the full extent of the injury, but it is not looking too serious.
- ▸ become serious become, get, grow The crisis became more serious by the day.
- ▸ more and more increasingly, more and more Drug-taking among young teenagers was becoming an increasingly serious problem.

seriousness N

the fact of being bad or dangerous enough to cause problems, damage, or anxiety

- adj+N potential demonstrate, highlight, potential, show, underline Because of the potential seriousness of her injuries, she was airlifted to West Cumberland hospital.
- ▸ great deep, extreme, great, high, utmost There is no doubt this is a problem of great seriousness.

- v+N realize or understand the seriousness of something acknowledge, appreciate, realize, recognize, understand She did not seem to appreciate the seriousness of her condition.
- ▸ show the seriousness of something reflect The sentence must reflect the seriousness of the crime.

- N+of illegal activity crime, offence The restrictions on the liberty of the offender must be in line with the seriousness of the offence.
- ▸ bad or dangerous situation problem, risk, situation, threat John quickly realized the seriousness of the situation.
- ▸ illness or injury condition, disease, illness, injury, symptoms It is too early to assess the seriousness of her injuries.

serve V

be used for a particular purpose

- V+as way or showing or informing indicator, lesson, reminder, warming This case should serve as a reminder that radiation protection should never be taken for granted.
- ▸ way of doing or getting something means, mechanism, resource, source Your driver's licence can serve as a means of identification.
- ▸ way of explaining, or showing how something is done example, guide, introduction, model, reference This new publication serves as a complete guide to investment banking.

- V+infinitive demonstrate, emphasize, heighten, highlight, illustrate, indicate, reinforce, remind, strengthen, underline The above descriptions are brief, but they serve to illustrate what small amounts of money can do when used imaginatively.

service N

help given to or work done for someone

- adj+N very helpful great, valuable The links on this website offer a valuable service for tourists in the British Isles.
- ▸ of a high quality efficient, excellent, good, professional, quality, reliable Many thanks for the fast and efficient service you provided.
- ▸ of a low quality atrocious, bad, poor The company is notorious for poor customer service.
- ▸ friendly or personal friendly, personal We aim to provide a friendly and personal service.

- v+N provide a service offer (sb), provide (sb with) She offered her services as his guide.
- ▸ perform a service be of, do sb, perform, render The authors have done the profession a great service by writing a textbook that makes these developments accessible to undergraduates.
- ▸ need a service need, require Any other faults really require the services of an engineer.
- ▸ receive a service receive I am usually quick to complain if I receive poor service, so I feel it only fair to compliment good service.
- n+of+N effectiveness, level, quality, standard The restaurant offers good standards of service and cuisine.

session N

a period of time spent doing a particular activity, especially in a group

- adj+N regular regular, weekly It was an idea which came to us during one of our regular brainstorming sessions.
- ▸ length of session two-hour, 30-minute etc The training will consist of three one-hour sessions.
- ▸ long/short long, short Meetings usually begin with a short business session, followed by a guest speaker.
- ▸ taking part in a practical or active way hands-on, interactive, practical Storyteller Bea Nicholson will be holding interactive storytelling sessions throughout the afternoon.
- ▸ involving two people or a group face-to-face, group, one-to-one Our poet-in-residence provides workshops and one-to-one sessions during the Summer Festival.
- ▸ as an introduction introductory, taster These introductory sessions are free to all library members.
- n+N time of the day afternoon, evening, morning The afternoon session commenced with Dr Keith Duff giving an informative talk on water and ecology.
- ▸ training or teaching coaching, feedback, practice, study, teaching, training, tutorial, workshop Each training session can be individually designed and tailored to meet the needs of every audience.
- ▸ types of session brainstorming, briefing, counselling, discussion, question-and-answer, recording, therapy The day was rounded off with a question-and-answer session.
- v+N organize a session conduct, hold, offer, organize, run We run training sessions for teachers as well as children.
- ▸ take part in a session attend, join, participate in, take part in Parents are welcome to attend these sessions.
- ▸ miss a session miss Adams has missed some training sessions this week.
- ▸ arrange a time for a session book, schedule No appointment is needed, and you can book further sessions if you need to.
- ▸ be in charge of a session chair, facilitate, lead, teach A question-and-answer session was chaired by Peter Hughes.
- ▸ start a session begin, introduce, open, start Suzanne opened the second session of the conference.
- ▸ end a session close, conclude, end, finish Once you have finished your session, please make sure you sign out again.

set V

1 do something that influences something else

- V+n mood, pattern, precedent, tone, trend This incident set the tone for the whole weekend.

2 establish what must be done or followed

- V+n what must be achieved or done challenge, goal, objective, priorities, target, task Accountability for health and safety performance should be strengthened by setting objectives and targets.
- ▸ conditions or rules agenda, conditions, criteria, guidelines, parameters, rules Final decisions taken at the summit will set the rules for international trade for years to come.
- ▸ standard to be followed benchmark, standard The successful candidate will lead by example and set high standards.
- ▸ limit or amount budget, ceiling, deadline, fee, level, limit, rate, threshold The President has set a ceiling of 4 per cent for pay increases in the public sector.

set N

a group of things of the same type

- N+of conditions, criteria, guidelines, instructions, parameters, principles, questions, recommendations, regulations, results, rules, standards, values Nearly every language has a complete set of rules for the writing down of its sounds.

setback N

a problem that delays or stops progress

- adj+N big or serious big, huge, major, serious, severe, significant United's promotion chances suffered a major setback at the weekend.
- ▸ small minor, slight This minor setback has only made him more determined.
- ▸ for only a short time temporary However, the Battle of Badon Hill was only a temporary setback for the Anglo-Saxon forces.
- ▸ when a setback happens early, latest, recent Despite this early setback, the flight test programme continued.
- v+N experience a setback encounter, experience, face, have, hit, receive, suffer The project has suffered several setbacks over the past year.
- ▸ successfully deal with a setback deal with, overcome, overcome As he had proved again and again, he had the emotional reserves needed to overcome any setback.
- ▸ be a setback be, constitute, represent There is no doubt that the election result represents a significant setback for the party.

set out PHR VB

explain, describe, or arrange something clearly

- V+n plan or policy framework, options, plan, policy, position, principles, proposal, strategy, vision The report sets out a framework for reforming the banking system.
- ▸ aims aims, objectives, priorities, targets Set out your objectives, matching them to the job description.
- ▸ reasons arguments, reasons We listened as she set out her reasons for refusing our application.

settings N

1 a position that controls are at

- v+N change settings adjust, alter, change, modify, tweak, update You will need to adjust your browser settings using these instructions.
- ▸ arrange settings configure, optimize, set, specify You can configure virtual memory settings manually.
- ▸ make a computer keep its settings save, store Your settings will be saved automatically.
- ▸ check settings check If you are using a firewall, check your settings.
- ▸ choose settings choose, select Most home cinema systems have a menu where you can choose various settings.

2 the place, situation, or environment in which something happens

- adj+N beautiful or perfect beautiful, ideal, idyllic, lovely, magnificent, perfect, picturesque, spectacular The setting is idyllic, with majestic views on all sides.
- ▸ peaceful peaceful, tranquil Enjoy a relaxing break in a tranquil setting.
- ▸ in the country/city rural, urban The academy is in a rural setting just outside the capital city of Abuja.
- ▸ natural natural The park is a great place to see outdoor sculpture in a natural setting.
- ▸ informal/formal formal, informal The Self-Directed Seminar provides students with the opportunity to present ideas and discuss their work with each other in a very informal setting.
- ▸ social social She is rarely comfortable in a social setting.
- ▸ in a school or college classroom, educational The conference is an opportunity to share information about the effective use of ICT in educational settings.

- v+N create, enjoy, provide The leafy grounds of Sudbury House Hotel provided an ideal setting for three performances of Shakespeare's Much Ado About Nothing.

settle V

end an argument by making an agreement

- adv+V after a long time eventually, finally, ultimately The case was eventually settled and the insurance company paid up.
- ▸ in a friendly or peaceful way amicably, peacefully If any dispute cannot be settled amicably through ordinary negotiations, the matter shall be referred to an arbitrator.
- ▸ without going to a law court out of court Libel cases will often be settled out of court in order to avoid the potentially huge legal costs.

- V+n disagreement argument, conflict, differences, dispute, lawsuit The University lecturers have finally settled their pay dispute.
- ▸ something being discussed or dealt with affair, case, issue, matter, question First of all, we need to settle the question of hours and pay.

settle into PHR VB

become familiar with something new

- V+n way of doing things groove, pattern, rhythm, role, routine I'm struggling to settle into a normal routine after studying day and night for a whole year.
- ▸ new place or activity community, home, job, life, school, surroundings The girls have settled into school and love being by the sea.

settlement N

a formal agreement ending a disagreement

- adj+N friendly or peaceful amicable, peaceful The two parties announced today that they have reached an amicable settlement.
- ▸ lasting a long time lasting, long-term, permanent She believes the peace process could bring a lasting settlement to the conflict.
- ▸ final final It took more than a decade to arrive at a final peace settlement.
- ▸ made without asking a court to decide mediated, out-of-court Parties should be encouraged to reach out-of-court settlements of their disputes.
- ▸ after formal discussions negotiated You will never get a peaceful situation there until you get a final negotiated settlement.
- ▸ types of settlement constitutional, financial, political We must re-double our efforts at finding a political settlement.
- ▸ satisfactory acceptable, satisfactory The chances of the two sides reaching an acceptable settlement now look remote.

- n+N dispute, divorce, marriage, pay, peace A typical divorce settlement takes more than a year to negotiate.

- v+N reach a settlement achieve, agree, broker, gain, reach, secure A mediator's role is to assist the parties in reaching a settlement.
- ▸ have discussions to reach a settlement negotiate The only way out of the never-ending violence is for both sides to negotiate a settlement.
- ▸ accept a settlement accept, approve There are rumours that he is willing to accept a peace settlement.
- ▸ suggest a settlement propose, suggest A divorce settlement was proposed with a one-off payment £45,000.
- ▸ try to reach a settlement seek, want Lawyers for both sides are seeking a settlement.
- ▸ force someone to accept a settlement impose Mediators are not authorized to impose a settlement on the parties.

severe ADJ

a severe problem is very serious and worrying

- adv+ADJ rather fairly, moderately, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather The side effects can be quite severe.
- ▸ very exceptionally, extremely, particularly, unusually, very A score of 14 points out of a possible 24 was equivalent to extremely severe problems.

- ADJ+n problem damage, difficulty, disruption, distress, hardship, limitation, shortage Up to 8 million people face severe food shortages or starvation.
- ▸ illness or injury depression, disability, disease, illness, impairment, injury, pain, trauma He has nursed me through a severe illness, and is even now with me.

severity N
the seriousness or strictness of something

- adj+N great or very great exceptional, extreme, undue, unusual, the utmost After its eventual defeat, the Roman authorities treated the tribe with the utmost severity.
  - moderate or relative moderate, relative In terms of relative severity, the vows may be divided into major and minor vows.
  - variable variable, varying While it is known that the disease runs in families, severity is very variable.
- v+N decrease severity alleviate, decrease, lessen, mitigate, reduce The second option is to lessen the severity of the defect by gentle polishing.
  - increase severity increase This cycle of bingeing and purging maintains and increases the severity of the condition.
  - assess severity assess, evaluate, rate The ultrasound scan can help to assess the severity of disease.

sewage N
waste substances removed by large underground pipes

- adj+N crude, raw, treated, untreated Avoid swimming where water may be contaminated with untreated sewage.
- v+N discharge, dump, pump, treat The majority of boats do not discharge sewage into the water.

sexuality N
sexual feelings, attitudes, and activities

- adj+N types of sexuality adolescent, female, feminine, gay, human, infantile, male, teenage It was the worst caricature of Asian female sexuality I have ever seen.
  - open/not open overt, repressed Though there is a touch of nudity, there is no overt sexuality shown.
- v+N reveal or express one's sexuality disclose, express, flaunt Alicia is a beautiful girl, but doesn't flaunt her sexuality.
  - hide one's sexuality deny, hide He didn't hide his sexuality but it wasn't until the sexual freedom of the sixties that it became widely known.
  - discover one's sexuality discover, explore Alma discovers her sexuality and Johnny grows up, but will they ever find happiness together?
  - accept one's sexuality acknowledge, celebrate, come to terms with, embrace Many liberal Christians claim to find freedom and acceptance when they embrace their sexuality.

shade N
1 a form of a colour

- adj+N pale cool, light, muted, neutral, pale, pastel, soft The buildings are all painted in pastel shades, complementing the natural Mediterranean light.
  - dark dark, deep, sombre The duller and darker shades of blue do not energise!
  - bright or intense bright, rich, vibrant, vivid, warm The houses are clean and colourful, often painted in bright shades of blue and yellow.
  - delicate delicate, soothing, subtle They had a delicate shade of pink at the base of each petal.
  - exact exact I use a lot of colour, but colour has to be the exact right shade.
  - varied various Various shades were achieved by mixing the pigments.

2 [usually plural] a slightly different form or type of something

- N+of belief, difference, meaning, opinion They represented every shade of opinion and belief.

shadow N
a dark area created when something blocks light

- adj+N dark dark, deep, dense, inky, murky Just then, the man emerged out of the dense shadows into the twilight.
  - frightening eerie, ghostly, gloomy, ominous, sinister The shadows are quite eerie.
  - long long The torch cast long shadows on the interior.
  - moving quickly fleeting A fleeting shadow passed the chinks in the wall.
- v+N cast, fling, project, throw The autumn sun threw their shadows across the lawn beneath them.
- N+v get bigger lengthen, loom Returning down the lane, the shadows are lengthening over Wharfedale.
  - come or stay fall, linger Just then, a huge shadow fell over the pair.
  - go disappear, flee At the ping of the bell, the shadow disappeared.
  - move creep, dance, flicker The shadows are already creeping in at 17.30 as autumn approaches.
  - get darker darken, deepen The twilight was ebbing swiftly as shadows were darkening in the corners of my room.

shake V make lots of small, quick movements

- adv+V a lot badly, severely, uncontrollably, violently, wildly I began to shake uncontrollably.
  - physically literally, physically, visibly I was literally shaking all over, never in my life had I been this lucky!
- V+with anger, emotion, excitement, fear, fright, laughter, rage The picture showed a man literally shaking with fear.

shaken ADJ
feeling nervous or frightened by something

- adv+V very badly, deeply, profoundly, seriously, severely, terribly Badly shaken, they had made their way back to the hut.
  - obviously clearly, visibly Every building around had lost its glass and people all around us were visibly shaken and upset.
  - rather quite, rather, somewhat Stan looked somewhat shaken by the margin at the end of the game.
  - slightly a little On that occasion, my helmet was slightly cracked, and I was a little shaken.
  - for a good reason understandably When a member of staff was killed, the remaining people were understadably shaken.

shake-up N an important change in the way something is organized

- adj+N big big, huge, major, massive Will this massive shake-up of support funding end up limiting services for the most vulnerable?
- ▸ planned planned, proposed Mr Bell welcomed the planned shake-up of secondary education proposed in the report.
- ▸ making important changes dramatic, fundamental, radical The report will lead to a radical shake-up of the way such cases are handled.
- v+N need a shake-up need To be blunt, the private sector also needs a shake-up.
- ▸ suggest or plan a shake-up call for, plan, propose, urge The Government is planning a major pension shake-up.
- ▸ announce a shake-up announce The Financial Services Authority today announced a radical shake-up of the way financial products are sold.
- ▸ have a shake-up face, undergo Britain's charity law is facing its biggest shake-up for 400 years.

shape V
influence the way someone or something develops

- adv+V significantly decisively, fundamentally, profoundly, significantly He clearly valued the biblical traditions and was profoundly shaped by them.
- ▸ directly actively, directly Political developments directly shaped military strategy.
- ▸ increasingly increasingly EU environmental policies are increasingly shaped by citizens.
- ▸ in the end ultimately His behavior will ultimately shape the marriage as well.
- V+n attitudes and behaviour attitude, behaviour, consciousness, identity, opinion, outlook, perception, thinking There has been a debate about how far language shapes our perceptions of the world.

You can say that someone or something plays or has a role or a part in shaping something: Tourism is beginning to play an increasing role in shaping the economic future of the area.

- ▸ policy agenda, debate, direction, policy The author's ideas have been influential in shaping public policy in the United States.
- ▸ the future destiny, future There are choices to be made in shaping our future and those choices are yours.
- ▸ the world culture, environment, landscape, society, world As well as shaping the landscape, landslides often cause large devastation.

share N
1 a part of something that is divided up

- adj+N fair equal, equitable, fair, proportionate, rightful Every person has the right to an equal share of Earth's limited ecological capacity.
- ▸ unfair disproportionate, unequal Microsoft has attracted a disproportionate share of US computer talent.
- ▸ large large, the lion's, sizeable, substantial Although Leeds Met had the lion's share of possession, John Moore's dogged defence held firm.
- ▸ half or part half, part I have a half share in a pony at my local riding school.
- n+N audience, market, revenue Low tar cigarettes began to take an increasing market share.
- v+N get a share capture, claim, gain, get, grab INFORMAL, receive, secure Education received increased attention and began to receive a larger share of the national budget.
- ▸ increase a share boost INFORMAL, increase Almost everywhere, we increased our share of the vote and we did this in spite of the media black-out.
- ▸ keep a share retain This has led to a price war with insurance companies battling to retain their share of the market.
- ▸ lose a share lose The reason for the concern lies in the fact that the UK is now losing market share in the global student market.

2 one of the equal parts of a company that you can buy

- adj+N deferred, equity, ordinary, outstanding, penny, preference, redeemable, voting Can I use spread bets to play penny shares?
- v+N buy or sell shares acquire, buy, purchase, sell, trade, transfer We sold our shares, which in a matter of a few weeks had lost us 13% of our investment.
- ▸ issue or give shares allocate, allot, issue Companies were formed by issuing shares.
- ▸ have shares hold, own Every member owns one share in RAMSAK Ltd.
- ▸ say what the share price is quote You can invest in stocks and shares quoted on the London Stock Exchange.

share V
1 use or have something at the same time as someone else

- adv+V equally or fairly equally, equitably, evenly, fairly, jointly It is expected that each member of a pair will co-operate with the other to ensure that the work is shared equitably.
- ▸ kindly generously, kindly I sat next to a nice man who kindly shared his sandwiches with me.
- ▸ willingly gladly, happily, voluntarily, willingly She has amassed a wealth of in-depth knowledge, which she will happily share with the learner.
- ▸ without restrictions easily, freely, globally, openly Documents may be freely shared between users from the same purchasing organisation.
- ▸ illegally illegally He stands accused of illegally sharing music online via P2P networks.

2 have the same feeling or opinion as someone else

- adv+V broadly, commonly, universally, widely That view was widely shared, so the draft rules were rejected and will be resubmitted at our next meeting later this month.
- V+n opinions concerns, views These concerns are shared by other regulators across Europe, and by the European Commission.
- ▸ feelings enthusiasm, interest, love, passion They all share our passion for trees and the UK's beautiful ancient woodland.
- ▸ beliefs belief, faith There was one close friend of mine who shared my belief and ideology.

sharp ADJ
sudden and very big, strong, or severe

- ADJ+n rise increase, rise The result was price increases and a sharp rise in unemployment.
- ▸ fall decline, downturn, drop, fall, slowdown After a sharp decline in numbers, the goldfinch is back.
- ▸ angle bend, corner, curve, turn On the way down, watch out for the sharp bends and narrow hump back bridge at the bottom!
- ▸ pain pain, shock I feel a sharp pain in the side of my arm.

shatter V destroy or seriously damage something

- adv+V suddenly abruptly, rudely, suddenly, violently Whatever hopes he may have had in the direction of peace were soon rudely shattered by the Crimean war.
- ▸ cruelly brutally, cruelly Her return to Manchester cruelly shattered her dreams of a happy reunion.
- ▸ completely completely, totally My pre-conceived ideas of Greece were completely shattered.
- ▸ for ever irretrievably, irrevocably His scheme to gain mastery over the world has been irrevocably shattered.

- V+n things that are not true or real dream, illusion, myth, preconceptions, stereotype It's cruel to have illusions shattered like this.
- ▸ peace calm, peace, silence, tranquillity Minutes later, a massive car bomb shattered the afternoon calm.
- ▸ feelings complacency, hope, optimism Towards the end of the year, his optimism was rudely shattered by the first signs of his illness.

sheer ADJ
used for emphasizing an amount or degree

- ADJ+n size breadth, complexity, enormity, magnitude, quantity, scale, size, volume, weight One of our selling points is the sheer volume of readers we can offer advertisers.
- ▸ good qualities beauty, brilliance, determination, exuberance, genius, luck The organisation, hospitality and sheer brilliance of the event was simply superb.
- ▸ pleasure bliss, delight, enjoyment, exhilaration, joy, pleasure Her performance was sheer comic delight.
- ▸ bad qualities brutality, incompetence, madness, nonsense, stupidity He might have got away with it, apart from some sheer stupidity on his behalf.
- ▸ bad feelings boredom, desperation, exhaustion, terror Many men were suffering tremendously from diseases, hunger and sheer exhaustion.

sheet N
1 a piece of something flat

- N+of wood hardboard, plasterboard, plywood A sheet of plywood 70 x 150 x 1 cm is ideal.
- ▸ metal aluminium, foil, metal Line a roasting tin with a large, thick sheet of foil.
- ▸ paper cardboard, foolscap, notepaper, paper, parchment, A4, A5 etc No more than two illustrations may be placed on any one sheet of paper.
- ▸ plastic acetate, perspex, plastic, polythene The sound resembled two sharp flaps of a large sheet of polythene.
- ▸ glass glass I use the straight cutter to cut down full sheets of glass.
- ▸ food filo, gelatine, pastry Arrange another three or four sheets of pastry on top, and brush with butter.

2 a large area of something

- N+of flame, ice, water Scotland was covered with large sheets of thick ice.

shelter N a place where people are protected

- adj+N temporary makeshift, overnight, temporary Many survivors have set up makeshift shelters on top of the debris that used to be their homes.
- ▸ very strong or safe bomb-proof, deep, protective, underground, waterproof On the far side of the road by the factory there were deep shelters cut into the hillside.
- ▸ rough crude, rough Rough shelters were built for the herdsmen to stay with the animals.
- ▸ heated heated Many unstaffed stations have no heated shelter.
- ▸ for many people communal Communal shelters were built to house the residents from a block of tenement flats.

shield V protect someone from something unpleasant

- V+from physical things glare, interference, light, radiation, ray, sight, sun, sunlight, wind The pond should be shielded from direct sunlight to minimise microbial growth.
- ▸ non-physical things criticism, harm, interference, intrusion, liability, reality, scrutiny Some government functions will be shielded from scrutiny.

shift V
change an idea, attitude, or plan

- adv+V in big ways decisively, dramatically, fundamentally, markedly, radically The balance of power has to shift decisively in favour of the patient.
- ▸ in small ways slightly, subtly Her understanding of the issue has subtly shifted with the passing of time.
- ▸ quickly or suddenly rapidly, suddenly They ask about the function of community in rapidly shifting geo-political contexts.
- ▸ slowly gradually Looking back I can see how my attention has gradually shifted.
- ▸ all the time all the time, constantly, continually, continuously The landscape of social care is constantly shifting.
- ▸ without difficulty effortlessly She found him an unprincipled politician, who shifted effortlessly from Liberal to Conservative.

- V+n blame blame, burden, responsibility This is not trying to shift the blame.
- ▸ attention attention, emphasis, focus The protestors have shifted the focus of their campaigns to schools.
- ▸ loyalty allegiance, loyalty That explains why these communities have been prepared to shift political allegiances.
- ▸ position position, stance These institutions have shifted their public stance in favour of poverty reduction.

- ▸ discussion debate, discussion They are helping to shift the debate within Third World countries.
- ▸ attitude attitude, mindset, perception, perspective To take advantage of these opportunities, designers have to learn to shift their mindset.

shine V produce or reflect light

- • adv+V brightly brightly, brilliantly, gloriously, radiantly, resplendently The sun shone brilliantly and the Green was crowded with people.
- ▸ dimly dimly, faintly, softly, weakly It was raining heavily, and the light shone dimly through the streaked and dripping glass.

shiver V
if you shiver, your body shakes

- • adv+V a lot uncontrollably, violently I am shivering uncontrollably and feel a little chilly.
- ▸ a little a little, slightly Thoughts of the past made me shiver a little, as they always did.
- • V+with cold, fear, fright He was shivering with fright, and was in a very agitated state.

shock N surprise from something bad

- • adj+N bad nasty, severe, terrible, unpleasant Mrs Slocombe visits the farm to collect some eggs and gets a nasty shock.
- ▸ big or very big big, great, huge, major, massive, profound, real, tremendous, utter He was staring at the letter he had received with utter shock.
- ▸ sudden rude, sudden The doctors warn Alex that any sudden shock could be fatal to his mother's health.
- ▸ initial initial After the initial shock, I decided to find out exactly what our options were.
- • v+N give a shock administer, cause, deliver, spring INFORMAL The format is the best of five games during the group stages, which could cause some shocks.
- ▸ get a shock experience, get, receive, suffer, sustain She has suffered a terrible shock.
- ▸ recover from a shock get over, overcome, recover from Gradually, we overcame the initial shock and just got on with things.
- ▸ bear a shock absorb, survive, withstand Although he has survived the shock, there is still a long way to go.
- ▸ decrease a shock cushion, lessen, soften Having found the truth, I must tell it, without any pretence of softening the shock.
- • N+n method tactics, value Do they capture the reader's attention e.g. are shock tactics, puns or effective messages used?

The expression shock horror is used, often in a humorous way, to show that people think something is shocking: Sometimes when I'm out exploring I will stop and buy a lemonade, shock horror!

- ▸ news announcement, news, revelation The stock market reacted swiftly to the shock announcements, which came late on Monday evening.
- ▸ action decision, departure, move, reaction, resignation The shock resignation of the Chief Executive was also a top story.
- ▸ result defeat, exit, result, victory, win Once the match had started, Derby removed all fears of a shock defeat.

shocked ADJ surprised and upset by an unexpected bad event

- • adv+ADJ obviously visibly Though visibly shocked and shaken, everyone was safe.
- ▸ very absolutely, completely, deeply, genuinely, greatly, profoundly, totally He seemed genuinely shocked that anyone would violate a position of trust in that way.
- ▸ rather quite, rather, somewhat Our supporters were left somewhat shocked at the final score.
- ▸ slightly a little, slightly Four days later, I'm still wandering around looking slightly shocked.
- • ADJ+n person audience, everybody, everyone, onlookers, passers by Shocked onlookers rushed to help after the incident on Tuesday afternoon.
- ▸ expression or reaction disbelief, expression, face, reaction Matilda chuckled at her shocked expression.
- • v+ADJ feel, look, seem They seemed really shocked by what I had to say.

shore N
land on the edge of a lake, sea etc

- • adj+N rocky, sandy etc muddy, palm-fringed, pebbly, rocky, rugged, sandy, stony This is a coastline of high cliffs and rocky shores, rich in flowers and wildlife.
- ▸ direction east, eastern, north, northern, southern, west Aquarium of the Lakes is on the southern shore of Lake Windermere, near Newby Bridge.
- ▸ near/far far, lee, near, opposite In the afternoon, we went to a picnic area on the far shore of Clear Lake.
- ▸ sunny or peaceful sheltered, sunny, tranquil The more delicate red and green seaweeds will begin to decorate the pools on sheltered shores.
- • v+N be on or near the shore border, fringe, hug, lap, line, litter, skirt The great glory of these islands is the incredible sea lapping their shores.
- ▸ reach or nearly reach the shore approach, near, reach, regain Upon reaching shore, he was evacuated by ambulance to the local hospital.

shortage N a lack of something you need or want

- • adj+N serious acute, crippling, critical, desperate, dire, drastic, extreme, grave, massive, serious, severe There are very few woods that will not find a use if there is an acute shortage of timber.
- ▸ in many places national, nationwide, UK-wide, widespread, worldwide There is a nationwide shortage of doctors.
- ▸ happening now or soon current, impending, looming Towards the end of last year, we heard reports of an impending water shortage.
- ▸ longlasting chronic Chronic energy shortages pose the most significant challenge.
- • n+N of people labour, manpower, nursing, staff, staffing, teacher, workforce What are we going to do about our manpower shortage?

- ▶ of goods food, fuel, housing, petrol, water Food shortages were particularly grave in Somalia, eastern Kenya, and south eastern Ethiopia.
- ▶ of skill skills There is a national problem of skills shortages in the construction industry.

- • v+N relieve a shortage alleviate, ease, overcome, redress, relieve, remedy, solve Helping healthcare assistants to gain higher qualifications could alleviate the serious shortage of nurses in Britain.
- ▶ tackle a shortage address, combat, counter, tackle We will tackle the shortage of staff through 7,500 more consultants and 20,000 extra nurses.
- ▶ make a shortage worse aggravate, exacerbate, worsen Refurbishment of the Library has exacerbated our shortage of shelf space.
- ▶ experience a shortage experience, face, suffer Up to 8 million people face severe food shortages or starvation.
- ▶ point out a shortage highlight, identify, report Our Local Housing Strategy has highlighted the shortage of affordable rented housing.
- ▶ cause a shortage cause There was a lot of panic buying when war started, which caused shortages.
- ▶ prevent a shortage avert, avoid The action is thought necessary to avert a crisis shortage of gas supplies this winter.

shortcoming N [usually plural]
a fault or problem that reduces effectiveness

- • adj+N serious fundamental, major, serious, severe, significant This investigation has identified a series of serious shortcomings.
- ▶ obvious evident, obvious Taking the short-term view, obvious shortcomings have surfaced over the past week.
- ▶ types of shortcoming methodological, procedural Methodological shortcomings of some studies are discussed.
- ▶ seeming alleged, apparent, perceived The trustees became so concerned over alleged shortcomings that they shut the club down.

- • v+N find shortcomings expose, highlight, identify, reveal, uncover He then admitted that the inspection also highlighted some shortcomings.
- ▶ correct shortcomings correct, overcome, rectify, remedy Attempts to rectify these shortcomings are currently taking place.
- ▶ admit shortcomings acknowledge, admit, recognize We were impressed with the way in which he openly acknowledged his shortcomings.
- ▶ tackle shortcomings address I believe that we must seriously address the manifest shortcomings in our procedures.

shortlist N a list of suitable people or things

- • adj+N initial/final final, initial, provisional The panel did confirm this week that it intended to reveal a provisional shortlist on Wednesday.
- ▶ with good people impressive, strong The shortlist was so strong I didn't think I stood a chance.

- • v+N make a shortlist choose, compile, create, draw up, make, prepare, produce, select Decide where you want to live and make a shortlist of three or four possibilities.
- ▶ announce a shortlist announce, reveal, unveil The shortlist was officially announced at a ceremony on Monday, January 19.
- ▶ be on a shortlist make, reach Two submissions from the BBC made the shortlist for this year's Innovative Application Award. ◉ We regret that we will be unable to contact those who do not reach the shortlist.

- • N+of of people applicants, artists, candidates, finalists A shortlist of 3 finalists in each category has been drawn up.
- ▶ of entries entries, nominations The shortlist of nominations for awards is below.
- ▶ of possibilities options You may need to undertake research and talk to suppliers before producing a shortlist of options.
- ▶ in business bidders, developers, firms, suppliers A shortlist of three bidders for phase one will be announced in early July.

shoulders N [always plural]
the part of the body between the neck and arms

- • v+N move shoulders up shrug They shrugged their shoulders and tried to think of a witty response.
- ▶ move shoulders forward and down droop, hunch, slump Posture is stooped: the head is bowed and the shoulders are drooped.
- ▶ move shoulders back roll, square He drew himself up sharply and squared his shoulders.

- • N+v move forwards and down sag, slump His shoulders slumped, as if defeated.
- ▶ move up and down heave, shake, shrug Her round shoulders heaved, black mascara ran down her face.

shout V say something in a loud voice

- • adv+V loudly aloud, at the top of your lungs, at the top of your voice, loud INFORMAL, loudly It is often better just to shout loudly and run away.
- ▶ with strong feelings angrily, drunkenly, excitedly, furiously, gleefully, hysterically, incoherently, wildly He saw a lot of girls had formed a circle and were shouting excitedly.
- ▶ many times repeatedly I'll never forget hearing Sarah repeatedly shouting, 'It's Joe.'
- ▶ suddenly suddenly He suddenly shouted: 'There's only one body!'

- • V+n with anger abuse, defiance, insults, obscenities, slogans They shook their fists, shouted obscenities, and threatened to kill her.
- ▶ enouragement or praise encouragement, praise People were shouting encouragement from windows of flats and offices.
- ▶ telling someone something a greeting, a warning You need to shout a warning if there is a hazard ahead such as a pot-hole.

- • and/or shout bawl, groan, scream, shriek, yell If you are threatened, shout and scream or set off your personal attack alarm.
- ▶ make gestures gesticulate, gesture, wave I went to the lowest point of the headland, and gesticulated and shouted.
- ▶ show pleasure or approval chant, cheer, clap, laugh, sing, whistle The Germans sang and shouted and cheered, and we sang and cheered.

- ▶ show disapproval boo, jeer Bristling with anger, they waved their arms, shouted and jeered at each other.
- ▶ cry cry, weep They were shouting and crying and many were covered in blood.
- ▶ swear curse, swear Buck was in a frightful state, cursing and shouting in his office.

show V

1 prove something exists or is true

- adv+V clearly or definitely certainly, clearly, conclusively, consistently, exactly National surveys have consistently shown that dental disease is strongly related to deprivation.
- ▶ previously, recently, repeatedly These methods have been previously shown to change clinical practice.

2 let people know your feelings, opinions etc

- V+n interest or understanding appreciation, interest, understanding He always showed a huge interest in music.
- ▶ support respect, solidarity, support The fans showed their support for the players and the things being done at the club.
- ▶ enthusiasm commitment, determination, enthusiasm, willingness He has shown great enthusiasm and awareness.

shower N

a short period of rain or snow

- adj+N heavy/light heavy, light, moderate, sharp, torrential Heavy showers were forecast, and duly appeared, complete with huge hailstones.
- ▶ with wind, snow or thunder blustery, squally, thundery, wintry Another fine day with wintry showers on the hills.
- ▶ frequent/infrequent frequent, occasional, scattered A few scattered light showers developing later in the evening.
- n+N hail, rain, sleet, snow, thunder Rain showers are brief, but thunderstorms can be violent.

shred N

a very small amount of something

- N+of good quality credibility, decency, dignity, legitimacy Only two of the cast emerge with any shred of dignity.

Usage Shred is almost always used in questions and broad negatives in this meaning: Who here has a shred of decency?

- ▶ evidence evidence, proof The fact that there is not a shred of evidence to back the theory does not deter them.

shrewd ADJ

able to judge people and situations well

- ADJ+n person businessman, businesswoman, investor, judge, observer, operator, politician, tactician He was a brave guerilla soldier and a shrewd tactician.
- ▶ act decision, judgement, move, observation It is a shrewd move to begin offering tailored finance.

If you have a shrewd suspicion that something is true, you are fairly sure it is true but not completely sure: I have a shrewd suspicion that the forthcoming government White Paper will give us much less protection than we need.

shrink from PHR VB

be unwilling to do something difficult or unpleasant

- V+n challenge, confrontation, duty, responsibility, task He was a rich man indulging private pleasures and shrinking from public responsibilities.

shroud V [usually passive] cover or hide something, so that it remains secret or unknown

- V+n+in+n confusion, controversy, doubt, mystery, mystique, myth, obscurity, secrecy, uncertainty His early life is shrouded in mystery.

shrug off PHR VB

deal with something easily because it does not worry or upset you

- V+n challenge, complaint, criticism, injury, suggestion The bank shrugged off suggestions that the event was a gimmick to distract customers from slow service.

shudder V

if you shudder, your body suddenly shakes, for example when you have an unpleasant thought

- V+at memory, mention, prospect, recollection, sight, thought Even now, I shudder at the memory of what happened in that place.

If a thought gives you an unpleasant feeling, you can also say I shudder to think: I shudder to think what would happen if I lost my job.

shut ADJ

closed

- adv+ADJ firmly, fully, properly, safely, securely Always make sure all the windows to the car are securely shut.
- v+ADJ bang, blow, click, slam We walked out and the door banged shut behind us.

shy ADJ

nervous and embarrassed in other people's company

- adv+ADJ very extremely, incredibly, painfully, terribly, very The presence of female company always makes him painfully shy and speechless.
- ▶ rather fairly, a little, quite, rather, somewhat She introduced her brother, an awkward and somewhat shy young man.
- and/or awkward, elusive, embarrassed, insecure, nervous, quiet, reserved, timid He had a shy, reserved nature.

sick ADJ

1 suffering from an illness or medical condition

- adv+ADJ acutely, chronically, desperately, mentally, pretty, terminally, very We often see people who are desperately sick with asthma or bronchitis.
- v+ADJ be, become, fall, get, grow, look If a worker fell sick, the problem could be quickly dealt with.

2 vomiting or wanting to vomit

- adv+ADJ horribly, physically, violently He regretted eating it immediately, for he was then violently sick.

3 fed up with something that makes you angry or impatient

- adv+ADJ absolutely, completely, heartily, thoroughly, utterly We are all heartily sick of her constant complaining.

side N

an aspect of a situation or problem, or of someone's character or personality

- adj+N positive bright, funny, humorous, plus, positive We apologized to the owner, and fortunately he was able to see the funny side of the incident.
- ▶ negative negative, sinister The film explores the sinister side of artificial intelligence.
- ▶ other flip, other The flip side of that is that white communities sometimes feel a black politician is only capable of dealing with black issues.
- ▶ of someone's character caring, creative, cynical, gentle, nasty, romantic, serious, spiritual, vulnerable He enjoys a laugh with his friends, but he has a more serious side too.
- v+N explore, reflect, reveal, see, show Fairy tales give children an opportunity to explore the darker side to human nature in a safe way.

side effects N

the additional and unexpected effects of something, especially of a medical treatment

- adj+N unpleasant adverse, damaging, dangerous, harmful, negative, serious, severe, undesirable, unpleasant, unwanted Biofuels have environmental benefits, but there are significant undesirable side-effects in terms of reduced food production. ◆ This is a widespread problem with oral antidiabetic drugs, due to its unpleasant side effects.
- ▶ common common The most common side effects are nausea and diarrhoea.
- ▶ possible possible, potential All medications have potential side effects.
- ▶ positive beneficial, positive One of the beneficial side-effects of the rise in online shopping is that road traffic has slightly reduced.
- v+N produce side effects cause, have, produce Many medications have side effects which cause the body to lose essential minerals.
- ▶ experience side effects develop, experience, suffer Significant numbers of patients suffered side effects from drug A.

siege N

a situation in which a place is surrounded, so that the people inside cannot get out

- adj+N lasting a long time lengthy, long, prolonged, protracted Eventually, after a lengthy siege, the city was defeated and its walls partially demolished.
- ▶ violent bitter, bloody, brutal, terrible After a bitter siege, John captured Rochester castle from the barons in December 1215.
- v+N end a siege abandon, break, end, lift, raise, relieve Dozens of people died when police stormed the building to end the siege.
- ▶ survive a siege resist, stand, survive, withstand The town resisted a siege of thirteen months.

If a place is experiencing a siege, you can say that it is under siege, or that someone is laying siege to it: The ships had protected Gibraltar at a time when the island was under siege. ● She was virtually imprisoned in her hotel, as fans and reporters laid siege to the place.

- N+v begin, continue, end, last The siege had lasted nearly eight weeks.

sift V

examine information, documents etc in order to find something

- adv+V carefully, painstakingly, slowly Having carefully sifted all the available information, you must next discard anything you consider to be unreliable, irrelevant or trivial.
- V+n archives, documents, evidence, facts The role of journalism is to sift facts and give you a truthful and factual picture.

You can also sift through information, documents etc: After sifting through the evidence, we conclude that British economic prospects are bright.

sigh V

breathe out slowly making a long soft sound

- adv+V loudly deeply, heavily Scully sighs heavily, and Mulder gently puts his hand to the side of her neck.

If someone sighs because they are pleased that something bad has not happened, you can say that they sigh with relief or sigh in relief: He was glad to see them all safe and sighed with relief.

- ▶ quietly gently, quietly, slightly, softly Chris sighed softly, his eyes weighed down by sleep.
- ▶ expressing annoyance, disappointment, or sadness resignedly, sadly, wearily Sighing wearily, Barbara agreed to work over the weekend in order to complete the job.

sigh N

a slow breath out that makes a long soft sound

- adj+N loud audible, big, deep, great, heavy, huge, long, loud, profound It was with a heavy sigh that he slid the latch and opened the door.
- ▶ expressing annoyance, disappointment or sadness exasperated, sad, weary, wistful With a weary sigh, he begins to outline the latest problem.

▸ quiet gentle, little, silent, slight, small, soft Elizabeth gave a gentle sigh and took up the conversation.
▸ when several people sigh at once collective There was a collective sigh of relief from the United fans when the final whistle went.

• v+N make a sigh breathe, give, heave, let out, utter 'It was only a plastic glass,' said Mick, heaving a huge sigh of relief.
▸ stop yourself from making a sigh hold back, stifle, suppress He suppressed a sigh, as he did so often in her company.

• N+of contentment, disappointment, pleasure, regret, relief, resignation, satisfaction With a sigh of contentment, Jane flopped into the armchair.

sight N
a person or thing that you see

• adj+N beautiful or impressive amazing, awesome, breathtaking, impressive, incredible, magnificent, spectacular, stunning, unforgettable, wonderful There were hundreds of tents of all colours and it was quite an impressive sight.
▸ unusual bizarre, curious, strange, unusual Sometimes, there were bizarre sights, like a bed still in position on an upper floor although the rest of the house had been destroyed.

• v+N behold, be met with, be presented with, enjoy, experience, savour, see, witness Suddenly, he beheld a sight so alarming that he stood for a moment motionless with surprise.

• N+v await sb, confront sb, greet sb, meet sb As we emerged from the forest, an amazing sight greeted us.
▸ shocking or unpleasant awful, horrible, pitiful, shocking, terrible Police were met with the shocking sight of two bodies covered in blood.
▸ common common, familiar In many parts of Spain, wind turbines have become a familiar sight.

• v+at+N faint, gasp, laugh, marvel, shudder, tremble The island is a prardise for nature lovers, where you can marvel at the sight of dolphins and seals in the bay.

sighting N an occasion when you see something, especially something unusual

• adj+N which people claim to have seen alleged, recorded, reported, unconfirmed There were several reported sightings of sharks near the beach.
▸ of strange things ghostly, paranormal, unexplained That sighting was attributed to a balloon launch, but other unexplained sightings followed the next day.
▸ uncommon or unusual infrequent, occasional, rare, strange, unusual Sightings of this species of whale are now very rare.

• v+N describe, discuss, investigate, record, report Most garden birdwatchers are also able to record sightings of familiar mammals, butterflies, reptiles and amphibians.

sign N
a piece of evidence showing that something exists

• adj+N giving hope of success encouraging, hopeful, positive The latest unemployment figures are the first positive sign that the economy is improving.
▸ obvious clear, obvious, sure, visible There are obvious signs that the style of newspapers is being influenced by online journalism.
▸ suggesting that bad things will happen danger, ominous, telltale, warning, worrying There were ominous signs of strain and acrimony in US-North Korea relations. ◆ Telltale signs of the illness include becoming tired and frustrated.
▸ understand what the evidence shows interpret as, read Troops could be seen on all the main roads, which we interpreted as a sign that war was now likely.

• v+N show evidence bear, display, exhibit, have, show Once in office, the new president showed signs of reneging on some of his pledges.
▸ see evidence detect, identify, notice, observe, recognize, see, spot Some illnesses show no early symptoms and simple checks at regular intervals can sometimes detect any warning signs.
▸ not see or pay attention to evidence ignore, miss If you start to get stressed or feverish, don't ignore these warning signs.

Usage Sign is usually plural in all of the v+N combinations shown here.

• N+v indicate, point to sth, show, suggest, warn All signs pointed to a classic case of envy.

signal N an attitude, opinion, or intention that you communicate

• adj+N with an obvious meaning clear, detectable, powerful, strong, unmistakable This strong signal from the Government has helped to focus minds on meeting the targets.
▸ with a confusing meaning conflicting, mixed, wrong You might not know what the other person is thinking. You may be giving out mixed signals.

• v+N give, send, send out We want to reduce congestion and send out the right signals to car owners.

signatory N
a person or organization that signs an official document

• N+to agreement, charter, convention, letter, petition, protocol, statement, treaty The United States is a signatory to the treaty, which came into force in June 2004.

signature N someone's name written by them formally

• v+N say officially that someone's signature is really theirs authenticate, authorize, certify, verify, witness All applications should bear a signature authenticated by a lawyer.
▸ deceive people by writing someone else's signature fake, forge Doreen shows Helen how to forge her signature so she can take money out of her bank account.

▸ ask many people to sign a document, giving their support collect, gather, obtain They are attempting to collect 1 million signatures in favour of a European citizenship of residence.

▸ have someone's signature written on it bear, carry Besides signing the Declaration of Independence, he was also influential in drawing up the Constitution, which bears his signature.

significance N

the importance of something

• adj+N types of significance archaeological, clinical, constitutional, cultural, ecological, historical, legal, mystical, political, religious, spiritual, statistical, strategic, symbolic Stirling was the lowest bridging point on the Forth, giving the town a great strategic significance.

▸ great considerable, crucial, enormous, great, immense, particular, profound, special These collections have immense significance for the history of medicine in the region.

• v+N understand the significance of something appreciate, grasp, perceive, realize, recognize, understand If you do not know that something is historically interesting, how can you appreciate its significance?

▸ fail to understand the significance of something miss, overlook It is easy to overlook the significance of these events.

▸ show or emphasize the significance of something emphasize, highlight, illustrate, stress, underline, underscore This chapter underlines the greater economic significance of tourism in rural areas of Scotland.

▸ make something seem less important diminish, downplay, underestimate The prime minister downplayed the significance of the report which inspectors are to deliver to the Security Council on Monday.

▸ make something seem more significant exaggerate, overestimate, overstate Have climate scientists exaggerated the significance of their findings?

▸ consider something to be important acknowledge, attach to, attribute to They made the mistake of attaching little significance to the company's falling UK market share.

▸ become important acquire, assume, attain, gain, take on In the last quarter of the 18th century, the area suddenly acquired great industrial significance.

• N+of information, or results of study data, discovery, evidence, fact, findings, information, research, results In Chapter Four, we discuss the significance of our findings for future energy planning.

▸ event or change change, decision, development, event The significance of this new development cannot be overstated.

▸ what someone says observation, remark, speech, statement, words At the time, we didn't fully grasp the significance of this remark.

significant ADJ

very important

• adv+ADJ very deeply, especially, extremely, highly, hugely, increasingly, particularly, very The proposed introduction of the Code is hugely significant for the communications industry.

▸ in a particular way archaeologically, architecturally, biologically, clinically, commercially, culturally, economically, environmentally, historically, militarily, politically, socially, statistically, strategically Cave 6 is the most historically significant and artistically important of the 53 principal caves at Yungang.

• ADJ+n event or change action, change, decision, development, improvement, initiative, move, trend The most significant recent development has been the introduction of an integrated fares and ticketing structure.

▸ increase expansion, growth, increase, rise A notable success of the food management operations in India has been the significant expansion in rice production.

▸ decrease decline, decrease, drop, fall, reduction These measures have led to significant reductions in deaths and serious injuries on the roads.

▸ achievement achievement, boost, milestone, progress, stride, success A particularly significant milestone was the publication of his influential paper on genetics.

▸ problem or challenge challenge, concern, delay, difficulty, disadvantage, disruption, error, obstacle, problem, risk, threat The report concludes that aviation poses a significant threat to the world's climate.

▸ amount or money amount, extent, funding, gap, investment, loss, percentage, profit, proportion, resource, saving, sum In Australia, foreign students constitute a significant proportion of the higher education cohort.

▸ someone's or something's part in something contribution, contributor, involvement, part, player, role Cultural factors also play a significant role in the continued reliance of rural communities on traditional medicine.

▸ difference difference, discrepancy Even small inaccuracies in data collection may produce significant discrepancies in your figures.

▸ effect or result benefit, consequence, effect, impact, implications, influence As one of the largest employers in the city, we know that we can have a significant impact on the economy of the region.

• v+ADJ be or become significant appear, be, become, feel, prove, seem, sound There were so many questions that we wanted answering – and we didn't really know what data would prove significant.

▸ consider something to be significant consider sth to be, deem sth to be, regard sth as, think of sth as There was clearly blood on the shoes, but astonishingly this had not been regarded as significant.

▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather These changes have brought fairly significant improvements in traffic flow.

silence N

complete quiet

• adj+N complete absolute, complete, profound, utter He was one of the few teachers who could command absolute silence with just a look.

▸ causing or showing unpleasant or embarrassed feelings awkward, brooding, deathly, eerie, embarrassed, ominous, resounding, shocked, stony, uncomfortable, uneasy We all listened in stony silence to what was a rather unusual song.
▸ showing respect or polite behaviour by saying nothing dignified, hushed, respectful, solemn He maintained what he hoped was a dignified silence.

• v+N spoil silence by making noise break, disturb, interrupt, pierce, shatter A piercing siren disturbs the silence of the village.
▸ be quiet or say nothing keep, maintain, observe, preserve The audience in the theatre maintained the respectful silence of a church congregation.
▸ ask people to be quiet or say nothing command, enforce, impose Robin applied his knuckles to the table to command silence.

• N+v descend, ensue, fall, follow, prevail, reign, surround sth This latter part of the journey had left them in dull spirits, and complete silence reigned in the car.

silence V

stop people from speaking, or expressing their opinions or criticism

• V+n people who are criticizing or opposing you critic, doubter, enemy, opponent, sceptic The policy was designed to silence former critics and unite people behind a shared belief.
▸ people who are making a lot of noise crowd Two goals after just six minutes soon silenced the home crowd.
▸ people who have good things to say voice It is important to ensure, in a People's Parliament, that no voices are silenced.
▸ opposition or criticism criticism, dissent, objections, opposition They will stop at nothing to silence dissent or criticism of their policies.

silent ADJ

not talking, laughing, or making noise

• adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, dead INFORMAL, totally, utterly The cave remains utterly silent, save for the quiet drip of water from somewhere nearby.
▸ in a strange or frightening way curiously, eerily, mysteriously, oddly, strangely The street itself is oddly silent for a summer night.

• v+ADJ be, become, fall, go, grow, keep, remain, seem, stay By sheer coincidence, as soon as the stadium falls silent, United begin to play better.

similar ADJ

sharing some qualities but not exactly same

• adv+ADJ very remarkably, strikingly, very Australia is strikingly similar in its road system to the UK.
▸ rather fairly, quite, rather, vaguely The three models all look fairly similar.
▸ in a strange or surprising way confusingly, curiously, eerily, surprisingly, uncannily Alfonso's reign ended in 1931 in an eerily similar manner to that of his grandmother, Isabella II.
▸ in most important respects basically, broadly, essentially, fundamentally, roughly, substantially The approach works in a broadly similar way to that of natural evolution.
▸ in a particular way conceptually, culturally, functionally, genetically, physically, structurally, visually In the tests, the patients were infected with a genetically similar strain of the virus.
▸ apparently, but not really externally, outwardly, seemingly, superficially Though they are outwardly similar, the two products differ significantly in the quality of their manufacture.

• v+ADJ appear, be, become, feel, look, prove, remain, seem, sound In life, his affairs were not uncomplicated, and in death they have proved somewhat similar.

similarity N

qualities that make one thing similar to another

• adj+N when things are very similar close, eerie, marked, obvious, remarkable, startling, striking, uncanny By comparing these two figures, a striking similarity becomes obvious.
▸ in most important respects basic, essential, fundamental There are certain fundamental similarities between the three artists' work.
▸ apparent but not real apparent, superficial Despite this superficial similarity, the two theories are essentially quite different.
▸ in a particular way conceptual, cultural, functional, stylistic The author notes some stylistic similarity between these sculptures and the ones in southern India.

• v+N have similarities bear, display, exhibit, reveal, share, show Not only do the faces bear remarkable similarities to each other, but they are basically identical.
▸ see similarities discern, note, notice, recognize, spot Take a look at a couple of these sites and note the similarities between their views of citizenship.
▸ emphasize similarities emphasize, highlight, stress, underline This section highlights similarities in how these different pollutants were thought to act.

Usage Similarity is often plural in all of the v+N combinations shown here.

simmering adjective

simmering feelings are very strong and likely to become stronger

• ADJ+n anger, conflict, discontent, dispute, feud, resentment, row, tension, violence Simmering tensions between sections of the community had frequently boiled over.

simple ADJ

easy to understand or do

• adv+ADJ very brilliantly, elegantly, extremely, incredibly, perfectly, remarkably, so, very, wonderfully The software is powerful but incredibly simple to use.
▸ in an impressive or pleasing way beautifully, delightfully, elegantly, refreshingly, wonderfully She offers a wonderfully simple but seriously tasty recipe for this popular Indian dish.
▸ less simple than it appears to be apparently, seemingly This brief description hides the complexities of a seemingly simple operation.

- ▶ rather comparatively, fairly, pretty, quite, rather, reasonably, relatively The introduction of various, relatively simple measures would go some way to solving the problem.
- ▶ in a surprising way apparently, deceptively, seemingly, stunningly, surprisingly The game itself is deceptively simple.
- • v+ADJ appear, be, become, look, prove, remain, seem, sound The solution proved deceptively simple.
- • and/or convenient, easy, effective, efficient, fast, inexpensive, practical, quick, reliable, straightforward Steam inhalation is a simple and effective method of relieving cold symptoms.

simplistic ADJ

treating something complicated as if it is simple

- • adv+ADJ very dangerously, extremely, highly, incredibly, overly They share an unrealistic and overly simplistic view of the way the world works.
- ▶ rather a little, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, relatively, somewhat Her analysis of the events leading up the the war is, if I may say so, somewhat simplistic.
- • ADJ+n answer, approach, argument, assumption, conclusion, depiction, explanation, generalization, interpretation, notion, overview, stereotype, view The view that all financial advisors are bad is a stupidly simplistic generalization.

sincere ADJ

showing that you really mean what you say

- • adv+ADJ clearly, completely, deeply, entirely, genuinely, obviously, perfectly, quite, really, thoroughly, totally, undoubtedly, utterly, very He is a genuinely sincere and generous human being.
- • v+ADJ be, look, seem, sound His apology sounded sincere, but I'm not sure if I trust him.
- • and/or earnest, frank, genuine, heartfelt, honest, truthful Be sincere and truthful in your search for peace.

sincerity N

honesty in words or behaviour

- • adj+N complete or genuine absolute, complete, deep, evident, genuine, great, obvious, passionate, perfect, total, true, utmost, utter I was always struck by his absolute sincerity and commitment to his work.
- ▶ not genuine fake, false, mock, seeming The British offer reeked of mock sincerity.
- • v+N doubt someone's sincerity doubt, question, suspect We do not question the sincerity of our political opponents.
- ▶ show that you are sincere demonstrate, prove Both these parties have to prove their sincerity and commitment to the partnership.

sinister ADJ

threatening or suggesting something unpleasant

- • adv+ADJ very decidedly, deeply, extremely, increasingly, particularly, really, very Events take a decidedly sinister turn when a dead body crops up.
- ▶ rather faintly, a little, quite, rather, slightly, somewhat, vaguely The hidden viewing room feels faintly sinister.
- • ADJ+n atmosphere or impression atmosphere, overtones, tone, undertones Sinister undertones resonate throughout the novel.
- ▶ intentions or plans agenda, attempt, conspiracy, intent, machinations, motive, plot, purpose, reason You have accused your partner of having sinister motives.
- ▶ event or change happenings, turn, twist After the killer is released from jail, events take a sinister turn.
- • v+ADJ become, feel, seem, sound, turn What seems to be a routine job turns sinister when everyone connected to Johnny winds up dead.

sister N

a daughter of your parents

- • adj+N older than you big, elder, eldest, older She was placed in the care of her Aunt Jessie, her father's elder sister.
- ▶ younger than you little, young I needed to stay strong for the sake of my little sister.

sit V rest your lower body on a seat or on the ground

- • V+adv with your body in a particular position back, cross-legged, straight, upright They are so sick that they can't sit upright.
- ▶ without moving or speaking immobile, motionless, quietly, silent, silently, still I neither spoke nor looked at anyone, but sat motionless.
- ▶ in an uncomfortable position awkwardly, uncomfortably The reason so many people have back pain is that they sit awkwardly, in bad chairs, slumped over their computers for hours on end.

situated ADJ in a particular place

- • adv+ADJ in a place that is easy to get to centrally, conveniently, ideally, perfectly, strategically The hotel is conveniently situated for short drives to the beaches at Fairbourne and Barmouth.
- ▶ in a beautiful place beautifully, delightfully, idyllically, peacefully, pleasantly, superbly Duddon Hall is delightfully situated on the banks of the river.

situation N

the conditions existing somewhere at a particular time

- • adj+N difficult awkward, complex, complicated, difficult, no-win, stressful, tricky INFORMAL This will help you approach difficult situations in a calmer and more confident fashion.

You can refer to a situation in which everybody gains as a win-win situation: It is in his interest to put both parties in a win-win situation when possible.

- ▶ bad bad, dangerous, desperate, dire INFORMAL, life-or-death, serious When a potentially dangerous situation comes up, I'll try to work it out.
- ▶ getting worse deteriorating, worsening The army is monitoring the deteriorating security situation in the area.

- good good, ideal In an ideal situation, this work would be done in the first year of the course.
- affecting a particular person individual, personal In the meeting, we will discuss your personal situation and how the changes will affect you.
- present current, present I believe the precautionary principle is the best approach to the current situation.
- real/not real hypothetical, real, real-life, real-world The package presents a variety of topics, which involve real-life situations.
- of a particular type economic, financial, humanitarian, political, social You will learn a great deal about your financial situation by taking this first step.

• n+N involving an emergency crisis, disaster, emergency, panic, rescue Remember that we are responding to a crisis situation.
- in work or business employment, merger, monopoly, redundancy, staffing A redundancy situation arises when an employer needs fewer people or closes altogether.
- involving people hostage, refugee The refugee situation continued to be highly problematic.
- involving fighting or conflict combat, conflict, security It is our role to intervene when conflict situations arise.

• v+N cause a situation bring about, create, lead to Low interest rates had created a situation where people were not afraid to get into debt.
- consider a situation analyse, assess, consider, monitor, review We shall assess the situation and take appropriate action.
- deal with a situation address, deal with, handle, manage, respond to Can you explain to me how you propose to handle the situation?
- improve a situation improve, rectify, remedy The council promised to do what it could to remedy the situation.
- make a situation worse exacerbate, worsen The war has exacerbated the already difficult situation in which the children are living.

• N+v happen arise, exist, occur I am glad that the past is behind us and I regret that such a situation ever arose.
- continue continue, persist, remain Changes will have to be made if this situation persists.
- develop change, evolve, unfold The situation changes year by year.
- get better improve, stabilize The situation had not improved by 1891, when a further problem arose.
- get worse deteriorate, escalate, worsen, become difficult, serious, problematic etc The situation had deteriorated to such an extent that it was difficult to reverse course.
- require action demand, necessitate, require, warrant They can act quickly when the situation demands it.

size N

how large or small something is

• adj+N large/small big, compact, great, large, small The hotel was far from full tonight, despite its relatively small size.

you can also use the expression in size: The farms were about 20 hectares in size. • The flats in the block vary in size – some are very large, some quite small.

- maximum/minimum maximum, minimum Daytime conducted site tour and Museum Visit – maximum party size 25.
- exact/not exact actual, approximate, exact The actual size of the governing body depends on the size of the school.
- correct/ not correct correct, right, wrong Make sure your children's shoes are the right size.
- best optimum The optimum size for a group is about 10–12 students.
- total overall, total Although the total fleet size has remained the same, 9 per cent of all vehicles are now alternatively fuelled.
- average or medium average, mean, medium, normal, standard When I joined the theatre, our average cast size was three. ⁕ The mean tumour size was 2.5 cm (range 1 to 5 cm)
- full full, life Dishwashers come in all shapes and sizes, you can get three main sizes which are full size, compact or slimline.
- relative relative Cartographers are referring to the relative size of the representative fraction.

• v+N increase the size double, enlarge, increase The aim is to double the size of the European operation without taking more space.
- decrease the size decrease, reduce, shrink A more radical option would be to reduce further the size of the current small windows.
- choose or set the size choose, determine, fix, select, set, specify You can also choose a preset size from the drop-down list.
- estimate the size calculate, estimate, measure There are very few techniques that are able to accurately measure the size of small particles.
- limit the size control, limit, restrict The parents have chosen to limit the size of their family.
- change the size adjust, alter, change, vary Remember that you can adjust the text size before printing if you wish.

You can also say that you cut something to size: The boards are then cut to size and nailed in place.

sketch N

1 a drawing made quickly without many details

• adj+N not finished rough, unfinished I attach a rough sketch of the layout of the place as I remember it.
- quick hasty, quick When I see a volcano I make a quick sketch and take notes.
- done at the beginning preliminary, preparatory This is pure watercolour painting: there was no preliminary pencil sketch.

• n+N chalk, charcoal, ink, pen-and-ink, pencil, watercolour Each project includes a detailed pencil sketch to introduce the flower.

• v+N do, draw, execute, make, paint Art historians believe that the sketch was painted between the 1820s and late 1830s.

2 a short funny scene in a show

• adj+N comic, funny, hilarious, humorous, satirical, witty The satirical sketches took place on a small stage on the ground floor of the club.

- n+N comedy, revue It combines songs, jokes, comedy sketches, and dance numbers.
- v+N film, perform, rehearse, write I always like to hang around and see them rehearsing the sketches I'm not in.

3 a short description without many details

- adj+N types of sketch autobiographical, biographic, biographical, historical The authors are asked to provide a short biographical sketch.
- ▶ short brief, rough, short, thumbnail I am including a brief thumbnail sketch of his life and would like permission to make reference to your work.
- v+N write Writing this sketch of my life has been a sobering educational experience.

skill N

the ability to do something well; a particular ability that involves special training

- adj+N basic/advanced advanced, basic, core, generic, specialist What core clinical skills can be learnt?
- ▶ good excellent, valuable Have you got excellent communication skills and a thirst to succeed?
- ▶ necessary essential, key, necessary, relevant, vital He also taught me key skills such as looking backwards for long periods while cycling.
- ▶ new new I enjoyed planning the trip and feel I have learnt new skills from the experience.
- ▶ types of skill analytical, clinical, cognitive, creative, interpersonal, managerial, mathematical, organizational, personal, practical, professional, social, technical, vocational Interpersonal skills should include the ability to communicate in non-technical terms.
- ▶ that can be used in different situations transferable We're looking for candidates who have transferable skills, such as the ability to work in a team.
- n+N in a particular subject keyboard, language, literacy, maths, numeracy, reading, writing These courses were aimed at adults who want to improve their literacy skills.
- ▶ with computers computer, computing, ICT, programming It is important that you develop programming skills through this module.
- ▶ for teaching and studying coaching, research, study, teaching, thinking Refresher courses are available for existing teachers to upgrade their teaching skills.
- ▶ for dealing with people communication, employability, leadership, management, negotiation, networking, presentation He has good negotiation skills and shows the ability to work with a range of peers.
- ▶ physical circus, motor, survival Elliot's fine motor skills improve all the time, but slowly.

Usage Skill is usually plural in all of the adj+N and n+N combinations above: With this new scheme, we aim to improve the basic skills of over a million adults. • She recommended that I should attend a course on presentation skills.

- v+N get or have a skill acquire, gain, learn, master, possess E-learning is an effective and efficient method of acquiring a new skill.
- ▶ develop a skill develop, enhance, hone, improve, update I'll be back in September to hone the skills learnt in the course.
- ▶ use or show a skill apply, demonstrate, practise, use, utilize The school team will be practising their rugby skills with our coaches and players.
- ▶ test a skill assess, test We fully assess your skills and experience to ensure you get the assignment that suits you best.
- ▶ need skill need, require All this work requires great skill if you are going to get it right.
- ▶ lack a skill lack Fifty per cent of children start school lacking the vital skills that are needed to start learning.

skilled ADJ trained to do something well; needing someone who is trained

- adv+ADJ very exceptionally, extremely, highly, incredibly, particularly This scheme is designed to allow exceptionally skilled individuals to stay in the UK.
- ▶ enough adequately, sufficiently He was a sufficiently skilled carpenter to construct a fine zither, which he also taught himself to play.
- ▶ suitably appropriately, suitably I believe the shortage of appropriately skilled graduates is serious.
- ▶ in a particular area professionally, technically Volunteers do not need to be technically skilled, but should be happy using computers.
- ▶ and/ or dedicated, experienced, knowledgeable, motivated, qualified, semi-skilled, trained, unskilled We offer skilled and experienced staff who are experts in their field. • He employed a small workforce of both skilled and unskilled labour.
- ADJ+n worker artisan, craftsman, operative, practitioner, professional, technician, tradesman, worker, workman He described how the old tradition of the skilled craftsman led to the first industrial revolution.
- ▶ group of workers labour, manpower, personnel, staff, workforce We're stressing the benefits of having a skilled workforce already available.
- ▶ work job, occupation, work The maintenance of this equipment is highly skilled work.

skin N

the body's outer layer

- adj+N smooth or soft silky, smooth, soft, supple The skin is once more supple, soft and silky.
- ▶ with problems dry, flaky, greasy, irritated, itchy, oily, scaly, sensitive, sore The protector is especially useful for people with sensitive skin.
- ▶ light/dark black, brown, dark, fair, light, olive, pale, tanned, white I have very pale skin, but the rest of my family is quite dark
- ▶ healthy glowing, healthy Tanned skin is a sign of sun-damaged skin, not healthy skin.
- ▶ not covered bare Avoid using powder blush on bare skin.
- ▶ damaged cracked, damaged, peeling, wrinkled It can improve the appearance of wrinkled skin over a period of time.

▸ delicate/tough delicate, leathery, thick, tough The body was protected by a leathery skin.

• v+N damage the skin burn, damage, dehydrate, dry, inflame, irritate Perfumed soaps, creams or deodorants may irritate the skin

▸ care for the skin cleanse, hydrate, moisturize, nourish, protect, soften, soothe Use plenty of moisturising cream to soothe and soften the skin.

• N+n allergy, condition, disease, disorder, infection, irritation, rash, reaction He had been cleaning out a barn and got a skin infection on his hands and arms.

sky N

the space above the earth seen by looking upwards

• adj+N of a particular colour azure, black, blue, crimson, grey, pale, red By 3pm, there were clear blue skies and a warm sun to dry the track.

▸ cloudy or dull clouded, cloudy, dark, dull, gloomy, hazy, heavy, leaden, overcast, stormy The sky was hazy and the sea as still as a millpond.

▸ bright or without clouds bright, clear, cloudless, empty The number of days per year with clear skies is 120–150.

▸ with sun, moon or stars moonlit, starlit, starry, sunny We eventually emerged to a starlit sky after about 15 hours underground.

▸ northern, eastern etc southern Just before midnight, the southern sky started to show the first signs of the impending storm.

▸ when you can see a lot of sky big, huge, vast, wide Now she has a small study, with a window that looks out on wide skies and fields.

Usage Sky is often used in the plural, especially when talking about the weather: The forecast for November 18th is showers but be prepared for stormy skies.

• n+N at a particular time of day afternoon, dawn, evening, midnight, morning, night, twilight Suddenly a rocket shrieks into the evening sky and explodes with a loud bang.

▸ at a particular time of year spring, summer etc The autumn sky, just above the horizon, had a scarlet glow.

• N+v become darker darken We had lunch while the sky darkened and then the heavens opened.

▸ become lighter brighten, clear, glow, lighten, light up The dark skies cleared and the sun came out to mark the event.

▸ become cloudy cloud over Looking up, I saw that the sky had clouded over.

▸ change colour glow red, pink etc, turn red, orange etc A mist hung over one mountain and the sky was turning pink.

skyline N

the shapes of buildings or mountains against the sky

• adj+N exciting or beautiful beautiful, breathtaking, dramatic, impressive, spectacular, stunning The rooms are south facing and reveal the city's dramatic skyline.

▸ famous or special distinctive, famous, recognizable, unique Can anyone identify the location, with its distinctive skyline?

▸ with mountains jagged, mountainous Its mountainous skyline reminded him of the Scottish Highlands.

▸ northern, eastern etc southern A golden glow along the southern skyline throws the farm into silhouette.

▸ of a city city, downtown, high-rise, urban The tour offers many impressive views of the downtown skyline.

• v+N break the skyline break, interrupt, pierce, punctuate The skyline is punctuated by golden domes.

▸ be the main feature of the skyline dominate The most prominent landmark in the city, the Cathedral, dominates the skyline.

▸ make the skyline beautiful adorn, grace Architecturally unique in the whole of Mexico, the building graces the skyline of modern Pachuca.

▸ fill the skyline clutter, dot, litter Now skyscrapers and half-completed buildings litter the skyline.

slam V

shut or hit something with great force

• adv+V hard, quickly, suddenly, violently She left quickly, the large front doors slamming hard behind her.

If you slam something home, you hit or push it forcefully to where you want it to go: Up he stepped to slam home the goal.

• V+n door etc door, gate, lid, window She tried to slam the door, but he was too fast for her.

If you slam the brakes on, you put your foot down hard on the brakes: The child ran into the road and I slammed the brakes on just in time.

▸ ball ball, penalty, shot, volley He slammed the ball into the back of the net from 6 yards out.

▸ hand etc fist, hand She slammed her fist against the closed door.

▸ phone phone, receiver I said I refused to comment, and slammed the phone down.

slant N

a particular way of showing or considering information

• adj+N new contemporary, fresh, modern, new Do you want to find a fresh slant on a favourite destination?

▸ positive/negative negative, positive His agent tried to put a more positive slant on things.

▸ types of slant educational, feminist, humorous, political All of the games will have an educational slant.

▸ personal personal I tried to give a personal slant on things.

▸ different or interesting different, interesting, original, particular, unique, unusual Each film about the life of Christ puts a slightly different slant on his life and work.

• v+N add, bring, give, offer, put The electric violin certainly put a fresh slant on these songs in a very positive way.

slash V reduce something by a large amount

- adv+V dramatically, drastically, in half In the next few years, interest rates were slashed dramatically.
- V+n costs or charges bills, charges, costs, fares, prices, tariffs, taxes, wages Unless public spending was slashed, taxes would have to rise.
- ▸ spending budget, expenditure, funding, spending Achieving a low tax economy isn't about slashing state spending.
- ▸ rate rate The bank has slashed the interst rate on personal loans. ◆ Hotels can often fill their empty beds by slashing the room rates.
- ▸ jobs jobs There are plans to slash 30,000 fishing jobs across the European Union.
- ▸ in betting the odds William Hill has slashed the odds for snow in Glasgow from 7–4 to 8–11.
- ▸ crime crime Mayor Giuliani slashed crime in New York, at one time the crime capital of the US.
- ▸ substances that go into the air emissions A further regulation on fuel efficiency could easily slash carbon emmisions from vehicles by as much as 30 per cent.

slaughter N
the violent killing of many people

- adj+N unnecessary needless, pointless, senseless, unnecessary, wanton In 1914, much of Europe was drawn into four years of senseless slaughter.
- ▸ of people in large numbers genocidal, indiscriminate, mass, wholesale Things go wrong, and it all ends in wholesale slaughter.
- ▸ violent and cruel barbaric, brutal, cold-blooded, cruel I can say nothing good about this brutal slaughter.
- ▸ very bad appalling, terrible The appalling slaughter in the area has led to calls for UN peacekeepers to be sent there.
- v+N allow or justify slaughter condone, justify, order, permit How could he permit this endless slaughter?
- ▸ carry out slaughter inflict Having inflicted enormous slaughter on the Danes, he almost put them to flight.
- ▸ escape slaughter escape Sir Humphrey escaped the slaughter of his clan.
- ▸ see slaughter witness These youngsters may have witnessed the terrifying slaughter of their mothers and families.
- ▸ stop or criticize slaughter condemn, end, halt, prevent, stop We want to stop the slaughter.
- N+of civilian, infant, innocent In fact, nothing could justify the slaughter of civilians, directly or indirectly.

slaughter V kill many people in a violent way

- adv+V cruelly brutally, cruelly, mercilessly, ruthlessly They are ambushed by bandits who set about mercilessly slaughtering the group.
- ▸ in an organized way systematically In many of the camps, the inmates were systematically slaughtered.

slavery N
the system of owning people as slaves

- v+N fight slavery campaign against, combat, condemn, fight, fight against, oppose Her father, Lord Grey, opposed slavery.
- ▸ end slavery abolish, ban, end, outlaw, prohibit Slavery was abolished there in 1863.
- ▸ escape slavery escape, escape from Tulun converted to Islam in order to escape slavery.
- ▸ support slavery accept, defend, justify The Atlantic powers had to justify slavery and colonialism.
- ▸ when someone is made a slave force into, sell into They were transported and sold into slavery in the New World.
- n+of+N abolition, ending, prohibition The emancipation of women and the abolition of slavery are examples for how the attitudes of society have changed.

sleep V be in the natural state of unconsciousness when the body rests

- adv+V well comfortably, like a baby, like a log INFORMAL, properly, soundly, well Thinking she was asleep, I fell asleep myself and slept soundly.
- ▸ peacefully or safely easy, peacefully, quietly, safely, sweetly You can sleep easy knowing that your conscience is clear.
- ▸ badly badly, fitfully I have never slept so badly.
- ▸ not much or not at all barely, hardly, not a wink INFORMAL I feel like I hardly slept again last night.
- ▸ for longer than usual late Jonathan enjoys travelling, meeting new people, playing and watching football, eating and sleeping late!
- ▸ when someone sleeps outside because they have no home rough An increasing number of young people are sleeping rough in London.

sleep N
a natural unconscious state when the body rests

- adj+N difficult to wake from deep, dreamless, sound The child lay quiet for a few moments, then fell into a deep sleep.
- ▸ peaceful good, peaceful, restful, sweet, undisturbed, uninterrupted Melatonin is a hormone which helps to aid restful sleep.

When you have slept well, you can say you have had a good night's sleep: I haven't had a good night's sleep for months.

- ▸ not peaceful broken, disrupted, disturbed, fitful, light, restless, troubled I finally gave up on my disturbed sleep and pulled the curtains open.
- ▸ a lot/a little extra, less, a little, little, not much They got little sleep in those first few weeks after the baby was born. ◆ She didn't get much sleep that night.

It is common to use the expression ...hours sleep to say how long someone sleeps: Eight hours sleep is considered the optimum to allow the body to operate well. ● After a couple of hours sleep, he got up and went to work.

- ▸ enough adequate, enough Are you getting enough sleep?
- ▸ necessary much-needed We settled into our tent, hoping to catch up on some much-needed sleep.

- v+N get sleep get, grab INFORMAL, snatch INFORMAL Let's go to our rooms now and get some sleep.
- ▶ lose sleep lose Woody was woken up and lost precious sleep.
- ▶ go to sleep drift into, drift off to, fall into, get to, go to, sink into, slip into I felt better and drifted into a restless sleep. ◈ She didn't find it difficult to get to sleep, but she often woke early.
- ▶ when something stops you sleeping, or sleeping well disrupt, disturb, interrupt Tea or coffee, too close to bedtime, can disturb your sleep.
- ▶ when something helps you sleep, or sleep well aid The lavender aroma also aids restful sleep.

- N+n problems deficit, deprivation, disorder, disruption, disturbance, loss, problem Chronic sleep deprivation is a condition that affects most working adults.
- ▶ pattern cycle, habits, pattern, routine Appetite, sleep patterns and sexual interest may be disrupted and generally life becomes dull.

slender ADJ

very small and only just enough

- ADJ+n advantage or difference advantage, lead, majority, margin Peter's skills under pressure were tested as he maintained his slender lead.
- ▶ resources means, resources Much has been achieved on comparatively slender resources.
- ▶ hope or chance chance, hope There is a slender hope that the military operation may be brief.
- ▶ evidence evidence, foundation The evidence is too slender to sustain any very broad conclusions.

slight ADJ small in size, amount, or degree

- adv+ADJ rather fairly, rather, somewhat Most of the modifications we will be making are fairly slight.
- ▶ very extremely, very Any difference is very slight.
- ▶ comparatively comparatively, relatively So far, the environmental and social impacts of tourism have been relatively slight.

- ADJ+n change adjustment, alteration, deviation, difference, improvement, modification, variation Often the effects are minor and can be overcome with a slight adjustment in dosage.
- ▶ decrease decline, decrease, dip INFORMAL, drop, fall, reduction There was a slight decrease in fuel efficiency during the early 1990s.
- ▶ increase increase, rise Please note, fees for future academic years may be subject to a slight annual increase.
- ▶ amount or extent amount, degree The value of the research was not affected in the slightest degree.
- ▶ problem or mistake difficulty, error, mistake, problem The first noticeable symptom is a slight difficulty in walking.
- ▶ idea idea I didn't have the slightest idea what they were talking about.

Slight is usually used in the superlative form in this combination.

- ▶ sign hint, sign He learned to walk away if there was the slightest hint of trouble.

slight is usually used in the superlative form in these combinations.

- ▶ exaggeration exaggeration That may be a slight exaggeration.

slogan N

a short phrase that is easy to remember

- adj+N political anti-government, anti-war, militant, nationalist, patriotic, revolutionary Some 100 anti-riot police formed a shield around the embassy as the protesters shouted anti-war slogans.
- ▶ good catchy, snappy The huge sums that political parties pay PR 'experts' to dream up catchy election slogans were revealed this week.
- ▶ bad meaningless, simplistic It declared itself the party of law and order and put forward meaningless slogans such as 'democratic modernisation'.
- ▶ for a particular purpose advertising, campaign, marketing She declined to reveal any advertising slogans she had written.

- v+N say a slogan chant, mouth, proclaim, repeat, shout Thousands of angry protesters burned flags and chanted slogans.
- ▶ write a slogan daub, paint Some protesters daubed slogans on the station with spray paint.
- ▶ carry a slogan bear, carry The protesters carried placards bearing the slogan 'No third runway'.
- ▶ create a slogan coin, come up with Some of the same feminists who coined this slogan have turned their backs on its intent.

slope N

the side of a hill or mountain

- adj+N steep/not steep gentle, gradual, precipitous, slight, steep The slope was very steep and we moved over gradually to some rocks.
- ▶ high/low high, higher, lower, upper A single pine clings to the upper slopes.
- ▶ covered with something forested, grassy, rocky, wooded There are wooded valleys, rocky slopes, cultivated terraces and impressive cliffs to explore.
- ▶ in a particular direction or location eastern, north, west-facing etc Four experimental sites were identified on the northern, western and southern slopes of Torr Fada.

- v+N go up a slope ascend, clamber up, climb, climb up, scramble up Bear right and climb the gentle slope until you come to a bench.
- ▶ go round a slope hug, skirt From here you skirt the northern slopes of the wild Cheviot Hills.
- ▶ go down a slope clamber down, descend, scramble down A few of the more agile clambered down the very steep slope to the bank of the Dowles Brook.

- v+on+N be built, be perched, be situated, lie, stand The UEA campus lies on the slopes of the beautiful Yare Valley.

slow ADJ

not fast; taking a long time

- adv+ADJ too disappointingly, excruciatingly, frustratingly, painfully, tediously, unacceptably This process has been painfully slow and time consuming.
- ▶ very extremely, incredibly, terribly, very

Unfortunately, service was extremely slow and we were only checked on once during the meal.

- ▶ rather fairly, noticeably, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, significantly, somewhat The problem with this software is that it is quite slow. ◉ Drivers' reaction times were significantly slower when they were using a mobile phone.
- ▶ a little a little, slightly, a tad INFORMAL It used to be suggested that bilingual children were a little slower learning to speak than monolingual children.
- ▶ relatively comparatively, relatively A straightforward, but comparatively slow approach is the two-part correction described below.

- ● ADJ+n speed pace, rate, speed, tempo Away from the bustling crowds on the main beaches you can enjoy a slower pace.
- ▶ progress development, growth, progress, recovery The gender pay gap has narrowed, but progress is still painfully slow.
- ▶ when something changes or gets worse change, decline The onset of cataract is painless and is characterised by a slow decline in vision.
- ▶ response reaction, response There has been a high demand for the product but a slow response from suppliers.

slump N

a sudden fall; a period when an economy is unsuccessful

- ● adj+N big big, deep, dramatic, major There was a dramatic slump in Labour's share of the vote.
- ▶ bad alarming, bad, disastrous, severe Japan is just beginning to recover from its worst slump since the 1930s.
- ▶ happening everywhere global, worldwide The deal is in an attempt to cut costs and overcome the global slump in hi-tech industries.
- ▶ recent or current current, recent United travel to London in the hope of ending their recent slump in form.
- ▶ types of slump advertising, economic, housing, market, price, property, sales, trade Unless you are forced to, never sell during a property slump.

- ● v+N experience a slump experience, face, hit INFORMAL, suffer While French remains the most popular language, it still suffered a slump of 19 per cent in four years.
- ▶ predict a slump predict This time last year, experts predicted a slump in the housing market.
- ▶ cause a slump cause, spark, trigger Downloading from the Internet has caused a slump in the sales of CDs
- ▶ avoid or end a slump avoid, end, prevent It will require international co-operation both to curb inflation and to avoid a slump.

slur N

a remark that is intended to insult someone

- ● adj+N types of slur ethnic, personal, racial, racist There are strict laws against racial slurs.
- ▶ very bad disgraceful, disgusting, outrageous, terrible That's an outrageous slur!

- ● v+N make a slur cast, make The article has cast a slur on our organization.
- ▶ not accept a slur refute, reject In her letter she corrects the errors and refutes the slurs made against her.

small ADJ

not large, important or difficult

- ● adv+ADJ too ridiculously, too Use standardised fonts which are easy to read and are not too large or too small.
- ▶ very especially, extremely, incredibly, particularly, so, vanishingly, very The article examines the tax issues affecting a very small company.
- ▶ surprisingly surprisingly Although many of these coins were made, a surprisingly small number have survived.
- ▶ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather Molines is a fairly small ski resort, with a total of 34 slopes distributed over 38kms.
- ▶ comparatively comparatively, relatively We are a relatively small and friendly group.
- ▶ when something is a little or a lot smaller considerably, far, a little, much, significantly, slightly Drill the hole slightly smaller than the bolt, and screw it in from the bottom.

- ● v+ADJ appear, be, become, feel, get, grow, keep sth, look, make sth, remain, seem, stay The cost per pupil rises as the school gets smaller. ◉ The numbers in the groups will be kept small, so that people can get to know each other better.

smile V

raise the corners of the mouth when you are happy, being friendly etc

- ● adv+V strongly or happily brightly, broadly, happily, serenely, warmly In a very friendly manner he approached me, smiling broadly.
- ▶ weakly or sadly faintly, sadly, weakly She stood up before him, smiling faintly.
- ▶ kindly benignly, fondly, graciously, indulgently, kindly, pleasantly I found Renfield sitting placidly in his room with his hands folded, smiling benignly.
- ▶ gently gently, softly, sweetly I merely smiled sweetly and agreed.
- ▶ shyly shyly She giggled at my silly pose, wiping her eyes and smiling shyly.
- ▶ politely politely When questioned on the matter, she smiled politely and said she had no information.
- ▶ showing some other emotion encouragingly, grimly, knowingly, nervously, ruefully, smugly, wryly Most viewers will smile wryly at the film's conclusion.

smile N

an expression that shows happiness, friendliness, or amusement

- ● adj+N big or happy beaming, beatific, big, bright, cheerful, cheery, contented, dazzling, radiant A radiant smile broke through her clouded face.
- ▶ small or weak faint, slight, wan She looks calm and placid, a slight smile on her lips.
- ▶ showing some other emotion apologetic, mocking, rueful, satisfied, shy, sly, smug, wry The wry smile and glinting eyes hold the suggestion of mischief.
- ▶ not real or sincere bland, fake, grim He raised his eyebrows and gave me a grim smile.

- ▸ cheeky cheeky, mischievous It seems we just can't get enough of his cheeky smile.
- ▸ attractive sweet, winning The boy gave a winning smile.

- • v+N have or give a smile break into, crack INFORMAL, flash INFORMAL, give, have, put on, wear The star flashed her famous smile and gave us some great poses. ◉ He sounded angry but he had a smile on his face.
- ▸ cause a smile provoke, raise These make perfect gifts, and are always guaranteed to raise a smile.
- ▸ smile reluctantly force, manage The accused barely turned their heads, though some managed wan smiles.

You can use the expression with a smile to say that someone is smiling when they do something: 'Yes of course!' she relplied with a smile. • Make sure everyone leaves with a smile on their face.

- • N+v appear appear, come over sth, cross sth, light up sth, play on sth, spread A faint smile crossed his face at the thought. ◉ Suddenly a smile lit up her face.
- ▸ become wider broaden, widen 'Well, let's start then,' he said, his thin smile broadening into a big grin.
- ▸ disappear disappear, fade Her smile faded quickly when she realized who I was.

- • n+of+N flicker, glimmer, hint, shadow 'You'll see', she replied, with a hint of a smile playing on her lips.

smoke N

a cloud produced by something that is burning

- • adj+N with a strong smell acrid, pungent The air was full of acrid smoke from the burning tyres.
- ▸ thick dense, thick Suddenly there was a terrific roar, followed by flames and dense smoke.
- ▸ moving billowing The ship was a mass of billowing smoke and flames.
- ▸ poisonous or dangerous choking, noxious, poisonous, suffocating, toxic Residents were urged to shut their windows and doors following fears of toxic smoke from the fire.
- ▸ of a particular colour black, dark, white etc Check the exhaust doesn't produce lots of blue smoke when you rev the engine.

- • n+N tobacco and similar substances cannabis, cigar, cigarette, fag INFORMAL, marijuana, tobacco Tobacco smoke contains over 4000 different chemicals, many of which are poisons.
- ▸ something else that is burning barbecue, bonfire, chimney, coal, exhaust, incense, wood Barbecue smoke is a minor irritation when compared with bonfire smoke.

- • v+N belch, belch forth, billow, blow, emit, puff The dockyard, with its chimneys belching forth smoke, was a hive of industry.

- • N+v come out in large amounts belch, billow, pour The sky is noticeably darker because of the smoke still billowing from the volcano.
- ▸ move gently curl, drift, swirl, waft Dark smoke drifting from a chimney means the wood is not burning completely.
- ▸ not move hang Smoke hung over the village in the evening, sometimes mixing with fog.
- ▸ rise ascend, rise Five kilometres away, I could see smoke rising.

- • N+n containing or consisting of smoke haze, particle, plume, trail There was a thick haze of smoke, but visibility was good.
- ▸ breathing smoke exposure, inhalation Both casualties were taken to hospital suffering from smoke inhalation.

- • n+of+N large amount billow, cloud, column, haze, pall, plume, swirl, trail, wreath The fire and enormous plumes of smoke can be seen from the office.
- ▸ small amount puff, wisp Suddenly the Officer of the Watch thinks he sees a puff of smoke on the horizon.
- ▸ smell aroma, smell, whiff The gorgeous aroma of wood smoke on the air and the shorter days are signs of early winter.

smoker N

someone who smokes cigarettes, pipe etc

- • adj+N smoking a lot chain, heavy, 20-a-day, 40-a-day etc I've been a heavy smoker for 40 years.
- ▸ addicted addicted, dependent The clinic tends to attract the more highly dependent smoker.
- ▸ regular/occasional habitual, occasional, regular Both regular and occasional smokers appear to have underestimated how much they smoked.

- • and/or ex-smoker, non-smoker Our aim is to improve the overall health of everyone – smokers and non-smokers alike.

smoking N

the activity of breathing smoke from cigarettes etc

- • adj+N by particular groups of people adolescent, maternal, parental, paternal, teenage, underage Another environmental influence strongly related to reduced birthweight is maternal smoking.
- ▸ harmful or serious addictive, harmful, heavy This survey shows just how wasteful and addictive smoking is.
- ▸ when other people smoke involuntary, passive Asthma in children will be aggravated by passive smoking.
- ▸ when you smoke one cigarette immediately after another chain Chain smoking in front of daytime TV day after day is enough to make anyone depressed.

- • v+N allow smoking allow, permit The restaurant is a no smoking area (smoking is permitted in the special areas outside).
- ▸ forbid smoking ban INFORMAL, forbid, outlaw, prohibit Should smoking be banned completely in public places?
- ▸ limit or discourage smoking discourage, prevent, reduce, restrict, tackle Tackling smoking is central to cutting deaths from cancer and heart disease.
- ▸ start/stop smoking give up, quit INFORMAL, refrain from, start, stop There will also be support for residents to help them quit smoking. ◉ Don't lose heart if you start smoking again.

smug ADJ

too satisfied with your abilities or achievements

- • adv+ADJ slightly a little, slightly The tone is a little smug.
- ▸ rather pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather So I was feeling pretty smug, as you can imagine.

▸ very or too too, very We're very smug about the quality of our programmes.
▸ in a way that annoys people insufferably, unbearably You run the risk of appearing unbearably smug.

• ADJ+n smile grin, smile 'I found it quite easy,' he said with a smug grin.
▸ look expression, look The smug look on his face disappeared as I accelerated away from him.
▸ attitude complacency, self-righteousness, self-satisfaction, superiority We looked down on them with an air of smug self-satisfaction.

• v+ADJ feel, look, sound I was feeling so very smug.

• and/or arrogant, complacent, pompous, self-righteous, self-satisfied, superior I found their attitude both smug and arrogant.

snag N

a problem or disadvantage you did not expect

• adj+N small minor, slight There's a slight snag: I can't get off work till about 6.
▸ big big, major We've only hit one major snag in the project so far.
▸ possible possible, potential It's better to be fully aware of any possible snags and problems before you take the decision.

• v+N encounter, hit, run into Here we hit a snag, as we found this footpath blocked and a notice saying 'closed for eight weeks'.

snippet N

a small piece of something, for example information or news

• adj+N interesting fascinating, interesting
▸ that makes you want to hear more tantalizing 'You can't just give us that tantalizing snippet of information and then leave us hanging in the air!'
▸ small brief, little, short, small, tiny The brief snippet of text mentions the city's ring of 'verdant hills'.
▸ types of snippet audio, historical, interview, news, video, vocal There are video snippets of shows, presenters and adverts here going back to the fifites.

• v+N catch, hear, overhear I overheard a snippet of conversation as I walked past a neighbouring table.

• N+of piece of information conversation, gossip, info INFORMAL, information, news I hear the odd snippet of news about you from your sister.
▸ piece of a larger thing interview, song, text, tune You can download ringtones, which are snippets of your favourite tunes.

snow N

pieces of ice that fall from the sky

• adj+N in large/small quantities deep, heavy, light, thick Winters are cold, with heavy snows.
▸ recent fresh, new The fresh snow increases the avalanche risk and makes the climb much more dangerous.
▸ soft or wet melting, soft, wet They manhandled the sledges over ice hummocks and through soft snow.
▸ hard or dry crisp, dry, frozen, hard, powdery Conditions were perfect, lovely powdery snow and clear blue skies.
▸ being blown drifting, driving, swirling Drifting snow caused the closure of many roads.
▸ where no one has trodden virgin I trudged on through the virgin snow, along the broad ridge to the summit.

• N+v fall blow, fall Several centimetres of snow had already fallen and it was coming down heavily ▸ stay lie There was snow lying on the ground all the way.
▸ melt disappear, melt, recede, retreat, thaw The forecast is good and the snow has melted.
▸ pile up drift, pile up The severe frost continued through until March, with snow drifting in the easterly wind.
▸ cover or block things blanket, block, cover Three or four inches of snow has blanketed the ground for over a week now.

• N+n flurry, shower, storm Heavy snow showers fell across Grampian and the Highlands throughout the day.

• n+of+N blanket, covering, fall, flurry, sprinkling There was just a sprinkling of snow in the valley, although higher up the ground was covered.

snowfall N

the amount of snow that falls during a period

• adj+N big/small considerable, heavy, light, significant Heavy snowfalls had made the roads impassable in places.
▸ happening at night overnight Heavy overnight snowfalls meant that skiing was not possible early in the day.
▸ unusual or unexpected infrequent, rare, uncommon, unexpected The whole class responded spontaneously to the unexpected snowfall.
▸ average average The average snowfall is around 5 inches.
▸ annual annual Annual snowfall at lower elevations is 160mm.
▸ recent fresh, recent Our departure on the trip was delayed for three days because of fresh snowfall.

snub N

an action or remark that is intended to insult someone

• adj+N calculated, deliberate, humiliating, massive The failure to proffer a hand to shake could be seen as a deliberate snub.

• v+N give a snub deliver On the Scottish King's arrival at Gloucester, William delivered a snub by refusing to receive him.
▸ see something as a snub perceive sth as, regard sth as, see sth as, take sth as If you don't see your name on the list please don't take this as a snub!

soar V

to quickly increase to a high level

• n+V costs, demand, inflation, popularity, prices, profits, sales, temperatures, unemployment Stores ran out of phones, as demand soared in the pre-Christmas period. ◉ The sun broke through and temperatures soared.

sober ADJ

1 not drunk

- adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, perfectly, totally He seemed a bit excited but perfectly sober when I met him.
- ▸ fairly fairly, quite, reasonably, relatively Take a drink, by all means, but try to say relatively sober.
- v+ADJ keep sb, remain, stay If I stay sober, will I turn into a boring person?

2 with a serious attitude

- ADJ+n account, analysis, assessment, judgment, reflection, reminder, warning The report is a sober assessment of where we are and what we should do to meet our targets.

social ADJ

1 relating to society and people's lives

- ADJ+n situation in which people are poor, alone, or treated unfairly deprivation, disadvantage, exclusion, inequality, injustice, isolation Circles Network runs a number of projects that support children at risk of social exclusion.
- ▸ situation in which people protest or break the law breakdown, unrest, upheaval Unemployment and social unrest soon led to rioting on the streets.
- ▸ good situation cohesion, equality, inclusion, integration, justice, welfare, well-being As a rule, housing estates reveal a total lack of social cohesion.
- ▸ negative feeling disapproval, embarrassment, stigma AIDS still carries a social stigma in many places.
- ▸ system or structure hierarchy, network, order, stratification, structure, system A slowing down in social mobility is not just an issue for those at the bottom of the social order.
- ▸ group you belong to background, class, group, network Our school has students from many social backgrounds. ◆ Life expectancy varies by social class.
- ▸ ability to improve your social position mobility, movement Education is the key to social mobility.
- ▸ change change, reform, revolution Social change is never easy.
- ▸ usual behaviour mores, norms Social norms dictate the extent to which women can speak out against corruption.
- and/or academic, cultural, ecological, economic, educational, emotional, environmental, moral, personal, physical, political, psychological, religious, spiritual The country was experiencing social and economic crisis.

2 used about activities done with other people

- ADJ+n event call, engagement, event, function, gathering, occasion We have several fundraising and social events taking place over the next few months.
- ▸ interaction contact, interaction From a stress management point of view, social contact is crucial.
- ▸ skills graces, skills This new approach seeks to improve students' social skills through shared discussion and collaborative activities.
- ▸ activities activities, life I have a great social life!
- ▸ good or bad effects on society benefits, consequences, costs, effects, impact Her book deals with the social costs of crime and unemployment.

society N

people living together in organized communities

- adj+N modern or advanced advanced, contemporary, industrial, modern, Western This is a novel approach to life in a Western society so fixated on personal achievement.
- ▸ not modern early, hunter-gatherer, peasant, post-modern, primitive, traditional Natural propensity to war is the motive force in primitive societies only.
- ▸ diverse diverse, multi-cultural, multi-faith, multi-racial Living in a multi-cultural society is an enriching experience.
- ▸ not religious secular To what degree is India a secular society?
- ▸ civilized civilized This is a level of poverty that is unacceptable in a civilised society.
- ▸ rich affluent, bourgeois, high He became a favourite of high society and used it to his advantage.
- ▸ normal mainstream Disabled young people have the right to be included in mainstream society.
- ▸ where everyone is treated fairly or equally classless, co-operative, egalitarian, fair, inclusive, just, tolerant To see a classless society in operation is unforgettable.
- ▸ where people are free to live the way they want free, open The idea is disgusting, and in a free society it is our right to say so.
- ▸ wider larger, wider We have been looking at the ideas that people hold about men's behaviour, both in families and in wider society.
- ▸ with a particular political or economic system capitalist, democratic, liberal, socialist For a few brief years, the working class set about creating a socialist society.
- ▸ where there is an emphasis on shopping and buying things consumer, consumerist We have become a consumer society.
- ▸ with a particular kind of industry agricultural, information, knowledge, scientific, technological We live in a rapidly changing information society.
- ▸ where men have the power male-dominated, patriarchal Women are always at the bottom of the pecking order in a patriarchal society.
- v+N change a society affect, change, reform, shape, transform The 19th century was dominated by the Industrial Revolution, and society was transformed by the economic changes which that revolution brought about.
- ▸ create a society build, create, establish, form, rebuild The Russian Revolution tried to build a society in which all productive work, and scientific knowledge would be entirely communal.
- ▸ exist in a society exist in, permeate, pervade This desire for luxury pervaded society from the courtiers downwards.
- ▸ have a bad effect on a society destroy, divide, polarize, undermine Many societies are divided by conflict and violence.
- ▸ have a good effect on a society benefit, enrich, strengthen The voluntary sector enriches society and should be promoted and supported.
- ▸ consisting of ordinary people, not politicians, the military etc civic, civil We need a public debate on these issues which involves civil society as a whole.

soft ADJ

1 not stiff, firm or rough

- adv+ADJ in a good way beautifully, deliciously, luxuriously, wonderfully The current collection includes luxuriously soft baby wraps and blankets.
  - very extremely, incredibly, really INFORMAL, so, very The leather is incredibly soft.
  - rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, relatively Lead, in particular, is a fairly soft metal.
  - slightly a little, slightly Gently cook the leeks until lightly coloured and slightly soft.
- and/or flexible flexible, pliable, stretchy, supple The skin is once more supple, soft and silky.
  - pleasant to touch cuddly, fluffy, silky, smooth, velvety A soft cuddly toy can be full of germs.
  - easy to press spongy, springy, squishy INFORMAL Bone marrow is the soft, spongy tissue in the centre of the bones.

2 not strict enough

- v+ADJ be soft be Some people thought the media was too soft on President Bush.
  - become soft become, get, go, grow, turn Labour was accused of going soft on criminals.
  - appear soft appear, look, sound Such is the mood that no one wants to risk looking soft on terrorism.
- N+on activities crime, drugs, immigration, terrorism Governments regard it as electrorally damaging to be seen as soft on drugs.
  - people criminals, terrorists Many people think the law is too soft on criminals.

software N programs used by computers

- v+N install or download software download, install, load After you order, we will send you instructions on how to download and install the software.
  - design software build, create, design, develop, make, produce, write Postcript is one of the most elegant and powerful pieces of software ever developed.
  - use software operate, run, use, utilize Will I need to buy and learn to use complicated software?
  - upgrade software update, upgrade How are you planning to upgrade the software?
  - make software available distribute, launch, release A Cambridge team is releasing free software designed for hand-held computers too small to have keyboards.
  - make software suitable for a particular user configure, customize We will install and configure your flight simulation software to give you optimum performance.
- N+n product or system application, program, solution, system, tool Apple supplies software tools which are useful for project management.
  - set bundle, package, product, suite My computer has the standard Microsoft office software suite.
  - designer designer, developer, engineer, maker Infomill was founded in 1996 by a team of software engineers, sales staff and managers.
  - design design, development, engineering Software development is fraught with problems.
  - company business, company, firm, house, manufacturer, provider, publisher, supplier, vendor Check with your software provider for these updates regularly.
  - upgrade update, upgrade The forums will be offline today for essential software upgrades.
  - permission to use legally licence 8 per cent of the department budget is spent on software licences.

solace N

something that makes you feel better, especially in a time of sadness or disappointment

- v+N try to find solace seek I often feel alienated and seek solace in music.
  - find solace find, gain, take Victoria sank into deep depression after the death of her husband, before finding solace with John Brown.
  - bring solace bring, offer His quiet unseen ministry amongst the sick, the elderly and the dying brought solace and hope to many.

sole ADJ

existing as the only one of a particular type

- ADJ+n aim or reason aim, basis, cause, intention, justification, objective, purpose, reason It wasn't the sole reason I moved here, but it helped.
  - responsibility authority, charge, control, responsibility The project panel has the sole responsibility for assigning projects.
  - exception exception With the sole exception of Diana, we all lived in London.
  - method means CVs will not be accepted as a sole means of application.

solemn ADJ expressing serious intentions

- ADJ+n promise commitment, oath, pledge, promise, undertaking, vow They all took a solemn oath to stand by each other.
  - responsibility duty, obligation, responsibility Everyone has a solemn duty to assist in the search for a lasting peace.
  - statement affirmation, appeal, declaration, expression, warning The declarations were solemn and heartfelt and moved me to tears every time.

solicit V

to ask someone for money or support

- V+n information or opinions comments, feedback, opinions, suggestions, views The History Department solicits feedback from students.
  - help aid, assistance, help, support I was unable to do the work alone, so I solicited the help of two or three others.
  - money contributions, donations, funds, money We do not solicit donations by telephone.

solution N a way to solve a problem

- adj+N good effective, efficient, elegant, excellent, good If you are looking for flexible storage units, our products offer an excellent solution.
  - practical and likely to succeed feasible, practical, pragmatic, viable, workable You need to get to the root of a problem quickly, and devise a workable solution for it.

- ▸ not expensive affordable, cost-effective, economical, inexpensive, low-cost We work with local businesses to provide affordable solutions to the environmental challenges they face.
- ▸ satisfactory or suitable acceptable, appropriate, right, satisfactory, suitable It could take months before a satisfactory solution is found.
- ▸ best possible ideal, optimal, perfect, ultimate For many, the ideal solution is to bring a carer into the person's own home.
- ▸ easy convenient, easy, simple The simplest solution is to use a plastic box!
- ▸ new and imaginative creative, imaginative, innovative, new, radical, unique The Tribunals have to come up with creative solutions to legal problems.
- ▸ lasting for ever, or for a long time lasting, long-term, permanent, sustainable There will be no long-term solution to these problems.
- ▸ possible possible, potential There are a couple of possible solutions to this issue.
- ▸ total/partial complete, comprehensive, partial, total Partial solutions to these dilemmas are suggested.
- ▸ peaceful peaceful He always sought a peaceful solution in conflict, only fighting after the enemy had refused all negotiation.
- ▸ quick immediate, quick She agreed that genetically-modified crops had great potential, but did not offer an immediate solution to world hunger.

- • v+N find a solution achieve, arrive at, discover, find, hit upon, identify, obtain, reach, think of Consider all aspects of a situation, weighing up different options to arrive at the best solution.
- ▸ provide a solution deliver, generate, give, negotiate, produce, provide, supply If you find that off-the-peg garments do not fit you, we can almost always provide the solution.
- ▸ suggest a solution present, propose, recommend, suggest They can propose solutions and work with others to implement them.
- ▸ be a solution be, offer, represent If you do not have much space, a fold-up bed can offer the solution.
- ▸ try to find a solution look for, search for, seek, work on, work towards Both partners must be willing to work towards a solution to improve their marriage.
- ▸ develop a solution customize, design, develop, devise, tailor We help companies develop solutions that make a real difference to their business.
- ▸ need or demand a solution ask for, call for, demand, need I don't think that boys find it more difficult than girls to say what their problem is, they just tend to ask for a solution.
- ▸ have a solution have Some problems simply have no solution.

- • N+to general problem challenge, crisis, difficulty, dilemma, issue, predicament, problem We can help you find a solution to your problems.
- ▸ particular problem climate-change, conflict, congestion, dispute, inequality, poverty, shortage, unemployment Education and training could be part of the solution to poverty in this community.

solve V

to find the solution to something

- • V+n problem conflict, crisis, dilemma, dispute, issue, problem, problem, shortage We're also going to have to start thinking of other ways to solve the energy crisis.
- ▸ game or calculation clue, conundrum, equation, puzzle, riddle There are two relatively simple approaches to solve such equations. ◉ Ask the children to solve the riddle.
- ▸ crime or mystery case, crime, enigma, murder, mystery Being a police officer in Hertfordshire is not just about solving crime, it's also about being seen on the streets.

sombre ADJ serious, or sad

- • ADJ+n air, atmosphere, moment, mood, occasion, scene, tone The death of Queen Victoria cast a sombre mood over the nation.

sophisticated ADJ showing an impressive understanding of complicated issues

- • adv+ADJ very extremely, incredibly, remarkably, very Doctors have access to a remarkably sophisticated diagnostic program.
- ▸ in a particular way financially, intellectually, linguistically, mathematically, politically, technically, technologically, theoretically The have to deal with clients who are financially very sophisticated. ◉ The software offers a technically sophisticated solution.

sorrow N

great sadness

- • adj+N bitter, deep, endless, great, inconsolable, overwhelming, profound, terrible, unspeakable, untold He tells of his inconsolable sorrow at the loss of a friend who died.

- • v+N feel sorrow bear, be filled with, carry, endure, experience, feel, suffer She has experienced much sorrow in her life.
- ▸ express sorrow express I expressed my sorrow at Caroline's death and asked how things had been.
- ▸ cause sorrow bring, cause Success, however, brought sorrow to the Carter's personal lives.
- ▸ ease sorrow alleviate, assuage, ease, soothe At this sad time, may happy memories help ease our sorrow.

- • and/or bad feeling anger, anguish, bitterness, grief, heartache, loneliness, misery, pain, regret, remorse, sadness, shame, suffering, tears A wave of grief and sorrow swept across the country.
- ▸ good feeling happiness, joy They formed a relationship that would cause her great happiness and sorrow for the rest of her life.

sorry ADJ

feeling sadness, disappointment, or regret

- • adv+ADJ very awfully, deeply, desperately, dreadfully, extremely, heartily, really INFORMAL, so INFORMAL, terribly, very I'm terribly sorry, but I've forgotten your name.
- ▸ genuinely genuinely, sincerely, truly I am genuinely sorry if you found my remarks offensive.

- • v+ADJ be, feel, look We are sorry if people are disappointed.

- ADJ+infinitive find out about something find, hear, learn, note, read, see
- ▸ tell someone something admit, announce, inform sb, report, say, tell sb We are sorry to announce that the 08.40 train service has been cancelled.

sound N
something heard

- adj+N easy to hear audible, clear With the new speakers, you get a much clearer sound.
- ▸ difficult to hear distant, faint, muffled, muted He moved as quickly as he dared, listening for the faintest sound.
- ▸ easy to recognize distinct, distinctive, familiar, unique, unmistakable His voice has that distinct English sound to it.
- ▸ strange eerie, haunting, strange, weird The church bell struck – it was an eerie, haunting sound.
- ▸ pleasant gentle, mellow, pure, rich, soft, soothing, warm A water feature can recreate the soothing sound of running water.
- ▸ unpleasant grating, harsh I found the amplified sound too harsh.
- ▸ of a particular type buzzing, clicking, drumming, hissing, humming, ringing, rumbling, screeching, whirring, whistling Tinnitus is a ringing or buzzing sound in the ears.
- ▸ loud or very loud deafening, loud, powerful I couldn't hear what she was saying over the deafening sound of the music.

- v+N hear a sound hear, listen to Now they could hear just the sound of someone rummaging through one of the nearby rooms.
- ▸ make a sound create, emit, make, produce Electronic devices can be bought which emit a sound that drives moles away.
- ▸ make a sound louder amplify He and his teachers use microphones to amplify sounds and he has his own sign interpreter.

sound ADJ involving the use of good judgment

- adv+ADJ basically basically, essentially, fundamentally The report is fundamentally sound.
- ▸ from a particular point of view academically, ecologically, economically, educationally, environmentally, ergonomically, ethically, idealogically, mechanically, methodologically, nutritionally, pedagogically, scientifically, technically, theologically, theoretically They encourage the production of coffee using ecologically sound growing practices.

- ADJ+n basis base, basis, footing, foundation, grounding Thanks to her, family finances were placed on a sounder footing.
- ▸ knowledge or understanding grasp, knowledge, understanding The HR Assistant requires a sound knowledge of current recruitment issues.
- ▸ thinking analysis, assessment, judgment, reasoning Washington's business judgment was always sound.
- ▸ reasons or ideas argument, principles, reasons As for your ancestors, you have sound reasons for believing you had thousands of them.
- ▸ advice advice It's good to be able to see that clients have received sound advice.

source N
1 a place or thing that provides something

- adj+N good abundant, excellent, fruitful, good, invaluable, rich, useful, valuable Researchers in the US have found that baby teeth may be a rich source of stem cells.
- ▸ important important, key, major, vital Siberia has been a major source of diamonds for some time.
- ▸ main or original main, original, primary, prime, principal The principal source of internal noise in classrooms is the children!
- ▸ possible possible, potential Producers cannot ignore such a potential source of profit.
- ▸ external external, outside The City Council borrowed £5m from outside sources.
- ▸ many different, multiple, numerous, various There are multiple sources of error including illegible or incorrect prescriptions.
- ▸ only only, single, sole A tiny window would have been the only source of natural daylight.
- ▸ constant constant My colleagues are a constant source of pride to me.
- ▸ of energy: environmentally friendly alternative, clean, natural, renewable, sustainable The UK Government committed to meeting a target of 10 per cent of its electricity being generated from renewable sources by 2010.

- n+N money funding, income, revenue The rest of the money has been contributed by the other funding sources.
- ▸ energy carbon, energy, fuel, heat, light, oil, power Refrigerators should be sited in well ventilated areas away from heat sources.
- ▸ food or water food, water The scheme brings food supplies directly to villages and offers the people a vital food source.
- ▸ something undesirable emissions, noise, pollution, radiation These areas are far away from pollution sources such as cities and industries.

- v+N be or provide a source of something act as, be, become, constitute, offer, provide, remain, represent, serve as Trusts and Foundations are an important source of financial support.
- ▸ find a source of something access, discover, find, identify, locate, pinpoint, trace His particular passion is fixing problems, especially locating noise sources and working out ways of silencing them.
- ▸ use a source draw on/upon, tap into, use Her work draws upon many sources of inspiration.
- ▸ show what the source of something is indicate, reveal A brief message indicates the source of the error.
- ▸ come from a source arise from, come from, derive from, emanate from, originate from, spring from, stem from The West's energy imports come from many sources.
- ▸ get something from a source collect sth from, cull sth from, derive sth from, draw sth from, extract sth from, gather sth from, generate sth from, get sth from, obtain sth from, take sth from Pulp is often made from waste paper which is obtained from local sources.

2 a person or publication that provides information

- adj+N reliable authoritative, credible, independent, informed, reliable, reputable, trusted

The most important and reliable source of information on the pupil's cultural background will be the parents.

- ▸ types of source archival, documentary, electronic, official, online, printed, written Sometimes these printed sources are not entirely accurate.
- ▸ directly from someone who is involved in something first-hand, primary The book contains a useful collection of primary sources from 15th century England.
- ▸ taking or mentioning information from primary sources secondary The first chapter reviews secondary sources on the events leading up to the war.
- ▸ secret or not named anonymous, confidential, unnamed The information comes from unnamed sources in the Russian intelligence community.

- • n+N information data, information, news, reference I found the number and range of news sources staggering.
- ▸ type of source business, government, industry, intelligence, Internet, radio A British intelligence source reported that the bombing had left the residents of a neighbouring town 'very frightened'.

- • v+N refer to a source acknowledge, cite, credit, list, mention, publish, quote, reference, refer to How do you cite Internet sources?
- ▸ say who a source is disclose, document, identify, publish, reveal It wouldn't be fair to reveal my sources.
- ▸ protect a source protect It was important that we protected the sources of intelligence, the nature of intelligence and the pattern of intelligence that we had.
- ▸ check or discuss a source analyze, check, consult, examine, research, review Whenever I read a new report I check its sources.

sovereignty N

the right to rule a country

- • adj+N of a country national The regime is obsessed with its national sovereignty, making it suspicious of foreign relations.
- ▸ shared joint, pooled, shared European construction in the post-war period was based on the idea of shared sovereignty.
- ▸ complete absolute, full The concept of absolute sovereignty within state borders has met increasing criticism.
- ▸ of a particular type economic, monetary, parliamentary, political, territorial At that time, Shanghai was a place where no territorial sovereignty reigned.

- • v+N have sovereignty exercise, have Westminster exercises the sovereignty of England, Wales and Ulster.
- ▸ maintain sovereignty maintain, retain As president, I have the responsibility to maintain our national sovereignty.
- ▸ lose sovereignty cede, lose, relinquish, renounce, surrender Countries such as Czechoslovakia, Luxembourg, Denmark and Poland lost their national sovereignty under the Nazis.
- ▸ regain sovereignty regain, restore The majority of Iraqis viewed elections as means of restoring sovereignty.
- ▸ publicly claim sovereignty affirm, assert, claim, establish The new government asserted Parliamentary sovereignty over the colonies. ✵ Although the United Kingdom claims sovreignty over this region, there are overlapping claims by Argentina and Chile.
- ▸ attack or weaken something's sovereignty compromise, erode, undermine, usurp, violate Iraq blocked the inspections, saying they would violate its sovereignty.
- ▸ defend something's sovereignty defend, preserve, protect, safeguard The concept of a natural right to defend national sovereignty is born of weakness and insecurity.
- ▸ respect something's sovereignty acknowledge, recognize, respect We will make positive efforts to develop good relations with any country which respects our sovereignty.
- ▸ transfer sovereignty transfer Devolution is the transfer of substantial powers to regional bodies, but it does not transfer any sovereignty.

space N

an empty or available area

- • adj+N physical physical Do libraries have physical spaces that could be used as meeting rooms for community groups?
- ▸ not being used available, empty, free, vacant Every available space was full of junk.
- ▸ enough adequate, ample, enough, sufficient The U-shaped main cabin has ample storage space.
- ▸ not enough insufficient, limited If there is insufficient space in any of the boxes please continue on a separate sheet.
- ▸ small confined, enclosed, little, small, tight You step through the doors into a vestibule, and beyond the inner doors is a small, square space.
- ▸ large enormous, huge, large, vast The sound echoed around the vast space.
- ▸ outside external, green, open, outdoor Only 9 per cent of the land is public green space, compared to 12 per cent for roads and parking.
- ▸ inside interior, internal, living 3-D computer modelling is used to see the building and interior spaces during the design stages.
- ▸ more additional, extra, more Pearson is keen to claim the extra space for car parking.
- ▸ provided for a specific person or use designated Please smoke only in the designated areas.
- ▸ shared with others common, communal, shared The owners of the block are responsible for repairs in communal spaces.

- • v+N be in a space be in, fill, occupy, take up, use The new library is being built in a space formerly occupied by administration buildings.
- ▸ fit into a space fit in, fit into, go in, go into Make sure the bed you choose will fit into the space you have.
- ▸ put something into a space cram sth into, pack sth into, squeeze sth into Some 12,000 tombstones are located here, each crammed into a tiny space.
- ▸ make a space clear, create, leave, make Tie up the end with muslin or string, but leave enough space for the rice to at least double in volume.
- ▸ save or provide a space for a specific person or use allocate, allot, book, provide, reserve, save Each user will be allocated storage space on the file server's hard disk. ● The Market provides space for artists wishing to display and sell their work.

▸ waste/not waste space save, waste How can you have big icons and not waste screen space at the same time?

span N
the amount of time something lasts

● v+N reduce the span of something decrease, limit, reduce, shorten Reading blogs has shortened my attention span.
▸ increase the span of something extend, increase, lengthen, prolong The study builds on previous research that used antioxidants to lengthen the life span of nematode worms.
▸ include a particular span cover, encompass The illustrations cover the whole span of Tony's work, from childhood drawings to his later, well-produced water colours.

spark V
to make something happen, especially violence, trouble or anger

● V+n anger or disagreement anger, backlash, controversy, furore, fury, outcry, outrage, row, uproar His comments on race relations have frequently sparked outrage.
▸ worry or fear concern, fear, frenzy, panic A powerful earthquake struck near the Indonesian island of Sumatra yesterday, sparking fears of another tsunami disaster.
▸ protests or public violence protests, revolution, riot, unrest, uprising, violence In many cities over the past few decades, riots sparked by racial tensions have shattered community relations.
▸ rumours rumours, speculation She has been wearing an engagement ring, sparking rumours that she is back with her former boyfriend.
▸ interest curiosity, interest He's ultimately hoping to work with larger companies, but so far has been unable to spark their interest.
▸ discussion debate, discussion Her remarks sparked a lively debate about how to tackle discrimination in bodies like the police.
▸ reaction reaction, response The tackle sparked angry reactions from the Dutch players.
▸ series of events or actions flurry, series, wave The story hit the headlines, sparking a wave of resignations from the government.
▸ ideas or imagination idea, imagination The story is quite scary, but it might also spark young children's imaginations.

spark N a short feeling or expression of something

● N+of brilliance, creativity, genius, inspiration, life, magic, originality, romance, talent What really harms this book is the lack of any spark of originality.

speak V
to talk to someone about something

● adv+V quietly quietly, softly Leaning toward him, I spoke softly and said, 'Peter – we need to talk about this'.
▸ clearly or loudly aloud, clearly, confidently, loudly, slowly When he spoke, he spoke loudly, his voice echoing like that of a minister.
▸ openly or publicly freely, openly, publicly Staff should encourage complainants to speak openly and freely about their concerns.
▸ honestly candidly, frankly, honestly, plainly Many people think that politicians don't speak plainly and tell the truth.
▸ well or impressively articulately, eloquently, fluently Dr Yusuf spoke very eloquently about the influence Lord Todd had on his career.
▸ with enthusiasm or emotion enthusiastically, passionately She is a slender, affable woman who speaks passionately and articulately about HIV/AIDS.
▸ in a way that shows you know what you are talking about authoritatively, knowledgeably I'm not familiar enough with the constitution to speak authoritatively on this one.
▸ in a way that affects the emotions movingly, powerfully The former prisoners spoke movingly about their years of incarceration.
▸ in a way that shows you like someone fondly, warmly The children speak very warmly of their new Scottish friends.
▸ giving praise or compliments favourably, glowingly, highly All the students we met spoke very highly of the school.

speaker N
someone who gives speeches or lectures

● adj+N impressive charismatic, confident, eloquent, excellent, fluent, inspirational, inspiring, outstanding Martin Luther King was one of the most inspirational speakers in the civil rights movement.
▸ enjoyable to listen to amusing, engaging, interesting, popular She's a very entertaining speaker, and kept everyone amused.
▸ well-known distinguished, eminent, high-profile, prominent, renowned, well-known The conference provides an opportunity to listen to a number of internationally renowned speakers.

species N plants or animals with the same features

● adj+N rare elusive, exotic, rare, scarce, uncommon The area is home to a rare species of tree-frog.
▸ in danger of no longer existing endangered, protected, vulnerable Dormice are an endangered species.
▸ no longer existing extinct Jurassic Park was based on the idea that extinct species could be recreated.
▸ common abundant, common, widespread The yellow-legged gull is common species seen daily all along the coast.
▸ belonging to an area endemic, indigenous, native This species of dragonfly is native to the southeastern US.
▸ from outside an area alien, invasive, non-native Aren't wild horses a non-native species?
▸ distinct different, distinct, separate The classification of this new virus as a distinct species is justified.
▸ main dominant, main, predominant Humanity has become the dominant species on the planet.

specific ADJ relating to only one thing, or very exact

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, really INFORMAL, very I am being very specific in what I say.
- rather fairly, quite, rather, reasonably, relatively Many students were fairly specific about the kind of job and organization they wanted, and were reluctant to apply for other posts.
- too much overly, too Avoid being overly specific when describing an audience's likely characteristics.
- enough enough, sufficiently Was the information sufficiently specific and detailed?
- in location geographically, regionally There are very few goods that can only be sourced from a few geographically-specific locations.
- in a particular way contextually, culturally, functionally, historically, politically We provide culturally specific information for those groups at increased risk of having diabetes.
- actions designed to deal with something initiatives, legislation, measures, proposals, strategy We are now developing specific measures to counter tax evasion.

- ADJ+n needs needs, requirements If you have specific requirements please call us.
- subject or problem area, difficulty, issue, problem, subject, theme, topic Each of the four public events will focus on a specific theme.
- aim or reason aim, focus, goal, objective, purpose, reason, target A best practice is simply a process that represents the most effective way of achieving a specific objective.
- information or advice advice, details, guidance, information, instructions, recommendations Please contact the college for specific advice on your particular situation.
- question or comment comment, enquiry, query, question, request First, look at the website, but if you have more specific questions you can email our helpline.
- situation case, circumstances, conditions, context, situation There is a lack of data on safety in these specific circumstances.
- part or type of something aspect, characteristic, component, element, feature, form, type The course then investigates specific aspects of culture from a maritime perspective.
- example example, instance Referees should be requested to include specific examples of the applicant's good practice.
- time date, period, term, time Term life insurance is only good for a specific period of time.
- job job, junction, responsibility, role, task I started out arguing that a phone only needed to perform a few very specific functions.

specification N
a detailed plan for making or achieving something

- adj+N exact or detailed comprehensive, correct, detailed, exact, precise A good designer will need detailed specifications before they can make anything.
- asked for recommended, required You will therefore need a computer of the recommended specification, together with Internet access.
- complete complete, full Please refer to the catalogue page for full specifications.
- strict exacting, rigorous, strict, stringent, tight The army had strict specifications regarding who could enlist and become soldiers.
- minimum or standard basic, minimum, standard You will require a computer that meets the minimum specification.
- original/new new, original The units will have to be returned to their original specification upon termination of the tenancy.
- technical functional, mechanical, technical Click here to check your technical specification or download the required software

- v+N do what is necessary to fulfil a specification adhere to, comply with, conform to, fulfil, match, meet, satisfy Because all of our products conform to European Community specifications, you can be assured of their quality.
- be better than a specification exceed Our new model exceeds the government's specifications for fuel efficiency.
- change a specification alter, amend, change, improve, refine, revise The tenders came in substantially over budget, so we revised the specification.
- prepare or create a specification develop, devise, draft, draw up, formulate, give, lay down, prepare, produce, set, write In 1979, the Army drafted specifications for a High Mobility Multipurpose Wheeled Vehicle.
- state clearly what a specification is define, describe, detail, establish The report defines the minimum specification for plasma used in televisions.

spectacle N
an unusual, exciting, or impressive event or sight

- adj+N good and exciting amazing, awe-inspiring, awesome, breathtaking, dazzling, glorious, great, magnificent, stunning, thrilling, unforgettable The 1950s Sports-Car Race is always a thrilling spectacle and this year was no exception.
- bad awful, ghastly, grim, gruesome, sad, sickening, sorry They rushed to the bottom of the hill, where a ghastly spectacle met their eyes.
- strange bizarre, strange I wandered over to be greeted by the bizarre spectacle of the Biggles Band.

spectacular ADJ
very impressive or attracting a lot of attention

- adv+ADJ very absolutely, really INFORMAL, simply, truly, utterly, very The scenery was absolutely spectacular.
- rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather The marble columns supporting the domes are conspicuous and rather spectacular.
- to look at visually Spielberg's visually spectacular wartime epic is a testimony to the human will to survive.

- ADJ+n scenery backdrop, landscape, location, panorama, scenery, setting, sight, surroundings, view, vista There are several marked paths for hiking through spectacular scenery.
- something you watch display, peformance, production, show Several boats entered the illuminated parade on the Sunday night, making a spectacular display.
- accident accident, crash, explosion The guns don't get louder or explosions more spectacular than in this film.

- ▸ action in sport goal, kick, shot, volley Parkhouse brought the ball down on his chest and fired a spectacular volley beyond Paul Murphy.
- ▸ success/failure achievement, collapse, failure, success, victory Our research innovations have achieved spectacular success.
- ▸ way something happens or is done fashion, manner, way The entertainment kicked off in spectacular fashion, with a wonderful display of fireworks.

spectre N
the possibility that something unpleasant might happen

- adj+N awful, grim, haunting, looming, terrifying Once again, the haunting spectre of mass unemployment threatened to destabilize the government.
- N+of death, famine, global warming, invasion, revolution, starvation, terrorism, unemployment, war The spectre of terrorism hangs over us all, as we are constantly reminded.

spectrum N a whole range of possible ideas, qualities, or subjects

- adj+N large broad, diverse, huge, vast, wide The choir performs a broad spectrum of music.
- ▸ whole complete, entire, full, whole This journal covers the entire spectrum of physiology, including human physiology.
- ▸ types of spectrum cultural, economic, educational, emotional, musical, political, religious, social, theological Academics and politicians from across the political spectrum signed the statement of principles.
- v+N include a spectrum comprise, cover, embrace, encompass, incorporate, range across, represent, span Her caseload covers the whole spectrum of family law.
- ▸ widen a spectrum broaden, widen The loan will allow them to broaden the spectrum of products on offer to their existing and new clients.
- N+of activities, disciplines, emotions, experiences, interests, issues, opinion, people, possibilities, topics You need the full spectrum of emotions to experience what it is to be human.

speculate V
consider or discuss why something has happened or what might happen

- adv+V without any purpose or control idly, wildly Newspapers were speculating wildly about who this mysterious woman was.
- ▸ only merely, only As to why this is so, we can at present only speculate.
- ▸ by many people widely It is widely speculated that a second pipeline will be built.
- V+about/on cause, future, nature, origin, possibility, reason It is not our place to speculate on the causes of such a change. ◆ Almost exactly 500 years ago, Leonardo da Vinci speculated about the possibility of flying machines.

speculation N
1 discussion about why something has happened or what might happen

- adj+N only or complete mere, pure This is pure speculation, however.
- ▸ great in amount or degree considerable, constant, intense, much, widespread There was much speculation over the fate of the two men.
- ▸ increasing growing, increasing, mounting Flynn has admitted he is itching to get back into football amid mounting speculation that he is about to be unveiled as the new City manager.
- ▸ seeming to have no end endless There has been endless speculation as to her whereabouts.
- ▸ recent recent In response to recent speculation, I would like to make it clear that I am not resigning.
- ▸ not accurate wild His departure has led to wild speculation regarding the identity of his replacement.
- ▸ without real purpose idle I won't bore you with idle speculation.
- ▸ that has a basis in fact informed The job of the historian is to provide informed speculation about the past based on the available evidence.
- n+N media, press I am sure there will be a great deal of media speculation about what happens next.
- v+N cause or increase speculation encourage, fuel, give rise to, increase, invite, lead to, prompt, provoke, spark Todd was appointed as manager within days, fuelling speculation that a deal had already been done.
- ▸ say that speculation is not true deny, dismiss, quash He once again dismissed speculation about his leadership.
- ▸ end speculation end, put an end to Davies has ended all speculation surrounding his future by signing a new contract with the club.
- ▸ take part in speculation indulge in I would simply warn people against indulging in speculation.
- N+v when there is a lot of speculation abound, be rife Press speculation was rife that a compromise would be found.

You can use surrounding or regarding to say what speculation is about: There was widespread speculation regarding the manager's future at the club.

- ▸ increase grow, mount Speculation is mounting that they are planning to get married.
- ▸ be connected with something surround Speculation still surrounds the player's future.
- ▸ say that two things are related link Burley has dismissed speculation linking him with the vacant Scotland manager's job.
- ▸ suggest suggest Recent press speculation has suggested that many local authorities are proposing cuts in their public library services.
- n+of+N flurry, frenzy, matter, subject This week has seen a flurry of speculation as to the future of the company. ◆ His personal history is still a matter of speculation.
- and/or conjecture, controversy, debate, gossip, rumour Monday's revelation brought to an end a whirlwind of rumour and speculation that had engulfed the club.

2 buying and selling to make a large profit

- adj+N financial Massive financial speculation on oil markets has added at least $15 a barrel to crude.
- n+N currency, land, market, property Steer clear of property speculation unless you know what you're doing.

speech N

a formal occasion when someone speaks to an audience

- adj+N short brief, short After the unveiling of the plaque and a short speech by HRH Princess Anne, afternoon tea was served.
- long long As promised, this is not going to be a long speech.
- full of emotion emotional, impassioned, passionate, powerful, rousing Janet gave an impassioned speech which might have swayed some of the committee members.
- clear and effective eloquent He delivered a very able and eloquent speech which was loudly cheered.
- entertaining entertaining She made an entertaining speech about Vikings.
- done for the first time inaugural, maiden Ten years ago this month, I made my maiden speech to the House of Commons.
- at the beginning/end of something closing, opening The ceremony will end with a closing speech and the playing of the national anthem.
- n+N most important or main keynote He was invited to give the keynote speech at America's biggest media conference.
- on a particular occasion or for a particular purpose acceptance, after-dinner, budget, conference, farewell, resignation, wedding Here is a full transcript of her Nobel Prize acceptance speech.
- v+N make a speech deliver, give, make He toured Britain, giving speeches on parliamentary reform.
- end a speech conclude, end, finish Before concluding my speech, I want to say a little about exam results.
- write a speech prepare, write Joe had been writing his speech on his place card through the meal.
- read a speech read To read the speech in full, click here.
- when a speech contains something punctuate with He punctuated his speech with references to his family.

speed N

the rate at which someone or something moves, works, or happens

- adj+N fast breakneck, fast, great, high, incredible, supersonic INFORMAL, tremendous Lava flows can move at very high speeds.
- fastest possible full, maximum, top The car has a top speed of 165mph.
- faster than sound supersonic At one time, supersonic speed seemed to be the future of air travel.
- slow low, slow Reduced road widths will encourage slower speeds through the junction.
- average or normal average, normal During a three-minute journey, 1.24km was covered at an average speed of 25km/h.
- not changing constant Using cruise control on highway trips can help you maintain a constant speed.
- too fast excessive A third of motorcycle deaths are caused by excessive speed.
- at which something is done cruising, operating, running, typing Overall, they were satisfied with the program's operating speed.
- n+N broadband, connection, download, traffic, wind Customers are invited to have their broadband speed upgraded.
- v+N increase speed gain, gather, increase, pick up The train began to pick up speed.
- reduce speed cut, reduce, slow Vehicle-activated signs appear to be very effective in reducing speeds.
- reach a particular speed achieve, attain, reach The cheetah can reach speeds of over 60 mph.
- keep a particular speed maintain It takes less energy to maintain your speed than it does to build it back after it is lost.
- change, control, or measure speed adjust, calculate, change, control, improve, measure, set, vary Sensors measure the speed of approaching vehicles.
- v+at+N drive, fly, move, run, travel, work These roads carry small amounts of motor traffic travelling at low speeds.

speeding N

the offence of driving a vehicle faster than is allowed

- v+N be booked for, be caught, be caught for, be done for INFORMAL, be fined for, be pulled over for, be stopped for Around 10 per cent of drivers caught speeding were prosecuted. ◈ Have you been stopped for speeding in the last year?
- N+n conviction, fine, offence, ticket Drivers caught for minor speeding offences may be sent on a speed awareness course.

speed limit N

the fastest speed allowed for vehicles in an area

- v+N go faster than the speed limit break, exceed The Highways Agency says people breaking the speed limit represent the biggest danger.
- obey the speed limit keep to, keep within, observe, stick to Please observe the 5mph speed limit on all roads on the College site.
- make sure the speed limit is obeyed enforce Police have said they will rigorously enforce the speed limit.
- reduce/increase the speed limit lower, raise, reduce The Head has suggested lowering the speed limit outside the school.

spell V

show something bad is going to happen

- V+n danger, death, disaster, doom, end, misery, trouble The potential financial losses from accidents at work can spell disaster for many small firms.

spell N

a period of time

- adj+N short brief, short She dominated the match, apart from a brief spell at the start of the second set.
- long lengthy, long, prolonged We can expect a prolonged spell of wet weather across the county.

▸ length of time five-minute, three-month, two-year etc United bounced back with two goals in a ten-minute spell.
▸ weather cold, dry, hot, mild, sunny, warm, wet I hope the current cold spell doesn't go on too long.
▸ with no success barren, lean Every team goes through a lean spell during the season.

• v+N enjoy, go through, have, spend The area enjoyed a brief spell of prosperity during the 19th century.

• N+as chairman, coach, editor, manager He remained on the board, having a brief spell as chairman.

• N+in army, hospital, jail, prison, rehab I had a long spell in hospital with an eye problem.

• N+of weather rain, sunshine, weather We have taken advantage of a spell of good weather to get the roof repaired.
▸ pressure pressure There followed a spell of pressure from the home side.

spelling N
the ability to spell, or how well someone spells

• adj+N bad, poor Students will be penalized for poor spelling.

You can also say that someone is good or bad at spelling: My brother is very good at spelling.

• v+N check, correct, improve Chloe has made a big effort to improve her spelling.

• N+n mistake error, mistake It is a well-written essay, apart from the odd spelling mistake.
▸ test test She always does well in spelling tests.

spend V
use money to pay for things

• adv+V in a sensible way wisely What money there is available needs to be spent wisely.

You can also talk about money well spent: A good pair of walking boots are not cheap, but it is money well spent.

▸ in large amounts freely, heavily The company spends heavily on marketing and promotion.

• V+n amount, fortune, a lot, money, sum It is up to you how you spend your money.

spending N
money that is spent, especially by a government or large organization

• adj+N by the government public Taxes are essential for public spending.
▸ total overall, total The table shows total spending on education.
▸ high/low high, low Labour has pledged higher spending to extend out-of-hours schooling.
▸ extra additional, extra, increased The additional health spending announced in the Budget gives a real opportunity to make successful changes.
▸ each year annual Its marketing budget is four times greater than the UN's annual spending on combating child poverty.
▸ on particular activities military, social This represents a massive increase in US military spending.

• n+N by the government government, state There is no simple relationship between Government spending and economic success.
▸ on particular activities aid, defence, education, health, social security, transport, welfare Overall, defence spending in the EU is still falling.
▸ on equipment and buildings capital The competition for public capital spending is fierce.

• v+N increase spending boost, increase, raise The government has chosen to boost spending on health and education.
▸ reduce spending cut, cut back on, reduce, slash INFORMAL Party leaders confirmed their plan to cut public spending by £80 billion to 35 per cent of GDP.
▸ control spending cap, control One of the Treasury's most important jobs is to control public spending.
▸ provide money for spending finance, fund The Government would have to finance any extra spending that would be required.

• N+v increase increase, rise Government spending has risen from 19 per cent to 31 per cent of GDP.
▸ become less fall Health spending has fallen over the last three years.

• n+in+N cut, growth, increase, reduction, rise, slowdown The government has announced a massive increase in spending on roads and motorways.

sphere N
a particular area of interest, activity, or work; a particular part of society

• adj+N public/private private, public All forms of violence, she says, whether perpetrated in the public or private sphere, are a violation of human rights.
▸ particular area or activity cultural, domestic, economic, international, political, social UNICEF places itself explicitly outside the political sphere. • The book is about two girls from very different social spheres.

• N+of activity, competence, control, influence, interest, knowledge, life, responsibility, work She argued that the family should be outside the state's sphere of influence. • In Ireland, the Church wielded tremendous influence in all spheres of life.

spin N INFORMAL
a way of presenting information, especially to make something seem good or less bad

• adj+N positive/negative negative, positive There is a way to put a positive spin on these figures.
▸ new or different different, fresh, new, sb's own, unique The only interesting remakes are those that put a new spin on a fairly pedestrian first-time effort. • She has taken traditional stories, and put her own spin on them.
▸ in politics government, political Is there too much political spin?
▸ modern contemporary, modern Yet the story has been given a contemporary spin by the writers.

• v+N give (sth), put The company was eager to put its own spin on things.

- and/or hype, propaganda, rhetoric, substance The presentation was all spin and no substance.

spirit N

1 your attitude to life or to other people, or the attitude of people in a group

- adj+N human human This is a courageous tale of the strength of the human spirit and the power of love.
- ▸ trying or doing new things adventurous, creative, entrepreneurial, pioneering, restless The judges were looking for work that showed an adventurous spirit.
- ▸ determined and difficult to defeat competitive, fighting, indomitable The team is well known for its fighting spirit.
- ▸ independent independent She appreciated her cat's independent spirit.
- ▸ strong strong The village has a very strong community spirit.
- ▸ good or right excellent, generous, good, great, right The game was played in the right spirit, highly competitive and very entertaining.
- n+N community, team There is strong community spirit here and local people are justly proud of their local hospital.
- v+N express the spirit of something capture, convey, embody, epitomize, evoke In his novel, he captures the spirit of the period brilliantly.
- ▸ create a particular spirit bring, engender, foster The new development brought a spirit of pride to the community.

If you enter into the spirit of something, you take part in something with enthusiasm: We all entered into the spirit of things and got dressed up in fancy dress.

- N+of adventure, cooperation, enquiry, enterprise, openness Progress is best achieved through working together in a spirit of cooperation.

2 your mood or your attitude [always plural]

- adj+N excellent, good, great, high I found the children in high spirits.
- v+N improve someone's spirits keep up, lift, raise, revive There is nothing like a bit of sun in the gloomy depths of winter to lift your spirits and cheer you up.
- ▸ make someone's spirits worse dampen Even a night in the rain hadn't dampened their spirits.

spite N

a feeling of wanting to upset someone

- adj+N pure, sheer Out of sheer spite, I almost stayed away.
- and/or anger, envy, hate, jealousy, malice The game was so full of spite and malice that it did no credit to either team.

split N

a division of a large group into smaller groups because of a disagreement

- adj+N serious or large in degree clear, deep, major, serious It is clear that there was a deep split between the two groups.
- ▸ unpleasant acrimonious, damaging The pair haven't spoken since their acrimonious split in 1994.
- v+N cause a split cause, create, lead to, provoke Peel's decision caused a split in the Conservative party.
- ▸ avoid a split avoid The party leaders fought to bring their members along with them and to avoid a split at all costs.
- N+v emerge, occur He judged that a damaging split had emerged between the President and his secretary of State.

spoil V

make something worse, or less attractive

- adv+V completely or very much completely, really The dreadful restaurant completely spoilt what should have been a fantastic evening.
- ▸ rather rather, slightly, somewhat It is a fine story, slightly spoiled by the ending.
- V+n something enjoyable enjoyment, fun, surprise I don't want to be more specific about the plot or it will spoil the surprise.
- ▸ how something looks appearance, look, view These masts are an eyesore and spoil the view.
- ▸ group activity game, party The wind was doing its best to spoil the game.
- ▸ story plot, story Please don't read on if this will spoil the story for you.
- ▸ situation everything, things The evening seemed to be going well, until Bob managed to spoil things.

sponsor N

a business that supports an event or activity by giving money

- adj+N main main, major, principal The brewery is our main sponsor.
- ▸ official official The promotion gave the misleading impression that the newspaper was an official sponsor of the competition.
- ▸ generous generous A big thank you again to our very generous sponsors.
- ▸ possible potential We have been in negotiations with a number of potential sponsors for next season.
- ▸ involved in business commercial, corporate, industrial, private These activities are supported by a wide range of commercial sponsors and funding agencies. ◉ Should private sponsors be allowed to help fund state schools?
- v+N get a sponsor attract, find, get The event has attracted several sponsors.
- ▸ try to get a sponsor look for, need, seek The Club is seeking sponsors for its Charity Golf Day.
- ▸ thank a sponsor thank We would like to thank the many generous sponsors who have supported the team this year.
- ▸ be a sponsor act as, be, become Why not get a local business to act as sponsor?

sponsorship N

money given to help pay for an event or activity; the fact of an organization giving money

- adj+N generous generous The competition could not have taken place without the generous sponsorship of the following businesses and organizations.

▸ from businesses commercial, corporate, private Her job is to raise funds from individual donations and corporate sponsorship. ◉ The museum had to raise private sponsorship in order to stage the exhibition.

• n+N activity supported arts, sports We are considering our involvement in sports sponsorship for 2011.

▸ source of money business, tobacco With the end of tobacco sponsorship looming, a new sponsor had to be found.

• v+N get sponsorship attract, gain, get, obtain, raise, receive, secure What is the best means of securing industrial sponsorship for an academic research programme?

▸ try to get sponsorship appeal for, apply for, ask for, look for, seek We are actively seeking sponsorship for next year's competition.

▸ provide sponsorship offer, provide The School is very grateful for the sponsorship provided by a number of public organizations and private individuals.

• N+n arrangement agreement, arrangement, deal, package, programme, scheme The team has just landed a three-year sponsorship deal worth a four-figure sum per year.

▸ opportunities opportunities Your company can benefit from a wide range of sponsorship opportunities at Southampton Football Club.

▸ money money I am a rugby fan and happy to put sponsorship money into the club.

sport N activity involving physical effort in which people compete against each other

• v+N be involved in, compete in, do, participate in, play, pursue Almost a quarter of pupils are doing sport in local clubs. ◉ Playing sport can provide young people with a broad range of social skills. ◉ At the centre, you can pursue your favourite sports, on land or on the water.

spot N

the particular place where someone or something is

• adj+N very good or suitable good, ideal, perfect, right, suitable The Abbey lies in a picturesque valley by a stream and is an ideal spot for a picnic on a sunny day.

▸ pleasant beautiful, idyllic, lovely, nice, pleasant, sunny In the end, we found a lovely mooring spot and tied up for the night.

▸ sheltered from bad weather or hot sun shady, sheltered The garden lies in a nice sheltered spot.

▸ peaceful peaceful, quiet, secluded We parked the car in a secluded spot.

▸ favourite favourite, popular This is one of France's most popular tourist spots.

▸ far away remote In this remote spot there was no prospect of a speedy rescue.

▸ exact, or exactly the same exact, particular, same, very Just ten minutes previously, she had been standing in the exact spot where the lightning struck.

• n+N beauty, parking, picnic, tourist, trouble Dovedale is one of the most popular beauty spots in the UK.

• v+N show the position of a spot mark, point to He stuck a spade in the snow to mark the spot.

▸ find a spot find, pick We headed off to find a good spot to film from.

▸ reach a spot reach She reached a spot about twenty feet from the edge of the beach.

▸ be in a particular spot occupy The current church opened in 1969, although a Baptist church has occupied the same spot since 1671.

▸ be unable to move from a spot be rooted to I stood, rooted to the spot for a long time.

spot V

notice someone or something

• V+n mistake error, mistake, typo Please let us know if you spot a mistake in one of the listings.

▸ opportunity gap in the market, opportunity She's an excellent businesswoman, who can always spot a gap in the market.

▸ what someone is capable of potential, talent His artistic talent was spotted early on.

▸ sign pattern, sign, trend Her job involved spotting new fashion trends and writing about them for the magazine.

▸ difference/similarity difference, similarity Can you spot the difference between these two accounts?

▸ space, or something missing gap He spotted a gap in the defence and cruised through to score.

spotlight N

the situation when someone or something gets a lot of public attention

• adj+N from a lot of people international, national, public We try to protect the interests of people who are thrust into the public spotlight.

▸ in politics political These issues are very much under the political spotlight at the moment.

▸ unpleasant harsh The government's tax policies have recently come under a harsh spotlight.

• n+N media The couple are sick of living in the constant media spotlight.

• v+N put the spotlight on someone focus, put, shine, throw, turn Once again the spotlight has been thrown on the industry and its failings.

▸ experience the spotlight be put under, be thrust into, come under The party's spending plans have recently been put under the spotlight.

▸ share the spotlight share She was reluctant to let her co-stars share the spotlight with her.

• N+v fall on, shine on, turn to/on The media spotlight fell on so-called 'failing' schools again.

spread V

affect a larger area or a larger number of people

• adv+V quickly fast, quickly, rapidly, soon The campaign quickly spread to other European countries.

You can also say that something spreads like wildfire: Mass protests spread like wildfire across the country.

- ▸ slowly gradually, slowly The habit gradually spread to all sections of society.
- ▸ over a large area far, widely No one believes the infection will spread very far.

You can also say that something spreads far and wide: Her influence has spread far and wide.

- ▸ easily easily The virus can spread easily from one person to another.

- • V+n information awareness, message, news, rumour, the word Somebody is spreading rumours about you. ◉ Posters helped spread the word about the campaign.
- ▸ disease disease, infection, virus The infection is spread by contaminated water.
- ▸ a good way of doing things good practice Our aim is to spread good practice across all our schools.

- • n+V disease cancer, disease, epidemic, infection, virus It is not yet entirely clear how the disease is spreading.
- ▸ information news, rumour, the word The news spread quickly, and soon the concerts were sold out.
- ▸ fire fire, flames The quick thinking of the fire brigade prevented the fire spreading to adjoining buildings.
- ▸ being famous fame Her fame spread far and wide.

spread N

when something grows and affects a larger area or a larger number of people

- • adj+N fast rapid The rapid spread of HIV/AIDS in the country is a growing problem for the government.
- ▸ across the world global, worldwide What factors have contributed to the worldwide spread of English over the past century?
- ▸ not controlled uncontrolled We are concerned about the uncontrolled spread of small arms and light weapons.

- • v+N stop the spread of something halt, prevent, stop Handwashing is a vital part of routine practice on the ward to prevent the spread of infection.
- ▸ reduce or control the spread of something combat, control, curb, limit, reduce, slow Travel restrictions have been imposed to control the spread of the disease.
- ▸ cause or help the spread of something contribute to, encourage, facilitate, increase, lead to Straying livestock may have contributed to the spread of the disease.

- • N+of disease disease, infection, virus All steps are being taken to minimize the spread of infection.
- ▸ fire fire It is important to keep fire doors closed to prevent the spread of fire.
- ▸ weapons or technology technology, weapons The treaty is designed to stop the spread of nuclear weapons.

spree N

a short period spent doing something enjoyable

- • n+N buying things buying, shopping, spending After lunch, we went on a spending spree in the garden centre.
- ▸ committing crime crime, killing, murder She was arrested after a year-long killing spree that ended with seven men murdered.
- ▸ drinking drinking His response to the news was to go out on a drinking spree on his own.

- • v+N go on They went on a shopping spree at the Frieze Art Fair.

spring N

the season between winter and summer

- • adj+N early, last, late, next It was a great way to spend a bright afternoon in early spring.

- • N+n weather conditions rain, sunshine, weather We sat outside to enjoy the spring sunshine.
- ▸ time break, day, equinox, morning, season, semester, term Those warm spring days still seem far away. ◉ The Society holds its AGM during the spring term of every academic year.

squabble N an argument about something that is not important

- • adj+N not important minor, petty This is a time for them to act together and forget their petty squabbles.
- ▸ within a particular group or country domestic, family, internal She has called on members of the parliamentary group to settle their internal squabbles.
- ▸ in politics political Political squabbles between the two factions have placed the entire framework of the plan in jeopardy.

- • v+N resolve, settle It could be that there are old family squabbles that need to be resolved.

squalor N

dirty and unpleasant conditions

- • adj+N in towns etc public, urban Cholera is a disease associated with urban squalor and extreme poverty.
- ▸ very bad appalling, indescribable, unimaginable They lived and worked in the slums, in conditions of appalling squalor.

- • and/or depradation, deprivation, dirt, disease, filth, misery, poverty He seemed content to live in filth and squalor.

squeeze V

1 press something firmly, especially with your hands

- • adv+V gently gently, lightly His finger gently squeezed the trigger.
- ▸ tightly hard, tightly She squeezed my hand so tightly I yelled in pain.
- ▸ recently freshly I usually have a glass of freshly squeezed orange juice.

Usage Squeeze is always passive in this combination.

2 when someone or something limits the supply of money

- • V+n money budget, margins, profits, revenues Cheap imports have caused the prices of locally produced rice to plummet, squeezing the profits of local producers.

- ▸ people suppliers Major supermarkets squeeze suppliers to maximize profits.

squeeze N [always singular] strict control over money or goods

- adj+N financial The financial squeeze has hit staff hard, with job cuts across the sector.
- n+N cash, credit, funding, profit, spending The government's response was to tighten the credit squeeze, which sent large parts of the economy into full-blown recession.
- v+N face, feel Most big stores are feeling the squeeze right now.

stab V kill or hurt someone using a sharp object

- adv+V accidentally, brutally, fatally, repeatedly One of the men was fatally stabbed in neck.
- V+in chest, neck, stomach The police officer was stabbed in the chest and died soon afterwards.

stability N
a situation with no unexpected or harmful changes

- adj+N financial economic, financial, monetary, price Wales has enjoyed a period of economic stability not experienced for more than 30 years.
- ▸ political or social political, social In times of political stability and strong economic growth, such matters are easily forgotten.
- ▸ affecting a region global, regional Lack of water is set to be the biggest threat to global stability in coming decades.
- ▸ more greater, increased Here is an agreement which can deliver industrial peace, fair wages, and greater price stability.
- ▸ compared to something else relative There was a widespread sense of crisis after the relative stability of earlier decades.
- ▸ as a whole overall Ministers are committed to maintaining overall economic stability.
- ▸ over a long period long-term What is required is a fiscal framework that provides long-term stability.
- v+N bring stability achieve, bring, create, deliver, ensure, provide A core function of government is to ensure economic stability.
- ▸ bring stability back restore We've taken steps as a government to restore stability to the economy.
- ▸ keep stability maintain The country has a huge interest in helping to maintain regional stability.
- ▸ increase stability contribute to, enhance, improve, increase, promote Reducing the violence and enhancing political stability should be the first priorities of the new government.
- ▸ harm stability threaten, undermine There is concern that the demonstrations could threaten stability in this volatile region.
- n+of+N degree, lack, measure, period The elections brought a measure of stability to the area. ◉ What is needed now in education is a period of stability, with no new initiatives to deal with.

stable ADJ
not changing or becoming worse

- adv+ADJ unusually or surprisingly amazingly, exceptionally, extremely, incredibly, remarkably, unusually Levels of customer satisfaction remain remarkably stable from one area to another.
- ▸ fairly broadly, comparatively, fairly, pretty INFORMAL, reasonably, relatively, sufficiently The total number of Poles in the UK is now fairly stable.
- ▸ in a particular way clinically, economically, emotionally, environmentally, financially, medically, politically If you wish to fly in late pregnancy, you must have a letter from your doctor certifying you are medically stable.
- ▸ apparently apparently These were apparently stable people with no history of violence.
- ADJ+n rate or value currency, funding, income, inflation, population, price Inflation is falling and the local currency becoming more stable.
- ▸ condition condition, state She is in a stable condition but she remains in hospital.
- ▸ economic situation economy, growth, market Business needs a strong, stable economy as the basis for innovation and investment.
- ▸ country or political situation community, country, democracy, government, regime, society In order to join, they have had to demonstrate they are a stable democracy.
- ▸ situation environment, situation They were attempting to establish a stable political environment in which democracy could flourish.
- ▸ relationship relationship The Government is committed to supporting marriage and stable relationships.
- v+ADJ be or become stable be, become, prove There was less turnover of population, communities were becoming more stable.
- ▸ remain stable be kept, remain, stay The price is expected to stay stable for most of the coming weeks.
- ▸ seem stable appear, seem Things at the club seem relatively stable at present.
- and/or strong durable, enduring, resilient, robust, solid, strong, sturdy The new version of the software is more robust and stable.
- ▸ staying the same steady, unchanging The world is not and has never been a stable, unchanging place.
- ▸ possible to predict predictable, reliable To his credit, he has delivered a stable, predictable economy.
- ▸ safe safe, secure Children thrive in a stable, secure and loving environment.
- ▸ well organized efficient, orderly Liberty and enterprise can only flourish in stable, orderly and strong communities.

staff N employees of a particular company or institution

- adj+N with a lot of skill or knowledge aware, competent, experienced, high-calibre, knowledgeable, professional, qualified, skilled, trained There may be opportunities for experienced staff to work overseas.
- ▸ hard-working attentive, committed, dedicated, enthusiastic, motivated, responsible Our team of dedicated staff are experts in arranging the perfect holiday for you.

- pleasant friendly, happy, helpful The staff were very friendly and cooperative.
- important key Offering flexible working can play a vital role in retaining key staff.
- additional additional, extra The NHS will not be able to take on as many additional staff as planned.
- senior/junior junior, senior Bids will be adjudicated by a panel of senior staff.
- working full-time/part-time full-time, part-time There was now a full-time staff of twenty auditors.
- temporary/permanent permanent, temporary The organization spends millions every year on temporary staff.
- types of staff academic, administrative, ancillary, clerical, clinical, departmental, editorial, secretarial, technical The theatre employs 60 backstage and administrative staff.

• v+N employ staff appoint, employ, hire, recruit, take on The agency employs around 20,000 staff at 80 locations.
- train staff train There have been difficulties in recruiting and training staff.
- keep staff attract, retain Firms have invested more in retaining their staff.
- encourage staff empower, enable, encourage, motivate, reward Motivate staff through involvement in the local community.
- join a staff join He left the Dover Express to join the editorial staff of the Deal Mercury.

• N+n of or involving staff absence, appointment, appraisal, development, expertise, induction, involvement, meeting, productivity, recruitment, retention, rota, shortage, supervision, survey, training, turnover, vacancy The complex is occasionally closed for staff training sessions. ◉ Retail has a bad reputation as a sector with poor career prospects and high staff turnover.
- for the use or benefit of staff canteen, discount, handbook, newsletter, pay, salary We offer facilities such as free parking and a staff canteen.
- part of the staff member, officer, representative Among those taking part in the course are senior staff members from engineering firms.
- attitude attitude, awareness, morale, motivation, satisfaction This has helped to keep absenteeism levels low and staff morale high.

stage N

a particular point in a process or event

• adj+N early beginning, developmental, early, initial, opening, preliminary, qualifying The training programme is still in the early stages.
- very early or undeveloped design, embryonic, experimental, formative, immature, larval, planning, preparatory, primitive, prototype A collaboration with the University of Sydney is currently at an embryonic stage.
- late or advanced advanced, closing, final, last, late, latter, mature, penultimate, terminal Clearly, their sole purpose in offering concessions at this late stage was to secure victory.
- middle halfway, interim, intermediate, middle, midway, transitional It is a halfway stage in the evolution of reptiles into birds.
- important critical, crucial, exciting, important, key, main, necessary, vital The basic framework of the lesson can be divided into three main stages.
- serious acute My illness was going through an acute stage at the time.
- particular certain, defined, distinct, particular There are three distinct stages to the job evaluation process.
- in a particular place in the sequence further, next, previous, subsequent, successive, first, second, third etc The next stage is to send us payment. ◉ In the fourth stage, your retina sends signals to your body asking for more oxygen.
- current current, present At the present stage of the project we have seen only a few employers.
- various different, various The documentary charts the evolution of the sport through its various stages of development.

• v+N reach a stage attain, enter, hit, reach Electric generators did not reach a stage when they could power indoor lighting until the late 1870s.
- begin a stage begin, initiate, undertake The company has been chosen to undertake the first stage of the refurbishment.
- come near to reaching a stage approach, near Repairs were approaching the midway stage.
- finish a stage complete, conclude, finish, pass Those who complete this stage are then offered a full membership.
- experience stages follow, go through, pass through, undergo Until last year, junior doctors underwent three stages of training.
- represent a stage characterise, constitute, form, mark, represent The land reclamation works form the first stage of the redevelopment scheme. ◉ Her appointment as High Commissioner marks an exciting new stage in her illustrious career.
- include stages comprise, involve The process comprises successive stages which allow for consultation and debate.
- miss a stage bypass, omit, skip They skipped the stage of learning to type, and began talking to their machines instead.
- describe the stages of something define, describe, document, explain, identify, outline This section outlines the main stages in extradition requests made to the UK.

• N+of process career, cycle, development, evolution, growth, life, lifecycle, procedure, proceedings, process It is a problem that can affect anyone, at any stage of their career.
- undertaking investigation, journey, negotiation, plan, planning, project Several new construction projects are in the final stages of negotiation.
- medical condition disease, illness, infection, labour, pregnancy The symptoms are associated with advanced stages of the disease.

staggering ADJ

extremely surprising

• adv+ADJ absolutely, frankly, quite, simply, truly They have won the series a frankly staggering twenty-two times.

• ADJ+n achievement achievement, feat Even people who could barely read and write seemed capable of staggering feats of memory.
- amount or number amount, array, proportion, statistic, sum, total, volume The cycling team added two more medals to an already staggering total.

▸ quality beauty, coincidence, complexity, disparity Tanzania is a land of staggering scenic beauty.
▸ bad quality hypocrisy, ignorance, incompetence Someone should be held to account for the staggering incompetence of the government.

stagnation N a situation in which there is no progress, development, or economic growth

• adj+N lasting for a long time continued, prolonged There was a pattern of temporary surge followed by prolonged stagnation.
▸ types of stagnation cultural, economic, intellectual, political In the mid-1980s, Europe was gripped by economic stagnation.

stain N
a mark left accidentally on clothes or surfaces

• adj+N ugly dark, nasty, ugly, unsightly Avoid hair lotions coming into contact with the leather, as they can leave unsightly stains.
▸ slight faint The fine sea spray had left faint salt stains on his shoes.
▸ greasy greasy, oily Blu-tac can leave greasy stains on walls.
▸ hard to remove stubborn Stubborn stains can be removed using baking soda and vinegar.

• v+N cause stains cause, leave Stains caused by sticky tape are often impossible to remove.
▸ remove stains absorb, clean, loosen, remove, tackle, treat, wash, wipe Rub pieces of fresh lemon on your teeth to remove the stains. ● Good tip – wipe salt stains with diluted vinegar.
▸ avoid stains avoid, prevent, repel This product adds a protective layer that repels stains.
▸ hide stains hide She owns mostly dark clothes to hide stains.

stairs N
a set of steps between floors of a building

• adj+N unsafe or difficult to climb creaky, narrow, precipitous, rickety, slippery, steep, uneven, winding We were led up some rickety stairs to her studio. ● The stairs were steep and there was no elevator.
▸ made or decorated in a particular way carpeted, concrete, painted, polished, uncarpeted, wooden They walked in and up the concrete stairs.
▸ inside/outside a building external, internal, outside I saw the residents of the house leaving by the outside stairs.
▸ shared communal He saw her bag at the bottom of their communal stairs.

• v+N go up stairs ascend, climb, go up, mount, walk up By the time he was 74, it was getting difficult for him to climb stairs.
▸ go down stairs come down, descend, go down, walk down As I descended the stairs of the hotel, a taxi drew up.
▸ use stairs take, use Taking the stairs instead of the lift can make a positive difference.
▸ manage stairs manage, negotiate Friends helped her to buy a specially-designed wheelchair which can negotiate stairs.

stake N part of a business that someone owns

• adj+N majority/minority controlling, majority, minority Bates invested around £10 million, giving him a 50 per cent controlling stake.
▸ large significant, sizeable, substantial He has a sizeable financial stake in the biotechnology industry.
▸ types of stake financial, strategic If necessary the government will acquire a strategic stake in the company.

• v+N own a stake have, hold, own, retain BAA already owned a majority stake in Naples airport.
▸ buy a stake acquire, buy, gain, purchase, secure, take They were determined to prevent foreign buyers acquiring a controlling stake in the company.
▸ sell your stake offload, sell It has sold its 11.7 per cent stake in Australia's Seven Network for $87m.
▸ increase your stake increase Centrica made a further move to increase its stake in North Sea gas production.
▸ reduce your stake reduce Branson is planning to reduce his stake in the company through a public share offering.

• N+in bank, business, company, enterprise, firm, retailer, venture The fund also owns a substantial stake in fashion retailer French Connection.

stalemate N
a situation in which progress or agreement is impossible

• adj+N hard to end complete, continued, intractable, long-standing He was worried about the continued political stalemate in Northern Ireland.
▸ uncomfortable tense, uneasy There followed an uneasy stalemate in which the violence temporarily stopped.
▸ current current We will consider any measures to overcome the current stalemate.
▸ of a particular type military, nuclear, political The US was caught in a military stalemate in Iraq.

• v+N reach stalemate reach Casualties mounted on both sides as the situation reached stalemate.
▸ end a stalemate break, end, overcome, resolve One session of couples therapy can be enough to break the stalemate.

stall V
stop making progress

• n+V economy, investigation, negotiations, progress, recovery, reform, talks The latest information is that, for the time being, those negotiations have stalled.

stamina N
the ability to work hard without getting tired

• adj+N great amazing, considerable, extraordinary, immense, incredible, sheer, superior, tremendous His incredible stamina saw him through the 1500m and 5000m races.
▸ enough enough, sufficient He wondered if some of them had sufficient stamina to complete the journey.
▸ types of stamina emotional, mental, physical, vocal Physical stamina is a necessity because the hours are long and the pressure hard.

- v+N have or show stamina demonstrate, display, have, possess, regain, show He also showed great stamina to come third in the 3000m.
- ▸ lack stamina lack They often lack the stamina to deal with the mundane work.
- ▸ increase stamina boost, build, develop, enhance, improve, increase, restore Walking can improve stamina and increase energy levels.
- ▸ decrease stamina reduce, sap The sticky mud slowed the players down and sapped their stamina.
- ▸ require stamina demand, need, require, test It was a gruelling experience for the actors, requiring stamina and physical discipline.
- ▸ admire someone's stamina admire One has to admire the sheer stamina of the dancers.

- and/or strength courage, endurance, fitness, fortitude, resilience, strength, toughness, vitality This food will most certainly give you strength and stamina for shopping!
- ▸ determination determination, patience, perseverance, persistence, resolve, tenacity To become a surgeon, I think one needs stamina and tenacity.
- ▸ other physical quality agility, alertness, coordination, dexterity, flexibility, speed, suppleness Swimming is good all-round exercise, boosting strength, stamina and suppleness.

stamp out PHR VB

end something bad by strong and determined action

- V+n abuse, bullying, corruption, discrimination, fraud, poverty, prejudice, racism, terrorism, violence More measures are needed to stamp out election fraud.

stance N

an attitude that you state clearly

- adj+N showing a determination to defend your view and never change it adversarial, aggressive, confrontational, defensive, defiant, hardline, oppositional, rigid, uncompromising, unwavering We took a clear and uncompromising stance against collaboration with our persecutors.
- ▸ strong or positive firm, proactive, purposeful, strong, tough Companies are tempted to wait and see, when the market is calling for a more proactive stance.
- ▸ neither positive nor negative cautious, neutral The scientists of the day adopted a cautious stance.
- ▸ based on moral principle principled The outcome of his principled stance was imprisonment.
- ▸ anti-war/pro-war anti-war, hawkish, pro-war The government has reaffirmed its anti-war stance.
- ▸ types of stance ethical, fiscal, ideological, monetary, moral, philosophical, religious, theoretical Our ethical stance is very important to our customers.

- v+N have a stance adopt, assume, favor, maintain, take Our response to terrorism has largely been to assume a patriotic stance. ◆ We are the only major Party that is prepared to take a firm stance on this issue.
- ▸ change or review your stance abandon, alter, change, modify, reassess, reconsider, rethink, reverse, shift Experts are urging the Government to reconsider its stance on cannabis.
- ▸ confirm your stance affirm, clarify, reaffirm, reiterate, uphold The team reiterated their stance against drugs in football.
- ▸ make your stance tougher harden, tighten, toughen We believe that the local authority needs to toughen its stance and focus more on enforcement.
- ▸ make your stance less tough loosen, moderate, relax, soften The Premier has significantly softened his stance on climate change.
- ▸ weaken someone's stance compromise, contradict, undermine, weaken The US has often apparently compromised its stance on human rights.
- ▸ show that someone's stance is right justify, vindicate We believe this is excellent news that vindicates the stance we took.
- ▸ support or praise someone's stance admire, applaud, back, defend, endorse We applaud the brave stance of church leaders in calling for democracy in their country.
- ▸ criticize someone's stance criticize, deplore, oppose, question Customers have questioned the company's ethical stance.

stand V

have your body upright supported by your feet

- V+adj straight proud, straight, tall, upright The cells are not even tall enough to allow the prisoners to stand upright.
- ▸ still immobile, motionless Over to the left, a huge herd of elephants stood almost motionless.
- ▸ silent mute, silent, speechless The crowd stood silent, waiting for him to speak.
- ▸ amazed or shocked aghast, amazed, dumbfounded, helpless, open-mouthed The men stood aghast, looking at each other. ◆ This is no consolation to those who stood helpless on their doorsteps as water streamed into their homes.
- ▸ without help unaided, unsupported Her legs had weakened to the point where she could no longer stand unaided.

stand N

an attitude or opinion that you state publicly

- adj+N brave brave, courageous, defiant, heroic, uncompromising, valiant He had taken a courageous stand on issues of national and international justice.
- ▸ strong firm, resolute It is time to take a firmer stand on racism towards Gypsies and Travellers.
- ▸ based on moral principle principled We took a principled stand against sending troops to Afghanistan.

- v+N adopt, make, mount, take Someone has to make a stand against those in power who are to blame.

standard N [usually plural]

a level of quality or achievement

- adj+N good excellent, exceptional, good, high Our reputation is your guarantee of the highest standards.
- ▸ difficult to achieve exacting, rigorous, robust, strict, stringent, tough We will work on your vehicle until it meets our exacting standards.

- not good low, poor Internet-based review sites are generally of a very poor standard.
- good enough acceptable, adequate, decent, reasonable, satisfactory A teacher must ensure a reasonable standard of discipline.
- required mandatory, minimum, recommended, required Strict minimum standards for energy efficiency apply.
- shared or agreed accepted, agreed, appropriate, approved, common, harmonized, recognized, same The Consortium has agreed common standards of rented housing across its members.
- usual current, normal, usual I enjoyed the gig, but thought the sound wasn't up to the usual standard.
- applying across a particular area global, international, national National standards for food safety are being developed.
- of a particular type academic, educational, environmental, ethical, nutritional, occupational, professional, technical The role of the organization is to maintain professional standards.
- improving rising A big investment in education has led to rapidly rising standards in our schools.
- getting worse declining, falling With its corrupt government, weak economy, and declining standards of literacy, the country was in a mess.

- v+N set or introduce a standard adopt, define, develop, establish, introduce, lay down, promote, propose, set, specify Florence Nightingale was a nurse who set new standards for treatment and hygiene.
- do what is necessary to achieve a standard achieve, attain, comply with, conform to, match, meet, reach, satisfy Companies have been expelled from membership for failing to meet the standards required.
- do better than a standard requires exceed, surpass All our products far exceed the appropriate safety standards, giving you added peace of mind.
- keep to a standard keep to, maintain, uphold The company needs to maintain standards through a period of growth.
- raise standards improve, raise We work to raise standards in education and develop the skills of the nation.
- lower standards compromise, lower The nursing profession cannot afford to lower its standards.
- impose a standard apply, enforce, ensure, implement, impose, monitor The Environment Agency enforces water quality standards.
- require a standard demand, expect, require We expect the same academic standards of mature students and school leavers.

standard ADJ

generally used or accepted as normal

- ADJ+n method formula, method, practice, procedure, protocol Brake tests will be carried out, a standard procedure in this sort of incident.
- amount or size charge, fee, rate, size All calls are charged at standard rate. ◉ The application must be accompanied with standard size original colour photographs.
- way of measuring or describing something definition, notation, scale, specification, term, test This is a standard test for antibacterial activity.

standing N

the status or reputation of someone or something

- adj+N good excellent, good, high Pharmacists are warned not to sell products which may be detrimental to the good standing of the profession.
- bad low, poor Napoleon was at first very sensitive about his low social standing.
- types of standing academic, economic, legal, moral, political, professional, social Such activities could damage their own professional standing.
- affect standing affect Be careful not to get involved with people like this, as it could affect your standing in the business community.

- v+N improve standing bolster, boost, enhance, improve, strengthen This approach will enhance the standing of geography in the academic community.
- damage standing compromise, damage, diminish, erode, lower, undermine, weaken It exposes us as hypocrites and undermines our moral standing.

standpoint N

a way of considering something

- adj+N not influenced by personal feelings detached, independent, neutral, objective I can only say from an objective standpoint that I find her work lacks credibility.
- influenced by personal feelings personal, subjective People often retreat to thè subjective standpoint of 'that's just your view'.
- of a particular type academic, aesthetic, cultural, environmental, ethical, feminist, historical, ideological, moral, pedagogical, philosophical, scientific, sociological, theological, theoretical A very different picture comes from exploring these issues from a specifically feminist standpoint.

- v+N have a standpoint adopt, analyze sth from, approach sth from, assume, represent, speak from, view sth from, write from This is an example of a judge adopting a political standpoint.
- defend a standpoint argue from, defend Students will have the opportunity to defend their own standpoint.

staple ADJ

most basic and important

- ADJ+n food diet, fare, fodder, food, foodstuff, ingredient Voles and small birds act as the staple diet for birds of prey such as hen harriers.
- crop cereal, crop, grain During the potato famine, millions died of starvation when their staple crop failed.
- product commodity, goods The price of staple goods in the country has soared in recent days.

star N

a very famous, popular, or successful person or thing

- adj+N very famous A-list, big, famous, international, major, massive, top Markova became the first British-born ballerina to become an international star. ◉ I was shy being in the same room as all those massive stars!
- genuine real, true, undoubted The real stars of the day are the children themselves, many of whom create their own costumes.

- ▸ young teenage, young A future young star, 14-year-old Laura Gemmell is the Number 1 seed in the Girls Under 15.
- ▸ future budding, future, rising, up-and-coming His show featured many up-and-coming stars of the time.
- ▸ past former Beckham is a former star of the legendary team Manchester United.

- n+N basketball, film, football, hip-hop, movie, pop, rap, rock, soap, soccer, tennis, TV He was a pop star in the early seventies, playing with the likes of David Bowie and Marc Bolan.

- N+n person chef, guest, name, performer, player, striker Yasu, their captain, was also their star striker.
- ▸ attraction attraction, turn One of the star attractions has always been the excellent refreshments on sale.
- ▸ position billing, role, status By 1938 he was getting star billing for his BBC broadcasts. ◆ She went from obscurity to movie star status.

stare V

look directly at something for long time

- V+adj aghast, open-mouthed, unblinking, wide-eyed The two of them stared open-mouthed at me as I sat down on the ground.

- adv+V not understanding or thinking anything blankly, glassily, helplessly, idly, stupidly, uncomprehendingly, vacantly We all scratch our heads and stare blankly at computer screens full of data.
- ▸ without blinking or moving fixedly, impassively, intently, unblinkingly No one talked or moved, they all just stood, staring intently at a closed door.
- ▸ with surprise or interest curiously, expectantly, incredulously The butler was staring incredulously at Des's ancient top hat.
- ▸ in an angry or threatening way coldly, hard, menacingly, moodily The large man stared menacingly into Martin's face.
- ▸ sadly forlornly, gloomily, longingly, mournfully The cows stare mournfully at us as we pass.
- ▸ silently silently Children gathered outside the shop, silently staring in.
- ▸ in a particular direction ahead, straight, upwards The boys just stared ahead at the whiteboard saying nothing.

start V

begin

- adv+V again afresh, again You can use that water and then fill it back up and start again.
- ▸ quickly immediately, instantly, promptly, quickly, soon The reader immediately starts to form a picture in the mind.
- ▸ slowly or carefully cautiously, gradually, slowly, sluggishly, tentatively If you decide to exercise after a period of relative inactivity, you should start very slowly.
- ▸ well brightly, hopefully, positively, promisingly, strongly, well The day started well, with a clear blue sky.
- ▸ badly badly, poorly In the Final, Italy started badly.
- ▸ by itself automatically If the player does not start automatically, double-click on the CD icon.

start N

the way someone begins something

- adj+N good auspicious, bright, brilliant, encouraging, excellent, explosive, fantastic, good, great, impressive, perfect, positive, promising, terrific Altogether, this was a promising start for the coming season.
- ▸ fairly good decent, modest, solid, steady David and Tom opened the innings and got us off to a steady start.
- ▸ bad bad, disappointing, disastrous, inauspicious, poor, terrible A bad start influences the audience, and is difficult to recover from.
- ▸ uncertain false, nervous, rocky, shaky After a rather shaky start, the side settled down to score some excellent goals.
- ▸ difficult tough He has had a tough start in life.
- ▸ quick immediate, prompt We will make an immediate start on that.
- ▸ slow slow, sluggish After a slow start, markets picked up significantly in May and June.
- ▸ new clean, fresh They asked me to stay, but I felt it was time for a fresh start.

startled ADJ

suddenly frightened or surprised by something

- adv+ADJ rather faintly, a little, mildly, quite, rather, slightly, somewhat He looked faintly startled to be addressed by a stranger on the bus.
- ▸ for a moment initially, momentarily She seemed momentarily startled, but then smiled happily.
- ▸ easily easily A baby is easily startled by loud or sudden noises.

- ADJ+n cry, exclamation, expression, look, reaction, response She gave a startled cry and dropped the tray she was carrying.

starvation N

illness or death from lack of food

- adj+N among many people mass, widespread This was a brutal process which caused mass starvation.
- ▸ threatened imminent, impending Millions of Afghans faced imminent starvation.

- v+N prevent starvation alleviate, avert, avoid, eliminate, prevent Too few planes could get through to avert starvation.
- ▸ cause starvation cause, lead to She said the U.N. sanctions are causing widespread starvation.
- ▸ experience starvation suffer Parisians suffered starvation, bombardments and disease.
- ▸ risk starvation be at risk of, be threatened with, face, risk 12 million people are facing starvation in southern Africa.
- ▸ escape from starvation escape, flee Over 100,000 people are on the move, fleeing starvation over the harsh winter months.
- ▸ die from starvation die from, die of Soon, people began to die of starvation and disease.

- n+of+N edge brink, edge, verge There are millions of people in the world that are on the brink of starvation.
- ▸ danger danger, prospect, risk, spectre, threat They found themselves alone in the world with the prospect of starvation before them.

- fear fear, horror Why does half the world's population live with the ever-present fear of starvation?

- and/or hunger famine, hunger, malnutrition We want to end starvation and malnutrition, which affect billions of people.
- thirst dehydration, drought, thirst Without vitamins and water, tortoises die of starvation or dehydration.
- poverty deprivation, destitution, poverty, want The book tells a harsh tale of unemployment, poverty and starvation.
- disease disease, pestilence Those fortunate enough to escape still risked dying from starvation or disease.
- tiredness exhaustion, overwork Many more died in the camps, of overwork or starvation.
- suffering misery The people were suffering great misery and starvation following 6 years of war.
- cold cold, hypothermia Thousands of soldiers died of starvation and the cold.

state N

the condition of something or someone

- adj+N present actual, current, present Britain lifted itself from post-war austerity to its present state of relative affluence.
- bad fragile, parlous, poor, sad, sorry, terrible Something must be done about the poor state of the monument.

> You can also say that someone or something is in no fit state or not in a fit state: She had had too much to drink and was in no fit state to work.

- all the time constant, permanent These services are in a constant state of growth and change.
- original natural, normal, original The Castle in its original state covered a very large area.
- different to normal altered, heightened It is my belief that deep sleep is an altered state of consciousness.
- types of state emotional, financial, mental, physical, psychological They have been detained for almost three years without trial and we are deeply concerned about their health and mental state.

- v+N create a state bring about, cause, create, induce, produce, throw sb into These incidents induced a state of considerable anxiety.
- reach a state achieve, attain, be in, enter, experience, fall into, get into, reach Their case was unsatisfactory and should never have reached such a state.
- keep or get back a state maintain, restore How can it maintain its own state of equilibrium?
- change a state affect, change Colour can certainly affect your emotional state.
- study or describe a state assess, describe, determine, examine, review The purpose of this paper is to examine the current state of the evidence.
- indicate a state indicate, reflect These decisions reflect the state of the research at the time they were made.

- N+of disorder or change anarchy, chaos, crisis, disarray, flux, tension, turmoil The massive shake-up of the White House threw the administration into a state of disarray.
- collapse collapse, exhaustion She was found in a state of collapse and later died in hospital.
- poor physical condition decay, delapidation, dereliction, disrepair It was tragic that the mansion had fallen into such a state of disrepair.
- being ready or aware alert, awareness, preparedness, readiness A constant state of alert was to be maintained, because war could start at any moment.
- shock or fear agitation, anxiety, excitement, fear, panic, shock, terror Many homeowners are still in a state of shock at the scale of the damage caused by the floods.
- happiness or calm bliss, ecstasy, equilibrium, perfection, relaxation Hypnosis is a state of deep relaxation.
- despair depression, despair, distress He wandered the streets all night in a state of absolute despair.
- uncertainty or lack of understanding confusion, ignorance, limbo, uncertainty Students have been left in a state of confusion after receiving the letters.
- affected by drink or drugs inebriation, intoxication He came home in a state of intoxication.

state V

express something in speech or writing

- adv+V clearly baldly, bluntly, clearly, explicitly, expressly, flatly, plainly, specifically You should clearly state the complaint and the action you expect to put it right.
- in a definite way categorically, emphatically, firmly, unambiguously, unequivocably She stated categorically that that was not true.
- in public openly, overtly, publicly The Chairman of the Council has stated publicly that the shop is an asset to the town.
- in a simple or brief way briefly, simply, succinctly First, I will briefly state the nature of the question.
- in a confident way boldly, confidently, proudly The article boldly states that UK taxpayers are losing out.
- in an official context formally, officially In the document, they formally state their commitment to a democratic constitution.
- many times consistently, frequently, repeatedly The Bible repeatedly states that God is the creator of everything.
- correctly accurately, correctly, rightly He correctly stated that the blood must pass from the right ventricle to the left ventricle by way of the lungs.
- incorrectly erroneously, incorrectly, wrongly He was not the editor of the Economist in 1982, as this book wrongly states.

- V+n fact fact, truth I simply stated a fact.
- intention aim, commitment, intent, intention, objective, purpose, willingness She has stated her intention to step down next year.
- opinion or belief belief, conviction, hypothesis, opinion, position, theorem The author wishes to make it clear that the opinions stated in this article are entirely personal.
- reason or argument argument, case, criteria, grounds, principle, reason The Disciplinary Commission has not stated the reasons for its decision.
- objection objection, opposition Russia has already stated its objections to the proposal.
- what you want desire, preference, requirements, wish Please state your preferences at time of ordering.

stated ADJ announced officially or in public

- ADJ+n intention aim, ambition, commitment, goal, intent, intention, mission, objective, policy, purpose, strategy The Government's stated aim is to put consumers at the heart of policy making.
- ▸ wish or preference desire, preference, priority, willingness, wish There is a stated willingness to pay more for quality.
- ▸ reason criterion, justification, rationale What is the stated rationale behind the research?
- ▸ limit deadline, dose, timescale Applications must be received by the stated deadline: 1st of June 2011.

statement N a piece of writing or speech that makes a formal or public announcement

- adj+N official or public formal, official, public An official statement from the board of directors is expected today.
- ▸ clear or firm categorical, clear, explicit, strongly-worded, unequivocal We need a clear statement of members' roles and responsibilities.
- ▸ short brief, concise, short, simple Mission statements are brief statements that summarise an organisation's key aims.
- ▸ true or accurate accurate, authoritative, correct, definitive, true Please treat the specification as a guide rather than a definitive statement. • Although this is a reasonable generalization, this statement is not true in all cases.
- ▸ not true or accurate ambiguous, contradictory, defamatory, false, incorrect, misleading, untrue In the face of contradictory statements about the safety of GM foods, the consumer must decide whom to believe. • She claimed that the memoranda contained defamatory statements about her mental health.
- ▸ general bold, general, sweeping, vague He made bold statements full of inaccuracies.
- ▸ prepared in advance carefully-worded, prepared, written The Chief Secretary read a prepared statement at a press conference.
- ▸ legal signed, statutory, sworn Affidavits are sworn statements made before the court.
- ▸ shared joint, shared The manufacturers issued a shared statement.
- ▸ types of statement environmental, financial, ministerial, personal, political The directors have a responsibility to deliver annual financial statements.

- v+N make or publish a statement issue, make, present, produce, publish, put out, release, send, submit The club had to issue a statement denying that the player was about to be sold.
- ▸ write a statement draft, formulate, prepare, write You should prepare a written statement including details of your business.
- ▸ agree a statement agree, approve, sign The parties agree a joint statement and present it to the Judge.
- ▸ read a statement read A White House spokesman read a statement from the President.
- ▸ support or approve of a statement accept, adopt, endorse, support, welcome The statement was welcomed by the Securities & Exchange Commission.
- ▸ confirm a statement confirm, verify I have been unable to verify his statement.
- ▸ disagree with a statement contradict The survey contradicts recent statements made by the Consumers' Union.
- ▸ change a statement amend, qualify, review, update In the light of Dr Hawkins' report, they might wish to amend their statement.
- ▸ withdraw a statement retract, withdraw There was a fall in the proportion of victims who retracted their statement.
- ▸ understand a statement in a particular way interpret, understand Felicity has no sense of irony and interprets the statement literally.
- ▸ refer to a statement quote, repeat Later, Defence Counsel quoted a statement made by the Judge.
- ▸ receive a statement obtain, receive Obtain an accurate statement from the supplier as to what it actually is.
- ▸ contain a statement contain, include The report may contain certain statements with which you disagree.

- N+of intention, aim, or belief aim, aspirations, belief, commitment, evidence, intent, intention, objective, position, principle, priorities, purpose The Corporate Policy contained a statement of intent on health and safety.
- ▸ fact fact, truth Science deals with statements of fact which can be proved or disproved.
- ▸ reason reason This was set down in their statement of the reasons for their decision.
- ▸ objection or complaint complaint, grievance, objection, opposition The first formal step is a written statement of your objection.
- ▸ regret regret Suppose his statements of regret and repentance are sincere?

statistical ADJ relating to statistics

- ADJ+n relating to the meaning of statistics correlation, distribution, probability, significance The number of people in the study was too small to reach statistical significance.
- ▸ analysing statistics analysis, breakdown, evaluation We can provide training in statistical analysis and interpretation.
- ▸ consisting of statistics data, evidence Official statistical data shows that the return on the investment is approximately 18 per cent.
- ▸ using statistics algorithm, calculation, comparison, measure, method, methodology, model, procedure, sampling, technique He teaches statistical methods in epidemiology.

statistics N numbers that represent facts or a situation

- adj+N official official A new study shows that the number of people who die suddenly could be much greater than is recorded in official statistics.
- ▸ accurate or detailed accurate, detailed, reliable There are no reliable statistics on the subject.
- ▸ likely to make people believe something which is not true misleading Although the figures suggest that violent crime has fallen, the statistics can be misleading.
- ▸ worrying or surprising alarming, disturbing, frightening, grim, shocking, sobering, staggering, startling, worrying These shocking accident statistics should serve as a wake-up call for the government.

- ▶ comparing different things comparative We produce comparative statistics to assist in performance management.
- ▶ dealing with different topics demographic, economic, environmental, financial, medical The course includes a lecture on the use of medical statistics.

- • v+N collect statistics collate, collect, compile, gather, record Do schools compile statistics on this sort of thing?
- ▶ analyse statistics analyse, interpret I'll analyse these statistics and publish anything interesting.
- ▶ calculate statistics calculate, collate, compute If you want to know how statistics are calculated, please contact the R&D department.
- ▶ publish statistics issue, publish, release, report Statistics recently released show that the use of these services is on the increase.
- ▶ produce statistics generate, produce Statistics produced for the consortium show that prices have risen by 290 per cent.
- ▶ quote statistics cite, quote The magazine quoted annual statistics on aircraft production in the US.
- ▶ make statistics inaccurate manipulate, massage, skew The change in definition meant they were diagnosed earlier, and this skewed the statistics.

- • N+v show or prove something confirm sth, demonstrate sth, highlight sth, illustrate sth, indicate sth, prove sth, reflect sth, reveal sth, show sth, tell sth Home Office statistics showed there were 2,000 fewer robberies in August.
- ▶ suggest something imply, point to sth, suggest sth The statistics point to a gradual slowdown in traffic speeds, but the effect is marginal.
- ▶ concern something concern sth, regard sth, relate to sth The website is a good source of facts and statistics relating to the USA.
- ▶ be inaccurate mislead sb, underestimate sth Experts believe these statistics vastly underestimate the scale of the epidemic.

status N

the legal, official or public position someone or something has

- • adj+N legal or official legal, official, statutory If you have the legal status of an employee, you gain extra rights.
- ▶ high high, top The Irish language commands high official status in the Irish Republic.
- ▶ low inferior, low Women were more restricted and had an inferior legal status.
- ▶ with advantages or protection favourable, preferential, preferred, privileged, protected, special The press have portrayed them as having a privileged status in society.
- ▶ considered very special by some classic, cult, iconic, legendary After his death, numerous articles and books were written which expanded his legendary status.
- ▶ professional professional, qualified The Summer Institute will start you on your way to gaining qualified status.
- ▶ equal equal, same In 1910 women were permitted membership and equal status to men.
- ▶ current current We are writing to inform you about the current status of the merger discussions.
- ▶ types of status charitable, constitutional, ecological, employment, financial, marital, moral, nutritional, occupational, social, socioeconomic Smoking during pregnancy is associated with many factors, including age, social class, and marital status.

- • v+N have or achieve a status achieve, acquire, attain, be accorded, be awarded, be granted, command, enjoy, gain, obtain, reach, secure The town was granted borough status in 1227. ◉ A majority of secondary schools now enjoy specialist status.
- ▶ give status confer on sb/sth Initiation is intended to confer the status of adulthood on the initiate.
- ▶ keep or get back a status maintain, preserve, regain, retain Moscow was not to regain its status as capital until 1918.
- ▶ find out status ascertain, assess, determine, evaluate What measures are used to determine the applicant's residency status?
- ▶ improve status elevate, enhance His intention was to elevate the international status of France.
- ▶ check status check, clarify, monitor, track Systems must be in place to check the registration status of nursing staff.
- ▶ prove status confirm, indicate, verify I need a letter to confirm my student status.
- ▶ be appropriate for status befit, reflect Both authors, as befits their status as key figures in the subject, write in a clear and accessible style.

the status quo N

the present situation, or the way things usually are

- • V+N keep the status quo defend, keep, maintain, preserve, retain Had they wanted to maintain the status quo they would have voted no.
- ▶ change the status quo alter, change, disrupt, disturb, upset It's a conservative company, and employees who try to upset the status quo tend not to last.
- ▶ accept the status quo accept, conform to, support, uphold She is a woman who refuses to conform to the status quo.
- ▶ not accept the status quo challenge, question, threaten He challenged the status quo by initiating an investigation into the industry and seeking a means of bringing it under tighter control.

statutory ADJ controlled by a law or statute

- • ADJ+n duty duty, obligation, requirement, responsibility The Housing Act, 1977, gives local authorities a statutory duty to house the homeless.
- ▶ right entitlement, right These terms and conditions do not affect consumers' statutory rights.
- ▶ power control, power The Commission must have the statutory power to publish its advice to Ministers.
- ▶ protection or recognition protection, recognition It will call for legislation to confer equal rights and statutory protection against racial discrimination.
- ▶ rule or set of rules code, guidance, prohibition, provision, regulation, restriction, rule The statutory guidance on exclusion from schools has been revised to take into account recent changes in the law.

- limit limit, maximum, minimum If a notice period is not specified, the statutory minimum will apply.
- organization or service agency, authority, body, organization, service We work in partnership with other statutory agencies, including courts and local authorities.
- document or statement declaration, document, notice As with a civil wedding in a register office, you have a choice of which version of the statutory declaration you want to include.
- name or definition definition, designation There is no statutory definition of derelict land.
- job or process function, procedure, process Prior to 1 October 2004, there were no statutory procedures that had to be followed in relation to disciplinary action, dismissals or grievances.
- system framework, mechanism, system Community councils are voluntary bodies which exist within a statutory framework.
- basis basis, footing They needed to put the existing Code of Practice on a statutory footing.
- payment or charge charge, fee, funding, pay, payment, wage The new law will extend statutory maternity pay to cover the first year of a child's life.

stay N
a period spent somewhere

- adj+N short brief, minimum, overnight, short Thank you for your attention and understanding during my brief stay with you.
- long extended, lengthy, prolonged We found a nice campsite and settled down for a lengthy stay.
- pleasant comfortable, delightful, enjoyable, pleasant, pleasurable, relaxing There are a series of comfortable lodges where visitors can base themselves for a relaxing stay.
- memorable memorable, unforgettable As a family run hotel, we are dedicated to making your stay memorable for the right reasons.

- v+N make a stay longer extend, prolong He was trying to prolong his stay in Britain.
- make a stay shorter cut short, reduce, shorten The Rehabilitation Unit helps to shorten your stay in hospital.
- arrange a stay arrange, book, organize, plan We cater for vegetarians, but please remember to mention this when booking your stay with us.
- enjoy a stay enjoy We are sure that you will enjoy your stay here.

You can also use the pattern make someone's stay pleasant, comfortable etc: We have a range of leisure facilities to make your stay even more enjoyable.

steady ADJ
slow and gradual, or regular

- adv+ADJ rather fairly, generally, pretty INFORMAL, quite, reasonably, relatively Graduates benefit from a reasonably steady pattern of earnings growth over their working lives.
- very remarkably, very Visitor numbers had remained remarkably steady throughout the year.

- ADJ+n flow drip, flow, influx, stream, supply, trickle Despite the wonderful new stadium, they've lost a steady trickle of players throughout the summer.
- increase climb, expansion, gain, growth, increase, rise The steady growth in traffic caused serious congestion at peak times.
- decrease decrease, drop, fall, reduction The data shows a steady reduction in road traffic deaths.
- progress advance, development, progress, progression He has made steady progress and his immune system is already better than it was.
- when something gets better/worse decline, deterioration, improvement This led to a steady decline of the empire after 1945.
- speed or rate beat, level, pace, rate, rhythm, speed Your heart beats with a slow but steady rhythm.

- v+ADJ hold, remain, stay The average number of trips per person has also held steady, at roughly 1000 per year.

steep ADJ
1 rising quickly and difficult to climb

- adv+ADJ very dangerously, extremely, impossibly, incredibly, really INFORMAL, very We saw spectacular glaciers and impossibly steep mountain peaks.
- rather fairly, moderately, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, relatively, slightly I can only recall a couple of fairly steep climbs, and these were very short.

2 sudden and very big

- ADJ+n decrease decline, dive, drop, drop-off, fall Figures show a steep decline in the number of people seeking asylum last year.
- increase hike INFORMAL, increase, rise Over the past ten years, we have seen a steep rise in the number of young people going into custody.

stem V stop something bad from spreading or increasing

- V+n flow flood, flow, influx, tide Researchers are working to discover ways to stem the tide of deaths in hospitals as a result of medical errors.
- increase growth, proliferation, rise, spread Senegal and Uganda have shown the way to stemming the spread of HIV/AIDS.
- decrease decline, loss He has done incredible work in stemming the decline of church numbers.

stench N a very bad smell

- adj+N acrid, awful, fetid, foul, horrible, nauseating, overpowering, putrid, rancid, terrible, unbearable, vile The whole area was engulfed in the putrid stench of decaying flesh.

step N one of a series of actions

- adj+N first/last final, first, initial, preliminary Identifying the most important capabilities for your children is a first step to focusing on what we aim to improve.
- next or more another, further, next The next step is to work out how much you use your phone on average.
- good constructive, positive, progressive, sensible They have banned junk food in vending machines, so this is a positive step.

- bad dangerous, retrograde We believe that any policy to centralize children's care is a retrograde step.
- big or important big, critical, crucial, essential, giant, huge, important, key, major, necessary, significant, vital E-Passports are an important step forward in a larger effort to enhance security.
- small modest, small, tiny Thank you for all the people who help us take small steps to overcome our problems.
- unusual unprecedented, unusual Marie took the unusual step of employing only female nurses and doctors.
- extreme drastic, radical This would be a radical step to take.
- brave bold, decisive The album is a bold step forward musically and demonstrates how gifted this band is.
- careful faltering, tentative Now, for the first time, the two sides are finally taking tentative steps to reduce tension.

- v+N take a step take Take the first step towards fulfilling your career aspirations.
- be a step be, constitute, mark, represent This represents a major step forward.

- N+towards making something happen creation, establishment, implementation, realization The agreement represents a decisive step towards the realization of our dream of peace in the region.
- an aim or solution aim, goal, objective, solution Our technology centre opened last year, another step towards our objective of providing students with state-of-the-art facilities.

step V

move or walk a short distance

- adv+V carefully carefully, cautiously, gingerly, reluctantly, tentatively He stepped gingerly into the river and waded out to the centre.
- confidently boldly, bravely, calmly, confidently, coolly It was Mick who bravely stepped up to the door and rang the bell.
- lightly or quietly delicately, lightly, quietly, softly He stepped lightly and, to his amazement, directly in front of him sat the big bald bird on a high branch.

step up PHR VB increase something

- V+n attack, campaign, efforts, fight, pace, pressure, production, search, security We need to step up our efforts to make road traffic greener and more efficient.

stereotype N a fixed idea about a particular type of person or thing

- adj+N negative crude, damaging, negative, unhelpful Their questions revealed confusion and negative stereotypes surrounding HIV and AIDS.
- offensive ageist, offensive, racist, sexist Some TV programmes reinforce sexist stereotypes to children.
- common common, familiar, popular, prevalent Professors are, according to the popular stereotype, absent-minded.
- old-fashioned or traditional conventional, old, outdated, outmoded, traditional But those involved in the sector say this is an outdated stereotype.
- about a particular group of people cultural, gender, national, racial, sexual, social It's not funny to use racial stereotypes in jokes.

- v+N reinforce a stereotype perpetuate, promote, reinforce Stereotypes are often perpetuated by the media.
- show that a stereotype is not true break, dispel, overcome, overturn, shatter, subvert
- believe a stereotype hold Stereotypes about ballet dancers are most strongly held by those who have never seen a ballet.
- fit a stereotype confirm, conform to, fall into, fit, fit into, match Only a minority of landlords fit this stereotype.
- not fit a stereotype defy, explode He is a Chinese student who has never ridden a bicycle before, defying all stereotypes.
- refuse to accept a stereotype challenge, combat, confront, counter, reject, tackle There is an opportunity for single parents to challenge negative stereotypes, and share their own positive experiences.

- and/or assumptions, caricature, cliches, generalizations, ignorance, misconceptions, myths, preconceptions, prejudice Discrimination is usually based on prejudice and stereotypes.

stick to PHR VB

continue to do or use particular thing

- adv+V closely, doggedly, faithfully, firmly, religiously, resolutely, rigidly, rigorously, slavishly, steadfastly, strictly, stubbornly People are changing careers several times in their working lifetime, instead of sticking rigidly to the same thing until they retire.

- V+n beliefs belief, idea, principle, view You have to admire her for sticking to her principles.
- plan or decision agreement, brief, budget, deadline, decision, plan, policy, schedule, strategy Despite provocation, the group stuck to its policy of non-violence.
- rule or law convention, guidelines, law, rule As long as you stick closely to the guidelines, you won't have any problems.

stigma N

a feeling among people in general that something is wrong or embarrassing

- adj+N of a particular degree considerable, huge, terrible, widespread There is still a huge stigma and misunderstanding about depression.
- types of stigma moral, religious, social There are two main areas of concern – the social stigma of having head lice, and worries over the effectiveness and safety of treatments.

- v+N carry a stigma bear, carry Mental health difficulties frequently carry a stigma.
- fight against a stigma challenge, combat, fight, fight against, tackle Help us to combat the stigma that surrounds HIV and AIDS.
- remove or reduce a stigma dispel, eliminate, end, eradicate, overcome, reduce, remove They aim to remove the stigma surrounding epilepsy by educating other students about the illness.

▸ experience a stigma bear, cope with, deal with, experience, face, feel, suffer, suffer from He wants to remove the social stigmas faced by children with mental health problems.

• N+v affect sb/sth, be associated with sth, be attached to sth, surround sth Because of the stigma associated with leprosy, it is estimated that many cases go undetected.

still ADJ not moving

• adv+ADJ absolutely, completely, perfectly, quite, stock I stood there stock still, unable to move.

• v+ADJ stay still be, hold, keep, sit, stand, stay Keep still and stop wriggling.

▸ make someone stay still hold sb, keep sb I couldn't hold her still, she was struggling so much.

stimulate V encourage something to happen, develop, or improve

• V+n economic process consumption, demand, development, growth, investment, production Funds are needed to stimulate this growth, especially in urban areas.

▸ new ideas creativity, curiosity, imagination, innovation How do you stimulate creativity?

▸ new research or study research, thinking, work The aim of the workshop is to stimulate fresh thinking on this difficult topic.

▸ discussion conversation, debate, dialogue, discussion The consultation paper may stimulate a wider debate on landscape issues.

stimulus N
something that encourages something to happen, develop etc

• adj+N important or large great, important, major, powerful, significant The building of railways was a major stimulus to the coal and iron and steel industries.

▸ types of stimulus economic, emotional, environmental, fiscal, intellectual, social Pre-school education is of value in providing a child with intellectual stimulus and social skills.

• v+N be a stimulus act as, be, give sth, prove, provide, represent, serve as TV programmes can sometimes provide a stimulus for group discussion.

▸ react to a stimulus react to, respond to We are all different in our habits and in the way we react to environmental stimuli.

• N+for discussion or research debate, dialogue, discussion, exploration, reflection The lecture series should act as a stimulus for further debate.

▸ development development, growth, improvement, innovation, regeneration The new railway has the potential to provide a stimulus for major regeneration in the region.

stir V
1 move liquid or food around with a spoon

• adv+V thoroughly thoroughly, well The paint must be stirred thoroughly before it is used.

▸ gently carefully, gently, lightly Add the cooked carrots, potatoes and cauliflower and gently stir in.

▸ hard or fast briskly, hard, vigorously Drizzle in the beaten egg, vigorously stirring the soup as you do so.

▸ occasionally occasionally, periodically Cover and cook for about 30 minutes on low heat, stirring occasionally.

▸ continually or frequently constantly, continually, continuously, frequently, regularly Now make the roux sauce, firstly melting the margarine and then mixing in the flour whilst stirring continuously.

2 make someone's feelings stronger

• V+n emotions or memories emotions, feelings, memories The war stirred all kinds of emotions in the young Neill.

▸ negative feelings hatred, resentment His revolutionary impulse has stirred great resentment abroad.

▸ excitement or interest curiosity, excitement, imagination, interest, passion The event failed to stir great excitement.

▸ disagreement or conflict conflict, controversy, disagreement, tension He insisted that his article was not intended to stir racial tension.

3 start to have a feeling, thought etc

• n+V emotion, feeling, heart, memory, passion, spirits An unfamiliar feeling stirs within him; an impulse other than his pure instinct for personal survival.

stir N
a situation in which many people feel interested or angry

• adj+N big, considerable, great, real They are delighted with the campaign, which has created a real stir in the media industry.

• v+N cause, create Her book should cause a stir when it hits the shelves in June.

stock N an available amount of something

• adj+N large extensive, huge, large, vast We hold an extensive stock of organ music.

▸ small or getting smaller declining, depleted, dwindling, falling, limited Order now – limited stock available.

▸ enough adequate, enough, sufficient Does the country have sufficient food stocks?

▸ total entire, overall, total These organizations have a total stock of around 4,000 apartments and houses.

▸ new fresh, new Your order will be delivered as soon as possible after fresh stocks arrive.

▸ old existing, old High house prices are putting incredible strain on our existing stock of affordable homes.

▸ unwanted damaged, excess, redundant, unsold The company is extending its summer sale to clear excess stock.

• v+N use up a stock clear, decimate, diminish, dispose of, exhaust, use up Paper copies will be amended when current stocks are exhausted.

- ▸ add to a stock add to, replace, replenish Businesses need to increase production in order to replenish stocks to desired levels.
- ▸ have a stock have, hold, keep, maintain, retain The Glasgow Gallery holds a stock of over 1000 original paintings.
- ▸ make sure you have enough stock conserve, preserve In the current situation, everyone needs to use water wisely and help us conserve stocks.
- ▸ get a stock accumulate, acquire, purchase Over his lifetime, he has accumulated a stock of funny stories.

stomach N

the organ in your body where food goes when you have eaten it

- adj+N empty/full empty, full Some drugs should not be taken on an empty stomach.
- ▸ sick bad, dodgy INFORMAL, queasy, sore, upset But jet lag, holiday viruses and upset stomachs can take all the joy out of going abroad.
- ▸ strong (cast) iron, strong Next morning everyone was ill, except Jack whose cast iron stomach was unaffected.
- ▸ weak delicate, sensitive, weak Very acidic foods can upset sensitive stomachs, contributing to digestive problems such as heartburn.
- ▸ sticking out bloated, bulging, distended, enlarged, swollen The little boy's stomach was bloated, and his ribs were sticking out.

- v+N cause pain in your stomach irritate, turn INFORMAL, upset These tablets can irritate the stomach, and in some cases cause internal bleeding.
- ▸ make your stomach feel less painful calm, settle, soothe You can use ginger to soothe an upset stomach.

- N+v have a strong nervous feeling churn, heave, lurch, tighten, turn over Does the thought of doing a parachute jump make your stomach churn?
- ▸ make a noise growl, gurgle, rumble Her empty stomach rumbled one last time.

- N+n illness bug, cancer, complaint, disorder, problem, trouble, ulcer, upset Unripe bananas can cause slight stomach upsets.
- ▸ pain ache, cramps, discomfort, irritation, pain, spasm Chamomile tea is good for stomach ache.
- ▸ outer part lining, wall Sometimes the ulcer can perforate the stomach, causing a hole in the stomach wall.

stop V

no longer do something or not continue

- adv+V suddenly abruptly, immediately, instantly, quickly, suddenly That was a big problem because the advertisers instantly stopped buying ads.
- ▸ finally eventually, finally I finally stopped feeling sick some time on Friday morning.
- ▸ completely altogether, completely, dead Of course the recovery programme does not stop dead in March 2011.
- ▸ early early, prematurely Her trial had to be stopped prematurely.
- ▸ almost almost, nearly, virtually Work on the house then virtually stopped for approximately 6 months.
- ▸ for some time, but not permanently currently, momentarily, temporarily The work on the railway line has currently stopped, but should start up again in the spring.

stop N

a place where you stop on a journey or the period when you stop

- adj+N brief brief, quick, short After a brief stop for lunch, we continued on our journey.
- ▸ for one night overnight It is possible to fly direct to and from the UK, but in many cases an overnight stop is needed.
- ▸ planned/not planned planned, scheduled, unplanned, unscheduled On any ride there are always unscheduled stops.
- ▸ good or suitable convenient, excellent, popular The hotel is about halfway between the two cities, so it makes a really convenient overnight stop.

- n+N to eat or drink something coffee, lunch, picnic, refreshment We had a lunch stop at an old Fifties-style diner.
- ▸ to use the toilet bathroom, comfort, toilet Our driver told us that because of our tight schedule there would be no comfort stop, but that basic toilet facilities would be made available on request.
- ▸ to get fuel fuel, refuelling He drove for 340 miles without a single fuel stop.

- v+N have, make, take It's about 4 hours from here by car, so it's a good place to make a stop.

store V

to keep something in a particular place [usually passive]

- adv+V permanently forever, indefinitely, permanently Balsamic vinegar can be stored indefinitely even when the bottle has been opened.
- ▸ temporarily temporarily They started moving the rail that had been temporarily stored by the side of the track.
- ▸ safely or carefully carefully, safely, securely Data should be stored securely with password protection.
- ▸ well conveniently, efficiently, neatly A waterproof zipped carrying bag keeps everything clean and neatly stored.
- ▸ correctly appropriately, correctly, properly All of the contents will keep, if stored correctly, for at least a year.
- ▸ in electronic form digitally, electronically Each order, receipt, invoice, fax, email, picture or presentation is stored electronically.
- ▸ outside somewhere elsewhere, externally, remotely Remote working can also help avoid problems of data loss or damage in the office by having data stored remotely.
- ▸ inside somewhere internally, locally a locally stored pdf file
- ▸ together in one place centrally The beauty of the system is that all data can be stored centrally, allowing easier maintenance.
- ▸ not together separately Some of the more valuable and fragile material is stored separately and can be requested from the Information Desk.

store N

a large amount of something kept in your memory

- adj+N big, enormous, large, phenomenal, rich, vast Our staff have a vast store of knowledge in this type of work.

- N+of anecdotes, information, knowledge, memories, stories, wisdom Within all of us there is a phenomenal store of wisdom to be discovered.

storm N

1 a period of much rain, strong winds etc

- adj+N severe bad, devastating, ferocious, fierce, heavy, howling, huge, intense, mighty, severe, terrible, terrific, violent During a fierce thunder storm, a house at Pentlow was struck by lighting.
- approaching approaching, imminent, impending, impending, oncoming The island was in the direct path of an oncoming tropical storm.
- types of storm cyclonic, electrical, hail, lightning, magnetic, rain, snow, solar, thunder, tropical Last year, Rarotonga was hit by three separate tropical storms in two weeks.
- unusual or unexpected freak, unexpected Homeowners were clearing up the mess, after a freak storm caused local flooding.
- N+v happen blow, rage Storms raged in the Gulf of Biscay, and the English Channel was covered in ice.
- get calmer abate, ease, pass, subside Sailings didn't resume until Saturday afternoon when the storm had abated.
- start to happen break out, erupt As we settle down to sleep in our tent, a violent storm erupts outside.
- be going to happen approach, brew Perhaps a storm was brewing off shore.
- affect a place batter sth, hit sth, lash sth, sweep sth, wreck sth Bedfordshire was lashed by storms on Tuesday night.

2 a situation in which many people are upset, angry, or excited

- v+N survive a storm brave, ride, survive, weather, withstand By the early 1920s international capitalism had weathered the revolutionary storm that swept across Europe.
- cause a storm bring, cause, create, provoke, raise, spark, unleash, whip up The article sparked a predictable storm of protest.
- calm a storm calm, still How do you help to calm storms in the workplace?
- experience a storm encounter, endure, experience, face The Prime Minister is likely to encounter a storm of hostility.
- N+of complaints, controversy, criticism, indignation, outrage, protest, publicity They couldn't have known that the scheme would evoke a storm of protest amongst local people.

story N

an account of real or imaginary events

- adj+N true true Based on a true story, the movie is one of the best I have ever seen.
- not true apocryphal, fiction, fictional, imaginary This story was probably fictional, but there is no doubt that Walter had suffered during his service.
- interesting compelling, fascinating, gripping, interesting, intriguing Fukuzawa's autobiography is a fascinating story.
- good amazing, entertaining, exciting, good, great, incredible, powerful, remarkable, wonderful This is the remarkable story of a man who has become a legend in his own lifetime.
- inspiring heart-warming, inspirational, inspiring Read the inspiring story of how she became 5 stone lighter.
- shocking or frightening chilling, disturbing, harrowing, horrific, scary, shocking 'Homeland' is the gripping and often chilling story of the interwoven lives of three characters.
- strange astonishing, bizarre, extraordinary, strange, unusual Someone at the magazine dreamed up a bizarre story involving David Beckham and Michael Jackson.
- sad poignant, sad, touching, tragic The touching story of one girl's migration from the Caribbean to England is explored in 'Weeding Cane'.
- funny amusing, comic, funny, hilarious, humorous Martin told an amusing story about camping in the New Forest.
- complete complete, entire, full, whole Only when we see the whole story of a person's life can we judge whether it went well.
- well-known familiar, famous, old, popular, well-known 'Jungle Book, the Musical ' was adapted from Rudyard Kipling's famous story.
- real inside, real, untold Here's the inside story of what happened on 28/29 October.
- traditional classic, epic, fairy, traditional We take a fresh look at the traditional story of 'Red Riding Hood'.
- about love love, romantic Romeo and Juliet is one of the most famous love stories in the world.
- in a newspaper big, cover, front-page, lead, top While a front-page story on racism in the workplace may be more appealing to the paper's editorial team, it is soccer that sells newspapers.
- n+N adventure, bible, coming-of-age, detective, fantasy, ghost, gospel, horror, mystery, news, rags-to-riches, spy Becker stars in the rags-to-riches story of a young Latino player who journeys from the ghetto of East LA to the glamour of the English Premier league.
- v+N tell a story narrate, recount, share, tell Payday tells the story without leaving a thing out.
- repeat a story repeat, retell They believe every word, even when she retells the story from someone else's viewpoint.
- write or make up a story concoct, dream up, fabricate, invent, make up, weave, write He concocted a story about seeing a UFO and its occupants to impress his 'superior,' a UFO enthusiast. ◆ Johnson had children of his own and probably invented the story to make me feel better.
- read or hear a story hear, listen to, read This week I read the true story of an American called Gerald Barnes.
- find out about a story investigate, piece together, research, uncover, unravel Bit by bit, I pieced together the story.
- of a newspaper: to include a story cover, feature, get, print, publish, report, run The Evening News covered the story.
- N+v progress continue, evolve, progress, unfold As his story unfolds, we meet others in his world.

▸ be about something or someone be about sb/sth, centre on sb/sth, concern sb/sth, feature sb/sth, recount sth, revolve around sb/sth, tell of sb/sth The story revolves around Jack and Rebecca, two children who have been sent to stay with their unfriendly Aunt Caroline.

straight ADJ

honest and true, with no attempt to hide anything

- adv+ADJ absolutely, completely, dead, perfectly, pretty, quite, totally May I be quite straight with you?
- ADJ+n answer, talker, talking Can you give me a straight answer for once?

straightforward ADJ clear and honest or not complicated

- adv+ADJ fairly comparatively, fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, reasonably, relatively It is relatively straightforward to configure a PC as a dual-boot system.

▸ very or completely entirely, extremely, perfectly, very Getting the engine sorted out hasn't been entirely straightforward.

▸ surprisingly deceptively, remarkably, surprisingly This cotton sling is a deceptively straightforward and comfortable way of carrying your child.

▸ apparently apparently, seemingly These two seemingly straightforward tasks are getting ever more demanding and complex.

▸ in a good way refreshingly His approach is refreshingly straightforward.

- ADJ+n something someone says or asks account, answer, description, explanation, question, request, statement At the moment, I don't have any straightforward answers to these questions.

▸ process or job job, operation, procedure, process, task Graphic scales are simple to use and can make estimating distances a very straightforward task.

▸ situation affair, case, issue, matter It looked like a straightforward case of murder.

▸ way of dealing with something approach, fashion, method, route, solution, technique This approach is straightforward and logical.

▸ information advice, guide, information, instructions By following some straightforward advice, and working together, we can ensure that this type of crime keeps falling.

- v+ADJ appear, be, look, prove, seem, sound The planning process may sound straightforward, but it's actually rather complicated.
- and/or clear, concise, easy, factual, honest, logical, simple, transparent, unambiguous, uncomplicated Installation and maintenance are designed to be as simple and straightforward as possible.

strain N

1 pressure caused by a difficult situation

- adj+N a lot considerable, enormous, great, huge, immense, severe, tremendous, unbearable The number of strikers was approaching 30,000 and the nation's economy was under severe strain.

▸ too much excessive, undue, unnecessary A well-implemented system can deliver high productivity without putting undue strain on the workforce.

▸ more added, additional, extra, more A repeat of the heavy spring floods in recent years would put added strain on the insurance industry.

▸ types of strain economic, emotional, financial, psychological The emotional strain our family was under following my son's cancer diagnosis was immense.

- v+N reduce strain alleviate, ease, lessen, minimize, reduce, relieve Having plenty of visitors can ease the strain of being in hospital.

▸ increase strain add to, increase If you report the crime, a police investigation may add to the strain you are already feeling.

▸ cause strain cause, exert, impose, involve, lead to, place, put, result in, subject sth to Building an extension can put a severe strain on neighbour relations.

▸ feel strain come under, experience, feel, suffer When caring for a sick child, parents' relationships can come under intense strain.

▸ successfully deal with strain bear, cope with, deal with, stand, withstand I couldn't stand the strain of knowing he was in danger too.

▸ be unable to deal with strain break under, buckle under, collapse under, crack under, creak under, succumb to Ruth begins to buckle under the strain of her conflicting commitments.

2 a type of disease, virus etc

- adj+N dangerous or spreading quickly deadly, pandemic, virulent During 1918, there was a worldwide pandemic of a virulent strain of influenza.

▸ not dangerous mild The method involves infecting a plant with a mild strain of a virus to build its resistance to related, more harmful viruses.

▸ unable to be treated by drugs antibiotic-resistant, drug-resistant, resistant Treatment failed as a result of resistant strains of bacteria.

▸ different from others of its type mutant The project aims to produce mutant strains of yeast in which each of the 6000 genes is mutated.

▸ types of strain bacterial, pathogenic, recombinant, viral The H5N1 viral strain has been identified by global health authorities as being a potential cause of a pandemic.

stranger N

someone who you do not know

- adj+N total complete, perfect, total, utter Don't expect a long conversation with a total stranger at the bus stop or in the bus.

▸ almost comparative, relative, virtual This family's willingness to house a virtual stranger for two days is testament to the hospitality and friendliness of the Kiwis.

strategic ADJ carefully planned to achieve a particular aim

- ADJ+n action or decision decision, initiative, manoeuvre, move, plan The committee will focus on strategic initiatives to reduce youth crime.

▸ relationship alliance, partnership It is believed that this strategic alliance will create a win-win situation for shareholders.

▸ partner ally, partner We are in a process of carefully selecting strategic partners that will allow us to provide an even better service.

- aim aim, direction, goal, objective, priority, target The strategy document sets out our strategic objectives for the future.
- thinking consideration, decision-making, planning, thinking, vision This book is the best compilation of strategic thinking regarding brand management.
- examination of a problem or situation analysis, assessment, overview, review The report provides a strategic assessment of our options for growing the business over the next five years.

strategy N

a plan or method for achieving something

- adj+N overall or general basic, general, overall, overarching Steroids are a useful treatment as part of an overall strategy to treat eczema.
- for the future five-year, forward, future, long-term The successful candidate will have an influential role in shaping the company's long-term strategy.
- useful or sensible cost-effective, practical, sensible, useful She offers practical strategies that can be used to escape negative thoughts.
- effective or likely to be successful effective, efficient, good, optimal, proven, robust, sound, successful, viable, winning The project is designed to help formulate an effective strategy for the promotion of internet connectivity in communities in southern Africa.
- suitable appropriate, correct, proper, right, suitable Academics need to recognise these learning types and develop appropriate strategies for dealing with them.
- different alternative, different Concern regarding the overuse of antibiotics has led to the need for alternative disease control strategies.
- having different aspects inclusive, integrated This is part of a well-planned, integrated transport strategy.
- clear clear, coherent, cohesive That is why we need a coherent national strategy to tackle the backlog of disrepair.
- new innovative, new, novel Brain experts have come up with a novel strategy for shedding excess flab.
- detailed comprehensive, detailed We need a comprehensive prevention strategy for breast cancer.
- ambitious ambitious, grand Did the US have a grand strategy?
- complicated/simple complex, simple, sophisticated The strategy was very complex and sophisticated.
- dangerous high-risk, risky Changing the appearance of a well-known range of products can be a risky strategy.
- types of strategy corporate, cultural, economic, educational, electoral, environmental, financial, industrial, institutional, instructional, military, organizational, political In 2000, he was named vice president of corporate strategy.
- relating to a particular area global, international, national, regional We need a global strategy for fighting terrorism.

- n+N business, communication, development, health, housing, investment, management, marketing, research, security, training, transport The new rail line forms part of an integrated transport strategy for the Olympic Games.
- v+N develop a strategy arrive at, come up with, deliver, design, determine, develop, devise, establish, formulate, identify, plan, prepare, produce, shape Instead of exploiting the poor, we have developed strategies to address poverty.
- define a strategy define, outline, set out The Welfare Reform Green Paper outlined our strategy to enable people to overcome obstacles to work.
- agree a strategy agree, decide on, negotiate In January, the Programme Board agreed a new marketing strategy.
- examine or consider a strategy assess, consider, discuss, evaluate, examine, look at, monitor I needed to look at strategies to enable me to continue to live life to the full.
- use a strategy adopt, apply, embark on, employ, execute, follow, implement, launch, pursue, use The teacher employed positioning strategies to establish herself as the dominant voice in the classroom.
- suggest a strategy propose, recommend, suggest The President is responsible for diagnosing problems affecting the members and proposing strategies for dealing with these problems.
- change a strategy adapt, change, improve, rethink, review, revise We reviewed our research strategy in November 2005.
- be the basis of a strategy base, inform, underpin The strategy was underpinned by concrete objectives.

streak N

part of someone's character that is different from the rest

- adj+N unpleasant or strict authoritarian, jealous, mean, nasty, ruthless, sadistic, vicious, vindictive Moore was suave, cool, and witty, with a ruthless streak.
- wanting to disobey rules or do exciting things adventurous, mischievous, rebellious, stubborn My father's strictness brought out my rebellious streak.
- competitive competitive, entrepreneurial You need to be naturally confident, outgoing and have a competitive streak.

stream N

a continuous flow of something

- adj+N constant, continual, continuous, endless, relentless, steady, unbroken, unending We were kept busy explaining our work to the steady stream of visitors to the stand.
- n+N funding, income, profit, revenue There isn't a real revenue stream to attract mainstream reviews and media attention.

streamline V

make business or process more modern or simple

- V+n administration, bureaucracy, communication, decision-making, operations, paperwork, planning, procedure, process, processing, task, workflow We enable organisations to streamline workflow and therefore enhance productivity.
- and/or automate, enhance, improve, modernize, simplify, speed up, standardize The new service will streamline and modernise the process of recruitment.

street N
a road with buildings along it

- adj+N quiet/busy busy, congested, crowded, deserted, quiet The hotel was located in a quiet street, not far from the city centre.
  - ▸ of a particular type, or with particular features back, leafy, narrow, one-way, residential, suburban, tree-lined Take time to explore all the back streets of the city, away from the crowded centre.
  - ▸ most important high, main You'll find the museum on the main street of the town.
- N+n person entertainer, performer, trader, vendor Liverpool City Council recently introduced a scheme to allow street entertainers to perform under licence in ten designated performance areas.
  - ▸ activity theatre, trading People toured the city, stopping at various venues for talks and street theatre.

strength N
1 the fact of somone or something being strong

- adj+N of the muscles brute, muscular, physical These exercises will increase muscular strength and cardiovascular endurance.
  - ▸ great considerable, great, superhuman, superior The outward appearance of the castle is still nearly entire, the great strength and solidity of its walls having resisted the ravages of time and man.
  - ▸ of the mind inner, mental The task breaks some people, but I have an inner strength that allows me to continue.
- v+N have strength have, possess Yet these people possess the necessary mental strength to continue to practice.
  - ▸ get more strength boost, gain in, gather, grow in, improve, increase, maximize The German economy is continuing to grow in strength. ◆ Physical activity improves muscle strength and muscle mass.
  - ▸ take someone's strength away exhaust, sap, use up This was back-breaking, disgusting work on your hands and knees that sapped your strength and destroyed your health.
  - ▸ get strength back recover, regain, renew The animal regained the strength in both hind legs and had 5 more years of active life.
  - ▸ use strength draw on, use She had enormous reserves of mental strength to draw on.
- N+v decline, decrease, ebb, fail, wane My strength was waning as I ran at a punishing pace.
- N+of argument, belief, character, conviction, feeling We didn't anticipate the strength of feeling that exists among workers on this issue.

2 something that someone or something does very well

- adj+N important or main great, key, main, major A key strength of the company is its ability to react quickly to changes in the market. ◆ Make a list of your main strengths and weaknesses.
  - ▸ someone's or something's own individual, own, particular We all have our own particular strengths.
- v+N find out or show strengths highlight, identify, recognize The questionnaire will help you identify your strengths and areas where you need more help.
  - ▸ make use of strengths build on, capitalize on, draw on We need to build on these strengths and ensure that the university remains at the forefront of research in the field.

strengthen V make something stronger, more powerful, or more effective

- adv+V considerably, dramatically, enormously, greatly, immeasurably, immensely, significantly, substantially The Highways Agency has substantially strengthened its ability to detect and respond to incidents.
- V+n relationship bond, cooperation, link, partnership, relationship, unity It involves consultation, cooperation and dialogue, strengthening bonds within the community.
  - ▸ political system or economy democracy, economy, regime By respecting individual and minority rights, democracy is strengthened, not weakened as many people assume.
  - ▸ belief belief, faith Illness can test, but also strengthen someone's faith.
  - ▸ ability ability, capability, capacity The aim is to strengthen our ability to spot problems before they become critical.
  - ▸ power control, power We shall vote to strengthen the power of the Mayor and the London Assembly.
  - ▸ confidence or determination confidence, resolve The obvious injustice only strengthened their resolve to fight back.
  - ▸ argument or opinion argument, view She used skilfully chosen quotations from the literature to strengthen her arguments.

stress N
worried or nervous feelings that stop you relaxing

- adj+N in a particular situation emotional, occupational, post-traumatic, psychological, workplace, work-related I was doing a highly specific yoga exercise to relieve work-related stress.
  - ▸ severe acute, enormous, excessive, extreme, severe He was under enormous stress at work. ◆ Lifestyle and excessive stress exaggerate these symptoms.
  - ▸ unnecessary undue, unnecessary You must avoid all unnecessary stress and make sure you relax.
  - ▸ lasting for a long time chronic, prolonged Prolonged stress can lead to depression.
- v+N deal with or reduce stress alleviate, avoid, combat, cope with, counteract, deal with, ease, eliminate, handle, lessen, manage, minimize, reduce, relieve, tackle, withstand The exercises can help to alleviate stress and mental ill-health.
  - ▸ cause stress cause, create, induce, place on sb, put sb under It is important for non-smokers to understand the enormous stress that the new rules place on smokers.
  - ▸ feel stress be under, experience, suffer from, undergo Managers experience stress not only from these activities, but also from the need to adhere to budgets and production schedules.
- and/or anxiety, burnout, depression, exhaustion, fatigue, frustration, hassle, insomnia, overwork, strain, tension, tiredness, trauma, worry The touring life has its stresses and strains, but it seems to suit Joss Stone.

stress V
emphasize an idea, fact, detail etc

- adv+V emphatically, heavily, repeatedly, rightly, strongly This point was heavily stressed in the article.

If you want to emphasize the importance of something, you can say that it cannot be stressed enough: It cannot be stressed enough how important it is to watch what your young child eats.

- V+n need or importance benefit, centrality, desirability, importance, necessity, need, primacy, significance, urgency, value The advice stresses the need to review all relevant information about the medical history of the patient.
  - fact or point fact, idea, point He stressed the fact that time was limited, as the deadline was only a few weeks away.
  - role role This episode stresses the key role played by managers in helping to improve staff performance.

stressful ADJ involving or causing great pressure or worry

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, incredibly, particularly, really, so, very A child might develop problems following an extremely stressful event.
  - rather fairly, a little, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, slightly, somewhat We managed this task with ease, even if at times it proved somewhat stressful.
  - in a particular way emotionally, personally People tend to seek comfort from chocolate under emotionally stressful conditions.
- ADJ+n situation circumstances, conditions, environment, situation Many animals react badly in new and stressful environments. ◉ We all face difficult and stressful situations throughout the course of our lives.
  - work job, occupation Always remember that teaching can be a very stressful job.
  - time day, moment, period, time, week Yoga has helped me deal with stressful times during my life.
  - experience or process event, experience, process Moving home can be one of the most stressful experiences of your life.
  - life, or way of life life, lifestyle These suggestions will help you to lead a healthier, less stressful life.

stretch V go beyond what can be expected

- V+n what people are willing to believe credibility, credulity This story stretches credibility and is widely recognized as being mythical.
  - what people can imagine or achieve boundaries, the bounds of sth, imagination, ingenuity We are aiming to expand our e-learning capacity and stretch the boundaries of education and learning.

stretch N an area of land or water

- adj+N of a particular size endless, large, long, narrow, short, small, vast, wide, three-mile, half-mile etc This is one of the world's finest and longest stretches of sand. ◉ Vast stretches of forest have already been felled. ◉ The villa backs onto a two-mile stretch of sandy beach.
  - beautiful beautiful, magnificent, picturesque, scenic, spectacular, unspoilt The Costa Smeralda is one of the most beautiful stretches of the Sardinian coastline.
  - with a particular feature barren, coastal, gentle, navigable, open, sandy, straight, tidal, uphill The speed limit is too low on open stretches of road where there is good visibility.
- N+of beach, canal, coast, coastline, highway, moorland, motorway, river, road, sand, water, waterway Just outside Kuantan is Teluk Cempedak, a fabulous stretch of beach near the Karyaneka Handicraft Centre.

strict ADJ involving or demanding care in following rules

- adv+ADJ very or too extremely, overly, so, too, very Overly strict enforcement of school rules can encourage truancy.
  - rather fairly, a little, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, reasonably, relatively, somewhat The Inland Revenue rules are quite strict on this issue.
- ADJ+n when people must follow rules strictly adherence, compliance, enforcement, supervision We act in accordance with a code of practice which includes strict adherence to the rules about confidentiality.
  - rules criteria, guidelines, regulations, rules There are strict rules that govern the import of meat.
  - limit deadline, limit, time limit Strict limits are set on the levels of lead in drinking water.
  - control control The report advocated maintaining strict controls on the use of biotechnology.

stride V
walk with energy and confidence; make progress in a confident way

- adv+V ahead, away, boldly, briskly, confidently, forth, forward, purposefully Our scientists were struggling to cope with poor facilities while our international competitors were striding ahead. ◉ The band strode purposefully on stage.

strife N
fighting or disagreement between people or groups

- adj+N between groups civil, factional, internal, internecine, sectarian The clan had played a prominent role in the warfare and internecine strife that wracked the border region.
  - types of strife domestic, economic, ethnic, financial, industrial, marital, political, racial, religious, social She grew up in the 1970s, a decade torn by industrial strife and inflation.
- v+N cause, end, foment, provoke A responsible government must not allow anyone to succeed in fomenting strife and disorder.

strike V affect someone or something seriously and suddenly

- n+V general unpleasant event calamity, disaster, tragedy However, tragedy struck in 2007 when her husband died.
  - specific unpleasant event earthquake, hurricane, plague, tornado, tsunami The hotel was under construction when the earthquake struck.

strike N

1 when people refuse to work as a protest

- adj+N affecting many or all workers all-out, general, mass, nationwide If the union held an all-out strike of depot workers, the company would be forced to shut down in days.
- official/ not official official, unofficial, wildcat By 1981, wildcat strikes were outlawed by the new Conservative government.
- lasting a particular length of time indefinite, two-hour, one-day etc The planned 48-hour strike is part of the ongoing dispute with the airline bosses.
- v+N organize a strike call, organize, stage The National Union of Teachers is staging a strike over pay on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.
- take part in a strike be called out on, be involved in, be on, come out on, go on, take part in They went on strike against the proposed wage cuts.

You can also say that people take strike action: We agreed to take strike action to defend our jobs.

- be affected by a strike be affected by, be disrupted by, be hit by The whole railway network will be hit by a strike next week.
- avoid a strike avert Talks are being held to try and avert a New Year's Eve strike by Tube station workers.
- stop a strike call off, end The strike was called off and the miners returned to work.
- defeat a strike break, crush, defeat, end Government troops were called out to crush strikes, at times firing on protesters.
- threaten a strike threaten At first, their leaders talked tough, for example threatening mass strikes.

- N+n action, ballot, pay, vote A site meeting has already called for a strike ballot in protest at company plans to cut wages.

- n+of+N series, succession, wave A wave of strikes had brought down the government.

2 a military attack

- adj+N air, long-range, massive, military, nuclear, pre-emptive, terrorist Modern warfare is dependent upon long-range strikes.

- v+N launch, make, unleash We knew there would be far-reaching political and economic consequences if a strike was launched on the city.

striking ADJ

very interesting or noticeable

- adv+ADJ in a particular way architecturally, visually The art deco buildings make Miami an architecturally striking place.
- very especially, immediately, particularly, quite, really, so, truly, very What is immediately striking about the data in Figure 1 is the huge variation in reaction times. • The region offers splendid landscapes which are particularly striking.
- rather rather, somewhat I noticed a rather striking absence of senior members at the meeting.

- ADJ+n similarity likeness, parallel, resemblance, similarity Lesley bears a striking resemblance to the actress Catherine Zeta Jones.
- difference contrast, difference While all of the economies in the region grew quickly during the period, there were some striking differences between them.
- feature or example example, feature, illustration The original building was a striking example of library architecture of the nineteen-thirties. • He offered a striking illustration of the point that I was making.
- picture illustration, image, picture, portrait His collection includes striking black-and-white images of the city in the snow.
- result, or what someone has found out finding, result One of the most striking findings was the way that excessive speed contributes to serious and fatal accidents.

string N

a group or series of things

- N+of letters, numbers, words, or symbols characters, digits, letters, numbers, symbols, words In the past, email addresses were anonymous strings of numbers or letters followed by the identifier of the ISP.
- successes or performances awards, hits, performances, successes, victories The team produced a string of fantastic performances to finish in the top four of the league.
- results results Some students have received strings of A results for their exams.*
- failures defeats He has sunk to number 10 in the world rankings after a string of defeats last year.
- crimes convictions, murders, offences There has been a string of high-profile child murders over the past few years.
- geographical features beaches, islands, villages The coast is very crowded but there is a string of unspoilt villages a few miles inland.

strive V make a great effort to achieve something

- adv+V all the time always, consistently, constantly, continually, continuously We are continually striving towards improvement in our service.
- with great effort desperately, earnestly, hard, manfully, tirelessly, valiantly She strives tirelessly for excellence and her activities always lead to improvements in patient care.
- with no useful result in vain, vainly He strove vainly to have his enemies expelled from the party.

stroke N

an unexpected but important event or action

- adj+N bold, master His master stroke was to give his rival one of the top jobs, thereby silencing his opposition to the plan.

- N+of luck bad luck, fate, fortune, good fortune, good luck, luck By a stroke of luck, they happened to have a torch with them.
- when somone has a good idea brilliance, genius, inspiration It was a stroke of genius getting her to organize the meeting – she did an excellent job.

stroll N
a slow walk for pleasure

- adj+N easy, gentle, leisurely, pleasant, quiet, relaxing, short Whether you enjoy quiet strolls through idyllic countryside or all-night dance music extravaganzas, you could do a lot worse than visit the Balearic Islands.
- v+N enjoy, go for, take The rest of the group enjoyed a stroll along the canal.

strong ADJ
1 firmly believed, or firmly based on facts

- ADJ+n feeling or opinion commitment, convictions, desire, feeling, opinion, sense, view People admire your strong sense of responsibility, and know that you fulfill your commitments.
- ▸ case or argument argument, case, evidence There is a strong case for doing nothing in this situation.

2 of a high degree or level

- ADJ+n emphasis, focus, interest A strong emphasis on customer focus led to the huge success of telephone banking.

3 unlikely to end or be defeated

- adv+ADJ economically, financially, mentally, physically, spiritually, technically The club is financially strong and we want to keep our finances sound.
- ADJ+n position base, foundation, position, reputation, tradition Considerable on-going investment would be required to maintain the company's strong market position in the future.
- ▸ relationship connection, link, partnership, relationship There are strong connections with other departments working in the same area.

structure N
the way something is organized or arranged

- adj+N connected with a particular area or feature administrative, bureaucratic, corporate, democratic, economic, financial, institutional, legal, organizational, political, social The team found that there was a clear and effective organizational structure for risk management within the service.
- ▸ complicated/not complicated complex, complicated, simple In spoken English, the sentence structure is highly complex.
- ▸ able/not able to be changed easily flexible, rigid This more flexible structure will enable us to form partnerships with other organizations.
- ▸ with different levels hierarchical He argued that the 'top-down' hierarchical structure of the company was having a negative effect on staff morale.
- n+N career, class, family, management, pay, staffing When she left, it was an opportunity for the board to introduce a new management structure.
- v+N create a structure create, define, determine, develop, establish, form, implement, impose, reinforce These institutions are guaranteed the freedom to define their own internal structure.
- ▸ change a structure alter, change, review, revise, simplify The membership structure was revised to reflect the changes that took place in 1997.

struggle V
try hard to deal with or obtain something

- adv+V with great effort bravely, frantically, furiously, gamely, hard, heroically, manfully, mightily, valiantly For some time he struggled valiantly to find a new backer.
- ▸ with little chance of success desperately, unsuccessfully, vainly For the last decade we have been desperately struggling to overcome a crisis of identity and reputation.
- V+against adversity, capitalism, imperialism, injustice, the odds, oppression, poverty, racism It's a story of a working-class hero struggling against the odds to escape from the harsh reality of his surroundings.
- V+for democracy, freedom, independence, justice, liberation, recognition, survival The people are all struggling for survival and dignity.
- V+with addiction, alcoholism, conscience, debt, depression, emotion, fatigue, grief, guilt, injury, loneliness, temptation You struggle with your own conscience because people's lives are affected by your decision.
- V+infinitive cope, find, keep up, overcome, survive Many children are struggling to cope with the demands of the new curriculum.

struggle N
1 an attempt involving a lot of effort [usually singular]

- adj+N constant, continual, desperate, heroic, life-and-death, uphill We managed in the end, but it was an uphill struggle.
- v+N face, have They face the daily struggle of finding enough food to live on.

2 a fight, war, or disagreement

- adj+N types of struggle armed, factional, ideological, political, proletarian, revolutionary In 2000, the government passed a law giving all fighters who renounced the armed struggle complete amnesty. ◆ The text reveals the ideological struggles within these early Christian communities.
- ▸ serious or violent bitter, desperate, fierce, life-and-death, titanic, violent After a violent struggle, he was shot in the head and fatally wounded.
- ▸ when the people taking part are not equal unequal He finally had to give up the unequal struggle and handed in his resignation.
- v+N carry on a struggle be embroiled in, be involved in, be locked in, conduct, fight, take part in, wage He joined forces with Mamontov, and for two years waged an armed struggle against the Soviet Government.
- ▸ stop a struggle abandon, renounce Many trade unions have abandoned the class struggle in favour of credit cards and private insurance.
- N+v begin, break out, commence, continue, ensue, erupt, intensify, rage A desperate struggle ensued, and the Congress was split in half.
- N+against apartheid, bourgeoisie, capitalism, colonialism, communism, dictatorship, domination, fascism, imperialism, injustice, militarism, oppression, racism, terrorism, tsarism, tyranny There he became active in the struggle against apartheid and a close friend of Nelson Mandela.

- N+for autonomy, democracy, dominance, domination, emancipation, equality, freedom, independence, justice, liberation, liberty, peace, self-determination, suffrage, supremacy, survival We have to do this, otherwise the struggle for our independence will have been in vain.

stubborn ADJ

not willing to change; difficult to defeat or persuade

- ADJ+n conviction, defence, determination, insistence, opposition, persistence, pride, refusal, resistance, silence, will He was standing in the way of peace with his stubborn refusal to come to an agreement over land.

If someone is stubborn, you can say that they have a stubborn streak: We share the same values; pride, directness, generosity and, if I'm honest, a certain stubborn streak.

- and/or arrogant, determined, independent, obstinate, opinionated, persistent, proud, stupid He is a quiet, stubborn and determined man.

student N

someone who goes to university, college, or school

- adj+N good bright, brilliant, good, outstanding, promising, talented She received an award as the most promising student of the year.
  - average or not good average, poor, weak Weaker students will find the course challenging.
  - types of student doctoral, full-time, mature, part-time, PhD, postgraduate, research, undergraduate I am assisting a doctoral student in international management.
- v+N attract or take students admit, attract, recruit, welcome We welcome many overseas students to our programmes every year.
  - encourage students encourage, engage, motivated, support Encouraging the student in this way is very good for their motivation.
  - teach or assess assess, educate, mark, supervise, teach, train He currently supervises seven doctoral students.
- N+v attend, be enrolled on, be registered on/ for, do, learn, study, take, work About 800 students are registered for our degrees each year. ◉ Students take a language option as an integral part of their programme.

study N

a research project

- adj+N academic, clinical, empirical, historical, in-depth, qualitative, scientific Scientific studies have enabled scholars to draw new conclusions on technology transfer.
- n+N evaluation, feasibility, field, follow-up, laboratory, research The institute completed a detailed feasibility study on the development of a commercial mediation centre in Moscow.
- v+N carry out a study carry out, conduct, perform, undertake There is a need to undertake studies to assess, identify and quantify the possible impacts of climate change on tourism.
  - publish a study present, publish In a study published in September, the department found a wide variation in prices charged by local authorities.
  - ask someone to carry out a study commission The government has commissioned a study of budgeting models in schools.
- N+v conclude, confirm, demonstrate, evaluate, find, highlight, identify, illustrate, indicate, reveal, show, suggest Several studies suggest that these facilities can help reduce the incidence of fatal overdoses.
- N+into aspect, attitude, behaviour, cause, effect, effectiveness, feasibility, future, impact, nature, possibility, potential, use, viability They have recently commissioned a study into the feasibility of attracting artists and other creative businesses into Thurrock.

study V

think or learn about something

- adv+V carefully, closely, diligently, extensively, intensely, intensively, scientifically, systematically, thoroughly, widely A number of historians have intensively studied specific aspects of 'traditional' customs.

stunned ADJ

very shocked, upset, or surprised

- adv+ADJ very or completely absolutely, completely, totally, utterly I was totally stunned by the response to the appeal.
  - rather a little, rather, somewhat I'm fine now, if a little stunned by what has happened.
- ADJ+n amazement, disbelief, reaction, silence My first reaction is stunned amazement.

stunning ADJ

very impressive or beautiful

- adv+ADJ in a particular way aesthetically, architecturally, aurally, graphically, scenically, technically, visually This debut film is visually stunning and emotionally powerful.
  - very absolutely, just, particularly, quite, really, simply, totally, truly Their new album is just stunning. ◉ Acquiring footage in a high definition video format can result in the creation of some truly stunning imagery.
  - rather pretty INFORMAL, rather The views from all directions are pretty stunning.
- ADJ+n view or place backdrop, beach, coastline, countryside, landscape, location, panorama, scenery, sunset, surroundings, view, vista The story is set against the stunning scenery of the South African bush.
  - piece of work architecture, cinematography, costume, display, graphics, photograph, photography, visual The photography is absolutely stunning and there are some amazing close-ups.
  - what someone does debut, performance, victory The singer is renowned for his stunning live performances.

- v+ADJ be, look, sound The bride will look stunning on the day, so it is important that the groom look his best.

stunt N
something dangerous or unusual done to entertain or impress people

- adj+N acrobatic, aerobatic, amazing, breathtaking, clever, crazy, dangerous, daredevil, daring, outrageous, silly, spectacular, stupid Branson is known as much for his daredevil stunts as for his business.
- n+N publicity Part of the campaign was a colourful publicity stunt outside Parliament, involving several well-known actors.
- v+N arrange, attempt, design, do, organize, perform, pull, stage, try He performed daredevil stunts, like hanging from power lines. ◆ Don't try to pull a stunt like that again!

stupid ADJ
not intelligent or sensible

- adv+ADJ very or completely completely, downright, extraordinarily, incredibly, monumentally, plain, remarkably, ridiculously, terminally, unbelievably, utterly The government's view is completely misguided, naive or just plain stupid.
- ▶ rather pretty INFORMAL, rather You'd be pretty stupid not to agree with it.
- v+ADJ appear, be, feel, look, seem, sound I stood outside the door, feeling stupid.

stupidity N lack of intelligence or thought

- adj+N blatant, blind, complete, crass, gross, plain, sheer, utter This performance thankfully refrains from the crass stupidity of his previous movie roles.
- n+of+N act, height, moment To give up now would be the height of stupidity.
- and/ or arrogance, greed, ignorance, incompetence There is a big difference between ignorance and stupidity – one is curable.

style N
the individual way that something is done, played etc.

- adj+N typical characteristic, distinctive, inimitable, personal, typical, unique Her distinctive style is immediately recognizable in her unusual use of colour.
- ▶ traditional/ not traditional classic, contemporary, modern, traditional The apartment is decorated in a contemporary style.
- ▶ in a particular area architectural, conversational, literary, musical, visual, vocal This album covers a wide range of musical styles and genres.
- n+N boardroom, dance, driving, jazz, leadership, learning, management, playing, prose, singing, teaching, writing The course enabled him to assess his leadership style.
- v+N adopt, choose, develop, emulate, establish, evolve, favour, have The band has developed a style that is ideally suited to formal wedding receptions and hotel dinner dances.

stylish ADJ attractive and showing good taste

- adv+ADJ very effortlessly, exceptionally, extremely, incredibly, seriously, supremely, truly, wonderfully This extremely stylish new residence was built in 2006.
- ▶ in a particular way visually But the film is so tightly edited and visually stylish that the events are always absorbing.
- ▶ rather pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather Although the coat looks pretty stylish, it's light and comfortable to wear.
- and/ or comfortable, compact, contemporary, elegant, modern, sleek, sophisticated This is arguably the most elegant and stylish hotel on the French Riviera.

subject N an idea, problem etc that people talk about or write about

- adj+N causing difficulties or strong feelings complex, controversial, difficult, emotive, sensitive, serious, taboo This is one of the definitive texts on a very complex subject.
- ▶ important important, main The book contains two chapters on this important subject.
- v+N start talking about a subject approach, bring up, broach, get onto, touch on Somehow, we got onto the subject of education.
- ▶ change/ not change a subject change, stick to, wander off/ from They seemed annoyed, so Sophie discreetly changed the subject.
- ▶ stop talking about a subject drop I don't want to talk about it, so can we drop the subject?
- ▶ talk or write about a subject address, cover, deal with, debate, discuss, examine, explore, pursue, research, study, tackle, talk on/ about, treat, write on/ about The author tackles a particularly difficult subject here.
- N+of complaint, consultation, controversy, conversation, criticism, debate, discussion, dispute, inquiry, investigation, ridicule, scrutiny, speculation The exact relationship between the media and their audiences has been the subject of debate since the media were first seriously studied.

subjective ADJ
based on your own feelings and ideas

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, very We could argue forever, music is highly subjective.
- ▶ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, somewhat The nature of this type of research means that, to a point, data analysis is somewhat subjective.
- ▶ mostly essentially, largely In the past, therefore, evaluation of the quality of a translation has been largely subjective.
- ▶ completely entirely, purely, totally, wholly Our response to a great work of art is often spontaneous and purely subjective.
- ADJ+n opinion or feeling feeling, impression, opinion, response, view, viewpoint These comments are purely my subjective opinion, not those of my employer.

- ▸ judgement or analysis assessment, evaluation, interpretation, judgement, perception Medical images are often complex, of poor visual quality and open to subjective interpretation.
- ▸ quality element, factor, nature The fact that quality of life is a purely subjective factor is given scant consideration.
- ▸ experience experience Fatigue is a subjective experience.

subject to PHR VB cause something or someone to be treated in a particular way

- V+n examination criticism, scrutiny, testing This assessment is then subjected to external scrutiny by one of our neighbouring authorities.
- ▸ something unpleasant abuse, assault, beating, cross-examination, harassment, humiliation, indignity, interrogation, intimidation, ordeal, persecution, ridicule, stress, taunt, torture, violence Scores of journalists remain in prison, however, and many more continue to be subjected to intimidation and violence.

submission N
a document given to someone for their decision

- adj+N formal or written formal, written Some reports from Canada have been included in our written submission.
- ▸ spoken oral Although he made no oral sumbissions, I am grateful for his assistance.
- ▸ by more than one person or a group joint The Museum put forward a joint submission with several other historic societies.
- ▸ not asked for unsolicited Never send unsolicited submissions, as these will probably never reach the right person.
- ▸ first and possibly changing later draft, first, initial, original PDF is the preferred format, but other formats will be accepted for initial submissions.
- ▸ last final Responses from the consultation will be considered and taken into account in our final submission to the Secretary of State.
- ▸ arriving late late Late submissions will not be considered.
- ▸ done electronically electronic, online Electronic submissions are preferred.
- ▸ involving a lot of details detailed I would be very happy to make a more detailed submission on this issue.
- ▸ new new Each new submission is compared with all the existing information.

- v+N prepare a submission draft, prepare, produce, write The submission was written by their legal adviser.
- ▸ send a submission to someone make, present, send, submit We request that submissions are sent to us as early as possible.
- ▸ receive a submission receive Your tutor will grade each module within 24 hours of receiving your submission.
- ▸ want people to send a submission encourage, invite, welcome We invite submissions for the Spring newsletter.
- ▸ consider or discuss a submission assess, consider, discuss, review Hundreds of submissions were carefully reviewed by the exhibition jurors.
- ▸ accept/not accept a submission accept, approve, reject A site administrator will review and approve the submission before publishing it on the website.

submit V formally give something to someone in authority

- V+n a request for something application, bid, claim, form, order, request, tender You must read our Terms of Use Agreement before submitting your application.
- ▸ information data, details, evidence, information, material You will be asked to submit further written evidence to back up your claim.
- ▸ a plan or idea idea, plan, proposal Since submitting the original proposal, some modifications have been made.
- ▸ written work you have done abstract, article, assignment, copy, coursework, dissertation, document, entry, essay, manuscript, paper, report, review, thesis, work We have submitted a paper to the minister which draws upon evidence from the study.
- ▸ question, answer, or opinion comment, question, response, view You can also submit your own questions for use on the site.
- ▸ more than one piece of work portfolio You are required to submit a portfolio which demonstrates your academic knowledge.
- ▸ by more than one person petition They met the President and submitted a petition signed by over 8,000 pensioners.
- ▸ for discussion in a meeting motion If you would like to submit a motion that will be discussed and voted on, please submit it more than 48 hours before the meeting.

- V+for analysis, approval, assessment, consideration, discussion, examination, inclusion, publication, review, testing This article was submitted for publication earlier this year.

subscribe to PHR VB agree with an idea

- V+n belief, doctrine, idea, notion, principle, theory, values, view I have long subscribed to the belief that we are all responsible for our own continuing good health.

subscription N an agreement to pay to receive something regularly

- adj+N continuing for a year, month etc annual, full, monthly, one-year, quarterly, weekly, yearly The journal is issued quarterly at an annual subscription of £200.
- ▸ continuing for your whole life life, lifetime The life subscription traditionally payable on graduation has been suspended, so new graduates now automatically join.
- ▸ who the subscription is for corporate, individual, institutional, personal, single Each person nominated in a corporate subscription enjoys the same borrowing rights as an individual external member.
- ▸ for a short period to see if you like it trial All delegates will receive a 3 month trial subscription to the daily Energy Price Messenger report.

▸ free free Take out a free subscription to SiteFinder for the latest news about education resources on the web.

▸ for receiving something using the Internet electronic, email, Internet, online The full text of each article is available through online subscription to the New York Review of Books.

• n+N journal, magazine, membership The membership subscription is £50 for a family for a year.

• v+N give money for a subscription activate, buy, have, pay, purchase, take out Islanders have to pay a yearly subscription for their ambulance service.

▸ receive a subscription get, receive All members receive a free subscription to the magazine 'School's Out'.

▸ say that you no longer want a subscription cancel, terminate Unless you cancel your subscription, payment will be taken from your account on an annual basis.

▸ ask for a subscription to continue for longer renew The summer issue of the magazine will be dispatched only to those members who have renewed their subscription by the end of May.

• N+n cost or payment charge, cost, fee, payment, price, rate Subscription charges are non-refundable.

▸ service package, scheme, service Both channels are available as part of Sky's subscription package.

▸ list of people having a subscription list To join our free subscription list, please send us your email address.

subside V

become weaker, less violent, or less severe

• adv+V eventually, gradually, quickly, slowly, somewhat The rain gradually subsided.

• n+V feeling anger, excitement, fear, pain, panic, symptoms Symptoms of a cold usually subside within 5–7 days.

▸ bad weather flood, rain, storm, wind By the time the wind subsided, over 40 ships were wrecked.

subsidy N

an amount paid by government to reduce the cost of something

• adj+N large generous, heavy, high, huge, large, massive, substantial The aviation industry gets huge public subsidies.

▸ small low, small A new report showed that relatively small subsidies would be needed to keep the Selby coalfields open.

▸ paid for by ordinary people through taxes public Huge public subsidies are routinely devoted towards the encouragement of rail use.

▸ direct direct There are no direct subsidies available for solar installations.

▸ indirect hidden, indirect Hidden subsidies to air transport in the form of tax exemptions on fuel and tickets cost the country an estimated $9.2 billion.

▸ type of subsidy agricultural, domestic We are committed to phasing out the agricultural subsidies that keep African goods out of our markets.

• v+N get a subsidy attract, get, receive All local authority funded public libraries are eligible to receive a subsidy on official publications.

▸ give a subsidy give, offer, pay, provide Large subsidies were given to EU farmers.

▸ increase a subsidy increase EU countries increased their subsidies to fishing fleets from $80 million to $580 million between 1983 and 1990.

▸ reduce a subsidy cut, reduce, scrap Norris also promises to increase bus fares by reducing subsidies.

▸ get rid of a subsidy eliminate, end, remove, withdraw It is not politically feasible to remove subsidies to conventional energy sources overnight.

• N+to agriculture, employers, farmers, industry, producers The government stopped the subsidy to the mining industry.

substance N

important ideas, or the basic meaning of something

• N+of argument, book, case, complaint, concern, decision, discussion, evidence, matter, policy, report, work The substance of the complaints was wide-ranging, and related both to the care of residents and the state of the premises.

substantial ADJ

large in amount or degree

• ADJ+n number or amount amount, cost, discount, growth, increase, investment, loss, majority, minority, number, period, proportion, quantity, reduction, saving, sum He withdrew a substantial amount of cash.

▸ improvement or advantage benefit, boost, gain, growth, improvement, progress, reward, support Even a low-level activity, such as walking, can produce substantial health benefits.

▸ problem damage, disadvantage, loss, risk The accident caused substantial damage to the car.

▸ change alteration, change, difference We applied for planning permission to make substantial alterations to the building.

▸ experience experience He has had substantial experience of working with children.

▸ effect effect, impact Cuts in the funding of higher education will have a substantial impact on students.

▸ evidence evidence There is no really substantial evidence that many herbal remedies work.

substitute N

something used instead of something else

• adj+N good or very good effective, excellent, good, perfect Bert Tucker discovered that broomsticks are not a good substitute for ski sticks.

▸ acceptable acceptable, adequate, reasonable, satisfactory, suitable, useful If fresh peas are hard to find, frozen peas make a reasonable substitute.

▸ not good imperfect, inadequate, poor Even a good translation is a poor substitute for the original poetic text.

▸ cheap cheap Black cardamom was originally used in India as a cheap substitute for green cardamom pods.

▸ very similar to the thing replaced close, direct If the product you order is out of stock, we will offer you a close substitute.

- v+N be, become, provide, use A variety of substitutes can be used instead of milk products.

subtle ADJ

not obvious

- adv+ADJ very extremely, very The book contains a very subtle blend of real life with a hint of magic.
- ▸ rather fairly, quite, rather, relatively His humour is usually quite subtle.
- ADJ+n change or difference change, difference, distinction, improvement, shift, variation It's a subtle distinction, but it's a very important one.
- ▸ colour, flavour, light etc aroma, blend, colour, flavour, fragrance, lighting, shade, taste, tone Fennel seeds have a subtle, sweet anise-like flavour.
- ▸ something written or spoken argument, clue, detail, hint, humour, message, point, question, reference She spends the week dropping subtle hints, which I totally fail to notice.
- ▸ method or process approach, method, process, technique, way Other more sophisticated and subtle marketing techniques were employed successfully by the team.
- ▸ effect effect, influence Even subtle nutritional effects on the fetus may have longer term adverse effects on health.
- ▸ feature or quality aspect, feature, nuance, quality The film is full of subtle nuances.
- and/or clever, complex, delicate, effective, powerful, profound, sophisticated The relationship between body and mind is subtle and complex.

subtlety N

the quality of being complicated or difficult to notice

- adj+N great, infinite The English language is capable of great subtlety, and we have many and various way of expressing what we wish to say.
- v+N have subtlety have She has such subtlety and style, she can switch to humour from high drama in a split second.
- ▸ understand subtlety appreciate, understand Adult filmgoers will appreciate the subtlety of the original film.
- ▸ not have subtlety lack They can lack subtlety in their presentation of both characters and plot.
- and/ or complexity, delicacy, intricacy, nuance, sophistication Open questions, where people respond in their own words, enable greater expression of subtlety and complexity of opinion.

succeed V

achieve something planned or attempted

- adv+V finally eventually, finally, ultimately Morris swam out and eventually succeeded in saving him.
- ▸ in some way but not completely almost, largely, nearly, not entirely, partially They only partially succeeded.
- ▸ completely completely, fully For e-learning to succeed fully, we need people to be independent learners.
- ▸ in a way that people admire admirably, brilliantly, spectacularly, triumphantly, well The show succeeds admirably in being smart, funny and entertaining.
- ▸ rarely rarely People who try to lose weight by dieting alone rarely succeed.
- ▸ definitely certainly The exhibition has certainly succeeded, and has delighted buyers and press alike.
- V+in aim, endeavour, goal, mission, objective, quest We now know that the alchemists could never have suceeded in their endeavours to create gold.

success N

1 achievement of something you planned to do

- adj+N great amazing, considerable, extraordinary, great, huge, incredible, remarkable, significant I've been growing the plant with considerable success.
- ▸ to some degree but not much limited, little, mixed, modest, partial Researchers have attempted with limited success in the past to empirically measure outcomes of citizenship education.
- ▸ continuing continued, continuing Our continued success is a result of teamwork.
- ▸ happening at the beginning/end initial, ultimate After initial success, such screening programmes were subject to criticisms.
- ▸ economic economic The author believes that using language correctly is a key to economic success.
- v+N have or achieve success achieve, enjoy, experience, have, meet with I wanted to know if you had had any success dealing with the professionals.

If something is the main factor in helping you have success, you can use the phrase the key to success: Effort is the key to success.

- ▸ make sure that you have success assure, ensure, guarantee Even with more resources, success is not guaranteed.
- ▸ judge whether someone or something has success assess, determine, evaluate, gauge, measure, monitor The model allows us to assess the success of various reform proposals.
- ▸ show that someone or something has had success demonstrate, highlight, reflect, show Our growth record shows our success in meeting customer requirements.
- ▸ say that you have had success claim, report The Government has claimed success for its Street Crime initiative.
- ▸ celebrate your success celebrate Today is about celebrating the success of social enterprise and looking to the future.
- ▸ result in success lead to, result in The enhanced facilities in the Faculty of Science have already led to significant success in terms of attracting funding for projects.
- ▸ repeat previous success emulate, match, repeat, replicate How can the EU replicate this success in the wider region surrounding it?
- ▸ use previous success to have more success build on, capitalize on This event will build on the success of previous years.
- ▸ guarantee success guarantee It is hoped that they can guarantee the economic success of their business.
- N+n criteria, factors, indicator, rate Our personal injury solicitors have specialist experience and a 97 per cent success rate in holiday accident claims.

2 a plan or attempt that achieves good results

- adj+N having extremely good results big, enormous, fantastic, great, huge, major, massive, outstanding, overwhelming, phenomenal, real, resounding, roaring, spectacular, tremendous, unqualified The European Summit in Cardiff was a great success and established the city as a venue for major events.
- ▸ good and surprising amazing, extraordinary, incredible, remarkable, runaway, unprecedented The festival was, however, an amazing success.
- ▸ having moderate results modest, partial Initiatives to help poorer people into work have been a modest success.
- ▸ having success very quickly immediate, instant, overnight, runaway The campaign is a runaway success exceeding all expectations.
- ▸ unusual or interesting enough to mention notable Eurofoot has been a notable success, encouraging male and female football players to compete in European competitions.
- ▸ complete complete, total The operation has been a complete success and he doesn't need to have any follow-up treatment.
- ▸ proved by facts proven The project was piloted in 2002 and was a proven success.

- v+N be a success prove Students took part in a sailing trip and this proved a great success.
- ▸ think or say that something is a success consider sth, hail sth, judge sth A similar scheme was initially unpopular but was later hailed a success.
- ▸ repeat a success emulate, repeat, replicate We are hoping to repeat the successes of 2008.

successful ADJ

achieving the result that you want

- adv+ADJ very enormously, extremely, highly, hugely, immensely, incredibly, massively, outstandingly, phenomenally, really, remarkably, spectacularly, tremendously, truly, very, wildly The event was hugely successful and positively received by the industry.
- ▸ rather fairly, moderately, pretty INFORMAL, quite, reasonably, relatively We believe that the current system has been quite successful in achieving this aim.
- ▸ completely completely, totally, wholly The treatment was completely successful and he will not need an operation.
- ▸ in most ways broadly, generally, largely, mostly Mayor Bloomberg has been largely successful in winning the argument that passive smoking is dangerous for workers.
- ▸ in some ways but not in others not completely, not entirely, partially, partly Some of these strategies were not entirely successful.
- ▸ in a particular way academically, commercially, economically, financially All the shows were commercially successful.
- ▸ at the end of something eventually, ultimately Nuffield waged a robust and ultimately successful lobbying campaign.

- v+ADJ be successful prove Their campaign to bring Broadband to the village has proved successful.
- ▸ to be judged as being successful be considered, be deemed, be judged The experiment was deemed successful.
- and/ or ambitious, enjoyable, popular, profitable, respected, rewarding, unsuccessful I would like to thank Bob and his team for organizing a very successful and enjoyable show. ◉ All candidates (whether successful or unsuccessful) receive helpful written comments.

succession N

a series of things of the same type

- adj+N a lot, or for a long time constant, continuous, endless, long, perpetual, unbroken, whole They quickly left the show, and were followed by a long succession of presenters. ◉ From 1.30pm onwards there's a whole succession of shows.
- ▸ happening quickly rapid There was a rapid succession of songs.
- ▸ confusing bewildering The story unfurls through a bewildering succession of scenes.

succumb V

lose your ability to fight against someone or something with the result that it controls you

- adv+V finally eventually, finally, ultimately Sadly, the tree may be dead, having finally succumbed to years of assault.
- ▸ quickly easily, quickly, rapidly, soon Professor Longair exuded such infectious enthusiasm that we quickly succumbed to his charm.
- ▸ slowly gradually, slowly He gradually succumbed to the disease and died peacefully in his sleep.

- V+to an attractive quality charm, lure, temptation Sometimes a student succumbs to the temptation to cheat as the only means of catching up.
- ▸ an illness or injury attack, cancer, disease, illness, infection, injury, wound Many men who survived the initial amputation succumbed later to bacterial infections.
- ▸ an influence effect, influence, power, pressure Three of them succumbed to the effects of the gas.

sudden ADJ

happening very quickly and unexpectedly

- ADJ+n increase growth, increase, influx, leap, rise, surge The data would indicate that genetics is unlikely to be the prime cause of this sudden increase in diabetes cases.
- ▸ decrease or worsening collapse, decline, deterioration, drop, fall, loss, reduction If there is a sudden pressure drop, the engine can stall.
- ▸ change change, reversal, shift, switch, transformation Be prepared for sudden changes in the weather.
- ▸ appearance/disappearance appearance, arrival, departure, disappearance, withdrawal Jack jumped, startled by Thor's sudden appearance.
- ▸ movement jerk, jump, movement Avoid sudden movements which can startle an animal.
- ▸ stop halt, stop Whenever he changed gear, the car would come to a sudden halt and we would all be thrown forwards.
- ▸ strong amount of something burst, explosion, flash, gust, outburst, rush, spurt She found a sudden burst of energy, and pulled herself out of the mud.
- ▸ death or illness attack, death, demise, illness Police are investigating the sudden death of a man.

- thought or feeling desire, fear, feeling, impulse, interest, pain, realisation, shock, thought, urge I had a sudden urge to see her, and tell her that I loved her.
- noise noise A sudden noise startled him.
- silence silence There was a sudden silence as he came into the room.
- start/end end, onset People who have a stroke experience a sudden onset of disability.
- period of bad weather downpour, shower, squall, storm Her sweatsuit was soaked by the sudden downpour that had caught her on her morning run.

• and/or dramatic, inexplicable, severe, sharp, unexpected, unexplained, violent Public liability insurance covers sudden and unexpected incidents that take place during the insured period.

suffer V

1 feel pain in body or mind

• adv+V very much badly, considerably, greatly, heavily, severely, terribly I suffered badly from allergies when I was younger.
- in a way that is not necessary needlessly, unnecessarily I feel that I was punished and made to suffer unnecessarily.

2 experience something very unpleasant or painful

• V+n damage or an injury damage, hardship, harm, injury, loss The city suffered serious damage during the air-raids.
- a problem blow, crisis, difficulties, problem, setback Phoebe's wedding plans suffered a setback when the reception venue went bankrupt.
- an attack or violence abuse, attack, persecution, violence 20 schools a week suffer an arson attack in the UK. ◉ Thirty-one per cent of abused women suffered physical violence during pregnancy.
- a defeat or failure defeat, failure Liverpool suffered a 4–2 defeat.
- unfair treatment disadvantage, discrimination, harassment, indignity, injustice Many guide dog owners continue to suffer discrimination.
- bad effects or results consequences, effects We offer support to families suffering the effects of separation and divorce.
- a decrease decline, drop, fall The black rhino populations in Africa have suffered dramatic declines as a result of poaching to supply the illegal trade in rhino horn.

• adv+N too much disproportionately, unbearably, unduly Research has shown that ethnic minorities suffer disproportionately from overcrowding and substandard housing.
- very much badly, considerably, dreadfully, greatly, severely, terribly He suffered greatly from the loss of the coffee crop.

suffering N

mental or physical pain or problems

• adj+N great appalling, enormous, extreme, great, immense, intense, massive, real, severe, terrible, tremendous, unbearable, unimaginable, untold There were harrowing tales both of unbearable suffering and remarkable survival.
- unnecessary avoidable, needless, unnecessary Have children vaccinated to avoid unnecessary suffering.
- physical, mental etc emotional, mental, physical, psychological The report examines the human and emotional suffering caused by domestic violence.
- human or animal animal, human, personal The terrible human suffering continues to intensify in Darfur.
- affecting many people widespread Sanctions have caused widespread suffering.
- long-lasting prolonged I am comforted to know that he was spared prolonged suffering.

• v+N cause suffering cause, create, impose, inflict The war inflicted suffering on ordinary civilians.
- make suffering less severe alleviate, ameliorate, ease, lessen, mitigate, reduce, relieve Palliative care focuses on controlling pain and easing suffering.
- reduce suffering to the lowest level minimize Everything must be done to minimise the suffering of the Iraqi people.
- end suffering eliminate, end, stop The cat was put to sleep to end its suffering.
- experience suffering bear, endure, experience, face, undergo Her immense suffering was borne with incredible strength.
- make suffering worse or last for longer aggravate, increase, prolong What happens if saving a life means prolonging suffering in ways that do not seem to be in a child's best interests?
- prevent suffering avoid, prevent This kind of research could save lives and prevent unnecessary suffering.
- see someone else's suffering witness Over the years we have witnessed extreme suffering being imposed on sheep by the live export trade.

• n+of+N amount amount, degree, level, scale I have been appalled by the scale of the suffering.
- cause cause It is man's pride and greed and inhumanity that is the cause of the suffering.
- the act of making suffering less severe alleviation, relief The alleviation of suffering is a basic tenet of most people's morality.

• and/or death, distress, evil, hardship, loss, misery, pain, poverty, sorrow Oxfam works to overcome poverty and suffering throughout the world.

sufficient ADJ

as much as is needed

• adv+ADJ usually generally, normally, usually Good walking boots are usually sufficient, unless the weather has been excessively wet.
- quite quite The kitchen equipment provided is quite sufficient for basic self catering requirements.
- almost almost, nearly The royalties I received were almost sufficient to pay the solicitor.
- only just barely, hardly, scarcely The two lanterns were scarcely sufficient to light the way.
- not usually rarely A diagnosis of personality disorder is rarely sufficient to explain a serious offence.

• ADJ+n information data, detail, evidence, information, proof You will be prosecuted if there is sufficient evidence against you.
- knowledge, understanding, skills experience, knowledge, skill, training, understanding A legally sworn interpreter is required for the ceremony unless both parties have a sufficient understanding of German.

- ▸ strength, energy etc energy, force, power, strength The country has sufficient military strength to defend itself.
- ▸ reason grounds, reason Adultery is considered to be sufficient grounds for divorce.
- ▸ interest attention, demand, interest, support If there is sufficient interest, we will run an extra course.
- ▸ time time You should allow sufficient time to get to the airport.

- v+ADJ be sufficient be, prove A thick envelope should prove sufficient.
- ▸ be considered to be sufficient be considered, be deemed, be regarded as, think Notification by telephone or electronic mail shall be deemed sufficient for these meetings.

suggest V

1 offer someone an idea or plan to consider

- adv+V seriously/not seriously jokingly, seriously She laughed, and jokingly suggested that I should make her grandfather happy. ◆ You're not seriously suggesting that I give up my job are you?
- ▸ in a gentle way gently, subtly, tentatively Andrea gently suggested I try turning around.
- ▸ in a way that is helpful or kind helpfully, kindly He has very kindly suggested putting our website address on the side of his car.
- ▸ in a polite way humbly, politely, respectfully May I respectfully suggest that the first thing you do is check your facts?
- ▸ originally initially, originally Harnad initially suggested an alternative approach.
- ▸ strongly strongly He strongly suggested that I ask for help.
- ▸ correctly rightly He rightly suggests that young people need to be treated with respect.

2 say that something is likely to exist

- adv+V strongly certainly, clearly, strongly Scientific research strongly suggests that the best way for athletes to increase fitness is to train a little faster than usual.
- ▸ suggesting the opposite otherwise Most people think this is true, but the evidence suggests otherwise.

- n+V a study suggests something analysis, paper, report, research, study, survey, work Research suggests it is excess consumption of fat rather than sugar that is linked to people putting on weight.
- ▸ information or figures suggest something data, estimate, evidence, figures, findings, results, statistics, theory Crimestoppers' own figures suggest that about 11 per cent of the calls result in actionable information.
- ▸ a name suggests something name, title The wines of Fleurie, as their name suggests, are fresh, fragrant and floral.
- ▸ experience suggests something experience Experience suggests that user error will be the cause of the problem.

suggestion N

1 an idea you offer someone to consider

- adj+N good or helpful constructive, excellent, good, great, helpful, interesting, positive, practical, sensible, useful, valuable The book offers practical suggestions for dealing with depression.
- ▸ not good absurd, bizarre, ludicrous, ridiculous Andreas laughed at such a ridiculous suggestion.
- ▸ gentle tentative These tentative suggestions are put forward to generate discussion.
- ▸ with clear details concrete, detailed, specific These detailed suggestions need to be studied very carefully.
- ▸ likely to produce big changes radical The most radical suggestion of all is the building of a new airport in the Warwickshire countryside.

- v+N make a suggestion give, make, offer, provide, put forward, submit They read each other's work and made helpful suggestions.
- ▸ have a suggestion have If you would like to be involved or have any suggestions, please contact the director.
- ▸ receive a suggestion get, receive We are always pleased to receive any suggestions regarding the development of the school.
- ▸ want suggestions from people appreciate, invite, welcome We welcome suggestions from guests about how we can improve our service.
- ▸ accept someone's suggestion accept This suggestion was enthusiastically accepted.
- ▸ say no to someone's suggestion dismiss, reject The committee rejected a suggestion that money should be spent to improve the clubhouse.
- ▸ consider someone's suggestion consider, discuss The School Council meets once a week to discuss suggestions and ideas for improving the school.

2 a possibility that something is true

- v+N deny, dismiss, refute, reject He dismissed suggestions of impropriety.

- N+of discrimination, impropriety, racism, violence There was no suggestion of deliberate racism.

suicide N

the action of deliberately killing yourself

- adj+N involving a particular group of people male, teenage, young, youth Papyrus is a voluntary organisation committed to the prevention of young suicide.
- ▸ helped by another person assisted, physician-assisted At present, euthanasia and assisted suicide are illegal under British law.
- ▸ tried but not succeeded attempted There have been several attempted suicides at the prison.
- ▸ seeming to be a suicide apparent His teenage daughter's been found dead in an apparent suicide.
- ▸ involving many people who all kill themselves mass It was 1978 when the People's Temple cult committed mass suicide in the jungles of Guyana.

- v+N commit suicide commit Every 40 seconds, someone in the world commits suicide.
- ▸ try to commit suicide attempt Once a person has attempted suicide, he or she is more at risk of trying again.
- ▸ think about committing suicide consider, contemplate Her anxiety was very great, and there were times when she seriously contemplated suicide.

- say you will commit suicide threaten He has threatened suicide on two occasions in the past.
- reduce or prevent suicides prevent, reduce If you can directly affect that pattern of thinking, then you have a better chance of preventing suicides in people in crisis.

- N+n an attempt to commit suicide attempt, bid He had rescued a man from a suicide bid in the River Seine.
- the number of people who commit suicide rate American whites have a suicide rate double that of blacks, and that has long puzzled sociologists.
- someone who has committed suicide victim Depression is present in the majority of suicide victims.
- an agreement by two or more people to commit suicide pact The couple had made a suicide pact and had both taken pills.
- the risk of someone committing suicide risk Alcohol abuse has long been associated with suicide risk.
- a message left by someone who commits suicide note The bullies were named in Marie's suicide note, which prompted an investigation.
- attack attack, bomb, bombing, terrorism At least 18 people were killed this morning in suicide attacks on Iraqi police stations.

suit V

be convenient or suitable for someone

- adv+V admirably, exactly, perfectly The holiday cottage is well equipped and would admirably suit those who wish to cook at home.

If you want to say that something suits you well, you can also use the phrase suit sb down to the ground: This way of life suited me down to the ground.

- V+n a need or purpose needs, purpose, requirements I searched high and low for a camera that would suit my needs.
- a situation or event circumstances, condition, occasion, situation We have menus to suit every occasion.
- the amount of money that someone has budget, pocket The development will include houses and a range of apartments from loft style to studios to suit all pockets.
- the things that someone likes ability, interest, lifestyle, mood, preference, style, taste There are a choice of courses to suit all abilities. ◉ There is a good selection of bars and restaurants available to suit all tastes.
- a method approach, method, way Customise how you view your inbox messages to suit your way of working.

suit N

a claim or complaint made in court

- v+N start a suit bring, file, initiate, institute, launch A lawyer for Gibson said the director was considering filing a civil suit in the matter.
- win a suit win Campbell's renown was further enhanced when he won a suit against the BBC.
- decide not to continue with a suit drop The team also dropped its defamation suit.
- say officially that a suit cannot be continued dismiss, reject The Taiwan High Court rejects the suit brought by Lien Chan and James Soong to nullify the election results.
- reach an agreement about a suit settle Eventually, the plagiarism suit was settled out of court.
- lose a suit lose They lost the suit and are now appealing.

suitability N

how suitable someone or something is

- v+N examine and decide someone or something's suitabililty ascertain, assess, check, consider, determine, discuss, establish, evaluate, gauge, investigate, judge, test We will assess the suitability of each candidate for this type of work.
- make sure of someone or something's suitability confirm, ensure People working with children must undergo police checks to ensure their suitability for working young people.
- show someone or something's suitability demonstrate, indicate Admission to all courses is open to any applicant who demonstrates suitability for it.

suitable ADJ

right for a particular purpose, person, or situation

- adv+ADJ very eminently, entirely, extremely, highly, ideally, perfectly, quite, very The Great Hall is eminently suitable for weddings, banquets and other celebrations.
- especially especially, particularly The story telling session is particularly suitable for ages 5 – 11.
- not very hardly, not really Her dainty shoes were hardly suitable for a boat trip.
- possibly potentially We will interview all potentially suitable candidates.
- in most situations generally, normally The route is generally suitable for all cyclists.
- as suitable as another equally These activities are designed for use in nursery schools but are equally suitable for use at home.

- v+ADJ judge something to be suitable be considered, be deemed, be judged, think The movie was deemed suitable for children.
- be suitable prove No existing system proved entirely suitable for our purposes.
- seem suitable appear, look, seem There are additional motels available if none of these appear suitable.
- make something suitable make sth suitable The hall has a sprung floor, making it suitable for recreational activities such as badminton.

- and/ or adequate, affordable, appropriate, convenient, sufficient, unsuitable It is important that the claim is handled by someone with appropriate and suitable experience. ◉ The books given to charities are sorted and classified as either suitable or unsuitable for sale.

suitcase N

a large container for carrying clothes when travelling

- v+N put clothes into a suitcase fill, pack He packed his suitcase and left for Switzerland.
- take clothes out of a suitcase unpack When we got to the hotel, I unpacked our suitcases.

▶ carry a suitcase carry, drag, lug INFORMAL, wheel Dan left me to lug two heavy suitcases up to our room.

suited ADJ
right for a particular purpose or situation

- adv+ADJ very admirably, eminently, exactly, highly, ideally, perfectly, uniquely, well This process is also highly suited to mass production.
- ▶ not very ill, poorly They lived in a mountainous area, ill suited for agriculture.
- ▶ especially especially, particularly, peculiarly, specially Visa cards are especially suited to these kinds of transaction.
- ▶ naturally naturally The surrounding environment is naturally suited to outdoor activity.
- ▶ suited to two different groups or situations equally This hardwearing climbing boot is equally suited to novices or experts.
- ▶ badly ill, poorly The report showed that the trail was poorly suited to cycling and was dangerous.

- ADJ+to needs need, purpose, requirements We have an insurance package suited to your needs.
- ▶ a job job, role, task, work People who have worked in retail travel agencies are very suited to this role.
- ▶ a situation circumstances, conditions, environment, situation Crops and other plants can be bred to be particularly suited to their environments.
- ▶ a use application, use The chair is suited to regular office use.

sum N an amount of money

- adj+N large considerable, enormous, fantastic, generous, handsome, hefty, huge, large, massive, not inconsiderable, significant, sizeable, staggering, substantial, tidy INFORMAL, vast Some items at auction fetch huge sums of money, far beyond their original purchase price.
- ▶ small insignificant, modest, nominal, small, trifling You may be able to get one for free, or for a small sum.
- ▶ small and not enough derisory, measly INFORMAL, paltry, princely For all that work, I received the princely sum of £10.
- ▶ not known how much undisclosed They have bought the company for an undisclosed sum.
- ▶ total total They requested a total sum of over $2,000,000.
- ▶ spent or paid every year, month etc annual, monthly, weekly, yearly Some providers charge a fixed monthly sum.
- ▶ showing how many numbers make up the amount etc, five-figure, six-figure Swansea paid a six-figure sum for the player.
- ▶ not changing fixed Statutory sick pay is a fixed sum covering absence for up to 28 weeks.

- v+N get a sum borrow, earn, get, receive Some doctors have borrowed large sums to train in the UK.
- ▶ spend a sum allocate, hand over, invest, pay, spend For many years schools have invested large sums in ICT suites.
- ▶ cost a sum cost The re-organisation of local government will cost substantial sums.
- ▶ collect a sum for a particular purpose collect, raise They raised the magnificent sum of £10,000 for the Air Ambulance Trust.
- ▶ give a sum award, contribute, donate, give, grant, offer Smaller cash sums are awarded to runners-up.
- ▶ get back a sum recover There is no real prospect of the sum due being recovered.
- ▶ ask someone to pay a sum charge The fact that large sums are charged for these treatments he felt was exploitative.
- ▶ pay back a sum refund, repay This sum is later repaid with interest when the house is sold.
- ▶ owe a sum owe Overall, the average sum owed stood at $30,763.

summarize V provide a summary of something

- adv+V accurately, briefly, neatly, succinctly The results are difficult to summarize neatly.

- V+n information content, data, information, points When summarizing the data, always include measures of variability and the number of students.
- ▶ research and research results conclusion, findings, research, results Here, I will briefly summarize the findings.
- ▶ discussion argument, discussion The report summarizes the discussions and conclusions of a workshop held in 2002.
- ▶ evidence evidence He summarized the evidence for and against the prisoner.

summary N a short account of something

- adj+N short basic, brief, concise, quick, short, succinct This article provides a very brief summary of the changes in employment law.
- ▶ good clear, excellent, good, helpful, useful The chapter offers a useful summary of the available evidence.
- ▶ having a lot of details complete, comprehensive, detailed, full If a full transcript is unreasonable, a detailed summary would be a useful alternative.
- ▶ general general, overall 'Greenside is a very good school' was the overall summary from the school inspectors.
- ▶ correct or fair accurate, fair The report is a fair summary of what was a very difficult process.
- ▶ written written A clear written summary of the results is given.
- ▶ types of summary biographical, descriptive, factual, statistical Your CV is a biographical summary of your life and is written to describe details of education and achievements in chronological order.

- v+N write a summary compile, draft, make, prepare, produce, publish, write Their task is to write a summary of the information they have gathered.
- ▶ give someone a summary give, offer, present, provide The booklet provides a basic summary of the regulations.
- ▶ print a summary print, publish We publish a summary every weekend of all events scheduled for the coming week.

- N+v contain sth, cover sth, describe sth, give sth, highlight sth, include sth, outline sth, provide sth, show sth, state sth The summary highlights the key findings of a survey into use of the scheme.

- N+of a study or piece of work presentation, project, research, study, work Download free reports and summaries of our research.
- information argument, content, data, evidence, information, news The following summary of the evidence is taken from the sheriff's report.
- things people have said comments, debate, discussion, meeting, points, response, views A summary of the meeting is now available to download.
- results conclusion, findings, results A summary of findings from the report is available here.
- a document article, document, paper, proceedings, report You can view summaries of this article.
- a situation or problem issue The Tax Faculty also published a summary of the key issues.
- plans or suggestions policy, proposal, recommendation A more detailed summary of proposals and papers is available on the website.
- changes and development changes, development, history, progress This is a concise summary of the history of jewellery.

summer N

the warm season between spring and autumn

- adj+N last, next etc last, next, previous We're going to Hawaii for our holidays next summer.
- at the beginning/middle/end of summer early, high, late Sometimes there are hurricanes in the late summer and early autumn.
- describing the weather of summer balmy, cool, dry, fine, glorious, hot, humid, sunny, warm, wet The tree is used to the hot Asian summers and cannot survive exposed cold areas.
- v+N spend They spent the summer at Padre Island.
- N+v approach, arrive, begin, come, end Summer has arrived!
- N+n period period, season, time Mare de Deu is a festival to officially mark the end of the island's summer season.
- day, night etc afternoon, day, evening, month, morning, night It was a fine summer afternoon.

You can also say a summer's day, a summer's evening etc: It was a glorious hot summer's afternoon.

- holiday break, holiday, hols INFORMAL, recess, vacation For some children returning to school after the summer break is a big dread.
- weather heat, sun, sunshine, temperatures, weather Here are some tips on how to enjoy the summer sun safely.
- festival festival, fete A yearly summer festival is held in the third week of June, in honour of Charles Dickens.

summit N

a series of meetings between countries' leaders

- adj+N global, international, major, world We began to develop our proposals for this White Paper with an international summit on smoking. • The European Union is holding its major summit in Gothenburg, Sweden.
- v+N have a summit hold, host The Minister hosted a summit at her Trafalgar Square offices to discuss the issues.
- go to a summit attend World leaders attended the summit.
- organize a summit convene, organize The two-day summit was organised by Mr Milburn before Iraq returned to the political agenda.

summon V

1 officially order someone to come somewhere

- adv+V duly, hastily, immediately, quickly He immediately summoned a servant to take the crystals to the awaiting jewellers.
- V+infinitive answer sb/sth, appear, assist (sb), attend (sth), help (sb), meet She was summoned to appear before the court.

2 produce a quality or reaction needed for a situation

- V+n courage, energy, enthusiasm, power, strength, will Some days I can barely summon the enthusiasm to get dressed.

sun N

the star that provides light and warmth to the Earth

- adj+N bright or too bright bright, glaring, glinting, glistening, glorious, golden, radiant The first week of September went by with a permanently radiant sun in the sky.
- hot or warm hot, intense, strong, warm Don't forget to use a sunscreen if the sun is intense.
- too hot baking hot, blazing, blistering, fierce, intense, pitiless, relentless, scorching, searing, sweltering Years of wind, rain, and relentless sun have shaped these dunes.
- weak hazy, watery, wintry It was bitterly cold out there, but a wintry sun was half smiling on us.
- at a particular time of day morning, afternoon etc They face east or west to avoid direct sunlight from the mid-day sun.
- at a particular time of year summer, winter etc The autumn sun threw their shadows across the lawn beneath them.
- in a particular place equatorial, tropical, Caribbean, Tuscan etc With the beach just 100 metres away and lots of African sun, it's a diver's dream!
- N+v go down dip somewhere, disappear, set, sink, sink somewhere, slip somewhere Many have live music entertainment, and provide the perfect setting for a cocktail as the sun slips down.

You can say that the sun dips, sinks or slips below the horizon: The sun sank beneath the horizon as we landed.

- come up appear, climb somewhere, come up, rise They woke up before the sun rose to go and queue up to vote.
- shine beam down, glint off sth, glint on sth, shine The sun is shining and I'm ready to make my way through this lovely city.
- shine very strongly beat down, blaze down, stream somewhere In London the sun blazed down on us as the talks went on.

▸ burn something burn, scorch The sun scorched the desert sands, looking like a disk of fire which settled on people's heads.

sunlight N
the light from the sun

• adj+N bright blinding, bright, brilliant, dazzling, golden I climbed the hill and near the top entered dazzling sunlight.
▸ strong direct, full, harsh, intense, strong Try to stay out of strong sunlight.
▸ weak pale, weak Polished instruments gleam in the pale sunlight of the May Fair.
▸ natural natural In the sea, under natural sunlight, photosynthesis increases oxygen levels.
▸ at a particular time of day afternoon, midday etc The village, dappled in the early morning sunlight, was as pretty as a picture.
▸ at a particular time of year summer, autumn etc It sounds for all the world like icicles melting in the winter sunlight.

• N+v shine glint, shine I sat by the lake for a while delighting in the sunlight glinting off the water.
▸ shine strongly flood somewhere, pour somewhere, stream somewhere When he awoke, the sunlight was streaming in through the little windows of the cottage.
▸ shine through something filter through sth, penetrate sth, pierce sth The last thing he remembered was the first ray of sunlight piercing the sky.
▸ make something visible illuminate sth, light sth up The sky seemed to crack open and a stream of sunlight illuminated us.
▸ reflect reflect off sth She looked at the sunlight reflecting off the boats in the harbour.

sunset N
when the sun goes down and night begins

• adj+N beautiful beautiful, fabulous INFORMAL, fantastic INFORMAL, glorious, gorgeous INFORMAL, lovely, magnificent, nice, perfect, superb, wonderful Some say Santorini enjoys the most beautiful sunsets in the world.
▸ dramatic amazing, breathtaking, dramatic, spectacular, stunning Go there for beautiful beaches, great scenery, stunning sunsets and the wild surf.
▸ of a particular colour fiery, gold, pink etc From the edge of the road stretch flat fields towards the horizon, glowing with a red sunset.
▸ in a particular place tropical, African, Caribbean etc Yachting is not all about gin and tonics and tropical sunsets!

• v+N see a sunset admire, catch, enjoy, see, view, watch, witness Watch the sunset over Angkor Wat, a highlight of your journey.
▸ miss a sunset miss By the time I got back I'd almost missed the sunset.

sunshine N light from the sun

• adj+N pleasant beautiful, glorious, gorgeous INFORMAL, lovely, pleasant The rest of our time was spent climbing in glorious sunshine.
▸ bright blazing, bright, brilliant, dazzling, golden It was a lovely day, with brilliant sunshine and a blue sea.
▸ warm or hot baking, blistering, hot, scorching, tropical, warm After a Friday of blistering sunshine, Saturday dawned much cooler. ◉ We were blessed with warm sunshine and a slight breeze.
▸ continuous/not continuous constant, continuous, endless, intermittent, perpetual, unbroken, uninterrupted, wall-to-wall INFORMAL, year-round Many places in England and Wales will see unbroken sunshine.
▸ at a particular time morning, afternoon etc, spring, summer etc Short-lived high pressure on the 26th and 27th gave a couple of settled days with good autumnal sunshine by day, but some widespread ground frosts overnight.
▸ weak hazy, watery, weak 24 June 2003 It was a warm day with hazy sunshine on Anglesey.
▸ a lot abundant, plentiful The islands enjoy plentiful sunshine with little airborne pollution.

• v+N enjoy sunshine bask in, catch, enjoy After basking in the sunshine on the summit, we headed for home.
▸ have a lot of sunshine be bathed in Entry into this haven of natural beauty bathed in year round sunshine comes at a price.

• v+in+N enjoy sunshine bask, laze, sit I had plenty of leisure to bask in the sunshine and sketch the scene.
▸ sparkle in the sunshine gleam, glint, glitter, sparkle Even in summer, skiers weave patterns on snowfields gleaming in the sunshine.

superficial ADJ affecting or involving only the surface or outside of something

• adv+ADJ rather fairly, quite, rather, relatively, somewhat The whole process of learning and assessment becomes somewhat superficial.
▸ very extremely, very The book itself is extremely superficial, and has little to do with investing.
▸ only or mainly largely, merely, purely Water damage during the fire proved to be largely superficial.

• ADJ+n similarity/difference change, difference, resemblance, similarity These similarities are superficial.
▸ knowledge knowledge, understanding They give the impression of knowing something about the subject but their knowledge is very superficial.
▸ examination analysis, approach, examination, reading, view Present historians reject such a superficial view of the revolt.
▸ appearance or manner appearance, aspect, level, nature, way Reports also identified an interest in sociological themes, although at a fairly superficial level.

superior ADJ bigger, or better

• adv+ADJ very greatly immeasurably, incomparably, infinitely, overwhelmingly, vastly

All three had quickly surrendered to a vastly superior enemy.

- greatly decidedly, far, greatly, markedly At the end of Warwick Street was a decidedly superior detached property known as Warwick House.
- slightly marginally This site proves that a very bad human translator is marginally superior to a very good computer one.
- in a particular way genetically, intellectually, militarily, morally, numerically, nutritionally, qualitatively, spiritually, technically, technologically If you need to feel intellectually superior, this is your book!
- by nature inherently, innately, intrinsically No race is inherently superior to any other.

- v+ADJ be be, prove, remain Can you recommend any make of wheel that has proved superior for touring?
- seem appear, seem These machines appear far superior to the remainder.
- be thought be considered, be regarded as In most of Europe, the grayling is considered far superior to the brown trout.
- feel feel, feel yourself They were despised, sneered at, and people felt superior to them.

superiority N

when one thing is better than another

- adj+N great absolute, marked, overwhelming A handful of British pilots fought off the overwhelming superiority of the German Air force.
- natural inherent, innate, intrinsic Their pride in their innate superiority justified the pursuing of such goals.
- achieved without effort effortless, smug This consciousness of effortless superiority on the part of Englishmen was intolerable.
- types of superiority intellectual, military, moral, numerical, political, racial, technological Consider the implications of our belief in the political and moral superiority of liberal democracy.

- v+N claim superiority assert, claim, proclaim Mill proclaims the superiority of Anglo-American civilisation.
- show superiority demonstrate, prove, show Precision-guided munitions demonstrated their superiority over conventional munitions on the battlefield.
- stress superiority emphasise, stress They stressed their superiority as the people who brought wealth, knowledge and civilisation to the region.
- suggest superiority assume, imply A position of leadership does not imply spiritual superiority.
- get or keep superiority achieve, establish, gain, maintain, retain We are champions of our products, consistently finding ways to achieve and maintain competitive superiority.

- n+of+N air, altitude, assumption, claim, feeling, position, sense It is easy to feel a sense of superiority over our ancestors and their societies and values.

supervision N

the process of supervising someone or something

- adj+N intense or careful careful, close, direct, intensive, strict Heads should look into facilitating closer supervision of new employees during probation.
- very little minimal Candidates will also work well with minimal supervision and be highly motivated.
- continual or regular constant, continual, regular This product should not be used by minors without constant adult supervision.
- adequate/inadequate adequate, inadequate, proper Adequate supervision during swimming sessions is essential.
- types of supervision clinical, judicial, medical, parental, veterinary Any children on the track are there under parental supervision only.
- of study doctoral, fortnightly, joint, one-to-one, PhD, tutorial Students are offered up to six hours of one-to-one supervision.

- v+N carry out supervision conduct, ensure, exercise, offer, organize, provide I provide supervision for three hours at a voluntary project.
- need supervision need, require Alternative therapies are available but require specialist supervision.
- include supervision include The programme includes clinical supervision for six months.
- in studies arrange, conduct, provide, receive, undertake Personal supervision is arranged by the student's college and forms a feature of the course.

- and/or in general appraisal, guidance, inspection, management, mentoring, monitoring, regulation, support Monitoring and supervision of performance and training to develop a multi-skilled team will be vital.
- in studies instruction, teaching, training All teaching and supervision take place through the medium of English.

supplement V

add something to make something better or bigger

- adv+V usefully usefully In some circumstances, personal oxygen monitors may usefully supplement fixed ones.
- sometimes occasionally, often, sometimes It must be noted that money was often supplemented by wages in kind.
- perhaps perhaps, possibly He compiles a film from footage of a past event, perhaps supplemented by interviews and commentary about it.

- V+n food diet, nutrients, rations A Government campaign called Dig For Victory encouraged people to supplement their rations by growing their own vegetables.
- income earnings, grant, income, pension, salary, wages To supplement their income, the Hunters started a market stall.
- supply intake, supply The swimming baths were used to supplement the water supply in that area.

supply N

an amount of something that is available to be used

- v+N obtain supply obtain, procure, secure Many small or remote hospitals have difficulty obtaining a reliable oxygen supply.
- increase supply boost, increase, replenish, supplement The rain of the last few weeks should have done much to replenish supplies.

▸ protect supply assure, conserve, ensure, guarantee, maintain, safeguard We cannot guarantee immediate supply if demand is growing.
▸ control supply limit, reduce, regulate, restrict The aim must be to improve quality and achieve better value without further restricting supply.
▸ interrupt supply disrupt, interrupt The aim is to disrupt the supply of drugs into the city in the run-up to Christmas.
▸ provide supply again reconnect, restore The Ministry's first concern was to restore supplies of safe drinking water.
▸ cut off supply cut (off), withhold We don't realize how essential water is until our supply is cut off.
▸ be greater than supply exceed, outstrip Demand far outstrips supply for this product in Europe, Africa and Asia.
▸ need supply need People with liver damage need a regular supply of sugar.
▸ finish supply exhaust Their supplies were nearly exhausted when they reached their goal.

• adj+N in large quantities abundant, ample, endless, inexhaustible, limitless, plentiful, uninterrupted, unlimited There is a very plentiful supply of fish – the reservoir is stocked with trout.
▸ adequate adequate, sufficient Over 1 billion people lack access to an adequate supply of safe water.
▸ available constant, continuous, fresh, ready, regular, reliable Your body needs a constant supply of oxygen to function.
▸ limited or inadequate inadequate, insufficient, limited, scarce A key factor is the limited supply of accommodation.

If there is not enough of something, you can say that it is in short supply: Soldiers froze to death in their sleep, diesel froze in fuel tanks and food was in very short supply.

support V

1 approve of and help someone or something

• adv+V strongly actively, enthusiastically, fully, overwhelmingly, partially, partly, strongly, unanimously, vigorously, wholeheartedly, widely We strongly support this proposal.
▸ broadly broadly A climate of innovation and entrepreneurship should be broadly supported.
▸ openly or directly directly, officially, openly, publicly I told both Ron and Rhodri to their faces that I would publicly support neither of them.
▸ properly effectively, properly, well Parents cannot properly support the school if they don't know what the rules are.

• V+n attempt or aim aim, campaign, effort, idea, initiative, project, proposal A French-language newspaper was published to support the campaign.
▸ people children, family, learners, parents, pupils, staff, students, teachers The project supported children from age seven through to eleven years old.
▸ activity activity, development, growth, learning, work Purpose built laboratories and workshops ensure good facilities to support your learning.

• and/ or assist, develop, encourage, help, promote, sustain The primary function of University is to support and encourage academic learning.

2 prove an idea, statement etc is true or correct

• adv+V strongly clearly, strongly The weight of evidence strongly supports evolution, and I think it would be misleading to suggest otherwise.
▸ generally broadly, generally The responses from the questionnaires broadly support the interview data.

• V+n idea hypothesis, idea, notion, theory, view A recent survey of employers in Wales supports this view.
▸ statement assertion, claim, statement Make sure you can support your statements with evidence.

support N

help and approval that you give to someone

• adj+N types of support administrative, emotional, financial, moral, mutual, pastoral, practical, public, secretarial, technical, tutorial We continue to rely on your financial support to keep going.
▸ strong active, enthusiastic, full, intensive, overwhelming, strong, widespread A poll seemed to show strong support of the use of animals in biomedical research.
▸ continuing continued, continuing, ongoing New developments can be fragile and need ongoing support if they are to be sustained.
▸ suitable appropriate, effective, necessary Before you begin your studies, ensure that adequate support is in place.
▸ generous generous The generous support available from this new scholarship scheme will help to achieve this end.
▸ extra additional, extra Bereavement is a normal life experience and not everyone needs additional support.

• v+N give support express, give, lend, offer, provide, show, voice A friend and neighbour, John, provides some support and care.
▸ obtain support access, attract, gain, get, obtain, secure, win It is a very balanced package which I hope will gain widespread support.
▸ have support command, enjoy, receive You will work as part of the project team whilst enjoying the support and training provided by an industry leader.
▸ need support deserve, need, require, seek Some groups also require additional support to overcome specific barriers to work.
▸ stop support withdraw The support was withdrawn gradually.
▸ say thank you for support acknowledge, appreciate Lastly, we wish to acknowledge the excellent support received from our colleagues in industry.
▸ promise support pledge, promise Other internationally renowned writers have pledged their support to the campaign.

supporter N

someone who supports a particular idea, person or group

• adj+N loyal faithful, loyal, stalwart, staunch, steadfast Freda was a staunch supporter of the Guild.
▸ enthusiastic active, ardent, avid, committed, enthusiastic, fanatical, fervent, keen, passionate, strong Lesley had been a keen participant in – and ardent supporter of – the sport for some years.
▸ for a long time lifelong, long-standing, long- suffering, long-time Many of the club's long-time supporters have been left scratching their heads about what went wrong.

- ▶ generous generous Ron has been a most generous supporter for many years.
- ▶ vocal outspoken, vocal, vociferous Marcantonio was an outspoken supporter of African American Civil Rights.
- ▶ in sport or politics Arsenal, Liverpool etc, Conservative, Labour etc, rugby, football etc That message was designed to enthuse reluctant Lib Dem supporters to come out and vote. • He is a keen football supporter of both Scotland and Dunfermline Athletic.

supporting ADJ helping to prove a theory or claim

- ADJ+n arguments, documentation, documents, evidence The supporting documentation does not seem to have been checked adequately.

suppose V believe that something is probably true [usually passive]

- adv+V commonly commonly, generally, popularly, traditionally These birds are popularly supposed to come forth only at night-time, but such is by no means the case.
- ▶ wrongly erroneously, mistakenly, wrongly Some authors have erroneously supposed that it was built out of the ruins of Old Penrith.

suppress V
1 stop opposition or protest

- adv+V using violence bloodily, brutally, forcibly, ruthlessly, violently Each rebellion was bloodily suppressed by the central authorities.
- ▶ in an organized way systematically Students organizing dissent are systematically and violently suppressed.
- ▶ completely completely, entirely The King destroyed the Danish fortress at York in order to completely suppress any further Viking rebellions.
- V+n violence insurrection, mutiny, rebellion, revolt, uprising Cromwell ruled as a dictator, suppressing uprisings in Wales, Scotland and Ireland with great military skill.
- ▶ disagreement dissent, movement, opposition, protest We should not forget how the government used the courts to suppress dissent and protest.

2 stop yourself feeling or showing an emotion

- V+n an emotion anger, excitement, rage It is no use suppressing our anger.
- ▶ an act giggle, groan, laughter, sigh, yawn Marie suppressed a yawn.
- ▶ a feeling or desire desire, emotion, feeling, urge He suppressed an urge to laugh hysterically.

suppression N
the act of stopping opposition or protest

- adj+N violent bloody, brutal, forcible, forcible, ruthless, violent The Strike is the story of a strike by factory workers and its brutal suppression.
- ▶ organized complete, deliberate, prolonged, systematic Those means alone would not assure the complete suppression of all opponents and potential opponents of the regime.
- N+of of revolt mutiny, rebellion, resistance, revolt, uprising The suppression of the rebellion was completed on 29 April 1916.
- ▶ of disagreement debate, dissent, opposition, protest Pombal's whole program was executed by ruthless suppression of all opposition.
- ▶ of rights freedom, freedom of speech, free speech, rights Few media organisations like supporting the suppression of freedom of speech through the courts.

sure ADJ
certain that something is real, true, or correct

- adv+ADJ completely or very absolutely, completely, damn INFORMAL, damned INFORMAL, doubly, perfectly, quite, really, totally We will not go into battle until I am absolutely sure that the time is right.
- ▶ rather almost, fairly, pretty INFORMAL, reasonably I'm pretty sure the Furlings would oblige if we asked nicely.
- ▶ not never, not, not even, not exactly, not quite, not really, not terribly, not too, not very, not yet I was contemplating going over to Fiona's but wasn't too sure.
- ▶ not completely not altogether, not entirely Having not gone to university, I'm not entirely sure what a 2–1 really means.
- v+ADJ be or become be, become, feel If you are not sure about which method to use, ask your doctor.
- ▶ seem look, seem, sound 'I think I did suffer depression,' she says slowly, not sounding too sure.

surface N
the top layer or outside part of something

- adj+N rough/smooth bumpy, flat, icy, rough, slippery, smooth, uneven There are no steps, but the ground surface is uneven.
- ▶ hard/soft hard, soft Run slower and on softer surfaces.
- ▶ shiny metallic, polished, reflective, shiny A frost smoke was rising from the polished steel surface of the loch.
- ▶ wet/dry dry, greasy, wet Their new tyres provide excellent performance on both wet and dry surfaces.

surge N
a sudden increase in price, value, or interest

- adj+N sudden or unexpected sudden, unexpected, unprecedented This recent period has seen an unprecedented surge of new ventures.
- ▶ big big, dramatic, great, huge, large, massive, strong, tremendous Gambling, and especially internet betting, is seeing a massive surge of interest at the moment.
- ▶ upward upward Motorhome sales have witnessed a great upward surge in recent years.
- ▶ happening again further, renewed A further rate hike would risk prompting a renewed surge in the value of the pound.
- ▶ happening at a particular time final, initial, late, recent The recent surge in internet enquiries is due to availability of on-line catalogues.

- v+N cause a surge bring, cause, create, produce, prompt, spark, trigger What created this surge of interest?
- ▸ experience a surge experience, see, witness The 18th century experienced a massive surge in the production and consumption of goods.
- ▸ expect a surge anticipate, expect We anticipate a surge in demand.
- ▸ report a surge report Several countries reported import surges in particular products, notably dairy products and meat.

- N+in in the economy demand, growth, imports, investment, prices, profits, sales, spending, supply Demand has been rising by more than five million tonnes per year, with the biggest surge in demand occurring in China.
- ▸ good things interest, popularity The brand has experienced a surge in popularity amongst consumers.
- ▸ bad things complaints, crime, violence What's to blame for the devastating surge in violence?
- ▸ quantity claim, number The surge in traveller numbers has been driven by the delays at UK airports.

surge V

increase a lot very quickly

- n+V in the economy demand, price, profits, sales, shares In the last five or six years, however, prices have surged.
- ▸ population population London's population surged during the 19th century.

surgery N

medical operations

- adj+N major/minor extensive, invasive, life-saving, major, minor, radical Surviving major surgery against all the odds, her recovery is a remarkable one.
- ▸ on a part of the body abdominal, cardiac, eye, facial, heart, oral, orthopaedic, spinal, vascular Achieving good results in cardiac surgery requires team work.
- ▸ emergency/planned day, elective, emergency, planned In emergency surgery almost all operations were performed by registrars.
- ▸ types of surgery corrective, keyhole, reconstructive I need a minor operation by keyhole surgery in October.
- ▸ on children paediatric Paediatric surgery involves working with children and their parents.

- v+N need surgery necessitate, need, require After consulting two specialists, it was decided the Hungarian player required extensive surgery.
- ▸ have surgery have, undergo Last year he underwent brain surgery to remove an aneurism.
- ▸ do surgery do, perform, practise, undertake Learn how surgery was performed without anaesthetic.
- ▸ wait for surgery await Patients awaiting surgery generally experience high levels of anxiety.
- ▸ delay or cancel surgery cancel, delay, postpone Elective surgery is postponed until the patient is ready.
- ▸ refuse surgery refuse The number of patients who refused surgery was lower than predicted.

surpass V

be better or greater than something

- adv+V greatly easily, far, greatly, truly We rely on the goodwill of the people of Chesterfield and this has far surpassed all expectations.
- ▸ maybe/definitely almost, certainly, perhaps, possibly, probably We use the word 'perfect' to describe anything which comes up to, or perhaps surpasses, our highest existing expectations.
- ▸ with time expressions already, finally, never, now, often, soon The first volume came out in 1848 and it soon surpassed all his other books in popularity.
- ▸ even actually, even Anxiety can surpass even smoking as a risk for certain heart problems.

- V+n aim figure, goal, mark, target I far surpassed my intended goals and more.
- ▸ beauty beauty, glory Sicily has many ancient ruins, but none surpasses the glory that is Agrigento.
- ▸ expectations expectations, sb's wildest dreams The flat surpassed my expectations.
- ▸ achievement achievement, performance, record, standard Both are hoping to surpass their past performance in their new roles.
- ▸ limit boundary, limit Sanchez is a musician that surpasses the boundaries of traditional sounds.

surplus N

an amount that is left when someone has more than necessary

- adj+N large/small big, healthy, huge, large, massive, significant, small, substantial, vast Villagers borrow rice, on the condition that they return a small surplus when times are good.
- ▸ types of surplus agricultural, budget, consumer, economic, financial, fiscal, trade Financial surpluses are reinvested into the business.
- ▸ average or sufficient average, modest, sufficient Nonetheless there was a modest surplus due to a decrease in expenses.
- ▸ with time expressions annual, current, future We expect the current surplus to be 1 billion pounds next year.
- ▸ total or net net, overall, total Last year's overall deficit has been turned into a net surplus.

- v+N create a surplus accrue, accumulate, achieve, generate, yield Increasing social differentiation within the peasantry led some to accumulate a surplus.
- ▸ invest a surplus invest, plough back, reinvest Any surplus is reinvested in next year's festival.
- ▸ predict or report a surplus declare, forecast, project, report Only one authority is projecting a surplus.
- ▸ get rid of a surplus dump, export These producers dump their surpluses overseas at less than the cost of production.
- ▸ have or keep a surplus have, retain, run They can retain any surpluses they generate.

surprise N

1 an unusual or unexpected event

- adj+N big big, great, huge, major, real A big surprise was how much free info you can pick up.
- ▸ pleasant the best, delightful, lovely INFORMAL, nice INFORMAL, pleasant, welcome, wonderful It is always a pleasant surprise to see who turns up.

▶ unpleasant nasty INFORMAL, unpleasant, unwelcome
▶ unexpected complete, total, unexpected Looking through these log books often provides some unexpected surprises.
▶ few/many few, many Log in and expect to find a wealth of high quality academic resources with a few surprises along the way!

● v+N be a surprise be, bring, come as, contain, hold, offer, produce, provide As usual, this year's nominees offered a few surprises.

If something is not a surprise you can say that it is no surprise, holds no surprises or that it comes as no surprise: The final verdict was no surprise to me.

▶ give someone a surprise give sb, spring Sometimes even descriptive poems work by springing surprises.
▶ get a surprise get, have, receive Did you have any surprises?
▶ reveal or spoil a surprise reveal, spoil I don't want to be more specific or it will spoil the surprise!

● N+n event appearance, attack, decision, move, party, visit Inspectors make surprise visits to the facilities each year.
▶ result defeat, result, success, victory It was a surprise victory for Kingston on Saturday night in a game that even they admitted they hadn't expected to win.
▶ person guest, visitor, winner We had a lovely lunch and our surprise guest was a great finale to the day.
▶ statement announcement Debbie makes a surprise announcement.
▶ gift gift We'll make the graduate feel extra special with a surprise gift!

You can refer to someone or something that is not expected as a surprise package: Pang Weiguo also has three wins, as does surprise package Mohsen Abulaziz of Qatar.

2 the feeling you have when something unexpected happens

● v+N express surprise express, show Dr Jones expressed some surprise at the low number of applications received.
▶ hide surprise conceal, hide I concealed my surprise and sat down.
▶ pretend surprise feign After shopping in the town I feigned surprise when we turned up outside the museum.

surprised ADJ experiencing a reaction to something unexpected happening

● adv+ADJ rather quite, rather, somewhat He was rather surprised and sad at the attitude of the people and the priests.
▶ very extremely, greatly, very He looks very surprised when the management ask him to leave.
▶ slightly a little, mildly, slightly Something I was a little surprised at is that all the cake shops in the town sell exactly the same things.
▶ in a pleasant way agreeably, pleasantly In Britain one assumes things will go wrong, and is pleasantly surprised if they go right.
▶ really genuinely, really They have no expectations, so whatever happens they are genuinely surprised and grateful.

● v+ADJ appear, be, feel, look, seem, sound Many people seem genuinely surprised that there is a difference between buying and selling.

● and/or good feeling amazed, delighted, entertained, impressed, pleased, thrilled Sara said: I'm both surprised and delighted to be named 'Young Woman Engineer of the Year'.
▶ bad feeling concerned, disappointed, dismayed, shocked, upset I am really surprised and disappointed by our principal's decision to censor us.

surprising ADJ

unusual, or unexpected

● adv+ADJ not hardly, not, scarcely If you think about it, this is hardly surprising.
▶ not very not altogether, not entirely, not particularly, not really, not terribly Their views were very interesting, but not altogether surprising.
▶ slightly a little, slightly What was a little surprising was the general support given to the European project.
▶ rather rather, somewhat It is somewhat surprising, then, that there aren't more books on the subject.
▶ very especially, genuinely, very The plot twists are genuinely surprising and, more importantly, consistent.
▶ continually constantly, continually The choreography is wonderfullly intricate, complex and continually surprising.

● ADJ+n fact or conclusion conclusion, discovery, fact, finding, outcome, result, revelation Geneticists have recently made a surprising discovery.
▶ feature aspect, feature Although much has been altered over the last 400 years, many fascinating and surprising features still remain.
▶ similarity/difference difference, similarity The similarities are possibly more surprising than the differences.
▶ twist twist The performance reveals surprising twists and turns along the paths that each character follows.
▶ omission omission There are several surprising omissions in most existing compilations.

● v+ADJ appear, be, find, seem, sound I've been studying Maths at university, something some people may find surprising.

● and/ or disappointing, interesting, shocking, unexpected, unpredictable, unusual The artist finds beauty in surprising and unusual places.

surrender V

say you are defeated and stop fighting

● adv+V willingly easily, meekly, peacefully, voluntarily, willingly More than a hundred Russians surrendered willingly.
▶ completely completely, totally, unconditionally On 7th May 1945, Grand Admiral Donitz surrendered unconditionally.
▶ formally formally Japanese forces in Singapore formally surrendered.
▶ with time expressions eventually, finally, immediately, quickly, soon In the summer of 1651 he resumed the siege of Limerick, which finally surrendered after another four months.
▶ never never Even though her struggle is hopeless, she will never surrender.

surrender N
when you officially say you are defeated

- adj+N complete or partial complete, full, partial, total, unconditional It becomes a fight to the finish with no alternative except unconditional surrender.
- with time expressions early, eventual, final, immediate On 3rd February the fleet appeared off the islands and demanded immediate surrender.
- with nationality adjectives British, Italian etc In 1801 he served in the 22nd Light Dragoons helping to force the French surrender of Egypt.
- official formal He accepted the formal surrender of the German military at Luneburg Heath on May 4th 1945.
- cowardly abject, craven The good news is there was no abject surrender this time, like last week against Australia when they lost 49–0.
- peaceful peaceful Local tribal leaders were attempting to negotiate a peaceful surrender.
- voluntary voluntary The Government of Columbia expected the voluntary surrender of more than 4,000 illegal armed militants.

- v+N agree surrender negotiate, sign He had little choice but to negotiate the surrender of the garrison.
- get surrender demand, force, secure In 389 B.C. the commander of Athens anchored off the coast of Aspendos in an effort to secure its surrender.
- accept surrender accept William accepted the surrender of the Anglo-Saxon nobles at Berkhamsted Castle, north-west of London.

surround V be closely connected with a situation or event

- n+V discussion controversy, debate, discourse, furore, speculation Many of you will be aware of some of the controversy surrounding this company.
- publicity hype INFORMAL, publicity Perhaps Oxford University have learnt their lesson from the trial and the negative publicity surrounding it.
- mystery mystery, myth, secrecy The attempt to recreate Stonehenge may provide answers to some of the mysteries surrounding it.
- confusion confusion, misconception, uncertainty These terms are surrounded by confusion, self-deception and imagination.
- reputation stigma They would aim to remove the stigma surrounding epilepsy by educating other pupils about the illness.
- rumour rumour, scandal Christopher Marlowe's life was surrounded by rumour and mystery.
- issues issues The centre ran a programme of national seminars on the issues surrounding the development and use of information and communication technology.

surrounding ADJ near or all around a place

- ADJ+n area area, counties, district, islands, neighbourhood, parishes, region Down the hill from Struthof lies prosperous Schirmeck and its surrounding district.
- land countryside, farmland, forests, hills, land, mountains, valleys, woodland The delicate drawing of the great cathedral indicated how it dominated the surrounding countryside.
- places houses, streets, towns, villages The school is also busy – taking in children from several surrounding villages.
- scenery landscape, scenery The village lies low, but the surrounding scenery is extremely beautiful.

surroundings N things in the place where you are

- adj+N beautiful attractive, beautiful, delightful, lovely, picturesque, wonderful This year's conference will take place in the beautiful surroundings of Exeter University.
- peaceful idyllic, peaceful, quiet, serene, tranquil It was really great to get away from the hustle of London and relax in such peaceful surroundings.
- dramatic magnificent, spectacular, splendid, stunning After the service, the reception was in the spectacular surroundings of the banqueting hall of Cardiff Castle.
- comfortable comfortable, cosy, intimate, pleasant They spent a lot of time in relatively comfortable surroundings.
- luxurious elegant, luxurious, opulent, plush, stylish, sumptuous All rooms offer extreme comfort in elegant surroundings.
- familiar/unfamiliar familiar, new, unfamiliar He took to his new surroundings straight away and has become a regular little sun worshipper.
- close immediate, local If all you want is to relax in the immediate surroundings of the hotel, there's free admission to a local leisure centre.

- v+N experience absorb, appreciate, enjoy, experience, explore There is also a restaurant available so that visitors can relax and enjoy the surroundings.
- match be in harmony with, be in keeping with, blend into, blend in with, complement, fit into, match, suit The Grand Hotel offers genuine service to match its elegant surroundings.
- dominate dominate Photos can show the way a structure dominates its surroundings.

surveillance N
the process of carefully watching for possible criminal activity

- adj+N hidden/open covert, intrusive, overt, undercover One of the most fundamental themes of the TV series is that covert surveillance is wrong.
- continuous or close 24-hour, close, constant, continuous, round-the-clock Where 24-hour surveillance is necessary, Closed Circuit Television (CCTV) may be appropriate.
- types of surveillance arial, CCTV, electronic, routine, satellite, video In video surveillance, we diagnose unusual or suspicious behaviour of people moving in an outdoor scene.

- v+N carry out surveillance conduct, keep under, place under, undertake Their UK Headquarters at Basingstoke was placed under twenty-four hour surveillance.
- allow surveillance authorize, justify Police had authorised surveillance on the grounds that there was good reason to suppose Barnes was dealing in heroin.
- avoid surveillance evade It will become impossible to evade surveillance from satellites and sensors.

▸ continue or increase surveillance enhance, increase, maintain, strengthen As governments become less popular, they will be tempted to increase their surveillance to suppress the opposition.
▸ carry out surveillance carry out, conduct, perform Undercover police officers conduct covert surveillance of people protesting about the Iraq war.

survey N

a study or examination of something

• adj+N detailed/not detailed brief, comprehensive, detailed, extensive, systematic The initial survey identified a number of areas worthy of detailed survey.
▸ involving many people international, large, large-scale, major, national, nationwide The data in the figure is taken from a recent national survey of elderly people.
▸ with time expressions annual, new, previous, quarterly, recent, regular A recent survey has recorded over 116 species of plants.
▸ types of survey initial, online, postal, preliminary The BMA invited doctors to take part in an online survey to gather their views on retirement.

• v+N carry out a survey administer, carry out, conduct, undertake In January, the director conducted a survey to investigate how the programme was progressing.
▸ produce a survey compile, design The survey was designed and analysed using a system called Libra, which is widely used in university libraries.
▸ publish a survey launch, publish, release A recently published survey revealed what people across the UK really think about the homeless.
▸ pay for a survey commission, fund, sponsor English Heritage has taken a strong interest in coastal archaeology, funding several surveys.
▸ do a survey complete, fill in, participate in, take part in Students complete two university-sanctioned surveys at the end of the course.

• N+v survey shows something conclude, confirm, demonstrate, highlight, indicate, record, report, reveal, show A recent survey revealed that only 15 % of Labour Party members see themselves as working class.
▸ survey suggests something claim, suggest The quality of life really is as high as the surveys claim.
▸ survey discovers something discover, find, identify, uncover The survey found that two in five patients were unaware of the dangers of mixing natural and conventional remedies.
▸ survey asks something ask, examine The survey asked the drivers about their ways of avoiding police.
▸ survey asks someone ask, question The survey questioned people about their knowledge of art.

survival N

the fact of continuing to live or exist

• adj+N for a long/short time indefinite, long-term, prolonged, short-term Against Breast Cancer is a charitable organisation that funds research work into long-term survival.
▸ future continued, future As long as this demand continues, the future survival of this species remains under threat.
▸ types of survival business, national, personal, physical, political What exactly do we mean when we talk of national survival?

• v+N cause survival assure, determine, ensure, guarantee, promote, secure Building in stone did not guarantee survival of the castle.
▸ threaten or reduce survival endanger, reduce, threaten Kangaroo killing now seriously threatens the long-term survival of the target species.
▸ extend survival enhance, extend, improve, increase, prolong Matluba's chances of survival were enhanced by what her midwives and obstetrician had learned only weeks before.
▸ affect survival affect, influence The type of surgery performed did not influence survival in this group of patients.
▸ fight for survival battle for, compete for, fight for, struggle for The people are all struggling for survival and dignity.

You can also talk about a battle, a fight or a struggle for survival: The loss of one of his own men and most of his supplies turned a hazardous trek into a fight for survival.

survive V

stay alive or continue to exist

• V+adj intact, unchanged, unscathed This unique little church survived intact until 1757.

• adv+V in a very lucky or unexpected way miraculously The driver of the train miraculously survived the massive explosion.
▸ in some way somehow These scrubby tussocks of vegetation somehow survive in the desert dryness.
▸ almost not barely, just, only just Jones barely survived his sickly childhood. ◉ The firm was just surviving; in no way was it thriving.
▸ not often rarely Papyrus rarely survives the ravages of the centuries.
▸ for a long time long When the company was established, few would have predicted it would survive so long.
▸ still still The Association, originating as far back as 1807, still survives.
▸ well successfully, well Foxes who become used to humans do not survive well once released back in to the wild.
▸ in a financial way financially A significant minority of GPs' practices have been struggling to survive financially.

• V+n attack, attempt, battle, crash, fire, journey, onslaught, ordeal, scare, war, winter All the plants have survived the winter, and most are flourishing.

susceptible ADJ

easily influenced or affected by something

• adv+ADJ especially, extremely, highly, particularly, very Young chicks are particularly susceptible to extremes of temperature.

• v+ADJ be, become, prove, remain, seem Older trees become susceptible to disease and wind damage.

• ADJ+to attack, damage, disease, erosion, flooding, illness, infection, injury, interference, virus The map shows land areas susceptible to flooding.

suspect V believe that something is true

- adv+V strongly strongly I strongly suspect you've heard all this before.
- ▸ rather rather Sometimes I rather suspect I'm just being humoured by those around me.
- ▸ for a long time always, long They had long suspected that they were distantly related.
- ▸ never never Her colleagues never suspected she was a spy.
- ▸ by a lot of people widely Smoking during pregnancy is widely suspected to increase the risk.

Usage Suspect is always passive in this combination.

suspect N
someone who may have committed a crime

- adj+N main chief, main, prime The prime suspect was never brought to court.
- ▸ possible likely, obvious, possible, potential The squad gathered evidence, interviewed potential suspects, and followed various leads.
- ▸ types of suspect criminal, terrorist Three men have been arrested as terrorist suspects.
- n+N murder, terror, terrorism Two murder suspects have been released due to lack of evidence.
- v+N arrest a suspect apprehend, arrest, detain, hold A young suspect has been detained for questioning.
- ▸ give the name of a suspect identify A number of suspects for the murder were identified.
- ▸ ask a suspect questions interrogate, interview, question Should police have extra powers to question suspects for longer?
- ▸ accuse a suspect of a crime charge In the end the police never charged any suspect with the murders.
- ▸ let a suspect leave release The suspect was released on police bail.

suspect ADJ
that cannot be trusted or believed, or that may be dangerous or illegal

- adv+ADJ very highly, very The figure of $600 million is highly suspect.
- ▸ rather a bit INFORMAL, rather, slightly, somewhat She spoke with a slightly suspect Spanish accent.
- ▸ in a particular way morally, politically The film is incredibly violent and morally suspect.
- ADJ+n device, package, vehicle If you identify a suspect package, do not touch it.
- v+ADJ be, become, consider sth, seem If one piece of information is found to be false, the rest of the data becomes suspect. ◈ Any statment from his office is considered suspect until it is proved otherwise.

suspense N excitement or worry felt when waiting

- adj+N too extreme to deal with agonizing, unbearable The story moves slowly, which makes the suspense almost unbearable.
- ▸ connected with the mind psychological Her new thriller is a gripping tale of psychological suspense.
- v+N create or increase suspense build, create, generate, heighten, maintain The music helps to build suspense.
- N+v be difficult to deal with be killing sb Tell me what happened, the suspense is killing me.
- ▸ increase build As the story progresses, the suspense builds gradually.
- v+in+N keep sb, leave sb Please do not keep me in suspense any longer.
- and/ or drama, excitement, horror, intrigue, mystery, tension This book has it all: suspense, mystery and love.

suspicion N a feeling that someone has done something wrong, or that you do not trust them; a feeling that something bad is likely to happen

- adj+N strong deep, grave, great, strong Where there is an initial strong suspicion of fraud, the case is passed to the Fraud Investigation Service.
- ▸ reasonable reasonable The police should only be searching for drugs if they have reasonable suspicion.

You can also talk about someone having grounds for suspicion: The library staff may ask to inspect any bag where they have reasonable grounds for suspicion.

- ▸ unpleasant and difficult to get rid of dark, lingering, nagging, sneaking, sneaky, worst I can't seem to shake off this nagging suspicion that there's a selfish motive behind it all.
- ▸ growing growing There is growing suspicion that the government is about to pull the plug on this grant money.
- ▸ very little slightest I went home without the slightest suspicion that it was all a lie.
- ▸ shared by two people or groups mutual It will help to remove the culture of mutual suspicion that exists between landlords and students.
- ▸ felt by many people widespread There are widespread suspicions that profiteers are diverting some of the aid.
- v+N cause suspicion arouse, cast, create, fuel, give rise to, increase, lead to, raise We argued that his absence was only going to arouse suspicion.
- ▸ have suspicions harbour, have I didn't get close enough to smell alcohol on his breath, but I have my suspicions.
- ▸ make suspicions stronger confirm, reinforce I made a few inquiries, and they confirmed my worst suspicions.
- ▸ get rid of suspicions allay, dispel, remove One should declare any potential interest in advance to allay suspicion of bias.
- ▸ avoid suspicion avoid To avoid suspicion of plagiarism, you are advised to develop good study habits from the outset.
- ▸ express suspicion report, voice Before Riley could voice his suspicions, he was found strangled to death.
- ▸ be the object of suspicion be under, come under, fall under When a business tycoon is found murdered, his wife comes under suspicion.
- N+v be aimed at someone fall on sb Doreen finds all her money has been stolen, and Lizzie is upset when suspicion falls on her first.

You can also talk about the finger of suspicion being pointed at someone: The police were called in and because of his youth the finger of suspicion was pointed at him.

▸ exist arise, grow, remain Gabriela's suspicions grew but she kept quiet.

- v+with+N regard sb, treat sb, view sb Candidates who are unable to come up with any weaknesses at all are often viewed with suspicion.
- and/or allegation, distrust, doubt, fear, hatred, hostility, mistrust A climate of fear and suspicion pervades many urban areas.

suspicious ADJ

1 believing someone has probably done something wrong, or that they cannot be trusted

- adv+ADJ very deeply, extremely, highly, very He became an egalitarian, deeply suspicious of unearned privilege.

▸ rather a bit INFORMAL, a little, rather, slightly I have always been a little suspicious of people who seem overly fond of their pets.

▸ more and more increasingly Police became increasingly suspicious of the woman's story and arrested her.

- v+ADJ become, feel, get, grow, make sb, remain, seem Staff became suspicious because he was wearing a doctor's coat. ◉ No one answered – and that made me a bit suspicious.
- ADJ+of intentions, motives We are suspicious of the motives behind these statements.

2 making you believe something is wrong, dangerous, or illegal

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, very The decision looked highly suspicious.

▸ slightly a bit INFORMAL, a little, rather, slightly Because of the circumstances, this death has to be regarded as slightly suspicious.

- ADJ+n activity, behaviour, circumstances, death, fire, incident, object, package Police have confirmed that there are no suspicious circumstances surrounding her death.

You can also talk in a general way about anything suspicious: If you see anything suspicious, call this number immediately.

- v+ADJ be suspicious be, look, seem If anyone looks suspicious, make a note of their car registration number.

▸ think something is suspicious find sth, regard sth as, treat sth as The fire is not being treated as suspicious.

sustain V

1 provide conditions for something to happen or exist

- adv+V with money economically, financially The welfare benefits are proving increasingly difficult to sustain financially.

▸ successfully or for a long time indefinitely, on a long-term basis, successfully These policies could not be sustained idefinitely. ◉ Plants represent a lifeline that is essential for successfully sustaining life on Earth.

- V+n community, economy, employment, growth, interest, life, population, relationship Australia's ability to sustain economic growth is likely to be compromised.

2 experience loss, injury, damage etc

- V+n casualties, damage, fracture, injury, loss, wound One man sustained severe head injuries in the car crash.

sustainable ADJ

using methods that do not harm the environment

- adv+ADJ really or completely fully, genuinely, truly The environmental campaign group highlighted the need for more investment in genuinely sustainable energy sources.

▸ in a way that relates to the environment ecologically, environmentally Cycling is an environmentally sustainable form of transport.

- ADJ+n agriculture, community, development, energy, farming, fishery, forestry, lifestyle, living, production, source, tourism, transport, use Her work centres on promoting biodiversity and sustainable agriculture. ◉ The concept of sustainable development has brought in its wake an increased awareness of energy, environmental and ecological issues.

sway V

1 move gently from side to side

- adv+V gently gently, slightly Tall trees were swaying gently in the breeze.

▸ one way, then the other back and forth, from side to side She began to sway from side to side in time with the music.

▸ strongly alarmingly, violently When the new bridge was first opened, it swayed alarmingly and had to be closed for several months.

2 influence or change someone's opinion

- adv+V easily He has a sense of fair play and justice, but he's not easily swayed by pleas for mercy.
- V+n what someone decides or thinks decision, opinion, vote Activists have been swaying public opinion through letter-writing campaigns and publicity stunts.

▸ people audience, crowd, voters The audience was swayed by the excellence of the sales pitch that the team made.

swear V

use deliberately offensive words

- adv+V loudly, profusely, softly, violently He has been known to swear profusely on live television.

If someone swears in a very quiet way so that other people cannot easily hear, you can say that they swear under their breath: Sometimes I just count to ten and swear under my breath.

sweat V

produce liquid on the surface of your skin

- adv+V copiously, heavily, a lot, profusely I was trying hard to keep up, sweating profusely and gulping litres of air.

You can also say informally that someone is sweating buckets or is sweating like a pig: It gets so hot that you end up sweating buckets just from walking around.

sweet ADJ

tasting like sugar, or smelling pleasant

- adv+ADJ very or too overly, sickly, too, very Unlike many ginger wines, it is not too sickly sweet.
- ▸ slightly slightly I enjoyed the smooth, slightly sweet, tomato and garlic sauce.
- ▸ pleasantly deliciously, wonderfully It's wonderfully sweet but there's no added sugar!
- v+ADJ be, find sth, smell, taste Many people find these wines overly sweet. ◉ The peas tasted really sweet.

swift ADJ

happening quickly or immediately

- adv+ADJ extremely, fairly, relatively, remarkably, very His recovery from the injury was remarkably swift.
- ADJ+n action, progress, recovery, reply, resolution, response, return Thank you for your swift response to my email enquiry.
- and/or decisive, effective, efficient Existing laws did not enable us to take swift and effective action to deal with the problem.

swing V

change from one emotion, condition, or idea to another

- adv+V dramatically, violently, wildly He began to swing violently between elation and despair.
- n+V balance, fortunes, game, match, momentum, mood, pendulum, (public) opinion The political mood is swinging firmly towards environmental protection. ◉ The pendulum is swinging back in favour of home buyers again.

swing N

a change from one emotion, idea, or condition to another

- adj+N large and easy to notice big, dramatic, huge, large, massive, violent There have been some dramatic swings in the exchange rate.
- ▸ small small A small swing either way could determine a national trend.
- ▸ sudden sudden, wild As an actor Kinski was notorious for wild mood swings.
- ▸ percentage 2 per cent, 10 per cent etc The seat was won with a massive 30 per cent swing to Labour.
- ▸ involving the whole country national A national swing of 8.5 per cent from Labour to the Liberal Democrats would result in a hung parliament.
- n+N mood Too many carbohydrates cause me to experience severe mood swings.

switch V

change from one thing to another

- adv+V quickly or easily easily, instantly, quickly, simply, suddenly The patient may suddenly switch from an animated state to total immobility.
- ▸ smoothly effortlessly, seamlessly He can switch effortlessly between ballet, tap, jazz, and even gymnastics.
- ▸ automatically automatically The cameras switch automatically from colour, for daytime use, to ultra-sensitive black-and-white for night-time surveillance.
- ▸ one way, then the other back and forth The voiceover switches back and forth from Urdu to English.
- V+n group you support allegiance, sides Choosing the King initially, the Marquis of Argyll switched his allegiance to Cromwell.
- ▸ attention attention, focus She has difficulty in switching attention from one thing to another.
- ▸ company supplying a service provider, supplier You can switch your telephone supplier in a couple of days and you don't have to change your phone number.

switch N

something that controls the electrical supply to equipment

- v+N flick, flip, hit, operate, press, throw, turn off, turn on John crossed to the control console and flicked a switch.

syllabus N

a list of the main subjects in an educational course

- n+N course course A copy of the course syllabus is attached overleaf.
- ▸ most important or basic core You follow a core geology syllabus with specialized modules in the area of your choice.
- ▸ for an examination exam, examination Although students are required to refer to plays in detail, few exam syllabuses explicitly require extended direct quotation.
- ▸ for a particular subject Mathematics, Biology etc Teachers will be given the chance to hear about new research that can be tied to the A-level History syllabus.
- v+N design or write a syllabus design, develop, set, write The syllabus is designed to provide a wide understanding of all the major world religions.
- ▸ include and deal with all of a syllabus cover The mock tests are very useful as they cover the entire syllabus of each module.
- ▸ teach or study a syllabus follow, teach It is recommended that the syllabus be followed in the order given below.
- N+v include cover, include The syllabus covers all aspects of English for business purposes.

symbol N

a picture, thing, or person that represents something

- adj+N powerful potent, powerful The most powerful symbol of social exclusion is the sight of people sleeping rough on our streets.
- ▸ used by everyone standard, universal The dove is a universal symbol of peace and innocence.
- ▸ that can be seen graphic, visible, visual A logo is a graphic symbol that visually communicates a company, product, or service.

- ▶ old or traditional ancient, traditional The Mace is the traditional symbol of authority.
- ▶ mark used in writing chemical, mathematical, phonetic It is a computer algebra package for solving problems expressed in mathematical symbols and notation.
- ▶ religious religious The government there has banned the presence of religious symbols in public buildings.
- ▶ of a country national The red dragon is the national symbol of Wales.

- ● N+v denote, indicate, mean, represent A word is simply a symbol representing something in the real world.

symbolic ADJ representing something important

- ● adv+ADJ very deeply, highly, very The colour red is highly symbolic in China.
- ▶ only or completely merely, purely The deployment of these troops was seen as merely symbolic.
- ▶ mainly largely Such a reform, then, would probably be largely symbolic.

- ● ADJ+n something you do act, gesture A Teaching Award is a symbolic gesture designed to celebrate and reward excellence in teaching.
- ▶ importance or meaning importance, meaning, significance, value This was a victory of considerable symbolic significance.

sympathetic ADJ kind to and sorry for someone with a problem; showing understanding

- ● adv+ADJ very deeply, extremely, very My boss was very sympathetic and helpful.
- ▶ in general broadly, generally Most newspapers were generally sympathetic to the strikers.

- ● ADJ+n hearing, manner, portrayal, smile, tone They reported that they had received a sympathetic hearing from the minister.

- ● v+ADJ be, feel, find sb, remain, seem When they admitted experiencing difficulties it was not hard to feel sympathetic. ❋ She may find the public more sympathetic than she expects.

sympathy N
1 a kind feeling towards someone experiencing something unpleasant

- ● adj+N great or sincere considerable, deep, great, heartfelt, profound, sincere One can only feel heartfelt sympathy for residents affected by the flood waters.
- ▶ not much little If he's guilty, then we should have very little sympathy for him.
- ▶ of the public public There was little public sympathy for him in Spain.
- ▶ human human She is incapable of human sympathy.

- ● v+N feel sympathy feel, find, have However, we ought to have some sympathy for the director.
- ▶ show sympathy express, show (sb) She didn't show any sympathy for the victims of the bomb.
- ▶ give or send sympathy extend, offer (sb), send (sb) I wish to extend my deepest sympathies to the bereaved families.

Usage Sympathy is usually plural in these combinations.

- ▶ get sympathy arouse, attract, elicit, evoke, gain, get, receive, win News of the tragedy spread at once all over the world and evoked sympathy everywhere.
- ▶ deserve sympathy deserve They should not have been put in that position and certainly deserved sympathy.
- ▶ lose sympathy lose She was so gratuitously aggressive that she lost the sympathy of the audience.

2 agreement with or support of a group or idea

- ● N+with aim, argument, cause, position, view I suspect many of us would have sympathy with these views.

symptom N
a sign that someone has an illness

- ● adj+N severe distressing, serious, severe, unpleasant The symptoms are generally more severe in males than females.
- ▶ not severe mild Some people also experience mild respiratory symptoms at the outset.
- ▶ common or typical classic, common, typical Headaches are a classic symptom of dehydration.
- ▶ most important main Stiff and painful joints are the main symptoms.
- ▶ physical physical Users do not suffer from physical withdrawal symptoms if they stop taking the drug.

- ● v+N make symptoms less severe alleviate, control, deal with, ease, improve, reduce, relieve, treat The drug is effective in relieving the symptoms of arthritis.
- ▶ make symptoms more severe aggravate, exacerbate, worsen Asthma symptoms can be aggravated by outdoor pollution.
- ▶ have or show symptoms display, exhibit, experience, have, show, suffer, suffer from Not everyone will experience these symptoms.
- ▶ get symptoms develop, get Help is offered to people when they first start to develop the symptoms of mental illness.
- ▶ cause symptoms cause, produce A dramatic increase in blood pressure occurs, causing symptoms such as severe headache and sweating.
- ▶ notice or recognize symptoms notice, recognize Only a quarter of the people who catch this virus will notice any symptoms at all.
- ▶ describe symptoms describe, report Survival rates would be even better if more women reported their symptoms to their doctor at an earlier stage.
- ▶ deal successfully with your symptoms manage Although there is currently no cure for this disease, there are ways to manage symptoms effectively.

- ● N+v get more/less severe improve, persist, subside, worsen If your symptoms persist, please contact your surgery.
- ▶ appear/disappear appear, develop, disappear, occur After several days, the symptoms disappeared.
- ▶ when you say what different symptoms are include sth, vary Symptoms include headaches, muscle and joint pain, and sleep disruption.

system N

1 a method of organizing or doing things

- adj+N that works well effective, efficient, good, proven, viable This is a proven system of storing data, which will serve you well.
- ▸ usual or shared common, standard It is helpful to use a standard system of reporting, so that results can be compared with each other.
- ▸ complicated/ simple complex, complicated, elaborate, simple Unfortunately the English spelling system is extremely complex, and caused learners a lot of problems.
- v+N have a system have The airline now has a new fares system.
- ▸ use or run a system maintain, run, use The election will be conducted through a postal ballot using the system of the single transferable vote.
- ▸ invent or design a system build, create, design, develop, devise, establish, set up We set about designing an alternative pension system for the UK.
- ▸ start using a new system adopt, implement, introduce A fairer charging system was introduced last October.
- ▸ make a system better improve, reform We have worked to improve our booking systems and offer even more quality to all our customers.
- ▸ change a system change, replace Since they changed the system there have been delays.
- N+v exist or work operate, work Find out how the voting system works and which MP is representing your local area.

You can also say that a system is in operation: A booking system is in operation to use this facility.

- ▸ not work break down, fail On the first day chaos reigned and the system largely broke down.

2 a set of things working together

- v+N put a system in install We have installed a new central heating system.
- ▸ design or put together a system build, design, develop I helped to build a system to handle scanning and storing of engineering drawings.
- ▸ use a system use Using a secure log-on system, patients can view their medical records quickly and easily.
- N+v work or operate operate, run, work The city's transport system works extremely well.
- ▸ not work break down, fail, go down In the middle of all this, the school heating system failed.

systematic ADJ done thoroughly, according to a careful plan

- ADJ+n way of doing something approach, attempt, manner, method, way Mathematics is helping me to develop a more logical and systematic approach to study.
- ▸ studying or examining something analysis, evaluation, examination, investigation, observation, review, search, study, survey Officials are to undertake a systematic review of the commission's recommendations.
- and/ or coherent, comprehensive, consistent, disciplined, methodical, rigorous, structured Unless the planning is carried out in a systematic and methodical way, it will be of limited benefit.

Tt

table N
a set of information arranged in rows and lines

- adj+N accompanying, comparative, statistical In the comparative tables you can find the cost of insurance cover from a range of insurers.
- N+v compare, give, illustrate, indicate, list, present, provide, show, summarize The following table indicates that smaller schools are experiencing the most serious financial problems. ◆ The table below summarizes the most frequent responses given.

taboo ADJ
not done or talked about because it is shocking

- adv+ADJ absolutely, socially, strictly Mixed bathing was strictly taboo!
- ADJ+n subject, topic, word The series deals with the taboo subject of death and bereavement.
- v+ADJ be, be considered, remain Issues that were previously taboo are now the subject of open discussion.

tackle V make an organized attempt to deal with a problem

- adv+V successfully effectively, successfully If bullying is to be effectively tackled, it first has to be known about.
  - directly directly, head-on Waste management is a very serious issue for this council and one that we are committed to tackling head-on.
  - in a serious way seriously, systematically They claim to be the only party committed to seriously tackling the environmental challenges the world faces.
- V+n problem or subject challenge, crisis, issue, problem, question, subject, task We are tackling the problem of overcrowding on our commuter trains.
  - particular issue anti-social behaviour, climate change, crime, discrimination, inequality, poverty, social exclusion There is a new determination to tackle global poverty.

tact N
care taken to avoid upsetting other people

- v+N need tact need, require This situation requires tact.
  - have or use tact employ, exercise, have, show, use She has shown great tact and patience.
  - not have tact lack The remark lacks a little tact.
- and/or courtesy, diplomacy, discretion, patience, sensitivity We deal with each application with tact and sensitivity.

tactic N
a particular method or plan for achieving something [usually plural]

- adj+N using force or threats aggressive, brutal, bully-boy INFORMAL, bullying, heavy-handed, intimidatory, strong-arm She complained that the union had been subjected to bullying tactics.
  - secret and dishonest devious, underhand He had a reputation for underhand business tactics.
  - intended to frighten or shock scare, shock, terror The Speed Awareness campaign does not employ shock tactics.
  - making a process slower delaying, stalling The defence lawyers have run out of delaying tactics.
  - taking attention away diversionary She has been a victim of quite deliberate diversionary tactics.
- v+N use tactics adopt, employ, resort to, try, use Schools have adopted several tactics to raise awareness of the issue.
  - change tactics change As spammers change their tactics, so should industry.
  - discuss tactics discuss Of course we will discuss tactics before the race.
- N+v be unsuccessful backfire, fail His campaign tactics of smearing the other candidate backfired when voters turned against him.
  - be successful pay off, succeed, work The tactic worked well and they won the match easily.

tailor V make or change something especially for a particular person [usually passive]

- adv+V for a particular person or group individually, personally, specially, specifically All tuition is one-to-one, and is personally tailored to the client's needs.
  - carefully or exactly carefully, exactly, precisely The rehabilitation programme is carefully tailored to meet the needs of each patient.
- V+n activity, advice, approach, content, course, package, product, programme, service, session, solution, training, treatment There are opportunities for substituting other, relevant modules so that your course is tailored to you.
- V+to what someone needs circumstances, interests, needs, requirements Workshops are tailored to the needs of each group depending upon age range and previous musical experience.
  - person or people audience, client, customer, individual, patient Your lecture must be tailored to your target audience.

take on PHR VB accept work or responsibility

- V+n challenge, duty, job, responsibility, role, task, work They returned to their office feeling energized and ready to take on new challenges.

take out PHR VB get something officially

- V+n cover, injunction, insurance, loan, mortgage, policy, subscription Every year we find that many of our students have not taken out any travel insurance and deeply regret it.

take over PHR VB
begin doing something that someone else was doing

- V+n job or responsibility duty, function, job, position, responsibility, role, task Mr Mason became Exams Officer, taking over the role from Mr Ewing.
- ▸ being in charge of something command, control, leadership, management, reins, running She took over the running of the school last year.

takeover N
the act of taking control of another company

- adj+N opposed by the company hostile The company could become the target of a hostile takeover.
- ▸ planned or attempted attempted, proposed The proposed takeover would reduce competition among supermarkets.
- ▸ when a smaller company takes control of a larger one reverse The acquisition of the business constitutes a reverse takeover.
- ▸ involving large companies company, corporate A corporate takeover squeezed out the old management.
- v+N agree, announce, complete, plan, prevent, stage The company may well try to stage a hostile takeover.
- N+n relating to the takeover process approach, attempt, battle, bid, deal, offer, talks He has tabled a £300m takeover bid for the entire car plant.
- ▸ company you want to buy target The company is also a likely takeover target.
- ▸ talking about a possible takeover rumours, speculation Her company is currently the subject of takeover speculation.

tale N
a story about imaginary events or people

- adj+N sad sad, sorry, tragic It is a tragic tale of love and grief.
- ▸ strange or unusual extraordinary, strange Strange tales are told about this awe-inspiring mountain.
- ▸ upsetting or frightening chilling, dark, harrowing This is a chilling tale of suspense and betrayal surrounding the gruesome murders at a school.
- ▸ funny amusing, comic, funny, hilarious, humorous It is a darkly humorous tale packed full of unexpected twists and turns.
- ▸ exciting and interesting fascinating, gripping 'The Probability' is a gripping tale of chance, fate, and gambling.
- ▸ making you feel happy or sympathetic heart-warming, touching The film is a heart-warming tale of adventure and hope.
- ▸ mysterious and attractive enchanting, magical This magical tale of friendship, kindness, and generosity is told using story-telling, music, and puppetry.
- ▸ having a moral cautionary, moral, morality The last section includes several moral tales and fables.
- ▸ old or traditional ancient, classic, folk, traditional She begins by retelling a traditional Japanese folk tale.
- v+N tell a tale recount, relate, tell A story-teller will recount traditional Indian tales with elephant themes.
- ▸ invent a tale make up, spin, weave The author weaves a tale that is both engrossing and horrific.
- ▸ read or write a tale read, write Carroll wrote a modern fairy tale that follows the adventures of a little girl called Alice.
- ▸ put a tale in a particular time or place set Verne sets his tale in 1885.

talent N
a natural ability in a particular activity

- adj+N great or unusual amazing, considerable, exceptional, extraordinary, formidable, genuine, great, immense, incredible, obvious, outstanding, prodigious, rare, real, remarkable, undoubted, unique Chris has an undoubted talent for choreography.
- ▸ basic and natural natural, raw You find out about local classes where you can study acting and improve your natural talent.
- ▸ not known about hidden Whatever kind of writer you want to be, we'll help you to tap into your hidden talents.
- ▸ of a particular type acting, artistic, comic, creative, entrepreneurial, literary, musical, sporting, vocal, writing When he was a young man, his family and friends encouraged him to develop his artistic talents.
- v+N encourage someone's talent develop, encourage, foster, nurture Nurturing the talents of young people is his proudest achievement.
- ▸ recognize someone's talent discover, recognize, spot Her talent was soon spotted and she made her stage debut aged 10.
- ▸ have or show talent demonstrate, display, have, possess, reveal, show, showcase, use At our school he showed talent as an actor in the drama group.
- ▸ waste talent squander, waste The programme wasted the talent of its contributors.
- ▸ use someone's talent harness, utilize We need to harness the talent of every section of society.

talented ADJ
very good at something

- adv+ADJ very amazingly, exceptionally, extremely, highly, hugely, immensely, incredibly, outrageously, prodigiously, supremely, wonderfully Their star was Zico, an exceptionally talented player, and a great goal-scorer.
- ▸ in a particular way academically, artistically, musically Recognised immediately as artistically talented, Louis was awarded a scholarship in the following year.
- ADJ+n in the arts actor, artist, band, composer, dancer, designer, musician, painter, performer, photographer, poet, singer, songwriter, writer Johansson's performance shows why she is one of the most talented young actors working today.
- ▸ in sport athlete, footballer, player, rider, squad, team Wenger has built up one of the most talented squads in English football.

talk N
1 discussions designed to help people reach an agreement [usually plural]

- adj+N all-party, bilateral, high-level, international, multilateral, multi-party There will undoubtedly be bilateral talks between the United States and Egypt and possibly also with other states in the region.

- n+N climate, crisis, disarmament, emergency, merger, pay, peace, takeover, trade Victims of violence are seeking representation in peace talks between the government and the rebels.
- v+N have talks conduct, have, hold The largest separatist group is at last holding peace talks with the Philippine government.
- ▶ end talks because of disagreement break off, pull out of, walk out of, withdraw from The union is threatening to pull out of talks if the package isn't substantially improved.
- ▶ begin talks begin, initiate, open, start The Council said Iraq would have to re-admit U.N. inspection teams before the chief inspector would open talks on what remains to be done.
- N+v fail break down, collapse, fail, falter, stall Despite the mediators' efforts, the talks failed, and the situation in eastern Congo remained unresolved.
- ▶ begin begin, commence, start Important peace talks were commencing in Northern Ireland.

2 an informal lecture about something

- adj+N interesting entertaining, fascinating, informative, inspirational, inspiring, interesting, lively We then enjoyed a very interesting talk on the history of the locality.
- ▶ short brief, short On arrival at the centre, your tour guide will first hold a brief talk with the group.
- n+N half-time, pep, pre-concert, pre-match, pre-performance He regularly gives pre-performance talks on operas from Handel to Stravinsky.
- v+N give a talk deliver, give, present The weavers give special talks about their work at scheduled times throughout the day.
- ▶ attend a talk attend, hear When I was 30 I heard a talk on the theory of reincarnation.

talk through PHR VB

discuss something in detail

- V+n feelings or problems concerns, difficulty, feelings, issue, problem, worries The doctor will be available so that you can talk through any concerns about the operation.
- ▶ plans or ideas aspect, idea, option, proposal, requirement, situation You may wish to talk through your career options with our student advisors.

tall ADJ

having greater height than average

- adv+ADJ exceptionally, extremely, incredibly, particularly, unusually, very Long climbs and falls through mountains follow, with incredibly tall cactus plants to admire.
- and/or gaunt, lanky, lean, narrow, skinny, slender, slim, thin The tall lanky Crouch climbed magnificently to score against Trinidad.

tap V touch someone or something gently

- adv+V gently gently, lightly, quietly The mixture should drop off the spoon when you lightly tap the bowl.
- ▶ quickly or repeatedly furiously, impatiently, rapidly, repeatedly Guy fished out his mobile phone and tapped furiously on the keypad.

target N

something that you try to achieve

- adj+N difficult to achieve ambitious, challenging, stringent, tough, unrealistic Again this year we have set ourselves challenging targets to improve our performance in vital areas.
- ▶ which it is possible to achieve achievable, realistic These forecasts ensure that sales targets are realistic.
- n+N relating to finance budget, growth, inflation, poverty, profit, recruitment, revenue, sales Last year, both regions exceeded their sales targets.
- ▶ relating to the environment biodiversity, carbon, emissions reduction, landfill, leakage, recycling, renewables We have been calling for tougher CO2 emissions reduction targets and more investment in renewable energy.
- ▶ relating to how well you work efficiency, performance, quality The department says it has met its efficiency targets, and improved productivity by 15 per cent.
- v+N achieve a target achieve, attain, hit, meet, reach For individuals to meet their targets, they have to collaborate.
- ▶ do better than a target beat, exceed, surpass The final figures have yet to be completed, but it looks as though we have exceeded our targets.
- ▶ decide on a target for yourself or someone else agree, identify, impose, propose, set The Bill intends to set realistic targets for Local Authorities to increase home energy conservation.
- ▶ change a target increase, raise, reduce, review, revise We need to monitor progress and revise our sales targets if necessary.

target V

try to persuade or influence a particular group

- adv+V mainly mainly, primarily, principally Most legitimate music download sites have primarily targeted the youth and pop markets.
- ▶ particularly actively, aggressively, carefully, deliberately, directly, exclusively, explicitly, particularly, selectively, specifically These are sports programmes specifically targeting teenage girls.

tariff N

a tax on some goods, especially when they are traded between countries

- n+N customs, export, freight, import, trade When import tariffs on rice were eliminated, the market was flooded with cheap US rice.
- v+N charge a tariff apply, charge, impose, introduce, set The EU was to start to charge a tariff on Latin American fruits of 230 euros a tonne.
- ▶ reduce a tariff cut, lower, reduce, slash Developing countries will have to slash their tariffs by between 10 per cent and 40 per cent, leaving their farmers exposed to cheap, subsidised imports.

▸ stop charging a tariff abolish, eliminate, remove Sadly, removing tariffs without eliminating subsidy will continue to distort world prices.
▸ change the level of a tariff adjust, alter, review, revise There are no indications that the government is intending to adjust the tariff.

tarnish V make people's opinion of you worse

• adv+V badly, heavily, seriously Ford's image was seriously tarnished in the US over the scandal involving Firestone tires.

• V+n brand, credibility, image, memory, name, reputation The risk of war between them has tarnished the international image of both countries.

task N
something that you have to do

• adj+N difficult or unpleasant arduous, challenging, complex, daunting, difficult, impossible, mammoth, onerous, thankless, tough, unenviable This may sound like a daunting task, especially if you haven't carried out this type of work before.
▸ usual daily, everyday, routine He required prompting and supervision even when performing routine tasks.
▸ easy easy, simple, straighforward, trivial At first, it looked like a straightforward task, but we soon ran into problems.
▸ boring and requiring no skill low-level, menial, mundane, repetitive, tedious They have used robots to automate most of the mundane tasks.

• v+N do a task approach, handle, perform, tackle, undertake The animals can be trained to perform simple tasks.
▸ finish a task accomplish, complete, execute, finish, fulfil Soldiers are trained to accomplish difficult tasks under dangerous circumstances.
▸ give someone a task allocate, assign, delegate, entrust, set He has proved to be a fine organiser and he successfully delegates tasks to others.

taste N
the feeling of liking a particular type of thing

• v+N start to like something acquire, cultivate, get Having acquired a taste for sushi in my home town, I wanted to try the real thing in Tokyo.
▸ get something that you like gratify, indulge, satisfy He finally had enough money to indulge his taste for expensive clothes.
▸ have the same taste as someone else share They soon realized that they shared similar tastes in classical music.

tasty ADJ
tasty food or drink has a nice flavour

• adv+ADJ amazingly, deliciously, extremely, incredibly, particularly, really, seriously, so INFORMAL, truly, very, wonderfully Mild beers in good condition are deliciously tasty and come in a host of varieties.

• and/ or fresh, healthy, inexpensive, nutritious Soups like this are tasty, nutritious and easy to cook.

tax N money paid to the government

• adj+N considered to be unfair regressive, unfair Petrol tax is a regressive tax.
▸ considered to be fair fair, progressive This would be a far more progressive tax than the existing flat-rate per household.
▸ high/ low high, low Their citizens pay some of the highest taxes in Europe.
▸ with a single rate, rather than several rates flat They replaced graduated income tax with a flat tax of 25 per cent.

• n+N business, capital gains, carbon, corporation, fuel, income, inheritance, land, property, road, tobacco The protests have led to increases in fuel tax being abandoned.

• v+N charge a tax apply, charge, impose, introduce, levy Honduras had joined other banana-exporting nations in an agreement to levy an export tax on that fruit.
▸ pay a tax pay It seems I didn't pay any tax on these bonuses.
▸ take tax directly from someone's pay deduct This rule applies to income tax deducted at source from gross income.
▸ avoid paying tax avoid, defer, evade This enables the seller of the property to evade tax, by artificially reducing the declared price of the property.
▸ stop charging a tax abolish, scrap We also propose to scrap council tax and replace it with a local income tax.

taxable ADJ
on which tax must be paid

• ADJ+n benefit, dividend, earnings, expense, income, pay, payment, profit, salary, turnover The total amount you pay into your pension cannot go over 15 per cent of your taxable pay.

taxation N
the system that the government uses for collecting tax

• adj+N considered to be fair fair, progressive, redistributive There were claims the party would restore the welfare state by introducing progressive taxation.
▸ considered to be unfair excessive, heavy, oppressive, penal, punitive, regressive, unfair, unjust Local taxation is too regressive and bears too heavily on those on low incomes.
▸ charged directly on what you earn/indirectly on what you spend direct, indirect Under this administration, direct taxation has been reduced, but taxes on goods have risen.

• v+N change the taxation system modernize, reform, simplify Their Election Manifesto promised both to reduce and reform taxation.
▸ stop charging tax abolish, eliminate While virtually eliminating taxation for millionaires, the Bush administration allowed the collapse of the social infrastructure.
▸ increase the amount of tax charged double, increase He supported green taxes only where they did not increase taxation overall.

▶ collect money from people in tax collect, raise The Scottish Parliament does not raise its own taxation, but its legitimacy is not questioned.

● N+n agreement, law, legislation, measure, policy, regime, rule, system, treaty The current taxation regime should continue to encourage enterprise and investment.

taxi N

a car taking passengers who pay the driver

● v+N take a taxi catch, get, grab INFORMAL, jump in, take Get the train to Bourg St Maurice, then grab a taxi.
▶ book a taxi arrange, book, order We can arrange a taxi to collect you from the airport.
▶ shout or wave to a taxi driver flag down, hail Jane hails the first taxi that comes along.

teaching N

the job or work of a teacher

● adj+N good effective, excellent, good, high-quality, outstanding, successful The school provides high-quality teaching in music, art, and other creative subjects.
▶ using new methods creative, innovative, modern Our university delivers innovative teaching and a student experience of the highest quality.
▶ types of teaching face-to-face, one-to-one, research-led, text-based, web-based, whole-class All full-time staff are active in research and research-led teaching.

● n+N type of class, classroom, postgraduate, small-group, undergraduate, university We use a Virtual Learning Environment to support classroom teaching.
▶ subjects history, language, literacy, mathematics, music, numeracy, science For children from disadvantaged backgrounds, there is not enough access to music teaching.

● v+N improve the quality of teaching complement, enhance, enrich, improve, supplement The use of ICT to enhance teaching and learning varies significantly from school to school.
▶ provide students with education deliver, provide The mission statement of the University is to deliver teaching and research to world-class standards.

● N+n methods and materials aid, materials, method, methodology, practice, resources, strategy, style, tool The teaching strategy we use is based firmly on interaction between the teacher and students.
▶ people assistant, position, post, profession, staff He went into the teaching profession in 1947.

team N

a group of people who work together

● adj+N skilled crack INFORMAL, experienced, expert, skilled, talented A crack team of specially-trained explosives experts managed to prevent a potential disaster.
▶ hard-working dedicated, enthusiastic, hard-working, professional We have a dedicated team of committed volunteers to help us.

● n+N campaign, care, design, editorial, editorial, inspection, management, marketing, nursing, production, project, rescue, research, sales, specialist You will receive expert advice from a knowledgeable and experienced sales team.

● v+N become a member of a team join You will join a capable management team, and touch on all aspects of the business.
▶ be the leader of a team head, lead, manage, run The American businesswoman was a controversial choice to head the team when London initially decided to bid for the games.
▶ develop a team assemble, build, develop, establish, put together Our plan was to put together a team of top reporters, and start a news website.

teamwork N

work done together with others

● adj+N involving people from different groups collaborative, cross-professional, interdisciplinary, multidisciplinary Section 3 presents the factors which facilitate multidisciplinary teamwork.
▶ good close, effective, excellent, fantastic, good, great, outstanding, productive, real, strong, successful, superb The size and complexity of IT systems means that strong teamwork and carefully planned management are now essential.

● v+N build, develop, encourage, enhance, foster, improve, promote You'll enjoy a dynamic working environment that fosters teamwork.

● and/or camaraderie, collaboration, communication, co-operation, co-ordination The courses involve participants working on different skills, such as communication, teamwork and making decisions.

tear N

a drop of liquid that comes from your eye when you cry [usually plural]

● v+N try not to cry or show that you are crying blink back, choke back, control, fight back, hide, restrain, swallow I was blinking back tears as I lifted the phone.
▶ cry cry, shed, weep Many tears were shed as the old friends parted, in many cases never to see each other again.

● N+v drip, fall, flow, pour, roll, run, stream, trickle, well up I could feel tears welling up in my eyes.

● N+of agony, anger, anguish, compassion, despair, emotion, frustration, gratitude, grief, happiness, joy, laughter, mirth, pity, rage, regret, remorse, repentance, sadness, shame, sorrow, sympathy His whole body shook as tears of mirth poured down his cheeks.

tearful ADJ

feeling, showing, or involving sadness

● ADJ+n involving people crying departure, farewell, goodbye, moment, parting, reunion, scene, speech Tina says a tearful farewell to Darlene and Julie.
▶ showing evidence of tears eye, face With tearful eyes we watched them leave.

tease V have fun embarrassing or annoying someone

- adv+V in a cruel way cruelly, mercilessly He can speak barely a word of English and is mercilessly teased by his fellow pupils.
- ▸ in a friendly way gently The other girls in the bridal shop gently tease her.
- ▸ all the time always, constantly, continually Her friends were constantly teasing her about her new boyfriend.

technical ADJ
relating to, having, or involving special skill or knowledge

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, really INFORMAL, very The successful candidate will enjoy the challenges of highly technical and advanced medical procedures.
- ▸ only essentially, merely, narrowly, purely, strictly Even when dealing with strictly technical areas, the text seems to have been lifted wholesale from marketing brochures.
- ▸ rather fairly, moderately, quite, rather, relatively, somewhat This is a moderately technical but well written book which analyses all sorts of practical and theoretical problems.
- ADJ+n skill or knowledge ability, capability, competence, excellence, experience, expertise, know-how, knowledge The software will be familiar to users of Microsoft Office applications and requires no technical expertise.
- ▸ help or advice advice, assistance, guidance, support We provide technical business guidance, with solutions that are cost-effective and tailored to your special needs.
- ▸ problem or challenge challenge, difficulty, hitch, issue, problem, question As a result of technical problems with our IT system, the whole project was delayed.
- ▸ vocabulary jargon, language, term The word 'nuisance' is used here in its technical, legal sense.
- ▸ people advisor, consultant, department, director, expert, manager, officer, specialist, staff, team Please contact our technical department if you have any problems installing the software.
- v+ADJ be, become, get, sound Give players clear advice – they don't need a coach getting too technical.

technique N a method of doing something using special skill

- adj+N good or effective appropriate, effective, efficient, good, powerful, proven, sound To learn more about their customers, they use proven marketing techniques such as questionnaires and interviews.
- ▸ modern or advanced advanced, alternative, experimental, innovative, modern, new, novel, state-of-the-art It is an intensive course covering advanced navigation techniques.
- ▸ traditional or usual common, established, standard, traditional The hotel was built using traditional local techniques.
- ▸ simple basic, practical, simple Becoming a good cook means first mastering a few basic techniques.
- ▸ types of technique agricultural, analytical, computational, diagnostic, investigative, mathematical, photographic, scientific, statistical, surgical A variety of computational techniques are available for analysing electronic text.
- v+N use a technique apply, demonstrate, employ, exploit, practise, use, utilize The studio employed some brilliant marketing techniques prior to the movie's release.
- ▸ develop a new technique develop, devise, invent, pioneer They devised a new technique for predicting the eruptions of volcanoes.
- ▸ learn a technique acquire, adopt, learn Delegates at the seminar will acquire valuable techniques to improve their skill in motivating employees.
- ▸ improve a technique improve, master, perfect, refine If we can perfect this technique, it may eventually be possible to create artificial bone marrow.

technological ADJ relating to or involving technology

- ADJ+n progress advance, advancement, breakthrough, change, development, improvement, innovation, leap, progress, revolution, transformation Recent technological advances in radiotherapy have improved survival rates for cancer patients.
- ▸ knowledge or skill capability, expertise, know-how, prowess, skill, sophistication, wizardry The auditorium seats about 2,700 people, and the revolving stages make this opera house a masterpiece of technological wizardry.
- ▸ problem or challenge barrier, challenge, constraints, limitations, problem The book provides an insight into warfare, and its technological advances and limitations in the 19th century.
- ▸ method or solution method, solution, tool They are seeking a technological solution to the problem of capturing and storing carbon.

technology N advanced scientific knowledge used for practical purposes

- adj+N modern or advanced advanced, current, innovative, latest, modern, new, revolutionary, sophisticated, state-of-the-art We have mixed the latest technology with body health knowledge to bring you our range of competitively priced equipment.
- ▸ types of technology agricultural, alternative, assistive, digital, educational, electronic, environmental, genetic, medical, military, mobile, nuclear, renewable, web-based It's a testament to how fast mobile technology is developing that manufacturers are now designing expansion cards for notebooks.
- ▸ good or effective effective, efficient, powerful, reliable, smart We are sceptical of their claims that the use of smart technology will minimize civilian casualties.
- ▸ good for the environment clean, green, low-carbon, renewable, solar, sustainable The project promotes the use of sustainable technologies in urban regeneration.
- v+N use technology adopt, apply, deploy, embrace, employ, exploit, harness, implement, use, utilize Deploying this technology could have a larger impact on the business.

▶ start to use technology develop, introduce, pioneer The firm has continued to pioneer technology such as remote computing and the Internet.

tedious ADJ boring and continuing for too long

- adv+ADJ very crushingly, exceedingly, excruciatingly, extremely, incredibly, seriously, unbearably, utterly, very The book is crushingly tedious and uninspiring nonsense.
▶ rather fairly, a little, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, slightly, somewhat, a tad INFORMAL I felt the second Lord of the Rings movie was a tad tedious.
- ADJ+n affair, chore, exercise, illness, job, journey, procedure, process, tale, task One of the most tedious tasks was stripping back the layers of brown paint from all the woodwork.
- v+ADJ be, become, get, prove, seem, sound The new job sounded exciting, but in the end proved just as tedious as the old one.

telephone N equipment for speaking to someone in a different place

- v+N make a telephone call be on, call, dial, ring, use Hang on a minute – I'm on the telephone. ◆ Call 1471 to find out the last number to dial your telephone.
▶ answer a telephone call answer, get INFORMAL, pick up After watching this movie I was frightened to answer my telephone for weeks.
- N+v go off, ring It was a bit embarrassing – my telephone went off in the middle of the interview.
- N+n communication call, conference, conversation, enquiry, interview, survey Following our telephone conversation yesterday, I write to confirm our agreement.
▶ service advice line, answering, banking, booking, consultation, helpline, hotline A telephone hotline service will be set up to deal with enquiries.

television N electrical equipment for watching programmes

- adj+N digital, free-to-air, high-definition, interactive, satellite, terrestrial Each room has satellite television, hairdryer and free Wi-fi.
- v+N watch programmes on television be in front of, watch They spent most evenings slumped in front of the television. ◆ He would fall asleep watching television, and wake up in the middle of the night.
▶ switch on a television put on, switch on, turn on He lay down on the sofa and switched the television on.
▶ switch off a television put off, switch off, turn off Tell him I want the television turned off now.
- N+n adaptation, advert, broadcast, comedy, documentary, drama, interview, programme, report, serial, series, show It was the Princess's first television interview.

temper N
a tendency to get angry very quickly

- adj+N bad, evil, explosive, ferocious, fierce, fiery, foul, nasty, quick, savage, uncontrollable, vicious, violent He becomes unpredictable and develops a violent temper.
- v+N control your temper calm, control, cool, curb, keep I reminded him that he should curb his temper and refrain from using strong language.
▶ become angry lose John lost his temper when he saw the damage.
- N+v boil, flare, fray, rise With tempers fraying towards the end of the game, there were bookings for several players.

temperament N
a basic tendency to be happy, angry etc

- adj+N calm or happy calm, docile, even, excellent, fantastic, gentle, lovely, loving, placid, sanguine, sweet The qualities you will need include an even temperament and a good sense of humour.
▶ easily excited or made angry excitable, fiery, lively A redhead with a fiery temperament, Marion knew her own mind.
▶ changing quickly mercurial, unpredictable, volatile He displayed a mercurial temperament which showed him to be irrational and vindictive.
▶ tending to be sad or nervous melancholic, nervous These dogs are bred simply to win shows, and this has given them a nervous temperament.
- v+N display, have, possess He possessed a temperament which sometimes made him seem much more mature than his years.

temperature N
how hot or cold something is

- adj+N low cold, cool, freezing, low, sub-zero The walls were covered with patches of snow, indicating relatively low temperatures.
▶ hot or warm high, hot, warm They had to work in extremely high temperatures for up to 14 hours a day.
▶ neither too hot nor too cold comfortable, mild, moderate, pleasant Mrs Henry had thrown open the shutters and even the window, for the temperature was mild.
▶ average or usual average, normal The city has a comfortable climate, with normal daytime temperatures of about 25 degrees in Summer.
- N+v become higher climb, creep up, go up, increase, rise, soar It was a hot summer's evening in London and the temperature soared.
▶ reach a particular level hover around sth, nudge sth, peak at sth, reach sth, top sth In the Basra region of south-east Iraq, temperatures nudged 50 degrees.
▶ become lower decrease, dip, drop, fall, go down, plummet, plunge An Arctic cold front has seen temperatures plummet to minus 30 Celsius this month.
- N+n difference, fluctuation, variation The garage will provide protection against the temperature fluctuations throughout winter.

temporary ADJ existing, done, or used for a limited period

- adv+ADJ just, merely, only, purely The entire policy was intended to be purely temporary – a transitional arrangement.
- ADJ+n job appointment, employment, job, position, post, vacancy, work It was only a temporary post to cover her maternity leave, but we got over a hundred applicants.
- ▸ worker employee, replacement, staff, worker We usually recruit temporary staff to cover our peak period in the Summer.
- ▸ building or place to stay or work in accommodation, building, classroom, housing, shelter, structure Their main task was to find temporary accommodation for the earthquake victims.
- ▸ arrangement or decision absence, arrangement, ban, closure, contract, restriction, solution My office is in the basement, but this is just a temporary arrangement while the building is being renovated.

temptation N

a strong feeling of wanting to have or do something

- adj+N difficult to control great, irresistible, powerful, seductive, strong, tremendous For the inexperienced runner, there is a strong temptation to set off at a hard pace.
- ▸ always present constant, continual, perennial The attempt to control history has been a perennial political temptation.
- v+N try to stop feeling temptation avoid, combat, escape, fight, guard against, ignore, resist, struggle with, wrestle with We are taught to stand clear of evil and to resist temptation.
- ▸ succeed in resisting temptation conquer, overcome, withstand I managed to overcome the temptation to accept a cigarette from her.
- ▸ feel temptation experience, feel You may experience temptation to a degree that others do not feel.
- ▸ be unable to control temptation fall into, give in to, succumb to, yield to We must not yield to the temptation to opt for a quick solution to this complex problem.

tenancy N

the right to use a rented building or land

- adj+N secure or legal assured, contractual, protected, regulated, secure He lived in a modest cottage, subject to a secure tenancy.
- ▸ alone/with others joint, sole Some contracts are joint tenancies, which all housemates sign together, and some are individual.
- ▸ for a particular length of time lifetime, shorthold, short-term, weekly, yearly She has a short-term tenancy on a flat. ◉ The Association hires the Hall on a yearly tenancy.
- v+N give someone a tenancy grant (sb) All the terms on which the tenancy was granted were in writing.
- ▸ have a tenancy have, hold The 'new tenant survey' is sent to all residents after they have held a tenancy for three months.
- ▸ end a tenancy end, relinquish, surrender This page contains items on tenants' rights, including ending your tenancy.
- ▸ continue a tenancy maintain, renew His landlord was threatening not to renew his tenancy.

tendency N

the fact that something is likely to happen or someone is likely to do something in a particular way

- adj+N strong clear, marked, pronounced, strong He shows a marked tendency to give up when things go wrong.
- ▸ not strong slight In most people there is a slight tendency to gain weight with age.
- ▸ bad or worrying alarming, unfortunate, worrying There is an unfortunate tendency to treat myth as history.
- ▸ aggressive or harmful aggressive, authoritarian, destructive, psychopathic, self-destructive, suicidal, violent She works with people who suffer from depression or have suicidal tendencies.
- ▸ natural inherent, inherited, innate, instinctive, natural The book reflects his belief in the inherent tendency of capitalism to raise living standards.
- ▸ different or mixed contradictory Her view of history aims to show the contradictory tendencies at work.
- v+N have a tendency demonstrate, display, exhibit, have, manifest, show He begins having terrible nightmares and exhibiting violent tendencies.
- ▸ try to prevent a tendency avoid, combat, counter, counteract Our concern is to counter the tendency to drop out of school at 16 or 17.
- ▸ overcome a tendency curb, overcome, resist, suppress Nathan suppressed his more aggressive tendencies.
- ▸ make a tendency stronger aggravate, encourage, reinforce This reinforces a tendency we all have to look at the world in a blinkered way.
- ▸ notice a tendency notice She also noticed a tendency to shut himself in and refuse to communicate.
- ▸ show that someone or something may have a tendency indicate, reflect, reveal, suggests The language he used suggested a tendency towards authoritarianism.

tense ADJ

making you feel nervous and not relaxed

- adv+ADJ very extremely, genuinely, incredibly, particularly, really, unbearably, unbelievably, very The way these scenes are filmed makes them unbearably tense.
- ▸ rather a bit INFORMAL, fairly, a little, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, slightly, somewhat When you're stuck in traffic and feeling a little tense, music can be very soothing.
- ADJ+n ending climax, ending, finale, finish They narrowly defeated their rivals in a tense finale.
- ▸ period of time moment, wait During the incredibly tense moments that followed, I read a mixture of emotions in his eyes.
- ▸ situation in which there is angry disappointment encounter, showdown, standoff The crowding led to a tense standoff between UN officials and local police.
- ▸ atmosphere atmosphere, mood The atmosphere is tense with the impending elections.
- ▸ silence silence The curtain closed behind them, leaving a tense silence.
- ▸ game, film etc affair, competition, drama, game, scene, thriller In the tense thriller 'Inside Man', a bank robbery leads to a number of people being taken hostage.

- v+ADJ be or become tense become, feel, get, grow Try not to become tense, as your baby will sense this.
- ▸ seem tense look, seem She seems very tense, even nervous.
- ▸ remain tense remain The situation in the country remains extremely tense.

tension N

a nervous or worried feeling, or a feeling that people do not trust each other

- adj+N getting stronger escalating, growing, heightened, increased, mounting At this time of heightened tension in the world, we need to do all we can to show the power of nonviolence.
- ▸ obvious clear, palpable The runners waited, the tension palpable.
- ▸ unbearable unbearable In the closing minutes of the game the tension was almost unbearable.
- ▸ all the time constant, ongoing While the common people were Protestant, their leaders were Catholic and there was constant religious tension.
- ▸ not yet expressed inner, pent-up, simmering, smouldering, underlying, unresolved Many unresolved tensions found expression on the football field.
- ▸ impossible to avoid inevitable, inherent, irresolvable There is an inherent tension between his utopian socialist politics and his work creating luxury goods for the upper middle classes.
- ▸ unnecessary undue, unnecessary Rewarding individuals at the expense of the team can only create unnecessary tensions.
- ▸ between particular groups communal, ethnic, racial, sectarian In 1979 Thatcher had just been elected and there was a lot of racial tension around.
- ▸ types of tension creative, dramatic, emotional, political, psychological, religious, sexual New parents are affected by lack of sleep and emotional tensions.

- v+N reduce tension alleviate, defuse, ease, lessen, reconcile, reduce, relax, release, relieve, resolve He spoke of the need to reconcile the tension between the goals of seeking peace and seeking justice. ◉ There are a range of treatments designed to relieve tension.
- ▸ increase tension aggravate, exacerbate, fuel, heighten, increase, inflame, ratchet up The move will heighten tension between Moscow and Washington, who both have interests in the region's oilfields.
- ▸ create tension cause, create, give rise to, result in All of this creates further tension in a fragile political situation.
- ▸ feel tension feel, sense I sensed a tension in the room.

- N+v increase build, escalate, grow, increase, mount, rise Tensions were escalating in the Middle East over the weekend.
- ▸ decrease ease, subside Fortunately there were signs that tension was easing.
- ▸ be violently expressed erupt, explode, flare All the old tensions finally erupt into bloody slaughter.
- ▸ exist arise, emerge, exist, simmer In recent years a tension has arisen between science and society. ◉ In many societies tensions simmer below the surface.

- n+of+N cause cause, source They believe that water is likely to become a growing source of tension between nations.
- ▸ feeling or state atmosphere, feeling, period, sense, state Threats of closure have created an atmosphere of unbearable tension among the workforce.
- ▸ increase build-up, escalation One of the best things about the film is the build-up of tension.
- ▸ decrease easing, reduction, relaxation, resolution Both sides in the conflict welcomed the easing of tensions in the border regions.

terminate V end something

- adv+V suddenly or quickly abruptly, speedily, suddenly A stroke abruptly terminated his political career.
- ▸ sooner than expected early, prematurely, unexpectedly The study was terminated prematurely, before all subjects had reached the intended three years follow up.
- ▸ immediately automatically, forthwith, immediately Your membership will be terminated automatically if you stop the payments. ◉ This exploitation of impoverished peoples must be terminated forthwith.
- ▸ officially formally, lawfully, officially The current bus service will be formally terminated on the 1st January 2012.
- ▸ in a friendly way amicably The best way forward for all the parties involved is to amicably terminate the contract.
- ▸ by one side only unilaterally He alleged that any treaty ratified by the Senate could not be terminated unilaterally by the President.

- V+n legal agreement agreement, arrangement, contract, lease, licence, membership, tenancy, treaty Either party may terminate the contract by giving the other party 28 days notice in writing.
- ▸ employment appointment, employment Employers sometimes offer an employee a compromise agreement when terminating their employment.
- ▸ event or process operation, proceedings, process, study Eventually heavy rain terminated the proceedings.

termination N

the end of an agreement, job, or situation

- adj+N allowed/not allowed by law lawful, wrongful Anyone subjected to wrongful termination of employment has the right to claim compensation.
- ▸ sudden abrupt, immediate, speedy, sudden This led to the abrupt termination of his career as finance minister.
- ▸ earlier than expected early, premature, unexpected There was an unexpected termination of the network connection.

- N+of legal agreement agreement, contract, lease, licence, membership, tenancy The apartment must be returned to its original condition upon termination of the tenancy.
- ▸ employment appointment, employment Payment will be made only for work done up to the time of the termination of the appointment.

- ▶ relationship engagement, marriage, relationship Their children may suffer financial hardship following the termination of their relationship.
- ▶ war hostilities, war With the termination of hostilities, our society can look to the future.
- ▶ court case proceedings, trial It is in the interests of justice that there is a speedy termination of proceedings.

terms N
the conditions of an agreement

- • v+N agree terms accept, agree, negotiate A spokesman for the broadcaster said it had agreed terms for the matches to be shown.
- ▶ change terms amend, change, modify, vary We reserve the right to amend the terms of this competition at any time without prior notice.
- ▶ check terms check, read, review Every part-timer should check their contract and review their terms and conditions.
- ▶ say what the terms are define, dictate, impose, set, specify, state The UN security council passed a resolution dictating the terms of the ceasefire.
- ▶ make someone obey terms apply, enforce If the parties cannot agree, the Patent Office can enforce the terms of the licence.
- ▶ explain terms clarify, explain The Chairman explained the terms on which the Council were willing to let them use the hall.
- ▶ obey terms abide by, follow, keep to, stick to INFORMAL It is your responsibility to abide by the terms of the licence.
- ▶ not obey terms breach, violate Breaching the terms of the licence is a criminal offence.

- • N+of legal agreement agreement, contract, engagement, lease, licence, settlement, tenancy, treaty Under the terms of the agreement, Care UK will provide three doctors and seven nurses.*
- ▶ business arrangement trade, use Fair trade looks to provide improved terms of trade for producers.
- ▶ employment appointment, employment Make sure you are clear about the terms of employment before you accept the job.
- ▶ relationship relationship Partners have a wide discretion to decide for themselves the terms of their relationship .
- ▶ debate debate Opponents of the plan have successfully set the terms of the debate.

terrain N
an area of land with particular physical features

- • adj+N with mountains hilly, mountainous, steep, upland The city was hidden from the world for centuries by the mountainous terrain around it. • They were built in exposed positions on very steep terrain.
- ▶ with gentle slopes rolling, sloping, undulating The golf course is set in perfect rolling terrain.
- ▶ flat flat Barcelona benefits from an exceptional situation on the flat terrain between the sea and the mountains.
- ▶ not smooth bumpy, rocky, rough, rugged, uneven, varied The terrain is rough and unsuitable for wheelchairs. • We went for a 12 mile run over varied terrain.
- ▶ soft and wet boggy, marshy, muddy The animals happily graze on flat and often boggy terrain.
- ▶ dangerous or difficult arduous, challenging, dangerous, difficult, harsh, hostile, inhospitable, tough, treacherous, tricky, unforgiving They live in arguably the world's harshest and most inhospitable terrain.
- ▶ unknown unfamiliar Darkness was beginning to fall, and he was lost in unfamiliar terrain.
- ▶ without features barren, featureless They flew for hours over featureless terrain.

- • v+N cross, explore, navigate, negotiate, tackle, traverse The low gears allow the vehicle to negotiate very rough terrain.

terrified ADJ
extremely frightened

- • adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, utterly My dog is absolutely terrified of fireworks.
- ▶ truly genuinely, truly Many are genuinely terrified about the future.
- ▶ rather pretty INFORMAL, somewhat I feel somewhat terrified at the prospect of doing it again.
- ▶ obviously clearly, obviously The fox, obviously terrified, sought refuge down a rabbit hole.
- ▶ secretly secretly They must have been secretly terrified of being rejected.
- ▶ in a way that is easy to understand naturally, understandably She is understandably terrified by the incident and is upgrading the security at her home.

- • v+ADJ be, feel, look, seem, sound 'I have to speak to you right now', she said, sounding genuinely terrified.

territory N an area of land controlled by a particular group or country

- • adj+N controlled by the enemy enemy, hostile The area where the helicopter crashed is regarded as hostile territory.
- ▶ ruled by a group somewhere else colonial, occupied, overseas They continue to subjugate the population of these occupied territories in defiance of the United Nations.
- ▶ whose ownership is not clear border, disputed, frontier The company had begun to extend its rail lines into disputed territory along the Guatemalan border.
- ▶ not controlled by any of the groups in a disagreement neutral The two sides will meet on neutral territory, usually in central London.
- ▶ with the right to rule itself sovereign The bombings of the embassies were seen as direct assaults on U.S. sovereign territory.
- ▶ controlled by a particular group tribal The hill forts were built around 400 BC to defend tribal territories.

- • v+N take or control territory acquire, annex, colonise, conquer, invade, occupy, rule, seize These were Polish territories annexed in the German invasion. • The British Empire was not the first instance of English sovereigns ruling overseas territories.
- ▶ protect territory defend, guard, patrol, protect Popular movements are growing up in the region to defend territory, cultural identity and natural resources.

- ▸ mark territory demarcate, mark The city had 14 boundary stones that demarcated its territory.
- ▸ get territory back recapture, reclaim, regain The territory was regained by the English crown under Edward I.
- ▸ live in territory inhabit There were approximately 20 million Indians inhabiting this territory before the Conquest.
- ▸ give up territory cede to sb, give up, surrender In 1947, the Finns agreed to cede territory to the then USSR.
- ▸ say that you own territory claim With both states claiming the disputed border territory, war was inevitable.
- ▸ gain more territory expand, extend Over the next ten years Genghis Khan expanded his territory to the west and north.

terror N

1 a strong feeling of fear

- • adj+N very great abject, absolute, downright, mortal, outright, sheer, stark, unimaginable, unspeakable, utter The Vikings' merciless raids struck abject terror into Saxon hearts. ◆ They watched in sheer terror as the train came towards them.
- ▸ not based on sensible reasons nameless, primal, superstitious, unreasoning, visceral Epileptic fits have often evoked superstitious terror rather than sympathy.
- • v+N create terror cause, create, evoke, excite, induce, inspire, instil in sb, sow, strike into sb She instils terror in all those who work for her.
- ▸ experience terror endure, experience, feel We endured the terror of being trapped with no escape.
- ▸ overcome terror overcome Some have to overcome terror at the idea of speaking in public.

2 violence used to frighten people for political aims

- • adj+N against all people indiscriminate, mass, random His aim was to rule the country without relying upon indiscriminate terror.
- ▸ by a particular group state, Stalinist, Nazi, fascist etc The dictator is the symbol of state terror and aggression.
- • v+N use terror inflict on sb, perpetrate, spread, unleash, wage on sb The violence and terror they unleashed shocked the international commmunity.
- ▸ fight against terror combat, confront, defeat, fight, oppose, tackle We have to stand together in our efforts to combat terror.
- ▸ condemn terror condemn, renounce The country had to show that it was doing everything possible to renounce terror.
- ▸ support terror sponsor States that sponsor terror must be warned against it.
- ▸ escape terror flee We stand up for those fleeing terror and persecution.

terrorism N

the use of violence to achieve political aims

- • adj+N between different countries cross-border, global, international, transnational The threat posed by the former Soviet Union has been replaced by ethnic conflict and global terrorism.
- ▸ within a country domestic, home-grown The war abroad fuelled home-grown terrorism in Britain.
- ▸ against all and any people indiscriminate, mass The atrocities of indiscriminate terrorism must not be tolerated.
- • v+N fight against terrorism combat, confront, counter, curb, deter, fight, oppose, prevent, tackle We do not believe this war is the most effective means of combating international terrorism.
- ▸ stop terrorism defeat, eliminate, eradicate Eradicating terrorism is a much more daunting task than most people realize.
- ▸ speak publicly against terrorism abhor, condemn, denounce, renounce The Panamanian government repeatedly condemned terrorism.
- ▸ support or encourage terrorism abet, condone, finance, foment, glorify, incite, promote, sponsor Freedom of speech never should be an excuse for inciting terrorism and fostering hatred.
- ▸ commit acts of terrorism perpetrate We are not in any way associated with the evil people who perpetrate terrorism.
- • n+against+N battle, campaign, fight, stand, struggle, war It is not quite clear how ID cards will help in the fight against terrorism.
- • n+of+N evil, menace, scourge, spectre, threat We must be consistent and tackle the scourge of terrorism wherever it is present.

terrorist N

someone using violence to achieve political aims

- • adj+N possible alleged, suspected, wanted, would-be Thanks to the hard work of intelligence services, we have seen arrests of suspected terrorists around the world.
- ▸ dangerous or crazy armed, cowardly, fanatical, fundamentalist, notorious, suicidal Cowardly terrorists killed 182 innocent civilians. ◆ This is a time when fanatical terrorists are plotting mass murder.
- ▸ from within a country homegrown The film examines homegrown terrorists like the Weathermen, who grew out of Chicago university activist groups.
- • N+n act, attack, murder, plot, strike, threat Participants paid tribute to the victims of the terrorist acts.

test N

1 a set of questions or tasks to check someone's knowledge or ability

- • adj+N difficult demanding, difficult, rigorous, tough If she passes the rigorous tests then she will go on to the next interview stage.
- ▸ simple simple All students are given a simple numeric and literacy test.
- ▸ fair fair, objective, reliable, standardized Objective tests of reading ability can be an important aid for measuring literacy.
- ▸ using a particular format computer-based, multiple-choice, online, oral, paper-based, practical, written Although most of the assessments are practical, there are some written tests.
- ▸ testing a particular thing aptitude, intelligence, listening, personality, proficiency, psychological, psychometric, spelling, writing We offer advice on using psychometric tests in recruitment.

- v+N do a test complete, do, retake, sit, take, undergo Candidates for sports scholarships will be expected to undergo a practical test of their abilities.
- ▸ give someone a test administer, set The materials include a teacher's manual about how to administer the test.
- ▸ pass a test pass Taxi drivers are required to pass a topographical test.
- ▸ fail a test fail If you fail the test we will usually consider further training to correct the faults identified by the examiner.
- ▸ prepare for a test cram for, prepare for, revise for, study for This is a useful vocabulary book when studying for a test.

2 an examination of something to find out what it is or whether it works

- adj+N giving a particular result abnormal, negative, positive After many months, the much awaited positive pregnancy test arrived.
- ▸ strict rigorous, stringent, thorough In order that we earn the Quality Mark, our document has to pass their stringent tests.
- ▸ fair or reliable fair, reliable, sensitive A reliable blood test for the diagnosis of subclinical BSE would have been extremely valuable.
- ▸ simple or standard common, routine, simple, standard Some routine blood tests were undertaken and it was discovered that she has an underactive thyroid gland.
- ▸ random random Norwegian police can carry out random roadside breath tests for alcohol.
- ▸ done at first first, initial, preliminary Initial tests are based on the child's ability to hear sounds made by the assessor.
- ▸ types of test biochemical, diagnostic, forensic, genetic, medical, nuclear, predictive, screening, statistical A person may be faced with important ethical factors to consider when they are offered a genetic test.

- v+N carry out a test administer, apply, carry out, complete, conduct, do, perform, repeat, run, undertake, use If we want to store samples, or do any other tests on them, we will have to get permission. ◦ The specialist will perform tests to determine whether surgery could help.
- ▸ be given a test have, undergo Medicines which are found to cause unacceptable side effects will not undergo further tests.
- ▸ pass a test meet, pass, satisfy The employer must satsify a test of fairness in dismissing an employee.
- ▸ fail a test fail He was the first athlete to fail a drug test at the Olympics.
- ▸ devise a test design, develop, devise The Professor has devised a test which gives a score for risk.
- ▸ ask for a test arrange, book, order, request You can book an eye test online.

3 a difficult situation

- adj+N gruelling, real, stern, stiff, tough This weekend the team face another stern test when they play Arsenal.

- v+N cope with a test meet, stand, survive, withstand Will the agreement stand the test of recent events?
- ▸ face a test face He faces a test of his maturity and character.

- N+of+N character, commitment, endurance, loyalty, nerve, patience, resolve, stamina, strength, will The expedition was a gruelling test of strength for the new recruits.

test V

examine something to see what it is or whether it works

- adv+V thoroughly adequately, exhaustively, extensively, fully, properly, rigorously, stringently, systematically, thoroughly The system has been rigorously tested to ensure security.
- ▸ scientifically clinically, empirically, experimentally, scientifically Using new DNA techniques, these speculations can be tested experimentally.
- ▸ objectively independently, objectively It has been independently tested and proven to work.
- ▸ regularly annually, periodically, regularly, routinely The only way to tell whether the ammonia levels are acceptable is to regularly test the water.

Usage Test is usually passive in all of the adv+V combinations shown above: Our designs have been extensively tested by outdoor experts. ● The efficacy of disinfectants is routinely tested in laboratories.

- V+n theory assumption, hypothesis, prediction, theory Linguists can test their own hypotheses against information in the database.
- ▸ how effective or good something is accuracy, effectiveness, efficacy, feasibility, performance, robustness, validity, viability The overall aim was to test the effectiveness of conference participation in changing behaviour.
- ▸ someone's knowledge or skill ability, knowledge, skill, understanding The Quiz section gives you the chance to test your knowledge.
- ▸ product formula, model, product, prototype, vaccine Are any of your products tested on animals?
- ▸ sample sample In seed samples tested in 2008–09, 12 per cent were found to contain contaminants.
- ▸ study the results of a test analyse, evaluate, interpret The workshop is for anyone who wants to learn more about evaluating diagnostic tests.

testament N

evidence that something exists or is true

- adj+N true or appropriate eloquent, fitting, powerful, real, true The exhibition is a fitting testament to the students' hard work.
- ▸ lasting enduring, lasting The record remains a lasting testament to his unique guitar style.
- ▸ wonderful or impressive fantastic, fine, glowing, great, impressive, magnificent, remarkable, wonderful The Museum is a magnificent testament to the Victorian neo-Gothic movement.
- ▸ sad sad There were very few present at the funeral, a sad testament to his inability to let people get close to him.

- N+to hard work or determination commitment, dedication, determination, devotion, efforts, professionalism, reliability, teamwork, tenacity Our recent good report was a testament to the dedication of the whole school.

- strength or courage bravery, courage, durability, endurance, resilience, strength The book is a haunting testament to the resilience of the human spirit.
- generosity generosity The success of the Visitor Centre is testament to the generosity of the public.
- popularity popularity The fact that we now have over 80,000 members is testament to the popularity of eating out in the North.
- talent or skill ability, genius, ingenuity, talent, versatility The album is a testament to their extreme versatility and talent.
- high quality greatness, quality, success That it should still be read by so many people forty years after its publication is a testament to its greatness.
- fact fact Today the pier is testament to the fact that pleasure piers can still be operated successfully.

testimony N

1 a formal statement about something you saw or know

- adj+N from personal experience expert, first-hand, personal A doctor giving expert medical testimony said it was impossible for her to have shot herself. ◉ Many of those people contributed first-hand testimony of what happened in the camps.
- sworn in court to be true sworn There is sworn testimony from many sources that the leadership knew about this.
- seeming to be true convincing, credible Calling him a murderer simply made Kumar's testimony more credible.
- false false Any person giving a false testimony is subject to punishment by law.
- making you upset or angry damning, harrowing, poignant The inquiry heard harrowing testimony from victims.

- v+N give testimony give, submit Several sources gave testimony in which they said explosions went off in the building.
- listen to testimony hear They claim the court refused to hear their testimony.
- believe someone's testimony accept, believe We are inclined to believe the testimony of eyewitnesses.
- reject someone's testimony discredit, reject Historians have discredited this testimony.
- support testimony confirm, corroborate Mr Crab corroborated the testimony given by Mr Crocker.
- contradict testimony contradict, retract This statement contradicts your testimony that you telephoned after 11pm. ◉ There are only two trial witnesses who have not retracted their testimony.
- collect testimony collect, gather He said he had gathered testimony about all kinds of racism going on inside football.

2 evidence that something exists or is true

- adj+N true or great ample, fitting, glowing They are a glowing testimony to the spirit of resilience in the face of terrorism.
- strong eloquent, emphatic, powerful, vivid Many letters bear eloquent testimony to the joy this music brings.
- silent mute, silent The stones stand in mute testimony to the monument's essential mystery.
- sad poignant The film is a lasting and at times poignant testimony to these musicians and their achievements.
- agreed by all unanimous The unanimous testimony of ancient records describes the destruction of the library.

- v+N bear, furnish, offer, provide, stand as It is 5000 years old and bears testimony to the great understanding our ancestors had of the stars.
- N+to fact fact, truth These findings bear testimony to the truth of Darwin's theories.
- strong personal quality character, commitment, courage, dedication, determination, faith, resilience This award is a powerful testimony to the commitment of everyone in the school.
- skill or ability ability, professionalism, skill, talent All our offices remained open during the crisis, a testimony to the professionalism of our staff.

text N

a written document or book, or the written part of something

- adj+N complete or original actual, authentic, complete, complete, entire, full, original The full text of her presentation can be downloaded here. ◉ There is evidence that someone has tampered with the original text.
- main/not main accompanying, main The footnotes are quite long, so there are probably about as many words in the footnotes as in the main text.
- in a particular format electronic, printed, written There are many ways to make electronic text easier to read.
- recommended or required for study canonical, core, introductory, key, prescribed, recommended, set This book should be a core text on any nursing degree program. ◉ Students will find it useful to look at introductory texts such as Economics of the Public Sector.
- one of the most important or well-known authoritative, canonical, classic, definitive, key, seminal, standard She co-authored the seminal text on eating disorders in young women.
- old ancient, classical, early, medieval This is a digital library that provides a wide range of ancient texts with translations, images and a very useful links section.
- types of text biblical, descriptive, explanatory, historical, literary, philosophical, religious, sacred There may be a paragraph of descriptive text associated with an item of news. ◉ We explore the study of literary texts in the classroom.

- v+N produce or show text display, print, produce, publish, reproduce, type It would be great to see the text displayed in a slightly larger font to make it easier to read. ◉ She has generously given her permission to reproduce this text.
- read or study text analyse, read, study Blind children read braille at about a third of the pace that sighted children read printed text.
- interpret text interpret, translate Readers use implicit grammatical knowledge as they interpret a text.
- edit text edit, revise There is no indication as to who edited this text.

▸ cut, paste or move text add, copy, cut, delete, enter, format, import, insert, paste If emailing, cut and paste the text into the body of the email.
▸ select or highlight text highlight, select, underline Click the button to underline the selected text.

texture N
the way something feels when you touch or eat it

• adj+N smooth creamy, silky, smooth, soft, velvety Creme fraiche has a smooth thick texture, similar to cream cheese.
▸ rough coarse, crumbly, crunchy, grainy, rough Rub the fat into the flour until a crumbly texture is achieved.
▸ that you have to chew chewy, meaty, rubbery For a chewy, meaty texture, tofu can be frozen, then thawed.
▸ firm dense, firm Rye produces breads with a dense texture.
▸ rich rich The Cabernet Sauvignon is a blend of rich textures and subtle flavours.
▸ typical and easy to recognize characteristic, distinctive, unique The structure of muscle is made up of segments of short fibres, and this is what gives fish its characteristic texture.

• v+N create a texture achieve, add, create, give, produce, provide A sea grass mat can add texture to a room.
▸ have a texture have When the stone is first quarried, it has a very rough texture.

• n+of+N combination, mixture, range, variety Serve with rice and tortilla chips to create a superb combination of textures and flavours.

• and/or colour, flavour, taste Washing mushrooms damages their texture and flavour.

thank V
tell someone you are grateful for something

• adv+V in a sincere or enthusiastic way heartily, profusely, sincerely, warmly, wholeheartedly At the last meeting, Mr Shortland was warmly thanked for his work as Secretary.
▸ publicly formally, publicly I would also like to thank publicly those who worked so hard on the project.
▸ in a direct way; yourself personally We would like to take this opportunity to personally thank you for all your help and support.

• V+for assistance, contribution, effort, generosity, help, support, work Both Clive and Colin were thanked for their efforts over the years.

• v+V want, would like We would like to thank you for your assistance.

thanks N
words or actions to show you are grateful

• adj+N sincere or strongly felt big INFORMAL, grateful, heartfelt, hearty, huge INFORMAL, many, sincere, warm My sincere thanks go out to all those people who sent in articles.
▸ particular especial, particular We owe especial thanks to the office staff for all their help.
▸ deserved due Many thanks are due to all our members for their kindness and generosity.

• v+N express thanks convey, express, extend, give, offer I would like to express my thanks to all those who have hosted events.
▸ send a message of thanks pass on, send Could you please pass our thanks on to all the staff who helped us achieve our goal.

theft N
the crime of stealing

• adj+N minor minor, petty Petty theft should be the main focus of crime prevention.
▸ common or involving large amounts common, large-scale, massive, rife, wholesale Mobile phone theft is particularly rife amongst students.
▸ committed by someone taking an opportunity opportunistic, walk-in Laptops are easy to steal, and they are open to opportunistic theft.
▸ attempted attempted He appeared in court in Peterborough, and admitted attempted theft.
▸ claimed to be true alleged The five men face charges of alleged theft.
▸ relating to a particular area corporate, intellectual, retail, vehicle-related Ten per cent of vehicle owners had experienced at least one vehicle-related theft.

• n+N bicycle, bike, car, computer, credit card, cycle, handbag, ID, identity, motorcycle, phone, phone, vehicle Clearly, identity theft is a major concern for consumers.

• v+N prevent theft combat, curb, deter, discourage, prevent, reduce, tackle The company uses CCTV to deter theft.
▸ report a theft report If your licence plate is stolen, it is essential that you report the theft to the police.
▸ protect yourself against theft guard (sb/sth) against, insure (sb/sth) against, protect (sb/sth) against, safeguard against The documents are fully insured against theft and fire.

• n+of+N rash, series, spate, string There has been a recent spate of computer thefts from schools.

theme N
the main subject of a book, speech, exhibition etc

• adj+N main central, core, dominant, key, main, major, overall, overarching, principal The key theme of the report was the success of the pharmaceutical industry.
▸ shared broad, common, underlying, unifying, universal Although the book uses Christian terminology, it deals with universal spiritual themes.
▸ appearing several times constant, continuing, persistant, recurrent, recurring Age discrimination is a recurrent theme in studies of social care.

• v+N study a theme address, cover, deal with, discuss, examine, explore, focus on, investigate, pursue, reflect on, tackle, touch on His paintings tackle the themes of war and conflict.
▸ draw attention to a theme highlight, identify, illustrate, outline Rousseau highlights an important theme: the notion of self-improvement.
▸ arrange something into themes arrange sth into, categorize sth into, divide sth into, group sth into, organize sth into, split sth into The photo gallery is grouped into four main themes.

• N+v be in many parts of something dominate sth, permeate sth, pervade sth, run through sth All good stories have a strong theme running through them.

- include encompass sth, include The project theme encompassed most of the students' study areas.
- slowly appear emerge The main theme emerging from the study relates to social responsibility in the workplace.

- N+of occasion where people formally discuss a subject conference, congress, lecture, sermon, symposium, workshop The theme of the conference was 'The future is networked'.
- piece of study or literature article, chapter, novel, paper, play, report, research The theme of the play is revealed through the characters and their interaction.
- particular subject alienation, friendship, identity, innocence, loneliness, love How does Steinbeck present the theme of loneliness in his novel 'Of Mice and Men'?

theoretical ADJ
based on theories or ideas

- adv+ADJ mainly essentially, largely, mainly, mostly, primarily Many courses at university level are essentially theoretical in nature.
- completely entirely, just, only, purely, strictly The course is project-oriented: it calls for design proposals rather than purely theoretical work.
- very highly, very Philosophy is often focused on highly theoretical discussions.

- ADJ+n ideas or facts from which theory develops assumption, background, basis, foundation, grounding, underpinnings Einstein's most famous equation, E = mc2, is the theoretical basis for nuclear fission.
- way of thinking about something approach, concept, construct, framework, model, perspective We propose a theoretical framework for action research.
- knowledge knowledge, understanding I learnt to apply the theoretical knowledge to real-life practice.
- idea concept, construct, idea, notion, question Scientists had to develop new theoretical constructs to account for the effects of dark matter.
- study analysis, investigation, research, study, work This group carries out experimental and theoretical research in artificial intelligence.
- discussion argument, debate, discourse, discussion Her paper makes a significant contribution to the theoretical debate around the origins of language.

- and/or abstract, applied, empirical, experimental, practical Courses at the Academy include practical and theoretical training.

theory N
an idea or principle that explains something

- adj+N relating to particular subjects or ideas cultural, economic, ethical, evolutionary, linguistic, literary, mathematical, moral, political, scientific, social, sociological Next, I shall outline some developments in recent social theory.
- disagreeing with one another competing, conflicting The report covers the various competing theories in a fair and balanced way.
- sensible and likely to be useful coherent, consistent, logical, plausible, sound The Administration's policies no longer conformed to any coherent theory of socio-economic development.
- well-established accepted, classical, conventional, established, mainstream, standard, traditional According to accepted scientific theory, the core of a planet as small as Mercury should have cooled down by now.
- important or major dominant, key, major A belief in unrestrained free markets was the dominant economic theory for almost 30 years.
- different from what is generally accepted alternative, new, novel, revolutionary The position is unsatisfactory, but so far no alternative theory has emerged to explain this phenomenon.

- v+N develop a theory construct, develop, formulate The aim of the research is to develop a theory that can account for all situations.
- offer a theory for people to consider advance, expound, outline, propose, propound, put forward This theory was first put forward in a paper at a conference.
- show or suggest that a theory is wrong contradict, disprove, refute When a theory is refuted by scientists, the community tries to find another, better theory.
- apply a theory apply, test Assignments are designed to help you to apply theory to practice.
- combine theory with practice combine, integrate On the Nursing degree, you will learn to integrate theory and practice.

- N+v suggest that something is true assume, imply, posit, postulate, predict, suggest Narrative theory suggests that our 'selves' are products of the stories we tell about ourselves.
- state that something is true argue, assert, claim, state This theory claims that living beings have evolved by means of a struggle for life.
- develop from particular ideas or facts arise from sth, be based on sth, build on sth Our theory is based on sound thinking and practice.

therapy N
a form of treatment for an illness or emotional problem

- adj+N using methods not used by most doctors alternative, complementary, holistic If conventional medicine is unsuccessful, it may be worth trying an alternative therapy.
- using established methods conventional, standard, traditional The trials compared the effects of homeopathic remedies with conventional drug therapies.
- relating to a person's mind or behaviour behavioural, cognitive, hormonal, nutritional, occupational, psychological Cognitive therapy is widely used in the treatment of anxiety and depression.

- n+N relating to medical treatments drug, gene, hormone replacement, laser, radiation Radiation therapy can often cause a permanently dry mouth.
- relating to human behaviour art, behaviour, language, music, speech Matthew attends speech therapy sessions on Friday mornings.
- group/individual family, group, individual Each patient attends a group therapy session once a week.

- v+N need therapy need, require, seek Many of these children require therapy in later life.
- ▶ receive therapy be given, get, receive, try, undergo All candidates must undergo personal therapy.
- ▶ provide therapy administer, offer, provide Your family doctor can recommend a clinic offering appropriate therapies.

thesis N

1 a long piece of writing done for an advanced degree

- adj+N type of thesis doctoral, master's, postgraduate, research-based, undergraduate His doctoral thesis was a detailed study of the music of the French composer Henri Dutilleux.
- ▶ published/not published published, unpublished Even a quote from another author's unpublished thesis without full acknowledgement can constitute plagiarism.
- v+N write a thesis do, prepare, produce, write, write up The candidate must produce a written thesis of between 4,000 and 5,000 words.
- ▶ formally give a thesis to someone who will make a decision about it present, submit By the time students submit their thesis, they will be an expert in their chosen area of study.
- ▶ formally support ideas presented in a thesis defend She has completed a Master's degree, but she has not yet defended her thesis.
- ▶ finish a thesis complete, finish I'm hoping to complete my doctoral thesis by July next year.
- ▶ publish a thesis publish He graduated in 1865, and in the same year published his thesis.

2 an idea or opinion used to explain something

- adj+N basic, central, fundamental, main, principal Chapter 2 presents the book's central thesis – the anomalous origins of Homo sapiens.
- v+N suggest an idea for people to consider advance, expound, offer, present, propose Isaiah Berlin advanced the thesis that intellectuals and artists tend to be of two types: hedgehogs and foxes.
- ▶ say or prove that a thesis is wrong contradict, disprove, refute, reject, undermine An experimental project may prove, or disprove the original thesis.

thief N

someone who steals something

- adj+N frequently stealing things determined, habitual, notorious, persistent, professional, prolific Persistent thieves will spend time looking for things to steal.
- ▶ hoping or trying to be potential, would-be Police are urging people in the village to lock their doors and deter would-be thieves.
- ▶ minor petty For many years the building was used as a prison for petty thieves and criminals.
- ▶ not planning to steal, but taking the opportunity to steal something casual, opportunistic Most burglaries are carried out by opportunistic thieves.
- ▶ showing no sympathy callous, heartless, ruthless, unrepentant These heartless thieves are even returning to people they have already robbed before.
- v+N catch a thief apprehend, arrest, catch, stop They informed us that they had apprehended the thieves and located the vehicle.
- ▶ make a thief decide not to steal beat, deter, discourage, put off, thwart Well lit areas deter car thieves.
- n+of+N band, bunch, gang One night in January, a gang of thieves broke into the church and stole the statues.

thin ADJ

with little fat on your body

- adv+ADJ dangerously, extremely, incredibly, painfully, really, very She was painfully thin, with a pale complexion.
- v+ADJ be, or look be, look, seem He looked thinner than when I had last seen him, and very worried.
- ▶ become become, get, grow I got so thin that I had to leave my job, and I was in bed for quite a long time time.

think V

consider facts carefully

- adv+V with your full attention carefully, deeply, hard, long and hard, seriously Frederick leant back in his chair and thought hard for a moment.
- ▶ in an intelligent or original way creatively, laterally, outside the box, strategically The pupils had to think creatively and work as a team. ● Employees are encouraged to think outside the box and find creative solutions.
- ▶ clearly clearly, critically, logically, rationally I could think clearly, I could stay focused, I had more energy.
- ▶ quickly fast, on your feet The car was rolling backwards; I had to think fast.

If you think twice about something, you carefully consider whether what you are planning to do is a good idea: You should think twice before you hop on a plane.

thinker N

someone thinking and developing ideas about important subjects

- adj+N important or influential eminent, foremost, great, influential, leading, prominent, seminal Time magazine named her one of the most influential thinkers of our time.
- ▶ believing in the need for social change feminist, liberal, progressive, radical, socialist, utopian He was a progressive thinker, with sympathy for the anti-slavery campaign.
- ▶ with imagination and new ideas creative, innovative, lateral, original, strategic Each team needs a keen leader and at least one creative thinker.
- ▶ modern contemporary, modern Jean Baudrillard is one of the world's most celebrated contemporary thinkers.

thinking N

an opinion or set of ideas

- adj+N modern contemporary, current, latest, modern, new, recent New thinking on transport must form part of our plan for the future of Britain's cities.

▸ original and creative creative, fresh, imaginative, innovative, lateral, leading-edge, original, radical Over the years, they have built up a reputation for innovative thinking in the field of urban transport.
▸ relating to developments in the future blue-sky, long-term, strategic The policy unit's job is to do blue-sky thinking on the country's future energy needs.
▸ in which different parts of a system are considered together joined-up The problem with the government's environmental policies is the lack of joined-up thinking.
▸ about a particular subject economic, educational, mathematical, philosophical, political, scientific, theological His job is to bring the journal in line with current political thinking.

• v+N influence someone's thinking develop, guide, influence, inform, shape We researched the processes involved, and used this knowledge to inform our thinking.
▸ make thinking clear articulate, clarify, explain, outline The article outlines the latest scientific thinking about where all the water on Earth came from.
▸ be the most important influence on thinking dominate Three broad areas will dominate Christian thinking in the immediate future.

• N+behind decision, initiative, proposal What is the thinking behind these decisions?

think through PHR VB consider the facts about something in an organized way

• V+n problem issue, problem, question This unit attempts to help children to think through difficult questions about equality.
▸ what might happen as a result consequences, implications Regrettably, nobody thought through the implications of this decision.
▸ possible actions or ways of dealing with something alternatives, options, possibilities, response Our careers service will help you to think through your options and make the right decision.

thirst N [always singular]
1 a strong feeling of wanting something

• adj+N strong great, incredible, powerful As a child, I had a great thirst for books and learning.
▸ that cannot be satisfied insatiable, unquenchable Young children have an insatiable thirst for knowledge.
▸ becoming stronger growing Is the world's growing thirst for energy sustainable?

• v+N satisfy thirst satisfy This book will satisfy the reader's thirst for more knowledge in the field.
▸ experience thirst develop, experience, have, suffer from Milan and its shoppers have a thirst for designer labels.

• N+for knowledge knowledge, learning, truth The curriculum aims to develop intellectual curiosity and a thirst for learning in children.
▸ hurting or punishing someone because they have hurt you justice, revenge, vengeance A thirst for revenge also played its part in the attacks.
▸ power power A thirst for power caused a small group to break away and form their own people.
▸ exciting experiences adventure No sailing experience is necessary – all you need is a thirst for adventure and a willingness to learn new skills.

2 the feeling that you want or need to drink something

• adj+N excessive, extreme, great, intense, raging, severe Symptoms include excessive thirst, tiredness, and weight loss.

• v+N satisfy thirst quench, satisfy, slake Having bought a bottle of lemonade to quench our thirst, we continued on our way.
▸ die because of thirst die of She was dying of thirst and prayed for water.
▸ do physical activity that causes thirst develop, work up Two-and-a-half miles was just about right to work up a thirst.

thirsty ADJ
feeling you want to drink something

• adv+ADJ desperately, extremely, really, so INFORMAL, very After two hours of climbing, we were desperately thirsty.

• v+ADJ be, feel, get It was a hot long day, and I got really thirsty.

• and/or hot, hungry, tired, weary By lunchtime we were very tired, hot and thirsty.

thorough ADJ including everything that is possible or necessary

• adv+ADJ very exceptionally, extremely, incredibly, particularly, really, remarkably, very This is an extremely thorough and well-balanced book on software construction.
▸ fairly fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, reasonably Using these techniques, you can do a pretty thorough search in about fifteen minutes.

• ADJ+n knowledge grasp, grounding, knowledge, understanding This course aims to give students a thorough understanding of the principles of criminal law.
▸ check assessment, check, check-up, evaluation, examination, inspection, testing The safety of your bike is your responsibility, and thorough checks are essential.
▸ research or analysis analysis, appraisal, exploration, investigation, research, review, study We carry out a thorough investigation before offering any property to our clients.
▸ description of the main features of something description, overview, survey The programme is designed to provide a thorough overview of the topic.
▸ change overhaul, reform, revision The report recommends a thorough overhaul of the current system.
▸ preparation preparation, warm-up All classes begin with a thorough warm-up for the entire body.

• and/ or careful, comprehensive, detailed, full, professional, rigorous, systematic The department has completed a thorough and systematic review of its recruitment practices.

thought N

1 an idea, opinion, word or image that you have in your mind

- adj+N unexpected or for no reason random, sudden A random thought passed through my head.
- ▸ bad anxious, evil, frightening, horrible, negative, scary, suicidal It was a scary thought, but I took a deep breath and did it anyway.
- ▸ changing the way you feel comforting, sobering Now there's a comforting thought.
- ▸ private inner, innermost Their body language can reveal their inner thoughts.
- ▸ first/not first final, first, initial, original, second As soon as I got here, my first thought was how big my new school was. ◆ The paper sets out some initial thoughts for consideration.
- v+N have thoughts about something echo, entertain, harbour, have, think There will many who will echo those thoughts. ◆ I always harboured thoughts of being a writer.
- ▸ stop having thoughts about something banish, dismiss I banished thoughts of football from my mind. ◆ He dismissed the thought with a gesture of the hand.

When someone starts thinking about something new, they turn their thoughts to the new thing: I can now turn my thoughts to training for the next big challenge.

- ▸ organize your thoughts clarify, collect, gather He paused to gather his thoughts.
- ▸ express your thoughts articulate, communicate, convey, express, give, let sb know/have, share, tell sb, voice He often struggled to articulate his thoughts. ◆ I was asked to give my thoughts on this subject on a web forum.
- ▸ record your thoughts put down on paper/in writing, record If she finds it hard to talk, encourage her to put her thoughts and feelings down on paper.
- ▸ like/not like a particular thought cannot bear, like, relish I didn't relish the thought of getting soaked for no reason.
- ▸ welcome someone else's thoughts appreciate, welcome We would appreciate your thoughts on the new design.

Usage Thought is usually plural in all of the v+N combinations shown above.

- N+v arrive arise, come to sb, cross sb's mind, flash through sb's mind, hit sb, occur to sb, pass through sb's mind, strike sb A sudden thought struck her.
- ▸ have an effect on someone haunt sb, inspire sb, trouble sb He was haunted by the thought that justice would not be done.
- ▸ start to be about something else drift, race, stray, turn to sth, wander Her thoughts had wandered far from the subject.

2 the action or effort of thinking, or the ability to think

- adj+N serious careful, considerable, serious Throughout the writing, give careful thought to the structure of the chapters. ◆ It is a matter that requires considerable thought.

You can also say that someone gives something a lot of, a great deal of, or much thought.

- ▸ types of thought abstract, conscious, critical, logical, rational Our capacity for rational thought has placed human life at the top of nature's hierarchy.
- v+N when someone thinks about doing something give to sth, put into sth The programme continued without any thought being given to wider issues.
- ▸ when someone thinks with sympathy about someone else spare for sb Spare a thought for those without clean water.
- ▸ make someone think about something prompt, provoke, require Concerns over fossil fuels and landfill space have prompted much thought on new ways of treating waste.
- ▸ be grateful that someone thinks about something appreciate We all really appreciated the thought, especially as you are so busy.

thoughtful ADJ

1 showing that you consider what people want or need

- ADJ+n thing given or done extras, gesture, gift, present, touch Facilities include tea- and coffee-making facilities, and lots of other thoughtful extras.
- ▸ behaviour manner Children are encouraged to work and play in a thoughtful manner with those about them.
- and/or caring, considerate, generous, kind She is kind, thoughtful and considerate.

2 showing careful thought

- ADJ+n behaviour or activity approach, consideration, mood, reflection This decision is the result of much thoughtful consideration.
- ▸ things written or said analysis, comment, contribution, discussion, essay, insight, lyrics, piece Thank you for your thoughtful comments.
- and/or informed, insightful, measured, perceptive, provocative, reflective, thought-provoking, well-informed I would like to thank her for writing such a measured and thoughtful review.

thread N

an idea connecting all the different parts of something

- adj+N common, disparate, multiple, narrative, unbroken, unifying Will he be able to bring all the disparate threads of the mystery together?
- N+v connect sth, emerge, link sth, run through sth, weave through sth This theme was a constant thread running through our stay.

threat N

1 a situation or activity that could cause harm

- adj+N serious big INFORMAL, constant, global, grave, great, heightened, major, real, serious, severe, significant No major threats to the species are currently known. ◆ Their future is under severe threat.
- ▸ likely to cause harm soon, or in the future credible, immediate, imminent, potential Firearms were allowed if there was an imminent threat of death or serious injury. ◆ This poses a potential threat.

▸ types of threat economic, environmental, legal, military, nuclear, strategic There is no military threat from this region.

• n+N bomb, cyber, missile, security, terror, terrorist Recently we have seen a wide range of cyber threats.

• v+N fight a threat address, avert, combat, counter, eliminate, reduce, tackle We hope to reduce the threat of accidental poisoning.

▸ be a threat constitute, pose These problems are very serious and pose a real threat to the future of the Library.

▸ be affected by a threat face The country faces the threat of race riots.

• N+v come from sth, emerge, face sb, hang over sb Lately, a more sinister threat has emerged.

2 a statement that you will cause someone harm

• v+N face, receive Staff received threats, and at times violence broke out.

threaten V

1 tell someone you might cause them harm

• V+n action, invasion, strike, violence The company threatened court action if she did not pay.

Usage You can also threaten someone with something, or threaten to do something: The family is being threatened with deportation. ◆ The boss threatened to sack him.

• and/or abuse, assault, bully, harass, humiliate, insult, intimidate He accused us of bullying and threatening him.

2 be likely to harm or destroy something

• V+n situation, system, or process existence, future, integrity, livelihood, peace, security, stability, supply, survival, viability The new requirements could threaten the viability of the service.

▸ living things existence, habitat, species We will work to save threatened species.

threatening ADJ likely to harm you

• ADJ+n attitude, behaviour, gesture, language, letter, message, phone call We will not accept rude and threatening behaviour.

• and/or violent abusive, aggressive, confrontational, violent The courts will act to stop violent and threatening behaviour.

▸ insulting abusive, defamatory, insulting, libellous, obscene, offensive, rude Threatening, insulting or abusive language must not be used.

threshold N

a limit at which arrangements or rules change

• adj+N high/low high, low, lower, maximum, minimum, upper Do you have a high pain threshold?

▸ significant certain, critical, indicative When the level of hormone is above a critical threshold, special treatment is used to reduce it.

▸ established by law legal, statutory Where the combination of crops exceeds the statutory threshold, farmers are automatically compensated.

• n+N needed in order to do something age, audit, eligibility, income, tax There should be an additional income threshold for top earners.

▸ feelings boredom, pain, stress There is considerable variation in individual pain threshold.

• v+N set or change the threshold establish, fix, increase, lower, propose, raise, set, specify The government promised to raise the tax threshold.

▸ pass the threshold breach, cross, exceed, pass, reach Some large-scale projects which exceed the agreed thresholds may not be significant.

thrill N

a sudden feeling of being very excited and pleased

• adj+N big big, great, huge, real, tremendous, ultimate Winning the award was a great thrill.

▸ real sheer, visceral The sheer thrill of speed is what I love.

• v+N have a thrill experience, feel, get, share I get a huge thrill from discovering new things.

▸ give someone a thrill deliver, send Her voice sent a thrill through me.

▸ enjoy a thrill enjoy, love They love the thrill of the races.

▸ think about a thrill imagine, remember, not forget Imagine the the thrill as your hot air balloon takes off.

thriller N

a book, play, or film telling an exciting story

• adj+N exciting or frightening action-packed, chilling, edgy, fast-paced, gripping, gritty, stylish, suspenseful, taut, tense She was the heroine in a number of tense thrillers.

▸ types of thriller comic, erotic, futuristic, psychological, supernatural This is a classic supernatural thriller where no-one is sure what is real and what is illusion.

thrive V

become very successful, happy, or healthy

• n+V business business, company, economy, enterprise, industry, tourism Tourism is thriving here.

▸ living things creature, plant, species, tree, wildlife Very few plants thrive in very wet or very dry soil.

▸ places and people church, city, community, population, region Recent history shows how remote communities can thrive, culturally and economically, when they are given the power to make their own decisions.

throne N

the position of being king or queen

• v+N take the throne accede to, ascend (to), assume, come to, inherit, occupy, regain, succeed (to) As tradition requires, the monarch accedes to the throne instantly. ◆ He ascended the throne of Spain in 1700.

▸ take the throne from someone claim, reclaim, seize, usurp He seized the throne from Richard II.
▸ give up the throne abdicate, renounce She was forced to abdicate her throne in favour of her son, James.

• n+to+N person who will take the throne claimant, heir, pretender, successor There was no clear successor to the Scottish throne.

Usage Someone who is in line to the throne may become king or queen in the future: Princes William and Harry are second and third in line to the throne.

▸ claiming or taking the throne accession, ascension, claim, right, succession He was ready to give up his right to the throne.

thrust N
the main idea or intention of a document, speech etc

• adj+N basic, broad, central, general, main, major, overall, whole We agree with the general thrust of the report.

• N+of document article, book, chapter, document, paper, report The thrust of the article remains unchanged.
▸ set of ideas argument, debate, policy, proposal, recommendation, strategy The basic thrust of his argument is that stress causes people to under-perform.

thud N
a low sound made by a heavy object hitting something

• adj+N loud almighty, loud, mighty, resounding, terrific I fell with a mighty thud.
▸ not loud dull, heavy, muffled, soft They heard a heavy thud, as though something had struck the ship.
▸ frightening ominous, sickening All we heard was an ominous thud.

thug N
a man who is violent, especially a criminal

• adj+N violent armed, brutal, murderous, sadistic, vicious, violent Armed thugs attacked his family.
▸ without feelings or morals callous, drunken, hardened, lawless, mindless The mindless thugs who caused this damage must be punished.
▸ with extreme beliefs fascist, racist He was attacked by racist thugs.

• n+of+N band, bunch, gang We will not be intimidated by a bunch of thugs.

thunder N
a loud noise heard in the sky during a storm

• adj+N booming, distant, heavy, loud In the afternoon the sky grew overcast, and distant thunder could be heard during the evening.

• N+v boom, crash, roar, roll, rumble Thunder crashed overhead.

• n+of+N clap, crack, crash, peal, roll, rumble, sound There was a massive clap of thunder.

• and/or lightning, rain Last night we had torrential rain, and thunder and lightning.

thunderstorm N a heavy storm with thunder

• adj+N heavy, massive, severe, spectacular, violent Heavy thunderstorms brought torrential rain to the area.

thwart V prevent someone from doing what they want

• adv+V continually, cruelly, repeatedly, successfully Activists successfully thwarted ministers' plans.

• V+n ambition, aspirations, attack, attempt, effort, plan, plot Further attempts to mount attacks were thwarted by the Security Service.

tide N
1 the regular rise and fall of the level of the sea

• adj+N strong and possibly dangerous extreme, powerful, strong, treacherous This area is known for its treacherous tides.
▸ higher/lower high, incoming, low, outgoing, rising Be aware of tide times, and avoid being trapped by an incoming tide. ⁕ At low tide you can walk along the bay.

• N+v become higher come in, rise The tide was coming in very quickly.
▸ become lower ebb, go out, recede The tide goes out furthest when there is a full moon or a new moon.
▸ change direction turn The tide had turned.
▸ flow flood, flow, sweep, wash The tide sweeps into the estuary.

2 the way events or opinions are developing

• v+N halt, reverse, stem, turn, unleash The government was failing to halt the tide of university closures.

• N+of events crime, democracy, fiction, globalization, history, struggle, violence, war In the current tide of globalization, no country can develop and prosper in isolation.
▸ opinions anger, emotion, feeling, opinion, sentiment The anti-terror law was rushed through Congress on a tide of anger after the bombings.

tidy ADJ with everything in the correct place

• ADJ+n place bedroom, desk, garden, house, kitchen, kitchen, office, yard The rest of the house is perfectly tidy.
▸ condition appearance, condition, look You must leave your property in a clean and tidy condition.

• v+ADJ keep sth, leave sth, look Work areas must be kept tidy. ⁕ We cleaned and painted the kitchen, and it looks a lot tidier now.

tight ADJ controlled very carefully, so as to allow no freedom or extra time or money

• adv+ADJ very extremely, impossibly, incredibly, really INFORMAL, ridiculously, so INFORMAL, too, very The time constraints are extremely tight.

▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL Security was fairly tight.

• ADJ+n controls constraint, control, regulations, restrictions, security This could lead to tighter controls on industrial waste.
▸ time deadline, schedule, timescale, timetable The ability to cope with tight deadlines is essential.
▸ money budget, margin Small businesses, whose margins are much tighter, face greater problems.

Usage If time or money is tight, there is not enough, or only just enough.

time N

the quantity that is measured in hours, days, years etc

• v+N use time pass, spend, use, waste I have spent a lot of time in his company.
▸ use less time reduce, save We can show you how to save time and money.
▸ have enough time to do something find, get, have, leave Will you be able to find time to have a coffee with us? ◉ I didn't have time to talk to him.
▸ need time need, require This will require time and energy.
▸ make time available for a purpose allocate, allow, devote, divide, give, invest, set aside The deadline allows time for a full consultation. ◉ She divides her time between teaching and research.

timetable N

a plan of the times at which something will happen

• adj+N fixed or clear detailed, rigid, strict, structured, tight You will follow a structured study timetable for each module.
▸ not yet fixed provisional The provisional timetable for the application and assessment process is as follows.
▸ needing a lot of effort ambitious, demanding We have an ambitious timetable and a frightening volume of work.

• v+N set a timetable co-ordinate, devise, finalize, fix, impose, set We have devised a timetable for the switchover, to be phased in on a region-to-region basis. ◉ As soon as they have been finalized, the examination timetables appear on the website.
▸ propose or agree a timetable agree, outline, propose This will allow the Agency to meet with those involved and to agree a timetable of support.
▸ change a timetable adjust, alter, amend, disrupt, juggle, personalise, revise, suspend The normal timetable is suspended for two days each year, as students take part in a range of charitable activities.
▸ follow a timetable follow, operate to, run to It was a great success, not least because it ran to a strict timetable.

• N+n information enquiry, information For bus timetable enquiries, visit our website.
▸ the way a timetable is organized change, clash, constraint, slot They may not be able to take the course because of timetable clashes.

timing N

1 the date or time when something happens

• v+N affect the timing affect, constrain, determine, dictate, influence The individual analyst determines the timing and content of the research.
▸ change the timing alter, change The feasibility of changing the timing and duration of the event should be investigated.

• adj+n good opportune, optimal, optimum, perfect The timing was perfect.
▸ lucky fortuitous, opportune, uncanny He was helped by fortuitous timing.
▸ bad bad, inconvenient, poor, unfortunate The proximity of the broadcast to Christmas was bad timing.
▸ not yet final or exact approximate, provisional Provisional timings are as follows.

2 the skill of doing something at the best moment

• adj+N very good deft, exquisite, razor-sharp, split-second, superb Her poems, with their exquisite timing and wonderful stories, are captivating.
▸ perfect faultless, immaculate, impeccable, perfect, spot-on With impeccable timing, we arrived back just in time to hear the result. ◉ His timing is spot-on.

tinge N

a small amount of a colour, feeling, or quality

• adj+N colour greenish, bluish etc, purple, rosy etc Some of the white flowers have a pinkish tinge. ◉ This beautiful fish has a golden tinge to its body.
▸ pale faint, pale, slight I could see a faint tinge of colour in her cheeks.

• N+of bitterness, disappointment, jealousy, regret, sadness It is with a tinge of regret that I have asked the board to accept my resignation.

Usage You can also say that there is a tinge of something: There was a tinge of sadness in his voice.

tip N

a useful suggestion

• adj+N useful handy INFORMAL, helpful, practical, useful, valuable Here are some helpful tips on spotting the signs and how to deal with them. ◉ The guidelines contain some practical tips to help with weight loss.
▸ most useful hot INFORMAL, invaluable, top INFORMAL Here are ten top tips for buyers.
▸ simple quick, simple By following a few simple tips, you will be able to dramatically reduce the energy you use.

• v+N give tips contain, give, offer The coaches offered tips on technique.
▸ get tips get You can get fundraising tips from us.
▸ follow tips follow Follow our simple safety tips.
▸ share tips exchange, share, swap You can swap tips and share problems.

• and/or advice, cheats INFORMAL, hints, how-tos INFORMAL, ideas, shortcuts, suggestions, tricks For tips and hints, click here.

tired ADJ needing to rest or sleep

- adv+ADJ very dead, extremely, really INFORMAL, so INFORMAL, very The sun was hot again and we were very tired.
- ▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather She was looking quite tired.
- ADJ+n bones, brain, eyes, feet, legs, limbs, muscles They couldn't wait to bathe their tired feet in the river.
- v+ADJ become, feel, get, grow, look, seem, sound When I got home I felt tired and had a headache.
- and/or without energy lethargic, listless, sleepy, weary During your treatment you may start to feel tired and listless.
- ▸ unhappy bored, depressed, irritable, jaded He was tired and irritable after a tough day at work.

title N
the position of a winner in competition

- v+N win claim, clinch, come away/ walk away/ leave with, earn, scoop, secure, win He went on to win the title in 2007.
- ▸ try to win battle for, compete for, defend They will battle for one of the European Tour's most prestigious titles.
- ▸ win again regain, retain, successfully defend Can he maintain his form to regain the title?

token ADJ
done in order to pretend that you are dealing with something, or that you take something seriously

- ADJ+n action attempt, force, gesture, pretence, protest, resistance The public consultation was a token gesture – the decision had already been made.
- ▸ money paid or received amount, economy, fine, gift, payment, sum The richer nations promised billions of dollars in aid, but have so far only paid token amounts.

tolerance N
the ability to accept someone else's beliefs, way of life, or mistakes

- adj+N cultural, political, racial, religious As a nation, we pride ourselves on our racial tolerance and cultural awareness.
- v+N advocate, encourage, foster, preach, promote, show, teach We want to teach people tolerance and respect for the rights of others.
- and/or diversity, fairness, kindness, openness, patience, respect, understanding Many thanks to my wife for all her patience and tolerance.

tolerant ADJ willing to accept someone else's beliefs, way of life, or mistakes

- adv+ADJ extremely, incredibly, remarkably, very Most people are extremely tolerant of other people's religious beliefs.
- ADJ+of mistakes faults, mistakes, shortcomings They are not very tolerant of shortcomings.
- ▸ differences differences, diversity, minorities They were tolerant of religious differences.
- ▸ opinions beliefs, faith, opinions, views We should all be more tolerant of others' beliefs.
- and/or used about a person compassionate, easy-going, forgiving, humane, liberal, moderate, open-minded, patient, peace-loving, respectful Be respectful and tolerant of everyone you meet, even if you disagree with their opinions.
- ▸ used about an organization or community cosmopolitan, inclusive, multi-cultural, multi-ethnic, peaceful, pluralist, pluralistic This is an important part of developing a tolerant multi-cultural society.

tolerate V
allow someone to do something you dislike

- V+n unfair treatment discrimination, harassment, homophobia, injustice, racism The Association will not tolerate harassment in any form.
- ▸ bad behaviour behaviour, blasphemy, corruption, dissent, rudeness Residents will not tolerate this behaviour.

Usage Tolerate is often used with a negative in all of these combinations.

toll N
the total number of people killed or hurt

- adj+N appalling, devastating, dreadful, enormous, grim, heavy, high, horrific, huge, terrible In an effort to reduce the devastating toll of heart disease, new guidelines have been released for doctors treating people at risk.
- n+N accident, casualty, death, injury The US death toll rose to 24 after two marines were killed by a home-made bomb.
- v+N result in a toll exact, inflict, result in Deaths from occupational causes inflict a greater toll on men than on women.
- ▸ reduce the toll lower, reduce The way to reduce this toll is to change attitudes before an accident occurs.
- ▸ increase the toll add to, increase Months of fighting between rival rebel factions has added to the toll of the dead and displaced.

tone N
the general character of a place, event, or a piece of writing or film

- adj+N general general, overall, whole The audience praised the humour of the speakers, the interesting nature of the subjects tackled, and the overall tone of the event.
- ▸ moral moral The moral tone of the New Testament is so high that it could not possibly be fiction.
- ▸ suggesting something bad dark, harsh, menacing The ending also creates the dark tone the new series has, making the programme more serious.
- ▸ sad or serious serious, solemn, sombre The movement of the water and the haze which filters through the harbour, all contribute to the sombre tone of the sequence.
- ▸ not serious light There are a number of moments where real life horror impinges on the otherwise light tone of the novel.

- showing strong opinions strident What strikes one about these texts is the somewhat strident disciplinarian tone of much of them.
- positive hopeful, optimistic, positive, upbeat The book takes a very upbeat tone about your potential for success.

- v+N create a tone create, give sth, set, strike Your choice of appliances will set the tone of your kitchen and highlight the style you have chosen.
- have a tone have The story has a tone that varies between playful wit and pathos which excites sympathy in the reader for Mrs Henley.
- change the tone alter, change That would certainly alter the tone of many of these debates.
- make the tone worse/better lower, raise Is it really necessary to lower the tone of an otherwise excellent magazine with a double page spread of a character throwing up on the cover?
- make the tone less serious or angry lighten, soften People of faith can make a valuable contribution by softening the tone of often strident secular debate.

tool N

something used to do or achieve something

- adj+N good effective, efficient, excellent, great, innovative, powerful, practical, sophisticated When it works, such personalisation is a powerful and sophisticated tool.
- useful handy, helpful, useful, valuable The integrity test is a useful tool for monitoring purposes.
- important or essential essential, ideal, important, indispensable, invaluable, key, necessary, perfect, vital He acknowledged that the internet was an important tool to disseminate information.
- for many situations flexible, versatile This complex system thus creates an extremely versatile assessment tool with a wide range of test possibilities.
- basic basic, standard E-mail, electronic data transfer, and websites are all accepted as being standard business tools.
- on a computer automated, computational, digital, electronic, ICT, interactive, online, software, technological, web-based There are many electronic tools for translators.
- for finding information investigative, reference, research A comprehensive glossary provides an invaluable reference tool.
- for teaching educational, teaching Such a board would be a useful teaching tool.
- for testing or checking something analysis, analytical, assessment, diagnostic, evaluation, measurement, monitoring, screening, testing This technique is not purely a research technique, but is also a valuable diagnostic tool.
- mathematical or scientific mathematical, scientific, statistical The mere fact that cosmology makes use of scientific and mathematical tools does not make it a science.
- for selling something or doing business business, marketing, promotional We were asked to produce a website that would act as a promotional tool for the show.
- for creating an idea conceptual, creative, visualization Alexander's patterns are conceptual tools for helping people design buildings which might themselves have that quality.

- n+N for planning or designing something design, development, planning Designed to be a planning tool, this publication consists of a series of maps showing the various routes to the Mediterranean through the French canals and rivers.
- for managing people management Users can create their own reports quickly and easily, making it the ideal management tool.

tooth N

a hard white object inside your mouth [usually plural]

- adj+N in good condition clean, healthy, perfect, strong I noticed he had perfect straight teeth.
- in bad condition bad, rotten The tooth was so rotten, it broke.
- white pearly, white Smiling a broad smile of pearly teeth, she waved him forward.
- straight/not straight crooked, straight When she smiles, her teeth are endearingly crooked.
- sticking out buck, prominent, protruding He had huge buck teeth that looked like they belonged on Goofy.
- sensitive sensitive There are special toothpastes for sensitive teeth.
- sharp jagged, pointed, razor sharp, sabre, sharp Chimps are extremely strong and have sharp teeth.

- v+N keep your teeth tightly together clench, grit I gritted my teeth and tried to enjoy all the attention I was getting.
- move your top teeth on top of your bottom teeth gnash, grind She did not realize she had been grinding her teeth in the night when she was asleep.
- clean your teeth brush, clean The worst thing you can do is to brush your teeth with an abrasive toothpaste after eating or drinking acidic foods.
- make your teeth whiter bleach, whiten There are several toothpastes on the market which claim to whiten teeth.
- stain your teeth discolour, stain, yellow Teeth are easily stained, especially by tobacco, certain foods and beverages.
- damage your teeth break, chip, crack, damage, knock out Apparentlty, Viduka chipped a tooth in last night's game.
- decay your teeth decay, rot Do not give them carbonated water as this has carbolic acid which rots teeth.
- show your teeth bare, flash, show 'ARRR, ARRR, ARRR,' it snarled as it flashed its huge teeth.
- remove someone's tooth extract, pull, remove, take out An instant solution is to extract the tooth, thereby removing the infection, but leaving you with a gap.
- repair or clean someone's teeth drill, fill, polish, straighten Can my crooked or twisted teeth be straightened?
- when a new tooth comes up through your gum cut, get Most babies will let you know they're cutting new teeth loud and clear.
- when a tooth falls out lose When Jessica loses her first tooth, Granny tells her to watch out for the tooth fairy.

topic N

a subject that you write or speak about

- adj+N that people have strong feelings about emotive, sensitive The issue of asylum seekers remains one of the most emotive topics facing Britons today.

▸ that people disagree about contentious, controversial, thorny No essays about such a controversial topic can be truly without bias.
▸ that people do not talk about off-limits, taboo Sex is still seen as a taboo topic, but we showed that it is not something to be embarrassed about.
▸ that many people want to talk about hot Seeing as my boy is such a hot topic, here are some more pictures of him.
▸ interesting fascinating, interesting A number of interesting topics were discussed.
▸ important central, important, key, main, major, priority There is no doubt that globalisation is an important topic.
▸ difficult challenging, complex, complicated, difficult, tricky INFORMAL This is a fun way to learn about a complex topic.
▸ specialized specialist, specialized In the final year, you will do a piece of professional research in a specialist topic.
▸ with many parts broad, diverse, substantive, weighty, wide-ranging Work life balance is a broad topic.
▸ relevant pertinent, relevant The introduction will help you identify which topics are pertinent to your situation.
▸ types of topic environmental, health, historical, history, legal, mathematical, philosophical, science, scientific Each child will cover six historical topics in the year.

• v+N deal with a topic address, cover, deal with, tackle This book covers many topics, so you may find it useful.
▸ study a topic examine, explore, investigate, look at, pursue, research, study Candidates will study one topic in-depth.
▸ talk about a topic debate, discuss, speak on, talk about Jobs and careers were the main topic discussed.
▸ talk about something for the first time bring up, broach, raise I had not broached this topic with my young child yet.
▸ mention a topic mention, touch on She briefly touches on other topics that affect the lives of disabled people.
▸ choose a topic choose, decide on, identify, pick, select Students pick a research topic in Semester 1.
▸ suggest a topic propose, suggest Among the suggested topics for research is examining the needs of people who face multiple barriers in accessing information and services.

• N+of conversation, debate, discussion, research Food quickly became the main topic of conversation.

torment N

severe physical or mental pain

• adj+N lasting forever constant, endless, eternal, everlasting, unending Hell is a place of unending torment.
▸ bad dreadful, terrible, unspeakable How many more animals have to suffer unspeakable torment before those in power are made to be accountable for this cruelty?
▸ affecting someone's mind emotional, inner, mental, psychological His highly emotional music mirrors his inner torment.

• v+N suffer torment endure, suffer People continue to suffer mental torment and the misery and pain of physical illness.
▸ end someone's torment end, free sb from How long will it be until I am freed from this torment?

torrent N

a large amount of something

• N+of abuse, criticism, emotions, invective, words Four men in a car pulled up beside her and hurled a torrent of racial abuse.

torture N

extreme physical pain caused to someone

• adj+N bad brutal, cruel, horrible, severe, terrible, unspeakable Some prisoners suffered severe torture and were denied any legal counsel.
▸ affecting someone's mind emotional, mental, psychological He was kidnapped, battered, drugged and then subjected to extraordinary psychological torture for over 11 years.

• v+N suffer torture endure, face, suffer He was a prisoner of war, suffering torture and interrogation at the hands of his captors.
▸ torture someone engage in, inflict, subject sb to He experienced the keenest delight in inflicting torture upon defenceless animals.
▸ get something using torture extract sth under, obtain sth by, obtain sth under Her confession was obtained under torture.

torture V

hurt a person or animal deliberately and cruelly

• adv+V badly brutally, cruelly, horribly, mercilessly, savagely, severely, terribly Jesus knows that in the next 24 hours he will be brutally tortured and executed.
▸ regularly or thoroughly repeatedly, routinely, systematically Prisoners are routinely tortured, sometimes by immersion into boiling water.
▸ in a way that affects someone's mind emotionally, mentally, psychologically The 28 men were abducted from their homes then beaten and psychologically tortured.

total N

an amount obtained by adding things together

• adj+N when other totals are added together combined, cumulative, final, grand, overall We raised a grand total of £700.
▸ large amazing, formidable, good, high, impressive, large, magnificent, respectable, staggering The sailors added two more medals to an already staggering total.
▸ small low, meagre, modest In most regions where groundwater levels are least healthy, rainfall totals were especially meagre.

• v+N be a total bring, equal, make, reach, take The service added 206,000 subscribers, bringing its total to 35.3m. ◉ In addition, 34 non military staff such as servants etc. lived there, thus making a grand total of 204 people.
▸ be more than a total exceed Andrew hopes to raise more than 30,000 pounds for our Hospice Challenge, but he's hoping more people will join him on the walk so he can exceed even that total.

- ▸ bring together a total accumulate, amass The European Champion will be the person who accumulates the highest total of points from all 5 competitions.
- ▸ increase a total boost, increase, raise, swell In the run up to Christmas, our fundraising committee is holding a Grand Draw to boost the appeal total further.
- ▸ have a total boast, have The La Quinta Golf Club boasts a total of 27 holes.
- ▸ calculate or guess a total calculate, estimate Please use the following form to calculate your order total.
- • N+v be an amount amount to sth, be sth, reach sth, stand at sth By 2003, the global unemployment total had reached 180 million.
- ▸ be more than sth exceed sth Our total had now exceeded 300.
- ▸ rise go up, rise Within the first month, 80 new members had joined, and in the past year the total has risen to 250.
- ▸ fall decline, fall, go down We were astounded to find out that our photocopying total went down from an average of 167 sheets per day to 135.

touch N
a small feature or quality

- • adj+N final final, finishing Her guitar and piano work was excellent, giving the perfect finishing touches to her exquisite poetry.
- ▸ small delicate, little, subtle Masses of wild roses add their delicate touch to the beauty of the overhanging trees.
- ▸ pleasant delightful, homely, lovely, nice, thoughtful The accounts of why it was a good thing were a nice touch .
- ▸ funny or clever clever, comic, humorous The man has a nice comic touch, but an hour after watching the film I can't bring to mind any of them.
- ▸ special magic, personal, special We are small enough to add that personal touch to your enquiries.
- ▸ for decorating something decorative The well equipped kitchen combines up to date appliances with pretty decorative touches.
- ▸ typical of women feminine There's a cute, sweetheart shaped neckline for an extra feminine touch.

touching ADJ
making you feel emotional or sympathetic

- • adv+ADJ very deeply, really, very The attitude of the women was deeply touching.
- ▸ rather quite, rather This last episode is in fact quite touching.
- ▸ truly genuinely, truly She manages to bring out her characters' vulnerabilities in some genuinely touching scenes.
- • ADJ+n gesture, moment, scene, story, tale, tribute On his web site, Mac pays touching tribute to Kim: 'She is my shining light and always will be'.

touch on PHR VB
mention something when talking or writing

- • V+on aspect, issue, matter, point, question, subject, theme, topic This was the first time that Isaac had expressed a desire to touch on religious subjects.

tough ADJ
1 difficult

- • ADJ+n game or race battle, challenge, draw, encounter, fight, fixture, game, match, race Completing the course was one of the toughest psychological challenges I've taken.
- ▸ decision choice, decision She always chickened out of tough decisions.
- ▸ job assignment, job, task I personally think this is a tough task.
- ▸ exercise climb, workout The view from the top of the hill is certainly worth the somewhat tough climb.
- ▸ talks or question negotiations, question You should therefore be prepared for some tough negotiations to get what you may feel is a fair deal.

2 very strict or severe

- • v+ADJ become tough become, get The police are getting tough on illegal traders.
- ▸ be tough be, remain The Prime Minister says he will be tough on crime.
- ▸ behave in a tough way talk At first, their leaders talked tough, for example threatening mass strikes and disobedience.
- ▸ seem tough appear, seem The Church's rule of celibacy for priests might seem tough, but in previous times it was not seen to be such a difficult option.
- • ADJ+on behaviour crime, drugs, immigration, terror, terrorism From here on, the two main political parties were to compete as to which would be toughest on immigration.
- ▸ people criminals, offenders The Government should be tougher on criminals imposing tougher sentences.

3 strong, confident and determined

- • adv+ADJ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather He had been in the business twenty years, and thought he was pretty tough.
- ▸ very exceptionally, extremely, incredibly, really INFORMAL, remarkably, very Few women have this combination of characteristics – being both immensely beautiful and incredibly tough.
- ▸ mentally emotionally, mentally Some athletes are mentally tough enough not to need additional support in this area.
- • and/or determined, gritty, resilient, resourceful, rough, streetwise, tenacious, tough, uncompromising We know how tough and resilient the Russian people are and always have been.

tour N a journey to several different places

- • adj+N around a country national, nationwide The stars will now embark on a nationwide tour of schools to spread the message to youngsters across the country.
- ▸ around the world world, worldwide The singer is planning a worldwide tour for next year.
- ▸ abroad overseas They will be making their first overseas tour with the senior squad.
- ▸ quick quick, whirlwind They're just back from a whirlwind tour of America's top northeast colleges.

- short brief, mini, short Then they were taken on a short tour around Westminster.
- slow leisurely Our leisurely tour gives you time to enjoy all 3 resorts to the full.
- long extended, extensive, full, grand, long We offer short or extended tours throughout the UK and Europe.
- to see beautiful places panoramic, scenic After the excitement of Race Day, what better than a scenic tour of Donegal?
- to see things you do not usually see behind-the-scenes Behind-the-scenes tours of the Olympic Park are available.
- interesting fascinating, informative This is a relaxing and highly informative tour, offering a welcome escape from the hustle and bustle of the city.
- organized guided, organized, package The first time I read this book, I was on an organized bus tour in Europe.
- starting and finishing in the same place circular This circular tour of the city wall starts in Castle Street.
- on computer interactive, virtual Explore colliery buildings and go on a virtual tour of a modern mine.

tourism N

the business of providing holiday services for people

- adj+N by a lot of people mass The island of Kythira, only 12 miles off the southern tip of the Peloponnese but somehow unaffected by mass tourism, is a wonderfully restful place.
- for a particular purpose business, cultural, leisure, sex Leisure and business tourism are vital to the economy of the region.
- to a particular place rural, space I attended a meeting to promote rural tourism.
- abroad/in your own country domestic, international Both domestic and international tourism are responsible for beachfront urbanization in the Dominican Republic.
- not harming a place ethical, responsible Ethical tourism worldwide is, of course, not something that can just happen overnight.
- not harming the environment eco, green We look forward to your visit to this 'little golden part of Devon' where green tourism is encouraged.

- v+N increase tourism boost, enhance, improve, increase The Olympic games will create jobs and boost tourism.
- encourage tourism attract, bring, develop, encourage, promote, revive, stimulate, support The railway also brought the first mass tourism to the Yorkshire Dales in the 19th century.
- affect tourism affect High travel costs are also affecting tourism.

- N+n business business, industry, sector Some 10 % of all new jobs created are in the tourism industry.
- place attraction, destination He will work with the Australian Tourist Commission to promote Australia as a tourism destination to the Japanese market.
- development development, marketing, promotion Recent tourism marketing campaigns have been a huge success.
- plan initiative, strategy A new tourism initiative for the North Highlands of Scotland was launched on 1 August.
- increase boom Prague was enjoying a tourism boom.

tourist N

someone visiting place on holiday

- v+N attract tourists attract, bring in, draw in, encourage, entice, lure, pull in, welcome With its lush, beautiful scenery and tropical climate, Jamaica has long been luring tourists from all over the world.
- discourage tourists discourage Beggars may even discourage foreign tourists from visiting London, he moans.
- be full of tourists be crowded with, be overrun with, be swarming with, be thronged with Miraculously, this place doesn't seem to be overrun with tourists.

- N+n place attraction, centre, destination, haven, hotspot, magnet, resort, sight, spot, trap Without doubt, the Grand Palace is the best of Bangkok's many tourist attractions.
- route route, trail Cat Island is off the normal tourist trail of the Bahamas, one of the outer islands.
- organization or information office board, bureau, information, office Ask at tourist information offices for detailed programmes.
- information book brochure, guide, leaflet It features on all the island tourist brochures.

tournament N

a series of games producing one final winner

- v+N win a tournament win They then became the first team to win the tournament twice.
- hold or organize a tournament hold, host, organize, stage The tournament was first staged in 1877.
- enter or play in a tournament compete in, enter, participate in, play in I was told that they were paying to enter a poker tournament in which they would then play for their own money.
- leave a tournament be disqualified from, exit, leave, withdraw from He should have been disqualified from the tournament.

trace V

discover or desribe something from the past

- V+n people who used to be in your family ancestors, ancestry, descendants, descent, genealogy, lineage, pedigree Those of us who spend a lot of time tracing our pedigree take for granted that the records we find are true.
- beginnings emergence, genesis, origins, roots The club can actually trace its origins back to 1903.
- history or development development, evolution, history, progress This exhibition traces the history of the fast-fading tradition of Punjabi wrestling.

trace N

1 a small sign that someone has been present or that something has happened

- v+N remove or hide traces of something destroy, eliminate, eradicate, erase, hide, obliterate, remove The system has a stealth mode that eliminates all traces of itself on any machine it's plugged into.

- leave or keep traces of something leave, preserve These nomadic peoples left traces of their cultural activity on rocks, paths and hills.
- find traces of something detect, discover, find Amongst the modern buildings you will still find traces of the pre-war city.
- look for traces of something look for, search for Tegan peered closely at the face in the poor light, searching for some trace of her inner disquiet.
- show traces of something bear, reveal The linoleum-covered floor bore abundant traces of a busy morning.

- N+v disappear disappear, vanish Of Thunderley church, all traces disappeared many years ago.
- remain exist, linger, remain, survive No trace survives of settlements, but there are a number of Bronze Age burial cairns.

- v+without+N be lost, disappear, sink, vanish We shall be selling all the remaining club equipment, all proceeds to vanish without a trace.

2 a slight sign of an emotion

- N+of bitterness, irony, self-pity, sentimentality There is not a single trace of irony in the rest of this sentence.

tract N

a large area of land

- adj+N extensive, great, huge, large, vast Canada has vast tracts of stunning, unspoilt scenery.
- N+of land country, ground, land, landscape, territory Vineyards were no longer confined to a few places, but extended over large tracts of country.
- woods or forest forest, rainforest, woodland It is an ancient tract of woodland running along a deep rocky cleft.
- fields and countryside countryside, farmland, meadow There are extensive and productive tracts of meadow in the parish.
- exposed land grassland, heathland, moor, moorland, wilderness Its vast tracts of wilderness and miles of spectacular coastline mean that it is a magnet for those who enjoy the big outdoors.

trade N

the activities of buying and selling goods

- adj+N fair ethical, fair He heard a first-hand account of how fair trade is helping to lift whole communities out of poverty.
- unfair unfair For every dollar the West gives in aid to developing countries, it takes two back through unfair trade.
- illegal illegal, illicit Many small carnivores in Vietnam are threatened due to illegal trade.
- without restrictions free The message was that the advantage of joining the EEC was to become a member of a common market in which free trade was encouraged between the countries.
- between countries cross-border, foreign, global, international, overseas He devoted himself to the internal security of his land and promoted domestic and foreign trade.
- in your own country domestic The riverfront became increasingly important as overseas and domestic trade expanded.
- between two groups or countries bilateral, two-way In terms of economy and trade, Taiwan's bilateral trade with Japan in 2004 totaled US$56.83 billion.

- v+N control trade control, govern, regulate The government must continue activities to regulate cross-border trade.
- increase trade boost, expand, increase The historic bridge is set to reopen to traffic in a few weeks, which should further boost trade.
- make trade easier facilitate, liberalize It is not intended to facilitate online trade.
- encourage trade encourage, promote, stimulate In January 1699, towns were allowed to elect their own officials, collect revenue and stimulate trade.
- make trade harder affect, disrupt, hinder, impede, restrict, suppress The new barriers hinder trade and investment. ◉ It emerged that rules that have existed in Britain for many years were on shaky ground under EU law because they may restrict free trade between member states.

tradition N

a very old custom, belief, or story

- adj+N old age-old, ancient, long, long-standing, old, time-honoured The true charm of the country runs beyond the wonder of ancient traditions.
- good fine, proud, rich, strong Bournemouth has a proud tradition of horticultural excellence.
- types of tradition classical, cultural, family, folk, literary, musical, religious, spiritual As C. S. Lewis has observed: once you have rejected a part of a religious tradition, you have rejected the entire tradition.

- v+N follow a tradition continue in, follow, keep with, uphold The 7th Earl, following family tradition, lives in Kenya.
- continue a tradition carry on, continue, maintain, perpetuate, preserve They in turn will continue the tradition with their own children and remember those special times.
- honour a tradition celebrate, honour, respect We want to show the older generation that we honour their traditions and value their memories and wisdom.
- start following a tradition again re-establish, revive The school has recently revived the tradition of academic scholarships.
- receive a tradition from someone inherit Inheriting the Greek traditions and knowledge, the ancient Romans also valued Ginger for its 'culinary and medicinal uses.'
- establish a tradition establish, invent ATTIK has established a tradition of working with students throughout their studies to globally showcase the opportunities there are in Yorkshire.
- stop following a tradition abandon, break, reject Left to our own devices, we readily abandon our traditions.
- not follow tradition break with, depart from She broke with family tradition by marrying and staying married to the same person for 34 years!
- have a lot of tradition be steeped in The village of Visa is located in Mezoseg, Transylvania, and is steeped in tradition.
- come from tradition be based on, be built on, belong to, be rooted in, come from, derive from, stem from 'Halloween' on the last night of October is thought to have derived from an ancient Celtic tradition.

traditional ADJ relating to or based on old things

- adv+ADJ very deeply, highly, really INFORMAL, strictly, truly, very This is a very traditional and beautiful Savoyard restaurant.
- ▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, relatively, somewhat Kershaw's painting style is relatively traditional.
- ▸ in a pleasant way charmingly, delightfully, wonderfully For many people, holiday cottages in Spain conjure up images of charmingly traditional buildings nestling in the wild and unspoilt countryside of Andalucia.
- ADJ+n form, method, model, practice, style, system, technique, view, way Rooms are simply furnished in traditional style.

traffic N
vehicles travelling in an area at a particular time

- adj+N coming towards you oncoming I feel like a rabbit caught in the headlights of oncoming traffic.
- ▸ when there is a lot of traffic busy, dense, heavy, horrendous The traffic was horrendous.
- ▸ when there is not much traffic light Local diversions, suitable for light traffic, will also be set up.
- ▸ at the busiest time of the day peak, rush-hour Rush-hour traffic might flow better if traffic lights were set at random.
- ▸ slow slow, slow-moving The majority of these accidents occur when motorbikes collide with stationary or slow-moving traffic.
- ▸ fast fast-moving, speeding People are fed up with speeding traffic on their roads.
- ▸ not moving congested, gridlocked, stationary I was faced with around 2 miles of almost stationary traffic!
- ▸ passing through a place through All through traffic would be directed onto a network of arterial roads.
- v+N direct traffic somewhere direct, rout At present, traffic was directed away from, and not through, the village.
- ▸ send traffic in a different direction divert, redirect, reroute For three hours there was chaos, with traffic diverted.
- ▸ slow or control traffic calm, control, regulate, slow (down) Can anything be done to slow the traffic in this area of the town?
- ▸ block or stop traffic block, disrupt, halt, obstruct, stop Traffic was severely disrupted throughout the area as lakes formed across main roads.
- ▸ increase traffic attract, generate, increase, induce All the evidence shows that building more roads generates more traffic.
- ▸ reduce traffic curb, cut, discourage, reduce, restrict They need a relief road to reduce traffic through the narrow country roads.
- ▸ be in traffic be in, be stuck in No one enjoys being stuck in traffic.
- ▸ drive through traffic dodge, drive through, weave through Cyclists dash through intersections, dodging traffic.
- N+v move in a direction head for, travel Priority is given to traffic travelling from the south.
- ▸ move continuously flow, keep moving Police have to try and keep traffic flowing at road traffic accidents.
- ▸ slow down or stop slow (down), stop Traffic slowed down considerably whilst drivers gawped at this unusual sight.
- ▸ not move queue Buses were delayed by traffic queuing at the traffic lights.
- ▸ move quickly or noisily roar, rumble, speed, thunder, whiz The traffic thunders down the Cold Ash Hill and can barely stop at the roundabout.
- ▸ move slowly crawl The snow fell during the day, while traffic was crawling along the roads.
- ▸ obstruct a place choke sth, clog sth Transport 2000 believes congestion charging offers a new way forward for cities choked by traffic.
- N+n when there is too much traffic congestion, jam, queue Do expect traffic jams during rush hour.
- ▸ control control, management, monitoring, reduction, regulation We need new approaches to transportation, traffic management and parking.
- ▸ movement flow, movement Despite schemes to improve traffic flows, motorists are still spending a lot of time in traffic jams.
- ▸ pollution fumes, pollution Traffic fumes are a major cause of breathing problems.
- ▸ delays delays, disruption There are special delivery 'windows' to minimise traffic disruption and nuisance.
- ▸ amount density, volume Lower traffic volumes could potentially result in fewer casualties.

tragedy N
a very sad event causing people to suffer

- adj+N very bad appalling, awful, horrific, terrible, unspeakable Our thoughts and prayers are with those affected by this week's terrible tragedies.
- ▸ affecting people's lives human, humanitarian War will cause a humanitarian tragedy and a political crisis.
- ▸ affecting a particular person personal He experienced a personal tragedy when his son Hamnet died in 1596.
- ▸ going to happen soon impending A mood of impending tragedy hangs over their lives.
- v+N avoid or prevent a tragedy avert, avoid, prevent What actions might have averted the tragedies that rate among the worst in human history?
- ▸ experience a tragedy be affected by, be blighted by, be devastated by, be hit by, be touched by, experience, suffer In 1881, he suffered a tragedy when his brother Dante died suddenly.
- ▸ end in tragedy end in, lead to, result in, turn into The gang corners Jim and challenges him to take part in a car race which ends in tragedy.
- ▸ deal with tragedy cope with, deal with, react to, respond to We humans use different ways to cope with a tragedy.
- N+v happen, occur, strike, unfold We should be using the world-wide coalition to address the humanitarian tragedy unfolding before us.

tragic ADJ
causing or involving great sadness

- adv+ADJ very or particularly absolutely, deeply, particularly, really INFORMAL, so INFORMAL, truly, utterly, very It was particularly tragic that such an accident occurred following what was a happy family occasion. ◦ The death of this beautiful young woman is truly tragic.
- ▸ rather quite, rather, somewhat It's rather tragic that the band were at their very best just as the lead singer was mentally disintegrating.
- ▸ possibly potentially When automatic gates to these lakes open, a potentially tragic situation could arise.
- ADJ+n event accident, death, event, incident, loss, murder At first, they thought he died in a tragic accident.
- ▸ situation circumstances Michael died under tragic circumstances in a hotel room in Sydney.
- ▸ ending or result consequences, ending, fate The play tells the story of a young arsonist and the tragic consequences of his crimes.
- ▸ mistake miscalculation, mistake, misunderstanding The police said that Mr de Menezes' death was a tragic mistake that will not be repeated.

trained ADJ with all the necessary skills and qualifications

- adv+ADJ well highly, well The review found that staff are well trained and have a high level of awareness of the needs of patients.
- ▸ in the right way adequately, appropriately, properly, suitably Make sure that your operator is properly trained and confident in the application of eartags.
- ▸ badly inadequately, poorly Poorly trained or unscrupulous firms often won out at the expense of quality and the consumer.
- ▸ completely fully Every windscreen is replaced by fully trained fitters.
- ▸ specially specially This service is staffed by specially trained volunteers.
- ▸ having proper qualifications professionally Our professionally trained advisers can also assist with dispute resolution on equality and diversity issues.
- ▸ of actors or musicians, traditionally classically Michael is a classically trained actor.
- ▸ in medicine medically Whilst not medically trained, Alex has combat medical experience from Iraq and West Africa.

training N
the process of training people for a job or activity

- adj+N thorough comprehensive, extensive, full, in-depth, intensive, rigorous, thorough Previous experience is not essential as full training will be given relevant to the role.
- ▸ good effective, excellent The effective use of any information system requires effective training.
- ▸ suitable or enough adequate, appropriate, proper, relevant, sufficient, suitable The need to offer appropriate training to staff cannot be understated.
- ▸ not suitable or enough inadequate, minimal Insufficient employer support and inadequate training are the most common complaints.
- ▸ basic basic, essential, necessary They need to invest much more heavily in basic training in IT for all the staff.
- ▸ more or continuing additional, continuous, extra, further, more, ongoing If the institution would like ongoing training, it can be arranged.
- ▸ formal formal, professional NYDC is a company for young dancers that have not yet gone through professional training.
- ▸ special special, specialist, specialized, specific Certain dangerous machines require special training and may not be used by persons under 18 years of age.
- ▸ in your company in-house, in-service, on-site When a non-officer is due for promotion, he or she has to undergo in-service training for two months and pass an exam in order to be promoted to the level of officer.
- ▸ involving actual work hands-on, on-the-job, work-based There is no substitute for hands-on training.
- ▸ for a job vocational The course is of benefit both to those coming fresh from undergraduate degrees or vocational training.

- v+N do training attend, do, engage in, go through, participate in, pursue, undergo, undertake Managers are currently undergoing training on work-life balance.
- ▸ receive training get, receive Here he received training for the priesthood.
- ▸ give training conduct, deliver, give, offer, provide The Masters in Financial Economics (MFE) is a full-time nine-month programme that will provide outstanding training in the tools of financial economics.
- ▸ organize training arrange, organize Staff can come in and work on their own or we can arrange group training to suit.
- ▸ start training begin, commence, embark on, start She would like to embark on further training.
- ▸ complete training complete, finish Those who successfully complete their training may be suitable for employment in many areas of the sport, leisure or recreation industry.
- ▸ not have enough training lack, need Many teachers lack training to properly teach sports to disabled pupils.

- N+n course course, initiative, module, package, plan, programme, scheme We have run training courses in many hospitals.
- ▸ meeting or event day, event, seminar, session, workshop This was a really inspiring and well thought out training session.
- ▸ place centre, establishment The building was previously a training centre to teach women how to bricklay.
- ▸ organization organization, provider You can gain useful knowledge through talking to the training providers.
- ▸ books, videos etc aid, manual, materials, pack, resources, video The training materials can be used again and again, providing a cost-effective way for staff to gain new skills.
- ▸ activity activity, exercise Below is a planning worksheet taken from a recent training exercise.

trait N
a particular quality in someone's character

- adj+N good admirable, desirable, endearing, good You seem to be a bit apologetic for being judgemental, and that is, in general an admirable trait.

- ▶ bad annoying, bad, undesirable He was displaying all the annoying traits that his father displayed during their marriage.
- ▶ characteristic characteristic, distinctive, distinguishing His most distinctive trait was a deep, incredibly gravelly voice.
- ▶ in someone's behaviour or thinking behavioural, character, personality, psychological Individuals may show obsessive behavioural traits.
- ▶ typical of a type of person autistic, masculine, psychopathic Eight years later, Luke has severe learning disabilities, chronic epilepsy and autistic traits.

- • v+N have a trait display, exhibit, have, possess, show Pilots tend to possess such traits as leadership, dominance, alertness, achievement, and consistency of behaviour.
- ▶ when a trait is passed on from someone acquire, inherit Of course she inherits other traits from me – her cooking, her humour, her allergy to housework!

tranquil ADJ calm, still, and quiet

- • adv+ADJ very so INFORMAL, truly, very Surrounded by wonderful countryside with a huge variety of wildlife on site, it is truly tranquil.
- ▶ in a good way beautifully, delightfully, wonderfully The hotel occupies a wonderfully tranquil spot amongst the olive and pine trees.
- ▶ rather fairly, relatively The eastern coast contrasts with the western and southern coasts as it is fairly tranquil.

- • ADJ+n place countryside, haven, oasis, retreat, setting, spot, surroundings It is a small farm, set in the beautiful and tranquil surroundings of the Blackmore Vale.
- ▶ atmosphere ambience, atmosphere Take a moment to sit down and enjoy the tranquil atmosphere.

- • and/or quiet or calm calm, peaceful, quiet, relaxing, secluded, serene The manicured garden offers a tranquil and peaceful setting.
- ▶ beautiful beautiful, idyllic, picturesque, scenic, unspoilt Whilst the setting is tranquil and picturesque, access to major road, rail and airport links are close by.

transaction N an action of buying or selling something

- • adj+N dishonest fraudulent, suspicious It's easier for a human to spot fraudulent transactions than a machine.
- ▶ honest legitimate I confirm that the transaction is legitimate.
- ▶ involving money cash, currency, finance, financial, monetary Banks use encryption methods all around the world to process financial transactions.
- ▶ between businesses commercial, corporate She specialises in commercial property transactions.
- ▶ using the Internet electronic, online Encryption is at the heart of secure electronic transactions.

- • v+N make a transaction carry out, conduct, do, enter into, execute, make, perform, undertake Many people are still wary about using the Internet when making financial transactions.
- ▶ complete a transaction complete, conclude, finalise, settle Press F5 to complete the transaction.
- ▶ deal with a transaction deal with, handle, manage, process The Service handles financial transactions totalling around 0.5 billion pounds annually.
- ▶ cancel a transaction cancel, clear, void, withdraw from I'm trying to take steps to cancel the transaction.
- ▶ allow a transaction allow, authenticate, authorise The use of signatures to authorise credit card transactions was phased out.
- ▶ record a transaction log, record Record all transactions as you spend so that there are no surprises when your bank statement arrives.

transcript N
a written copy of the exact words someone said

- • adj+N complete/not complete complete, full, partial, uncorrected, unedited, verbatim You can read a full transcript of her interview here.
- ▶ not published or official unofficial, unpublished The Society's unpublished transcripts can be consulted in the Archives section.
- ▶ official certified, official You will need to bring with you an official transcript from the overseas institution showing your results.

- • N+of conference, conversation, debate, interview, lecture, presentation, proceedings, session, speech, tape Some scenes present authentic dialogue from transcripts of conversations.

transfer N
the process of moving to a different job in the same organization

- • adj+N easy easy, seamless, smooth, successful There has been a smooth transfer of staff into PASA.
- ▶ permanent permanent He joined Chesterfield originally on loan, but with a view to a permanent transfer.
- ▶ inside a company internal Where possible, the company will provide opportunities for internal transfer.

- • v+N make a transfer make His transfer was made at the request of Dr. Richard Kracowski.
- ▶ ask for a transfer request Mark requested a transfer in February 2002.
- ▶ get a transfer get In 2005, he got his next transfer when he was made checker in the same department.
- ▶ offer or give someone a transfer give sb, offer sb She was offered a transfer to another department.
- ▶ give permission for someone's transfer approve, authorize If the transfer is approved, it is the supervisor's responsibility to ensure that the necessary paperwork is done.

transform V make something completely different and much better [usually passive]

- • adv+V completely completely, dramatically, fundamentally, radically, totally, utterly The company has radically transformed its employment practices over the last 3 years.

- quickly immediately, instantly, quickly, rapidly, suddenly Perceptions of the region are being rapidly transformed as a result.
- slowly gradually, slowly People saw the empty butcher's shop being slowly transformed.
- with successful results successfully Sue and Mike have successfully transformed an old barn into a delightful family home.
- in a way that seems impossible magically, miraculously Your document will be magically transformed into a beautiful and legible HTML document.

transformation N

a change into someone or something completely different

- adj+N big complete, dramatic, fundamental, great, major, massive, profound, radical, real, significant, total The main shopping area has undergone a major transformation.
- surprising amazing, magical, miraculous, remarkable I first visited the reserve when it still looked like a construction site, since then I have visited twice a year and the transformation is remarkable.
- quick rapid, sudden Visitors can witness first-hand the rapid transformation of a country that has only recently crept from under the doormat of history.
- slow gradual I believe we will see a gradual transformation in cares services with further investment.
- types of transformation cultural, economic, organizational, personal, physical, political, social, spiritual He was a key figure in Poland's post-communist political transformation.

- v+N make or achieve a transformation achieve, effect, make, perform A two-pronged strategy will be necessary to achieve this transformation.
- experience a transformation experience, undergo As you can see, the website has undergone a transformation.
- notice a transformation see, witness It's amazing to see the transformation in people who come to the workshop in despair and without hope.
- complete a transformation complete There was a rush to finish before the end of the day, but the transformation was completed and it looks amazing.
- make a transformation easier facilitate Road freight has facilitated a transformation of business activity through the reduction in business costs.

transition N

the process of changing to a new situation

- adj+N successful easy, effective, seamless, smooth, successful The location of the new nursery has been carefully chosen to present a seamless transition between the private nursery care and that provided by the school.
- difficult difficult, painful She's made the difficult transition from comedy actress to being taken seriously.
- quick abrupt, quick, rapid, sudden After approximately 20 minutes of slow wave sleep there is a quick transition back to stage 2 sleep.
- slow gradual, slow I would have preferred a more gradual transition.
- involving big changes important, major Adolescence is a major life transition.
- without any trouble or violence orderly, painless, peaceful The country was lauded for its peaceful transition to democracy.
- types of transition cultural, democratic, demographic, economic, historical, political, social Comparatively, within Europe, the demographic transition in Finland took place relatively recently.

- v+N make a transition achieve, complete, effect, make He is an actor who has successfully made the transition from television to the stage.
- make a transition easier aid, ease, enable, facilitate, help, smooth This information can help ease the transition from school to university.
- be in charge of a transition manage, oversee She will oversee the transition from the old to the new system.
- experience a transition experience, undergo The field of Radiation Oncology has undergone a radical transition in the last decade.
- show that a transition is happening mark Two pictures in the exhibition mark the transition from Munnings' youthful watercolours to the more mature oils.

- N+n period, phase, process, stage The new measures aim to provide people with additional financial support during the transition period.

translate V

change words into another language

- adv+V in a way that gives the general meaning freely, loosely, roughly The motto 'Vocati Veniemus' may be freely translated as 'when summoned we shall be there'.
- in a way that gives the exact meaning of each word literally The title of Proust's masterpiece, if translated literally into English, is not 'The Remembrance of Things Past', but 'The Search for Past Time'.
- correctly accurately, correctly Getting your business cards accurately translated and properly typeset is absolutely essential.
- usually usually 'Carpe Diem' is usually translated from the Latin as 'seize the day'.

translation N words changed into different language

- adj+N exact direct, exact, faithful, literal Its literal translation from its original Latin is 'to make into a thing'.
- not exact free, rough In a rough translation, 'grk' means brave, generous and foolish, all at the same time.
- good accurate, correct, good Even a good translation is a poor substitute for the original poetic text.
- bad bad, poor The explanations of symbols are in German, with a poor English translation.
- types of translation automatic, computer-assisted, machine, simultaneous, technical Although there remain many outstanding problems, some degree of automatic translation is now a daily reality.

- v+N do, find, make, produce, provide Some difficult terms may require lengthy research in order to find a suitable translation. ◆ Translations are made into Russian, Egyptian Arabic, Spanish and Portuguese.

transmit V

spread something from one person to another

- adv+V easily easily, readily The disease is easily transmitted by skin contact, so keep affected areas covered.
- ▸ in a physical way genetically, orally, sexually Cystic fibrosis is genetically transmitted. ◉ His work was transmitted orally for over 200 years.
- ▸ in an electronic way electronically They issued a weekly bulletin which was transmitted electronically to library staff across the country.

- V+n disease disease, infection, virus The disease is transmitted from one dog to another by contact with infected faeces.
- ▸ information or ideas data, idea, information, knowledge, message, values How are we to transmit religious values to the next generation?

transparent ADJ

not hiding information

- adv+ADJ completely, entirely, fully, highly, sufficiently, totally We found that the committee's policies and procedures were not sufficiently transparent.

- ADJ+n system or method approach, manner, mechanism, procedure, process, system, way A fair and transparent system of paying employees reduces the risks of being taken to a costly tribunal.
- ▸ information criterion, decision, information, policy It's important that such decisions are transparent and can be justified publicly.
- ▸ management or government government, management At a public level, the G8 demand transparent government and an end to corruption.

- and/or accountable, clear, consistent, democratic, effective, efficient, equitable, fair, honest, inclusive, open, simple More serious complaints will be managed by us in an open and transparent way.

transplant N

an operation to put a new organ into the body

- v+N have a transplant get, have, receive, undergo I had a kidney transplant in 1996.
- ▸ do a transplant carry out, do, perform The hospital performs several transplants every month and donors are drawn from a national list.
- ▸ need a transplant await, need, require He is awaiting a liver transplant.
- ▸ react badly to a transplant reject Drugs are used to prevent your immune system from rejecting the transplant.

- N+n person who has a transplant patient, recipient Transplant patients are typically referred to the transplant unit at Aberdeen Royal Infirmary.
- ▸ operation operation, surgery Pat's transplant operation was carried out at the Royal Liverpool Hospital.
- ▸ person or people who do the transplant surgeon, team A specialist transplant surgeon will look at all your test results and decide whether you are likely to make a good recovery from the surgery.
- ▸ person who gives the organ donor Time was running out for Steve, as the search for a transplant donor failed.
- ▸ rejection rejection Our goal is to identify the factors underlying organ transplant rejection.

transport N

the business of moving people using vehicles

- adj+N for anyone to use public We hope that providing accurate information will encourage more people to use public transport.
- ▸ good accessible, affordable, efficient, excellent, good, reliable Efficient, fast, reliable transport is vital to our future prosperity.
- ▸ bad inadequate, poor City centre shops suffer if transport is poor.
- ▸ in a particular area local, rural, urban Improved funding of rural transport is required to address the social exclusion of people living in rural areas.
- ▸ free or cheap cheap, free Offering cheap transport is one way of encouarging people to use buses and trains.
- ▸ that can continue without harming the environment sustainable Leeds has campaigned within Europe for the need to develop sustainable transport.
- ▸ local local The area is well served by local public transport.

- v+N arrange, improve, offer, organize, provide, use The government has promised to improve transport in our cities. ◉ A trolley bus service offers transport around the main tourist areas.

- N+n system facilities, infrastructure, network, provision, service, system The county has a reliable public transport network.
- ▸ connection connection, link The town has excellent public transport links.
- ▸ company that provides transport company, operator, provider Arriva is a successful public transport operator in many European countries.
- ▸ businesses that provide transport industry, sector The research investigates the effects of privatising the transport industry.
- ▸ plans plan, planning, policy, scheme, strategy Transport policy is now high up on the political agenda.
- ▸ person using transport user The study aims to seek the views of transport users.
- ▸ a place where you can get transport to many places hub Santiago-Benitez International Airport is the main transport hub for Chile.

transportation N

the activity or system of moving people or things

- adj+N easy, efficient, safe Many options exist for the storage and safe transportation of rifles and handguns.

- v+N arrange, provide All items are sold as seen and the buyer will be required to arrange transportation.

- N+n infrastructure, link, network, service, system The reality is that today's transportation infrastructure can no longer cope with the demands we are placing on it.

trap N a trick

- v+N set a trap lay, set, spring So, the police set a trap to catch their murderer.
- ▸ be deceived by a trap be lured into, walk into They walked into a trap they should have seen.
- ▸ avoid avoid, escape, evade He won through, avoiding the trap set for him.

trappings N possessions showing someone is rich or powerful

- adj+N traditional, usual Despite international success, she had none of the usual trappings of fame.
- v+N have trappings acquire, enjoy, have He has the trappings of a multimillionaire – 5 luxury homes, a Ferrari, a Rolls-Royce, a private jet and a yacht in the south of France.
- ▸ not have trappings avoid, eschew, shun He had a BMW but otherwise shunned the trappings of capitalism.
- N+of fame, life, power, success, wealth Cruise is a rich man who enjoys all the trappings of wealth.

trauma N a bad experience that upsets someone

- adj+N types of trauma emotional, mental, personal, psychological Anyone being routinely abused is likely to experience emotional trauma that can cause depression.
- ▸ severe acute, deep, major, serious, severe, significant, terrible The victims have suffered a significant trauma as a result of the attack.
- ▸ happening recently/in the past past, recent Counselling can help you to resolve any past traumas that have contributed to your current thinking.
- v+N suffer a trauma experience, face, suffer, undergo Many victims of child abuse have to face the trauma of describing personal details of their abuse in front of strangers.
- ▸ cause a trauma for someone inflict Divorce can inflict trauma on children.
- ▸ successfully deal with a trauma heal, overcome, survive Happily, our small household has survived the traumas of an international move, and we are settling into our new lifestyle.
- ▸ avoid a trauma avoid, prevent To avoid the trauma of appearing in court, the victim was allowed to give evidence by a remote link.
- ▸ make a trauma less bad lessen, minimize, reduce We offer counselling to soldiers to reduce the trauma and long term effects of being in a war zone.

traumatic ADJ making you feel very upset or shocked

- adv+ADJ very deeply, extremely, particularly, very The death of a child is extremely traumatic for parents.
- ▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite Searching for a lost pet can be quite traumatic.
- ▸ in a particular way emotionally, psychologically Domestic abuse is a psychologically traumatic experience.
- ADJ+n situation or experience change, circumstances, episode, event, experience, incident, situation Memories of the traumatic event may surface in the form of flashbacks.
- ▸ time childhood, period, time, week, year James had many insecurities, probably derived from his traumatic childhood. ◆ This was a traumatic time, from which we shall never totally recover.
- ▸ effect effect, impact Never underestimate the traumatic effects of a major crisis on people's lives.
- ▸ memory memory It is a strange thing that you can suppress a traumatic memory for decades and then it comes back in the form of nightmares.
- and/or difficult, painful, stressful The breakdown of any marriage is bound to be a painful and traumatic time.

travel V go to different places

- adv+V to many places extensively, far and wide, widely Jamie travels extensively to support youth projects in Europe and Lebanon.
- ▸ to foreign countries abroad, internationally, overseas, worldwide They are based in Lancashire, U.K., but are prepared to travel worldwide for gigs.
- ▸ without any legal limits freely We Americans cherish our ability to travel freely.
- ▸ without someone else's help alone, independently Many people prefer to travel independently rather than take package holidays.
- ▸ often frequently, often, regularly If you travel frequently, for business or for pleasure, these new language courses might be of interest to you.

traveller N someone who is travelling

- adj+N having travelled often experienced, frequent, regular, seasoned Like many seasoned travellers, Buerk has learned to cope with jet-lag.
- ▸ who enjoys travelling avid, great, keen Spottiswoode was always a keen traveller and he visited several countries.
- ▸ having good judgement discerning Summerwood is a luxury hotel offering stylish accommodation for the discerning traveller.
- ▸ going to places that not many people go to adventurous, intrepid For many years, Cambodia was off limits to all but the most intrepid travellers.
- ▸ travelling without other people lone, single, solo We have as many single travellers as we do couples, so don't feel worried about booking on your own.
- ▸ travelling to foreign countries foreign, international, overseas For international travellers, Birmingham is served by two airports: Birmingham International and East Midlands.
- ▸ travelling to the same place as you fellow You can use the website to check hotel and resort reviews posted by fellow travellers.
- ▸ tired weary The hotel offers a high standard of comfort for the weary traveller.
- ▸ making your own arrangements and not using a travel company independent The 'Peru Traveller Guide' is an excellent source of information for the independent traveller to Peru.
- ▸ similar to you like-minded Volunteer holidays are a great way to meet other like-minded travellers.
- n+N a traveller for work/pleasure business, holiday, leisure The New Yorker, with its excellent location, represents excellent value for money for both the business and leisure traveller.

- ▸ a traveller using a particular method of transport air, bus, coach, rail, train Bad weather brought delays and cancellations for rail travellers.
- ▸ a traveller who wants to travel cheaply budget For budget travellers, cheap accommodation is widely available throughout Malaysia.

treason N
the crime of helping your country's enemies

- v+N commit Any baron who disobeyed this royal command would be committing treason, which carried the death penalty.
- n+of+N accusation, act, charge, offence He was put on trial on charges of treason.

treat V
1 deal with someone or something in a particular way

- adv+V in a good or fair way appropriately, correctly, equally, equitably, fairly, humanely, properly, sensitively The FSA has a general duty to ensure consumers are treated fairly.
- ▸ in a bad or unfair way badly, harshly, inadequately, poorly, unfairly, unjustly If you think you have been treated unfairly, you're entitled to make a complaint.
- ▸ in a different or separate way differently, individually, separately Why is death caused by driving treated differently from death caused in any other circumstance?
- ▸ in a secret way confidentially All information will be treated confidentially.
- ▸ in a special or better way favourably, specially Employers must ensure that male employees are not treated less favourably than female employees, and vice versa. ✵ They should stop expecting to be treated specially.
- ▸ in a serious way seriously Dreams are treated seriously in many cultures and are often assumed to be messages from the spirit world.

- V+with kindness, politeness, or fairness care, compassion, consideration, courtesy, dignity, fairness, kindness, respect, reverence, sensitivity Refugees and asylum seekers must be treated with dignity and human respect.
- ▸ doubt and suspicion caution, scepticism, suspicion Any offer that does not give you a chance to think about it should be treated with suspicion.
- ▸ a lack of respect contempt, derision, disdain, disrespect, scorn He treats his parents with complete contempt.
- ▸ an assurance that something will be kept secret confidence, confidentiality All enquiries are treated with the strictest confidence.

2 cure a patient or illness using medical methods

- adv+V successfully adequately, effectively, successfully Many types of cancer can be successfully treated if caught early enough.
- ▸ quickly promptly, quickly These diseases can be fatal if not recognized and treated quickly.
- ▸ by an operation or drugs medically, surgically All microadenomas should be treated surgically.

- V+n an illness or injury addiction, condition, disease, disorder, illness, infection, injury, pain, problem, symptom Some optometrists may also recommend and prescribe drops to treat eye conditions.
- ▸ a particular illness cancer, depression, arthritis etc Zispin belongs to the group of medicines called antidepressants that are used to treat depression.
- ▸ a person casualty, patient A doctor has no authority to treat the patient unless consent is given.

treat N
something special that you do or buy

- adj+N tasting nice delicious, indulgent, sweet, tasty There's ice cream and food galore, with tasty treats to tempt all the family.
- ▸ real absolute, big, great, real, special, wonderful Our biggest treat as kids was to enjoy a pork pie with baked beans for our lunch.
- ▸ because it is a particular time of year festive, seasonal Festive treats will be available in the form of mulled wine and mince pies.
- ▸ done or happening only rarely occasional, rare We didn't have much money, so going to the theatre was a rare treat.
- ▸ small little, small I bought my daughter a little treat because she'd been so brave.
- ▸ that you were not expecting unexpected The opportunity to visit Tokyo was an unexpected treat.

treatment N
1 the process of providing medical care

- adj+N done immediately emergency, immediate, prompt, urgent These are signs of severe liver damage and require urgent medical treatment.
- ▸ involving drugs or operations conventional, traditional Conventional treatment is usually by anti-inflammatory drugs.
- ▸ involving methods not used by most doctors complementary, holistic The idea behind complementary treatment is that the body is capable of healing itself naturally.
- ▸ involving many different things to achieve success aggressive, intensive Aggressive treatment of sudden and severe pain may reduce the odds of developing chronic pain.
- ▸ continuing for a long time long-term Long-term treatment with beta-blockers may reduce the risks of further bleeding.
- ▸ successful effective Without long term research we are never going to find a cure or effective treatments.
- ▸ types of treatment clinical, dental, medical, psychiatric, psychological, specialist, surgical, therapeutic In most cases, surgical treatment permanently corrects the disease.

- n+N hospital, in-patient, outpatient Radiotherapy can be given as inpatient or outpatient treatment.

- v+N get treatment get, have, obtain, receive, undergo Before you receive any treatment, the doctor will explain to you what he or she intends do.
- ▸ give someone treatment administer, carry out, give, offer, provide No treatment is carried out without your consent.
- ▸ ask for treatment seek An infected abscess won't go away on its own, you really need to seek medical treatment.

- start/stop treatment begin, discontinue, initiate, start, stop, withdraw When treatment was stopped, the hair loss recurred.
- need treatment need, require She received cuts to her right leg requiring hospital treatment.
- say you do not want treatment refuse His parents refused treatment on religious grounds.
- say someone should have a particular treatment prescribe One of the treatments now prescribed for CFS is graded exercise therapy.
- have a good result from treatment respond to Some cancers respond to treatment such as chemotherapy and others do not.

- N+n plan package, plan, programme, regime, regimen, schedule, strategy Your age will be taken into account when deciding on the best treatment plan.
- method method, technique The centre helps heroin addicts who are not responding to conventional treatment methods.
- place where treatment is done centre, room There are twelve massage rooms and two treatment rooms.
- choice option The doctor will discuss treatment options with you.
- time when treatment is given session A normal treatment session costs £35.
- prevent somone getting treatment deny, withhold Older patients should not be denied treatment because of their age.

2 the general way in which people are dealt with

- adj+N degrading, fair, favourable, humane, inhuman, special, unfair, unfavourable There can be no circumstances in which torture or degrading treatment can be excused or justified.
- v+N deserve, mete out, receive A major form of discrimination is the unequal treatment meted out to agency staff, compared with those on fixed-term contracts.

treaty N

an official written agreement between countries

- adj+N international global, international There are international treaties concerning good stewardship of the Earth's resources.
- involving two/several countries bilateral, multilateral There have been calls for a multilateral treaty on nuclear disarmament.
- that a country must legally obey binding 48 countries have now ratified the first legally binding treaty on biodiversity for food and agriculture.
- formal and official formal Under a formal peace treaty signed in 1947, the Finns agreed to cede territory to the then USSR.
- types of treaty arms, climate, constitutional, environmental, extradition, human rights, nuclear non-proliferation, peace Several of those countries do not have extradition treaties with the United States.

- v+N sign a treaty conclude, enter into, join, make, sign In 1783, the Americans and the British signed a peace treaty in Paris, France.
- accept a treaty accept, agree, approve, ratify Denmark had to be granted opt-outs from these provisions before the treaty was approved in 1993.
- not agree a treaty oppose, reject, withdraw from The treaty was opposed by the Christian majority.
- start to use a treaty adopt, implement Failure to implement the treaty would result in the United Kingdom being in breach of its international obligations.
- not obey a treaty breach, break, violate Severe penalties will be imposed on anybody involved in activities that violate the treaty.
- change the details of a treaty alter, amend, renegotiate The Commission should ask the member-states to amend the treaties.
- discuss things before making a treaty negotiate He later became Earl of Strafford and negotiated the treaty of Utrecht in 1713.
- get rid of a treaty abrogate Britain agreed to abrogate a treaty which stated that the US and Britain would share control of the canal
- start to write the details of a treaty which may be changed draft These problems could hardly have been imagined when the original UN drug control treaties were drafted.

- N+v allow sth, ban sth, establish sth, give sth, govern sth, prohibit, provide, require sth In December 1988, an international treaty banning the dumping of plastics from ships went into effect.

tremble V

shake, for example because of fear

- adv+V a lot uncontrollably, violently, visibly I thought he had been taken ill, his face was a shade of grey and he shook visibly.

If someone is trembling a lot, you can also use the phrase tremble like a leaf: When I got out of the glider I was trembling like a leaf.

- a little slightly, somewhat Davis, his hand shaking somewhat, had begun to pour drinks.

- V+with anger, emotion, excitement, fear, fright, laughter, rage He was shaking with fright.

tremendous ADJ

extremely great, important, or strong

- adv+ADJ absolutely, really, truly The response of the audience was really tremendous.

- ADJ+n amount amount, number, range, value, variety It has taken a tremendous amount of hard work to get me to this stage.
- success or achievement achievement, success, victory Dalglish enjoyed tremendous success as both a player and a manager.
- strength or speed, or effort effort, energy, force, pace, power, pressure, speed, strength The car hit the tree with tremendous force.
- feeling or quality enthusiasm, fun, importance, interest, respect, sense, spirit I also retain a tremendous sense of achievement from the whole thing.
- advantage advantage, benefit, privilege The English language offers the UK a tremendous advantage for the development of content provision over the Internet.
- help and support contribution, help, support I want to thank everyone in the community for the tremendous support I've had.

- result or effect effect, impact, influence, result Our buying habits have a tremendous impact on the environment.
- change, especially to something bigger or better advance, boost, change, difference, growth, improvement, increase, progress Healthcare has undergone tremendous changes during the last decade.

trend N

a gradual change or development producing a particular result

- adj+N becoming bigger or better accelerating, growing, increasing, positive, rising, upward There is a growing trend towards online shopping.
- becoming less or worse declining, downward, negative This marked the beginning of a downward trend in property prices.
- happening now or recently contemporary, current, the latest, modern, new, present, prevailing, recent On current trends, we are confident of another year of progress.
- happening in the future future This research seeks to identify future crime trends.
- happening over a long period of time longer-term, long-term Figures reveal a long-term trend towards greater inclusion of disabled students in mainstream schools.
- happening in a particular place global, international, local, national Crime detection rates have bucked national trends.
- clear clear, definite, dominant, strong There was a strong trend for a large section of the male population to remain unpartnered.
- making you feel worried disturbing, worrying The rise in votes for fascist parties was a worrying trend.
- important important, key, main, major, significant The most significant trend is the growth in the sale of organic foods.
- general broad, general, overall, underlying The population has fluctuated, but the underlying trend is not easy to discern.
- more general wider The figures do not necessarily reflect wider trends in the industry.
- starting to exist emerging Chapter 10 looks at emerging trends in social behaviour.
- types of trend cultural, demographic, economic, historical, political, social Business surveys provided factual information on economic trends.

- n+N business business, consumer, employment, growth, industry, market, price, sales, technology Last year, Skoda sold almost 38,000 new cars in the UK, a record for the company and bucking market trends.
- weather and climate climate, temperature The study could shed new light on present climate trends.
- people and society crime, design, fashion, health, lifestyle, population, shopping On the whole, health trends are improving.

- v+N find or notice a trend detect, establish, find, identify, notice, observe, see, spot All this information is reviewed to identify trends and, where appropriate, early action is taken on specific problems.
- show a trend highlight, illustrate, indicate, reflect, represent, reveal, show The latest figures show a downward trend.
- study a trend analyse, assess, examine, explore, monitor, review, study, track The study examined trends in employment.
- try to guess what a trend will be anticipate, determine, forecast, predict Dynamical seasonal forecast models are used to predict major climate trends up to four months ahead.
- do something that is different from the trend buck, counter Most towns suffered a downturn in shopping over Christmas, but shops in Bedford bucked the national trend.
- to stop a trend and make it change halt, reverse More people are abandoning city centres in favour of out-of-town shopping malls, and we want to reverse this trend.
- be the same as a trend continue, follow, mirror The city has followed the national trend of the decline in the mining and manufacturing sectors.
- make a trend seem stronger confirm, reinforce, support International mergers have reinforced this trend.
- make a trend happen more quickly accelerate

- N+v a trend shows something indicate sth, show sth, suggest sth Demographic trends show that British people are living longer and having fewer children.
- a trend increases grow, increase There are more elderly people in the country than ever before, and the trend is increasing.
- a trend stops and becomes the opposite reverse Since 1999, however, this trend has reversed.
- a trend starts begin, develop, emerge, start Over the last few years, a rather disturbing trend has emerged.
- a trend continues continue, persist These trends have continued and, in some cases, have accelerated over the past year.
- a trend changes change Shopping trends have changed.

trial N

1 the process of examining a court case

- adj+N fair/unfair fair, unfair In the absence of a fair trial, these men should be released.
- types of trial civil, criminal, full, public She has experience of handling long serious criminal trials in the Crown Court.

- v+N appear in court for a trial be on, go on, stand He is due to stand trial for murder later this month.
- be going to appear in court for a trial in the future await, face She's facing trial on a charge of assault
- go to a trial attend Parents of the murdered girl attended the trial.
- hold a trial hold The trial was held at Newcastle Crown Court.
- make someone have a trial commit sb for, put sb on He was put on trial for rape.
- stop a trial and arrange for it to happen at a later time adjourn The trial was adjourned until Monday.

- N+v collapse The trial collapsed when the prosecution refused to produce witnesses in court.

- N+n court, judge, lawyer Whether this action was legal is a matter for the trial judge after hearing all the evidence.

2 the process of testing a product or plan

- adj+N involving a lot of people or products extensive, large, large-scale, major Extensive trials conducted by our research centre complement work from our manufacturer partners.
- ▸ involving only a few people or products small, small-scale One small trial looked at magnetic treatment plus heat and exercise, and reported no benefit compared with heat and exercise alone.
- ▸ involving people rather than animals human They were about to start human trials of a cancer vaccine.
- ▸ done before other larger trials initial, preliminary Preliminary trials have suggested that 50 to 200 mg per day of the vitamin improved symptoms.
- ▸ types of trial clinical, commercial, controlled, double-blind, medical, randomized, scientific, therapeutic Clinical trials are a scientific way to assess the safety and effectiveness of new drugs.

- v+N do a trial carry out, conduct, do, perform, run, undertake Several trials were conducted to investigate vitamin therapies.
- ▸ have a trial done undergo The device is undergoing trials and could cost as little as £300 if mass-produced.
- ▸ organize a trial organize, plan, set up The researchers are now planning a small human trial to test the effects of the vaccine.
- ▸ provide money for a trial fund Most clinical trials are funded by pharmaceutical companies who are testing new products.

- N+v a trial shows something confirm sth, demonstrate sth, find sth, indicate sth, prove sth, provide sth, report sth, reveal sth, show sth, suggest sth, support sth Many trials suggest a benefit of low doses of aspirin in reducing risk from a second stroke.
- ▸ a trial examines something assess, compare sth, evaluate, examine, investigate, test There is a new clinical trial investigating aspects of the treatment of venous leg ulcers.

- N+n basis, copy, design, period, programme, project, result, scheme, service, session, version The council is running a two year trial battery collection scheme for households.

tribute N

something showing you respect and admire someone

- adj+N good or suitable beautiful, fantastic, fine, fitting, glowing, good, great, real, special, ultimate, unique, wonderful, worthy The creation of this garden in remembrance of Jill is a fitting tribute to her life. ❁ The Beatles Story is the ultimate tribute to the City's most famous sons – John, Paul, George and Ringo.
- ▸ sincere heartfelt, sincere The family has paid a heartfelt tribute to the son they lost in a tragic road crash last week.
- ▸ making you feel emotional moving, touching The poem is a moving tribute to a dead comrade.
- ▸ showing you like someone affectionate, loving, warm After his death, affectionate tributes poured in from around the world.
- ▸ lasting for a very long time lasting As a lasting tribute, the Young Player of the Year award will be renamed in Daphne's memory.
- ▸ sent to a funeral floral, funeral Thank you for all the floral tributes received on the death of a much-loved husband.

- v+N give a tribute add, give, offer, pay, provide, send, write Hundreds of well-wishers paid tribute to Fred's career in education.
- ▸ receive a tribute receive She received many tributes for her work.
- ▸ be the first to give a tribute lead Leading the tributes was the Washington Post, which described the film as 'one of the most winning movie creations in years'.

trickle N

a small amount of liquid flowing slowly

- adj+N small gentle, little, mere, slow, small, thin, tiny A small trickle of blood dribbled from his nose.
- ▸ happening in a steady way constant, steady The well had a constant trickle of water which fell in a pool.

trigger V

make something happen

- V+n an illness asthma, attack, condition, disease, migraine, seizure, symptom Excess alcohol can trigger a seizure, even in people without epilepsy.
- ▸ an event or situation action, attack, change, collapse, crisis, crisis, event, explosion, investigation, problem, war A small spark could trigger another war.
- ▸ a feeling, thought, or memory feeling, idea, interest, memory, need, thought This book will trigger children's interest in where things come from.
- ▸ a discussion debate, discussion, review His comments have triggered a debate about constitutional issues.
- ▸ a process development, process, production, release This reactive state then triggers a process known as oxidation.
- ▸ a reaction effect, reaction, response Running, playing, screaming kids can trigger an instinctive predator-prey reaction in some dogs.

trip N

an occasion when you go somewhere and return

- adj+N good, interesting, or enjoyable enjoyable, excellent, exciting, fantastic, good, great, interesting, memorable, pleasant, special, successful, wonderful, worthwhile It was a great trip during which we caught plenty of fish. ❁ Overall, it was a very enjoyable and memorable trip.
- ▸ long/short brief, extended, long, quick, short We took a short boat trip along the river.
- ▸ how often you make the trip annual, daily, frequent, occasional, regular, weekly We organize regular trips for our international students to local places of interest.
- ▸ to a foreign country foreign, overseas Britons are forecast to take 101 million foreign trips by 2020.
- ▸ in which nothing unusual happens uneventful The trip down was comparatively uneventful.

- n+N the activity you do or the place you visit business, camping, caving, dive, fishing, hunting, sailing, shopping, sightseeing, ski, skiing, study, theatre, walking The children went on camping trips in the mountains.

- the time that the trip lasts for afternoon, day, evening, morning, night, overnight, weekend, two-hour/three-hour, etc, two-week/three-week, etc One of the highlights of the holiday was a day trip to the town of Takarazuka.
- the method of transport or the type of travel boat, bus, car, coach, ferry, river, road, sea, train In the afternoon, there was a coach trip to Highcliffe Castle and Christchurch Priory. ◆ They went on a road trip around eastern Europe.
- the people who are going on the trip family, school, tourist A family trip to South Africa means an amazing adventure for Mandy and James.
- the trip there and back return, round, round-the-world The airline will offer twice daily return trips between London and Prague.

- v+N go on a trip do, go on, have, make, take, undertake Many fans made the trip to Donington to see the band play. ◆ You can take a boat trip along the river.
- arrange a trip arrange, organize, plan We organize regular trips to the coast for our students.
- offer a trip offer, operate, provide, run In addition, we are also running trips to Paris and New York.
- buy tickets for a trip book John has booked another trip out to Almeria.
- not go on a trip that you have tickets for cancel, postpone Take out insurance in case you need to cancel your trip due to illness.
- be in charge of a trip lead I have been leading trips in Orkney since 1975.
- make a trip longer than planned extend We were having such a good time that we decided to extend our trip.

triumph N

a great victory or success

- adj+N great big, complete, glorious, great, major, real This is not his first major triumph of the year.
- types of triumph artistic, electoral, military, Olympic, personal, political The President was asked what he considered to be his greatest political triumph.
- small minor, small Individual victories, small triumphs, can still be achieved even in the context of defeat.
- coming at the end of something eventual, final, ultimate I was pleased with my eventual triumph against every difficulty.
- better than others biggest, greatest, supreme Rodney regarded this battle as his greatest triumph.

- v+N have a triumph achieve, have, score, secure In 1948, he scored his greatest triumph with the show 'Kiss Me, Kate'.
- celebrate a triumph celebrate, mark Harold celebrated his triumph at York.
- be a triumph represent This represents a triumph for the food industry in its long battle with perishability.

- N+of capitalism, democracy, design, engineering, evil, hope, love, revolution, spirit, style, technology, will 'Alive' is a film about the triumph of the human spirit in the face of overwhelming odds.

- n+of+N feeling, look, moment, sense He had a look of triumph as he walked away with his stack of passports. ◆ My moment of triumph came later.

triumphant ADJ

very pleased or excited about a success

- ADJ+n conclusion, debut, march, moment, performance, return, success, team, tour, victory The player made a triumphant return to the game with a performance that helped his team win 26–10.

- v+ADJ emerge, feel, return Pete vanished into the office, and ten minutes later emerged triumphant.

trivial ADJ

not very important, serious, or valuable

- adv+ADJ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, somewhat If you are depressed, you may cry for reasons that seem quite trivial to other people.
- very utterly, very It seemed to her a very trivial offence.
- when compared to other things comparatively, relatively Most injuries were relatively trivial, involving nothing more than cuts and bruises.
- appearing to be trivial apparently, seemingly He was too anxious about seemingly trivial details.

- ADJ+n subject or situation issue, matter, nature, problem, question, reason, thing He is indecisive even in trivial matters.
- fact or detail detail, example, fact, point I didn't want to know all the trivial details.
- mistake error, mistake It was only a trivial mistake.
- injury injury The injuries were trivial and no hospital treatment was required.
- amount amount, sum The amounts were trivial.
- event event, incident, offence Trivial offences don't generally lead to a prison sentence.
- change or difference change, difference There have been a few trivial changes to the document.
- thing you have to do exercise, task Fortunately, it is a relatively trivial task to modify the software.

- v+ADJ appear, be, become, seem, sound A broken wrist or sprained ankle may seem trivial until you try to fasten a button or climb the stairs.

troops N

soldiers, especially in large numbers [always plural]

- n+N coalition, combat, enemy, front-line, government, ground, occupation, shock The government has ruled out sending combat troops.

- v+N use or send troops deploy, dispatch, send, send in Although there was a 78-day air war, ground troops were not deployed.
- promise to send troops commit No decision to commit British troops has been taken.
- move troops into a place land, march in(to), transport Soviet troops marched into Prague in 1968.
- troops go into a place advance, arrive, enter, invade, land, liberate, march, occupy The village was occupied by British troops in March 1917.
- troops leave a place flee, retreat, surrender, withdraw As British troops withdrew from Tiberias, the Jews took their place.
- make troops leave a place evacuate, pull out, retreat, withdraw Protesters are demanding the government pull its troops out of the region.
- be in charge of troops command, order Troops were ordered to disperse the crowd

- N+v troops use force attack, battle, fight, fire, kill, massacre, raid, seize, shoot, storm It's now over 60 years since troops stormed ashore on the beaches of Normandy.

trophy N

a large silver cup or similar object given as a prize

- adj+N coveted, magnificent, major, prestigious Celtic became the first British club to win Europe's most coveted trophy.
- v+N win a trophy claim, clinch, lift, receive, scoop, take, win Brazil are favourites to lift the trophy.
- ▶ give someone a trophy award, present The overall competition winner will be awarded a trophy.
- ▶ be the last winner of a trophy hold England currently holds the trophy.
- ▶ keep a trophy defend, retain This is the first ever Irish team to retain the trophy.

tropical ADJ in or from the hottest parts of the world

- ADJ+n region or place beach, forest, island, jungle, paradise, rainforest, region, sea These bats come from the tropical forests of central and south America.
- ▶ plants or trees flower, foliage, fruit, garden, greenery, hardwood, plant, tree, vegetation There are also greenhouses full of tropical plants.
- ▶ animals fish, species She keeps tropical fish.
- ▶ weather climate, clime, cyclone, depression, monsoon, rainstorm, storm, sun Tobago enjoys a tropical climate.
- ▶ diseases disease, medicine Our research laboratories are dedicated to the study of tropical medicine.

trouble N

problems or difficulties

- adj+N serious big, considerable, deep, desperate, dire, real, serious, terrible I could tell from his face that we were in serious trouble.
- ▶ little less, little You can put a website together with little trouble.

If you say that nothing is too much trouble for someone, you mean that they will do it however difficult or however many problems there are: We offer a family service where nothing is too much trouble.

- ▶ types of trouble financial, mechanical, political Her father had run into financial trouble.
- n+N car, engine, family, money, heart/back/knee etc His plane was turned back owing to engine trouble.
- v+N experience trouble experience, have I was having trouble sleeping.
- ▶ cause trouble bring (sb), cause (sb), foment, give (sb), incite, lead to, make, provoke The virus can cause trouble by consuming your computer's storage space and memory. ◆ Her eyes were giving her trouble that summer.
- ▶ mean trouble mean, spell If these trends continue, it will spell trouble for property markets.
- ▶ be in trouble be in, get in, get into, run into Small businesses can get into trouble because they have to pay VAT before their customers have paid them.
- ▶ be likely to cause trouble be asking for If you borrow more than you can afford to pay back, you are asking for trouble.
- ▶ avoid trouble avoid Recruiting the right person first time will avoid trouble later.
- n+of+N cause, source A computer virus seems to have been the cause of the trouble.

troubled ADJ

worried about or affected by problems

- adv+ADJ very deeply, particularly, very This is the story of a young, deeply troubled man.
- ▶ about money financially Investors bought the financially troubled company in 1937.
- ADJ+n person genius, soul Matt is a troubled soul.
- ▶ young person teen, teenager, youngster, youth She became an angry, troubled teenager.
- ▶ life or events childhood, history, life, marriage, past, relationship, time, world Due to its troubled past, the country has unique challenges to its development.
- ▶ mind conscience, mind From his writings you can see he had a very troubled mind.
- v+ADJ seem to be troubled look, seem All morning, Alan seemed quite troubled.
- ▶ feel troubled become, feel I wonder if I am alone in feeling deeply troubled by this news.

truancy N

the act of staying away from school

- adj+N persistent There are stong links between persistent truancy and a child's life chances.
- v+N do something about truancy combat, tackle The Government has recently announced measures to tackle truancy.
- ▶ reduce truancy curb, cut, reduce The Government's target is to reduce school truancies by 10% from 2002 levels.
- ▶ allow truancy condone It is not for us to condone truancy and absences from school.

truce N

a temporary agreement to stop arguing or fighting

- adj+N fragile, temporary, uneasy Union leaders informally agreed upon an uneasy truce with the government.
- v+N agree to have a truce agree, agree to, arrange, call, conclude, declare, negotiate, reach Let's just call a truce for now and talk when you get back.
- ▶ sign a document agreeing a truce sign Eventually, a truce was signed between the two countries.
- ▶ break a truce break, violate By that time, a wave of strikes had broken the truce with the management.

trudge V

walk somewhere with slow heavy steps

- adv+V slowly slowly, wearily He left his office and wearily trudged home through the rain.

▸ back back, home With the rain pouring down, the players trudged reluctantly back on to the pitch.

true ADJ

1 based on fact

- adv+ADJ very especially, particularly, very This is particularly true for girls.
- ▸ without a doubt certainly, obviously, undoubtedly It is certainly true that there are striking similarities between the two passages.
- ▸ completely absolutely, all, completely, entirely, literally, perfectly, quite What you say is perfectly true.
- ▸ not completely not actually, not completely, not entirely, not necessarily, not really, not strictly, partly That is not strictly true.
- ▸ really actually, indeed, really In one sense, this is indeed true.

You can also say that something is in fact true: There is evidence to suggest that this may in fact be true.

- ▸ mostly or probably generally, probably It is probably true to say that he is nearing the end of his playing career.
- ▸ equally equally While mistakes have been made, this was equally true of the old system.

- v+ADJ be or sound true be, hold, remain, ring, seem Her explanation doesn't quite ring true.
- ▸ be true in the future become, come, prove The first of his wishes looks as though it may come true.

2 always loyal

- v+ADJ be, keep, remain, stay Firstly, stay true to yourself.

- N+to principles, roots, spirit, word Despite everything he has achieved, he remains true to his roots.

3 real, or actual

- ADJ+n cost or value cost, value The true value of what was lost is difficult to estimate.
- ▸ meaning or nature meaning, nature, sense Human beings are prone to lose sight of their true nature.
- ▸ who someone really is or what they feel feelings, identity, self She reveals her true feelings in her diary.
- ▸ love or happiness happiness, love He feels that this is his only chance of true happiness.
- ▸ friend friend Thank you for being a true friend.
- ▸ potential potential In the game against Germany, Ireland showed their true potential with a superb display.
- ▸ amount extent, value, worth These figures do not reflect the true extent of homelessness in England.

trust N a belief that someone is honest and reliable

- adj+N absolute, complete, mutual, public She had complete trust in him to always act in her best interests.

- v+N show you have trust in someone place, put It's not easy to put our trust in someone we don't understand.
- ▸ develop or create trust build, build up, create, develop, engender, establish Businesses need to build public trust by showing their concern for local communities.
- ▸ get someone's trust earn, gain, inspire, win Local newspapers have earned the trust of their communities through decades of service to readers.
- ▸ make trust exist again rebuild, re-establish, restore The industry must rebuild trust.
- ▸ treat someone badly who has trust in you abuse, betray He trusted her implicitly and she never betrayed that trust.
- ▸ damage trust breach, destroy, erode, undermine This could undermine the trust between doctor and patient.
- ▸ lose trust lose When the trust and support of senior players is lost, the authority of a captain goes.

- n+of+N when trust is broken or does not exist betrayal, breach, breakdown, lack Quite frankly, there was a lack of trust on both sides.
- ▸ when there is trust bond, position, relationship Little by little, a bond of trust developed between them.
- ▸ atmosphere atmosphere, climate It takes time to build a climate of trust and acceptance.

trust V

be confident that someone is honest and reliable

- adv+V really absolutely, completely, fully, implicitly, really, totally, truly How many people in your life do you trust implicitly?
- ▸ not really never, not enough, not entirely, not really The parties are reluctant to talk because they don't entirely trust one another.

trusted ADJ

that you can trust

- ADJ+n information information, source Our database is continually updated from trusted sources.
- ▸ person adviser, friend, partner You may have a trusted friend you can confide in.
- ▸ product brand If you stick with well-known and trusted brands, you'll be safe.

truth N

the actual facts about something, or the quality of being true

- adj+N complete absolute, real, whole Jennifer was not telling the whole truth.
- ▸ clear, perhaps unpleasant naked, plain, simple The plain truth is that a motorbike is not as safe as a car.
- ▸ not pleasant awful, brutal, sad, shocking, terrible, uncomfortable, unpalatable The sad truth is that the exact number of victims will never be known.
- ▸ based on facts literal, objective She does not think that science is getting nearer to an objective truth.
- ▸ believed by everyone, or for all time eternal, fundamental, profound, self-evident, ultimate, universal Fairy tales deal with universal truths, which fascinate us all, whatever our age.

- v+N tell the truth admit, confess, proclaim, reveal, speak, tell If the witnesses really are telling the truth, then he must be guilty.
- ▸ discover or know the truth discover, expose, find, get at, get to, know, learn, realize, uncover She cannot risk her husband discovering the truth about her past life.

- ▸ try to discover the truth search for, seek He never stopped searching for truth.
- ▸ accept the truth accept, face The majority of the party cannot face the truth.
- ▸ hide the truth conceal, hide, suppress She decided that she could hide the truth no longer, and told David everything.
- ▸ change the truth distort The company have distorted the truth in their public statements about the success of the research.
- ▸ not admit the truth deny, doubt It's no good denying the truth.

- • n+of+N small amount of truth element, germ, grain, kernel, shred It's a romantic story but there may be a grain of truth in it.
- ▸ trying to find the truth pursuit Our common purpose is the search for peace and the pursuit of truth and wisdom.
- ▸ changing the truth, or denying it denial, distortion, perversion, travesty Any distortion of the truth will be picked up at an interview.

truthful ADJ
a truthful person says what is true

- • adv+ADJ absolutely, completely, not entirely, totally, very Please be completely truthful when you fill in the application form.

- • ADJ+n account, answer communication, statement The truthful answer to this question is – we don't know.

- • and/or accurate, honest, sincere Employers are realizing that a CV isn't always necessarily truthful or accurate.

try V attempt to do something

- • adv+V with a lot of effort desperately, frantically, hard He was desperately trying to keep himself hidden.
- ▸ without being successful unsuccessfully, vainly United spent the second half unsuccessfully trying to break down the Milan defence.

You can also say that someone tries in vain: I tried in vain to persuade her to come.

- ▸ always, or again and again always, constantly, continually, repeatedly Scientists are constantly trying to find new ways to protect people from this disease.
- ▸ deliberately actively, deliberately She found out that her business partner was deliberately trying to defraud her.
- ▸ only merely, simply I could see that Virginia was merely trying to preserve an aura of hospitality.

try N an attempt to do something

- • adj+N good good, nice That's a nice try, but it's not the right answer.
- ▸ first, second etc first, second etc Marion was successful in picking out the right card, first try, 11 times.
- ▸ unsuccessful unsuccessful Mandy made a number of unsuccessful tries to climb the tree.

- • v+N have a try give sth, have Shall I give it a try? ◉ Here, let me have a try.
- ▸ be worth a try be worth This isn't easy, but it is worth a try.

tuition N
the work of teaching, especially to one person or a small group

- • adj+N to one person face-to-face, individual, one-on-one, one-to-one, personal You will receive one-to-one tuition via email.
- ▸ given to one person for payment private More and more parents are paying for additional private tuition for their children.
- ▸ expert expert We offer expert tuition in all aspects of computing.
- ▸ extra extra Throughout your training, the Technical Director will monitor your progress and will arrange extra tuition if it is required.
- ▸ free free Free English language tuition is offered throughout the year.

- • v+N receive tuition get, receive, undergo The course offers the opportunity to receive professional tuition from experienced writers.
- ▸ give tuition deliver, give (sb), offer (sb), provide (sb with), undertake Tuition is provided by qualified ski school instructors.

- • N+n fee You will need to complete a form to apply for a student loan and help with your tuition fees.

tumour N
a mass of cells growing not in normal way

- • adj+N that can cause death cancerous, inoperable, malignant Cancer is the name given to a malignant tumour.
- ▸ harmless benign These tumours are almost always benign.
- ▸ in the first/second stage of development primary, secondary He suspects that there is something wrong with his liver, possibly a secondary tumour there.
- ▸ types of tumour ovarian, pituitary, testicular, pancreatic etc Any patient with a suspected testicular tumour is seen urgently.

- • n+N bladder, bone, brain, breast, liver, lung, prostate, skin In March, she went into hospital for a third brain tumour operation.

- • v+N treat or remove a tumour cure, erradicate, excise, remove, shrink, treat She had a tumour successfully removed from her leg.
- ▸ have a tumour be diagnosed with, develop, have He was diagnosed with a brain tumour. ◉ She had developed malignant ovarian tumours.
- ▸ cause a tumour cause, induce What causes brain tumours?

tune N INFORMAL a song or piece of music

- • adj+N easy to remember catchy, memorable The show is full of catchy tunes.
- ▸ well-known or popular classic, familiar, favourite, old, popular, traditional, well-known Our steel band will be bringing a Caribbean flavour to some popular tunes.

- ▸ making you feel happy bouncy, infectious, jaunty, jolly, lively, merry, rousing 'Don't Listen to the Radio' is a happy, bouncy tune with some rock moments.

- • n+N type of music dance, folk, hymn, pop, rock, show It is an adaptation of a traditional Irish folk tune.
- ▸ played at the beginning of a programme or film signature, theme This CD is full of your favourite Wild West theme tunes.

- • v+N make a tune with your voice hum, sing, whistle She was humming a tune under her breath.
- ▸ play a tune play Every Friday night, street musicians play the latest tunes.
- ▸ write a tune compose, write He writes some pretty good tunes.
- ▸ know a tune know, learn I'm afraid I don't know the tune.
- ▸ hear a tune hear Every time I hear that tune, I think of summer holidays.

turmoil N

a state of excitement or uncontrolled activity

- • adj+N mental emotional, inner, mental He suffered emotional turmoil, not knowing what was happening to his family.
- ▸ type of turmoil economic, financial, political, religious, social They will recover after a period, but only after considerable political and economic turmoil.
- ▸ great great, much She managed to secure the town's future prosperity at a time of great turmoil.

- • v+N cause, create, throw sb/sth into The country is only just recovering from the turmoil caused by the civil war. ◉ Nina's feelings are thrown into turmoil when she realizes that she is falling in love.

turn V

change and do or become something else

- • V+adj unpleasant bad, nasty, sour, ugly, violent Then the atmosphere in the bar turned nasty.
- ▸ colours pink, yellow, blue etc His face started to turn pale.
- ▸ professional professional Since turning professional in 1990, Rick has had a career in most areas of the music business.
- ▸ weather chilly, cloudy, cold, showery, wintry The afternoon turned cloudy, with the temperature falling to 8 degrees.

turn N

a change in a situation

- • adj+N unexpected strange, surprising, unexpected Life took an unexpected turn for Rick when he met Jess.
- ▸ sudden dramatic, sudden We were so upset at the sudden turn of events.
- ▸ harmful or unpleasant sinister, unfortunate Events took a decidedly sinister turn when a dead body was found in the garden.
- ▸ when a situation gets worse/better downward, upward From that moment on, things took a downward turn.

You can also say that things take a turn for the worse/better: Fortunately his life then took a turn for the better.

turn down PHR VB

not accept an offer or request

- • V+n request for something appeal, application, claim, request It can be difficult to find out exactly why a particular application has been turned down.
- ▸ offer or invitation invitation, offer She has turned down all invitations to be interviewed.
- ▸ work job, work I'm not in a financial position to turn down jobs.

turning point N

a time of important change in a situation

- • adj+N big, crucial, decisive, historic, important, key, major, real, significant Winning the 2005 championship was a major turning point in his career.

- • v+N be or represent a turning point be, become, mark, prove, represent The events of that day marked a turning point in South Africa's political history.
- ▸ believe that something is a turning point see sth as The decision may come to be seen as a turning point by historians.
- ▸ reach a turning point reach I believe we have reached a turning point in our campaign.

turnout N

the number of people coming to an event or voting in an election

- • adj+N few people disappointing, low, poor Two of the shows had a very poor turnout.
- ▸ many people big, excellent, fantastic, good, great, high, huge, impressive, large, massive We are expecting a massive turnout, so book your tickets now.
- ▸ in an election electoral Steps need to be taken to encourage greater electoral turnout.

- • n+N election, voter Voter turnout at local elections appears to be declining.

- • v+N get a particular turnout get, have The class reunion sounded as if it would have a good turnout.
- ▸ expect a particular turnout expect We expect a good turnout over the New Year period.
- ▸ increase the turnout boost, increase The government has looked at ways of boosting voter turnout.

turnover N

the value of a company's sales in a particular period

- • adj+N in a year annual The company has an annual turnover of about £10 million.
- ▸ high/low high, low, rapid We are a small enterprise with a low turnover. ◉ It is a clean, well-organized shop with a rapid turnover and helpful staff.
- ▸ total combined, total Total turnover increased by 2.8 per cent.

- • v+N have a particular turnover achieve, generate, have The Group achieved a half-year turnover of $600 million.

▶ increase turnover boost, double, increase The company has ambitious plans to double its turnover over the next four years.
▶ predict turnover anticipate, estimate, expect, forecast The company expects turnover and profit to increase even further this year.

● N+v increase grow, increase, rise Our overall business turnover rose by over 10 per cent to about £160k.
▶ fall fall Over the past three years, turnover has fallen from £15m to £10m.
▶ be a particular amount approach sth, exceed sth, reach sth Turnover exceeded £500m, with profits in excess of £20m.

twilight N
the evening time when the sky begins to get dark

● adj+N deepening, gathering We climbed to the top of the hill in the gathering twilight.

● N+v deepen, fall It was ten o' clock and the twilight was deepening into night.

twinge N
a sudden short feeling of an unpleasant emotion

● adj+N slight little, slight I must admit to a slight twinge of disappointment.
▶ not frequent occasional, odd She did experience the occasional twinge of regret.

● N+of conscience, guilt, jealousy, sympathy As I walked away, I felt another twinge of guilt.

twist N
a sudden unexpected change in a situation

● adj+N unexpected or unusual bizarre, dramatic, ironic, strange, surprising, unexpected The story then takes an unexpected twist.
▶ that seems unfair cruel It was a cruel twist of fate that his wife died a year later.
▶ clever or interesting clever, interesting, intriguing, neat, nice The end of the play has very neat twist.
▶ slight little, slight There is a slight twist at the end of the film.
▶ recent latest, new The prime minister had to answer questions about the latest twist in the scandal.
▶ final final This is an interesting film right up to the final twist.
▶ modern contemporary, modern His designs draw their inspiration from the 1960's but he gives them a contemporary twist.
▶ strange and sometimes frightening macabre, sinister, strange, unusual The CD consists of four children's fairy tales, each with an unusual twist at the end.

tycoon N
a rich and powerful business person

● n+N business, media, newspaper, oil, property She is the daughter of the billionaire media tycoon, Rupert Murdoch.

typical ADJ
like most similar people or things

● adv+ADJ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, somewhat Our house was fairly typical of those in the street.
▶ very absolutely, so, very This was very typical of Jim's attitude to his work.

● ADJ+n example or case case, example The painting we illustrate here is a typical example of his later work.
▶ feature characteristic, feature Spam messages contain typical features which can be calculated and detected.
▶ comment or reaction comment, question, reaction, response These views are represented by the following typical comments.

tyranny N
a government that controls people by force and cruel treatment

● adj+N brutal, cruel, political, religious This was one of the cruellest tyrannies the world has ever known.

● v+N escape from tyranny be freed from, escape, escape from These people have fled to our shores to escape tyranny and poverty.
▶ fight tyranny end, fight, oppose, overthrow, resist If we seek to end tyranny on a global level, we have to show that peaceful alternatives exist at a local level.
▶ impose tyranny impose He constantly fought the regime that was trying to impose an intolerant tyranny.

● and/or cruelty, injustice, oppression, persecution, terror, war They are fleeing from tyranny and persecution.

tyrant N
a person ruling a country in a cruel and unfair way

● adj+N cruel bloodthirsty, bloody, brutal, cruel, evil, murderous, vicious The country is ruled by an evil tyrant.
▶ minor petty He is a petty tyrant whose misdeeds reflect on the government which supports him.

● v+N depose, overthrow, remove, topple They led a successful coup to overthrow the tyrant.

tyre N
a thick rubber cover fitting around a wheel

● v+N fit or replace a tyre change, fit, fit sth with, replace How many of you struggle to change your tyres? ◉ The vehicle has been fitted with extra wide tyres.
▶ put air into a tyre inflate, pump (up) You need to pump your tyres up.
▶ let air come out of a tyre deflate, let down Someone has let her tyres down as a joke.
▶ damage a tyre puncture, slash Youths were laying broken glass bottles in the road to try to puncture car tyres.
▶ check a tyre check Check the tyres for wear, damage, and tread depth.

U u ugly ADJ

1 unpleasant to look at

- adv+ADJ very downright INFORMAL, extremely, hideously, incredibly, plain INFORMAL, really, so INFORMAL, very She was reputed to be hideously ugly, with a long hooked nose.
- ▸ rather quite, rather In spite of its rather ugly appearance, it's a wonderful library.

2 very unpleasant or threatening

- adv+ADJ a little, pretty, quite, rather, really, very Things soon got quite ugly, with a fair bit of shouting.
- v+ADJ get, look, turn The demonstration could turn ugly at any moment.

ultimate ADJ

happening at the end of a long process

- ADJ+n aim aim, ambition, goal, objective, purpose The ultimate aim of this research remains a cure.
- ▸ responsibility for something decision, responsibility Chief executives bear the ultimate responsibility for the actions of their staff.
- ▸ where someone or something is going destination The ultimate destination of the drugs was Spain.
- ▸ what happens destiny, fate, outcome The mystery of Sonia's ultimate fate is never settled explicitly.
- ▸ success success, victory, winner We needed four more points for ultimate victory.

ultimatum N

a threat to punish someone if something is not done

- v+N issue an ultimatum deliver, issue, present, send On 26 April, the Action Council delivered an ultimatum to Roy Mason.
- ▸ accept/reject an ultimatum accept, comply with, ignore, reject His ultimatum was ignored.
- ▸ get an ultimatum be given, get, receive After this time, he was given an ultimatum to either get a job, or leave!

unacceptable ADJ

wrong or harmful

- adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, entirely, totally, utterly, wholly Her public criticism of an elected representative is totally unacceptable.
- ▸ clearly clearly, frankly, quite, simply It is simply unacceptable for the situation to stay as it is.
- ▸ in a particular context culturally, environmentally, ethically, morally, politically, socially It remained socially unacceptable for women to smoke until the Suffragette movement in the 1920s.
- v+ADJ be considered unacceptable be considered, be deemed, be regarded as The public health risks are considered unacceptable.
- ▸ be or become unacceptable be, become, prove, remain, seem This document proved unacceptable to the King because it went too far, by giving too much power to Parliament.
- ▸ think something is unacceptable find sth These migrants come to the UK to work, to do the jobs we won't, for wages we find unacceptable.

unaffected ADJ

not changed or influenced by something

- adv+ADJ mainly essentially, largely, relatively, virtually Even if one of the generating stations fails, the system copes and is virtually unaffected.
- ▸ completely completely, entirely, totally Few of us nowadays can remain totally unaffected by change.
- ▸ apparently apparently, seemingly Studies have shown that apparently unaffected twins may go on to develop the disease later.
- v+ADJ remain unaffected continue, remain All other passengers travelling to and from Gatwick will remain unaffected.
- ▸ be or seem unaffected appear, be, be left, seem The test scores were unaffected.

unanimous ADJ

agreed with and supported by everybody

- adv+ADJ almost almost, near, nearly, practically, virtually There was near unanimous agreement with the general approach adopted in the document.
- ▸ completely absolutely, completely, quite They are completely unanimous both as to diagnosis and prognosis.
- ADJ+n decision adoption, conclusion, decision, opinion, resolution, ruling, verdict, vote The inquest jury recorded a unanimous verdict of unlawful killing.
- ▸ agreement agreement, consensus, consent, endorsement Lack of unanimous agreement occurred in 24 cases (62 per cent).
- ▸ approval acceptance, acclaim, approval, praise His recent solo recording of Handel's Organ concertos has received unanimous critical acclaim.
- ADJ+in approval/disapproval condemnation, disapproval, opposition, praise Members are unanimous in their praise for this confidential service.
- ▸ opinion belief, opinion, view We are unanimous in our views.

unavoidable ADJ impossible to stop from happening

- adv+ADJ almost almost, virtually We recognise that alterations are virtually unavoidable.
- ▸ completely absolutely, completely Please do not put your bin out any earlier than the morning of collection unless absolutely unavoidable.
- ADJ+n problem absence, cancellation, damage, delay, disruption, emissions, problem, risk I apologise for this unavoidable delay.
- ▸ result conclusion, consequence Such disasters were an unavoidable consequence of scientific progress.

▸ situation circumstances, necessity I confirm that I am unable to attend the appeal due to unavoidable circumstances.
▸ cost cost, expense, increase The war lead to disruptions in the supply of gas, making price increases unavoidable.

• v+ADJ appear, be, become, prove, seem Crowded lectures and shared flats are unavoidable for most students.

unaware ADJ
not realizing that something is happening

• adv+ADJ completely or mainly completely, entirely, genuinely, largely, quite, totally, wholly I drove off to town, wholly unaware that I had been observed by anyone.
▸ apparently apparently, seemingly Her parents are seemingly unaware of her hobby.
▸ happily blissfully, blithely One department was blithely unaware that the laptops were not PCs.

• v+ADJ appear, be, remain, seem They seem blissfully unaware of the impending oil crisis.

unbearable ADJ
so extreme that you cannot deal with it

• adv+ADJ almost almost, nearly The temperature in the room was stifling, the conditions nearly unbearable.
▸ completely absolutely, quite, truly, utterly As the evening closed in, her impatience was quite unbearable.

• ADJ+n pain or difficulty burden, pain, strain, stress, suffering The physical and mental pain is unbearable.
▸ something that affects your senses heat, noise, smell, stench The stench was unbearable.
▸ tension pressure, suspense, tension The suspense is nearly unbearable.

unbeatable ADJ
1 impossible to defeat in a competition

• adv+ADJ almost almost, nearly, virtually Radcliffe and Taylor were virtually unbeatable in mountain marathons.
▸ completely absolutely, simply, truly It is only a matter of time before the machines become absolutely unbeatable.
▸ apparently seemingly With one match remaining, they look certain to eclipse the seemingly unbeatable total set last year.

2 better than anything else of the same type

• adv+ADJ almost almost, nearly We think you'll agree this offer is almost unbeatable and too tempting to miss.
▸ completely absolutely, simply, truly It's a superb product at an absolutely unbeatable price! • Our prices are simply unbeatable.

• ADJ+n price deal, discount, offer, price, value We supply a wide range of quality wiring accessories, indoor and outdoor lighting at unbeatable prices!
▸ combination combination, package We offer an unbeatable package with superior performance and support.

▸ place atmosphere, location, scenery Situated in the town of Masnou, the Port Masnou marina is in an unbeatable location.

unbelievable ADJ INFORMAL used for emphasizing how good, bad etc something is

• adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, just, quite, simply, totally, truly The hype and buzz around this product is absolutely unbelievable.
▸ rather pretty The last two gigs we've played have been pretty unbelievable.

uncertain ADJ
1 not clearly known or understood

• adv+ADJ very decidedly, extremely, highly, substantially, very The scale of these effects, and their general direction, is highly uncertain.
▸ rather rather, slightly, somewhat The long-term funding of the services remained somewhat uncertain.
▸ basically inherently The future is, of course, inherently uncertain.
▸ increasingly increasingly It was increasingly uncertain where government and the law resided.

• ADJ+n origin derivation, origin, provenance Many of the documents are of uncertain provenance.
▸ future fate, future, outcome, outlook, prognosis, prospects He argues that the Party faces an uncertain future.
▸ situation circumstances, climate, conditions, environment, situation The uncertain political situation meant that no students were admitted.

• v+ADJ be or become be, become, remain According to some analysts, the outcome remains uncertain.
▸ seem appear, look, seem The date of these relics seems quite uncertain.

2 not sure about something

• adv+ADJ very extremely, very He left Beryl feeling extremely uncertain about whether she would ever see him again.
▸ rather or slightly a little, quite, rather, somewhat I was at times a little uncertain about the target audience for this book.

• v+ADJ be or become be, be left, feel Archaeologists are uncertain as to when the first stone tools came in to being.
▸ seem appear, look, seem Many seem uncertain just what they mean by federation.

uncertainty N
when people are not sure about something

• adj+N great considerable, deep, great, major, much, real, significant There should be no approvals for new power stations of this type, as long as there is significant uncertainty about their environmental impact.
▸ types of uncertainty environmental, financial, legal, political, scientific, statistical The current budget proposals will increase costs for industry, and add to the mood of financial uncertainty.

• v+N cause uncertainty cause, create, generate, introduce, mean, result in All this introduces major uncertainties, particularly at the regional level.

- ▸ increase uncertainty add to, compound, prolong Events in the Middle East have led to a rise in oil prices, compounding uncertainty about the strength of global demand.
- ▸ reduce or remove uncertainty eliminate, minimize, reduce, remove, resolve Resolving this uncertainty could take several years.
- ▸ measure uncertainty calculate, estimate, model, quantify Our aim is to quantify uncertainty in flow performance prediction due to uncertainty in a reservoir description.
- ▸ face uncertainty face Your concerns are understandable as we face uncertainty and challenge.

- • N+v exist arise, characterize sth, exist, hang over sth, prevail, surround sth A mood of complete uncertainty prevails among the workers.
- ▸ continue continue, persist, remain This matter has never been tested, leaving a void in which uncertainty persists.

- • n+of+N amount degree, element, measure The problem is interesting because of the large degree of uncertainty about what might happen.
- ▸ feeling or state climate, feeling, mood, sense, state Users acknowledged feelings of uncertainty and ignorance.
- ▸ time period, time Advertisers faced a long period of uncertainty, as revenues from TV and newspapers continued to fall.

- • and/or not being sure ambiguity, confusion, instability, risk, unpredictability, vagueness, variability, volatility Psychiatrists must be able to tolerate ambiguity and uncertainty.
- ▸ fear or worry anxiety, doubt, fear, insecurity, unease, worry All changes bring uncertainty and anxiety, and the management of this change must be sensitive.

unchanged ADJ remaining the same

- • adv+ADJ mainly basically, broadly, essentially, fundamentally, largely, mostly, practically, relatively, remarkably, substantially A year after that, the situation was essentially unchanged.
- ▸ completely completely, entirely The interest rate has remained completely unchanged at 6 per cent.
- ▸ almost almost, virtually TheTreasurer reported that finances were virtually unchanged from his last statement.

- • v+ADJ be left, continue, remain, stay, survive The reduction for students, the unemployed and old age pensioners stays unchanged at 50 per cent.

unclear ADJ
not obvious, definite, or easy to understand

- • adv+ADJ with time expressions currently, extremely, frequently, often, presently, sometimes, still It is often unclear who should be responsible for conducting the debriefing.
- ▸ slightly a little, slightly The structure of the book is a little unclear.
- ▸ rather largely, quite, rather, somewhat The position on chapters in edited volumes is rather unclear.
- ▸ very particularly, very In the current system, the role of the independent regulator is very unclear.
- ▸ completely completely, entirely, totally It is entirely unclear what the scope of these freedoms will be in practice.

- • ADJ+n language details, diagnosis or information, evidence, meaning, wording The wording is unclear and the notion of 'Hypothesis' is not clearly developed.
- ▸ cause cause, motive, origins, reason Their cultural origins are unclear.
- ▸ situation position, situation, status 60 per cent or more of books have unclear copyright status.
- ▸ result future, outcome, result The longer-term results are still unclear.
- ▸ purpose function, purpose, role A number of stone-built tanks were also found, although their function is unclear.

Usage Unclear usually comes after the noun in all of the ADJ+n combinations shown above.

- • v+ADJ be or become be, become, be left, remain At present, the results of this change in approach remain unclear.
- ▸ seem appear, seem This point still appears unclear.

uncomfortable ADJ
1 with an unpleasant or slightly painful feeling

- • adv+ADJ very acutely, exceedingly, extremely, incredibly, profoundly, terribly, very These foods are highly acidic and may make the eater profoundly uncomfortable.
- ▸ rather decidedly, distinctly, rather, somewhat For someone of his height, the seating is somewhat uncomfortable.
- ▸ slightly a little, mildly, slightly, vaguely The process is only mildly uncomfortable, and only takes a minute or so.

- • ADJ+n feeling, sensation I felt the uncomfortable sensation of sweat trickling down my back where I pressed against the seat.

- • v+ADJ be be, feel, prove Unfortunately, the boots proved too uncomfortable for some of us.
- ▸ seem appear, look, seem I pass many hot people, looking uncomfortable in their sticky seats.
- ▸ become become, get, grow Her knees stiffen up in the evenings, and get uncomfortable after walking for too long.

2 feeling embarrassed or nervous

- • adv+ADJ very acutely, deeply, exceedingly, extremely, incredibly, profoundly, terribly, very There's stuff in here which I find acutely uncomfortable.
- ▸ rather decidedly, distinctly, rather, somewhat 'Come on, Jack,' Daniel urged, beginning to look distinctly uncomfortable.
- ▸ slightly faintly, a little, slightly, vaguely Naomi is the first one to admit that she found doing the scenes a little uncomfortable.

- • ADJ+n truth fact, reality, truth She gradually unravels her own difficult story, and her own uncomfortable truth.

If something you watch, listen to or read makes you feel uncomfortable, you can say that it makes uncomfortable reading, viewing or listening: The programme demonstrated how this was done and it made very uncomfortable viewing.

- ▶ silence pause, silence There was a moment or two of uncomfortable silence.
- ▶ understanding realization, reminder If we force ourselves to step back and take a look at the supporting data, we are faced with two uncomfortable realizations.
- ▶ situation experience, position, situation Dining solo does not have to be an uncomfortable experience.
- ▶ subject issue, subject The book raises uncomfortable issues about immigration and religious extremism, and deals with them very honestly.

- • v+ADJ be be, feel, prove, remain Many men and women remain deeply uncomfortable with the notion of feminism.
- ▶ seem appear, look, seem Participants knew they were being video-taped but did not appear uncomfortable.
- ▶ become become, get, grow Harry grew increasingly uncomfortable at the press conference.
- ▶ find something find sth Euphemisms are coined to avoid talking directly about things we find uncomfortable.

unconcerned ADJ

not worried about a situation or event

- • adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, quite, totally, utterly, wholly Most of them don't see God as a part of their existence and are totally unconcerned about the afterlife.
- ▶ apparently apparently, seemingly A group of horses remained near the center of the pasture, seemingly unconcerned by the approach of night.
- ▶ strangely curiously, strangely, surprisingly His boss seems strangely unconcerned.
- ▶ mainly or partly generally, largely, relatively The British public seem to be relatively unconcerned about the circulation of their personal information.

- • v+ADJ appear, remain, seem The prison service appear unconcerned at the continual loss of able and experienced staff.

unconscious ADJ

1 not conscious, and therefore unable to think, feel, or see anything

- • adv+ADJ completely completely, totally
- ▶ almost almost, not quite He was rushed to the local hospital, where he was almost unconscious on arrival.
- ▶ apparently apparently, seemingly He saw Symonds lying apparently unconscious next to him.

- • v+ADJ be or remain unconscious be found, be left, be slumped, lie, remain Amy was left lying unconscious in the road after the accident.
- ▶ be made unconscious be beaten, be knocked, be rendered Andrew was thrown back across the compartment and knocked unconscious instantly.
- ▶ become unconscious become, collapse, fall Clive fell unconscious onto Des's front lawn.

2 when you do not realize something

- • adv+ADJ completely completely, deeply, quite, totally, wholly By this time, it was clear to me that Eric was quite unconscious of my presence.
- ▶ almost or partly almost, largely, partly They relate to the viewer in a spiritual, almost unconscious way.
- ▶ apparently apparently, seemingly He continued to talk, apparently unconscious of her return.

- • ADJ+n wish desire, impulse, motivation, motive, urge, wish He argued that unconscious motivation is by far the most determinate part of our minds.
- ▶ mind or feeling fear, feeling, memory, mind, psyche This language of the unconscious mind is characterized by its use of metaphors.
- ▶ idea or belief assumption, belief, bias, idea, racism The student sought judicial review, alleging unconscious bias on the part of the decision-making body.
- ▶ action action, behaviour, habit, imitation, reaction He took his left hand out of his pocket and scratched his eyebrow, in completely unconscious imitation of his father.

- • v+ADJ appear, be, seem The husband seems unconscious of his wife's emotional needs.

uncontrollable ADJ impossible to control or stop

- • adv+ADJ almost almost, virtually He decided that his anger was making his life almost uncontrollable.
- ▶ completely completely, totally I feel very sorry for you, you have a child who is totally uncontrollable.
- ▶ apparently apparently, seemingly You are worried about expensive, seemingly uncontrollable litigation costs.

- • ADJ+n laughter giggles, laughter, mirth We all burst into uncontrollable giggles, and it is a wonder I didn't get a detention on the spot.
- ▶ anger anger, emotion, fury, passion, rage, temper, violence I half expected him to fly into an uncontrollable rage over a slip of the tongue.
- ▶ desire desire, urge Users have an uncontrollable desire to feel the high that is brought on by the drug.

uncover V

find out about something hidden or secret

- • V+n information details, evidence, evidence, facts, identity, information, story, truth Recent evidence uncovered in the library of Rouen Cathedral sheds new light on these matters. • It was an idle internet search that uncovered the truth.
- ▶ secret mystery, secret How do you think I've not had my secret uncovered before now?
- ▶ crime or bad act conspiracy, fraud, plot, racket, scam, scandal They were accused of treason whenever a national conspiracy was uncovered.
- ▶ fault or difference discrepancies, flaws, inconsistencies, irregularities, shortcomings Police were called into council offices after mystery accounting discrepancies were uncovered. • Our investigation uncovered serious flaws in the asylum system.

underestimate V think that something is smaller or less important than it really is

- • adv+V very much drastically, greatly, grossly, hugely, massively, seriously, severely, totally, vastly, wildly Official statistics grossly underestimate the work-related contribution to deaths and illness in the UK.

- ▸ considerably considerably, significantly, substantially She significantly underestimated her ability to control others.
- ▸ all the time consistently, systematically The world has consistently underestimated the threat of terrorist attacks.
- ▸ completely completely, totally I completely underestimated how much work would be involved!
- ▸ with time expressions frequently, never, not ever, often, sometimes, usually Never underestimate the power of being bored!

- • V+n importance impact, importance, power, seriousness, significance We should not underestimate the significance of this agreement.
- ▸ size extent, incidence, level, magnitude, prevalence, scale, strength Their only failure was to underestimate the magnitude of the disaster.
- ▸ problem challenge, complexity, danger, difficulty, risk, severity We should not underestimate the difficulty of organising such a project.
- ▸ ability ability, intelligence Did I underestimate your abilities?

underestimate N
the belief that something is less than it really is

- • adj+N big considerable, gross, massive, serious, significant, substantial We believe that figure to be a gross underestimate.
- ▸ small slight The mean retirement age is currently 61, although it may be a slight underestimate.

undergo V experience something

- • V+n change alteration, change, metamorphosis, modification, overhaul, restructuring, revision, transformation The area will undergo a transformation through the sustainable regeneration housing initiative.
- ▸ improvement or repair makeover, redesign, redevelopment, refit, refurbishment, renaissance, renovation, repair, restoration Their shop has recently undergone a refurbishment and has doubled in size.
- ▸ medical treatment chemotherapy, operation, procedure, radiotherapy, resection, surgery, treatment The staff on this ward are specialists in caring for patients who have undergone transplant surgery.
- ▸ testing assessment, check, examination, inspection, review, screening, testing Candidates undergo formal psychometric testing using accredited systems.
- ▸ training training Our solicitors undergo annual training and assessment to ensure that our customers are getting the very best service possible.
- ▸ bad experience crisis, hardship, pain, persecution, stress, suffering, trauma All of the soldiers had undergone great hardship during this campaign.

undergrowth N
small thick bushes covering the ground

- • adj+N deep, dense, heavy, impenetrable, lush, tangled, thick Trees fall, rot and re-grow amidst a dense tangled undergrowth rich in wild flora.
- • v+N clear, cut, remove Boaters have cleared the undergrowth between the towpath and the fence.

underline V show clearly that something is important

- • adv+V just, merely, only, simply The ambiguity of the ending merely underlines the closeness between the two men.
- ▸ problem or danger concern, danger, difficulty, problem, risk, threat The report once again underlines the treat posed by the uncontrolled rise in carbon emissions.

- • V+n importance importance, seriousness, significance, value The latest pictures on international television screens underline the seriousness of the situation.
- ▸ need necessity, need, urgency, usefulness She underlined the need for patience and the investment of time.
- ▸ fact fact, truth Professor Bain had underlined the fact that this package was self-financing.
- ▸ belief or commitment belief, commitment, position The two sides underlined their commitment to the protection and promotion of human rights.
- ▸ superiority superiority The Knights underlined their superiority with two tries from Chris Langley in the last five minutes.
- ▸ determination determination Operation Justice has underlined our determination to make Staffordshire as unwelcoming as possible to the criminal.

underlying ADJ
real or basic, but not obvious

- • ADJ+n idea assumption, concept, logic, philosophy, principle, theme Key concepts and their underlying assumptions are rigorously analysed.
- ▸ reason cause, motive, rationale, reason The underlying causes of anti-social behaviour should be addressed.
- ▸ change change, trend The population has fluctuated, but the underlying trend is not easy to discern.

undermine V make someone or something gradually less confident or successful

- • V+n trust or credibility accountability, credibility, dignity, integrity, legitimacy, trust, validity Turnouts this low could undermine the legitimacy of the result and the Parliament itself.
- ▸ confidence confidence, morale, self-confidence Critics say the revelations undermine confidence in the criminal justice system.
- ▸ freedom or power autonomy, democracy, independence, liberty, power, sovereignty A number of MPs have expressed fears that a total ban on smoking would undermine civil liberties.
- ▸ effectiveness competitiveness, effectiveness, viability, vitality Attempting change without an understanding of the cultural dynamics will undermine its effectiveness.
- ▸ stability cohesion, stability By undermining social cohesion, inequality provides a breeding ground for crime and disorder.

▸ idea or belief belief, concept, idea, principle, values The secret trials undermine the fundamental principles of an independent judiciary.

underscore V

emphasize something or show it is important

- adv+V brilliantly, dramatically, emphatically, neatly, repeatedly The opening line neatly underscored the entire episode and set the tone for the next 30 minutes.
- V+n importance importance, relevance, seriousness, significance Nozick (1981) underscores the significance of this decision ▸ need necessity, need, urgency The work of Chatzi et al underscores the need to reevaluate these presumptions.

▸ commitment commitment This acquisition underscores our commitment to excellence.
▸ fact fact, point Recent efforts in Europe on cybercrime underscore this point.

understand V know what someone or something means

- adv+V completely completely, fully, perfectly, precisely, properly, really, thoroughly, totally, truly It is important to fully understand what is going on.

▸ easily clearly, easily The lectures are given by researchers eminent in their field, but in a manner that is easily understood by all.
▸ correctly correctly, rightly These, if understood rightly, are certainly worthwhile questions.
▸ not much or not at all imperfectly, little, not, not even, not quite, poorly This groundbreaking book addresses a widespread but poorly understood problem.
▸ by most or all people commonly, generally, universally Brainwashing, as it is commonly understood, does not really exist.

- V+n importance importance, significance, value As an organisation, we understand the importance of joined up thinking.

▸ meaning issues, meaning, nature Potential exporters need to understand the nature of the country to succeed.
▸ reason or cause cause, rationale, reason I apologise about this in advance and I hope you understand my reasons.
▸ need needs, requirements The hardest challenge was understanding dealers' requirements.
▸ idea or concept concept, idea, notion, principle, reasoning, view Students will be expected to show that they are capable of understanding complex philosophical ideas.
▸ effects consequences, effects, impact, implications It is clear that he doesn't really understand the full consequences of his policies.
▸ problem or difficulty challenge, complexity, danger, difficulty, problem, risk, threat The public needs to understand the threat that these terrorists pose.
▸ someone's feelings anger, fear, feelings, frustration, reluctance The programme is designed to help children understand their own feelings.

understandable ADJ

normal and reasonable in a particular situation

- adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, perfectly, quite, totally, wholly It is completely understandable that people should feel nervous and frightened for their futures.

▸ rather perhaps, somewhat The defensive stance taken by many in the music industry towards the loss of revenue is somewhat understandable.

- ADJ+n worry anxiety, caution, concern, confusion, reluctance Such anxieties are perfectly understandable under the circumstances.

If you understand why someone does something, you can say that they do it for understandable reasons: The newspapers wanted to protect the anonymity of their sources for understandable reasons, so we could not force them to reveal any details.

▸ anger anger, frustration, outrage Ian's efforts were appreciated and his frustration understandable.
▸ reaction reaction, response Fear was an understandable reaction.
▸ wish desire There is an understandable desire to put off the day of reckoning.

understanding N knowledge about a subject, process, or situation

- adj+N good clear, complete, full, good, great, proper, real, solid, sound, thorough The Education Authority had a clear understanding of their operational policies.

▸ basic basic, fundamental, limited This unit aims to give the student a basic understanding of the rules and principles of international law.
▸ deep deep, detailed, in-depth, profound, sophisticated They can only be talking about a superficial familiarity, not a deep understanding.
▸ broad broad, comprehensive The volume guides readers towards a broad understanding of the history of the Classical period.
▸ shared common, mutual, shared It was about ensuring a common understanding of guidelines.
▸ types of understanding conceptual, critical, cultural, mathematical, scientific, technical, theoretical I guess my theoretical understanding was quite a bit of help.

- v+N get understanding achieve, acquire, form, gain, obtain Graduates acquire a sound understanding of the fundamentals of IT.

▸ increase or improve understanding broaden, build, deepen, develop, enhance, enrich, extend, improve, increase, reinforce It deepened my understanding in every way.
▸ encourage understanding advance, aid, foster, further, promote The main objective of the event is to promote a better understanding of science.
▸ show understanding communicate, demonstrate, reflect, reveal, show Does the literature review demonstrate understanding?
▸ need understanding call for, need, require The degree programme requires an understanding of basic statistical techniques.
▸ test someone's understanding assess, check, monitor, test There is a comprehension test which assesses students' understanding of the reading passage.

understatement N a statement that does not express how large, serious etc something really is

- adj+N big big, dramatic, gross, huge, massive To say that I was surprised would be a gross understatement.

You can refer to a very big understatement as the understatement of the century, the year, or the decade: Hidden away near the end was a single, cautious sentence which scientists regard as the understatement of the century.

- small slight To say that I am a bit anxious about this birth is a slight understatement!

You can describe what someone says as something of an understatement or a bit of an understatement to indicate that you actually think it is quite a big understatement: To say her life had been colourful would be something of an understatement.

- typical characteristic, classical, typical 'That wasn't a great idea' is a characteristic understatement from a student friend.
- striking masterly 'It was an interesting race for me this afternoon,' said Alonso, with masterly understatement.

You can also refer to someone as a master of understatement, or to something they say as a masterpiece of understatement: When he hasn't been silent, he's been a master of understatement.

undertake V agree to do something

- V+n study project, research, review, study You choose your area of investigation and undertake your own research under the supervision of a member of staff.
- survey audit, consultation, enquiry, exercise, inspection, investigation, monitoring, survey We undertook a survey of voluntary action in two rural areas.
- work or activity activity, assignment, commission, fieldwork, placement, task, training, work Students also have opportunities to undertake short placements in organisations that hold particular interest for them.
- analysis analysis, assessment, evaluation It is part of their function to undertake risk/benefit analysis of research proposals.

undertaking N
something difficult or complicated that you do

- adj+N very big enormous, great, huge, immense, major, mammoth, massive In terms of pavement area alone, this project is a mammoth undertaking.
- difficult ambitious, arduous, complex, difficult, formidable Outlining the history of sculpture from pre-history to the present day in sixty pages is an ambitious undertaking.
- dangerous hazardous, risky In these conditions, even crossing the bridges can be a risky undertaking.

undertone N
something suggesting an idea or feeling indirectly [usually plural]

- adj+N unpleasant dark, disturbing, sinister, unpleasant Sinister undertones resonate throughout the novel.
- strong deep, heavy, serious, strong This is a superbly crafted film, with powerful images and a strong sexual undertone.
- weak subtle Subtle undertones and delicate suggestions mean nothing to them.
- types of undertone homoerotic, melancholy, political, racial, racist, religious, sexual The history of the topic will be discussed, including its political undertones.

underworld N criminals in a community, considered as a group

- adj+N unpleasant dangerous, seedy, sinister, sordid, violent Drug Wars is an addictive game of buying and selling in a seedy underworld.
- dark dark, murky, shadowy, shady In this riveting thriller, Dublin's shady underworld is brought to life in all its raw and chilling detail.
- criminal criminal Donna finds herself drawn further into a dark, menacing criminal underworld.

undesirable ADJ bad or harmful

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, particularly, very, wholly Prison makes many criminals worse in one sense and is highly undesirable.
- clearly clearly, inherently, obviously This kind of attack is obviously undesirable.
- possibly possibly, potentially, probably Measuring individual performance is very difficult, and possibly undesirable, in a hospital environment.
- in a particular way environmentally, politically, socially Does he agree that this would be politically undesirable?

- v+ADJ be considered, be deemed, be regarded as, be seen as, seem The Parish Council believes that further building in any of the villages is considered undesirable.

undue ADJ not necessary, reasonable, or suitable

- ADJ+n difficulty burden, disruption, disturbance, hardship, inconvenience Our consultants can help to ensure that your problems are resolved without undue disruption to your business.
- stress distress, pressure, strain, stress, wear, wear and tear If you are subjected to prolonged or undue stress, your body will be affected in some way.
- influence bias, influence, interference Any undue interference would be in breach of Article 10 of the European Convention on Human Rights.
- emphasis attention, emphasis, prominence, weight All movements are accomplished in an easy and playful way, without effort or undue emphasis.
- speed/slowness delay, haste Are the government acting with undue haste?

unease N
a nervous, uncomfortable, or unhappy feeling about a situation

- adj+N great considerable, deep, much, profound We should not underestimate the feeling of deep unease which this development causes.

▸ among many people general, public, widespread Numerous surveys worldwide report growing public unease about GM foods.
▸ slight a certain, slight, vague There was a slight unease between soloist and accompaniments, but a good performance nevertheless.
▸ increasing growing, increasing The move reflects growing unease about the impact of turbines on sensitive sites.

• v+N cause unease cause, create, generate, provoke I write this hoping not to cause any more unease.
▸ feel or express unease express, feel, sense On the country's programme of privatization, the report expresses some unease.

uneasy ADJ
1 feeling slightly nervous, worried, or upset

• adv+ADJ very deeply, distinctly, extremely, profoundly, very Alice began to feel very uneasy.
▸ rather quite, rather, somewhat I'm rather uneasy that 93 per cent of people are more right-wing than I am.
▸ slightly a bit INFORMAL, a little, slightly, vaguely I felt slightly uneasy as it was the first time I'd spoken to them.
▸ more and more increasingly On the way to the summit, I became increasingly uneasy about the guy.

• ADJ+n feeling, sensation, sense They had had an uneasy feeling throughout the day that they were being watched.

• v+ADJ feel or seem uneasy feel, look, seem Many airlines felt distinctly uneasy about the whole project.
▸ be or become uneasy become, grow, remain Animals can become uneasy about sounds they've never heard before.

2 not settled or calm

• ADJ+n relationship alliance, co-existence, friendship, partnership, relationship There is always an uneasy relationship between art and commerce.
▸ agreement coalition, compromise, truce After much diplomatic coming and going, a rather uneasy compromise was reached.
▸ mixture mix, mixture Today Ponders End is an uneasy mixture of old and new.
▸ balance balance, equilibrium It is true that we are striking an uneasy balance.
▸ quiet or peace peace, silence Mrs. Johnson was the first to break the uneasy silence.

unemployment N a situation where people have no work or income

• adj+N high/low high, low, mass, massive, widespread He was brought up in a community in which there was mass unemployment.
▸ lasting for a long time chronic, long-term, persistent We need new ways of tackling the old problems of persistent unemployment, family breakdown, and low expectations.
▸ getting higher/lower falling, growing, increasing, rising, soaring Consumers are putting off major purchases, partly because they are afraid of rising unemployment.
▸ types of unemployment graduate, hidden, involuntary, male, seasonal, structural, youth Keynes had great difficulty persuading the economics profession that there could be structural unemployment.

• v+N reduce unemployment alleviate, combat, cut, halve, lower, reduce, relieve, tackle New Deal was launched in order to tackle long-term unemployment.
▸ end unemployment abolish, eliminate This economic growth will create new jobs and eliminate unemployment.
▸ experience unemployment experience, face, suffer Young people are more likely to experience unemployment than older age groups.
▸ increase unemployment increase This will make the country less competitive and may increase unemployment.
▸ cause unemployment cause, create, lead to Factories closed, causing widespread unemployment.

• N+v rise double, increase, rise, soar Unemployment rose unexpectedly in the three months to August, according to official figures.

You can say that unemployment hits or reaches a certain figure: We see miserable workers leaving a factory and the caption 'Unemployment hits 3 million'.

▸ fall decline, decrease, drop, fall, halve As a result, youth unemployment has fallen dramatically, down 90 per cent since 1997.

• N+n figures, levels, rates, statistics The published unemployment figures only tell part of the story.
• n+in+N increase increase, rise The result was price increases and a sharp rise in unemployment.
▸ reduction drop, fall, reduction We have seen a massive drop in unemployment.

unexpected ADJ surprising, because you did not expect it

• adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, quite, totally, wholly These incidents usually appear out of the blue, i.e. are totally unexpected.

If something is not completely unexpected, you can say that it is not entirely unexpected or not altogether unexpected: We were questioned for a very long time, which was not altogether unexpected.

▸ very very There was one very unexpected request.
▸ rather or slightly rather, slightly, somewhat Then, something rather unexpected happened.

• ADJ+n surprise surprise, twist It is a darkly humorous tale packed full of unexpected twists and turns.

You can say that events take an unexpected turn or go in an unexpected direction, or that something comes from an unexpected quarter: His marriage is in a crisis and he seeks help from an unexpected quarter.

▸ result or discovery consequence, discovery, ending, finding, outcome, result, side-effect An unexpected finding was that the mouse and rat were resistant.
▸ event arrival, death, event His unexpected death has shocked the German rowing world.

▶ person ally, caller, guest, visitor This folding bed is great for when you have an unexpected guest.
▶ benefit benefit, bonus, treat, windfall We also have access to a smaller conference hall for exhibitor presentations, which is an unexpected bonus.
▶ meeting encounter, visit Each new and unexpected encounter can evoke new ways of thinking and acting.

unfair ADJ not fair or reasonable

● adv+ADJ very deeply, grossly, terribly, very The guys spent a year doing it and I get all the credit, it's grossly unfair.
▶ slightly or rather a bit INFORMAL, a little, rather, slightly This criticism is a little unfair.
▶ clearly blatantly, manifestly, obviously, patently Her primary submission is that the procedure adopted at the trial was manifestly unfair.
▶ by its nature fundamentally, inherently, intrinsically The application of a uniform tariff is inherently unfair in that it favours those who consume most.
▶ completely completely, totally, wholly To equate this great religion with backwardness and reaction is totally unfair.

● v+ADJ consider something unfair consider sth as, perceive sth as, regarded sth as Parents may be less willing to engage in a process that they perceive as unfair.
▶ seem unfair appear, be deemed, be felt to be, feel, seem A few complained that the distribution of classroom assistants among schools appeared unfair.
▶ be unfair be A City victory would have been perhaps unfair, but it almost came.

unfit ADJ
below the accepted quality or standard

● adv+ADJ in a particular way medically, mentally, permanently, physically Jimmy was found to be medically unfit for the Armed Services during the Second World War.
▶ completely quite, totally, utterly, wholly This junction is utterly unfit for the hundreds of thousands of vehicles that pass through it each day.
▶ clearly clearly By early 1997, this architecture was clearly unfit for our expansion plans.

● v+ADJ be or become unfit be, become, be found, be rendered The old-style notes are then withdrawn from circulation as they became unfit to be re-issued.
▶ be considered unfit be considered, be declared, be deemed, be judged Grants may be available if your home is deemed unfit to live in.
▶ make sth unfit make sth Years of neglect had made the buildings unfit for human habitation.

unforgettable ADJ remembered for a very long time afterwards

● adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, quite, totally, utterly The thrill of hand-feeding these beautiful creatures is utterly unforgettable.
▶ really simply, truly Suitable for any regular hillwalker, this is a simply unforgettable alpine holiday.

● ADJ+n experience experience, holiday, journey, moment, sight The gourmet cuisine is an unforgettable experience.

unfortunate ADJ unlucky or that you wish had not happened

● adv+ADJ very doubly, especially, extremely, particularly, very I have been extremely unfortunate in having three operations within the space of a year.
▶ rather rather, somewhat Note the rather unfortunate printing error on the top line.
▶ slightly a little, slightly The timing of the marriage was a little unfortunate.

● ADJ+n event accident, event, experience, incident The details that led up to this unfortunate incident are available from the Dundee Courier.
▶ situation circumstances, situation It was just a set of unfortunate circumstances which I think could have been dealt with a little better.
▶ result consequence, effect, result, side-effect The unfortunate consequence of an ageing population is that many more people will suffer from dementia.

unfounded ADJ not supported with facts or evidence

● adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, quite, totally, wholly After contacting the farmer, we found that the rumour was entirely unfounded.
▶ mainly largely The criticism of the music is largely unfounded.
▶ clearly clearly, manifestly The majority of claims were clearly unfounded.

● ADJ+n accusing someone accusation, allegation, charge, criticism, suspicion Tell them that their client's allegations are completely unfounded.
▶ statement assertion, claim It is hard to know how any honest man can present such a mishmash of unfounded assertion as evidence.
▶ belief assumption, belief The argument rests on an unfounded assumption.
▶ talking about someone or something rumour, speculation I think that this is simply an unfounded rumour!
▶ worry concern, fear, worry In the event, my fears were largely unfounded.

● v+ADJ be unfounded be, prove Sadly, their hopes had proved unfounded.
▶ seem unfounded appear, seem Fears of increased cannabis usage would thus appear unfounded.

unhappy ADJ
feeling sad or upset

● adv+ADJ very deeply, desperately, distinctly, extremely, profoundly, terribly, very It is made quite clear to us that she is deeply unhappy.
▶ clearly clearly, obviously She is obviously unhappy about her marriage.

● v+ADJ be or become unhappy be, become, feel I felt extremely unhappy, anxious, and lonely.
▶ seem unhappy look, seem The poor girl looks so unhappy.
▶ make someone unhappy make sb unhappy The only thing that makes me unhappy is the idea of returning there.

uniform ADJ
the same everywhere

- adv+ADJ very extremely, remarkably, very Although there is a wide variation in height over this area, the general pattern of the sections is very uniform.
- ▸ rather fairly, quite, reasonably, relatively Coffee beans are of fairly uniform size and proportion.
- ▸ completely completely, perfectly In many cases, an atomic nucleus is shaped like a perfectly uniform sphere.
- ▸ almost almost, nearly Jupiter has a single ring that is almost uniform in its structure.
- ADJ+n size or level density, rate, size, standard, temperature, thickness Slices are assumed to have uniform thickness of arbitrary dimension.
- ▸ way something is spread distribution Underfloor heating is one of the most effective methods of obtaining uniform heat distribution.
- ▸ movement flow, motion, velocity In Section 2 we apply Newton's second law to uniform circular motion.
- ▸ appearance appearance, colour This type of picture format is best suited for images containing blocks of uniform colour.

uniformity N
the state of being the same as others

- adj+N dull bland, drab, dull The problem is the supermarkets like bland uniformity.
- ▸ great great, remarkable There is a remarkable uniformity in the customs of this night all through the British Isles.
- ▸ complete absolute, complete, perfect, rigid, strict He would say that the enemy of opportunity was rigid uniformity.
- ▸ types of uniformity cultural, genetic, religious Only in Europe was there a consistent policy of enforcing religious uniformity.
- v+N achieve uniformity achieve, bring, create, ensure, establish, introduce The first step must be to create a uniformity of judging.
- ▸ make sure uniformity happens encourage, enforce, impose, promote Guidelines on diagnosing are issued to doctors to try to promote uniformity in the diagnoses.
- ▸ keep or increase uniformity improve, increase, maintain More recently the history of the landscape is one of gradually increased uniformity.

unimportant ADJ not important or relevant

- adv+ADJ completely completely, totally I talk to you about totally unimportant things that have happened.
- ▸ rather fairly, quite Even things that seem quite unimportant might be significant to someone.
- ▸ when compared to other things comparatively, relatively For long-range search radars, this 'blind' area is relatively unimportant.
- ▸ when something seems to be unimportant apparently, seemingly It's the seemingly unimportant people who determine the course of history.
- v+ADJ be or seem unimportant appear, become, seem Information that initially appears unimportant may become valuable when used with other information.
- ▸ think something is unimportant consider sth, deem sth One matter that this paper considers unimportant is the manner of collecting samples for DNA testing.
- ▸ feel unimportant feel Consequently, we will avoid circumstances that make us feel unimportant.

unintelligible ADJ impossible to understand

- adv+ADJ almost almost, largely, virtually I have to say here that the writing style was virtually unintelligible.
- ▸ completely completely, quite, totally Sanskrit itself uses a non-Roman script that is totally unintelligible without some serious study.
- ▸ between each other mutually China is home to eight mutually unintelligible spoken Chinese dialects.

uninterested ADJ not interested

- adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, singularly, totally, utterly I was and still am totally uninterested in competitive sport.
- ▸ rather largely, quite Current energy suppliers are largely uninterested in small-scale energy generation.
- v+ADJ appear, seem The company seemed uninterested in rectifying their mistake.

unique ADJ
very unusual, or not like anything else

- adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, entirely, genuinely, quite, totally, truly, utterly, wholly We are happy to provide a service which is totally unique to you.
- ▸ almost almost, virtually Skara Brae, by the shore of the Bay of Skaill, is virtually unique.
- ▸ possibly perhaps, possibly, probably The manner of his progress to the final heat was remarkable, possibly unique.
- ▸ not at all hardly She lived to 90 – unusual, but hardly unique.

You can also say that something is by no means unique or far from unique: Sadly, Roz's story is far from unique.

united ADJ
if people are united, they all have the same aims or beliefs

- adv+ADJ completely completely, fully, really Senior Tories are completely united on the issue of ID cards.
- ▸ strongly closely, firmly Our countries have never been so closely united.
- ▸ in politics politically Real black freedom will only come when the region is politically united.
- ADJ+in opposition condemnation, opposition We are united in opposition to further violence and military retaliation.
- ▸ support praise, solidarity, support The angling community is united in its support for these changes to the law.

- ▸ wish or intention aim, commitment, desire, determination, resolve We are united in our resolve to confront and defeat this terrorism.
- ▸ belief or opinion belief, view Above all, they are united in their belief in the project and each other.

unity N

a situation where people join together or agree

- • v+N create unity achieve, attain, bring, build, create, forge, restore Let us look for ways to forge stronger unity in the future.
- ▸ keep or increase unity foster, maintain, preserve, promote, strengthen To preserve national unity, he agreed to relinquish the presidency.
- ▸ damage or destroy unity destroy, disrupt, shatter, threaten, undermine The rift now threatens to undermine the unity of NATO itself.
- ▸ try to create unity call for, seek At his inauguration the governor called for political unity.

universal ADJ

involving or affecting everyone

- • adv+ADJ almost almost, fairly, near, nearly, practically, pretty INFORMAL, pretty much INFORMAL, virtually There was almost universal agreement for these principles.

If something is not universal at all, you can say that it is far from universal or by no means universal: Unfortunately, this flexibility is far from universal.

- ▸ in a real way genuinely, truly This site can be read in practically all languages, making it a truly universal site.
- ▸ seeming to be apparently Our ability to use language to communicate and think develops in stages that are apparently universal.
- ▸ possibly potentially, supposedly It is a move from targeted to potentially universal surveillance.

- • ADJ+n agreement or approval acceptance, acclaim, agreement, appeal, approval There is still no universal agreement on the classification of the marsupials.
- ▸ idea or value principle, theme, truth, value Rules need to be rigorous and based on agreed universal principles.

university N

an institution where people study for degrees and do research

- • adj+N quality elite, good, leading, prestigious, top INFORMAL, world-class Cambridge is a world-class university.
- ▸ age modern, new, old, redbrick, traditional Founded in 1881, the University of Liverpool is the original redbrick university.

- • v+N study at university attend, enter, go to, study at At the age of 20, she attended university.
- ▸ leave university finish, graduate from, leave I don't know what he did after leaving university.
- ▸ apply to university apply to I didn't have any idea about how to prepare for applying to university.

- • N+n places campus, department, faculty, library The School of Electronics and Computer Science is the largest and most successful university department of its kind in the UK.
- ▸ teacher academic, lecturer, professor, researcher, staff, teacher, tutor Two university academics have recently published books in their fields of expertise.
- ▸ student graduate, student, undergraduate Do I have to be a university graduate?
- ▸ education course, degree, education, teaching, tuition Include any advanced university degrees on your business card.
- ▸ joining a university admission, entrance We help students decide on the right subjects for university entrance.

unknown ADJ

which people do not know about

- • adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, quite, totally, utterly, wholly Most of the names were completely unknown to me.
- ▸ mainly largely, mostly The longer-term risks of the drug are still largely unknown.
- ▸ compared to others comparatively, relatively Eric Bana, best known as The Hulk, leads the relatively unknown cast.
- ▸ almost almost, practically, virtually As the twentieth century began, Antarctica had been barely visited and was virtually unknown.
- ▸ with time expressions as yet, currently, hitherto, presently, previously, still This enabled cotton output to be increased to levels as yet unknown.
- ▸ except for one fact otherwise An unusual edition of Euclid was published in 1847 in England, edited by an otherwise unknown mathematician named Oliver Byrne.

- • v+ADJ be, remain Other possible causes of the disease remain unknown.

unlikely ADJ

not likely to happen

- • adv+ADJ very exceedingly, extremely, highly, incredibly, very The extent of these similarities make a mere coincidence highly unlikely.
- ▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, relatively, somewhat It is quite unlikely that they will manage to fill all the spaces in that time.
- ▸ by its nature inherently It was inherently unlikely that the document could have been written without the involvement of lawyers.
- ▸ more and more increasingly With all the key players pursuing their own successful careers, a major reunion is increasingly unlikely.

- • v+ADJ seem unlikely appear, look, seem, sound It seemed very unlikely that Jack's body would ever be recovered.
- ▸ be considered unlikely be considered, be deemed, be thought The city was not provided with anti-aircraft defences because an attack was considered unlikely.
- ▸ be unlikely be, remain Without new evidence, it remains unlikely that Strauss's suggestion can be validated.

If you think something is unlikely to happen, you can use the expression in the unlikely event: In the unlikely event that an order is not received, please contact us as soon as possible so that we can arrange another delivery.

unlimited ADJ
not stopped or made less by anything

- adv+ADJ almost almost, nearly, potentially, practically, virtually Modern information technology allows us practically unlimited access to each other's languages.
- ▶ in effect effectively, essentially Electricity backup capabilities at our data center are essentially unlimited.
- ▶ seeming to be apparently, seemingly Each entry is extensively cross-referenced, giving the reader seemingly unlimited avenues to explore.

unlucky ADJ
if you are unlucky, something bad happens to you

- adv+ADJ very desperately INFORMAL, extremely, particularly, really, so, very Unless you are really unlucky, rain should not stop play.
- ▶ slightly a bit INFORMAL, a little We felt a little unlucky to be losing at half time.
- ▶ rather pretty INFORMAL, rather, somewhat I think he was pretty unlucky never to get a contract in Australia.
- v+ADJ be, feel, prove I always feel so depressed because I feel so unlucky.

unmoved ADJ
feeling no sympathy or sadness

- adv+ADJ completely, quite, totally, utterly What will move one of us to tears will leave the other totally unmoved.
- v+ADJ be unmoved be, remain Despite passionate lobbying and entreaties, the BBC remained unmoved.
- ▶ seem unmoved appear, seem So far, the council appears unmoved.
- ▶ make someone feel unmoved leave sb The devastation and escalating death toll in the region can leave no one unmoved.

unnecessary ADJ possible to avoid

- adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, quite, totally, wholly Spraying the plant with chemical sprays is wholly unnecessary because it is so disease-resistant.
- ▶ mainly generally, largely This conclusion was eventually reached, but only after a tiresome and largely unnecessary discussion.
- ▶ perhaps perhaps, probably She realized that the test was probably unnecessary.
- ADJ+n difficulties or problems barriers, burden, bureaucracy, complications, delay, duplication, paperwork, regulation, restrictions, risk The staff is kept small to avoid unnecessary bureaucracy.
- ▶ suffering distress, pain, pressure, stress, suffering How can this unnecessary suffering be stopped?
- ▶ costs cost, expense, waste We have streamlined the whole process to eliminate any unnecessary costs.
- v+ADJ be or become unnecessary be, become, prove The IMF demanded cuts in public expenditure that proved unnecessary.
- ▶ be considered unnecessary be considered, be deemed, be thought It was thought unnecessary to go into great depth.
- ▶ seem unnecessary appear, seem The idea of a consumer boycott seems unnecessary.
- ▶ make something unnecessary make sth, render sth Pensions should be raised high enough to make it unnecessary for people to ask for extra help.

unnoticed ADJ not seen or noticed by anyone

- adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, quite, totally Eating disorders can, in the early stages, go completely unnoticed.
- ▶ mainly largely, mostly These conditions can lead to major visual impairment, mostly unnoticed by parents and teachers.
- ▶ almost almost, practically, virtually The quaint town remains, virtually unnoticed, in the shadow of its urban neighbour.
- ▶ until now hitherto, previously Previously unnoticed, the leaves are beginning to turn yellow.
- v+ADJ be unnoticed go, lie, pass, remain Sadly this important anniversary appeared to pass unnoticed.
- ▶ go somewhere unnoticed escape, slip, slip away While the hostages are rounded up, McClane slips away unnoticed.

unorthodox ADJ not following the usual rules or beliefs

- adv+ADJ very highly The central hypothesis, and the various interpretations that follow from it, are highly unorthodox.
- ▶ rather rather, somewhat He was a most capable, if somewhat unorthodox, architect.
- ▶ slightly slightly When I graduated, I chose a slightly unorthodox career path.
- ADJ+n method approach, method, style, tactics He resigned from the school in 1991, following allegations about his unorthodox teaching methods.
- ▶ beliefs or ideas beliefs, ideas, views Her unorthodox views created much controversy.

unpleasant ADJ not liked or enjoyed

- adv+ADJ very decidedly, deeply, distinctly, downright, extremely, particularly, thoroughly, very Your demeanour is arrogant, impatient, and downright unpleasant.
- ▶ rather or slightly fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, slightly, somewhat The weather stayed fairly unpleasant, so we were grateful to be in sheltered waters.
- ADJ+n situation conditions, situation Conditions were very unpleasant during this campaign.
- ▶ experience experience, incident, memory I do often get recognized but so far I've never had an unpleasant experience.
- ▶ surprise shock, surprise It is important to fix the price at the beginning in order to avoid unpleasant surprises.
- ▶ feeling feeling, sensation, side-effect, symptom Diarrhoea is an unpleasant symptom and can be very debilitating.
- ▶ smell or taste odour, smell, taste The slime which covers the skin has a strong but not unpleasant smell.

unpopular ADJ disliked by many people

- adv+ADJ very deeply, extremely, highly, hugely, massively, very A six-month pay freeze was not only hugely unpopular but failed to do the trick.
- ▸ with many people universally His wife, Ingrid, was a disagreeable and universally unpopular woman.
- ▸ possibly potentially Regulating the movement of people is highly political and potentially unpopular.
- ▸ more and more increasingly The war grew increasingly unpopular in the US, and troops began to withdraw in 1970.
- ▸ relating to politics politically This solution is likely to prove politically unpopular in the UK.

- ADJ+n decision choice, decision Pensions are another area where any Government is likely to face tough and unpopular decisions.
- ▸ action measure, move, policy, proposal, scheme The first Budget of a new parliamentary term is often an occasion to announce unpopular measures.
- ▸ opinion cause, opinion, view Rainsborough's radical views were unpopular in the Navy.

- v+ADJ be, become, prove, remain Though necessary, the measure is likely to prove unpopular with the electorate.

unprecedented ADJ never having happened or existed before

- adv+ADJ almost almost, virtually This season will see a level of competition almost unprecedented in recent years.
- ▸ completely absolutely, completely, quite, totally, truly The next century was to see changes whose scale and pace was to be quite unprecedented.
- ▸ in history historically In absolute terms, armies reached historically unprecedented sizes in the twentieth century.
- ▸ until now hitherto, previously Businesses now cooperate with each other in a way that was previously unprecedented.
- ▸ not hardly While this is an unusual example, such a collapse of law-and-order is hardly unprecedented.
- ▸ perhaps perhaps, probably The appeal judges described the challenge to the Act as 'unusual, and in modern times probably unprecedented'.

- ADJ+n level or amount amount, degree, demand, level, number, rate, scale, speed We are currently experiencing unprecedented levels of business.
- ▸ increase growth, increase, rise Recent years have seen an unprecedented increase in the numbers of undergraduate medical students in the UK.
- ▸ action action, move, step In an unprecedented move, the force decided to issue the images of 31 protesters they wanted to interview.
- ▸ opportunity opportunity For schools, this is an unprecedented opportunity to consider their future.

unpredictable ADJ involving changes you cannot prepare for

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, very We operate in a highly unpredictable and quickly changing business environment.
- ▸ completely completely, entirely, quite, totally, utterly, wholly Depression is totally unpredictable and irrational.
- ▸ rather largely, rather, sometimes, somewhat Training in Africa is always somewhat unpredictable.
- ▸ by nature essentially, inherently Auctions are inherently unpredictable.
- ▸ more and more increasingly His behaviour became increasingly unpredictable and violent, resulting in divorce from his first wife.

- ADJ+n result change, consequences, effect, outcome, result The outcome is unpredictable at best.
- ▸ way manner, way It can be difficult for customers to budget when their income fluctuates in such an unpredictable manner.
- ▸ behaviour behaviour, nature, pattern The boy's unpredictable behaviour has put him and others in danger.
- ▸ situation conditions, situation Tomorrow's race is going to be exciting, especially as the unpredictable weather conditions are set to continue.

unprovoked ADJ an unprovoked attack is made for no reason

- adv+ADJ completely completely, entirely, totally The massacre was entirely unprovoked.
- ▸ apparently apparently, seemingly This was a violent and apparently unprovoked attack and we need to find those responsible.

- ADJ+n attack act of aggression, aggression, assault, attack, violence, war While revenge and unprovoked aggression are condemned, self defence is justified.
- ▸ killing killing, murder It is for the prosecution to prove that the killing was unprovoked.

- and/or violent brutal, vicious, violent This appears to have been an unprovoked and vicious attack on vulnerable members of the community.
- ▸ illegal or without reason illegal, unjustified The assault was totally unprovoked and unjustified and it was racially motivated.
- ▸ because of someone's race racist Satpal suffered an unprovoked racist attack.

unqualified ADJ
complete and total, without any doubts

- ADJ+n success success The Bulletin was instituted as an experiment and has become an unqualified success.
- ▸ approval approval, praise Her work is cited in a footnote with unqualified approval.
- ▸ agreement or support acceptance, support I am giving this project my unqualified support and commitment.
- ▸ apology apology Unless you publish an immediate unqualified apology, I shall never buy another copy.

unreasonable ADJ not fair

- adv+ADJ very completely, entirely, quite, totally, very, wholly The regulations are being applied in a totally unreasonable way.
- ▸ clearly and without any doubt clearly, manifestly, obviously An appeal will only be appropriate where the judge's ruling is manifestly unreasonable.

- v+ADJ appear, be, consider sth, seem It seems unreasonable to some of Brazil's landless that approximately 217.5 million acres are given to about 250,000 individuals.

unreliable ADJ impossible to trust completely

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, increasingly, totally, very, wholly Reliable empirical data is extremely limited, and casual anecdotal evidence highly unreliable.
  - ▸ rather rather, somewhat The figures are rather unreliable before that time.
  - ▸ possibly potentially Maps are potentially unreliable.
  - ▸ in a way that most people know notoriously Such information is notoriously unreliable.
  - ▸ in a way that cannot be avoided inherently Any information obtained by means of torture is inherently unreliable.
- ADJ+n information data, evidence, figures, guide, information, results, statistics The Tribunal concluded that her evidence was unreliable and inconsistent.
  - ▸ method, system etc indicator, method, service, supply, system, test Take some candles with you, as the electricity supply is unreliable.
  - ▸ person providing information narrator, source, witness Arouca claimed that Kumar is an unreliable witness who has lied to the court.
- v+ADJ be, consider sth, prove, seem Data are presented in tables and graphs throughout this report, except in cases where it is considered unreliable.

unrest N angry or violent protests

- adj+N involving many people considerable, great, massive, serious, widespread In many parts of the country, there was widespread unrest as rival armies fought for supremacy.
  - ▸ becoming more serious growing, increasing Despite growing unrest, the presidential elections were relatively peaceful and fair.
  - ▸ violent violent Violent unrest necessitated the evacuation of embasssy employees.
  - ▸ types of unrest civil, general, industrial, internal, political, popular, public, racial, religious, social, urban Social unrest brought chaos to the country.
- v+N cause unrest cause, create, foment, fuel, lead to, provoke, spark The news of Eluay's death sparked unrest in his home town.
  - ▸ stop unrest deal with, quell The government agreed to provide 700–800 soldiers to quell the unrest.
- n+of+N cause, outbreak, period, state, wave The rail industry is already suffering the worst wave of industrial unrest since the 1980s.
- and/or conflict, instability, riot, tension, violence, war By 1995, it was estimated that 1,500 people had been killed in the violence and unrest.

unscathed ADJ not harmed or damaged by a dangerous event

- adv+ADJ largely, relatively, totally, virtually Coulthard emerged virtually unscathed from a plane crash in France.
- v+ADJ come through, emerge, escape, leave, remain, survive, walk away The one time capital of Japan emerged largely unscathed from the Pacific War,

unstable ADJ changing often and having problems

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, very A new and very unstable situation has opened up in Gaza and the West Bank.
  - ▸ rather quite, rather, relatively, somewhat The situation in Taiwan was rather unstable at the time.
  - ▸ possibly potentially The report suggests that current productivity is very dependent upon a few successful individuals, and is potentially unstable.
  - ▸ becoming more unstable increasingly The Roman Republic became increasingly unstable.
  - ▸ in a way that is dangerous dangerously The position in this country remains dangerously unstable.
  - ▸ in a way that is well known notoriously It is hard to attract investment because the region is notoriously unstable.
  - ▸ in a basic way fundamentally, inherently, intrinsically, structurally Some economists believe that price-fixing cartels are inherently unstable.
  - ▸ in a particular way economically, emotionally, financially, politically We want to reduce dependence on energy imports from politically unstable countries.
- v+ADJ appear, be, become, prove, remain Financial markets will become more unstable as international economic co-operation breaks down further.
- and/or dangerous, difficult, uncertain, unpredictable, unreliable, weak Economic growth is too weak and unstable to revive the labour market.

unsuccessful ADJ not achieving what you want

- adv+ADJ very singularly, spectacularly, totally, very If the intention of these churchmen is to encourage better community relations, then they are being singularly unsuccessful.
  - ▸ rather largely, rather, relatively This effort was largely unsuccessful.
  - ▸ at the end ultimately The argument is ingenious, but ultimately unsuccessful.
- v+ADJ be, prove, remain Attempts to find an operator for the mine have proved unsuccessful.
- ADJ+in application, attempt, bid If you are unsuccessful in your application, you will be notified.

unsuitable ADJ not suitable for situation or purpose

- adv+ADJ very completely, entirely, highly, quite, totally, very, wholly We need to resolve the problem of these juggernauts using narrow and highly unsuitable country lanes.

- ▶ in most situations generally, often Ports and harbours which had been built in a pre-railway age were often unsuitable for rail access.
- ▶ clearly clearly, obviously Such an open channel is obviously unsuitable for secure business communications.

- • v+ADJ be or seem unsuitable be, prove, seem As motorised transport developed, the town's narrow streets proved unsuitable for trucks and buses to negotiate.
- ▶ consider something unsuitable consider, deem, judge Some images in this section may be deemed unsuitable for viewing by young children.

unsure ADJ

not certain about something

- • adv+ADJ rather a bit, a little, quite, rather, slightly There was a silence and I was a little unsure what to say.
- ▶ very completely, very Many people are still very unsure of their rights.
- ▶ at first initially Because of my relatively low grades, I was initially unsure about my ability to study for a physics degree.

- • v+ADJ appear, be, feel, remain, seem Mothers may also feel unsure about how long they should breastfeed.

untouched ADJ

not harmed or spoiled

- • adv+ADJ almost, completely, largely, relatively, virtually Antarctica is one of the few areas of the world that has been left relatively untouched.

- • ADJ+n area, beach, beauty, forest, landscape, rainforest, wilderness The hotel rooms have views over the garden, to the untouched beauty of the Lakeland hills. • Alberta still has huge expanses of untouched wilderness and open plains.

- • v+ADJ be left, lie, remain, seem, survive The tiny narrow Moorish back streets have remained untouched by modern tourism. • Stonehenge and its landscape survived relatively untouched for thousands of years.

unusual ADJ

not normal, common, or ordinary

- • adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, really, truly, very The college is also highly unusual in having a fully equipped purpose-built theatre.
- ▶ rather fairly, a little, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, relatively, slightly, somewhat If you visit this city from the 5th to the 16th July, you will be in for a rather unusual treat.
- ▶ very and more than others especially, particularly The sword dated back to the Napoleonic era and was particularly unusual because of its size.
- ▶ certainly/possibly certainly, perhaps The rules are not complex, but the concepts are certainly unusual.

- • v+ADJ seem unusual appear, look, seem, strike sb as The conversation might have seemed unusual to an outsider.
- ▶ think that something is unusual consider sth, find sth We were quite quiet on the journey, which I found unusual.

- • and/or attractive, beautiful, complex, different, exciting, exotic, innovative, interesting, new, rare, special, strange, unexpected, unique If you have an interesting or unusual hobby, let us know.

- • V+infinitive come across, encounter, find, have, hear, see It is unusual to find such a regular landscape so close to the coast.

unveil V

announce something that was previously secret

- • adv+V officially formally, officially The Lancashire Carers Charter was officially unveiled this week.
- ▶ recently just, recently, today The firm has just unveiled its new management structure.
- ▶ after a long time finally The Department of Health finally unveiled its plans for dealing with smoking in public places.

- • V+n a plan campaign, initiative, package, plan, policy, programme, project, proposal, scheme, strategy, system, vision The company has unveiled an ambitious expansion plan.
- ▶ information detail, mystery, result, secret BT has unveiled details of a new product that could revolutionize broadband.

unwarranted ADJ

not fair or necessary

- • ADJ+n assumption, attack, criticism, damage, disclosure, infringement, interference, intrusion, restriction Tenants must be free from unwarranted intrusion by anyone, including the landlord.

unwell ADJ

ill

- • adv+ADJ very acutely, extremely, seriously, very I woke up feeling very unwell.
- ▶ rather a little, quite, slightly Children are often sick and can feel quite unwell.
- ▶ in your mind/body mentally, physically Older people may feel depressed because they are isolated, on a low income or physically unwell.
- ▶ in all parts of your body generally The infection may make you feel generally unwell and give you a fever.

- • v+ADJ become, feel, look He became unwell with diarrhoea and vomiting.

unwilling ADJ

not wanting to do something

- • adv+ADJ clearly, generally, increasingly, simply, understandably, very People are simply unwilling to accept orders from above.

- • v+ADJ appear, be, become, prove, remain, seem The government appears unwilling to accept that the problem is as least partly of their own making.

- • and/or incapable, unable He seemed unable or unwilling to make a real commitment to any relationship.

upbringing N
the way parents look after and teach children

- adj+N good good, proper, stable Love, affection and a good stable upbringing are seen as the most important factors in raising children.
- ▸ difficult, or without much money difficult, humble, poor, tough We had a very difficult upbringing, and my brother suffered the most.
- ▸ easy, or with plenty of money comfortable, privileged He was born into an aristocratic family and had a highly privileged upbringing.
- ▸ not unusual in any way conventional, normal, traditional She had a conventional middle-class upbringing.
- ▸ protected from unpleasant events and experiences sheltered Having had a sheltered upbringing, I saw little of the effects of gambling in my early years.
- ▸ having strict rules of behaviour strict Our upbringing was very strict indeed, and often I rebelled against this.
- ▸ involving religion religious Some people become atheists in reaction to a strict religious upbringing.

upgrade N equipment or software making a computer more powerful

- adj+N automatic, easy, free, minor, simple Please download the free upgrade by clicking on the link below. ◉ It is only a minor upgrade, the system should be back up in a few hours. ◉ A simple upgrade to your line is required.
- v+N get an upgrade do, download, get, install, perform By installing the latest OS upgrades, the speed and stability of your system can be significantly improved.
- ▸ need an upgrade need, require New technical opportunities and platforms will require upgrades to existing systems.

upheaval N a sudden or violent change affecting people's lives

- adj+N big or violent big, considerable, enormous, great, huge, major, massive, tremendous, violent This was a time of great upheaval.
- ▸ types of upheaval domestic, economic, emotional, political, religious, revolutionary, social Since the start of the project, Fiji has experienced serious political and social upheaval.
- v+N cause upheaval cause, create, lead to, mean The entry of Chandni into the lives of Rishi and Mohan causes a huge upheaval in their relationship.
- ▸ experience or deal with upheaval cope with, experience, face, go through, survive, undergo The country has experienced very few political upheavals since the end of World War II, creating a stable environment for business and investment.
- n+of+N period, time The companies have both been undergoing periods of major upheaval.
- and/or change, disruption, turmoil, uncertainty, war The industry must prepare itself for a period of upheaval and change.

uphold V
support an idea, decision etc

- V+n a decision, especially a legal one appeal, authority, ban, conviction, decision, finding, order, policy, ruling This Committee upheld the decision of the LSC.
- ▸ a right freedom, interest, right Laws have been revised to uphold press freedom.
- ▸ a complaint complaint, objection The Federal Radio Commission (FRC) upheld the objection.
- ▸ a belief belief, claim, ideal, position, principle, values, view They promoted themselves as a party upholding Christian values.
- ▸ a standard dignity, integrity, justice, reputation, standard, truth It upholds standards and maintains our commitment to the very best of public service broadcasting.
- ▸ a rule or law law, rule The University is committed to upholding the law relating to racial equality.
- ▸ a tradition tradition He admired artists who upheld the classical traditions of painting.

uplifting ADJ
making you feel happier or more hopeful

- adv+V very really, truly, very The survivors' stories are very uplifting and helped me a great deal.
- ▸ in a particular way morally, spiritually This series of pictures depicts the artist's internal journey, the culmination of which is a beautiful, spiritually uplifting painting entitled 'Back Home'
- V+n music chorus, melody, music, piece, song, sound, track, tune Filled with the energy of joy, these uplifting songs are accompanied by African harps and drums.
- ▸ story message, story, tale Here, she tells her heartbreaking, but ultimately uplifting, story.
- ▸ experience experience It is always a pleasing and uplifting experience to see students perform well.
- ▸ feeling or effect effect, feeling Neroli oil is believed to have a soothing, peaceful and uplifting effect.

uprising N an attempt by a group to defeat a government or ruler

- adj+N involving many people general, major, mass, national, popular There are fears that there will be a mass uprising if the election is rigged. ◉ He moved to Jakarta after the popular uprising that overthrew President Suharto.
- ▸ involving violence or weapons armed, bloody, violent The perceived lack of action on the part of the government led to a series of armed uprisings.
- ▸ starting suddenly, without being planned spontaneous We have witnessed a spontaneous uprising of disaffected youth.
- ▸ unsuccessful abortive, failed, unsuccessful In July 1917, after an abortive uprising in Petrograd, Lenin was forced to flee to Finland.
- ▸ types of uprising military, nationalist, political, revolutionary Seven years later, there was a nationalist uprising, the Orabi Rebellion of September 1881, with the slogan of 'Egypt for the Egyptians'.
- v+N lead an uprising lead, organize Thomas Wyatt led an uprising against Queen Mary.

▶ cause an uprising cause, lead to, provoke, spark, trigger Insensitive treatment of Tibet's ancient culture provoked a further uprising in 1959.
▶ start an uprising launch, stage, start They staged many uprisings and so managed to draw Rome's attention to this city.
▶ stop an uprising crush, defeat, quell, suppress Despite the enormous heroism of the workers, the uprising was crushed.

uproar N angry public criticism of something

• adj+N great, huge, public When Hicks announced that the campaign was due to close, there was a huge uproar. ◦ If the airlines tried to do something similar with air crew, there would be public uproar.
• v+N cause, create, end in, provoke, spark This ruling has created uproar.

upset ADJ
very sad, worried, or angry about something

• adv+ADJ very deeply, extremely, incredibly, really, terribly, very She was really offended and very upset.
▶ rather pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather I could see that he was rather upset at having his supposed expertise called into doubt.
▶ in a way that is easy to see clearly, obviously, visibly He was obviously upset, but that's no excuse for petulantly walking off stage.
▶ in a way that is easy to understand understandably The woman was understandably upset at this very hurtful comment.
▶ often easily I get upset very easily.

• v+ADJ become upset become, get There's no point in getting upset about things you cannot change.
▶ feel upset feel Anybody who has reported a person missing will be feeling upset, anxious and worried about that person's welfare.
▶ seem upset look, seem, sound 'No, no, no,' she claimed, looking quite upset at my reaction.

• and/or angry, annoyed, confused, hurt, shocked, worried If you are worried or upset about something, you can ask to speak to your head of department.

• V+infinitive find, hear, learn, see I was upset to see how rundown in appearance the whole area had become.

upset N
a defeat of an opponent considered to be better

• adj+N big, major, notable They had the best team, and anything other than a win would have been a major upset.

• v+N cause, create, produce Chuah, the fifth seed, produced the upset of the day as she defeated the third seed, Hansen.

upsurge N
a sudden increase in something

• adj+N big or sudden big, dramatic, great, huge, major, massive, sudden, tremendous There has been a huge upsurge in street crime. ◦ Parliament was concerned about the sudden upsurge in demands for reform.
▶ happening now or recently current, new, recent The current upsurge in strikes has exposed the weaknesses of some of the current trade union leaders.

• v+N experience, see, witness The 1830s saw a tremendous upsurge in interest in the occult.

• N+in interest or popularity activity, demand, interest, popularity There has been an upsurge in interest in a more intensive study of the Baha'i Faith.
▶ violence or crime attacks, crime, violence A dramatic upsurge in violence in the country prompted fears of a return to full-scale civil war.

up-to-date ADJ including the most recent news and information

• adv+ADJ completely bang INFORMAL, completely, fully, right, very While there is a huge database of survey details, it is not fully up-to-date.
▶ in most ways reasonably Most people need to review their will at least every five years, to check that it is still reasonably up-to-date.

• v+ADJ stay up-to-date remain, stay We can work with you to ensure that your website remains up-to-date.
▶ make something up-to-date bring sth, keep sth This latest edition of the book has been brought right up-to-date to reflect the changing face of business.

upturn N
an increase in business or economic activity

• adj+N big dramatic, major, marked, sharp, significant The market has shown a significant upturn this year, with a steady increase in prices over that period.
▶ small modest, slight In the US, there are some early signs of a modest upturn in levels of corporate finance activity.
▶ recent recent Property sellers are coming to the market – perhaps encouraged by the recent upturn in prices.
▶ economic economic Russia enjoyed an economic upturn last year.

• v+N experience, result in, see, show, take The run-up to the Christmas period saw an upturn in consumer spending. ◦ The company's fortunes were about to take an upturn.

• N+in business, demand, economy, fortunes, market, number, sales Abraham's appointment as manager resulted in an upturn in the club's fortunes.

urban ADJ relating to towns and cities

• adv+ADJ largely, mainly, mostly, particularly, predominantly, very In industrialized countries, like the UK, the population is largely urban.

• ADJ+n area area, environment, landscape, setting, space, sprawl The Adelphi, which was demolished in the 1930s, was a highly symbolic site in London's urban landscape.
▶ people community, dweller, population This is an urban community with limited opportunity to access green space. ◦ I was an urban dweller, a resident of London, who knew nothing about farming.

▸ improvement development, redevelopment, regeneration, renaissance, renewal The Government considers that the urban renaissance will benefit everyone, making towns and cities vibrant and successful.
▸ design or planning design, planning Lack of urban planning allows unsafe development on floodplains, unstable slopes or ravines.

urge N
a strong feeling of wanting to do something

• adj+N strong or sudden deep, desperate, great, irresistible, overwhelming, powerful, strong, sudden, uncontrollable He had a strong urge to travel. ◉ I had a sudden urge to see her, and tell her that I did love her, really.
▸ natural natural Children have a natural urge to explore and learn about the environment.
▸ types of urge competitive, creative, sexual I have a real creative urge to do something, and to create my own greeting cards is one of the ideas I've had.

• v+N have an urge experience, feel, get, have Our store is online 24 hours a day, for whenever you feel the urge to shop.
▸ try to stop an urge control, fight, overcome, resist, stifle, suppress I'm not a smoker myself, but my husband is currently fighting the urge to light up again.
▸ satisfy an urge satisfy If you do crave chocolate, satisfy the urge with a little dark, bitter chocolate.

urgency N
the need to deal with something quickly

• adj+N great extreme, great, particular, real, utmost This is a matter of the utmost urgency.
▸ extra added, increased, new, special It is a real and growing problem, and has given new urgency to the debate about national missile defenses.

• v+N emphasize urgency emphasize, highlight, stress, underline He stressed the urgency of revising the legislation, since elections for provincial assemblies are due next year.
▸ understand urgency recognize, see, understand The British government has recognized the urgency of the HIV/AIDS epidemic and has already increased overseas aid.
▸ have or make something have urgency give sth, have, inject, lend, take on Understanding the climate system is a major research challenge given urgency by global warming. ◉ Other repairs may have some urgency, such as a broken water pipes.

• N+of case, issue, matter, need, problem, situation, task, threat She became concerned that the man did not understand the urgency of the situation.

• n+of+N degree, matter, sense That is the task that the government needs to return to with a degree of urgency. ◉ They told her that they were dealing with her case as a matter of urgency.

urgent ADJ
which needs to be dealt with immediately

• adv+ADJ desperately, extremely, increasingly, particularly, really, very It is increasingly urgent that food and other emergency supplies reach people in need in remote areas, as winter sets in.

• v+ADJ be, become, consider sth, remain, seem, sound With each passing hour, the need becomes more urgent.

useless ADJ
not effective in any way

• adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, entirely, quite, really, seemingly, totally, utterly These theories were absolutely useless when it came to explaining why.
▸ almost almost, effectively, essentially, largely, mostly, nearly, practically, virtually The cheap and once very effective anti-malarial drug chloroquine is now almost useless in large parts of the world due to the development of resistance. ◉ So here we have a well publicized list of companies running what is now effectively useless security software.
▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, rather A program may be magnificent in all ways, but if it doesn't help the user learn what they need to know, it is rather useless.

• v+ADJ be or become useless be, become, prove The access software soon becomes useless if the latest applications are not included.
▸ seem useless seem Everything he had learnt before seemed useless when faced with such real life issues.
▸ make something useless render sth In some cities, cycle lanes have been rendered completely useless by parked cars.

utilize V use something

• adv+V effectively, efficiently, fully, properly, successfully Teachers must be able to efficiently utilize school resources relative to the needs of students with disabilities.

• V+n information, knowledge, or skills data, experience, expertise, information, knowledge, material, resource, service, skill, technology We must be smart and create new opportunities to utilize this knowledge.
▸ a method approach, method, methodology, process, strategy, system, technique, tool They utilized new methods of campaigning.
▸ energy energy, power Photovoltaics modules utilize solar power to generate useable amounts of electricity.
▸ space or place area, building, land, site, space They want to utilize the space by creating an oasis and a refuge from the daily stresses of life.

U-turn N a sudden and complete change of policy

• adj+N complete or big complete, dramatic, major The scheme looks set to go ahead after a dramatic U-turn by the government.
▸ embarrassing embarrassing, humiliating The humiliating U-turn follows yesterday's legal challenge by Friends of the Earth.

• v+N do a U-turn do, make, perform A determined campaign by locals forced the council to do a U-turn on the pool's closure.
▸ make someone do a U-turn force sb into The government may be forced into an embarrassing U-turn following a barrage of criticism.

Vv

vacancy N
a job available for someone to do

- adj+N available now available, current, immediate, the latest, new For more of our current vacancies, please go to the vacancies page.
- ▸ suitable appropriate, suitable Once you've registered, you'll be able search for suitable vacancies.
- ▸ permanent/temporary casual, permanent, temporary During your training, you will be in a position to apply for suitable permanent vacancies within the council. ◦ Our client has a 3-month temporary vacancy for an experienced Quality Engineer to work in the Portsmouth area.
- ▸ part-time/full-time full-time, part-time The college currently has a part-time vacancy for an experienced Early Years lecturer.
- ▸ that nobody is doing unfilled One in five vacancies is unfilled because of skill shortages.
- ▸ in the company that you are working for internal Internal vacancies are advertised on our intranet.

- n+N graduate, job, management, staff The competition for graduate vacancies is likely to be tough, so you'll need to stand out from the crowd. ◦ Get details of job vacancies by email or text.

- v+N have a vacancy have We currently have a vacancy for a Customer Service Officer.
- ▸ create a vacancy create, leave His transfer to another office has created a vacancy within the department.
- ▸ advertise a vacancy advertise, list, post, publicize We advertise most vacancies externally, mainly using newspapers and professional magazines.
- ▸ find a vacancy find Recruitment agencies can save you valuable time in finding a suitable vacancy.
- ▸ fill a vacancy fill Research indicates that the average cost of filling a vacancy is £4,800.

- N+v arise, come up, exist, occur A vacancy has arisen for a Clerical Assistant within our Clerical Services Department.

vacuum N
a feeling or the fact that something is missing

- adj+N moral, political, spiritual He does not think that scientific enquiry should take place in a moral vacuum.

- n+N policy, power, security The withdrawal of troops could create a security vacuum.

- v+N create a vacuum create, leave Her departure left a power vacuum at the campaign's headquarters.
- ▸ fill a vacuum fill There is an urgent need to fill the political vacuum which is fast developing.
- ▸ be in a vacuum exist in, operate in The writer does not exist in a vacuum.

vague ADJ not clear or fully formed

- adv+ADJ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, somewhat My memories of 30 years ago are rather vague.
- ▸ slightly a bit INFORMAL, a little Some of these descriptions are a little vague.
- ▸ very extremely, very My own recollections are extremely vague.
- ▸ deliberately deliberately This review is deliberately vague because I don't want to give anything away.

- ADJ+n idea or thought concept, idea, impression, notion I have only a vague idea of what I want to do when I leave university.
- ▸ feeling feeling, sense, suspicion She had the vague feeling that something was wrong.
- ▸ memory memory, recollection I have a vague memory of the restaurant.
- ▸ something said or written answer, description, hint, promise, reference, statement, term, wording The government has given a rather vague promise that it will aim to increase funding per pupil.

- v+ADJ be, leave sth, remain, seem Details were left vague, including how people might be compensated. ◦ Estimates of the cost remain vague.

vain ADJ
unsuccessful or useless

- ADJ+n attempt attempt, effort, endeavour A vain attempt was made to attract the attention of the train driver.
- ▸ hope hope I stayed until the end, in the vain hope that things would improve.
- ▸ feelings of sadness regrets We do not want to waste these precious moments with vain regrets or bitterness.

valid ADJ reasonable and generally accepted

- adv+ADJ equally, perfectly, scientifically, statistically, still, universally, very This is a perfectly valid point of view.

- ADJ+n reason excuse, reason You must have a valid reason for not attending.
- ▸ idea or opinion argument, comment, opinion, point It is a valid point to raise.
- ▸ statement that something is wrong complaint, criticism, objection There were some valid criticisms of the website, which we'll take on board.
- ▸ something you decide is true assumption, conclusion, inference, interpretation If it ever was a valid assumption, which I doubt, it is certainly out of date.
- ▸ comparison comparison We do not believe that this comparison is valid.

- v+ADJ be valid be, remain, seem These criticisms remain valid.
- ▸ think something is valid accept sth as, consider sth, deem sth, regard sth as The appeal may be rejected if these reasons are not considered valid.

validity N
the state of being reasonable and generally accepted

- adj+N using science or numbers scientific, statistical It must be stressed that these figures have little statistical validity.
- possibly not existing questionable The presumption that a country is safe is of questionable validity.
- in all cases universal It is difficult to formulate simple principles of human behaviour that have a universal validity.
- equal equal These statements are not all of equal validity.

- v+N question the validity of something challenge, deny, doubt, question Many researchers now question the validity of these findings.
- check or consider the validity of something assess, check, examine, investigate, test, verify We will need to assess your complaint to check its validity.
- prove or show the validity of something confirm, demonstrate, determine, establish, prove There remains no medical test to clearly demonstrate the validity of the diagnosis.
- accept the validity of something accept, recognize She finally accepted the validity of his argument.
- have validity have These measures had no scientific validity.
- give something validity give sth Should we give all these points of view equal validity?

- n+about+N concerns, doubts, questions However, doubts about the validity of such tests remain.

- N+of results or information data, findings, results We are in no position to determine the validity of the findings.
- statement or argument argument, assumption, claim, statement I'm not sure of the validity of that argument.
- theory or method approach, method, model, theory The validity of this approach was tested using data from three previously published studies.

valley N
a low area of land between mountains or hills

- adj+N with trees and plants growing fertile, forested, green, lush, wooded You now follow a path through a wooded valley.
- deep or wide broad, deep, wide Massive glaciers carve their way through deep valleys.
- steep steep, steep-sided The route crossed a series of high moors and steep valleys.
- not deep or wide narrow, shallow, small The town nestles in a narrow dry valley.
- peaceful or far from other places peaceful, quiet, remote, secluded, sheltered, tranquil The hotel is situated in a secluded valley with mountains to the rear.
- beautiful beautiful, picturesque, scenic The Abbey lies in a picturesque valley by a stream.

- n+N mountain, river Perched on a small hill, the church has pleasant views over the river valley.

valuable ADJ
very useful and important

- adv+ADJ very especially, extremely, highly, immensely, particularly, very This is an extremely valuable blog for anyone interested in journalism.
- more and more increasingly The committee is an increasingly valuable source of information to universities.
- equally equally Fathers may have a different, but equally valuable, view to offer.
- possibly in the future potentially Some potentially valuable contributions may be lost.

- ADJ+n something you learn information, insight, lesson There are valuable lessons to be learned from this case.
- something done or used addition, asset, contribution, resource, service, source, tool, work I found it a very valuable resource, with some useful hints and tips.
- help or support advice, assistance, help, support Many people provided very valuable assistance during the planning stage.
- skill or experience experience, skill This allows students to gain valuable experience in a relevant sector of the computing industry.
- opportunity opportunity The tournament will provide a valuable opportunity for the team to compete against the top European nations.
- being involved in something part, role By raising much-needed funds, you can play a valuable part in the continuing care of our residents.

- v+ADJ be, become, consider sth, find sth, prove It was an illuminating experience which we all found valuable. • Video footage has proven highly valuable when such cases come to court.

value N
1 the amount that something is worth

- adj+N high/low high, low We recommend you obtain proof of posting, particularly for high-value items.
- total full, total Two stolen cars with a total value of £100,000 were recovered by police.
- real real, true Before that question can be answered, the true value of these goods must be established.
- in money monetary Gardening books are becoming more and more collectable – but more for the interest of the topic than for the monetary value of the books.

- n+N when sold at a particular time market The player's market value must be at least £30 million.
- property or land land, property Lenders will often only lend to 75 or 80 per cent of the property value.

- v+N have a value have The goods have a total value of around £32,500.
- put a value on something place, put, set It is impossible to put a monetary value on our greatest asset, the team spirit.
- add value to something add Here are some tips on adding value to your property.
- increase value enhance, increase, maximize We would increase the value of the basic state pension in line with earnings.
- reduce value reduce This may cause the wood to be discoloured and reduce its value.

▸ when the value increases increase in, rise in These shares have risen greatly in value.
▸ when the value decreases fall in, lose Your car is losing value every day.
▸ when the value stays the same hold Luxury cars are likely to hold their value.

• N+v increase go up, increase, rise The value of the company's shares has risen by 12 per cent in the last quarter.
▸ decrease decrease, fall, go down Property values have gone down recently.

• n+in+N change, decline, decrease, fall, increase, reduction, rise There was a decline in the value of the rouble, which had a marked effect on trade.

2 how important or useful someone or something is

• adj+N great value considerable, great, high, immense I am sure this publication will be of immense value to military historians and researchers.
▸ additional value added There is added value in coming together to learn alongside and from each other.
▸ in itself intrinsic Biodiversity is of intrinsic value as well as contributing to education, quality of life, and the local economy.
▸ real main, real, true Be persistent – anything of real value takes time.
▸ not much limited, low Although each piece of evidence on its own was of very limited value, together they built into a very powerful case.
▸ types of value educational, entertainment, nutritional We need to be sure that a school trip has a clear educational value.

• v+N have a value have Alcohol has no nutritional value.
▸ put a value on something place, put Although Hilda never married she placed great value on family life.
▸ realize the value of something appreciate, know, realize, recognize, see, understand Most early childhood professionals recognize the value of books to young children.
▸ when somebody thinks something may not be valuable question Head teachers question the value of these exams as qualifications.
▸ show the value of something demonstrate, prove, show This shows the value of forward planning and organization.

• N+v be, lie (in) The book's value lies in its comprehensive coverage of these two important topics.

3 principles or beliefs [always plural]

• adj+N most important or basic core, fundamental The European Union is built on a set of fundamental values.
▸ shared common, shared, universal We operate as eight distinct organizations governed by shared values.
▸ types of value aesthetic, cultural, ethical, moral, social It is important that the moral and ethical values which inform our work are promoted.
▸ traditional traditional There is a tension between traditional values and a modern society.

• n+N family The party claims to support family values.

• v+N have values have, hold She holds essentially liberal values.
▸ have the same values share Our employees share the same basic values.
▸ show what values someone or something has reflect All the merchandising is designed to reflect the values of the brand.
▸ encourage others to have values promote The values promoted in schools depend to a large extent on the social structures within which we all operate.

value V

consider someone or something to be important

• adv+V very much greatly, highly, particularly, really Your feedback is greatly valued.
▸ equally equally All students at the school are equally valued.

• V+n someone's help or opinion contribution, feedback, input, opinion, support We value your opinion and suggestions to help us improve.
▸ skill or experience experience, skill Within a global economy, employers increasingly value overseas experience.
▸ opportunity opportunity They valued the opportunity to spend time in discussion with other international students.

vandalism N deliberate damage or destruction to property

• adj+N done for no reason or without thinking mindless, wanton Acts of mindless vandalism are common occurrences in all the major cities of the world.
▸ not serious minor, petty The only crime in recent years has been minor vandalism and burglary.

• v+N reduce or try to prevent vandalism combat, deter, prevent, reduce, tackle CCTV cameras have been installed to combat vandalism.
▸ commit vandalism cause, commit Two youths were charged with committing vandalism.

• n+of+N act, incident, level, problem, spate The head teacher is very concerned about the level of vandalism at the school. • A spate of vandalism has been causing problems at local stations.

• and/or anti-social behaviour, crime, damage, graffiti, litter, theft Vandalism and graffiti continue to be a major problem.

vanish V

disappear or stop existing

• adv+V suddenly or quickly quickly, suddenly My guide suddenly vanished, and left me alone in the darkness.
▸ completely or for all time altogether, completely, forever This once familiar term has now vanished altogether.

You can also say that a person or thing vanishes into thin air, vanishes without a trace, or vanishes from sight: Kate appears to have vanished into thin air. • Her husband had vanished without a trace. • The aircraft suddenly exploded in a shower of blue and green sparks, and then vanished from sight.

▸ just just, simply The man seems to have simply vanished off the face of the Earth.

▸ in a mysterious way mysteriously The baffling sickness vanished as mysteriously as it appeared.
▸ almost all but, almost The iron industry too has all but vanished.

variation N

the existence of differences in amount etc

• adj+N much considerable, great, huge, large, marked, significant, substantial, wide The great rivers of the Amazon Basin show considerable variation in their rates of flow.
▸ slight minor, slight, subtle Note that these are general instructions – there will be slight variations among different manufacturers.
▸ from place to place geographical, local, regional There is a full analysis of the results below, including regional variations.
▸ according to the season seasonal There was significant seasonal variation in weekly death rates.
▸ relating to a particular subject or area climatic, cultural, genetic The distribution of species may change in response to climatic variation.
▸ having no limit endless Scotland's great hillwalking strength lies in the endless variation in landscape, light, and weather.
▸ without any pattern random What is the impact of random variation on these results?
▸ natural natural This timber grows with a natural variation in grain and texture.
▸ individual individual While there was a general pattern of development, there was wide individual variation.

• v+N show variation exhibit, reflect, reveal, show Local trends show considerable variation from year to year.
▸ explain variation account for, explain This may help explain variations in operating costs.
▸ find or notice variation detect, find, identify, observe The study found a wide variation in prices charged.
▸ study variation investigate, study Pupils can study the variations in brightness of these objects as they 'tumble' through space.
▸ cause variation cause, create, introduce, lead to, produce Physical and physiological differences between the sexes may cause a variation in toxic response.

• N+in colour, level, pattern, performance, price, quality, rate, response, size, standard, temperature There is too much variation in the quality of the training.

varied ADJ

including a wide range of things or people

• adv+ADJ extremely, highly, infinitely, richly, very, widely, wonderfully The region has an extremely varied landscape.

• and/or diverse, extensive, many, rich, wide The article reflects the many and varied business opportunities available in this field. • Each year we offer a rich and varied programme of musical events.

variety N

a collection of different things, or the fact that there are different things

• adj+N great amazing, bewildering, broad, endless, enormous, good, great, huge, infinite, large, rich, vast, wide, wonderful University students come from a wide variety of backgrounds.
▸ emphasizing the degree of variety sheer, whole The food is famous for the sheer variety of spices, vegetables, and fruit.

• v+N provide variety offer, provide The resort offers a wide variety of hotels, restaurants, bars, shops, and boutiques.
▸ add variety add Use these methods to add variety to your workouts.
▸ include a variety of things contain, cover, include Our short courses cover a variety of IT skills.

vary V

be different in different situations

• adv+V very much considerably, dramatically, enormously, greatly, hugely, markedly, significantly, substantially, tremendously, widely, wildly Women go into business for all sorts of reasons, and the goals for their business can vary enormously.
▸ slightly a little, slightly, somewhat Dyes vary slightly from batch to batch.
▸ in a suitable way accordingly Students learn in a variety of ways and teaching methods must vary accordingly.
▸ in the opposite way inversely Dolphin presence throughout the day varied inversely with boat traffic.

• V+in colour, degree, intensity, length, price, quality, shape, size, style Golf courses vary in size.

vast ADJ

extremely large

• ADJ+n amount amount, collection, number, quantity People can use their mobile phones to access the vast amount of information on the Internet.
▸ range of things array, range Ginger is used in a vast array of sweet and savoury dishes around the world.
▸ amount of money resources, sum Vast sums of public money are being wasted on this scheme.
▸ area or distance area, distance, expanse, space To the north is only the vast expanse of the sea.
▸ most of something bulk, majority The vast majority of victims of climate change are in developing countries.
▸ experience or knowledge experience, knowledge He has vast experience across many business sectors.
▸ change or difference difference, improvement This was a vast improvement on their last performance.

veer V

suddenly move in a different direction

• adv+V by a large amount or in an uncontrolled way sharply, wildly Suddenly, the car veered sharply to the left-hand side of the road.
▸ away away, off After a few hundred yards, the path veers away from the road.
▸ right/left left, right If you veer too far right, you encounter a stream.

vegetation N plants and trees

- adj+N growing close together in large amounts dense, lush, thick The land in the east was very fertile, with lush vegetation.
- ▸ green green The island has a warm tropical climate with a rich landscape covered in lush green vegetation.
- ▸ natural natural, semi-natural Great care has been taken to preserve the natural vegetation in the area.
- ▸ growing in a particular type of place aquatic, tropical Tropical vegetation covers the rugged landforms.
- ▸ growing in small amounts sparse It is a desert region with sparse vegetation.
- ▸ decaying decaying, rotting The larvae feed largely on decaying vegetation.

veil N
a situation in which there is a lack of knowledge or information [usually singular]

- v+N when someone discovers or reveals the truth lift, pierce, remove I feel it's important to remove the veil of ignorance and fear that still surrounds this illness.
- ▸ when someone avoids talking about something draw, throw I think maybe we had better draw a veil over that.

- N+of ignorance, mystery, secrecy The new system has been developed under a veil of secrecy.

veiled ADJ
a veiled threat, or attack etc which is not direct but is understood

- adv+ADJ thinly The play is a thinly veiled attack on the Prime Minister.

- ADJ+n attack, attempt, criticism, reference, threat Many people protested on the streets, despite veiled threats of repercussions.

vendetta N
a situation in which someone keeps trying to harm someone else

- adj+N personal This is beginning to feel like a personal vendetta.

- v+N conduct, have, pursue, wage She believes the paper has been pursuing a vendetta against her.

veneer N a pleasant or acceptable appearance, or polite way of behaving that is not sincere [always singular]

- adj+N superficial, thin They had concealed some of the facts, and this managed to give their actions a thin veneer of legality.

- N+of civilization, democracy, legality, legitimacy, normality, respectability They sought to legitimize their wealth with the veneer of respectability.

vengeance N
harming or killing someone who harmed you

- v+N take vengeance on someone exact, take, wreak She escapes and wreaks terrible vengeance on the perpetrators of this crime.
- ▸ promise or want to take vengeance seek, swear, vow, want He seeks vengeance against the family who killed his father.

vent V express your feelings of anger very strongly

- V+n anger, emotions, feelings, frustration, fury, rage, spleen, wrath This is an online forum where people can go to get support and vent their anger.

ventilation N
the movement of fresh air around a building

- adj+N good enough adequate, good, proper, sufficient Make sure the bathroon has adequate ventilation.
- ▸ not good enough inadequate, poor Breathing these fumes in can be harmful, especially in small confined spaces with poor ventilation.
- ▸ using fresh air natural Each building will use natural ventilation on the upper floors.

- v+N provide or allow ventilation allow, ensure, give, provide These relatively cheap structures allow good ventilation whilst offering protection against wet weather.
- ▸ improve ventilation improve, increase Some of these damp problems can be solved by improving the ventilation of your property.

venture N a new business or activity

- adj+N involving people or groups working together collaborative, cooperative, joint This new engine was the first result of Volvo's joint venture with Renault and Peugeot for the development of car engines.
- ▸ in business business, commercial, entrepreneurial, money-making Most banks will lend money for a business venture if they believe it will be profitable.
- ▸ exciting exciting As part of the team, you will be involved in this exciting new venture from the outset.
- ▸ successful/unsuccessful failed, profitable, successful, unsuccessful The venture was highly successful, but had its critics.
- ▸ worth doing worthwhile I hope you will support this very worthwhile venture.
- ▸ new latest, new We are delighted to be able to support this latest venture.
- ▸ involving new ideas innovative This is a very exciting and innovative venture that will bring together staff with shared interests in both universities.
- ▸ not using public money private The railway line has been reopened as a private venture.

- v+N start a venture embark on, establish, launch, start, undertake We want to give people the skills and confidence to consider starting their own venture.
- ▸ give money to a venture finance, fund, invest in, support At some time in the future, we will obviously require money, but at present I am funding this venture myself.
- ▸ join in a venture with someone else enter into, form Toshiba and Schneider Electric are forming a joint venture that they say will make them global leaders in this market.

venue N
the place where an activity or event happens

- adj+N suitable excellent, great, ideal, perfect, suitable The inn is an ideal venue for private parties.
- ▸ important or respected major, premier, prestigious, top Our dancers have performed at prestigious venues across the UK.
- ▸ popular favourite, popular The Octagon Theatre is a popular live entertainment venue.
- ▸ large big, large Those who need a bigger venue can use the lecture hall, which seats 174 people.
- ▸ small intimate, small Personally, I prefer music in smaller, more intimate venues.
- ▸ used instead alternative If the Council building is not open when an organization wishes to hold a meeting, the library is suggested as an alternative venue.
- ▸ very unusual unique The old court room is a unique venue for book fairs, parties, wedding receptions, and meetings.
- ▸ local local We have performed at various local venues.

- n+N arts, concert, conference, entertainment, music, sporting, wedding The city also features an international sporting venue, the Millennium Stadium.

- v+N provide or be a venue offer, provide The hall also provides a venue for many corporate conferences, dinners, and weddings.
- ▸ find or choose a venue choose, find A brand new website has been launched to help event organisers find the perfect venue.
- ▸ arrange to use a venue arrange, book, hire You should start thinking about booking a venue for the Christmas party.
- ▸ change a venue change The organizers changed the venue to avoid traffic problems.
- ▸ fill a venue with people fill, pack There was sufficient interest to fill the conference venue to capacity.
- ▸ play music at a venue play The band has been playing venues all over the country.

verbal ADJ
using words, or relating to words; using speech rather than writing

- ADJ+n skill or ability ability, dexterity, fluency, skill You will need to have excellent writing and verbal skills.
- ▸ criticizing or being offensive to someone abuse, attack The survey showed that 16 per cent of respondents had experienced verbal abuse on public transport.
- ▸ telling something to someone else agreement, communication, description, explanation, feedback, instruction, presentation, warning Verbal feedback from his students confirms that they find the recordings useful.

verdict N
1 an official judgment made in a court of law, or by a person in authority

- adj+N guilty/not guilty guilty, not guilty She directed the jury to return a not guilty verdict.
- ▸ with everyone/most people agreeing majority, unanimous The jury took just three hours to return a unanimous verdict.
- ▸ saying that the cause of a death is unknown open The inquest returned an open verdict.

- n+N court, inquest, jury He was convicted of possession of drugs on a majority jury verdict.

- v+N give a verdict bring in, deliver, give, pass, pronounce, record, return The jury returned a verdict of not guilty.
- ▸ agree or decide what the verdict is reach The jury has now been discharged after failing to reach a verdict.
- ▸ accept a verdict accept His family and friends found it hard to accept a verdict of suicide.
- ▸ think about a verdict consider The jury then retired to consider its verdict.
- ▸ say that a verdict is wrong and change it overturn This verdict was later overturned on appeal.

2 an opinion that you have, or a decision that you take

- adj+N saying something is good/not good damning, favourable The commission has now published its damning verdict on the state of education for the disabled.
- ▸ passed by everybody unanimous There is a unanimous verdict on the high quality of music in London.
- ▸ considering everything overall Our overall verdict on the restaurant: it's worth a visit.
- ▸ final final It's too early for a final verdict on his acting ability.

- v+N give, pass History will pass its verdict as to whether the theory is correct or not.

verge N
you are on the verge of something when you are about to do or experience it

- N+of bankruptcy, breakdown, breakthrough, collapse, death, extinction, starvation, tears, war By September, the world economy was, it was said, on the verge of collapse.

- v+on+N be, seem, stand, teeter At that time, the shipbuilding industry seemed on the verge of collapse. • He was teetering on the verge of a nervous breakdown.

verification N
checking or proving that something is true or correct

- adj+N from other people, not directly involved external, independent, third-party There is no independent verification of these findings.
- ▸ using scientific methods empirical, experimental, scientific It is important for medical data to go through the process of scientific verification.

- v+N need verification need, require The Governors may require verification of applicants' residential addresses.
- ▸ when information needs verification before it is accepted be subject to The details in the application are subject to verification.
- ▸ try to get verification seek We are in the process of seeking verification from the seller that the details of this property are correct.

- ▸ get verification obtain It was not until Friday that we were able to obtain verification.
- ▸ give verification provide You should provide verification of all the qualifications you hold.

versatile ADJ able to be used in many ways; having a range of different skills

- adv+ADJ extremely, highly, incredibly, truly, very Climbers are incredibly versatile plants.
- ADJ+n device or system device, instrument, product, system, tool This versatile tool can be used in many ways to create stunningly different painting effects.
- ▸ way of doing something approach, option, solution This technology provides a versatile solution to your data storage needs.
- ▸ person actor, artist, musician, performer, player This talented and versatile performer is one of the few British actresses to develop a large fan base in both the UK and the US.

version N a form of something that is different from others or the original

- adj+N new current, latest, modern, new, recent You should download the latest version of the software.
- ▸ early or original draft, early, old, original, previous As a part of the consultative process, the draft version of the document has been made available for comment.
- ▸ later later According to a later version of the story, this was the moment when they fell in love.
- ▸ final final The final version of the report will be sent to the committee in May.
- ▸ complete complete, full Click here to download the full version of the article.
- ▸ large/small large, small Please click on an image for a larger version.
- ▸ changed or improved edited, improved, modifed, revised, simplified, updated We are about to produce an updated version of the guide.
- ▸ made shorter abridged, shortened This is an abridged version of a much longer review.
- ▸ printed print, printed, published If you require a printed version, please contact me.
- ▸ available through a computer electronic, online An online version of the form is not yet available.

- v+N make a version available create, develop, launch, produce, release Most of the large journal publishers, particularly in the science and business area, already produce electronic versions.
- ▸ put a version on a computer download, install To install the latest version of software, see the download site here.
- ▸ use a version on a computer run PCs must run the latest version of the appropriate virus protection software.

vestige N a very small sign of something that existed previously

- adj+N last, remaining The committee has lost any last vestiges of credibility as an independent body.
- v+N destroy or remove vestige of something destroy, remove The rebellion has destroyed the last vestiges of his diminished authority.
- ▸ keep vestige of something retain We have been attempting to retain some vestige of normality.
- ▸ lose vestige of something lose It has lost every vestige of having ever been a prison.

veteran N someone with a lot of experience doing something

- adj+N experienced, grizzled, hardened, seasoned, 10-year, 20-year etc By that time, he was already a seasoned veteran, having played competitively since the age of eight. • He was a 30-year veteran of the teaching profession.

veto N an official refusal to approve or allow something; the right to refuse to approve or allow something

- v+N use a veto exercise, use, wield Both parties can exercise a single veto to obtain an alternative mediator.
- ▸ have or keep a veto have, keep, retain They were determined to retain the veto on taxation matters.
- ▸ give up a veto surrender The governement refused to surrender its veto on border control issues.

- n+of+N power, right As a full member-state, it has the right of veto over any agreement.

viable ADJ able to be done, or worth doing

- adv+ADJ completely perfectly Both software and hardware solutions are perfectly viable options.
- ▸ really really, truly Neither of these explanations seems to be truly viable.
- ▸ possibly potentially From a number of potentially viable ideas put forward, eighteen have been selected.
- ▸ in a particular way commercially, economically, environmentally, financially, politically, technically These online services are starting to become commercially viable.

- ADJ+n method or plan means, method, option, plan, proposition, solution, strategy The cart survived as a viable means of transport until well into the twentieth century.
- ▸ different choice alternative, substitute In most circles, online learning is hailed as a viable alternative to traditional classroom settings.
- ▸ project or business business, enterprise, project It was obvious that the project was not viable.

- v+ADJ be or become viable be, become, prove, remain How can the industry remain viable in such a climate?
- ▸ seem viable appear, seem The County Council considered that the project did not appear financially viable.
- ▸ consider something viable consider sth, deem sth Option three is not considered viable as a method of limiting biodegradable waste.

vicious ADJ
extremely violent or unkind

- adv+ADJ extremely downright, extremely, particularly, really INFORMAL The tribunal described the treatment she had received as 'inhumane' and 'downright vicious'.
- ▸ rather pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather From what I was told, I was quite vicious to the nurses because I thought I was being tortured.
- ▸ more and more increasingly Her notes are getting increasingly vicious.
- ADJ+n physical attack or crime assault, attack, beating, crime, fighting, murder He and seven colleagues were subjected to three days of vicious beatings.
- ▸ things people say attack, campaign, rumours These vicious rumours have no truth in them at all.
- ▸ person dictator, killer, tyrant Hollywood has shown them as vicious killers, ready to attack humans at the slightest provocation.
- ▸ political system dictatorship, regime Its people have been fighting a revolutionary war for the past forty years against a vicious, imperialistic regime.

victim N

someone who has been harmed by a crime or badly affected by an accident or illness

- adj+N innocent or unlucky hapless, helpless, innocent, passive, poor, tragic, unfortunate, unsuspecting, unwitting, vulnerable A wreath was laid in memory of the innocent victims of terrorism.
- ▸ intended intended, potential Bogus doorstep callers are very accomplished in selecting potential victims.
- n+N of a crime abuse, bomb, burglary, crime, homicide, murder, rape The murder victim was a student at Queen's University in Belfast.
- ▸ of an accident accident, burns, crash Firefighters demonstrated how a road crash victim is safely removed from the wreckage of their car.
- ▸ of a natural disaster disaster, earthquake, famine, flood, hurricane, tsunami A young man was so moved by the plight of tsunami victims that he spent six months as volunteer in Sri Lanka.
- ▸ of an illness cancer, stroke His mouth is slightly slanted, like that of a stroke victim.
- N+of crime abuse, burglary, crime, fraud, murder, offence, rape, terrorism, theft Almost 25 per cent of independent retailers or their staff have been victims of violent crime at work.
- ▸ violence assault, attack, conflict, violence, war We provide support for victims of domestic violence.
- ▸ terrible situation disaster, tragedy People across the world have been pulling together to try and help the victims of the disaster.
- ▸ accident accident, crash We specialize in acting for victims of accidents and medical negligence.

victory N

the fact of winning a competition or battle

- adj+N definite or complete comfortable, comprehensive, convincing, crushing, decisive, emphatic, landslide, outright, overwhelming, resounding, runaway, sweeping The outcome so far has been a stand-off rather than a decisive victory for either side.
- ▸ almost not won hard-fought, last-gasp INFORMAL, narrow Robins clinched a narrow victory by 101 points to 90.
- ▸ impressive or exciting dramatic, great, impressive, remarkable, sensational, stunning, thrilling, tremendous, well-deserved In hockey, the Women's 1st team recorded another impressive victory away at Durham.
- ▸ famous or that will be remembered epic, famous, historic, landmark, memorable, notable The Romans built triumphal arches as reminders of famous victories.
- ▸ not seeming like a victory hollow, Pyrrhic The company's prime objective will be to find an acceptable solution rather than to score a victory (which, in financial terms, may be a Pyrrhic victory) in the employment tribunal.
- ▸ very surprising shock, surprise Mrs Gandhi led the Congress party to a shock victory in the world's largest democracy.
- ▸ types of victory election, electoral, military, moral, naval She was the only one who could lead the party to electoral victory.
- v+N win a victory achieve, complete, gain, record, score, seal, secure, win The final whistle blew and we had secured a fine victory.
- ▸ only just win a victory clinch, grab, snatch With only eight days to go, the polls suggested that the Tories might snatch a sensational victory.
- ▸ win a victory easily coast to, cruise to, romp to, storm to, sweep to They romped to a 5–2 victory.
- ▸ announce a victory claim, declare, hail sth as, proclaim The Conservative candidate declared victory on Monday after Sunday's hotly contested election.
- ▸ deserve a victory deserve, earn City were always better than Watford and thoroughly deserved their victory.
- ▸ celebrate or enjoy a victory celebrate, commemorate, enjoy I do hope as many as possible of the supporters will stay to celebrate our victory.
- ▸ know that victory is close scent, taste Safely over the first seven fences, the huge crowd started to scent victory.
- ▸ make someone win a victory assure, ensure, give sb, guarantee (sb), hand sb If you can break the opponent's spirit so that they lose their will to fight, you are guaranteed victory. • Two fine goals handed them victory.
- ▸ stop someone winning a victory deny sb, rob sb of Brand was denied the victory that many had assumed would be his.
- ▸ try to win a victory chase, fight for, hope for, strive for Keep striving for victory!

view N

a personal opinion, belief, or attitude

- adj+N personal individual, own, personal, private The governing body and headteacher will have their own views about punishment for unacceptable behaviour.
- ▸ considering all aspects of a situation broad We need to take a broad view and look at the things that make people take part in physical exercise.
- ▸ not considering all aspects of a situation narrow, simplistic This seems to be a very narrow view of what science should be doing.
- ▸ traditional accepted, classical, conservative, conventional, historical, orthodox, traditional All the mothers in the study had strong, traditional views about what being a 'good mother' was about.

- ▸ different alternative, contrary, different, opposing, opposite I want to present an alternative view.
- ▸ positive favourable, optimistic, positive As an employer, L&C takes a positive view of gap-year graduates.
- ▸ negative cynical, negative, pessimistic, sceptical Another respondent echoed this pessimistic view of government's willingness to introduce legislation likely to prove unpopular.
- ▸ influenced/not influenced by personal feelings objective, subjective Therapists use their expertise to develop an objective view of the problem.
- ▸ reasonable balanced, common sense, informed, objective, pragmatic, realistic, reasonable, rounded, unbiased It is important that a balanced view is taken in assessing individual proposals.
- ▸ strong clear, strong Some employers expressed strong views about the government's failure to understand small business.
- ▸ extreme extreme, extremist, outspoken, racist, radical The expression of extreme views would alienate people.
- ▸ accepting of different opinions liberal His views were less liberal than Hunt's.
- ▸ that most people have common, consensus, dominant, general, majority, popular, public, unanimous, widespread I think the general view is that this isn't the radical change that we thought it was going to be.
- ▸ that not many people have minority However, this was a minority view.
- ▸ wrong distorted, mistaken, wrong This argument fails because it relies on a mistaken view of what the standards of mathematics require.
- ▸ current current, modern, prevailing The prevailing view is that such droughts are brought about and ended by random fluctuations.
- ▸ on a particular subject political, religious, scientific Public housing was largely responsible for forming my political views.

- • v+N tell people your view air, articulate, express, give, offer, present, put forward, state, submit, tell sb, voice She appears in public only to express her passionate views on the subject of animal rights.
- ▸ when people tell each other their views exchange, share You can exchange views with others at any time by popping over to the discussion forum.
- ▸ ask for or want to know someone's view ask for, gather, invite, seek, welcome We would welcome your views on any of these issues.
- ▸ be someone's view be, reflect, represent All material published on these pages represents the personal views of the individual columnists.
- ▸ have a particular view adhere to, be inclined to, cling to, form, have, hold, subscribe to, take So it seems that I am not the only one to hold these views.
- ▸ have the same view share Do you share the same view, Miss Hunter?
- ▸ agree with someone's view accept, agree with, coincide with, concur with, confirm, echo, endorse, reinforce, support I support the view put forward by Tim Kirkhope MEP.
- ▸ disagree with someone's view argue against, challenge, disagree with, oppose, reject We disagree with the view that choice is good in itself.
- ▸ get someone's view get, hear, listen to, obtain It is important that we hear your views to keep this process moving forward.
- ▸ change your view change They changed their views about the Bible.

view V

think about a subject in a particular way

- • V+with worry or fear alarm, caution, concern, horror, scepticism, suspicion, trepidation This claim by the government has to be viewed with some scepticism.
- ▸ negative feeling contempt, disdain, disfavour, dismay The move will be viewed with dismay by anti-arms campaigners.
- ▸ positive feeling favour, respect The two major political parties are viewed with less respect by the public than at any time in this century.

viewpoint N

a way of considering something

- • adj+N different alternative, conflicting, different, differing, opposing In the evening there was no conflicting viewpoint put across.
- ▸ types of viewpoint own, particular, personal They made it clear they were expressing a personal viewpoint.
- ▸ that most/few people have majority, minority I would take issue with your contention that we represent only a minority viewpoint.
- ▸ influenced/not influenced by personal feelings objective, subjective Although not impossible, this is a very subjective viewpoint.
- ▸ expressing doubt or not accepting change conservative, sceptical They were, rightly, approaching the situation from a sceptical viewpoint.
- ▸ on a particular subject philosophical, political, religious, scientific, theological, theoretical From a theological viewpoint, it makes little sense to look at the existence of God merely as a matter of opinion.

- • v+N express a viewpoint express, offer, present, put Many interesting and varied viewpoints were expressed during the discussion.
- ▸ have a viewpoint have, hold Those who hold minority viewpoints must be given their due respect.
- ▸ start to have a viewpoint adopt, formulate It usually best not to adopt an extreme viewpoint – a balanced answer is best.
- ▸ look at something from a viewpoint tell sth from, view sth from, write sth from The story is written from the viewpoint of a child.
- ▸ respect or agree with someone's viewpoint respect, support, understand Personal expression of views is encouraged and all viewpoints are respected.
- ▸ be or show someone's viewpoint reflect, represent Mr Paisley respresents the viewpoint of an increasing number of police officers.
- ▸ have the same viewpoint as someone share Do you share the viewpoint that children should not be allowed to play computer games?

vigil N

a time when you wait in a place, often to give support to someone or make a protest

- adj+N all night all-night, overnight They had elected to maintain an all-night vigil rather than sleep.
- all day and all night 24-hour, constant, round-the-clock Workers maintained a round-the-clock vigil in front of the factory for 10 weeks.
- quiet or peaceful peaceful, silent All are welcome to join a silent vigil for peace and justice and in memory of all the victims of violence.
- lit by candles candlelit They followed up their campaign with a candlelit vigil.
- for a particular reason anti-war, peace, prayer, protest, solidarity Anti-war vigils were happening around Britain.

- v+N hold a vigil hold, keep, maintain, mount, stage, stand Eleanor kept a vigil by his bedside as the doctors tried to save him.
- organize a vigil organize, plan The Green Party organized a candlelit vigil in protest against the war.
- be present at a vigil attend, join We are asking everyone who can to join the vigil outside the Town Hall.

vigilance N

the state of watching a person or situation very carefully

- adj+N continuous constant, continued, continuing, continuous, eternal The price of e-mail is constant vigilance.
- more than usual extra, greater, heightened, increased Customers will notice a heightened vigilance for baggage left unattended in the airport.

- v+N show vigilance exercise All police officers will exercise vigilance during this time, to try to reduce the grief caused by drink-driving.
- encourage vigilance call for, urge He also called for continued vigilance against ongoing terrorism.
- increase/decrease vigilance increase, relax As soon as his mother relaxed her vigilance for a moment, he vanished.
- continue vigilance maintain It is always necessary to maintain the utmost vigilance in regard to administrative expenses.
- need vigilance need, require Fraud threats are constantly changing and require constant vigilance.

vigilant ADJ

watching something carefully to check for danger

- adv+ADJ always always, constantly, ever We must remain ever vigilant against attempts to undermine our traditions.
- more than usual especially, particularly Be especially vigilant with any horse that has a history of colic.
- very extremely, very Dog owners should be extremely vigilant and wary of anyone showing an unusual interest in their pet.

- v+ADJ be, remain, stay To help us tackle fraud, always be aware of the risks and remain vigilant.

vigorous ADJ

full of energy, enthusiasm, or determination

- ADJ+n activity or effort action, activity, effort, exercise, exertion, pursuit Since the war, vigorous efforts have been made to rebuild the collection. ◆ As little as 30 minutes vigorous exercise once a week will significantly reduce the risk of heart attack.
- protest opposition, protest I did not expect the extremely vigorous opposition to which I was subjected.
- discussion or argument debate, defence, discussion There was vigorous debate on the question of whether the party should participate in elections.
- course of action campaign, programme A vigorous campaign to save the School of Architecture attracted overwhelming support.

vigour N

mental energy, enthusiasm, and determination

- adj+N new or more fresh, increased, increasing, more, new, renewed Rosie had to take a break from work, but she has come back with renewed vigour and enthusiasm.
- large amount great, much, utmost She fought the election with great vigour.

You can also say that someone is full of vigour: We were all in our early twenties, full of youth and vigour.

- equal equal, same Both views seem to be held with equal vigour, by academics and practitioners alike.
- typical of an intelligent person intellectual His intellectual vigour makes him a bracing writer.
- typical of a young person youthful Despite his youthful vigour, Martin was born almost 75 years ago.

- v+N give someone vigour bring, restore For all the claims of anti-ageing creams and therapies, nothing has so far restored the vigour of youth.
- keep vigour maintain, retain He retained his vigour to extreme old age.
- try to achieve something with vigour pursue sth with The report was the start of a campaign we are pursuing with vigour.
- lose vigour lose Self-doubt starts to eat him up, and he loses his vigour and business instincts.
- not have vigour lack The Socialist Party won the election but their leader lacked the vigour to introduce the necessary reforms.

village N

a very small town in the countryside

- adj+N attractive attractive, beautiful, charming, delightful, idyllic, lovely, picturesque, pleasant, pretty, quaint, unspoilt Visit the picturesque village of Perithia and enjoy the wonderful scenery of the Ropa Valley.
- small little, small, tiny This tiny village nestles in the heart of the hills.
- quiet peaceful, quiet, sleepy, tranquil North of the Algarve, you will find sleepy white-washed villages and the Monchique mountains.
- old ancient, historic, medieval, old Walton-Le-Dale is an ancient village situated in close proximity to the Rivers Ribble and Darwen.
- traditional native, traditional Holidays in Larnaca are not complete without a trip to one of the more traditional Cypriot villages.
- in the countryside country, rural This five-bedroomed home is set in a sought-after rural village.

▶ close to a place adjacent, local, nearby, neighbouring, surrounding Messengers were used to deliver post to nearby villages.
▶ far from other places isolated, outlying, remote We are helping to build a new classroom in a remote village in Thailand.
▶ near the sea coastal, seaside The Old Byre sits in the delightful coastal village of Morston.

● n+N with a particular kind of industry farming, fishing, mining The black-and-white films tell the story of a young lad growing up in a tough mining village.
▶ in a particular location highland, hill, hillside, hilltop, lakeside, mountain, riverside Holiday rentals in Mallorca can be easily found situated near to sleepy, hilltop villages.

violate V

do something that breaks a law or principle

● adv+V in an obvious way blatantly, clearly, flagrantly The ban has been flagrantly violated.
▶ in a serious way grossly, seriously Their human rights in general have been grossly violated.
▶ deliberately deliberately, knowingly He didn't knowingly violate the terms of his parole.
▶ many times consistently, frequently, persistently, repeatedly, routinely, systematically International arms embargoes are systematically violated with impunity.

● V+n law or agreement agreement, constitution, copyright, law, principle, rule, terms, treaty Drivers frequently violate traffic laws.
▶ rights privacy, rights, sovereignty Human rights are being violated, day in, day out, in countries around the world.
▶ usual behaviour convention, norm Eighty five companies in total were charged with violating international norms by such trading.

violation N

an action that breaks a law, agreement, principle etc

● adj+N obvious blatant, clear, direct, flagrant, obvious It is obvious that a flagrant violation of International Law occurred.
▶ serious grave, gross, massive, serious This is a shameful attempt to silence him and a gross violation of his human rights.
▶ not serious minor What may seem a minor traffic violation to the driver is perceived as aggressive or inconsiderate by others.
▶ possible alleged, apparent, possible, potential, suspected Alleged violations of the ceasefire shall be reported to international observers.
▶ happening often continued, persistent, repeated, systematic, widespread Systematic violations of human rights, wherever they may take place, should not be allowed to stand.

● v+N commit a violation commit, perpetrate The player was found to have committed two separate anti-doping regulation violations.
▶ be a violation amount to, be, constitute This clearly constitutes a violation of the country's sovereignty.
▶ prevent a violation prevent, stop The new Copyright Act aims to prevent copyright violation in the digital age.
▶ find or examine a violation detect, find, investigate, report The Ombudsman is charged with the task of investigating alleged violations of human rights.

● N+of law or principle copyright, law, obligation, principle, regulation, rule Any attack or threat of attack against peaceful nuclear facilities constitutes a grave violation of international law.
▶ agreement agreement, ceasefire, convention, terms, treaty Refusal to withdraw the troops would be a clear violation of the treaty.
▶ rights freedom, human rights, liberty, privacy, rights, sovereignty Are the new anti-terror measures a violation of civil liberties?

violence N

violent behaviour

● adj+N serious bloody, brutal, excessive, extreme, graphic, horrific, serious, terrible Some people have criticized the film for its extreme violence.
▶ with no reason gratuitous, indiscriminate, mindless, random, senseless, wanton There is far too much mindless violence on TV.
▶ getting worse escalating, increasing There is deep unease about escalating violence in the region.
▶ using weapons armed, gun One person dies from armed violence every minute.
▶ in many places widespread There have been reports of widespread violence, vote-rigging, and electoral malpractice.
▶ by a particular group gang, paramilitary, terrorist They want lasting peace in a just society in which paramilitary violence plays no part.
▶ types of violence alcohol-related, domestic, ethnic, homophobic, physical, political, racial, racist, sectarian, sexual, street, work-related Anyone can experience domestic violence – it can happen in all kinds of relationships.

● v+N commit violence commit, inflict, perpetrate, resort to, turn to, unleash, use Last year, we strengthened the law against those who perpetrate domestic violence.
▶ say that you will commit violence threaten Using or threatening violence to get what you want is not acceptable.
▶ cause or result in violence end in, fuel, incite, instigate, lead to, provoke, result in, spark He denies that his lyrics incite violence against the gay community.
▶ experience or see violence be exposed to, experience, suffer, witness The results show that witnessing violence in the real world is strongly correlated with aggressive behaviour.
▶ escape violence escape, flee Refugees were fleeing the violence in Darfur.
▶ stop or reduce violence combat, curb, deal with, end, prevent, quell, stop, tackle Police fired tear gas at the rampaging crowds to quell the violence.
▶ say that violence is acceptable advocate, condone, justify But the ASA disagreed, ruling that the poster condoned violence and was irresponsible.
▶ say that violence is not acceptable condemn, denounce, oppose, reject, renounce The whole international community must condemn this violence.
▶ make violence seem attractive glamorize, glorify Hollywood blockbusters glorify violence.

- N+v start to happen break out, erupt, flare (up) This is a time when there is unprecedented violence erupting in the area.

You can talk about an act of violence. An occasion when a number of people behave violently is an outbreak of violence: The region has seen outbreaks of violence in recent days and weeks.

- ▸ happen continue, occur, rage, take place The worst violence occurred in Montepuez.
- ▸ happen after something ensue More resentment followed, regrettable violence ensued, and the dispute still continues.
- ▸ get worse escalate, increase, intensify As violence has escalated, a number of bomb attacks have also occurred.
- ▸ affect someone or something affect sb/sth, mar sth, plague sb/sth Those islands were as plagued by violence as much as war-torn Europe was.

violent ADJ

using or containing physical force

- adv+ADJ very brutally, dangerously, extremely, incredibly, really INFORMAL, shockingly, very Romans did sometimes put Christians to death in shockingly violent ways.
- ▸ rather pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather It was a rather violent attack.
- ▸ particularly especially, particularly This was a particularly violent episode in English history.
- ▸ more and more increasingly She became increasingly violent and unstable.
- ▸ too much excessively, too The only criticism that can be levelled at this movie is that it is sometimes excessively violent.
- ▸ in a way that is unnecessary gratuitously The film was banal and gratuitously violent.
- ▸ possibly potentially A police officer should attempt to defuse any potentially violent situation.
- ▸ as part of something's nature inherently Conflict is not inherently violent.

- ADJ+n fight or argument clash, conflict, confrontation, disorder, riot, struggle People cleared the streets and a lot of violent confrontation was avoided.
- ▸ attack act, action, assault, attack, incident He was the victim of a violent assault.
- ▸ crime crime, offence, robbery Many of these prisoners are in jail for violent offences.
- ▸ protest demonstration, protest Other students were shouting, arguing that the protest was not violent.
- ▸ reaction outburst, reaction She has violent outbursts, is unsettled during the night, and is very clingy.
- ▸ behaviour behaviour, conduct, temper He was sent off later in the match for violent conduct.
- ▸ means of control repression, suppression Indeed, the violent repression of the Albanian population of Kosova escalated.
- ▸ person criminal, extremist, offender, thug We do not want personal contact information getting into the hands of violent criminals.

virtual ADJ

1 almost the same as the thing mentioned

- ADJ+n person dictator, prisoner, recluse, stranger, unknown He has been living the life of a virtual recluse since the death of his wife.
- ▸ situation collapse, monopoly, silence, slavery, standstill The event was a huge success, bringing the shopping centre to a virtual standstill.
- ▸ when something is not present absence, disappearance, elimination, extinction The virtual absence of medical supplies meant doctors had to resort to unconventional methods of treatment.
- ▸ when talking about possibility certainty, impossibility It is a virtual certainty that war will be fought in space one day.

2 created by computers, or appearing on computers

- ADJ+n reality reality Over the last ten years, the use of virtual reality systems has become widespread.
- ▸ places classroom, environment, gallery, laboratory, library, office, space, university, world Players get to create fantasy characters and explore a virtual 3D environment in order to build up a story.
- ▸ events exhibition, seminar, tour Explore colliery buildings and go on a virtual tour of a modern mine.
- ▸ people or companies community, enterprise, marketplace, network I have been in close contact with several of the members of the virtual community since then.

virtue N a good quality in someone or something

- v+N talk about the virtues of something espouse, expound, extol, praise, preach, proclaim, trumpet Lunch meetings are a highly productive way to extol the virtues of online marketing to advertisers.
- ▸ have or develop virtues cultivate, embody, have, possess, practise Different cultures embody different virtues.

virus N

1 a simple living thing that makes you ill

- v+N spread a virus circulate, pass on, spread, transmit We could be passing on the virus to other people.
- ▸ catch a virus be exposed to, catch, contract, get No one knows how the viruses are contracted.
- ▸ get rid of a virus destroy, eliminate, eradicate, kill A programme of vaccination was started with the aim of completely eradicating the smallpox virus.
- ▸ have a virus be affected by, be infected by, be infected with, have, live with, suffer from Nursing people infected with the HIV virus can be a challenging and rewarding job.
- ▸ carry a virus carry, harbour Which animals typically harbour the rabies virus?
- ▸ get better after a virus recover from Sarah is still recovering from a throat virus.
- ▸ fight a virus combat, fight Each species uses its immune system to combat different viruses in different ways.
- ▸ prevent a virus prevent, protect against Vaccine programs can prevent viruses before they start.

- N+v affect someone or something affect sb/sth, attack sb/sth, infect sb, invade sth Do bird flu viruses infect humans?
- ▸ spread circulate, spread Chickenpox can be caught by the virus spreading in the air.
- ▸ change evolve, mutate The HIV virus mutates at a rapid rate and there are numerous strains found in different areas of the world.

- ▸ increase multiply, replicate, reproduce Viruses typically replicate for a long period of time before they activate, allowing plenty of time to spread.
- ▸ kill sb kill sb, wipe out sth In the film, a deadly virus has wiped out almost all of humanity.

2 a program that can damage your computer

- • v+N spread a virus introduce, spread, transmit Studies have shown that 98 per cent of viruses are transmitted through e-mails.
- ▸ find a virus detect, discover, identify, spot Make sure that you update your antivirus software regularly so that it can detect even the newest viruses.
- ▸ contain a virus be infected with, carry, contain Special software blocks incoming messages that may contain viruses.
- ▸ get rid of a virus destroy, disinfect, remove It is very important that this virus is removed from any computers.
- ▸ stop a virus block, prevent, protect against, stop Take steps to prevent viruses, even if you do not visit unknown or untrusted websites.
- ▸ look for a virus check for, scan for Files with the suffix .rtf may not be scanned for viruses.

- • N+v affect or damage something affect sth, attack sth, damage sth, hit sth, infect sth Computer viruses are a constant threat and lead to a lot of wasted time if a virus infects a PC.
- ▸ spread or go round circulate, go round, spread A particularly nasty email virus is circulating which will delete all your files.

- • N+n software checker, scanner, software Run a virus scanner to see if your PC is infected.
- ▸ finding or protecting against viruses checking, detection, protection, scanning No virus checking can be 100 per cent effective.
- ▸ when a virus enters or might enter your computer attack, infection, threat, warning Virus infections are spread by sloppy computing practice.

visa N an official document allowing you to enter a country

- • adj+N that can be used appropriate, correct, necessary, valid U.S. citizens require a valid visa for travel to Brazil and Paraguay.

If a visa is no longer valid, you say that it has expired: You cannot remain in the UK once your student visa has expired.

- ▸ temporary short-term, temporary There are still large numbers of students or other people on temporary visas.
- ▸ permanent long-term, permanent To apply for a permanent visa, you have to be under 45 years old.
- ▸ used now current My current visa expires in July 2012.

- • n+N for entering or passing through a country entry, exit, transit Transit visas are valid for up to three days.
- ▸ purpose student, tourist, work British passport holders require a tourist visa for entry into Turkey.

- • v+N need a visa need, require Please note that nationals of some countries require visas in order to visit Turkey.
- ▸ get a visa get, obtain, receive, secure Before you set off, get a visa from the Chinese Embassy in London.
- ▸ have a visa have, hold He was deported from Chicago even though he held a valid visa.
- ▸ arrange a visa apply for, arrange Make sure you apply for a visa that covers the whole period of your stay in Britain.
- ▸ give a visa give (sb), grant (sb), issue (sb) About one and a half million visas were issued in 2004.
- ▸ not give a visa deny sb, refuse (sb) It was just possible that my visa was refused for military reasons.
- ▸ take back a visa revoke The U.S. Department of Homeland Security has revoked her visa.
- ▸ stay longer than a visa allows overstay She was arrested for overstaying her visa.
- ▸ make your visa last longer extend, renew I visited Singapore every few months to renew my visa when I lived in Malaysia.

- • N+n form application, form A visa form will not be issued without this documentation.
- ▸ rules or arrangements arrangements, policy, procedures, regulations, requirements, restrictions, rules It is not normally possible for full-time students to change to part-time status because of visa requirements.
- ▸ problem problem, violation He was detained for a minor visa violation.
- ▸ when a visa lasts for longer extension, renewal Can I request a visa extension in case I decide to continue my internship?
- ▸ when someone does not need a visa waiver Currently, British travellers can visit the US for up to three months without a visa under the visa waiver scheme.

visibility N

the distance that you can see or a situation in which something can be seen

- • adj+N good clear, excellent, good, high, superb The large wraparound rear windscreen provides excellent visibility.
- ▸ bad limited, low, poor, reduced, restricted, zero Keep together in conditions of poor visibility.
- ▸ medium moderate Cloud was low and visibility only moderate.

- • v+N reduce visibility impair, limit, obscure, obstruct, reduce, restrict The silty sea bed can quickly reduce visibility to a few metres.
- ▸ increase visibility aid, enhance, improve, increase, maximize Luminous accessories such as armbands or buttons increased visibility even more.
- ▸ provide visibility ensure, give, provide The screens provide the best brightness and viewing angle, ensuring clear visibility even in direct sunlight.

visible ADJ

able to be seen

- • adv+ADJ clearly clearly, distinctly, easily, highly, plainly, readily The joy and skill of all the pupils is clearly visible.
- ▸ faintly dimly, faintly A mountain is faintly visible in the far background.
- ▸ almost not barely, hardly, just, scarcely The hills on either side of the road were barely visible because of a dust storm.

- ▶ completely fully, quite Costs are high and the benefits are not fully visible.
- ▶ partly partially, partly An inscription in the top stone is still partly visible.
- ▶ still/no longer no longer, still The remains of some of the fortifications are still visible.

- • v+ADJ be or become visible be, become The darkness lifts and the boat crew becomes visible.
- ▶ stay visible remain, stay Very little of the ancient stonework remains visible.
- ▶ make something visible leave sth, make sth, render sth The walnut-wood rafters are left visible, and the intervening spaces filled with a kind of white plaster.

vision N

the ability to plan for the future, or someone's idea or hope of what something will be like in the future

- • adj+N clear clear, coherent, strategic We've a clear vision of where we want to be.
- ▶ good or positive compelling, extraordinary, good, great, inspiring, optimistic, positive, strong, utopian In conclusion, let me offer a more positive vision of the purpose of educational research.
- ▶ ambitious ambitious, bold, grand He had a grand vision, but he knew he needed to give himself a kick-start to turn this into reality.
- ▶ different, special, or new alternative, different, new, original, radical, unique Instead, I shall try to present an alternative vision of computers in education.
- ▶ broad broad, overall, wide There is no overall vision for land use in the area, no grand plan to improve the environment.
- ▶ of one person own, personal Librarians have to develop their own entrepreneurial vision so that they take the lead in these initiatives.
- ▶ of two or more people collective, common, shared A single shared vision in a divided society is unattainable.
- ▶ for the future future, long-term We need policies and programmes with long-term vision.
- ▶ types of vision artistic, creative, political They gleefully blend and blur musical genres in pursuit of their artistic vision.

- • v+N tell people about a vision articulate, communicate, describe, express, give, offer, outline, present, provide, set out, share They must communicate that vision to their colleagues in their parent organizations.
- ▶ achieve a vision achieve, deliver, fulfil, implement, realize Achieving this vision will require radical, innovative thinking.

You can also say that someone turns a vision into (a) reality: Over the next five years we intend to turn this vision into reality.

- ▶ try to achieve a vision embrace, pursue, work towards He saluted their courage and faith in pursuing a vision that has now become a reality.
- ▶ develop a vision create, develop, shape We help customers shape their vision into a feasible and successful Internet strategy.
- ▶ have vision be blessed with, have He is a true pioneer, blessed with a far-seeing vision.
- ▶ not have vision lack Critics say that the protesters lack vision.

visit N

an occasion when you visit a person or place

- • adj+N regular frequent, regular Regular visits to your dentist will help to prevent gum disease.
- ▶ not regular occasional, periodic She enjoys keeping fit by cycling and occasional visits to the gym.
- ▶ special/not special routine, special The tumour was discovered during a routine visit to the doctor.
- ▶ recent recent At a recent visit to a hotel in Nottingham, we were looked after extremely well.
- ▶ happening soon forthcoming We are all excited about our forthcoming visit to Torbay.
- ▶ next next, subsequent She is already planning her next visit to Asia.
- ▶ previous last, previous We had had good weather on previous visits.
- ▶ first first, initial, preliminary After an initial visit, we concluded that the Baltic States were an ideal place to do business.
- ▶ not planned or expected unannounced, unexpected On occasions, the Inspectorate may decide that it is necessary to make unannounced visits.
- ▶ planned planned Frequent planned visits were made to the patient's home.
- ▶ short brief, fleeting, flying, quick, short Except for a brief visit to England, he never travelled extensively outside of continental Europe.
- ▶ long extended, long I have recently returned from a long visit to Jamaica.
- ▶ official formal, official She is on a private business trip to make money, and not an official visit.
- ▶ not official informal, personal, social To arrange an informal visit, call the senior engineer.
- ▶ useful or enjoyable enjoyable, memorable, worthwhile I would like to express our thanks to all concerned for making our visit so enjoyable.
- ▶ for a particular purpose educational, fact-finding This will be a fact-finding visit.
- ▶ to a foreign country foreign, overseas The capital accounts for five per cent of all overseas visits to the UK.

- • v+N arrange a visit arrange, organize, plan, schedule We are pleased to arrange visits at home if you cannot come to the office.
- ▶ go on a visit come for, conduct, do, go for, go on, make, pay (sb) Between 1885 and 1893 he paid several visits to Egypt.
- ▶ receive a visit get, have, receive From time to time, we received visits from people who knew our father.
- ▶ cancel or delay a visit cancel, postpone Unfortunately, she had to cancel this visit at the last moment.
- ▶ be worth a visit be worth Ludlow Castle is certainly worth a visit.

vital ADJ

very important or necessary

- • adv+ADJ completely or very absolutely, really INFORMAL, so INFORMAL, truly, very It's absolutely vital that our teams have a passionate belief in the importance of their work.

- ▶ particularly especially, particularly Correct spelling of individual and company names is particularly vital!
- ▶ more and more increasingly IT employees constitute an increasingly vital component of the labour force.
- ▶ in a particular way economically, strategically Colombia is very close to the strategically vital Panama Canal.

- • v+ADJ be, become, or stay vital be, become, prove, remain Your letters to politicians and the press remain vital!
- ▶ seem vital seem The things that seem so vital when we are young are completely missing from our lives in middle age.
- ▶ consider something to be vital consider sth (as), deem sth (as), recognize sth as, regard sth as, see sth as Good training is considered absolutely vital.

- • N+to development, growth, health, prosperity, security, success, survival, understanding, well-being Your participation is vital to the success of the project.

vitality N

energy or enthusiasm

- • adj+N great extraordinary, great, sheer, tremendous This unique collection provides an insight into the sheer vitality and depth of Classical Arabic literature.
- ▶ more added, continued, new, renewed The most common sensations after hypnosis are feelings of renewed vitality and a greater sense of well-being.
- ▶ types of vitality cultural, economic, intellectual, physical, religious, rhythmic, spiritual We will continue to encourage the economic vitality of town centres.

- • v+N increase vitality improve, increase, promote, strengthen Such major investment will further increase the vitality of the city.
- ▶ give vitality add, bring, contribute to, inject, restore Our new policies for competition will inject fresh vitality into British industry.
- ▶ get back vitality regain Her passion lies in helping people regain their vitality.
- ▶ keep vitality maintain, retain, sustain We need to sustain the economic vitality of the City Centre as a commercial, shopping, and tourist centre.
- ▶ reduce vitality harm, sap, threaten, undermine We have a system of regulation that is in grave danger of sapping the natural vitality and energy of entrepreneurs in this country.
- ▶ lose vitality lose The General Assembly had lost its vitality and often failed to focus effectively on the most compelling issues of the day.
- ▶ have vitality be brimming with, be bursting with, be full of, demonstrate, have His style of playing is exciting and full of vitality.
- ▶ not have vitality lack Almost all of the early 21st-century developments for apartment buildings lack the vitality of earlier designs.

- • and/or attractiveness, dynamism, energy, freshness, originality, richness, vibrancy, vigour The whole show has a freshness and vitality that reminds you of the long-gone days when musicals were fun.

vivid ADJ

very clear and detailed

- • adv+ADJ very exceptionally, extraordinarily, extremely, incredibly, really INFORMAL, remarkably, so INFORMAL, very, wonderfully She is renowned for her extraordinarily vivid recreations of historical events.
- ▶ rather pretty INFORMAL, quite Memories of my childhood are quite vivid.
- ▶ particularly especially, particularly It was a particularly vivid dream.
- ▶ still still Her memories of that time are still vivid.

- • ADJ+n memory memory, recollection, reminder Eileen has vivid memories of her father's shop.
- ▶ image in your mind dream, image, picture, scene I still have a very vivid image of his tearful face.
- ▶ description or acting account, depiction, description, imagery, portrait, portrayal This is a vivid account of a young teacher coming to terms with the horrors of life in an inner-city school.
- ▶ ability to imagine imagination, insight Children have vivid imaginations.
- ▶ example example, illustration This is a vivid example of just how important it is to get architecture right.
- ▶ experience or feeling experience, impression, sense He describes his vivid experience of visiting Chernobyl in 1996.
- ▶ detail detail Every nuance and subtlety is described in vivid detail.

vocabulary N

all the words that a person knows or words used in a particular language or subject

- • adj+N small limited, small This activity was designed to include all members of the class, including four with an extremely limited vocabulary.
- ▶ large extensive, good, large, rich, varied, wide This method enables learners to develop a wide vocabulary in the target language.
- ▶ only including certain words controlled, core, restricted They propose a core vocabulary, organized in areas of meaning which are of interest to young learners.
- ▶ easy basic, simple The children enjoy learning basic French vocabulary.
- ▶ important or useful essential, important, key, useful Teachers will be able to highlight key vocabulary in English.
- ▶ difficult complex, difficult Tell the students to focus on noting down simple words, not any complex technical vocabulary the speaker uses.
- ▶ not known new, unfamiliar Don't use unfamiliar vocabulary in your questions.
- ▶ suitable appropriate, relevant Pupils learn how to comment on works of art, using appropriate vocabulary.
- ▶ that you understand passive, receptive Rises in receptive vocabulary resulted from reading performance, rather than the other way round.
- ▶ that you can use active, expressive The successful student will possess a minimum active vocabulary of about 1,000 Russian words.
- ▶ special domain-specific, special, specialist, specialized, subject-specific, technical Education, like all professions, has a specialized vocabulary.

- used by most people common, everyday, general, standard The words 'guilt' and 'conscience' are common words in everyday vocabulary.
- of a subject area geographical, mathematical, musical, political, scientific, theatrical Opportunities are also provided for children to develop mathematical vocabulary.

- v+N have a vocabulary have You really don't have a very varied vocabulary, do you?
- improve your vocabulary broaden, build, develop, enlarge, enrich, expand, extend, improve, increase, widen A dictionary of synonyms and antonyms will allow you to write more effectively and enrich your vocabulary.
- learn or practise vocabulary acquire, learn, practise You will acquire appropriate vocabulary for shopping in supermarkets, clothes shops, and the pharmacy.
- teach vocabulary introduce, teach Cooking instructions can be used at a very simple level to teach vocabulary.
- not have a large vocabulary lack Young children lack the vocabulary to express their fears, memories, or distress.
- use vocabulary employ, use Rachel writes in an appropriately impersonal style, using varied vocabulary.
- become part of a vocabulary enter Recently, she has found lots of new words entering her vocabulary.

- N+n word item, term, word The list of vocabulary items put together was selected so as to reflect the needs and interests of the prospective learners.
- learning acquisition, building, development, extension, learning, recognition The course includes classes on academic writing, grammar, and vocabulary development.
- knowledge or skills knowledge, skills This game helps kids to develop spelling and vocabulary skills.
- list list Lesson 1 begins with a vocabulary list covering Basic Expressions.
- activity exercise, test We had to have a vocabulary test.

vocal ADJ

expressing opinions frequently and strongly

- adv+ADJ very extremely, highly, particularly, very We are extremely vocal in warning music fans not to buy tickets from unofficial outlets.
- rather quite, rather Government has been egged on by the media and by some rather vocal members of Parliament.
- more and more increasingly Non-smokers were becoming increasingly vocal in their demands for the right to work in a smoke-free environment.

- ADJ+n person or group advocate, critic, minority, opponent, proponent, supporter She has been a persistent and vocal critic of the scheme.
- behaviour encouragement, opposition, support There has been vocal opposition to the plan.

vocation N a job that is your purpose in life

- adj+N true real, true There are undoubtedly people working within the nursing profession who see it as a true vocation.
- chosen chosen We need to be continually monitoring how good we are at our chosen vocation.

- v+N fulfil your vocation follow, fulfil, pursue Warwick left college at the age of 21 to pursue his vocation full-time as a painter.
- not fulfil your vocation miss The man has missed his vocation – he should be on the stage.
- find your vocation discover, find After a brief nursing career, she found her true vocation as a musician.

vocational ADJ

teaching the skills necessary for a particular job

- ADJ+n course or qualification course, curriculum, degree, programme, qualification, scheme Vocational qualifications should be valued in their own right.
- part of a course or qualification element, option All its courses have a strong vocational element.
- teaching or learning education, learning, training The college gives young people vocational training in things like computing and mechanics.
- subject specialism, subject Our students study a wide range of both academic and vocational subjects.
- skills experience, skills The purpose of the course is to teach occupational skills (life skills) or vocational skills (work-related skills).
- emphasis emphasis, focus We pride ourselves on the vocational focus of our courses.

voice N

the sound made when someone speaks or sings

- adj+N loud big, booming, clear, loud, strident I could hear Brian's booming voice drawing ever closer.
- quiet calm, gentle, quiet, small, soft Speak in a very soft gentle voice.
- low or harsh deep, gravelly, gruff, harsh, hoarse, husky, low, rasping 'I've got something for you,' he said in his low husky voice.
- high high, high-pitched, shrill, squeaky She put on a squeaky voice and did an impression of Michael Jackson.
- pleasant beautiful, fine, rich, soulful, sweet, velvet 'I'll look after you', she said in a sweet voice.
- of a singer: good amazing, good, great, incredible, powerful, strong The lead singer has a great voice.
- different to others distinctive Apollo possesses a distinctive rasping voice.
- going up and down in pitch sing-song In a sing-song voice, the flight attendant runs throught he safety procedures.
- staying the same in pitch flat, monotone She delivered her dialogue in a monotone voice.

- N+v gradually stop drift off, trail off His voice trails off quickly as the procession approaches.
- when a voice is loud boom (out), echo, ring out When he spoke, he spoke loudly, his voice echoing like that of a minister.
- shake crack, falter, shake, tremble The old man's eyes filled and his voice trembled.
- change break, change When boys' voices break, they become deeper in tone.

▸ get higher rise Her voice rose to a squeak as she went on.
▸ get lower drop Her voice dropped to a conspiratorial whisper.

voice V

express your opinions or feelings about something

• adv+V clearly clearly, loudly, strongly The crowd began loudly voicing its displeasure at some of the referee's calls.
▸ in public openly, publicly After the war, Oppenheimer openly voiced his opposition to the development of the more powerful hydrogen bomb.
▸ often frequently, often, regularly, repeatedly The Union has repeatedly voiced its concerns over the decline in the services and facilities available to rural communities.

• V+n feeling or opinion feelings, idea, opinion, sentiments, thoughts, view This will be an opportunity for all participants to voice their opinions on the possible regeneration.
▸ worry or fear anxieties, concern, disquiet, fears, worries Significant people from within the UN system have regularly voiced their concerns.
▸ disagreement or disapproval complaint, criticism, disapproval, discontent, disgust, displeasure, dissent, objection, opposition, protest Members of the public have voiced their disapproval through the local press.
▸ disappointment disappointment, dismay, dissatisfaction Davies was quick to voice his disappointment with the referee.
▸ anger anger, frustration, outrage He insisted the visiting supporters had every right to voice their anger at the way his team are playing.
▸ doubt doubts, misgivings, reservations, scepticism, suspicion Motoring organizations voiced doubts about the scheme.
▸ support approval, support The public voiced universal approval.
▸ hope or wish desire, hope The forum is an opportunity for people to voice their hopes and concerns.

volunteer N

someone who does useful work but is not paid for it

• v+N need, want, or get volunteers ask for, attract, enlist, invite, need, recruit, seek, train, welcome We may also need volunteers to staff each polling station. ◦ We are currently recruiting up to 100 volunteers to become Community Health Outreach workers.
▸ thank volunteers reimburse, reward, thank The programme is designed to reward volunteers for their good work and practices.

• N+n counsellor, crew, driver, firefighter, fundraiser, helper, mentor, tutor We have between 15 and 20 permanent staff and a number of volunteer helpers.

vote V

formally express your opinion by officially choosing

• adv+V clearly, by most or all people decisively, massively, overwhelmingly, resoundingly, solidly, unanimously The union voted overwhelmingly to ditch its no-strike policy.
▸ by only a few people narrowly The Turkish parliament narrowly voted against this proposal.

• V+on a proposal amendment, bill, constitution, legislation, motion, proposal, resolution We need to vote on the motion as it stands.
▸ an issue issue, matter, question, topic Finally, the audience was invited to vote on the question of whether there should be a referendum.

vote N

the formal expression of a choice by voting

• adj+N in a particular contest democratic, electoral, parliamentary, presidential Winning the parliamentary vote on Friday 10 March will be crucial, but not easy.
▸ made in a particular way electronic, postal, proxy People must request a postal vote far enough in advance of the ballot.
▸ showing strong support for an opinion or proposal affirmative, decisive, overwhelming, resounding, unanimous We will be working together to secure an affirmative vote.
▸ made in order to influence the result of an election, not to show support for someone tactical The Liberal Democrats fought a good campaign, and clearly grabbed a large number of tactical votes.

• v+N make your choice by voting cast, exercise, register At the last general election, only 46.5% of eligible voters cast their vote.
▸ gain votes attract, gain, garner, get, poll, receive, secure, win Helen Cumming stood for the Socialist Party and polled 647 votes.
▸ count votes count, record The inVote interactive voting system instantly records the votes as they come in.

voter N

someone who votes in an election

• adj+N not sure who to vote for floating, swing, undecided It seems that this message had at least swayed some of the floating voters.
▸ not enthusiastic about voting disaffected, disenchanted, disillusioned The overwhelming majority of disaffected voters live in urban areas.

• v+N persuade or attract voters attract, convince, persuade, sway, tempt, win, woo The leadership adopted a more left-wing image in order to win back their core voters. ◦ He was appointed by Hague to woo new voters.
▸ make voters choose other people or things alienate, scare off The Democrats were unwilling to use her in too prominent a role for fear of alienating non-white voters.
▸ treat voters in an unfair way deceive, disenfranchise, fool, intimidate, mislead Many thousands of voters would be effectively disenfranchised by paramilitary intimidation.

• N+n negative feelings apathy, confusion, cynicism, dissatisfaction, fatigue Voter apathy has also increased due to a perceived lack of conviction amongst politicians.
▸ being involved in voting engagement, participation, registration, turnout The Electoral Commission produced a report entitled 'Voter engagement and young people'.

vow N

a serious, official, or religious promise

- adj+N binding, formal, holy, irrevocable, religious, sacred, solemn, strict, unbreakable I made a solemn vow that I would read every submission from beginning to end.
- v+N make a vow make, swear, take They took a solemn vow to perform the obligations of the office they now held.
- ▸ keep a vow fulfil, keep, observe, remember I promised to go, and I'm determined to keep my vow.
- ▸ break a vow break, forget When he got well, he did not forget his earlier vow.
- N+of abstinence, celibacy, chastity, obedience, poverty, secrecy, silence, virginity He started to live the life of an ascetic, taking a vow of celibacy and living a life of great hardship.

voyage N

a long journey

- adj+N dangerous or disastrous arduous, dangerous, fateful, ill-fated, perilous 'Titanic' is the fictional tale of a rich girl and poor boy who meet on the ill-fated voyage of the famous ship.
- ▸ exciting eventful, exciting, extraordinary, fantastic He produced a remarkable series of paintings inspired by his fantastic voyage and spectacular surroundings.
- v+N commence, complete, make, undertake According to old Irish tales, St Brendan made a voyage to the Faroe Islands, Iceland, Greenland and North America sometime in the 6th century.

vulnerable ADJ

1 easy to harm physically or mentally

- adv+ADJ very especially, exceptionally, extremely, highly, increasingly, particularly The report presents new findings on why children run away, and makes recommendations for helping this highly vulnerable group of young people.
- ▸ in emotions emotionally, mentally, psychologically Many religious cults deliberately target people who are emotionally vulnerable.
- ▸ in particular ways economically, financially, nutritionally, socially Even before the disaster, the island community included thousands of economically vulnerable households.
- v+ADJ appear, be, become, feel, leave sb, look, remain, seem Stick with groups of friends if you feel vulnerable. • Our charity supports and children who have been left vulnerable by the HIV/AIDS epidemic in South Africa.

2 easily damaged by negative influences or events

- ADJ+to other people's actions accusation, attack, exploitation, takeover, theft, vandalism Which retailers are vulnerable to takeover and who are the likely investors?
- ▸ events that cannot be controlled downturn, drought, erosion, flooding, fluctuations, infection, vagaries, whim Such farmers are very vulnerable to the vagaries of an economic system beyond their control.

Ww

wage N
an amount of money earned for working

- adj+N fair or reasonable average, decent, fair, just, living We want these women to be able to work for a decent wage without being exploited.
- ▸ low low, meagre, modest Out of his meagre wages, very little was left with which to buy food.
- ▸ set by law minimum They are calling for an immediate rise in the minimum wage for 16–18 year-olds.
- ▸ too low to live on poverty, starvation This obsession with low prices has led to poverty wages and ever-worsening working conditions.

- v+N get a wage command, demand, earn, receive Knowing a foreign language means you can earn better wages and have the possibility of international travel.
- ▸ increase wages increase, raise The labour shortages following the Black Death forced employers to raise workers' wages.
- ▸ reduce wages cut, deduct, depress, dock, freeze, lower, slash, undercut Luckily, they were not docked any wages for being late.
- ▸ earn extra money supplement He supplemented his wages by selling details of the company's secret 'recipe'.

Usage Wage is usually plural in all of the v+N combinations shown above.

- N+n reduction cut, freeze, restraint Of course, that will mean wage restraint for the lower grades in the civil service.
- ▸ increase increase, inflation, rise This means that the economy can sustain a lower rate of unemployment without triggering off a renewed burst of wage inflation.
- ▸ differences between people's wages differential, inequality Economists claim that globalisation did not cause the rise in wage inequality.

waist N
the middle part of the human body

- adj+N narrow, slender, slim, small, thin, tiny He came up beside her and placed an arm about her slim waist.

wait V
expect or hope that something will happen

- adv+V with particular feelings anxiously, eagerly, expectantly, impatiently, nervously, passively, patiently, quietly Everyone is nervously waiting to hear what plans the Glazer family has for the club.
- ▸ for a long time awhile, forever, long They were willing to work hard and wait long.

wait N a period when you expect or hope that something will happen

- adj+N long extended, interminable, lengthy, long, longish, prolonged, protracted After an interminable wait, instructions were given to board the train.
- ▸ short brief, short After a brief wait in an outer office, I was called in for the interview.
- ▸ making you feel anxious or irritated agonizing, anxious, frustrating, tense Laura needed a liver transplant as a toddler, and her family faced an agonizing wait while a donor was found.

walk N a journey on foot

- adj+N short/long brief, long, short My cousin arrived in the afternoon, and we went for a brief walk around the neighbourhood and did a bit of window shopping.
- ▸ enjoyable beautiful, delightful, enjoyable, lovely, nice, pleasant We reached the little fishing town after a delightful walk along a coastal path.
- ▸ involving a lot of effort arduous, brisk, challenging, hard, strenuous, uphill Revitalise yourself by going for a brisk walk at any time of the day.
- ▸ not involving much effort easy, leisurely If you like, you can take a leisurely walk through the hotel's stunning gardens, enjoy a dip in the pool, or relax with a good book in the library.

wander V
1 travel without purpose

- adv+V aimlessly, casually, happily, idly, lazily, leisurely, randomly He wandered aimlessly about the streets, feeling depressed.

2 stop concentrating or focussing on something

- n+V attention wanders attention, imagination, mind, thoughts If your attention wanders, gently bring it back to the task.
- ▸ eyes wander eyes, gaze For a moment, he allowed his gaze to wander over the sea of faces surrounding him on all sides.

wane V become weaker or less important

- adv+V a lot considerably, somewhat Now that he is no longer a part of the show, his interest in it was waned considerably.
- ▸ quickly fast, quickly, rapidly Support and enthusiasm for the campaign was rapidly waning.
- ▸ finally eventually, finally As with many teen bands, their popularity eventually waned.

- n+V power or influence dominance, influence, power, strength By about the year 1700, Dutch sea power and influence was waning, as Britain's power rose.
- ▸ positive feelings confidence, enthusiasm, hope, interest, optimism After several hours of hard work, our initial enthusiasm for the job was beginning to wane.
- ▸ luck or popularity fortunes, popularity, star With a career spanning some 30 years, Paul's popularity has never waned.

want V feel that you would like something

- adv+V definitely, desperately, genuinely, obviously, particularly, really Mourinho only had respect for European winners, and he desperately wanted to win with Chelsea.

war N
1 serious fighting between countries

- v+N fight a war fight, prosecute, wage This was a highly effective method of waging war in Afghanistan.
- ▶ start a war declare, launch, start, unleash We need to ask whether it was actually the Prime Minister who declared war on Iraq.
- ▶ end a war end, stop Wellington defeated Napoleon at Waterloo (1815), thus ending the Napoleonic Wars.
- ▶ avoid a war avert, avoid, prevent The two states narrowly averted a full-scale war in Kashmir in 1999.
- ▶ cause a war cause, lead to, provoke, spark, trigger The terrorists are determined to stoke sectarian tension and are attempting to spark a civil war.

2 an organized effort to control or stop something

- N+on crime, drugs, graffiti, hunger, obesity, poverty, terror, terrorism Political reforms will count for just as much as agricultural innovation in the war on hunger.

warm ADJ fairly hot in a comfortable, pleasant way

- adv+ADJ to a pleasant degree comfortably, delightfully, gloriously, pleasantly, wonderfully It was a delightfully warm evening on the longest night of the year.
- ▶ to a surprising degree amazingly, exceptionally, surprisingly, unseasonably, unusually The year started cold before becoming unseasonably warm and dry.
- ▶ fairly moderately, quite, reasonably, relatively The Alps region has harsh winters and moderately warm summers with abundant rainfall.
- v+ADJ be, become, or remain warm be, become, get, grow, remain, stay, turn After a long winter, the weather was at last turning warmer.
- ▶ keep yourself warm keep, stay, wrap up In the winter the office is very cold, so you'll want to wrap up warm.

warmth N
a kind and friendly quality

- adj+N genuine, great, personal, real The strong tradition of desert hospitality lives on in the genuine warmth and friendliness that welcomes any visitor.
- v+N bring, convey, exude, radiate, spread He exuded warmth and kindness; it was impossible not to be charmed by him.
- N+of affection, applause, feeling, friendship, hospitality, personality, reception, smile, welcome The warmth of the applause was indicative of the respect and popularity that this master deserves.
- and/or affection, friendliness, generosity, hospitality, humanity, humour A big man with a big personality, who exudes warmth and good humour, Dara is a delight to be entertained by.

warn V make someone conscious of a possible problem or danger

- adv+V seriously earnestly, ominously, solemnly, sternly Party members were solemnly warned not to indulge in internal arguments.
- ▶ urgently or with emphasis emphatically, urgently Answering the phone, he heard his wife's voice urgently warning him to stay away from the city centre.
- ▶ very clearly clearly, explicitly, expressly, specifically A terrorist gang has explicitly warned that it will target tourists during this year's summer season.
- ▶ more than once consistently, constantly, regularly, repeatedly He had been repeatedly warned by his doctor of the damage his lifestyle was causing.
- V+of consequences, crisis, dangers, hazards, perils, pitfalls, risk, threat While the demand for tobacco grew, some physicians began to warn of the potential dangers.

warning N a statement that warns of possible problems or danger

- adj+N serious chilling, dire, grim, solemn, stark, stern His stark warnings about the consequences of ignoring climate change are spot on.
- ▶ enough adequate, ample, fair, sufficient The local population was given ample warning of the impending attack and people were sufficiently familiar with the procedure for evacuating the area.
- ▶ helpful, because given when it is needed salutary, timely The oil crises of the 1970s had been a salutary warning to Americans accustomed to cheap gasoline and gas-guzzling cars.
- ▶ clear or urgent explicit, urgent Earlier in the year, the world's leading climate scientists issued the most urgent warning yet about the need to reduce carbon emissions.
- n+N air-raid, bomb, cyclone, flood, gale, hurricane, storm, tornado, typhoon, virus For the latest information on flood warnings, contact the Environment Agency.
- v+N give a warning carry, echo, give, issue, reiterate, renew, sound, utter Our leaders have issued stark warnings about the dangers of terrorism.
- ▶ take particular action because of a warning heed Like so many fools before me, I failed to heed the warnings about the dangers of prolonged exposure to the sun.
- ▶ ignore a warning disregard, ignore Government ministers are accused of ignoring warnings of electoral fraud.
- N+n bell, flag, light, notice, sign, signal, siren In children, these warning signs mean you should get medical advice immediately.

warrant N
a judge's document allowing the police to do something

- n+N arrest, death, detention, extradition, search, seizure Even with a search warrant, the police still cannot forcibly enter your house.
- v+N grant, issue, serve When he failed to appear in court on the appointed day, a warrant wss issued for his arrest.

wary ADJ

careful or nervous about someone or something

- adv+ADJ very extremely, increasingly, particularly, very Be very wary of a club where staff or volunteers behave in those ways.
- ▸ slightly a little, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, slightly, somewhat I was somewhat wary of what I was letting myself in for.
- ▸ in a way that seems normal and sensible naturally, rightly, understandably Some staff are naturally wary about their ability to support a pupil with a medical condition.
- v+ADJ be, become, feel, grow, remain, seem Aid organisations and the US military remain wary of working together on relief operations for Iraq.

waste N

1 failure to make effective use of something valuable

- adj+N complete appalling, colossal, complete, total, utter Overall, this has been a colossal waste of everybody's time.
- ▸ sad terrible, tragic Young people are far more likely to be killed on the road than older people, meaning road deaths are often a tragic waste of young lives.
- ▸ unnecessary needless, pointless, unnecessary Protesters criticized the new runway as a needless waste of public money.
- N+of effort, energy, funds, life, money, potential, resources, talent, time The movie is an awful waste of Meryl Streep's talent.

2 useless materials or parts left after using something

- adj+N dangerous contaminated, hazardous, high-level, nuclear, radioactive, toxic The rules relate to the disposal of hazardous waste in landfill sites.
- ▸ not dangerous biodegradable, inert, low-level, non-hazardous, organic These are the targets for reducing the amount of biodegradable waste transported to landfill sites.
- ▸ types of waste agricultural, chemical, clinical, domestic, industrial, municipal The local authority provides a collection of commercial clinical waste on request.
- n+N from a particular place farm, garden, hospital, household, kitchen, slaughterhouse A total of 20.6 per cent of household waste was recycled in 1999/2000 in Orkney.
- ▸ types of waste asbestos, food, mineral, packaging, plastic, sewage, vegetable Use these baskets for collecting vegetable waste for composting.
- ▸ from a particular activity catering, construction, demolition, mining The new scheme turns catering waste into top quality organic fertiliser.
- v+N process waste bury, compost, incinerate, manage, recycle, reprocess, reuse Just over 25% of this waste is currently being recycled.
- ▸ reduce or get rid of waste eliminate, minimize, reduce By initiating a recycling programme, your canteen can drastically reduce waste with minimal effort.
- ▸ spoil a place by leaving waste there dump, tip The company was continuing to tip clay waste on the moors.
- ▸ collect waste and take it away collect, dispose of, remove, transport We will collect almost any commercial waste.

watch V

look at someone or something for some time

- adv+V with a lot of attention attentively, avidly, carefully, closely, eagerly, intently, keenly Journalists and press officers alike are avidly watching the post-match analysis.
- ▸ in a worried way anxiously, nervously All the speculation about where rates are going has left many homeowners nervously watching house prices.
- ▸ without reacting idly, impassively, passively, quietly, silently A police officer was still silently watching our movements from the doorway.
- V+in amazement, awe, disbelief, fascination, horror, silence, wonder My brother watched in disbelief as government troops completely destroyed a house belonging to someone he knew.

watch N

an act of carefully looking at or checking something

- adj+N 24-hour, careful, close, constant, round-the-clock, vigilant We have to keep a constant watch on the temperatures of the engines.
- v+N keep, maintain Analysts will be keeping a close watch on what happens.

watchdog N an organization whose purpose is to make sure that organizations act lawfully

- adj+N having particular status independent, international, local, national, official, public, statutory The Financial Services Authority is the independent watchdog that regulates the finance industry.
- ▸ in a particular industry civil, corporate, environmental, financial, medical, nuclear, postal The construction industry is under pressure from environmental watchdogs to improve its environmental performance.
- n+N advertising, broadcasting, consumer, electricity, exams, media, passenger, press, prison, telecoms The exams watchdog, the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority, wants a ban on pupils taking coursework home to stamp out cheating.

watershed N an event that causes an important change

- adj+N critical, crucial, historical, major These workshops will be an informal opportunity to discuss these matters at a critical watershed in European history and governance.
- v+N be a watershed be, mark, prove, represent The TV series represents a fascinating watershed in the history of mass communication.

▸ reach a watershed approach, reach Like many scientists, she felt the planet was approaching a watershed when it would be too late to reverse this devastation.

wave N

1 a raised line of moving water

- N+v batter sth, break, buffet sth, crash, engulf sth, hit sth, lap sth, lash sth, pound sth, roll, wash (sth) Huge waves were crashing over the top of the pier. ◆ Massive waves pounded the coast of Florida today as Hurricane Wilma swept across the state.

2 a large number of things that happen or people that go somewhere

- v+N generate, herald, provoke, spark, trigger, unleash The talks have triggered a wave of speculation about a possible merger.

way N

a method or manner of doing something

- adj+N effective effective, efficient, excellent, good, practical She came up with an excellent way of presenting the course material.
- ▸ easy convenient, easy, simple, straightforward Interested in finding a cheap and easy way to work and travel abroad next summer?
- ▸ different alternative, different, other, possible A major concern is finding alternative ways of using the premises to provide income.
- ▸ new or original creative, innovative, new, novel, original They came up with some novel ways of raising money for charity.
- v+N find or try to find a way come up with, discover, find, identify, investigate, look for, seek Employers and employees have to find ways to bring a level of personal control back into the workplace.
- ▸ change a way change, improve, revolutionize, transform The technology is going to change the way we teach. ◆ Over the past few years, email and smartphones have revolutionized the way we live and work.
- ▸ develop a way create, develop, devise, establish One of our goals will be to devise cleaner ways of making chemicals, replacing the conventional oil-based solvents used in chemical reactions.
- ▸ consider a way consider, discuss, examine, explore, review The case study will focus on schools with broadband connections, and will explore the ways in which connectivity is being used in teaching and learning.

weak ADJ

not strong enough to succeed or be effective

- adv+ADJ in a particular way academically, economically, financially, militarily, morally, politically, structurally These students are academically weak.
- ▸ rather fairly, pretty INFORMAL, rather The analysis is pretty weak.
- ▸ very extremely, inherently, too, very This argument is inherently weak.
- ▸ compared to others comparatively, considerably, much, relatively The party has a considerably weaker position in England. ◆ The law in this respect is much weaker than in the UK.
- ADJ+n part or aspect area, aspect, point, spot This is the weak spot in his book.
- ▸ idea or explanation argument, excuse, explanation, idea, policy This, of course, is a relatively weak argument.
- ▸ understanding grasp, knowledge, understanding The author clearly has a weak grasp of historical matters.
- ▸ evidence analysis, evidence The evidence in support of this idea seems very weak.
- ▸ government or leadership administration, authority, government, leadership, regime In the late 8th Century, Northumbria was plagued by weak leadership and collapsed into a state of anarchy.
- ▸ economic system or performance currency, demand, economy, growth, market The advertising market remains very weak, for the third year running.
- v+ADJ appear, be, become, grow, remain, seem The role of the voluntary sector remains comparatively weak.
- and/or ineffective, ineffectual, unstable, vacillating, vulnerable Their policies were weak and ineffective.

weaken V

make something weaker

- adv+V considerably, drastically, fatally, gravely, greatly, seriously, severely, significantly The economy has been gravely weakened by the civil war.

Usage Weaken is usually passive in all these adv+V combinations.

- V+n someone's ability to do something ability, capacity, credibility, effectiveness, position The President's position was severely weakened.
- ▸ power or control authority, grip, hold, influence, power The new technologies are gradually weakening the hold of the traditional television channels.
- ▸ belief or determination confidence, morale, resolve, will A salary cut would weaken staff morale.
- ▸ connections bonds, solidarity, ties, union Anything that weakens those bonds of trust weakens us as a fighting force.
- ▸ an argument argument Unsubstantiated claims such as these weaken an argument that is compelling enough based on the facts.

weakness N

a problem or fault that makes something weak

- adj+N basic fundamental, inherent, intrinsic, methodological, structural, systemic, underlying The recent banking crisis has highlighted some inherent structural weaknesses in the financial system.
- ▸ major or serious fatal, key, serious, significant This was the most significant weakness in the design of the experiment.
- ▸ lasting a long time long-standing The Government must address long-standing weaknesses.
- ▸ obvious to others apparent, evident, glaring, perceived The film has many glaring weaknesses.
- ▸ possible potential Senior managers are good at identifying potential weaknesses.
- v+N find a weakness detect, find, identify, pinpoint, see, spot Auditors can spot weaknesses and advise your company on improvements.

- ▸ show a weakness demonstrate, expose, highlight, reflect, reveal It exposed fundamental weaknesses in the European economy.
- ▸ deal with a weakness acknowledge, address, correct, eliminate, overcome, rectify, remedy, tackle Subsequent reforms sought to address weaknesses in education.
- ▸ use a weakness for your own advantage exploit Enemies will exploit these weaknesses.

- • N+in approach, argument, leadership, management, process, system Some of the weaknesses in his argument come from over-generalizing from particular cases.
- • n+of+N area, sign, source Asking for help is so often viewed as a sign of weakness.

wealth N

1 a large amount of money

- • adj+N very great abundant, considerable, enormous, fabulous, great, immense, obscene, tremendous, untold, vast He amassed considerable wealth.
- ▸ hard to imagine incredible, unimaginable You see incredible wealth and significant poverty.
- ▸ obvious conspicuous, obvious, ostentatious There was a lot of ostentatious wealth.
- ▸ gained in a particular way ill-gotten, new-found How do they intend to use their new-found wealth?
- ▸ so much that it is regarded as wrong obscene A small minority at the top enjoy obscene wealth while a massive majority exists in abject poverty and misery.

- • v+N get or have wealth accumulate, acquire, amass, enjoy, inherit, possess During the nineteenth century, the family acquired great wealth.
- ▸ create wealth create, generate, increase Well-managed investments can be a good way of increasing your wealth.
- ▸ share wealth distribute, redistribute, share He believed that the rich should distribute their wealth for the benefit of society.
- ▸ use wealth flaunt, squander, use He was rich and had no qualms about flaunting his wealth in public. ◉ We should use our wealth to help others.

- • N+n creation, distribution, management, redistribution, tax In the next Parliament, we shall introduce an annual wealth tax.

- • n+of+N sharing distribution, redistribution This has prevented any effective redistribution of wealth and income.
- ▸ getting wealth accumulation, creation, pursuit There was a rapid accumulation of wealth.

- • and/or fame, influence, power, prestige, privilege, status He relied on his family's wealth and influence to get everything he got in life.

2 a large supply of something

- • v+N amass, boast, bring, contain, gain, have, increase, possess She has amassed a wealth of experience and her views are widely respected. ◉ The region boasts a wealth of attractions.

- • N+of information data, details, evidence, information, material There is a wealth of anecdotal evidence.
- ▸ skills experience, expertise, knowledge, talent She has gained a wealth of experience from working on these projects.
- ▸ things you can do, use, or see attractions, features, opportunities, possibilities, resources, treasures Broadband opens up a wealth of creative opportunities. ◉ You'll encounter a wealth of historic treasures.

wealthy ADJ

with a large amount of money, land etc

- • adv+ADJ fabulously, immensely, independently, obscenely, very He is independently wealthy and does not need the cash.

- • v+ADJ be, become, grow As societies grow wealthy, differences in well-being are less frequently due to income, and more frequently due to factors such as social relationships and enjoyment at work.

- • and/or aristocratic, influential, powerful, privileged, well-connected She was born into a wealthy and influential Anglo-Irish family.

weather N conditions in the atmosphere relating to temperature, rain etc

- • adj+N with sun, rain etc cloudy, frosty, icy, rainy, snowy, stormy, sunny, windy The weather was sunny and warm.
- ▸ hot or warm boiling (hot), hot, scorching, warm The weather ranged from boiling to freezing.
- ▸ cold chilly, cold, cool, freezing (cold), frosty, wintry Wintry weather causes problems on the roads.
- ▸ wet or dull cloudy, damp, dismal, dull, humid, overcast, rainy, wet Be prepared for some hot and very humid weather. ◉ The weather was overcast but warm.
- ▸ good beautiful, favourable, fine, glorious, good, lovely, nice, perfect It was perfect weather for a picnic.
- ▸ bad adverse, atrocious, awful, bad, foul, inclement, miserable The weather was awful.
- ▸ extreme extreme, freak, rough, severe, stormy, wild We have all experienced freak weather over the last few years.
- ▸ not staying the same changeable, unpredictable, unsettled The weather was very changeable, one day beautiful and sunny, the next cold, wet and windy.

- • v+N talk about expected weather check, expect, forecast, predict Climate models can successfully forecast the weather.
- ▸ have good/bad weather enjoy, have The March event usually enjoys better weather than the autumn one.
- ▸ do something despite the weather brave, withstand A few people had chosen to brave the weather and were looking around outside.

- • N+v change change, turn colder, warmer etc The weather then turned cooler, with nasty showers.
- ▸ get better brighten (up), clear (up), improve, warm up After a gloomy start, the weather gradually improved.
- ▸ get worse close in, deteriorate, set in, turn, worsen

The weather closed in on us again. ◉ By this time, the weather was deteriorating rapidly.

weather V

manage a difficult experience without being seriously harmed

- V+n challenge, crisis, downturn, recession, storm The economy has weathered the storm relatively well.

web N

1 a complicated set of related things

- adj+N complex, complicated, intricate, tangled He becomes trapped in a tangled web of deceit.
- v+N create, spin, untangle, weave Others are better qualified to untangle this complex web.
- N+of lies conspiracy, corruption, deceit, deception, intrigue, lies Every day, he becomes more entangled in the web of deceit that he and his supporters have spun.
- ▶ connections connections, interconnections, relations, relationships Understanding this complex web of relationships is crucial.

2 the Internet

- v+N use the web access, use Not everyone can access the web.
- ▶ search the web browse, scour, search, surf, trawl I've trawled the web, but have not found the answer.
- N+n space address, log, page, site, space There is free web space and online customer support.
- ▶ information available content, directory, resources, version Click here to download a web version.
- ▶ use access, accessibility, traffic, use Check your mail from anywhere that you have web access.
- ▶ activities browsing, conferencing, design, development, hosting, publishing, search, streaming The programs cover tasks such as word processing, e-mail and web browsing.
- ▶ tool or service browser, cam, host, server, service, tool Your web browser must be able to accept cookies for you to log-in.

website N a space on the Internet providing information about a particular thing

- v+N start or develop a website build, create, design, develop, launch, update We ensure that your website is built with accessibility in mind.
- ▶ run a website host, maintain, manage, own, run They will charge you a monthly fee to host your website.
- ▶ look at a website access, browse, check, find, navigate, search, see, view, visit Check this website for details.

wedding N

a ceremony in which two people get married

- adj+N types of wedding civil, religious, traditional, white We can host both civil and religious weddings. ◉ She likes the idea of a traditional white wedding.
- ▶ large grand, large, lavish She wanted a lavish wedding.
- ▶ small intimate, simple, small It's the perfect setting for small, intimate weddings.
- ▶ very nice dream, fairytale, lovely, perfect, romantic We can make your dream wedding into a reality. ◉ It was the most romantic wedding I've ever been to.
- v+N arrange a wedding announce, arrange, book, organize, plan We can arrange weddings in a number of different destinations.
- ▶ perform or have a ceremony for a wedding celebrate, conduct, hold, host, officiate at Some ministers will not conduct a church wedding if one partner is divorced.
- ▶ go to a wedding attend, be invited to, go to He did not attend her wedding.
- ▶ stop or delay a wedding cancel, postpone We have had to postpone the wedding.
- N+n date anniversary, day They've just celebrated their 20th wedding anniversary.
- ▶ event breakfast, ceremony, reception It is a beautiful setting for wedding receptions.
- ▶ gifts gift, present He gave us a lovely wedding present.
- ▶ clothes attire, dress, gown, outfit Most men hire their wedding attire.

weep V

cry because of sadness or strong emotion

- adv+V a lot bitterly, copiously, hysterically, inconsolably, uncontrollably Tears rolled down his face and he wept uncontrollably.
- ▶ letting people see openly, unashamedly When I was told the news, I wept unashamedly.
- ▶ quietly quietly, silently, softly Weeping softly, she leant against my shoulder.

weight N

1 a measurement of how heavy someone is

- v+N lose weight and become less heavy lose, reduce, shed The aim of the procedure is not to reduce weight but to improve your figure. ◉ Patients with arthritis should shed any excess weight.
- ▶ gain weight gain, put on, regain Diets are soon discarded, and often the lost weight is regained.
- ▶ keep your weight the same control, keep off, maintain This will help you keep the weight off permanently.

2 importance or influence

- adj+N considerable, equal, great, sufficient, (too) much, undue The reporter had not given sufficient weight to the positive aspects of the scheme.
- v+N have weight carry, have, hold The information comes from a variety of sources, some of which carry more weight in our analysis.
- ▶ give weight to something add, assign, attach, give, lend We attach great weight to this argument. ◉ He goes on to explain the concept of the balance of nature, and how this lends weight to the Gaia theory of the Earth as an organism.
- N+of argument, evidence, history, opinion, tradition Despite the weight of scientific evidence, not enough has been done.

weigh up PHR VB
consider good and bad aspects before reaching a decision

- V+n information arguments, evidence, information You will be weighing up all the arguments and solving problems as they crop up.
- ▸ choices choices, considerations, options I have to weigh up my options.
- ▸ advantages/disadvantages advantages, benefits, costs, disadvantages, good and bad points, merits, pros and cons, risks He must have weighed up the risks.
- ▸ effects consequences, effects Weigh up the consequences of leaving your friends and family.
- ▸ situation factors, issues, situation Only you can weigh up all the emotional and social factors involved.

weird ADJ INFORMAL strange and unusual

- adv+ADJ downright, kinda, kind of, a little, plain, pretty, really I was staying at this really weird old hotel where the hallways made no sense and I kept getting lost trying to find my room.
- v+ADJ act, be, feel, get, look, seem, sound He has been acting pretty weird lately. ◉ Things just get plain weird from here onwards.

welcome V
1 greet someone arriving, in a polite friendly way

- adv+V with enthusiasm enthusiastically, heartily, warmly We were then all warmly welcomed by the Mayor.
- ▸ formally formally, officially After registration, we were formally welcomed by the General Secretary.

2 react to something in a positive way

- adv+V with enthusiasm genuinely, greatly, positively, warmly, wholeheartedly We genuinely welcome all your comments – positive or negative. ◉ I wholeheartedly welcome this initiative.
- ▸ generally broadly, generally, universally, widely Their views have not been universally welcomed.
- ▸ not strongly cautiously Members cautiously welcomed the initiative.

- V+n new development appointment, arrival, decision, initiative, introduction, launch, move, publication We welcome the launch of the campaign.
- ▸ proposal application, proposal, recommendation, submission, suggestion Everyone on the committee welcomes this proposal from our friends in the U.S.
- ▸ opportunity chance, opportunity We welcome the opportunity to work with you on this important project.
- ▸ information announcement, fact, findings, information, news The announcement was welcomed by environmentalists.
- ▸ comments or questions comments, enquiries, feedback, input, queries, questions, views We would welcome your feedback. ◉ We welcome your input and, and there is a feedback page where you can contact us.

welcome ADJ received in a positive way

- ADJ+n comments comments, contributions, enquiries, feedback, suggestions Your comments are always welcome.
- ▸ something that makes you feel better boost, break, development, distraction, news, relief, respite It was a welcome break for all of us. ◉ This was very welcome news.

welcome N a greeting or reaction

- adj+N friendly cordial, friendly, good, gracious, hospitable We received a very cordial welcome from the landlord.
- ▸ enthusiastic or positive enthusiastic, genuine, rapturous, tremendous, warm In June 1461, Edward entered London, where he was given a rapturous welcome and hailed as King.
- ▸ not strong cautious, guarded, lukewarm, qualified There has been a qualified welcome for the recent White Paper.

- v+N offer a welcome accord, extend, give, offer The new novel has been accorded a warm welcome.
- ▸ receive a welcome enjoy, find, get, have, receive At the hotel, we enjoyed a very cordial welcome. ◉ Her proposal got a rather lukewarm welcome from the press.
- ▸ make sure someone receives a good welcome assure, ensure, guarantee, promise Please come and join us – a warm welcome is ensured.

welfare N people's health and happiness

- adj+N relating to an individual emotional, general, mental, personal, physical, psychological Our main concern is her physical and emotional welfare. ◉ We will closely monitor your academic progress and general welfare.
- ▸ relating to society human, public, social Projects in the fields of education, health and social welfare will also be considered.
- ▸ financial economic This is important for the economic welfare of many households.
- ▸ future future, long-term They leave with our best wishes for their future welfare.

- v+N improve someone's welfare advance, enhance, further, improve, promote The unit was set up to promote the welfare of the most vulnerable children in our local community.
- ▸ protect someone's welfare ensure, guarantee, protect, safeguard, secure My role is concerned primarily with ensuring the welfare of postgraduate students.
- ▸ threaten someone's welfare compromise, endanger, jeopardize, neglect, sacrifice, threaten, undermine They claimed their mother had neglected their welfare by putting her career first.
- ▸ affect someone's welfare affect There are several factors which may affect the welfare of residents.
- ▸ be responsible for someone's welfare assess, be responsible for, monitor, oversee Your tutor will visit you and monitor your welfare during your year in industry.

well-being N
the satisfactory state of being happy, healthy etc

- adj+N mental emotional, mental, psychological, spiritual The aim is to develop emotional well-being in school.

- ▶ physical nutritional, physical You will soon notice changes in your physical wellbeing.
- ▶ general general, overall, personal, social The book explains how yoga can contribute to general well-being. ◉ Personal well-being also includes mental health.
- ▶ financial economic, financial The Directorate has a shared responsibility for the financial well-being of the University.
- ▶ future future, long-term This is an important issue for the future wellbeing of our children.

- • v+N improve someone's well-being advance, enhance, improve, promote Exercise can help lift your mood and enhance wellbeing.
- ▶ protect someone's well-being ensure, guarantee, maintain, safeguard The panel works exceptionally well to ensure the wellbeing of children.
- ▶ threaten someone's well-being endanger, jeopardize, threaten Anyone who jeopardises the well-being of others is bad news.
- ▶ affect someone's well-being affect, influence Getting a good night's sleep influences our psychological well-being.
- ▶ check someone's well-being assess, measure, monitor To measure the well-being of a region, quality-of-life and economic indicators are required.

- • and/or contentment, happiness, health, independence, safety, self-esteem, vitality The Centre's focus is the safety and well-being of vulnerable groups within society. ◉ You should also experience feelings of vitality and well-being after treatment.

well-known ADJ known by many people

- • adv+ADJ rather fairly, quite, reasonably, relatively I am fairly well-known as a critic of his newspaper.
- ▶ in a particular area internationally, locally She is an internationally well-known and respected children's author.

- • and/or admired popular, reputable, respected, well-loved He was a well-known and respected musician.
- ▶ successful eminent, influential, prominent, well-established She has become a well-known and influential food writer.

wet ADJ
1 covered with or full of liquid

- • adv+ADJ very dripping, extremely, soaking, sopping, thoroughly, very The cave can become extremely wet in bad weather. ◉ The children came back soaking wet.
- ▶ rather rather, slightly It can be rather wet underfoot.

- • v+ADJ be, become, get You should wear old trainers and socks that you do not mind getting wet.

- • and/or people bedraggled, cold, miserable, tired We finished the walk very wet and bedraggled.
- ▶ surfaces muddy, slimy, slippery, soggy It is unusually wet and muddy along the path.

2 with a lot of rain

- • adv+ADJ exceptionally, rather, unseasonably, unusually, very The weather was still unseasonably wet and cool.

- • and/or dull cloudy, dreary, dull, grey, miserable, misty, rainy It was a wet, miserable afternoon in late November.
- ▶ cold/not cold cold, cool, mild, warm The forecast is wetter and milder at the weekend.
- ▶ with wind blustery, stormy, windy The weather was wet and windy.

whereabouts N
the place where someone or something is

- • adj+N exact exact, precise He did not know his exact whereabouts.
- ▶ now current, present Their current whereabouts is unknown.
- ▶ known/not known last known, unknown His last known whereabouts was in the Chicago area.

- • v+N find someone's whereabouts ascertain, discover, find, identify, locate, trace, track Police are trying to locate the whereabouts of her husband, who has been missing for three days.
- ▶ become certain of someone's whereabouts ascertain, confirm, determine, establish, know Nobody has been able to confirm his whereabouts.
- ▶ show someone's whereabouts disclose, reveal For security reasons, I am unable to reveal my exact whereabouts.

whiff N
a slight amount or sign of something

- • adj+N slight faint, mere, slight Though nothing has been proved, a faint whiff of scandal is in the air, with all kinds of questionable land deals and allocations of contracts.
- ▶ definite definite, distinct, strong, unmistakable His conversation was always suffused with a strong whiff of irony.

- • v+N catch, detect, get, smell Do I detect a whiff of hypocrisy here?

whim N
a sudden feeling that you must have something or do something

- • adj+N not lasting fickle, passing, sudden He left his job on a sudden whim.
- ▶ not based on good reasons arbitrary, capricious, strange Nature should not be subject to our arbitrary whim.
- ▶ not important idle, mere, slightest It was no idle whim which took him there. ◉ The hotel staff will satisfy your slightest whim.

- • v+N cater to, indulge, pander to, satisfy It is the most perfect place, where your every whim is indulged. ◉ Politicians are too ready to pander to the whims of any minority that shouts the loudest.

whisper V
speak very quietly so others cannot hear

- • adv+V conspiratorially, gently, hoarsely, quietly, softly He bent his head, and she whispered very softly into his ear.

whisper N a very quiet way of speaking

- adj+N conspiratorial, faint, gentle, hoarse, low, quiet, soft Across the stillness came a soft whisper.

white ADJ
1 of the same colour as milk

- adj+ADJ pure plain, pure There are miles of pure white beaches here.
- ▸ bright blinding, bright, brilliant, dazzling, gleaming, sparkling I saw a flash of brilliant white light.

2 pale because ill or upset

- v+ADJ be, go, grow, look, turn He suddenly went as white as a sheet and had to sit down ◦ She turned white with fear.

wide ADJ
1 involving many different things or people

- adv+ADJ in a way that is noticeable exceptionally, extraordinarily, impressively, remarkably, surprisingly, unusually Students choose from an exceptionally wide range of modules.
- ▸ very enormously, extremely, very There is an extremely wide diversity of views on this issue.
- ▸ rather fairly, quite a Your work shows quite a wide range of techniques.

- ADJ+n range array, choice, cross-section, diversity, network, range, scope, selection, spectrum, variety The book gives a good idea of the wide scope of philosophical thought in Islam. ◦ Students will study a wide variety of applied problems.
- ▸ responsibility remit, responsibility The group has a wide remit, with members taking an interest in all policy issues.
- ▸ support backing, support The recommendations have won wide support across the sector.

2 general rather than specific

- ADJ+n issue or situation agenda, context, implications, issue, question We wanted to challenge managers to think about the wider agenda within the healthcare system. ◦ The Bill should be seen not in isolation, but in its wider context.
- ▸ opinion perspective, view They could be relied upon to take a wider view of things.
- ▸ discussion debate, discussion There should be a much wider debate on this issue.
- ▸ people audience, community, public, society The indicators will also be of interest to a wider audience. ◦ The college plays a pivotal role in supporting the needs of the wider community.

Usage Wide is usually used in the comparative form in all these ADJ+n combinations.

widen V increase

- adv+V a lot alarmingly, considerably, dramatically, greatly, rapidly, significantly The gap between rich and poor widened dramatically.
- ▸ gradually gradually, progressively, steadily The aim is to gradually widen the appeal of our game.

- V+n difference disparity, divide, division, gap, gulf, inequality, rift This further widens the gap between those on average income and those in poverty.
- ▸ group of people base, circle, net, pool Opening up to additional markets has widened their customer base.
- ▸ possibilities access, appeal, choice, horizons, participation, scope Less advantaged households have been targeted in an effort to widen the scope of the scheme.
- ▸ discussion or description debate, definition It is important that the energy debate is widened.
- ▸ area of work or responsibility agenda, focus, remit The committee has now widened its focus from monitoring costs of public services to improving performance.

- n+V divide, gap, gulf, inequality The bottom two-fifths of humanity share less than 4% of the world's wealth, while the top one-fifth share about 85%. This gulf has actually widened in the last ten years.

wide-ranging ADJ dealing with a large variety of subjects

- V+n discussion or study analysis, consultation, debate, discussion, report, research, review, study, survey There will be wide-ranging consultation with the community.
- ▸ set of subjects or issues agenda, curriculum, issues, programme, subjects, topics He writes on wide-ranging topics, from the Spanish Civil War to English cooking.
- ▸ experience or knowledge experience, expertise, interests, knowledge Having access to lecturers with wide-ranging expertise and experience has been a great bonus.
- ▸ effects consequences, effects, impact, implications This will have wide-ranging implications for the curriculum.
- ▸ changes changes, reform The administration has embarked on a programme of wide-ranging reform.
- ▸ powers policy, powers, remit, responsibilities He had wide-ranging powers bestowed on him by the emperor.

widespread ADJ happening or existing in many places

- adv+ADJ more ever more, increasingly, more, more and more The use of calculators in examinations is becoming an increasingly widespread practice.
- ▸ now already, now, still There is still widespread famine, poverty, disease and suffering.

- ADJ+n belief assumption, belief, consensus, feeling, perception, speculation Our research indicates that this perception is widespread.
- ▸ worry concern, confusion, fear, panic, unease There is widespread unease about this proposal.
- ▸ anger or criticism anger, condemnation, criticism, discontent, dissatisfaction, opposition, protest, resentment, unrest The research programme found evidence of widespread dissatisfaction.
- ▸ lack of trust cynicism, disillusionment, scepticism, suspicion This has produced widespread disillusionment among workers.
- ▸ lack of knowledge ignorance, misconception, misunderstanding There is a widespread misconception that genetics is a difficult subject.

- ▸ support acceptance, acclaim, popularity, praise, recognition, support Several films were produced, to widespread critical acclaim. ◉ There is widespread recognition of the need for accountability.
- ▸ use abuse, adoption, deployment, practice, uptake, usage, use The widespread use of pesticides upsets the natural balance.
- ▸ publicity consultation, coverage, dissemination, distribution, publicity There has been widespread coverage in many national newspapers.
- ▸ damage contamination, damage, destruction, devastation The widespread destruction of woodland has made life harder for many animals.
- ▸ social problems corruption, deprivation, disease, famine, illiteracy, malnutrition, poverty, suffering, unemployment Widespread corruption was brought to light.

wildlife N animals, birds, and plants in natural conditions

- adj+N a lot of abundant, prolific Costa Rica boasts forests, rivers, mountains, volcanoes, and prolific wildlife.
- ▸ various forms of diverse, rich, varied Watch out for the varied wildlife, including deer and herons.
- ▸ local indigenous, local, native Our native wildlife is at risk.
- ▸ rare endangered, exotic, rare, unique The Amazon is home to lush vegetation and exotic wildlife.

- v+N protect wildlife conserve, preserve, protect, safeguard Raising awareness of biodiversity is necessary to conserve wildlife.
- ▸ harm wildlife disturb, endanger, harm, threaten Please respect the peace and quiet and do not disturb the wildlife.
- ▸ watch wildlife observe, see, spot, view, watch The park has many seats where visitors can rest and observe the wildlife.
- ▸ be full of wildlife be home to, be teeming with, support The island is teeming with wildlife.

- N+v abound, flourish, thrive A wide variety of wildlife now flourishes in what was once almost a desert.

- N+n habitat, haven, park, refuge, reserve, sanctuary Call a wildlife sanctuary for advice.

will N determination to do what you want

- adj+N strong indomitable, iron, strong There has been strong political will to involve Barcelona in a series of EU Research projects.
- ▸ shared by many people collective, general, popular The collective will of the people can change things despite the odds stacked against.
- ▸ types of will democratic, political To continue the process of ratification of the Constitution is in direct defiance of the democratic will of the people.

- v+N act according to your will assert, enforce, exercise, exert, impose They are providing revolutionary leadership to the working class, not imposing the will of a small elite on the majority.

If two people are both strongly determined to do what they want, you can say that there is a battle (or clash) of wills.

- ▸ express your will express Did the result of the election truly express the will of the people?
- ▸ obey someone's will obey, submit to It is always a man's duty to obey the will of God.
- ▸ weaken someone's will break, sap, weaken They trap the unsuspecting victim by sapping their will to resist.
- ▸ not have or lose the will to do something lack, lose Drug problems are most serious in communities where people lack the will or resources to manage their addiction.
- ▸ not obey someone's will defy, thwart They were accused of defying the will of the international community.

willing ADJ agreeing to do what someone asks you

- adv+ADJ always, increasingly, only too, perfectly, quite, very Outside school, some of the pupils were often perfectly willing to speak to me.

- v+ADJ appear, be, become, prove, remain, seem, show yourself More and more schools are becoming willing to involve local parents in education and prevention activities. ◉ Consumers have shown themselves willing to spend more than ever before on communications hardware.

If you show willing, your behaviour proves to other people that you are enthusiastic or willing to help: For example, they will often be at work on a Saturday in an attempt to show willing in a new job.

- and/or able, capable, competent, eager, enthusiastic, friendly, helpful, keen, knowledgeable, motivated, ready, supportive This post would best suit someone who is willing and eager to learn new skills. ◉ She enjoys working with enthusiastic and willing children.

willingness N
the fact that a person agrees to do what someone asks

- adj+N real genuine, real The key is genuine willingness to learn more about other people's lives.
- ▸ increasing greater, growing, increasing Landlords are showing an increasing willingness to make lease terms more flexible.
- ▸ seeming to exist apparent Davis has shown no apparent willingness to fight the decision.
- ▸ among people in general general There is a general willingness among staff to support each other.

- v+N show a willingness demonstrate, indicate, show, signal Both sides have indicated a willingness to participate in this process.
- ▸ express a willingness confirm, declare, express, state The union has expressed a willingness to negotiate.

- and/or ability, capacity, desire, enthusiasm, openness The key to the success of this project is your openness and willingness to share information with us.

win V

1 defeat others by being best or finishing first

- adv+V clearly or easily comfortably, convincingly, decisively, easily, outright Sam collected a gold medal for the 4x2 Lap Relay, which the team won convincingly.

You can also say that a person or thing wins hands down: If I had to choose one place I would like to live, Verona wins hands down.

- ▸ by only a small amount just, narrowly He had a much closer semi-final, narrowly winning 15–12.
- ▸ finally at last, eventually, finally, ultimately After four decades in films, he finally won an Oscar for best supporting actor in The Untouchables.
- ▸ almost almost, nearly I almost won a medal, coming in 4th.
- ▸ when it is right that someone wins deservedly Wills deservedly won the race.

2 succeed in getting something by work or ability

- V+n praise or approval acclaim, accolade, approval, honour, plaudits, praise, recognition Peter Sellers went on to win world-wide acclaim with a succession of famous movie roles.
- ▸ support backing, support She won massive public support for her case.

win N

an instance of winning, especially in sports

- adj+N easy or clear big, comfortable, convincing, decisive, easy, emphatic, impressive, outright, resounding The year started for the first team with a convincing win over rivals St. Anne's.
- ▸ almost not won hard-fought, narrow Spurs held on for a narrow win.
- ▸ one after the other back-to-back, consecutive, straight, successive The Berlin side's rough start to the season looks to be over, following three straight wins in the UEFA Cup.
- v+N achieve a win claim, earn, gain, grab, notch up, record, register, score, seal, secure And it was a relief for the home side when Beevers sealed the win with the goal of the game.
- ▸ only just achieve a win clinch, scrape, snatch, sneak Cardiff came from a goal behind to snatch a 3–2 win over Rhyl.
- ▸ deserve a win deserve Bristol can argue they did just enough to deserve the win.
- ▸ celebrate a win celebrate How did you celebrate your first win?

wind N

the natural movement of air

- adj+N blowing hard blustery, brisk, fierce, gusty, high, howling, strong, swirling Sunday brought gusty winds, which caused one or two problems for some of the flyers.
- ▸ cold biting, bitter, chilly, cold, icy Biting winds blew through her long, dark brown hair.
- ▸ not blowing hard light Light winds are coming from the east.
- ▸ direction easterly, northerly, southerly, westerly It was the worst possible start to the day, with very strong northerly winds.
- ▸ that blows most frequently prevailing If you cycle the traditional route of east to west, then you will be cycling against the prevailing wind.
- N+v make a noise howl, moan, roar, sigh, whistle A bitter wind whistled through the bare branches of the trees in the park.
- ▸ blow or blow hard blow, pick up, rage, rush, sweep Outside, a bitingly cold wind was blowing.
- ▸ keep hitting something batter sth, buffet sth, rattle sth, whip sth The wind buffeted the car mercilessly as we drove round to the north shore of the Firth.
- ▸ become less strong die down, drop, ease However, by five o'clock the wind was easing and we set off.

windy ADJ

with a lot of wind

- adv+ADJ very extremely, increasingly, particularly, really INFORMAL, so, very It was extremely windy in the square.
- ▸ rather or slightly a bit INFORMAL, fairly, a little, pretty INFORMAL, quite, rather, slightly The afternoon was fairly windy and cool.
- and/or with rain damp, rainy, showery, wet An angry sky threatens to make the experience a wet and windy one.
- ▸ with clouds cloudy, dull, miserable, overcast It remained heavily overcast and very windy.
- ▸ cold chilly, cool The weather is windy and cool and she pulls her small wool coat more tightly around her.

wing N

the part of a bird, insect etc that makes it fly

- v+N move wings up and down beat, flap, flutter The little bird gave a startled squawk and flapped its wings at him.
- ▸ spread wings out open, spread, stretch, unfurl The crane momentarily unfurled its wings.
- ▸ no longer spread wings out fold Gannets plummet out of the sky, folding their wings just before their beaks break the surface of the sea.

winner N

someone who wins a race, competition, or prize

- adj+N winning easily clear, comfortable, convincing, outright, runaway The legendary Ethiopian was the runaway winner in 28 mins and 12 seconds.
- ▸ winning finally eventual, ultimate She was beaten by the eventual winner of the gold medal.
- ▸ deserving to win deserving, worthy We have been impressed by the high quality of the entries and congratulate the worthy winners.
- ▸ likely to win likely, potential United began to look the more likely winners.
- ▸ with someone else joint He was a joint winner of the 1996 Nobel prize for Chemistry.
- ▸ considered as a whole overall Choosing the overall winner was a difficult task for the judging panel.

win over PHR VB

persuade someone to agree or be friendly

- V+n audience, critics, crowd, fans, majority, public, voters His barnstorming campaign performances have won over new voters.

winter N
the cold season after autumn and before spring

- adj+N cold and unpleasant bad, bitter, bleak, chilly, cold, cool, dark, hard, harsh, severe It was a most severe winter in England that year.
- ▸ less cold than people expect mild, warm This semi-evergreen plant will come through a mild winter without too much trouble.
- ▸ with/without a lot of rain dry, wet It was one of the wettest winters on record.
- ▸ long long After a long, cold winter, we can start looking forward to some warmer weather at last.
- ▸ time early, last, late, next They flower in late winter to early spring.

- N+n weather conditions rainfall, snow, storm, sun, sunshine, weather The plants looked tattered after winter storms.
- ▸ time months, period, season Low light levels can be a hazard during the winter months.

wipe out PHR VB destroy sth or kill sb

- V+adv completely completely, totally The indigenous population was completely wiped out by the rapid spread of new diseases.
- ▸ almost all but, almost, nearly, virtually The population of the village was all but wiped out by plague in 1645.

Usage Wipe out is usually passive in these combinations.

wisdom N knowledge and good judgment

- adj+N traditional ancient, folk, timeless, traditional This is timeless wisdom, and will hold up long after the trendy methodologies have gone out of fashion.
- ▸ generally accepted accepted, conventional, perceived, prevailing, received His views on public space have now become part of accepted wisdom.
- ▸ collected over time or from many people accumulated, collective This book is a compendium of accumulated wisdom.
- ▸ types of wisdom practical, spiritual, worldly The book examines Ninja spiritual wisdom.

- v+N say or write wise things dispense, impart, share The roving rock pundit has been dispensing wisdom to world potentates for years.

People often use the word wisdom to suggest that someone's words or actions are not sensible at all: Hordes of moaning maniacs were keen to impart their wisdom on how the Net should be run.

- ▸ doubt the wisdom of something challenge, doubt, question Local people doubted the wisdom of having a weapons museum in a church.
- ▸ have or get wisdom acquire, gain, have, possess Stories are an excellent way of helping children acquire wisdom.

- n+of+N wise words gem, nugget, pearl, piece, words Mr Brownlow has a pearl of wisdom which he brings out at critical moments.
- ▸ person, book etc font, fount, fountain, repository, source They need to shed the old image of the teacher being the fount of wisdom and replace it with the teacher as facilitator.

wise ADJ sensible in the current situation

- ADJ+n advice advice, counsel, words His long experience and knowledge have been particularly helpful, and we thank him for giving us the benefit of his wise counsel.
- ▸ action or decision choice, decision, move, precaution As any financial advisor will tell you, investing in a fast depreciating asset is not a wise move.

- v+ADJ be or seem wise be, look, prove, seem, sound If you're not sure, it seems wisest not to eat it.
- ▸ think something is wise consider sth, think sth It might be considered wiser to stick to a smaller project.

wish V want something to happen

- adv+V very much desperately, earnestly, fervently, genuinely, heartily, really INFORMAL, sincerely I wished fervently that he might not discover my hiding-place.
- ▸ only just, merely, only, simply I only wish I had attended this course sooner.

wish N
the feeling of wanting to do or have something

- adj+N which someone feels strongly ardent, cherished, dear, earnest, fervent, genuine, heartfelt, sincere, strong It is my sincere wish that as many members as possible take part in the discussion.
- ▸ which someone states clearly express, expressed, stated It was at the express wish of Mr. Kirby that the band did not play at the funeral.
- ▸ before someone dies dying, final, last His dying wish was to be taken to his native land to be buried.

- v+N do or give what someone wants accommodate, carry out, fulfil, grant, gratify, honour, meet, obey, respect, satisfy Thank you for being so flexible in accommodating our wishes.
- ▸ tell people what you want confirm, declare, express, indicate, make known, state Several major companies have expressed their wish to participate in the programme. ◆ It is also a good idea to make your wishes known to relatives or friends.
- ▸ ignore someone's wishes disregard, frustrate, go against, ignore, override Should the law disregard people's wishes about how they want to die?

Usage Wish is often plural in these combinations: By having such inadequate regulation, the government is ignoring the wishes of the public.

- ▸ be or show someone's wish reflect, represent It is important to update your will every few years so that it still reflects your wishes.

wit N
1 the use of words in a clever, funny way

- adj+N slightly unkind acerbic, barbed, biting, caustic, ironic, mordant, sarcastic, sardonic, satirical Wilder's caustic wit was famous, but he wasn't above bullying.

▸ showing a quick mind incisive, quick, razor-sharp, ready, sharp, sparkling John Fortune's razor-sharp wit will expertly draw out the absurdity of what was a terribly serious situation.
▸ funny but without smiles or laughter deadpan, dry, laconic, sly, wry When he takes to the microphone, he entertains the audience with his dry wit.

• and/or charm, humour, intelligence, wisdom She was known for her intelligence and wit.

2 the ability to think quickly and make sensible decisions [always plural]

• v+N collect, gather, recover, use I was shocked, but before I could gather my wits he had fled the house.

To keep (or have) your wits about you is to be ready to think and act quickly: Fishing from a boat is not as hard as it seems, as long as you keep your wits about you. You can also use wits in expressions about being frightened: This movie will scare the wits out of you. If you are competing against someone, you can say that you pit your wits against them: The game that lets you pit your wits against football lovers from all around the world.

withdraw V
stop providing or offering something

• adv+V completely altogether, completely The danger was that the unions could withdraw their support altogether.
▸ immediately abruptly, hastily, immediately, instantly, promptly, quickly, suddenly, swiftly This was the last straw for the commissioner, who immediately withdrew funding.

• V+n permission approval, consent, permission Patients have the right to withdraw consent for use of their images at any time.
▸ help or money funding, subsidy, support They became unconvinced that the venture would work and withdrew their support.
▸ offer or invitation invitation, offer We will withdraw the offer of a place if we find that you have given fraudulent or misleading information.

withdrawal N
the decision to stop providing or offering something

• adj+N quick abrupt, immediate, rapid, sudden Training has continued despite a sudden withdrawal of funding.
▸ complete complete, total The statement was tantamount to a complete withdrawal of backing, financial and moral.

• N+of approval, consent, funding, service, subsidy, support, treatment You are, of course, aware that the withdrawal of your support would have a serious effect on the club?

withhold V deliberately not give something to someone

• adv+V unfairly unreasonably, wrongly We agree that the consent will not be withheld unreasonably.
▸ deliberately deliberately, knowingly When people knowingly withhold this information, they are being cruel.

• V+n permission or approval approval, blessing, consent, permission The National Committee reserves the right to withhold approval of events.
▸ money or support aid, deposit, money, payment, rent, support Larger companies may withhold payment for many months.
▸ information address, information, name You are able to withhold all personal information that is not required to complete your order transaction.
▸ medical treatment treatment Decisions to withdraw or withhold treatment should not be taken with the sole intention of causing death.

withstand V
be strong enough not to be harmed or damaged

• V+n an attack, or something that seems like an attack assault, attack, barrage, blow, onslaught, shock, siege Harlech Castle withstood a Welsh attack at the very end of the 13th century.
▸ a physical force blast, cold, drought, earthquake, extremes, forces, frost, heat, pressure, storm, stress, temperature, wear, wind The plant thrives in sun or partial shade and withstands frost and wind damage.

witness N
someone who sees a crime or other event, or tells a court about it

• adj+N who can be trusted credible, independent, reliable, truthful He was a straightforward, consistent and reliable witness.
▸ who cannot be trusted unreliable The evidence was shaky, the witnesses unreliable, and both men had strong alibis.
▸ important chief, key, principal, star, vital The investigation was hampered because a key witness had gone missing.
▸ with expert knowledge expert An expert witness might be brought in by the defence.

• n+N defence, prosecution She was called as a prosecution witness.

• N+n account, evidence, statement, testimony The case relied entirely on witness testimony.

witness V
see a crime or other event happen

• adv+V actually, firsthand, personally Several of the firefighters witnessed firsthand the carnage of this brutal attack.

witty ADJ clever and funny

• adv+ADJ in a way that people admire brilliantly, deliciously, delightfully, sharply, wonderfully Wilde's deliciously witty satire lays bare the moral contradictions of Victorian society.
▸ very extremely, incredibly, very This is a light read, but highly entertaining and extremely witty.

• ADJ+n comment aside, comment, observation, one-liner, quip, remark, retort, saying Tony prefers to take a back seat, interjecting witty one-liners now and again just to prove he's still listening.

- ▶ conversation banter, dialogue, repartee The movie sparkles with witty banter and delightful comedic situations.
- ▶ piece of writing lyrics, script The characters were well thought out and the script is witty and sharp.
- • and/or charming, clever, entertaining, funny, intelligent, sharp, wise It is a song with witty and clever lyrics and, once it arrives, a great chorus.

wonder N surprise, admiration, or pleasure
- • v+in+N be lost, gasp, gaze, stand, stare, watch Go whale watching and gaze in wonder at these fabulously impressive creatures.

word N a remark
- • N+of advice, caution, comfort, congratulations, consolation, encouragement, explanation, praise, thanks, warning, welcome, wisdom He is always ready with a word of advice and some emotional support.

Usage Word is often plural in these combinations: There were no words of comfort I could offer her.

word V use words to express something in particular way [usually passive]
- • adv+V in a way that is not clear ambiguously, badly, poorly, vaguely Vaguely worded questions encourage vaguely worded answers.
- ▶ in a clear or skilful way carefully, clearly, cleverly, well These documents have been carefully worded to ensure that they comply with current legislation.
- ▶ in a suitable way appropriately, properly, suitably If questions aren't worded properly, the debate will lack validity.
- ▶ showing strong feelings strongly I have written them a rather strongly worded letter demanding an explanation.

wording N
the words used in a particular piece of writing
- • adj+N exact actual, exact, precise, specific The publishers had to agree the precise wording for the questionnaires.
- ▶ original original The original wording has been simplified in places.
- ▶ not clear ambiguous, imprecise, loose, unclear, vague Some companies are exploiting loose wording in the agreements.
- ▶ clear or careful careful, clear Careful wording of terms and conditions is essential.
- • v+N change wording alter, amend, change, revise The publishers also reserve the right to amend the wording of an advertisement when considered necessary.
- ▶ write or suggest wording draft, finalize, propose, suggest The following wording is suggested for Reg. 16 (3).
- ▶ give permission for wording agree, approve The USA had refused to agree the wording in the preparatory meetings.
- ▶ use wording use Is that wording used anywhere in other legislation?

work V
1 use effort to achieve something
- • adv+V with a lot of effort hard, tirelessly She worked tirelessly in charity and social work.
- ▶ effectively effectively, well During this period, he worked effectively with other churches.
- ▶ with other people closely, collaboratively, together Senior managers work closely with members of the Cabinet.

2 operate well
- • adv+V correctly, effectively, efficiently, normally, perfectly, properly, smoothly, well The house is warm now that the radiator thermostats are working properly.

work N activity that involves physical or mental effort
- • adj+N involving a lot of effort extensive, hard All that hard work was worth it.
- ▶ done at the beginning initial, preliminary, preparatory The next stage in the preparatory work involved searching for primary sources on the Internet.
- ▶ more additional, extra, further We have no objection to such a plan, but we feel it needs further work.
- ▶ good excellent, good, great, nice INFORMAL Richard Brown has done some excellent work with the website.

worker N someone who has a job
- • adj+N doing practical work blue-collar, manual, unskilled The scheme is designed for unskilled and other manual workers.
- ▶ having a particular working arrangement casual, full-time, part-time, temporary The company has agreed limits on the use of agency and casual workers.
- ▶ having skills or experience experienced, professional, qualified, skilled, trained, white-collar The machine needed a skilled worker to operate it.

workforce N
the people who work somewhere
- • adj+N with good skills and qualifications competent, educated, highly-skilled, multi-skilled, qualified, skilled, trained, well-educated, well-trained, world-class Running a boatyard that takes on a wide range of work requires a skilled workforce.
- ▶ willing to work hard committed, dedicated, loyal, motivated, productive, well-motivated A well-trained and motivated local workforce is crucial.
- ▶ able to change jobs easily flexible, mobile Our economic future depends on a highly skilled and flexible workforce.
- ▶ all the workforce entire, total, whole Our only stipulation is that it really must be shares for all, offered across the company's entire workforce.

- v+N employ a workforce employ There is a clear business case for recruiters employing a more diverse workforce in terms of age.
- ▸ enter/leave the workforce enter, leave This is a time of year when many young people are entering the workforce.
- ▸ increase/reduce a workforce cut, expand, increase, reduce This section outlines the strategies the NHS is using to expand its workforce.

workload N

the amount of work to be done

- adj+N large amount busy, challenging, demanding, enormous, excessive, heavy, huge, increasing Nurses have to fight for their wages and always face heavy workloads.
- ▸ extra additional, extra, increased Some 7,000 staff from other parts of the Department have been drafted in to cope with the extra workloads.

- v+N deal with the workload balance, cope with, deal with, handle, juggle, manage, tackle How will I be able to cope with the workload?
- ▸ reduce the workload ease, lessen, lighten, minimize, reduce A number of sub-committees help to lighten the workload for the board.
- ▸ increase the workload increase The implementation of compulsory cost-benefit analyses of experiments would increase the workload of many researchers.
- ▸ share the workload among people share, spread A larger team helps to spread the workload and new faces will help to develop fresh ideas.

workout N

an occasion when you do physical exercise

- adj+N requiring a lot of effort athletic, energetic, good, gruelling, hard, intense, strenuous, thorough, tough, vigorous If you would prefer to have a more intense workout, why not have a go in the fitness suite?
- ▸ affecting a particular part of your body abdominal, aerobic, cardiovascular, full-body, upper-body If you often find yourself breathless, a cardiovascular workout would be beneficial to your heart and lungs.

- v+N complete, do, get, have, perform The dog can really get a workout in a relatively small space.

workshop N

a meeting where people learn about a particular subject

- adj+N involving practical experience hands-on, interactive, practical Guest educators teach modules which include theory work and hands-on workshops.
- ▸ involving a lot of work intensive The festival programme was made up of two days of intensive workshops, followed by three days of public performances.
- ▸ how long it lasts two-day, half-day, weekend etc The one-day workshop will enable participants to meet colleagues and provide an opportunity for professional development.

- v+N organize a workshop arrange, hold, host, organize, run He is an international best-selling author who hosts writing workshops in his New York loft.
- ▸ teach a workshop conduct, deliver, do, lead, present, teach The project directors will lead workshops based on themes arising from their projects.
- ▸ design a workshop design, plan, tailor She tailors inclusive dance workshops for groups of children and adults.
- ▸ go to a workshop attend, go to, participate in, take part in More than 60 participants from EU countries attended this workshop.

- N+n what is done during a workshop discussion, presentation, session These notes are based on a workshop session on budgeting and project management.
- ▸ person attendee, delegate, facilitator, leader, participant, presenter A proposal to initiate the formation of a national research institute received strong support from the workshop participants.

worried ADJ

anxious about bad things that could happen

- adv+ADJ very deeply, extremely, increasingly, particularly, really, seriously, very Her teachers became extremely worried about her.
- ▸ slightly a bit, a little, slightly I was a little worried about it being sent in the mail, but it was fine.
- ▸ rather quite, rather I was quite worried about getting everything right.
- ▸ clearly clearly By Sunday evening, he was clearly worried.

- ADJ+n expression, glance, look, tone She had a worried look on her face.

- v+ADJ be worried be, feel, look, seem I'm not asking for money, don't look so worried.
- ▸ become worried become, get I began to get very worried.

worry V feel anxious about something, or make someone feel anxious

- adv+V very much particularly, really What really worries people is violent crime.
- ▸ slightly a little, slightly I had no new ideas, which slightly worried me.
- ▸ more than is necessary excessively, needlessly, too much, unduly, unnecessarily Assume you will accumulate some debt over your period of study, but don't worry unduly about it.
- ▸ all the time always, constantly, continually She worries constantly about her health.

worry N

a problem or possibility that makes you worried

- adj+N serious big, great, main, major, real, serious Credit card security is a major worry for Internet shoppers.
- ▸ continuous constant They live with the constant worry that comes from having a sick child.
- ▸ unpleasant and difficult to get rid of nagging, niggling This gave him confidence about his speed, but a nagging worry remained over his stamina.
- ▸ not necessary needless, unfounded, unnecessary Telling them would only cause unnecessary worry.
- ▸ financial financial, money She found a job, and some of the financial worries were lifted.

- v+N have a worry have I'm a bit too old to have any worries about what people think of me.
- ▸ express or talk about a worry discuss, express, share, talk about Industry professionals have also expressed their worries. ◦ Women are more likely to share their worries with someone else than men.
- ▸ cause a worry cause, lead to It would only cause unnecessary worry.
- ▸ remove a worry or make it less serious alleviate, ease, relieve, remove, take away You have eased my worries slightly.
- ▸ forget a worry forget This is a chance to relax, unwind, and forget your worries for a while.

Usage Worry is often plural in all of the v+N combinations shown above.

worrying ADJ making you feel worried

- adv+ADJ very deeply, extremely, particularly, very It is a deeply worrying situation.
- ▸ rather quite, rather In 2005, she faced a rather worrying time when her son Thomas became ill.
- ▸ slightly a bit, a little, slightly It was getting a little worrying.

- ADJ+n change or development decline, development, increase, rise, tendency, trend The latest figures show a worrying rise in reported cases of the life-threatening MRSA bug. ◦ The number of deaths of motorcyclists in our region has increased for the last three years, a worrying trend.
- ▸ sign of something sign, symptom Children involved in domestic accidents or who show worrying symptoms of illness are very often taken by parents to their local hospital.
- ▸ fact aspect, fact, figures, findings, statistic The survey revealed the worrying statistic that 47 per cent of respondents had made no provision at all for their retirement.

worse ADJ more unpleasant or bad than something else or than before

- adv+ADJ even even, still There is a danger that the planned job cuts will make the situation even worse.
- ▸ much considerably, far, a lot, much, significantly It became apparent that the situation is far worse than we realized.
- ▸ slightly or rather a bit, a little, rather, slightly Their finances are in a rather worse state this year.
- ▸ steadily progressively, steadily The weather looked as though it would get steadily worse.

- v+ADJ be worse be, feel, look If you start to feel worse, call the doctor.
- ▸ become worse become, get, grow The problem appears to be getting worse.
- ▸ make something worse make sth Matters had been made worse by the poor weather.

worsen V become worse

- adv+V a lot considerably, dramatically, markedly, significantly The problem of homelessness has worsened considerably.
- ▸ steadily gradually, progressively, steadily The unemployment figures have worsened steadily since the party came to power.
- ▸ quickly rapidly Weather conditions rapidly worsened.

- n+V conditions, crisis, position, problem, situation, symptoms, weather If the situation worsens, the matter will be considered further.

worst N
something or someone worse than all others

- v+N expect or fear the worst assume, expect, fear When we found her gone, we did a frantic search, fearing the worst.
- ▸ think the worst believe, think I always imagine that people think the worst of me.
- ▸ be prepared for the worst be prepared for, prepare for When he turned to me to tell me the result, I was prepared for the worst.
- ▸ avoid the worst avoid, escape We managed to avoid the worst of the weather.

worth N
how good, useful, or important someone or something is

- adj+N in itself inherent, intrinsic She has a belief in the intrinsic worth of education.
- ▸ real real, true We never had a chance to show our true worth.
- ▸ relating to a person's qualities human, own, personal, self A job title and salary are not the sole measure of human worth.
- ▸ equal equal All the children are of equal worth and ought to be treated as such.
- ▸ of a particular type artistic, commercial, cultural, historical, intellectual, moral, social How can we assess the moral worth of a course of action? ◦ Bankers were criticized for making vast amounts of money from transactions which were of little social worth.

- v+N show worth demonstrate, prove, show He lacks experience but he has to be given his chance to prove his worth.
- ▸ have worth have Most of us are brought up to believe that all human beings have equal worth.
- ▸ realize or know worth appreciate, know, realize, recognize He is a man who knows his true worth.
- ▸ make a judgement about worth assess, evaluate, measure Students are invited to assess the worth of their own work according to specified criteria.

worthless ADJ not having any value, or not useful

- adv+ADJ completely absolutely, completely, totally, utterly Some sections of this book are quite interesting while others are utterly worthless.
- ▸ almost almost, effectively, practically, virtually In court he sounded convincing, but his evidence was virtually worthless.

- v+ADJ be worthless be, become, feel, prove His promises proved worthless.
- ▸ make something worthless make sth, render sth Just because it is a very right-wing book doesn't make it worthless.

worthwhile ADJ worth spending time, money, or effort on

- adv+ADJ very extremely, really, truly, very, well It was a long journey but it was well worthwhile.
  - ▸ definitely certainly, definitely The wait was definitely worthwhile, though.
- ADJ+n activity, addition, cause, charity, contribution, effort, event, exercise, experience, investment, job, project, trip, visit The concert will raise money for some very worthwhile causes.
- v+ADJ be worthwhile be, prove, seem A few minutes spent on the website could prove worthwhile.
  - ▸ think something is worthwhile consider sth, find sth, think sth Students, parents, and teachers all found the session worthwhile.
  - ▸ make something worthwhile make sth The benefits for both employers and staff make the effort worthwhile.

worthy ADJ
1 deserving something

- v+ADJ think that something is worthy consider sth, deem sth, think sth These popular customs were so commonplace that they were rarely considered worthy of mention.
  - ▸ be worthy be, prove, seem These results proved worthy of further investigation.
- ADJ+of being mentioned or discussed attention, discussion, mention, note, notice, remark Two minor incidents in 2007 are the only other safety problems worthy of mention.
  - ▸ being considered or examined consideration, examination, exploration, inclusion, investigation, research There are also practical issues here which are worthy of consideration.
  - ▸ being admired admiration, praise, respect The whole production is worthy of the highest praise.
  - ▸ being protected conservation, preservation, protection Only documents which are judged to be of historical value and worthy of preservation will be retained.

2 with qualities that make people respect them

- adv+ADJ very certainly, particularly, truly, very, well She is a truly worthy champion.
  - ▸ equally equally The reader will almost certainly think of others – equally worthy – that I have not had the space to mention.
- ADJ+n someone who wins or takes part in a competition adversary, candidate, champion, opponent, recipient, winner We congratulate the worthy winners.
  - ▸ attempt to do or achieve something attempt, effort, initiative, project The building has its share of flaws but, but it is a very worthy effort and the good points far outweigh the bad.
  - ▸ aim aim, goal We need to ensure that the worthy aims of the bill are achieved.
  - ▸ charity cause, charity This annual event helps support many local worthy causes.
  - ▸ addition addition This is still a very worthy addition to your DVD collection.

wound N
1 an injury when your skin or flesh is damaged

- adj+N very bad deep, serious, severe The victim sustained serious head wounds.
  - ▸ resulting in death fatal, mortal He continued to fire at the retreating enemy until he received a fatal wound in the head.
  - ▸ not serious minor, superficial We were taught how to treat minor wounds such as burns and cuts.
  - ▸ open gaping, open Blood was pouring out of a gaping wound.
  - ▸ infected infected Infected wounds had caused many deaths in previous wars.
- n+N cause of a wound bite, bullet, gunshot, shrapnel, stab He was found dead from gunshot wounds at his home.
  - ▸ part of the body chest, head, leg, neck, stomach One diver required five stitches to a head wound.
  - ▸ received in a war war He died of war wounds in October 1918.
- v+N cause a wound cause, inflict Police do not know who inflicted the fatal wound.
  - ▸ treat or cover a wound bandage, clean, cleanse, cover, dress, treat I was seen relatively quickly and the wound was dressed.
  - ▸ receive a wound receive, suffer, sustain She had suffered multiple stab wounds.
  - ▸ die from a wound die from, die of He died of wounds received in battle.

2 emotional damage caused by something bad

- adj+N deep, emotional, festering, old, open, self-inflicted For many people, those events of ten years ago are still an open wound.
- v+N when people feel happier heal Time heals all wounds.
  - ▸ cause a wound cause, inflict The break-up of a home always inflicts a lasting wound on the personalities of all involved in it.
  - ▸ when people are made to think again about a bad experience open, reopen It's been very distressing to open these wounds, even though it's been two years since it happened.

wound V
injure someone, damaging their skin or flesh [usually passive]

- adv+V so badly that someone dies fatally, mortally Nelson was fatally wounded during the battle.
  - ▸ badly badly, critically, seriously, severely Eight were killed and 13 were badly wounded.
  - ▸ slightly lightly, slightly He was slightly wounded in the leg by a splinter.

wrath N
very great anger

- v+N cause wrath arouse, bring, incur, kindle, provoke Last-minute requests to meet imminent deadlines risk incurring my wrath.
  - ▸ experience wrath endure, experience, face, feel, suffer At the next home game, the manager faced the wrath of the supporters.
  - ▸ not experience wrath avoid, escape Somehow, the movie escaped the wrath of the censors.

▸ when someone might experience wrath fear, risk They feared the wrath of their gods.

wreck V

severely damage or destroy a vehicle or building

- adv+V completely completely, totally Vandals had totally wrecked the interior of the building.

▸ almost almost, nearly People started fighting and almost wrecked the place.

wreckage N

parts remaining after something has been damaged

- adj+N twisted mangled, twisted Firefighters cut free people trapped in the mangled wreckage of their cars.

▸ on fire burning At least 10 bodies lay strewn around the burning wreckage.

▸ spread over a large area scattered Divers have found the scattered wreckage of an aircraft that went missing in the Indian Ocean.

- v+N be trapped in, clear, cling to, cut sb from, pull sb from One of the passengers had to be cut from the wreckage.
- N+v be scattered, be spread, be strewn Wreckage was strewn over a wide area.

write V

create a story, letter, article etc

- adv+V very well beautifully, brilliantly, elegantly, eloquently, superbly, well The play is witty, well-constructed, and elegantly written. • She writes well, but somehow her characters don't seem very sympathetic.

▸ not well badly, poorly Badly written letters could be costing firms millions in lost customers.

▸ in a clear way clearly, lucidly, simply There are many clearly written books dealing with this subject.

▸ a lot extensively, prolifically She has written extensively on China and its global relationships.

▸ replying to someone back Please write back to me when you can.

writer N

someone who writes books, stories, or articles

- adj+N good accomplished, brilliant, fine, gifted, good, talented Joolz is a very talented writer and performer.

▸ famous or admired acclaimed, award-winning, distinguished, famous, great, leading, respected, well-known Conrad has been called one of the greatest writers of the English novel.

▸ popular or successful bestselling, favourite, popular, successful Nigella Lawson is one of the UK's most popular food writers.

▸ modern contemporary, modern This course looks at the work of three major contemporary writers.

▸ writing many books prolific He was a prolific writer on military affairs.

▸ wanting to be a writer aspiring, budding, would-be What advice would you give to aspiring writers?

writing N

books, poems, newspaper articles etc

- adj+N involving imagination creative, descriptive, experimental, imaginative, original We offer workshops on storytelling and creative writing.

▸ of the present time contemporary, current, modern The feelings of the characters are portrayed with an intelligence and sensitivity that is rarely seen in contemporary writing.

▸ relating to education or study academic, critical, historical, scientific, technical There are a number of referencing systems used in academic writing.

▸ long extended Students were asked to do a piece of extended writing, such as writing a letter home or a diary entry.

wrong ADJ

incorrect, unacceptable, or causing problems

- adv+ADJ completely absolutely, all, completely, entirely, fundamentally, plain, quite, totally, utterly I believe that analysis is completely wrong.

▸ extremely badly, disastrously, horribly, seriously, spectacularly, terribly This is where things started to go horribly wrong.

▸ when it is obvious clearly, obviously, plainly The overturned decision was clearly wrong in the light of the evidence available at the time it was made.

▸ when there is no doubt just, simply But this contention is simply wrong.

- v+ADJ be or seem wrong be, feel, look, seem, sound That seems wrong to me.

▸ go wrong go We cannot afford for anything to go wrong.

▸ be wrong about something get sth, guess Make a note of the answers that you got wrong.

▸ show that someone is wrong prove sb I hope I'm proved wrong, but I don't think I will be.

▸ think something is wrong consider sth, find sth, think sth This a kind of behaviour which many Christians would consider wrong.

- V+infinitive argue, assume, claim, conclude, say, suggest, think It would be wrong to assume, however, that this hostility was shared by everyone.

wrong N immoral behaviour

- adj+N serious great, grievous, serious, terrible A great wrong has been done here.

▸ in the past ancient, historic, past We demand that past wrongs are put right.

- v+N correct a wrong address, put right, redress, right We all want to see justice done and wrongs righted.

▸ commit a wrong commit, do (sb), inflict, perpetrate They sought vengeance for wrongs done to them years ago.

▸ punish someone for a wrong avenge She was determined to avenge wrongs inflicted on her family.

Yy

yawning ADJ
very wide

- ADJ+n chasm, gap, gulf There is a yawning gap between what the Government says in public and its actions.

yearn V want something a lot

- adv+V always, deeply, desperately, secretly, still She had always yearned to live in Australia.
- V+for freedom, justice, love, peace, return It is clear that the overwhelming majority of the population yearns for peace.

yearning N a feeling of wanting something very much

- adj+N strong deep, intense There is a deep yearning in the region for change.
- ▸ types of yearning nostalgic, romantic, spiritual Her dancing captured the romantic yearning of the music.
- v+N express, feel, have, satisfy These Gothic-style castle ruins seem to satisfy a nostalgic yearning for the romance and chivalry of the past.

yellow ADJ
the colour of the middle of an egg

- adj+ADJ bright bright, brilliant, flourescent, vibrant, vivid The mustard is produced from seed grown in brilliant yellow fields surrounding the region's capital.
- ▸ light light, pale The walls are pale yellow.
- ▸ dark dark, deep, dull, rich When you enter the secure area of the site, the background of the address bar will turn dark yellow.
- ▸ types of yellow creamy, golden, lemon, mustard, straw The leaves become golden yellow in the fall.
- v+ADJ become, flash, glow, go, turn As evening fell, small fishing boats chugged softly into the harbour, their cabin windows glowing yellow in the fragile light.

yield V
1 produce something useful

- V+n result or benefit benefit, conclusion, dividends, improvement, insight, result, rewards This research is already yielding good results.
- ▸ profit or money gain, income, profit, return, revenue, saving Investment is concentrated in those areas which will yield a quick profit.
- ▸ useful information answer, clue, data, evidence, information Since then, excavations of the site have yielded important new evidence of human occupation.

2 finally do what someone wants or what you were trying not to do

- adv+V easily, eventually, finally, readily Reg finally yielded to their demands.
- V+to demand, impulse, pressure, request, temptation, wish Try not to yield to the temptation to skip parts of this long book.

yield N an amount of something that is produced

- adj+N high excellent, good, high, large The breeding programme is designed to produce dairy cows with high milk yields.
- ▸ low low, poor Poor yields from harvests have led to widespread food shortages in these areas.
- ▸ particular amount average, gross, maximum, net, total The average yield was 470 kilos of cotton per hectare.
- n+N in farming cereal, crop, grain, maize, milk, rice, wheat Changes in agricultural practices were introduced to increase crop yields.
- ▸ in business bond, dividend, income, investment Does a high dividend yield indicate a strong company?
- v+N produce a yield achieve, deliver, generate, give, produce Organic food is more expensive because it produces smaller yields and is more labour intensive.
- ▸ increase a yield boost, improve, increase, maximize New irrigation projects are set to boost yields.
- ▸ reduce a yield compromise, depress, reduce A drought a year earlier had reduced Europe's potato yields significantly.

young ADJ
having lived for only a short time

- v+ADJ be or look young be, feel, look, seem, sound Her gravelly voice is a surprising sound for one who looks so young. ◦ She sounded very young on the phone, but she turned out to be about 45.
- ▸ seem to remain young keep (sb), remain, stay My grandchildren keep me young.
- ▸ seem to become younger get Our students seem to be getting younger every year.
- ▸ die at a young age die Three of her children died young.

youth N
the time when someone is young

- adj+N no longer existing lost As he turns 40, he laments his lost youth and searches for meaning in his life.
- ▸ in which time and opportunites were wasted misspent In my misspent youth, I went to greyhound tracks.
- v+N spend your youth spend He spent his youth working on a farm.
- ▸ feel you are in your youth again recapture, relive The 1970s disco night was a chance for some to relive their youth.
- ▸ not make good use of your youth waste They said he was wasting his youth playing computer games.

Zz

zeal N

great energy, effort, and enthusiasm

- adj+N great or too much excessive, fanatical, great, tremendous He embarked upon this project with great zeal.
- ▸ types of zeal, especially for changing things crusading, evangelical, evangelistic, missionary, reforming, religious, revolutionary She had a crusading zeal.

MACMILLAN Collocations DICTIONARY

FOR LEARNERS OF ENGLISH

NEW

Specially created to help upper intermediate to advanced students write more natural and accurate English.

This two-colour dictionary of common word combinations has been compiled using leading-edge collocation-finding software and a 2-billion word corpus of modern English.

- Focus on students' productive needs, with collocations for over 4,500 carefully-selected key words
- Simple, informative structure: collocations are grouped in semantic sets within each entry
- Examples from authentic English show how collocations are used in context
- Easy-to-use layout with all headwords printed in red
- Usage boxes with grammatical notes, synonyms, and alternative expressions
- Ideal for IELTS, with special focus on academic, professional and creative writing, with information on register provided where appropriate

To find out more about the range of Macmillan Dictionaries, visit www.macmillandictionaries.com

To access Macmillan Dictionary Online, visit www.macmillandictionary.com

World English Corpus

9 780230 413511